. A coll abbr. of ipecacuanha: late C.18–20: S.E. until ca 1890, then coll.

ipsal dixal

. An unsupported statement: Cockney (–1860); ob. by 1895, †by 1910. Ex ipse dixit.

Irish

, n. Irish whiskey: from ca 1650; ob.: coll verging on S.E. Crackanthorpe. 2. Anger: orig. dial. >, ca 1870, s. See also IRISH UP and cf. PADDY, a synonym. Presumably ex Irish impetuosity.

Irish

, adj. A derogative: from ca 1690. In addition to the ensuing phrase, there are many in dial. (see esp. Grose, P.). Probably ex Irish uncouthness and lack of general education before C.19.

Irish, weep

. To shed insincere tears: C.19–20. Coll verging on S.E.

Irish, you're

. You're talking gibberish: low coll: C.19–20.

Irish apricot

. A potato: late C.18–19. C.19 variants, Irish apple or lemon. 'It is a common joke against the Irish vessels, to say that they are loaded with fruit and timber; that is, potatoes and broomsticks,' Grose.

Irish Arms, the; OCC. Irish arms

. Thick legs: mid-C.18–mid-19. 'It is said of the Irish women', remarks Grose, 1st ed., 'that they have a dispensation from the Pope to wear the thick end of their legs downwards'. Also Irish legs.

Irish assurance

. 'A bold forward behaviour', Grose, 1st ed.: mid-C18–mid-19. cf. dipped in the SHANNON.

Irish battleship or man-of-war

. A barge: naval: mid-C.19–20; ob.

Irish beauty

. A woman with two black eyes: mid-C.18–early 19. With allusion to pretty, black-eyed colleens.

Irish draperies

. Cobwebs: English lower classes' (–1909).

Irish evidence

. False evidence; a perjured witness: late C.17–mid-19: B.E., 1699, has 'Knight of the Post, c. a Mercenary common swearer, a Prostitute to every Cause, an Irish Evidence'.

Irish fortune

. Pudendum muliebre and pattens: C.19. cf. WHITECHAPEL FORTUNE.

Irish horse

. Salt meat; corned beef; nautical (–1887); ob.

Irish hurricane

. 'A flat calm with drizzling rain': nautical: mid-C.19–20. Bowen.

Irish legs

, see IRISH ARMS. Irish lemon, see IRISH APRICOT.

Irish man-of-war

. A barge: Thames-side: late C.19–20. Jocular.

Irish mile

. A mile plus: coll: late C.19–20.

Irish pennants

. Fag-ends of rope, etc.: nautical: C.19–20; ob. Bowen.

Irish promotion

, see IRISH RISE.

Irish rifle

. A small comb: from ca 1840.

Irish rise

. A reduction in pay or position: coll: ca 1850–1910. Also Irish promotion.

Irish root

. The penis: low: ca 1830–1914. cf. IRISH TOOTHACHE.

Irish theatre

. A guard-room: military (–1864): ob. by 1900, †by 1914. cf. MILL, 7.

Irish toothache

. A priapism: low: C. 19–20; ob. In late C.19–20, gen. simply toothache. cf. IRISH ROOT. 2. Pregnancy: lower classes' (–1909).

Irish toyle

*. A thief in the semblance of a pedlar: mid-C.16–18 c. 2. A member of the twelfth order of rogues: C.17 c.

Irish up, get one's

. To become angry: low: from ca 1880. See IRISH, n.

Irish wedding

. The emptying of a cesspool: low: ca 1820–50. cf.:

Irish wedding, to have danced at an

. To have two black eyes: coll: from ca 1840; ob.

Irish welcome

. An invitation to come at any time: coll verging on allusive S.E.: late C.19–20.

Irish whisper

, see MITCHAM WHISPER.

Irish whist(, where the jack takes the ace)

. Coition: low: from ca 1850; ob.

Irishman's dinner

. A fast: C.19–20 jocular coll; ob.

Irishman's harvest

. The orange season: London costermongers': ca 1840–1910. cf. IRISH APRICOT.

Irishman's hurricane

. A dead calm: nautical: C.19–20, ob. cf. IRISH HURRICANE.

Irishman's promotion or rise

. A reduction in wages: coll (–1889). Also IRISH RISE.

Irishman's reef

. 'The head of a sail tied up': nautical s. (–1880) > j.

Irishman's rest

. 'Going up a friend's ladder with a hod of bricks': lower classes' (–1909).

Irishman's rise

, see IRISHMAN'S PROMOTION.

irk

. A troublesome seaman: nautical: late C.19–20. Abbr. irksome. Also BIRD (4) and FOWL. cf. ERK, which is prob. a derivative.

iron

. Money: ca 1780–1840. 2. A portable firearm, esp. a pistol or a revolver: from ca 1835.

iron

, v. To kill: low: late C.19–20.

iron, bad

. A failure; a mishap; bad luck: workmen's: from ca 1860; ob. cf. in bad BREAD.

iron, thieving

, see THIEVING IRONS.

iron-bound

. A hard-baked pie: low: ca 1870–1915.

iron-bound

, adj. Laced with metal. e.g. iron-bound hat, a silver-laced hat. Coll: ca 1780.

iron cow

. The village pump: C.19 coll. cf. COW-WITH-THE-IRON-TAIL.

iron doublet

. A prison: C.18–early 19. A variation of STONE DOUBLET.

Iron Duke

. A lucky chance: late C.19–20. Rhyming on FLUKE.

iron face

. Stern, obdurate, severe, cruel: pidgin: mid-C.19–20.

iron hoop

. Soup: (military and Cockney) rhyming s.: late C.19–20.

iron horse

. A locomotive: from ca 1860, ex U.S. (1846). In C.19 coll; in C.20, out-worn S.E. 2. A bicycle; occ, a tricycle: cyclists': ca 1875–1900. 3. (Of coins) a toss: late C.19–20. cf.:

iron horse

, v. Toss: Cockneys': from ca 1880. Most Cockneys pronounce toss to rhyme with horse.

iron making

. 'Occupying a berth or billet where money is to be put by': non-aristocratic: from ca 1870: ob.

iron rations

. Tinned meat: nautical and military coll: from ca 1860.

iron toothpick

. A sword: military: ca 1870–1910. Contrast TOOTHPICK.

iron with one's eyebrow(s), polish the King's

. To look out of grated, esp. prison, windows: ca 1780–1840.

ironbark

, adj. Unyielding; hard: Australian (–1888); ob. ‘Rolf Boldrewood’, in Robbery under Arms, ‘I always thought he was ironbark outside and in.’ cf.:

ironclad

, adj. Severe, hard; unyielding: ca 1884–1910. Mostly U.S., ex the vessel.

ironmonger's shop by the side of a common, keep an

. (To which is often added: where the sheriff sets one up.) To be hanged in chains: ca 1780–1830.

irons, fresh or new off the

. Fresh from school or college; inexperienced; brandnew: coll: from ca 1680; ob.

irons in the fire (or on the anvil), have many or other

. To have many interests; to employ various means to one end: C.16–20; coll; in C.20, S.E. The on the anvil form, recorded in 1612, was ob. by 1850, †by 1900. For many, other or more is occ. found. Ex a smithy.

irrigate (one's canal)

, v.i. and t. To take a drink; pour drink down: jocular coll: C.18–20; ob. Ex the L. sense, to moisten.

is it cold up there

? A jocular c.p., to a tall person: late C.19–20.

Isabella

. An umbrella: rhyming s.: from ca 1855.

ishkimmisk

. Drunk, tipsy: Shelta: C.18–20.

island, drink out of the

. To drink until—and after—one sees the rising bottom of a wine bottle: drinking s.: late C.18—early 19.

Island of Bermuda

, see BERMUDAS.

Isle of Bishop

. ‘Orthodox’, i.e. good, mead: Oxford University: ca 1820–40.

Isle of Bull-Dogs

. The area within the proctors’ authority: Oxford University: ca 1820–40.

isle of fling

. A coat: East End of London: ca 1875–1910. ?origin. Perhaps rhyming on lining.

Isle of Flip

. Eggs and sherry: Oxford University: ca 1820–40.

Isle of France

. A dance: rhyming s. (–1859); ob.

Isle of Matriculation

. Entrance into the University: Oxford University: ca 1820–40.

ism

. A doctrine or a theory: 1680 (O.E.D.): coll. Ex such words as Jesuitism, Puritanism.

issues, pool one's

. To work in profitable unison: coll: from ca 1860; ob.

ist

. A holder of an ISM: from ca 1810: coll till ca 1880, then S.E.

it

. As an indefinite object of a v., as in walk it, cab it: orig. S.E.; but from ca 1880, coll. (So too in curses.) 2. A chamber-pot: C.19–20; ob. 3. The female, occ. the male, sexual organ: C.19–20; orig. and still mainly euphemistic.

it, of

. As in ‘We had a nice time of it’: coll, gen. ironic (–1887).

it ain’t all honey

! It isn’t wholly pleasant: c.p. of ca 1904–14. cf. ‘It ain’t all honey and it ain’t all jam,|Wheelin’ round the ’ouses at a three-wheeled pram’ in a music-hall song of Vesta Victoria’s, ca 1905.

it isn’t a hanging matter

. Well, after all, it’s not so very serious, is it?: c.p.: late C.19–20.

it isn’t done

, see DONE, IT ISN’T.

it snowed

! A c.p. indicating misery or disaster: lower classes’: adopted, before 1909, from U.S.A.

Italian quarrel

. ‘Death, poison, treachery, remorselessness’ (Ware): Society (–1909).

itch

. To feel a sexual urge: C.17–20 low coll. cf. ITCH IN THE BELLY.

itch and scratch

. A match (ignition); rhyming s.: late C.19–20.

itch-buttocks, play at

. To have sexual intercourse: late C.16–19; coll. Florio.

itch in the belly, have an

. To be sexually excited: ca 1660–1900; coll. Cotton, D’Urfey.

itcher

. The female pudend: C.19–20 low; ob. Ex ITCH, v. Also itching Jenny.

itching Jenny

, see ITCHER.

Itchland

. Wales: late C.17–early 18. 2. Scotland: C.18–mid-19. cf. SCRATCH-LAND.

Itchlander

. A Scotsman: C.18–mid-19. Ex preceding term.

itchy

. Affected with or like an itch: C.16–20; S.E. until ca 1840, then coll.

item

*. A hint or a warning: c.: C.19. Bee, ‘It was I that gave the item that the traps were a coming.’

it’s a way they have in the Army

! A military (mostly officers’) c.p. from ca 1880 or earlier. From a popular song.

it’s all in a lifetime

. It’s no use grumbling: c.p.: (?)mid-C.19–20.

it's Friday, so keep your nose tidy

. A c.p., employed only on a Friday (a folklorishly unlucky day) and meaning either 'keep out of mischief' or 'mind your own business': non-aristocratic, non-cultured: late C.19–20.

it's naughty but it's nice

. A c.p., since ca 1900, in reference to copulation. Ex a popular song. In the U.S., Minnie Schult sang and popularized it in the 1890s.

itty umpty

, see IDDY UMPTY.

ivories

. The teeth: from ca 1780, ob. Egan; Thackeray, 'Chatter your old ivories at me;' Punch, 1882, 'Sluicing his ivories' (cf. IVORIES, RINSE...). 2. Dice; billiard-balls: from ca 1830. (Very rare in singular.) 3. See IVORIES, TICKLE THE. 4. Checks and counters: card-players': from ca 1860.

ivories, box of

. A set of (good) teeth in one's mouth: low (–1860). Also cage of ivories.

ivories, flash the

. To show one's teeth: low: C.18–20; ob. See FLASH THE IVORY. 2. Occ., to smile.

ivories, rinse or sluice or wash one's or the

. To drink: C.19–20; ob. Moncrieff. See IVORIES, 1.

ivories, tickle the

. To play the piano: mid-C.19–20 coll. cf. IVORY-HAMMERER.

ivory

. See IVORIES, various senses. Rare in singular, except when collective. 2. A pass-ticket on a railway, to a theatre, etc.: ca 1855–1910.

ivory, black

. (African) Negroes as merchandise: 1873 (S.O.D.); slightly ob.

ivory, flash the

*, see FLASH THE IVORY.

ivory, touch

. To play at dice: (-)1864; ob. Sala.

ivory box

. The mouth: pugilists': ca 1880–1910.

ivory carpenter

. A dentist: low jocular coll: ca 1885–1915.

ivory-hammerer or -thumper, OCC. -spanker

. A pianist: from ca 1860; ob. cf. IVORIES, TICKLE THE.

ivory-snatcher

. A dentist: from ca 1880; ob. (G.B.Shaw, You Never Can Tell, 1897.) cf. IVORY CARPENTER.

ivory-turner

. A skilful dicer: fast life: ca 1820–40. Spy, 1825. cf. IVORIES, 2.

ivy bush, like an owl in an

. Having a large wig or very bushy hair: anticipated in 1606 (Day) but properly of ca 1705–1840. Swift, Grose.

ivy cottage

. An outside privy: a late C.19–20 euphemistic coll. Formerly, often ivy-covered.

ivy-leaf

, see PIPE IN...

J

J. or j

. See JAY. Also J.A.Y. 2. A Jesuit: Catholic coll: mid-C.19–20. 3. Jesus: Anglo-Irish: late C.19–20.

jab

. A poke, prod, or stab: coll and dial. (Scottish form of job): from ca 1820. 2. In boxing s. (in C.20, gen. coll), an abrupt blow with the fist: from ca 1850.

jab

, v.i. and t. To poke, prod, stab, thrust: coll and dial.: from ca 1830. Both n. and v. may have owed their widespread coll usage in part to U.S. influence. 2. Hence, to strike smartly (e.g. jab him one!): late C.19–20.

jabber

. Chatter; incoherent, inarticulate, or unintelligible speech: in C.18, coll; then S.E. Ned Ward, in Hudibras Redivivus, ‘And stopp’d their bold presumptuous labour, By unintelligible jabber.’

jabber

, v. To chatter; speak fast and indistinctly, talk gibberish: from ca 1500: coll till C.19, then S.E.Pope, in The Dunciad, 'Twas chatt'ring, grinning, mouthing, jabb'ring all.' Imitative: cf. GAB(BLE) and gibber.

jabberer

. One who jabbers (see the v.): from ca 1675: coll till C.19, then S.E. with a coll tinge. 'Hudibras' Butler.

jabbering

. vbl n. of JABBER, v.: C.16–20: coll till C.19, then S.E. 2. The same applies to the adv. in -ly.

jabber(k)nowl

, see JOBBERNOWL.

Jab(b)er(s) or Jabez or, rarely, Japers, by (Anglo-Irish be)

. A low oath: first recorded in 1821 and as by jappers. Presumably a corruption of Jesus via the Anglo-Irish Jasus. cf. BEGORRA.

jabberwock

. A weird monster: coined by Lewis Carroll in Through the Looking Glass, 1871. In C.19, s.

jabez

, see JABBERS.

jack

. (The capital is fairly gen. where a person is designated; otherwise the initial letter is in lower case.) The c. senses are a farthing (late C.17–early 18); a seal (C.17–18, a corruption of JARK); an abbr. (not later than 1845) of JACK IN A BOX, 6; and a policeman (ca 1865)—this last > gen. Australian s. ca 1910. 2. Almost c. is the (–1851) gaming sense, a counter resembling a sovereign. 3. The least bit: coll: ca 1500–1650. (In negative and interrogative sentences.) 4. A variety of polyanthus: coll (–1879). 5. A single carnation (sold as a choice carnation): horticultural s. (–1878). 6. A variety of tea-rose: coll: abbr. Jacqueminot: 1883. 7. A jack-boot: coll: C.19–20; ob. 8. A Jacobin pigeon: coll: ca 1740–1830. 9. A coll abbr. of jackal: from ca 1890. 10. Orig. s. or coll but long recognized as S.E. are the senses: the small bowl aimed at in the game of bowls (C.17–20), as in Shakespeare’s Cymbeline; a pitcher, gen. one of leather and often as black jack (late C.16–20); a beot-jack (late C.17–20); an ape (from ca 1500; long ob.); a peasant (C.16–20; ob. by 1800); a male, as in jack-hare, -rabbit, etc. (C.16–20); a male sweetheart (C.15–20; now archaic)—cf. Jill; a term of contempt (from C.14, but rare after C.18). 11. Orig. (ca 1660) S.E., but in C.19–20 coll, is the sense a knave in a suit of cards. 12. Mid-C.18–19 coll: a jakes. 13. Nautical: the Union Jack: from ca 1650. Kipling. 14. A sailor: coll: from ca 1700. Dibdin. Earlier as sailor Jack, Jack the sailor. 15. A Jacobite: coll: ca 1685–1750. Swift. 16. A post-chaise: low: ca 1810–50. 17. In amorous ventry and low s., both the penis and an erection thereof: C.19–20, ob. 18. See JACK IN THE WATER. 19. (Jack.) A low coll term of address to any man one doesn’t know: C.19–20. Prob. orig. nautical. 20. A native soldier: Anglo-Indian coll: 1853; †by 1886. Abbr. JACK-SEPOY. 21. Horse-flesh salted and so washed as to lose its horsey flavour: 1904. 22. The inevitable nickname of any man surnamed Sheppard (etc.): naval and military: late C.19–20. Ex the C.18 prison-breaker. 23. See JACK IN A BOX, 11.

jack

*, v. In c., to run away quickly: from ca 1840; ob. 2. In low s., to copulate: C.19–20, ob. 3. App., to lock, as in gtg(g)ers jacked in Anon., The Catterpillars of the Nation Anatomized, 1659: c.: C.17. 4. See JACK UP.

Jack, Cousin, cf. Cousin Jack. Jack, every man

, see EVERY MAN JACK. Occ. every Jack man, †.

jack, lay (occ. be) on the

, v.i. and t. To thrash or to scold soundly: coll of ca 1550–1640. In Jacob and Esau, a play, ‘If I wrought one stroke to-day, lay me on the jack’; North, 1579, ‘Lay it on the jacks of them.’

jack, play the

. To play the rogue: C.17. 2. To play the fool: C.19. Both coll. 3. v.t. with with, as in Shakespeare’s The Tempest, ‘Your fairy...has done little better than play the jack with us.’

Jack, poor

. (A) dried hake: 1667: coll till ca 1705, then S.E. Also dry or dried Jack.

Jack-a (occ. -o’)-dandy; occ. Jack Dandy

. A little fop, a petty dandy, an insignificant little fellow: coll: ca 1630–1820. Brome, Cumberland, Ainsworth. See also BOX-LOBBY PUPPY. 2. Brandy: rhyming s. (–1857): gen. as Jack Dandy.

Jack-a-green

, see JACK IN THE GREEN.

Jack-a-Lent, occ. Jack o’ Lent

. A dwarf, a puppet: late C.16–18: coll till ca 1660, then S.E. Shakespeare. 2. A simpleton, a nobody: C.17–19: coll till C.18, then S.E. Both ex the puppet thrown-at during Lent.

Jack Adams

. A fool: late C.17–19: coll till ca 1850, then nautical s. for a foolish and stubborn person.

Jack Adams’(s) parish

. Clerkenwell: C.18 –early 19. Prob. ex an actual idiot.

Jack and Jill

. A till; a bill: from ca 1890.

Jack ashore

. A lower classes' coll (–1909) for a LARKY, rather tipsy sailor.

Jack at a pinch

. A person employed in an emergency; esp. a stop-gap clergyman: coll: from ca 1620; very ob., except in dial.

Jack at warts

. A conceited little fellow: C.19 coll. Ex dial. Jack at the wat, the small bag of a pig's intestines.

Jack Barrel

. A minnow: nautical: late C.19–20.

Jack Blunt

. A blunt fellow: 1898: coll till ca 1910, then S.E.

Jack boot(s)

. The BOOTS (2) at an inn: ca 1800–50; coll till ca 1820, then S.E.

jack-boy

. A postillion: low: ca 1810–50. See JACK, n., 16.

Jack Brag(ger)

. A boaster: C.16–20 coll; almost †.

Jack Dandy

, see JACK-A-DANDY.

Jack Drum's entertainment

. Ill-treatment, esp. an ignominious dismissal: coll: ca 1570–1660. Gosson; Nashe, 'I would give him Jacke Drummes entertainment, and send him packing'; John Taylor, 1649. Occ. Tom Drum's entertainment, as in Holinshed.

Jack Dusty; Jack in the dust

. A ship's-steward's assistant: resp. nautical, mid-C. 19–20, and naval, from ca 1800. cf. DUSTY BOY.

Jack Frost

. A coll personification of frost: from ca 1825; ob.

Jack-hold-my-staff

. A too humble servant: coll: C.17. Mrs Behn.

Jack in a (or the) box

, gen. hyphenated. A child's toy: recorded in 1702, but prob. much earlier: coll, soon > S.E. 2. A sharper, a cheat: c.: ca 1570–1830. Dekker. Prob. ex the fifth sense. 3. A street pedlar: late C.17–18: coll. Ned Ward. 4. See JACK IN THE CELLAR. 5. The consecrated host: pejorative coll: ca 1545–1700. 6. A small but powerful screw, used by burglars: c. of ca 1840–1910. 'No. 747', in a 'locus' valid for 1845, likewise valid for the abbr. Jack (pp. 423, 439 resp.); Albert Smith, 1848. Prob. ex the nautical s. > coll sense (–1801), 7, a large wooden male screw. 8. The male member: C.19–20 ob. Ex sense 1. 9. A game in which one throws at an object placed on the top of a stick set in a hole, beyond which the object, if hit, must fall clear to become the thrower's property: C.19–20 ob. (low) coll. 10. A coll, mainly Australian, name of the plant stylidium graminifolium: from ca 1850. Ex the sensitive stigma-column. 11. Syphilis: since ca 1870. Often abbr. to Jack. Rhyming on POX.

Jack in (C. 17–18 an) office

. An imperious petty official: from ca 1660: coll till C.19, then S.E. cf. JACK IN THE PULPIT.

Jack in the basket

. A mark (orig. a basket) on top of a pole to serve as a beacon: nautical coll: mid-C.19–20; ob. Bowen.

Jack in the cellar or low cellar (occ. the box)

. A child in the womb: ca 1750–1900. Smollett. cf. HANS-EN-KELDER. The latter occurs in Wycherley, Love in a Wood, 1672.

Jack in the dust

, see JACK DUSTY.

Jack in the green

. A chimney-sweep enclosed in a framework of boughs in a First of May procession: from ca 1800; ob. by 1890: coll >, ca 1850, S.E.

Jack in the orchard, get

. To achieve sexual intromission: C.19–20 low.

Jack in the pulpit

. A pretender; an upstart: coll: C.19.

Jack in the water; occ. Jack

. A handy man at boat-house or landing-stage: (low) coll; from ca 1835. Dickens in Boz.

Jack Ketch; occ. J.Kitch

. A hangman, an executioner; c. >, ca 1750, s. > coll in C.19: ca 1705–1880. Earlier allusions are to the actual person; e.g. Anon., 1676, ‘There stands Jack Kitch, that son of a Bitch.’ Ex the famous executioner of ca 1670–86. cf. DERRICK.

Jack Ketch’s kitchen

. That room in Newgate in which the hangman boiled the quarters of those dismembered for high treason: C.18: perhaps orig. c. Ex preceding.

Jack Ketch’s pippin

. A candidate for the gallows: C.18 low. Also called a GALLOWS APPLE.

Jack Muck

. A merchant seaman: naval: ca 1870–1914.

Jack Nasty

. A sneak; a sloven: (low) coll: from ca 1855; ob. T.Hughes. cf.:

Jack Nasty-Face

. A common sailor: nautical: late C.18–early 19. 2. A cook's assistant: C.19–20 nautical. 3. A dirty fellow: mid-C.19–20 coll. (now ob.), prob. orig. nautical. 4. Female pudend: low: ca 1820–70.

Jack northwester

. The north-west wind: nautical coll: from ca 1740; ob.

Jack-o'-Dandy

, see JACK-A-DANDY.

Jack of all trades

. One who (thinks he) can do everything: C.17–20: coll till C.18, then S.E. and gen. contemptuous. Minshull, Dryden.

Jack of legs

. An unusually tall man: coll: ca 1770–1890. 2. A large clasp-knife; late C.18–19. (A corruption of jocteleg.) Also as JACKYLEG.

Jack of or on both sides

. A neutral; a runner with both hare and hounds: coll: ca 1550–1880: extant indial. Nashe, Defoe, Spurgeon.

Jack out of doors

. A vagrant: C.17: coll, quickly > S.E.

Jack out of office

. A discharged official: derisive coll: ca 1540–1790. Shakespeare, ‘But long I will not be Jack-out-of-office.’ Contrast JACK IN OFFICE.

Jack pudding (or Pudding)

. A merry Andrew; a clowning assistant to a mountebank: coll: 1648; ob. by 1830, †by 1900. cf. Fr. Jean Potage.

Jack rag, every

. A C.19 (mainly dial.) variant of EVERY MAN JACK.

Jack Randall

. A candle: rhyming s. (–1859). Ex the famous boxer.

Jack Robinson

. The penis: low: C.19–20, ob. cf. JOHN THOMAS, 2.

Jack Robinson, before one can say

. Instantly: late C.18–20 coll. Fanny Burney, Dickens, Hardy. According to Grose, 1st ed., ‘from a very volatile gentleman...who would call on his neighbours, and be gone before his name could be announced’: which seems improbable.

Jack (S)(s)auce

. An impudent fellow: coll: ca 1560–1750. (cf. SAUCEBOX.) G. Harvey, ‘A Jack-Sauce, or unmannerly puppy’. See SAUCE, n., 1.

Jack-Sepoy

. A native soldier: Anglo-Indian coll: ca 1840–70.

Jack Shalloo

. A braggart: naval: ca 1850–1900. Perhaps ex dial. shallock, a dirty, lazy fellow. But see JACK SHILLOO for more prob. orig.

Jack Shay; jackshea

. A tin quart-pot: Aus- tralia (–1881); ob. ?prompted by CHAR, n., 2; more prob. punning, or rhyming on, tay, †S.E. and present Irish pronunciation of tea; possibly at first Jack Shea (rhyming with tay).

Jack Shilloo

. A boaster: naval: late C.19–20; ob. A Jack-personification of Anglo-Irish shilloo, a loud shouting, as in Lover, 1840. Also JACK SHALLOO.

Jack Snip

. An inferior tailor: C.19–20; ob. cf. SNIP, n.

Jack Sprat

. An undersized man or boy: mid-C.16–20; ob., except in dial. Pejorative Jack with pejorative sprat; perhaps, in its post-1850 career, rhyming s. on brat. Whence presumably Jack Sprat could (or would) eat no fat, his wife could (or would) eat no lean.
2. Fat (of meat): rhyming s.: late C.19–20.

Jack stickler

. A busybody: coll: ca 1570–1690.

Jack Straw

. A nonentity: coll: ca 1590–1910. Nashe, ‘These worthless whippets and Jacke-Strawes’. Ex the C.14 rebel (cf. Guy Fawkes).

Jack Straw’s castle

. The female pudend: C.19 low.

Jack Surpass

. A glass (of liquor): beggars’ rhyming s.: 1851. Mayhew, 1: app. †by 1910.

Jack tar (Tar)

. A sailor: 1781, George Parker: coll: often abbr. jack, occ. TAR. 2. A hornpipe: ca 1820–90.

jack the interim

*. To be remanded: c. of ca 1860–1914.

Jack the Jew

*. A Jewish thief or FENCE of the lowest order: c. of ca 1820–60.

Jack the Painter

. Very strong tea, drunk in the bush: Australia: from ca 1850; ob. G.C.Mundy, Our Antipodes, 1855. Ex mark it leaves around one's mouth.

Jack the Ripper

. A kipper: late C.19–20. Rhyming s.

Jack the slipper

*. A treadmill: c.: from ca 1860; ob.

jack up

. To give way, collapse, become bankrupt, become utterly exhausted. 2. v.t., to ruin; exhaust utterly; destroy. Both from ca 1870 and both coll (perhaps orig. dial.: see E.D.D.). Perhaps ex JACKED. 3. To abandon, give up: late C.19–20; slightly ob. Edwin Pugh, Tony Drum, 1898. Originally navvies', and apparently rhyming s. on pack up.

Jack Weight

. A fat man: coll: late C.18– mid-19.

jack whore

. ‘A large masculine overgrown wench,’ Grose, 1st ed.: ca 1760–1860. (Extant in Hampshire dial. for ‘a strong Amazonian sailors’ trull’, E.D.D.) 2. A wencher: low: mid-C.19–20; ob.

jackanapes

—‘old colloquial’, says F. & H.—was prob. such only in the C.16–17 sense, a tame ape or monkey; otherwise S.E.

jackanapes, (as) full of tricks as a

. Exceedingly mischievous: C.17–18. cf. the C.17–18 proverb, there is more ado with one Jack-an-apes than (with) all the bears.

jackaroo, jackeroo

. A young Englishman learning sheep- and/or cattle-farming: Australia (–1878): s. >, by 1900, coll. Either ex JOHNNY RAW after kangaroo or ex the Brisbane Aborigines’ name (orig. for a garrulous bird) for a white man. cf.:

jackaroo

, v. To lead the life of a JACKAROO: Australia (ca 1887); ob.: s. > coll.

jackass

. A stupid, ignorant fellow: coll > S.E.: from ca 1830; ob. Barham. 2. A rowing boat that plies between ships and shore: naval: ca 1805 (?earlier) –1880. W.N.Glascock, Naval Sketch-Book, 1825.

jackass frigate

. A small frigate that sails slowly: nautical s. > coll: ca 1830–70. Marryat, in Peter Simple.

jackdaw

. The jaw: rhyming s. (London streets’): 1857, Augustus Mayhew, Paved With Gold.

jacked

. (Of a horse) spavined, lamed: late C.18–19 coll. In late C.19–20, jacked up. (See JACK UP.) Perhaps ex to jerk.

jackeen, Jackeen

. (Often Dublin jackeen.) A self-assertive but worthless fellow; esp. a Dublin rough: Anglo-Irish: from ca 1840; ob.: coll. Ex Jack+pejorative -een, as in squireen.

jacken-closer

*. A seal: ca 1820–60; c. Corruption of JARK.

jacker (or J.)

. A boy in a training-ship; naval: late C.19–20; ob.

jackeroo

, see JACKAROO.

Jackery

. (Gen. in pl.) A favoured stationhand: Australia: ca 1885–1910.

jacket

. ‘A soldier who wears a jacket (chiefly cavalry or horse artillery)’: military (–1909); extremely ob. Ware.

jacket

, v. To swindle; betray; deprive of one's birthright or situation: c. of ca 1810–50. 2. To thrash: coll: from ca 1875. Ex the vbl n., itself ex fall upon, or dust or lace, the jacket of (s.v. DUST ONE'S...). 3. To put in a strait jacket; threaten to lock (a person) up as a madman: lower classes' (–1909).

jacket, dust

(a person's), see DUST ONE'S ...

jacket, give a red-laced

. To flog: military: ca 1800–50.

jacket, line one's

. To fill one's stomach: C.17–early 19: coll.

jacket, send in one's

. To resign: jockeys': ca 1870–1905. Hawley Smart.

jacket-reverser

. A turn-coat: jocular coll: C.19.

jacketing

. A thrashing; severe reprimand: coll (–1848). Mayhew, ‘I don’t work on Sundays. If I did, I’d get a jacketing.’ cf. JACKET, v., 2.

jacketing concern

*. The vbl n. of JACKET, v., 1,: c.: ca 1810–50.

jackety

. Of or like a jacket: coll: from ca 1850. Surtees.

jack(e)y

. Gin: orig. (1799) either c. or low. W.S.Gilbert, in H.M.S. ‘Pinafore’, ‘I’ve snuff, and tobacky,|And excellent jacky.’ cf. OLD TOM for the semantics.

jackrum

*. A marriage-licence: c. of ca 1800–50, cf. JUKRUM.

jacks, be upon their

. To have an advantage: coll: C.17–18. Ex bowls.

Jack's alive

. A sharp run round: coll (–1894); ob. Ex the mainly Scottish game.

Jack's delight

. A sea-port harlot: seaport s. > coll: from ca 1840; ob.

jackshea

, see JACK SHAY.

jacksie (or -y)

. The posteriors: Army and Navy: late C.19–20. cf. JACKSY-PARDY.

Jackson, jammed like

, see JAMMED LIKE JACKSON.

Jackson's hens, fly up with

. To become bankrupt: from ca 1570: coll till C.19 then dial. 2. Hence, make one fly with Jackson's hens, to ruin a person: C.17–18.

Jackson's pig, it's gone over Borough Hill after

. It is lost: rural coll verging on dial. (esp. Northants): mid-C.19–20; ob.

jacksy-pardy (occ. -pardo)

. The posteriors: low: from ca 1850; ob.

jacky

, see JACKEY.

Jacky (or Johnny) hangman

. A Jack hanger, i.e. lanius collaris: Natal coll (mostly juvenile): from ca 1890. Ex 'the bird's habit of hanging his captures on thorns until they are to his taste', Pettman.

Jacky Winter

. The brown flycatcher, a small bird common about Sydney: coll, New South Wales: from ca 1890. 'It sings all through the winter, when nearly every other species is silent,' Morris.

jackyleg(s)

. A large pocket-knife: Scots coll: late C.19–20, ob. Ex jocteleg.

jacob

*. A ladder: C.18–20 c. >, by 1900, low. Memoirs of John Hall, 1708. Perhaps, as Grose suggests, ex Jacob's dream. 2. A thief using a ladder: c. of ca 1710–80. 3. A familiar name for a jay: C.18–mid-19. cf. POLL, 5. 4. Hence, a soft fellow; a fool: ca 1810–60. 5. The male member: C.19 low. cf. DICK, n., 4.

Jacobite, jacobite

. A sham shirt; a shirt collar: late C.17–mid-19.

Jacob's ladder

. A rent in which only the woof threads remain, e.g. 'a longitudinal flaw in the leg of a ballet-girl's tights,' H.: theatrical > gen. s. (–1859); ob. Sala. 2. The female pudend: C.19 low. cf. JACOB, last sense, and LADDER, first sense.

jag

, (a bout of) intoxication, on a jag, on a drunken spree, and have a jag on, gen. supposed to be U.S., were orig.—C.17–20, ob.—Eng. dial., whence U.S. and Eng. s. usage in late C.19–20. Lit. sense, a load. 2. An injection: medical: adopted, ca 1905, from U.S. Cognate with JAB.

jag

, v.t. To hunt, pursue: South African coll: 1850, Gordon Cummings, A Hunter's Life in South Africa. Ex Dutch jagen, to hunt, chase.

jagger

*. A gentleman: c. of ca 1835–1910: more U.S. than Eng. ?ex Ger. Jäger, a sportsman.

Jaggers

. Undergraduates at Jesus College: Oxford undergraduates' (–1899). 2. A messenger-boy: late 1890s and early C.20. Ex the name of one who went from London to Chicago at a moment's notice in the nineties.

jague

*. A ditch: c. of mid-C.17–mid-19. ?cognate with JAKES.

jail-bird

. A prisoner; a thorough scoundrel: C.17–20: coll till C.19, then S.E. Davies of Hereford. cf. QUEER BIRD.

jail-khan(n)a

. A gaol (jail): Bengal Presidency coll (–1886). A hybrid ex KHANNA, a house, a room.

jakes

. A privy: from ca 1530; slightly ob.: S.E. till ca 1750, then coll. Shakespeare, in Lear, ‘I will tread this unbolted villain into mortar, and daub the walls of a jakes with him ’; Sir John Harington’s Metamorphosis of Ajax. Prob. an abbr. of Jack’s place.

jalouse

. To infer; to guess: Scottish coll: from ca 1860.

jam

. Clear profit, an advantage, or a certainty of winning: late C.19–20 s. (orig. racing) > coll. 2. A sweetheart; a mistress: low: from ca 1870. (Also bit of jam, esp. as an attractive girl.) Hence, lawful jam, a wife: late C.19–20, ob. 3. The female pudend: C.19–20, ob. Whence have a bit of jam, to coït. 4. The pool at the game of nap: gaming s.: from ca 1850.

jam

*, v. To hang: c.: mid-C.18–early 19. ?=jamb. 2. To spread with jam: coll: from ca 1850.

jam

, adj. Smart; neat; low: ca 1880–1905.

jam, bit of

. A very pretty girl: lower classes’: from ca 1890; ob. See, e.g., BIT OF CRUMB, and cf. JAM-TART, 2.

jam, not all

. Despite its apparently coll tinge the phrase is S.E. But real jam is coll, †jam and fritters is s.: ex JAM, n., 1.

jam on it

. Something pleasant: naval (–1900) > military. See JAM, n., 3, and cf. JAMMY.

jam-pot

. A high collar: Australian: ca 1880–1900. 2. The female pudend: low: C.19–20.

jam-tart

. A mart: rhyming s.: mid-C.19–20. 2. Whence, a sweetheart; a wife; a mistress; a harlot: low: from ca 1860. 3. The market, esp. if favourable; buyers and sellers thereat: Stock Exchange: ca 1880–1914.

jam-up

, adj. and adv. (In) the pink of perfection: tow coll: ca 1850–90. Also real jam: from ca 1880. cf. JAMMY.

Jamaica discipline

. ‘The regulated distribution of booty among the crew of a pirate’: nautical coll: C.19–20; ob. Bowen.

jamboree

. A frolic, a spree: s. >, in C.20, coll: orig. (–1872) U.S.; anglicized, esp. in Australia, ca 1890. Origin unknown.

james

*. A crowbar: c.: C.19–20 ob. cf. JEMMY. 2. A sovereign (money): c.: from ca 1855; ob. Mayhew, in Paved with Gold. 3. A sheep’s head: low: from ca 1825; ob. cf. BLOODY JEMMY.

Jamie Duff

. A professional mourner: mid-C.19–20. Prob. ex the name of a firm that supplied them.

Jamie Moore, have been talking to

. To be tipsy: Scots coll: C.19–20 ob.

jammed, be

. To be hanged (see JAM, v.), hence to meet any violent death: ca 1800–50.

jammed like Jackson

. A C.19–20 naval c.p. verging on the proverbial, ‘and when something goes seriously wrong, or leads to a disaster’, F. & Gibbons. Ex John Jackson who, in 1787, refused to listen to his pilot and ‘nearly wrecked his ship in consequence’.

Jammy

. (Gen. pl.) A native of Sunderland: nautical: late C.19–20. Possibly a corruption of SAMMY.

jammy

. Exceedingly lucky or profitable: from ca 1870: (low) coll. Hence, in C.20, excellent, ‘topping’. Ex JAM, good luck. cf. JAM ON IT and JAM-UP.

jammy bit of jam

. An intensive of JAM, n., 3:1883, says Ware.

jams

. Abbr. JIM-JAM, 2. Always the ams.

jan

*. A purse: C.17 c. Rowlands, in Martin Mark-All; Jonson.

jane

*. A sovereign: c. of ca 1860–1910. The Times, 14 April 1864. Prob. suggested by the †S.E. sense, a small silver coin of Genoa.

Jane Shore

. A whore: rhyming s.: mid-C.19–20. More gen. RORY o’ MORE. Ex the famous mistress of Edward IV.

jannock, jonnick, jonnock, jonnuk

. Honest, loyal, equitable; proper, customary; conclusive: dial. > current s. ca 1820 (Sessions, 1825, as jonnock). Whence the C.19 die jannock, to die game or with bravado. In Australia, where it dates from ca 1880, it is rather s. than coll and is gen. pronounced jonnuk. 2. Also adv.

janty

. A ship dressed with flags: nautical, esp. naval: C.19. Ex jaunty, elegant.

January chickens, have

. To have children in old age: proverbial coll: C.19.

Jap

. A Japanese: late C.19–20 coll. 2. Also adj.: dated by Ware as early as 1860 and classified, as to Jap crock, as a Society term. (cf. CHINK, 3.)

japan

. To ordain (a priest): from ca 1755; ob.: mainly university. Ex the clerical black coat.

Japanese knife-trick

. Eating with one's knife: low: ca 1885–1910.

jap(p)ers, be or by

, see JAB(B)ERS.

jar

. (A source of) annoyance: Public Schools' coll: 1902, P.G.Wodehouse, The Pothunters.

jar, on or upon a or the

. Ajar: from ca 1670: S.E. till ca 1850, then coll.

jarbee

. An able seaman: naval (–1909); ob. A perversion of A.B.

jargoozle

. To mislead, lit. and fig.: C.19–20 ob.: coll. Prob. by BAMBOOZLE ex †S.E. jargogle, to confuse.

jark; often jarke

*. A seal: c.: mid-C.16–19. Often corrupted to jack. ?cf. Romany jarika, an apron. 2. Whence, a safe-conduct pass: C.19–20, ob. 3. A watch: low (?orig. c.): C.19–20, ob. More gen. YACK.

jark it

. To run away: low: ca 1820–60. ?ex jerk: cf. C.20 put a jerk into it. 2. In C.17–18 c., it occurs in blot the scrip and jark it, where jark=to seal.

jarkman

*. A writer of begging letters; a habitual carrier, or a fabricator, of false papers: c.: mid-C.16–mid-19.

jarrehoe

. A man servant: Wellington College: C.19–early 20. ?origin.

Jarvey, the Fighting

. Bill Wood: pugilistic: ca 1810–30. Ex:

jarvis or jervis; jarv(e)y, jarvie

. A hackney coachman: s. >, ca 1870, coll: the -is forms in late C.18–early 19: the -(e)y, -ie forms from 1819, ob. by 1898, †by 1910 except as=the driver of an Irish car. Serjeant Ballantine in his Experiences. 2. Hence, a hackney coach: ca 1819–70. Moncrieff. 3. Occ. as v.i., to drive a carriage: 1826. Ex the proper name, ‘perhaps in allusion to St Gervase, whose attribute is a whip or scourge’; W.

jas(e)y or jaz(e)y

. A (worsted) wig: ?orig. c.: by 1840 coll: by 1870, S.E.: 1789, George Parker. Ex Jersey(flax).

jasey (or jazey), cove with a

. A judge: ?orig. c.: C.19.

Jason’s fleece

*. A citizen swindled out of his money: late C.17–early 19: either c. or low s.

jasy

, see JASEY.

jaum

* . To discern; discover: c. of ca 1815–1900. Haggart; Egan’s Grose, where it is spelt jaun. Origin? Possibly cognate with dial. jaum (=jam), > to corner in an argument (E.D.D.).

jaundy

. A master at arms: naval (–1909). Ware, ‘Supposed to be from “gendarme”’ The more gen. form is jaunty, recorded by the O.E.D. (Sup.) for 1904. Also jonty. Whence:

jaunty’s boat’s crew

. The men remaining in one of the old naval hulks after the ships had drawn their companies: ?ca 1800–40—a dating that affects JAUNDY

javel

. A dock-loafer, gen. also a thief: nautical: C.18. An extension of †S.E. javel, a low fellow, a rogue.

jaw

. (Continual) talk; impudence: coll: mid-C.18–20. Smollett, “None of your jaw, you swab,”...replied my uncle.’ 2. A talk, speech, lecture: low coll: from ca 1800.

jaw

, v. To chatter; speak, esp. if impudently or violently; (v.t.) abuse grossly: (low) coll: mid-C.18–20. Smollett, ‘They jawed together...a good spell’; Thackeray. 2. To address abusively, scold or address severely: low coll: from ca 1810. Marryat. 3. To go: tramps’ c.: from ca 1860. B. & L. derive ex Romany java, I go, and cf. Anglo-Indian jao (or jaw)!, go, of mid-C.19–20.

jaw, hold or stow one’s

. To fall or be silent: coll > ca 1890, undignified S.E.: from ca 1780. Foote (hold). In C.19–20, often stop, as in H.Kingsley’s Geoffrey Hamlyn.

jaw-bone

. Credit (TICK, n., 2): Canadian (ca 1860) >, ca 1880, military. 2. Hence, call one’s jaw-bone, to live on credit: from ca 1890.

jaw-breaker

. A word difficult of pronunciation: coll: W.N.Glascock, SketchBook, 1826. Baumann, 1887, has the rare variant, break-jaw. cf. the U.S. form, jaw-cracker. 2. A hard punch on the jaw: pugilistic coll of ca 1860–1900. 3. A cheap, large, hard or sticky sweet: late C.19–20.

jaw-breaking

, adj. Difficult to pronounce: coll: from ca 1840. Thackeray. 2. The adv. in -ly is recorded for 1824.

jaw like a sheep's head, all

. Nothing but talk: coll: from ca 1870. Hindley.

jaw-mag

. Talk: mostly Cockneys': from ca 1880; ob. Pugh (2): 'He made her head ache, she declared, with his noisy jaw-mag.'

jaw-me-dead

. A very talkative fellow: late C.18–mid-19. Baumann (1887) has jaw-me-down, which he classifies as nautical: so, too, Bowen.

jaw-smith

. A (demagogic) orator: coll: ca 1860–1900: more U.S. than English.

jaw- (or jawing-) tackle

. The organs of speech: nautical: from ca 1830, 1858 resp.; ob. Trelawney, 1831; C.Reade, 'Ah! Eve, my girl, your jawing tackle is too well hung.' Baumann, 1887, records the variant jawing-gear.

Jaw-twister

. A (–1874) ob. coll elaboration Of JAW-BREAKER.

jaw-work

! ‘A cry used in fairs by the sellers of nuts’, Grose, 1st ed.: coll or c.p.: mid-C.18–mid-19.

jawaub

, see JUWAUB.

jawbation

. (Also JOBATION.) A general confabulation: coll and dial.: C.19–20. Ex: 2. A scolding: coll: C.18–20. cf.:

jawing

. A talk: (low) coll: late C.18–20. 2. A scolding: low coll: C.19–20.

jawing-gear

, see JAW—TACKLE.

jawing-match

. Wordy warfare: (low) coll: from ca 1815; ob. Moore.

jawing-tackle on board, have one's

. 'To be saucy or impudent', Egan's Grose: from ca 1820. cf. JAW-TACKLE.

jawkins

. A club bore: clubmen's coll: ca 1846–50. Ex Thackeray's Book of Snobs.

jay

. A wanton: late C.16–early 17 coll > S.E. Shakespeare. 2, An amateur; an inferior actor: theatrical: ca 1870–1905. 3. A simpleton (occ. asy): coll (–1889); ob. (Ware dates it at 1880.) Punch, 22 Feb. 1890, 'She must be a fair j as a mater.' The j prob. abbr. JUGGINS.

jay, flap a; play or scalp one for a

. To befool or swindle (a simpleton): low coll (–1887); ob.

jaz(e)y

, see JASEY.

jeames

. A flunkey; a footman: 1846: coll in C.19. Thackeray instituted the term in the Diary of C.Jeames de la Pluche, Esq.

Jedburgh, Jeddart, or Jedwood justice

. Hanging first and trying afterwards: C.18–20: Scots coll > historical S.E. A.Shields, 1706, ‘Couper Justice and Jedburgh Law’. Ex a piece of summary justice done at this Scots border town. cf. CUPAR JUSTICE; LYDFORDLAW.

Jee! or Gee! An orig

. euphemistic, now mostly U.S. coll corruption of Jesus!: mid-C.19–20. Whence, jee whizz!, indicative of surprise: late C.19–20, as in C.J.Dennis.

jeer

, see JERE.

jeff

. A rope: circus s. >, by 1900, j.: from ca 1850. Dickens in Hard Times. 2. A man, chap, fellow: tailors’: late C.19–20. Gen. in combination: e.g. FLAT-IRON JEFF.

jeff

, v. ‘To throw or gamble with quadrats as with dice’, Jacobi: printers’ (–1888). Ex U.S.(1837).

jeffy

, see JIFF.

jegger

*, see JIGGER, n., 1. Jehoshaphat, see JUMPING JEHOSHAPHAT. (A sonorous name for the mild purpose.)

jeldi (or -y)

, see JILDI.

jellico, OCC. jeelyco

. Angelica sylvestris: coll (–1853) >, ca 1880, S.E.

jelly

. A buxom and pretty girl: low: ca 1840–1910. Perhaps ex Scots jelly=excellent. 2. The semen virile: low coll: C.17–20; ob. Fietcher, in The Beggar’s Bush. cf.:

jelly-bag

. The scrotum. 2. The female pudend. Both low coll: C.17–20, ob.

jelly-belly

. A fat person: low coll: C.19–20. cf. forty-guts (at FORTY-FOOT).

jelly-dog

. A harrier (dog): sporting (–1897). With harriers, one hunts hares, which are gen. eaten with jelly.

jelly-dogging

, vbl n. Hunting with har-riers: sporting s.: 1889, R.S.S.Baden-Powell.

jem

*. A gold ring. (A RUM jem=a diamond ring.) Mid-C.18–mid-19 c.

Jem (occ. Jim) Mace

. A face: rhyming s.: late C.19–20. Ex the noted pugilist.

jemima

. A chamber-pot: low: C.19–20; ob. 2. A servant girl: Londoner's jocular coll (–1887); ob. cf. BIDDY, 2 and 3. 3. A dressmaker's dummy: domestic: since ca 1880.

jeminy

!, often preceded, occ. followed, by o(h). A variant of ob. GEMINI.

jemmily

. Neatly: coll: ca 1830–90. Ex JEMMY, adj., 1.

jemminess

. Neatness, spruceness: low coll: ca 1755–1890. See JEMMY, adj., 1.

jemmy

(in C.19, occ. jimmy). A short crowbar used by housebreakers: ?orig. (–1811) c.: by 1870, coll. Dickens, in Oliver Twist. Earlier JENNY; ca 1810–30, occ. called a jemmy rook; in U.S., jimmy. cf. JAMES. 2. A dandy: coll: ca 1752–1800, thereafter gen. jemmy jessamy (†by 1900), though the two terms were orig. distinct. Adventurer, No. 100, 1753, 'The scale...consists of eight degrees; Greenhorn, Jemmy, Jessamy, Smart, Honest Fellow, Joyous Spirit, Buck, and Blood.' See also JEMMY JESSAMY, adj. 3. Hence, a light cane, orig. and esp. one carried by a 'jemmy' or dandy: ca 1753–1800. 4. Hence, also, a finicky fellow: naval: ca 1760–1800. Bowen, 'Adopted by the mutineers of 1797 for all officers'. 5. A sheep's head cooked: coll: from ca 1820; ob. It occurs in Sinks, 1848, as 'the head', human or animal. cf. BLOODY JEMMY. 6. A shooting-coat; a greatcoat: coll: ca 1830–1910. Dickens, 'Your friend in the green jemmy.' 7. A term of contempt, esp. as all jemmy (more gen. all JIMMY), all rot!: ca 1860–1910. 8. A sovereign (coin): 1857, Augustus Mayhew, Paved with Gold. Short for JEMMY O' GOBLIN.

jemmy

, v. To open (a door, a window, etc.) with a JEMMY (n., 1): late C.19–20: c.

jemmy

, adj. Dandified, smart, neat: coll: ca 1750–1860; extant in dial. G.A. Stevens, 'Dressed as jemmy...as e'er a commoner in all England.' Ex †gim, smart, spruce. 2. Hence, sharp, clever: ca 1760–80. 3. A pejorative: low: ca 1860–1910. Ex the n., last sense.

Jemmy Donnelly

. A jocular coll name given to three kinds of large timber tree: Queensland: from ca 1880; ob.

Jemmy Ducks

. (Occ. Billy D.) The ship's poulterer: nautical: ca 1860–1905.

Jemmy Grant

, see JIMMY, n., 2, and JIMMY GRANT, 2.

jemmy jessamy

(gen. with capitals), adj. Dandified, effeminate: ca 1755–1860. Variant Jemmy Jessamine, not before 1823. See JEMMY, n., 2. Ex Eliza Haywood's The History of Jemmy and Jenny Jessamy, 1753.

jemmy-john

. A low coll corruption (–1864) of demijohn. T.B.Aldrich.

Jemmy o' Goblin

. A sovereign: (orig. theatrical) rhyming s.: from ca 1850. More frequently Jimmy o' Goblin.

jemmy rook

, see JEMMY, n., 1.

Jemmy Squaretoes

. The devil: nautical: C.19–20. cf. OLD SQUARE-TOES.

Jenkins' hen, die like

. i.e., unmarried: Scots coll: C.18–19.

jenny

. A small housebreaking crowbar: late C.17–early 19 c. cf. JEMMY, n., 1.; BESS; BETTY, and the Ger. Peterchen, Klaus, Dietrich. 2. A she-ass: C.19–20: coll >, by 1890, S.E. Abbr. jenny ass. 3. ‘A losing hazard into the middle pocket off a ball an inch or two from the side cushion,’ F. & H.: 1856 (S.O.D.); billiards s. > j. 4. A hot-water bottle: coll: from ca 1880; ob.

jenny

*, v. To understand: c. (–1909). Perhaps a perversion of GRANNY, v., or JERRY, v.

Jenny Darbies

. Policemen: ca 1830–70. Charles Martell, The Detectives’ Note Book, 1860, ‘Well, I joined the [police] force.... There was a good deal of animosity against us for a long while and all sorts of opprobrious epithets were bestowed upon us. We were “Bobbies”, “Bluebottles”, “Peelers”, and “Jenny Darbies” (gens d’armes).’

Jenny Hills

. (Very rare in singular.) Pills: rhyming s.: late C.19–20. Ex a music-hall star famous in the 1870s.

Jenny Lea or Lee

. Tea: rhyming s.: late C.19–20. Also ROSY LEE and YOU AND ME.

jenny linda or -er, Jenny Linda or -er

. A window: rhyming s. (–1857). On winder, the low coll pronunciation, ex Jenny Lind, the famous mid-C.19 singer.

Jenny Wren

. A wren: coll: mid-C.17–20. An excellent example of the people’s poetry (‘twopence coloured’).

jere or jeer

. (The latter is rare and erroneous.) A turd: c.: C.17–18 (?–19). 2. Hence (?), one’s posterior: low; esp. showmen’s: C.19–20.

Jeremiah

, v. To complain: lower classes’ coll (–1909). cf.:

Jeremiah-mongering

. ‘Deplorable and needless lamentation’: Society: 1885–6. ‘Invented to describe the behaviour of those who after the fall of Khartoum’—the country is going to the dogs, sir!—‘went around maintaining that England had indeed come to a finality’ (Ware).

jeremy diddler

(or with capitals), A shark or sharper; a shabby and dishonest borrower: coll: 1803, Kenney names thus a man in Raising the Wind; ob. Personification of DIDDLE.

Jericho

. A place of banishment, retirement, concealment, or desirable distance, esp. in go to Jericho, which in the imperative=go to the devil!: s. > coll: from ca 1635. Ex II Samuel x, 4–5. cf. HALIFAX. 2. A privy: from ca 1750: low: †.

Jericho, have been to

. To be tipsy: C.18– early 19: drinkers'. cf. JERUSALEM, BE GOING TO.

Jericho to June, from

. A long way: coll: ca 1835–1915.

jerk

, v. To write, as in jerk a poem: (low) coll: ca 1770–1905. 2. To accost eagerly: coll or s.: ca 1740–1810. 3. To rob (a person of) c.: from ca 1880.

jerk, cly the

*. To be whipped at the post: C.17–18 c.

Jerk, Dr.

A flogging schoolmaster: coll: ca 1740–1830. Foote.

jerk, in a

. Instantly: coll: ca 1760–1820. G.A.Stevens, ‘Put wine into wounds,| You’ll be cured in a jerk.’ Extant in dial.

jerk a gybe

*. To forge a licence: midC.17–18 c.

Jerk a part

, see SLING A PART.

jerk a wheeze

. To tell a WHEEZE with brilliant effect: theatrical: 1860, says Ware, but he, I believe, antedated it by a decade—perhaps even by two decades.

jerk chin-music

. To talk: ca 1870–1910: coll, mostly U.S.

jerk-nod

, see YERKNOD.

jerk off

, v.i. and v. reflexive. To masturbate: low coll: C.18–20. An ob. low s. variant is jerk one's jelly or juice or mutton or turkey.

jerk the cat

, see CAT, SHOOT THE.

jerk the tinkler

. To ring the bell: jocular: from ca 1830. Dickens, in Oliver Twist.

jerker

. A tippier: low: ca 1830–1900. ?ex jerk one's elbow. 2. A steward: nautical: from ca 1850; ob. 3. A harlot: urban (mostly London): from ca 1860; ob. Ex JERK, v., 2. 4. A chamber-pot: low: from ca 1870; ob.

jerks

. Delirium tremens: coll: from ca 1820.

jeroboam

. A chamber-pot: ca 1820–80. Whence JERRY, 3.

jerran

. Anxious; (greatly) concerned: Australia: ca 1820–1900. Peter Cunningham, ‘Rolf Boldrewood’. Ex jirrand, Botany Bay Aborigine for afraid.

jerrawicke

. Australian-made beer: Australian coll: ca 1850–60. ?ex Aborigine.

jerry

*. A fog, a mist: c. of ca 1810–80. 2. Also c. (–1887), a watch: ob. 3. A chamber-pot: low: from ca 1825. A water-closet (–1850). Ex JEROBOAM. Hence, 3 a, a cup, as in the cricket or sports jerry: Charterhouse: late C.19–20. 4. A (hard, round) hat: ca 1840–1900. Abbr. TOM-AND-JERRY hat. 5. A celebration of completed indentures: printers’: from ca 1870; ob. 6. A low beer-house: from ca 1850: coll >, ca 1880, S.E. Abbr. JERRY-SHOP. 7. A jerry-builder: 1890 (S.O.D.): s. 8. A recognition, discovery, TUMBLE: low: from ca 1880. Ex the v. 9. A variant of GERRY.

jerry

, v.i. and t. To recognize; discern, discover, detect; understand: low: from ca 1870. Prob. ex JERRYCUMMUMBLE. cf. RUMBLE, itself prob. suggested by TUMBLE, the latter prob. ex jerrycummumble. 2. To jibe (at); chaff maliciously: low: ca 1850–90. Ex jeer.

jerry

, adj. Unsubstantial; constructed unsubstantially: from ca 1880: coll. cf. next two entries. ?etymology: perhaps ex Jerry, familiar and/or contemptuous for Jeremiah. More prob. a corruption of jury (as in jury-mast, -leg, etc.), as W. suggests.

jerry-builder

. ‘A rascally speculating builder,’ F. & H.: recorded in 1881 but arising in Liverpool ca 1830. The vbl n. jerry-building occurs in a Liverpool paper of 1861.

jerry-built

. Unsubstantial(ly built): 1883: coll. Daily Telegraph, 23 March 1883; J. Newman in Scamping Tricks, 1891. ?ex Jeremiah, or=jury-built (W.): see JERRY, adj.

jerry-come-tumble

. A water-closet: lower classes’ (–1860). Ex JERRY, n., 3, influenced by JERRY-GO-NIMBLE or by JERRY CUMMUMBLE or by both.

jerry-getting, -nicking, -stealing

*. The stealing of watches: c. (–1888); ob.

jerry-go-nimble

. Diarrhoea: coll: C.19. Earlier, THOROUGH-GO-NIMBLE. 2. An antic or JACK PUDDING: C.19 coll > S.E. Henley & Stevenson.

Jerry Lynch

. A pickled pig's-head: low: mid-C.19–20; ob.

jerry-nicking

*, see JERRY-GETTING.

Jerry Riddle (or Riddell)

, n. and v. Urination; to urinate: mid-C.19–20. Rhyming on PIDDLE. cf. JERRY, n., 2.

jerry-shop

. A (low) beer-house: from ca 1830: s. > coll >, ca 1860, S.E. Often abbr. JERRY (n., 6) as in Mayhew, 'A beer-shop or, as he called it, a jerry.'

jerry sneak

. A henpecked husband: 1763, Foote instituted the character in The Mayor of Garratt: coll: †by 1860. 2. In c., a watch thief: C.19–20; ob.

jerry-stealing

*, see JERRY-GETTING.

jerry wag

. A spreester, esp. if half drunk: ca 1820–70.

jerry-wag shop

. A coffee shop or stall: ca 1820–70.

jerry(cum)mumble

. To shake, tousle, tumble: C.18–early 19. Cibber the shorter, Grose (1st ed.) the longer form. Perhaps on stumble. Whence, perhaps, TUMBLE, to understand (v.t. with to), JERRY, the same, and RUMBLE, the same.

jersey

. A red-headed person: Australian: from ca 1870.

Jersey hop

. ‘An unceremonious assembly of persons with a common taste for valsing; from Jersey, U.S.A.’: ca 1883–1900. Ware.

Jerusalem

! Indicative of surprise. Mid-C.19–20. Perhaps the origin of JEE! cf. JERUSALEM, GO TO.

Jerusalem, be going to

. To be drunk: drinkers’: C.18–early 19. cf. JERICHO, HAVE BEEN TO. Both terms occur in Franklin’s Drinker’s Dict., 1745.

Jerusalem!, go to . Go to blazes! C.19–20. cf. JERICHO!, GO TO.

Jerusalem artichoke

. A donkey: rhyming s., on MOKE, 1: from ca 1870.

Jerusalem pony

. An ass: from ca 1820; ob.: s. >, ca 1850, coll. Ex Christ's entry into Jerusalem on an ass. cf. EGYPTIAN CHARGER. 2. Hence, a needy clergyman doing locum tenens work: clerical: from ca 1850; ob.cf. GUINEA-PIG.

Jerusalem the Golden

. Brighton: from ca 1870. Ex the numerous rich Jews there.

jervis

, see JARVIS.

jessamine

. A C.19 variant of:

jessamy

. As n., a fashionable man next above a JEMMY (see n., 2): ca 1750–1830. 2. As adj., dandified, effeminate: ca 1680–1850. Head, G.A.Stevens. (For both, see also JEMMY JESSAMY. Like jessamine, of which it is a corruption, it is ex the flower (jasmine).)

jessie or jessy, give

(a person). To thrash: non-aristocratic (–1860); slightly ob. Ex Isaiah xi, 1, ‘There shall come forth a rod out of the stem of Jesse.’

Jesso

. The inevitable nickname of anyone surnamed Read: naval and, hence, military: late C.19–20. Why?

jester

. A JOKER, CHAP, fellow: coll: ca 1860–1905. See also ARTIST; MERCHANT. A very interesting s. and coll synonymy exists for a fellow.

jesuit

. A sodomite: coll: ca 1630–1820. Whence jesuits’ fraternity, the world of sodomy, as in Rochester, ‘The Jesuits’ fraternity|Shall leave the use of buggery.’ cf. BOX THE JESUIT and the opprobrious sense attaching to Jesuit even in S.E. The Society of Jesus is here made the scapegoat for all monastic orders—against whom, as against sailors, the charge of masturbation is often laid. 2. A graduate or an undergraduate of Jesus College, Oxford: Oxford University: ca 1760–1890. Smollett, in Humphrey Clinker.

Jesuit, box the

, see BOX THE JESUIT...

Jesus'-eyes

. Forget-me-nots: Roman Catholic coll (–1909).

jet

*. A lawyer: c.: C.18–early 19. cf. AUTEM jet, a parson.

jet one's juice

. (Of men) to experience the sexual spasm: low: C.19–20; ob. cf. COME.

jeuced infernal

, see DEUCED INFERNAL.

Jew

, n. A ship's tailor: nautical: late C.19–20. cf. JEWING.

jew

, v. To drive a very hard bargain, to overreach or cheat: coll: 1845.

Jew(-)bail

. Insufficient or worthless bail: mid-C.18–mid-19: coll.

Jew-balance

. A hammer-headed shark: nautical: late C.19–20.

Jew boy

. A (young) Jewish male: mid-C.19–20: coll. Mayhew, 1861.

Jew fencer

. A Jewish street buyer or salesman, esp. of stolen goods: low: from ca 1850. See FENCER (not FENCE).

Jew-Jack

*, see JACK THE JEW.

Jew parade

. Sunday cookhouse fatigue for those who dodge the church parade, whether they are Jews or not: Army: late C.19–20.

jewing

, vbl n. Tailoring; sewing; nautical: late C.19–20. cf. JEW, n. Hence, jewing-bag, the bag in which a sailor keeps his sewing-gear: id.: id.

Jewish nightcap

. Foreskin: low: late C.19–20. With reference to circumcision.

Jew's compliment

, see JUDISCHE COMPLIMENT.

Jew's eye, worth a

. Extremely valuable: late C.16–20; ob. Perhaps ex eyes put out by medieval torturers to enforce payment. G.Harvey, 'Let it everlastingly be recorded for a sovereign Rule, as deare as a Jewes eye'.

Jew's(-)harp

. A hair-comb with tissue paper applied to one side: on humming against the other, one can produce queer music: C.19–20: s. >, ca 1890, coll. Punning the S.E. musical instrument so named.

Jews on a pay-day, (as) thick as two

. (To be) intimate: Cockney (–1887).

Jew's poker

. One who lights Jews' fires on Saturdays (the Jewish Sabbath): from ca 1870. Lloyd's Weekly, 17 May 1891.

Jezebel

. The male member: C.19–20 low. Perhaps ex II Kings ix, 33: 'And he said, throw her down. So they threw her down.'

jib

. The underlip (as in hang one's jib, to look dejected); also, the face (as in nautical CUT OF ONE'S JIB, one's personal looks or look): coll and dial.: from late C.18. 2. A first-year undergraduate: Dublin University: from ca 1840; ob. Lever. 3. A horse given to jibbing: 1843 (S.O.D.): coll >, ca 1895, S.E. Mayhew. 4. See JIBB. 5. A flat-folding, 'chimney-pot' hat, closed by springs set in centre of vertical ribs: Society: 1848–80. Ex Fr. gibus (from the inventor's name).

jib

, v. To depart (esp. hastily or slyly): low coll: from ca 1850.

jib-and-staysail Jack

. The seaman's name for an officer given, whether inexperienced or a martinet, to tormenting the men by constantly 'making and shortening sail' to keep the ship in station when it forms one of a fleet: naval: late C.18–mid-19.

jib draw!, long may your big

. 'Good luck!', esp. to a man leaving the service: naval (–1909). Of erotic origin.

jib of jibs

. An impossible sail: nautical coll: ca 1850–1910. Ex nautical j. for the outermost jib (a triangular stay-sail). cf. sky-scraper, a 'sky sail'.

Jibb

*. The tongue; hence language, speech: C.19–early 20 tramps' c. Ex Romany chib, jib.

jibber the kibber

. To deceive seamen and thus wreck ships 'by fixing a candle and lantern round the neck of a horse, one of whose fore feet is tied up; this at night has the appearance of a ship's light,' Grose, 2nd ed.: late C.18–early 19. The phrase is mysterious: jibber—by itself, however, unrecorded before 1824—gen.=to talk confusedly, here prob.=to confuse. But what is kibbert? unless it be a rhyme-tag?

jickajog

. A pushing; a commotion: low: C.17–mid-19. Jonson. Euphonic reduplication on jog. cf. JIG-JOG.

jiff

(1790, ob.); gen. jiffy (1785); occ. jeffy (–1791). A moment: coll. Rare except when preceded by in a. Grose, 3rd ed.; H. & J.Smith; Thackeray; Milliken (jiff). ?etymology, perhaps suggested by jiffle, to fidget.

jiffess

. An employer's wife: tailors': from ca 1860; ob.

jiffy

, see JIFF.

jig

. Abbr. JIGGER, c. senses. 2. Applied to a person, a domestic animal, etc.: jocular coll: C.18–19. Bentham, 'This Lord and Lady Traction are the queerest jigs you ever saw.' 3. A swindler: Winchester College: ca 1840–70. 3a. Hence, a clever fellow: ibid.: from ca 1860. 4. A swindle, a low joke, an object of sport: ibid.: from ca 1870.

jig, on the

. Fidgety: coll: from ca 1880. Jefferies, in Wood Magic.

jig, the feather-bed or the buttock- or Moll Peatley's

. Copulation: low coll: C.17–20; ob.

jig-a-jig

; in C.19 often jig-jig. n. and v. for sexual intercourse: low: v. from ca 1840, n. from ca 1900. In the 1840s there was a street-ballad entitled Jig Jig to the Hirings, wherein jig-jig occurs as a v. Echoic. cf. JIG-JOG, JIGGLE and ZIG ZIG,

jig by jowl

. Cheek by jowl: late C.17–18 coll. D'Urfey.

jig is up, the

. The game is up: late C.18–20: S.E. till ca 1850, then coll.

jig-jog, jigga-jog(gy)

. A jolting movement: coll verging on S.E. C.17–20. Marston.

jig(g)amaree

. A trick; a fanciful contrivance: recorded in England from ca 1845; ob.: coll, esp. in U.S. (where recorded in 1824). Ex various dial. Halliwell. Fanciful on jig.

jiggalorum

. A fanciful, gen. worthless, trifle: coll: C.17–18. cf. COCKALORUM.

jig(g)ambob, OCC. jiggembob

, see JIGGUMBOB.

Jigger

. An ‘inevitable’ nickname of men surnamed Lees: mostly naval and military: late C.19–20.

jigger

*. Its c. senses are: A door: mid-C.16–19. Also as jig, gigger, gyger, jegger. 2. A door-keeper: C.18–20, ob. Parker. Also jigger-dubber. 3. A key, a lock: ca 1815–70. 4. A whipping-post: C.18–early 19. John Hall. 5. A private or secret still: ca 1820–1910. Its s. senses: 6. A fiddlestick: C.18–19. 7. A bridge or rest: billiards: 1847. 8. The curtain: theatrical: from ca 1850; ob. 9. A prison cell: 1896, Max Pemberton. Ex next. 10. A guardroom: military (–1882). 11. The penis: low s.: C.19–20. 12. The female pudend: id.: id.

jigger

, v.t. and i. To shake and jerk often and rapidly: coll: 1867. Ex jig, v. of motion. 2. To circumvent, damage, ruin: from ca 1860. Ex JIGGERED! cf. JIGGERED UP. 3. To imprison, shut up: 1887, Hall Caine; ob. Gen. with up.

jigger, not worth a

. Worthless: (low) coll: 1861, Punch, ‘The churches here ain’t worth a jigger—no, not half-a-jigger.’

jigger-dubber

*. A door-keeper, turnkey: c.: ca 1770–1880. See JIGGER, esp.

jigger-stuff

. Illicitly distilled spirits: ca 1840–1900: low (?orig. c.).

jigger-worker

. A vendor of illicitly distilled spirits: ca 1840–1905. 2. A drinker of whisky, esp. if illicitly distilled: low (–1896); ob.

jiggered

, ppl adj. Made from a secret still: from ca 1880. Judy, 4 Aug. 1886, ‘Jiggered gin’. Suggested by JIGGER-STUFF.

jiggered!, be

. As in I’m, or I’ll be, jiggered!, you be jiggered! Marryat, 1837. Possibly a deliberate fusing and perversion of Jesus and buggered; cf., however, SNIGGERED.

jiggered up

. Exhausted: nautical (–1867). cf. JIGGER, v., 2, but prob. ex last entry.

jiggery-pokery; occ. jackery-pokery

. Humbug; underhand work: ?orig. (ca 1880) tailors’ s.; coll by 1900. Ex Scottish joukery-paukery ex jouk, a trick. cf. HANKY-PANKY; HOCUS-POCUS, W.

jigget, OCC. jiggit

, v.i. To jig, fidget, hop about, shake up and down: coll: 1687. Mrs Behn, Miss Mitford, Kipling. Diminutive of jig.

jiggety, jiggity

. Having a hopping or jerky movement: coll: from ca 1880.

jiggle

, v.i. and t. To have sexual intercourse with: low: from ca 1845. Ex the S.E. sense. Hence jiggling-bone, the male member. cf. JIG-A-JIG.

jiggot o' mutton

*. A leg of mutton: c. (–1909). Fr. gigot.

jig(g)umbob

. Also jig(g)ambob, -embob, -ombob; gig(g)umbob, etc.; gingam(or um)bob. Something odd or very fanciful; something unspecified: coll: C.17–20; ob. Beaumont & Fletcher, 'What Giggombob have we here?' Rare of a person. Ex JIG, n.: cf. THINGUMBOB.

jil-crow-a-berry

. The anglicized pronunciation and spelling of the aboriginal name for the indigenous Rat-tail Grass: Australian coll (–1898).

jildi, jildy; jildo; OCC. jeldi (-y)

; very often jillo, adj. and adv. Lively; look sharp!: Regular Army's: late C.19–20. Ex Hindustani. (Also, as adv., on the jildi.) cf. Romany jido, jidilo, lively.

jilt

*. A crowbar: c. (–1859); ob. In pl, housebreaking tools in general. 2. A harlot: s.: Ned Ward, 1703.

jilt

*, v. Enter a building slyly or on false pretences, and then steal: c.: from ca 1860; ob.

jilter

*. A thief acting as in JILT, v.: c.: from ca 1860. Also called a note-blanker. (Such thieves work in pairs.)

Jim Brown

. Town: rhyming s. (–1893).

Jim Crow

, see BILLY BARLOW.

jim-jam

. A knick-knack: coll (–1592); †by 1700. A reduplication on the first syllable of gimcrack. 2. Delirium tremens: in pl only (the j.-j.): 1885. Often called the jams (ob.). Perhaps influenced by WHIM-WHAM. 3. Also pl only: peculiarities: coll (–1899).

Jim Mace

, see JEM MACE.

jimbugg

. A sheep: Australia: from ca 1850; ob. More gen. is jumbuck (–1845); orig. the natives' pidgin English: the word meaning, in Aborigine, a white mist, the only thing with which a fleck of sheep could be compared.

jiminy

, see GEMINI.

jimkwim; jimmant

. Corruptions of DocTOR JIM.

jimmy

. A mainly U.S. variant of JEMMY, n., 1. 2. (Jimmy.) A new chum or immigrant: Australian (–1859); †by 1897. Also (–1867) Jimmy (or Jemmy) Grant, presumably after immigrant, though see JIMMY GRANT, 2. (Only Jimmy;) In South Africa (esp. Natal) by 1878, notes Pettman. 3. A contrivance; anything faked; a concealed helper: showmen’s: from ca 1850. 4. Abbr. Jimmy o’ Goblin, JEMMY O’ GOBLIN. 5. ‘The nickname used as an alternative to Shiner for all naval Greens’ (Bowen): late C.19–20.

jimmy

, adj., see JEMMY, adj.

jimmy, all

. All nonsense: Cambridge University: ca 1860–1910. See also JEMMY, n., 7.

Jimmy Bung(s)

. A cooper: naval (–1909). Prob. ex bung-hole. Also BUNGS.

Jimmy Ducks

. The rating in charge of the ship's poultry: naval: ca 1800–50. cf. DUCK-FUCKER. 2. Hence, a galley boy, a butcher's assistant: nautical: mid-C.19–20.

jimmy (or J.) fixing

. 'A mechanical contraption of any description': merchant service: late C.19–20. Bowen. cf. HOOK-ME-DINGHY.

Jimmy Grant

. See JIMMY, n., 2. 2. An emigrant: rhyming s.: New Zealand, from 1840s. Also Jemmy Grant.

Jimmy Low

. A eucalyptus timber-tree: Australia (–1889). After some New South Wales CHARACTER. cf. JEMMY DONNELLY.

Jimmy o' Goblin

, see JEMMY O' GOBLIN.

Jimmy Riddle

. To urinate: rhyming s. (on PIDDLE); late C.19–20.

Jimmy Round

. (Gen. pl.) A Frenchman: naval: late C.18–early 19. Ware derives it from the Fr. je me rends, I surrender.

Jimmy Skinner

. A dinner: rhyming s. (–1896).

Jimmy the Bunting

. A signalman: naval: late C.19–20. With a pun on Baby Bunting and bunting, flags in the mass.

jingbang, OCC. jimbang

. (Sometimes hyphenated. Always preceded by the whole.) A lot, or group, complete: mainly Scots coll (–1891). Stevenson, 'The only seaman of the whole jing-bang.'

jingle-box

*. A leathern drinking vessel tipped with silver and hung with bells, in C.17 use among toppers: C.17–18.

jingle-boy

, see GINGLE-BOY.

jingle-brains

. A wild HARUM-SCARUM fellow: C.17–18; coll. Extant in dial.

jingler

*. A horse-dealer frequenting country fairs: early C.17–18 c.

jingo!, by the living

. A C.19–20 (ob.) elaboration of:

jings!

, more gen. by jingo; in late C.18–20 Scotland, always (by) jing(s). A mild oath: coll: from ca 1694 as an exclamation, but in 1670, and prob. much earlier, it was a piece of conjuror's gibberish. The word comes prob. ex Basque J(a)inko, God, via the Basque harpooners on British whalers.

Jiniper-, in C.18–19 juniper-lecture

. A scolding: late C.17–mid-19: coll. B.E.'s jiniper-l. is obviously a misprint, but it may have reproduced a Cockney pronunciation.

jink

. Coin, money: late C.19–20. Perhaps on CHINK. 2, In pl, see HIGH JINKS.

jink one's tin

. To pay, SHELL OUT; rattle one's money: low: from ca 1850; ob.

jinker

. A light sulky, with room for only one person; esp. one used in speed-trotting trials: Australian coll (from ca 1875). Ex jinker, a vehicular contrivance for the transport of tree trunks.

jinket

. To be very merry; dance about: coll, the former 1742, ob., the latter 1823, ob. Ex jink.

jinks

. See HIGH JINKS. 2. Jinks the Barber. A secret informant; middle classes': mid-C.19–20; ob. Ware, 'The general barber being such a gossip. Jinks is a familiar name'—coll, from ca 1820—'for an easy-going man'.

Jinny

*. A Geneva watch: c.: late C.19–20; ob. Ex Geneva.

Jinny Spinner (or j.-s.)

. A cockroach: nautical: late C.19–20.

jintoe

*. A girl of poor reputation; a whore: South African (low s. and c.): late C.19–20.

jip; esp. stick of jip

*. Indian ink: c.: mid-C.19–20. 'No. 747'. cf. JIPPING.

jip, give one

, see GIP, GIVE.

kipper, Jippo

. Gravy: nautical: from ca 1850. Occ. it=juice, syrup, or even dripping. Perhaps ultimately ex †jippo, a tunic, hence a scullion. Just possibly, a Gippo being a man of brown colour, ex sense 2; but I shouldn't be surprised if it were proved to be a corruption of sipper. 2. Jippo, an incorrect form of Gyppo, an Egyptian.

jipping

*, vbl n. Staining (part of a horse) with Indian ink to conceal a blemish: c.: mid-C.19–20. 'No. 747': cf. JIP.

jippo

, see JIPPER.

jirrand

, see JERRAN.

jo

. See JOE, n. 2. An exclamation, a warning: Australia: from ca 1853; ob. Also joe, joey. Ex Charles Joseph La Trobe, the Victorian Governor at that time. W. Howitt, Two Years in Victoria, 1855. Also a v. (–1861), with variant joey. T.McCombie, Australian Sketches, 1861.

jo-jo

. A man with much hair on his face: Melbourne (Australia): low: ca 1880–1905. Ex a Russian ‘dog-man’, ostensibly so named, exhibited in Melbourne ca 1880.

joan, Joan

. A fetter, esp. in Darby and Joan, fetters coupling two prisoners. C.18–19. Suggested by DARBIES, handcuffs or fetters.

Joan, homely

. A coarse, ordinary woman: C.17–18 coll. In dial., Joan Blunt.

Job

. A henpecked husband: lower and lower-middle classes’ coll: coined by Douglas Jerrold, in Mrs Caudle’s Curtain Lectures, 1846; ob. Ex the Biblical character.

job

. A guinea: c. of ca 1670–1830. Whence half a job, half a guinea. Occ. jobe. 2. A robbery: C.18–20, c. >, ca 1850, low. Defoe, in Moll Flanders, ‘It was always reckoned a safe job when we heard of a new shop.’

job

, v. To coït with: coll: C.16–20. Anon. play of Thersites, 1537; Burns. Ex job, to prod; cf. JAB, v., 2. 2. See JOBE.

job, be on the

. ‘To mean honestly; to be genuine; to “run straight”; to work quickly and steadily; to achieve complete success; to be bent on’, F. & H. Coll: from ca 1880.

job, do a

. To conduct a funeral: undertakers’ coll (–1864). 2. See DO A JOB. 3. To defecate: both children’s and adults’: late C.19–20. Euphemistic.

job, have got the

. To have a commission to bet on a horse: racing: from ca 1875.

job for her, do a woman’s

. To accomplish the sexual act with her—and to her pleasure. Low coll: from ca 1850.

job for him, do a man’s

. To ruin; knock out; kill; low coll: from ca 1860.

job for oneself, do a

. To defecate: late C.19–20: (?orig. low) coll.

job of it, make a clean

. To do thoroughly: coll: from ca 1885. Anstey, Voces Populi, II, 1892.

Jobanjeremiah

. A maunderer: lower classes' (–1909); ob. Ware, 'Combination of the two doleful patriarchs'.

jobation

. A (tedious) reproof or rebuke: coll: from ca 1765; ob. Ex JOBE, v. The alternative form JAWBATION has been influenced by JAW, n. and v. Colman, 1767, in The Oxon in Town, 'As dull and melancholy as a fresh-man...after a jobation'.

jobbed, that job's

. It's finished: coll: 1840, Marryat, 'That job's jobbed, as the saying is.'

jobberknot, -nut

*. (Or hyphenated.) A tall, clumsy fellow: C.19 c.

jobbernowl, -nol(l), -nole

. A fool's head; a fool: coll: late C.16–20; ob. ?ex job(b)ard, a simpleton. The -nol(l) forms not before ca 1670, and rare after 1750. 2. adj., stupid: coll: from ca 1825; ob.

jobbing

. Sexual intercourse: mainly Scots coll: C.17–20.

jobe

*, see JOB, n., 1.

jobe, OCC. job

. To rebuke lengthily and tediously: coll: ca 1670–1830. 'Cambridge term', Grose, 2nd ed. (following Ray). Ex the lengthy reproofs of Job's friends.

Job's dock, be laid up in

. To be treated in hospital for a venereal disease: coll: C.18 early 19. A malicious interpretation of Job's 'sore boils'. cf. JOB'S WARD.

Job's tears

. The seeds of Coix lachryma, 'which are used for necklace-making by the native tribes on Cape York peninsula, are there called Job's tears', Morris. Australia (–1897). But also of the natives of Papua, where they are worn only by widows as a sign of mourning: cf. Job when 'separated' from his family.

Job's turkey, as poor as . Exceedingly poor: coll of ca 1820–1910: mainly and perhaps orig. U.S.

Job's ward

. The ward for venereal patients in St Bartholomew's Hospital: mid-C.18–mid-19: prob. orig. medical.

Job's wife

. A wanton and scolding woman: coll: C.19. cf. JOB.

joby

. A vendor of sweets and refreshments: Eton College: late C.19–20.

Jock

. A North Country seaman, esp. a collier: coll: mid-C.18–19. Also crowdy-headed Jock, ‘Jock being a common name, and crowdy the chief food, of the lower order of the people of Northumberland,’ Grose, 2nd ed. 2. A Scot. Coll: from ca 1870. In C.16–19 dial., Jocky. 3. Hence, the ‘inevitable’ nickname of men with a Scottish surname or accent: late C.19–20.

jock

. ‘Private parts of a man or woman,’ Potter, Dict. of Cant and Flash, 1790: low. (Of a woman, very rare after ca 1880.) See the v. 2. Abbr. jockey: coll: from ca 1825; ob.

jock

*, v. To coït with a woman: late C.17–19: c. till C.19, when low. cf. JOCKUM-CLOY; also JOCKUM, which it prob. abbr.; hence the n., 1.

Jock, hairy

. (Gen. pl.) A variant of JOCK, 2, second nuance—but not in his hearing!

Jock Blunt, look like

. To be out of countenance through disappointment: C.18–early 19. Ramsay. Contrast JACK BLUNT, and its dial. counterpart Joan Blunt.

jockam

, see JOCKUM.

jockey

, v. To appropriate, engage, supplant: Winchester College: from ca 1820; ob.

jockey not!; jockey up

! Winchester College ob. cries of (a) exemption, (b) participation. (cf. BAGS!) Mid.C.19–20.

jockey (or bag) the over

. So to run as to get all the bowling to oneself: cricketers': from ca 1860.

jockeying

. 'Vehicular racing': London streets': C.19. Ware.

jockeys

. Top-boots: trade: from ca 1850; ob. Mayhew.

jockum; occ. jockam

*. The penis: c.: mid-C.16–early 19.

jockum-cloy

*. To coït with (a woman): C.17–early 19 c. Ex JOCKUM+CLOY. cf. JOCK, v. 2. Also n.

jockum-gage

*. A chamber-pot: c.: C.17–19. Ex JOCKUM.

jockum-gagger

*. A man living on his wife’s harlotry: ?C.18–early 19: c.

jocky

*. ‘A Man’s Yard’, Holme, 1688; whence JOCK, n.

joe

. Abbr. JOE MILLER: 1834. 2. (Also JOEY.) A fourpenny piece: ca 1840–1910. Ex Joseph Hume, politician and financial expert (1777–1855). E.Hawkins, Silver Coins of England. 3. A marine: nautical: ca 1850–1900. Abbr. JOSEPH. 4. A Portuguese and Brazilian gold coin: 1772: coll >, ca 1880, S.E. Ex Johannes, recorded in 1762 in U.S., where jo occurs in 1765. Derivatively a nautical name for the sum of sixteen dollars: ca 1790–1850: John Davis, The Post Captain, 1805. 5. Joe or Joey. A police-trooper: Australian miners' derogatory in the 1850s. Prob. of same origin as jo, 2. 6. As Joe, it=an imaginary person, as in ““Who did that?”—“Joe””: ca 1830–70. Sinks, 1848.

joe

, v.i. To poke fun; to take liberties with text or audience: theatrical: ca 1865–1900. Kingsley. Ex Australia, where (–1861) it means—gen. as v.t.—to ridicule; insult grossly; now ob. See JO, 2, also JOEY.

Joe, not for

, see JOSEPH, NOT FOR.

Joe Blake

. A cake: rhyming s.: late C.19–20.

Joe Blake the Bart(h)lemy

*, v. To visit a prostitute: c. and low (–1859); ob.

Joe Brown

. (A) town: rhyming s., ?orig. showmen's: 1893, P.H.Emerson, Signor Lippo.

Joe Manton

. A fowling-piece made by Joseph Manton (d. 1837), a well-known London gunsmith: coll: 1816 (S.O.D.); ob. by 1890, †by 1910. Also Manton. See next entry, sense (2):

Joe Miller

. A jest-book: coll: 1789, George Parker; ob. Ex comedian Joseph Miller (1684–1738), whose name was identified with a book pub. in 1739 but not compiled by him. 2. Hence, a jest, esp. if a stale one: coll: 1816. Scott, ‘A fool and his money are soon parted, nephew; there is a Joe Miller for your Joe Manton.’ cf. CHESTNUT, 2.

Joe Miller of it, I don’t see the

. I don’t see the joke; or the fun of doing it: coll: ca 1830–95.

Joe O’Gorman

. A foreman: rhyming s.: late C.19–20.

Joe Poke

. A justice of the peace: lower classes’; from ca 1875. By elaboration of J.P.

Joe Savage

. A cabbage: rhyming s. (–1859). As is also:

Joe Skinner

. Dinner: late C.19–20.

joey

. A fourpenny piece: from ca 1855; †. H., 1859, ‘The term originated with the London cabmen.’ See JOE, n., 2. 2. (Gen. with capital.) A marine: nautical: from ca 1830; ob. ‘Taffrail’, ‘A Royal marine is a “bullock”, “turkey”, or “Joey”, while a soldier is a “grabby” or “leather neck”.’ cf. JOE, n., 3; but prob. ex JOLLY, n., 2. 3. A clown: theatrical: from ca 1830. Ex Joe Grimaldi, who to the early C.19 was what Grock is to C.20. 4. A very young kangaroo: Australian coll: 1839. Hence, a hewer of wood and drawer of water (1845), punning kangaroo as typical of an Australian; from ca 1870, any other young animal; hence, from ca 1880, a little child, a baby. Ex Aborigine joe. 5. See JO, 2. 6. A newly entered prisoner in a convict prison: c.: ca 1865 is the date of the reference in ‘No. 747’. 7. See JOE, 5. 8. A humbug: prison c.: mid-C.19–20. Mayhew. Perhaps cf. HOLY JOE.

joey

, v. See JO, 2, and JOE, v. 2. TO MUG or attract the public’s attention, while the MUGGER (2) is up-stage: theatrical: mid-C.19–early 20. Ex the n., 3.

joey

! see JO, 2.

jog the loo

. To pump briskly: nautical coll: C.19–20. Obviously loo is water (Fr. l'eau).

jogger

. To play and sing: theatrical or, rather, Parlary (–1893); ob. Ex It. giocare, to play.

joggering omee (or omey)

. A musician, esp. if itinerant: Parlary (–1893); ob. See last entry.

jogue

*. A shilling: c. of ca 1810–60. ?the origin of BOB (2). It seems to have survived among chimneysweepers till ca 1900 in the form jug.

jogul

*. To PLAY UP, or simply to play, at any game, esp. cards: gaming c. (–1859). Ex Sp. jugar.

John

. A first-year cadet: Sandhurst: from ca 1860. Ex JOHNNY RAW. 2. A chap, a fellow (C.19–20). Ex JOHNNIE, 1. 3. A Chinaman: U.S. (ca 1870), anglicized ca 1890. 4. Dried fish: nautical: late C.19–20. 5. A coll term of address, C.19–20.

John-and-Joan

. A homosexual: C.18–mid-19 coll.

John Audley; occ. Orderly

! Abridge the performance!: theatrical: from ca 1810. Ex the actor-manager John Richardson (d. 1837), who used to ask ‘Is John Audley here?’ whenever another ‘house’ was waiting, though tradition (H., 1864) has it that John Audley or Orderly taught him the WHEEZE.

John Barleycorn, or Sir J.B., is nobody with him

. He’s no drinker: proverbial c.p.: C.17–18.

John Barleycorn’s, or Sir John Barleycorn’s, the strongest knight

. Malt liquor is strong stuff: proverbial c.p.: C.17–18. Ray.

John Blunt

, see JACK BLUNT.

John Chinaman

. A Chinese: C.19–20, ob.

John Collins

. A drink made of soda water, gin, sugar, lemon and ice: Australia: from ca 1860. The Australasian, 24 Feb. 1865, ‘That most angelic of drinks for a hot climate...’

John Company; occ. Johnny Company

. The Honourable East India Company: coll: from ca 1785; now only historical. Ex Dutch Jan Kompanie, by which the Eastern natives speak of the Dutch East India Company and government.

John Cotton

, see DOLLY COTTON.

John Crap(p)o

, see JOHNNY CRAPOSE.

John Drawlatch

. A sneaking person: coll > S.E.: C.16–17. Heywood's Proverbs, 1546.

John Fortnight

. The tallyman: London workmen's: late C.19–20; ob. Ware, 'From his calling every other week'.

John Gray's bird, like

. Fond of company, even if it be rather above one: coll: C.16. Gascoigne.

John Long (in C.18–19, occ. Tom Long) the carrier, stay for or send by

. To wait, or postpone for, a long time: coll: C.16–19. Cotgrave.

John o' Groat

. A coat: rhyming s.: since ca 1800.

John Orderly

, see JOHN AUDLEY.

John Roberts

. A, or enough, drink to keep a man drunk from Saturday to Sunday night: Anglo-Welsh (–1886). Ex the author of the Sunday Closing Act.

John Roper's window

, see ROPER'S WINDOW.

John Thomas

. A flunkey: low coll: ca 1860–1910. 2. The male member: upper-class: from ca 1840. cf. DICK.

John (OCC. Joan) Thomson's man

. An uxorious husband: Scots coll: C.16–19. Dunbar.

John Trot

. A bumpkin: upper classes': ?ca 1710–70. (A letter, dated 17 Dec. 1733 and cited in Lord Hervey and His Friends, edited by the Earl of Ilchester, 1950.)

John Tuck

. A Chinese mandarin: nautical: late C.19–20. cf. JOHN, 3.

John Willie (or Willy), come on ! A North Country c.p. of exhortation to a slowwitted or mentally deficient youth or man: late C.19–20. Also, Julian Franklyn tells me, a London streets c.p. of ca 1910: ‘I believe from a song.’

Johnnie, Johnny

. A fellow, a CHAP; a sweetheart: coll: from ca 1670; ob. Ramsay, Kipling. 2. A (fashionable) young man about town: from ca 1880. 3. A tiger: sportsmen’s: 1815. 4. A penguin: nautical (–1898). 5. A policeman: low: from ca 1850. Occ. (ca 1860–80) Johnny Darby, perhaps influenced by DARBIES and Fr. gendarmes. Mayhew, Besant & Rice. 6. A half-glass of whiskey: Anglo-Irish: from ca 1860; ob. (Earlier (–1827), Dumbartonshire dial.) 7. A Greek: nautical: late C.19–20. Perhaps ex prevalence of the name Johannides. 8. The nickname of men surnamed Walker: naval and military: late C.19–20. Ex the celebrated whisky. 9. Penis: late C.19–20.

Johnnie Rutter

. Butter: rhyming s.: from ca 1880. Contrast JOHNNY HORNER.

Johnny Bates’(s) Farm

, see BATE’s FARM.

Johnny Bono

. An Englishman: East End of London: from ca 1850; ob.

Johnny Bum

. A male donkey: jocular: late C.18–mid-19. Ex a euphemism for jack ass, ass being pronounced ARSE.

Johnny cake

. A cake cooked in a frying pan or baked in the ashes: Australia (–1861): coll. Adoption of a U.S. term, which (orig. –1775—journey-cake) denotes a thin cake made of Indian meal and toasted before a fire.

John(ny) Crapose

. Frenchman: low: C.19–early 20. The singular is Crapo or Crappo—but not very frequent. Ex Fr. crapaud, a toad (not a frog). 2. (Gen. John Crappo.) Hence, a British seaman wearing a moustache: nautical: ca 1815–50.

Johnny Darby

. See JOHNNY, 5. 2. In pl, handcuffs: ca 1860–1915.

Johnny hangman

. See JACKY HANGMAN. (Woodward, The Birds of Natal, 1899.)

Johnny Haultaut

. A man-of-warsman: merchant service: ca 1870–1910. Clark Russell. Perhaps ex haul taut.

Johnny Horner

. Round the corner; i.e. to, at, a PUB: rhymings. (–1909).

Johnny Newcome

. A new-born child: coll: from ca 1830; ob. 2. An inexperienced youth; a landsman: nautical: from late C.18; ob.

Johnny Randall

. A candle: navvies' rhyming s.: ca 1860–1900. (D.W.Barrett, 1880.)

Johnny Raw

. A novice; a recruit: coll: 1813; ob. Sydney Bulletin, 26 Feb. 1887, 'He was a new-chum—a regular Johnny-Raw.' 2. A morning drink: provincial: from ca 1870; ob.

Johnny Scaparey, do a

. To abscond: circus-employees': mid-C.19–20. It. scappare, to escape.

Johnny Warder

. An idler who hangs about public-houses in the hope of a free drink: Australian: ca 1880–1920. Ex John Ward, the landlord of a low PUB in Sydney.

Johnson

. The penis: low: mid-C.19–20.

joined, be

. To be married. Coll: C.19–20. cf. join GIBLETS.

joint

*. In c. (–1885) partnership; a concerted robbery (–1887, Baumann): ob. 2. ‘An outside bookmaker’s paraphernalia of list-frame, umbrella, etc., some of which are joined together in movable pieces,’ O.E.D.: the turf: from ca 1896. 3. Any place or building: low: app. Anglo-Irish in origin—‘A Real Paddy’, Real Life in Ireland, 1822, ‘I slips the joint’ (ran away from the place—a boarding school).

joint, work the

*. To swindle with a jockeyed lottery table: c. (–1895).

jokee

. The ‘victim’ of a joke: coll: from ca 1870.

joker

. A man, CHAP, fellow: from ca 1810. (Pepys’s ‘At noon...to the Trinity-house, where a very good dinner among the old jokers’ is misleading.) cf. ARTIST; MERCHANT; SHAVER.

joker, little

*, see LITTLE JOKER.

jolah

. A haversack: Regular Army’s: late C.19–20. Ex Hindustani.

Jollies, the

. See JOLLY, n., 2, quotation from Bowen: ?C.17–early 19.

jollification

. Jollity; a merry-making: coll: 1798 (S.O.D.). Scott. Whence:

jollify

. To behave merrily; become, occ. make, slightly drunk: coll: from ca 1820.

jollily

. Excellently, splendidly; delightfully: from ca 1560: S.E. till ca 1850, then coll; slightly ob. (cf. JOLLY, adj., 1 and 2.) M.C.Jackson, 1878.

jollocks

; jollux. A parson: low: late C.18–19. Possibly a euphemizing (suggested by JOLLY, adj.) of BALLOCKS (cf. CODS, a curate); prob. ex dial. jollock, jolly, hearty. 2. (jollux.) A fat person: ca 1795–1815.

jolly

, The head: late C.18–mid-19. Also jolly NOB. 2. A Royal Marine: nautical: from ca 1820. Also (–1867) a Royal (or royal) jolly. (cf. tame jolly, a militiaman.) Marryat; Kipling; Bowen, ‘Taken from the old nickname of the City Trained Bands’. 3. The confederate of a thief or a swindler; esp. a sham purchaser: c. (–1856); ob. Mayhew, Greenwood. 4. A pretence; an excuse: c.: from ca 1850; ob. J.W.Horsley. 5. Praise, a recommendation; chaff, abuse: low (orig. Cockney) coll: from ca 1855. Vance, in The Chickaleary Cove. 6. Hence, a cheer: from ca 1870; slightly ob. Esp. in give (e.g. him) a jolly, chiefly in imperative.

jolly

, v.t. and i. To joke; rally, chaff; vituperate: from ca 1860. 2. To cheer: from ca 1890. 3. v.i., to make a sham bid (at an auction): 1869: c. > low; ob. 4. To impose upon, to act as an accomplice or abettor: c.: from ca 1860.

jolly

, adj. Excellent; fine; indicative of general approbation (in mid-C.19–20, often ironical): C.14–20; S.E. till C.19, then coll. Daily Telegraph, 1869, ‘He is annoyed when young ladies use slang phrases, such as awfully jolly.’ 2. Extremely pleasant, agreeable, suitable, charming: mid-C.16–20; S.E. till ca 1860, then coll. 3. Slightly drunk: from ca 1650; euphemistic S.E. till C.19, then coll. 4. Healthy and well developed; well conditioned; plump: coll and dial.: from ca 1660. Whence: 5. Fat; too fat: the turf: from ca 1885.

jolly

, adv. with adv. or adj. (In mid-C.19–20, often ironical.) Very; exceedingly: mid-C.16–20; S.E. till C.19, then coll. Dickens in Oliver Twist, “‘He is so jolly green,” said Charley.’

jolly, chuck a

, see CHUCK A JOLLY.

jolly boys

. ‘A group of small drinking vessels connected by a tube, or by openings one from another,’ F. & H.: coll: from ca 1890; slightly ob.

jolly dog

. A boon companion, merry fellow: coll (–1785) >, ca 1870, S.E.: slightly ob. cf. S.E. jolly fellow.

jolly for

. To support a friend with kindly chaff or praise: ca 1850–1925: mostly Cockney. cf. JOLLY, n., sense 6.

jolly jumper

. A light sail set above a ‘skyscraper’: nautical (–1883); ob. Clark Russell.

jolly nob

, see JOLLY, n., 1.

Jolly Roger

. A pirate’s flag: nautical coll > S.E.: from ca 1880. Stevenson, in Treasure Island, ‘There was the jolly Roger—the black flag of piracy—flying from her peak.’

jolly-up

. A BEANO; a drinking-bout: lower-middle class: from ca 1905; ob.

jolly utter

. Unspeakable: London cultured: 1881–ca 1890. Punch, 1881; W.S. Gilbert's Patience, 1881; Referee, 18 Feb. 1883.

jolly well

. An intensive adverb: middle-class coll: apparently since the 1880s.

jolt

. To coït with (a woman): C.19–20.

jomer

. A fancy girl; a sweetheart: c. (–1839) >, ca 1850, theatrical and Parlary; † as theatrical. Perhaps a corruption of It. donna (cf. DONA(H)) it is always—in contradistinction to BLOWER (2), BLOWEN—a complimentary term, says Brandon.

Jonah's whale

. Tail: rhyming s.: from 1887. It first occurs in G.R.Sims's 'Tottie', a Dagonet Ballad published in the Referee, 7 Nov. 1887.

Jones, Mrs

, see MRS JONES.

jonnick, jonnock, jonnuk

, see JANNOCK.

jordan; in C.17–18, often jordain; in C.16–17, occ. jurdain(e), jurdan or jurden

. A chamber-pot: C.14–20; ob.: S.E. till ca 1840, then dial. and low coll. (In C.19, occ. a slop-pail.) ‘Prob. an application of the baptismal name Jordan, very common in M.E.’, W.; perhaps reinforced by the Biblical ‘waters of Jordan’. 2. A blow with a staff: c.: late C.17–mid-19. 3. The Atlantic: journalists’: ca 1870–1910.

Jordan, over

; this side of Jordan. Resp., dead; alive: coll (–1889). Ex its use in ‘pietistic language to symbolise death’ (O.E.D. Sup.).

jorrie

. A girl: low Glasgow: late C.19–20.

Joseph

. A marine: nautical: C.19–20; ob.

Joseph!, not for

. A scornful refusal: 1844, C.Selby, London by Night: ob. by 1900. Also (–1867) not for joe!

Josephine

. See NOT TONIGHT, JOSEPHINE!

Joseph's coat

. A many-coloured coat; a dress of honour: coll: from ca 1890. Kipling, 'A Joseph's jury-coat to keep his honour warm'.

Josephus rex, you are

. You're joking: a late C.18–early 19 c.p. Jo-king, rex being L. for king.

josh

. A fool; a sleepy fellow: coll: mid-C.19–20; ob. ?ex:

joskin

. A country bumpkin: low: from ca 1810; ob. Prob. ex dial. joss, to bump, after bumpkin itself. 2. Hence, ‘a green hand under sail’: nautical: from ca 1830; ob. 3. Hence, a recruit: military: C.20.

joss

. An idol: Anglo-Chinese ‘pidgin’: C.18–20. Ex Portuguese Deos, God. Whence joss-house, an idol temple: mid-C.18–20. cf. CHIN-CHIN joss. 2. Luck; nautical: late C.19–20. Ex sense 1.

joss-house man; joss-pidgin man

. A priest; a missionary: pidgin: from ca 1860.

josser

. A simpleton (–1886); ob. except among tailors. Prob. ex JOSKIN. 2. An old roué (–1892); †. 3. (Gen. with old.) A fellow: from ca 1890. Perhaps ex JOSKIN. 4. A parson: Australia: ca 1885–1910. 5. A SWELL: Hong-Kong (–1909). Prob. ex JOSS, as sense 4 is—even more prob. 6. An outsider: Parlary: (?late C.19–)C.20. Prob. ex sense 1 influenced by JOSKIN, 2; also josher.

jossop

. Syrup, juice, sauce, gravy: school-boys’: from ca 1860; ob. Perhaps a corrupt blend of juice+syrup.

jostle

*. To cheat: c.: late C.18–20. (cf. hustle, v., and HUSTLER.) Whence:

jostler

*. A swindler: Glasgow c.: C.20– and prob. from well back in C.19.

jottle (v.i.); do a jottle; go jotting

. To copulate: low: C.19–20; ob.

journey, not one's

. Not a successful day: turf: from ca 1860; ob. Ex Fr. journee.

journey, this

. On this time or occasion: coll: 1884; slightly ob.

journeyman parson

. A curate: London: ca 1820–1900. Because apt to be moved about far more than is a full-blown clergyman.

journeyman soul-saver

. A scripture-reader: ca 1860–1900.

jovah

*. Gaol: c.: from ca 1870. Pugh (2): ‘All I can say is, you never kept your brains clear while you was in jovah.’ Perhaps a perversion of jail suggested by chokey.

Jove!; by Jove

. A coll exclamation, asseveration: from ca 1570. Shakespeare, ‘By Jove, I always took three threes for nine’; Miss Ferrier.

jow

. (Gen. in imperative.) To go away; be off: Anglo-Indian: from ca 1860; slightly ob. Ex Hindustani; cf. Romany jaw (and Sampson’s ja).

jowl-sucking

. Kissing, kisses: lower classes’: from ca 1865; ob.

jowler

. A lane between back-to-back houses: Liverpool: late C.19–20. You pass cheek-by-jowl.

joy of my life

. A wife: rhyming s., mostly military: from ca 1880. cf. the much more general TROUBLE AND STRIFE.

joyful, O be

, see O BE JOYFUL. 2. cf. sing 'O BE JOYFUL' ON THE OTHER SIDE OF ONE'S MOUTH.

joyous spirit

, see JEMMY, n., 2. (Transient s.)

jube

. A coll abbr. of jujube (the lozenge): from ca 1840.

jubilee

. A very pleasant time: Winchester College: C.19–20; ob. 2. Posterior: sporting and inferior society: 1887–ca 1897.

Judaic superbac(e)y

. A ‘Jew in all the glory of his best clothes’: Covent Garden Theatre and vicinity: 1887–ca 1899. Ware.

jude

. A harlot: low (–1886). Henley. Also JUDY.

judge

*. An expert, sagacious thief or swindler: c.: ca 1810–50.

judge and jury

. A mock trial, the fines being paid in beer: tailors’: from ca 1870.

judgmatic

. Judicious; judicial. So judgmatical, adv. judgmatically. All coll and slightly ob.; resp. 1835, 1826, 1814. But judgmatical was orig. U.S., Thornton recording it at 1774. On dogmatic.

Judische (or Jew’s) compliment

. A large penis but no money: low: from ca 1850; ob. cf. YORKSHIRE COMPLIMENT.

judy

. A girl, esp. one of loose morals: from ca 1810: prob. orig. c.; always more or less low; common among C.19 sailors. Also, later, jude. Vaux. 1812; Runciman, The Chequers. Ex Punch and Judy, or, like jane, direct ex the Christian name. 2. A simpleton, a fool: orig. (1824), U.S.; anglicized ca 1850. Esp. in make a judy of oneself, play the fool, act the giddy goat.

judy-slayer

. A LADY-KILLER: London Jews' (–1909). cf. JUDY, 1.

jug

*. A prison: C.19 c., C.20 low. Also stone jug (s.v. STONE DOUBLET). Ainsworth, 1834, the first English user, the term occurring in U.S. in 1815; Dickens, Thackeray. Ex Fr. joug, a yoke, via ob. Scots joug(s), a pillory. 2. As a mistress and as a term of contempt, it is despite F. & H., indubitably S.E. 3. Abbr. JUGGINS. 4. A bank: c.: from ca 1860. Cornhill Magazine, 1862.

jug

*, v. To imprison; lock up: orig. (ca 1840) c.; by ca 1860, low. See the n., and cf. Scots joug, to confine in the jouns. 2. To deceive humorously or, more gen., illicitly: low: from ca 1870; ob.

jug-bitten

. Tipsy: coll: ca 1620–1750. Taylor the Water Poet.

jug-loops

. Hair worn with tiny curls on the temples: low Cockney: ca 1885–1905.

jugelo(w)

*. A dog: c. of ca 1810–50. Ex Romany juggal, pl juggalor.

jugful, not by a

. Not by a long way: coll: ex U.S. (1834), anglicized ca 1850; ob. by 1910.

jugged

. Arrested, imprisoned: see JUG, v., 1.

juggins

; occ. jug. A fool: s. >, in C.20, (low) coll: 1882 (S.O.D.). Punch, 17 July 1886, ‘Yah! Wot a old juggins he is!’ Prob. suggested by MUGGINS.

juggins-hunting

. 'Looking for a man who will pay for liquor' (Ware): taverns' (–1909). Ex preceding. Contrast:

juggins's boy

. 'The sharp and impudent son of a stupid and easily ridiculed father': low London: 1882. Ware.

juggler's box

*. The branding-iron: c.: late C.18–early 19.

juggling law

*. In late C.16–early 17 c., it is a branch of criminal activity practised among the devotees of certain games. Greene, A Disputation, 1592, 'The Juggling Law, wherein I will set out the disorders at Nyneholes and Ryfling [i.e. dicing], how they are only for the benefite of the Cutpurses.'

juice

. Emoluments, profits of office or profession: coll: ca 1520–1640. Latimer, Sir E.Hoby. 2. Money: ca 1695–1730. Ned Ward in The London Spy, 1698 (see Slang, p. 69). 3. Juiciness of colour: C.19–20 artists. cf. JUICY, 5. 4. Petrol: 1909. 5. Electricity; electric current: 1903; electricians' s.

juice, bright-work

, see BRIGHT-WORK JUICE. juice, bug. Hair-oil. juice, cow, see COW-JUICE. juice, fresh. Fresh water. All four terms are Conway cadets' s.: from ca 1890.

juice for jelly, give

. (Of a woman) to experience the sexual spasm: low: C.19–20. (Otherwise, juice in this sense is rare.) cf. JELLY.

juicy

. As (of women) amorous, it is S.E. 2. Piquant, bawdy: low coll (–1880). Greenwood. 3. (Of weather) wet, very rainy, drenching: coll: 1837. 4. Rich in money, etc.: coll: from ca 1620. Contrast dry. 5. In artists' s.: characterized by rich liquid colouring, 1820.

jukrum

*. A licence: late C.17–early 19 c. cf. JACKRUM.

Julius Caesar

. The male member: low: from ca 1840; ob.

Julius Caesar, dead as

. Certainly, or long, dead: coll: C.19–20; ob.

Julius Caesar was a pup, not since

. In, or for, a devilish long time: from ca 1890.

jumbaree

. Jewellery: theatrical: ca 1870–1905.? ex JAMBOREE.

jumble

, v.i. and t. To have sexual intercourse (with): late C.16–18: S.E. >, ca 1650, coll. Stanyhurst, Barnfield, Randolph, D’Urfey. 2. To take for a drive: coll: C.19–20; ob. For origin, cf.:

jumble-gut lane

. A rough road: low coll: late C.17–early 19.

jumbler

. A performer of the sexual act: coll: C.17–18. Ex JUMBLE, v., 1.

jumbo

. A clumsy, heavy fellow: from ca 1820: coll >, ca 1900, S.E. 2. An elephant: coll: from ca 1882. ‘Chiefly in allusion to a famous elephant at [the London] Zoo (d. 1885),’ W.; it was sold to Barnum in Feb. 1882. 3. Whence Jumbo, the Elephant and Castle Tavern in South London: public-house frequenters’: from 1882. 4. ‘The big fore-staysail’: Grand Banks fishermen’s: from ca 1883.

Jumbo’s trunk

. Tipsy: rhyming s. on drunk: esp. ca 1880–85. On ELEPHANT’S TRUNK.

jumback

, see JIMBUGG.

jump; OCC. dining-room jump

*. ‘Robbery effected by ascending a ladder placed by a sham lamp-lighter, against the house intended to be robbed.... Because, should the lamp-lighter be put to flight, the thief...has no means of escape but that of jumping down,’ Grose, 2nd ed.: c. from ca 1787; †by 1890. 2. A window (on the ground floor): c.: C.19–20. Vaux. 3. pl. see JUMPS. 4. The n. corresponding to the v., 5: same period. Esp. have a jump. 5. A fright: coll: late C.19–20. 6. A journey from one ‘stand’ to another: circus and fair-ground: late C.19–20.

jump

*, v. To seize and rob (a person): c.: ca 1780–1890. Also to rob (a building) by way of the n., 1: c.: C.19. 2. To seize and arrest: Australian: ca 1870–1900. ‘Rolf Boldrewood’. 3.

To possess oneself of a mining right, in the owner's absence. Gen. with a or the claim. From ca 1854, when in The Melbourne Argus; jumping of claims, however, occurs in U.S. in 1851 (Thornton): coll >, ca 1870, S.E. Marryat, in Mountains and Molehills, 'If a man jumped my claim, ...I appealed to the crowd.' 4. Hence, in South Africa, to appropriate (goods) wrongfully: 1871, The Queenstown Free Press, 18 Aug., 'Five thousand bricks were jumped the other night from ...'s brickyard at Klipdrift.' Pettman. 5. To copulate, v.i. and t.: C.17–20 coll; ob. 6. To try a medicine: medical: from ca 1860; ob.

jump, at the first

. At the very beginning (of proceedings): coll: ca 1570–1700.

jump, from the

. From the beginning: coll (in C.20, tending to S.E.): app. orig. U.S. (1848) and anglicized ca 1870.

jump, go the

*. To rob as in JUMP, n., 1: c.: C.19.

jump, not by a long

. Not by a long way: non-aristocratic coll (–1887); ob.

jump, on the

. On the move; active; restless: coll: 1900, Daily News (of 4 May), 'Keeping the foe on the jump'.

jump, see how the cat will

. To watch the course of events before committing oneself: coll: from ca 1820. Scott, Bulwer-Lytton.

jump a bill

, to dishonour an acceptance, like jump one's bail, to abscond, is orig. and mainly U.S., partly anglicized ca 1890.

jump at

. To accept eagerly: coll >, ca 1905, S.E.: 1769 (S.O.D.). J.Payn, 1882, 'He might well have jumped at such an offer.' 2. To guess: coll: from ca 1890.

jump-down

. 'The last place...in course of erection on the outskirts of...civilised life', Staveley Hill, in From Home to Home, 1885: Colonial: ca 1880–1910.

jump down a person's throat

. A variant (–1806) of JUMP UPON.

jump on

, see JUMP UPON.

jump one's horse over a or the bar

. To sell horse, bridle and all, to the landlord of a public-house: Canadian: ca 1880–1905. Daily Telegraph, 20 March 1886.

jump out of one's skin

. To be greatly startled: coll: C.19–20.

jump up

. To get the best of (a person); or the reverse: tailors': from ca 1850.

jump up behind

. To endorse the bill of a friend: commercial: from ca 1870. cf. INDORSE.

jump (up)on

. To criticize severely: coll: 1868. M.E.Braddon, ‘In vulgar phraseology, to be “jumped upon”’.

jumpable

. ‘Open for another to take’: Australian coll: 1884, Boldrewood. Ex JUMP, v., 3.

jumped-up

. Conceited, arrogant: (orig. low) coll: from ca 1870. Ex dial. 2. Upset nervous: low coll: ca 1880–1910. cf. S.E. jumpy.

jumper

*. A thief entering houses by the windows: c.: from ca 1787; ob. See JUMP, n., 1. 2. A tenpenny piece: Scottish c. of ca 1820–50. Haggart. 3. The illegal appropriator of another’s mining-claim: from ca 1855: coll >, ca 1880, S.E. 4. ‘Now the technical term for the seaman’s upper garment, but originally [ca 1850–75] a slang term for a duck jacket slipped on to protect clothing during a dirty job on deck’, Bowen. 5. The ‘inevitable’ nickname of a man surnamed Collins or Cross: naval and military: late C.19–20. The latter ex jump across, the former of anecdotal origin. 6. A (gen., travelling) ticket-inspector: orig. (1900), railwaymen’s. 7. A light buggy; also a crude sled: Canadian: from ca 1830 or –40. 8. A flea: ca 1810–60.

jumping cat, the cult of the

. The practice of waiting before committing oneself: coll (–1896).

jumping-jack

. A sea-gull: nautical (– 1896): coll rather than s.

jumping Jehoshaphat or Jupiter or Moses (, by the)

. Mild oaths: mid-C.19–20 coll; ob. Jehoshaphat is occ. employed alone, often in the sol. form Jehosophat.

jumping-off place

. A point of departure: coll: orig. (1826), U.S.; anglicized ca 1870.

jumping over the fat-pot

. A stipulation that all players should assist in the old-fashioned pantomime, The Man in the Moon: theatrical of ca 1830–80. Ex flame from burning fat in the days before gas was in gen. use for lighting.

jumping-powder

. A stimulant: c.>, ca 1890, coll: ca 1825–1914. Blaine, 1840, in Encyclopaedia of Rural Sports, ‘Fortified ...by a certain quantum of jumping powder’.

jumps

. Delirium tremens (–1879). 2. The fidgets: coll (–1881). (Both with the.) 3. Excitement, craze: ca 1880–1900.

junior

. Smaller; lower; the less good. (So tight junior, the smallest, lowest.) Winchester College: C.19–20; ob. The opp. is senior.

juniper

. Gin: from ca 1820; Bee, 1823; J.E.Ritchie, in The Night Side of London. Gin=de genièvre=juniper, though gin is actually abbr. of geneva.

juniper-lecture

, see JINIPER-LECTURE.

junk

, as old or inferior cable, fig. salt beef, is S.E. Whence, however, sense of (a) miscellaneous, second-hand stuff, hence (b) rubbish: orig. (1842), U.S.; anglicized as coll, resp. ca 1880 and ca 1900.

junket

, v. To exult (over): Winchester College: from ca 1850; ob. Ex the S.E. v.

junket

! Indicative of self-congratulation: Winchester College: C.19–20; ob.

Jupiter

. Used in mild oaths of C.17–20; literary until C.19, then coll if used with a smile.

Jupiter Scapin

. ‘A tricky minister’: political and Society’s coll: late C.19–early 20. Ex the Parisians’ nickname, ca 1810, for Napoleon I, Scapin being a rogue in a play by Molière.

jurk

*. A rare C.19 variant of JARK.

jury

. An assertion; a profession of faith, etc.: costermongers’: from ca 1850; ob.

jury, chummage, and couter

. Knife, fork, and spoon: Regular Army's: late C.19–20. Ex Hindustani.

jury—hang half and save half

. The jury may be a Kentish, a London, or a Middlesex jury: a proverbial c.p.: resp. C.18–19; late C.18–mid-19; C.17–19. The implication, as Middleton in 1608 suggested of the third, 'Thou...wilt make haste to give up thy verdict, because thou wilt not lose thy dinner.'

just

. Certainly; indeed; RATHER!: 1855: coll. Milliken, 1892, 'Wouldn't I just!'

justass

. A mid-C.18–early 19 coll pun on justice (a person).

justice, do

. To pledge (a person); drink to: late C.17–18.

Justice Child, do

. To inform to the police or to a magistrate: c. of ca 1690–1750. The reference is prob. to Sir Francis Childe, the elder (1642–1713); A New Canting Dict., 1725, makes child a vocative—which seems less likely and certainly less pointed.

justices' justice

. Justice (esp. if severe) of the kind administered by petty magistrates: from ca 1830: coll till ca 1890, then S.E.

jutland, Jutland

. The posteriors: low punning coll: C.18–mid-19.

juvenile

. (Gen. pl.) A book for children: booksellers' and publishers': from ca 1898.

juwaub

, a refusal, a dismissal; as v., to refuse, reject. Anglo-Indian: from ca 1830. Ex Hindustani jawaub (better spelling).

gybe

, see GYBE.

K

k

. See KA' ME, KA' THEE. 2. For such obscure words gen. spelt with a c as are looked-for in vain under k, see c.

K.A.B.G.N.A.L.S.

These letters, which, in back s., form back slang (the needless c being omitted), are 'uttered rapidly to indicate that this mode of conversation will be agreeable to speaker' (Ware): mostly Cockneys' (–1909). Also kabac genals.

k.d. or K.D.

! Say nothing about it!: printers' c.p.: from ca 1860. i.e. keep it dark.

k-legged

. Knock-kneed; shaky on one's legs: printers': from ca 1860. In dial., k or kay denotes 'left', as in k-pawed, Cheshire and Lancashire for left-handed.

k-nut

. see KNUT.

ka'me, ka' thee

. One good turn deserves another: proverbial coll (–1546) >, ca 1700, S.E. Other forms k, kay, kawe, kob; Ray, C.17, has claw, which, being also the earliest form, may provide the origin. cf. the late C.19–20, scratch my back and I'll scratch yours, and SCRATCH MY BREECH.

kabac genals

, see K.A.B.G.N.A.L.S.

kadi

, see CADY.

kadoova, off one's

. Insane: New South Welsh: ca 1870–1910. Ex Aborigine.

kaffir

. A prostitute's bully; hence, a low fellow: low: ca 1860–1910.

Kaffir piano

. The marimba, a musical instrument: South African coll: 1891.

Kaffir's (occ. Caffre's) lightener

. A full meal: South African: from ca 1860; ob.

kai-kai

. Food; feasting: New Zealand: mid-C.19–20. Reduplication of Maori kai (food).

kail through the reek, give one his

. To reprimand, or punish, severely: Scots coll: C.19–20. Scott. Ex the unpalatableness of smoke-tasting soup.

kaio

. A popular corruption in the South Island of New Zealand of Ngaio, the Maori name for myoporum laetum, a tree whose wood is used for gun-stocks: from ca 1870.

kakker-boosah

. Prematurely voided excrement: low (–1823); †by 1890. See CACK.

kan du

! A military variant of CAN DO, 2. As if ex Hindustani.

kanga

. Abbr. kangaroo: Australian coll: from ca 1890.

kangaroo

. A native—not an Aborigine—of Australia: 1827 (S.O.D.): coll >, ca 1860, S.E. 2. ‘A tall thin man, especially ill-shaped and round-shouldered’: nautical coll: late C.19–20; ob.

kangaroo-droop or, more gen., -hop

. A feminine affectation, hands being brought, palm downward, to the breast: cf. GRECIAN BEND, ROMAN FALL. Coll, Australian: ca 1875–1900.

kanits

. A stink: back s. (–1874). Whence kanitseno, a stinking one. Ob.

kant

, see CANT. kanurd. A loose form of KENNURD.

kapai

. Good; agreeable; (mostly North Island) New Zealand: mid-C.19–20. New Zealand Herald, 14 Feb. 1896. Borrowed direct from Maori, where kapai=this is good.

karibat

. Food: Anglo-Indian (–1864). Ex Hindustani for curry and rice, the staple dish of both Europeans and natives in India.

kate

*. A master or skeleton key: c. of late C.17–mid-19. cf. JENNY; JIMMY: esp. BETTY.
2. Hence, a picklock: C.18–mid-19. 3. (Also katy, Katy.) A wanton: (mainly Scots) coll: C.16–early 19.

Kate and Sydney

. A steak-and-kidney pudding: rhyming s.: from ca 1880.

Kate Karney or Carney

. The Army: military rhyming s.: late C.19–20. Ex the name of a very popular comedienne of the 1890s.

katterzem

. A parasite: Scottish (–1909). Ex Fr. quatorzième, fourteenth: he being willing to go, at a moment’s notice, to prevent the number of guests being thirteen.

keck-handed

. Left-handed: schools’ and dial.: C.19–early 20. cf. K-LEGGED.

kedge

. To CADGE: Cockney (–1887).

kedger

. A fisherman; a mean fellow: nautical (–1867). Prob. CADGER influenced by kedger, a kedge-anchor. Imm. ex: 2. A beggar specializing in fees for trivial services: c, (–1823); †by 1890. Bee adds kedgers’ coffeeshouse and hotel, a resort resp. daily and nightly of ‘every kind of beggars’.

kedgerree-pot

. A round pipkin: Anglo-Indian coll: C.19–20.

kee-gee

. ‘Go, vigour’: East London: ca 1860–1915. Prob. ex qui-vive, for cf. KEYVEE.

keek-cloy

, see KICKS.

keekers

*. The eyes: Scots c.: C.19–20. Ex keek, to look. cf. PEEPERS.

keel

. The posteriors: Scots coll: C.19–20; ob.

keel-bully

*. A lighterman carrying coals to and from the ships: late C.17–18: c. >, ca 1770, s. >, ca 1800, coll >, ca 1860, S.E. Mostly derisive.

keelie

. A (gen., street) rough: from ca 1850: Scots s. >, ca 1870, coll. Ex the Keelie Gang, an Edinburgh band of young blackguards, ca 1820. cf. HOODLUM and HOOLIGAN; see also LARRIKIN.

keen (on)

. Fond (of); eager (for); greatly interested (in): coll (–1897).

keep

, v. To live; reside; lodge: C.14–20; S.E. till ca 1770, then coll and mainly Cambridge and U.S. Shakespeare.

keep a cow,—as long as I can buy milk I shall not

. Why have the expense of a wife when one can visit a whore? Proverbial c.p.: C.17–20; ob.

keep a pig

. To have a lodger: Oxford University: mid-C.19–early 20. Esp. of a freshman quartered on a senior undergraduate.

keep a stiff upper lip is coll orig.—ca 1815—(U.S.) >, in C.20, S.E. Not to show fear or sorrow.

keep [a person] back and belly

. To clothe and feed: coll: C.18–20; ob.

keep ‘cave!’

To watch, and give warning: Eton College: C.19–20.

keep chapel

. see CHAPEL.

keep company

. To be or act as a sweetheart; coll: from ca 1830. Dickens in Sketches by Boz, ‘Mr Wilkins kept company with Jemima Evans.’

keep down the census

. To abort; to masturbate: low: mid-C.19–20; ob.

keep hold of the land

. To hug the shore: nautical coll: late C.19–20; slightly ob.

keep in with

. To maintain, esp. friendly, relations with: late C.16–20: S.E. till ca 1875, then coll. W.Black, in Yolande, 1883.

keep it dark

, see DARK, KEEP IT.

keep it up

. To prolong a debauch: from ca 1780: coll. Ex the S.E. sense, to continue doing something.

keep off the grass

! Be cautious!: a coll c.p.orig. proletarian: late C.19–20. Ex notices in parks.

keep one's appointment, to be unable to— or cannot

. To fail to come-to in time: pugilistic: ca 1810–60. Anon., Every Night Book, 1827.

keep one's (or the) boiler clear

. (Esp. in the imperative.) To 'watch your stomach—in reference to health' (Ware): engineers': mid-C.19–20. As a C.20 wit has said, in approximately these words: 'What a lot of trouble people would spare themselves if only they would keep their bowels open and their mouths closed.’

keep one’s eyes skinned

. To maintain a sharp look-out: coll: U.S. (1846), anglicized ca 1860. Occ. peeled for skinned.

keep oneself to oneself

. Coll form of keep to oneself, i.e. avoid the society of others: from ca 1890.

keep open house

*. To sleep in the open air: tramps’ c.: from ca 1850; ob. See also HEDGE-SQUARE; STAR-PITCH.

keep out of the rain

. To avoid, evade trouble: Australian coll: late C.19–20.

keep sheep by moonlight

*. (v.i.) To hang in chains: C.18–early 19 c.

keep sloom

. To remain quiet; say nothing: tailors': from ca 1860. Here, sloom= slumber, as in Scottish and Northern dial.

keep the doctor

. To sell adulterated drinks: low coll: C.19–20; ob.

keep the door

. To be a brothel-keeper: low coll: C.18–mid-19.

keep the line

. To behave becomingly, decently: ca 1815–50. Pierce Egan, London, 1821.

keep up to the collar

, v.t. Keep hard at work: coll (–1861); ob. T.Hughes, 'Hardy kept him pretty well up to collar.'

keep your hair on

! A c.p. from ca 1867, offered on any mishap. 'Quotations' Benham. See HAIR ON, KEEP ONE'S.

keep your nose clean

! Avoid drink!: military c.p. (–1909).

keep your pecker up

! Keep your spirits up: since ca 1840. See PECKER, 2.

keep your thanks to feed your chickens

! I don't need, desire, any thanks: semiproverbial c.p. (–1681); very ob. W. Robertson, Phraseologia Generalis.

keep yourself good all through

! Be entirely good!: a Society c.p.: 1882–ca 1890.

keeping-cully

*. 'One who keeps a mistress, as he supposes, for his own use, but really for that of the public', Grose, 1st ed.: c.: ca 1660–1840.

keeping the pot boiling

; winding the chain. In R.W.Vanderkiste, A Six Years' Mission among the Dens of London, 1852, these two proletarian phrases are explained thus, 'They ran up stairs, jumped out of the window, up stairs again, and so on—called by them “Winding the chain”, and “Keeping the pot boiling”: men and boys’: ca 1830–80. Also of several persons on an ice-slide: Dickens, Pickwick, ch. 30.

keeps, for

. For good; permanently; in cricket, defensively: coll: from 1880 in Australia (app. earliest in cricket sense), ca 1890 in England. i.e. to keep for good.

keffel

*. A horse: c. late C.17–mid-19. (It survives in dial., where first recorded in 1825. Ex Welsh ceffyl, E.D.D.)

keg

. The stomach: from ca 1885 (orig. dial.).

keg, little bit o(f)

. Human copulation: low (–1909). Lit., a small piece of common meat.

keg-meg

. Tripe; derivatively keg-meg shop: low (–1857). A variant of dial. CAGMAO, inferior meat, refuse. 2. Hence (?), an intimate talk: (low) coll: 1883, J. Payn in Thicker than Water.

kegged, be

. To be jeered at: nautical: mid-C.19–20; ob. Ex CAG.

keifer

. ‘Generic for MUTTON,’ F. & H.: See MONOSYLLABLE.

kelder

. Belly; womb: low coll: mid-C.17– early 19. cf. HANS-IN-KELDER.

kelp

. Hard-earned money; wages: workmen’s: late C.19–20. Opp. BUNCE, money for overtime work. Ex kelp, large seaweed. 2. See also CALP.

kelp

*, v.t. To lift one’s hat to (a person): c.of ca 1800–50.

kelter; OCC. kitter

. Money: c. of ca 1780–1820. George Parker, 1789. Also dial.: ? before it was c.—the earliest dial. record being 1808.

kemesa

, see CAMESA.

Kemp's shoes to throw after you!, would (that) I had

. I wish I could bring you good luck: a C.17–early 19 c.p. Ex a lost topical reference.

ken

*. A house (in compounds, house or place): c.: ca 1560–1860; thereafter somewhat literary—except in compounds. Harman, B.E., Lytton, Henley & Stevenson. The O.E.D. essays no etymology, W. proposes abbr. kennel, I suggest a corruption of Romany tan, a place, or a corruption of the original whence tan itself springs. (H., 3rd and later edd., refers us to ‘khan, Gipsy and Orientar’. The word there is the Hindustani KHAN(N)A, a house, a room, which appears, in various does not exist in Romany in this form; but forms, in the various Gypsy dialects.) See also BOB KEN and BOOZINO KEN.

ken, bite or crack a

*. To rob a house: c.: resp. late C.17–18, late C.19–20 ob.

ken, burn the

*, see BURN THE KEN.

ken-crack lay

*. Housebreaking: c.: C.19–20, ob. See KEN and LAY, 2.

ken-cracker, -miller

*. A housebreaker: c.: resp. late C.18–20 (ob.), late C.17–early 19.

kenird

. Drink: back s. (–1887). cf. KENNURD for the euphonic e.

kennedy

. A poker: low London: ca 1820–1900. Ex one Kennedy killed in ‘tough’ St Giles’s by a poker. Hence, give one kennedy, hit one with a poker, as in Henley’s Villon’s Good Night. ‘Frequently shortened to neddy’, H., 1859.

kenner

*. A C.19 (?–20) variant of KEN. Influenced by KHANNA.

kennetseeno

. Stinking: manipulated back s. or central s. (–1859).

kennick

*. ‘A mixture of flash-patter [i.e. cant] and padding-ken [or low lodging-house] talk’, says ‘No. 747’ at p. 17 in a reference valid for the year 1865. Fanciful ex KEN.

kenning by kenning

, vbl n. ‘Increasing a seaman’s wages by the work he does, a term principally used by the old whalers’; nautical coll: from ca 1860; ob. Bowen. A natural development ex Scottish and Northern dial. kenning, a little.

ken(n)urd

. Tipsy: back s. (–1859) on drunk. (Since knurd is ugly.) Mayhew has it in 1851 in form kanurd.

kent

. A coloured cotton handkerchief: low: from ca 1810; ob. Also:

Kent clout or rag

. See preceding entry. H., 1859.

Kent-Street ejectment or distress

. The removal, by the landlord, of the street door when rent is in arrears: (low) coll: ca 1780–1830. Ex a Southwark practice.

Kentish knocker

. A Kentish smuggler: C.19: local coll > S.E. Ex Kentish Knock, the sandbank facing the Thames-mouth.

Kentish long-tail

. A native of Kent: coll nickname: C.13–20; since ca 1750, dial. The legend behind the name is in Layamon's Brut, vv. 19555–86.

Kentucky loo; fly loo

. Betting on certain antics of flies: students': mid-C.19–20; virtually †.

kenurd

, see KENNURD.

kep

. An occ. variant of KIP, n., 3.

Keppel's snob, put up at the

. To be a snob: naval: ca 1870–1910. i.e. at The Keppel's Head, an inn named after Admiral Keppel (d. 1786); pun on NOB, head.

kerbstone broker

. A stockbroker operating outside the Stock Exchange: orig. (1860), U.S.; anglicized ca 1890 as coll.

kerel

. A chap, a fellow: South African coll: late C.19–20. Also (simply kerel), a term of address=old CHAP. Ex Dutch; cf. †S.E. carl (cognate with churl).

kerr'b

. To hit, strike, punch: Shelta: C.19–20.

Kerry security

. 'Bond, pledge, oath—and keep the money,' Grose, 1785. Coll: late C.18–mid-19.

Kerry witness

. One who will swear to anything: coll: from ca 1825; ob.

kerte(r)ver-cartzo

. A venereal disease, esp. syphilis: low London: ca 1850–90. (cf. CATEVER and CATSO.) Ex Lingua Franca, ex It. cattivo, ‘bad’.

kervorten

. A quatern: a Cockneyism: mid-C.19–20; ob. ‘No. 747’ (=reference of 1845). By perversion.

ketch

. To catch; also as n.: Cockney (–1887). cf. KEDGE. Whence ketched, caught.

Ketch; Jack Ketch

, see JACK KETCH.

kettle

. The female pudend: low coll: C.18–20; ob. D’Urfey. 2. An ironclad or other iron-built vessel: nautical: ca 1870–1914. 3. In c., a watch. A red kettle is a gold watch; a white, a silver one. Mid-C.19–20.

kettle, cook the

. To make the water in the kettle to boil: South African coll: from the late 1890s.

kettle and coffee-mill

. Boiler and engine: from ca 1870; ob. Bowen remarks that it was applied by sailing-ship men to windjammers ruined by the intrusion of ‘these monstrosities’.

kettle black, pot calling the

, see BLACK ARSE and cf. the proverbial the kiln calls the oven burnt house (C.17–19).

kettle brandy

. SCANDAL BROTH, i.e. tea: ca 1870–1910.

kettle on the hob

; often shortened to kettle. A shilling; rhyming s. (on BOB, n., 2): late C.19–20.

kettle of fish, a pretty

, see FISH, PRETTY.

kettledrum

. An afternoon tea-party on a big scale: coll: from ca 1860; ob. Mrs Henry Wood, 'Bidding the great world to a kettle-drum.' cf. DRUM, 8, †S.E. for 'tea-party'. 2. kettledrums, or Cupld's kettledrums, a woman's breasts: low: ca 1770–1850.

kew

. A week: back s. (–1859). Pl either kews or skew.

key

. The penis: C.18–20, ob.: sometimes euphemistic, but gen. low coll. 'Lets a man in and the maid out', F. & H. (cf. LOCK, 6.) Whence keyhole, the female pudend, for which F. & H.'s keystone of love is a mere literary euphemism.

key, his wife keeps the

. He is addicted to drinking on the sly: proletarian (–1887).

key of the street, have the

. To be shut out for the night; to have no home: from ca 1835: coll. Dickens in Pickwick.

key under the door (occ. threshold), leave the

. To go bankrupt: C.17–19: coll. Swift; Ray, 1670, lay the key..., a variant.

key-vee(, on the)

. Alert: lower classes': 1862. Ex qui-vive. cf. KEE-GEE.

keyhole

, see KEY, n.

keyhole (occ. keyholed), be all

. To be tipsy: low: from ca 1860; ob. Perhaps because a drunk man has difficulty in finding the keyhole.

keyhole-whisperer or -whistler

*. A night's lodger in barn (see SKIPPER, whence SKIPPER-BIRD) or outhouse: tramps' c., resp. 1845 ('No. 747') and 1851 (Mayhew); ob.

keystone under the hearth(, keystone under the horse's belly)

. A C.19 smugglers' c.p. > proverbial, the reference being to the hiding of contraband spirits below the fireplace or in the stable. Wise, The New Forest, 1863.

khabbar, khubber

, see KUBBER.

khalishee

. (Gen. pl.) A native Indian sailor: nautical coll: mid-C.19–20; ob. ?a corruption of Khalsa(h), the Sikhs collectively.

khanna

. A house, compartment: often used very incongruously in Anglo-Indian coll: late C.18–20. (See also KEN.)

Khyber Pass

. Glass: rhyming s.: since ca 1885. Often merely Khyber. 2. Backside: late C.19–20. Almost invariably in shorter form. Rhyming, of course, on ARSB.

kia ora

! Good health to you!; good luck!: New Zealand (and occ. Australian): from ca 1870. Ex Maori keora ta-u and k. tatu.

kibber

, see JIBBER THE KIBBER.

kibosh

. (The i gen. long.) Nonsense; anything valueless: low: 1860 (H., 2nd ed.); ob. Punch, 3 Jan. 1885, ‘‘Appy New Year, if you care for the kibosh, old chappie.’ Occ. kiboshery. By BOSH, nonsense, out of KIBOSH ON, PUT THE. 2. Fashion; the correct thing: low: from ca 1888; ob. e.g. ‘That’s the proper kibosh.’ 3. See KIBOSH ON, PUT THE.

kibosh

, v. To spoil, ruin; check; bewilder; knock out (lit. and fig.): from ca 1880 (E.D.D.). Milliken in his’ Arry Ballads.

kibosh, put (a person) on the

. To calumniate: low: late C.19–20. Ex the n., 1. Contrast:

kibosh on, put the

. Same senses as in KIBOSH, the v.: 1836, Dickens, in Boz, ““Hooroar,” ejaculates a pot-boy..., “put the kye-bosh on her, Mary!”” Probably ex Yiddish Kabas, Kabbasten, to suppress; but Julian Franklyn proposes the heraldic caboshed and Scots hunting caboche or cab(b)age, to cut off a deer’s head close behind the horns—a theory which would also explain CABBAGE, n., 1 and v., 1.

kiboshery

, see KIBOSH, n., 1.

kick

. The fashion; vogue: from late C.17; very ob. Preceded by the. (If preceded by a, a singularity is indicated.) Hence, high kick, ‘the top of the Fashion’, B.E.; all the kick, ‘the present mode’, Grose. 2. A sixpence: from ca 1700; slightly ob., except in two and a kick, half-a-crown. Only in compound sums, e.g. ‘fourteen bob and a kick’, Moncrieff. 3. The hollow in the butt of a bottle: trade: from ca 1860. (Occ. kick-up.) Mayhew. ?cognate with kink, W. pertinently asks. 4. A pocket: c.: from ca 1850. Mayhew. Prob. ex KICKS. 5. A moment (cf. JIFFY): low coll: from ca 1855; ob. Esp. in a kick. 6. (cf. the boot) dismissal from a job: 1844 (S.O.D.). Preceded by the and esp. in get the kick. cf. KICK OUT, GET THE. 7. A complaint, a GROUSE; a refusal: coll: mid-C.19–20; orig. (1839), U.S. e.g. ‘He has a kick coming.’ Ex the C.14–20 S.E. v., to resist, be recalcitrant. 8. A chance; an attempt, GO (n., 8), as in ‘Let’s have one more kick’ (Baumann): coll (–1887); ob.

kick

, v. To die: ?c. (–1725) > s. 2. To escape: C.18 c. Also kick away. In C.19–20, but ob., is kick it: low. 3. v.t., ask for (money); borrow from (a person): low: from ca 1790; ob. Mayhew, ‘Kick him for some coppers.’ cf. BREAK SHINS and KICK FOR THE BOOT. 4. v.t., demand money, work, a rest, etc., from (a person): esp. tailors’: 1829 (O.E.D.).

kick, get the

, see KICK OUT, GET THE.

kick, have the

. To be lucky: athletic ex football: ca 1880–1915.

kick a (person's) lung out

. To castigate severely: low (–1909). Prob. ex U.S.

kick at waist

. To fit badly at the waist: tailors': from ca 1870.

kick away

*, see KICK, v., 2.

kick coming, a

. A (gen. a serious) objection; obstacle. 2. An effort. Both late C.19–20 coll. cf. KICK, n., 7, 8.

kick for the boot

. To ask for money: tailors': from ca 1850. cf. KICK, v., 3, and:

kick for trade

. To ask for work: tailors': from ca 1855; ob. cf. preceding.

kick, or odd kick, in one's gallop

. A whim; strange fancy: mid-C.18–19 coll.

kick in the guts

. A dram of spirits: low: ca 1770–1860.

kick it

, see KICK, v., 1 and 2.

kick-off

. A start: City s. (–1875) >, ca 1900, gen. coll. Esp. for a kick-off. Also v. Ex football.

kick on one's side, have the

. To have the luck: sporting coll (–1887); slightly ob.

kick one's heels

. See COOL ONE'S HEELS. 2. See KICK UP ONE'S HEELS.

kick out

, v.i. To die: 1898 (O.E.D.). Prob. ex U.S. cf. kick the BUCKET.

kick out, get or give the (dirty)

. To be dismissed; to dismiss (from employment): C.19–20: with dirty, s.: without, coll till ca 1920, then S.E. Also get or give the kick: coll: late C.19–20 (Lyell).

kick over the traces

. To 'go the pace'; to be recalcitrant: from ca 1860: the former sense verging on S.E., the latter S.E. since ca 1905. Ex a fractious horse.

kick-shoe

. A dancer; a buffoon: coll: 'old', says F. & H.—but how old?

kick the bucket

, see BUCKET, KICK THE.

kick the cat

. (Gen. he kicked the cat.) To show signs of domestic dissatisfaction: lower classes' coll (–1909).

kick the clouds or the wind

*. To be hanged: resp. c. (–1811), ob., often amplified with before the hotel door (Lex. Bal.), and s. or coll: late C.16–early 19 (Florio).

kick the eye out of a mosquito, can or be able to

. This coll Australian expression (–1888; ob.) indicates superlative capacity. 'Rolf Boldrewood'.

kick the stuffing out of

. To maltreat; to get the better of: orig. U.S.; anglicized, as low, ca 1900.

kick the wind

*, see KICK THE CLOUDS.

kick-up

. A disturbance; quarrel: late C.18–20: coll. Wolcot, ‘There’d be a pretty kick-up—what a squall’; Dickens. 2. A dance: late C.18–early 19. 3. As a v., it is, in itself, S.E., even when=to die and even in kick up a BREEZE; DUST, n., 2; SHINDY, etc.

kick up a lark

. To cause a commotion or disturbance: ca 1810–60. Pierce Egan, 1821. See KICK-UP.

kick up at

. To reprimand: at certain Public Schools, esp. Marlborough: late C.19–20.

kick up Bob’s-a-dying

. To make an unnecessary fuss or noise or commotion: New Zealand: since ca 1890.

kick up Meg’s devotion

. To make a ROW, cause a disturbance: naval: late C.19–20. Some piece of naval folklore; perhaps also a prompting by commotion or a pun on diversion.

kick up one's dust in the park

. To stroll there: Society (–1909); ob. Ex Fr. faire sa poussière...

kick up one's heels

. To die: C.16–19; orig. coll but soon S.E. cf. KICK, v., 1, KICK OUT, and kick the BUCKET.

kicker

. A dancing-master: coll: ca 1830–70. (cf. HOP-MERCHANT.) Selby, 1838. 2. A horse: nautical (–1887). 3. An auxiliary motor fitted into a sailing ship: Canadian (and U.S.) nautical coll: from ca 1890; ob. Ex its action on the ship.

kickeraboo or -poo

. Dead: West Indies ‘pidgin’: late C.18–19. Prob. ex kick over the bucket rather than ex kick the BUCKET.

kickers

. The feet: low: C.19–20; ob.

kicking-in

. A fag's duty at football: Winchester College: ca 1820–70.

kicking-strap

. An elastic strap inside a garment: tailors': from ca 1860. Ex the strap adjusted on a horse to prevent his kicking.

kicks

*. Breeches: late C.17–early 19; trousers: C.19–20, ob. The former, c.; the latter, low. Moore, 'That bedizen'd old Georgy's bang-up togs and kicks.' cf. KICKSEES.

kicks than halfpence or ha'pence, more

. Esp. with get, more trouble than profit or money; hence, more unkindness than kindness: coll. 1824, Scott, 'Monkey's allowance...more kicks than halfpence.' cf. MONKEY'S ALLOWANCE.

kicksees, kickseys, kicksies

. Breeches: C.18–mid-19. 2. Trousers: mid-C.19–20, ob. (As breeches, perhaps orig. c.) cf. KICKS. 3. Shoes: low (–1823): †by 1895.

kicksie

, see KICKSY. kicksies, see KICKSEES.

kicksies-builder

. A tailor: c. or low (–1887); ob. Ex: 2. A trousers-maker: c. or low (–1857).

kicksters

*. A pair of breeches: c. (–1839); †by 1900.

kicksy; occ. kicksie

. Disagreeable; apt to give trouble: ca 1850–90. i.e., apt to kick.

kicky

, adj. Kicking (ball): cricketers' coll: 1888, A.G.Steel.

kid

*. (The 1599 Middleton-Massinger quotation given by both F. & H. and the O.E.D. may belong to sense 1; perhaps to sense 3.) A child, esp. if young: late C.17–20: orig. c. or low; ordinary s. in C.19–20. J.Payn, 'He thinks how his Missis and the kids would enjoy the spectacle.' Ex the young of a goat. 2. A thief, esp. a young and expert one: c. (–1812);

ob. by 1880, †by 1896. 3. A man, esp. if young: low (–1823); ob., except in U.S. and, in England, except when applied to a (clever) boxer, e.g. Kid Berg; this boxing nuance is allied to the preceding sense. Bulwer Lytton. 4. A policeman: c. of ca 1875–1905. Thor Fredur. 5. Chaff, leg-pulling, ‘gammon [q.v.] and devilry’, Hindley; low (–1874) >, ca 1900, ordinary s. Esp. in no kid (! or ?). Ex the v., 2. 6. See KIDS. 7. (Gen. kiddy.) A flat dish wherein sailors measure their ration: nautical (–1825). 8. Cheese: Winchester College: late C.19–20. cf. origin of sense 1. 9. One’s younger brother or sister (gen. the kid): mostly Cockneys’: from ca 1880.

kid

, v. To lie in; v.t., get with child: low coll, low s., resp.: C.19–20; ob. 2. To cheat; hoax; wheedle, flatter: from ca 1810, orig. c. 3. Hence (mostly v.t.), to chaff, quiz: low (–1859) >, ca 1900, ordinary s. cf. KID ON. Senses 2 and 3 ex the idea: to treat as a child. 4. Hence, v.i. (often with that...), to pretend, to give the impression...: from late 1870s. Esp. stop kidding!, let’s talk seriously: late C.19–20.

kid, nap the

*. To become pregnant: c. (–1811); ob.

kid, no

, see KID, n., 5. kid, with, see KIDDED.

kid-catcher

. An official who seeks non-attendants-at-school: London School Board’s: late C.19–early 20.

kid-ken

*, see KIDDEN.

kid-lay and -rig

*. The robbing of apprentices or errand-boys of the parcels entrusted to them: c.: resp. late C.17–early 19 and C.19 (ob. by 1859). cf. KINCHEN-LAY. 2. (Only kid-lay.) One of the gang practising this LAY (2): c.: C.18.

kid-leather

. Generic for young harlots: low: C.19–20. cf. LEATHER, n., 2.

kid on

. To lead on, persuade, by GAMMON or by deceit: c. (1839, Brandon) > low (1851, Mayhew) >, ca 1900, ordinary s. cf. KID, v., 2. Contrast:

kid oneself; OCC. kid oneself on

. To be conceited; to delude oneself: low > ordinary s.: from ca 1860. See KID, v., 2, and KIDON.

kid-rig

*, see KID-LAY.

kid-stretcher

. A man fond of young harlots (see KID-LEATHER): low: C.19–20; ob.

kid-walloper

. A schoolmaster: coll: late C.19–20. Recorded in Yorkshire dial. in 1889.

kidded; OCC. with kid

. Pregnant: low: C.19–20; ob. See KID, v., 1.

kidden

*, slurring of less usual kid-ken; occ. kiddy-ken. A lodging house frequented by thieves, esp. by young thieves: c. (–1839); ob. by 1890. Brandon in Poverty, Mendicity and Crime. See KEN.

kidder

. A glib, persuasive speaker; an expert in chaff: low (–1859) >, ca 1900, ordinary s. 2. Hence, one given to pretending: low (–1880) >, by 1900, gen.

kidder

? Where?: Regular Army's: late C.19–20. Ex Hindustani. Opp. IDDER!, here! id.: id.

kiddey, kiddie

, see KIDDY.

kiddier

. A pork-butcher: low: from ca 1860; ob. ?pejorative on kid, a young goat.

kiddily

. Fashionably, smartly, showily: low: from ca 1820; †by 1914.

kidding

. vbl n. of KID, v., 2 and 3. cf. KID, n.,5.

kiddish

. Childish: 1897, Daily News, 13 Dec.: s.

kid(d)l(e)ywink

. A raffle: low (–1884); ob. 2. A small village shop: from ca 1855; ob. 3. A beerhouse (cf. TIDDLYWINK): mid-C.19–20. See the teetotalers’ song quoted by G.B.H., Teetotalism Unmasked, 1845, p. 58. Whence, 4, the late C.19–20 nautical sense, ‘a seaman’s beershop in the Western English ports’: from ca 1870. 5. A woman of unsteady habits: from ca 1860; ob. 6. A loosely used, humorous word for a place, esp. a building, as in ‘a sartain kidlie wink that is called the “House of Commons”’: J.H. Lewis, The Art of Writing, 7th ed., 1816.

kiddo

. A term of address to a girl or, mostly by the father, to a daughter of any age whatsoever: from the late 1880s. cf. BOYO.

kiddy

. A man, youth, boy: low (–1810); ob. by 1910. 2. A little child: 1888, ‘Rolf Boldrewood’, ‘They’d heard all kinds of rough talk ever since they was little kiddies’: s. Occ. kidlet. Ex KID, n., 1. 3. A FLASH, but minor, thief: 1780, Tom linson in his Slang Pastoral: ob. by 1875. Whence rolling kiddy, a dandy thief (1840, Lytton). 4. (Only with difficulty separated from preceding sense.) A dandy, esp. one who dresses like a flash thief (see preceding sense): low: ca 1820–1910. Byron, ‘A kiddy...a real swell’. 5. A harlot’s bully: c. (or perhaps low): ca 1830–1910. 6. ‘A hat of a form fashionable among “kiddies”’: ca 1860–1900: c. or low. 7. A stage-coach driver, says F. & H., citing Dickens in Boz: actually Dickens uses it as the adj. 8. See KID, n., 7.

kiddy

, v.t. To hoax, HUMBUG: low (1851) >, ca 1880, ordinary s.; ob. Mayhew.

kiddy

, adj. Fashionable, smart, showy, FLASH: low: ca 1805–1900. Also, arrogant: nautical (–1887); ob. Baumann. Moncrieff, ‘That kiddy artist...the dandy habit-maker’; Dickens, ‘In the celebrated “kiddy” or stage-coach way.’

kiddy-ken

*, see KIDDEN.

kiddy-nipper

*. ‘Taylors out of work, who cut off the waistcoat pockets of their brethren...thereby grabbing their bit’, or money, says Grose, 1st ed.: c.: late C.18– mid-19.

kiddyish

. Stylish; somewhat showy: low: ca 1815–60. ‘Think of the kiddyish spree we had,’ Jack Randall’s Diary, 1820. Ex KIDDY, adj. 2. Gay; frolicsome: low (–1860); ob.

kidknapper

. A C.17–18 form of KIDNAPPER.

kidlet

, see KIDDY, n., 2, and KID, n., 1. cf.:

kidling

*. A young thief, esp. if his father is in the same profession: c. of ca 1820–60. 2. A baby; a little child: 1899: s. verging on coll.

kidment

. HUMBUG; GAMMON; BLARNEY: c. (–1839) >, by 1860, low; ob. Brandon. 2. Hence, a false story, a begging letter, etc.: c.: from ca 1845. 3. Professional patter: cheapjacks' s.: from ca 1850. 4. A pocket handkerchief, esp. 'one fastened to the pocket, and partially hung out to entrap thieves': c. of ca 1835–1910. 5. Hence, from ca 1860, any inducement to crime: c.; ob.

kidna, kitna

. How much: Anglo-Indian (–1864); ob.: coll.

kidnap

*. To steal children: orig. (late C. 17), c. >, ca 1750, s. >, ca 1800, coll >, ca 1840, S.E. Ex KID, n., 1+ NAP, v., 3= nab, to steal. Recorded four years later than:

kidnapper; occ. †kidknapper

*. A childstealer, orig. one who sold the children he stole to the plantations in North America: 1678 (S.O.D.). In late C.18 used also ‘for all recruiting crimps’, Grose. For rise in status, see back-formational KIDNAP.

kidney-hit

. A punch in the short ribs: boxing: from ca 1860.

kids

. Kid gloves: coll: from ca 1885. In Illustrated Bits, 13 July 1889, a shop-dialogue runs: ‘Certainly, miss...Some undressed kids.’—‘Young man! I only require gloves.’

kid’s-eye

*. A fivepenny piece: Scottish c. of ca 1815–50. Haggart.

kidsman

*. One who teaches boys how to steal, esp. one who also boards and lodges them: c. of ca 1835–1900.

kiff

. Tea, coffee, cocoa: Christ’s Hospital: since ca 1870.

kift

. A BOOZE(?): Ayrshire s.: 1892, Hew Ainslie, A Pilgrimage to the Land of Burns, 'To...invite them all to that ancient hostelry for a "kift owre a chappin".'

kilkenny

*. A frieze coat: late C.17–early 19: c.>low ca 1760. 2. A penny: from ca 1870.

kill

. A ruined garment: tailors': from ca 1860.

kill

, v. 'To hurt badly, put hors de combat,' Wrench: Winchester College: C.19–20. Prob. ex the Anglo-Irish use: cf. KILT. 2. To ruin a garment: tailors': mid-C.19–20.

kill, dressed (or got-up) to , see DRESS TO...

kill-calf or -cow

. A butcher; a murderous ruffian; a terrible person: coll: ca 1580–1750: coll quickly > S.E.; extant in dial. 2. Also as adj., murderous. 3. An arrant boaster: lowest classes': C.19–20.

kill cobbler

. Gin: ca 1715–60. Anon., The Quaker's Opera, 1728. Contrast KILL GRIEF.

kill-devil

. Rum, esp. if new: mid-C.17–20, ob.: coll (orig. West Indian). Thus also in C.18 America. 2. A gun: C.18. Ned Ward, 1703.

kill grief

. Some kind of strong liquor, prob. rum (cf. KILL-DEVIL) fashionable in the 1720s. Anon., The Quaker's Opera, 1728.

kill-priest

. Port wine: provincial: late C. 18–20, ob. cf. preceding.

kill-the-beggar

. Inferior whiskey: Anglo-Irish: from ca 1850. cf. KILL-DEVIL and -PRIEST.

kill the canary

. To evade, or malingering at, work: bricklayers' (–1909).

kill-time

. A pastime; a stop-gap: mid-C. 18–20: coll >, ca 1890, S.E. 2. Also adj.

kill who

? ca 1870–1915, a proletarian c.p., 'satirical protest against a threat' (Ware).

killed off

. Removed from (or lying under) the table because intoxicated: ca 1805–1900. Bee, 1823, 'Borrowed from a phrase used of our brave defenders by Mr Windham, minister-at-war' (William Windham, 1750–1810).

killers

. Eyes (never in singular): Society s. of ca 1775–1800. C.Whibley, in Cap and Gown, quotes one Mansell (1780): 'Their eyes (in fine language...killers)'.

killick

. A petty officers' arm-badge: blue-jackets': late C.19–20. It is shaped like an anchor or killick.

killing

. Extremely funny: coll: from ca 1890.

kilt

, ppl adj. Killed (gen. as a gross exaggeration and merely=severely hurt, beaten, defeated): Anglo-Irish and jocular: C.19–20. Marryat.

kilter

, esp. in U.S., see KELTER.

kiltie (-y), or K.

A Highland soldier: coll: from late 1840s, orig. Scottish. J.Milne, Epistles of Atkins, 1902. Ex their kilts. cf. JOCK.

kim kam

(occ. hyphenated), adv. and adj. (In) the wrong way; out of order: coll: late C.16–early 19, then dial. In Cotgrave and Shakespeare, clean kam; North, 1740, chim-cham. Prob. clean (wholly) cam (awry, crooked).

kimbaw

*. To cheat, trick; esp. beat severely and then rob: c. of ca 1690–1830. Ex a kimbo (akimbo): cf. CROSS, v., 3.

kin

*. A thief; the kin, thieves collectively: c.: C.18.

kinchen, kinchin

*. A child; a young boy (or girl), a young man: c.: from ca 1600, though forty years earlier in combination. In C.19–20, convicts' c. Ex Ger. Kindchen, a little child. cf. next three entries.

kinchen- (or kinchin) co

* (C.16–18) or coye (C.17–19). A boy brought up to stealing: c.: from ca 1560. (Before C.19, rare in cove form.) See co and COVE. 2. (Only as k. cove.) A small man (cf. KINCHEN): c. of ca 1660–1830. 3. A man who robs or kidnaps children: c.: C.19. 4. See KINCHEN-MORT, 1.

kinchen (or -in) -lay

*. The practice of robbing children: c. of ca 1835–80. Dickens in Oliver Twist. cf. KID-LAY.

kinchen-mort or -cove

*. One of ‘Beggars’ children carried at their mother’s backs,’ Grose (2nd ed.), who, to distinguish from the second sense, adds in slates, i.e. in sheets: c.: ca 1560–1830. cf. KINCHEN-CO. 2. Also a young girl trained to thief: mid-C.18–early 19 c.

kincob

. ‘Uniform, fine clothes, rich embroidered dresses,’ H., 3rd ed.: Anglo-Indian coll: from ca 1840; ob. Loosely ex proper sense, gold brocade (1712). Persian-Hindustani origin.

kind

, adv. Kindly: C.17–20: S.E. till ca 1820, then coll; since ca 1880, sol. Dickens, 1849.

kind-heart

. A dentist: jocular coll: ca 1610–40. Jonson.

kind of

, adv. In a way, somewhat; as it were: coll: orig. (–1800), U.S.; anglicized ca 1850, Dickens using it in David Copper-field. (cf. SORT OF.)

kind of a sort of a

. A coll (gen. jocular) variation of kind of a and sort of a, themselves both coll forms of KIND OF, SORT OF (e.g. thing).

kindly

, adv. Easily, readily, spontaneously, congenially: C.15–20; S.E. till ca 1880, then coll.

King Death

. Breath: rhyming s.: mid-C. 19–20. In C.20 only in abbr. form, king. Clarence Rook, London Side-Lights, 1908.

King Dick

. A brick: rhyming s.: late C.19–20.

King John's men, one of

. Occ. amplified with eight score to the hundred. A little under-sized man: late C.18–19: from ca 1850, mainly nautical.

King Lear

. An ear: from ca 1870.

King of Spain's trumpeter

, see SPANISH TRUMPETER.

kingdom come

. The after-life: late C.18–20: s. Wolcot, 'The Parson frank'd their souls to kingdom-come.' Hence, go, send, to k.c., to die, kill. Ex thy kingdom come in the Lord's Prayer.

King's (or Queen's) bad bargain

, see BAD BARGAIN.

King's-Bench

. A notable galley orator: nautical: late C.18–early 20. cf. BUSH LAWYER.

King's birthday, the

. Pay day: military: from ca 1908.

king's books; books or history of the four kings

. A pack of cards: ca 1650–1850: coll >, ca 1800, S.E. Urquhart, Foote. cf. DEVIL'S BOOKS.

King's English, clip the

. To be drunk: drinking s. (–1722) >, ca 1800, coll; †by 1890.

King's hard bargain

. An early C.19–20 variant of King's BAD BARGAIN.

King's (or Queen's) Head Inn

*. Newgate Prison: c. of ca 1690–1830. Also called the Chequer Inn in Newgate Street. 2. Any prison: c.: ca 1790–1850.

king's horse, (you, he, etc.) shall have the

. A c.p. directed at a liar: ca 1670–1840.

King's keys, the

. Crowbars and hammers used to force locks and doors: legal: ca 1810–60. Scott in The Black Dwarf.

King's man or K.-m

, see KINGSMAN.

King's parade, the

. The quarterdeck: naval: C.19. Ex the display made by the officers.

king's peg

. Champagne laced with brandy: late C.19–20.

King's (or Queen's) Pictures

*. Money; esp. coins: C.17–20, ob.: c. >, ca 1780, s. >, ca 1850, coll. Also, in C.19–20, King's (or Queen's) portrait.

King's plate

. Fetters: low (–1811); ob. by 1880, †by 1910.

King's whiskey

. Customed whiskey (the illicit stuff being plain whiskey): Anglo-Irish coll: mid-C.19–20.

kingsman

. A handkerchief green-based, yellow-patterned: costermongers' (–1851); ob. Mayhew; 'The favourite coloured neckerchief of the costermongers,' F. & H. A very emphatic one is a kingsman of the rortiest (see RORTY).

Kingswood lion

. An ass: ca 1820–90: coll or s. cf. JERUSALEM PONY.

kinichin

*. A rare C.19 variant of KINCHEN.

kinkling

. (Gen. pl.) A periwinkle: nautical: mid-C.19–20. By corruption. Also in Dorset dial. (–1851).

kinnyans

. Spirituous liquor(s): naval: ca 1860–1910. Origin?

kip

*. A brothel: 1766, Goldsmith, ‘Tattering a kip’—wrecking a brothel—‘as the phrase was, when he had a mind for a frolic’: low (? orig. c.): †by 1880, except in Dublin, where it has > s. Ex Danish kippe, a hut, a mean alehouse; ?cf. Romany kipsi, a basket, and kitchema, an inn. 2. A bed; a hammock: low (–1879, perhaps orig. c.) and nautical. cf. DOSS; LETTY; LIB; LIG. 3. A lodging or a lodging-house, a doss-house: low (–1883). Answers, 31 Jan. 1891. 4. ‘A small chip used for tossing pennies in the occult game of two-up’, C.J.Dennis: late C.19–20: s. Perhaps a corruption or a perversion of chip.

kip

*, v. To play truant: low (?c.): ca 1815–60. Haggart. 2. To lodge; sleep: c.: from ca 1880.

kip in

. To ‘shut up’; low: late C.19–20. Ex KIP, to go to bed (and sleep).

kip-house

*. A tramps’ lodging-house: tramps’ c.: from ca 1885.

kipper

. A stoker (from being roasted): naval (–1909); ob.

kirb

. A brick: back s. (–1859).

kirk and a mill of, make a

. To make the best of: C.18. 2. To use as one wishes: C.19–20. Galt. Both senses are Scots coll.

kirkling

; cracking a kirk, vbl nn. Breaking into a dwelling while its occupants are at kirk or church: c.; from ca 1850. cf. U.S. kirk-buzzer*.

kisky

. Drunk; stupid with drink: from ca 1860; ob. Perhaps ex fuddled speech or ex Romany kushto, good (cf. feel pretty good) or else, as Baumann suggests, on FRISKY and whisky.

kissmisses

. ‘The raisins issued as rations in Indian waters’: nautical: late C.19–20. Bowen. ?ex Hindustani.

kiss

. A drop of wax by the side of the seal of a letter: coll (mostly rural): from ca 1825; ob. Thackeray, Dickens.

kiss-curl

. A small curl lying on cheek or temple: coll: from 1854, says Ware. Punch, 1856, ‘those pastry-cook’s girl’s ornaments called kiss-curls’.

kiss me, Hardy

! An occasional, jocular c.p.: late C.19–20. Ex Nelson’s famous, and prob. mythical, last words. Some historians (?) have supposed that he said Kismet, Hardy—which I doubt.

kiss-me-quick

. A small bonnet, once fashionably worn on the back of the head: 1852 (O.E.D.): coll >, ca 1890, S.E. 2. A KISS-CURL: from ca 1890; ob.: coll.

kiss my——

. See ARSE. (Also as adj.) cf. the old proverbs, He that doth kiss and do no more, may kiss behind and not before and Kiss one where one sat on Saturday (or Sunday).

kiss my foot

! Rubbish!: Australian: late C.19–20.

kiss my hand, as easy as

, see EASY AS DAMN IT.

kiss the book on that!, you can

. A coll c.p. dating from ca 1890 and=‘it’s a dead cert!’ (s.v. CERT.)

kiss the Clink, the Counter

. To be confined in the Clink (see CLINK, n.) or in the Counter prison: mid-C.16–18 coll. J.Wall, Rowlands.

kiss the hare’s foot

, see HARE’S FOOT.

kiss the maid

. To lose one's head in an early form of the guillotine: late C.17– mid-18.

kiss the master

. To hit the jack: bowls: ca 1570–1660. Gosson.

kisser

. The mouth: pugilists' (–1860) >, ca 1900, gen. low s. cf. KISSING-TRAP. 2. In pl, the lips: likewise pugilistic (–1896); ob.

kissing cousins

. Cousins sufficiently close or familiar to allow mutual kissing; hence, loosely, friends unrelated by either blood or marriage: Canadian coll: late C.19–20.

kissing-crust

. 'The soft-baked surface between two loaves; also the under-crust in a pudding or pie,' F. & H.: coll: 1708, W.King's Art of Cookery; Barham, 'A mouldy piece of kissing-crust as from a warden pie.'

kissing-trap

. The mouth: low and boxers’: from ca 1850; ob. On POTATO-JAW or -TRAP.

kistmutgar

, see KITMEGUR.

kit

. A dancing-master, a fiddler: ca 1720–1830. Ex kit, a small fiddle formerly much used by dancing-masters. 2. A set, collection of things or (rarely in C.20) persons, esp. in the whole kit: coll: 1785, Grose; Shelley, in Oedipus Tyrannus, ‘I’ll sell you in a lump the whole kit of them.’ cf. the U.S. whole kit and boodle. Prob. ex the military sense. 3. (the whole kit.) In low C.19–20: membrum virile and testes.

Kit has come

. The monthly period is here: feminine: late C.19–20. cf. (the) CAPTAIN IS AT HOME.

kitchen

. The stomach (cf. VICTUALLING DEPARTMENT): low coll: from ca 1850. 2. The female pudend: low: from ca 1860.

kitchen co, kitchen mort

*. Awdelay's variants (1561) of KINCHEN-CO and KINCHEN-MORT.

kitchen, go into the

. To drink one's tea out of the saucer: non-aristocratic: from ca 1860. Ex servants' tendency so to drink their tea.

kitchener

*. A thief haunting a 'thieves' kitchen': c : from ca 1840.

kitchy-koo

. The noise made by adults when tickling an infant: C.19–20. Ex Irish dial.

kite

. An accommodation bill; a bill of exchange, esp. if worthless: commercial: 1805. Hence fly a kite, to raise money or get credit by such bills.

kite

, v. To move like a kite through the air; also fig.: coll: 1863, Le Fanu, 'He has been "kiting all over the town".' 2. v.i., same as fly a kite: see the n.: from ca 1860:

commercial. 3. As v.t., to convert into an accommodation bill, it is not very gen.: from ca 1900: commercial.

kite, Wow out the

. To have a full stomach: Cockneys' (–1909); ob.

kite, fly a

. See KITE, n.: 1805; app. orig. Anglo-Irish. 2. See KITE-FLYING, 2.

kite, pull a

*. To make a face, a grimace: c. (–1887).

kite-flyer

. One who raises money or maintains credit by the issuing of bills of exchange and/or accommodation: commercial: from ca 1830. See KITE, n.

kite-flying

. The vbl n. corresponding to the preceding: from ca 1820. 2. Whoremongering: low: ca 1820–60.

kitmegur

. An under-butler, a footman: Anglo-Indian (Bengal) coll: from ca 1750. More correctly kitmutgar or khedmutgar, khid-; kistmutgar is an † sol.

kitna

, see KIDNA.

kitten

*. A pint or half-pint pewter pot: c.: from ca 1850; ob. See CAT, n., 7.

kitten, to

. To be brought to bed of a child: low coll: C.19–20.

kitties, kittys

. Effects, furniture, stock: s. or coll: late C.18–mid-19.

kittle-pitchering

. ‘A jocular method of hobbling or bothering a troublesome teller of long stories’ (Grose, 1st ed.) by constant inquiries about minor points: ca 1780–1850.

kitty

. The prison at Durham; hence, esp. in the North of England, any prison: 1825: s. and dial. Hone. ?ex kid-cote. 2. In card games, the pool: 1892, Daily Chronicle, 5 March: coll >, in C.20, S.E. 3; A pet-name form of kitten: C.18–20: coll till C.19, then S.E. 4. for kittys, pl only, see KITTIES. 5. (Kitty.) The inevitable naval, hence military, nickname of any man surnamed Wells: late C.19–20. Ex some naval celebrity or ‘character’. 6. The female pudend: mostly card-players’: late C.19–20. Suggested by the synonymous pussy, q.v. at PUSS, 1.

kivey

. A man, fellow, chap: from ca 1850; ob.: low. Bradley, in Verdant Green. This diminutive of COVE (see also COVEY) was possibly influenced by L. civis, a citizen.

klep

. A thief: from ca 1880. A somewhat low abbr. of kleptomaniac.

klep

, v. To steal: from ca 1885; ob. Ex the preceding.

klip

. A diamond: South African diamond fields’s.: from the middle 1880s. Matthews, Incwadi Yami, 1887. Ex Cape Dutch klip, a rock, a pebble. cf.:

klip

, v. To put a stone behind (a wheel) to prevent a vehicle from running backwards: South African coll: 1878, Roche, On Trek in the Transvaal. For origin, cf. the n.

klobber

, see CLOBBER.

klondyke

, adj. Mad: lower classes': 1897– ca 1914. Ex Klondyke gold-fever.

kloop

. A coll imitation of a cork being drawn: from ca 1870.

knab, knap

, and compounds, see NAB, NAP, etc. But see also KNAP.

knacker

. An old and worn-out horse: coll ex dial.: from ca 1858. W.Bradwood.

knacker

*, v., gen in passive. To kill; ruin: c. or perhaps merely low s. (–1887). Ex S.E., a horse-slaughterer. 2. (Rare except as knackered, ppl adj.) To rob (a person) of something: Conway cadets’ (–1891). 3. To geld, emasculate: Australian: since ca 1860. Ex:

knackers

. The testicles, occ. of animals: low: C.19–20. Prob. ex dial. knacker, a castanet or other ‘striker’.

knap

. A cheating trick at dice: ca 1650–1720: ?orig. c. > j. > S.E. ‘Hudibras’ Butler. 2. ‘A manual retort rehearsed and arranged’, F. & H.: theatre: ca 1850–1900.

knap

*. Its various senses, receive, endure, steal, all derive from that of ‘to take’: c. or low: from ca 1810. Vaux; H., 1864, ‘Oh, my! won’t he just knap it if he can!’, i.e. take anything if there’s a chance. (cf. the Whitby knap, a person not strictly honest.) In combination: knap a CLOUT, to steal a handkerchief; knap the SWAG, to grab the booty; knap SEVEN PENN’ORTH, to be sentenced to seven years: all being c.

knap, give or take the

. To give or to get a sham blow: ca 1850–1900: s.

knap a hot un

. To receive a hard punch: boxing: from ca 1820; ob.

knap a jacob from a danna- (or danna-ken-, dunnigen-)drag

*. To steal a ladder from a nightcart: c.: ca 1810–90.

Knap is concerned, Mr; Mr Knap's been there

. She is pregnant: low: ca 1810–1910.

knap the glim

*. To catch a CLAP: c.: from ca 1810; ob.

knap the rust

*. To become (very) angry: c.: from ca 1810; †by 1910.

knap the stoop

. To be made INSPECTOR OF PAVEMENTS: c.: ca 1820–70.

knapped, be

. To be pregnant: low: ca 1820–90.

knapper

. The head: low: from ca 1840. Because the RECEIVER GENERAL (2). 2. (Rare in singular.) The knee: from ca 1760: since ca 1820, dial.; ob. T.Brydges.

knapper's poll

*. A sheep's head: late C.18–early 19 c.

knapping-jigger

*. A turnpike or toll gate: c. of ca 1830–95. Ainsworth.

knapping-jigger, dub at the

*. To pay at the turnpike: c. (–1859); †by 1900.

Knap's been there, Mr

, see KNAP is CONCERNED.

knapsack descent

. A soldier or soldiers in every generation of a family: non-aristocratic coll: late C.19–20.

knark

. A ca 1850–1900 variant of NARK.

knat

. A hard task; a tyrant; a person not easily fooled: tailors': from ca 1860; ob. ?the perversion—or the survival of an †form—of gnat.

knave

. A dunce: Christ's Hospital: from ca 1820; ob.

knave in grain

. A late C.17–mid-19 jocular coll for a corn-factor, a miller.

knave's grease

. A flogging: C.17 jocular coll.

knee, break one's

. To be deflowered; made pregnant: coll: C.19–20; ob.

knee-drill

. Kneeling, to order, for prayers: Salvation Army j. (1882)>, ca 1895, jocular coll, gen. used loosely as= praying.

knee-high to a(n)

... Very small or young, esp. in knee-high to a grasshopper, a mosquito or a duck: orig. (1824), U.S.; anglicized ca 1890.

knee-trembler

. A standing sexual embrace: low coll: from ca 1850.

knees, sit on one's

. To kneel down: coll: C.19–20.

kneller

, see KNULLER.

knick-knack

, see NICK-NACK.

knickers

. Men's knickers; women's drawers: a coll abbr. of knickerbockers: 1881 (S.O.D.).

knife

. A sword: M.E.-mod. Eng.: literary till C.19, when it > military coll. 2. A shrew: lowest London: C.19. Ware, 'Suggestive of being "into you" in a moment'. 3. To 'bluepencil' (a manuscript): theatrical: ca 1880–1915. Punning CUT, v., 5.

'knife', before one can or could say

*. Very quickly, swiftly, or suddenly: coll: 1880, Mrs Parr, Adam and Eve; 'Rolf Boldrewood'; Kipling. cf. JACK ROBINSON...

knife and fork, lay down one's

. To die: low coll: from ca 1860.

knife and fork tea

. High tea: lower-middle class's coll: 1874; slightly ob.

knife-board

. A seat running lengthways on the roof of an omnibus: 1852 (S.O.D.); coll >, ca 1890, S.E. Leech's cartoon in Punch, 15 May 1852.

knife it

. To decamp; esp. as imperative; stop!, go away!, run!: low (–1812); ob. cf. CUT IT, 2.

knifer

. A sponging SHARK: low: from ca 1890; ob. 2. A rough apt to stab with a knife: low (–1905).

kniff-knaff

. Some kind of jest: ca 1680–1700. E.Hooker.

knifish

. Spiteful: tailors': from ca 1860; ob.

knight and barrow pig

. 'More hog than gentleman. A saying of any low pretender to precedence,' Grose, 1st ed.: c.p. of ca 1780–1840.

knight of the

... 'Forming various jocular (formerly often slang) phrases denoting one who is a member of a certain trade or profession, has a certain occupation or character, etc.', O.E.D. Most are ironical (cf. CARPET-KNIGHT) and orig. were, prob., derisive of the many sets or classes of knights and/or of the various orders of knighthood. Some are c., some s., some coll, some S.E., even literary, and long demoded. A few arose in C.16, many in C.17–18; the numerous C.19 additions are s. or coll; the practice is, fortunately, †. The principal phrases—drawn from F. & H. and O.E.D.—are these: awl, a cobbler (–1848). blade, a bully: late C.17–18: c.> s. brush, an artist (–1885): coll; also, a housepainter: jocular coll: from ca 1890; ob. brush and moon, a drunken fellow (–1848). cleaver, a butcher: jocular coll: from ca 1830; ob. cloth, a tailor: ca 1790–1860. collar, one who has been hanged: ca 1550–1660. cue, a billiard-marker: jocular coll: 1887 (O.E.D.); ob. elbow, a sharpening gambler: late C.17–mid-18. field, a tramp: C.16–early 17. forked order or (without the) Hornsey: jocular: a cuckold resp. ca 1660–1750, ca 1630–1700. (Contrast order of the fork, below.) grammar, a schoolmaster: perhaps merely literary: ca 1690–1740. green cloth, a gambler: orig. (–1881), U.S.; anglicized ca 1885; ob. hod, a bricklayer. Hornsey, see above. industry (the being occ. omitted): from ca 1650: prob. literary. Fr. chevalier d'industrie. jemmy, a burglar: Society: late C.19–early 20. knife, a cutpurse: C.17. Jonson. lapstone, a cobbler: jocular coll: C.19–20; ob. napkin, a waiter: from ca 1850: jocular; ob. needle, shears, thimble, a tailor: resp. 1778, Foote; from ca 1780; late C.18–20. All orig. jocular s. or coll but by 1860, almost S.E. order of the fork, one who digs with a fork: jocular coll: from ca 1620. J.Taylor the Water Poet. Contrast forked order, above. pen, a clerk or (cf. quill) an author: from ca 1860; ob.: resp. jocular coll and near-literary pencil, a bookmaker: jocular: from ca 1880; ob. or †. pestle, an apothecary: C.17–20; ob.: jocular coll. petticoat, a brothel's bully: low coll: ca 1880–1910. piss-pot, a physician or an apothecary: from ca 1860; ob. pit, a fancier of cock-fighting: from ca 1870; ob.: jocular coll or perhaps journalistic. post, a notorious and/or a professional perjurer: from ca 1580; ob.: c. till ca 1750, then s.; since ca 1840, S.E. Also, the K. of the P., Titus Oates of the Popish Plot: C.17. (The most widely used of all.) Nashe, Ford, Mrs Centlivre, W.T.Moncrieff. ?ex (fit for) the whipping-post. F. & H.'s other sense is suspect: see KNIGHTED IN BRIDEWELL. quill, an author: late C.17–20; ob.: coll soon > S.E. rainbow, a footman: ca 1780–1880. road, a highwayman, esp. a notable one: from ca 1660: c. till ca 1750, then s.; from ca 1840, S.E. and literary. In C.19, occ. a footpad and in C.20 a tramp. In late C.19–20, occ. a COMMERCIAL. rumpad, the same: c.: ca 1815–40. Moore. shears, see above at needle. spigot, tapster or publican: from ca 1820; ob.: jocular coll. Scott. sun, an adventurer: literary: ca 1720; †by 1910. Punning the Knights of the Golden Sun, an order of chivalry. thimble, see above at needle. trencher. A good trencher-man: from ca 1780: jocular. vapour, a smoker: C.17; perhaps a nonceword (Taylor the Water Poet). wheel, a cyclist: prob. S.E.: from ca 1880; ob. whip, a coachman: from ca 1810; ob.: jocular s. > coll. whipping-post, a disreputable person, esp. a sharper: ca 1815–60. Scott. yard, a shop-assistant: ca 1885–1910.

knighted in Bridewell or bridewell, be

. To be whipped in prison: late C.16–17. cf. KNIGHT OF the post and the whipping-post.

knights, be the guest of the cross-legged

. To go dinnerless: C.18–early 19. Ex the effigies in the Round Church (in the Temple, London), a rendezvous of hungry men looking for jobs from the lawyers and their clients. cf. DINE WITH DUKE HUMPHREY.

knitting-needle

. A sword: military: ca 1850–1910. cf. TOOTH-PICK.

knob

. The head: from ca 1720. Hence, one on the knob, a blow on the head. Gen. NOB. 2. Abbr. KNOBSTICK: 1838. 3. A NOB (4) or BIG WIG. cf.: 4. An officer: naval: ?mid-C.17–mid-19. Bowen, ‘Apparently introduced into the British service with the amalgamation with the Scottish Navy’. 5. (Also nob.) A double-headed penny in the game of two-up: Australian, hence also New Zealand: late C.19–20. 6. (Also nob.) Penis; playing with one’s nob, male masturbation: low: late C.19–20. With ref. to glans penis. Indeed, knob also = glans penis.

knob

, v. To hit: 1818; from ca 1815. Prob. ex hit on the KNOB.

knob of suck

. A piece of sweetmeat: provincial: C.19–20; ob.

knob on to

. To pay court to; fall in love with: Cockney (–1887); slightly ob.

knobs, make no

. Not to hesitate or be scrupulous: coll: ca 1670–1770.

knobstick; OCC. nobstick

. A non-unionist; a workman who takes less than the agreed price or one who works while his fellows are on strike: workmen's: from ca 1825; ob.: s.>, ca 1870, coll>, ca 1900, S.E. 2. A master paying less than union wages: workmen's: from ca 1850: s.>, ca 1880, coll>, ca 1905, S.E. Mayhew.

knock

. A copulation: low coll: C.16–17. See the v. 2. The penis: C.18–20. More gen. KNOCKER (2). 3. A lame horse: horse-dealers’: from ca 1860. London Review, 18 June 1864, ‘The knock...is a great favourite for horse-coping purposes, as he is often a fine-looking animal.’

knock

, v.t. and i. (Of a man) to have sexual intercourse (with): low coll: late C. 16–20. Florio, ‘Cunnata, a woman nocked’. See NOCK, n., for possible etymology, and cf. the mainly U.S. knocked-up, pregnant. 2. To rouse or summon one by knocking at his door, v.t.: coll: C.18–19. Abbr. C.19–20 S.E. knock up. 3. To astound, alarm, confuse; to FLOOR: coll: from ca 1715; ob. except in that knocks me!, that confounds or is too much for me. 4. To impress greatly, to ‘fetch’, to surprise: 1883, Referee, 6 May, “‘It’s never too Late to Mend’...is knocking’ em at the Pavilion.” cf. Albert Chevalier’s song title, 1892, Knocked’ em in the Old Kent Road.

knock, get the

. To drink too much, become drunk: from ca 1860; ob. 2. To be dismissed from employment: from ca 1860; ob. cf. get the SACK or BAG.

knock, take the

. To lose to the bookmakers more than one can pay: the turf (–1890). Hence, from ca 1895, to suffer a financial loss.

knock about

, v.i. To wander much, roam, gen. aimlessly: coll: from ca 1800. Mayhew, 'I've been knocking about on the streets.' Also v.t., as in Glascock, 1829, 'Had you been served as I was—kept knocking about the North Seas...' 2. To pass round, esp. in knock about the bub (drink): low (–1781); ob.

knock-about

, adj. Noisy and violent (e.g. comedians): theatre: 1891. 2. The n., a 'knock-about' performer or performance, is recorded four years earlier. 3. Abbr. of next.

knock-about man or hand

. A handy man: Australian coll: from ca 1875. W.Harcus, 1876, 'Knockabout hands, 17s. to 20s. per week'. Also (–1889) knock(-)about. cf. rouseabout.

knock acock

. To FLOOR; astound: coll: C.19. See COCKED HAT.

knock all of a heap

, see HEAP...

knock along

. An Australian variation (commented-on in the Tichborne case, 1874) of KNOCK ABOUT, v.i.; very ob. Ware.

knock at the cobbler's door

, see COBBLER'S DOOR.

knock bandy

. To astound, FLABAGAST: tailors': from ca 1860.

knock (someone's) block off

. To punch him on the head; esp. as a jocular threat, I'll k. your b. off: since ca 1870.

knock (or let) daylight into

, see DAYLIGHT IN TO...

knock-down

. Strong liquor: late C.17–19. In mid-C.18–20, but ob., knock-me-down.

knock down

, v. To call upon, nominate, urgently invite: coll; slightly ob.: 1759, Goldsmith, ‘...Had knocked down Mr Spriggins for a song.’ 2. To reduce considerably in amount or degree: coll: from ca 1865. e.g. to knock down prices, colours. 3. To spend in drink or other riotous living: Australia: 1869, Marcus Clarke, ‘Knocked down thirteen notes, and went to bed as light as a fly.’

knock ’em down

. To gain applause: proletarian (–1887).

knock-’em-down business

. Auctioneering: low coll: from ca 1860.

knock-'em-downs; k.-me-d

. A coconut shy: coll: from ca 1825. 2. Loosely, skittles: from ca 1860.

knock for six

. To overcome drastically, foil utterly, inconvenience gravely: from ca 1899.

knock-in

. The game of loo; a hand at cards: from ca 1860: low s. > coll. 2. The same as KNOCK-OUT, n., 1.

knock in

, v.i. To return to college after the gate is closed: university: 1825, C.M. Westmacott. 2. To join in (cf. CHIP IN) a game of cards: clubmen's and gamblers': from ca 1860. 3. To make money: costermongers': from ca 1870. i.e., into the pocket.

knock in the cradle

. A fool; but gen. as to have got a knock..., be a fool. Coll: ca 1670–1850.

knock into

. To encounter: coll: late C.19–20.

knock into a cocked hat

, see COCKEDHAT. knock into fits, see FITS. knock into (gen. the middle of) next week, see WEEK. knock spots off or out of. These four=to defeat utterly, be much better than: C.19–20. The first and second are coll, the others s.

knock it down

. To applaud by hammering or stamping: low: from ca 1860; ob.

knock it out of one

. To exhaust; punish severely: coll>, ca 1910, S.E. Punch, 1841, ‘The uphill struggles...soon knock it all out of him.’

knock-me-down

, see KNOCK-DOWN, n., 1. 2. As adj., violent, overpowering, over-bearing: coll: 1760, Foote, ‘No knock-me-down doings in my house.’

knock-me-downs

, see KNOCK-’EM-DOWNS.

knock off

. To die: C.18–20; very ob. Tom Brown in a letter of 1704. 2. To complete or despatch easily or hastily: coll: from late C.18. Peacock; Pall Mall Gazette, 29 Nov. 1891, ‘A specimen of the “consumptive manner” as knocked off by Mr Lang’.

knock off corners

. To be successful: music-halls’: ca 1880–1914. Ware cites Entr’Acte, 16 April 1885: ‘Just as Arthur Williams had commenced to “knock corners off” at the music hall, he is once more summoned to the Gaiety. More study!’

knock-out

; occ. (–1860) knock-in. One who, at auctions, combines with others (hence, also, the combination) to buy at nominal prices: from ca 1850: coll. Ex: 2. knock-out an illegal auction: from ca 1820: coll >, ca 1890, S.E. (These auction senses are also used as adjj.) 3. Applied in admiration, or by way of outraged propriety, to a person, esp. one who does outrageous things; also to an astounding or outrageous thing. Chiefly as a regular knock-out. From ca 1885. Perhaps ex boxing, a knock-out being a champion, but more prob. ex KNOCKER, 3.

knock out

, v. Corresponding to the n., senses 1 and 2: from ca 1870: coll >, ca 1905, S.E. 2. To make (very) quickly or roughly: coll: from ca 1855. Dickens, Hardy. 3. Hence, to earn: Colonial: from ca 1895. Ex KKOCK UP, 3. 4. To render bankrupt: from ca 1890. 5. To leave a college by knocking at the gate after it has been shut: university: from ca 1860. cf. KNOCK IN, v., 1. 6. ‘To bet so persistently against a horse that from a short price he retires to an outside place’, F. & H.; to force out of the racing quotations: from ca 1870: mostly the turf. 7. To fail (a candidate) in an examination: late C.19–20. Ex boxing.

knock out an apple

. To beget a child: 1818, Keats in a letter of 5 Jan.; †by 1890.

knock out of time

, v.t. To punch so hard that one's opponent cannot rise at 'Time': boxers': from ca 1880: s. >, ca 1890, coll.

knock-outs

. Dice: gamblers' s.: from ca 1850.

knock over

, v.i. To give way; to die: from ca 1890: s. >, ca 1905, coll; ob.

knock round

, see KNOCK ABOUT, v., 1.

knock saucepans or smoke out of

. To attack violently; gen., however, to defeat utterly: Australia: ca 1885–1905. 'Rolf Boldrewood', both uses in Robbery under Arms.

knock-softly

. A fool; a simpleton; a too easy-going person: coll: 1864; ob.

knock spots off

. See the group at KNOCK IN TO A COCKED HAT.

knock the bottom (or filling or inside or lining or stuffing or wadding) out of

. To confound, defeat utterly; render useless, valueless, or invalid: coll: resp. 1875, ca 1880, ca 1890, ca 1890, 1889, ca 1895. The O.E.D. compares it won't hold water.

knock the shit out of

. To thrash; (of a job) to exhaust or strain: low coll: late C.19–20.

knock-toe

. A 'Deal lugger-rigged galley-punt, in which there was little room for the feet': nautical: C.19. Bowen.

knock up

. To gain, in class, a place (v.i. and v.t., e.g. ‘He knocked Jones up’): Christ’s Hospital: from ca 1830. cf. OX UP. 2. Make (so many runs) by hitting: cricket coll: 1860. Ex: 3. To earn: coll: from ca 1885. cf. KNOCK OUT, v. 4. See KNOCKED UP, its only part. 5. To arrange (e.g. a dance): (low) coll (–1887).

knock-upable

. Easily fatigued: coll: from ca 1870. George Eliot.

knockabout

, n. and adj., see KNOCKABOUT.

knocked-knees and silly and can’t hold his water

. A pejorative c.p.: Public Schools’: late C.19–20.

knocked off one’s pins

. FLABAGASTED: coll (–1880). Trollope.

knocked one's link out, to have

. To be tipsy: ca 1730–70. See quotation at LINK, TO HAVE...Here, link=torch.

knocked out

. Unable to meet engagements: commercial coll: from ca 1860.

knocked up

. Exhausted: see KNOCK UP, 1. 2. Pregnant: low: C.19–20; mainly U.S. Ex KNOCK, v., 1.

Knocker

. An 'inevitable' nickname of men surnamed Walker or White: naval and military: late C.19–20.

knocker

. A (notable or frequent) performer of the sexual act: C.17–20; ob.: low coll. Barry, in Ram Alley. 2. The penis: from ca 1650; ob.: low (?coll). 3. One of striking appearance: C.17–19. Whence KNOCK-OUT, n., 3. 4. A (kind of) pendant to a wig: ca 1818–38.

knocker, up to the . (Very) healthy, fit, or fashionable; adv., exceedingly well: 1844, Selby, in London by Night.

knocker-face or -head

. An ugly-face (or its owner): low: from ca 1870; ob.

knockers

. Small curls worn flat on the temples: coll: ca 1890–1915.

knocking

. Sexual intercourse: low coll: late C.16–20, ob. except in combination.

knocking-house or, more gen. -shop

. A brothel: low: mid-C.19–20.

knocking-jacket

. A nightgown, nightdress: low coll: ca 1700–1850. D’Urfey.

knocking-joint

*. A brothel: C.20: c. >, by 1915, low s. Ex KNOCK, v., 1.

knocking-shop

, see KNOCKING-HOUSE.

knot

. The swelling (or shoulder) of the glans penis: coll: mid-C.19–20.

knot, tie with St Mary's

. To hamstring: coll: C.19.

knot it

. To abscond: low: from ca 1860; ob.

knot with the tongue that cannot be undone or untied with the teeth, knit or tie a

. To get married: coll: late C.16–mid-19; then dial. Lyly, Swift, Scott.

know, be all

. To be a bookworm: proletarian coll (–1887).

know, don't you

, see DON'T YOU KNOW.

know, in the

. Possessing special and/or intimate knowledge: coll: 1883, Referee, 29 April, 'As everybody immediately interested knows all about them, perhaps Refreaders would like to be in the know likewise.'

know, we or you or do you (?)

. A mildly exclamatory or semi-interrogatory (virtual) parenthesis: coll: from ca 1710. Addison, 1712; Jane Austen, 'Do you know, I saw the prettiest hat you can imagine.'

know a great A from a bull's foot

, (2) a thing or two, (3) a trick or two, (4) a trick worth two of that, (5) how many blue beans make five, (6) how many days go to the week, (7) how many go to a dozen, (7a) one's book, (8) one's life, (9) one's way about, (10) something, (10a) the price of old iron (or old rags), (11) the ropes, (12) the time of day, (13) what's o'clock, (14) what's what, (15) which way the wind blows. To be well-informed, experienced, wide-awake, equal to an emergency. Nos. 5 and 14 are s., the others coll; nos. 7, 9 and 15 are almost S.E.—No. 1, C.18–20, ob.; no. 2, late C.18–20; (Holcroft); no. 3, C.18–20, ob.; no. 4, late C.16–19 (Shakespeare); no. 5, C.19–20; no. 6, C.17–18; no. 7, from ca 1850; no. 7a, from ca 1880; no. 8, from ca 1890, ob.; no. 9, from ca 1860;

no. 10, from ca 1870, ob.; no. 10a, late C.19–20; no. 11, from ca 1850, orig. nautical; no. 12, from ca 1890; cf. no. 13, from ca 1520 (Dickens); no. 14, what is what from ca 1400, what's what from ca 1600 (e.g. in Jonson and Wycherley): see esp. Apperson; no. 15, from ca 1540; ob. by 1890; †. cf. KNOW ONE POINT MORE THAN THE DEVIL.

know B from a battledore, not to , see B FROM A...and cf. above.

know it!, not if I

. Not if I can help it: coll: 1874, Hardy.

know life

*, in the C.19 underworld, meant, to know the shady tricks and the criminal acts, but not necessarily to be a criminal oneself.

know of, not that I

. So far as I know: coll: from ca 1880.

know of, not that you

. A defiant expression addressed to someone in reference to something he proposes or is about to do: coll: ca 1740–1820. Richardson, ‘As Mr B. offer’d to take his Hand, he put ‘em both behind him.—Not that you know of, Sir!’

know one point, OCC. an ace, more than the devil

. To be (very) cunning: coll: C.17–18. Prob. ex Spanish. cf. the Cornish know tin—tin occurring in many forms. Both are much stronger than know a thing or two etc.

know one's book

. Be correctly informed: coll: from ca 1875.

know one's way about, the ropes, the time of day, what's o'clock

(etc.), see KNOW A GREAT A, etc.

knowing

. Stylish; knowing 'what's what' in fashion, dress, manners: coll: ca 1795–1860. Jane Austen; T.Hughes, 'Tom thought his cap a very knowing affair.'

knowing bloke

. A sponger on recruits: military (–1887); ob. Brunlees Patterson in Life in the Ranks. For knowing codger (–1859) see knowing+CODGER.

knowledge-box

. The head: (–1765) coll >, ca 1890, S.E.

knowledgeable

. Having or showing knowledge or mental ability: from ca 1830: dial.>, ca 1860, coll. Hence knowledgeably (–1865) and knowledgeableness (–1886).

known

, n. A well-known person: coll: 1835. Never very gen.

knows, all one

. (To) the best of one's ability; (to) the utmost: coll: from ca 1870. Other forms are possible: all one knew, all they know or knew.

knuck

*. A thief, esp. a pickpocket: c. of ca 1810–60. Ainsworth, in Rookwood. Ex:

knuckle

*. A pickpocket, esp. an expert: c. of ca 1780–1840. 2. Abbr. KNUCKLE-DUSTER; never very common: coll: from ca 1870.

knuckle

, v. To pick pockets, esp. if expertly: c. of ca 1785–1870. 2. To pummel, punch, fight with one's fists: c.: from ca 1860; ob.

knuckle, down on the

. (Almost) penniless: either c. or low: from ca 1840; ob. 'No. 747' (reference to year 1845).

knuckle, go on the

. To practise pick-pocketry: c. of ca 1810–70.

knuckle, lie on the

, see LIE ON THE KNUCKLE.

knuckle, near the

. Slightly indecent: coll (1895, W.Pett Ridge). cf. the c.p., the nearer the bone the sweeter the MEAT.

knuckle-bleeders

. Those spiky balls of the plane tree with which children hit one another over the knuckles: Cockneys': from ca 1880.

knuckle-bone, down on the

*. Penniless: c.: from ca 1880.

knuckle-confounders or -dabs

*. Handcuffs: c. of ca 1780–1850.

knuckle-duster

. A knuckle-guard that, made of metal, both protects the hand and gives brutal force to the blow: orig. (–1858), U.S. and c.; anglicized, ca 1865, as coll; by 1900, S.E. The Times, 15 Feb. 1858. 2. Hence, a large and either heavy or over-gaudy ring: low: from ca 1870.

knuckled

. Hand-sewn: tailors': from ca 1860; slightly ob.

knuckler

*. A pickpocket: c.: ca 1810–90. EX KNUCKLE, v., 1. cf.:

knuckling-cove

*. The same: id.: id. Ex KNUCKLE, v., 1.

knüller; occ. kneller

. A chimney-sweep given to soliciting custom by knocking or ringing at doors: low: ca 1850–1900. ?ex knell. 2. A clergyman: low: ca 1860–1910. Ex sense 1 via CLERGYMAN.

knut, k-nut

. (The k-pronounced.) A very stylish (young) man about town; a dandy: from ca 1905. Prob. NUT orig.=head and knut has perhaps been influenced by KNOB. See also FILBERT.

ko-tow, kowtow

! (Properly k'o-tou, k'o-tou!) Thank you!: Anglo-Chinese coll: C.17–20.

kocks nownes

! A coll perversion of God's wounds: C.16–mid-17.

kokum

. Sham kindness: Australian c. (–1896); ob. Also COCUM. Perhaps this strange word is cognate with Sampson’s χοχano, lying, counterfeit: cf. χοχani, a sham horoscope (Welsh Gypsy).

konk

, see CONK.

konoblin rig

*. The stealing of large pieces of coal from coal-sheds: c. (–1811); †by 1900. This may be the original of NOBBLE: but what is its own etymology?

kooferred, be

. To be killed: naval (African Squadron): ca 1860–1910. Bowen, ‘Borrowed from the Swahili’.

kool

. To look: back s. (–1859).

kop-jee

. The head: lower classes': 1899–1901. (Boer War influence.) cf.:

kopje walloper

. A diamond-buyer visiting the Kimberley fields: from ca 1886; ob. Ex kopje, a small hill.

kosal kasa

. One shilling and six pence: Yiddish trading coll: C.19–20. Ex Hebrew words for '1' and '6'.

kosh, OCC. kosher

*. A short iron bar used as a weapon: c. (–1874). Prob. ex Romany kosh(t), a stick. Occ. spelt COSH(er). 2. In late C.19–20, to hit (a person) with a kosh, as 'He'll cosh him one.'

kosher

; occ. cosher. See KOSH. 2. adj. Fair; square: East End of London: from ca 1860. Ex Hebrew kasher, lawful, esp. as applied to meat.

kradying-ken

*. A low lodging-house: c.: 1845. ‘No. 747’ p. 419. A corruption of (the only app. later) PRATTING-KEN.

krop

. Pork: back s. (–1874).

Kruger-spoof

. Lying: 1896–7. Ex promises made by President Kruger in 1896—but not kept.

Kruger’s tickier or tiddler

. A little feather brush used, in the celebrations after Ladysmith and Mafeking, to tickle fellow-celebrants’ faces: coll: Boer War.

kubber, properly khubber, occ. khabbar (or -er)

. News: Anglo-Indian (–1864). Hindustani khavar, news—esp. of game.

kudize

. To esteem, honour; praise, extol: students' (–1887); virtually †. Ex:

kudos

. Glory, fame: university s. (from ca 1830) >, ca 1890, gen. coll. Gr. κῦδος. As rare †v., kudos occurs in 1799, kudize in 1873: both, pedantically ineligible.

kutcha

, see CUTCHA.

kwy

. Death: fast life: ca 1800–40. Ex quietus.

kybosh

, see KIBOSH and cf. KYEBOSK.

kye

. Eighteen pence: costermongers': from ca 1860. Abbr. Yiddish kye, 18, + bosh, pence. cf. KIBOSH. 2. Hence (?), a bluejacket mean with his money: naval: late C.19–20. ?cf. U.S. s. kike, a Jew.

kye-bosh

, see KIBOSH ON. kyebosh, see KIBOSH.

kyebosk

. A low Cockney variant of KIBOSH.

kynchen

, see KINCHEN.

'kyou

! (Pronounced as the letter q.) Thank you!: slovenly coll (verging on sol.) abbr.: late (?mid) C.19–20.

kyrie eleison, give or sing a

. To scold (v.t. with to): ecclesiastical (1528, Tyndale) >, ca 1600, gen. coll (as in Taylor the Water Poet): † by 1780. Ex the Gr. for ‘Lord, have mercy’.

kysh

. A cushion; a small, flat, square squab used for sitting on and for carrying books: Marlborough College: late C.19–20. By corruption of cushion.

L

L.L.

(Slightly) fraudulent: financial: 1870. i.e. limited liability. 2. The best whiskey: Dublin taverns': late C.19–early 20. Ex Lord Lieutenant.

Ls, the three

. Lead, latitude, look-out: nautical coll: from ca 1860. Smyth; Clark Russell. Dr Halley added a fourth, longitude.

L.S.D.

Money: coll: from ca 1835: in C.20, S.E. Hood, 'But, p'raps, of all the felonies de se,...Two-thirds have been through want of £ s.d.'

la

! An exclamation: C.16–20: polite till ca 1850, then low coll and dial. cf. LA, LA! 2. (Often pronounced law): in C.17–20, a low coll euphemism for Lord!, this sense merging with the preceding. cf. LOR'; LAWK.

la-di-da

, or occ., as in Baumann, la-de-da; also LARDY-DARDY. Very stylish; affectedly smart of costume, voice, manners: from ca 1860: coll. 'Its great vogue was due to a music-hall song of 1880—He wears a penny flower in his coat, La-di-da!', W., who suggests imitation of affected HAW-HAW speech. 2. Also, from 1883 (O.E.D.), a n.: derisive coll for a SWELL. cf. †U.S. la-la, also a 'swell'. And: 3. 'Elegant leisure, and liberal expenditure': (mostly London) streets' (–1909); ob. 4. Occ. as v.: 1867, S. Coyne, 'I like to la-di-da with the ladies.'

la, la!, or la-la

! A coll imitation of a French exclamation: C.18–20. 2. Also, C.16–20 (ob.), an expression of derision: polite>, ca 1850, somewhat trivial and coll. cf. LA!

la-li-loong

. A thief; thieves: pidgin: mid-C.19–20.

labbering

. 'The struggling of a hooked fish': nautical coll: late C.19–20. Bowen. Ex dial. labber, 'to dabble or splash in water.'

lac, lack, lakh

, esp. in pl. A large number or quantity: Anglo-Indian: from ca 1885. Kipling. Ex Hindustani lak(h), a hundred thousand. 2. Earlier, in (–1864) Anglo-Indian coll that, ca 1910, > standard, it meant 100,000 rupees.

lace

. Strong liquor, esp. spirits, added to tea or coffee: coll >, ca 1750, S.E.: C.18–20, ob. Spectator, No. 488 (i.e. in 1712). 2. By inference, sugar: C.18. Ex:

lace

. To intermix with sugar: ca 1690–1720: prob. s. or coll. Ex lace as an adornment, an accessory. 2. To wear tight stays (v.i.) from ca 1870; coll >, ca 1895, S.E.; ob.

lace-ups

. Laced-up boots: coll (–1887).

laced

, ppl adj. Sugared: ca 1690–1750: s. or coll.

laced mutton

. A woman, esp. a wanton: ca 1575–1860. Whetstone, 1578; Shakespeare, in Two Gentlemen, ‘She, a lac’d mutton, gave me, a lost mutton, nothing for my labour.’ cf. MUTTON and MUTTON DRESSED AS LAMB.

lacing

. A flogging: coll: C.17–20.

Lack(e)ry

. The Regular Army nickname for any man surnamed Wood: late C.19–20. Ex: 2. lack(e)ry. A stick, piece of wood: Regular Army: mid-C.19–20. Ex Hindustani lakri.

lad

. A dashing fellow: coll: late C.19–20; anticipated in Udall's Roister Doister, ca 1553, 'I trowe they shall finde and feele that I am a lad.' cf. LAD OF THE VILLAGE. Also sometimes applied to a humorous or saucy girl.

lad o' wax

. A cobbler: coll: from ca 1790; ob. by 1890. Baumann notes the variant, COCK-A-WAX. 2. A boy; a poor sort of man (contrast man of wax, a 'proper' man): C.19 coll.

Iad of, OCC. on, the cross

*, see CROSS, n.

lad of the village

, gen. in pl. A dashing fellow or cheerful companion, esp. if a member of a set: late C.19–20 coll. Perhaps an extension of LAD (or vice versa), or, more prob., ex: 2. (Gen. in pl.) One of a set of thieves and pickpockets congregating at a given spot: c. of ca 1820–80.

ladder

. The female pudend: C.19–20 low. Semantics fairly obvious. 2. A vertical flaw in a stocking: orig. (ca 1830) coll: by 1890, S.E. cf. JACOB'S LADDER.

ladder, climb or go up or mount the

. To be hanged: semi-proverbial coll: ca 1560–1870. In C.17–19, to bed or to rest is gen. added. Harman, climb three trees with a ladder. cf. (and see) the following few of many synonyms: catch or nab the STIFLER; cut a CAPER UPON NOTHING; dance the PADDINGTON FRISK; prcach at TYBURN cross; TRINE (2); die of a HEMPEN FEVER.

ladder, groom of the

. A hangman: either S.E. or jocular coll: ca 1640–1700.

ladder, unable to see a hole through a

, see HOLE IN A LADDER.

laddie, laddy

. A coll endeanng form, mainly Scots, of lad: mid-C.16–20; also actors’: from mid-C.19.

laddle

. A lady: chimney-sweeps’ (esp. on 1 May): mid-C.19–early 20. On that date, the sweeps’ wives, collecting money for the men, carried brass ladles. ‘Ducange Anglicus’, 1857, classifies it as c.

ladidah

, see LA-DI-DA.

ladies

. Cards: gambling (hence almost c.): 1890, Standard, 15 March.

ladies’ finger or wish

. A tapering glass of spirits, esp. if gin: (low) coll: ca 1850–1910. 2. In Australia, but gen. as lady’s finger, a very short, thin banana: from ca 1890: coll on the verge of S.E.

ladies’ grog

. Grog that is hot, sweet, strong, plentiful: from ca 1840; ob.

ladies' tailoring

. Sexual intercourse: low: from ca 1815; ob. cf. STITCH.

ladle

. To enunciate solemnly and pretentiously: theatrical coll: from ca 1870; ob.

lady

. A hunchbacked woman: ca 1690–1870. cf. LORD, by which suggested. 2. A wife (esp. my OLD LADY: cf. OLD WOMAN): low coll: from ca 1860; earlier, S.E. cf. LADY, YOUR GOOD. 3. Madam, as term of address: M.E.-C.20: polite till ca 1860, then increasingly coll and low. (See W.'s comment.) 4. The reverse of a coin: low: C.19–20, ob. Ex tail, via sex. 5. A quart or a pint pitcher upside down: low: C.19–20, ob. 6. He who attends to the gunner's small stores: nautical (–1711). Whence, in the same period, the †lady's hole, the place where such stores are kept. Both terms were coll by 1750, S.E. by 1800 at latest. 7. With sense 2, cf.: mother, gen. the OLD LADY: (jocular) coll (–1887).

lady, old

. The female pudend: low: C.19–20, ob. 2. A coll term of address to animals, esp. mares and bitches: from ca 1840. See also OLD LADY.

lady, perfect

. A prostitute: low when not jocular: from ca 1880. Ex the claims of such women—or ex male irony.

lady, your good

. Your wife: C.18–20; S.E. till ca 1860, then low coll. cf. your or the MISSIS and Fr. votre dame. (Rare in other ‘persons’.)

lady-bird, ladybird

. A whore: C.16–20; ob. cf. BIRD, 5.

Lady Dacre’s wine

. Gin: ca 1810–50.

lady-finder

. A woman who sits by the fire, being too proud to do housework: servaots’: C.19–20, ob.

lady green

*, or with capitals. A clergyman, esp. a prison chaplain: c.: from ca 1880; ob. ?ex inexperienced mannerism.

Lady in mourning

. A Hottentot girl: ca 1830–60. Sinks, 1848.

lady, or Lady, Jane

. The female pudend: low: from ca 1850; ob. 2. ‘A stout, handsome, cheery woman’: Society: 1882– ca 1915. Ware.

lady-killcr

. A male flirt: from ca 1810: coll>, ca 1890, S.E. Whence lady-killing, n. and adj., which arose, the adj. in 1825, the n. in 1837 (O.E.D.): same change of Status. cf. MASHER.

lady of easy virtue

, see EASY VIRTUE.

lady of the gunroom

. A C.19 variant (coll verging on S.E.) of LADY, 6.

lady of the manor

. An occ., late C.19–20 variant of LORD OF THE MANOR, sixpence.

lady-sitter

. A lady who allows herself to be appraised—and painted: painters’ (–1887); ob.

ladyfied

. Having the appearance (l'air mais pas la chanson) of a fine lady: coll: from ca 1880.

lady's finger

, see LADIES' FINGER.

lady's hole

, see LADY, 6.

lady's ladder

. Rattlins set (too) close: nautical: from ca 1850.

lady's low toupee

, see TOUPEE.

lady's pocket-handkerchief

. 'Any light fancy sail or flying kite': nautical pejorative: C.19–20; very ob. Bowen.

ladyship, her

. Our ship: nautical coll rather than s. (–1887); slightly ob.

lag

*. (Also LAGE.) Water: c.: ca 1560–1870. 2. Also, wine: c.: late C.16–19. 3. Hence (also lage), a ‘wash’ of clothes: c.: ca 1560–1860. Esp. in lag of DUDS, in C.17–18 often corrupted to lag-a-duds. 4. A transported convict: c. (–1811); †by 1895. Prob. ex the v., 4. (It may well date back to 1740 or so.) Hence, any convict: from ca 1830: also c. Prob. via returned lag. 5. A sentence of transportation: c. (–1821); †by 1895. Hence (also lagging) a term of penal servitude: c.: from ca 1850. 6. A ticket-of-leave man: c.: from ca 1855. Usually old lag (–1856), which also=a one-time convict. 7. A fag: Westminster School (–1881).

lag

*, v. To urinate: c.: ca 1560–1850. 2. To wash (gen. with off): c.: ca 1560–1700. 3. Also v.t., to water (spirits): c. of ca 1810–60. 4. To transport as a convict: c.: from ca 1810; †by 1900. Dickens. Ex †lag, to carry away. 5. To send to penal servitude: c.: from ca 1850. 6. Midway between these two senses: to arrest: from ca 1823: c. >, by 1900, low and military. De Quincey; Nat Gould. 7. To inform on (a person) to the police, to SHOP (3): c.: from ca 1870.

lag, old

*, see LAG, n., 6. lag-a-duds, see LAG, n., 3.

lag-fever

*. Illness feigned to avoid transportation: c. ca 1810–90.

lag-ship

*. A convict transport: c. of ca 1810–80.

lage

*. See LAG, n., 1, 3. Esp. lage of DUDS. Ex Old Fr. l'aige or l'aigue, the water: ?cf. newt for (a)n ewt. 2. v., see LAG, v., 1–3. 3. Weak liquor: C.17–18. Ex sense 1. Brome, A Jovial Crew, 1652.

lagger

*. A sailor: low (?orig. c.) > nautical: from ca 1810; ob. Perhaps ex lag, to loiter. 2. A convict during or after imprisonment: c.: 1819; ob. 3. An informer to the police: from ca 1870: c. Ex LAG, v., 7. 4. A bargeman who, lying on his back, pushes the barge along with his feet on the roof of a subterranean canal: nautical: from ca 1880. An extension of sense 1, possibly influenced by sense 2.

lagging and a lifer

*. Transportation for life: c. of ca 1835–90. Dickens. Ex LAG, v., 4.

lagging-dues will be concerned

*. He will be transported: c.: ca 1810–60.

lagging-gage

. A chamber-pot: low if not indeed c.: C.18–19. Ex LAG, v., 1.

lagging-matter

*. A crime potential of transportation: c. of ca 1810–60. 2. Hence, a crime likely to result in penal servitude: c.: from ca 1860.

laid

. A pollack: nautical: mid-C.19–20. Possibly ex dial. laidly, ugly: it is not a handsome fish, for its lower jaw protrudes.

laid on the shelf

; laid (up) in lavender. Pawned: resp. C.19–20, late C.16–20 (slightly ob.). 2. (The latter phrase only:) ill; out of the way: turf: from ca 1870.

laid on with a trowel

. (Of flattery or lies.) Grossly exaggerated or obvious: mid-C.19–20: coll, > S.E. by 1910.

lairy

. ‘Slow, slack; also cunning’: Conway cadets’ (–1891). A corruption of LEARY.

laker-lady

. An actor’s whore: theatrical: C.18–early 19. ?ex lady of the lake or ex lake (now dial.), to play amorously.

lakin!, by (our)

. A (low) coll form of by our Lady!: C.15–mid-17.

lakh(s)

, see LAC.

lall-shraub

. Claret: Anglo-Indian coll: from ca 1780. Ex Hindustani lal-sharab, red wine. Yule & Burnell, ‘the universal name ...in India’.

lally

*. Linen; shirt: c. (–1789); †by 1890. Gen. LULLY.

lam

. A hard hit: cricketers' coll (–1902).

lam, v.; lamb

; old spelling lamm(e). To beat, thrash: 1596, though implied in 1595 in belam: S.E. >, in C.18, coll; in late C.19–20, low coll. Dekker, 'Oh, if they had staid I would have so lamb'd them with flouts.' Cognate with Old Norse lemja, lit., to lame; fig., to flog, thrash. cf. lamback, LAMBASTE, lambeak, LAMB-PIE. 2. To hit hard: cricketers' coll: 1855.

lam (it) into one

; lam out, v.i. To hit out; give a thrashing: mainly schoolboys': from ca 1875.

lamb

. An elderly woman dressed like a young one: C.19–20, coll mostly Cockney, and gen. as MUTTON DRESSED AS LAMB, EWE DRESSED LAMB-FASHION...

lamb

, v., see LAM. lamb, skin the, see SKIN THE LAMB.

lamb and salad, give

, v.t. To thrash: mid-C.19–20; ob. Elaboration on LAM. cf. LAMB-PIE.

lamb-down

. To make a man get rid of his money to one: 1873, Marcus Clarke: low Australian; ob. 2.
To spend in drink: Australian: 1873, J.Brunton Stephens; ob. EX LAM.

lamb-fashion

, see LAMB, n. Earliest (?) in The London Guide, 1818, ‘Old harridans ...dress out lamb-fashion, wear false curls, and paint a little.’ cf. EWE DRESSED LAMB-FASHION.

lamb-pie

. A thrashing: low coll: C.17– mid-19. cf. LAMB AND SALAD.

lambaste

. To beat, thrash: 1637: S.E. >, in C.18, coll; in C.19–20, (dial. and) increasingly low coll.
Davenant, ‘Stand off awhile, and see how Ile lambaste him.’ Ex LAM, on BUM-BASTE.

lambasting

. A thrashing: 1694, Motteux, ‘A tight lambasting’: S.E. >, ca 1750, coll; from ca 1860, low coll and dial.

Lambeth

, n. and v. Wash: South London (–1909); very ob. Ware, ‘From the popular cleansing place in S. London being the Lambeth bath

lambie

, see LAMBY.

lambing

, see LAMMING.

lambing-down

, vbl n. of LAMB-DOWN.

lambskin (OCC. lamb-skin) man

*. A judge: c. of ca 1690–1830. Ex judge’s gown, lined and bordered with ermine. cf. FURMAN.

lamby

. (Gen. pl.) A mizzen-top man: naval (–1891).

lame as a tree

, see TREE, LAME AS A.

lame as St Giles, Cripplegate(, as)

. Very lame indeed—‘applied to badly-told untruth’: coll: C.17–19. Ware. Ex the frequenting of that church by cripples, St Giles being their patron.

lame duck

. A defaulter, esp. on the Stock Exchange: ca 1760–1870. 2. A scapegrace: Australian coll (–1895); ob.

lame-hand

. An inferior driver: coaching: ca 1800–70.

lame post, come by the

. To be late (esp. of news): from ca 1650: coll >, ca 1700, proverbial S.E. Fuller, 1732, records, ‘The lame post brings the truest news.’

lamentable

. Despicable, wretchedly bad: late C.17–20: jocular S.E. verging on, indeed occ. descending to, the coll.

lamm(e)

, see LAM.

Lammermoor lion

. A sheep: C.18–mid-19 mainly Scots jocular coll. cf. COTSWOLD LION; contrast ESSEX or RUMFORD LION.

Lammie Todd

! I would—if I got the chance! From ca 1860; ob.: tailors'. Prob. ex a well-known tailor's name.

lamming

. A beating, thrashing: 1611, Beaumont & Fletcher, 'One whose dull body will require a lamming': S.E. till C.18, then coll; from ca 1850, low coll.

lammy

. A term of address: dustmen's (–1823); †by 1900. Bee suggests derivation ex Fr. l'ami, as in 'Ohé! l'ami.'

lamp

. An eye: late C.16–20: S.E. till C.19, then s., gen. in pl. In C.19 c., a queer lamp is a blind, squinting, sore or weak eye. cf. Fr. c. lamper, to gaze at. 2. (Extremely rare in singular.) Spectacles: late C.19–20: low, mostly Cockney. Abbr. GIG-LAMPS.

lamp country

. 'Walking out at night without money in one's pockets': military: from ca 1880; virtually †. i.e. when the lights are lit.

lamp-lighter, (off) like a

. (Off) like a STREAK: coll: from ca 1840; ob. E.D.D., which notes the variant like lamp-lighters.

lamp-post

. A tall, very thin person: (low) coll: from ca 1870. cf. HOP-POLE.

lamp-post, between you and me and the

. In confidence: urban coll (–1887); slightly ob. cf. BED-POST...

lamps

, see LAMP, both senses.

Lancashire lass

. (Gen. pl.) A tumbler: rhyming s. (on glass): from ca 1880.

lance-jack

. A lance-corporal: military coll: late C.19–20.

lance-knight, lanceman, lanceman-prigger

*. A highwayman: c. of ca 1590–1640. The first in Nashe, the other two in Greene. See PRIGGER. Prob. ex S. German Landsknechte, the mercenary soldiers who looted and murdered all over Germany in C.16–17, at a period when touring companies of English actors were popular over there.

lancepresado, lanspresado, lansprisado

*. One who comes into company with but two pence in his pocket: c. of ca 1650–1800. Ex lancepesade, lanceprisado, a lance-corporal in an army of mercenaries.

land

. To cause a horse to win (v.t.); (v.i.) to win: sporting coll: 1853, Whyte-Melville. 2. To establish, set one ‘on his feet’, make safe: 1868, Yates; Hindley, ‘I bought a big covered cart and a good strong horse. And I was landed.’ 3. (v.t.) to deliver, get home with: boxers’ (–1887). 1888, J.Runciman, ‘Their object is to land one cunning blow.’ Earlier lend, playful for give.

land!, my

. A mild Canadian (and U.S.) oath: mid-C.19–20. Ex English dial.; land = Lord.

land-face

, see SHIP ONE’S LAND-FACE.

land or lands in Appleby?, who has any

. A c.p. directed at one who is slow to empty his glass: late C.17–early 19. Perhaps orig. of cider.

land lies, see how the

. To ask how stands one's account or bill, esp. at a tavern: coll: late C.17–early 19.

land-loper or -lubber

. A vagabond, a pilfering tramp: C.17–early 19 coll; after ca 1860, low. The earlier form, land-leaper, was S.E.

land navy, the

*. Pretended sailors: vagabonds' c. (–1909).

land of incumbents

. Good clerical livings: Oxford University: ca 1820–70. See also next two entries.

land of promises

. A freshman's ambitions: Oxford University s. > coll: ca 1820–60. cf. last entry and:

land of sheepishness

. The being a school-boy: Oxford University: ca 1820–50. cf. preceding two entries.

land-pirate, -rat

*. A highwayman, footpad, or vagabond thief: C.17–early 19: the former, c.; the latter, S.E.: resp. Dekker, Grose; Shakespeare.

land-raker

. A vagabond, esp. if a thief: late C.16–mid-18: coll. Shakespeare. cf. preceding entry.

laod-security

. A C.19 variant of LEG-BAIL.

land-shark

. A usurer: C.19–20 (ob.) coll, mostly low when not U.S. 2. A custom-house officer: coll: 1815; Scott, in Guy Mannering; ob. 3. A lawyer: nautical (–1860): coll.

land-swab

. A landsman; an incompetent seaman: nautical: from ca 1840. See also SWAB.

landed estate

. The grave: coll: C.19–20, ob. cf. DARBY'S DYKE and LANDOWNER. 2. Dirt under one's nails: low coll: from ca 1870; ob.

landies

. Gaiters: Winchester College: ca 1840–80. Ex Landy & Currell, the firm that supplied them.

landlady, bury the

. To decamp without paying: low: C.19–20, ob. cf. BURN THE KEN and MOONSHINE; contrast BURY A MOLL.

landowner, become a

. To die: late C.19–20. Prob. a development ex LANDED ESTATE.

Land's End or land's end, at (the)

. At last; sooner or later: proverbial coll: ca 1540–1600. 'Proverbs' Heywood. Ex the geographical feature, perhaps; prob., however, in reference to land-end, 'a piece of ground at the end of a "land" in a ploughed field'.

Land's End to John o' Groats, from . All the way; thoroughly: proverbial coll: from ca 1820; ob. Scott, Peacock.

land's sake!

; for the land's sake! A non-aristocratic exclamation: late C.19–20. i.e. Lord's sake. cf. LAND!, MY.

lane

. The throat: from ca 1550. Udall. Gen. preceded by the. Esp. the narrow lane (Udall, 1542; †by 1800) or the RED LANE (1785, Grose) and Red Lion Lane (1865; now †). cf. GUTTER LANE.

Lane, another murder down the

. Another (melo)drama at Drury Lane Theatre: theatrical: from ca 1880; ob.

Lane, Harriet

. Preserved, gen. tinned, meat: nautical and military: ca 1870–1910. Ex a girl, so named, found chopped into small pieces.

langolee

. The male member: low: mid-C.19–20; ob. ?a perversion of Welsh Gypsy trangluni, tools (Sampson).

langret

*. A die so loaded that it shows 3 or 4 more often than any other number: mid-C.16–18: c. > s. > coll > j. >, by 1700, S.E. and archaic. Greene. Ex lang= long.

Langtries

. Fine eyes: Society: ca 1880–1900. 2. Female breasts: id.: id. Lily Langtry, ‘the Jersey Lily’, shone as one of the most beautiful women of her time (1852–1929); went on the stage in 1881 and had a tremendous success; married Sir Hugo de Bathe in 1899.

language

. Bad language; swearing, obscenity: 1886 (S.O.D.): low coll. Besant. Often in the imperative=‘Mind your bad language!’

language of flowers, the

. ‘Ten shillings—or seven days; the favourite sentence of Mr Flowers, a very popular and amiable magistrate’ at Bow Street Police Court: 1860–83. Ware. Contrast FLOWERY LANGUAGE.

lank comes a bank, after a

. A proverbial c.p. in reference to pregnant women: ca 1650–1820.

lanspresado, -prisado

, see LANCEPRESADO.

lantern (lale C.18–19) or lanthorn (late C. 17–19), dark

. A servant or an agent receiving a bribe at court: ca 1690–1820.

lantern, Ballarat

. A candle set in the neck of a bottle whose bottom has been knocked off: coll, Victoria (Australia): ca 1870–1910. Wood & Lapham, Waiting for the Mail, 1875. Ballarat is a noted mining town.

lap

. Any potable: from ca 1565; ob. In C.16–19 c., butter-milk, whey (Harman); in late C.17–19 c., also pottage (Head). In C.18–20, also tea (G.Parker) and, from 1618, less gen. strong drink: low except, as often in mid-C.19–20, when jocular. Among C.19–20 (ob.) ballet-girls, it gen. denotes gin. Ex the v.

lap, go on the

. To drink (strong liquor): low s.>low coll: from ca 1885; ob. Punch, 25 Sept. 1886, 'Grinds' ard, never goes on the lap, Reads Shakespeare instead o' the Pink 'Un.'

lap-clap

. A copulation; a conceiving; low coll: C.17–mid-18. Hence, get a lap-clap, to become pregnant.

lap-feeder

. A silver table-spoon; low: C.19–20; ob.

lap the gutter

, see GUTTER, LAP THE.

lapel, ship the white

. To be promoted from the ranks; esp. to become an officer of marines: naval coll: mid-C.18–early 19. (In 1812, marine officers began to wear, not white lapels but epaulettes.)

lapful

. A husband, a lover; an unborn child: resp. low s., low coll: C.19–20, ob.

lapland; Lapland

. The female pudenda: low: from ca 1840. 2. The society of women: low coll: from ca 1850. Punning lap and Lapland.

lapper

*. Drink, esp. if liquor: c.; C.19–20, ob. 2. But rare lapper=a hard drinker. 3. A lap-dog: late C.19–20.

lappy cull

*. A drunk man: c.: C.18. C. Hitchin, The Regulator, 1718. cf. LUSHINGMAN.

laprogh

. A goose: a duck; loosely, a bird of any kind: Shelton: C.18–20.

larboard peeper, one's

. One's left eye: nautical (–1887); ob.

larbolians, -ins (both in Smyth); larbowlines (Bowen)

. Men in the larboard, or port, watch: nautical (–1867); ob.

lardy; lardy-dardy; lardy-dah, adj

. Affected, SWELL, though lardy (abbr. LARDY-DARDY) very rarely=affected. Somewhat low: resp. 1890 and ob., 1861 (Miss Braddon), ca 1870 and a mere variant of LA-DI-DA.

lardy-dah

; also LA-DI-DA. A fop, a SWELL: from ca 1880; somewhat low.

lardy-dah (or la-di-da), come or do the

. To dress for the public; to show off in dress and manner: low: from ca 1883. See LA-DI-DA, of which lardy-dah is a corruption.

lardy-dardy

, v.i. To act the SWELL; be affected; show off: 1887, G.R.Sims, 'Other men were lardy-dardying about... enjoying themselves.' cf. LA-DI-DA, 4.

lareover (or lare-over); lay-over, layerover

. A word used instead of one that must, in decency, be avoided: late C.17–early 20: the first, coll and dial.; the others, S.E. cf.:

lareovers for meddlers

. ‘An answer frequently given to children, or young people, as a rebuke for their impertinent curiosity’, Grose: c.p.: C.18–early 19; then dial., gen. as layers for meddlers.

large

, adj. gen. used as adv. Excessively: (low) coll: from ca 1850. Thus, dress large, i.e. showily; go large, i.e. noisily; play large, i.e. for high stakes; talk large, i.e. boastfully. cf. FINE AND LARGE.

large house

. A workhouse: low coll: from ca 1850. cf. BIG HOUSE.

large order

. Something big or exaggerated or very difficult: coll: 1890, Pall Mall Gazette, 17 Feb. Ex commerce.

larikin

. An occ. variant of LARRIKIN.

lark

. A game; piece of merriment or mischief; trick: Sessions, April 1802: s. >, ca 1870, coll. Dickens, in Pickwick, “‘Here’s a lark!’ shouted half a dozen hackney coachmen.’ For etymology, see the v. 2. A boat: from ca 1785: c. > s. >, ca 1850, nautical s. >, ca 1870, nautical j.; ob. Prob. ark perverted. 3. Abbr. MUDLARK. 4. A line of business: grafters’: late C.19–20. cf. LAY, 2, and LAW.

lark

, v. See the amorous and the sporting sense of LARKING. 2. To play (esp. the fool); be mischievously merry; go on the SPREE: 1813, Colonel Hawker; Barham, ‘Don’t lark with the watch, or annoy the police.’ 3. To ride in a frolicsome way or across country: 1835, ‘Nimrod’: sporting s. >, ca 1870, coll. 4. v.t., tease playfully: 1848, Thackeray: s. >, ca 1880, coll. 5. v.t., to ride (a horse) across country: from ca 1860: sporting s. >, ca 1880, coll; ob. 6. To jump (a fence) needlessly: 1834, Ainsworth; ob. Ex the n., which is ex the Northern dial. lake, sport. Whence SKYLARK.

lark, go on or have or take a

. To be mischievously merry: go on the spree: from ca 1815: s. >, ca 1870, coll. cf.:

lark, knock up a

. Same as preceding: 1812, Vaux; †by 1890: prob. c. > low s.

larker

. A person given to (mischievous) fun: from ca 1825: s. >, ca 1870, coll.

larkin

. A girl: Shelta: C.18–20. 2. A very strong spiced punch: Anglo-Indian: from ca 1860. Prob. ex concocter's name.

larking

, n. Cunnilingism: low: C.18–19 (?20). Grose, 1st ed.; absent in latter edd. 2. Fun; a mischievous frolic: from ca 1812: s. >, ca 1870, coll. Beddoes, 'Professors of genteel larking'. 3. Sporting senses of LARK, V.

larking

, adj. Given to 'larks' (see LARK, n., 1); sportive: W.N.Glascock, 1826: s. >, ca 1870, coll.

larkish

. Fond of, or of the nature of, a LARK: from ca 1880. Whence larkishness.

larksome

. Fond of a LARK, apt to indulge in 'larks': coll: from ca 1870.

larky

. Ready or inclined to play ‘larks’ (see LARK, n.): 1841: s. >, ca 1870, coll. H.Mayo, ‘When the Devil is larky, he solicits the witches to dance round him.’

larky subaltern’s train

, see COLD-MEAT TRAIN. Larrence, see LAZY LARRENCE.

larries

*. A C.18 variant of lurries (s.v. LURRY). The Scoundrel’s Dict., 1754.

larrikin; OCC. larikin

. A (gen. young) street rowdy: orig. and mainly Australian: 1870 or a few years earlier: s. >, ca 1890, coll >, ca 1910, S.E. Melbourne Herald, 4 April 1870, ‘Three larikins...had behaved in a very disorderly manner in Little Latrobe-street.’ cf. HOODLUM; HOOLIGAN. Also as adj.: 1870, Marcus Clarke. See esp. Morris. Etymologies proposed: LEARY KINCHEN (see separate words), fantastic; a pronunciation of larking, ineptly fantastic; Larry, a common Irish pet-form of Lawrence,+kin, O.E.D.; perhaps orig. Cornish, where larrikin=a LARKER, suggested by W., not to the exclusion of the preceding, which seems the most likely.

lar(r)ikiness

. A female larrikin: 1871: same remarks as for preceding.

larrikinism

. The habits and tricks of larrikins: 1870: remarks as for LARRIKIN. Australian, 10 Sept. 1870, ‘A slight attempt at “larrikinism” was manifested.’

larrup; occ. larrop and †lirrop

. To beat, thrash: coll and dial.: from ca 1820. Fonblanque, 1829, ‘Is this a land of liberty, where a man can’t larrop his own nigger?’ ?ex lee-rope, as an early glossarist proposed, or, as W. proposes, suggested by LATHER, LEATHER, V., and WALLOP.

larruping

. vbl n. of preceding: a thrashing. Coll and dial.: from ca 1825.

larry

. A familiar form of LARRIKIN.

Larry, (as) happy as

. Very happy: Australian coll: late C.19–20.

Larry Dugan’s eye-water

. Blacking: mostly Anglo-Irish: ca 1770–1820. Ex a very well-known Dublin shoe-black.

lascar

. A tent-pitcher; (in full, gun-lascar) an inferior artilleryman: Anglo-Indian coll: from late C.18; both ob.

lash

, v. To envy. Gen. as lash!, used as a taunt: the Blue Coat school (–1877); ob.

lash-out

. ‘A sudden burst of work on the approach of an officer’ (Granville): naval: since ca 1905. Ex a (horse’s or a) boxer’s lashing out.

lash-up

. Anything makeshift: naval coll: late C.19–20. i.e. lashed together.

lash up

, v. To stand (someone) treat: naval: since ca 1905. Granville, “‘I’ll lash you up to a couple of pints when we have a run ashore”, originated from lashing up a messmate’s hammock.’

lashin(g)s

. (Gen. of drink, occ. of food, rarely of anything else.) Plenty: coll, orig. Anglo-Irish: 1829, Scott, 'Whiskey in lashings'; 1841, Lever, 'Lashings of drink', these quotations illustrating the gen. forms; the former is ob. Perhaps ex, or for, lavishings (W.); prob. ex †S.E. lash (out) to squander. cf.

lashin(g)s and lavin(g)s

. Plenty and to spare: Anglo-Irish coll: from ca 1840.

la'ship

. A coll form of ladyship: C.18– early 19.

lashool

. Pleasant: Shelta: C.18–20.

lass in a red petticoat

. A wife well-endowed: proverbial coll, esp. in the lass in the red petticoat shall pay for, or piece up, all: ca 1660–1800. J.Wilson, The Cheats, 1664.

lassitudinarian

. A person of infirm health: Society: 1894–1914. Punning Latitudinarian and valetudinarian.

last

. A person's most recent joke, witticism, etc.: coll: 1843. e.g. 'X's last is a scream.'

last, the

. The end of one's dealings with something: coll: 1854. Dickens, 'If it ever was to reach your father's ears I should never hear the last of it.'

last bit o(f) family-plate, the

. The final silver coin: artisans' (–1909).

last card of one's pack

. The back: rhyming s.: Mayhew, 1857.

last compliment

. Burial: coll: from ca 1780; ob.

last drink, take one's

. To die by drowning: Canadian lumbermen's coll: late C.19–20.

last shake o(f) the bag

. Youngest child: proletarian: C.19–20; ob.

last ship, a

. A nautical coll (C.19–20), thus in Bowen, 'Anything that is the epitome of excellence, for the sailor always has good things to say, and odious comparisons to make, of his last ship, no matter what she was like.'

laster

. The flow of the tide: nautical: C.19. ?the ebb-flow, 'the last of it'.

lasting

, adj. (Of a horse) having staying power: sporting: from ca 1810.

latch

*. To let in: c. of ca 1720–1850.

latch-key

. A crowbar: Irish Constabulary's: 1881–2. Because so often used by them in evictions.

latch-pan

. The under lip. Hence, hang one's latch-pan, to pout, be sulky: coll and dial.: C.19–20. Ex lit. sense.

late

. Keeping late hours: coll: from ca 1630. Having to do with persons or things that arrive late: coll: 1862, 'the "late" mark'.

late play

. A holiday beginning at noon: Westminster School: C.19–20 coll.

latest, the

. The latest news: coll: C.19–20. Baumann, 'What's the latest?'

lath-and-plaster

. A master: rhyming s. (–1857).

lather

. The sexual secretion: low: C.19–20; ob. Hence lather-maker, the female pudend.

lather

, v. To beat, thrash: from ca 1795: coll >, ca 1890, S.E. cf. LACE; LEATHER; LARRUP.

Latin

. Alicante wine: s. (–1650).

Latin for ‘goose’

. A dram: ca 1820–50. EX BRANDY IS...

Latiner

. A Latin scholar; one who speaks Latin: coll: 1691.

latitat

. An attorney: coll, though perhaps orig. legal s.: 1565, Cooper’s Thesaurus. Foote, in The Maid of Bath, ‘I will send for Luke Latitat and Codicil, and make a handsome bequest to the hospital.’ †by 1860 in England, the term derives ex an old form of writ.

latter end

. The posteriors: early C.19–20: jocular coll >, ca 1910, S.E. According to Baumann, a careful observer, it was at first a boxing term.

latty

, see LETTY.

laugh and joke

. A smoke: rhyming s. (–1880).

lauk

! see LAWK!

launch

. A lying-in: coll: from ca 1786; ob. by 1880. Prob. ex nautical v., but perhaps cognate with †dial. launch, to groan.

launch

, v. (Gen. in passive.) To reverse a boy's bed while he is asleep: Public Schools: ca 1810–90. G.J.Berkeley, My Life, 1865.

Laurence on one's back, have

; have a totich of old Laurence. To be lazy: coll; C.19–20; ob. except in dial. See LAZY LARRENCE.

lavender, not all

. Not all fun or pleasant: coll: from ca 1880.

lavender, lay (up) or put in

. (The put form not before C.19.) To pawn: from ca 1590; slightly ob. Greene, in his Upstart Courtier. Like the next sense, ex the preservative virtues of lavender. 2. 'To put out of the way of doing harm, as a person by imprisoning him or the like': from ca 1820; ob. Scott, in Nigel. 3. See LAID ON THE SHELF, 2.

lavender-cove

. A pawnbroker: low: from ca 1850; slightly ob. Ex preceding.

law

. A phase of crime, esp. of theft; a trick or LAY (2): c.: ca 1550–1650. Esp. in Greene's 'coney-catchers'. See also LURK, PACKET, RIG, SLUM.

law! or Law

! LORD!: late C.16–20; in C.19–20 low coll, perhaps orig. euphemistic. Prob. arising from cumulative force of LA!, lo!, and LOR'. See also LAWK!; LAWS! and LORS!

law-lord

. A judge having, by courtesy, the style of 'Lord': Scots coll: from ca 1770.

lawed, it is, was

, etc. It is settled by law: coll and dial.: C.19–20; ob.

lawful blanket or jam

. A wife: low: the former from ca 1810; the latter from ca 1850; ob. Henley, 1887, 'Gay grass-widows and lawful jam'. cf. DUTCH, contrast JAM-TART.

lawful picture

. A coin; in pl, gen. money: coll: C.17–18.

lawful time

. Playtime: Winchester College: C.19–20; ob.

lawk!, lawks

! Lord!: coll (rather low): from ca 1765; earliest as lauk, latest as lawks. Dickens in Pickwick, ‘Lawk, Mr Weller...how you do frighten me.’ Occ. (C.18–20, ob.) lawk-a-daisy (me) i.e. lackadaisy=lackaday!, and (C.19–20) lawk-a-mussy, the latter a corruption of Lord have mercy! Either ex lack as in good lack! or ex Lord influenced by lack and LA! or LAW! See also LOR’!

lawless as a town-bull

. Quite lawless; very unruly: proverbial coll: ca 1670–1800.

lawn

. A handkerchief, esp. if of white cambric: low coll: from ca 1810; ob.

Lawrence

, see LAURENCE and LAZY LARRENCE.

laws!

; laws-a-me!; lawsy! A low coll form (cf. LAW!; LAWK!; LORS) of LORD!: from ca 1875.

lawt

. Tall: back s. (–1859).

lawyer

. An argumentative or discontented man, esp. one given to airing his grievances: military coll: late C.19–20.

lawyer, high (OCC. highway)

*. A highwayman: c.: ca 1590–1640.. Greene. Ex LAW. cf. MARTIN; OAK; SCRIPPER; STOOP.

lawyer must be a great liar, a good

. A frequent c.p. in conversations turning on the law: ca 1670–1780. Ned Ward, 1703.

lawyering

, n. and adj. (Concerning, of) a lawyer's profession: coll: from ca 1860.

lawyers go to heaven, as

. (Gen. preceded by fairly and softly or by degrees, etc.). Very slowly: from Restoration days: proverbial coll; in C.19–20, mainly dial.

lay

, a wager, is S.E. 2. An occupation, esp. if criminal; a ‘line’; a trick: from ca 1705: c. >, ca 1840, low. Hence AVOIRDUPOIS LAY; FANCY-LAY, pugilism, C.19 low; KINCHEN-LAY; etc., etc. Prob. ex LAW. 3. Hence, a hazard, chance: 1707, Farquhar: c. >, ca 1800, low: †by 1850. See LAY, STAND A QUEER. 4. A quantity: c.: ca 1815–50. Haggart. Perhaps ex fusion of senses 1 and 2. 5. Hence, some; a piece: Northern c.: from ca 1850; ob. 6. ?hence, a share in the capture: whalefishers’ (–1887). 7. (Also from sense 5.) Goods: c.: ca 1820–50. Haggart. 8. (Butter)milk: c.: C.17. Middleton & Dekker in The Roaring Girl. Ex Fr. lait.

lay, a good

. Anything advantageous; esp., an economical way of cutting: tailors’: C.19–20 >, ca 1890, coll.

lay, on the

*. At (illicit) work: C.18–20 c. 2. On the alert, e.g. for something to steal: C.19–20 c. See LAY, n., 2.

lay, stand a queer

*. To run a great risk: c.: from ca 1720; †by 1850. See LAY, n., 3.

lay a duck’s egg

. In cricket, to score nothing: sporting: from ca 1870; ob. See DUCK (6) and BLOB.

lay a straw

. To stop (v.i.); mark a stopping-place: coll: C.16–mid-17. Barclay, Bullein, Barnaby Rich.

lay a or in water

. To defer judgement; esp. too long: coll: C.15–early 17; in not before C.16. (The a is, of course, the preposition as in a-board.) Lyly, ‘I see all his expeditions for warres are laid in water; for now when he should execute, he begins to consult.’

lay at

. To (attempt to) strike: C.15–20: S.E. till C.19, then dial. and coll.

lay by the heels

. To put in stocks (†) or in prison: C.18–20: coll >, ca 1860, S.E.

lay down, gen. lay them down

*. To play cards: c.: mid-C.19–20; ob.

lay down one’s ears

. To drink heartily: s. (–1650).

lay down one's, or the, knife and fork

. To die: low coll (–1859); ob.

lay down the law

. To dogmatize: coll: 1885. Ex lit. sense, declare what the law is.

lay, or lay himself, down to his work

. (of a horse, etc.) to do his best: sporting: from ca 1885; slightly ob. Illustrated Sporting and Dramatic News, 20 May 1893.

lay in

, v.i. To attack with vigour: coll: from ca 1888. 2. v.i., to eat vigorously: from ca 1800: S.E. >, ca 1880, low coll.

lay, occ. cast, in one's dish

. To object to something in a person; accuse of: coll: mid-C.16–mid-19. T.Wilson in Rhetorique, Harington in Epigrams, Butler in Hudibras, Scott in Old Mortality.

lay into

. To thrash: 1838, Douglas Jerrold: s.>, ca 1870, coll. cf. PITCH IN TO.

lay into its collar

. (Of a horse) to pull hard: Canadian coll: late C.19–20.

lay or lie on the face

. To be exceedingly dissipated: lower classes' (–1909); slightly ob.

lay one's shirt

. To stake one's all: sporting s. > coll: mid-C.19–20. If the stake is lost, one does (or has done) one's shirt: late C.19–20 sporting.

lay out

. To overcome or disable, esp. with a punch, also to kill: s.: orig. (1829), U.S.; anglicized ca 1860. Ex the laying-out of a corpse.

lay-over

, see LAREOVER.

lay the razor

*. A term, ca 1865, in racing c. (or perhaps s.), as in 'No. 747'; of obscure meaning. Possibly, to judge precisely when to spur one's horse to win the race.

lay-up

. A drink, a GO: low (–1891); ob. Newman, in Scamping Tricks, ‘A strong lay-up of something neat.’

lay up in lavender

, see LAVENDER.

laycock

, see MISS LAYCOCK.

layer

. A bookmaker; a betting-man: mid-C.19–20: sporting s. >, ca 1880, coll.

layer-over

, see LAREOVER.

laze

. A lazy rest: coll: from ca 1860.

lazy as Joe the marine who laid down his musket to sneeze

. Exceedingly lazy: C.19 semi-proverbial coll. Prob. ex LAZY AS THE TINKER...

lazy as Ludlam's, or (David) Laurence's, dog

. (Sussex dial. has Lumley's.) Extremely lazy: proverbial coll from ca 1660: ob. by 1870, †except in dial. by 1900. According to the proverb, this admirable creature leant against a wall to bark. cf. preceding entry.

lazy as the tinker who laid down his budget to fart

. The acme of laziness: late C.18– early 19 low, semi-proverbial coll. cf. two preceding entries.

lazy-bones

. A loafer or a very lazy person: coll: from ca 1590. Harvey, 'Was... vivacitie a lasie-bones?' cf. LAZY-BOOTS. 2. Lazy-tongs or, as it is occ. called, lazyback: coll (–1785); ob.

lazy-boots

. A LAZY-BONES: coll: from ca 1830; ob. Mrs Gaskell. cf. SLY BOOTS.

lazy Larrence, Laurence, Lawrence

. The incarnation of laziness: from ca 1780 or perhaps even from ca 1650: coll (ob.) and dial. Perhaps in reference to the gen. heat of St Lawrence's Day, 10 Aug., or to the legend of the martyred St Lawrence being too lazy to move in the flames. (Apperson; E.D.D.; Prideaux's Readings in History, 1655.) See also LAURENCE...

lazy-legs

. A LAZY-BONES: coll: 1838, Dickens; ob.

lazy man's load

. An excessive load carried to save a second journey: coll (–1791).

lazy-roany

. Lazzaroni, or Neapolitan beggars: nautical (–1887).

Lea toff

. 'One who displays his distinction, in a hired boat, rowing up and down the River Lea': Cockneys' (–1909); ob. Ware.

lead

. Abbr. friendly lead, an entertainment designed to assist some unfortunate: from ca 1850: c. >, ca 1880, s.

lead, get the

. To be shot: late C.19–20.

lead apes in hell

, see APES IN HELL.

lead-off

. The first or most important article in a newspaper: journalists' coll (–1887).

lead towel

. A pistol: low: mid-C.18–early 19.

leadен fever

, esp. in die of l.f., to die from a bullet wound: late C.18–mid-19.

leader

. A remark or question intended to lead conversation (cf. FEELER). (1882); coll; slightly ob.

leading article

. The nose: coll (–1886); ob. 2. The female pudend: low: mid-C.19–20; ob. 3. ‘The best bargain in the shop—one that should lead to other purchases’: tradesmen’s: from ca 1870; ob. Ware.

leading heavy

. (Gen. pl.) The role of a serious middle-aged woman: theatrical: from the late 1880s; prob. from U.S.A.

leading-strings

. The yoke-lines on a ship’s rudder: nautical: late C.19–20.

leaf, drop one’s

. To die: low (?orig. c.): C.19–20; ob. Ex:

leaf, go off with the

*. To be hanged: Anglo-Irish c. > low: from ca 1870; ob. Either ex the autumnal fall of leaves or ex a hanging-device shaped like the leaf of a table. cf.:

leafless tree

*. The gallows: c. of ca 1825–70. Lytton in Paul Clifford.

leak

. The female pudend: low: C.18–20; ob. Gay. 2. A urination: a vulgarism or a low coll: mid-C.19–20. Esp. in do or have a leak. cf.:

leak

, v. To make water: a vulgarism: from ca 1590; ob. Shakespeare.

leak, spring a

. To urinate: low: ca 1860–1910. Ex nautical j.

leaky

. Talkative when drunk: proletarian coll: from ca 1880.

lean

, adj. and n. Unprofitable (work): printers' (–1871). From C.17 in a different sense, but this (e.g. in Moxon) is j. Contrast FAT. 2. Unremunerative: (dial. and) coll (–1875).

lean and fat

. A hat: rhyming s. (–1857).

lean and lurch

. A church: rhyming s. (–1857).

lean as a (1) rake, (2) shotten herring

. Extremely thin: resp. late C.16–20, S.E. >, ca 1700, coll, but in C.19–20 mainly dial.; and proverbial coll from ca 1650 (after ca 1830, mainly dial.).

lean-away

. A drunkard: Australia: ca 1890–1910.

leah off it or that

! Cease leaning on it!: coll: 1829, Marryat, 'Lean off that gun'; ob.

leap

*! All safe!: c.: C.18.

leap, do a

. To copulate: low coll: C.19–20.

leap (occ. go) a whiting, let

. To let an opportunity slip: proverbial coll: ca 1540–1780. Heywood, Breton.

leap at a crust

. ?To be very hungry; or, snatch at any chance whatsoever: semiproverbial coll: ca 1630–1750. Draxe; Swift.

leap at a daisy

. To be hanged: coll: ca 1550–1620. Anon., Respublica; Greene; Pasquil's Jests, 1604, 'He sayd: Have at yon dasie that growes yonder; and so leaped off the gallows.'

leap at Tyburn or in the dark, take a

. To be hanged: low (?orig. c.): C.17–early 19. D'Urfey, 'All you that must take a leap in the dark...'

leap-frog

*. A crab: c. (–1857).

leap in the dark or up a ladder

. A copulation: C.18–20 low; ob. 2. Being hanged: cf. LEAP, DO A, and LEAP AT TYBURN.

leap over nine hedges, ready to . Exceedingly ready: coll: ca 1660–1800. Ray.

leap over the hedge before one comes to the stile

. To be in a violent hurry: proverbial coll: ca 1540–1800. Heywood, Gascoigne, Ray, Motteux.

leap (or jump) the besom, broom(-stick), sword

. (U.S., book.) To marry informally: C.18–19 coll. See BESOM and BROOMSTICK separately. The sword form, military.

leap the stile first, let the best dog

. Let the best or most suitable person take precedence or the lead: coll: C.18–early 19.

leapt, to have

. (Of frost) to thaw suddenly: coll, mainly rural: 1869, H.Stephens, ‘When frost suddenly gives way...about sunrise, it is said to have “leapt”.’

learn

. To teach: from M.E.; S.E. till ca 1760, then coll; from ca 1810, low coll; since ca 1890, sol. Chiefly in I’ll learn you! (often jocularly allusive). cf. Fr. apprendre, to learn, also to teach.

learned men

. C.19 nautical coll, thus: ‘In the old coasters, certified officers shipped for foreign voyages to satisfy the regulations.’ Bowen.

learning-shover

. A school-teacher: Cockneys’: 1869; ob.

leary, leery

*. Artful; wide-awake; (suspiciously) alert; c. >, ca 1830, low: from ca 1790. Prob. ex dial. lear, learning, cleverness (cf. S.E. lore). cf. PEERY. 2. FLASH; showy of dress and manners: low: ca 1850–75. cf. CHICKALEARY COVE. 3. (Of personal appearance) somewhat wild: from ca 1850.

leary bloke

. A showy dresser, gen. of lower classes: low (–1859); †by 1880. cf. LEARY, 2, and CHICKALEARY COVE.

leary-cum-Fitz

. A vulgarian actor: theatrical: ca 1890–1914.

least in sight, play

. To hide; make oneself scarce; keep out of the way: low: ca 1780–1870.

leastaways

. A C.19–20 variant of:

leastways

; leastwise. At least: C.16–20: S.E. till C.19, then coll. In C.19–20, also dial.

leather

. Skin: C.14–20: S.E. till ca 1700, then coll till ca 1780, when it > s. Hence, lose leather, C.18–20 (ob.), to be saddle-galled. 2. Hence, the female pudend: C.16–20 low coll. Whence, labour or stretch leather, to coit, C.16–19 and C.18–20, and nothing like leather, nothing like a good CUNT, C.19–20.

leather

. To beat, thrash: from ca 1620: coll >, ca 1820, S.E. Prob. at first with a strap. cf. LATHER; TAN; DUSTING.

leather-bumper

. (Gen. pl.) A cavalryman: infantrymen's: late C.19–20.

leather-flapper

. A keen horseman: sporting: from ca 1865; virtually †. 'No. 747'

leather-head(ed)

, n. and adj. (A) blockhead: late C.17–20; ob. Davenant. 2. A swindler: Canadian: from ca 1870; ob.

leather-jacket

. Applied to various Australian trees: Australian coll (–1898) verging on S.E. Ex their tough skin. 2. A rough-and-ready pancake: Australian coll: 1846, G.H.Haydon, Five Years in Australia Felix, ‘...Dough fried in a pan’. Tough eating!

leather-lane

. The female pudend: C.18–20 low; ob. 2. As an adj., paltry, it is c. of ca 1810–60. Always as Leather Lane concern.

leather-neck

. A soldier; more gen., a Royal Marine: nautical and esp. naval: late C.19–20; ob. According to ‘Taffrail’, however, it is a bluejackets’ name for a soldier: see quotation at JOEY, 2.

leather-stretcher

. The male member: C.18–20, ob.: low. Ex LEATHER, n., 2. Hence, go leather-stretching, to have sexual intercourse.

leathering

. A thrashing: from ca 1790: coll. Ex LEATHER, V.

leathern convenience, -cy

. A stage-coach; a carriage: Quakers' j. >, ca 1790, jocular coll; †by 1860. B.E.; C.K.Sharpe, 1801, 'I left Oxford with Stapleton in his mama's leathern conveniency.'

leathers

. A person wearing leggings or leather breeches, e.g. a postboy: coll: ca 1835–1910. Dickens; Thackeray, in Pendennis. cf. BOOTS; BUTTONS. 2. The ears: low: from ca 1860.

leave

. A (favourable) position for a stroke: billiards: from ca 1850.

leave, take French

, see FRENCH LEAVE.

leave...be

. To let be; cease, or abstain, from interfering with: coll: from ca 1825.

leave an R in pawn

. To desert: naval: C.19. Bowen, ‘The man’s name in the ship’s books being marked “R” for “run”.’

leave cold

, see COLD, LEAVE OUT IN THE.

leave go (of), hold (of), (loose of)

, v.i. To let go: coll: from ca 1810.

leave in the air

, see AIR, IN THE.

leave in the briers or seeds

. To bring to, or leave in, (grave) trouble: semi-proverbial coll. 1533, Udall (briers); ca 1590, Harvey (seeds). Rare since ca 1820.

leave it all to the cook!, I’ll

. I won’t take that bet: sporting c.p. of ca 1820–40. (A cook is a good judge of meat, a bettingman of horseflesh.)

leave the minority

. To die: Society: 1879; ob. On join the majority.

leave the sea and go into steam

. To transfer to a steam-driven ship: sailing-men's c.p.: ca 1860–1900.

leave-yer-(h)omer

. 'A handsome, dashing man... Derived, very satirically, from "That's the man I'm goin' to leave me 'ome for'" (Ware); lower-class women's: late C.19–20.

leaver

. A paroled convict: Australian: ca 1840–70. One who is on ticket-of-leave.

leaving-shop

. An unlicensed pawnbroker's shop: low coll (–1857); ob. Morning Chronicle, 21 Dec. 1857; J. Greenwood. 2. Hence, allusively, the female pudend: low: from ca 1860; ob.

leccers

. (Pron. lekkers.) Lectures: Oxford undergraduates': from late 1890s. (Oxford -er.)

lechery-layer

. A harlot: s.: Ned Ward, 1703.

led-captain

. A toady, sponge, pimp: from ca 1670: coll >, ca 1800, S.E.; †by 1880. Wycherley, in Love in a Wood, 'Every wit has his culley, as every squire his led captain.' Prob. ex a led horse.

leddy, the

. A ship's figurehead, no matter what it represents: nautical: mid-C.19–20. Ex the old Scots and dial. leddy, a lady.

ledger

. (Gen. in pl.) A ledger-clerk: bankclerks' coll: late C.19–20. cf. VOUCHER.

leek

. A chimney-sweep not brought up to the trade: ca 1850–1910: low. Mayhew. Ex his greenness. 2. A Welshman: very late C.17–early 19 c. Street Robberies Considered, ca 1728.

Leekshire

. Wales: low: C.18–19. Ex the racial emblem.

leer

*. A newspaper: c. of ca 1785–1870. G.Parker, in Life's Painter, 1789. ?ex Ger. lehren, to teach; much more prob. ex the LURE.

leer, roll the

*, see ROLL THE LEER.

leerily

. The adv. of LEARY: 1859. Farrar, in Julian Home, 1859.

leery

*, see LEARY.

leetle

. Little: late C.17–20: on borderland between S.E. and (gen. jocular) coll. cf. LICKELL.

leeward, go to

. To put oneself at a disadvantage: nautical coll: mid-C.19–20. cf.:

leeward of (occ. on), get to

. ‘To fall foul of a man’: nautical coll: late C.19–20. Bowen. Ex nautical j.

lef

, see LEP.

left, be or get

. To fail; be outdistanced metaphorically; be placed in a difficult position: coll: orig. (ca 1890), U.S.; anglicized ca 1895. Abbr. be or get left in the lurch.

left, over the

; over the left shoulder. In the wrong way. But gen. a c.p. used to negate one’s own or another’s statement, the thumb being sometimes pointed over that shoulder: from ca 1610; slightly ob. In C.19–20, when the phrase is somewhat low, shoulder is gen. omitted. Cotgrave; H.D. Traill, 1870, ‘Don’t go?... It’s go and go over the left...it’s go with a hook at the end.’

left-forepart

. A wife: mid-C.19–20; ob. ?ex left rib. cf. DUTCH.

left hanging Judas

. (Of a rope) left hanging over the side: naval: late C.19–20.

left her purse on her piano

. A c.p. constituting a ‘satirical hit at self-sufficiency’: non-aristocratic: late C.19–early 20. Ware.

left-off

, gen. in pl. Left-off clothes: coll: from ca 1890.

left in the basket

, see BASKET!

left shoulder, over the

, see LEFT, OVER THE.

Lefty

. A proletarian ‘inevitable nickname’ (late C.19–20) for a left-handed man.

leg

. A swindling gambler at race-courses: 1815; ob. Abbr. BLACK-LEG (n., 1). Dickens in Pickwick, ‘He was a horse-chaunter: he’s a leg now.’ 2. A point: card-players’: from ca 1860. 3. See LEGS. 4. A footman: fast society: ca 1860–1910. Ware, ‘From the display of the lower limbs’.

leg

, v. To trip up: from ca 1880; also dial. Saturday Review, 22 April 1882, ‘They legged the copper, and he fell to the ground.’

leg, as right as my

. As right as may be; decidedly: from ca 1660; ob.: low coll. 2. Occ. as adj., perfectly right, ‘a bit of all right’: C.18–20; ob.

leg, break a

. To give birth to a bastard: low coll: from ca 1670; ob. R. Head, in Proteus Redivivus. The proverbial form gen. added above the knee; gen., too, as to have broken her leg. See also BROKEN-LEGGED.

leg, cut one's

. To get drunk: C.18–early 19: coll.

leg, get one's

. To obtain a person's confidence: tailors': from ca 1865.

leg (or arm or throat), have a bone in one's

. To be incapacitated: coll, as a playful refusal: from ca 1540. Udall, 1542, 'Allegeing that he had a bone in his throte and could not speake'; Torriano, 1666, 'The English say, He hath a bone in his arm and cannot work'; Swift, ca 1706 (pub. 1738), 'I can't go, for I have a bone in my leg.' In C.19–20 dial., to have a bone in the arm or leg is to have a shooting pain there.

leg, lift one's

. To coit: low: C.18–20; ob. Anon., in Duncan Davidson, a song.

leg, pull one's

. To befool; impose on: coll (–1888); now on verge of S.E. Ex tripping-up.

leg, show a

. To rise from bed: orig. naval coll: from ca 1830.

leg, swing the

. To loaf; malingering: nautical: from ca 1860. Ex a dog running on three legs, sometimes to rest the fourth, sometimes to elicit sympathy (Mr H.G.Dixey, in a letter to the author). cf. LEG—SWINGER , -SWINGING.

leg-and-leg

, adv. and adj. (Of a game) when each player has won a LEG or point; level: cards coll: from ca 1860. In Anglo-Irish, horse-and-horse.

leg-bags

. Trousers: from ca 1855; ob. 2. Stockings: ca 1870–1910.

leg-bail (and land-security), give or take

. To escape from custody; to decamp: from ca 1760: semi-proverbial coll >, ca 1700, S.E.; slightly ob.

leg-business

. Sexual intercourse: low coll: C.19–20; ob. 2. Ballet-dancing: from ca 1870. cf. LEG-SHOP and LEGGY.

leg-drama, -piece, -show

. A play or a ballet distinguished for the amount of leg shown by the female participants: resp. from ca 1870, 1880, 1890.

leg-grinder

. A revolution round the horizontal bar as one hangs by one's legs: gymnastic coll (–1887). cf. muscle-grinder, the same exercise as one hangs by one's arms.

leg in, get a

. To win another's confidence, esp. to gain proof of confidence and/or esteem: coll: from ca 1890. Nat Gould.

leg in, own a

. To have an interest, a share in (horses): sporting: from ca 1865; ob. 'No. 747'.

leg-lifter

. A male fornicator: C.18–20 (ob.) low. So leg-lifting, fornication.

leg-maniac

. An ‘eccentric, rapid dancer’: theatrical coll: ca 1880–1915. Ware.

leg of mutton

. A sheep’s trotter: low: from ca 1850.

leg of the law

. A lawyer: C.19–20; ob.: low. Varying limb of the law.

leg on or over, lay or lift a

. To coït with a woman: low coll: C.18–20. D’Urfey, Burns. cf. LEG, LIFT ONE’S; LEG-LIFTER.

leg-piece

, see LEG-DRAMA.

leg-shaker

. A dancer: (low) coll: C.19–20; ob.

leg-shop

. A theatre specializing in the display of the female form: from ca 1872; ob. cf. LEG-BUSINESS (2), -DRAMA.

leg-swinger

. A loafer; malingerer: nautical: from ca 1860. (Corrupted by the Army to lead-swinger.)
Ex LEG, SWING THE. cf.:

leg-swinging or swinging the leg

. Loading; pretended illness or injury: nautical: from ca 1860. See LEG, SWING THE.

leger

*. A giver of short weight in coals.

legering

(LAW), this practice. ca 1590–1650: c. Greene. Ex Fr. léger, light.

legged

*. In irons: c. > low: ca 1830–70.

legger

*. One pretending to sell smuggled, but actually selling shop-worn, goods: ca 1785–1830: c.

leggings

. Stockings: (somewhat low) jocular coll: from ca 1870; ob.

leggism

. The art or the character of a LEG (1), from ca 1820; ob.

leggo

! ‘Leg it!’; run!: low: late C.19–20,

leggy

. Notable for the display of leg: from ca 1865. cf. LEG-BUSINESS; -SHOP. Daily Telegraph, 10 Jan. 1866, ‘Leggy burlesques’.

leggy-peggy

. A (little) leg: nursery (–1887).

legitimacy

. The reason for much early emigration to Australia, i.e. transportation: Australia: ca 1820–60. Ex the legal necessity of the voyage. Peter Cunningham. cf. LEGITIMATES.

legitimate

. A sovereign (coin); Londoners’: ca 1820–50. Prob. ex legitimate sovereign (king).

legitimate

, adj. Applied to flat racing as opp. to steeplechasing; racing (–1888).

legitimate, the

. Legitimate drama, i.e. good (mainly Shakespearean) drama, as opp. to burlesque: theatrical (–1887).

legitimates

. Convict emigrants: Australian: ca 1820–60. See LEGITIMACY.

legs

. A tall, thin person, esp. if a man: coll: C.19–20. cf. LAMP-POST.

legs, be or get on one's hind

. To be speaking, rise to speak, esp. if formally: jocular coll (–1897).

legs, give—or show—(a clean pair of)

. To run away; decamp: coll (–1883).

legs, have

. To be (considered) fast (e.g. of ship, train, runner): coll: from ca 1870.

legs, make indentures with one's

. To be tipsy: C.18–early 19. Ray.

legs, merry

, see MERRY-LEGS.

legs and arms

. Weak beer: tailors': from ca 1860. Because without body.

legs grew in the night, therefore could not see to grow straight,—his

. A jeering c.p. addressed to a crooked-legged man. cf. BUY ONE'S BOOTS...

legs in a bed, more belongs or goes to marriage than four bare

. A c.p., > proverbial when applied to a portionless couple: from ca 1540; ob. Heywood, 1546; Swift; Scott; Apperson. cf. the C.17–18 proverb, there belongs more than whistling to going to plough.

legs on one's neck or to ground, lay one's

. To decamp; run away: coll: C.17–early 19, C.17–20, the latter extant only in dial.

legs up to her bum, she's got

. A mid-C,19–20 c.p. addressed by men to boys in order to imply a common humanity: 'She has legs too, you know; just like you, son.'

Legshire

. The Isle of Man: C.19–20; ob. Ex the heraldic bearings.

legsman

*. A race-course swindler who invites one to ‘find the lady’: c.: late C.19–20.

Leigh whisper

, see MITCHAM WHISPER.

leisure hours

. Flowers: rhyming s. (—1909).

lel or lell

. To take, seize, arrest: low London s. verging on c.: from ca 1860. Ex Romany.

lemon, squeeze the

. To make water: C.19–20; low. Ob.

lemon-rob

. Lemon- or lime-juice as an anti-scorbutic: nautical (–1867); slightly ob. Subjectively pejorative.

lemoncholy

. Melancholy: London (–1909); ob. By jocular transposition and slight distortion of melan. cf.:

lemonjolly

. A jocular. distortion of melancholy: ca 1860–1910. Occ. lemon colly, lemon punning melan. cf. COLLY-MOLLY.

lemons

, adv. With a will; vigorously: Australian: ca 1860–1910. ‘Tom Collins’, Such Is Life, 1903, “‘Grass up over yer boots, an’ the carrion goin’ into it lemons,” he remarked.’

lend

. A loan: coll from ca 1825 ex C.16–20 dial. ‘For the lend of the ass you might give me the mill,’ old ballad.

lend

, v. Give, as in ‘Lend me a lick of the ice-cream!’: proletarian coll (–1887).

lend us your breath to kill Jumbo

! A proletarian c.p. of 1882–ca 1910. Ware, ‘Protest against the odour of bad breath’. (See JUMBO, 2.)

lend us your pound

! Pull your weight (on the rope): a jocular nautical c.p.: late C.19–20.

length

. 42 lines: 1736 (O.E.D.): theatrical s.>, ca 1880, theatrical coll. Fielding; G. Parker; Dickens, ‘I’ve a part of twelve lengths.’ 2. Six months’ imprisonment: c.: from ca 1850. cf. DOSE; MOON; STRETCH.

length of a..., go the

. To lend as much as a (guinea, etc.): coll (–1887).

length of one’s foot, get the

, see FOOT, KNOW THE LENGTH OF ONE’S.

lep; occ. lef

. Left, esp. in words of command: military: C.19–20. In the same way, right>ri, as in ri turn!, ri wheel!

leracam

. Mackerel: back s. (–1859). Occ. luracham.

lerry-come-twang

. A fool: Restoration period . Ex a popular refrain-tag of the time.

Lesbian

. A woman sexually devoted to women: coll (–1896). Ex the Sapphic legend.

'less or less

. Unless: Canadian (and U.S.) coll: mid-C.19–20. Ex English dial. usage. cf. 'CEPT.

let alone

. (Prepositional phrase.) Much less; not to mention: coll: 1816, Jane Austen; Barham, 'I have not had...[a] brown to buy a bit of bread with—let alone a tart.' Occ. letting alone (1843; ob.). 2.

let me, him, etc., alone (†for doing,) to do something

: coll: C.17–20. Shakespeare, ‘Let me alone for swearing’; Dryden, ‘Let me alone to accuse him afterwards.’

let daylight into

. To stab, shoot; kill: coll: C.19–20. See also at DAYLIGHT...

let-down

. A disappointment; deception: coll (–1894).

let down easily or gently

. To be lenient to: coll: 1834, M.Scott, ‘By way of letting him down gently, I said nothing.’ 2. Occ.= let down, to disappoint: late C.19–20: coll.

let fly

, see FLY, LET.

let 'em all come

! A c.p. expressive of cheeky defiance: 1896: lower classes'. Ware relates its origin to the manner in which the British received the German Emperor's message of congratulation to Kruger, on the repulse of the Jameson Raid, the U.S.A.'s communication concerning the English boundary dispute with Venezuela, and the shortly ensuing tricoloured agitation in the French press. cf. LET HER RIP!

let 'em trundle

! CLEAR OFF!, go away: app. ca 1695–1730. Congreve, The Way of the World, 1700 (cited by G.H.McKnight).

let go

. To achieve sexual emission: low coll: C.19–20.

let go the painter

, see PAINTER, LET GO THE.

let her fizz

. To keep on all possible sail in a strong wind: Canadian (and U.S.) nautical: from ca 1870; ob. cf.:

let her rip

! Let it (etc.) go freely!; damn the consequences!: coll: mid-C.19–20. Perhaps orig. U.S. (as Ware and Thornton think).

let in

, v. To victimize; deceive, cheat: coll: from ca 1830. Thackeray, 'He had been let in terribly...by Lord Levant's insolvency.' Ex ice giving way. 2. v.i., to deal, gen. followed by with: university (mostly Oxford): from ca 1860; ob. T.Hughes, Tom Brown at Oxford, cf.:

let (another or oneself) in for

. To involve in: coll: late C.19–20. Always with—occ. jocular—implication of unpleasantness.

let into

. To attack; abuse; beat: from ca 1850; ob. Mayhew, 'Those that let into the police, [got] eighteen months.' cf. S.E. let out at.

let it run

. To write as fully as the facts allow: journalistic coll: late C.19–20.

let loose

, see LET ONESELF LOOSE.

let-loose match

. A bull-baiting; sporting: ca 1820–40.

let me die

! A synonym of CARRY ME OUT ...: ca 1860–1914.

let on

. To admit; betray: dial. (–1725) >, ca 1830, coll. Haliburton, 1835; Boucicault, ‘Don’t let on to mortal that we’re married.’ 2. Hence, mostly in Australia and New Zealand and from ca 1880, occ. to pretend, make believe, give to understand: coll: orig. dial. >, by 1828, Southern U.S. (Thornton).

let oneself loose

. To speak or act without restraint: coll: C.19–20.

let out

. To disclose a secret, information, v.i.: from ca 1870: coll, mostly U.S. 2. A gen. v.i. of action, but esp., v.t., to give a horse his head; v.i., to ride at greater speed: coll: from ca 1885. 'Rolf Boldrewood'. 3. See LETS OUT HER FORE-ROOMS...

let out a reef

. To unbutton after a meal: from ca 1850: nautical >, ca 1880, gen. coll.

let rip

. See RIP, but cf. LET HER RIP.

let-up

. A pause, a cessation: orig. (1837) and still mainly U.S.: partially adopted ca 1880: coll.

let up on

. To cease to have—esp. anything pejorative—to do with: coll: orig. (1857) and still mainly U.S.

letch-water

. The sexual secretion: low coll: late C.18–20; ob. See S.E. letch.

let's

! Let us (sc. do something expressed or implied)! Coll: late C.19–20. Often yes, let's!

lets, no

. Without hindrance or modification: schoolboys': from ca 1850. cf. FAIN I and FEN!

let's have one

! see HOW WILL YOU HAVE IT?

lets out her fore-rooms,—she lies backwards and

. She is a harlot, esp. one not professed: proverbial coll: ca 1630–1850. Motteux.

lettary

. A lodging; lodgings: grafters': late C.19–20. A variant of LETTY.

letter

. Abbr. (–1896) of FRENCH LETTER.

letter, go and post a

. To coït: low: mid-C. 19–20; ob. cf. SEE A MAN about a dog.

letter cloth

, see SWATCHEL.

letter-fencer

. A postman: low London (–1909).

letter in the post office, there is a

. See FLAG, n., 3; it is synonymous with the phrase there: late C.19–20; ob.

letter-man

. (Gen. pl.) A steward doing his first trip with a company: nautical: late C. 19–20. Because presumed to have had a letter of introduction to the seniors.

letter Q

*. An underworld dodge known also as the BILLIARD SLUM or MACE. Hence, go on the (letter) Q, to practise this dodge: c.: ca 1810–60. Vaux, ‘Alluding to an instrument used in playing billiards’.

letter-racket

*. Begging by letter: vagrants' c.: from ca 1810.

lettered

*. Branded; burnt in the hand: C.18–early 19 c. cf. CHARACTERED.

letting alone

, see LET ALONE, 1.

letty

. A bed; a lodging. Also v.i., to lodge. Parlary (–1859); in C.20, mainly theatrical. Ex It. letto, a bed, via Lingua Franca. J.Frost, Circus Life, 1875. Also occ. latty.

level, on the

, adj. and adv. Honest(ly), fair(ly): coll, orig. (–1900) U.S., anglicized by 1905. Perhaps ex U.S. (act or work) on a broad level, be trustworthy. cf. SQUARE; STRAIGHT, and contrast CROOK (2), CROSS, ON THE.

level, one's

. Esp. do one's level, do one's utmost: coll esp. Cockneys': from ca 1890. Clarence Rook, The Hooligan Nights, 1899. Ex:

level best

. One's best or utmost: coll: orig. (1851), U.S.; anglicized ca 1870. E.Hale, 1873, 'I said, "I'll do my level best, Doctor."' level-coil, play

. To coit: C.17–early 18: low. Ex S.E. †level-coil, a rough, noisy game.

level pegging

. (Of competitors) keeping level; also n.: s.: (–1900).

leven

. 'In back s., is sometimes allowed to stand for eleven, for...it is a number which seldom occurs. An article is either 10*d.* or 1*s.*', H., 1859.

leviathan

. A heavy backer of horses: sporting journalists' (–1887); virtually †. Ex S.E. sense.

levy

. A shilling; low: from ca 1860. H., in 3rd ed., says Liverpool. Ex U.S. levy (1832), an abbr. of eleven or perhaps even elevenpenny bit: see esp. Bartlett, 1848, and Thornton.

Lewis Cornaro, gen. a

. A water-drinker: London: ca 1820–40. (Topical.)

liar myself, I'm a bit or something of a

. A c.p. reply to a liar: orig. (–1896), U.S.; adopted in British Empire ca 1900 as a coll.

lib

*. Sleep: c. of ca 1670–1800. R.Head. 2. A bank-note: c.: of ca 19. 3. (Lib; gen. pl.) A Liberal: 1885, Punch (Baumann). 4. (Always the Lib.) The Library: Charter-house (–1900). A.H.Tod, 'A collection of Library books is "Lib. Coll."' 5. A liberty: trivial Cockney: from ca 1895.

lib

, v. To sleep, lie down; also to coït: c. of ca 1560–1870. Also lyp (C.16–17).

lib-beg, libbege; lyb beg(e), lybbeg(e); lib(b)edge

. A bed: c. of ca 1560–1860. Harman, Rowlands, Head, B.E., Grose.

lib-ken, libken; lipken , lypken; lib- or lybkin

. A house; lodging: c. of ca 1560–1880. Harman, Jonson, B.E., Grose, Scott, Mayhew.
Ex LIB + KEN. cf.:

libben

. A private house: c. of ca 1670–1860. Ex preceding.

library

. A drinking school; a convivial club, meeting at a tavern: drinkers' or taverns': ca 1640–90. Anon., The Eighth Liberal Science, 1650.

licence?, have you a

, see HAVE YOU A LICENCE?

licet

. Allowed, permissible: Winchester: C.19–20. Ex L. licet, it is permissible.

lick

, a blow, is S.E. and dial. But see LICKS. 2. A hasty wash; a dab of paint: coll: from ca 1650. cf. LICK AND A PROMISE and LICKED. 3. A drinking bout: low (–1886); ob. Daily Telegraph, 3 March 1886. 4. A turn of speed or works, esp. if great or vigorous: (dial. and) U.S. and Australian coll: 1837 (S.O.D.). See LICKS, BIG.

lick

, v. To beat, thrash: perhaps orig. c. or low (it's in Harman) >, ca 1700, gen. s.: from ca 1535. (See also LICK IN TO FITS.) 2. To defeat, surpass: s.: from ca 1800. De Quincey. 3. To astound, puzzle: from ca 1855. See LICKS ME, IT. 4. v.i., to ride at full speed: Australian (–1889); ob., except of a motor-car. See LICK, (AT) A GREAT. 'Rolf Boldrewood'. 5. See LICKED.

lick, (at) a great or, more gen., full

. At a great or at full speed: coll: U.S. (?orig.) and Australian: from ca 1888. 'Rolf Boldrewood'.

lick and a promise, a

. A piece of slovenly work, esp. a hasty, inadequate wash of hands and/or face: coll: from ca 1870.

lick and a smell, a

. Almost nothing, esp. as to food; a DOG'S PORTION: coll: mid-C.18–20.

lick-fingers

. A cook: coll: Ned Ward, 1703.

lick into fits

. To defeat thoroughly: from ca 1875. Ex LICK, v., 1.

lick of the tar-brush, a, the

. A, the, seaman: nautical: late C.19–20. Ex the utility of tar on shipboard. 2. (Also a touch...). Applied to one who has a touch of coloured blood in his make-up: coll: mid-C.19–20.

lick one's (more gen., the) eye

. To be well pleased: low coll: mid-C.19–20; ob.

lick out of

. To drive (something) out of (a person) by thrashing: from ca 1880; ob.

lick-spigot; l.-twat

. Resp. fellatrix, fellator. Low: resp. C.18–20, ob.; C.17–20.

lick-up

. Trade s. of mid-C.19–20 as in quotation at SMOTHER.

lick you, I'll

. This threat in C.18–early 19 evoked the following ‘dovetail’, i.e. c.p. reply: If you lick me all over, you won't miss my ARSE.

licked, lickt

, ppl adj. Applied to ‘Pictures new Varnished, Houses new Whitened, or Women's faces with a Wash’, B.E.: coll: late C.17–20.

lickell

. Little: C.18–mid-19 coll. Ex little on mickle. cf. LEETLE.

licker

. Anything excessive, in size, degree, quality: C.18–20; ob. cf. LICKING, adj.; SPANKER (2); THUMPER; WHOPPER, and LICK, v., 3, its imm. origin. cf. the mid-C.19–20 Cockney, it's a licker to me, I don't understand it. i.e. it licks (beats) me.

licking

. A thrashing: from ca 1755: s. >, ca 1800, coll. Toldervy. 2. A defeat: from ca 1800: s.

licking

, adj. First-rate, splendid, excellent: from ca 1680; ob. by 1900. Cotton, Eden Phillpotts. cf. LICKER.

licks, with my, your, his

, etc. A thrashing: late C.18–20: coll(†) and dial. Burns. Ex LICK, n., 1.

licks, big

. Hard work; also adv., by hard work, 'great guns': Australian, from ca 1888 (e.g. in 'Rolf Boldrewood'), but ob.; orig. (–1861), U.S. cf. LICK, (AT) A GREAT.

licks me, it

. It's beyond my comprehension: coll: from ca 1855. Anon., Derby Day, 1864. Ex LICK, v., 2; cf. it beats me. (The past tense occurs: e.g. in 'It licked me how the bottom itself did not tumble clean away from the ship,' Durham County Advertlser, 10 Nov. 1871.)

lid

. A hat, a cap or (in Glasgow, at least) even a bonnet: from ca 1905.

lid,—like pot, like (pot-); or with such for like.

(Also a lid worthy of such, or the, kettle.) A proverbial coll expressive of suitability, similarity, adequacy: C.16–18. Palsgrave, Urquhart, Fuller.

lid on (it), that's put the

. (cf. LIE WITH A LID ON.) That's done it; nothing more's to be said; that's finished it; GOOD NIGHT!: late C.19–20 c.p.

lie

, n., see LOUD ONE and LIE WITH A LATCHET. lie, v. To be in pawn: C.17: coll. Anon., The Man in the Moon, 1609.

lie as fast as a dog can lick a dish

; as fast as a dog (or horse) will trot. To tell lies LIKE ANYTHING; semi-proverbial coll: resp. C.16–17; C.16–20, but in C.19–20 mainly dial.

lie back and let

, etc., see LETS OUT HER FORE-ROOMS.

lie by one, not to let anybody

. To be a liar: C.17–18 coll. Ray.

lie by the wall

. To be dead: C.15–20: coll till C.18, then dial.

lie doggo

, see DOGGO.

lie down

. To take a reprimand, a lie, a beating, etc. abjectly. Only in take lying down. 1888, Saturday Review, 4 Aug.

lie flat

. See LIE LOW; †by 1910.

lie in

. To remain in one's room when one is supposedly out on leave: Royal Military Academy; ca 1870–1914. Ex the S.E. sense.

lie in statc

. To lie between two women: low: C.18–20 (?ob.). Recorded in A Compleat Collection of Remarkable Tryals, 1721: in vol. IV, p. 248.

lie like a flat-fish

. To tell lies adroitly: nautical: late C.19–20. By pun on lie.

lie like truth

. To tell a lie with seemly verisimilitude: coll (–1876). C.Hindley, '[Cheapjacks] are always supposed, and by common consent allowed, to lie like truth.'

lie low

. (Also †lie flat.) To hide one's person or one's intentions; occ., but †by 1910, to keep to one's bed: coll: from ca 1845. F.Anstey, 'So you've very prudently been lying low.'

lie off

. 'To make a waiting-race', F. & H.: the turf (–1896).

lie on the knuckle

. (Of a ship) to be 'drawn alongside the entrance to a dock, generally waiting for a tug': nautical coll: late C.19–20. Bowen.

lie out of one's ground

. To LIE OFF too long and so, unintentionally, lose the race: the turf (–1896).

lie with a latchet

. A thorough-going lie: coll: C.17–20, but since 1820, only dial. Ray, Fuller. Also known as a †lie made of whole cloth, or (in dial.) out of the whole stuff, and one laid on with a trowel.

lie with a lid on

, gen. preceded by that's a. Coll, but mostly dial.: 1880, Spurgeon.

life, bet your

, see BET YOUR BOOTS. life, know, see KNOW LIFE. life, lag for, see LIFER, 1; also LAG.

life, not on your

. Certainly not!: coll: from middle 1890s.

life and everlasting, for

. (Esp. of sales) final; without appeal: lower and lower-middle classes' coll: mid-C.19–early 20.

life of him, me, etc., for the

; for my, etc., life (ob.). Gen. preceded by cannot. To save one's (exaggerated) life: coll: 1809, Malkin, 'Not knowing how for the life of him to part with those flattering hopes.'

life-preserver

. The penis: low: from ca 1840; ob.

lifer

*. One sentenced, for life, to transportation (1830; †by 1890) or (from ca 1860) to penal servitude: c. R.Dawson, The Present State of Australia, 1831; Dickens. Also LAG for life (ob.). 2. Penal servitude (orig. transportation) for life: 1832: c. Besant ‘Twenty-five years...as good as a lifer’. cf. LAGGING AND A LIFER.

lift

*. A thief, esp. from shops: c.: late C. 16–early 19. Greene, ‘A receiver for lifts, and a dishonourable supporter of cutpurses’. cf. LIFTER; SHOP-LIFT, -LIFTER. 2. A theft; plunder: c.: late C.16–Zmid-19. Also LIFTING. 3. A kick: coll: orig. footballers’: late C.19–20. 4. Conceit, SIDE; presumption: Shrewsbury School: from ca 1885. (Desmond Coke, The Bending of a Twig, 1906.) Whence the adj., lifty, recorded by the same author. cf. ROLL, 2.

lift

*, v. To steal, v.i. and t.: c. (1526) >, ca 1750, gen. s. Skelton, Greene. From ca 1850, gen. applied to stealing cattle and horses. 2. Hence, to transfer matter from one periodical to another: journalists’ and printers’ (–1891). 3. To bring (a constellation) above the horizon in sailing, etc.: coll: 1891. Kipling.

lift, a good hand at a dead

. A person reliable in emergency: coll >, by C.19, S.E. C.17–mid-19.

lift-leg

. Strong ale; STINGO: C.18–mid-19: low. cf.:

lift-leg, play at

. To have sexual intercourse: C.18–mid-19 low. Also life one's leg.

lift or raise one's elbow, hand, little finger

. To drink, esp. to excess: late C.18–20: s. >, ca 1860, coll. The hand phrase admits the addition of †to one's head (Grose, 2nd ed.). cf.:

lift (up) the hand(s)

; occ. the arm. To do a little physical work: from ca 1890. 'Rolf Boldrewood'. See also the preceding entry.

lifted, be

. To be promoted unexpectedly or undeservedly: naval coll: C.19. Bowen.

lifter

*. A thief, esp. from shops: c.: ca 1590–1830; from ca 1750, gen. s. Shakespeare, 'Is he so young a man and so old a lifter?' Ex LIFT, v., 1. 2. (Gen. in pl.) A crutch: S.E. or coll in C.16–mid-17, then low or c. until ca 1870, when it fell into disuse. Coles and B.E. classify it as c. 3. A heavy blow: from the late 1880s. 4. A horse given to kicking: stables' coll (–1909).

lifting

*. Thieving; theft; late C.16–20; ob. except for the stealing of live stock: c.>, ca 1750, gen. s. Greene. Also in late C.16– mid-17, lifting LAW (Greene, passim).

lig

*. A bed: c. of ca 1720–1840. Perhaps LIB influenced by dial. lig, to lie (down). cf. U.S. c. lig-robber in Irwin. 2. A weighted fish-hook: nautical coll: late C. 19–20. Ex East Anglian lig, a load.

light

. Credit: low or rather workmen's: from ca 1820. Bee, 1823, says that it is orig. printers' s. and gives 'strike a light, to open an account, of the minor sort, gen. applied to ale-house scores'. 2. Hence get a light, obtain credit: have one's light put out, exhaust one's credit.

light!, he (she, etc.) wouldn't give you a

. He (she, etc.) is exceedingly mean: Cockney c.p.: late C.19–20. i.e. a light (or match) for one's cigarette; possibly with a pun on LIGHT, n., 1.

light, make a

, see MAKE A LIGHT.

light, not worth a

. Worthless; useless: low coll: late C.19–20.

light, put out one's

. To kill: C.17–20: S.E. till ca 1820, then (increasingly low) coll; in C.20, indeed, it is s. Graphic, 27 Sept. 1884, 'So now, the malefactor does not murder, he "pops a man off", or "puts his light out".'

light strike a

. A late C.19–20 coll exclamation. Prob. ex the imperative of the lit. S.E. phrase. 2. See LIGHT, n., 1.

light and dark

. A park: late C.19–20.

light-blue

. Gin: ca 1820–40. ‘Peter Corcoran’ Reynolds; Randall’s Scrapbook; Egan’s Grose. cf. LIGHT-WET.

light bob

. A light-infantry soldier: 1785, Grose: military s.>, ca 1880, S.E.Whyte-Melville, ‘A light-bob on each side, with his arms sloped’.

light-comedy merchant

. A comedian pure and simple: theatrical: 1887, Referee, 13 March.

light fantastic, the

. The foot as the means of dancing; dancing: coll: from ca 1840. Stirling Coyne, ‘Then you’re fond of sporting on the light fantastic.’ Ex Milton’s ‘Come and trip it as you go|On the light fantastic toe’ (L’Allegro).

light-feeder

*. A silver spoon: c. from ca 1850; ob.

light food

. Tobacco for chewing instead of a meal to eat: lower classes' (–1909).

light frigate

. A woman of loose morals: ca 1690–1760. cf.:

light horse

. A courtesan; a harlot: ca 1620–1700: Society s.> coll. 2. Highwaymen, collectively: s.: Ned Ward, 1700.

light horseman

*. A thief operating as one of a gang on the Thames: C.19–20; ob. Colquhoun; Daily News, 9 Jan. 1899.

light-house, lighthouse

. A red-nosed person, gen. male: ca 1810–90. 2. A pepper-castor: naval (–1909). 3. A watch-house: Londoners': ca 1805–40. Pierce Egan, Life in London, 1821.

light infantry

. Fleas: C.19–20; ob. cf. LIGHT TROOPS, contrast HEAVY CAVALRY.

light master

. A go-between to the landlord of a house of call and the workmen using it: printers': from ca 1840. Ex LIGHT, n., 1.

light-o

! A request for more light, shouted to anyone standing in the light: Conway cadets' coll (–1891).

light out

. To leave hastily and, gen., secretly: from ca 1800.

light the lamp

. (Of a woman) to have sexual intercourse: rather literary: late C. 19–20.

light the lumper

*. To be transported: c. of ca 1795–1830. Perversion of LUMP THE LIGHTER.

light-timbered

. (Of persons) limber; slender-limbed; weak: coll: late C.17– mid-19. cf. the S.E. light(ly) built.

light (or candle) to the devil, bear or hold a

, see CANDLE TO...

light troops

. Lice: ca 1810–90. cf. LIGHT INFANTRY and HEAVY CAVALRY.

light up

, v.i. To light one's pipe, cigar, cigarette: coll: from ca 1860. T.Hughes. 2. v.i., to light the lamps; put on the lights: coll: late C.19–20.

light-wet

. Gin: ca 1820–60. Randall's Scrapbook, 1822. cf. LIGHT-BLUE; BLUE RUIN; SATIN; LIGHTNING.

lighter

*, see LUMP THE LGHTER and LIGHT THE LUMPER.

lightmans

*. Daylight, dawn, day: c. of ca 1565–1860. Opp. to DARKMANS. Ex light; see -MANS.

lightning

. Gin: low (perhaps orig. c.): from ca 1780; ob. G.Parker. (cf. BLUE RUIN.) Hence, flash o' lightning, a glass of gin (–1811).

lightning, like greased

. Very swiftly: orig. (1833, as g. l.), U.S.; anglicized ca 1845 as a coll. Hood, 1842, 'I will come, as the Americans say, like greased lightning.'

lightning curtain-taker

. A performer rushing in front of the curtain on the least approbation: theatrical coll: 1884.

lights

. The eyes: from ca 970: S.E. till ca 1810, then boxing s. Sporting Magazine, 1815, 'He mill'd the stout Caleb and darken'd his lights'; 1820, 'Peter Corcoran,' Reynolds. Also DAYLIGHTS and TOP LIGHTS. 2. A fool: low: ca 1858–1910. Ex an animal's lights, influenced by lightheaded.

lights up

! A play-goers' c.p. indicative of condemnation: ca 1900–15.

lignum

. Polygonum, a wiry plant: Australian coll (–1880). By contraction.

like

, n. Always preceded by the and (esp. from ca 1860) gen. in the pl and followed by of (rarely †to): such a person or thing, in C.19–20 often pejorative: coll: from ca 1630, the first record being a letter by Rutherford in 1637, ‘In a broken reed the like of me’; likes occurring in 1787 (‘the likes of me’); Cobbett, ‘the like of this’; Du Maurier, in Trilby.

like

, adv., at the end of a phrase or a sentence. Somewhat, not altogether; as it were, in a way; in short, expressive of vagueness or after-thoughted modification: (dial. and) low coll: 1801, ‘Of a sudden like’; Scott, Lytton, De Quincey, E. Peacock.

like, anything—nothing—something

, in comparison (e.g. Payn, ‘Not that Pye is an archangel, nor anything like it’), are S.E.; but the elliptical something like, something like what is obligatory, intended, or desired, is late C.18–20 coll. The O.E.D. quotes “‘This looks something like, Sir,’ said she,” 1798. Often by itself.

like, feel

, see FEEL LIKE. like, most or very, see LIKE AS NOT.

like?, what

. (Absolutely or as in ‘what like is he?’) Of what character, nature, quality?: dial. (–1820)> coll 1860, (low) coll.

like a..., like anything

, etc., where speed, energy, or intensity is indicated, have a coll tendency that often>coll or, if the second member is coll or s., even s. Many of the following phrases, which are s. unless otherwise designated, are found at the resp. n., pronoun, adj., or adv.: like a BASKET OF CIPS (Moore, 1819), †; l. a bird (from the 1860s: ‘Quotations’ Benham), coll; l. a dog in a fair (Barham), †; l. a HOUSE ON FIRE (1857), s. > coll; l. a SHOT (1850, Smedley), coll; l. a STREAK (–1890), coll; l. a thousand, or a ton, or a cart-load, or of bricks (from ca 1840), cf. BRICK; l. a tom-tit on a horse-turd; LIKE ANYTHING (from ca 1680; as anything, 1542), coll; l. be(-)damned (late C.19)—cf. smart as be damned, i.e. ‘damned smart’; l. BEANS (ca 1820–1900); l. BILLY-O (late C.19–20); l. BLAZES (–1845; Disraeli, De Quincey), cf. l. a HOUSE ON FIRE; l. †boots or old BOOTS (1868, Miss Braddon; prob. earlier), cf. l. the very devil; l. bricks s.v. BRICK (1835, Dickens); l. BUGGERY; l. FUN (1819, Moore), s.>coll; l. HELL; l. hot †cake or CAKES (–1888), orig. U.S.; l. mad (from ca 1660), coll, as in Pepys’s ‘A mad coachman that drove like mad’; l. one o’clock (from before 1847: orig. ‘of a horse’s movement’ (very rapid), says Halliwell), contrast LIKE ONE O’CLOCK HALF-STRUCK, separate entry; l. SHIT TO A SHOVEL (late C.19–20, low, ob.); l. SMOKE (C.19–20); l. thunder (from ca 1830, ob.; M.Scott); l. the very devil (from ca 1830; M.Scott); l. WINKY (–1896) and l. WINKING (Barham).

like a birch-broom in a fit

, see BIRCHBROOM.

like a book

, see BOOK, SPEAK LIKE A.

like a halfpenny, or a penny, book, you talk

. A c.p. remark to a fluent or an affected or pedantic speaker: low coll: ca 1880–1910.

like a whale

, see WHALE.

like as not(, as); like enough; most (ob.) or very like

. Probably: coll and dial.: resp. –1897 (but as like as, without not, occurs in 1681); 1563, Foxe; 1611, Shakespeare, ‘Most like I did’; 1610, Shakespeare, ‘Will money buy ’em?... Very like.’

like Christmas beef

, see BEEF. like greased lightning, see LIGHTNING.

like it but it doesn’t like me, I . Applied to food, drink, work, etc., implying that it makes one ill: a semi-jocular coll c.p.; late C.19–20.

like it or lump it

. To like or, disliking, put up with it: from ca 1860: coll. See LUMP, v., 3.

like it you may do the other thing!, if you don't

. Equivalent, and allusive to, the preceding: coll (–1864).

like mother makes it

, see MOTHER MAKES IT, LIKE.

like one o'clock half-struck

. Hesitatingly: 1876, Hindley: low; ob. Contrast like one o'clock, s.v. LIKE A...

like that!, I

. A derisive or indignant 'Certainly not', 'I certainly don't think so': coll: late C.19–20. cf. NOT HALF.

like to meet her in the dark(, he'd, I'd, etc.)

. Plain: lower classes': from ca 1884; slightly ob.

likely!, not

. Certainly not!: coll: prob. from late C.19.

likeness, take a

*. To take a criminal's measurements and record physical characteristics, almost solely of the face: c. of ca 1810–1910. Ex likeness, a portrait.

likes, the; likes of, the

, see LIKE, n.

l'il

. Little: a drunken or an endearing contraction: C.19–20 coll.

lil(l)

*. A pocket-book: c.: from ca 1810. Prob. ex Romany lil, paper, a book. See esp. Sampson. cf. Borrow's Romano LavoLil, i.e. Romany Word-Book or Glossary. 2. Hence, any book: from ca 1840: tramps' c. 3. A five-pound note: c. (–1896); ob.

lill for loll (or law)

. Tit for tat: C.15–17: coll. Perhaps jinglingly ex A.-S. lael, a bruise.

lily benjamin

. A white greatcoat: C.19 low. See BENJAMIN; cf.:

lily shallow

. A white driving-hat: Society, esp. the ‘whips’: ca 1810–30.

lily-white

*. A chimney-sweep: c. of ca 1690–1830. 2. A Negro: C.18–early 19: low.

lily-white groat

. A shilling: low: ca 1890–1914. See WHITE.

limb

. A very mischievous child: 1625, Jonson, ‘A limb o’ the school,...a little limb of nine year old’: coll; slightly ob. 2. Hence, depreciatively, of older persons: coll: C.18–20; ob. except in combination, e.g. limb of Satan (Estcourt, 1706).

limb

*, v. To tear to pieces; to thrash: c. or low (–1857); ob. 2. To cheat: c. (– 1878); ob. Hatton, Cruel London. 3. To bring to the stocks: low: C.19.

limb!, blow of my last

. A coll asseveration: nautical (–1887); ob.

limb of the bar

. A barrister: 1815: coll>, ca 1860, S.E, Ex:

limb of the law

. A lawyer; a lawyer's clerk: 1730: coll>, ca 1800, S.E.

limbo

. A prison; any place of confinement: from ca 1590; †by 1910: coll till C.18, then s.; in C.19–20, c. Anon., Five Years' Penal Servitude, 1877, 'It was a heartless, cruel robbery... Before that occurred he had never been in limbo.' Ex the theological sense, esp. the phrase in limbo patrum. 2. Pawn; a pawnshop: ca 1690–1820. Congreve. 3. The female pudend: C.19 low. 4. Bread: military: late C.19–20. Perhaps because often it is, on active service, 'as hard as hell'.

limbs, duke or duchess of

. A GAWK: from ca 1780; ob.: low.

Limburger, that's the

. That's the CHEESE, i.e. excellent, correct, splendid: late C.19– early 20.

lime-basket or -kiln, as dry as a

. Exceedingly dry: coll: from ca 1835. Dickens, Hume Nisbet.

lime-juice

. Lime-light: theatrical: from ca 1875. (Thus does sound generate sense!) 2. A new CHUM (n., 3): Australia (–1886); ob. by 1896, †by 1910. Ex the lime-juice served on outgoing ships. cf.:

lime-juicer

. The same as LIME-JUICE, 2: ibid.: ca 1858–1900. Cornwallis, The New World, 1859. 2. An Englishman; an English sailor. Wm Kelly, Life in Victoria, 1859. 3. An English sailing ship: Canadian, ex U.S.: since ca 1860: ob. Limejuice was served on British ships as an anti-scorbutic.

lime twig, -twig, limetwig

. A thief: late C. 16–early 17: c.: Greene, Third Cony-Catching, 1592.

limiting law

*. In c. of late C.16–early 17, as explained by Greene in A Disputation, 1592, ‘The lymitting Lawe, discoursing the orders of such [professional criminals] as followe Iudges, in their circuities, and goe about from Fayre to Fayre.’

limmick

. Salt: Regular Army: late C.19–20. A perversion of Hindustani namak.

limping Jesus

. A lame person: low: C.19–20; ob. cf. DOT AND CARRY ONE.

Lincoln and Bennett

. A superior men’s-hat: Society coll: ca 1840–1910. Ex the maker’s name. cf. Dunn’s three-and-ninepenny for any cheap bowler hat, this make being the best of the lower-priced hats: coll: late C.19–early C.20.

Lincoln’s Inn

. A £5 note: racing rhyming s. on synonymous (orig. underworld) finn, s.v. FINNIF: late C.19–20. 2. A hand: rhyming s. on FIN, 1: late (?mid) C.19–20. 3. Gin (the drink): rhyming s.: late C.19–20.

Lincolnshire Yellow-Belly (or y—b—)

. A native of Lincolnshire: C.18–20. Ex the yellow-bellied frogs of the Lincolnshire fens.

line

. A hoax: low coll: ca 1850–1910. Esp. in get (e.g. him) in a line, get some sport out of him. cf.:

line (or string), cut the

*. To end suspense: c.: ca 1810–60. cf. 2nd nuance of LINE, GET INTO A.

line, draw the

. ‘To lay down a definite limit of action beyond which one refuses to go,’ S.O.D.: from ca 1885: coll.

line, fake a

, see FAKE A LINE.

line, get into, or on, a; keep in a (tow-)line.

* line. To end suspense; to engage in conversation a person to be robbed by one's confederate(s), also get in a string—cf. LINE, 2; to keep in suspense, also keep in tow or in a string. c. of ca 1810–60.

line, the devil's regiment of the

. Felons; convicts: coll: ca 1870–1914.

line-age

; also linage. Payment by the line: journalists': from ca 1888: s. till C.20, then j. Punning lineage.

line-o'-battler

. A battle-ship: naval coll (–1887); slightly ob.

line of the old author, a

. A dram of brandy: late C.17–early 19.

lined, be

. (Gen. of women) to be married: lower classes' (–1909). Ex LINES, 1.

linen, the

. The stage curtain: theatrical: ca 1880–1910. cf. RAG, n., 5.

linen, wrap up in clean

. To couch smutty or sordid matter in decent language: coll: C.18–19. We still say nicely wrapped up.

linen-armourer

*. A tailor: late C.17–mid-19: c.>, ca 1800, jocular S.E.

linen-draper

. Paper: rhyming s. (–1857). 2. Esp. a newspaper.

liner

. A picture hung on the line: artistic s. (–1887)>, in C.20, coll. W.P.Frith in his Autobiography. 2. A battle-ship: naval (–1810); very ob. cf. LINE-O'-BATTLER.

lines

. A marriage certificate: from ca 1825: dial. and coll>, ca 1900, S.E. Anon., Fast Life: An Autobiography, ‘Those good-natured ladies who never had their lines’. 2. Reins: from ca 1850: dial. and (mostly U.S.) coll.

lines like a butter-box

. A nautical c.p. (late C.19–20) applied to ‘a clumsy, full-bodied ship’ (Bowen). cf. SARDINE-TIN.

liney, liny

. Wrinkled: coll (–1887). e.g. ‘a liney face’.

ling-grappling

, vbl n. Caressing a woman sexually: low: C.19–20; app. ob.

link

*. To steal from a person’s pocket: c.: ca 1820–60. Haggart.

link and from

. These related terms in Yiddish and hence in low London s. date, as to the latter at any rate, from the 1880s. See FROOM, of which link is the opp.

link, to have knocked out one's . Sessions, 1754 (No. IV, Part iii), 'He said he supposed she had knocked out her link (meaning sbe was drunk)': Londoners': ca 1730–80. Here, link=torch.

linkister

. A linguist; esp. an interpreter: nautical (–1867). (Also dial.)

linkman

. A general man-servant about kitchen or yard: West London coll (–1909). An extension of S.E. sense.

linnen

, see LINEN, THE.

lino

. A coll abbr., from ca 1880, of linoleum (1863).

lint-scraper

. A surgeon, esp. if young: coll: 1763, Foote; Thackeray. Ex the lit. S.E. sense.

lintie

. (Gen. pl.) A sprite: theatrical: from ca 1870; ob. Prob. ex Scottish lintie, a linnet; perhaps influenced by Fr. lutin.

liny

, see LINEY.

lion

. A great man's spy: C.18: coll, perhaps>S.E. 2. An inhabitant of, or a visitor to, Oxford: Oxford University: from ca 1780; in C.20, ob. 3. A citizen: London smart s.: ca 1780–1800. 4. A hare: ca 1825–35: coll verging on S.E. Westmacott, Lytton. Ex certain restrictions on game.

lion, as valiant as an Essex

. Timid: C.18– early 19. cf.:

lion, Cotswold or Lammermoor; lion, Essex or Romford. Resp., a sheep; a calf.

COTSWOLD LION or lion of Cotswold, mid-C.15–mid-19. Anon., Thersites; Ray; Grose. See also ESSEX L., LAMMERMOOR L., RUMFORD L.

lion, tip the

. To squeeze a person's nose and flatten it to his face: late C.18–mid-19.

lion comique

. A leading comic singer: music-halls' coll: ca 1880–1905.

lion's den

. The headmaster's study: various schools': late C.19–20.

lion's lair

. A chair: since ca 1860: rhyming.

lions in the Army, they tame

. A Regular Army c.p.: late C.19–20. In reference to military discipline.

lip

. Impudence; abuse: low: from ca 1810 (perhaps orig. c.). Haggart, ‘giving him plenty of lip’. 2. A house: c.: ca 1820–50. Ex LIB-KEN.

lip

, v. To sing: c. (1789, G.Parker)>, ca 1860, low s.; ob. Esp. in lip a chant, sing a song. 2. To speak, utter: coll: from ca 1880. Punch, 10 Jan. 1885, ‘I had great power, millions lipped my name.’

lip, button one’s

. Gen. in imperative. C.19–20: s. verging on coll; once (–1868) common among schoolboys.

lip, carry or keep a stiff upper

, see KEEP...

lip-lap

. A child born in the East Indies: esp. if Eurasian: East Indian coll: mid-C. 18–20. Perhaps ex Javanese lap-lap, a dishclout. cf. CHEE-CHEE.

lip-thatch or -wing

. A moustache: jocular coll verging on S.E.: resp. 1892 (Kipling), 1825 (Westmacott): ob.

lipey; OCC. lippy

. A low London term of address: ca 1870–1915. Ex German liebe, ‘beloved’?

lipish or lippish

. Impudent: ca 1835–70. Sinks, 1848. Ex LIP, n., 1.

lipken

*, see LIB-KEN.

lippy

. Impertinent: from ca 1890. Ex LIP, n., 1. 2. See LIPEY.

lips hang in your light, your

. (Occ. his, her, etc.) A proverbial c.p.=you’re a (born) fool. C.16–17. Skelton (eye for light); Davies of Hereford; ‘Phraseologia’ Robertson.

liq

, see WHAT WILL YOU LIQ?

liqueur of four ale

. A glass of bitter: City (–1909); ob. Also CITY SHERRY.

liquid fire

. Bad whisky: (low) coll: C.19–20; ob.

liquor

. A drink: from ca 1860; mostly U.S. Also liquor-up. 2. The water used in adulterating beer: publicans' (–1909). (Obviously, a euphemism.)

liquor

, v.t. To supply, or to ply, with liquor: mid-C.16–20: S.E. till C.18, then coll till ca 1850, then s. Also, late C.19–20, liquor up. Surtees. 2. v.i., to drink alcoholic liquor: orig. (1836), U.S.; anglicized ca 1840. Marryat. Also, from 1845, liquor up. 3. To thrash, esp. in liquor someone's hide: ca 1680–1800. D'Urfey. Punning LICK.

liquor?, what's your

. What will you drink?: coll (–1887); slightly ob. cf. what's your POISON?

liquor one's boots

. To cuckold: C.18; T. Brown. 2. To drink before a journey (cf. S.E. stirrup-cup); among Roman Catholics, to administer extreme unction: ca 1780–1890.

liquor up

, see LIQUOR, v., 1 and 2; and the n.

liquored

, drunk, 1667, now gen. liquored up (not before C.19); liquorer, a hard drinker (–1885; ob.); liquoring, vbl n., hard drinking, C.19–20, now gen. liquoring-up. All ex the v., 1 and 2. cf.:

Liquorpond Street, to have come from

. To be drunk: ca 1825–1910. Buckstone, in 23, John Street, Adelphi, ‘I don't know where you are, sir; but you seem to have just come from Liquorpond Street.’

lispers

*. The teeth: c. of ca 1785–1860. G. Parker. cf. LISTENER. 2. The lips: C.18– mid-19.

list

. Short for list of geldings in training: the turf: 1890. Hence, put on the list, to castrate. See ADDED...

list, on the

. In disfavour: coll: from 1885; ob. Introduced in The Mikado, 1885. Abbr. S.E. on the black list.

listen

, n. An act or period of listening: coll: since ca 1890. Usually have a good listen (coll) or do a listen (s.).

listen to oneself

. To think: Anglo-Irish coll: C.19–20.

listener

. An ear: low and boxers': from ca 1805; ob. (Gen. in pl.)

listman

. A ready-money bookmaker: from ca 1885; ob.: the turf. Ex the list of prices exhibited by his side.

lit, smack the

*. To divide the booty: c.: ca 1850–90. Burton, Vikram and the Vampire, 1870. (The term is suspect.)

literature

. Any printed matter whatsoever, as in ‘the literature of patent-medicines’: coll: 1895.

little alderman

*. A sectional JEMMY: c. (–1889). cf. ALDERMAN.

Littte Barbary

. Wapping: s.> coll: late C.17–early 19

little beg

. Little beggar, as a ‘friendly term applied by upper form to lower form boys’: Public Schools’: late C.19–20. Ware.

little ben

*. A waistcoat: c.: C.19–20; ob. Ex BENJAMIN.

little bird told me, a

. A semi-proverbial c.p. (C.19–20) in reply to the (not necessarily expressed) question, ‘Who told you?’

little boy

, see LITTLE MAN IN THE BOAT, 2.

little breeches

. A familiar term of address to a boy: ca 1770–1850.

little brother

. Membrum virile: low: mid-C.19–20. On analogy of LITTLE SISTER.

little cheque, a

. A c.p. à propos of the repayment of a loan: ca 1893–5. Ex Two Roses, a popular comedy, in which this phrase is often spoken by Digby Grant played by a famous actor.

little clergyman

. A young chimney-sweep: ca 1787–1860. See CLERGYMAN; contrast CHIMNEY-SWEEP.

little Davy

. The penis: low: C.19–20; ob.

little devil

, see DEVIL, LITTLE.

little end of the horn, the

. A difficulty; distress: hence, come out at the little end of the horn=to come to grief, be worsted. Coll: C.17–20; after 1800, mostly dial. and U.S.

Little England

. Barbados: West Indies': C.19–20, ob. cf. BIM.

Little England beyond Wales

. Pembrokeshire: late C.16–20; coll till C.19, then S.E. See esp. E.Laws's History of Little England beyond Wales, 1888. But Little London, Penrith, is prob. dial., as is Little London beyond Wales, Beaumaris.

little fields have big gates

. A c.p.—?rather an unrecorded rural proverb—referring to the fact that many little women bear large families: (?)C.19–20. The true reason is that they possess an invincible vitality.

little finger, cock one's

. To drink often—and much. Coll: C.19–20.

little finger laugh, letting one's

. Board-school girls' term, from ca 1890, thus in W. Pett Ridge, Mord Em'ly, 1898: 'One of the most painful jibes that a girl could offer to another in school was to point her finger, and inflect it slightly—an act called "letting one's little finger laugh".'

little go

. The first examination to be passed for one's B.A. degree: university coll: 1820: Oxford (†by 1864) and Cambridge. Thackeray. 2. Hence, one's first imprisonment: c. (–1909). Ware, 'First invented by a fallen university man.'

little-house

. A privy: from ca 1720: S.E. till ca 1850, then dial. and, in New Zealand, coll. Ex PETTY-HOUSE.

little joker

*. The hidden pea in the thimble-rigging game: c.: from ca 1870. ?ex the card-game sense of joker.

little man

. A footman: Eton College: ca 1850–1915.

little man in the boat

. The navel: trivial: late C.19–20. (Also in a very indelicate metaphorical c.p.) 2. Clitoris: trivial: late C.19–20. Also little boy.

little Mary

. The stomach: coll: 1903. Ex Barrie's Little Mâry.

little more Charley behind

. 'More lumbar width—speaking of feminine dress or costume': theatrical (–1909); ob.

little shillings

. 'Love money' (Sinks): ca 1830–70.

little side

. A game between houses only: Rugby school: from ca 1870: coll>j.

little sister

. The female pudend: low: C.19–20; ob. cf. LITTLE BROTHER.

little snakesman

*. A young thief who, entering by a window, opens the door to the gang: c. of ca 1780–1890. G. Parker.

little spot

, see SPOT, n., 1.

Little Witham, be born at

; go to school at; belong to, etc. To be stupid: coll (more or less proverbial): late C.16–mid-19; extant only in dial. Punning wit; Nashe, e.g., has small Witam...little Brainford.

little wooden hill, the

. The stairs: nursery coll: mid-C.19–20. Esp. in ‘Now we’ll go up the little wooden hill to Bedfordshire’; cf. BEDFORDSHIRE.

littleish

. Rather small: coll: since ca 1825. Sessions, 1832.

live

. Jocular s. verging on coll, esp. as a real live—; e.g. ‘A real live glass milk jug’, 1887(S.O.D.), ‘A real live philosopher’, 1890 (ibid.).

live bach(e)

. To live as a bachelor: Society coll (–1909).

live eels

. Fields: rhyming s. (–1857).

live even in a gravel pit, he would

. A semiproverbial, mainly rural, c.p. applied, ca 1660–1750, to a cautious, niggardly person. Ray, Fuller.

live horse

. Work additional to that included in the (gen., week's) bill: workmen's: C.19–20; ob. Opp. to, and suggested by, DEAD HORSE.

live in one's chest(s)

. (Of midshipmen) to sleep in a hammock in the gun-room; where one's chest is kept: naval coll: late C.19–20.

live lumber

. Soldiers or passengers on board ship: nautical: ca 1780–1910.

live message

. (Gen. pl.) A message in course of transmission: telegraphers' coll (1870)>, by 1910, j.

live-on

. A fine girl or woman: low: late C.19–20; ob. cf. LEAVE-YER-HOMER.

live sausage

, see SAUSAGE.

live stock

. Fleas; lice; in short, body vermin: from ca 1780. 2. In C.19, also cattle.

live up to one's blue china

. To live up to or beyond one's means: from ca 1860; ob. cf.:

live up to the door (or the knocker)

. To live up to one's means: proletarian: mid-C. 19–20; ob.

lively

. A lively person: coll: 1889, Clark Russell, in Marooned.

lively kid

. 'A funny fellow, a brave man,' Sinks, 1848: coll.

liven

. To make, or to become, lively: coll: 1884.

livener

, A PICK-ME-UP; a morning dram: s. (–1887)>, by 1910, coll.

liver, have a

. To be irritable, bad-tempered: coll: from ca 1890.

liver-faced

. Pale- or white-faced; cowardly: low (–1857).

liver-jerker

. A tricycle: ca 1890–1914. G. & W.Grossmith, The Diary of a Nobody, 1894.

liver-pad

. A chest-protector, usually of flannel: ca 1850–1905.

liver-shaker

. A riding hack: late C.19–20.

liverish

. LIVERY; having the symptoms attributed to a liver out of order: coll: 1896. Daily News, 9 July 1896, an advertisement.

Liverpool button

. ‘A kind of toggle used by sailors when they lose a button’, F. & H.: nautical s.>j.: from ca 1850; ob.

Liverpool house

. The midship deckhouse: sailing-ship coll: C.19.

Liverpool tailor

. A tramping tailor (status of workman): tailors’: ca 1870–1910.

Liverpool weather

. ‘In the Merchant Service, a special brand of dirty weather’: coll: late C.19–20. Bowen.

livery

. LIVERISH: coll: from ca 1895.

livery, be one of the

. To be a cuckold: ca 1680–90. Betterton.

Liveyer(e), Livyere

. A permanent inhabitant of the Labrador coast: Canadian coll (–1901). Ex live here.

living with mother now

. A females' c.p. addressed to proposals of marriage or mistress-ship: 1881–ca 1914. Ware notes that orig. it was 'the refrain of a doubtful song'.

Liza, he's saving them all for

, see HE'S SAVING...

Liza!, outside

. Be off! A low c.p. of ca 1880–1905.

'lo!

Short for hollo(a), hullo: late C.19–20: coll, mostly Colonial.

load

, v.i. To buy heavily; unload, v.i. and t., sell heavily: Stock Exchange: 1885: coll. 2. v.t., to conceal a horse's broken wind by putting well-greased shot into its throat: c.: from ca 1860. 'No. 747'.

load, a; loads

. A great quantity or number: coll: both being of C.17–20. Shakespeare; Clough, 'Loads of talk with Emerson all morning'. 2. A venereal infection: Australia: late C.19–20: low. Hence get a load.

load of hay

. A day: rhyming s. (–1859).

loaded-up, be

. Have in hand large quantities of a thing—e.g. stocks—as security. Stock Exchange: from ca 1886: coll.

loads of

, see LOAD, A.

loaf

. A dawdle; a lounge: s.>coll: orig. (ca 1855), U.S.; anglicized ca 1870. Ex the v., which, however, probably comes ex LOAFER. 2. See LOAF OF BREAD, 2.

loaf

, v. To lounge, idle, take things very easily: coll. Orig. (ca 1838), U.S.; anglicized ca 1850, though Dickens uses it in 1844. H.Kingsley, ‘This one loafed rather energetically.’ cf. LOAF AWAY.

loaf, be in a bad

. To be in trouble, in a difficulty: ca 1780–1850.

loaf away

. Pass (time) in idling: from ca 1850 (orig. U.S.). coll. cf. LOAF, v.

loaf o(f) bread

. Dead. 2. The head (gen. loaf): rhyming s.: late C.19–20.

loafer

. An idler: coll: orig. (1835), U.S.; anglicized ca 1850, though Dickens uses it earlier in his American Notes. Prob. ex Low German (land)läufer a landloper.

loafing

, vbl n. Aimless lounging; deliberate idling: orig. (1838), U.S.; anglicized ca 1850 as a coll. cf.:

loafing

, adj. Lounging; deliberately idle: orig. (ca 1838), U.S.; anglicized ca 1850 as a coll>, by 1905, S.E. T.Hughes, ‘A... poaching, loafing fellow’.

loamick

, see LOMICK.

loap

. A C.18 variant of LOPE.

loaver

*. Money: c. (–1851)>, ca 1880, low s. Mayhew. Prob. a corruption of lowre (=LOUR) by Romany luva (pronounced loover)—cf. Sampson at lovo. Lingua Franca, says H. in 1864.

lob; in C.18, often lobb

*. A snuff-box; any box; a till: c.: resp. 1718 (†by 1800); ca 1750–1810; from ca 1810 (slightly ob.), as in valuable Vaux. 2. lob, the: see LOB, GO ON THE. 3. The head: boxing: ca 1850–1910. 4. A partial priapism: low coll: C.18–19. 5. A yorker: Winchester College cricketers’: ca 1850–90.

lob

, v. To droop; sprawl: late C.16–20; ob.: S.E. >, ca 1800, s.

lob, dip or frisk or pinch or sneak a

*. To rob a till: from ca 1810: c.: all slightly ob, See also LOB-SNEAK.

lob, go on the

*. To go into a shop to get change for gold and then secrete some of the change:c.: ca 1750–1820. C.Johnson; Grose, 2nd ed. cf.:

lob, make a good

*. To steal much money from a till: c. of ca 1810–60. cf.:

lob-sneak, -crawler; lob-sneaking

*. A till-robber; till-robbing: c.: from ca 1865; slightly ob. See LOB, n.

lobb

*, see LOB, n., 1.

lobcock

, a blockhead, is S.E. 2. A large relaxed membrum virile: mid-C.18–19 low coll. Ex LOB, v. 3. An alderman: s.: Ned Ward, 1703.

lobkin

*. A house; a lodging: c.: late C. 18–early 19. A survival and perversion of LIB-KEN.

loblolly-boy

. A doctor's assistant: naval s. (1748, Smollett)>, ca 1860, S.E., and merchant-service s., in C.19, for a steward, also for a spiritless boy at sea (from ca 1850; ob.), while loblolly-doctor, a ship's doctor or surgeon, is nautical s. of C.18. Both ex loblolly, gruel.

lobs

. An under-gamekeeper: from ca 1860. 2. Abbr. LOBSTER. 3. Talk: tramps' c. of ca 1840–1910. A perversion of Romany lavaw, pl of lav, a word.

lobs

! Look out!: schoolboys': ca 1850–1910.

lobscouse

, a meat-and-vegetable hash, is nautical j. and dial., but lobscouser, a sailor, is nautical s. (–1884)>, in C.20, S.E. and ob. cf. SCOUSE.

lobster

. A British soldier: 1687, T. Brown, is app. the earliest indisputable record; ob. by 1901. Also LOBSTER, BOILED. Ex the red coat. 2. Hence, a marine, as in W.N.Glascock, Sketch-Book, I and II, 1825–6. 3. See LOBSTER, RAW.

lobster

, v. To cry; cry out: Winchester College: ca 1850–1910. Prob. ex the Hampshire dial. louser, to make an unpleasant noise.

lobster, boil one's

. (Of a clergyman) to turn soldier: military: ca 1785–1840. Because clerical black is exchanged for red and because an unboiled lobster is bluish-black, a boiled one is red. cf.:

lobster, boiled

. Same as LOBSTER, n., 1: ca 1875–1905. In contradistinction to, and suggested by:

lobster, raw or unboiled

. A policeman: 1829–ca 1910: s.>, ca 1870, coll. Ex the blue uniform equated with the colour of a raw lobster: see LOBSTER, BOIL ONE'S.

lobster-box

. A military transport: nautical: 1833, M.Scott, 'Lobster-box, as Jack loves to designate a transport'. 2. A barrack: mainly military (–1860). Ex LOBSTER, n., 1.

lobster-cart, upset one's

. To knock a person down: coll: orig. (1824) and mainly U.S.; †in England. cf. APPLECART.

lobster-kettle of my cunt, I will not make a

. ‘A reply frequently made by the nymphs of the Point at Portsmouth, when requested by a soldier to grant him a favour’, Grose, 2nd ed.: ca 1785–1860. Ex LOBSTER, n., 1.

lobster-pot

. The female pudend: C.19–20 low; ob.

lobster-smack

. A military transport (cf. LOBSTER-BOX): 1829, Marryat (O.E.D.): jocular coll>, ca 1880, S.E. Ex LOBSTER, n., 1.

lobster soldier

. A marine: naval: late C. 19–20.

lobtail

. To sport or play: nautical: ca 1850–1910. Ex a whale smacking the water with his flukes.

loc man

. (Gen. pl.) A pilot: nautical: ca 1850–1910. Perhaps abbr. local man.

lock

*. A place for storing stolen goods: c.: late C.17–early 19. 2. Hence, a receiver of such goods: c. of ca 1690–1870. (This sense is also expressed by LOCK-ALL-FAST.) 3. A line of business or behaviour: ca 1780–1830: low; perhaps orig. c. 4. A chance, gen. in stand a queer lock, have a poor one: c. of ca 1720–1860. Hence, prob., the next sense. 5. As in Grose (1st ed.), to stand a queer lock, bear an indifferent character; †. 6. The female pudend: mid-C.18–20: low. Also lock of all locks (G.A.Stevens, 1772). The male counterpart is KEY.

lock-all-fast

*. A late C.17–18 variant of LOCK, 2.

lock-up chovey

*. A covered cart: c.>, ca 1860, low: ca 1810–1910.

lock-ups

. Detention in study: Harrow School: from ca 1830; ob.

lockees

. Lockhouse: Westminster School: C.19–20.

locker

*. A thieves' middleman: C.18 c. C. Hitchin, 1718. Ex LOCK, 2. 2. A barroom: nautical coll: from ca 1850; ob. 3. The female pudend: C.19–20 low, mainly nautical.

locker, Davy Jones's

, see DAVY JONES'(S) LOCKER. locker, shot in the, see SHOT...

lockers, be laid in the

. To die: nautical (1813, Scott)>, ca 1890, S.E. cf. lose the number of one's MESS.

locksimth's daughter

. A key: ca 1780–1890. Grose, 1st ed. cf. BLACKSMITH'S DAUGHTER.

loco

. A coll abbr. of locomotive, an engine: 1896.

locomotive

. A hot drink of burgundy, curaçao, egg-yolks, honey, and cloves: coll: ca 1885–1910.

locomotive tailor

. A tramping workman tailor: tailors': from ca 1870.

locomotives

. The legs: from 1841; ob. by 1900. W.T.Moncrieff, in The Scamps of London.

locum

. Abbr. locum tenens: medical, clerical: from ca 1900. Scotsman, 11 March 1901, 'Acting...as "locum"... during the severe illness of the minister.'

locus

*, see LOCUST, v.

locus away

. To remove under the influence of drink: low (?orig. c.): 1831. Ex LOCUS(T), v., and see:

locust

*. Laudanum: c.: from ca 1850; ob. Mayhew. Also locus(s), esp. when used in the wider sense, a drug ('generally... snuff and beer', H., 1st ed.). The term occurs in combination (locus-ale) as early as 1693. Perhaps ex Sp. locos, pl of loco, lunatic. 2. In Australia, ‘popularly but ...erroneously applied to insects belonging to two distinct orders’, cicadas and grasshoppers: 1846. 3. A very extravagant person: Society (–1909); ob. A resuscitation of the C.16–17 S.E. sense.

locust

*, v. To drug a person and then rob him: c. (–1859). H., 1st ed., where spelt locuss. 2. Earlier (locus, 1831), to stupefy with drink. cf. LOCUS AWAY and the n., 1.

loddy

. A perverted abbr. of laudanum: ca 1810–70. L.M.Hawkins. cf. dial. lodlum and lodomy (E.D.D.).

lodger

. A person of no account: low: from ca 1840; ob. Ex ‘It’s only a lodger!’ cf. LOG. 2. A convict awaiting his discharge: prison-authorities’ (–1889). 3. (Gen. pl.) Applied chiefly to head lice but also to all vermin—even rats and mice: mostly Cockneys’: from ca 1870.

lodging-slum

*. The stealing of valuables from high-class lodgings hired for the purpose: c. of ca 1810–70. See SLUM, n., 4.

lodgings

. Prison: Australian: late C.19–20.

log

. The lowest boy in form or house: Public Schools': ca 1860–1910. 2. Abbr. logarithm, coll: C.19–20: universities'. 3. See LOGS, 2.

log-juice

. Cheap port-wine: 1853, 'Cuthbert Bede'; slightly ob.

log-roller

. A political or a literary ally, gen. not too scrupulous: orig. (ca 1820), U.S.; anglicized ca 1865: coll. See:

log-rolling

. 'Co-operation in the pursuit of money, business, or praise', F. & H.: orig. (1823), U.S.; anglicized ca 1865: coll till ca 1895, then S.E. Ex mutual assistance in the actual rolling of logs. 2. Also adj.

log up

, v.i. To make a log-support for a windlass: Australia (–1890): coll. Morris, who quotes ‘Rolf Boldrewood’, 1890, The Miner’s Right.

loge

*. A watch: c.: late C.17–early 19. Ex Fr. horloge.

loges

*. A pass or warrant: c.: early C.17. Hence, FEAGER OF LOGES, a professional beggar with false passes. Rowlands.

logged

. (Of a ship) on her beam-ends: nautical coll: late C.19–20. Perhaps ex dial. log, v.t., to rock.

loggo

. Logs, esp. in ‘Any loggo?’: a London street-cry: mid-C.19–20.

logie

. Sham jewellery: theatrical: from ca 1860; in C.20, S.E. and ob. Ex David Logie the inventor. Sala, 'The plastering of girdles with zinc "logies"'. 2. Sewage: Winchester College: from ca 1870; ob.

logier

*. A pocket-book: c. of ca 1820–50. Ex Dutch or Yiddish.

logs

. A lock-up; a minor prison: Australian coll (–1888). 'Rolf Boldrewood', 1888, 'Let's put him in the Logs.' Morris, 'In the early days'—see G. Barrington, in his History of New South Wales—'a log-hut, and often keeping its name when made a more secure place'. Ob. however, by 1910. cf. the †U.S. log-box. 2. (Rare in singular.) Fines inflicted at sea, officially logged by the captain: nautical coll: late C.19–20.

loke

. A locum tenens: medical: from ca 1905. Ex LOCUM.

lol; occ. loll

. A students' social evening or spree: Stellenbosch students': ca 1885–1900. Pettman, who derives it ex Dutch 'lollen, to sit by the fire, to chat'.

loll-shraub, -shrob

. Claret: Anglo-Indian coll: from ca 1815. Ex Hindustani for ‘red wine’.

loll-tongue, play a game at

. To be salivated for syphilis: ca 1785–1850. ?ex panting from the effects of the treatment.

lollipop, lollypop

. A sweetmeat: coll: London Chronicle, 17–20 Jan. 1784, p. 72: ‘...sweetmeats, called lollipops’. ?ex Northern dial. lolly, the tongue. 2. The membrum virile: C.19–20 (ob.); low. Also ladies’ lollipop. 3. Fig., over-sweet writing from ca 1850; ob.: coll. 4. As an adj., from ca 1835; coll. cf.:

lollipop dress

. A ‘stripy dress, generally red and white, suggestive of sticks of confectionery’: theatrical coll: 1884. Ware.

lollop

. A lounge, loafer: coll: from ca 1840. Ex the v. 2. The action or an act of lolloping: coll: 1834 (S.O.D.). Ex the v.

lollop

. To lounge about: coll: 1745, C.H. Williams, 'Next in lollop'd Sandwich, with negligent grace.' Ex loll, v. 2. To bob up and down: coll: from ca 1850. Mayhew, 'Its head lolloping over the end of the cart.' 3. To proceed clumsily by bounds: coll: 1878, Lady Brassey, 'We lolloped about in the trough of a heavy sea.' But for date cf. LOLLOPING, 2.

lolloping

. vbl n. of lollop, v., in all senses: coll. 2. adj., lounging, slovenly, idle: coll: 1745. 3. Moving by clumsy bounds: coll: 1844, Stephens in Advice of a Gentleman, '[Long-pasterned horses] have usually a lumbering lolloping action, neither fast nor pleasant.'

lollopy

. Lazy: coll: from ca 1855. cf. LOLLOPING, adj.

lollpoop

. 'A lazy, idle Drone': a C.17–18 coll verging on S.E.

lolly

. A sweetmeat: 1862 (O.E.D.): dial. and, in Australia and New Zealand, coll. Ex LOLLIPOP. 2. The head: boxers': ca 1855–1910; ob.

lolly-banger

. A ship's cook: nautical: ca 1872–1914. Perhaps ex LOLLY influenced by LOBLOLLY-BOY.

lollypop

, see LOLLIPOP. lolpoop, see LOLLPOOP.

Lombard fever

. The 'idles': coll: 1678, Ray; †by 1870. A perversion of the S.E. †fever-lurden (cf. S.E. †lurden).

Lombard Street, in

*. In prison: c. of ca 1810–60. See LUMBER, n. and v. (esp.); LUMBERED; LIMBO.

Lombard Street to a Brummagem sixpence, a China orange (the commonest form), an egg-shell, ninepence

. (Gen. preceded by all.) In C.20, the second occ. > all China to an orange. A c.p. indicative of very heavy, indeed the longest possible odds; a virtual certainty: coll: resp. 1826, G.Daniels, ob.: 1849, Lytton; 1752, Murphy, †; 1819, Moore, ob. Ex the wealth of this London street. (See esp. Apperson.) Also Chelsea College to a sentry-box (1819) and Pompey's pillar to a stick of sealing-wax (1819, likewise in Tom Moore).

lomick; loamick

. The hand: Shetland and Orkney islanders's., not dial.: from ca 1880. Ex Orkney dial. lomos, the hands.

London, agree like the clocks of

. To disagree at, and on, all points: proverbial coll: late C.16–early 18. Nashe, Ray. The elder Disraeli ascribes it, tentatively, to some Italian clock-maker.

London, put or show or turn the best side to

. To make the best display one can: coll: 1873, Cassell's Magazine, Jan. Ware, 'Making the best of everything'.

London flitting

, see MOONLIGHT FLIT.

London fog

. A dog: rhyming s.: late C.19–20

London ivy

; L. particular. A thick London fog (cf. PEA-SOUPER): coll: both 1852, in Dickens's Bleak House. 2. (Only London ivy.) Dust: Cockneys' (–1909).

London jury

, see JURY—HANG HALF...

London ordinary

. Brighton beach: ca 1864–1915. Trippers feed there.

London smoke

. A yellowish grey: Society coll: ca 1860–90. Ware, 'Became once a favourite colour because it hid dirt.'

London waggon

. 'In the days of the Press Gang [abolished in 1835], the tender which carried the victims from the Tower of London to the receiving ship at the Nore': nautical: ca 1770–1840.

Londrix

. London: ca 1860–80. Prob. ex Fr. Londres.

lone duck or dove

. A woman no longer 'kept'; a harlot 'working' in houses of accommodation: low: from ca 1860; ob.

lonesome, all on one's

. Alone: coll: since ca 1890.

long

. A BULL (n., 5): Stock Exchange (–1888); ob. 2. A rifle: Fenian: from ca 1885. cf. SHORT, a revolver. 3. See JOHN LONG. 4. See LONG, THE.

long

, adj. Tall: M.E.-C.20: S.E. till ca 1870, then coll, mostly jocular. 2. (Of numbers, or of numbered things) large. Chiefly in l. trump, l. suit (both in cards), l. family, odds, price: 1746 coll.

long!, so

. Good-bye: coll: 1834. In the Colonies, often pronounced soo'-long. ?ex for so long as you're away good luck!

long, that

. Thus or so long: low coll: late C.19–20.

long, the

. The summer vacation: university coll: 1852, Bristed; Reade, 1863.

Long Acre

. A baker: rhyming s. (–1857).

long and slender like a cat's elbow

. A C.18–mid-19 ironic proverbial c.p. T. Fuller, Gnomologia, 1732.

long attachment

. One tall, one short (other-sex) person walking together: coll: from ca 1860; ob. In jocular S.E., the long and (the) short of it.

long balls

; gen. l. bowls. Long-range firing; naval: C.19. Bowen. Ex long bowls, whether in sense of ninepins or in the Scottish one of a game played by throwing heavy bullets is not certain.

long beer, drink

. A large measure of liquor: coll: 1859, Trollope.

long bill

*. A long imprisonment: c.: from ca 1860. cf. LIFER. A short term is a short bill.

long-bow, draw or pull the

. To tell unlikely stories: coll: resp., from ca 1668, C.19–20. L'Estrange; Thackeray, 'What is it makes him pull the long-bow in that wonderful manner?'

long-bow man

. A liar: coll: ca 1678–1830. Ray, Motteux.

long bowls

, see LONG BALLS.

long chalk

, see CHALK, BY A LONG.

long clay

. A long clay pipe: coll: from ca 1860. cf. CHURCHWARDEN.

long-cork

. Claret: 1829, Marryat: †by 1900. Ex the long corks.

long-crown

. A clever fellow, esp. in the proverb, ‘That caps long-crown, and he capped the devil’: coll and dial. (–1847); † except in dial.

long dispar(s)

. The loin: Winchester College. See DISPAR.

long drink

, see LONGBEER.

long Eliza

. A blue and white vase ornamented with tall china-women: sailors’ and traders’: from ca 1880. See esp. the Pall Mall Gazette, 4 Dec. 1884. Ex Ger. lange Lischen, tall Lizzies.

long enough, I, you, etc., may (do something). It's pretty hopeless: coll: C.16–20. In C.19–20 gen. followed by before+v. Palsgrave, Browning.

long eye

. The female pudend: pidgin: from ca 1850.

long face

. A solemn or a downhearted expression: coll: from ca 1785.

long-faced one

. A horse: military (–1896).

long feathers

. Straw; bedding stuffed with straw: military (–1879).

long fifteens

. Some class of lawyers: C.17. L.Barry, in Ram Alley.

long firm

. A swindling group of phantom capitalists: 1868: commercial coll. Orchestra, 2 Jan. 1869. Presumably ex long (!) credit expected, or ex ‘choosing its victims at a distance’.

long fork

. A stick used as a toasting fork: Winchester College: ca 1830–70.

long gallery

. The act or the practice of trundling the dice the whole length of the board : ca 1790–1850.

long ghost

. A tall, awkward person: ca 1860–1910, cf. LAMP-POST.

long glass

. A very long, horn-shaped glass filled with beer on special occasions: Eton College s.>j.: ca 1820–70. Brinsley-Richards, Seven Years at Eton, 1883.

long-haired chum

. A female friend or sweetheart: from ca 1870: tailors’>, in C.20, soldiers’ and sailors’.

long hogs

. A sheep's first growth of wool: coll: ca 1840–1900.

long home, one's

. The grave: C.14–20: S.E. >, ca 1820, coll. Dickens.

long hope

. Long expectations in studying for a degree: Oxford University: ca 1820–40.

long hundred

. Six-score fresh herrings: Billingsgate coll: from ca 1870. Ex long hundred, 120.

long in the arm.

Addicted to theft: from ca 1870. Sessions, Sept. 1893 (Surrey cases). Of one who will reach for things.

long in the mouth

. Tough: low coll: from ca 1850; ob.

long-jawed

. (Of rope) so strained and so far untwisted that it coils both ways; (of an eye-splice) badly tucked: naval: late C.19–20.

long lady

. A farthing candle: late C.18—early 19 coll.

long lane

. The throat: C.19–20; ob. See LANE.

long lane, for the

. Of something borrowed without intention of repayment or restoration: coll: C.18–mid-19. ?ex the proverb it's a long lane that has no turning.

long leg

. 'A big difference in the draught forward and aft in a sailing ship': nautical coll: mid-C.19–20; ob. Bowen. Ex nautical j. long-legged, (of a ship) drawing much water.

long legs

; long un. A tall person: C.18–20 coll. cf. LAMP-POST.

long Meg

. A very tall woman: late C.17– early 19. Ex an actual woman, known as Long Meg of Westminster.

long nose, make a

. To put a derisive thumb to the nose: 1868.

long oats

. ‘A broom or fork-handle used to belabour a horse’, F. & H.: military: ca 1870–1914 See ASH BEANS.

long one or ’un

*. A hare: poachers’: from ca 1810. 2. A pheasant: poachers’ (–1909). Prob. suggested by LONG TAIL, 4. 3. See LONG LEGS.

long paper

. Paper for impositions: Winchester College: from ca 1860.

long pig

. Human flesh as food: 1852, Mundy, in Our Antipodes: nautical>, ca 1895, S.E. Prob. ex Fijian phrase.

long-shanks

. A tall man; coll: late C.17–20.

long shilling

. A drive ‘from the Royal Exchange to the east corner of Catherine-street, in the Strand’, Grose: London hackney-coachmen’s: ca 1740–80.

long ship

. A ship ‘in which it is a long time between drinks’: nautical: C.20. Bowen.

long-shore butcher

. A coastguardsman: nautical: ca 1820–1905.

long-shot

. A bet laid at large odds: turf s. (–1869)>, in C.20, gen. coll. Leisure Hour, May 1869.

long sight, not by a

. Not by a long way: coll: late C.19–20.

long-sleeved top

*. A silk hat: c. (–1889); ob.

long-sleeved 'un

. A long glass (of liquor): Australian: from ca 1890; ob. Ex:

long-sleever

. The same; also the glass itself: Australian (–1888).

long stomach

. A greedy eater: ca 1780–1870: coll.

long streak of misery

. A (very) tall, thin person, even if not miserable-looking: late C.19–20.

long tail

, as applied to one of the riffraff, is S.E. 2. A native of Kent: from ca 1620: coll till ca 1750, then dial. Also KENTISH LONG-TAIL. 3. A Chinaman: nautical: from ca 1865; ob. 4. A pheasant: sporting coll: 1854, Smedley. 5. A greyhound: coursers' and dog-fanciers' (–1864); ob. 6. One or another: c.: ca 1730–70.

long-tailed bear, (that's) a

. You lie!: non-aristocratic evasive c.p.: late C.19–early 20. Ware, 'Bears have no tails.'

long-tailed beggar

. A cat: low (mostly nautical) coll: from ca 1830; ob. Marryat.

long-tailed finnip or 'un

*. A bank-note of high denomination: c.: from ca 1835. Brandon; Snowden's Magazine Assistant. cf. FLIMSY; FINNIF.

long tea

. Tea poured from a high-held pot; urine: schoolboys': ca 1850–1910.

long time dead, you'll be.

A c.p. to anyone failing to make the most of life: late C.19–20.

long togs

. A landsman's clothes; esp. fulldress clothes: nautical: from ca 1810. Also adj. as in Marryat's 'them long-tog, swallow-tailed coats'.

long Tom

. A large, long-range gun: nautical (also †long Tom Tuck: Bowen) and military coll: from ca 1865. cf. LONG-WINDED WHISTLER. Also, a nickname for specific cannon. 2. Hence, a penis: low: from ca 1898. (Whence an obscene riddle current during the Boer War.)

long-tongued as Granny

. Very apt to blab: coll: ca 1720–1830. Ex Granny, an idiot (d. 1719) that could lick her own eye.

long tot

. A lengthy set of figures for addition, esp. in examinations: from ca 1885: coll. Ex TOT, itself abbr. total.

Long Town

. London: Anglo-Irish (–1823). †by 1900.

long trail, the

. ‘In the China clippers, the homeward route round Australia’: mid-C.19–20; virtually †. Bowen.

long trot, to do the

. To go home: low London: from ca 1860; ob. B. & L.

long ’un

. A tall person: coll: mid-C.19–20. Also as vocative. 2. See LONG LEGS and LONG ONE.

long vac

. The summer holiday: at schools, some universities (cf. LONG, THE), the law-courts: coll: late C.19–20.

long-winded paymaster

. A person who takes long credit: late C.17–early 19.

long-winded whistler

. A chase-gun: nautical: ca 1865–90. Smyth. cf. LONG TOM.

long word, a

. A word indicative of a long time: coll: from ca 1860. ‘Since I’ve been in London, and that’s saying a long word,’ Cornhill Magazine, Dec. 1861; “‘Never” is a long word,’ Standard, 28 July 1883.

longa

in ‘pidgin’ represents ‘at’, ‘for’, ‘of’, ‘to’. Ex belonging to.

longs and shorts

*; also longs and broads. ‘Cards so manufactured that all above the eight are a trifle longer than those below it,’ F. & H.: card-sharpers’ c.: from ca 1860. 2. Orig. (–1823), longs and broads =cards.

longshore lawyer

. An unscrupulous lawyer: coll (–1823); ob.

longshore owner

. (Gen. pl.) A shipowner that sent ill-found ships to sea: nautical coll: ca 1850–1910.

loo

! Milk!: milkmen's cry (–1823); ob. Ex Fr. lait.

loo

. A lieutenant: naval: ca 1880–1914.

loo, the

. The water closet: late C.19–20. Ex Fr. l'eau. Or perhaps rather ex GARDYLOO.

looard

. A nautical spelling of leeward: coll (–1887).

looby

. A fool; an idle, dull fellow: C.14–20: S.E. till ca 1820, then coll and dial. Disraeli, 'Her looby of a son and his eighty thousand a year'. cf. LOOPY.

loocho, -cher

. ‘A blackguard libertine, a lewd loafer’: Anglo-Indian coll: from ca 1820. Ex Hindustani luchcha. Whence Loocha Point, Louisa Point, Matheran, India.

loof-faker

. A chimney-sweep: 1859, H., 1st ed.; ob. Doubtless loof is an approximate back-s. perversion of flue: flue > floo > oolf > loof.

look

. To look surprised; stare: C.17–20; S.E. till cal 1850, then coll.

look a gift-horse in the mouth

. To criticize a gift or a favour: C.16–20: coll till C.18, then S.E. ‘Hudibras’ Butler.

look alive

. To be alert; bestir oneself: coll: C.19–20. Also, in late C.19–20 lower classes’ coll, look slimy (ob.). cf. LOOK SHARP and LOOK SLIPPERY.

look as if butter would not melt in one's mouth

, see BUTTER WOULD NOT...

look as if one had eaten live birds

. To be unwontedly lively: from ca 1867: ob. Quarterly Review, cxxv, p. 231.

look at, cannot

. To have no chance against: coll: 1895 (O.E.D.). Ex cricket, where it appears as early as 1862.

look at, have a

. To look at for the purpose of examining: coll: 1885.

look at every woman through the hole in one's prick

. To regard every woman as a mere potential instrument of pleasure: low coll: late C.19–20.

look at him (it, me, you, etc.), to

. Judging from his (my, etc.) appearance: coll: 1846, Bentley's Miscellany (vol. xx), 'No one would think me more than five- or six-and-thirty, to look at me.'

look at the maker's name

.To drain a glass: coll: from ca 1860; ob. Also bite one's name in the pot.

look at the place

*. (Of thieves) to examine a house, etc., beforehand, to see if there is anything unusual about it: C.19–20; c.

look behind one, not or never to . Advance or prosper without interruption: coll: 1852, Serjeant Bellasis. The gen. C.20 form is never to look back (1893, O.E.D.). Perhaps ex racer leading easily.

look big

, see BIG. I. blue, see BLUE.

look Cro'-Jack-eyed

. To squint: nautical: mid-C.19–20.

look down one's nose

. To look glum: coll: C.19–20; ob.

look down one's nose at

. To despise: coll: from ca 1840.

look'ee

. A low coll form of look you! (C. 18–20)=mind this! cf. LOOK HERE!

look for a needle in a bottle of hay or in a haystack

. To look for something virtually impossible to find: proverbial coll: resp. late C.16–19, C.19–20.

look goats and monkeys at

, see GOATS AND MONKEYS.

look here

! Mind this!; mind what I say!: coll: C.17–20. Shakespeare. Also look you!: late C.16–20. Shakespeare, ‘Look you how he writes.’

look in

. A chance of success: sporting: 1870, Bell's Life, 12 Feb.

look into the whites

. To be about to fight: lower classes’: from ca 1885; ob. Sc. of each other's eyes.

look like a billy-goat in stays

. To look very silly: nautical: late C.19–20.

look like a tooth-drawer

. To be thin and meagre: coll: C.17. Beaumont & Fletcher, in Philaster; Ray (as a semi-proverbial phrase).

look lively

. To be drunk: low coll: from ca 1850.

look marlinspikes

. To ‘look daggers’: nautical, esp. naval: ca 1790–1860. Night Watch (II, 119), 1829, ‘Then comes the captain with the articles of war in his hand, looking marlinspikes, and calls for Paddy.’

look nine ways for Sunday(s)

. To squint: nautical: from ca 1850; ob. Ex the C.16–18 coll look nine ways confused with the dial. look both (later all) ways for Sunday.

look old

. To be severe or cautious: streets’ coll (—1909).

look on

, v.i. Applied to a horse meant not to do its best: the turf: from ca 1870. 2. To read (a book, etc.) at the same time (with another person): coll: late C.19–20.

look on the wall and it will not bite you

. A derisive c.p. addressed to a person ‘bitten with mustard’, Ray: ca 1670–1760.

look one way and row another

. To do the opposite of what one seems to intend to do: coll: ca 1580–1880. Melbancke, 1583; D’Urfey; Spurgeon, 1869.

look out, that is X’s

. That is X’s concern or sole business: coll: 1844.

look-out house

. The watch kept ‘by ordained masters on defunct incumbents’, Egan’s Grose: Oxford University: ca 1820–40.

look-see; OCC. looksee

. A look-round, an inspection: from early 1880s. Almost certainly ex pidgin, hence nautical, look-see, to look and see.

look-see

, v. See preceding.

look sharp

. To be quick; to hasten: coll: from ca 1815. Cobbett, ‘They shall look sharp if they act before I am ready for them’; Dickens; Manville Fenn. cf. the next two entries.

look slimy

, see LOOK ALIVE.

look slippery

. To be quick: see SLIPPERY. (Ware, 1909, considers it essentially naval.)

look slippery

, see SLIPPY.

look-stick

. A telescope: naval: late C.19–20. cf. LOOK-SEE.

look through a glass

. To become tipsy: low coll: from ca 1840; ob.

look through a hempen window

. To be hanged: coll: ca 1625–1700.

look to, or watch, one's water (for him)

. To follow a person's movements, watch him very closely: coll (semi-proverbial): from ca 1540; in C.19–20, dial. only. Heywood, 1546; Manley, The New Atlantis.

look towards one

. To drink his health: low coll: 1848, Thackeray; ob. See also LOOKS TOWARDS.

look up

, v.i. To improve: s. >, in C.20, coll (in C.19, mainly commercial): 1822, The Examiner, 'Foreign Securities are generally looking up.' 2. v.t., to visit, gen. informally: coll: late C.18. Sessions, Jan. 1788.

look up nor-west-and-by-well

. Look cheerful: naval (?gen. nautical): late C.18–mid-19.

look you

! see LOOK HERE!

looking all ways for Sunday

, see LOOK NINE...

looking as if he hadn't got his right change

. Mad- or wild-looking; Cockneys' (–1909).

looking as if one could not help it

. Looking like a simpleton or a faint-heart: coll: late C.18–20; ob.

looking for a big penny for a little ha'- penny

. A North of England coll, almost a c.p., applied to those who always want the best of a bargain: late C.19–20.

looking for maidenheads

. A lower-class c.p. directed at people looking for something unprocurable or, at the least, very scarce: since ca 1890.

looking-glass

. A chamber-pot: ca 1620–1830, then dial. (N.B. the E.D.D. entry.) Beaumont & Fletcher. Prob. ex the attention paid to it by physicians.

looking lively

. Slightly intoxicated: coll: late C.19–20.

looking seven ways for Sunday

. Squinting: London lower and lower-middle classes': late C.19–20. cf. LOOK NINE WAYS...

look it——! Look at——!

: Canadian (and U.S.): from ca 1880.

looks towards you!, I

. Your good health!: lower classes' coll: mid-C.19–20.

looksee

, see LOOK-SEE. looney, see LOONY.

loonslate, loonslatt

*. Thirteen pence halfpenny: c.: late C.17–18. cf. HANGMAN’S WAGES.

loony

; often looney; occ. luny. Crazy: (lower classes’) coll: 1872. 2. Hence, a fool; a lunatic: id.: 1869. Ex lunatic influenced by loon. DOTTY; LOOPY, and:

loony, be taken

. To go crazy, mad: (proletarian) coll: late C.19–20.

loony-bin

. A lunatic asylum: Cockneys’: from ca 1890. Ex LOONY, 2.

loop, up the

. Mad: military: from ca 1870. Prob. by fusion of LOOPY and up the POLE.

loopy

. Slightly mad: s. (or coll): late C.19–20. ?ex LOOBY, influenced by ironic allusion to Scots loopy, crafty. Occ. looby.

loos-wallah

. A rascal; a thief: Regular Army: late C.19–20. In Hindustani, ‘thief-fellow’.

loose

, adj. (Of time) not strictly observed: coll: 1892, Sir H.Maxwell, ‘Breakfast is not on the table till a loose ten.’

loose, have a screw

, see SCREW. loose, play fast and, see FAST AND LOOSE.

loose, on the

. Earning money by prostitution: low coll: from ca 1860. 2. Out of prison: proletarian: mid-C.19–20; ob.

loose, run

. (Of a horse) to race unbacked: the turf: 1884, Hawley Smart.

loose, turned

. (Of a horse) handicapped at a very low rate: the turf: from ca 1880; ob. cf. preceding entry.

loose a fiver

. (To have) to pay extravagantly for any pleasure or purchase: proletarian (–1909).

loose-box

. A carriage kept for a kept woman's use: C.19. cf. MOT-CART.

loose end

. A late C.19–20 variant of LOOSE FISH, 2.

loose end, at a (†after or on a)

. Not regularly employed; not knowing what to do: from ca 1850 (*at a...*recorded first in 1860): coll ex dial. Ex freedom from tether. cf.:

loose end, leave (a matter) at a

. To leave unsettled: coll: from ca 1864.

loose ends, at

. Neglected: coll: from ca 1870; ob. cf. preceding entry.

loose fish

. A harlot: coll: 1803, The Port Folio; †by 1895. 2. A person of irregular, esp. of dissipated habits: coll: 1827, Egan, 'Known among the loose-fish who frequent races by the name of thimble-rig'. 3. An independent member: Parliament: 1864; ob.

loose French

. (Gen. loosing F.) To use violent language in English: urban (mostly Cockney): ca 1890–1915.

loose hold

. To let go: coll: from ca 1695. Dryden. cf. LEAVE GO.

loose-hung

. (Of persons) unsteady: low coll: from ca 1820; ob.

loose (or loosen) out

. To unspan a team (of, e.g., draught cattle): Australian coll: mid-C.19–20. In, e.g., 'Tom Collins', Such Is Life, 1903 (both forms). cf. South African outspan.

loose screw, a

. Variant of a SCREW LOOSE, 1:1821, Pierce Egan, Life in London.

loose-wallah

. An occ. variant of LOOS-WALLAH.

loosen (a person's) hide

. To thrash: 1902, Daily Chronicle, 11 April.

loot

. Pillage; plunder: 1788: military coll >, ca 1870, S.E. Ex Hindustani lut, but prob. influenced by lootie, a native irregular of India, hence a bandit. 2. A lieutenant: late C.19–20 naval and military. Ex mispronunciation as lootenant. cf. LUFF.

loot

, v. To plunder; carry off as booty: from ca 1840: military coll >, ca 1870, S.E. The same ascent characterizes looter and looting.

lop

. A slight choppiness of the sea: naval: late C.19–20. Granville. cf. North Country lope, v.i., ‘to curdle’. 2. A wave that, in a choppy sea, is ‘big enough to break inboard in a rowboat or dory’ (Leechman); Newfoundland coll: late C.19–20.

lope

. To run; run away: from ca 1570: S.E. till ca 1690, then s. and dial. Grose, ‘He loped down the dancers.’ 2. To steal: c. (–1874).

loper

. Abbr. LANDLOPER.

lor’, Lor’

! A slovenly form of Lord: low coll: 1835 (S.O.D.). cf. LAW!

lor (or Lor’)-a-mussy

! Lord have mercy! (=surprise): low coll : 1865 (prob. much earlier). Dickens. cf. LORD-A-MERCY!

lord

. A hunchback: late C.17–20; ob. Lamb, ‘A deformed person is a lord.’ A hunchback used often to be addressed as my lord. Perhaps ex Gr. λορδός, bent backward, a technical and medical term. cf. LADY. 2. An occ. abbr. of LORD OF THE MANOR.

Lord

! In C.14–16, dignified; in C.17–20, trivial when not profane. Shakespeare, ‘O Lord, I must laugh.’

lord, drink like a

. To drink hard: proverbial coll: C.17–18. Whence:

lord, drunk as a

. Very drunk: from ca 1670: coll till C.19, then S.E. cf. EMPEROR.

lord!, my

, see LORD, 1.

lord swear like a

. To swear copiously and/or vigorously: coll > S.E.: C.16–17.

Lord-a-merc y (on us)

! ‘The Lord have mercy (on us)!’ as an exclamation of surprise: low coll when not sol.: C.19–20. Eleanor Smith, 1808, ‘Lord-a-mercy upon those that had a hand in such a business.’

Lord Baldwin

, see QUEEN ANNE.

Lord Harry

, see OLD HARRY.

Lord have mercy (up)on me

. The ‘iliac passion’, a ‘colic’ of the small guts: late C.16–17 medical coll used, according to Junius’ Nomenclator, by ‘the homelier sort of Phisicians’.

Lord John Russell

. A bustle or dressimprover: rhyming s. (–1859); †by 1900.

Lord knows how or what or who, the

. Some person or thing of unspecified but considerable potentialities; phrases indicative of irritation, wonderment, admiration, or, as gen., the completeness of one's own ignorance. Coll: late C.17–20. The Gentleman's Journal, March 1691–2, 'Here's novels, and new-born adventures ...and the Lord knows what not.'

Lord love us

! A jocular, also a low coll, form of Lord love me! (it self trivial): late C.19–20.

Lord Lovel

. A shovel: rhymings. (–1857).

Lord lumme or lummy

! see LUMME!

Lord Mansfield's teeth

. The spikes along the top of the wall of the King's Bench Prison: ca 1790–1830. Ex Sir Charles Mansfield (1733–1821), Lord Chief Justice.

lord mayor

*. A large crowbar: c. (–1889). D.C.Murray. Opp. ALDERMAN. See CITIZEN.

lord mayor

, v. To swear: rhyming s.: late C.19–20.

lord mayor's coal

. A (piece of) slate: coll: ca 1840–80. Barham.

Lord Mayor's fool, like my or the . Fond of everything good: proverbial coll: from ca 1670. Ray; H.Kingsley in Geoffrey Hamlyn: †by 1910. Often as the Lord Mayor's fool, who likes everything that is good. Swift has like my Lord Mayor's fool, full of business and nothing to do.

Lord Muck

, see MUCK, LORD.

lord of the foresheet

. A sailing-ship's cook: jocular nautical: late C.19–20.

lord of the manor

. A TANNER, i.e. sixpence: rhyming s. (–1839). Brandon. This is the earliest record of a rhyming s. term; its inclusion in Brandon, moreover, significantly implies that ‘Ducange Anglicus’, 1857, was right in classifying all such terms as c.

lords, the

. The first cricket eleven: Winchester College: from ca 1860; ob.

lordsake

. For the Lord’s sake: Scots coll: from ca 1860.

lordy! or Lordy

! Lord!: (dial. and) low coll: mid-C.19–20. cf. LAW!; LAWKS!; LOR’. Abbr.:

Lordy me

! A (dial. and) low coll corruption of Lord (have or) help me: C.19–20.

lors

! Lord!: low coll: 1860, George Eliot. cf. LAW!

lorst, in the

*. Engaged in shoplifting: c.: ca 1850–1900. Burton, Vikram and the Vampire, 1870. (The term is suspect.)

lose

. The act, or an instance, of losing (a horse-race): racing: 1884.

lose one's legs

. To become tipsy: from ca 1770; ob.

lose out

, v.i. To lose; be swindled or merely fooled: coll: Australia: late C.19–20. Perhaps ex the †S.E. lose out, recorded by O.E.D. at 1869.

lose the number of one's mess

, see MESS.

lot

. A group of associated persons, or of things of the same kind: from ca 1570: S.E. until ca 1875, then (except for merchandise and live stock) coll. W.Benham, 1879, 'Their crew seems to have been a lazy lot.’ 2. A person, gen. pejoratively as in a bad lot, or ironically as in a nice lot: from ca 1846: coll. Thackeray, in Vanity Fair, (apropos of Miss Sharp) ‘A bad lot, I tell you, a bad lot’. Ex the auction-room.

lot, a; lots

. A considerable quantity or number; adv., a good deal. Coll: lots from ca 1810, a lot from ca 1835. Also with adj. as in a good lot (Keble, 1835), a great lot. Either followed by of or absolutely.

lot, hot

, see HOT MEMBER.

lot, the

; the whole lot. The whole of a stated quantity or number: coll: 1867, Mrs Heary Wood, ‘He’s crunching the lot’ (a quart of gooseberries).

Lothbury, go by way of

. To be loth: coll: ca 1560–1660. Tusser. For punning topicalities, cf. CLAPHAM; NEEDHAM; PECKHAM.

lotherwite

. Corrupt for lairwite (a fine for fornication or adultery): C.16–17.

lotion

. A drink—rarely of aught but liquor, and esp. of gin: 1876, Hindley. cf. †lotium, a low coll form of lotion.

lotman

. A pirate: nautical coll: ?late C.18 –mid-19. Smyth; Bowen. ‘Alleged’, says O.E.D.: but why should Admiral Smyth fabricate the word? Ex lot, a share (in the booty).

lots

, see LOT, A.

Lot’s wife

. Salt: nautical: late C.19–20. cf.:

Lot’s wife’s backbone, (as) salt as

. Extremely salt: lower classes’ (–1909). Ex the Biblical story.

Lotties and Totties

. Harlots: orig. (–1885) and mainly theatrical. Ex the frequency of those diminutives in that class.

lotus

, n. and esp. v. (To) hocus: low rhyming s.: 1885. Influenced by LOCUST.

loud

. (Of dress or manners) showy: 1847, Albert Smith, ‘Very loud patterns’: coll.

loud one, a

. A big lie: coll: ca 1670–1850. Ray; Scott, in Ivanhoe, “‘That’s a lie, and a loud one,’” said the Friar.’ 2. A noisy breaking of wind: low: mid-C.19–20.

loudly

. Showily, of dress or manners; 1849, Thackeray: coll.

lounge

. A drink: nautical: from ca 1850; ob. Ex allowance. 2. See LOWNCE.

lounge

. A chief meal; a treat: Eton and Cambridge: 1844, Disraeli; Press, 12 Nov. 1864, ‘I don’t care for dinner... Breakfast is my lounge.’

lour, loure, lowr(e)

*. (See also LOAVER.) Money; in C.19, gen. of coin: c.: from ca 1565. Harman, Head, Grose, Brandon, Richardson (author of The Police, 1889). Ex C.14–16 S.E. lower, a reward, recompense, itself ex Old Fr. louier, a reward; cf. Romany loor, to plunder, and looripen, plunder, booty.

lour, gammy

*. Counterfeit coin: c. (–1839).

louse, mean as a

. Stingy; miserly: non-aristocratic coll (–1887).

louse, prick a

. To be a tailor: coll: C.17– mid-19. Hence louse-pricking, vbl n., tailoring, also as adj.: C.18–mid-19, e.g. in Toldervy. cf. PRICK-LOUSE.

louse a grey head of his own, he will never

. A c.p. of C.18–early 19: He will never live to be old.

louse-bag

. ‘A black bag worn to the hair or wig’, Grose, 1st ed.: coll: ca 1780–1830.

louse for the sake of its skin or hide, skin a

. To be extremely thrifty: coll: late C.16–18. In C.19–20, flea is substituted for louse.

louse-house

. A lock-up; a prison: late C. 18–early 19.

louse-ladder

, ‘A stitch fatten in a stocking’, Grose, 1st ed.: ca 1780–1840. Extant in dial. cf. LADDER, 2.

Louse-Land

; Louseland. Scotland: late C.17–early 19. cf. ITCHLAND.

louse miss its footing on one's coat it will break its neck, if a

. To have a very threadbare coat, clothes: proverbial coll: mid-C. 14–mid-18. Langland, Palsgrave, 'Gnomologia' Fuller.

louse-trap

. A fine comb: low: late C:17–20. In B.E., a Scotch l.-t.

louse-walk

. A back-hair parting: low: ca 1820–80.

lousy

. Contemptible; mean; filthy: late C.14–20: S.E. till C.20, when coll and used as a mere pejorative. 2. (Of paint) full of skin from too long keeping: painters': from ca 1860; ob.

lout

. Anyone of the poorer classes: Rugby school: from ca 1855; ob. T.Hughes in Tom Brown's Schooldays.

lovanenty!

; occ. lov(e)anendie! A C.19–20 Scots coll exclamation of surprise.

love

. An endearing term for a person or a thing; a DUCK (3): coll: 1814, Jane Austen, ‘The garden is quite a love.’

love-curls

. Hair that, cut short, is worn low over the forehead: Society coll: ca 1880–1914.

love ’em and leave ’em,

adj. and n. Given to philandering; a philanderer: coll: late C.19–20.

love-lane

. The female pudend: C.19–20; ob.: low coll verging on S.E. euphemism. Hence, a turn or an ejectment in l.-lane, an act of copulation.

love of Mike!, for the

. For goodness’ sake!: low coll: mid-C.19–20: Anglo-Irish > gen.

love-penny

. A miser: s.: Ned Ward, 1703.

love-pot

. A drunkard: C.19 coll. cf. LUSHINGTON.

love us!, Lord

, see LORD LOVE US!

love your heart!, or you or it, Lord

. A low coll exclamation (cf. LORD LOVE US!); resp. 1833 (T.Hook), †by 1910; 1841, Lytton; 1843, Dickens.

loveage

. Tap-lashes; ALLS; ULLAGE: coll (–1860); ob.

lovely

, adj. Attractive, delightful; excellent: coll: C.17–20. Marham, 1614; Walton, ‘This trout looks lovely.’

lover's knot, tie the true

. To coït: C.19–20; ob. ?low coll or euphemistic S.E.

lovey

; in C.18, occ. lovy. A term of endearment; from ca 1730: S.E. till ca 1820, then increasingly low coll. Fielding, 1731; Foote, 'I go, lovy.' cf.:

lovey-dovey

. An endearment, whether in address or in reference: (low) coll: 1819 (O.E.D.). A reduplication of LOVEY. It may have been current throughout C.18 as well, for Sessions, 1735, has "“Why; Dovee,” says she...’

low or Low

, adj. Low Church: coll: 1854, S.Wilberforce: 1881, Trollope, 'Among [these Low Church prelates] there was none more low, more pious, more sincere.'

low, lie

. To bide one's time; keep quiet: from ca 1881: s. >, ca 1910, coll. Orig., presumably U.S., for the popularity of Joe Chandler Harris's Uncle Remus (1880) put the phrase into gen. circulation. Low coll, or rather sol., is lay low in this sense.

low and slow

. An epithet-c.p. applied to the Low Church: from ca 1855; ob. cf. HIGH AND DRY.

low comedy

. A low comedian: theatrical: 1884, Jerome K. Jerome. Prob. an abbr. of low-comedy merchant, a low comedian: recorded by Ware for 1883.

low countries; Low Countries

. (Preceded by the.) The female pudend: low: C.18– mid-19. cf. LOWLANDS.

low-country soldier

. A heavy drinker: s. (–1650).

low Fulhams

*. See LOW MEN. (From ca 1670; †by 1850.)

low in the lay

*. Almost, or quite, penniless: c.: 1830, Lytton; ob.

low men

*. False dice so loaded as to show low numbers: late C.16–19: prob. orig. c., but by 1700 prob. S.E. Nashe, Florio. Also LOW FULHAMS, and low-runners (C.17–18), the latter being almost certainly c.

low pad

*. A footpad: c. of mid-C.17– mid-19. Contrast HIGH PAD, and see also PAD, n. and v.

low runners

, see LOW MEN.

low tide or water, be at, in

. To be in difficulties, rarely other than monetary: coll: resp. late C.17–early 19, late C.18–20. Dickens, ‘I’m at low-water mark, only one bob and a magpie.’ Nautical in origin: stranded by ebbing tide.

low toby and low-toby man

*, see TOBY.

lowance

. A coll form of allowance: esp. nautical: mid-C.19–20. cf. LOWNCE.

lowdah

. ‘A native pilot in Eastern waters’: nautical coll verging on j.: late C.19–20. Bowen. ?ex Hindustani.

lower

. To drink (a glassful, etc.); low coll: C.19–20.

lower regions

. Hell: from ca 1870: coll.

lowing(-)cheat or (-)chete

*. A cow: c.: ca 1560–1750. See CHEAT.

lowing-lay or -rig

*. The stealing of cattle, esp. cows: c. of ca 1810–60. See LAY (2) and RIG.

lowlands, the

. The female pudend: low: late C.18–mid-19.

lownce or lounce

. A ration of food: naval coll: late C.19–20. i.e. (al)lowance. 2. See LOUNCE.

lowr, lowre

*, see LOUR.

lowze

(occ. written lowse). A whistle indicating the end of a shift; knocking-off time: North Country miners': late C.19–20. Ex loose?

lozenge

. A rifle bullet: military: John L. Gardner, The Military Sketch-Book (II, 17), 1831.

£.s.d.

, see at L.

lubber

. A sailor: s.: Ned Ward, 1703.

lubber's(-)hole ; until ca 1830, occ. lubber-hole

. An opening in the maintop, preferred by tyros and timids to the shrouds: from ca 1770; ob. by 1910: nautical s. >, ca 1840, coll >, ca 1880, S.E. Captain Cook; Wolcot; D.Jerrold, 'Go up through the futtock-shrouds like a man—don't creep through lubber's-hole.' 2. Hence, any cowardly evasion of duty: nautical (1860); ob.

lubra

. A woman: low pejorative coll: late C.19–20 rural Australian. Ex the S.E. sense, on Aborigine woman, recorded first in 1834. Much less gen. than GIN.

lubricate

. (Of the male) to copulate with: raffish London; C.18–early 19. It occurs in, e.g., Boswell's London Journey. 2. To ply (someone) with drink; v.i. to drink: since ca 1880.

luck

; good luck. A treading in (esp. human) dung; a beraying: C.18–early 19. See LUCK, SHITTEN.

luck, down on (occ. in) one's

. Unlucky; impoverished: from ca 1848: s. Thackeray, 'When Mrs C. was particularly down on her luck, she gave concerts and lessons in music.'

luck, fisherman's

. The being wet, hungry, and 'fishless': coll: from ca 1855.

luck, greasy

. A full cargo of oil: whalers': from ca 1830.

luck, shitten

. Good luck: ca 1670–1830. Ex the proverb, 'shitten luck is good luck.' Ray, Grose. cf. the belief that a bird's droppings falling on a person confer good hick on him. cf. MUCK FOR LUCK!

luck!, worse

. More's the pity!: coll: 1861, Miss Yonge.

luck to (e.g. him, it)!, bad or good

. A c.p., pejorative or approbatory (occ. ironically or jocularly congratulatory): coll: C.19–20.

lucky

*. Plunder: c.: from ca 1850; mostly U.S.; ob.

lucky

, adj. (Of persons) handy: C.18 coll.

lucky, cut (occ. make) one's

. To decamp: low London: from ca 1820; slightly ob. M.C.Dowling, 1834, 'You'd better cut your lucky.'

lucky!, strike me

. A mild asseveration ('agreed!'; SURE!): coll (–1887).

lucky, touch

. To experience good luck: coll: late C.19–20.

lucky bag

. The female pudend: mid-C. 19–20; ob.: low. Punning the S.E. term.

lucky bone

*. The small bone of a sheep's head, this being considered a charm: c. (–1883). Sala, Illustrated London News, 10 Nov. 1883.

lucky man, the

. The bridegroom: coll: late C.19–20. Used by women, not by men.

lucky piece

. An illegitimate son (occ. daughter) by a well-to-do father, generous enough to set up the mother in comfort: lower classes' (esp. rural): late C.19–20. Lit., a lucky coin.

lud

! A trivial ejaculation: coll: ca 1720–1850. Ex LORD! 2. In address to a judge (my Lud or even m'Lud): a form so minced as to be coll or, at the least, near-coll. ?recorded in law before 1898, Besant, “My Lud,” said Mr Caterham, “my case is completed.” In the House of Lords, the clerks used my Lud as early as 1830.

Ludgate, take

. To go bankrupt: coll, mostly commercial: 1585, Higgins; †by 1700. Ludgate Prison was mainly for bankrupts and debtors.

Ludgate bird

. A person imprisoned for debt; a bankrupt: C.17. John Clarke, 1639.

Ludlam's dog

, see LAZY AS LUDLAM'S ...DOG.

Lud's bulwark

*. Ludgate Prison: c.: ca 1690–1830. cf. LUDGATE, TAKE.

luff

. Speech, talk: low: ca 1820–60. Egan, 1821, 'Hold your luff.' 2. A lieutenant: naval: from ca 1800; ob. Ex the gen. pronunciation (le'f-tenant). cf. the now more gen. LOOT, 2. (Rare except as first l., second l.)

luff, spring one's

. To display agility in climbing: jocular nautical coll (ex the S.E. sense). The term (slightly ob.) app. arose in the 1860s.

luffed in for, be

. 'To be put in the way of something either pleasant or unpleasant. "We got luffed in for paint ship,"' Granville: naval: late C.19–20. Ex the S.E. senses—as, e.g., in luff the helm.

lufftackle

. A lieutenant (?of marines): naval lowerdeck: late C.18–mid-19. John Davis, The Post-Captain, 1806; W.N. Glascock, Sailors and Saints (I, 16), 1829. Moe. A lowerdeck pun.

lug

. An ear: standard in Scots; in late C.16–20 English, s.—mainly jocular. Lyly, 'Your clumsy lugs'; Moncrieff, 'He napp'd it under the lugs, too.' 2. See LUGS. 3. A pawnshop: see LUG, IN.

lug

, v. To pull violently, carry with effort there being the implication of ponderousness in the object: without that implication, S.E.; with it, coll of mid-C.17–20.

lug

, in. In pawn: low (?orig. c.): from ca 1840. Ex:

lug-chovey

*. A pawnbrokers' shop: c.: from ca 1830.

lugow

. To fasten, place, put: Anglo-Indian coll: from 1830s. Ex Hindustani lagana.

lugs

. Affected manners, AIRS, SWANK. Hence, put on (the) lugs, put on style, be conceited. Both low coll from ca 1890. 2. See LUG, n., 1.

lugs!, if worth his

. (Sc. he would...) If worth his while! Scots coll: C.14–20. Ex LUG, n., 1.

luke

*. Nothing: c. of ca 1820–70. D. Haggart, 1821. Problematically ex dial. luke, a leaf (hence a trifle) or, more prob., Northern dial. luke, a look (?not worth a look); H., 1864, describes it as North Country cant; also, note the earliest record.

lullaby

. The male member: low: mid-C.19–20. (?ob.)

lullaby-cheat

*. A baby: c. of ca 1670–1840. Head, Ainsworth. See CHEAT.

lully

* (occ. LALLY). Wet or drying linen: c. of ca 1780–1870. 2. Hence, a shirt: low: from ca 1860.

lully-prigger, -prigging

*. A stealer, stealing, of linen, esp. banging on the fence or line: c. of ca 1780–1880.

lumb

*. Too much: c. of ca 1720–1800 ?a perversion of lump.

lumber

*. A room: c. of ca 1780–1830. Ex the Lombard Room (for the storing of valuables). 2. A prison, only in LUMBER, BE IN.

lumber

, v. To pawn: somewhat low (?orig. c.): from ca 1810; ob. Ex S.E. put to lumber, hence ultimately ex Lombard. (Pepys in 1668 uses Lumber Street for Lombard Street.) 2. To arrest, imprison: c. of ca 1810–90; rare except, and extant only in, the passive (see LUMBERED).

lumber, be in

. To be in detention; in ptison: C.19–20 c.; ob. cf. LUMBERED; LOMBARD STREET; LIMBO.

lumber, live

, see LIVE LUMBER.

lumber-house

. A house for the storage of stolen property: c. (–1811). Ally Sloper's Half-Holiday, 4 May 1889. Ex S.E. l.-house, a pawnbroker's.

lumbered

, ppl adj. Pawned: from ca 1810; ob.: low (?orig. c.). 2. Arrested; in prison: c. (–1812). cf. LUMBERED.

lumberer

. A tramp, a vagrant: ca 1760–1820: perhaps orig. c.; certainly low. 2. A swindling tipster: low: from ca 1887. 3. Hence (?), a lying adventurer: Society: ca 1890–1914. 4. A pawnbroker: C.19–20, ob.: S.E. till ca 1880, then (mostly U.S.) c.

lumme!, lummy

! Esp. as Lord l! A low coll exclamation: C.19–20. Ex love me.

lummy

. See LUMME! 2. First-rate: low: 1838, Dickens in Oliver Twist; Milliken, 1892, ‘‘Ardly know which is lummiest.’ Prob. ex dial.: cf. the N.Yorkshire lummy lick, a delicious mouthful.

lump

. (Also in pl.) A great quantity; adv. (a lump), a lot, greatly : s. (in C.20, perhaps rather coll) and dial.: a lump from ca 1710, lumps from ca 1520. Skelton; Leigh Hunt; Farmer, ‘I like that a lump.’ 2. (Gen. the lump.) The workhouse: vagrants’ c.: from ca 1870. Also Lump Hotel. cf. PAN, n., 3, and SPINNIKEN. 3. Short for LUMP OF LEAD: late C.19–20.

lump

, v. To thrash; ca 1780–1840; then dial. 2. To punch, strike: low: ca 1780–1830. Like preceding sense, ex the S.E. meaning, to thresh. 3. To dislike, be displeased at: coll: orig. (1833), U.S.; anglicized ca 1860. Dickens, 1864, ‘If you don’t like it, it’s open to you to lump it.’ i.e. swallow it whole, however distasteful.

Lump Hotel

, see LUMP, n., 2.

lump and bump

. A fool; a simpleton: rhyming s. (on CHUMP): late C.19–20.

lump into

. To do (a job) with vigour: Cockneys': late C.19–20. Esp. as adjuration, lump into it!

lump of, a

. A large quantity; much: Australian coll: late C.19–20.

lump of coke

. A man, chap, fellow: s. rhyming on BLOKE (–1859).

lump of ice

. Advice: rhyming s. (–1909).

lump o(f) jaw on(, have a)

. (To be) talkative: low (–1909).

lump of lead

. The head: rhyming s. (–1857). cf. POUND OF LEAD.

lump of school

. A, rarely to, fool: rhymings. (–1909).

lump o(f) stone

*. A county jail: c. (–1909). cf. STONE-DOUBLET.

lump the lighter

*. To be transported: c. of ca 1780–1875. Perhaps lump here=strike, hit (as in hit the track), i.e. unpleasantly or forcibly meet with.

lumper

. A riverside thief: ca 1780–1840 :c. G.Parker. 2. A contractor for loading and unloading ships: from ca 1780, ob.: s. >, ca 1870, coll. Grose, 1785; Mayhew. 3. Such a fraudulent seller of clothes-material as makes the worse seem the better cause, e.g. the old new, the flimsy solid: c.: ca 1850–1910. Mayhew. cf. the somewhat different DUFFER. 4. A potato: from ca 1840: Anglo-Irish coll.

lumping

. Great; heavy; bulky; awkward, ungainly: coll and dial.: 1678, ‘lumping bargains’; 1887, ‘a lumping yokel’. Stigmatized by Johnson as ‘low’.

lumping pennyworth

. A (great) bargain: coll: ca 1700–1860; then dial. Arbuthnot. Hence:

lumping pennyworth, get or have got a

. To marry a fat woman: coll verging on c.p.: C.18–early 19.

lumps

, see LUMP, n.

lumps out of, knock

. To command much applause: theatrical: ca 1884–1910. Coun, Nutts about the Stage, 1885.

lumpshi(o)us

. Delicious: low coll (orig., prob. s.): 1844, Buckstone; ob. ?by SCRUMPTIOUS out of LOVELY. cf. LUPTIOUS.

lumpy

, pregnant, is low coll verging on S.E. 2. Tipsy: from ca 1810; ob. by 1910. Punch, 1845. 3. Costly: booksellers': ca 1890–1915.

lumpy roar

. A grandee, or a 'swell of the first water': low London: 1855–ca 1860. Ware says that it may represent l'Empereur Napoleon III, 'who became popular in 1855 by his visit to England...and [by] his encouragement of English trade'.

lun

. A harlequin: late C.18–early 19: theatrical. By 'collision'. 2. A clown: C.19, mainly U.S. and theatrical. ?a contraction of harlequin or, more prob., ex Shakespearean lunes, mad freaks, as in Winter's Tale, II, ii, 30.

lunan

*. A girl: vagrants' c.: from ca 1835. Ex Romany loobni (cf. Sampson at lubni), a harlot.

lunar, take a

. To glance, look, keenly; properly, upwards: late C.19–20. Ex take a lunar observation.

lunch

. Luncheon: 1829 (S.O.D.); coll. Abbr. luncheon. For lunch(eon) and its synonymy, see ‘The Art of Lightening Work’ in Words!

lunch

. To provide lunch for: coll: 1892.

luncheon reservoir

. The stomach: low jocular: from ca 1860; ob. cf. BREAD-BASKET and VICTUALLING DEPARTMENT. cf.:

lung-box

. The mouth: low: from ca 1850. cf. POTATO-JAW.

lunger

. A person diseased or wounded in the lungs: coll: 1893. Kipling.

lungs

. ‘A large and strong-voiced man’, Johnson: coll: ca 1680–1740. 2. An underworkman in the ‘chymical art’, Johnson: ca 1610–1750: coll >, ca 1700, S.E.Jonson, ‘That is his firedrake, his lungs, his zephyrus, he that puffs his coals.’

Lunnon

. London: (dial. and) low coll: C.18–20.

luny

, see LOONY.

luptious

. Lovely; delicious: late C.19–20; ob. Ex voluptuous+delicious. cf. LUMPSHIOUS and SCRUMPTIOUS. (This type of ‘made’ words was common in the Victorian period; the vogue has waned.)

luracham

, see LERACAM.

lurcher

, a rogue, is S.E., but lurcher or lurcher of the law, ‘a bum bailiff, or his setter’ (Grose, 1st ed.), is s. of ca 1780–1840. Ex dial.: lurch, to slink about.

lure

*. ‘An idle pamphlet’, B.E.: c. of ca 1690–1780, when it > LEER.

lurk

* ‘is mostly applied to the several modes of plundering by representations of sham distress’, Mayhew: c.: from ca 1850; ob. Prob. ex the v. cf. LAW; LAY, 2; RACKET; RIG, 2; SLUM; BEREAVEMENT LURK; DEAD LURK; LURKER. 2. In Australian low s. verging on c., it=‘a plan of action; a regular occupation’, C.J. Dennis: late C.19–20. 3. In app. temporary c. of ca 1840–60, it=an eye or eyesight. ‘No. 747’, with valid reference to the year 1845. Ex Shelta. 4. An occasional customer: grafters’: late C.19–20.

lurk

*, v. To beg with faked letters: c.: from ca 1850; ob. Mayhew. Perhaps a corruption of dial. lurch, to slink about: cf. LURCHER. 2. be lurked. ‘To beordered to do some unpleasant job without a chance of avoiding it’: nautical: mid-C.19–20. Bowen. cf. (?ex) the †S.E. lurk, to shirk work.

lurk, go on or upon a

*. To get money by a LURK: c.: from ca 1850; ob.

lurker

*. A none too honest Jack of all trades: c.: from ca 1860; ob. 2. A begging impostor equipped with sham documents, false letters, faked seals and crests and signatures, etc.: c.: from ca 1850; ob., except as a professional teller of the piteous tale. See esp. Mayhew's London Labour, I, 233, and 'Stuart Wood', Shades of the Prison House, pp. 78–9. Also lurksman.

lurking

*, n. and adj. Fraudulent begging; being a LURKER (sense 2): c.: both from ca 1850 and both in Mayhew's London Labour, vol. I.

lurkman

. A petty criminal: Australian: since ca 1870.

lurksman

*, see LURKER, 2.

lurries

*. The more gen. form of:

lurry

*. (Gen. in pl.) Money: c. of ca 1670–1830. R.Head in The Canting Academy. In the pl, the sense is rather ‘all manner of cloaths’, Coles, 1676, or ‘Money, Watches, Rings, or other Moveables’, B.E. Prob. a corruption of LOUR, lowre, influenced. perhaps by dial. lurry, to pull, drag.

lush

. Drink, i.e. strong drink: from ca 1790; ob. ?orig. c.; certainly low. Lytton, “Bring the lush and the pipes, old bloke!” cried Ned...; “we are never at a loss for company.” 2. A drink: low (–1892); ob. Hume Nisbet. 3. A drinking-bout: from ca 1840; ob.: low. Colonel Hawker’s Diary; Licensed Victuallers’ Gazette, 16 Jan. 1891. 4. A drunkard: low: from ca 1890; ob. Abbr. LUSHINGTON. These four senses are either ex S.E. lush, adj. (cf. the adj., below), as the O.E.D. proposes, or ex Lushington, a well-known London brewer, as F. & H. claims, or ex the City of Lushington, or, as W. suggests, ex Shelta lush, to eat and drink. 5. A dainty: Eton College: C.19. Either ex lush, as above, or ex lush, S.E. adj.

lush

, v. To drink, v.i.: from ca 1810; ob.: low. Lex. Bal. Also lush it: from ca 1830; ob. cf. BOOZE; BUB; LIQUOR; SOAK; WET. 2. To drink, v.t.: low: perhaps from ca 1810 (see Lex. Bal.); certainly from 1830, when used by Lytton in Paul Clifford, ‘I had been lushing heavy wet’; Dickens, 1838, ‘Some of the richest sort you ever lushed.’ 3. To treat, ply with drink: low: from ca 1820; ob. Haggart, ‘We had lushed the coachman so neatly, that Barney was obliged to drive.’ Ex the n., first three senses. For an excellent synonymy of all three senses, see F. & H. at lush, v.

lush

, adj. Topsy: low: from ca 1811; ob. Vaux. Also lush(e)y, from ca 1810. Lex. Bal., ‘The rolling kiddeys...got bloody lushy.’ Either ex S.E. adj. lush or ex the n., above. 2. Dainty: Eton: from ca 1860; ob.

lush at Freeman’s Quay

. To drink at another’s expense. See FREEMAN’S QUAY and HARRY FREEMAN’S.

lush cove

*. A drunkard: c. (–1839).

lush-crib

*. A low public-house; a ginshop: c.: from ca 1810; ob. cf. LUSH-KEN. Ex LUSH, n., 1. cf. BOOZER, 2; DRUM; PANN(E)Y; PUB; TOM AND JERRY shop, and see CRIB, n., 3.

lush-house

*. The same: c. or low (–1896); ob.

lush it

, see LUSH, v., 1.

lush-ken

*. A low public-house or alehouse; a gin-shop: c.: from ca 1790; ob. Ex LUSH, n., 1. cf. LUSH-CRIB and LUSHING-KEN.

lush-out

. A drinking-bout: low (–1823).

lush-panny

*. Same (–1896) as LUSHKEN: c. or low; ob. See PANN(E)Y; cf.:

lushery

. A low public-house: low (–1896).

lushey

, see LUSH, adj., 1.

lushing

. The vbl n. of LUSH, v., all senses. cf.:

lushing

, adj. Given to drink: low: mid-C. 19–20; ob. Mayhew, 1861, speaks of a harlot nicknamed Lushing Loo.

lushing-ken

*. A low public-house, a drinking bar: c.: from ca 1880. L.Wingfield, 1883, ‘Unable...to steer clear of lushing-kens’.

lushing-man

*. A drunkard: c. of ca 1850–1910, mostly U.S. Ex LUSH, v.

lushing-muzzle

. A punch on the mouth: boxing and nautical: ca 1820–1900. See LUSHING and MUZZLE, v.

lushington or Lushington

. A drunkard: rather low: from ca 1840; ob. The Comic Almanack, 1840; Mayhew; ‘Rolf Boldrewood’, 1890, ‘The best eddicated chaps are the worst lushingtons when they give way at all.’ cf. BOOZER; GIN-CRAWL; POT-WALLOPER; SOAK. Either ex LUSH, n., 1, and punning the surname Lushington, or ex Lushington the brewer, or else ex the City of Lushington, a convivial society that, flourishing ca 1750–1895, had a ‘Lord Mayor’ and four ‘aldermen’: cf. the next three phrases.

Lushington, deal with

. To take too much drink: ca 1820–90. cf.:

Lushington is concerned, Alderman

. Applied to one who is drunk: low: ca 1810–1900. Vaux, where also he has been voting for the Alderman. cf.:

Lushington is his master

. He is apt to drink too much: ca 1825–90.

lushy

, see LUSH, adj., 1.

lushy cove

. A drunkard: c. (ob.): from ca 1810. Vaux; Mayhew. Also lush cove.

lux

. An excellent or splendid thing: Christ's Hospital: from ca 1840; ob. Prob. ex luxuriant, says Blanch, the Hospital's annalist. cf.:

luxer

. A handsome fellow: Winchester College: ca 1850–1915. Either ex luxury, as Adams suggests, or ex L. lux, a light.

lyb-beg, lybbege

, see LIB-BEG.

Lyceum, the

, see ACADEMY, THE.

Lydford law

. To hang first and try afterwards; hence, any arbitrary procedure in judgement: late C.14–20 (ob. by 1870, except in dial.): coll>, by 1700, S.E. Langland, T.Fuller, 'Molière'

Ozell, Kingsley. Ex Lydford, ‘now a small village on the confines of Dartmoor...formerly the chief town of the stannaries’, O.E.D. cf. JEDBURGH JUSTICE.

lyesken chirps

. Fortune-telling; telling a fortune: Shelta: C.18–20.

lying down, take it

, see LIE DOWN.

lylo

! Come here!: Anglo-Chinese (– 1864).

lymitting law

*, see LIMITING LAW.

lyp

*. To lie down: c. of ca 1560–1700. (cf. LIB, the gen. form.) Whence:

lyp-ken, lypken

, see LIB-KEN and cf. LIBBEN and LOBKIN.

M

'm

. Abbr. MA'AM: low coll: C.18–20. Pronounced as brief and indistinct um or em.

m.b. coat and/or waistcoat

. A long coat and/or a cassock waistcoat worn by some clergymen: clerical: from ca 1840, but not recorded till 1853, in Dean Conybeare; ob. Ex 'mark of the beast' in reference to Popery.

m.d. or M.D.

A physician; a person holding the degree of Doctor of Medicine: coll when spoken, i.e. pronounced em dee: mid-C.18–20. 2. Money down: political coll (in reference to electioneering bribery): 1857.

m.p.

A policeman: from ca 1860. ?ex 'mounted policeman'.

m.t.

An empty truck, van, or gen., carriage: railway: from ca 1860. By pun on empty. cf. MOLL THOMPSON'S MARK. 2. An empty bottle: from ca 1858; ob. More usual in U.S. than in the British Empire. cf. DEAD MARINE.

M (occ. by but gen.) under the girdle, cary or have an

. To be courteous of address: coll: ca 1550–1850; extant in dial. as keep 'Master' out of sight, to be lacking in respect. Udall, 'Ne'er an M by your girdle?'; Haughton in a late C.16 play, 'Hark ye...methinks you might do well to have an M under your girdle'; Swift. Ex 'master' and 'mistress'.

ma

. Abbr. mamma: from ca 1820 (?orig. dial.): coll >, ca 1890, low coll. cf. PA. 2. At certain Public Schools, ma and mi indicate (Smith) major and (Smith) minor: mid-C.19–20. These terms are rather coll than s. 3. One's wife: lower middle-class form of address: mid-C.19–20.

ma'am

. A coll contraction of madam: 1668, Dryden. Very gen. in C.18–mid-19 in Society, and still etiquette in addressing a queen or a royal princess; since ca 1850, chiefly parenthetical or terminal. 'Also written as vulgar marm, mem, mim, mum, -m', S.O.D.

ma'amselle

. A coll abbr. of mademoiselle: late C.18–20. Fr. ma'm'selle.

mab

. A cabriolet: ca 1820–95. Moncrieff; Baumann. A personifying perversion of cab-.

mab, gen. mab up

. To dress carelessly: Jate C.17–early 19: coll verging on S.E. Ray (mab), B.E. (mab up). Gen. in ppl S.E. form mabbed up. Ex mab, a slattern.

mac, OCC. mack

. Abbr. MACKEREL, a pimp: 1887, Henley: low s. 2. (Only as mac.) A coll abbr. of macadam: 1851, Mayhew; slightly ob. 3. A rare spelling of MACK, 2.

macaroni, OCC. macaroni

, a dandy (1760–75), is S.E., as is the adj. 2. A merry fool, esp. if an Italian: coll: C.18. Addison, 1711, Spectator, No. 47. 3. An Italian: somewhat low: C.19–20. Ex the national dish, as is the preceding sense. 4. A pony: rhyming s, (–1857).

macaroni-stake

. A race ridden by a gentleman rider: ca 1820–30. Prob. ex MACARONI, 1.

maccacco

, see MURKARKER. maccaroni, see MACARONI.

mace

*. ‘A rogue assuming the character of a gentleman or opulent tradesman, who under that appearance defrauds workmen, by borrowing a watch, or other piece of goods, till one [that] he bespeaks is done’ (i.e. swindled), 1785, Grose: c. of ca 1780–1850. Parker, 1781. 2. Any dressy swindler of tradesmen: from ca 1850; ob. 3. Swindling; fraudulent robbery: c.: from ca 1800. 4. A sham loan-office: c. (–1879); ob. Presumably ex mace, a club, a metal-headed staff.

mace

*, v.t., occ. v.i. To swindle, defraud, whether gen. or in sense of the n., 1.: from ca 1790, when recorded by Potter; 1821, Egan, in Life in London: c. Ex the n., 1. 2. To WELSH: c. (–1874).

mace, get stuff on the

*; often as vbl n., getting... To obtain goods by false pretences: c.: late C.19–20.

mace, give it him (a tradesman) on or upon the

*. To obtain goods on credit and never pay for them: c. (–1812); ob. cf. MACE, STRIKE THE.

mace, man at the

*. An operator of a sham loan-office: c. (–1879); ob.

mace, on (the)

*. On credit: c. (–1893). P.H.Emerson, in Signor Lippo. 2. (Only on the mace.) On the MACE racket: c.: C.19–20. Vaux, 1812; W.T.Moncrieff, 1830, ‘He’s been working on the mace.’ cf. MACER; MACING.

mace, strike the

*. The v.i. form of MACE, v.; esp. as a variant of MACE, GIVE IT ON THE: c.: from ca 1810.

mace-cove, -gloak, -man

* (and MACER). A swindler: c.: resp. from ca 1810 (e.g. in Lex. Bal.); 1812, Vaux, †; from ca 1780, and often spelt maceman. 2. The third is also, from ca 1870, a WELSHER, and, ca 1880–1900, a SWELL-MOBSMAN. Ex MACE, n.

mace the rattler

*. To travel in a train without paying: c.: from ca 1880.

macer

*. A swindler, whether gen. (from ca 1819) or, ca 1820–50, as an exponent of MACE, n., 1: c. Ex the v. 2. A WELSHER: c. (–1874).

MacGorrey's Hotel

*. Chelmsford Gaol: c.: C.19. Ex a governor so named.

machine

. The male member, the female pudend: low coll: C.19–20; ob. Prob. ex Fr. machine, the male member. (cf. THING and Fr. machin.) 2. A FRENCH LETTER: low coll: ca 1790–1860.

macing

*. See MACE, v. 2. ‘Severe, but regulated, thrashing by fists’: non-aristocratic: mid C.19–early 20. Ex Jem Mace, a notable English pugilist.

macing-cove

*. A variant of MACE-COVE. Mayhew, 1861.

mack

. See MAC, 1. 2. A coll abbr. of mac(k)intosh: late C.19–20. 3. A Celtic Irishman: derisive coll: ca 1615–1700.

mack!, by (the)

; occ. simply mack! A trivial, coll asseveration: ca 1560–1670. Anon., Misogonus; Cotton. Ex by the Mass prob. influenced by by Mary.

Mackay, the real

. The real thing, the GOODS: coll: from well before 1900: orig. Scottish.

macked steamer

. Nautical, thus: ‘In the middle 19th century,...a shoddily built ...steamer’ (Bowen): nautical. i.e., a ‘made’ steamer in Northern dial.

mackerel

, a pimp, is S.E., despite F. & H.'s inclusion and despite B.E.'s classification as c. 2. adj., smeared; blurred: printers': from ca 1730; ob. A corruption of mackled, ex S.E. mackle.

mackerel-back

. 'A very tall, lank Person', B.E.: late C.17–18. Hence mackerel-back(ed) long-backed: late C.18–early 19.

Macready pauses

! A theatrical c.p. applied to an actor who pauses too long: since ca 1885. Wm Macready (1793–1873) had a habit of pausing inordinately in any emphatic or dramatic speech.

mad

, adj. (Construction: mad at, with a person; mad about, about a thing or person.) Angry, vexed: C.14–20: S.E. till C.19, then coll and mostly U.S. Nat Gould, 1891, 'My eye! won't he be just mad.' 2. (Of a compass-needle) with its polarity disturbed: nautical coll: late C.19–20. Suggested by erratic.

mad, like

, see the entry at LIKE A...

mad!,—you are of so many minds, you'll never be

. A semi-proverbial c.p. of ca 1670–1750.

mad as a buck

. Very angry; crazy: late C.16–17: proverbial coll. Shakespeare, 'It would make a man mad as a buck to be so bought and sold.' cf. dial. mad as a tup (ram).

mad as a cut snake

. Very mad; exceedingly angry: Australian: from ca 1890. Here, cut=castrated.

mad as a hatter

, see HATTER, and cf. MAD AS A WEAVER.

mad as a March hare

. (In late C.14–15, e.g. in Chaucer, March is omitted.) Eccentric; mad: proverbial coll: from ca 1500. Skelton, 'Thou mad March hare'. Ex sexual excitement. cf.:

mad as a weaver

. Very angry; crazy: proverbial coll: C.17.

mad as May-butter

. Exceedingly eccentric; mad; excited: C.17: proverbial coll. Fletcher, 1626. Ex difficulty of making butter in May.

mad dog

*. Strong ale: c.: ca 1580–1620. Harrison's England.

Mad Greek

. A heavy drinker: s. (–1650).

mad nurse

. 'A nurse attending on insane patients' (O.E.D.): coll: mid-C.18–20; ob. (The World, 1753.)

mad on, have a

. To be in an ugly mood: Canadian coll: from ca 1870. i.e. a mad fit. Ex mad, a fit of anger: same period and status.

mad Tom

*. A rogue who counterfeits madness: C.17–18 c. See also TOM O' BEDLAM.

mad up, get one's

. To become very angry: from ca 1880; mostly U.S. ex (–1847) Eng. dial.

mad woman

. An empty coach: coaching: ca 1800–70.

madam

. A pocket handkerchief: c. (–1879); ob. Perhaps because a mark of at least outward respectability. 2. As proper madam, it=a girl with a bad temper; a proper little madam, a girl child with one: lower-middle and lower classes': C.19–20.

madam-sahib

, see MEM-SAHIB.

Madam Van

*. A whore: late C.17–early 19 c.

madame, the

. The owner or the manager-ess of a brothel: mid-C.19–20. So often she is French...

Madame Bishop

. A drink (port, sugar, nutmeg): Australian: from ca 1880. Ex a formerly well-known hotel-keeper.

maddy

. A large mussel: nautical coll: C.19–20. Ex ob. (?†) Scots moddy, the same.

made

, see MAKE, v.

made beer

. College SWIPES bottled with rice, nutmeg, etc., to recondition it: Winchester College coll: ca 1840–90. Mansfield.

made in Germany

. Bad, valueless: late C.19–20: coll.

made to walk up Ladder Lane and down Hemp Street

. Hanged at the yard-arm: nautical: C.19. By ‘allusive topography’: cf. GUTTER-LANE.

madge, OCC. madge howlet

. The female pudenda: low: from ca 1780; ob. 2. A woman: Scots coll: C.19. Jamieson. 3. See MAG, n., 8.

madge-cove or -cull

*. A sodomite: resp. ca 1820–60 (Bee) and c. of ca 1780–1850 (Grose, 1st ed.).

madza

. Half. Hence madza caroon, half a crown; madza saltee, a halfpenny; madza poona, half a sovereign; also madzabeargeredy half drunk, and madza round the bull, half a pound of steak. Parlary: from ca 1850. Ex It. mezzo, a half, via Lingua Franca, and gen. pronounced medzer.

maffick

, to rejoice wildly as a crowd, orig. s., rapidly>coll and, by 1902, S.E. Ex the rejoicing at the relief of Mafeking (South Africa) on 17 May 1900.

mag

. Talk; chatter: coll: 1778, Mme D'Arblay, 'If you have any mag in you, we'll draw it out'; slightly ob. Ex magpie. 2. A chatterer: coll: from ca 1890. 3. A magazine: coll: C.19–20. Wolcot, 'Hawkesbury...who wrote in mags for hire.' 4. A halfpenny: c.: 1781, G.Parker. Ex MAKE, a halfpenny influenced by MEG, a guinea. cf. MAGPIE, 3. 'Ducange Anglicus' defines it as a penny (1857). 5. A magpie: C.19–20 coll verging on S.E. 6. A MAGPIE (5): shooting: 1895. 7. A face: low: 1899, Clarence Rook. Perhaps ex the v., 1. 8. (Pron. madge). A magistrate; policemen's: from ca 1870.

mag

, v.i. To talk (noisily), chatter; to scold: coll: 1810. Ex the n., 1. 2. To steal: Scots c.: from ca 1815; ob. Scott.

mag, on the

*. On the look-out for victims: c. of ca 1845–60. 'No. 747'. Perhaps, via MAG, n., 5, a perversion of on the MAKE.

mag-flyer; mag-flying

*. A player of, a game of, pitch and toss: c.: resp. 1882, 1883. Ex MAG, n., 4.

mag-stake

*. Money obtained by the confidence trick: c.: from ca 1838; ob. See MAGSMAN.

Magdalen marm

. An unsatisfactory servant: Southwark coll: ca 1840–90. Ware, ‘A servant from the Magdalen, a refuge for fallen women in the Blackfriars Road, which existed there until about the middle of the [19th] century. The women who went out as servants had been too often pampered there.’

magg

. A variant of MAG, n., 4.

magged

. Irritable, irritated; (of a rope) frayed: nautical: late C.19–20. cf. Bedfordshire magged, exhausted, itself prob. ex the very old dial. maggie, to tease, to exhaust, itself perhaps cognate with L. mactare (to afflict or punish), as Joseph Wright seems to imply.

Maggie Miller

. That method of washing clothes which consists in towing them over the stern while the ship is under way: naval: late C.19–20. Granville, ‘The origin, like that of most naval slang terms, is lost in obscurity’: true; yet perhaps it is Maggie because that is a name common among washerwomen, and as for Miller—well, see ANDREW MILLAR. The Navy’s washerwoman?

Maggie Rab or Rob(b)

. A bad halfpenny or wife: Scots coll: C.19–20.

Maggie wore the beads, where

. In the NECK, i.e. disagreeably, disastrously: a c.p. from ca 1905. cf. where the CHICKEN GOT THE AXE.

magging

. Talk(ing); chatter: 1814, Pegge. Ex MAG, v., 1.

maggot at the other, a fool at one end and a

. A c.p. directed at an angler: late C.19–20.

maggot-boiler

. A tallow-chandler: from ca 1786; ob.

magistrate

. A herring: Scots: C.19–20, ob. cf. GLASGOW MAGISTRATE.

magnet

. The female pudend: low coll: C.18–20; ob.

Magnificat, correct

. To find fault unreasonably and presumptuously: mid-C. 16–mid-18: coll till C.17, then S.E. Palsgrave, Nashe, L'Estrange. Ex the idea of changing the Church service.

Magnificat at matins, like or sing

. (To do things) out of order: late C.16–17: coll soon>S.E. Bishop Andrewes, 1588; Urquhart, 1653.

magnificent

. In pl 'a state of dignified resentment': 1836, Marryat, 'Jack walked his first watch in the magnificents.'

magnify

. To signify: from ca 1710; after ca 1870, dial. Steele, 'This magnified but little with my Father.'

magnolious

. Large, splendid, magnificent: from ca 1870; almost †. Ex the splendour of the magnolia.

magpie

. An Anglican bishop: C.18–20 coll. Ex the black and white vestments. 2. His vestments: coll: from ca 1880. 3. A halfpenny: c.: 1838, Dickens. An elaboration of MAG, n., 4. 4. A pie: low: C.19–20, ob. 5. ‘A shot striking a target, divided into four sections, in the outermost but one’, F. & H.: 1884, The Times, 23 July: military coll>, by 1900, j. Ex the black and white disk (cf. a magpie’s colour) with which such a shot is signalled from the butts.

magpie’s nest

. The female pudend: low coll: C.18–20; ob.

mags

. A gratuity expected by servants: Scots coll: from ca 1830; ob.

magsman; OCC. megsman

*. A street swindler; a confidence trickster: 1838, Town, 27 Jan.; Mayhew; G.R.Sims. Ob. Ex MAG, n., talk. 2. In ‘No. 747’, the reference being to 1845—the sense was †by 1900—he is a fashionably dressed swindler travelling in or awaiting trains.

mahcheen

. A merchant: Anglo-Chinese (–1864). Ex Chinese pronunciation.

mahogany

. A dining-table: coll: 1840, Dickens, ‘You three gentlemen with your legs under the mahogany in my humble parlour.’ Also MAHOGANY TREE. 2. A drink of two parts gin to one part treacle: from ca 1790: s. ex Cornish dial.; long †except in dial. Boswell. Ex the colour. 3. A strong mixture of brandy and water: from ca 1815; ob. 4. Salt beef: nautical; from ca 1840; ob. Ex its hardness.

mahogany, amputate one’s

. To run away: from ca 1850; very ob. cf. cut one’s stick (s.v. CUT, v., 4).

mahogany, have one’s feet under another man’s

. To live on another: coll: from ca 1845; ob. cf. MAHOGANY TREE. Ex: 2. To dine with another person: 1840, Dickens (see MAHOGANY, 1).

mahogany-flat

. A bug: ca 1860–1905. cf. HEAVY CAVALRY and NORFOLK HOWARD.

mahogany slosh

. Cook-shop, or coffee-stall, tea: Cockneys’: ca 1870–1914. Ex the colour and the taste.

Mahogany Top

. Nickname for a redheaded man: ca 1860–1900.

mahogany tree

. A dining-table: 1847, Thackeray: coll. cf. MAHOGANY, 1.

Mahometan gruel

. Coffee: ca 1787–1900; coll. Because orig. coffee was drunk mostly by the Turks.

maid, kiss the

. To be executed by the MAIDEN: C.17–18 coll.

maid,—neither wife, widow, nor

, see MAIDEN-WIFE-WIDOW.

Maid Marian

. A big woman: Leicester Square, London: ca 1882–90. Ex a giantess so named.

maidan

(pronounced mydahn). A plain, an open space; parade-ground: Regular Army's, resp. coll and s.: late C.19–20. Ex Hindustani.

maiden

. A decapitating machine: late C. 16–19: coll (mostly Scots)>, ca 1800, S.E. 2. A maiden speech: Parliamentary coll: late C.19–20. 3. Cloves; peppermint: Australian: from ca 1870.

maiden-wife-widow

. The widow of a man 'that could never enjoy her maidenhead', Randle Holmes, 1688: coll: ca 1680–1800. 2. A whore: coll: ca 1670–1850. Ray, Fuller. Gen. neither maid, wife, nor widow.

maidenheads

. Parentheses: Canadian printers': late C.19–20. cf. PARENTHESES.

maiden's water

. Any weak drink, esp. of beer: since ca 1880. Whence, probably, MAID'S WATER.

maids adorning

. The morning: rhyming s. (–1859).

maid's ring

. The hymen: Cockney coll: C. 19–20.

maid's water

. Any weak drink; esp. of tea: Australian: late C.19–20.

Maidstone jailor

. A tailor: rhyming s. (–1857); ob.

maik

. A frequent variant, in Scotland and Dublin (esp. among the Dublin newsboys), of MAKE, n., 1.

mail

. To post (a letter): orig. (1828), U.S.: anglicized ca 1860 as coll.

mail, get up the

*. To find the money for a prisoner's defence: c.: from ca 1840; ob. Ex mail, payment: cf. blackmail.

maillhas or mailyas

. Fingers: Shelta: C.18–20. Whence MAULEY.

main

. The main line: railwaymen's coll (–1887).

main, turn on the

. To weep: 1837, Dickens; 'Cuthbert Bede', in Verdant Green, 'You've no idea how she turaed on the main and did the briny.' cf. turn on the WATER WORKS, 2.

main avenue

. The vagina: low: C.19–20; ob.

main-brace, splice the

. To give out a double ration of grog, to celebrate some special event; hence, to drink: nautical: 1805 (O.E.D.). Perhaps ex the strengthening influence of good liquor (W.). Hence, (with) main-brace well spliced, thoroughly drunk.

main-sheet

. Strong drink; esp. brandy: Jamaica; from ca 1880.

main toby

*. A main road: c. of ca 1800–90. See TOBY, n., 3.

Major McFluffer

; Fluffy. A ‘sudden lapse of memory, and use of words to call the attention of the inattentive prompter’: theatrical (–1887). 2. fluffy is also an adj. See FLUFF, v., 3. Ware gives an anecdotal origin.

mak gauw

! Be quick: South African coll: late C.19–20. Ex Dutch maken, to make, to do; gauw, quick. Pettman, who confines it to Dutch-speaking districts.

make

*. A halfpenny: c., from ca 1545; since ca 1860, only dial. and Scottish and Dubliners'. 2. A successful theft or swindle: c. (–1748); †by 1910.

make

, v. To steal: late C.17–20: c.>, in C.20, low. cf. the exact synonym in Fr. c.: faire. 2. Hence, to appropriate: Winchester College: late C.18–20 (Wrench). Ex dial. 3. With ellipsis of infinitive: coll: not recorded before, but prob. at least ten years earlier than, 1888, The Times, 11 Aug., 'The enemy will not play the game according to the rules, and there are none to make him.' 4. To catch (a train, boat, etc.): from ca 1885. Ex the C.17–20 S.E. sense, orig. nautical, 'arrive at'.

make, on the

*. Intent on booty or profit: orig. (–1887), c. >, by 1900, s. Adopted from U.S.

make a kick

. To raise an objection: proletarian: from ca 1860. cf. KICK, n., 7.

make a light

. To see, look; to find: Australian 'pidgin' (–1859). Henry Kingsley.

make a mess of

, see MESS.

make a row over the stones

. (Of a ship) to pound heavily in the sea: nautical: late C.19–20; ob. Bowen.

make a straight arm

. To offer a bribe: nautical: late C.19–20.

make a wry mouth

. To be hanged: semiproverbial coll: C.17. Cotgrave.

make all right

. To promise to pay for vote: electioneering coll: mid-C.19–early 20.

make and mend

. The naval half-holiday on Thursday, nominally for attending to one's clothes: naval: recorded in 1899.

make buttons

, see BUTTONS, ONE'S ARSE MAKES.

make dead men chew tobacco

, see TOBACCO, MAKE...

make down

. To remake so as to fit a smaller wearer: coll: from ca 1890.

make 'em, as—as they

. A coll variant of as—as they MAKE THEM, exceedingly, as—as possible. Prob. mid-C.19–20.

make ends meet

. To coït: low jocular: C.19–20; ob.

make hay

. To cause confusion, disorder, trouble: coll (–1863); ob. H.Kingsley.

make horns

. A †coll variant of make FACES.

make indentures

, see INDENTURES, MAKE.

make it fly

. To spend money very freely; go on the SPREE: coll: late C.19–20.

make it warm for

. To punish, thrash: coll: from ca 1880. cf. dust one's JACKET.

make leg

. To become prosperous: London lower classes' (–1909).

make mouths

. To grin: jeer: coll: late C. 16–20: S.E.>, ca 1880, coll (Shakespeare, Hamlet, IV, iv).

make one's coffin

. To charge (a person) too highly for an article: tailors' (–1909).

make one's money

. To make money 'on the side', e.g. by giving short change, purloining cigarette-cases: waiters': late C.19–20. Cf. MAKESURES.

make one's pile

. To amass a fortune: orig. (1861), U.S.; anglicized ca 1875: coll.

make out

. In how do you make it out that..., or how do you make that out, in what way do you come to believe that? Coll: 1887, Lewis Carroll.

make settlement in tail

, see TAIL, MAKE SETTLEMENT IN.

make the chimney smoke

. To cause the female to experience the orgasm: low: mid-C.19–20.

make them, as good, bad, etc., as they

. As good, bad, etc., as may be: from ca 1870: coll. George Moore, in Esther Waters, ‘You are as strong as they make ’em’; Grant Allen, ‘As clever as they make them’.

make tracks

. To depart hurriedly: orig. (1833), U.S.; anglicized ca 1860.

make up, v.i. make up to

, v.t. To make love (to a person): coll: from ca 1820.

make up one’s leg

. To make money: costermongers’ (–1909). cf. MAKE LEG.

make up one’s mouth

. To obtain one’s living: low coll: from ca 1880; ob. cf. †S.E. sense, to finish a meal with something very delicious.

makes one (esp. you) shit through the eye of a needle

, to which is often added without splashing the sides. A low, mostly Cockneys', c.p. applied to any substance that causes diarrhoea: late C.19–20.

makesures

. Petty pilferings: potmen's: C.19–20; ob. cf. MAKE ONE'S MONEY.

makings

. (Small) profits, earnings: coll: 1837, H.Martineau.

maknoon

. Mad; silly: coll among troops in Egypt: late C.19–20. An Arabic word.

male-mules

; callibisters. (Human) testicles: C.16–17. In Rabelais, callistris=the penis.

malkin

. The female pudend: low Scots: from ca 1540; ob. cf. PUSS.

malkin-trash

. A person dismally dressed: coll: late C.17–early 19.

mall

. Credit (TICK, n., 2): metal trades' (–1909). Possibly ex mall (or maul), a heavy hammer.

mallet, on the

. 'Having goods on trust', Sinks: low: ca 1825–80.

malleting bout

. A bout with fisticuffs: low: ca 1820–50. On HAMMERING.

malley

. A gardener: Anglo-Indian (—1864).

malt

. To drink malt liquor: low coll: 1813, Colonel Hawker; 1835, Marryat, 'Well, for my part I malt.'

malt, shovel of

. A pot of porter: London public-houses': ca 1820–60.

malt above the meal, water, wheat,—have the

. To be tipsy: Scots coll: resp. C.19–20; from ca 1670; from ca 1540, ob. Heywood, 1546 (wheat); Ray (...water); Scott (... meal). (Apperson.)

malt-horse (or M.H.)

. A native of Bedford: C.17–20. 'Because of the high quality of malt produced from [Bedfordshire] barley', Hackwood; cf. Drayton's Polyolbion, XXIII (1622).

malt-pie

. Liquor: jocular coll: C.17. Heywood the dramatist.

maltooling

*. The picking of pockets in omnibuses: c. (–1861); ob. Mayhew. Properly by a woman (mal=MOLL); and cf. TOOL, to drive.

maltoot, maltout

. A sailor, esp. in address or as a nickname: 1785, Grose; †by 1880. (After that, MATLO(W).) Ex Fr. matelot, a sailor.

malty

. Tipsy: from ca 1820; ob. cf. MALT.

malty cove

. A beer-drinker: low London: ca 1825–80.

malum

. To understand (gen. v.t.): Regular Army's: late C.19–20. Direct ex Hindustani.

mam

. Mother: childish coll: C.16–20; ob. cf. MAMMY; DAD. 2. Also a variant abbr. of madam: coll: C.17–20. cf. MA'AM.

mammy

. Mother: except perhaps when used by children, coll: from ca 1520. Skelton, 'Your mammy and your dady| Brought forth a godely babi!'

mamsell

. Mademoiselle: coll: from ca 1840. Thackeray. 2. A French girl: coll: late C.19–20.

man

. A husband, a lover: C.14–20: S.E. till ca 1850, then coll and dial. Esp. in my or her man. 2. The ‘head’ of a coin in tossing: coll: 1828, Bee. Contrast WOMAN. 3. In the late or the present man: the former, the present holder of a post, an office: coll: 1871, Beaconsfield. 4. As used in c., see -MANS.

man

, v. To coït with a woman: low coll: C.19–20; ob.

man, dead

. A supernumerary: coll: ca 1650–1800. Pepys.

man, get behind a

. To endorse a bill: C.19–20, ob.: mostly commercial.

man, go out and see a

. To have a drink: C.19–20. Ex the excuse.

man,—if my aunt had been an uncle, she'd have been a

. A derisive c.p. (in C.19–20 occ. varied by the scabrous...she'd have had a pair of balls under her arse) applied to a ridiculous surmise: mid-C.17–20. Ray. cf. if pigs had wings, what lovely birds they'd make.

man, nine tailors make a

, see NINTH...

man, old

. A chief, a captain, an employer: coll: 1847, Howitt. 2. A father: coll: from ca 1850. 3. A husband: coll: from ca 1855. cf. OLD WOMAN. 4. A term of address: (?) mid-C.19–20: coll. 5. The penis: late C.19–20. 6. See also OLD BENDY.

man-a-hanging

. A person in difficulties: coll: C.18–19.

man alive

! A term of address, esp. in surprise or reproof: coll: ca 1829, J.B. Buckstone.

man among the geese when the gander is gone, he'll be a

. He'll be important if nobody of importance is there; also a gen. c.p. derisive of a man's ability: C.18.

man before his mother, he'll be a

, see MOTHER, HE'LLBE...

man-box

. A coffin: ca 1820–70. 'Peter Corcoran' Reynolds in The Funcy.

man-chovey

, see CHOVEY.

man-eater

. A horse prone to biting (people): coll: 1879, Mrs A.E.James. 2. 'A particulariy tough officer': (mostly Atlantic) sailing-ships': late C.19–20; virtually †. Bowen.

man for my money, the

. The right person: coll: 1842, Lever.

man Friday

. A factotum: C.19–20; ob.: coll verging on S.E.

man-hunters

. Women, esp. spinsters and widows: jocular coll: late C.19–20.

man in blue

. See BLUE, MEN IN. (Contrast S.E. man in black, a parson.)

man in the boat, the little

, see LITTLE MAN...

man in the moon

, as a dolt, is S.E. 2. 'A mythical personage who finds money, for electioneering, and for such electors as vote straight,' F. & H.: jocular coll, ob.: 1866, John Bull, 1 Sept.

man in the street

. The average person: 1831, Greville: Newmarket s.>, ca 1840, coll>, ca 1890, S.E. cf. U.S. man in the car and see ‘Representative Names’ in Words!

man-killer

. ‘Porter, stout, cooper—the black beers’ (Ware): teetotallers’ (–1909). 2. ‘A hard-working sailing ship in which accidents were frequent’: nautical coll: ca 1850–1910. Bowen.

man(-)man

. Gradually: little by little: pidgin: from ca 1860. Ex It. mano mano in same sense.

man of cash

. A gambler in luck: London sporting: ca 1820–60.

man of many morns

. A procrastinator: Scots coll: C.18–20; ob.

man of the world

*. A professional thief: c.: from ca 1870: ob.

man of wax

, see LAD O' WAX.

man-root

, see ROOT, n., 2.

man shall have his mare again, the

. All will end well: a proverbial c.p.: late C.16– mid-19. Shakespeare, Addison, Creevey.

man Thomas

. The penis: low: C.19–20. cf. JOHN THOMAS, 2.

man-trap

. A widow: coll (mostly low): 1773, Goldsmith. cf. the macaronic pun vir-gin (late C.19–20). 2. The female pudend: low: from ca 1775. Ex preceding sense. 3. A lump of excrement: low: C.19–20; ob.

manablins, manav(i)lins

, see MENAVELINGS.

manage

. To succeed against odds; contrive to make the inadequate serve: coll: 1899, Speaker, 29 July, ‘He managed almost without a hitch.’

mana(r)vel

. To pilfer small stores: nautical: from ca 1865. Perhaps ex, or at the least prompted by:

manav(i)lins

, see MENAVELINGS.

Manchester, manchester

*. The tongue: c.: 1812, Vaux; ob. by 1900. ?via YARN; perhaps rather a pun on MANG.

Manchester-bred

. Explained by the gen. affixed tag, long in the arms and short in the head: a c.p. (–1869)> proverbial. W. Carew Hazlitt.

Manchester school of nutrition

. ‘High-feeding, emphatically introduced by certain medical men of that city’: Society: ca 1860–70. Ware.

Manchester silk

. Cotton: commercial: from ca 1850.

Manchester sovereign

. A shilling: low: from ca 1860; ob.

mand

, see MAUND.

mander

*. A remand: c. (–1877); ob. Greenwood. Ex remand. 2. A remanded prisoner: c. (–1887).

mandozy

. A telling hit: low: ca 1800–70. Ex Daniel Mendoza, the Jewish boxer, who (1764–1836) did not, however, possess a powerful punch and who published a book on boxing in 1789 and took an inn in Whitechapel ca 1800; perhaps with a pun on man dozy. 2. Hence, an endearment among London’s East-End Jews: from ca 1820.

mandrake

. A bugger (in the legal sense): among folk of the road: prob. since C.17. In Nov. 1948, an octogenarian didekei was heard, in S.W. England, to remark of a certain man: ‘E’s a bloody mandrake. ’E’s a bugger, that’s what’e be, a bugger. Small boys and such.’ (My distinguished informant wishes to be nameless.) See mandrake in the glossary of Shakespeare’s Bawdy, in reference to 2 Henry IV, I, ii, 15, and esp. III, ii, 324–5 (Shakespeare Head edition). Yet, when that book appeared in 1947, several ivory-tower’d scholars accused me of seeing evil where none existed. I wonder what they’d do ‘on the road’—yell for a policeman?

mang

*. To talk; boast: (mainly Scottish) c. of ca 1810–90. ?a corruption of MAG, to talk, influenced by Romany mong, beg, request.

mangaree, mangarlee or -ly

*, see MUNGAREE.

mange

*. A variant (–1909) of MUNGAREE. Ex It., through the organ-grinders’ lodging-houses (Ware).

mangle

. The female pudend: low: from ca 1860; ob.

manhandle

. To handle roughly; maltreat: from ca 1864: s. >, ca 1910, coll. ?handle as a man would or, as W. suggests, ex Devon dial. manangle, to mangle.

manhole

. The female pudend: low: from ca 1870. Ex S.E. sense.

manners, after you is

. A c.p. indicative of the speaker's—gen. jocularly assumed—inferiority: ca 1650–1850.

manny

. A derivative of MANDOZY, 2: Jewish East London: from ca 1880. Ware defines it as 'a term of endearment or admiration prefixed to Jewish name, as "Manny Lyons".' Contrast dial. senses.

manoeuvre

, see APOSTLES, MANOEUVRE THE.

man's, a

. A man-sized, esp. a large, membrum virile: low coll: C.19–20.

-mans

*. (Always preceded by the.) A c. suffix of ca 1560–1890, though † in most words by 1840. It means either ‘state of being’ or ‘thing’ according as an abstraction or an object is indicated; though it may simply be a disguise-appendage, a deliberately misleading amplification, as a glance at the -mans words shows. Perhaps ex L. mens via the Fr. adyl ending -ment, or simply a perverted and extended use of man, a human being. cf., however, the Welsh Gypsy suffix -imen (?a variant of the much commoner Romany and Welsh Gypsy -ben), found in words adopted direct ex English, as aidlimen, idle, gladimen, glad, madimen, mad, and its radical form -men, which Sampson derives ex the Gr. ‘middle passive participle—μενος’ and notes as orig. attached to loan-v.v., as in zilvimen, jealous (§201); certainly relevant is the Welsh Gypsy -moni, app. derived ex Bengali -man, with which cf. Sanskrit manah, mind, mood (Sampson, §205). See such words as CRACKMANS; DARKMANS; HARMANS; LIGHTMANS; RUFFMANS; TOGEMANS.

Mantalini

. A male milliner: middle-class coll: ca 1840–60. Ex the milliner’s husband in Dickens’s Nicholas Nickleby.

Manton

, see JOE MANTON.

manual compliment or subscription

. A blow: C.19–20, ob.: coll.? prompted by Fielding’s ‘manual remonstrances’.

manufacture

. Liquor prepared from English products: ca 1720–1850: coll.

map

. A dirty proof: printers’: from ca 1860. Ex the markings. 2. A. young whiting: nautical: ?mid-C.19–20. Origin?

mapsticks!, cry

. I cry you mercy!: low coll: ca 1705–50. Swift. Prob. mapsticks is a low perversion of both mopsticks and mercy, see MQP-STICK.

Marble Arch

. The female pudend: low: from ca 1850. Punning some such phrase as (at) the entrance to Hyde Park. 2. A guard-room: Army s. (–1898). Within Marble Arch itself there was a small lockup for use by the police.

marbles

. Furniture, movables: somewhat low: 1864, H., 3rd ed.; 1867, Trollope; ob. Ex Fr. meubles, furniture. Hence, money and marbles, cash and effects. 2. Testicles: low: C.19–20. cf. PILLS, 2.

march

, see DIRTY-SHIRT MARCH. March hare, see MAD AS A...march in the rear of a whereas, see WHEREAS.

mare, Shanks's

. See SHANKS...(cf. the Fr. s. par le train II.)

mare (to) go, money makes the . Money can do most things: proverbial coll: late C.16–20; ob. Florio, Breton, N.Bailey, Kingsley. Perhaps punning mayor.

mare or lose the halter, win the

. To play double or quits: coll: C.17–18. In Northants dial., saddle for halter.

mare to market, go before one's or the

. To do ridiculous things: ca 1670–1830: coll.

mare with three (occ. two) legs; (two- or) three-legged mare

. The gallows: coll: ca 1565–1850. Ainsworth, in Rookwood.

mare's dead?, whose

. What's the matter?: rural coll: late C.16–mid-18. Deloney, Shakespeare, Swift.

margarine mess

. (Gen. pl.) A motor-car: Nov. 1897–8, mostly in London. Ex BUTTER-COLOURED BEAUTIES.

marge

. Margarine: from ca 1905. (Margarine itself, 1873: O.E.D.)

Margery

. An effeminate: low London: ca 1850–1900. cf. NANCY.

Margery Jane

. Margarine: lower-classes: ca 1900–20. Mary Higgs, Glimpses into the Abyss, 1906. cf. MARGE.

margery-prater

*. A hen: c. of ca 1570–1820. cf. CACKUNG CHEAT.

Maria

, see BLACK MARIA.

Maria Monk

. SPUNK, in all senses: rhyming s.: late C.19–20. See also VICTORIA MONK.

marigold

; occ. marygold. A gold coin, esp. a sovereign: ca 1660–1700. Cowley. Ex the colour. 2. One million pounds sterling: City men's: from ca 1855. H., 1st ed.

marinated

*. Transported as a convict: c.: ca 1670–1830. Head, Grose. Ex the salt-pickling fish undergo in Cornwall.

marine

. An ignorant and/or clumsy seaman: nautical: from ca 1810; ob. 2. An empty bottle: from ca 1800; ob. John Davis, The Post Captain, 1805 (ed. R.H. Case, 1928); Trelawney. Also DEAD MARINE. cf. marine officer, Grose, 1785, the term being †by 1840, and marine recruit (–1860; †), in H., 2nd ed. See esp. Mark Lemon’s Jest Book (1864), p. 161, for anecdotal etymology.

mariner, freshwater

*, see FRESHWATER.

marines!, tell that (tale) to the

. I don’t believe it, whoever else does!: c.p.: John Davis, 1806. Also (–1823) that will do for the marines (but the sailors won’t believe it), as in Byron. Orig. nautical: cf. the opinion held by sailors of marines implicit in MARINE, both senses.

mark

. A fancy or preference: 1760, Foote, ‘Did I not tell you that old Moll was your mark?’: coll; in late C.19–20, low coll. 2. A person: c.: from ca 1850. cf. MARK, BAD. 3. A victim, esp. a prospective victim: c. (–1885). 4. Abbr. MARK OF THE BEAST. 5. the mark, the pit of the stomach: boxing: 1747, J.Godfrey, The Science of Defence. Also (–1823; †) Broughton’s mark, ex the famous C.18 boxer. 6. See MARK, BAD. 7. A humorist: mid-C.19–20. Prob. ex Mark Lemon (1809–70), co-founder and first editor of Punch.

mark

, v. To watch; pick out a victim: c.: from ca 1860; perhaps, however, implied in Brandon, 1839, 'Marking—watching, observing'.

mark, bad or good

. A man who does not, or does, pay his employees regularly and in full: Australian: from ca 1840; ob. R. Howitt, 1845. A good mark was the earlier. cf. MARK, n., 2.

Mark Lane, walk penniless in

. To have been cheated and to be very conscious of the fact: proverbial coll: late C.16–early 17. Greene.

mark of the beast

. The female pudend: low: from ca 1715. D'Urfey. Also mark. 2. 'The white patches on the collar of a midshipman's uniform': naval: late C.19–20. Bowen. 3. See M.B.COAT.

mark on..., a

. A person with a very pronounced fondness for (something): dial. and s.: from ca 1880; ob. Miss Braddon, 'Vernon was...a mark on strawberries and cream.'

mark up

. To know or learn all about (a person): tailors': from ca 1870. 2. To give credit for: coll: 1899, Tit-Bits, 22 July, 'I shaved a gentleman who asked me to mark it up.'

marker

. A receiver of stolen goods: late C.16–early 17 c. Greene. 2. Something worthy to be compared: 1895, H.P. Robinson, 'It ain't a marker to what's ahead'; ob.

market

. The betting-ring: racing: from ca 1880.

market, go to

. To attempt something: coll: 1890, 'Rolf Boldrewood'; ob.

market, on the

. (Of a girl) available for marriage: coll: late C.19–20. (Maud Diver, The Great Amulet, 1908.)

market-dame

, a harlot, is C.18 coll verging on S.E.

market-fever

, see PENCIL-FEVER.

market-horse

. A horse kept on the lists simply for the betting: turf: from ca 1873. cf. MARKET and MARKETEER.

market-place

. The front teeth: provincial s. verging on dial.: from ca 1850; ob.

marketeer

. A betting-man specializing in the study of horses that are favourites: racing s. verging on c.: from ca 1870; ob.

marking

“. A watcher; a watching: c.: from ca 1830; mostly U.S., though see MARK, V.

marley-stopper

. A splay-footed person: streets' (–1887); ob. Ex marble and the stopping of a marble with one's feet.

marm

. See MA'AM. 2. Marmalade: low coll: late C.19–20. cf. MARGE.

marm-puss

. A wife: tailors': from ca 1870; ob. 2. (Also marm-poosey.) A showily dressed landlady: public-house frequenters': 1863; slightly ob.

mermaid

. A mermaid: nautical: mid-C. 19–20.

Marquis of Granby

. A bald-headed person: C.19–20, ob. Ex one.

marquis of marrowbones

, see MARROWBONES, MARQUIS OF.

marriage, there belongs more to

, see LEGS IN A BED...

marriage face

. A sad face: middle classes' (–1909); ob. Ware, 'Because generally a bride cries a good deal, and so temporarily spoils her looks.'

marriage music

. The crying of children: late C.17–mid-19.

mamed

*. Chained or handcuffed together: c.: mid-C.18–20, ob.

married but not churched

. A living-together unmarried: almost a c.p.: late C.19–20.

married crocks

. Men and wives married on the strength of a regiment: military: from ca 1885. Only men over 26 with five years' service were allowed to marry on the strength.

married on the carpet and the banns up the chimney

. Living together as though man and wife: coll (somewhat low): C.19–20; ob.

married the widow, have

. To have made a mess of things: C.19. Ex Fr., with pun on the guillotine—‘the widow’.

married to brown Bess

. (Having) enlisted: military: late C.18–19. Ex hug BROWN BESS.

marronbone(-and-cleaver), like marrow-pudding

, is low for the penis, as obviously is a bellyful of marrow-pudding, pregnancy: C.19–20, ob.

marrowbone (occ. Marylebone) stage or coach, go in or ride by the

. To walk: ca 1810–1910. Prob. suggested by Marybone = Marylebone. cf. BAYARD OF TEN TOES and SHANKS’S MARE.

marrowbones

, the knees, is jocular S.E., but as pugilists, C.17, e.g. in Fletcher, 1625, and as fists (regarded as weapons), ca 1810–1910, it is s.

marrowbones, marquis or marquess of

. A lackey: late C.16–17. Nashe.

marry

! An exclamation: C.14–mid-19. Orig. an oath, it soon>harmless. Ex (the Virgin) Mary. Often, in C.16–19, with asseverative tags or with GIP, up, etc. cf.:

marry! come up, my dirty cousin

. A c.p. addressed to one affecting excessive delicacy: from ca 1670; in C.19–20, dial.

marry the mixen for the sake of the muck

. To marry an undesirable person for the sake of the money: proverbial coll: from ca 1730; since ca 1850, dial. A mixen is a dung-heap; muck is a pun.

marry up

. To bind or busy in marriage: coll: from ca 1820. J.Flint, 1822, ‘I believe that the girls there are all married up.’

Marshall or marshall

. A £5 Bank of England note: ca 1860–80. Ex a Bank of England official. cf. ABRAHAM NEWLAND.

Marshland, arrested by the bailiff of . Stricken with ague: coll: from ca 1660; in C.19–20, dial. ‘Proverbial’ Fuller, Grose (Provincial Glossary), Smiles.

martialist

. An officer in the army: Society: 1885, Daily News, 31 Dec.

martin

*. An honest victim of rogues: c.: late C.16–mid-17. Greene. ?ex the bird. 2. A boot: tramps’ c. (–1893); ob. P.H. Emerson. ?origin. 3. See ST MARTIN’S. 4. See ALL MY EYE...

Martin 'Enries

. REACH-ME-DOWN clothes: Liverpool: late C.19–20. Apparently ex a manufacturer's name, Martin Henry.

martingale

. The doubling of stakes at every loss: 1815: s.>, by 1850, j. Whence:

martingale

, v.i. To double the bet at every loss: s. (–1823) >, by 1850, j.

Martin's hammer knocking at the wicket

. Twins: C.18–mid-19 coll. In C.19–20, dial. and gen. in form, she has had Martin's hammer knocking at her wicket, she has twins. Halliwell. Ex the Fr. Martin (or, as in Lafontaine, Martin-Bâton), a man armed with a staff.

martins

. The hands: low (and Parlary?): ca 1860–1914. P.H.Emerson, Signor Lippo, 1893. Ex It. mani (cf. Fr. mains?).

marwooded

, ppl adj. Hanged: lower classes': ca 1875–83, executioner Marwood dying at the latter date.

Mary or mary

. An aboriginal woman; occ. of a Kanaka: Queensland: from ca 1880; ob. cf. BENJAMIN, 3.

Mary! or mary

! (In 'jeffing' with quads, S.V.JEFF, V.) no score!: printers': from ca 1870; ob. Ex MARRY! For the very interesting printers's., see Slang.

Mary Ann

. A female destroyer of recalcitrant labour-sweaters: ca 1865–90: mostly Sheffield. 2. A dress-stand: dress-makers': from ca 1870. 3. A sodomite: from ca 1890; ob. (cf. MARGERY; NANCY; SISSIE.) Reynolds's Newspaper, 2 June 1895. Hence, 4, an effeminate actor: theatrical: late C.19–20.

Mary Blane

. A train: underworld rhyming s.: ca 1880–1914. 2. Rain: rhyming s.: ca 1860–1910.

Mary Jane or mary jane

. The female pudend: low: from ca 1840; ob.

marygold

, see MARIGOLD. Marylebone stage, see MARROWBONE STAGE,

Marylebone kick

. A kick in the belly: ca 1820–80. Sinks, 1848.

mas; Mas John or mas john; also mess-John

. By itself, mas is a low coll abbr. of master: ca 1570–1730, as in Whetstone and Mrs Centlivre. Mas John, however, is jocular or contemptuous coll, ca 1660–1840, for a Presbyterian minister as opp. to a Roman or an Anglican clergyman (in C. 19, S.E.), as in Jeremy Taylor, Burke, and Scott.

mascot

. A person or thing that brings, or is believed to bring, good luck: 1881: s. >, ca 1905, coll. Ex E.Audran's opera, La Mascotte, played in London on 29 Dec. 1880, the word deriving ex Provençal masco, a sorcerer.

mash

. A sweetheart: 1882. Also MASHER. 2. A dandy: from ca 1883; †. cf. MASHER. Ex the v. 3. Only in make (Society) or do (rather vulgar) a mash, to make a ‘conquest’: 1883–ca 1912. Ex the v.

mash

, v.t., occ. v.i. To court or ogle or (attempt to) fascinate a girl or a woman; not often used of a woman ‘bewitching’ a man: 1882, Leland, ‘These black-eyed beauties’—Gypsies—‘by mashing men for many generations...’; ob. Prob. ex the S.E. sense, to crush, pound, smash utterly, but perhaps, as Leland suggests, ex Romany mash (masher-ava), to allure, entice. Orig. (ca 1860), U.S. Also mash it and:

mash, make a

, see MASH, n., 3.

mash, on the

. Constantly courting or ogling women: 1888.

mash that

! Hold your tongue!: low London (–1909). Prob. ex S.E. sense of MASH, v.

mash-tub

. A brewer: coll: from ca 1850; ob. Hence, ca 1870–1900, the Morning Mash-Tub: the Morning Advertiser, because of its brewery interests: Fleet Street.

mashed

, adj. Flirtatious; ‘smitten’; amorous: 1883. Ex MASH, v., but perhaps suggested by SPOONEY (3), ‘mash being regarded as spoon-diet’, W. Also mashy (Baumann, 1887).

mashed on

. In love with: from ca 1883. See esp. the Pall Mall Gazette, 11 Oct. 1883. Ex MASH, v.

masheen

. A cat: Shelta: C.18–20.

masher

. A LADY-KILLER: 1882, but not very gen. till 1883; ob. Ex MASH, v. 2. A dandy, a fop: 1883; ob. The two senses merge, for the term was almost always applied to a flirtatious dandy, as T.A. Gartham in the Pall Mall Gazette, 11 Oct. 1883, makes clear.

masher

, adj. Smart; dandified: 1884, Globe, 7 Feb., ‘What are...masher canes to students immersed in Mill or Emerson ...?’

masher blue

. A weak blue, with tiny white dots: ca 1884–90. Affected by ‘mashers’ for their waistcoats. Girl’s Own Paper, Nov. 1884.

masherdom

. The world of the MASHER: coll: 1883. Also MASHERY.

mashers’ corners

. ‘The O.P. and P.S. entrances to the stalls of the old Gaiety Theatre’: Society: late 1882–ca 85. Ware. EX MASHER, n., 1.

mashery

. MASHERDOM: 1887, Baumann.

mashing

. Dandified flirtation by men; as adj., given to or characterized by such flirtation: 1883; ob. Ex MASH, v. 2. ‘A little screw of paper containing tea and sugar mixed’: lower classes’: late C.19–20.

mashy

, see MASHED, adj.

maskee

! Never mind!; it doesn’t matter: Anglo-Chinese (–1864). Origin problematical: cf., however, ma’alish, ex the Arabic, and Skeat’s ingenious derivation ex Portuguese mas que.

maskin

*. Coal: c.: C.18–mid-19. ?origin.

maskins!, by the

. A corruption of by the mass!: C.17–20; in C.19–20, dial.

mason

*. A person, esp. a horse-dealer, giving worthless notes in payment for horses: c. of ca 1750–1800. The Discoveries of John Poulter, 1753. Ex superstitions regarding masonry.
2. Also, v.i.

masoner

*. The same as MASON, n. Poulter.

masonics

. Secrets: Society coll: mid-C.19– early 20. Ware, ‘From the secret rites of Freemasonry. Not that there are either secrets or rites in Freemasonry—at all events in England—where combined secrets are neither wanted nor expected.’

masoning

*. The giving of worthless notes for horses purchased: c. of ca 1750–1800. See MASON.

masonry

. Secret signs and passwords: coll: 1841, Lytton; ob. Ex S.E. sense.

mason's maund

*. A sham sore that, above the elbow, counterfeits a broken arm: c.: late C.17–early 19. cf. MAUND.

massa

; occ. mas'r. Master: in Negroes' English: recorded 1774, Foote; doubtless in use very much earlier. Mostly in U.S., but not to be considered U.S.

massacre of the innocents

, see INNOCENTS.

massacree

. 'Unlettered pronunciation for massacre', Bee, 1823. (Also in dial.)

masse-stapler

*. A rogue disguised as a woman: c.: C.18–early 19. ?origin.

master of (a person), get the

. To become, or act the, master over: proletarian coll (–1887).

master of impediment

. 'Troublesome preparation for the schools', Egan's Grose: Oxford University: ca 1820–40.

master of the black art

*. A beggar: c.: late C.16–17.

master of the mint

. A gardener: jocular coll: mid-C.18–19. cf.:

master of the rolls

. A baker: mid-C.17–20, ob.; jocular coll. Peacham, Grose. cf. BURN-CRUST; DOUGHY.

master of the wardrobe

. One who pawns his clothes to buy liquor: ca 1780–1830. cf. two preceding entries.

master-vein, be hit on the

. To take a man; to conceive: late C.16–17. Greene, 'My faire daughter was hit on the master vaine and gotten with child.' cf.:

masterpiece

. The female pudend: low: C.18–20; ob. cf. MASTER-VEIN.

masterpiece o(f) night work

. A very pretty harlot: low (–1909).

mat

. (A) matter, esp. in what's the mat?: schoolboys': late C.19–20.

mat, on the

. Up for trial (from late 1890s): military. Ex the small square mat on which the accused soldier stood in a barracks orderly-room.

match!, a

. Agreed!; done!: coll>, by 1650, S.E.: late C.16–early 18. Shakespeare, 'A match, 'tis done'; Farquhar.

match and pocket the stake(s), lose the

. (Of women only) to coït: C.19–20: low.

match! quoth Hatch (or Jack or John) when he got his wife by the breech or when he kissed his dame,—a

. A c.p. of ca 1670–1750. Ray, ‘Proverbial’ Fuller.

mate

. A companion, partner; comrade; friend: late C.14–20: S.E. except in Greene’s Third Cony-Catching (1592), where it verges on c., and except when—from ca 1450—it is used as a vocative, this being (in C.19–20, somewhat low) coll: orig. nautical. Stanyhurst, Miss Braddon. cf. MATEY.

mater

. Mother; one’s mother: from ca 1860: chiefly schoolboys’ and undergraduates’. Hemyng in Eton School Days, 1864. Simply the L. word adopted in English. cf. PATER.

materials

. Whiskey-punch: Anglo-Irish evasive coll: late C.19–20.

maternal

. A mother: 1867, Routledge’s Every Boy’s Annual, Dec.; ob. Either short for maternal parent or the adj. used as a n.

mat(e)y

. A mate, companion, comrade: from ca 1830: eligible only as a term of address (for it is then coll), as in H. Kingsley's Geoffrey Hamlyn, "'Matey,'" says I, (you see I was familiar, he seemed such a jolly sort of bird,) "matey, what station are you on?" Slightly ob. 2. (Gen. in pl and as maties.) A dockyard labourer: nautical: C.20. 'Taffrail'. 3. A (hospital) matron, esp. in a workhouse: 1857, A. Mayhew, Paved with Gold; ob.

Matilda

, see WALZINO MATILDA.

matin-bell

*. A thieves' meeting-place: c.: C.19–20; ob, matinée dog

. Mostly in try it on the matinée dog: theatrical: ca 1885–1915. Ware. Satiric both of vivisection and of frequenters of matinées, at which the dramatic performance is gen. inferior to the acting done in the evening. Whence TRY IT ON THE DOG.

matineer

. A frequenter of matinées: theatrical coll: from either 1884 or 1885, the two years during which there was a rabies for matinées. Punning mutineers.

matlo(w)

. A sailor: from ca 1880: mainly nautical and, in C.20, military, and often as a nickname. Ex Fr. matelot, a sailor: cf. MALTOOT.

matric

. A coll abbr. of matriculation: 1885, Punch, 16 March matrimonial

. Coition in the usual position: occ. m. polka. Low: from ca 1850; ob. Known among English-speaking South-Sea Islanders (noted for their ingenuity in these matters) as the missionaries' position: late C.19–20.

matrimonial peacemaker

. The penis: mid-C.18–20. It is doubtful whether this is not sometimes a mere S.E. euphemism.

matrimony

. A mixture of two drinks or edibles: s. and dial.: 1813.

matspeak

. ‘Sixpence from everyone for the seats in the cathedral’: church s.: ca 1870–1900.

matter, as near as no

. Very near(ly) indeed: coll: from ca 1890.

matter with?, what is the

. What troubles or ails or is amiss with...?: coll: 1715, Defoe, ‘I beseech, what is the matter with you.’ 2. In late C.19–20, it also=What objection is there to...?: jocular coll.

mattress-jig

. Sexual intercourse: low coll when not S.E. euphemism: C.18–19.

maty

, see MATEY.

maukes, maux

, see MAWKES. maukin, see MALKIN.

maul

. A, or to, wrestle for the ball when, in Rugby football, it is ‘held’ over the goal-line. London schools’ coll: ca 1875–1914.

mauled

. Exceedingly drunk: late C.17– mid-19.

mauler

. (Gen. pl.) A fist: early C.19–20. Prob. suggested by:

mauley

; occ. mawley or morley. A fist, the hand: low: 1781, G.Parker; Moncrieff; Miss Braddon. Hence SLANG THE MAULEY, to give a person one’s hand, shake hands with; tip a mauley, give a hand; FAM the mauley, shake hands. 2. Hence, a finger; virtually always in pl: c.: 1845 in ‘No. 747’; ob. 3. Handwriting, ‘a fist’; a signature: low: from ca 1850; ob. Mayhew. The term derives ex maul, v.; or is perhaps ‘a transposition of Gaelic lamh, hand, used in tinkers’ s. or Shelta’, W., ‘in form malya’; the Romany s. is mylier.

maum

, in phrase maum and gaum and gen. as mauming and gauming. To ‘paw’ (a person): low coll: ca 1735–1860. Perhaps cognate with dial. malm, to besmear.

maund

*. Begging; (with prefixed word) some specified begging imposture: C.17– early 19 c. Rowlands, B.E., Grose (MASON’S MAUND). cf. MAUNDER.

maund

*, v.t. and v.i. To beg: c.: ca 1565–1800. Harman, Beaumont & Fletcher, B.E. Prob. ex Fr. mendier or quémander influenced by Romany mang. 2. To ask: c.: ca 1565–1700.

maund , mason’s

*, see MASON’S MAUND.

maund abram

*. To beg as a madman: C.17–18 c. Rowlands. See ABRAM.

maund it

*. To go a-begging: c.: C.17–18. Ex the v.

maunder

*. A beggar: c.: C.17–mid-19. Rowlands, Lytton. Ex MAUND, v.

maunder

*, v. To beg: c.: ca 1610–1770. Middleton & Dekker; Dyche. Ex MAUND, v., of which it is a mere extension, perhaps suggested by Fr.

maunder on the fly

*. To beg of people in the streets: c.: ca 1850–90.

maunderer

*. A professional beggar: c.: ca 1610–1840. Middleton & Dekker; Ainsworth, in Rookwood. Ex MAUNDER, v. cf.

maundering

*, ppl adj. Begging; given to begging: c.: ca 1610–1700.

maund(e)ring-broth

. A scolding: late C.17–early 19. Ex maunder, to grumble.

maunding

*. The, or an, act of begging: c.: 1610, Rowlands; †by 1850. 2. adj., begging; given to or characteristic of begging: c.: ca 1600–1720. W.Cartwright, ‘Some counterfeiting trick of such maunding people’.

maunding cove

*. A beggar: c.: C.17–18. Anon., Sack for my Money, ca 1603.

maw!, hold your

. Stop talking: coll: C.18–19. Ex S.E. maw, jaws or mouth of an animal.

maw-wallop

. A filthy dish of food: low coll: late C.18–mid-19. Ex S.E. maw, belly.

maw-wormy

. Captious; pessimist: coll—theatrical, and non-aristocratic: 1885, Entr’Acte, 6 June. (Stomach-worms cause peevishness.)

mawkes

. A whore: coll: C.17–18. Lodge, Street Robberies Considered. 2. A slattern, esp. if dirty or vulgar: coll verging on S.E.: late C.17–20; dial. after ca 1820.

mawkish

. Slatternly: ca 1720–70.

mawley

, see MAULEY. mawpus, see MOPUS.

max

. Gin; properly, very good gin: low: ca 1810–1900. Byron, ‘Oh! for a glass of max’; Mayhew, Baumann. Abbr. maxima, -e, -us, or -um. cf.:

maxie

. A great error, big mistake: Scottish: 1868, G.MacDonald, Robert Falconer, ‘Horror of horrors! a maxie’; ob.

May

. The college Easter Term examination, says Bristed, 1852; more safely defined as the college May examination: Cambridge coll > j. > S.E. Occ. Mays.

May-bees don't fly all the year long

. A c.p. reply to one beginning a statement with it may be: mid-C.18–20; ob. In Swift, May-bees don't fly now. Also this month. The Scots form is maybes (or May-bees) are no aye honey-bees.

May-game of one, make a

. To befool a person: coll> S.E.: late C.16–early 19. B.E., who defines May games as ‘Frolicks, Plaies, Tricks, Pastimes, &c.’.

May-gathering

*. Sheep-stealing: c.: C.19.

may God blind me

. ‘The original invocation’—†by 1909—‘of the gutterling’: whence GORBLIMEY, etc. Ware.

May hill, to have climbed or got over (or up)

. To have survived the late spring, gen. considered a tricky month: proverbial coll: from ca 1660; ob. Perhaps in allusion to an actual May Hill.

mazard

, see MAZZARD.

mazarine

. A common-councilman of London: coll: from ca 1760; ob. The Annual Register, 1761. Ex the gown of mazarine blue. 2. A platform under the stage: theatrical: from ca 1860; ob. ?ex It. mezzanino.

mazer

, see MAZZARD:

mazzard

; also mazard and mazer. The head: jocular coll verging on S.E.: mazer, ca 1580–1660; maz(z)ard, C.17–20, ob. 2. The face (not mazer): ca 1760–1890: jocular coll verging on S.E. Horace Walpole, ‘His...Christian’s mazard was a constant joke’. Sense 2 ex sense 1, which, as to mazzard, derives ex mazer, a drinking-bowl. 3. (Again, not mazer) the head of a coin: Anglo-Irish: C.19–20; ob. Maria Edgeworth.

mazzard

. To knock on the head: C.17–18 coll verging on S.E. (Not very gen.)

McKie

, see MACKAY, THE REAL

meal-mouth

. ‘A sly sheepish Dun’, B.E.: coll or s.: late C.17–18.

meal-sack, gen. -tub

. A stock of sermons: clerical: from ca 1860; ob.

mealier

. One pledged to drink intoxicants only at meals (–1890). 2. One who, lodging at one place, eats elsewhere: coll: orig. (1883), U.S.; anglicized ca 1887.

mean

, disobliging, petty, (of a horse) vicious, is U.S. 2. The phrase to feel mean, to feel ashamed or guilty, is recorded by Marryat in 1839 as U.S., but it > anglicized ca 1860 as s.

mean

, v. To intend with determined purpose: coll: from ca 1840. e.g. ‘Well, anyway, I mean to do it!’ Esp. in mean business.

mean as a Christian, as

. Very mean: Jewish coll: C.19–20. Tit for tat.

mean to do without ’em! (, I)

. i.e. without women: a c.p. popularized on the music-halls by Arthur Roberts in 1882; †by 1910.

mean to say, I

. A coll tautological form, dating from the early 1890s, of I mean, itself verging on coll when, as frequently, it connotes apologetic modification or mental woolliness. (The phrase occurs in Yorkshire and Cheshire dial. before 1900.)

meaning-like

. In earnest: low coll (–1887).

meant

. (Of a horse) meant to win: turf: from ca 1840; ob. By cryptic abridgement.

measle

, v.i. To become pitted with measlespots: coll: from ca 1880.

measly

. Contemptible; of little value: 1864, Miss Braddon, 'To think that the government...should have the audacity to offer a measly hundred pounds or so for the discovery of a great crime!' 2. Miserable-looking, 'seedy': ca 1860–1900.

measure, be (a person's)

. To be just the person needed: low s. (–1857) >, by 1880, non-aristocratic coll. Baumann, 'He's our measure, das ist unser Mann.'

measure, get (late C.18–mid-19) or take (late C.17–early 19) one's

. To coit with; to marry: coll, the former sense being low. Lacy, in Sir Hercules Buffoon, 'Gin I'd let him alane, he had taken measure o' th' inside of me as well as o' th' out.'

measure (someone's) daylights for mourning

. To give (him) a black-eye: boxing: ca 1810–50. George Godfrey, History, 1828.

measure out

. To knock down; to kill: low coll (–1891) yerging on s.

measured, be

. To be exactly suited, e.g. with a part written to one's fancy or ability: theatrical: 1859, Blanchard Jerrold.

measured for a suit of mourning, be

. To receive a black eye: boxing: 1819, Moore in Tom Crib's Memorial; ob. by 1900.

meat

. Something profitable or pleasant: coll: from ca 1885. Westminster Gazette, 28 Dec. 1897, 'There is a good deal of meat for the actors.' 2. Generic for the human body (rarely the male) as an instrument of sexual pleasure; hence, for the female pudend and/or the male: low coll: late C.16–20; slightly ob. Gosson; Killigrew, 'Your bed is big enough for two, and my meat will not cost you much.' cf. MUTTON and the ensuing entries and MEATY.

meat, a bit of

. Coition: low (s. rather than coll): C.18–20. 2. A harlot: low: late C.19–20. See MEAT, 2.

meat, cold

, see COLD MEAT.

meat, flash

. To expose the person: late C.18–20: low.

meat, fond of

. Frequently amorous: low: C.19–20.

meat, fresh

. A harlot new at her trade: low: C.19–20.

meat, hot

, see HOT MEAT.

meat, price of

. The cost of a sexual embrace: low: C.19–20.

mcat, raw

. A harlot (less gen., any woman) naked in the sexual act: low: C.19–20. Contrast MEAT, FRESH.

meat, the nearer the bone the sweeter the

. A mid-C.19–20 low c.p. applied by men to a thin woman viewed as a bed-mate. Ex the old proverb, the nearer the bone the sweeter the flesh (mid-C.16–20).

meat and drink

. An amorous carouse: low: C.19–20; ob. 2. A cocktail in which an egg is beaten up: West Indian: from ca 1870.

meat-drink-washing-and-lodging

. A spirituous liquor, prob. gin: ca 1720–50. Anon., The Quaker's Opera, 1728 (see quot'n at BUNTER'S TEA).

meat-fiasher, -flashing

. An exposé, the exposure, of the person in public: low: C.19–20. Ex MEAT, FLASH.

meat-fosh

. A (warm) meat-hash: Cockneys' (–1887). ?Fr. farcî.

meat-hook

. A curl on the temple (as worn by the London coster): Cockneys' (–1887); slightly ob.

meat-house

. A brothel: low: C.19–20; ob. cf.:

meat-market

. A rendezvous of harlots; the female breasts; the female pudend; low: C.19–20.

meat-merchant

. A bawd: low: C.19–20; ob.

meat-mincer

. The mouth: pugilistic: ca 1840–90. Augustus Mayhew, Paved with Gold, 1857. The prototype of mechanical mincers.

meat-monger

. A man given to wenching: low: C.18–19.

meat of, make (cold)

. To kill: orig. (1848), U.S.; anglicized ca 1870.

meater

. A cowardly dog (lit., one that will bite only meat), hence a cowardly man: low (mostly Cockneys’): late C.19–20.

meaty

. Sexually enjoyable: low coll: from ca 1820.

mebbe

. Perhaps: (dial. and) proletarian coll: C.19–20. Lit., maybe.

med, medic, medical, medico

. A doctor, whether physician or surgeon or both combined; a student of medicine. Thus, med, orig. (1851) U.S., was anglicized ca 1860 and in C.20 is ob.; medic, as doctor, is C.17–18 S.E., C.19 rare coll, and as medical student is s., orig. (1823) U.S. and very rare in Great Britain, where it is ob. in C.20; medical is coll in both senses, and, though recorded first (1823) in Hawthorne, it may be orig., as it is mainly, English (Halley, 1834; Masson, 1864); medico, student, is C.19–20, but the more gen. sense of doctor arises in late C.17, is S.E. till ca 1850, and is thereafter coll.

medal (or medals) today, you're wearing your

; or medal showing! Your fly is undone; you have a fly-button showing: mid-C.19–20: jocular c.p. verging on euphemistic S.E.

meddlers, lare-overs for

, see LAREOVERS.

meddling duchess

. An 'ageing, pompous woman who fusses about and achieves nothing': lower classes': ca 1880–1915. Ware. See the corresponding sense of DUCHESS.

Medes and Persians

. Jumping on a boy when he is in bed: Winchester College: ca 1840–1910.

medic and medical

, see MED.

medical Greek

. ‘Marrowskying’ (see p. 11): coll verging on S.E.: from ca 1800; ob. Also known as Gower Street dialect.

medicine

. Liquor: from ca 1850; ob. Mayhew. cf. POISON. 2. Sexual intercourse: from ca 1855; ob. Hence take one’s medicine=to drink; to copulate.

medicine, take (†a)

. To take a purgative: coll: 1830, Southey.

medico

, see MED.

medium

. ‘A person engaged by a squatter, part of whose “run” is offered by Government at a land lottery’ or ballot. ‘The medium takes lot-tickets..., attends the drawing, and, if his ticket is drawn before his principal's land is gone, selects it, and hands it over on payment of the attendance fee,' F. & H.: Australian coll: from ca 1880: coll >, ca 1900, S.E.; ob.

medlar

. The female pudend: low: C.17– mid-19.

medza, medzer

, see MADZA. cf.:

medzies; metzes

. Money: Parlary and theatrical: (?late C.19–) C.20. Ex It. mezzo: cf. MADZA. Hence, NANTEE metzes, BROKE, penniless.

meech, meecher, meeching

, see MIKER, etc., and MOOCH, etc.

meer-swine

. A porpoise: nautical coll: mid-C.19–20; ob. By Ger. influence ex sea-hog; but imm. ex Scots.

meerschaum

. The nose: boxing (–1891); ob. Sporting Life, 25 March 1891.

meg; OCC. megg

*. A guinea: c.: ca 1685–1820. Shadwell. cf. MAG (n., 4). 2. In Ned Ward (1703), a meg is any copper coin; in late C.19–20 dial. and till ca 1860 in c., a meg is a halfpenny; in the U.S. C.19–20 underworld, me(i)g is a five-cents piece. ?etymology. 3. See MEG OF WESTMINSTER.

meg

*, v. To swindle: c. (–1887).

Meg of Westminster, as long as

. Very tall (esp. if of a woman): coll: late C.16–18. The Life and Pranks of Long Meg of Westminster, 1582; Grose. In C.18, LONG MEG was a nickname for any very tall woman. Ex a legendary character.

megg

*, see MEG, n.

megging

, n. and adj. Swindling: c. (–1887).

megsman

, see MAGSMAN.

meisensang

. A missionary: Anglo-Chinese (–1864). Ex Chinese pronunciation of the English word.

mejoge

. A shilling: c. of ca 1750–80 and perhaps much later. John Poulter. ?ex MEG.

melancholy as..., as

. Apperson (to whom praise be!) cites the following four coll similes: as melancholy as a (gen. gib) cat, ca 1590–1840, e.g. Lyly, Shakespeare, D’Urfey, Lamb; as m. as a collier’s horse, ca 1650–1750; as m. as a sick monkey, from ca 1830 (ob.), as in Marryat’s Midshipman Easy; and as m. as a sick parrot, ca 1680–1840, as in Mrs Behn.

mell

*. The nose: c. of ca 1720–1850. ?ex the †S.E. sense, a mace or club. 2. A smell: nursery: mid-C.19–20. Ex baby-talk.

mell, dead as a

. Quite dead: Scots coll: late C.18–20; ob. cf. preceding.

mellish

. A sovereign: mostly Londoners' low s.: ca 1820–50. Also, money in general: mainly pugilistic or, rather, sporting: ca 1815–60. Boxiana, IV, 1824, 'The victor ...handing him over a little Mellish, "Welcome sweetener of human ills"'; the inner quotation suggesting that the etymology is Latin mel, 'honey'.

mellow

. Almost drunk: C.17–20: coll till C.19, then S.E. Cotgrave, Garrick.

melon

. A new cadet: Royal Military Academy: from ca 1870; ob. Ex his greenness, as is 2, the Australian and New Zealand sense (late C.19–20), a simpleton, a fool. 3. Abbr. paddy-melon, a small kangaroo: Australian coll: from ca 1845.

melt

*. To spend (money): c. from ca 1690; ob. Also melt away (C.18). 2. Hence, to cash (a cheque or a bank-note): 1868, Reade and Boucicault in Foul Play: low s. verging on c. 3. v.i., to be spent on drink: ca 1760–1800. Foote. 4. To defeat: boxers' (–1823); †by 1900. 5. To experience the sexual spasm: (slightly euphemistic) coll: mid-C.19–20.

melt in the mouth, look as if butter would not

, see BUTTER WOULD NOT...melted, 'twill (not) cut butter when it's, see BUTTER WHEN IT'S...

melted butter

. The semen virile: low: C.18–20.

melter

. He who administers a sound beating: boxing: ca 1820–1900.

melthog

. A shirt: Shelta: C.18–20. Whence MILL-TAG.

melting

. A sound beating; pugilistic: ca 1820–1900. Ex malleting, says ‘Jon Bee’; much more prob. ex Scots melt, to knock down, orig. by a stroke in the side, where lies the melt or spleen (Jamieson).

melting moments

. The coition of a fat man and woman: low: ca 1810–90. 2. Hence, ardent passion: non-aristocratic coll (–1887).

melting-pot

. The female pudend: low: C.19. cf. MELTED BUTTER.

melton

. Dry bread: tailors’: from ca 1860; ob. Prob. ex Melton (cloth), a strong smooth cloth with close-cut nap.

mem

. A low coll form of MA’AM: 1700, Congreve. 2. A memorandum: of which word, as of memento (Baumann, 1887), it was orig. a mere written abbr.: coll, 1818, Moore. cf. MEMO.

mem, the

. The mistress of the house: coll (India and the F.M.S.): late C.19–20. Abbr.:

mem-sahib, the

. One's wife: Anglo-Indian (orig. Bengal Presidency) coll: late C.19–20. Adoption of the Indian alteration (itself dating from ca 1857) of MA'AM, madam. cf. (the now ob.) madam-sahib, the form used at Bombay, and BURRA BEEBEE.

member

. A person: C.16–20: S.E. till mid-C.19, then s. and dial. Gen. as hot m., warm m., etc. Ex member of the community.

'member

. To remember: childish coll: C.18–20.

member for Cockshire, the

. The penis: from ca 1840; ob. Punning male (or privy) member and COCK.

member-mug

. A chamber-pot: low coll: late C.17–19. Ex member, the male member. 2. An out-of-doors boy: Westminster School: ca 1850–1910.

memo

. Orig. (1889) a mere written abbr. of memorandum, it was by 1895 a gen. accepted coll.

memory-powder, you want a little

. Your memory is bad: c.p. of ca 1885–1910.

men

, see MAN for all senses and phrases.

menagerie

. The orchestra: theatrical (–1859); ob. Ex the noise.

menavelings

; maniv(i)lins, the usual form. Odd money in the daily accounts: railway clerks’: from ca 1863. 2. Hence, in low s. of late C.19–20, odds and ends, extras, broken victuals.

mend

. To bandage: lower classes' coll: mid-C.19–20; ob. 2. To produce (e.g. a story) better than (somebody else): coll: from ca 1870; earlier, S.E.

mend as sour ale mends in summer

. To become worse: from ca 1540: coll till C.19, then dial. 'Proverbs' Heywood, Wither, Swift.

mend the Magnificat

, see MAGNIFICAT, CORRECT.

mending

, vbl n. Something to be repaired; nautical for repairing (as in mending wool): coll: from ca 1860.

mention it!, don't

. A phrase in deprecation of apology or thanks: coll: 1854, Wilkie Collins. Prob. an abbr. of don't mention it, for it's a trifle.

mentisental

. Sentimental: East London (–1909); ob. By transposition: cf. LEMONCHOLY.

mephisto

. A foreman: tailors’: from ca 1870; ob. Abbr. Mephistopheles.

mercer’s book, the

. Proverbial coll, ca 1590–1602, for debt, esp. the debts of a gallant. Nashe, ‘Divers young Gentlemen shall creepe further into the Mercers Booke in a Moneth, then they can get out in a yere’; Jonson.

merchant

. A fellow, CHAP: S.E. in mid-C.16–early 17, lapsed till ca 1880, then revived as a coll (esp. among actors) verging on s. cf. CUSTOMER and client.

merchant of capers

. A variant of CAPER-MERCHANT.

merchant of eel-skins

. No merchant at all: semi-proverbial coll: ca 1540–1670. Ascham, in Toxophilus; A.Brewer, 1655.

merchantable

, see SCRUFF, n.

mercy, cry (one)

. To cry mercy; beg a person's pardon: coll when I is omitted: late C.16–18. Shakespeare, 'Oh, cry you mercy, sir, I have mistook.'

mere country put, a

. A virtually c.p. elaboration of PUT, n., 1: ca 1690–1750.

meridian

. A drink taken at noon: app. ca 1815–1910: Scots coll verging on S.E.

Merino(e)s, pure

. (Members of) the 'very first families': Australian, esp. New South Wales: from ca 1825; ob. Peter Cunningham, 1827. 'The pure merino is the most valuable sheep,' Morris.

merits

. ca 1820–50 as in ‘Jon Bee’, 1823: ‘High flash’—i.e. fashionable s.—‘for the extreme of a thing, used negatively in general; as, “Sir, you do not enter into the merits of—the wine, the joke”, &c.’

merkin

. An artificial vagina for lonely men: coll (? , rather, S.E.): mid-C.19–20. Ex the two S.E. senses, ‘female pudend’ and ‘artificial hair for a woman’s pudend’.

merp

. A species of marble (as used in the game of marbles): children’s: late C.19–20. Ex dial. mirk, ‘dusky, dingy, drab’?

Merry Andrew

. The Royal Navy: naval: late C.19–20. cf. ANDREW (not sense 1). A pun on the archaic S.E. merry-andrew.

merry-arse(d) Christian

. A whore: low coll: ca 1810–70.

merry as...

Of the following similes listed by Apperson, all or nearly all must orig. have been coll: merry as a cricket (mid-C.16–20); m. as a Greek (mid-C.16–18); m. as a grig (from ca 1560; in C.20, dial.); m. or happy as a king (mid-C.16– mid-19); m. as a (mag)pie (late C.14–early 17); m. as a beggar (ca 1650–1750); (who so) m. as he that hath nought to lose(?) (ca 1660–1780); m. as mice in malt (ca 1630–1880); m. as the maids (ca 1630–90); m. as three chips (ca 1540–90); m. as tinkers (ca 1650–1700).

merry bit

. A willing wench: C.19–20 low; ob. cf. MERRY-LEGS.

merry bout

. A copulation: ca 1780–1830. The Newgate Calendar, 1780.

merry Cain

, see CAIN, RAISE,

merry dancers

. The Northern Lights: from ca 1715: coll and dial. Also (the) dancers.

Merry Dun of Dover

. A legendary ship—drawn from Scandinavian mythology—‘so large that, passing through the Straits of Dover, her flying jib-boom knocked down Calais steeple; while the fly of her ensign swept a flock of sheep off Dover Cliff. She was so lofty that a boy who went to her mast-head found himself a grey old man when he reached the deck again,’ F. & H.: nautical: ca 1840–1900.

merry-go-down

. Strong ale: ca 1470–1620 (Golding, Nashe); then dial. Not c., though described as such by F. & H.: see esp. Apperson.

merry-go-round

. A pound (£1): rhyming s.: late C.19–20.

merry-go-sorry

. Hysteria: coll verging on S.E.: late C.16–early 17. Breton.

merry-go-up

. Snuff: ca 1820–50. Egan, 1821, ‘Short but pungent like a pinch of snuff.’

merry grig

; merry snob. A pleasant or a boon companion: s.: ca 1700–1725. Ned Ward, 1715.

merry-legs

. A harlot: low coll: C.19–20; ob.

merry-maker

. The male member: low: mid-C.19–20; ob.

merry men of May

. Currents caused by the ebb-tides: nautical: C.19–20; ob.

merry snob

, see MERRY GRIG.

meshuga

. (Tolerantly humorous.) Crazy: Jewish coll: mid-C.19–20. Ex Yiddish; cf. Hebrew meshuga, error.

Mesopotamia ring, the true

. Pleasing, high-sounding, and incomprehensible: coll: ca 1880–1910. Ex the or that blessed word Mesopotamia, itself almost eligible on the same count, with the same meaning, and arising ex a plausible ascription of spiritual comfort.

mess

. A difficulty, notable failure, muddle: 1833, Sessions, 28 Nov.: coll till ca 1890, then S.E. Hence, make a mess of, to bungle; clear up the mess, to put things straight; get into a mess, to involve oneself in difficulties.

mess

. To interfere unduly: gen. as vbl n. messing, applied to police interference: low coll: from ca 1870; ob. Also mess about, extant.

mess, be scratched out of one's

. A variant (Baumann, 1887; now ob.) of:

mess, lose the number of one's

. To be killed: naval. From early C.19:1818, Alfred Burton, Johnny Newcome. In the Boer War, a military variant was lose one's number, as in J.Milne, The Epistles of Atkins, 1902.

mess about

. See MESS, v. 2. To take (sexual) liberties: low coll: from ca 1873. v.t. form mess about or m. a. with. 3. v.i. and t., to play fast and loose; swindle, put off: low coll: from ca 1890.

mess clout

. The duster supplied weekly to each mess: Conway cadets' coll (–1891).

mess-John

, see MAS.

mess of, make a

, see MESS, n.

mess-traps

. Cooking utensils: nautical, esp. naval, coll (–1887); ob. Here traps= odds-and-ends, 'things'.

mess treat

. A 'tip given by an old boy to his former mess to provide a special feed (usually at tea)': Conway cadets' coll (–1891).

messer

. A bungler, muddler: coll (slightly ow): from ca 1905.

mesty, mestee, mestez

. A half-caste: Anglo-Indian coll: mid-C.19–20; ob. Ex Spanish mestizo, a half-caste, itself ex L. mixtus, mixed.

metal

. Money: coll: C.19–20, ob. Ex precious metal. 2. See METTLE. 3. Sweetmeats: Anglo-Indian (–1864); nearly †.

metal rule

. An oath; an obscenity. Also as v., in you be metal-ruled!, you be damned! Printers': from ca 1860; ob. Ex the dash (–) in print.

metal (or, as gen., mettle) to the back

. Constantly courageous and/or energetic: coll: ca 1590–1760. Shakespeare; Coffey, 1733, 'The girl is mettle to the back.'

metallician

. A bookmaker: racing: ca 1870–90. Ex bookmakers' use of metallic pencils and even books.

metals

. Rails: railwaymen's coll (–1887).

meter

. A term of abuse in the Army: late C.19–20. Ex Hindustani: lit., a scavenger.

Methusalem

. Esp. in old as Methusalem. Methuselah: mid-C.17–20: always corrupt; in mid-C.19–20, low coll. Cowley. Influenced by Jerusalem.

mettle

. The semen virile: low coll: C.17–20; ob. Field, 1612 (mettle of generation). The gen. late C.19–20 term, esp. in the Colonies, is SPUNK (2). Ex S.E. mettle, (of animals) natural ardour and vigour. 2. Hence, fetch mettle, to masturbate: C.18–19. 3. See METAL TO...

metzes

, see MEDZIES.

mew-mew

! Tell that to the MARINES!: tailors’: from ca 1860; ob.

mi

, see MA, 2.

mia-mia

(pron mi-mi); occ. miam, mimi or mi-mi. An aboriginal hut: Australian coll (–1845) >, ca 1870, ‘standard’; in 1871 and later, applied to any hut: coll>, by 1880, ‘standard’. Ex Aboriginal. cf. GUNYAH and HUMP(E)Y.

mibbies

. Marbles: Cockney school-children’s: late C.19–20.

mice-feet o’, make

. To destroy utterly: Scots coll: C.18–19.

Michael, your head's on fire

. (Often preceded by hip!) A (low) c.p. addressed to a red-headed man: mid-C.18–mid-19.

Michaelmas rent in Midsmmer noon, spend (one's)

. To spend money that should be laid by for a definite purpose: proverbial coll: ca 1600–1860. Camden.

muching Malicho, or mallecho in Shakespeare's Hamlet is prob. s.: meaning and etymology are alike uncertain, though muching prob.=skulking, perhaps=a dirty trick (O.E.D.). Note, too, Romany malleco, false (Smart & Crofton), and Welsh Gypsy maleko!, look out for yourself! (Sampson). Moreover, Ware states that in April 1895, he 'heard a man in the gallery of the Palace of Varieties (London), after several scornful phrases, say derisively, "Oh—ah—minchin maleego".' I believe that the phrase may=our modern 'dirty dog!', for the Romany malleco is prob. cognate with Turkish Gypsy maklo, spotted. (L. maculatus.)

mick; mickey or micky; occ. mike

. (Or with capital initial.) An Irishman: orig. (–1869), U.S.: anglicized ca 1890: more gen. in Canada, Australia, and New Zealand than in Britan. Ex Michael. 2. Hence, an Irish seaman (nautical: late C. 19–20) or soldier (military: same period). cf. JOCK. Both Jock and Mick are now vocatives of a wide range. 3. See MICKY, 3.

micky

. See MICK. 2. A young bull running wild: Australia: from ca 1880. Grant, 1888, ‘There were two or three mickies and wild heifers.’ Prob. ex ‘the association of bulls with Irishmen’, Barrère & Leland. 3. A New Zealand corruption (–1898) of Maori mingi, orig. mingi-mingi, a shrub or small tree (cya thodes acerosa). 4. (Also Mikey.) Sick, esp. after liquor: low: late C.19–20 Ex BOB, HARRY and DICK, the same: rhyming s.: 1868. 3. The penis: Anglo-Irish: late C.19–20. 4. A casual ward: tramps’ c.: late C.19–20.

mid

. A midshipman: coll: 1798, Mrs Ann Bennett. Also MIDDY.

mid vire

. A midday WIRE or telegram, ‘giving last prices in the coming-on races’: sporting men’s, orig. (–1909) and mainly in Paris; ob.

midden

. A filthy slattern: Scots coll: C.19–20. 2. eating midden, a glutton: Scots coll: C.19–20.

middle

. A social, literary or scientific article for the press: 1862: coll. Abbr. middle article. Hence middle(-)man, a writer of such articles; ob. 2. A finger: c.: early C.17–mid-19. 3. A middle-weight: boxing coll: 1902, P.G.Wodehouse, The Pothunters.

middle

, v. To cheat, befool: ca 1869–1905. E.Farmer, Scrap-Book.

middle-age spread

. Paunchiness coming in middle-age: coll: late C.19–20.

middle finger or leg

. The male member: low: C.19–20.

middle pie

. The stomach: non-aristocratic: ca 1870–1910. cf.:

middle piece

. The chest: boxing: ca 1800–1870. 2. Sinks, 1848, defines it as the stomach or belly. Perhaps the midriff is implied both in sense 1 and in sense 2.

middleman

*. One who, professionally, recovers property from the thief or thieves concerned: c.: ca 1830–90.

middle storey

. The stomach: ca 1670–1800: jocular coll. Crowne.

middle-watcher

. The slight meal snatched by officers of the middle watch (about 2.30 a.m.): nautical coll (–1867).

Middlesex clown

. (Gen. in pl.) A native or an inhabitant of Middlesex: jocular coll: mid-C.17–early 19. Fuller; Grose, in the Provincial Glossary.

Middlesex Jury

, see JURY—HANG HALF...

Middlesex mongrel

. A C.18 variant of MIDDLESEX CLOWN. (Lord Hailes, 1770.)

middling

. Moderately large: late C.16–20; S.E. till ca 1850, then coll (somewhat low) except in middling size, stature, degree. Blackmore, ‘A middling keg of hollands, and an anker of old rum’.

middling

, adv. Moderately, tolerably: C.18–20; S.E. till ca 1830. 2. Fairly well (success, health): coll: from late C.18, as in ‘I did it pretty middling’ (in a Charles Dibdin song).

middlingish

, adv. Somewhat; moderately (low) coll and dial.: 1820.

middy

. A midshipman: coll: 1818, Alfred Burton, Adventures of Johnny Newcome. Ex MID.

midge-net

. A lady’s veil: (low) coll: ca 1858–1910.

Midlands, the

. The female pudend: low jocular: from ca 1830; ob.

midnight's arse-hole, as white as

. Black as pitch: low coll: ca 1550–1640. Anon., Jacob and Esau, ca 1557 (in Dodsley's Old Plays).

midshipman's half-pay

. Nothing: nautical: from ca 1850.

midshipman's nuts

. Broken biscuit, esp. and properly if hard (as dessert): nautical coll: The Night Watch (II, 50), 1828; ob.

midshipman's roll

. A hammock badly rolled: naval coll: from ca 1800 or a little earlier.

midshipman's watch and chain

. A sheep's heart and pluck: ca 1780–1850: orig. nautical. Grose, 1st ed.

midshipmen's devil

. 'The steward who looked after the midshipman's mess in the Blackwallers': naval: latter half of C.19. Bowen.

midshipmen's parade

. The lee side of the quarter-deck, the weather side being reserved for seniors: naval: ca 1820–60.

midshipmite

. A midshipman: when not nautical, it gen. connotes smallness (mite): 1833, Marryat: coll. A perversion.

midsummer, be but a mile to

. To be somewhat mad: coll: ca 1460–1570. The English Chronicle. cf.:

Midsummer noon

. Madness. Gen. as 'tis Midsummer noon with you, you are mad: late C.16–mid-19. cf. Shakespeare's midsummer madness, midsummer noon, popularly associated with lunacy, and the old proverb, when the moon's in the full, then wit's in the wane.

midzer

. A half, as in midzer caroon, a half-crown: showmen's: since ca 1860. Variant of MADZA.

midzers

. Money; esp., cash, coins: showmen's: late C.19–20. cf. MEDZIES.

miff

. A petty quarrel; a tantrum, a fit of anger: coll and dial. (since ca 1850, mainly dial.): 1623, C.Butler, '...Lest some of the bees take a miff.' cf. MIFFY and MIFTY.

miffiness

. A tendency to take offence: coll and dial.: 1845, Ford's Handbook of Spain.

miffy

. The devil: (low) coll: C.19. ?ex MIFF. Also in dial.; the E.D.D. derives it ex Old Fr. maufé, devil.

miffy

, adj. Easily offended: coll and dial.: C.18–20. Cibber, Blackmore. Whence MIFFINESS. Also:

mifty

. Apt to take offence: late C.17–18. Like preceding, ex MIFF.

mighty

. Very considerable in amount, size, degree: late C.16–20: S.E. till ca 1840, then familiar S.E., rapidly > coll. Borrow, ‘mighty damage’.

mighty

, adv. Very greatly: C.13–20: S.E. till ca 1750, then coll. Johnson, ‘Not to be used but in very low language’. (In C.19–20, often ironical.)

mighty!; mighty me

! Coll interjections: Scots: from ca 1865. (Also in dial.)

mighty, high and

, see HIGH AND MIGHTY.

mike or Mike

. An Irishman, esp. if a labourer: coll: from ca 1873. cf. MICK, and, like that term, ex Michael. 2. A wasting of time; idling, esp. in do, or occ. have, a mike, to idle away one’s time: low: 1825, Egan. Prob. ex S.E. mich(e), to skulk. cf.:

mike

, v. To hang about, either expectantly or idly: low: 1859, H., 1st ed. Where tramps are concerned, the gen. word is mooch, mouch. Ex S.E. mich(e). cf. MIKER.

mike, do a

, see MIKE, n., 2.

miker

. A LOAFER; a scrounger: low: from ca 1880. Ex MIKE, v. cf. MIKING.

Mikey

, see MICKY, 4.

miking

, n. and adj. Idling; skulking; scrounging: low: from ca 1880. Ex MIKE, v.

milch-kine

*. (The singular, milch-cow, is very rare.) Applied by gaolers to their prisoners, who, when they BLEED freely, will ‘have some Favour, or be at large’, B.E.: c.: late C.17–early 19.

mild, draw it

, see DRAW IT MILD.

mile

. (With a plural numeral) miles: late C.13–20: S.E. till C.19: ca 1800–50, coll: since ca 1850, dial. and low coll. Dickens, 1850, ‘I’d go ten thousand mile.’

mile of an oak, within a

. Near enough; somewhere (derisively): late C.16–18: coll; sometimes a c.p. Porter, 1599, ‘Where be your tools?... Within a mile of an oak, sir’; Aphra Behn; D’Urfey, ‘Your worship can tell within a mile of an oak where he is’; Swift.

miler

*. Also myla. A donkey; vagabond c.: from ca 1850. Ex Romany meila, occ. moila, prob. ex dial. moil, moyle, a mule, and perhaps ultimately ex L. mulus. cf. Romany Meilestogav, lit. donkey’s town, i.e. Doncaster. (Smart & Crofton.) 2. A man or a horse specially trained or qualified for a mile race: sporting: from ca 1886. 3. -miler. A journey, esp. a walk, of a stated number of miles: coll: 1856, Dickens, ‘I went out this morning for a 12-miler.’

Miles’s boy

. A very knowing boy in receipt of much information: tailors’: from ca 1860.

milestone

. A yokel, a country boy: low (?orig. c.): from ca 1810; ob. by 1890, †by 1910. cf. MILESTONE-MONGER.

milestone, let run a

. To cause a die to run some distance: gaming: 1680, Cotton; †by 1800.

milestone-monger

. A tramp: coll: from ca 1860; ob. cf. MILESTONE.

milikers

. Militia: low London: 1870; ob. By slovenly slurring.

military

. Porter (the drink): taverns': ca 1885–1900. Ex its strength.

milk

. Sexual 'spendings': low coll: from ca 1660; ob. John Aubrey. cf. MILK, v., 1. 2. A milksop; proletarian (–1887).

milk

, v. To cause sexual ejaculation: low coll bordering on S.E.: C.17–20; ob. Jonson, in The Alchemist; D’Urfey. 2. To bet against one’s own horse knowing that it cannot win; to keep (a horse) a favourite at short odds when he has no chance or may even be scratched: sporting: ca 1860–95. 3. To obtain possession, or sight, of by trickery or artifice: from ca 1860: coll till ca 1910, then S.E. e.g. milk a telegram, to see it before the addressee does. Prescott, Electrical Inventions, 1860, ‘...a wire could be milked without being cut or put out of circuit.’

milk, Bristol

, see BRISTOL MILK.

milk, cry over spilt

, see SPILT MILK...

milk, give down one’s

. To pay: coll, almost S.E.: ca 1590–1800. Marlowe, L’Estrange.

milk, hot

, see HOT MILK.

milk and water

! BOTH ENDS OF THE BUSK!: a late C.18–early 19 toast.

milk boiled over, (e.g.) his

. He was careless: proverbial coll: ca 1730–1800. ‘Proverbial’ Fuller. (Occ. in other persons but rarely in other tenses.)

milk-bottle

. A baby: lower classes’ (–1909).

milk-fever

, see PENCIL-FEVER.

milk horse

. ‘A horse entered at a race to make money on, and always scratched before the affair comes off’: turf: ca 1865–1910.

milk in the coco-nut, no

. Silly; mentally deranged: low: from ca 1850; ob. cf. the U.S. account for the milk in the coconut. to solve a puzzle (1853, says Thornton).

milk-jug or -pan

; also milking-pail. The female pudend: low: C.18–20; ob. Ex MILK, n., 1.

milk off one's liver, wash the

. To rid oneself of cowardice: coll: C.17–mid-18. Cotgrave.

milk over the fence

. To steal milk from neighbours' cows: from ca 1870. Gen. as vbl n. phrase, milking over... Milk Journal, Sept. 1871.

milk-shop or -walk

. The female breasts: low: C.19–20; ob. cf. MILKY WAY.

milk the pigeon

. To attempt an impossibility: coll: mid-C.18–20; ob. The corresponding S.E. phrases are milk the bull or the ram.

milk-woman

. A wet-nurse: Scots coll: C.19–20. Hence, green m.-w., one recently delivered. 2. A female masturbator: low: C.19–20; ob.

milken

, see MILL-KEN.

milker

. An interceptor of telegrams: from ca 1865: coll. Ex MILK, v., 3. 2. The female pudend (cf. MILK-JUG); low: C. 19–20. 3. A masturbator: low: C.19–20; ob.

milker's calf

. A mother's child, esp. if a boy: Australian rural (–1888); ob. 'Rolf Boldrewood'. Ex standard sense, a calf still with the cow.

milking

. vbl n. of MILK, v., 2. The Times, 2 Jan. 1862.

milking-pail

, see MILK-JUG.

milking-pail, carry or work the

. Racing s.: ca 1860–95. For meaning, see MILK, v., 2.

milkman

. (cf. MILKER, 2; MILK-WOMAN, 2.) A masturbator: low: C.19–20: ob.

milkman's horse

. Bad-tempered: angry: rhyming s. (on cross): late C.19–20.

milky

. A milkman: non-aristocratic coll (–1887). cf. POSTIE.

milky

*, adj. White: C.19–20 (ob.) c. Only in milky duds, white clothes (see DUDS), and m. ones, white linen rags.

milky way

. The female bosom: from ca 1620: poetical S.E. till ca 1800, after which it rapidly > low s.: ob. cf. MILK-SHOP.

mill

. A chisel: c.: ca 1605–1830. Dekker, Grose. 2. Hence (?), a housebreaking thief: C.17: c. Dekker. ?abbr. MILL-KEN, recorded much later. 3. The female pudend: C.18–20; ob.:

?low coll (or perhaps s.) or euphemistic S.E. D'Urfe. 4. A fight, esp. with the fists: from ca 1819: s.>, ca 1860, coll>, ca 1890, S.E. T. Moore, in Tom Crib's Memorial; 1825, Westmacott; T.Hughes, 'A good hearty mill'. ?ex windmill or ex the v. 5. See MILL, GO THROUGH THE, 2. 6. The treadmill: c.: 1842, Barham; †by 1910. 7. A prison: c.: 1838, Dickens; Mayhew, 'A month at the mill'.

mill

*, v. To rob (a building): c. of ca 1565–1840. Until C.17, only in mill a KEN. Harman. 2. To steal (v.t. and i.): c.: C.17– early 19. Middleton & Dekker; Jonson, 1621, 'Can they cant or mill?' 3. To beat, thrash, punch, pummel: C.18–20 (ob.): orig. c.; by C.19, low s. (cf. MILL... GLAZE.) Hence v.i., to box, fight (occ. mill away): C.19–20, ob.; as in Thackeray. Also v.t., to fight with (a person): at Public Schools, esp. Harrow: from ca 1860 (?). 4. To kill: c.: from late C.17. (N.B., senses 3 and 4 derive ex sense 1, which connotes 'break in(to)' or 'through', 'knock out'). 5. To send to the treadmill, hence to prison: c.: ca 1838–1910. Dickens, in Oliver Twist. cf. LAG, v., 4,5,6. 6. See MILL ...GLAZE. 7. (Ex sense 3.) Esp. mill the bowling, to wear it down: cricketers': 1833, Nyren; ob.

mill, go or pass through the

. To have (severe) experience: S.E. 2. Hence, to go through the bankruptcy court: coll or s.: from ca 1840; ob. 3. To go to prison: c. (–1889). Daily News, 4 July 1889.

mill, ground and bolted.—I've been through the

. I'm too experienced for that!: nautical: mid-C. 19–20; ob. cf. MILL, GO THROUGH THE.

mill, in the

. (Imprisoned) in the guardroom: military: ca 1880–1915.

mill, safe as a thief in a

. Not safe or honest at all: coll: ca 1660–1780. With allusion to ‘a Miller, who is a Thief by his Trade’, B.E.

mill a quod

*. To break out of gaol: c. (–1753); †by 1890. Poulter.

mill-clapper

. The tongue, esp. of women: late C.17–20, ob.: coll.

mill doll or M.D.

* A prison: ca 1780–1830: c. Messink, Bee. 2. According to Vaux, 1812, it is ‘an obsolete name for Bridewell house of correction, in Bridgestreet, Blackfriars, London’.

mill doll

*, v. To beat hemp in prison: c.: ca 1750–1840. Fielding. Also mill dolly, recorded in 1714 in Smith’s Lives of the Highwaymen.

mill...glaze

*. While m. a or the glaze is to break open a, the window (late C.17– mid-18, B.E.), m. one's g. is to knock out his eye (C.18–early 19, Grose): both are c.

mill-ken

*. A housebreaker: c.: ca 1669–1870. The Nicker Nicked; Fielding. See MILL, v., 1, n., 2. cf.:

mill-lay

*. Burglary: c.: ca 1780–1870. Ex MILL, n., 2.

mill-tag, -tog, -tug, -twig

*. A shirt: c.: resp. from ca 1850 (Mayhew), 1835 (Brandon), 1745 (B.C.Carew), and 1820 (Haggart, Egan: Scots c.): all these are ob, Perhaps ex MILL, n., 6. cf. CAMESA and MISH.

mill-wash

. Canvas for lining of waistcoats and coats: tailors': from ca 1860; ob, miller

. A murderer: late C.17–early 19: c. Ex MILL, v., 4. 2. A boxer: 1812, Sponing Magazine; 1823, Bee; ob. by 1890. Ex MILL, v., 3. 3. A vicious horse: 1825, Westmacott: sporting: †by 1890. Ex senses 1 and 2. 4. A JOE MILLER. 5. A white hat: coaching: ca 1830–80. Ex the whiteness of flour. 6. A housebreaker: c.: C.17–mid-19. Ex MILL, v., 1.

miller (also †miller's thumb), drown the

. To add too much water, esp. to flour or to spirits: coll: from ca 1815. Also put out the miller's thumb, 1767, and put out the miller's eye, 1678, Ray, and 1834, Esther Copley. 2. (Only drown the miller.) To go bankrupt: Scots coll: ca 1800–80. A. Scott, 1805.

miller, give (one) the

. To pelt with flour, etc., in thin paper bags, which naturally burst immediately on contact: coll (–1864); ob.

miller's daughter

. Water (n.): rhyming s.: late C.19–20.

miller's eye

. (See MILLER, DROWN THE, 1.) A lump of flour in a loaf: coll: from ca 1830; ob.

millers' mare, like a

. Clumsily: C.17: coll, semi-proverbial. Beaumont & Fletcher; Killigrew. A miller being no trainer of good horses.

miller's waistcoat (that takes a thief by the neck every day), as stout as a

. A C.18– early 19 c.p., which glosses the proverb many a miller many a thief and that of miller, tailor and weaver in a bag.

milliner's shop

. The female pudend: low: from ca 1840; ob.

milling

. A beating, a thrashing: 1810, Combe, 'One blood gives t'other a milling'; ob. 2. A fight; fighting: 1815, Sporting Magazine; ob. 3. Robbery; theft: c.: ca 1565–1840. (For the origin of these three senses, see MILL, v., resp. 3, 3, 2 or 1.) 4. (Of horses) kicking: sporting (–1897). cf. MILLER, 3.

milling

, adj. Fighting, pugilistic: from ca 1810; ob. As in:

milling-cove

. A pugilist: low: ca 1810–1905. Vaux, Ainsworth. And in:

milling-match

. A prize-fight; boxing-match: sporting: 1819, Moore.

million to a bit of dirt, (it's) a

. (It's) a sure bet: sporting: from ca 1860; ob. cf. LOMBARD ST...

millstone, look or see through a

. To be very perceptive or well-informed or shrewd of judgement: from ca 1530: coll till C.18, then S.E. Occ. see into (C.16–17); occ....a brick wall (C.19–20). Often see as far into a millstone as another (Palsgrave, 1540).

millstone (occ. milestone or brick wall), run one's head against a

. To resist stupidly; attempt the impossible: from ca 1835: coll verging on S.E.

millstones, one's eyes drop

; weep m. Applied to one unlikely to weep: late C.16–17: coll. 1594, Shakespeare, 'Your eyes drop millstones when fools' eyes drop tears.'

milt

. The semen. Hence milt-market or -shop, the female pudend; double one's milt, to ejaculate twice without withdrawal. Low: C.19.

milton

. An oyster; coll: 1841, Thackeray; Aytoun & Martin, 'These mute inglorious miltons are divine', which offers a clue to the semantics: cf. the S.E. phrase, close as an oyster.

milvad

*. A blow: Scots c.: 1821, Haggart; †by 1900. Hence milvader, to strike. Origin?

milvadering

*, n. Boxing: Scots c.: 1821, Haggart; †by 1910. Ex preceding. Perhaps cf. the dial. mulvather, to confuse or bamboozle.

mim

. A low coll variant, C.19–20, of MA'AM. cf. MEM; mum.

mimming mugger

. A buffoon mimic; theatrical: mid-C.19–20; ob. i.e. miming (corrupted)+MUGGER, 2.

mimpins

. Some kind of pretty sweetmeat: schoolboys': 1820; long †. Leigh Hunt.

mince

. An abbr. of MINCE-PIES: late C.19–20, esp. in boxing; ob.

mince

, v.t. and i. To dissect: medical students': from ca 1840.

mince-pies

. Eyes: rhyming s. (–1857). Later, minces or occ. †MUTTON-PIES.

minchin malacho (or maleego)

, see MICHING MALICHO.

mind

! Note what I say!: coll: 1806, J. Beresford, ‘So I bar Latin, mind!’

mind, if you don’t

. If you’re not careful (to avoid...): coll: from ca 1835. M.P.R. James, 1839, ‘They’ll see you, if you don’t mind.’

mind!, never

. Don’t let that trouble you!; mind your own business!: coll: ca 1814, anon. in Gonzanga, ‘Never mind, father, don’t be obstreperous about it.’

mind one’s book

. (Of a schoolboy) to be diligent in one’s studies: coll: from ca 1710; ob. Addison, ‘Bidding him be a good child and mind his book’.

mind the grease

! Let me pass, please!: lower classes’, presumably rhyming s. (–1909).

mind the step

! see STEP!, MIND THE.

mind to, have a

. To be disposed (to do something). With the infinitive suppressed, it is coll: from ca 1850. Mrs Stowe, 'I don't need to hire...my hands out, unless I've a mind to.' Prob. ex such sentences as 'enquire what thou hast a mind to', 1671.

mind your eye

! Be careful!: coll: 1737, Bracken. cf.:

mind your helm

! Take care: nautical: C. 19–20. cf. preceding.

mind your ps and qs

, see PS AND QS.

minder

. A child left to be taken care of: 1865, Dickens: coll till ca 1890, then S.E.

mine arse

, see BAND BOX...

mine in a Portuguee pig-knot

. ‘Confused, not knowing where to begin a yarn’: nautical: late C.19–20. Bowen. The key is in YARN.

mine-jobber

. A swindler: City coll: from ca 1880. Ex the frequent flotation of worthless companies.

mine uncle(’s)

, see UNCLE.

mingy

. Greedy: Cockney s.: ca 1890–1915. 2. Miserly, mean: coll: from ca 1900. A thinning of mangy, and prob. influenced by stingy.

minikin, tickle (the)

. To play the lute or viol: coll: ca 1600–40, mostly by the dramatists with a sexual innuendo (minikin, an endearment for a female). Marston(?), ‘When I was a young man and could tickle the minikin... I had the best stroke, the sweetest touch, but now... I am fallen from the fiddle, and betook me to [the pipe].’

Minnie P. play

. A play in which a littlemaid variety-actress has the chief part: theatrical coll: 1885–ca 1900. Ware, ‘From Miss Minnie Palmer’s creations, chiefly in My Sweetheart’.

minor

. A younger brother: schools’ (orig, and esp. Eton): 1863, Hemyng, Eton School Days, “‘Let my minor pass, you fellows!’” exclaimed Horsham.’

minor clergy

. Young chimney-sweeps: ca 1787–1900.

mint

. While mint of money is prob. to be considered S.E., mint (money), which dates from C.8, is S.E. till ca 1550, coll till ca 1850, then low s. In C.19–20, gen. MINT-SAUCE. 2. Gold: mid-C.17–18 c.

mint-hog

. An Irish shilling: Anglo-Irish: low: C.19–20; ob.

mint-sauce

. Money: from ca 1825; ob.: low. Egan; J.Greenwood, 1867, ‘The requisite mint sauce (as that horribly slangy and vulgar B.P. terms money).’ The corresponding U.S. term (now ob.): mintdrops (1837, J.Quincy Adams; prob. earlier). Thornton. See MINT, n., 1.

minus

. (Predicatively) without; short of: coll: 1813. (Baumann, however, dates it from mid-C.18.) As in ‘minus one horse’, 1840, or ‘He was considerably minus at the last Newmarket meeting’ (1813). Rarely †minus of. 2. As an adj., lacking, non-existent: from ca 1850: coll. Bristed, 1852, ‘His mathematics are decidedly minus.’

mis

. A variant of MISS.

mischief

, ruin or a mischievous person, is S.E., but the mischief, the devil, is coll: 1583, Hollyband, ‘What the mischief is this...?’, Beaumont & Fletcher, ca 1616, ‘In the name of mischief...’

mischief, go to the

. To go to the bad: coll: 1818, Susan Ferrier, ‘Boys may go to the mischief, and be good for something—if girls go, they’re good for nothing I know of.’

mischief, load of

. A wife: C.18–early 19: coll bordering on S.E. Grose, ‘A man loaded with mischief...with his wife on his back’.

mischief, play the

. (v.t., with.) To play havoc: coll: 1867, Trollope, ‘That butcher ...was playing the mischief with him.’

mischievous

. Mischievous: a frequent sol.: (?)C.17–20. Ex C.15–17 stressing of 2nd syllable.

misegun

. Mazagan (a kind of bean): low coll or a sol.: C.19–20. Scott.

miserable

. Close-fisted, stingy: Australian coll: since ca 1860. ‘Tom Collins’, Such Is Life, 1903.

miserable as a rat in a tar-barrel

. Tho-roughly depressed: nautical coll: late C.19–20.

miserables, the

. A splitting headache after ‘the night before’: proletarian coll (–1887); ob.

miserere seat

. A seat so constructed that if the occupant falls asleep he falls off: ecclesiastical coll: C.19–20; ob.

misery

. Gin: low: ca 1820–1910. 2. (In cards) misère: coll: from ca 1830.

misery, be a

. To be peevish; be a peevish person: lowerclasses’, esp. Cockneys’, coll: from ca 1880.

misery, streak of

, see STREAK OF MISERY.

misery-bowl

. ‘Relief-basin—at sea’: tourists’ (–1909); slightly ob.

Misery Junction

. ‘The angle forming the south-west corner of the York and Waterloo Roads... From the daily meeting here of music hall “pros” who are out of engagements, and who are in this neighbourhood for the purpose of calling on their agents, half a dozen of whom live within hail’ (Ware): theatrical: ca 1880–1914.

misfit

. A clumsy man: tailors’: from ca 1850.

misfortune, have or meet with a

. To give birth to an illegitimate child: coll and dial.: C.19–20. Mrs Carlyle, Marryat. Hence, misfortune, a bastard: from ca 1860. Carlyle.

mish

*. A shirt; a chemise: c.: from ca 1670; †by 1870. Abbr. COMMISSION, the anglicized form of CAMESA. 2. A missionary: late C.19–20.

mish-topper

*. A coat; a petticoat: ca 1670–1850: c. Lit., that which ‘tops’ or goes over a MISH.

mislain, miesli, misli

. To rain: Shelta: C.18–20. 2. To go: see MIZZLE.

misle, misli

, see MIZZLE.

miss

; more correctly mis. A miscarriage: women's: W. Somerset Maugham, 1897.

miss a tip

. To have a fall: circus-men's: mid-C.19–20. Seago. See also TIP, n.

Miss Adams

is an occ. variant of sweet FANNY ADAMS.

Miss Brown

. The female pudend: low: late C.18–19. cf. BROWN MADAM; MISS LAYCOCK.

miss is as good as a mile, a

. A narrow escape serves as well as an easy one; ‘a failure by however little is still a failure’; proverbial coll: from ca 1820. Scott. Earlier, an inch in a miss is as good as an ell.

Miss Laycock

. The female pudend: low: late C.18–19. Punning on COCK.

Miss Molly

, see MOLLY, MISS.

Miss Nancy

. An effeminate man: coll: from ca 1880. Ex dial. (–1824). Also NANCY. Hence, Miss-Nancyism, effeminacy: from ca 1885. cf. Sissy.

miss of, feel the

. To feel the lack or the loss of: from ca 1855: S.E. till ca 1880, then (low) coll. George Eliot, 1860; Baumann, 1887; ‘Rita’, 1901, ‘Tis now you’ll feel the miss o’ your mother.’

miss of, find or have (a)

. (The miss often preceded by great, heavy, little, no.) To feel regret at, or the disadvantage of, the loss or absence of some person or thing: C.13–20: S.E. till C.19, then coll (from ca 1880, low) and dial. Anna Seward.

miss of, there is no (great)

. There is no (great) regret or disadvantage in the loss, privation, or absence of some person or thing: C.14–20: S.E. till ca 1820; then dial. and coll (increasingly low), the latter being ob.

miss one's figure

. To miss a chance; to make a mistake: non-aristocratic: from ca 1860; ob.

Miss Right

, see RIGHT, MR. miss the cushion, see CUSHION, MISS THE.

miss the globe

. To miss the ball altogether: golfers': from ca 1898. With a pun on globe, a sphere, and on globe, the world.

missing

. Courting, courtship: ca 1830–70. Sinks, 1848.

missionaries ‘position

, see MATRIMONIAL.

’missioner

(or without apostrophe). An agent bullying or seducing men into the Navy or, come to that, the Army: naval coll rather than s.: ca 1770–1830. Short for commissioner? W.N.Glascock, Sailors and Saints (I, 82), 1829.

missioning

. Mission-work: coll (–1887), now almost S.E.

missis

; gen. missus. (Occ. written as Mrs, and always occurring as either the missus or, less gen., my, your, his, etc., missus.) A wife: orig. (–1839), dial.>, ca 1847, low coll. Thackeray, 1848, ‘Bowing to the superior knowledge of his little Missis’. 2. (Among servants) a mistress of the house: low coll: 1837, Dickens. In this sense, often without the, my, etc.

missle

, see MIZZLE.

missuses

. The pl of MISSIS, missus.

missy

. (In address.) Miss: coll: C.19–20. More gen. in U.S. than in England.

mist, Scotch

, see SCOTCH MIST.

mistake, and no

. Undoubtedly; for certain: coll: 1818, Lady Morgan, ‘He is the real thing, and no mistake’; Thackeray. Also and no error (–1887), as in Baumann.

mister

. In address with the name omitted: mid-C.18–20: S.E. (= sir) until ca 1820; then coll; by 1860, low coll. Punch, 22 Jan. 1901, ‘Please, mister, when are we going to get through?’

mistress roper

, or with capitals. A marine: ca 1840–95. Because he is clumsy with ropes: ?punning miss the ropes (a miss-the-roper).

Mister God help 'em

. A mixture of dregs and drugs administered as a last resort: medical: from ca 1860; ob.

Mitcham whisper

. A shout; almost a shout: 1880, Spurgeon, Ploughmarn's Pictures: coll. cf. Irish whisper, a very audible whisper. At Leigh (in Lancashire), a Leigh whisper is an unearthly yell.

mitching

, vbl n. Playing truant: Canadian coll: mid-C.19–20. Ex Eng. dial.: see E.D.D.

mite

; occ. in C.19–20, mitey. A cheese-monger: 1765, Foote, 'Miss Cicely Mite, the only daughter of old Mite the cheese-monger'; ob. 2. A particle, a tiny bit: C.17–20: S.E. till ca 1840, then coll (increasingly low). 3. A whit or a jot: late C.14–20: S.E. till mid-C.19, then coll. C.D.Warner, 1886, 'Not a mite of good'.

mitey

, see MITE, 1.

mitre

. A hat: universities' (–1896); ob.

mitt

. A glove: from ca 1811; ob. Ex first sense of:

mitten

. A hand; a fist: low (mostly pugilistic): from ca 1810; ob. 2. A boxing glove: ?orig. (–1859), U.S.; anglicized ca 1880. J.Greenwood.

mitten, get or give the

. (In U.S., occ. simply mitten for give the mitten to.) To be jilted or to jilt: get the m., orig. (1838), U.S., but anglicized ca 1870, also meaning to be dismissed; give the m., orig. (1848), U.S., and anglicized ca 1870, with further sense, to dismiss. Both slightly ob. Prob. ex MITTIMUS with allusion to mitten.

mittens, easy as

, adj. Free in speech and/ or manner; free and easy: low (s. bordering on coll): from ca 1890; ob. Mostly London. Milliken.

mittens, handle without

. To handle roughly: coll soon>S.E.: from ca 1675; ob. Ray, Johnson. In late C.19–20, gen. handle without gloves or with the gloves off.

mittimus

. A dismissal from one's post, as in get one's m., which also means to receive one's quietus. Coll: from late C.16. Nashe, 'Out of two noblemen's houses he had his mittimus of ye may be gone.'

mivey or mivy

. A landlady: mostly Cockneys': from ca 1870.

mivvy

. An adept; a very smart person: c.: from ca 1870. Pugh (2): "He's a mivvy at makin' things easy." "For himself. No doubt o' that." Perhaps ex master+skilful, but probably from S.E. marvel. By 1900, low Cockney.

mix

. A MESS, a muddle; a state of confusion: coll: from ca 1880. cf. MIX-UP.

mix 'em

, see MIXUM.

mix (C.19) or join (late C.18–19) giblets

. To marry: low. See GIBLETS.

mix it up

, see MIX UP, v.

mix-metal

. A silversmith: late C.18– mid-19: coll.

mix them

. To mix one's bowling: cricketers' coll: from mid-1890s.

mix-up

. Confusion; a MESS, a muddle: coll: from ca 1895. cf. MIX.

mix up

, v. Mainly as mix it up, ‘to agree secretly how the parties shall make up a tale, or colour a transaction in order to cheat or deceive another party’, Bee: ca 1820–95.

mixed

. Confused, bewildered: coll: from ca 1870. Punch, 4 Sept. 1880, ‘Rather mixed after twenty-one hours’ continuous sitting’. 2. Slightly drunk: low coll: from ca 1871; ob. Leeds Mercury, 29 Aug. 1872.

mixum; OCC. mix ’em

. An apothecary: coll: ca 1630–1720. Glapthorne, ‘Mr Mixum, your apothecary’.

mizzard

*. The mouth: c.: from ca 1890; ob. P.H.Emerson. Corruption of MAZZARD.

mizzle or mis(s)le; OCC. †misli

*. To decamp; depart slyly: orig. (ca 1780), c.>, ca 1820, low s. G.Parker, 'He preferred mizzling off to France.' Ex Shelta misli. 2. Hence, to die: boxers': ca 1810–60. 3. To rain: Shelta: C.19–20.

mizzle, do a

. (As n., mizzle does not otherwise occur.) To decamp: low: from ca 1850. Ex preceding; cf. the next entry.

mizzle one's dick

. To miss one's passage: nautical: since ca 1880.

mizzler

*. A fugitive; one who departs slyly: orig. (–1834), c.>, ca 1840, low s. Ainsworth. Hence, rum mizzler, one clever at getting away.

mo

. A moment, esp. in half a mo: low coll: late C.19–20.

moab

. A hat; esp. the turban-shaped hat in feminine vogue, 1858–9: university (mainly Cambridge): ca 1858–80. Ex 'Moab is my washpot,' Psalm 1x, 8: the approximate shape.

2. A lavatory at: Winchester College: from ca 1860; †. 3. A receptacle for dirty plates: Haileybury: since ca 1870. Derivation as for sense 1.

Moabite

. A bailiff: late C.17–19. cf. PHILISTINE.

moach

, see MOOCH. moak, see MOKE.

mob

. The rabble, the disorderly part of the population (1688). The populace, the crowd (1691). s. till ca 1750; coll ca 1750–1820; then S.E.Burke, 1790, ‘A mob (excuse the term, it is still in use here) which pulled down all our prisons’; T. Hale, 1691, ‘the beliefs of the mob’, in the second sense. cf. the C.18–mid-19 proverb, ‘The mob has many heads but no brains.’ Abbr. MOBILE, itself a shortening of mobile vulgus, the fickle or excitable crowd. 2. A gang of criminals, esp. of thieves: orig. (1845 in ‘No. 747’) c.>low by 1851 (Mayhew); as early as 1843 as swell mob. Prob. ex: 3. (Gen. in pl.) A companion in crime: c. (–1839); †by 1890. 4. In Australia, a gang of roughs: late C.19–20: s. >coll. Ex: 5. A group or crowd of persons, esp. if possessing common interests: coll: Australia, from ca 1880. ‘Rolf Boldrewood’ speaks, in 1884, of ‘the “Dunmore mob”’. (N.B., mob as (part of) a herd, a flock, is ‘standard’ Australian now recognized as S.E.) cf. mob as ‘party of men’ in whalers’ s. of ca 1820–1900. 6. In late C.19–20, a military unit, esp. a battalion or a battery. (Not disrespectful.) s. rapidly>coll. 7. A harlot (cf. mab): c.: 1665, Head; 1697, N.Lee; Grose. †by 1830. 8. A RAG (concerted mischief): Charterhouse: late C.19–20.

mob

, v. To crowd; hustle; attack in a disorderly mob: from early C.18: coll till ca 1800, then S.E. Ex MOB, n., 1 and 2. Whence MOBBING. 2. To RAG: Charterhouse: late C.19–20. cf. MOB, n., 8, and next two entries.

mob-up

. To hustle (a person): Charterhouse: ca 1870–1910. A.H.Tod, Charterhouse, 1900. cf. MOB, v.

mobbing

, vbl n. corresponding to MOB, v., 1:1734, North: coll>, ca 1800, S.E. H. Walpole, ‘The night will be full of mobbing, bonfires, and lights.’ (Perhaps the same holds of the adj. mobbish, late C.17–20, ob.)

mobile

. The rabble, the rough part of the population: 1676, Shadwell, ‘Do you hear that noise? the remaining rogues have raised the mobile.’ 2. Whence, the populace: from ca 1680. Shadwell, ‘The mobile shall worship thee.’ Both senses, orig. coll, were S.E. by 1700; ob. by 1830, †by 1850 except historically. cf. MOB, n., 1 and 2.

mobility

. The low classes: 1690, B.E. and Dryden.: s. till ca 1750, coll ca 1750–1810, then S.E.; ob. by 1840, † (except historically) by 1915. In the Maccaroni and Theatrical Magazine, Jan. 1773, appeared this notice: ‘Pantheon’s: the Nobility’s, Oxford Road; the Mobility’s, Spawfields’ (see Chancellor, Pleasure Haunts of London). Ex MOB, n., 1, on nobility.

mobocracy

. The rabble as a ruling body: 1754, Murphy: coll till ca 1810, then S.E. Ex MOB, 1, and, though much less, 2.

mobsmán

*. A pickpocket: from ca 1850; ob. Mayhew. 2. But orig. (ca 1845), a member of the 'swell mob' (properly SWELL MOBSMAN); hence, any well-dressed swindler (–1859).

moche

, see MOOCH.

mocho

. Mocha coffee: low (–1887); ob.

mock-duck or -goose

. A piece of pork that, stripped of crackling, is baked with a stuffing of sage and onions: coll: from ca 1875. O.E.D.

mock-litany man

*. A sing-song beggar: Anglo-Irish c. (–1909).

mockered

. Full of holes; (of a face) pitted: low: from ca 1850. Ex Romany mockodo, mookeedo, dirty, filthy (moker, to foul).

mocteroof

, v.t. and i. To doctor damaged fruit or vegetables: Covent Garden: from ca 1860; ob. e.g. chestnuts are shaken in a bag with beeswax. ?etymology. Perhaps a corruption of new-proof.

model of, the (very)

. Some person or thing that very closely resembles another: orig. (–1849) and still dial., > coll ca 1890.

modest quencher

. A small drink: from ca 1860; ob.: coll.

modicum

. An edible thirst-relish: 1609, Dekker; soon †. 2. The female pudend: low: ca 1660–1840. Cotton. (cf. †S.E. jocular sense, a woman: cf. BIT, 7; PIECE).

mods or Mods

. The first public examination for B.A. degrees: Oxford University: coll: 1858, J.C.Thomson, 'Between the "little-go" and "mods" he learns nothing new.' Ex Moderations.

modsman

. A candidate for MODS: Oxford coll (–1887).

moey

; occ. moœ(y). The mouth: low: from ca 1850; ob. Ex Romany mooi, mouth, face. 2. The female pudend: low: from ca 1855; ob.

moffling chete

, see MUFFLING CHEAT.

mofussil

. Rather provincial; countrified: from ca 1840: coll>, ca 1890, S.E. Ex the n., which (the Mofussil) is standard Anglo-Indian for the country districts or anywhere out of a capital city. Ex Hindustani. Hence:

mofussilite

. An inhabitant of a rural district: Anglo-Indian coll: from ca 1845. Ex preceding term.

mog

. A lie: 1848, Sinks. Prob. ex Fr. (se) moquer (de); cf. MOGUE.

moggy

. An untidily dressed woman: low: from ca 1880; ob. (Also dial.) Ex dial. moggy, a calf, a cow. 2. A cat: Cockneys' (and dial.): late C.19–20.

mogue

, v.t. and i; n. To mislead; joke, gammon: low and tailors': 1870, Bell's Life, 19 June. Whence no mogue, honestly, and moquing, n., GAMMON. Prob. ex Fr. (se) moquer (de).

moguey

. A coll corruption of Maori moki (or mokihi), a raft: mid-C.19–20.

mohack

, see MOHOCK.

mohair

. A civilian; a tradesman: military: 1785, Grose; ob. by 1870, †by 1890. Ex the mohair buttons worn by civilians; soldiers have metal buttons.

mohawk

, see MOHOCK.

mohican

. A very heavy man who rides a long way in an omnibus for sixpence: ca 1845–60. Tait's Magazine, 1848, 2nd Series, vol. XV.

mohock; OCC. mohack or mohawk

. (Or with capitals.) An aristocratic ruffian night-infesting London, ca 1710–15. From 1711: coll>S.E.; ob. by 1760, except historically. Ex Mohawk, a member of a Red Indian tribe. Swift, 'A race of rakes, called the Mohocks, that play the devil about this town every night'.

moiety

. A wife: coll>S.E.: from ca 1735; ob. Punning BETTER HALF.

moist one's clay

. To drink: from ca 1830.

moisten

, v.i. To drink: from ca 1840; ob. Also moisten one's CLAY or CHAFFER, 2 (–1864).

moke

. An ass: s. and dial.: 1848, J.L. Tupper; Thackeray. ?ex MOGGY, or perhaps Romany moila, an ass (cf. MILER), or rather ex Welsh Gypsy moxio or -a, a donkey: Sampson supports the third origin and notes that moxio existed at least 50 years before the first recorded instance of moke; moreover, Brandon, in 1839, records moak as a c. word of Gypsy origin and, at that time, mainly Gypsy use. Yet Gypsy moxio may well be an adaptation of the dial. Mock(e), a nickname for either a horse or an ass, precisely as MOGGY, in several dial., is a nickname for cow, calf, or ass, and Mog is a cat. Mog (cf. Meg) and Moggy (cf. Meggy) and even Moke are diminutives of Margaret, perhaps via Molly. We have, then, the interesting fact that both of the modern names for an ass represent diminutives: DONKEY of Duncan; moke of Margaret. cf. MOKUS. 2. A fool: orig. (1871), U.S.; anglicized ca 1890; ob. 3. A very inferior horse: Australia: 1888, 'Rolf Boldrewood', 'I am regular shook on this old moke.' cf. sense 1. 4. A variety artist who plays on several instruments: theatrical (–1890). 5. A compositor: printers' (–1857). A variant of DONKEY, ASS.

moko

. A pheasant mistakenly shot before the shooting season: sportsmen's: from ca 1860.

mokus

. An occ. s. (ob.) and dial. variant of MOKE, 1, 3: mid-C.19–20. Prob. ex moke+-us, a ‘characteristic Romany termination of masculine loan-words’, Sampson.

molasses in winter, slow as . Exceedingly slow: coll: late C.19–20. In winter, molasses is very stiff.

mole

. The penis. Whence mole-catcher, the female pudend. Low: C.19–20, ob.

moll

*. A harlot: C.17–20: c.>, ca 1890, low. Middleton, ‘None of these common molls neither, but discontented and unfortunate gentlewomen.’ Ex the familiar form of Mary. 2. An unmarried female companion of a criminal or a tramp: c.: from ca 1820. cf. the U.S. gun moll, a woman who carries a revolver for her ‘man’. 3. A girl: from ca 1835: c.>, ca 1860, low. 4. Hence, a sweetheart: low: from ca 1890.

moll

, v.; molling, vbl n. To go—going—about with women; act—acting—effeminately: low: from ca 1860; ob. Ex the n.

Moll(-)Blood

. The gallows: Scots coll: ca 1810–50. Scott.

moll-buzzer

*. A pickpocket specializing in women: c.: from ca 1855. Perhaps orig. U.S. Whence moll-buzzing, this practice.

moll hook

*. A female pickpocket: c.: from ca 1860.

moll-hunter

. A man ‘always lurking after women’: low: late C.19–20. Ware. See MOLL, 1 and 3.

moll Peatley’s

, or—prob. erroneously—Pratley’s, gig. Copulation: C.18–early 19: low. Budgell, in the Spectator, ‘An impudent young dog bid the fiddlers play a dance called Moll Patley.’ Ex MOLL, 1, perhaps allusively to some whore surnamed Patley or Peatley.

moll-sack

*. A lady’s hand-bag; occ. a small market basket: c.: from ca 1838.

moll-slavey

*. A maid-servant: c. of ca 1810–70.

Moll Thompson's mark

. 'M.T.'=empty. 'Empty packages are said to be so marked,' F. & H.: ca 1780–1890.

moll-tooler

*. A female pickpocket: c.: from ca 1858; ob.

moll-wire

*. A pickpocket specializing in robbing women: c.: from ca 1865; ob.

molled

*; gen. molled up. Sleeping with a woman not one's wife: c.: 1851, Mayhew. 2. Accompanied by, esp. arm in arm with, a woman: low: from ca 1860. Both senses ex MOLL, but resp. ex sense 1 (or 2) and sense 3.

mollesher

*; more gen. mollisher. A—gen. a low—woman; a thief's mistress: c.: from ca 1810; ob. Ex MOLL, 1.

moll's three misfortunes, a

. In the B.M. copy of the 1st ed., Grose has written: 'Broke the [chamber-]pot, bes-t the bed and cut her a-se.' But this low c.p. of ca 1785–1820 was included in no ed. whatsoever.

molly

. An effeminate man; a milksop: coll: 1879, L.B.Walford, though possibly existing a century earlier: the entry in Grose (1st ed.) is ambiguous. Ex MISS MOLLY. 2. A sodomite: coll: 1709, E. Ward; ob. cf. pansy. But ca 1895–1914, a merely effeminate fellow was often called a GUSSIE; in C.20, a sodomite is a NANCY, a Nancy-boy, or a Sissy, this last also applying to a milksop. 3. A wench; a harlot: coll: 1719, D'Urfey, 'Town follies and Cullies, And Molleys and Dolls, for ever adieu'; ob. (As a country lass, it is dial.) All ultimately ex Mary: cf. MOLL.

molly

, v.t. 'to bugger (someone)'; hence, adj. mollying, 'addicted to buggery'. The Ordinary of Newgate's Account, 1744, contains both—e.g. 'You mollying dog'. Ex sense 2 of the n.

Molly, Miss

. A milksop, an effeminate fellow: from ca 1750; ob.: coll>, ca 1890, S.E. cf. MOLLY, all senses, and MISS NANCY. (But Miss Mollyism, C.19–20 (ob.), is S.E.)

molly-head

. A simpleton: from ca 1900; ob. ?orig. U.S. Ex MOLLY, 1.

Molly Maguires

. An Irish secret society that, ca 1843, aimed to intimidate bailiffs and their like: app. not recorded before 1867 (W.S.Trench): coll, quickly>S.E. Ex their usually dressing in women's clothes and ex Connor Maguire, a noted C.17 conspirator, says Dawson.

molly-mop

. An effeminate man: coll: 1829, Marryat; ob. Ex MOLLY, 1.

Molly O'Morgan

. An organ: late C.19–20.

mollygrubs

, see MULLIGRUBS.

molly's (or Molly's) hole

. The female pudend: low: C.19–20; ob. Ex MOLLY, 3.

molo(c)ker

. A renovated hat: trade (–1892); ob. Ex molo(c)ker, v., to renovate an old hat by ironing and greasing: trade (–1863). Sala. ?ex the inventor's name.

molrower

. A wencher, esp. a whore-monger: low: from ca 1860; very ob. Ex:

molrowing

, vbl n. Whoring: low: from ca 1860; ob. Ex: 2. Caterwauling: low: from ca 1858; ob. Milliken, 'Beats 'Ansel's molrowings a buster'. Perhaps a fusion of miauling and caterwauling.

mompyns

, see MUNPINS.

mpnaker, monarch

, etc. A sovereign (coin): from ca 1855; ob.: low. Orig. (–1851), a guinea. Mayhew. 2. The tenoared boat: Eton College: ca 1890–1915. 3. A name or title: orig. tramps' c., it >, in all extant forms, gen. though somewhat low s. ca 1900. The forms are these: monaker, from ca 1860 (though Baumann implies from mid-C.18), not very gen.; monarch (–1879), ob., Macmillan's Magazine, 1879, vol. XL; monarcher (cf. MONARCHER, 2), app. first in P.H.Emerson, 1893; monekeer, 1851 (Mayhew), †; moneker, from ca 1852, while monneker arises ca 1855; monica, from ca 1890; monnaker (cf. monaker), from ca 1865; mon(n)ick (–1895), as in The Times, 11 Nov. 1895; mon(n)icker, a frequent form, from ca 1880; and mon(n)iker, the most gen. from of all (–1874), H., 5th ed. The etymology is mysterious: H. proposes Ste Monica, Monica deriving from L. monitor, an adviser, ex monere, to advise, to warn; Ware asserts that it derives 'from Italian lingo for name, Monaco being the Italian for monk'. W., however, thinks that it may be a Shelta word, and gives the meaning as 'sign'; but recent opinion favours monogram, which, I freely admit, is supported by: 4. A signature (–1859). This sense, however, causes me to wonder if the term be not a blend of monogram+signature; and this sense may possibly be earlier than sense 3. In a letter of 4 April 1959, Mr Jacob Jaffe suggests that it might be back-s. for ekename. This theory presupposes that a back form emaneke becomes maneke (trisyllabic), varied to moneke (trisyllabic) whence monaker etc. The chronologies of ekename and monaker do not exclude the possibility, but I prefer the derivation ex monogram.

monaker (etc.), tip (a person) one's

. To tell one's name: low: from ca 1860.

monarch(er)

. See MONAKER (esp. 3). 2.

monarcher, big

. An important person: tramps' c. (–1893); ob.

Monday

, adj. An intensive: from ca 1890; very ob.: low. Kipling, 1892, in Snarleyow, 'You may lay your Monday head | 'Twas juicier for the niggers when the case began to spread.' ?by misunderstanding or by corruption ex MULTY.

Monday, black

, see BLACK M. M., bloody, see BLOODY M. Monday, St, see ST M.

Monday mice

. The numerous black eyes seen that morning after the week-end drinking: London streets': late C.19–20; slightly ob.

Monday pop

. One of the celebrated popular concerts at St James's Hall, London: coll: 1862, Geo. Eliot in letter of 26 Nov.

moneke(e)r

; monekeur (very rare), see MONAKER, 3.

money

. Money's worth; a way of investing money: coll: 1851, Mayhew, 'In February and March...green fruit's not my money'; ob. 2. A (gen. very young) girl's private parts: low: from ca 1780; ob. 3. Bubbles in a cup of tea: since ca 1870.

money, a pot—or pots—of . A large amount of money; a fortune: coll: from ca 1870. Mrs H.Wood, 1871, pots; Trollope, a pot.

money, eggs for

. An excuse, a trick. Esp. in take eggs, to suffer a trick, accept an excuse. Coll: C.17. Shakespeare, The Winter's Tale.

money, hard

. Coin, as soft money is notes: coll: from ca 1848.

money, it's like eating

. This is a costly business: semi-proverbial coll c.p. (–1887).

money, not

(a person's). Not to one's taste or choice: coll: late C.19–20. Esp. as in Manchon, 'You ain't everybody's money.' Prob. suggested by (the) MAN FOR MY MONEY.

money, (so and so) for my

. (So and so) is what I like, desire, would choose: coll: C.17–20. W.Haughton, 1616, English-Men for my Money—a title.

money, Spanish

. Fair words and compliments: late C.17–18.

money, the man for (e.g.) my

, see MAN FOR MY MONEY.

money-bag lord

. An ennobled banker: Society coll: 1885–ca 1914. cf. GALLIPOT BARONET.

money-box, -maker, and (†) -spinner

. The female pudend: low: C.19–20; ob.

money-bug

. A millionaire: anglicized in 1898 from U.S.A.; ob.

money burns in (e.g.) his pocket(, e.g. his)

. He cannot keep money; is impatient to spend it: from ca 1530: coll till ca 1860, then S.E.More, Cornwallis (1601), Farquhar, T.Hughes.

money-dropper

*. A swindler who, dropping counterfeit money, gets good change from some FLAT: c.: 1748, Smollett. †by 1905. cf. RING-DROPPER.

money makes the mare to go

, see MARE (TO) GO.

money talks

. Money is very powerful: semi-proverbial c.p. bordering on S.E.: 1586, Pettie, ‘The tongue hath no force when gold speaketh’; 1666, Torriano, ‘Man prates, but gold speaks.’

mongar(l)ey

, see MUNGAREE.

mongrel

*. A sponger; a hanger-on among cheats: c.: ca 1720–1890.

monic or monick

*. A mainly c. variant of MONAKER: late C.19–20.

monica, monick, monicker, moniker

, see MONAKER, 3.

monish

. Money: mostly Yiddish (–1887). Ex money or rather moneys. But also, ca 1840–80, jocular, with a humorous imitation of Jewish pronunciation: Sinks, 1848.

monk

. A term of contempt: low: from ca 1860. 2. A dark or an over-inked spot in a printed sheet: printers': 1683, Moxon: s. >, ca 1830, j. Perhaps ex the Westminster Abbey associations of Caxton's press. cf. FRIAR. 3. Abbr. monkey, the animal: mid-C.19–20: (low) coll. 4. A sickly parrot: from the 1890s. Ex head indrawn and dejected.

monkery

*; occ. monkry. The country: tramps' c.: 1790, Potter; Egan; Mayhew; P.H.Emerson. 2. (Preceded by the) tramps or other vagrants collectively: tramps' c.: 1851, Mayhew. 3. The practice of going on tramp: tramps' c.: from ca 1850. Mayhew, 'He had followed the "monkry" from a child.' 4. Hence, on the monkery, on tramp (Mayhew, 1851). All senses are directly ex Shelta of C.18–20; all, too, are ob. cf. DEUSEAVILLE. 5. (Ex senses 1 and 4.) A district: grafters' s.: from ca 1880.

monkery, on the

*, see MONKERY, 4.

monkey

. £500 (in U.S. $500): 1856, The Druid; Whyte Melville. (The O.E.D. cites an 1832 text in which, prob. erroneously, it=£50.) Among stockbrokers, however, monkey (in C.20)=£50,000 of stock, i.e. 500 shares of £100. cf. PONY, 3. 2. 'A vessel', i.e. a container, ‘in which a mess receives its full amount of grog’, F. & H.: nautical (–1867): s.>, ca 1890, j. Prob. ex MONKEY, SUCK THE. 3. A hunting flask (for drinking): hunting s. or coll: ca 1850–80. Surtees. 4. See MONKEY UP. 5. A sheep: rural Australian: from ca 1880. A.C.Grant, Bush Life, 1881. 6. The instrument that propels a rocket: military (–1860): s.>, ca 1895, j. 7. A hod: bricklayers’ (–1885): s.>, ca 1905, j. 8. A small bustle or dress-improver (–1889); †by 1896: coll. Notes & Queries, 22 June 1889. 9. A padlock: c. (–1812). 10. A mortgage (see MONKEY ON A HOUSE); a writ on a ship: nautical: late C.19–20. 11. A clerk, esp. if unimportant: mechanics’ (–1909). 12. A greatcoat: naval: ca 1810–60, Glascock, 1838. cf. senses 2, 8. 13. ‘In English vulgar speech the monkey is often made to figure as a witty, pragmatically wise, ribald simulacrum of unrestrained mankind. Of the numerous instances, “You must draw the line somewhere, as the monkey said, peeing across the carpet” is typical. The phrase “...as the monkey said”, is invariable in this context’ (Atkinson): esp. since ca 1870.

monkey, cold enough to freeze the balls off a brass

. Exceedingly cold: low coll (mainly Australian): late C.19–20.

monkey, suck the

. To drink liquor, esp. rum, from a cask with a straw through a gimlet hole (cf. ADMIRAL, TAP THE): nautical: 1785; ob. cf. MONKEY, 2; perhaps it is a telescoping of the idea expressed in sense 3. 2. To drink liquor from a bottle; hence, to tipple: gen. s.: 1797; ob. 3. To drink rum out of coconuts, from which the milk has been drawn off: nautical: 1833, Marryat; ob.

monkey-board

. The conductor’s or the footman’s place on an old-style omnibus or on a carriage: coll: 1842, Mrs Trollope; J.Greenwood. †by 1895.

monkey-boat

. A small boat used in docks: 1858. 2. A long, narrow canal boat: 1864. Both senses are nautical s.>, ca 1905, j.

monkey-cage

. A grated room from which a convict sees his relatives and friends: low: from ca 1870. cf. Fr. parloir des singes.

monkey-coat, -jacket

. A close-fitting, short jacket, ‘with no more tail than a monkey’: nautical: from ca 1810: s.>, ca 1890, coll; app. orig. U.S.

monkey-hangers

. Port Glasgow men: Greenock seamen’s: late C.19–20. Topical: Bowen gives the anecdote.

monkey is up

, see MONKEY UP. monkey-jacket, see MONKEY-COAT.

monkey island

. ‘The uppermost tier of a big ship’s bridge’: nautical: late C.19–20. Bowen.

monkey-motions

. Physical drill: military: ca 1890–1914. Also naval: late C.19–20; ob.

monkey off one’s back, take the

. (Gen. in imperative.) To calm oneself: low (–1887). See MONKEY UP.

monkey on a gridiron

. A cyclist: Cockneys’: late C.19–20. J.W.Horsley, I Remember, 1912.

monkey on a, gen. one’s or the, house

; monkey on or up the chimney. A mortgage on a house: mainly legal: 1875; ca 1885. Ob. cf. MONKEY WITH A LONG TAIL. ‘Prob. suggested’, says the O.E.D., ‘by the initial m of mortgage’.

monkey on or up a stick

. A thin man with jerky movements: coll: ca 1880–1920. Ex the now seldom seen toy so named (1863).

monkey on a wheel

. A bicyclist: from ca 1880; ob.

monkey on horseback without tying his tail?, who put that

. A low c.p. applied to a bad horseman: late C.18–early 19.

monkey on one's back, have a

. A ca 1880–1910 variant of MONKEY UP.

monkey-parade

, see MONKEY'S PARADE.

monkey-poop

. 'The half deck of a flush decked ship': nautical coll verging on j.: late C.19–20. Bowen.

monkey-pump

. The straw in MONKEY, SUCK THE, 1: nautical (1867); ob. Smyth.

monkey-shines

, monkey-like antics or tricks, is U.S. (1847) and has never been properly anglicized, though it was occ. heard, ca 1875–1905, in Britain.

monkey-tail, hold on by somebody's

. To take someone's word for a story: nautical (–1887). Baumann. Punning tale; cf. monkey about, (S.E. for:) to play the fool.

monkey up, get one's

. To make, but gen. to become, angry: s. (–1859) and dial. Also, in predominant sense, one's monkey is up (1863, O.E.D.) or †have a or the monkey on one's back (–1864). Anon., 1877, Five Years' Penal Servitude, 'My monkey was up, and I felt savage'; 'Rolf Boldrewood', 1888, 'The mare, like some women when they get their monkey up, was clean out of her senses.' 'Perhaps alludes to animal side brought uppermost by anger', W. cf. BACK UP, adj.

monkey up, put one's

. To anger a person: from ca 1830. cf. preceding entry.

monkey up a (or the) stick, like a

. Performing queer antics: coll: late C.19–20. Ex the once popular toy.

monkey up the chimney

, see MONKEY ON A HOUSE and:

monkey with a long tail

. A mortgage: legal (–1886); ob. cf. MONKEY ON A HOUSE.

monkey with a tin tool(, like a)

. A low coll phrase denoting self-satisfaction or impudence: from ca 1863; ob.

monkey's allowance

, More rough treatment than money: 1785, Grose; Marryat, 1833, 'When you get on board you'll find monkey's allowance': s.>, ca 1840, coll; ob. 2. Short rations: naval: late C.18– very early 20. W.N.Glascock, Sailors and Saints (I, 166), 1829.

monkey's fist

. 'A knot at the end of a heaving-line to ensure its safe passage from a ship to jetty', Granville: naval coll: late C.19–20.

monkey's grease, (as) useless as

. Useless: C.18: coll 'Proverbial' Fuller. (Monkeys are thin.)

monkey's island

. An occ. variant of MONKEY IS LAND. (F. & Gibbons.)

monkey's money

. Payment in kind, esp. labour, goods, or, most of all, fair words: ca 1650–1800: coll. Urquhart, 1653, 'Paid for in court fashion with monkey's money'. cf. MONEY, SPANISH.

monkey's orphan

. '19th century naval name for the disappearing ship's fiddler', Bowen.

monkey's parade

. A (length of) road frequented by lads and lasses, esp. with a view to striking an acquaintance ('clicking'): (low) urban, esp. London: from ca 1895. Also monkey-parade.

monkey('s)-tail

. A short hand-spike: nautical s.>, ca 1860, j.: 1823, The Night Watch. 2. A nail: rhyming s.: late C.19–20.

Monmouth Street finery

. Tawdry clothes, furniture, etc.; pretence, pretentiousness: ca 1850–80: low coll. Mayhew. Monmouth (ca 1890>Dudley) Street was long a well-known market for second-hand clothes.

monnaker, monneker, monnicker, monniker

, see MONAKER, esp. 3.

monocular eyeglass

. The breech: low: ca 1860–1910.

monosyllable

. The female pudend: either polite s. or a vulgarity; ob. by 1880, † (except among the cultured) by 1915. Anticipated in Lucas's The Gamesters, 1714, thus, 'Perhaps a bawdy monosyllable'—i.e. cunt—'such as boys write upon walls' but app. first 'dictionaried' in 1788, Grose, 2nd ed. (which, by the way, has been shamefully neglected by lexicographers), as 'a woman's commodity' (see COMMODITY). Omitted by O.E.D., as is CUNT, the word both connoted and denoted by the monosyllable, of which 'Jon Bee' remarks, in 1823, 'of all the thousand monosyllables in our language, this one only is designated by the definite article; therefore do some men call it "the article", "my article", and "her article" as the case may be.' For a fuller treatment, see my edition of Grose.

mons

. A crowd; to crowd (v.i.): Winchester College: ca 1860–1920. ?L. mons, a mountain, or an abbr. of monster or monstrous. 2. (Gen. Mons.) A catachrestic abbr. of monsieur: C.18–20; ob. (‘Regarded in Fr. as intentional impertinence’, W.)

Mons Meg

. The female pudend: low: C.19. ?ex the C.15 gun in Edinburgh Castle.

monstrous

, adj. An intensive (very great, iniquitous, etc.): coll: ca 1710–1840. Swift, ‘We have a monstrous deal of snow’; F. Burney, ‘this monstrous fatigue’; Cobbett, ‘Here is a monstrous deal of vanity and egotism.’

monstrous

, adv. A general intensive (cf. AWFUL; BLOODY): coll: ca 1590–1850. Shakespeare, ‘monstrcms desperate’; Congreve; Mrs Trollope, ‘monstrous good friends’.

Mont

. A tramp or a beggar: Cockneys’: late C.19–20; ob. Origin prob. anecdotal—perhaps in a picturesque tramp named Monty.

month, a bad attack of the end of the . Shortness of money: jocular coll: from ca 1870. i.e. waiting for the month's salary to be paid.

month of Sundays

. A long time: coll: from ca 1830. Marryat, 1832.

monthlies, the

. Menstruation: 1872: a vulgarism>, ca 1895, low coll. cf. FLOWERS.

month's end, an attack of the

, see MONTH.

montra

*. A watch: c.: ca 1810–50. Ex Fr. montre.

moo-cow

. A cow: childish coll: 1812, Combe, 'The moo-cow low'd, and Grizzle neighed'; Thackeray. cf. BOW-WOW; COCK-A-DOODLE-DOO.

mooch

. An idling, scrounging, skulking, banging about, looking for odd jobs. Hence, on the mooch, adj. and adv., engaged in one of these ‘activities’; in Wiltshire dial., shuffling(ly). H., 1st ed., 1859; London Herald, 23 March 1867. Also mouch. (cf. MIKE, 2.) Ex the v. 2. See sense 5 of:

mooch

, v. (Also mouch; cf. MIKE, 2.) To idle, sneak, hang about (often with about); slouch (with along): low: 1851, Mayhew. Also dial. Prob. ex MIKE, v., influenced by Fr. mucher, to hide, skulk. 2. ‘To sponge, slink away and allow others to pay for your entertainment’, Barrère & Leland: ca 1855–1910. 3. v.t., to steal, pilfer: 1861, Mayhew (to steal things one finds lying about); ob.: prob. c.> low s. and dial. 4. To be a tramp: tramps’ c.: late C.19–20. Gen. as vbl n.: mooching. cf.: 5. ‘To walk round and round the decks in company’: Conway cadets’ (–1891). Also come (or go) for a mooch.

mooch, do a

, see DO A MIKE.

moocher; moucher

. A lazy loiterer or hanger-about; a loitering thief (gen. a pilferer); a tramp: a (professional) beggar: low: from ca 1855. Also mutcher. cf. dial. senses: see E.D.D. Ex the preceding.

moochi

. An Indian shoemaker: Regular Army coll: late C.19–20. Ex Hindustani.

mooching, mouching

, vbl n., see MOOCH, v. 2. adj., from ca 1860. Also dial.

mooë, moeey

, see MOEY.

mooer

. A cow: coll: ca 1820–1910. Ex moo, v. cf. MOO-COW; MOWER.

mooi

. Fine; handsome: South African Midlands coll: from ca 1880. Ex the Dutch mooi (handsome, pretty, fine), which, among the Cape Dutch, ‘has to do duty for almost every shade of appreciation’, Pettman.

moon

*. A month’s imprisonment: c.: 1830, Moncrieff, ‘They’ve lumbered him for a few moons, that’s all.’ Hence, long moon, a calendar month. cf. DRAG, n., 7.

moon

, v. (Gen. with about, along, or around.) To idle, lounge, or wander as in a dream: coll: 1848, Albert Smith; Charlotte Yonge, ‘...When you were mooning over your verses’. 2. Occ. v.t. with away, as in Besant & Rice, 1877, ‘I might have mooned away the afternoon in the Park.’

moon, a blue

, see BLUE MOON.

moon, find an elephant in the

. To find a mare’s nest: ca 1670–1830. Butler, The Elephant in the Moon. Ex the C.17 Sir Paul Neal, who thought that a mouse in his telescope, as he looked through it, was an elephant in the moon.

moon, shoot (occ. bolt or shove) the

. To depart with one’s valuables and, if possible, furniture, by night without paying the rent: coll: 1823, Egan’s Groser, shove (†by 1870), c.; bolt, †by 1905, occurring in 1825, and shoot in 1837. cf. MOONLIGHT FLIT.

moon and the milkman, go between the

. To shoot the MOON: proletarian: ca 1860–1910.

moon-curser

*. A link-boy, esp. one that lights his clients into a pack of rogues: c.: 1673, Head; †by 1840. (In dial., a shipwrecker.)

moon-eyed hen

. A squinting wench: ca 1780–1890.

moon-faced

. Japanese-faced: non-aristocratic (–1887); ob.

moon, God bless her!,—it is a fine

. A proverbial c.p. greeting the new moon: from ca 1670; ob. Aubrey.

moon is made of green cheese, make believe the

, see CHEESE, BELIEVE...

moon knows about Sunday, know no more about it than the

. To know nothing about it: coll (–1887); slightly ob.

moon-man

; moon's man. A Gypsy: C.17– early 19: c. (after 1800, perhaps low s.): Dekker, B.E., Grose. 2. A robber by night: late C.16–17: coll. Shakespeare (moon's man); 1632, Sherwood, who defines as a brigand.

moon-raker

. A Wiltshire man: from ca 1765: coll, slightly ob. Grose, 2nd ed., says that some Wiltshire rustics, seeing the moon in a pond, tried to rake it out: Wiltshire people prefer a more complimentary legend. 2. Hence, ca 1830–1900, a smuggler: dial. (mostly) and coll. 3. A blockhead: from ca 1840, ob.: coll>, ca 1900, S.E. Ex sense 1. 4. A real or imaginary sail above the skysail: nautical, resp. (–1867) j. and (–1896) s.

moon-raking

, vbl n. and ppl adj.: from ca 1865; ob. Coll>, ca 1895, S.E. See MOONRAKER.

moon-shooter

. See MOON, SHOOT THE. From ca 1890.

mooner

. A dreamy idler, loungeur, wanderer: coll: 1848, Albert Smith.

mooney

. A variant spelling of MOONDY.

moonlight

. Smuggled spirits: from ca 1809; > ob. ca 1890. Scott. Ex the nightwork of smugglers: cf. MOONSHINE.

moonlight flit, flitting

. A removal of household goods by night without paying the rent: resp. dial. (–1824) >, ca 1865, s.; s. (–1721) >, ca 1880, coll. O.E.D.; F. & H., where the occ. late C.19–early 20 variant, London flitting, is recorded. cf. MOON, SHOOT THE.

moonlight wanderer

. One who does a MOONLIGHT FLIT or ‘London flitting’: ca 1820–70.

moonlighter

. A harlot: from ca 1850; ob.

moonraker

, see MOON-RAKER. moon's man, see MOON-MAN.

moonshee

. An Indian teacher of, an amanuensis in, languages. This sense (1776) is prob. to be rated as 'standard'; but as=a learned person (–1864), moonshee is coll, as in 'Indian interpreter': military: late C.19–20. Also moonshi, munshi, munshee.

moonshine

. Smuggled spirits: 1785, Grose: coll>, ca 1890, S.E. Often with a specific sense: white brandy, in Kent, Sussex; gin, Yorkshire.

moonshine, gilded

. Bogus bills of exchange: ca 1820–1910, but ob. as early as 1880. Ex the metaphorical S.E. sense of moonshine: unreality.

moonshine in the mustard pot (for it)

. Nothing: coll: ca 1630–1700. Gen. preceded by one shall have. cf. S.E. moon(shine) in (the) water. (Apperson.)

moony

. A noodle: coll: from ca 1850. Ex: 2. adj., silly, which is S.E. 3. But moony, drunk, (gen.) slightly drunk, is s.: 1854 (O.E.D.).

moored in Sot's Bay (or s. b.)

. 'Drunk and incapable': nautical: late C.19–20. Bowen. cf. GUTTER-LANE.

Moorgate rattler

. A SWELL of that London district: Cockneys': 1899–1910.

Moorish

. Mohammedan: C.16–20: S.E. till ca 1830, then coll, increasingly low; ob.

maootch

, see MOOCH.

mop

. A drinking-bout. Hence on the mop, on the DRUNK or the drink. Low: from ca 1860, ob., as is: 2. A drunkard, same period. cf. LUSHINGTON: see also LUSH.

mop

, v. To empty a glass or pot: ca 1670–1810. Cotton. cf. MOP UP, 1. 2. To collect, obtain, appropriate: coll: from ca 1850; †by 1905. cf. MOP UP, 2.

mop-eyed

, see MOPE-EYED.

mop out

. (cf. wipe out.) To FLOOR, kill; ruin (–1892); †by 1910: low. Gen. in passive. Milliken, 1892, in his ‘Arry Ballads. cf. MOP UP, 5.

mop-squeezer

. A housemaid: low: 1771. Ob. cf. SLAVEY.

mop-stick

. A ninny, a simpleton: low (–1887); slightly ob. Also mopstick.

mop (or wipe) the †earth, floor, †ground with one

. (Occ. with up after mop.) To knock a person down (–1887).

mop-up

. A severe trouncing, in single fight or, gen., in battle: C.20; ob. Conan Doyle, 1900, ‘Better six battalions safely down the hill than a mop-up in the morning.’

mop up

, v. To empty (e.g. a glass): from ca 1810. cf. MOP, v., 1. 2. Also, to eat: rare before ca 1890. 3. To collect, obtain, appropriate: from ca 1855. Mayhew. 4. v.i., to stop talking, gen. in imperative (–1887); ob.: low. Walford, the Antiquarian, April 1887. 5. To kill, slaughter: mainly military and naval (–1887). Baumann: Rider Haggard. cf. the n., and wipe out.

mope-eyed (occ. mop-eyed) by living so (or too) long a maid, you are

. A proverbial coll or c.p. of ca 1645–1720. Herrick, Ray, B.E. (Lit. mope-eyed=purblind.)

Mope-Eyed Ladyship, her

. Fortune: Ned Ward, 1703. Notoriously blind.

moper

. A deserter: military (–1887); virtually †.

mopes, the

. Low spirits, esp. if shown: from ca 1825: coll. Hone, ‘I have got the mopes’; Thackeray.

moph

. A variant (Bee, 1823) of MUFF (n., 2), a fool.

mophy

. (Of a youth) delicate and well-groomed: seamen’s: late C.19–20.

moppery

. The head: 1821, Pierce Egan, Life in London, †by 1870. The site of one’s mop.

moppy

*. Drunk: c.: from ca 1820; †by 1915.

mops, in the

. A perversion, ca 1830–1910, of in the MOPES.

mops and brooms

. Half-tipsy: coll: 1814, Sporting Magazine; Hardy; ob. With be. Ex the drinking customary at mops (statute hiring-fairs), the girls carrying a mop or a broom to indicate the kind of work they desired. Hence:

mops and brooms, feel all

. To be full of bitterness and sorrow: low (–1887).

mops(e)y

. A (gen. short) homely or, esp., dowdy woman: late C.17–20: coll till 'ca 1830, then S.E.; †by 1910. Ex mopsy, an endearment.

mopstick

, see MOP-STICK.

mopus

. A moping, or a dull, stupid, person: coll: ca 1690–1820; then extant only in dial. Ex S.E. mope, n. and v. 2. A small coin: ca 1690–1860: c. >, ca 1750, s. Tait's Edinburgh Review, 1841. 3. In pl (often mopusses), money: ca 1765–1905: low. Anon., The Stratford Jubilee, 1769, 'If she had the mopus's, I'll have her, as snug as a bug in a rug'; 1892, M.Williams. ?ex Sir Giles Mompesson, an early C.17 monopolist.

moral

. Likeness; counterpart. Rare except in the very moral of: low coll: 1757, Smollett; G.Parker, Smedley, 'Rolf Boldrewood'. Slightly ob. Perhaps ex the †S.E. sense, a symbolical figure, but prob. by a sol. for model. 2. A 'moral certainty', which it shortens: orig. and still mainly racing: 1861, Whyte-Melville; 1869, J. Greenwood, 'Everything that is highly promising becomes, in the slang of the advertising tipster, a moral.'

moral-shocker

. A novel dealing with sex: ca 1890–1914: Fleet Street. Loose for morals-shocker. cf. HILL-TOPPER.

Moray coach

. A cart: from ca 1805; ob.: Scots jocular coll.

more power to your elbow

! A c.p. of encouragement: late C.19–20. Of Anglo-Irish origin.

more R than F

. A c.p. applied, ca 1860–1910, to one who is more rogue than fool; esp. to a servant that seemed foolish.

more sauce than pig

, ca 1670–1750, like more squeak than wool, C.18, indicates greater show than substance. Proverbial coll: resp. B.E., Swift; North. cf. the C.19–20 dial. more poke (bag) than pudding.

more than the cat and his skin, you can't have

. A semi-proverbial, non-aristocratic c.p. (–1887); ob. A variant of having one's cake and eating it.

more war

! A Cockney c.p. directed at a street quarrel, esp. among women: 1898. In reference to the Spanish-American War.

more wind in your jib

! The c.p. of sailors in a ship with foul wind on meeting another with a fair wind: mid-C.19–20. (Thus will the wishers' ship gain a fair wind.)

moreish (OCC. more-ish); morish

. That makes one desire more: coll: from ca 1706, though not in print till 1738. Swift, ‘Lady S. How do you like this tea, Colonel? Col. Well enough, Madam; but methinks ‘tis a little more-ish.’

morepork (kind of a fellow)

. A ‘dull dog’; a fool: Australian coll: from ca 1840; very ob. R.Howitt, 1845; ‘Rolf Boldrewood’, 1890. Ex the bird named more properly mopoke.

morgan rattler

. ‘A cane or stick with a knob of lead at one or both ends, and short enough to be carried up the sleeve’: low s. (–1902) ex dial. (–1866); †by 1910. Prob. ex a man’s name. cf. COSH, and NEDDY, 4.

mork

*. A policeman: c. (–1889); ob. Clarkson & Richardson. Prob. a corruption of Romany mo(o)s(h)kero, a constable.

morley

, see MAULEY.

morning

. An early drink: 1718, Ramsay; 1854, R.W. Van der Kiste; mostly Scots: coll till ca 1860, then S.E. Also, from ca 1890, morning-rouser. 2. See:

morning! or morning to you!, or the top of the morning to you

! (Cheerily) good morning!: from ca 1870: orig. and still mainly Anglo-Irish: coll.

morning-drop

. The gallows: ca 1810–90: ?orig. c.

morning pride

. See PRIDE OF THE MORNING.

morning-rouser

, see MORNING, 1.

morning sneak

*. One who robs houses or shops while—before the household is up or the staff arrived—the servant or the shopman is cleaning steps, windows, etc.: c. (–1812); ob. by 1890. 2. In C.18 c., the morning sneak is ‘to walk about the Streets in a Morning betimes, and ‘sping [sic] any Body to go out of Doors, then immediately the Thief goes in,’ as The Regulator, 1718, has it.

morning’s morning

. A variant (ca 1895–1914) of MORNING, 1.

morocco, in

. Naked: Gypsy s.: C.19–20; ob. Longfellow. cf. LEATHER, n.

morocco man

. An agent of a fraudulent lottery assurance: ca 1795–1830: s. > coll. Colquhoun, Police of the Metropolis, 3rd ed., 1796.

Morpheus, in the arms of . Asleep: coll: C.19–20. Morpheus is properly the god of dreams.

morrice, morris

. To be hanged: c. of ca 1720–70. 2. (Often with off.) To decamp; depart: from ca 1760; ob. Cowper, 1765; Grose; Dickens; Grenville Murray, ‘The fellows...flirt with them, and morris off to town in spring for better amusement.’ 3. To move rapidly: sporting: ca 1825–60. 4. To die: boxing s.: ca 1810–60.

morrice (or morris), do a

. A variant (?from ca 1770; ob.) of MORRICE, 2.

Morse (or Moss) caught his mare, as

. Asleep. See NAPPING, CATCH.

mort

*; occ. morte (early). A woman; c.: ca 1560–1890. Awdelay: B.E., ‘a Wife, Woman, or Wench’; Disraeli. 2. A harlot; a near-harlot: from ca 1565: c., † by 1910. 3. A yeoman’s daughter: c.: late C.17–18. Also mot, late C.18–19 only: ‘Arabian’ Burton. All senses prob. cognate with or ex Dutch mot as in mot-huys, a brothel (Hexham); note, however, that Dr John Sampson, in The Times Literary Supplement of 21 June 1928, derived mort ex amourette.

mort, autem-, dimber-, kinchen-

*, see AUTEM, adj.; DIMBER; KINCHEN.

mort, strolling or walking

*. A female tramp: c.: late C.16–19. Chetle (walking).

mortal

. Very great; AWFUL: coll: from ca 1715; ob. Countess Cowper, 1716, '[They] take mortal pains to make the Princess think well of the Tories'; Dickens. 2. As an emphatic expletive (with any, every, or a negative): coll: 1609, Jonson, 'By no mortal means(!)'; 'every mortal thing', 1843. cf. no EARTHLY chance. 3. Tediously long: 1820, Scott, 'Three mortal hours'; Stevenson, 'They performed a piece...in five mortal acts.' 4. Short for mortal drunk (cf. at MORTALLY): from ca 1808: Scots and Northern coll and dial.; ob.

mortal

, adv. Excessively; DEADLY: C.15–20; ob.: S.E. till ca 1750; then, as in Warburton, coll till ca 1820, after which it is low coll (as in Thackeray's 'mortal angry') and dial.

mortallious

. Very drunk: mostly lower classes': C.19–20. Ex 'mortal drunk'. cf.:

mortally

. Extremely; AWFULLY: coll: mid-C.18–20. e.g. mortally drunk. cf. preceding.

mortar

. Abbr. of MORTAR-BOARD: low coll: from ca 1870. 2. The female pudend: low: C.19–20; ob. cf. PESTLE.

mortar, bricks and

. Houses; house property: coll: from ca 1905.

mortar, have one's finger in (the)

. To dabble in building: coll: ca 1630–1750. Berkeley MSS., 1639; Gerbier, Discourse of Building, 1662; Swift.

mortar and trowel

. A towel: rhyming: since ca 1870.

mortar-board

. A trencher-cap, worn at universities and some Public Schools: coll: 1853, 'Cuthbert Bede', "'I don't mind this 'ere mortar-board.'" mortar-pounder

. A ship's doctor: nautical: late C.19–20.

mortgage-deed

. A pawn-ticket: from ca 1860; ob. cf. TOMBSTONE.

moschkener

, see MOSKENEER.

Moses!; by the holy (jumping mother of) Moses!; by the piper that played before Moses!; holy Moses

! A (low) coll asseveration: resp. from ca 1858, ob.; 1876, Hindley (in full), ob.; 1890, Hume Nisbet, †; 1855, Strang.

Moses, prickly

. The mimosa: Australian bushmen's (–1887).

Moses, stand

. 'A man is said to stand Moses when he has another man's bastard child fathered upon him, and he is obliged by the parish to maintain it,' Grose, 3rd ed.: ca 1790–1920. Contrast dial. say Moses, to make an offer of marriage. 2. Hence, absolutely (of a man only). To adopt a child: lower classes'; mid-C.19–20.

mosey

; occ. mosey off. To decamp; depart quickly: orig. (1836), U.S.; anglicized ca 1890.

mosey along

. To jog along: orig. (–1877), U.S.; anglicized ca 1890; slightly ob. Kipling, 1891, ‘I’ll mosey along somehow.’

mosh

*. To leave a restaurant without paying: c.: from ca 1860; ob. A deliberate corruption of MOOCH, v., 2.

mosh, the

*. The practice of ‘moshing’ (see preceding entry): c. (–1857); ob.

mosiqui

. A little girl: showmen’s: from ca 1870.

mosk

. To MOSKENEER, which it shortens: from ca 1900: perhaps orig. c.

moskeneer

; occ. moskeener, moshkeneer, moschkener, moskuiner. To pawn (v.t. or i.) for more than the article is worth: ?orig. (–1874), c. > low. Henley, 1887, ‘Fiddle, or fence, or mace, or mack; Or moskeneer, or flash the drag’. Ex modern Hebrew mishken, to pawn, by Yiddish corruption. 2. Hence, he who does this (–1893), as in P.H.Emerson. cf. MOSKER.

moskeneering

. The profession of pawning at unfair prices: see preceding.

mosker

. A professional pawner at prices unfair to the pawnbrokers: low (?orig. c.): 1883: Daily Telegraph, 9 July, in a long article.

mosky

. A dolphin: nautical: late C.19–20. Whence?

mosque

. A church: a chapel: either c. or low: ca 1780–1830. G.Parker.

moss. Lead

*: c.: from ca 1787; ob. Grose, 2nd ed., ‘Because both are found on the tops of buildings’. cf. BLUE PIGEON. 2. Money: ?orig. (–1859), U.S., though adumbrated in early C.17; ob. Prob. ex a rolling stone gathers no moss.

Moss caught his mare, as

, see MORSE...

mossker

. An occ. variant of MOSKER.

mossoo

. Monsieur; a Frenchman: low coll (almost sol.): 1870; slightly ob. cf. MOUNSEER.

mossy

. Dull; stupid: s. or jocular coll: ca 1595–1605. ‘Mossy idiots’, 1597. For etymology, cf. U.S. mossaback and:

mossy-back

. An old-fashioned person: orig. U.S.; anglicized as coll ca 1890; ob.

mossyface

; old mossyface. The ace of spades: low: from ca 1860; ob. 2. In late C.18–mid-19, however: the female pudend

most of you!, all there but the

. A low c.p. applied to copulation: from ca 1850; ?ob.

mot, mott

*. A girl: c.: 1785, Grose; ob. by 1880, †by 1915, except in Ireland, where it has, since late C.19 (if not earlier), been used in low s., not necessarily pejoratively. But mot of the KEN (Mayhew)=matron of the establishment. A thinned form of MORT. 2. A harlot: c.: from ca 1790; ob. A variant of MORT.

mot

, v.i. To go wenching: c.: C.19–20; ob. Ex MOT, n., 2.

mot-cart

, A brougham: ca 1820–70: low (prob. orig. c.). 2. A mattress: low: (–1890). Ex MOT, n., 2.

mot-case

*. A brothel: c.: mid-C.19–20; ob. Ex MOT, n., 2.

mote

, v.i., with vbl n. moting. To drive or ride in a motor-car: coll: 1890–ca 1907. A prospectus of June 1890 (moting); Westminster Gazette, 18 Jan. 1898, ‘Leaving London about midday we shall mote to Ascot.’

moth

. A harlot: from ca 1870; very ob.: low. Either ex the attraction of nightlights or ex †S.E. sense, ‘vermin’.

mother

. A female bawd: low coll: late C. 17–20, but in C.18 gen., and in C.19–20 only, applied to the keeper of a brothel. Also, in reference, the mother. Also mother ABBESS (C.18–mid-19); MOTHER DAMNABLE; MOTHER MIDNIGHT; MOTHER OF THE MAIDS. 2. One’s wife, if she is also a mother: Cockney coll: from ca 1880.

mother?, did you tell your

, see MOTHER KNOW...

mother, he'll be a man before his

. A derisive c.p. either in retort or, more gen., in comment: from C.17; ob. Not in polite circles.

mother and daughter

. Water: rhyming s. (–1864).

Mother Bunch

. Water: Cockneys': ca 1590–1640. Dekker, The Shoemaker's Holiday (performed in 1599), IV, iv, Firk, 'Am I sure that Paul's steeple is a handful higher than London Stone, or that the Pissing-Conduit leaks nothing but pure Mother Bunch? Am I sure that I am lusty Firk? God's nails, do you think I am so base to gull you?' Mother Bunch was a well-known London ale-house 'hostess', as mentioned in Pasquil's Jests, 1604.

Mother Carey's chickens

. Snow: nautical (–1864). 2. Applied to faring alike and paying the same: ca 1820–50.

mother damnable

. A female brothel-manager: C.19–20; ob. See MOTHER.

Mother Hubbard

. A cupboard: rhyming s.: late C.19–20. Ex the nursery rhyme.

mother-in-law

. A mixture of ‘old and bitter’ (sc. ales), hence the etymology: 1884, Daily Telegraph, 3 July; ob. Mostly public-house.

mother-in-law’s bit

. A small piece: coll: from ca 1780. Grose, who thereby designates a step-mother—the meanness of such being notorious.

Mother Knab-Cony

. A bawd: s.: Ned Ward, 1709.

mother know you’re out?, does your

. A derisive c.p. addressed to a person showing extreme simplicity or youthful presumption: 1838, in Bentley’s Miscellany, “‘How’s your mother? Does she know that you are out?’” Baumann, 1887, has what will your mother say? and did you tell your mother? 2. Also in more gen. circumstances (–1895).

mother makes it, like

. Very well cooked; extremely tasty: lower classes' coll: late C.19–20. Collinson. Prob. with allusion to many married men's stock complaint, 'Umph! not like (my) mother makes it.'

mother midnight

. A female bawd: low: late C.17–18. 2. A midwife: low: late C.17–20; ob. The latter sense always predominated.

mother of all saints or souls,—of masons,— of St Patrick

. The female pudend: low: resp. G.A.Stevens, 1785; Grose, 3rd ed. (say 1791), likewise ob.; ca 1810–70, 'Jon Bee'; Lex. Bal., 1811. Anglo-Irish and ob. All are low.

mother of pearl

. A girl: rhyming: since ca 1870. But this very Cockney term occurs only in my old mother of pearl, my old girl, my wife; often shortened to mother—to the confusion of non-Cockneys.

mother of the maids

. A female brothel-keeper: low coll: ca 1787–1830. Ex—and in derision of—the ca 1570–1800 title of the head of the maids of honour in a Royal household.

mother sold her mangle?, has your

. An urban (mostly London) c.p. of no special application: somewhat low: ca 1870–1900.

mother or grandmother to suck eggs, teach one's

, see EGGS, TEACH...

mother's blessing, or M.B.

Proletarian (—1861; ob.), as in Mayhew, 'My husband's bedridden, and can't do nothink but give the babies a dose of "Mother's Blessing" (that's laudanum, sir, or some sich stuff) to sleep 'em when they's squally.'

mother's milk

. Gin: from ca 1820; ob.: low. Moncrieff. 2. Hence, spirits of any kind: from ca 1840; very ob. Sinks, 1848.

mother's (or mothers') ruin

. Gin: late C. 19–20. Perhaps it is rhyming s.

mother's white-haired boy

. A mother's darling: coll, gen. derisive: from ca 1895.

motor

. A FAST (2) man about town: London Society: 1896–ca 99. 2. A tutor for examinations: Oxford University: 1897–ca 1900. Simply a pun on COACH.

mott

*, see MOT.

motter

. 'Name given to the motor carriage on its very first official appearance in London on Lord Mayor's Day, 1896': Cockneys': 1896–8 (or 9). Ware.

motting

, vbl n. Wenching; whoring: C.19–20 low; ob. Ex MOT, v.

mottob

, n. Bottom: back s. (—1859).

mouch

; moucher; mouching, see resp. MOOCH; MOOCHER; MOOCHING.

mouchey, Mouchey

. A Jew: low: from ca 1860; ob. Ex or cognate with Moses: cf. Ger. Mauschel. cf. YID.

moulder

. ‘A lumbering boxer, one who fights as if he were moulding clay,’ Bee, 1823; pugilists’: ca 1820–1900.

mouldies

. Old clothes; moult the mouldies, get rid of, change, one’s old clothes: Cockney: 1895, James Greenwood, Inside a ’Bus. i.e. clothes going mouldy. cf. MOULDY, adj., 2.

mouldy

. A purser’s steward: nautical: from ca 1875; very ob. Ex mouldy provisions.

mouldy

, adj. Grey-headed: from ca 1860; ob. cf. MOULDY-PATE. 2. Worthless: coll: from ca 1890, as in 'a mouldy offer'. Anticipated in 1876 by Stevenson, 'I have had to fight against pretty mouldy health.' Ex the S.E. senses, decaying, decayed, lit. and fig.

mouldy-grub

. (Gen. in pl.) A travelling showman; an open-air mountebank: low: from ca 1860; ob. Hence, vbl n., mouldy-grubbing, the work of such persons. In S.E., the term is † for mulligrubs.

mouldy one or 'un

. A copper coin: low: from ca 1850; ob. Ex colour.

mouldy-pate

. A lackey with powdered head: ca 1860–1900.

moulies

. Copper coins: low Cockney: late C.19–20. i.e. mouldies, ex the colour. cf. MOULDY ONE.

mouch-present

(as in Awdelay), see MUNCH-PRESENT.

mounseer or Mounseer

. A Frenchman: mid-C.17–20: S.E. till C.19, then (low) coll when not jocular S.E.; ob. W.S.Gilbert, e.g. in Ruddigore. cf. MOSSOO. Baumann, 1887, has the nautical Mounseer Cockoolu.

mount

. A bridge: c.: C.18–19. But only in Mount, the. 2. A saddle-horse: coll: 1856, Whyte-Melville, ‘A dangerous and uncontrollable mount’. 3. A copulation: low coll: from ca 1856; ob. cf. RIDE. 4. Hence (?), a wife or a mistress: from ca 1856: low.

mount

, v. To get upon in order to copulate with: late C.16–20: S.E. till C.19, then (of animals) coll or (of persons) low coll. 2. To supply, ‘set up’: ca 1770–1890. D. Graham, 1775, ‘The old woman... mounted [Tom] like a gentleman.’ 3. (Occ. v.i.) to prepare for representation on the stage: theatrical (—1874) coll. 4. In c., v.i., to swear falsely, commit perjury, for money: from ca 1780; ob. G.Parker; Daily Chronicle, 6 March 1902. vbl n., mounting. 5. (Likewise in c.) mount for= BONNET FOR. Vaux, 1812; †by 1900.

Mount Pleasant

. The mons veneris: low: from ca 1880; ob. Ex the London district and the public eminence. cf. SHOOTER’S HILL.

mount the ass

. To go bankrupt: coll: late C.18–mid-19. Ex the old Fr. custom of mounting a bankrupt on an ass, face to tail, and leading him through the streets.

mount the cart

. To be hanged: lower classes' coll: C.18–early 19. The victims proceeded in a cart to the place of execution.

mountain-dew

. Scotch whisky: 1816, Scott: coll >, ca 1860, S.E. Bee, 1823, defines it, however, as contraband whisky.

mountain of piety, climb the

. To pawn some of one's effects: jocular coll (–1891); ob. By itself, mount(ain) of piety is S.E., C. 17–20, ob.

mountain-pecker

. A sheep's head: low (–1859); †by 1910. cf. JEMMY, n., 5.

mounted pitcher

. ‘A grafter who talks and demonstrates from the top of his stall high above the crowd’: grafters’ coll, verging on j.: late C.19–20. Hence, work mounted, to do this: id.: id.

mounteer

. A hat: s.: Ned Ward, 1703.

mounter

*. A swearer of false evidence, a giver of false bail: c.: from ca 1780; ob. Implicit in G.Parker, 1781; Vaux. Ex MOUNT, v., 4.

mourning

. As n., two black eyes. Hence, half-mourning, one black eye. Gen., however, in mourning, bruised, black, either (of eyes) to be in mourning or (of persons) have one’s eyes in mourning: mostly pugilistic: 1814 (O.E.D.), Sporting Magazine; 1820, ‘Peter Corcoran’ Reynolds. See also have been to BLACKWALL. 2. Both vbl forms are likewise, from ca 1880, applied to dirty finger-nails. 3. ‘When a ship, or square-rigged vessel appears in mourning, the yards on each mast are alternately topped on end’: W.N.Glascock, Sailors and Saints (I, 215), 1829. A naval phrase, dating late C.18–19.

mourning, (full) suit of

. Two black eyes (–1864).

mourning-band

. A dirty, esp. a black, edge to a finger-nail: from ca 1880.

mourning-coach horse

. ‘A tall, solemn woman, dressed in black and many inky feathers’: London middle classes’: ca 1850–90. Ware.

mourning shirt

. A flannel shirt, as it needs comparatively little laundering (–1908).

mouse

. A raised bruise: pugilistic: 1854, ‘Cuthbert Bede’; ob. Ex the bluish colour. 2. Hence, a black eye (cf. MOURNING); from ca 1860. 1895, Westminster Gazette, ‘A black eye in true cockney slang is known as a mouse.’ 3. F. & H. says that it also =the face, the mouth: prob. this is fleeting s. of the 1890s, but I find no other record of these two senses. 4. The penis: low: C.19–20; ob. 5. A woman, esp. a harlot, arrested for brawling or assault: London police’s: ca 1780–1800. R.King, 1781. 6. A barrister; occ. a solicitor (cf. the c. sense of MOUTHPIECE): ca 1888–1910: low (?orig. c.). Nat Gould.

mouse

! Be quiet, or talk low!; softly!: low: C.19. Mostly U.S.

mouse, (as) drunk as a

. Very drunk: C. 14–20; ob.: proverbial coll. Orig. (as) drunk as a drowned mouse.

mouse-buttock

, see MOUSE-PIECE,

mouse-digger

. Winchester College, ca 1840–1910. Mansfield, 1866, ‘Plying the mouse digger (a kind of diminutive pickaxe) in search of mice’.

mouse-foot!, by (the)

. A mild coll oath: ca 1560–1640. A. Dent, 1601, ‘I know a man that will never sweare but by Cocke, or Pie, or Mouse Foot. I hope you will not say these be oaths.’

mouse-hunt

. A wencher: coll: late C.16– mid-17. Shakespeare. ?also mouse-hunter.

mouse in a cheese, speak like a

. i.e. faintly; indistinctly: proverbial coll: late C.16–20; ob.

mouse in a churn, warm as a . Very snug: proverbial coll: ca 1670–1720. Ray.

mouse-piece or -buttock

. (In beef or mutton) that part immediately above the knee-joint: coll and dial.: C.19–20; ob. In S.E., mouse.

mouse tied with a thread, as sure as a . Very far from sure: proverbial coll: ca 1540–1600. ‘Proverbs’ Heywood.

mouse-trap

. The mouth: low: C.19–20; ob. 2. The female pudend: low: from ca 1850; ob. 3. A sovereign: low: from ca 1855. Ex ‘a fancied resemblance of the crown and shield to a set trap’, F. & H.

mouse-trap, the parson’s

. Marriage: late C.17–19.

mouser

. The female pudend, the CAT (5): low: C.19–20; ob. 2. A battalion man, because, like a cat, he remains in quarters, to watch the mice: militia: C.19. C. James, in his Military Dict., 1802. 3. A detective (–1863; ob.): low (?orig. c.).

mouth

. A noisy, prating, ignorant fellow: late C.17–mid-19; anticipated in Shakespeare. Dyche. cf. MOUTH ALMIGHTY. 2. A dupe (Cotton, 1680); hence, a fool (1753, Poulter): c. >, as in H., 3rd ed., low s.; ob. 3. Spoken impudence (cf. CHEEK and esp. LIP): C.19–20; ob. Not very gen. 4. The dry or furry mouth caused by a debauch: low coll: from ca 1870. ‘He has a mouth this morning.’ cf. HOT COPPERS.

mouth

, occ. face, laugh on the wrong (occ. other) side of one’s, is S.E., but sing on the ... is coll: from ca 1760.

mouth!, shut your

. Stop talking!: low coll (–1895). cf. Fr. ferme!

mouth almighty

. A noisy, talkative person: low: ca 1860–1910.

mouth and will die a lip, you are a

. A low, abusive c.p. of ca 1860–80; Ex MOUTH, n., 1.

mouth-bet

. A verbal bet: the turf: from ca 1860; ob.

mouth half cocked

. A person gaping and staring ignorantly at everything he sees: coll: late C.17–early 19.

mouth-pie

. A feminine scolding or wrangle: Cockneys' (–1909).

mouth thankless

. The female pudend: low Scots: mid-C.16–early 17. Kennedy, A. Scott.

mouth that cannot bite or says no words about it

. The female pudend: C.18–mid-19: low coll; occ. euphemistic S.E. D'Urfey (latter form).

mouth wide, open one's

. To ask a high price: coll: from ca 1890. C.Roberts, 1891, 'To use a vulgarism, he did not open his mouth so wide as the other.'

mouther

. A blow on the mouth: boxing: 1814; slightly ob.

mouthful

. A long word, esp. a name, that 'fills' the mouth: coll: 1884. cf.:

mouthful, say a

. To say something important or arresting: English of ca 1780–1880, then U.S. Clearly adumbrated in Sessions, Sept. 1790, 'I never said a mouth full of ill against her in my life.'

mouthful of moonshire, give one a

m. To feed on fair words: late C.18–mid-19: coll. Ray, ed. of 1813.

mouthpiece

*. A defending counsel; a solicitor: c. (–1857).

movables

, see MOV(E)ABLES.

move

, a (gen. clever or sly) action or movement, is S.E., but FLASH to (e.g. every) move, 1812, was perhaps orig. c. (†by 1900), FLY to... is low s.; up to (–1859), perhaps orig. coll, is S.E. in C.20.

move

, v.i. To depart, make a start; move away or off: mid-C.15–20; S.E. till ca 1750, then coll. Toldervy, Haliburton.

move in the blind

. To shoot the MOON: low: ca 1860–1910. Here, BLIND= darkness.

move off

. To die: coll: from ca 1760; ob. Foote, ‘Whether from the fall or the fright, the Major mov’d off in a month.’

moye on, get a

, v.i. To hurry; make progress: coll: orig. U.S.; anglicized ca 1907.

move the previous question

. To speak evasively: Society (–1909); ob. Ex Parliamentary j.

move to

. To bow to (a person): app. ca 1900–20.

mov(e)ables

*. Swords, jewellery, small objects of value: c.: ca 1690–1830.

mow

. To copulate with: Scots and Northern dial. or coll: C.16–early 19. The word, occ. as a n., survived in low s. till late C.19. Scots, either dial. or coll, is mowdiwark or -wort, the penis.

mow-heater

*. A drover: c.: mid-C.17– mid-19. Ex the drovers' habit of sleeping on hay mows.

mower

*. A cow: c.: ca 1670–1830. Perversion of MOOER.

Mowree

. A New Zealand seaman: nautical: late C.19–20. Ex Maori.

Mozzy

. Judy; cf. SWATCHEL, Punch. Showmen's: from ca 1850. ?via Lingua Franca ex It. moglie, wife.

Mr

, see MISTER. Mr Ferguson, Knap, Nash, Palmer, Right. See each name, but for Mr Pullen see PULL IN.

Mrs Evans

, see EVANS, MRS.

Mrs Gamp, Mrs Harris

. (Gen. together.) The Standard, the Morning Herald, esp. when they were owned by a Mr Baldwin: ca 1845–60: journalists'. Ex Mrs Gamp and her imaginary friend Mrs Harris in Dickens's Martin Chuzzlewit and the way those inter-appealing newspapers had of pretending to be independent.

Mrs Jones

. A water-closet: low: from ca 1860; ob. Gen. as visit or go to see Mrs Jones. cf. MY AUNT (JONES) and SIR HARRY.

Mrs Kell(e)y!, you must know

. A c.p. 'with no particular meaning', gen. addressed to 'a long-winded talker': London: 1895–1905. Ex a 'phrase used for two years at all times and places by Dan Leno'. Ware.

Mrs Lukey Props

*. A female brothel-keeper: tramps' c. (–1896); ob.

Mrs Partington

. 'A personification of impotent and senile prejudice': 1831; ob.: coll >, ca 1890, S.E. Sydney Smith. 2. Also, 'a kind of Malaprop', F. & H.; coll, in C.20 verging on S.E. but very ob. Besant & Rice, 1872, 'As Mrs Partington would say, they might all three have been twins.'

Mrs Suds

. A washerwoman, a laundress: 1757, Foote; ob.: coll.

Ms and Ws, make

. To be drunk, esp. walk unsteadily: printers': from ca 1860.

mubblefubbles

. Low spirits: ca 1585–1670. Lyly, Gayton. ?echoic; cf. MULLIGRUBS.

much?, how

, see HOW MUCH?

much!, not

. Not LIKELY! or certainly not!: coll: from ca 1885.

much matter of a wooden platter

. Much fuss about a trifle: ca 1610–1750. A proverb verging on coll.

much of a...

, with a negative. A great ...; a...of a noteworthy quality or to any great degree. Coll: from ca 1840. Dickens, 'He don't lose much of a dinner.'

much of a muchness

. Of much the same size, degree, value or importance; very much alike; coll: 1728, Vanbrugh; 1860, Punch; 1876, G.Eliot, 'Gentle or simple, they're much of a muchness.'

much wit as three folks—two fools and a madman

. Always preceded by as; gen. also with have. (To be) tolerably clever or cunning; also (to be) a fool. A derisive c.p. bordering on the proverbial. Mostly Cheshire. Ray, Lytton.

muck

. A very untidy, an uncleanly condition: (low) coll: 1766, Goldsmith, 'She observed, that "by the living jingo, she was all of a muck of sweat".' (cf. MUCKSWEAT.) Gen. be in a, or all of a, muck. 2. Filth, dirt, esp. if an oozing mass: C.14–20: S.E. till ca 1840, then coll, increasingly low. Dickens, Calverley. 3. Anything (soil, gravel, clay) excavated: Public Works' coll: late C.19–20. 4. Anything vile or disgusting: coll: 1888, Sportsman, 28 Nov., 'Drinking sech like muck'. 5. A coarse brute: low coll: from ca 1885. Anticipated in 'Muck: that's my opinion of him,' 1884, Henley & Stevenson. 6. Hence, an infantryman, the infantry: cavalrymen's (–1909). 7. A heavy fall, lit. or fig.: from ca 1892, ob. Abbr. MUCKER. 8. A failure: Public Schools' coll: late C.19–20. D.Coke, The Bending of a Twig, 1906, 'Make a muck of it.' cf. sense 4 of:

muck

, v. To make dirty: from ca 1830: S.E. till ca 1895, then coll (increasingly low). 2. To excel; beat: low: from ca 1850; ob. Mayhew, 'He'd muck a thousand!' 3. Hence, to ruin (a person): low: from ca 1840. Milliken, 'I'm mucked, that's a moral.' 4. To fail in or at: from ca 1840. Kipling, 'I shall muck it. I know I shall.' cf. MUCK UP, 2.

muck, chief

. (Of a person) a TRUMP: low (–1887); ob. cf.:

Muck, Lord

. A person unjustifiably, or in the speaker's opinion unjustifiably, important or esteemed: (low) coll: from the 1890s. Prob. suggested by the preceding term.

muck, about

. To fondle or caress very intimately: low, mostly costers': from ca 1880. Stronger than MESS ABOUT. 2. v.i., wander aimlessly; potter about: s.: 1896, Kipling, 'Our Colonel...mucks about in 'orspital.'

muck and halfpenny afters

. A bad, pretentious dinner: lower-middle classes' (–1909); virtually †.

muck and truck

. Miscellaneous articles: commerce (–1898); ob.

muck-cheap

. ‘Dirt-cheap’: coll: from ca 1870; ob. Ex MUCK, n., 2. cf. the Fr. salement bon marché (Manchon).

muck-fork

. A finger; occ. a hand: low: from ca 1850.

muck for luck

! a c.p. to someone getting his boots soiled with dog’s excrement, or similarly befouled: late C.19–20. cf. LUCK SHITTEN.

muck-heap

. A filthy sloven: coll: ca 1860–1910. cf. MUCK-SUCKLE.

muck of, make a

. A coll variant of MUCK UP, 2: from late C.19.

muck out

. To clean out (of money); ruin: low: from ca 1855.

muck-rag

. A handkerchief: low: C.19. ‘A Real Paddy’, Real Life in Ireland, 1822.

muck-shifter

. A navvy: navvies’ coll: ca 1800–1910. (D.W.Barrett, Navvies, 1880.)

muck-snipe

. A ruined person, esp. gambler: low: ca 1850–1910. Mayhew.

muck-spout

. A foul-mouthed talker: low: from ca 1870; ob.

muck-suckle

. A filthy woman: low coll: ca 1860–1900. cf. MUCK-HEAP.

muck-sweat

. Perspiration; orig. and properly if dust or dirt has accrued: proletarian coll: since ca 1830. Sessions, 22 June 1843. cf. MUCK, n., 1.

muck toper feeker

*. An umbrella-maker: Scots c.: ca 1820–80. Prob. the form should be mush-topper feaker: see MUSH and MUSH-FAKER.

muck-train

. A commissariat train: military: ca 1850–90.

muck up

. To litter: late C.19–20: (low) coll. Mrs Caffyn, ‘Mucking up my rooms.’ 2. To spoil, ruin, e.g. a person but esp. a plan: from ca 1885. cf. MUCK, v., 3. 3. Hence, as n., a complete failure; confusion or muddle.

muck-worm

. A contemptible fellow: s.: Ned Ward, 1703.

muckcook

. To laugh behind one’s back (v.i.): low: ca 1880–1905. Origin?

mucked out

, ppl adj. Penniless: low: from ca 1820; ob.

muckender

. A swab: s.: Ned Ward, 1703.

mucker

. A heavy fall: from ca 1850. Esp. in come or (ob.) go a mucker; often fig., come to grief. Kingsley, 1852, 'Receiving a mucker' (lit., of a horse); J. Payn, 1876, 'A regular mucker' (fig.). Because frequently caused by road-filth or muck. 2. A quartermaster: military: ca 1885–1910.

mucker

, v. To have a heavy fall; hence fig., come to grief: from ca 1860; ob. Kingsley. 2. v.t., to ruin (one's chances): 1869, 'W. Bradwood'. ob.

muckhill at one's door, have a good

. To be rich: proverbial coll: ca 1670–1720. Ray. Here, as in next, muckhill=dung-heap. (Mostly rural.)

‘muckhill on my trencher’, quoth the bride,—‘you make a’

. A c.p. of ca 1670–1750 and =You carve me a great heap. Ray, Fuller.

muckibus

. Tipsy: low: ca 1755–1850. Horace Walpole, 1756. Ex MUCK, n.

muckin; occ. mucking or mukkin

. Butter: Regular Army's: late C.19–20. Ex Hindustani makkhn.

mucking

. An act of 'messaging about': coll: 1904, Kipling, 'His photographic muckings'. ?no singular. Ob.; see MUCKING-ABOUT. 2. Rubbish, a mess: coll: 1898, Kipling, 'She's only burning muckings.' 3. See MUCKIN.

mucking

, adj. Dirty; disgusting: low coll (–1887).

mucking-about

. A 'messaging about': s. > coll: from ca 1905. 2. An intimate fondling: low (mostly costers'); from ca 1880. See MUCK ABOUT.

mucking-togs

; muckintogs. A mackintosh: low perversion: 1842, Barham; ob.

mud

. A fool, ‘a dull, heavy-headed fellow’, Dyche: low (?orig. c.): ca 1710–1850. Whence one’s name is MUD (Bee, 1823): > coll: extant. 2. A non-society (i.e. non-trades-union) man: printers’: from ca 1786: ob. by 1900.

mud, one’s name is

. One has been heavily defeated; one is in disgrace: from ca 1820. “‘And his name is mud!’ ejaculated upon the conclusion of a silly oration, or of a leader in the Courier’, 1823, ‘Jon Bee’. See also MUD: the sense has changed, for in C.20 mire, not a dull fool, is understood to be the origin.

mud, sure as

. Absolutely certain: school s.: 1899, Eden Phillpotts.

mud-crusher

. An infantryman (not often applied to an officer): military: from ca 1872. Sir G.Chesney, 1893, “‘You are too good to be a mud-crusher, Tommy,” said the Major...patronisingly.’ cf. BEETLE-CRUSHER; SWADDY; TOE-BUSTER; WORM-CRUSHER, and the Fr. poussecailloux, pebble-pusher. See esp. Words!

mud-fog association

. A scientific association in gen., or some particular one: coined by Dickens, 1838, in Bentley’s Magazine; referred to by C.Dickens, Jr, in Household Words, 1 May 1886. ca 1860–75, it was rarely used for other than the British Association for the Promotion of Science, esp. at the universities. Coll: †by 1896.

mud-head or mudhead

. A stupid person: coll: 1838, Haliburton; D.C.Murray, 1883, 'That old m.-h.'. The adj., mudheaded, 1793, is S.E. but likewise ob.

mud-hen

. A female speculator: Stock Exchange: U.S., anglicized by 1896.

mud-hole

. 'A salt-water lagoon in which whales are captured', F. & H.: whalers' (–1893): coll. Ex the churning-up of the water.

mud-honey

. Mud; esp. street slush: low: ca 1870–1914.

mud-hook

. An anchor: nautical (–1884).

mud in one's eye

. A tie: rhyming s.: late C.19–20.

mud-lark or mudlark

*. A waterside thief that, hiding under a ship at low tide, receives small stolen packets from the crew: c. (–1796). 2. By 1820, a sea-shore scavenger, who often waded out up to his, or her, waist. The first in Colquhoun's Police of the Metropolis, the second (also mud-larker, or mudlarker) in Egan's Groser and in Mayhew; the first, ob. by 1890, the second > s. by 1850, coll by 1900. Suggested by skylark. 3. A man that scavenges in gutters, esp. for metal, e.g. horsenails: c. or low: ca 1820–50. 4. Hence an official cleaner of common sewers: coll (–1859); ob. 5. A street ARAB: coll: 1865, Saturday Review, 4 July. 6. A member of the Royal Engineers: military coll (–1878). 7. Any person that, belonging to bank, counting-house, etc., has often, in the course of his work, to be out in the open air: City (London): from ca 1860; ob. 8. A hog: ca 1780–1830. 9. A duck: ca 1810–30.

mud-larker

. See MUD-LARK, 2. 1840, Marryat. Ob.

mud-major

. An infantry major: military (–1896). Because, on parade, he was on foot. cf. MUD-CRUSHER and:

mud-picker

. A military policeman in garrison: military: ca 1815–1910.

mud-pilot

. The pilot who takes a ship from Gravesend to the entrance of her dock: nautical: late C.19–20. Bowen.

mud-pipes

. Gum-boots: lower classes’: prob. since early C.19, for Sinks, 1848, defines the term as ‘thick boots’.

mud-player

. A batsman fond of a wet wicket: cricket: ca 1890–1914.

mud-plunger

. An infantryman: (mainly) military: from ca 1860; ob. cf. MUD-CRUSHER, and see ‘Soldiers’ Slang of Three Nations’ in Words!

mud-plunging

*. A tramping through mud in search of alms: tramps’ c.: from ca 1880. Daily Telegraph, 8 Feb. 1883.

mud-pusher

. A crossing-sweeper: urban lower classes': from ca 1870.

Mud-Saiad Market

. Covent Garden: low London: from the late 1870s; ob. Punch, 14 Aug. 1880, 'Mud-Salad Market belongs to his Grace the Duke of Mudford [!]. It was once a tranquil Convent Garden.'

mud show

. An outdoor show, esp. an agricultural one: Society (–1909); ob.

mud-slinger

; -slinging. A slanderer; slander: coll (orig. low): from ca 1890.

mud-student

. A student of farming: from ca 1855.

mudding-face

. A fool; a soft fellow: low: ca 1870–1915. Presumably ex MUD, a fool, and prob. by a pun on pudding-face.

muddled

. Slightly tipsy: coll: since ca 1780. The New Vocal Enchantress, 1791.

muddle on

. Though half-drunk, to continue drinking: coll: late C.17–18.

muddler

. A clumsy horse: turf coll: from ca 1886; ob.

mudge

*. A hat: c. (–1888). Sportsman, 22 Dec. 1888. ?etymology: is it perchance a sense- and form-perversion of MUSH, an umbrella?

mudger

. A milksop: low: 1830, Lytton, ‘Girl-faced mudgers’; ob. by 1880, †by 1910. ?ex dial. mudge, to move, budge, hence one moving very quietly.

mudlark, mudlarker

, see MUD-LARK.

muff

. The female pudend, outwardly: late C.17–20; ob.: orig. c.; by 1920, low. B.E., who quotes the toast, to the well-wearing of your muff, MORT. 2. ‘A foolish silly person’, Vaux, 1812: orig. c. >, by 1880, gen. s.; ob. ca 1850–75 it occ. connoted weakness of mind: H., 2nd ed., ‘muff has been defined to be “a soft thing that holds a lady’s hand without squeezing it”.’ Perhaps (cf. sense 1) ex (the softness of a) muff, the covering for female hands; Vaux less prob. suggests that it is a perversion of MOUTH, 2. 3. Whence, orig. in athletic sport, a clumsy and/or a stupid person: 1837, Dickens, “Now butterfingers”—“Muff”...and so forth’: s. >, ca 1880, coll. 4. A failure: 1871, Punch, 25 Feb., of a book; ob. Esp. (1896), anything badly bungled. Coll. Ex the v. 5. See MUFF, NOT TO SAY.

muff

, v. To bungle, physically or otherwise, esp. at games: 1846, ‘Muffed their batting’ (Lewis); 1857, G.A.Lawrence, ‘I don’t see why you should have muffed that shot.’ 2. v.i., to fail in an examination: 1884, Julian Sturgis: orig. Eton College s. >, ca 1890, gen. coll; ob.

muff, not to say; say neither muff nor mum

. To say not a word: mid-C.15–20: coll till C.18, then dial. Stapylton. Ex muff, an echoic word ‘representing an inarticulate sound’, O.E.D.

muff it

. To die: boxers’ s.: ca 1810–60.

muffed

, ppl adj. Bungled; clumsily spoilt, missed: from ca 1860: s. > coll.

muffin

. A fool: low: 1830, W.T.Moncrieff; †by 1910. Ex MUFF, n., 2, prob. by a pun on the light flat cake. 2. Whence, at games a constant misser of a shot or a ball: coll (–1895); ob. 3. One's 'girl', by arrangement, for the social life of a season: Canadian: 1856, Miss Bird: ob. 4. A cap of the 'pill-box' type: late C.19–early 20.

muffin, cold

. Mediocre; (almost) worthless: Cockney: ca 1890–1910. Milliken.

muffin-baker

. A Quaker: rhyming s. (–1859). Perhaps restricted to the low Cockney s. QUAKER, excrement long retained.

muffin-countenance or -face

. A hairless one, says F. & H.; an expressionless one, says the O.E.D. with reason: resp. 1823, ob., and 1777 (I.Jackman). Whence:

muffin-faced

. Having an expressionless face: C.19–20, ob. Bee, however, in 1823, implies that it indicates a face with protruding muscles: †by 1890.

muffin-fight; muffin-worry

. A tea-party: coll: resp. ca 1885–1910 and 1860, H., 2nd ed. (also in Ouida, 1877). cf. BUN-FEAST; TEA-FIGHT.

muffin-puncher

. A muffin-baker: Cockneys' (–1909).

muffin-walloper

. (Gen. pl.) A scandal-loving woman delighting to meet others at a tea-table: London middle classes': ca 1880–1914.

muffling

, ppl adj., bungling, from ca 1840. John Mills. n., clumsiness, clumsy failure: from ca 1860. Both s. > coll ca 1890.

muffish

. Foolish, silly; esp. clumsy: coll: 1858, Farrar. See MUFF, n., 2, 3.

muffishness

. The quality of being a MUFF, 2, 3: coll: 1858, Farrar.

muffism

. Foolishness; an action typical of a MUFF, 2, 3: coll: 1854, Lady Lytton: ob. by 1900.

muffle

, a boxing-glove, is prob. S.E. (ca 1810–40). So, perhaps, is:

muffler

, in the same sense: mid-C.18–20; ob. 2. A stunning blow: boxing: ca 1820–1905. 3. A crape mask: 1838, Glascock: c.; ob. Ex:

muffling-cheat

*. A napkin; a towel: c. of ca 1560–1840.

mufti

. Plain clothes worn by one who, at work, wears a uniform: 1816: s. >, ca 1880, coll >, ca 1910, S.E. 'Quiz'; Marryat, 1833, 'In a suit of mufti', the post-1850 form being in mufti. O.E.D. Perhaps jestingly ex mufti, a Mohammedan priest, via the theatre, which, in early C.19, represented officers off duty wearing 'flowered dressing-gown and tasselled smoking cap', W. 2. A chaplain on a man-of-war: naval: ca 1830–50. Marryat, in his King's Own.

mug

. The face: 1708, The British Apollo, 'My Lawyer has...a Temple-Mug.' Prob. ex mugs 'made to represent a grotesque human face'. 2. Hence, the mouth: 1820, J.H.Reynolds, 'Open thy mug, my dear.' Ob. by 1900. 3. A cooling drink: coll (1633, S.O.D.) >, ca 1850, S.E.; ob. 4. A fool; an easy dupe; a DUFFER (4): 1857, 'Ducange Anglicus'; Mayhew. i.e. something into which one can pour anything. 5. An examination: from ca 1852; ob.: university and school. 6. Hence, one who studies hard: school: from ca 1880. 7. A mist, a fog: s. and dial.; the former (as in Ash's Dict, 1775), ca 1770–80; the latter, extant, with further senses, a drizzle, gloomy damp weather.

mug

, v. To grimace: theatrical >, ca 1880, gen.: 1855, Dickens, 'The low comedian had "mugged" at him...fifty nights for a wager.' Slightly ob. cf. MUG UP. Prob. ex mug, to pout: see sense 11, below. 2. To strike, esp. punch, in the face: boxing: 1818; ob. Ex the n., 1. Hence, 3, (–1859), to fight (v.t.), chastise, thrash. 4. To bribe with liquor: s. (†) and dial.: 1830 (O.E.D.). Also, in s. and dial., v.i. and v. reflexive, to get drunk: from ca 1840. 5. Hence, to swindle, to rob (esp. by the garrotte): low: from ca 1860; ob. Mayhew. 6. v.i., to study hard: 1848: mostly school and university. (v.t. with at.) Perhaps ex the theatrical sense. Occ. mug away or on. 7. Also v.t., to study hard (at): from ca 1880. More gen. mug up. Hence, 8, to take pains with (e.g. a room): Winchester College: from ca 1870; ob. 'He has mugged his study and made it quite cud' (i.e. comfortable), F. & H. 9. (Gen. with together), v.i., to crowd it in a confined space (–1878). 10. See MUG ONESELF, 2. 11. To pout; to sulk: s. (ob.) and dial.: from ca 1730. Collins the poet. Perhaps ex dial. mug, v.i., to drizzle, rain slightly. cf. sense 1.

mug away or on

. See MUG, v., 6: resp. 1893, 1878, (Prob. years earlier.)

mug-faker

, see MUGGER, 2.

mug-hunter

*. A robber of drunken men, esp. at night: c. (–1887) >, ca 1900, low.

mug oneself

. See MUG, v., 4. 2. To make oneself cosy: low: from ca 1880; ob. cf. MUG, v., 8.

mug-trap

. A duper or swindler of fools: 1892, Milliken: low. cf. MUG-HUNTER.

mug up

. v.i., and, more gen., v.t., to study hard: mostly school, university and Army: from ca 1860; ob. 2. v.t. and v.i., to paint one's face: theatrical: 1859, H.; 1892, Milliken, 'You're mugged up to rights.' 3. To eat: mostly in the Grand Banks schooners: late C.19–20.

mugger

. One who studies hard: mostly schools' (–1883). James Payn. 2. (Also mug-faker: 1887, Baumann.) A comedian specializing in grimaces: theatrical: 1892 (also prob. earlier), National Observer, 27 Feb., 'None had ever a more expressive viznomy than this prince of muggers.' 3. A punch or blow to or on the MUG or face: pugilistic: ca 1810–60. Boxiana, III, 1821. See quote at BOX OF DOMINOES.

muggill

*. A beadle: c. of ca 1600–20. Rowlands, in Martin Mark-All. ?etymology.

mugging

. vbl n. to MUG, v., 1, 2, 3, 5, 6.

muggins

. A simpleton, JUGGINS, fool: U.S. (ca 1870), anglicized ca 1880. Ex MUG, n., 4, suggested by the surname Muggins. 2. A borough-magnate or a local leader: ca 1890–1910. 3. See:

muggins, talk

. To say silly things: 1881, Punch, 10 Sept.

muggled

*. An adj. applied to cheap goods offered for sale as contraband: c.: from ca 1850; ob. Mayhew. A perversion of smuggled.

muggles

. Restlessness: ca 1740–1800. Robertson of Struan, in Poems, 1750.

muggy

. Drunk: low: from ca 1858; ob. Ex dial. muggy, damp.

mugs, cut

. To grimace: theatrical: from ca 1820; ob. cf. MUG, n., 1.

mug's corner

. The fielding position at mid-on; that at short leg: cricketers': ca 1890–1910.

mug's game

. A silly—esp., an unprofitable—thing to do: late C.19–20.

mugster

. One who studies hard (see MUG, v., 6): schools' (–1888); ob.

mugwump

. A great man; an important one: from ca 1830, and orig. and mainly U.S.: perhaps orig. coll. but certainly soon S.E. Ex the Red Indian for a chief.

mukkin

, see MUCKIN.

mule

. A sexually impotent man: low coll: from ca 1870. A mule being unable to generate. 2. A day hand in the composing room: printers': from ca 1860; ob.

mule, shoe one's

. To embezzle: coll: ca 1650–1720. Nares.

mull

. A muddle, a mismanagement, a failure: 1821, Egan, 'Somebody must make a mull': s. >, ca 1860, coll. Esp. in make a mull of. Prob. ex muddle on analogy of mell, meddle, or perhaps ex dial. mull, to pulverize, cause to crumble. 2. Hence, or perhaps ex the v., from ca 1865, a simpleton; a clumsy fellow. Chiefly old mull, regular mull. 3. A Civil Service officer of the Madras Presidency: Anglo-Indian: from ca 1835. Abbr. mulligatawny. cf. DUCK, n., 4; QUI-HI.

mull

, v. To spoil, muddle: orig. and mainly athletics': coll: 1862, Sporting Life, 14 June, 'Pooley here "mulled" a catch'. Ex the n., 1.

muller

, v.t. To cut down a tall hat into a low-crowned one (occ. called a muller): trade: 1864–ca 85. Builder, Nov. 1864. The hat was also called a Muller-cut-down. Ex Müller, a murderer who attempted to disguise himself in this way.

mulligatawny

. See MULL, n., 3. ca 1810–20. 'Quiz', 1816. ?ex the high seasoning of this East Indian soup and the peppery temper of many officials.

mulligrubs

; in C.19–20, occ. mollygrubs. Colic: from ca 1615: S.E. till C.19, then coll. Fletcher, in Monsieur Thomas; 'Cuthbert Bede', 1853. Ex: 2. (Esp. in be in one's mulligrubs.) Depressed spirits (cf. MUBBLE-FUBBLES): C.17–20 (anticipated in 1599 by Nashe's mulligrums, which persists in dial.): S.E. till C.19, then coll. Scott (of a drink), 'Right...as ever washed mulligrubs out of a moody brain'. Both senses, esp. the latter, are ob. A fantastic formation, perhaps on mouldy grubs.

Mullingar heifer

. (A development from MUNSTER HEIFER.) A thick-ankled girl: Anglo-Irish: from ca 1860; ob.

mullock

. Rubbish; a worthless thing: Australian coll: from ca 1850. Ex the mining-j. senses, rock without gold, refuse of gold-workings, ex Eng. dial. 2. Hence, an ignorant or worthless person: since ca 1880.

mullock over

. To shear incompletely or very carelessly: Australian shearers': from ca 1890. The Age, 23 Sept. 1893. Ex MULLOCK.

multa, multie, multi, multy

. Very: Parlary: mid-C.19–20. e.g. in:

multee kerver (or -iver) or multicattivo

. Very bad: theatrical (–1887) ex (–1859) Parlary; very ob. in the former. Ex It. molto cattivo, very bad, via Lingua Franca.

multy

. An expletive and/or intensive adj.: low and Parlary: mid-C.19–20. Henley, 1887, ‘How do you melt the multy swag?’ Ex It. molto, much, very. 2. adv. See MULTA.

mum

. Silence, esp. if connoting a refusal to speak: coll: 1562, J.Heywood; Butler; Pall Mall Gazette, 7 Jan. 1890, ‘If the policy of “mum” continues’. ob. Ex mum, a representation of an inarticulate sound: cf. MUFF, NOT TO SAY. 2. See MUMS. 3. Mother, gen. as term of address: orig. (–1823), dial.; > coll ca 1880. Abbr. MUMMY. 4. A low coll variant of MA’AM: C.19–20. cf. MEM.

mum

, as a quasi-adv. (strictly silent), esp. in to stand mum, is coll: C.16–19. Archaic except in dial. R.Bridges, 1894, ‘Don’t stand there mum.’

mum-tip

. (A payment of) hush-money: ca 1815–50. Pierce Egan, Life in London, 1821.

mum your dubber

*! Silence!: from ca 1780; ob.: c. See DUBBER.

mumble-crust

. A coll nickname for a toothless person: ca 1550–1620.

mumble-matins

. A coll nickname for a priest: ca 1560–1630.

mumble-mumper

. An old, sulky, inarticulate, unintelligible actor: theatrical: from ca 1860.

mumble-news

. A tale-bearer: 1588, Shakespeare, ‘Some mumble-news, some trencher-knight, some Dick’: coll >, in C.19, S.E.; ob. by 1860, †by 1900.

mumble-peg

. The female pudend: low: C.19. ?ex the old type of mole-trap.

mumble-sparrow

. ‘A cruel sport practised at wakes and fairs’, a handicapped man (gen. with arms tied behind his back) attempting to bite off the head of a handicapped cock sparrow. Coll > S.E.: ca 1780–1820. Grose.

mumbo-jumbo

. Meaningless jargon: coll: from ca 1850. Ex the S.E. sense: an object of senseless veneration, itself ex a West African word.

mumchance that or who was hanged for saying nothing, look or sit like

. A c.p. applied to a silent, glum-looking person: late C.17–mid-19. Cheshire substitutes mumphazard and stand.

mummer

. An actor: contemptuous s.: 1840, Carlyle. Ex the S.E. sense, an actor in a dumb show or in a mumming. Whence mummerdom, rather S.E. than unconventional. 2. The mouth: low, esp. boxing: ca 1780–1870. Ex MUNS and MUMS.

mummery-cove

. An actor: low: ca 1830–80. cf. CACKLING-COVE.

mumming-booth

. ‘A wandering marquee in which short plays are produced’: theatrical coll: mid-C.18–20; ob. Ware.

mummy

. Mother, esp. as term of address: orig. (–1790), dial.; > coll ca 1880 and ‘in recent years fashionable in England’, O.E.D., 1908. Ex mother or MAMMY.

mump

. To deceive, overreach, cheat: ca 1650–1740: s. >, ca 1710, coll; very gen. until ca 1705. Fuller, Wycherley, North. Ex Dutch mompen, to cheat. 2. To disappoint: coll: ca 1700–40. Kersey. Both senses constructed with (out) of. 3. v.i., to beg, be a parasite: from ca 1670; ob.: orig. c. >, ca 1750, low s. Head, Macaulay. 4. v.t., to obtain by begging: from ca 1680; ob. F.Spence. 5. v.t., to call at (a house) on a begging round: from ca 1865: c. >, ca 1890, low s.; ob. 6. To talk seriously: low (–1857); ob. 7. Short for MUMPER: Ned Ward, 1709.

mump, on the

*. A-begging: vagabonds’ c.: late C.19–20.

mumper

*. A beggar: from ca 1670; ob.: c. >, by 1720, low s. Until ca 1720, a genteel, then any beggar (witness Head, 1673, and Grose, 1785). Extant also as dial. 2. Hence, a sponger: ca 1720–1830. Macaulay, 1849, ‘A Lincoln’s Inn mumper was a proverb.’ 3. A half-bred Gypsy: ca 1870–1900: c. Hindley.

mumper’s brass

*. Money: c.: Ned Ward, 1709.

mumper's (or -ers') hall

*. A beggar's alehouse: late C.17–mid-19: c. until ca 1720, then low s.

mumping

*, vbl n. and ppl adj. Begging: resp. from ca 1690 (c. > low s.) and from ca 1825 (low s., ob.); n. in Motteux, adj. in Lytton. cf. the dial. Mumping Day, Boxing Day: C.19–20; ob.

mumple-inumper

. An occ. C.19 variant of MUMMER, 1.

mumps, the

. Very low spirits: non-aristocratic coll (–1887). cf. DUMPS.

mumpus

*. A perversion of MUMPING.

mums

. The lips: late C.18–19. More gen. MUNS. cf. also MUN. 2. See MUM, n., 3.

mum's the word

! Silence: coll: C.18–20. T.Brown. Earlier, mum for that! (S.E.).

mumsie or -y

. Mother: domestic and mirsery coll: late C.19–20. cf. MUMMY.

mun

; often mimn, (early) munne. The mouth: C.14–20; s. (†by ca 1880) and dial. Ex Norwegian dial. munn, the mouth. Also MUNS and MUND. 2. One of a band of London street ruffians ca 1670: coll. Shadwell, 1691. cf. SCOURER; MOHOCK. ?etymology if not ex mun, the mouth: perhaps they were very loud-mouthed fellows.

munch-present

. A servant that tastes of his master's presents to a friend: app. c.: ca 1560–90. Awdelay. 2. A glutton: C.16 (?–17): coll. 3. A taker of bribes: late C. 16–17: coll.

mund, munds

. A C.19 variant of MUN, 1, and MUNS.

mundane

. A person of fashion: Society coll: ca 1890–1910. Ex Fr. mondain(e).

munduc

. The seaman left to take charge of the boat on the pearl fishery, while the others are diving; pearl-fishers': late C.19–20. Bowen. Prob. ex the Malayan munduk, a mole: a sense that accords well with nautical humour.

mung

*. To beg, gen. v.i.: tramps' c.: from ca 1810; ob. Lex. Bal., Mayhew, P.H. Emerson. Ex Romany mong, request, beg (mongamengro, a beggar). cf. MANG and MUMP.

mungaree or munjari

*; mungarly. Food; scraps of bread; a meal: Parlary and tramps' c.: from ca 1855. Mayhew, Hindley, Emerson. Ex It. mangiare (cf. Fr. manger), to eat, hence food, via Lingua Franca. For the form, cf. DINARLEE. Also mange.

mungarly-casa or -cass(e)y

*. A baker's shop: Parlary and tramps' c.: from ca 1858. The Times, 18 Oct. 1864. Ex preceding + It. casa, a house.

munge

*, n. Dark, darkness: c.: C.18. C. Hitchin, The Regulator, 1718. Origin?

munging

, vbl n. Begging: Northern s. (ob.) and dial. (–1859). Ex dial. munge, to grumble in low, indistinct tones.

mungo

. An important person, a SWELL: 1770, Colman, in the Oxford Magazine: soon †, presumably s. ?ex Mungo, a common name for a Negro (1768).

mungry

. Food: naval and military: from ca 1860. Either ex Fr. manger, to eat, or a re-shaping of MUNGAREE. Hence, mungywallah, a man working in the cook-house: military: late C.19–20.

munjari or -y

, see MUNGAREE.

munns

, see MUNS.

munpins or, better, mompyns

. The teeth: C.15–mid-16: coll. Lydgate. Lit., mouthpins (see MUN, 1). Also mone pynnes (as in Lydgate) and munpynnys (as in Skelton).

muns

*; in C.17–early 18, occ. munns; in C.19, occ. munds. The face: from ca 1660: c. >, ca 1720, low s. See MUN, 1. 2. Occ. the lips (cf. MUMS), the mouth (–1823), the jaws: C.18–20, ob. Foote, 1760, ‘Why, you jade,... I must have a smack at your muns.’

munshi

, see MOONSHEE.

Munster heifer

. A thick-legged and/or thick-ankled woman: Anglo-Irish: ca 1810–60. cf. MULLINGAR HEIFER.

Munster plums

. (Singular app. unrecorded.) Potatoes: Anglo-Irish >, ca 1850, gen.: from ca 1780; ob. cf. IRISH APRICOTS and MURPH.

muogh

*. A pig: Shelta: C.18–20.

mur

. Rum: back s. (–1859).

murder, cry blue

. To make an excessive outcry: 1887, ‘John Strange Winter’.

murder, look like God’s revenge against

. To look angrily: coll: C.18–mid-19.

murder is out, the

. The mystery is solved: C.18–20: S.E. >, ca 1830, coll. Ex the proverbial murder will out (late C.13–20), Apperson.

murderin' Irish!

; orig. murder an' Irish! A lower classes' exclamation indicative of a climax: mid-C.19–early 20.

murerk

*. The mistress of the house: tramps' c.: from ca 1855. ?burerk (BURICK) perverted.

murkarker or murkauker

. A monkey: ca 1850–80: low coll seldom heard outside London. Ex Jacko Macauco or Maccacco, a famous fighting monkey of ca 1840–5 at the Westminster Pit. (In S.E., macaco is any monkey of the genus macacus.) Also maccacco.

murph, but gen. murphy

. A potato: from resp. ca 1870, ca 1810. Thackeray. Ex the very common Irish surname: cf. DONOVAN.

Murphy's countenance or face

. A pig's head: from resp. ca 1810 (†by 1890) and ca 1860.

Murrumbidgee whaler

, see WHALER.

murtherer

. (Gen. pl.) A cannon for use against rather the men than the material of a ship: naval coll: C.18–early 19.

muscle-grinder

, see LEG-GRINDER.

Museum headache

. Extreme ennui; impatient boredom: London writers', authors', journalists': 1857–ca 1914. Ware, whose quotation from the Daily News of 11 Dec. 1882 shows that the phrase referred to the waiting for books in the British Museum Reading Room.

museuming

. The visiting of museums: coll: 1838, 'A day or two museuming'.

mush, *mush-top(p)er, mushroom

. An umbrella: resp. low (–1851), Mayhew, but recorded in a compound in 1821; from ca 1820, †by 1880, c., as in Haggart; low, 1856, very ob., Mayhew. Ex the shape. 2. (Only mush: pronounced moosh.) The mouth: boxing, then low: mid-C.19–20; prob. U.S., orig. Ex the softness of mush and the mouth. 3. (Only mush, in senses 3–6.) A cab-proprietor in a small way; (also little mush) a cab-driver owning his own vehicle: from ca 1890; ob. by 1910. Abbr. MUSHER. 4. The guard-room; cells: military: late C.19–20. Origin? Perhaps ex dial. mush, to crush. 5 See MUSHROOM. 6. Porridge: nautical coll: C.19–20; slightly ob. A particularization of the S.E. sense. 7. A man: c.: late C.19–20. Only in combination: e.g., coring mush and rye mush. Ex Romany moosh, a man. 8. Sentimentality: since ca 1880: coll. cf. SLOPPY.

mush-faker, *mush-top(p)er-faker, mushroom-faker

. A mender of umbrellas: resp. low (–1851), Mayhew; c. of ca 1820–50, Haggart; c. or low (–1839), ob. by 1860, Brandon, Mayhew. Ex MUSH, 1, and FAKER. cf.:

mush-faking, occ. mushfaking

. Umbrellamending: low: from ca 1857. P.H. Emerson.

mush, gush, and lush

. ‘Mean interested criticism—critiques paid for either in money or feastings’: authors’ and journalists’: ca 1884–1905. Ware.

mush-top(p)er

, see MUSH, 1. mushtop(p)er-faker, see MUSH-FAKER.

musha

. An interjection connoting strong feeling: from ca 1830: Anglo-Irish coll >, by 1870, S.E. Lover. Ex Irish maiseadh, if it be so.

musher

. Same sense as MUSH, 3:1887, Globe, 22 April (O.E.D.); ob. by 1900. Seldom used outside of the cab-trade.

mushing

, vbl n. 'Cab-owning on a small scale': cab-men: ca 1887–1915. cf. MUSH, 3, and MUSER. Globe, 22 April 1887.

mushroom

. See MUSH, 1. 2. A circular hat with a low crown, esp. a lady's with brim down-curling: coll: from ca 1864; ob. 3. The female pudend: low: C.19. 4. The great clock to be seen in most taverns: tavern-frequenters' (–1909). Ware. Ex shape.

mushroom-faker

, see MUSH-FAKER.

mushy

. Insuper; gushingly sentimental: from early 1870s: coll >, by 1910, S.E. George Eliot, 1876, 'She's not mushy, but her heart is tender.'

music

. A C.18 abbr. of the MUSIC'S PAID. 2. The reverse or tail of a coin, but only in calling the toss: Anglo-Irish: ca 1780–1930. Ex the harp on the reverse of an Irish farthing or halfpenny.

music, face the

, see FACE THE MUSIC.

music, it makes ill

. Applied to unwelcome news: coll: late C.17–mid-18.

music as a wheelbarrow, you make as good

. A semi-proverbial c.p. to one who plays badly or is unpleasantly noisy: C.18. ‘Proverbs’ Fuller.

music-box

. A piano: jocular coll: 1849, Thackeray: C.Reade, in Hard Cash.

music-hall howl

. The singing heard in music-halls: musicians’ coll (–1909). Ware, ‘The result of endeavouring rather to make the words of a song heard than to create musical effect’.

music’s paid, the

*. ‘The Watch-word among High-way-men, to let the Company they were to Rob, alone, in return to some Courtesy’, B.E.: c.: late C.17–early 19.

muskin

, gen. preceded by unaccountable. A CHAP, FELLOW, man, esp. if odd: ca 1750–60. Johnson, ‘Those who...call a man a cabbage,...an odd fish, an unaccountable muskin’. ?a perversion of the C.16 endearing muskin.

muslin

. Sails, collectively; esp. the lighter sails: nautical: from ca 1820; ob. Blackwood's Magazine, 1822, 'She shewed as little muslin as required.' 2. The fair sex: from ca 1883; ob. by 1910. Hawley Smart, 1884. (cf. SKIRT.) Gen. as:

muslin, a bit of

. A woman, a girl: 1823, Moncrieff, 'A bit of muslin on the sly'; C. Griffin; Thackeray. Ob. by 1910. cf.:

muslin, a piece of

. The same: ca 1840–1900. W.T.Moncrieff, 1843. Much less gen. than preceding term; prob. influenced by PIECE; a girl.

mussy

, see MUZZY, 1.

musta or muster

. The make or pattern of anything; a sample: Anglo-Chinese and -Indian: C.16–20; in 1563 as mostra, which is the Portugues e origi n. Coll. H., 3rd ed., 'Very gen. used in commercial transactions all over the world'.

mustard-plaster on his chest!, put a

. A c.p. applied to ‘a doleful and dismal pallid young man’: lower-classes’: ca 1880–1914. Ware. Ex a comic song written in connection with Colman’s mustard by E.Laman Blanchard (1820–89).

mustard-pot

. The female pudend: C.19–20: low. 2. A carriage with a light yellow body: lower classes’: late C.19–20; ob.

muster

, see MUSTA.

muster one’s bag

. To be ill: nautical, esp. naval: late C.19–20. Ex taking one’s kitbag to the sick-bay.

mustn’t-mention-’enis

. Trousers: ca 1850–1910. cf. UNMENTIONABLES.

mutcher

*, see MOOCHER.

mute

. An undertaker's assistant acting as a mourner silent supposedly from grief: from ca 1760: coll till ca 1840, then S.E.

mute as a fish

. Silent: C.15–20; ob.: coll >, by 1600, S.E. In late C.18–20, often mute as fishes, and dial. offers at least six variants.

mutiny

. The rum-ration: naval: late C.19–20. Because, without it, the men would mutiny.

mutton

. A loose woman; prostitutes collectively: 1518, Skelton; Shakespeare; D'Urfey. Ob. by 1820, †by 1900. Rare in C.19 except as LACED MUTTON. 2. Sexual pleasure; the female pudend; the sexual act: from ca 1670; ob. e.g. in fond of his mutton, fond of the act. Almost solely from the man's stand-point. 3. A sheep: late C.16–20: in C.19–20, jocular but still S.E.

mutton, bow-wow

, see BOW-WOW.

mutton, cut one's

. To dine: low s. bordering on coll: from ca 1850; ob. Ex the S.E. eat or take a bit of, or one's, mutton with, to dine with (C.18–20, ob.).

mutton, give (a person) the cold shoulder of . A non-aristocratic punning elaboration (–1887; ob.) of give the cold shoulder.

mutton, in her

. Having carnal knowledge of a woman: low: C.19–20, ob. Ex MUTTON, 2.

mutton, jerk one's

, see JERK OFF.

mutton?, who stole the

. A c.p. of ca 1830–50 addressed jeeringly to a policeman. Ex the Force's failure to detect the culprit in a theft of mutton.

mutton-chopper

. A mutton-chop (sc. whisker): ca 1890–1900: mostly Cockney. Milliken.

mutton-chops

. A sheep's head: low (– 1864); ob.

mutton-cove

. A MUTTON-MONGER: low: from ca 1830; ob. 2. (M.C.) The Coventry-Street end of Windmill Street, once a resort of harlots: ca 1840–70; low London. Ex MUTTON, 1.

mutton dressed as lamb or (ob.) lambfashion

. An old woman dressed like a young one: low: mostly Cockney: from ca 1860. cf. the older form, an OLD EWE DRESSED LAMB-FASHION. Possibly with a pun on the culinary sense of 'dressed'.

mutton-eyed

. 'Sheep's-eyed': from ca 1850; ob. Mainly jocular.

mutton-fist or -hand

. A large coarse hand, esp. if red: resp. 1664, Cotton, 'Lifting his Mutton-fists to th' skies'; from ca 1820 and not very gen. 2. A printer's index-hand: printers' (–1888). Jacobi.

mutton-head

. A dull or stupid person: coll: 1804. Ex:

mutton-headed

. Dull; stupid: s. (1788) and dial. Ex the well-known stupidity of sheep.

mutton in a silk stocking, leg of . A woman's leg or calf: low: late C.17–20.

mutton in long coats

. Women: low: late C.17–19. cf. preceding entry.

mutton-monger

. A wencher: from ca 1530; ob. by 1830, †by 1850. More, 1532; Florio; Chapman, 'As if you were the only noted mutton-monger in all the city'. Ex MUTTON, 1. cf. MUTTONER. F. & H. provides a long synonymy. 2. A sheepstealer: ca 1660–1750. 3. A considerable eater of mutton: mid-C.17. W.M., 1649, 'A horrible Mutton-monger, a GorbellyGlutton'.

mutton of, make

. To kill (a person): low coll: late C.19–20.

mutton-pies

. The eyes: rhyming s.: ca 1880–1910. Referee, 7 Nov. 1887, ‘Bright as angels from the skies|Were her dark-blue mutton-pies.’ cf. the very much more gen. MINCE-PIES.

mutton-quad

. An em quad: printers’ (–1871). Ex m for mutton. cf. MUTTONTHUMPER.

mutton-shunter

. A constable: policemen’s: 1883–ca 1915. Policemen keep harlots moving.

mutton-thumper

. A bungling workman; a young apprentice bookbinder: late C.18–20: bookbinders’. Ex the sheepskin used in binding.

mutton-tugger

. (Prob.) a MUTTON-MONGER: presumably s.: ca 1600. ‘The nurseries of wickedness, the nests of mutton tuggers, the dens of formall droanes,’ (O.E.D.)

mutton-walk

(or with capitals). The saloon at Drury Lane theatre: ca 1820–80: London fast life. Egan, 1821, Real Life. 2. (?hence) any resort of harlots, esp. Piccadilly: from ca 1870.

muttoner

. A MUTTON-MONGER: C.17– early 19. Halliwell. Ex MUTTON, 1. 2. A blow on the knuckles from a cricket-ball: Winchester College: ca 1850–90. cf. MUTTON-FIST.

muttongosht

. Mutton: domestic Anglo-Indian coll (–1886). Lit., mutton-flesh. For its hybridity, cf. JAIL-KHANNA.

muttonous

. Slow; monotonous: low: ca 1880–1910. Ex monotonous on gluttonous.

muzz

; occ. muz(†). One who studies hard, reads much and studiously. Trifler, No. 5, 1788, ‘The almost indelible stigma of a Muz’; 1899, W.K.R.Bedford. Ob. Ex:

muzz

, v.i. To study diligently; to MUG, 7 (v.t. with over). S.J.Pratt, 1775, ‘For ever muzzing over a musty book’. Since ca 1890, mainly at Westminster School: cf. the Eton SAP. ?ex muse, (be)mused. 2. v.t., to fuddle; make MUZZY: 1787, ‘Fred. Philon’, ‘Apt to get muzzed too soon’. cf. MUZZLE, v., 4. 3. v.i., to loiter or HANG ABOUT: ca 1778–1810. Mme D’Arblay, 1779, ‘You would not dare keep me muzzling here.’ ?cognate with muse, v.

muzzed

. Fuddled; stupidly tipsy: 1787, see quotation at MUZZ, v., 2.

muzzing

, vbl n. of MUZZ, V., all senses. 2. ppl adj., studying hard; given to intent study: 1793, J.Beresford: ob.

muzzle

. A beard, esp. if long, straggly, and/or dirty: ca 1690–1830. Ex S.E. muzzle, the mouth.

muzzle

, v. To strike on the mouth: low, esp. pugilistic: from ca 1850; ob. Mayhew, 1851, ‘Just out of “stir” [q.v.] for muzzling a peeler.’ 2. Hence, to fight; to thrash: low (–1859); ob. 3. Hence, to throttle, garotte: c.: from ca 1860; ob. 4. To drink to excess: s. from ca 1850 ex (–1828) dial.; ob. as s. Also, v.t., to fuddle: s, (from ca 1850; ob.) ex dial. (–1796). 5. To take, BAG, get: orig. (1890, ‘Rolf Boldrewood’), Australian > gen. ca 1895; ob. Prob. ex S.E. muzzle, put a muzzle on.

(muzzled) bull-dog

. A main-deck gun: naval: ca 1865–1905. Admiral Smyth, 1867. 2. ‘The great gun which stands housed in the officers’ wardroom cabin’, ibid.: ca 1865–80.

muzzler

. A blow on the mouth: from ca 1810: boxing. 2. A dram; a (quick) drink: low: from ca 1850; ob. Ex muzzle, the mouth. 3. A strong head wind: from the middle 1870s: nautical coll >, by 1910, S.E. cf. NOSE-ENDER, 2.

muzzling

, vbl n. Hitting on the mouth: boxing: 1819; ob. cf. MUZZLER, 1.

muzzling cheat

*. A napkin: c. (–1688); †by 1900. Randle Holme (musseling c.).

muzzy

. (Of places) dull, gloomy; (of weather) overcast: coll and dial.: 1727, Mrs Delany, who spells it mussy; 1821, Coleridge, ‘This whole long-lagging, muzzy, mizly morning’. Prob. ex dial. mosey, hazy, muggy. 2. Stupid, hazy of mind, spiritless: coll: 1728, Mrs Delany; Keats, 1817, ‘I don’t feel inclined to write any more at present for I feel rather muzzy’; Thackeray. cf. MUZZ, v., 2. Perhaps ex dial. mosey, stupefied with liquor, or ex bemused. 3. Stupefied, more gen. stupid, with liquor: coll and dial.: 1775, Thomas Campbell; Thackeray; J.Payn. Ex preceding senses. 4. Blurred, indistinct: coll: from ca 1830. Washington Irving, 1832. Ex senses 1, 2, and esp. 3.

my!

; oh my! A (low) coll exclamation: 1707, J.Stevens, ‘Such...Sayings are a Discredit...: As for Instance...my, Whither d’ye go’; 1849, Mrs Carlyle, ‘Oh, my! if she didn’t show feeling enough.’ Abbr. my God! 2. o(h) my is an abbr. of o(h), my Gawd, a sword: late C.19–20.

my arse...

, see ARSE, MY!

my aunt

! A coll interjection: late C.19–20.

my aunt (Jones)

. A water-closet: low euphemistic: from ca 1850; ob. The longer form, ca 1870–1905, gen. dispenses with my. cf. MRS JONES.

my boy!, I believe you

, see I BELIEVE YOU, MY BOY. my colonial oath! see COLONIAL OATH!, MY.

my eye! Occ. my eyes

! (†by 1860). A coll exclamation of surprise, wonderment, or admiration: slightly ob. Moore, 1819, ‘My eyes! how prettily Tom writes’; M.E. Braddon, 1876, ‘My eye, ain’t I hungry!’ Also, my eyes and limbs!: ca 1805–50. 2. my eye. all, see ALL MY EYE.

my Gawd

. A sword: rhyming s.: late C. 19–20.

my gracious! my land! my lord

. my nab my oath! my pippin. my star (and garter)! my uncle. my watch. my wig(s). my word! In all cases, see the noun.

myla

*, see MILER, 1.

mylier

. An occ. C.19–20 form of MAULEY, 3.

myll

*, see MILL, n. and v. mynt, see MINT.

myrtle, my

. A low London term of address: late C.18–early 19. cf. JESSAMY and TULIP, 2.

mystery

. A sausage: somewhat low: from ca 1885; ob. More gen. is bag of mystery (see BAGS...), as in Henley, 1887, and much more gen. is mystery bag, as in the Sportsman, 2 Feb. 1889.

N

n.a.d.

Shamming; military hospitals'. (–1909); ob. Ex the initials of no appreciable disease. cf. N.Y.D.

n.c.

'Nuff ced, i.e. enough said: from ca 1870. (Ware states American origin.) cf. O.K.

n.c.d. (N.C.D.)

, see NO CAN DO.

n.d.

(Of a woman) trying to look young; Society: late C.19–early 20. Ex librarians' n.d., no date.

n.e. or N.E.

, see NORTH-EASTER.

n.f.

A smart or cunning tradesman: printers': from ca 1865; ob. Abbr. NO FLIES. 2. Among artisans (–1909), it means no fool.

n.g.

No go; no good: orig. (1840), U.S., anglicized ca 1890; ob.

N.H.

A bug: from ca 1875; ob. Abbr. NORFOLK HOWARD.

n.n.

A necessary nuisance, esp. a husband: Society (–1909).

n. (or N.) wash

, see NOTERGAL WASH.

n.y.d.

Drunk: military hospitals' (–1909); ob. i.e. not yet diagnosed. cf. N.A.D.

nab; occ. nabb or nab(b)e

*. The head: c. of ca 1560–1750. Harman (as nabe); Head. cf. NOB and NAPPER, 4. 2. The head of a stick: c.: early C.17. Dekker. 3. A hat; a cap: c. of ca 1670–1830. Shadwell, Fielding, Grose. cf. NAB, A PENTHOUSE. Abbr, NAB-CHEAT. 4. A fop: c.: ca 1690–1750. 5. One who 'nabs' (see the v.), esp. a police officer: 1813: c. >, ca 1860, low s.; ob. 6. See NABS.

nab; occ. nab(b)e or nabb, v

*. To catch; to arrest: from ca 1685: c. >, ca 1860, low s. F. Spence, Shadwell. cf. NAP and NOBBLE. 2. It soon > a gen. c. v. of action: see NAB THE RUST, THE STIFLES, etc. 3. Linking senses 1 and 4 with the n., sense 3, is B.E.'s 'I'll Nab ye, i.e. I'll have your Hat or Cap.' 4. To seize; to steal: low s.: from ca 1814. Sporting Magazine, 1814, 'All was lost, save what was nabb'd to pay the cost.' 5. To cog (a die): C.18 c. or low s.; in its orig. from, NAP, v., 5 (B.E.), it was certainly c. 6. v.i., to snatch at something: C.19–20; ob.: low. 7. (cf. senses 1, 4.) To detect (an incident): Shrewsbury School: late C.19–20. 8. To take something to which one is entitled, but which is not in plentiful supply: mostly Australian: late C.19–20.

nab, a penthouse

. A large hat: c. or low s. of ca 1750–1820.

nab, queer

, see QUEER NAB.

nab-all

; also nabal(I). A fool: early C.17 s. > coll. Rowlands. 2. As a churl or a miser, C.17–20 (ob.), it is S.E.

nab-cheat or -chete

*. A hat or cap: c. of ca 1530–1830. See CHEAT.

nab-girder

*. A bridle: c. of ca 1670–1870, though ob. as early as 1820. Also nobgirder. Ex NAB=NOB, the head,+girdle perverted.

nab it (on the dial)

. To receive a blow (on the face): low: from ca 1820. But nab it, like nap it, also=to receive (gen., unexpected) punishment: low and dial.: C.19–20. cf. COP IT.

nab the bib

. To weep: from ca 1830: low. An earlier variant, nab one's bib, dating from late C.18, occurs in a ballad, the Rolling Blossom:

At the new drop I nabb'd my bib,
While Will, my man, was swinging,
At the gin ken I took a swig,
Reel'd home, blind drunk, a-singing.

Later (1860 +) , with variant nap one's bib, it also meant, to carry one's point, by weeping, then by any similar means.

nab the regulars

*. To divide a booty: c.: from ca 1840.

nab (or, in C. 19–20, nap) the rust

. To take offence (cf. RUSTY, adj.): from ca 1850: low and dial.; ob. Ex: 2. The turf sense, (of a horse) to become restless (–1785). 3. To receive unexpected punishment: C.19–20 (ob.): c. > low s. Prob. influenced by NAB THE TEIZE.

nab the snow

*. To steal linen, esp. from hedges: c.: from ca 1780.

nab the stifles

*. To be hanged: c.: C.19–20; ob. See STIFLER.

nab or nap the stoop

*. To stand in the pillory: late C.18–early 19 c.

nab or nap the teize

*. To be whipped, privately, in prison: late C.18–mid-19 c. ?ex tease, for in C.19 it is often spelt tease.

nabb

; occ. nabbe, see NAB, n. and v.

nabber

. A bailiff; a constable: low: from ca 1810; ob. 2. A thief, esp. a pilferer: low and (–1808) Scots dial. Ex NAB, v., 1. cf.:

nabbing-cheat

*. The gallows: c. (–1719); †by 1850. ‘Captain’ Alexander Smith.

nabbing-ctill

*. A bailiff; a constable: c.: ca 1775–1840. Tomlinson. cf. NABMAN.

nabby

. A Scottish form of NOBBY, adj.

nabe

*, see NAB, n. and v.

nabman

*. A constable: c. of ca 1815–40. Ex NAB, v., 1.

nabob

. (Gen. pl.) ‘Senior passengers in the East Indiamen’: nautical: late C.18–early 19. 2. A capitalist: ca 1858–90. Ex the S.E. sense.

nabs

*; in C.19, occ. knabs. (Mainly North Country) c. >, ca 1830, lows.: from ca 1790; ob. Potter. His nabs, he; (rare) your nabs, you: but my nabs, either I, myself, or my friend (cf. C.16 my NOBS, my darling). cf. WATCH. Perhaps a corruption of NEB, a nose, a face: for semantics, see NIBS, which is a variant.

nabs on

*. A hall-mark: c. (–1889); ob. Ex NAB=head.

nace

*, see NASE.

nack

. A horse: c. (–1889). Ex NAG.

nackers

. Properly KNACKERS: low and dial. C.19–20. The testicles.

naf

. The female pudend: ?back s. on fan, abbr. FANNY: from ca 1845. If not obscure dial. of independent origin—ex or cognate with naff(f), the navel (–1866), or with naff(f), the hub of a wheel (–1796), E.D.D.—then this is perhaps the earliest of back-s. terms.

nag

. A riding horse (esp. if small) or pony: C.15–20: coll except in Scotland and North of England, where dial. Anon., The Destruction of Troy, ca 1400: ‘He neyt [= neighed] as a nagge, at his nose thrilles [= nostrils]'; Coryat; Johnson, 'A horse in familiar language'; Henley. 2. The penis: low: ca 1670–1750. Cotton. Ex preceding sense (semantics: to RIDE). cf. NAGS.

nag

. To scold or persistently to find fault (v.t. with at): orig. (–1828), dial. >, ca 1840, coll >, ca 1890, S.E. Orig. sense, to gnaw.

nag, tether one's

. To coït: low Scots: C.19–20. Contrast:

nag, water one's or the

. To make water: low: mid-C.19–20; ob. cf. DRAGON...

nag-drag

*. A three-months' imprisonment: c.: from ca 1850; ob. See DRAG, n., 7.

naggie

. See NAGGY. The female pudend: low: C.19–20; ob. cf. NAG, n., 2.

naggle

. To toss the head stiffly and affectedly: coll (†by 1910) and dial.: from ca 1840. Halliwell. cf S.E. naggle, to haggle, quarrel.

naggy or naggie

. A pony; a very small riding horse: coll and dial. from ca 1780. Blackmore, ‘Then the naggie put his foot down.’

nags

. The testes: low: C.19–20; ob. cf. NAG, n., 2: ?on NACKERS.

nail

. ‘A person of an over-reaching, imposing disposition’—i.e. a SHREWDY, a crook—‘is called a nail, a dead nail, a nailing rascal,’ Vaux, 1812: low: ca 1810–1915. Ex the v., senses 2 and 4. 2. ‘The central scone at the east and west ends of the schoo! were so called,’ Adams’s Wykehamica: from ca 1840: Winchester College. Whence stand up under the nail, to stand there throughout school time for having told a lie; later a liar received a BIBLER or was ‘bibled’, Mansfield.

nail

, v. To catch or get hold of or secure: 1760, Foote, ‘Some bidders are shy...; but I nail them.’ 2. Hence, to rob or steal: low: from ca 1810. 3. To catch or surprise (a person) in a fix, a difficulty: 1766, Goldsmith, ‘When they came to talk of places in town,... I nailed them.’ 4. Hence, in late C.19–20 c. > low s.: to arrest (a person). 5. To strike smartly, to beat: Scots s.: from ca 1805; ob. 6. Hence, to succeed in hitting: Dowden, 1886, but prob.

very much earlier. In Scots at least as early as 1785. 7. To overreach; to cheat: low: ca 1810–30. 8. To backbite: printers’: from ca 1870. Also brassnail; cf. NAIL-BOX. 9. ‘To impress for any kind of fagging. Also, to detect’: Winchester College (–1889). Ex sense 1.

nail, naked as my

, see NAKED. nail, dcad as... see DEAD AS...

nail, off the

. Tipsy: Scots coll: from ca 1820. Galt, 1822, ‘I was what you would call a thought off the nail.’ cf. Scots off at the nail, mad.

nail, on the

. At once: late C.16–20: coll >, ca 1870, S.E. Nashe (upon, as is gen. till C.18); Gay. Ex hand-nail and a drinking custom: see SUPERNACULUM and cf. Fr. payer rubis sur l’ongle. 2. Under discussion: coll: ca 1885–1910. W.T. Stead, 1886.

nail!, no

. I beg your pardon; sorry, but it’s true!: printers’: from ca 1870.

nail-bearer

. (Gen. in pl.) A finger: C.18– mid-19: ?S.E. or coll.

nail-box

. A favourite spot for backbiting: printers': from ca 1870.

nail-groper

. One who sweeps or scours the streets in search of nails, old iron, etc.: Londoners': ca 1830–70. Sinks, 1848.

nail in one's coffin

. A drink of liquor: coll: from ca 1820. Gen. as here's another nail in your, occ. my, rarely his, coffin. 2. See COFFIN-NAIL.

nail in one's coffin, drive, or, occ., put a

. To do anything likely to shorten one's life: C.19–20: coll till C.20, then S.E. In 1789, Wolcot anticipated, thus: 'Care to our coffin adds a nail, no doubt.'

nail on the ready

. To catch someone in the criminal act: police s.: ca 1830–80. Sessions, Feb. 1839. See NAIL, v., 3.

nail-rod or nailrod

. Orig. (ca 1885), a stick of ‘Two Seas’ tobacco. Ex the shape. 2. Hence (–1896), any coarse, esp. if dark, stick of tobacco; ob. Both senses, New Zealand and then Australian. New Zealand Herald, 8 Nov. 1886; 1896, H.Lawson.

nailed-up drama

. Drama dependent upon elaborate scenery: theatrical: ca 1881–1914. First used in reference to just such a drama, The World.

nailer

. An exceptionally good or marvellous event, thing or person (esp. a hand at...); a gen. term of excellence: 1818, Macneill; ca 1890, Marshall in ‘Pomes’ from the Pink’ Un, ‘At guzzling the whole lot were nailers’. cf. the ob. U.S. naildriver, a fast horse. 2. An extortioner, a usurer, from ca 1888. Ex NAIL, v., 2. 3. See NAILOR. 4. An obvious, gross lie: late C.19–20. Ex dial. 5. (the nailer.) See BOY WITH THE BOOTS.

nailing

, vbl n. See NAIL, v., all senses. 2. adj.: excellent: 1883, Pall Mall Gazette, 29 March. 3. adv.: very, exceedingly: 1884, Mrs E.Kennard; 1894, George Moore, ‘A nailing good horse once’. Ex NAIL, v., 1, influenced by NAILER, 1.

nailor

*; more correctly nailer. (Constructed with on.) A prejudice (against): c. (–1887) >, by 1900, low.

nailrod

, see NAIL-ROD.

nails

often occurs in late C.14–early 17 oaths and asseverations, e.g. (by) God's nails.

nails, eat one's

. To do something foolish or unpleasant: coll: C.18–19. Swift.

nails, hard as

. In good condition: from ca 1860: coll till ca 1905, then S.E. 2. Unyielding, harsh, pitiless: coll (–1889).

nails, right as

. Perfectly fit: coll: from ca 1890. Ex preceding, sense 1.

nails on one's toes, before one had

. Before one was born; long ago: coll: C.17. Shakespeare, in Troilus and Cressida, 'Whose wit was mouldy ere your grandsires had nails on their toes'.

nair

. Rain: back s.: from ca 1870; ob., as, except among costers, is all back s.: see Slang at 'Oddities'. cf. NIRE.

naked

, n. Raw spirit: somewhat low: from ca 1810; ob. Ex the adj.

naked

similes were prob. all coll in origin, but their very force soon made them S.E. and proverbial. The chief non-dial. ones are: naked as a cuckoo, C.17–20, latterly dial. and in Dekker as naked as the cuckoo in Christmas; naked as a needle, mid-C.14–20 (ob.), in P.J.Bailey, 1858, nude as a needle; naked as a shorn sheep, C.17–18 (Gayton, 1654); naked as a stone, C.14–15; naked as a worm, C. 15–16; naked as one's (gen. my) nail, ca 1530–1700 (Heywood, 1533,—Massinger—'Phraseologia' Robertson); naked as truth, C.17 (suggested by the late C.16–20 S.E. the naked truth), 'Lest it strip him as naked as truth', in the Somers Tracts.

nale

, an ale-house, is Scots (prob.) coll: C.18–early 19. Extant in Gloucestershire.

nale or nael, neel

. Lean: back s. (–1859). (Often adj., rarely v.)

nam

. A man: back s. (–1859).

namase

, see NAMMOUS.

namby-pamby

. Affected; effeminate: from ca 1745: coll till ca 1780, then S.E. Ex Carey’s, Pope’s, and Swift’s nickname (1726 +) for Ambrose Philips, poetaster (d. 1749).

name!, give it a

; name yours! Invitations to drink: coll: late C.19–20. See HOW WILL YOU HAVE IT?

name, to one’s

. Belonging to one: coll: 1876, Whyte-Melville.

name in vain, take one’s

. To mention by name: coll: C.18–20. Swift. Ex the Biblical take the name of the Lord in vain.

name into it, put one's

. To advance a matter greatly: tailors': from ca 1860; ob. Ex putting the tailors' name on a garment.

name is mud, his

, see MUD.

name of, by the

. Having the name (of): from ca 1670: S.E. till ca 1830, then coll and U.S. Thackeray, 1841, 'A grocer... by the name of Greenacre'.

name of ... (, in the)

. Some of these asseverations are C.19–20 coll; e.g. name of goodness, which is also dial.

name to go to bed with, a nice

. An ugly name: dial. >, by 1887, coll. cf. the Fr. s. un nom à coucher dehors.

name yours

! see NAME!, GIVE IT A.

nameless creek, the

. ‘A lucky place whose whereabouts is for that reason untold’, F. & H.: anglers’ j. > coll: from ca 1860; ob.

namesclop

. Policeman: back s.: 1851, Mayhew, I; virtually †by 1910.

nammous or namous

*; oce. nammus or nommus; rareiy namus and †namase. To depart, esp. furtively and/or quickly: c., esp. among costermongers: from ca 1855. J.E.Ritchie, The Night Side of London Life, 1857; London Miscellany, 3 March 1866. Slightly ob. Prob. a corruption of VAMOS, vamoose, perhaps shaped by NIM and Ger. nehmen. H. postulates back s. on someone (‘simplified’ presumably, as summon): wrongly, I believe.

nam(m)ow

. A woman; esp. DELO NAMMOW, an old woman: back s.(–1851).

nammus, namous, namus

*, see NAMMOUS.

nan

. A serving-maid: C.18: coll (somewhat low). Ex Nan, a by-form of Anne. 2. grandmother: lower classes' coll: mid-C.19–20. cf. GRAN, GRANNY, NANNY.

nan

! What did you say?: mid-C.18–20: coll (e.g. in Foote) till ca 1810, then dial., where ob. Ex anan, anon.

nan-boy

. An effeminate man: late C.17–20; ob.: coll. cf. NAN, n. 2. A catamite: C.19–20: coll. ?influenced by NANCY.

nan-nan

. A man's straw hat: Australian: ca 1880–1914. Ex Aborigine?

Nana

; Nana-ish. Outrageous; indecent: clubmen's coll: late 1880–ca 85. Ex Zola's Nana, that novel which, dealing with a SWELL courtesan, owes its best scene to Otway.

nana

. A banana: nursery coll: late C.19–20.

Nancy, Miss Nancy, Nancy boy

. A catamite: (low) coll: C.19–20. Also as adj.: rare before C.20. 2. Also, an effeminate man: C.19–20; ob. except in dial. cf. MOLLY. 3. (Only as nancy, Nancy.) The breech, esp. in ask my Nancy: low (perhaps orig. c.): ca 1810–1910. See ARSE!, ASK MY.

Nancy Dawson

. Grog: naval: C.19–20; very ob. Bowen, ‘Men were summoned to draw it by that popular old air.’ 2. An effeminate, lackadaisical youth: ca 1887–1910. cf. NANCY.

Nancy homey

. An effeminate man, esp. a homosexual: late C.19–20. See NANCY, 1 and 2; homey is a Parlary word.

Nancy Lee

. A flea: rhyming s.: from ca 1860.

nanna

. An occ. variant of sense 3 and 4 of:

nanny

. A whore: late C.17–19: coll. Ex Nanny, the female name. Mostly in combination: see, e.g., NANNY-HOUSE. 2. A she-goat: from ca 1890 as a coll, but in dial. before 1870. Abbr. NANNY-GOAT. 3. (A) nursemaid: 1864. 4. GRANNY: lower classes' coll: mid-C.19–20.

nanny-goat

. A she-goat: coll: 1788, T. Day. cf. NANNY, 1, and BILLY-GOAT. 2. An anecdote: 1860, Haliburton; ob. Semirhyming's.

nanny(-)hen, as nice as a . Very affected; delicate; prim: C.16–17: coll. The nannyhen is merely nun's hen (see NICE AS A NANNE) and may, in fact, have rarely been used: see Apperson at nice.

nanny-house or shop

. A brothel: low coll: resp. late C.17–19; C.19–20, slightly ob. F. & H. give an imposing synonymy: e.g. academy (see ACADEMICIAN); FLASHCASE, -DRUM; KNOCKING-SHOP, -HOUSE; MOLLY-SHOP; PUSHINGSCHOOL; TRUGGING-ken, -HOUSE; VROW-CASE.

nantee

*; nanti (rare), nanty. No; not, or nor, any. Also absolutely: I have none; ‘shut up!’ (abbr. NANTEE PALAVER); stop! (e.g. ‘Nanty that whistling!’): from ca 1850: Parlary and c. > also, by 1900, gen. theatrical. Mayhew. Among grafters: beware! Ex It. niente, nothing, viú Lingua Franca, as is most Parlary. 2. Hence adj.: of no account: Parlary (–1909).

nantee medzies or nanty metzes

, see MEDZIES.

nantce narking

. Great fun: low taverns’: ca 1800–50. Egan’s Life in London. Lit., ‘no crabbing’.

nantee palaver

! Hold your tongue!: from ca 1850. Lit., no talk. cf.:

nantee panarly

! Be careful!: from ca 1850. See NANTEE.

nantee worster

. No worse; a person no worse: low London: late C.19–20.

nanti, nanty

, see NANTEE.

nap

*. An infection of syphilis or gonorrhoea: c.: late C.17–18. 2. An instance of: ‘By Cheating with the Dice to secure one Chance’, B.E.: c.: late C.17–18. Rare: the v. is much commoner. 3. An arrest: throughout C.18: c. or low s. Street Robberies Considered, ca 1728. 4. Presumably, a sheep, the term occurring only in napper of naps, a sheep-stealer: late C.17–18: c. These four senses derive ex the c. v. 5. A hat: c. of C.18. Ex NAB, n., 3. 6. Strong ale or beer: Scots coll: late C.18–19. Tarras, 1804; Jamieson. Ex NAPPY. 7. A Napoleon, i.e. a twenty-franc piece: coll: 1820, Moore. By abbr. 8. A pretended blow: theatrical: from ca 1850. Mayhew. See NAP, TAKE THE. ?ex KNAP. 9. A very pointed moustache: London: 1855—ca 70. Re-introduced by Napoleon III, who visited London in 1855.

nap

*, v. See the n., 1 and 2: same period and status. The infection is gen. conveyed by nap it (B.E., Grose). The etymology, like the relation to NAB, is vague; cf. the cognate S.E. knap. 2. To seize, catch; arrest: c.: from ca 1670; ob. Head, ‘If the Cully naps us, And the Lurries from us take’; D’Urfey. In John Poulter, 1753, the sense weakens: ‘Nap my kelp (hold my hat).’ 3. Hence, to steal: c.: from ca 1690; ob. e.g. nap the WIPER, steal the handkerchief. 4. To receive severe punishment (prob. ex sense 1): gen. as nap it: low: from ca 1815; ob., except in dial. 5. To cog (a die): late C.17–18 c. cognate with sense 2: both prob. ex KNAP. 6. Hence, v.i. and t., to cheat: c. of ca 1670–1760. 7. A low variant of S.E. knap: late C.17–20. 8. The horse-racing v. is j., not s.

nap, go

. To risk everything: ca 1884, Glover, Racing Life: coll (?orig. racing s.).

nap, take the

. To pretend to have been struck, 'by slapping the hands together unseen by the audience': theatrical: from ca 1860.

nap a winder

*. To be hanged: c.: C.19. Lit., catch something that winds one.

nap it

*. See NAP, v., 1 and 4. e.g. nap it at the nask (see NASK), to be lashed at Bridewell: late C.17–18 c.

nap-nix

. An amateur playing minor parts for experience: theatrical: from ca 1860; ob. Ex NAP, to take or receive, +NIX, nothing.

nap on

*. To cheat, try a cheating trick on: ca 1670–1760: c. 2. Also, however, it means to strike or to strike at: C.17–early 18. (See, e.g., the O.E.D.’s quotation from Head & Kirkman, where the sense is ambiguous.) Here, nap (cf. Greene’s ‘worse than nabbing on the neckes to Connies’) is prob. S.E. knap corrupted.

nap on, go

. To bet everything one has on: from the 1880s: racing coll >, by 1900, S.E.

nap or nothing

. All or nothing: clubmen’s: 1868–ca 1900.

nap the bib, the regulars, the rust, the teize

*, see NAB THE BIB, etc.

nap the rent

. See PEW, STUMP THE: with which it is contemporaneous as well as synonymous.

nap (or knap) the slap

. To know how to receive a blow without being hurt in rough-and-tumble clownery: showmen's: from ca 1860. Hindley.

nap toco for yam

. To get the worst of it, esp. in fisticuffs: low: ca 1820–70. ?ex Gr. τόχος, interest. See TOCO.

napkin, be buried in a

. To be asleep; half-witted: C.19–20, ob.: coll.

napkin, knight of the

. A waiter: C.19–20, ob.: coll bordering on S.E.

napkin, take sheet and

. To sleep and eat (with someone): coll: C.17–18. Mewe.

napkin-snatching

. The stealing of handkerchiefs: ca 1820–60: low or c.

napkin under one's chin, stick a

. To eat a meal: from ca 1750; ob.: coll. Foote.

napp

*, see NAP, n. and v.

napper

*. A cheat; a thief: c. of ca 1670–1840. Esp. in napper of naps (see NAP, n., 4). 2. A false witness: low or c.: C.18. 3. See RAIN-NAPPER. 4. The head: s. and dial.: from ca 1720. Esp. in go off one's napper, go mad. ?etymology, unless ex NAB, the head (cf. NAP, 5.) 5. Hence, the mouth: low: late C.19–20. 6. A hat: c. of ca 1800–70. See NAP, n., 5. 7. See:

napper's null

. A sheep's head (as food): s.: Ned Ward, 1703. Null=NOLL.

napping

*. Cheating: from ca 1670; ob.: c. until C.19, then low s. 2. See NAP, V.

napping, as Moss

(in late C.18-mid-19, often Morse, as in Grose) caught his mare. Asleep; by surprise: a coll proverbial c.p. of ca 1569–1870; in C.19, dial. ‘The allusions to this saying and song in C.16–17 are very numerous,’ Apperson. App. one Moss caught his mare by feeding her through a hurdle (Apperson, quotation of 1597).

napping, catch or take

. To take by surprise or in the act: 1562, Pilkington; Grose, in the elaborated form (see preceding entry): coil till C.19, then S.E. Lit., to catch asleep.

nappy

. Beer: early C.18–19. Ned Ward. 2. A napkin: nursery coll: prob. from mid-C.19. Collinson.

nappy

, adj. (Of a horse) that has ‘these here little lumps along the neck and withers about as big as a nut’ (No. 747): horsecopers’: mid-C 19–20. 2. ‘A horse that refuses to answer to the hand or leg, tries to go the way home instead of the way you want, or plays other tricks, is spoken of as “nappy”. It is very common speech with all who own horses’: sporting: since ca 1860. Sessions, Sept. 1880. It is often applied to persons if they are recalcitrant or unamenable. Ex NAB (or NAP) THE RUST.

narang

. Small: Australian pidgin: C.19. John Lang, The Forger’s Wife, 1855.

narangy

. A SWELL: Australian: ca 1870–1910. ‘Tom Collins’, Such Is Life, 1903. Ex Aboriginal.

nark

*. A police spy; a common informer: c. (–1864). ‘No. 747’; Arthur Morrison, in Mean Streets. Often COPPER’S NARK, i.e. NOSE. Ex Romany nak, the nose. cf.:

nark

*, v. To watch; occ., look after: c. (–1859). Ex the n. cf. TOUT, v. 2. Hence, to see: low (–1886). ‘Pomes’ Marshall. 3. v.i., to act the informer: 1896, A. Morrison, in Child Jago, ‘It was the sole commandment that ran there: “Thou shalt not nark”.’ cf. NOSE; STAG.

narp

. A shirt: Scots, either c. or, less prob., low s. (–1839). Origin?

narrative

. A dog’s tail: middle-class jocular: ca 1900–14. Punning tail—tale—narrative.

narrish

. Thrifty: coll (–1889); ob. London society, Oct. 1889. Ex S.E. narrowish.

narrovv

. Never (a); not (a), not (one): coll and dial.: 1750, Fielding, ‘I warrants me there is narrow a one of all those warrant officers but looks upon himself to be as good as arrow a squire of £500 a year.’ Ex ne’er a. 2. It is low coll or s. as =stupid, foolish, ignorant: from ca 1850; ob. 3. The bowling sense, ‘When the Bias of the Bowl holds too much’, B.E., is either j. or coll of late C.17–20.

narrow, ‘tis all

. ‘Said by the Butchers one to another when their Meat proves not so good as expected’, B.E.: late C.17–18 c.p.

narrow lane, the

, see LANE.

narrow-striper

. A Royal Marine Light Infantryman: naval: late C.19–20.

nasal

. The nose: boxing: 1888, Sporting Life, 21 Nov., ‘Planted a couple of well-delivered stingers on Harris’s nasal’.

nase

*. Also nace, naze, nazie, nazy. Drunken; (of liquor) intoxicating: c.: from ca 1530; fl. till ca 1690 as nace, naze; then only as nazie, nazy, or nazzy: see NAZY. ?ex nose, Fr. nez. Or ex Ger. nass, wet.

nase nab

*. A red nose; a drunkard: c. (–1688); †by 1820. Randle Holme. See NASE.

nash

*. To go away from, to quit, person(s) or place: c. of ca 1810–50. Vaux, ‘Speaking of a person who is gone, they say he is nash’d.’ Ex Romany nash, nasher, to run.

Nash is concerned, Mr.

* He has gone away: c. of ca 1810–50: Vaux, see quotation, preceding entry.

nasie

(Coles, 1676), see NAZY.

nask or naskin

*. A prison: c. of ca 1670–1830. Coles, 1676 (naskin); Higden, 1686, Juvenal (10th Satire), nask in; ca 1690, B.E., nask and nask in; Grose, id. ?ex †Scots dial. nask, a withe+c. KEN, a place, nask being an abbr. Whence, the Old Nask, the City (London) bridewell; the New Nask, the Clerkenwell bridewell; and Tuttle (in Grose, Tothillfields) Nask, that in Tothill Fields: ail in B.E. and all c.

nasty, cheap and

. Outwardly pleasing, actualiy worthless: coll (–1864) until ca 1905, then S.E. In London, ca 1860–80, the phrase often ran ‘...like Short’s in the Strand’, with reference to a cheap restaurant that now has a much better reputation.

nasty face

, see JACK NASTY-FACE.

nasty man

*. He who, in a garrotting gang, does the critical work; or he who, for a CRACKSMAN on a desperate job, acts as a garrotter: c.: from ca 1840; ob. The Reference (p. 419) in ‘No. 747’s Autobiography is valid for 1845; Trevelyan in The Competition Wallah.

nasty one

. A fig. blow, a set-back: coll: 'Ouida', 1880. Also a nasty one in the eye (–1902).

Natal rum

. 'A vile spirit distilled from sugar refuse and nothing behind "Cape smoke" [q.v.] in its effects', Pettman: 1885, W.Greswell, Our South African Empire.

Nathaniel, (down) below

. Even lower than hell: ca 1860–1915. Nathaniel being Satan, says Ware: but Nathaniel may be rhyming s. on hell.

nation

as n. is S.E., as an adv.=very (–1771) it is coll (†by 1870) and dial.; as adj. (very great or large) it is C.19–20 dial. As all three, common in late C.18–20 U.S. The adj. derives ex the n. (Sterne, 1762, 'The French have such a nation of hedges') and occurs in U.S. as early as 1765 (nation profit), while the adv., in U.S., 1781 (nation fawdy), derives either ex the U.S. adj. or the n. The word itself is a euphemistic abbr. of DAMNATION (adv.).

native

; gen. collectively the natives, 'silly people, generally; the untravelled population of any town, wrapped up in incipient [?linnate or insipid] simplicity are natives', Bee: London coll: from ca 1820; ob. cf.:

native cavalry

. ‘The unbroke horses of countrymen, when they resort to races, fairs, fights, &c.’, Bee: London: ca 1820–60. cf. preceding entry.

nat’ral

. Natural: low coll (–1887).

natty

. A ‘natty’ person: coll: 1820, Moore; ob. Ex:

natty

, adj. Orig., and in c., app. clever, smart with the hands: see NATTY LAD. 2. Smartly neat, spruce: from ca 1785 (implied in the adv.): s. till ca 1860, then coll. Surr, 1806, ‘A natty spark of eighteen’. 3. Of things, very neat, dainty: s. till ca 1860; coll ca 1860–1910; then S.E. 1801, Wolcot, ‘Thy natty bob’. 4. Hence, of persons, daintily skilful: from ca 1820: s. >, ca 1860, coll. Prob. ex NATTY LAD. For etymology, cf. the †S.E. netty, nettie (e.g. in Tusser, ‘Pretty...fine and... nettie’), but prob. a corruption of neat or perhaps ex Fr. net. N.B., the other parts, nattily, nattiness, mid-C.19–20, were, prob., orig. coll, but they soon > S.E.

natty

, adv. Nattily, i.e. smartly, daintily neatly, hence skilfully: from ca 1785: s. >, ca 1860, (low) coll. G.Parker, 1789, ‘A kind of fellow who dresses smart, or what they term natty’. Ex the adj.

natty lad

*. A young thief, esp. if a pickpocket: c. of ca 1780–1870. See NATTY, adj., 1, and the etymology.

natural

. A mistress, a harlot: ca 1685–1830: perhaps orig. c.; never better than low s. Shadwell, ‘My natural, my convenient, my pure’. 2. A child: coll: late C.18– early 19. By abbr. ex natural child, daughter, son. 3. Ace and 10 at vingt-et-un: from ca 1900. Perhaps because such a hand naturally makes 21.

naturally

! Of course: coll: late C.19–20.

naughty

. Flash; loudly smart: low: ca 1860–1910. Vance, 1864, speaks of trousers as ‘werry naughty’. Prob. naughty, immoral, influenced by NATTY, adj., 3.

naughty, do the

. To play the whore; to cort (of women only): from ca 1850: low coll. Also, ca 1860–1910, occ. go naughty: ordinary coll.

naughty, the

. The female pudend: mid-C.19–20.

naughty house

, if used by the prim, is S.E.; if by the lewd, a coll: a brothel: C.19–20.

nauseous

. Objectionable: coll: C.18–early 19. e.g. nauseous toad, a mild endearment.

nautical triumvisetta

. ‘A singing and dancing nautical scene by three persons, of whom two are generally women’: musichalls’ (–1909); very ob. Ware. Perhaps a blend of triumvirate+set, with an Italianate suffix (a).

nav

. Abbr. NAVIGATOR.

naval police, Her or His Majesty’s

. Sharks: nautical: mid-C.19–20; ob. They are sharp deterrents of desertion at sea.

navel, gall one's

. To grow wanton: C.18 coll; cf. the C.17–18:

navel, proud below the

. Amorous: coll bordering on S.E., as in Davenant's Albovine, 1629, 'Whenever I see her I grow proud below the navel.'

navel-tied

. Inseparable: C.18–early 19 coll. Gen. they have tied their navels together, as in Ray's Proverbs, ed. of 1767.

navels, wriggle

. To copulate: C.19: low coll. cf. GIBLETS, JOIN.

navigator

. A TATER, i.e. potato: rhyming s. (–1859). Occ. nav (–1902).

navigator Scot

. A hot TATER; gen. a hot baked potato: rhyming s. (–1859).

navvy

. A labourer working on excavation, earthworks, or similar heavy tasks: 1832, De Quincey: coll >, by 1865, S.E. Ex navigator, S.E. (ca 1770–1870), same sense. 2. The navigating officer: nautical: late C.19–20.

navvy's Prayer Book, the

. A shovel: navvies': ca 1870–1910. (D.W.Barrett, Navvies, 1880.) Ex the prayerful attitude involved in its use.

Nawpost, Mr.

A foolish fellow: late C.17–18: c.p. coll. Presumably, one foolish enough, if hungry, to gnaw a post.

‘Nay, stay!’ quoth Stringer when his neck was in the halter

. A c.p. applied to one speaking too late: ca 1670–1750. Ex a topical instance, perhaps of an innocent man.

Nazarene foretop

. ‘The foretop of a wig made in imitation of Christ’s head of hair, as represented by the painters and sculptors’, Grose, 2nd ed.: ca 1785–1820: on the border-line between S.E. and coll.

naze

, see NASE.

nazie

, see NAZY.

nazold

. A silly person; a vain fool: 1607, Walkington: coll till ca 1840, then only as dial. cf. S.E. nazzard, which app.=dial. azzard and, significantly, azzald, which may be cognate with ass.

nazy

*; occ. nazzy. Drunken: from early 1670s: c. (ex NASE) until ca 1780, then low; from ca 1830, dial. Coles, 1676 (nasie); B.E. (as nazie); A New Canting Dict., 1725, nazy-COVE and -MORT, a male and a female drunkard; Grose (nazie, 1785; nazy, 1788); Robinson's Whitby Glossary, 1855 (nazzy). cf.:

nazy-nab

*. A drunken coxcomb: c.: C.18.

ne-dash

*, see NEDASH.

neagues

; neakes, see 'SNEAKS!

Neapolitan favour

. Syphilis: euphemistic coll: late C.16–mid-17. Greene, Notable Discovery, 1591.

near and far

. The bar: public-house rhyming s. (–1909).

near

—in C.17 occ. like—as fourpence to a groat, as. For practical purposes the same: mid-C.16–20: coll till C.19, then dial.

near the knuckle

, see KNUCKLE, NEAR THE.

neardy

. A master, a foreman, a parent; a BOSS (2): Northern coll: from ca 1860; ob.

nearer the bone

, see MEAT, THE NEARER THE BONE...

neat

. (Ironically) rare; fine: ca 1825–1915; ob. by 1890. T.Creevey, 1827, ‘So much for my new find! Is he not a neat one?’

neat as a band-box, a new pin, ninepence, wax

. As neat as possible; very neat indeed: coll: resp. C.19–20, C.19–20, C.17–20 (see at NINEPENCE), ca 1840–1910.

neat but not gaudy

. Sprucely neat: orig. serious (ca 1630–1800) and presumably S.E.; then—even in Lamb’s ‘A little... flowery border..., neat not gaudy’, 1806—it takes an ironical turn (cf. NEAT), which finds itself recognized as a c.p. when, in 1838, Ruskin, in the Architectural Magazine for Nov., writes, ‘That admiration of the “neat but not gaudy”, which is commonly reported to have influenced the devil when he painted his tail pea green.’ In 1887, Lippincott’s Magazine for July has, ‘The whole thing “Neat, but not gaudy, as the monkey said” on the memorable occasion “when he painted his tail skyblue”,’ which presents a diversion from the orig. sense and likewise constitutes a c.p. But by 1902, F. &

H. can give as a ‘common’, i.e. gen., c.p.: neat, but not gaudy, as the devil said when he painted his bottom red and tied up his tail with sky-blue ribbon.

neb

. A face, esp. a woman’s: (low) coll: C.17–18. Extant in dial. Ex neb, a bird’s bill.

Nebuchadnezzar

. The penis, esp. in take N. out to GRASS, (of a man) to have sexual intercourse: low: ca 1860–1915. Ex its liking for GREENS, 4. 2. A vegetarian: ca 1870–1910. Ex the Biblical Nebuchadnezzar’s eating of grass.

necessary

. A bedfellow, esp. a woman: coll: C.18–early 19. 2. With the: ad hoc money, funds: coll: 1897, Daily News, 6 Sept. cf. NEEDFUL.

neck

, v. To hang: coll: C.18–mid-19. cf. S.E. senses, strike on the neck, behead; imm., however, prob. ex the neck hanging phrases. 2. To swallow, drink: coll: from ca 1820. cf. the C.16 coll usage: Barclay, 1514, ‘She couthe well...necke a mesure ...: she made ten shylynge [i.e. little] of one barell of ale.’ 3. To choke (a person): c.: mid-C.19–20.

neck, in the

. With unpleasant results; severely: U.S. (ca 1890), anglicized by H. G. Wells in 1908: s. Esp. with get it. cf. where MAGGIE WORE THE BEADS and where the CHICKEN GOT THE AXE.

neck, lose or win by a

. To lose or win by very little: from ca 1820: coll. For origin, cf. NECK AND NECK.

neck, put it down one's

. See NECK, WASH ONE'S, cf. the U.S. shot in the neck, drunk.

neck, talk through (the back of) one's

. To talk extravagantly, catachrestically: 1904.

neck, wash one's or the

. To drink: low: ca 1820–1900.

neck and crop

. Violently; all of a heap; entirely: 1816, Hone: coll >, ca 1890, S.E. Hardy, 1872; Hall Caine in The Manxman, 1894.

neck and heels

. Impetuously; wholeheartedly: coll (–1887).

neck and neck

. Almost equal; close: from ca 1835: coll. Ex horses running almost level in a race. W.S.Landor to Browning, 11 Feb. 1860, ‘You and your incomparable wife are running neck and neck, as sportsmen say.’

neck as long as my arm, I’ll first see thy

. I’ll see you hanged first; you be hanged! A mid-C.17–mid-18 c.p. Ray, 1678.

neck-basting

. Liquor-drinking: low (–1887); slightly ob.

neck-cloth

. A halter: low coll: ca 1815–70. cf. NECKTIE.

neck it, unable to

. Lacking moral courage: low coll: from ca 1840; slightly ob. Ex NECK, v., 2. cf. the S.E. swallow=to tolerate.

neck-oil

. Liquor; esp. beer: low coll: from ca 1830. cf. NECK, v., 2.

neck or nothing

. Desperate(ly): from ca 1675: coll till ca 1850, then S.E.Ray; Cibber; Swift, ‘Neck or nothing; come down or I’ll fetch you down’; Byron. Either a hanging or a steeplechasing phrase.

neck-squeezer

. A halter: low coll: ca 1810–70. cf. NECK-CLOTH; NECKLACE.

neck-staraper

*. A pot-boy at a tavern: c.: ca 1670–1820.

neck-weed

. A halter (cf. GALLOWS-GRASS): ca 1560–1830: coll >, ca 1600, S.E.

neckerchief on the way to Redriffe, the Devil's

. The halter; the gallows: low coll: ca 1810–60. Notes and Queries, 1886.

necklace

. A halter: C.17–mid-19: coll, soon > S.E. cf. NECK-CLOTH, and:

necktie

, a halter; wear a hempen necktie, to be hanged: C.18–early 19 coll. cf. the U.S. necktie sociable (–1878), n. party (–1893), a lynching.

necky

. Impudent, cheeky: Conway cadets' (–1900). Ex neck, n. (=CHEEK).

Ned

. The inevitable nickname, from the 1890s, of Australian men surnamed Kelly. Ex the notorious bushranger, Ned Kelly.

ned

*. A guinea: c. of ca 1750–1890; then in U.S. as a 10-dollar piece. Discoveries of John Poulter. 2. Abbr. NEDDY, 1: from ca 1830.

Ned Fool

. A noisy fool or idiot: coll: late C.16–early 17. Nashe.

Ned Skinner

. Dinner: rhymings. (–1909.)

nedash

*. Of no use; nothing: c. of ca 1810–50. Ex Romany nastis, nastissa, nestis, I, you, he, etc., cannot; ?ultimately L. nequeo.

neddy

. An ass: C.17–20: coll. Wolcot, 1790. Ex Edward. Occ. abbr. ned; also called Jack or Tom. (The very few pre1790 examples are not indisputable.) 2. Hence, a fool: coll and dial.: from ca 1820. Thackeray, ‘Long-eared neddies, giving themselves leonine airs’. 3. A guinea: c.: ca 1760–1850. See NED, 1. 4. A life-preserver: c.: 1845 in ‘No. 747’ (p. 423); 1857, ‘Ducange Anglicus’; 1859, H.; 1864, Cornhill Magazine. Also BILLY, 2; COSH. According to Brewer, ex one Kennedy, whose head was smashed in with a poker; prob., however, semantically ex sense 2 above. 5. A large quantity; plenty: Anglo-Irish: from ca 1860; ob.

neddyvaul (or N.)

. The chief, leader, conqueror: street boys' (mostly London): late C.19–early 20. A corruption of Ned (the head) of all.

neccee peeress

. 'An E.C. [East London] or city [rather, City] bride of little or no family, and an immense fortune, both of which are wedded to some poor lord or baronet': Society (–1909); ob. Lit., an E.C. peeress.

needful, the

. Ad hoc money: coll: 1771, Foote, 'Then I will set about getting the needful'; The Comic Almanack, 1836, 'Needy men the needful need'; Dickens; Free Lance, 6 Oct. 1900. cf. NECESSARY.

Needham

. Poverty: allusive S.E. of ca 1570–1890. Prob. coll in on the high-road, or in the highway, to Needham. Fuller, Ray, Spurgeon. Needham (in C.16, occ. Needham; in C.17, occ. Needom or Needome): a small town near Ipswich.

Needingworth, it comes from

. It is worthless or inferior: coll: C.17. John Clarke, 1639. cf. preceding: another topographical allusion on the borderline between S.E. and coll.

needle

*. A sharper; a thief: c. of ca 1780–1850. Potter, 1790. Abbr. NEEDLE-POINT: ex the notion of extreme sharpness. 2. The penis: both low coll and, in C.18, S.E. (e.g. in Nabbes, Dorset, Rochester). 3. With the: irritation; nervousness: 1887, Punch, 30 July, ‘It give ‘im the needle... being left in the lurch this way’; 1900, G. Swift, the nervousness sense, which is mainly athletic, esp. rowing. Prob., as W. suggests, influenced by nettle (e.g. †get the nettle, become angry), but imm. ex NEEDLE, COP THE. 4. Hence (without the), ill feeling: 1899, Clarence Rook, The Hooligan Nights, ‘It was a fight with the gloves. But there was a bit of needle in it. It was all over Alice.’

needle

, v. To irritate, annoy: 1881, G.R. Sims. Also, and ex, cop or give the NEEDLE, below. 2. v.i., to haggle over a bargain and if possible gain an advantage: c. of ca 1810–50. Ex the n., 1: but cf. n., 3.

needle, cop, get, or take the ; needle, give the. To become annoyed; to annoy: resp. (–1874), 1898, 1897; 1887. cf. NEEDLE, n., 3, and v., 1. Ware classifies it as, orig., tailors’ s.: ‘Irritated, as when the needle runs into a finger’. 2. (Only get the needle.) To lose much money at a game: card-players’: from ca 1870.

needle and pin

. Gin: rhyming s.: late C.19–20.

needle and thread

. Bread: rhyming s. (–1859); ob.

needle-book or -case

. The female pudend: low: C.19–20; ob. cf. NEEDLE-WOMAN.

needle-dodger

. A dressmaker: from ca 1860; ob. ?on DEVIL-DODGER.

needle-jerker

. A tailor: from ca 1805; ob. cf. last entry.

needle-point

*. A sharper: c. of ca 1690–1890. (Occ., C.19, needle-pointer.) Because so sharp. cf. NEEDLE, n., 1, and v., 2.

needle-woman

. A harlot: coll: 1849, Carlyle; ob. cf. NEEDLE-BOOK, and NEEDLE, n., 2.

needy

*. A nightly lodger; a beggar; a tramp: c. verging on low s.: from ca 1859. P.H.Emerson.
Ex:

needy mizzler

*. A very shabby person; a tramp that departs without paying for his lodging: tramps' c.: from ca 1810; ob. See MIZZLER.

needy-mizzling

*. c.: from ca 1820. Temple Bar, 1868, 'He'll go without a shirt, perhaps, and beg one from house to house.' Ex preceding.

neel

, see NALE, second entry.

ne'er a face but his own

. Penniless: low: late C.17–18. Obviously alluding to the heads and faces on coins. Occ. nare...; often never...

ne'er-be-lickit

. Nothing whatever: Scots coll: from ca 1870. The Encyclopaedic Dict., 1885, ‘Nothing which could be licked by a dog or cat’.

neergs

. Greens (vegetables): back s. (–1859).

neetewif

; neetexis; neetrouf, see NETEWIF; NETEXIS; NETROUF.

neggledigee

; niggledigee or gée. Negligee, ‘a woman’s undressed gown’ (Grose): low coll when not a sol.: mid-C.18–early 19. Shebbeare; Grose, 2nd ed. (N.B., négligé comes later.)

Negro, wash a

. To attempt the impossible: coll: C.17. Middleton & Dekker; Barrow, in Sermons, ca 1677, ‘Therefore was he put ...to wash Negros...to reform a most perverse and stubborn generation.’

negro's-head, gen. in pl (negroes' heads)

. A brown loaf: nautical: late C.18–early 19. Ex the colour; also ex the hardness of the Negro's Head nut. cf. BROWN GEORGE.

negro-nosed

. Flat-nosed: late C.17–20; ob. Coll (e.g. in B.E.) till C.19, then S.E.

neither buff nor bum

. Neither one thing nor the other: proletarian coll: from ca 1860; slightly ob.

neither sugar nor salt, be

. Not to be delicate; esp. not to fear rain: proverbial coll: C.18–20; ob. Swift. Ex sugar dissolving in rain.

Nellie, -y

. A giant petrel: nautical coll (–1875).

Nelson

. One pound, one shilling and one penny: bank cashiers': late C.19–20. Folklore derives it ex 'Nelson's one eye, one arm and one anus'.

Nelson's blood

. Dark rum: naval: (?mid-) C.19–20. Naval lore has it that Nelson's corpse was pickled in rum to preserve it on its passage to England.

nenanecking

. A variant of shenanecking, i.e. SHENANIGAN: nautical: late C.19–20.

nenti

. A late C.19–20 form of NANTEE. P.H.Emerson, 1893.

Neptune's sheep

. A nautical variant of white horses (waves white-crested): late C.19–20.

nerve

. A dashing dandy: Society coll: ca 1750–60. Adventurer, No. 98, 1753, 'Buck, Blood, and Nerve'. 2. Impudence; supreme CHEEK: coll: from ca 1880; orig. Etonian. Ex the S.E. sense, courage, assurance, esp. Disraeli's 'You have nerve enough, you know, for anything,' 1826. cf. NERVY.

nerver

. A PICK-ME-UP drink of strong liquor; a tonic: Cockney (–1887); ob.

nerves, get on one's

, see GET...

nerving

is an illicit tampering with a horse to make it more spirited and saleable: horse-copers': mid-C.19–20. 'No. 747'. cf. NERVE, 2.

nervy

. Very impudent; impudently confident: 1897: middle 1890s; slightly ob. Ex S.E. nervy, boldly brave. 2. 'Jumpy', having bad nerves; excitable or hysterical: coll: 1906.

nescio, sport a

. To pretend not to understand anything, esp. in an old university custom: university: ca 1810–50 (perhaps 150 years earlier: cf. next).

nescio, stay with

. To circumvent with pretended ignorance: Cambridge University: C.17–18. J.Hacket's Life of Archbishop Williams.

nest

; gen. nest in the bush. The female pudend: low coll when not euphemistic S.E.: C.18–20; ob. G.A.Stevens (longer form), Burns (the shorter).

nest

, v. To defecate: C.17–early 18: ?coll or dial. (Scots) or S.E.

nest-egg

. A sum of money laid by: late C.17–20: coll till C.19, then S.E. Orig. (as in B.E.), gen. as leave a nest-egg. Ruskin.

nestling, keep a

. To be restless and/or uneasy: late C.17–18 coll. Ex the restlessness and anxiety of a mother bird for her chicks.

nestor

. An undersized boy: Winchester College: from ca 1860; ob. Ex wizened, shrunken Nestor, who in allusive S.E.= an old man.

nests

*. (App. never in singular.) Varieties: c. (–1851); ob. Mayhew. ?perversion of sets.

net

. Ten: back s. Mayhew, I, 1851. 2. A guard-room: Army s. (–1898). It catches all offenders.

net, all is fish that comes to . All serves the purpose: proverbial coll: mid-C.17–20. In late C.19–20, rarely without my, his, etc., before net.

netenin

. Nineteen: back s. (–1859). cf.:

netewif

. Fifteen: back s. (–1859). Also neetewif.

netexis

. Sixteen: back s. (–1859). cf. preceding two entries.

netgen

. A half-sovereign; the sum of ten shillings: back s. (–1851). Composed of NET, 10 + GEN, a shilling.

Netherlands, the

. The male or the female privities: low: C.18–20; ob.

netnevis

. Seventeen: back s. (–1859).

netrouf

. Fourteen: back s. (–1859). Also neetrouf. cf. preceding and following entries.

nettheg, often written net-theg

. Eighteen: back s. (–1859).

nettle, to have pissed on a

. To be peevish, ill-tempered; very uneasy: mid-C.16–18 coll, then dial. Heywood; Greene, in The Upstart Courtier.

nettle in, dock out

. A phrase implicative or indicative of fickleness of purpose; or of senseless changing of order: proverbial coll: mid-C.14–18.

nettle stuff

. The special rope yarn used for making hammock clews: nautical coll: mid(?) C.19–20. Bowen.

neux

, n. and v. A fag; to fag; Woolwich: mid-C.19–20; ?†. Ex new (boy, lad, chap).

nevele

; loosely nevel. Eleven: back s. (–1859).

never a face but his own

, see NE'ER A FACE...

never fear

. Beer: rhyming s. (–1859). 2. See FEAR!, NEVER.

never greens

. Eucalyptus: Australian: late C.19–20. Ironic.

Never-mass, at

. Never: coll: mid-C.16–17. Anon., Thersites, ca 1550; 1631, R.H., ‘As our Country Phrase is, when Hens make Holy-water, at new-Never-masse’.

never-mention-’ems

. Trousers: coll: 1856; ob. cf. UNMENTIONABLES.

never mind

! see MIND!, NEVER.

never never

; or with capitals. Abbr. never never country or land, the very sparsely populated country of Western Queensland and Central Australia: Australian coll: 1900, H.Lawson, ‘I rode back that way five years later, from the Never Never.’ Because, having been there, one swears never, never to return; the derivation ex an Aboriginal word for unoccupied land is prob. invalid. 2. Also with country or land: the future life, esp. heaven: Australian coll: from ca 1888; ob. ‘Rolf Boldrewood’.

never no more

. Never more, never again: c.p.: late C.19–20.

never out, the

. The female pudend: low: C.19–20; ob.

never-squedge

. ‘A poor pulseless, passionate youth—a duffer’: low London (–1909). Ware. Perhaps never-squeeze (a girl).

never-too-late-to-mend shop

. A repairing tailor’s: tailors’: from ca 1860; ob.

never trust me

! A c.p. oath=never trust me if this doesn’t happen: (mostly low) coll and mostly London: late C.16–20; ob.

never-waser

. (Rarely of things.) One who never was a success: orig. (ca 1890) circus s. >, ca 1905, gen. Sportsman, 1 April 1891. cf. HAS BEEN.

neves(s)

; more gen. nevis. Seven: back s.: from ca 1845. Whence:

nevis-stretch

*. Seven years' hard labour: c.: from ca 1860. Ex preceding.

nev(v)y

; nev(v)ey. Nephew: occ. low coll but gen. dial.: C.19–20.

new

. A fresh arrival: Britannia trainingship (–1909). (cf. NEW FELLOW.) Whence new, new!, the cry of a senior cadet wanting something done by a youngster: Bowen.

new!, tell us something

. A coll c.p. retort on stale news: late C.19–20. Lyell.

new bug

. A new boy: orig. (ca 1860), Marlborough School; in C.20, fairly gen.

new chum

; new-chum. A new arrival, esp. if from Great Britain or Ireland: Australian coll, often slightly contemptuous. T.L. Mitchell, 1839, 'He was what they termed a "new chum", or one newly arrived'; R. M.Praed, 1885; Mrs H.E.Russell, 1892. Whence the rare new chumhood (1883, W. Jardine Smith). See also CHUM.

new-chum gold

. Iron pyrites: Australian: mid-C.19–20. Very deceptive.

new collar and cuff

. To refurbish an old sermon: clerical: from ca 1870; ob.

new drop

. 'The scaffold used at Newgate for hanging criminals; which, dropping down, leaves them suspended', Grose, 1788: ca 1785–1850: perhaps orig. c.: certainly never better than low s.

new fellow

. A naval cadet in his second term, a ‘first-termer’ being a cheeky new fellow: Britannia training-ship: late C.19– early 20. cf. NEW.

new Gravel Lane bullock, fifty ribs a side

. A red herring: nautical: late C.19–20. cf. BILLINGSGATE PHEASANT.

new guinea, a or the

. The first possession of an income: Oxford University: ca 1820–40.

new hat

. A guinea: cheapjacks’: ca 1870–1915. C.Hindley, 1876.

new head, give a

. To supply a new title and a few lines of introduction to old matter, to deceive the reader into thinking the whole article or item new: journalistic coll: late C.19–20.

new iniquity

. Australian immigrants: New Zealand (mostly Otago): coll: ca 1862–80. Opp. old IDENTITY.

New Light

; occ. new light. A Methodist: coll: from ca 1785; ob. 2. One who attends the gaols in order to engineer escapes: c.: ca 1820–50.

new lining to his hat

. A bluejacket's pay, 'still received on the cap instead of in the hand': naval: late C.19–20. Bowen.

new Navy

. Comforts and improvements introduced into the Navy: naval coll (old bluejackets'): from ca 1920; ob.

new pair of boots, that's a

. That's quite another matter: middle-class coll: 1883, Entr'Acte, 17 March; ob.

new pin, bright or clean or neat or nice or smart as a

. Extremely bright, etc.; very smart; first-class: coll: from ca 1880. R. L.Stevenson, 1882 (clean...); Elworthy, 1886 (neat); P.H.Emerson, 1893 (smart ...). Obviously, however, as a new pin often merely=wholly; it dates back at least as far as Scott, 1829, 'Clear as a new pin of every penny of debt.'

New River Head (or h-), the

. Tears: a London c.p. of ca 1820–30. Bee, ‘A watery head hath the wife, whose nob, like Niobe’s, is all tears; sometimes termed “the New River head”, after an elevated backwater near Islington.’

new scum

. A new boy; collectively, new boys: Shrewsbury School: from ca 1870. cf. NEW BUG.

new settlements

. A final reckoning: Oxford University: ca 1820–40.

Newcastle, carry or send coals to

, see COALS TO...

Newcastle hospitality

. Roasting a friend to death; more gen., killing a person with kindness: North Country coll: mid-C.19–20. (Rather coll than dial.)

Newcastle programme

. 'Extreme promises difficult of execution': political coll: 1894-ca 1900. Ware. Ex 'a speech of extreme Radical promise made by Mr John Morley at Newcastle'.

Newgate

, specifically, from C.13, the prison (demolished in 1902) for the City of London, was by 1590, 'a common name for all prisons' (Nashe). (cf. NEWMAN'S.) Whence the following; of which it is exceedingly difficult, if not impossible, to determine the exact status:

Newgate, as black as

. Frowning; soiled (dress): low coll: ca 1820–80. cf. NEWGATE KNOCKER, 2.

Newgate, may soon be afloat at Tyburn,— he that is at a low ebb at . A c.p. of ca 1660–1810: condemnation at Newgate might well end in a hanging (one's heels afloat) at Tyburn; also fig. Fuller in his Worthies, Grose in his Provincial Glossary.

Newgate bird or nightingale

. A gaol-bird; a thief, a sharper: bird, C.17–19 coll, e.g. in Dekker; nightingale, C.16 coll, e.g. in Copland.

Newgate collar (rare: gen. Tyburn collar), frill, fringe

. ‘A collar-like beard worn under the chin’, F. & H.: resp. ca 1820–90 (c. or low s.); ca 1860–1900 (c. or low s.); ca 1860–1920 (id.). cf. NEWGATE KNOCKER and NEWGATE RING.

Newgate frisk or hornpipe

. A hanging; c. or low s.: resp. ca 1830–90; ca 1825–80. Esp. preceded by dance a. Maginn has ‘toeing a Newgate hornpipe’.

Newgate knocker

. ‘A lock of hair like the figure 6, twisted from the temple back towards the ear’, F. & H.: low coll: from ca 1840; ob. Mayhew. The fashion was at its height ca 1840–55. cf. AGGERAWATORS, and NEWGATE RING. 2. (cf. NEWGATE, AS BLACK AS.) As black, or dark, as Newgate knocker, extremely black or (esp. of a night) dark: coll: from ca 1880; ob.

Newgate ring

. Moustache and beard worn as one, without whiskers: s. or low coll: ca 1820–90. cf. NEWGATE COLLAR and NEWGATE KNOCKER.

Newgate saint

. A condemned criminal: ca 1810–80: c. or s. or low coll.

Newgate seize me (if I do, there now)

! Among criminals, an asseveration of the most binding nature: c. of ca 1810–60.

Newgate solicitor

. A pettifogging attorney: c. or s. or low coll: ca 1785–1840.

Newgate steps, born on

. Of criminal, esp. thievish, extraction: late C.18–mid-19: c. or low s. or low coll. Bee, 1823, 'Before 1780, these steps...were much frequented by rogues and w—s connected with the inmates of that place.'

Newland

, see ABRAHAM NEWLAND.

Newman's

*. In C.17, Numans; in C.18, no record; ca 1805–50, Newmans. Newgate: c. The New of Newgate+MANS, a place. But while Numans stands by itself, New-man's is rare except in the following combinations:

Newman's Hotel

*. Newgate: c. of ca 1805–50. Ex preceeding.

Newman's lift

*. The gallows: c. of ca 1805–50. Contrast:

Newman's Tea-Gardens

*. Newgate: c. of ca 1805–50. cf. NEWMAN'S HOTEL.

Newmarket Heath, a fine morning to catch herrings on . A c.p.=the C.20 a fine day for ducks. C.17–mid-18. John Clarke, 1639.

Newmarket Heath commissioner

. A highwayman: coll: ca 1800–50. Ex notorious locality.

news?, do you hear the

. A nautical c.p. (amounting indeed to a formula) 'used in turning out the relief watch': mid-C.19–20. Bowen.

news!, tell me

. Often preceded by that's ancient history. A c.p. retort to an old story or a stale jest: C.18–20; ob. Swift. cf. QUEEN ANNE IS DEAD.

newsy

. Gossipy; full of news: late C.19–20; coll.

Newtown pippin

. A cigar: low: ca 1880–1910. Ex its fragrance.

newy

. 'The "cad" paid to look after the canvas tent in "Commoner" field', F. & H.: Winchester College: ca 1860–1915. See CAD.

next, as—as the

. As (any adj.) as possible: coll: late C.19–20.

next time you make a pie, will you give me a piece

? A man's c.p. suggestion to a girl that she should cooperate: Canadian: ca 1895–1914.

next way, round about, is at the far door

. You're going a long way round: a C.17 proverbial c.p. John Clarke, 1639. (N.B., next=nearest=shortest.)

n.f.

; n.g.; N.H., see at the beginning of N.

nib

*. A gentleman: from ca 1810; ob.: c. until ca 1880, then low. (Also from ca 1840, nib-cove). Whence half-nib(s), one who apes gentlemen. ?ex the C.17 Cambridge, esp. King's College, nib (either s. or j.), a freshman. More prob., as W. points out, a thinned form of NOB: cf. NAB and (his) NABS; see NIBS. 2. A fool: printers': from ca 1860; ob.

nib

*, v. To catch; arrest: from ca 1770: c. until ca 1850, then low s.; ob. Ex NAB. 2. To nibble: C.17–20: S.E. until C.19, then low coll(†) and dial. Ex nibble.

nib-cove

*, see NIB, n., 1.

nibbets

. A Canadian synonym for, late C. 20, of CLINKERS, 2.

nibbing cull

*. A (petty) thief; occ. a fraudulent dealer: c.: ca 1770–1820.

nibble

*. To catch: C.17–20; ob.: c. >, ca 1860, low s. Middleton, ‘The rogue has spied me now: he nibbled me finely once.’ 2. To steal, pilfer: c.: C.19–20; ob. 3. To copulate: low: C.19–20; ob. 4. To consider, eagerly but carefully, e.g. a bargain, an offer. v.t. with at. Coll: C.19–20.

nibble, get a

. To obtain an easy job: tailors’: from ca 1850; ob.

nibble, have a

. ‘To have the best of the bargain, or an easy, well-paid job’ (B. & L.): tailors’: mid-C.19–20.

nibbler

*. A (petty) thief; occ. a cheating dealer: c.: C.19–20; ob.

nibby

. A late C.19–20 low variant of and derivative ex:

niblike

*. (See also nibsome.) Gentlemanly: from ca 1830; ob.: c. until ca 1860, then low s. Ainsworth, ‘All my togs were so niblike and splash.’

nibs

*. (See also NABS.) Self: my nibs, myself; your nibs, you or, as term of address, ‘friend’; his nibs, the person mentioned; also (–1860), the master or a shabby genteel (cf. NIB, n., 1). From ca 1820: c. >, ca 1840, low s. >, ca 1890, gen. s. Haggart, 1821; Mayhew; Chevalier, 1893, in his song, Out Little Nipper. Ex NABS. There is prob. some connection with NIB, n., 1: cf. HIS LORDSHIP, jocularly applied to anyone, with which cf. his royal nibs, him, in A.Adams’s Log of a Cowboy, 1903. Note also the analogous NOSEWATCH.

nibso

. A ca 1880–1915 variant of the preceding, 1: low.

nibsome

*. Gentlemanly; (of houses) richly furnished, etc.: from ca 1835; ob.: c. >, ca 1860, low s. G.W.M.Reynolds, 1839, ‘Betray his pals in a nibsome game’.

nice

. Agreeable; delightful: coll: 1769, Miss Carter, ‘I intended to dine with Mrs Borgrave, and in the evening to take a nice walk’; Jane Austen; Mary Kingsley. (Often with an ad hoc modification.) cf. NICE AND.

nice, not too

. A Society coll: from ca 1870. Ware, ‘First degree of condemnation—equals bad’.

nice and

. Nicely, in sense of ‘very’: coll: 1846, D.Jerrold, ‘You’ll be nice and ill in the morning.’

nice as a ha’porth of silver spoons

. Ridiculously dainty or fastidious: proverbial coll: C.16. ‘Proverbs’ Heywood, 1546; anon., Jack Jugeler. cf.:

nice as a nanne, nanny, or nun’s hen

. Very affected or fastidious: proverbial coll: C. 15–early 18. Wilson in his Rhetoric, 1560; Ray.

nice as nasty

. Objectionable: lower classes’ (–1909). A euphemism.

nice as nip

. Precisely what’s needed; exactly: Northern and Midlands coll: from ca 1850.

nice joint

. A ‘charming, if over-pronounced, young person’: urban, mostly Cockneys’ (–1909).

nice place to live out of, it’s a

. A c.p. (–1909) indicating unpleasantness; ob.

nice thin job

. The mean evasion of a promise: lower classes' coll: 1895–ca 1914.

niche-cock

. The female pudend: low coll: C.18–20; ob. (By itself, niche is S.E.)

(nichels or) nichils in a bag or in nine holes, nooks, or pokes

. Nothing whatsoever: late C.16–20: coll till C.19, then dial. R.Scot, 1584 (in a bag, †by 1700); Fuller; Bailey, 'Nichils are...debts...worth nothing.' Ex L. nihil.

Nicholas, Saint

. The devil: jocular coll verging on S.E.: late C.16–early 19. Whence (Old) Nick. Ex the patron saint of scholars and ?thieves.

Nicholas, clergyman or clerk or knight of St

. Or as St Nicholas's clergyman, etc. A highwayman (?ever in the singular): ca 1570–1820 (knight not before late C.17): coll >, by 1660, S.E. Foxe, Shakespeare, John Wilson, Scott (clerk); R.Harvey, 1598 (clergyman). Ex preceding entry, perhaps by a pun on †S.E. St Nicholas's clerks, poor scholars.

Nicholas Kemp

. A proverbial coll, only in the phrase quoted by Quiller-Couch in Troy Town: ‘Like Nicholas Kemp, he’d occasion for all.’ From ca 1880; ob.

nick

. The female pudend: low coll: C. 18–20; ob. Robertson of Straun, who, like G.A.Stevens, tended to obscenity. 2. Abbr. OLD NICK, the devil: coll: 1785. 3. Only in NICK AND FROTH. 4. (the nick.) The proper, the fashionable, thing or behaviour: ca 1788–1800. Lord R.Seymour in Murray’s Magazine, vol. 1. 5. (the nick.) Good physical condition or health: almost always in the nick: late C. 19–20, or perhaps far older; it occurs in a song ‘attributed to Ben Jonson’ published in the Port Folio, 14 April 1804: ‘Or else, unseen, with them I go, |All in the nick| To play some trick...’ 6. A winning throw at dice: gamblers’: ca 1660–1750. Shadwell, The Sullen Lovers, 1668; Dryden, An Evening’s Love, 1668; Otway, The Atheist, 1684. cf. sense 1 of the v. 7. Natal cleft at the fold of the buttock: low: late C.19–20.

nick

, v. To cheat, defraud (of): coll: late C.16–20; very ob. Taylor the Water Poet. 2. To catch, esp. unawares: from ca 1620. Fletcher & Massinger. 3. Hence, in C.19–20, to arrest: low s. or perhaps c. The Spirit of the Public Journals, 1806, ‘He...stands a chance of getting nicked, because he was found in bad company.’ 4. To steal; purloin: 1826; 1869, Temple Bar, ‘I bolted in and nicked a nice silver tea-pot’: c. >, by 1880, low s. 5. To in-dent a beer-can: C.17–18: either coll or, more prob., S.E. So too the vbl n. 6. To copulate with: low coll: C.18–20; ob. 7. v.i., to drink heartily: Scots s.: late C.18–19. Jamieson.

Nick, old

, see OLD NICK

nick, on the

*. Stealing; going to steal: c. (–1887). Ex NICK, v., 4.

nick, out of all

, adv. Past counting: excessively; coll: late C.16–17. Shakespeare, in Two Gentlemen, ‘He lov’d her out of all nick.’

nick, out on the

*, adj. and adv. Out thieving: c.: from ca 1870.

nick and froth

. A false measure (of beer); cheating customers with false measures: coll: C.17–mid-18. Anticipated, however, in Skelton’s Elynour Rummyng, ‘Our pots were full quaterd, [We were not thus thwarted] With froth-canne and nick-pot.’ The nick was a dent in the bottom of the beer-can, the froth implied an excessive amount. 2. Hence, a publican: ca 1660–1800: coll. Ned Ward has nick and froth victualler (1703).

nick me

! An imprecation of ca 1760–80: coll. Foote. Ex v., sense 2.

nick-nack

; also knick-knack. The female pudend: low: C.18–20; ob. 2. In pl only, the human testicles: low: C.18–20. cf. KNACKERS.

nick-ninny

. ‘An empty Fellow, a mere Cod’s head’, B.E.: late C.17–early 19.

nick-pot

. A tapster; an inn-keeper: C.17–18: s. or coll. Rowlands. 2. A fraudulent measure or beer-pot: C.17–18: s. or coll. See NICK AND FROTH, 1.

nick the pin

. To drink not too much, i.e. fairly: coll: ca 1690–1730. Kersey, ‘To the Pin plac’d about the middle of a Wooden Bowl or Cup’.

nicker

*. One who, at cards, is a cheat: ca 1660–1730: s. or low coll, though perhaps orig. c. 2. One of a band of disorderly young men delighting in the breaking of windows by throwing copper coins at them: ca 1715–20: coll. Gay, in Trivia, ‘His scatter’d Pence the flying Nicker flings.’ Ex nick, to hit the mark.

nickerers

. New shoes: Scots c. or, more prob., s.; certainly it soon > s. C.19. Jamieson. Ex the creaking sound: see NICK, n. and v. (and in E.D.D.).

nickery

. A nickname: low coll: ca 1820–30. By corruption.

nickey

; nickin, see NIKIN and OLD NICK.

nicks

. See NIX. 2. Stolen goods: Londoners' (–1890). Ex NICK, v., 4.

nickum

*. A sharper; a cheating tradesman or inn-keeper: c.: late C.17–mid-18. Ex nick'em, cheat them. (In Scots dial., a wag; a tricky person.)

nicky

, see NIKIN and OLD NICK.

Nicodemus

. A fanatic: Restoration period. Ex Biblical history and Church dissension.

niff

, v.i. To smell unpleasantly: Dulwich College: from late 1890s. ?back-formation ex NIFFY, or ex dial.

niffle

. To smoke: Conway cadets': late C.19–20. Rather by a blend of NIFF and sniffle than ex the latter only.

niffy

, adj. Smelly: Sussex dial. >, ca 1890, lows. Ex dial. n. and v., niff, smell; stink.

nifty

. Smart, fashionable; fine, splendid; (somewhat blatantly) skilful: orig. (1868), U.S.; anglicized ca 1890. Bret Harte's 'Nifty! Short for magnificat' is a joke, but the term may be a perverted telescoping of magnificent.

nifty

, n.; gen. bit of nifty. Sexual intercourse: c., and low: late C.19–20.

nig

. A clipping of money; such clippings collectively. Gen., however, in pl: clippings. LateC.17–early 19c. Prob. NICK perverted. 2. A Negro: (low) coll: orig. (1864), U.S.; anglicized ca 1870. Abbr. NIGGER. 3. Gin: backs. (–1859). 4. A trick or DODGE: Blue Coat Schoolboys’: from ca 1840.

nig

, v. To clip money: late C.17–early 19 c. Implied in B.E.’s nigging. 2. To catch; arrest: mid-C.18 c. ?NICK, v., 3, influenced by NAB, v., 1. 3. To have sexual intercourse: low: C.18. Abbr. NIGGLE.

nigger, sometimes (†) niggar

. A Negro: coll, often pejorative: 1786, Burns; 1811, Byron, ‘The rest of the world—niggers and what not’. Ex †S.E. neger (L. niger). Hence, 2, a member of some other dark-skinned race: somewhat catachrestically coll: from ca 1855.

nigger-driver

; -driving. One who works others excessively hard; this practice: coll: from ca 1860. Ex the cruelty of some overseers of slaves.

nigger-spit

. The lumps in cane sugar: low: from ca 1870; ob.

niggers

! An oath: low coll: C.17. Whence niggers-noggers! cf. JIGGERED! ex Jesus. Often, ca 1640–80, abbr. to nigs!, preceded by (God’)s or CUDS.

niggers in a snow-storm

. Curry and rice; stewed prunes and rice: naval: late C.19–20.

niggle

*; in C.16–early 17, often nygle; in C.17–18, often nigle. Occ. the n. of: niggle, etc., v.i. and v.t., to have sexual connection with a woman: ca 1565–1820: c. >, ca 1720, low s. Harman; Rowlands, who says that, ca 1610, WAP was more gen.; in 1612, however, Dekker has ‘And wapping Dell that niggles well, and takes loure for her hire’. Whence NIGGLER, 1.

niggledigee or niggledigée

. see NEGGLEDIGEE.

niggler or nigler

*. A lascivious or very amorous person: c.: C.17–18. Marston. 2. A clipper of money: c.: late C.17–18. Ex NIG, v., 1.

niggling

*. Keeping company with a woman, sexual intercourse: c.: C.17–early 19. Dekker. Ex NIGGLE, v. cf. NIGGLER, 1.

nigh

, adj. Near; close (e.g. ‘a nigh fit’): low coll: C.19–20.

night

! Good night!: coll: late (?mid-)C. 19–20. cf. DAY!; EVENING!; MORNING!

night!, good

. That’s done it! Coll: late C.19–20; ob. cf. that’s TORN IT!

night and day

. A play: rhyming s. (– 1859).

night-cap

. A nocturnal bully: coll: ca 1620–30. Webster in The Duchess of Malfi. 2. See HORSE NIGHT-CAP.

night-flea

. A boarder: Essex schools' (–1909). Contrast DAY-BUG.

night-fossick

, n. To steal gold quartz or dust, by night: Australian: mid-C.19–20. See FOSSICK.

night hawk

. (Gen. pl.) A night-watchman steward: nautical: late C.19–20.

night of it, make a

. To spend the night in gambling and/or drinking and/or whoring: coll: from ca 1870.

night-physic or -work

. Copulation: late C.16–early 18: jocular coll when not euphemistic S.E. Massinger, 'Which... ministers night-physic to you?'

night-snap

. A nocturnal thief: C.17: low s. Fletcher.

night to run away with another man's wife, a fine

. A fine night: a proverbial c.p. of late C.16–18. Florio, Rowley, Swift (a delicate night).

night-walker

. A bellman; a watchman: either c. or low s.: late C.17–mid-18. All other senses (e.g. a harlot), despite B.E., are S.E.

night with you and a file of the morn's morning!, all

. 'A slang form of saying "good-night!": Aberdeenshire: 1882; ob.

nightie, nighty

. A night-dress: coll: from early 1890s. 2. Hence, occ., a surplice: from ca 1897: jocular coll. Abbr. nightdress or n.-gown+familiar ie, y.

nightingale

. See CAPE; CAMBRIDGESHIRE; DUTCH; FEN-; NEWGATE (BIRD or); SPITHEAD NIGHTINGALE. 2. A soldier who, being punished, ‘sings out’: military: ca 1770–1830. 3. A harlot: low: from ca 1840. Because most active at night.

nightshade or deadly n

. ‘A shameless prostitute of the very lowest class’ (B. & L.): from ca 1860.

nighty

, see NIGHTIE. nigle; nigler; nigling, see NIGGLE; NIGGLER; NIGGLING.

nigmenog

, see NIMENOG.

nignog

. A fool: Army: late C.19–20. Perhaps ex NIMENOG.

nigs

, see NIG, n., 1. Also abbr. NIGGERS!

nihil-ad-rem

. Vague (of things); unconscious: Winchester College: ca 1860–1910. e.g. ‘He sported nihil-ad-rem duck.’ L., lit. ‘nothing to the purpose’.

nikin

; occ. nickin; also nikey, i.e. nick(e)y; also nis(e)y, nizey or nizzie. A soft simpleton: coll: late C.17–18. The -k- forms are prob. ex Nick, the -s- and -z-, ex Fr. niais, foolish. 2. (Only nickin, nikin, ni(c)k(e)y.) Abbr. Isaac: C.17–19.

nil

, n. and adj. Half profits, etc.; half: low: from ca 1859; ob.

nim

*; occ. nym. A thief: c. of ca 1620–40. Taylor the Water Poet. Ex:

nim

*; occ. nym. (Whence Shakespeare’s Nym.) To steal, pilfer (v.i. and v.t.): C.17–20: low c. till mid-C.17, then c.: from ca 1850, still c. but archaic. John Day, 1606, in his Isle of Gulls; ‘Hudibras’ Butler; Gay, in The Beggars’ Opera; G.P.R.James, The Gipsy. Ex A.-S. niman, to take.

nimak

; occ. nimma(c)k. Salt: Regular Army's: late C.19–20. Ex Hindustani. cf. MUCKIN.

nimble as similes are coll: (as) nimble as a cat (up)on a hot backstone, late C.17–early 19 (backstone, occ. bakestone in C.19), the gen. C.19–20 form being (up)on hot bricks; (as) nimble as a bee in a tar-barrel, C.19–20, ob., a cognate phrase being to bumble like a bee in a tar-tub;...as a cow in a cage, C. 19–20 (ob.) jocular;...as a new-gelt dog, C.19–20 (ob.), mainly rural;...as an eel (wriggling in the mud; in a sandbag), C.17–20, being in C.19–20 mainly dial.;...as ninepence, from ca 1880, also dial., prob. ex the proverb, a nimble ninepence is better than a slow shilling (C.19–20; latterly dial.), with which cf. the late C. 19–20 Gloucestershire a nimble penny is worth a slow sixpence.

nimble-hipped

. (Gen. of women.) Active in the amorous congress: C.19–20; ob. Coll verging on S.E.

nimbles

*. The fingers: c.: early C.17. Jonson, 1621, 'Using your nimbles|In diving the pockets'.

nimenog; OCC. nigmenog

. 'A very silly Fellow', B.E.; a fool: late C.17–18: coll. Presumably cognate with nidget and the dial. nidyard, S.E. niddicock.

nimgimmer; nim-gimmer

*. A surgeon, doctor, apothecary, 'or any one that cures a Clap or the Pox', B.E.: c.: late 17–early 19. Ex NIM+?

nimma(c)k

, see NIMAK.

nimmer

*. A thief: see NIM, v., for period and changing status.

nimming

*. Theft; thieving: see NIM, v., for period and status.

nimrod

. The penis: low: C.19–20; ob. Because 'a mighty hunter'. cf.:

nimshod

. A cat: low: from ca 1870; ob. ?a corruption of Nimrod, or is it a mere coincidence that the vocable may=NIM, to take,+shosho or shoshi, Romany for a rabbit. Not ex dial.

nin

. Drink: children's coll: C.16–17. Cotgrave ('Before they can speak'). By corruption.

nincum-noodle

. A NOODLE with no income: jocular London: ca 1820–40. Baumann has nincum, a NOODLE.

nine-bob-square

. Out of shape: C.19–20: coll (†by 1902) and dial. In dial., cf. ninebauble-square and nine-bobble-square. ?lit. 'nine-cornered-square'.

nine corns

. A small pipeful, a half-fill, of tobacco: mid-C.19–20: coll (†by 1902) and dial. (ob.; mostly Lincolnshire).

nine lives and (or but) women ten cats' lives, cats have

. A mid-C.18–mid-19 c.p.

nine shillings

. Nonchalance; cool audacity: late C.18–20; ob. A perversion.

nine-tail bruiser or mouser

*. The CAT-O’-NINE TAILS: prison c.: ca 1860–1910.

nine ways or nine ways at thrice or nine ways for Sunday(s), look

. To squint: coll: resp. C.16–20 (ob.), as in Udall; C.17, as in G. Daniel; and C.19–20.

nine winks

. A short nap: ca 1820–50. cf. FORTY WINKS.

nine words at once, talk

. To speak fast or thickly: C.17: coll. Cotgrave.

ninepence, bring one’s noble to

, see NOBLE TO NINEPENCE...

ninepence, grand or neat or nice or right as

. Extremely neat, nice, right: coll: C.17–20 for neat (e.g. Howell, 1659), C.19–20 for the three others: grand, Dickens; right, Smedley, 1850; nice, T.Ashe, 1884, but implied in H., 2nd ed. See also NEAT AS A BANDBOX.

ninepence, nimble as

, see NIMBLE AS...

ninepence, right as

. A coll variant (from ca 1885) of NIMBLE AS ninepence. Baumann suggests an influence by ninepins.

ninepence, the devil and

, see DEVIL AND NINEPENCE...

ninepence to nothing, as like as . Almost certainly: coll: C.17. Ray.

ninepence to nothing, bring (one's)

. To waste or lose property: C.18–20: coll till ca 1850, then dial. In C.16–17, bring a shilling to ninepence.

ninepins

. The body as life's container; life in gen.: low: 1879, G.R.Sims, in the Dagonet Ballads, 'It's a cold...as has tumbled my ninepins over.' Ob.

niner

. A convict serving nine years: coll: 1897, Waring. 2. (Gen. pl.) A senior naval cadet: in the training-ship Britannia: late C.19–early 20. ?ex ninth term.

nines (rarely nine, †), to or up to the

. To perfection; admirably: coll: late C.18–20. (ca 1870–80, up to the nines also=up to all the dodges.) Burns, 1887, to the nine, as also Reade in Hard Cash; T.Hardy, 1876, up to the nines, a form that appears to be recorded first in 1859, H., 1st ed., in the phrase dressed up to the nines. ?ex nine as a mystic number connoting perfection. Also got-up to the nines.

nineteen bits of a bilberry, he'll make

. A pejorative c.p. of ca 1660–1700. Ray.

nineteen to the dozen

, see DOZEN, TALK...

ninety dog

; always in form: 90 dog. A pug-dog: streets' (–1909). Ware, 'Referring to aspect of tail'.

ninety-eight out of, have

. To get one's own back on (a person): tailors': late C.19–20.

ninety-nines, dressed up to the

. An elaboration of dressed (up) to the NINES: coll (–1887); ob.

ninety-seven (gen. 97) champion frost

. A lower-classes' c.p. applied in 1897–9 to motor-cars, which, in 1896–7, were something of a FROST or failure.

ning-nang

. A worthless thoroughbred: veterinary: from ca 1890. Ex horse-dealers' s. (–1864). In Northern dial., ning-nang is applied also to a worthless person.

ninny

*. 'A canting whining Beggar', B.E.: c. of late C.17–mid-18. Ex S.E. sense, or perhaps imm., as prob. the S.E. is, from an innocent, as the O.E.D. suggests.

ninny-broth

. Coffee: late C.17–18. Ned Ward in The London Spy.

ninth

, occ. in C.18 tenth, part of a man. A tailor: C.18–20; ob.: coll. Foote, 1763, 'A journeyman-taylor...this whey-faced ninny, who is but the ninth part of a man.' Ex the proverbial nine tailors make a man (late C.16–20); in C.17 also two (Dekker & Webster) or three (Apperson).

niog ot takram

. Going to market: back s. (–1859).

nip

*. A thief, esp. a cut-purse or a pickpocket: c. of late C.16–18. Greene. ?ex the v. 2. A cheat: c.: late C.17–early 19, when it was the prevailing c. sense, a cut-purse gen. being a BUNG-NIPPER. 3. s. of ca 1820–50: 'Passengers who are taken up on stage-coaches by the collusion of the guard and coachman, without the knowledge of the proprietors, are called nips,' De Quincey, 1823. 4. See NIPS.

nip

, v.; also nipp(e), nyp. To steal, esp. to pick pockets or to cut purses: c.: ca 1570–1830. (v.i. and v.t.) Harman (the stock phrase, nip a BUNG (n., 2), to cut a purse), Greene, Cleveland; B.E., ‘to Pinch or Sharp anything’. Ex the S.E. sense, to pinch (cf. s. PINCH), and ex: 2. To catch, snatch, seize neatly, take up smartly (also with away, out, up): from ca 1560: chiefly dial. (earliest record) and s. H.Scott (dial.), F.Godwin, C.B.Berry. 3. To PINCH (4), i.e. arrest: c.: from ca 1560. R. Edwards, ca 1566, ‘I go into the city some knaves to nip’; Mayhew. 4. (Prob. ex preceding sense.) To move, to go, almost always quickly or promptly: orig. (–1825), dial. > s. ca 1880. Often with out (Daily Telegraph, 2 Jan. 1883, ‘I nipped out of bed’) or up; nip in=to slip in, nip along=to depart hurriedly or rapidly, or to move with speed. 5. To detect: Shrewsbury School coll: from ca 1880.

nip, as white as

. As white as snow: prole-tarian (–1887); slightly ob. Ex dial. (–1861) and the herb cat-mint, covered with a fine white down.

nip along, in, out, up

, etc. See fourth sense of NIP, V.

nip and tuck

, adv. and adj., occ. a virtual n. (a NECK-AND-NECK race). Neck and neck; almost level or equal(ly): coll: orig. U.S.; anglicized ca 1890. In U.S., rip and tuck, 1833; nip and tack, 1836; nip and chuck, 1846; nip and tuck, 1857: an illuminating example of semantic phonetics or, rather, phonetic semantics.

nip-cheese

. A ship's purser : nautical s.: 1785, Grose; Marryat; 1867, Smyth; Bowen. Ob. by 1907.
Ex some pursers' 'pinching' part of the cheese and other food.

nip-louse

. A tailor: low: from ca 1850; ob. cf. NIP-SHRED.

nip-lug

. A teacher: Scots s. or coll: C.19–20; ob. They pull bad pupils' ears.

nip-lug, at

. At logger-heads: Scots coll: C.19–20; ob.

nip-shred

. A tailor: mid-C.17–mid-18: s. > coll. K.W., 1661, 'Though her nimble nipshred never medles with the garments'. cf. NIP-LOUSE.

nipp, nippe

, see NIP, v., 1–3.

nippence, no pence,|half a groat wanting twopence

. Nothing, a groat being fourpence: a C.17 rhyming c.p. Ray, Fuller.

nipper

*. A thief, esp. a cut-purse or a pickpocket: c.: ca 1580–1830. Fleetwood, 1585, ‘A judiciaall Nypper’, i.e. a very skilful one, this being a stock phrase. Ex NIP, v., 1. 2, ‘A boy who assists a costermonger, carter, or workman’, O.E.D.: low coll (and dial.): from ca 1850; ob. Mayhew, 1851. Prob. because he ‘nips’ about, therefore presumably dial. orig. (see NIP, v., fourth sense). 3. Whence, a boy, a lad (in C.20, esp. if under say 12): from ca 1859. Daily News, 8 April 1872; Referee, 11 Nov. 1888, ‘Other nippers—the little shrimps of boys...’; Chevalier in The Idler, June 1892, ‘I’ve got a little nipper, when ’e talks |I’ll lay yer forty shiners to a quid|You’ll take ‘im for the father, me the kid,’ which rather bears out the O.E.D.’s quotation from Williams’s Round London, 1893, ‘The mind of the East End “nipper” is equal to most emergencies.’ 4. Whence(!), a boy or CAD; Marlborough School: from ca 1875; ob. 5. See NIPPERS. 6. A frosty day: coll (–1887); ob. 7. A cabin-boy: sailingships’: from ca 1865; slightly ob. 8. A prawn: Australian: late C.19–20.

nipper

*, v. To catch; to arrest: c. (>, ca 1830, low s.): ca 1820–50. Egan (1824, in vol. IV of Boxiana). Ex NIP, v., 3.

nippers

*. Handcuffs or, occ., shackles: c. of ca 1820–1920. Haggart; Egan’s Grose; Matsell. Ex NIP, v., 3. 2. ‘A burglar’s instrument used from outside on a key’, F. & H.: c.: from ca 1840. Also American tweezers. 3. Eye-glasses, esp. pincenez (whence the name): from ca 1875 and prob. ex U.S. (Lowell, 1876). 4. A policeman: c. (–1887).

nippiness

, see NIPPY, adj., 2.

nipping

*, n. and adj. See NIP, v., 1: same period and status. Esp. in Greene.

nipping Christian

. A cut-purse: low s. of ca 1800–60.

nipping-jig

. (A) hanging: early C.19: ?c. > low s.

nippitate

; -ato, atum, -aty (occ. -ati). Strong, prime liquor, esp. ale: ca 1575–1700. The O.E.D. considers both the n. and the derivative adj. as S.E., prob. rightly; F. & H. thinks it may have been c. Laneham, Stubbes, Nashe, Oliffe, Urquhart. Etymology obscure: but cf. NIP, v., 2.

nipps

, see NIPS.

nippy

. The penis: children's: from ca 1850; ob. ?ex PEE.

nippy

, adj. Lively, nimble, active, sharp or prompt: 1853, Surtees; Burleigh, 1898, 'He...liked to see them keen and "nippy" at every soldierly task.' 2. Fairly cold: coll: late C.19–20. cf. 'It's a bit nippy', as understatement of the fact that it's damned cold. Ex English dialect.

nips; nipps, nyps

. Shears for clipping money: c.: late C.17–mid-19.

nipsitate

. A C.17 variant of NIPPITATE. Davenport, 1639.

nire

. Rain: Cockney back s. (on rine): before 1859. cf. NAIR.

nisey or nisy

, see NIKIN and NIZEY.

nit

. ‘Wine that is brisk, and pour’d quick into a Glass’, B.E.: coll: late C.17–mid-18. ?ex †nitty, full of air bubbles.

nit, dead as a

. Quite dead: coll and dial.: late C.18–20; ob. except in dial. Wolcot, 1789; Hardy, 1874, ‘[The Sheep] will all die as dead as nits.’

nit-squeegee, i.e. nit-squeezer

. A hairdresser: low: 1788, Grose, 2nd ed.; ob.

nitraph

. A farthing (pronounced farthin’): backs. (–1859).

nits will be, gen. become, lice

. A proverbial c.p., > in C.18 a proverb, applied to ‘small matters that become important’, B.E.: mid C.17–18. Isaac D’Israeli ascribes it to Oliver Cromwell.

nitty

. A disturbance, racket, squabble; naval: from ca 1810, or even ca 1790. 1830, Marryat, ‘I never seed...such a nitty kicked up ‘tween decks, in my life.’ Ob. Prob. ex dial. nitter or nitty-natter, to be constantly grumbling.

nix

*; nicks. Nothing; occ., in mid-C.19–20 but ob., nobody. Orig. c. >, ca 1815, low s. >, ca 1860, gen. s. G.Parker, 1789, ‘How they have brought a German word into cant I know not, but nicks means nothing in the cant language’; prob. ex coll Ger. nix (=nichts) via coll Dutch, as the O.E.D. implies. Also NIX MY DOLL.

nix

! A warning, esp. among schoolboys and workmen, of somebody’s approach. Esp. in keep nix, to keep watch. Ob. H., 2nd ed., 1860; Routledge’s Every Boy’s Annual, 1869. Also (recorded in 1883) nix (e.g. lads,) buttons! Prob. ex Romany nisser, to avoid, influenced by NIX MY DOLLY.

nix, deberr

! No, my friend: London: ca 1810–30. ‘Jon Bee’, 1823, ‘Borrowed of the Russians who layin the Medway, 1810.’

nix my doll

*. Nothing: c. of ca 1810–30. A mystifying elaboration of NIX, when the latter began to > well known.

nix my dolly

*. Never mind!; prob. a mere variant of NIX MY DOLL, nothing (to worry about): 1834, Ainsworth, 'Nix my dolly, pals, fake away,' in a popular song that popularized the phrase, which soon >, as it may orig. have been, merely 'literary' c.; certainly †by 1890 and ob. by 1860.

nix(e)y

! No!: circus-workers' (–1887). Ex NIX and NIX!

niz-priz

. A writ of nisi prius: legal: mid-C.19–20.

nizey, nizi, nizey, nizzie, nizzy

. (Also nisey, nisy.) A dunce, simpleton, fool: coll: mid-C-17–early 19. (The rare nizi, only C.17; nisy only C.18.) Either ex Fr. niais, foolish, or ex †S.E. nice, foolish. Coles, 1676; Ned Ward; Johnson, 'a low word'. 2. A coxcomb: late C.17–early 18: coll, I think, though B.E. says c. See also NIKIN.

no, 1.

, see NUMBER ONE.

no battle

. Not worth-while, no good: printers': from ca 1870; ob. Because not worth fighting for or because there's no fight to see.

no-beyond jammer

. A perfectly beautiful woman: low (–1909); virtually †. Ware. Lit.: as JAM (n., 2 and 3), incomparable.

no can do

. Cannot do; impossible: pidgin and 'passe-partout' English: mid-C.19–20. Whence N.C.D., the naval refusal of an invitation: late C.19–20.

no catch(, it's, etc.)

. (It's) very hard work, very disappointing, unpleasant, dangerous: coll: late C.19–20. See CATCH, n., and cf. the equivalent no cop at COP, 3.

no cop

, see COP, BE NO. no earthly, see EARTHLY, NO. no end, See END, NO. no error, and, see MISTAKE, AND NO. no fear, see FEAR!, NO.

no flies

; also no(-)fly. Artful, designing; printers': from ca 1870. Also N.F. 2. 'An emphatic addition made to an assertion ...It really means "no error" or "no mistake"...as "A jolly fine girl, and no flies!"' H., 5th ed. (1874).

no go(, it is, etc.)

. No use!; it's impracticable or impossible: prob. from ca 1800; 1824, Boxiana, IV; 1852, Notes and Queries, 17 Jan., 'My publisher coolly answered that it was no go'; 1896, Farjeon, 'But it was no go'.

no good to me

! Won't satisfy me by far!: coll c.p.: from ca 1880. (Anstey, Voces Populi, I, 1890.)

no grease

! An engineers' c.p. (-1909) inputing lack of polish or manners.

no hank! or ?

A Cockney speech-tag meaning 'there is no deception (is there?)': from ca 1870. Ex HANKY-PANKY.

no-how, no-howish

, see NOHOW, NOHOWISH.

no kid

. No mistake; lit., without deception: from ca 1890. P.H.Emerson.

no matter for that,you shall carry the rake

. 'If you tax a Girl with playing the loose [i.e. being unfaithful], she shall immediately reply, No matter...,' Anon., Tyburn's Worthies, 1722: Essex c.p.: ca 1715–40. A rural piece of sexual imagery: 'You shall have the raking, the harrowing' (compare the Lucretian plough the fields of woman).

no mistake, and

, see MISTAKE, AND NO.

no more wit than a coot(, have)

. (To be) stupid: C.16 coll.

no moss

! No animosity!: tailors': from ca 1870; ob.

no name, no pull

. If I don't mention names, there can—or should—be no offence, libel action: tailors': from ca 1870; ob.

no odds

! It doesn't matter; never mind: coll: 1855, Dickens.

no. one or 1

; no. two or 2, see NUMBER ONE; NUMBER TWO.

no peace (or rest) for the wicked!

, occ. preceded by there's. A c.p. uttered either by or about someone who isn't wicked at all but is being kept extremely busy: late (?mid) C.19–20. Partly an ironic jocularly, partly ex several Biblical references.

no possible probable shadow of doubt, no possible doubt whatever is a c.p., either independent, or in retort on, or confirmation of, of that there is no possible doubt. Late C.19–20, among the cultured. Ex Gilbert & Sullivan.

no rats

! A proletarian c.p. (–1909; ob.): ‘He (or she) is Scotch.’ Ware, ‘A Scot is always associated with bagpipes, and... no rat can bear...that musical instrument.’

no repairs

, see REPAIRS, NO.

no return ticket

! A London lower-classes’ c.p. (–1909): He, or she, is mad! Abbr. he’s going to Hanwell [lunatic asylum] and has no return ticket.

no show without Punch, there’s

. A c.p. applied to, or directed at, a ubiquitous person: mostly lower-middle class: late C.19–20.

no wanchee

. Pidgin English for ‘I don’t want it, thank you’: much used in the Navy, esp. on ‘China-side’: late C.19–20.

Noah's ark

. An overcoat, long and closely buttoned: coll: from ca 1858; ob. by 1905. 2. A LARK (whether bird or, more gen., fun): rhyming s.: 1887, Referee, 7 Nov.

Noakes

, see NOKES.

nob

.(In C.18, also nobb.) The head: from ca 1690: c. >, ca 1750, low s. >, ca 1810, gen. s. K. O'Hara, 1733, 'Do pop up your nobagain,|And egad I'll crack your crown.' cf. (?ex) NAB, the head. 2. A blow on the head: from ca 1810; very ob.: orig. sporting. 3. In cribbage, 'the knave of the same suit as the turn-up card, counting one to the holder', O.E.D.: 1821, Lamb. See also NOB, ONE FOR HIS. 4. A person of rank, position, or wealth: 1809 (O.E.D.); Lex. Bal., 1811; Westmacott, 1825, 'Nob or big wig'; Dickens, Thackeray; Anstey. (In the C.19 Navy, a lieutenant.) Earlier in Scots dial. as nab or knab(b): 1742, R. Forbes. These Scottish forms militate against abbr. nobility; this sense prob. derives ex sense 1: cf. the HEADS, important persons. 5. Hence, a fellow of a college: Oxford University: ca 1820–60. 6. Abbr. KNOBSTICK: workmen's coll: from ca 1865; ob. J.K.Hunter, Life Studies, 1870. 7. A sovereign (coin): ca 1840–90. Ex the head. 8. The game of PRICK- (or cheat-) THE-GARTER: c. of ca 1750–1800. John Poulter, 1753, 'We got about three pounds from a buttermen at the Belt or Nobb.' 9. The nose: Scottish and North Country s.: 1796. cf. sense 1. 10. See KNOB, n., 5. 11. Linking with sense 4 is that of: an expert or a champion in sport, esp. in boxing: since ca 1810. Thus, 'Several new nobs have made their appearance in the pugilistic hemisphere since April 1818,' Boxiana, III, 1821. 12. See KNOB, n., 6.

nob

, v. To punch on the head, v.t. and v.i.: boxing: 1812, both in the Sporting Magazine; ob. 1823, Moncrieff, 'I've nobb'd him on the canister.' 2. To collect (money); make a collection from (persons): showmen's: both 1851, Mayhew, e.g. 'We also "nobb", or gather the money', and 'We went to "nob" them .' Perhaps ex cribbage or ex NOB (n., 7)=a sovereign. 3. See NOB IT.

nob, come the

. To give oneself airs: from ca 1820; ob. Ex NOB, n., 4.

nob, do a

. A variant (–1875) of NOB, v., 2. T. Frost, Circus Life.

nob, one for his

. A point in cribbage for holding the knave of trumps: 1870, Ware & Hardy in The Modern Hoyle. 2. Hence, a punch on the head: boxing: from ca 1870.

nob, pitch the

*. See PRICK(-IN)-THEGARTER. From ca 1820; †by 1890; prob. c.

nob-a-nob

, adj. Friendly, intimate: 1834, Ainsworth; †by 1890. Corrupted HOBNOB.

nob-cheat or -chete

, see NAB-CHEAT. nob-girder, see NAB-GIRDER.

nob fake

. Hair-restorer: showmen's: since ca 1885. See FAKE, n., 6.

nob in the fur trade

*. A judge: c.: ca 1838, G.W.M.Reynolds, 'Let nobs in the fur trade hold their jaw'; †by 1880. Ex the fur on the robe.

nob it

*. To prosper without much work; to succeed by shrewdness: c. of ca 1810–40. Also to fight nob-work, gen. as vbl n.

nob-pitcher

*. c. of ca 1810–90. Vaux, 1812, 'A general term for those sharpers who attend at fairs, races, etc., to take in the flats at prick-in-the-garter, cups and balls, and other similar artifices.'

nob-stick

, see KNOBSTICK.

nob-thatch

. Hair (of the bead): 1866, Yates, ‘You’ve got a paucity of nobthatch, and what ‘air you ‘ave is gray.’ Ob. Ex NOB, n., 1. cf.:

nob-thatcher

. A wig-maker: from ca 1790; ob. 2. A (gen. female) straw-bonnet maker: 1823, Moncrieff: ca 1820–1900. cf. NODDLE-THATCHER.

nob the glazes

. To collect money from persons at first-floor windows, performers standing upon each other’s or even one another’s shoulders: showmen’s and circus s. (–1875). T.Frost, Circus Life. See NOB, v., 2, and GLAZE.

nob-work

. Mental occupation: low: from ca 1820. Ex:

nob-work, fight

*, see NOB IT. nobb, see NOB, n., 1 and v., 2.

nobba

; occ. nobber. Nine, gen. as adj.: Parlary via Lingua Franca: from ca 1850. e.g. nobba saltee, ninepence. Ex Sp. nova or It. nove. cf. the interchangeable b and v of sabe, savv(e)y. ‘Slang introduced by the “organ-grinders” from Italy’, H., 1864: from ca 1850.

nobber

. See preceding entry. 2. A blow on the head: boxing: 1818; ob. Moore, 1819, ‘That flashy spark...received a nobber.’ Ex NOB, v., 1. 3. A boxer skilful at head-punches: boxing: from ca 1820; ob. Sporting Magazine, 1821, ‘Randall... a nobbler of first-rate excellence’. 4. A collector of money, esp. for showmen or minstrels, or, in C.20, for a beggar: 1890, Echo, 30 Oct., ‘Only a nobber can know the extraordinary meanness of the British public’; P.H.Emerson. Ex NOB, v., 2. cf.:

nobbet

; esp. n. round. To collect the money; esp. in turn: itinerant minstrels’ and tavern-singers’: from ca 1860. Ex Romany but suggested by NOB, v., 2.

nobbily

. Smartly, esp. if rather showily: from ca 1858. Ex NOBBY, adj.

nobbing

. The giving or the getting of blows on the head: boxing (–1825). Ob. The corresponding adj. is recorded at 1816. 2. Going round with the hat (–1859): showmen’s. In the pl, money collected: 1851, Mayhew, ‘Fifteen shillings of nobbings’. Ex NOB, v., 2. cf. NOBBING-SLUM.

nobbing-cheat

*, see NUBBING-CHEAT.

nobbing-slum

. The bag (or the hat) for collecting money: showmen’s: from ca 1890. cf. NOBBING, 2, and NOB, v., 2.

nobbish

. A variant of NOBBY, adj. From ca 1860; ob.

nobble

. To strike on the head; to stun: low: from ca 1880; ob. Ex NOB, n., 1. 2. To tamper with a horse, e.g. by laming it, to prevent it from winning: the turf: 1847. Lever, 1859, ‘A shadowy vision of creditors “done”, horses “nobbled”’. ‘App. a modern frequentative of NAB’, v., q.v. (W.) 3. Hence, to obtain a person’s help or interest by underhand methods: 1865. 4. To appropriate dishonestly, even to steal: 1854, Thackeray, ‘After nobbling her money for the beauty of the family’. 5. To swindle out of: 1854, Thackeray. ‘I don’t know out of how much the reverend party has nobbled his poor old sister at Brighton.’ 6.

To seize, catch, get hold of: low (?orig. c.): 1877, Greenwood, ‘There’s a fiver..., and nine good quid. Have it. Nobble him, lads, and share it betwixt you.’

nobble-tree

. The head: provincial: ca 1870–1910. Ex NOB, the head.

nobbled

, ppl adj. See NOBBLE, v.

nobbler

. A blow on the head: boxing: from ca 1840. 2. Hence, any finishing blow or stroke: from ca 1840. 3. An assistant of thimble-riggers (see THIMBLERIG, 2) and card-sharpers, i.e. a decoy; also, a pickpocket working in the vicinity of these riggers and sharpers: c.: from ca 1835. 4. One who disables horses a little before a race: the turf: 1854, Whyte-Melville. See NOBBLE, v., 2. 5. A pettifogging lawyer: North Country: from ca 1860; ob. 6. A drink, esp. of spirits: Australian coll: 1852, G.E.P., ‘To drain a farewell “nobbler” to his Sally’; 1859, Fowler, Southern Lights and Shadows, ‘The measure is called a nobbler, or a breakdown’: coll.

nobblerize

. To drink frequent ‘nobbleries’ (see NOBBLER, 6): Australian coll: 1864, J.Rogers.

nobbling

, vbl n. See NOBBLE, all senses. 2. adj., in good health: coll: ca 1820–40. The Spirit of the Public Journals, 1825. Cognate with NOBBY, adj.

nobby

, n. Always the nobby. The smart thing: 1869, E. Farmer; ob. Ex NOBBY, adj. 2. Inevitable nickname (Nobby) for any man surnamed Clark(e): late C.19–20. Because city clerks used to wear top hats, i.e. nobby hats.

nobby

, adj. Very smart, elegant, or fashionable. Of persons: from ca 1808. A broadside ballad of ca 1810, ‘A werry nobby dog’s meat man’. (cf. NIFTY.) Of places or things: 1844, C.Selby, ‘My togs being in keeping with this nobby place’; 1852, ‘The nobbiest way of keeping it quiet’. Ex Scots knabbie or knabby (1788, Picken, ‘Mony a knabbie laird’); see also NOB, n., 4.

noble blood to market and see what it will bring, send your

. A C.18 c.p. addressed to one boasting about or trading on his high birth.

noble to ninepence, bring a or one’s

. To dissipate money idly or wantonly: semi proverbial coll: from ca 1565; ob. by 1820, except in dial. Fulwell, 1568, ‘For why Tom Tossopot, since he went hence,|Hath increased a noble just unto nine pence’.

nobs

. An endearment applied to a woman: coll: ca 1520–80. Skelton. ?origin.

Nobs' House, the upper

. The House of Lords: low: ca 1820–50. cf.:

Nobs' Houses, the

. The Houses of Parliament: low: ca 1820–50.

nobsey

. A mistress: coll: mid-C.16. Harpsfield. Ex NOBS.

nock

. The female pudend: low: late C.16–18. Florio, Cotton. Lit., a notch. cf.:

nock

, v. To 'occupy' a woman, gen. v.t.: low coll: late C.16–18. Florio; Ash in his Dict. In C.19–20, KNOCK, which was prob. suggested by this.

nockandro

. The posteriors, esp. the breech: coll: C.17. Cotgrave, Urquhart, Gayton. Prob. nock, a notch,+Gr. ἀνδρός, of a man. cf. NOCK, n.

nocky

. ‘A silly, dull Fellow’, B.E.: late C.17–early 19; nocky extant in dial. Also, as in Grose (1st ed.), nocky boy. The etymology is obscure: but perhaps via KNOCK IN THE CRADLE.

nocturne

. A harlot: Society s. bordering on euphemistic S.E.: ca 1875–1915. Prob. ex ob. S.E. nocturnal (late C.17–20): a night-walker, a harlot.

nod, land of

. (Occ. with capitals; always preceded by the.) Sleep: C.18–20: coll till C.19, then S.E. Swift, ‘I’m going to the land of Nod’; Grose; Scott, 1818, in The Heart of Midlothian. Punning the Biblical place-name.

nod, on the

. On credit: coll: from ca 1880. Rag, 30 Sept. 1882, ‘A pay-on-the-nod,| An always-in-quod young man’. Contrast the C.18 proverb, a nod of an honest man is enough.

nod is as good as a wink to a blind horse, a

. A semi-proverbial c.p. applied to a covert yet comprehensible hint, though often stupidity in the receiver is implied. C.19–20. Dorothy Wordsworth, Journal, 1802.

noddle

. The head: coll (orig., perhaps jocular S.E.): 1664, Butler, ‘My Head’s not made of brass|As Friar Bacon’s noddle was’; L’Estrange; Thackeray. Ex the S.E. sense of C.15–mid-17 noddle (cognate with NOLL); the back of the head. 2. The head as the seat of intelligence—or the lack of it. Coll; often playful, often derisive: 1579, Tomson; 1611, W.Baker, ‘The wit enskonsed in thy noddell’; Dickens.

noddle-case

. A wig: coll: ca 1700–80. Facetious Tom Brown. cf.:

noddle-thatcher

. A wig-maker: coll: ca 1715–1800. cf. NOB-THATCHER.

noddleken

, see NUDDIKIN.

noddy-headed

. Drunk: coll: ca 1850–1910.

noffgur

. A fashionable harlot: low: ca 1885–1910. Barrère & Leland quote from an anon. song: ‘Wrong ‘uns at the Wateries, |Noffgurs at the Troc,|Coryphées by Kettner,|Tartlets anywhere.’ Etymology obscure: ?naughty girl telescoped.

noggin

. The head: s. or coll: ca 1800–60. Ex S.E. sense.

nohow

; occ. no-how. The adj. (=indistinct) is S.E., as is the adv. (by no means, in no manner). Preceded by all, it=out of sorts, and is coll: from ca 1850. Dickens.

nohowish

. Unwell: nautical (–1887). Ex NOHOW.

noisy-dog racket

*. The stealing of brass knockers from doors: c. of ca 1810–60. ?ex the accompanying barks of a provoked dog or simply ex the noise the operation was apt to make.

nok

. Nose: showmen's: mid-C.19–20. Direct ex Romany.

nokes

; Nokes. 'A Ninny or Fool', B.E.: coll: ca 1690–1890.

Nokkum

. (Gen. pl.) A Scottish Gypsy tinker: their own word: mid-C.19–20. The reference in 'No. 747' (p. 49) is valid for 1865.

nol

. Long: back s. (–1859).

noll

; occ. nol, nole, nolle, these three being †by 1750. The head: C.9–20: S.E. till C.18, then coll till ca 1820, then (except as jocular archaism) dial. 2. A person, esp. as a simpleton,

gen. with dutt or drunken: late C.14–mid-17: S.E. verging on, indeed sometimes actually, coll.

nominate

, see POISON. nomm(o)us, see NAMMOUS.

non-com

. A non-commissioned officer: coll (orig. military): from ca 1862. J.S. Winter, 1885, ‘Well-tipped quartermasters and their favourite tools among the noncoms.’ cf. the Fr. s., sous-off=sousofficier.

non compos

. Not in one’s right mind: coll: mid-C.19–20. Elliptical for the legal non compos mentis.

non-con., Non-Con., Non-con

. A Nonconformist: coll: from ca 1680; ob.

non est

. Absent: coll: 1870, Brewer. Lit., he is not (sc. found, L. inventus). Abbr.:

non est inventus

, adj. Absent: coll: 1827, De Quincey, Murder as One of the Fine Arts; ob. by 1890, †by 1915. Ex legal S.E.

non-husky

, see HUSKY.

non-licet

, adj. Illegal; esp. unbecoming a Wykehamist: Winchester College: from ca 1890. ‘Don’t sport non-licet notions,’ Wrench, The Winchester Word-Book, 1891. Ex the legal S.E.

non me

. A lie: lower classes’, mostly Cockney: 1820–ca 30. Ex Queen Caroline’s trial, whereat the Italian witnesses said non mi ricordo (I don’t remember) to every important question.

non-plus, catch (a person) on the

. To catch at unawares: coll (–1887); ob.

nondescript

. A boy in the middle school: certain Public Schools': late C.19–20. In the same schools, SQUEAKER (3) and DOOK (4).

nonesuch, nonsuch

. The female pudend: low: C.18–20; ob. 2. In allusive S.E. bordering on semi-proverbial coll (gen. ironic): late C.16–17. Wither, 'A spotless Church, or perfect Disciplines|Go seek at None-such.' Ex Nonsuch, near Epsom in Surrey. cf.:

Nonesuch, he's a Mr.

He's very conceited: c.p. of ca 1885–1910.

nonny-nonny

. A meaningless refrain useful esp. for palliating obscenity: C.16–18; extant only as an archaism. Perhaps coll rather than S.E.F. & H. give it as=a simpleton: but is this so? I find no support.

nonplush

. Nonplus; occ. nonplussed: sol. when not dial., nor, asca 1820–40, jocular.

nonsensational

. Sensationally nonsensical: critics': 1897, People, 28 Feb.; †by 1909. On nonsensational and telescoping nonsensically sensational.

nonsense

. 'Melting butter in a wig', Grose, 3rd ed.: late C.18–early 19. 2. Money: c. or, more prob., low s.: from ca 1820. Egan, 1821, 'Shell out the nonsense: half a quid Will speak more truth than all your palavers.' By antiphrasis.

nonsuch

, see NONESUCH.

noodle

, a simpleton (from ca 1750): perhaps orig. coll; otherwise, always S.E.

noodles

. Nickname for a NOODLE: Society: from ca 1840; ob.

Noodles, the House of

. The House of Lords: ca 1820–60. cf. NOBS'...

nooky

. Sexual intercourse: middle-class and almost polite; certainly a kind of baby-talk: late C.19–20. Perhaps ex S.E. nooky, resembling a nook, characterized by nooks, but probably related to NUG, v.

Noolucks or Newlicks

. An imaginary person: 1848, Sinks; †by 1890. cf. CHEEKS, 3, and JOE, 6.

noom

. Moon: back s. (–1859).

noose, nooze

. To hang: from ca 1670; ob.: ?orig. c.; certainly low s. till C.19, then coll.

nope

. A blow, esp. on the head, from ca 1720: s. (†by 1870) and Northern dial. Cognate with C.15 nolp, of equally obscure origin: cf. CULP.

nor

. Than: dial. (from C.15) and, in C.19–20, low coll. Thackeray, 1840, ‘You’re no better nor a common tramper.’

Nor’ Loch trout

. A joint or leg of mutton: Soots s.: ca 1770–1810. Jamieson, ‘This was the only species of fish which the North Loch, on which the shambles were situated, could supply.’

nor’-wester

. A glass of potent liquor: nautical coll: 1840, Marryat; ob.

Noravee yawl

. A Norway yawl: nautical coll: C.19–20.

Norfolk capon

. A red herring (cf. GLASGOW MAGISTRATE): coll: from ca 1780; ob. Grose, 1st ed. Smith, The Individual, 1836, ‘A Norfolk capon is jolly grub.’ cf. also YARMOUTH CAPON.

Norfolk dumpling

. An inhabitant, esp. a native, of Norfolk: coll: C.17–20. Day, in The Blind Beggar, 1600; Ray, ‘This referres not to the stature of their bodies; but to the fare they commonly feed on and much delight in.’ True, Mr Ray; nevertheless, this dish does tend to make children and even adults round and fat. cf. NORFOLK TURKEY.

Norfolk dumpling, the

*. The (practice of) sending convicts to Norfolk Island: Australian c.: ca 1820–70. Conditions on Norfolk Island (800 miles east of Sydney) were appalling; Norfolk dumplings lie heavy on the stomach—fair ‘settlers’, as was a term on the Island.

Norfolk Howard

. A bed-bug: coll: from ca 1863; ob. Ex one Joshua Bug, who in June 1862 changed his name to Norfolk Howard.

Norfolk turkey

. An inhabitant, esp. a native, of Norfolk: coll: C.19–20; ob. Anon., Ora and Juliet, 1811, ‘The boorish manners of those Norfolk turkeys’. cf. NORFOLK DUMPLING, See NORWICHER, and note the C.16–20 (ob.) proverb Essex stiles (ditches), Kentish miles, Norfolk wiles, many men bequiles, with variants; glance also at YORKSHIRE and at NORTH, 1.

nork

*. A variant (virtually †) of NARK, n.

norp

, gen. v.i. To insert phrases apt to ‘fetch’ the gallery, i.e. to ‘gag to or for the gods’: theatrical from ca 1870; ob. Per haps ex Yorkshire dial. (at least as early as 1869: E.D.D.) norp or naup, to hit the mark, to succeed, ex the much earlier norp, naup, to strike, e.g. with a stick, gen. on the head.

norra

. Not a: Cockney: C.19–20.

Norsker

. A Norwegian: nautical coll: mid-C.19–20. Ex Scandinavian Norsk (Norse).

north

, adj. Intelligent; mentally and socially alert; cunning: from late C.17; ob. Rare except in too far north, too clever or knowing, as in Smollett, 1748, and Mrs A.M.Bennett, 1797; Ashton, in his Social Life in the Reign of Queen Anne, quotes however this illuminating passage: ‘I ask’d what Countrey-man my Landlord was? answer was made, Full North; and Faith ‘twas very Evident, for he had put the Yorkshire most damnably upon us.’ cf. the C.19–20 dial. to have been as far North as anyone, to be no more of a fool than the next man. 2. Strong, gen. of drink: nautical: from ca 1860. Hence, due north, neat, without water, and too far north, drunk; contrast this phrase in sense 1. Glasgow Herald, 9 Nov. 1864. cf. ANOTHER POINT (, STEWARD)!

north about, he's gone

. A nautical c.p. referring (from ca 1860) to a sailor who has met his death by other than drowning.

north and south

. The mouth: rhyming s.: from ca 1850.

North Country compliment

. An unwanted gift of no value to either the donor or the recipient: coll: from ca 1870; ob.

north-easter

. A bluejacket who, on pay day, finds he is not entitled to receive any: naval: late C.19–20. Ex the bitterness of a north-east wind.

north eye

. A squint: showmen's s. and Southern dial.: from ca 1850. P.H. Emerson, 1893. cf. the other dial. phrases in E.D.D.

North Pole

. Anus: since ca 1870. Rhyming s. on HOLE.

North Sea pheasant

. A kipper: nautical: late C.19–20.

Northallerton

. (Rare in singular.) A spur: coll: ca 1790–1880. Grose, 3rd ed., ‘That place, like Rippon, being famous for making them’.

Northern Glance, the

. The Aurora Borealis: nautical coll: mid-C.19–20. Presumably suggested by S.E. Northern Lights.

northo-rigger

. (Gen. pl.) ‘In the late Victorian and Edwardian Navy, ratings who had entered as youths instead of through the harbour training ships. Now seldom heard’, Bowen, 1927. Also hurricane-jumper.

Northumberland’s arms, Lord

. A black eye: mid-C.17–20: s. >, ca 1680, dial. († except in Northumberland). Either from the dark-colour fusils (i.e. light muskets) carried by the Percys’ retainers or from the black and red predominant in the spectaclesresembling badge of this powerful family. Note the heraldic sense of fusil.

Norway neck-cloth

. ‘The pillory, usually made of Norway fir’, Grose, 1st ed.: ca 1784–1830.

Norwegian house-flag

. One of the windmill pumps that used to be compulsory in Norwegian sailing ships: nautical: ca 1850–1910. Bowen. i.e. as inevitable as a house-flag.

Norwicher

. One who drinks too much from a shared jug, glass, etc., i.e. an unfair drinker: ca 1860–1900. Athenaeum, 15 Aug. 1896 (?relevant). Origin obscure; but see Norfolk wiles in the ‘cf.’ part of NORFOLK TURKEY. These territorial amenities are common enough (cf. YORKSHIRE).

nose

*. An informer (1789, Parker: ‘Nose. Snitch’), esp.—from ca 1810—a paid spy: c. Often, from ca 1870, a policeman’s nose. Also NOSER, 4. 2. Hence, a detective policeman, as in Greenwood’s Dick Temple, 1877: c. of ca 1875–1910.

nose

*. v.i. To inform the police; to turn king’s evidence: c.: from ca 1810; ob. Lex. Bal., ‘His pal nosed, and he was twisted for a crack,’ i.e. hanged for burglary. cf. NOSE UPON.

nose, at one's (very)

. Very close: from ca 1520: coll and dial.

nose, †candles or dewdrops in the

. Mucus depending from the nose: low: late C.18–20.

nose!, follow your

. A C.17–20 c.p. 'said in a jeer to those that know not the way, and are bid to Smell it out', B.E. In C.19–20, often follow your nose, and you (or for it) can't go wrong.

nose, good

. A smell-feast: low coll: late C.17–20; ob.

nose, make a bridge of someone's

. To pass him by in drinking: late C.17–20; ob. Swift. 2. Hence, to supersede: same period; ob. Ray.

nose, on the

*. Watching: c. (–1839) >, ca 1900, lows.; ob.

nose, parson's

, see PARSON'S NOSE. cf.:

nose, recorder's

. The rump of a fowl: coll: ca 1820–90. Westmacott, 1825.

nose, wipe

(a person's), see at NOSE OF.

nose and chin

. A WIN, i.e. a penny: low (orig. c.) rhyming s. of ca 1855–1905. 2. Gin: rhyming (–1909). cf. NEEDLE AND PIN.

nose-bag

. Such a visitor as carries his own food: waiters'; 1860, H., 2nd ed. 2. A hospitable hotel or boarding-house: middle classes': late C.19–20; ob. cf. sense 1. 3. A veil: low: ca 1865–1915. 4 .A hand-bag: from ca 1885; ob. Cornhill Magazine, April 1887, 'So I yesterday packed up my nosebag, and away I posted down to Aldgate.' All these senses ex the S.E. one.

nose-bag, put on the

. To eat either hurriedly or at work—or both. (Low) coll: from ca 1870. Ex the stables. cf. NOSE IN THE MANGER.

nose-bag in one's face, have the

. To have been 'a private man, or rode private', Grose, 2nd ed.: military: ca 1780–1830. Ex S.E., nose-bag. cf. HALBERT.

nose-bagger

. A variant, from ca 1865, of NOSE-BAG, 1. Ware.

nose cheese first, see the

. To refuse contemptuously: low: C.19–20; ob.

nose-cough

. A heavy breathing through the mouth on account of a stoppage in the nose: non-aristocratic (–1887).

nose em

, see NOSE MY.

nose-ender

. A straight blow on the nose: boxing: 1854, ‘Cuthbert Bede’. cf. NOSER. 2. A strong head-wind: nautical coll: mid-C.19–20. cf. MUZZLER, 3.

nose-gent

*; nosegent. A nun: c.: ca 1565–1830. ?etymology.

nose in, shove one’s

. To interfere, interpose rudely: low coll (–1887).

nose in the manger, have or put one’s

. To eat, esp. to eat heartily: coll: from ca 1860; ob. T.Hughes, 1861, Tom Brown at Oxford. Ex the stables.

nose is a lady’s liking, a long

. A low c.p. of C.19–20. Length of the male nose being held to denote a corresponding length elsewhere, as the size of a woman’s mouth is supposed to answer to that of another part. cf. BIG CONK...

nose is dirty, his

. He is a heavy drinker: s. (–1650).

nose itches!, my

. A C.18–20 c.p. invitation to kiss, the dovetail being either, as in Swift, ‘I knew I should drink wine, or kiss a fool,’ or, in C.18–20, ‘I knew I would shake hands with a fool,’ or, in C.19–20, ‘I knew I was going to sneeze or to be cursed, or kissed, by a fool.’

nose my

(‘Ducange Anglicus’, 1857) is itself ex NOSER-MY-KNACKER: mid-C.19–20; ob. Also nose em, nose ’m.

nose of

. To cheat, swindle (a person) of (something): ca 1650–90. O.E.D. gives as S.E., but the O.E.D.’s quotations (Brome; Brian, Piss-Prophet) indicate coll. cf.:

nose of, wipe one’s

. To deprive or defraud (one) of (something): late C.16–mid-18. Again the O.E.D. gives as S.E.; again I suggest coll. Bernard, 1598, ‘...Who wipes our noses of all that we should have’; Cibber, 1721, ‘Thou wipest this foolish Knight’s Nose of his Mistress at last’, which, by the way, recalls ‘He’ll wipe your son Peter’s nose of Mistress Lelia’ in Anon.’s Wily Beguiled, ca 1606. cf. NOSEWIPE, and WIPE.

nose of wax

; or waxen-nose (†by C.18). Anything, esp. any person, very pliable, exceedingly obliging or complaisant or easy-going: coll verging on S.E.: ca 1530–1830. Scott, 1815, ‘I let...the constable ...manage the business his ain gate, as if I had been a nose o’ wax.’

nose-paint

. Alcoholic drink: South Lancashire jocular s. (–1905), not dial.

nose-rag

. A pocket-handkerchief: from ca 1835: low. Haliburton. cf. NOSEWIPER.

nose swell, make one’s

. To make a person jealous or envious: coll: from ca 1740; ob. State Trials, 1743, ‘He heard Lord Altham say,...my wife has got a son, which will make my brother’s nose swell.’ cf. the S.E. put one’s nose out of joint, of which it is prob. a jocular elaboration, and the C.18 (?S.E.) variant, make one’s nose warp.

nose to light candles at, a

. A (drunkard’s) red nose: coll: late C.16–20; ob. Nashe, ‘Their noses shall bee able to light a candle.’

nose up my arse!, your

. An expression of the utmost contempt: mid-C.19–20. cf. the milder ASK MINE or MY ARSE!

nose upon

, v.t. To tell something of a person so that he be injured and, if possible, one's self profited: low coll: from ca 1810; ob.

nose-warraer

. A short pipe: from ca 1880.

nose-watch

*. I; me: c. of ca 1570–1630. cf. NIBS (esp. my nibs), which affords a very significant analogy. Harman, 'Cut to my nose watch...say to me what thou wilt.' See WATCH.

nose-wipe

. A pocket-handkerchief: low: from ca 1820. cf. NOSE-WIPER.

nose-wipe

, v.t. To cheat, deceive: coll: ca 1620–1750. Burton. Again, reluctantly, I differ from the O.E.D. as to status: cf. NOSE OF, WIPE ONE’S.

nose-wiper

. A pocket-handkerchief: from ca 1894. Lord C.E.Paget, 1895, ‘Charged with my relay of nose-wipers, I was close to his Majesty on the steps of the throne.’ Ex NOSE-WIPE, n.

nosebag

, see NOSE-BAG. nosegent, see NOSE-GENT. nosender, see NOSE-ENDER.

nosegay

. A blow on the nose: boxing: ca 1820–50.

nosegay to him as long as he lives, it will be a

. A mid-C.17–early 18 semi-proverbial c.p. applied to one who has a very big and/ or long nose. Ray, 1678.

noser

. ‘A bloody or contused nose’, H., 1859; pugilistic; very ob. Ex: 2. A blow on the nose: mostly boxing: from ca 1850. Mayhew. 3. A strong head-wind: nautical coll: from ca 1850. 4. A paid spy: c. of ca 1860–1910. Cornhill Magazine, vol. II, 1862, ‘There are a few men and women among thieves called nosers... They are in the secret pay of the police.’ Ex NOSE, v. 5. One who inspects—esp. by smelling—fruit or flowers but does not buy: Covent Garden (–1909).

noser-my-knacker

. Tobacco (pronounced tobakker): rhyming s. (–1859).

nos(e)y

. Inquisitive: from ca 1906. Esp. Nosey Parker, a prying person (from not later than 1910): hence nosey-parkering, inquisitive(ness).

nosh

, v. To acquire furtively: children’s: C.19–20. Origin? Perhaps ex Ger. naschen, to eat on the sly, to nibble secretly; cf. Ger. Nascherei, a nibbling of dainties on the sly. Also spclt nash. Hence, nosher, one who samples food before buying; a greedy person: mid-C.19–20. If ex German, it comes via Yiddish.

nosper

. A person: back s., low London (–1909). 2. Hence (–1909), a strange

nosrap

. A parson: back s. (–1859).

nossall or -oll

. A horse given to kicking and/or other vicious behaviour: London farriers': late C.19–20. Perhaps cf. dial. nozzle, to strike violently, to do things vigorously.

nosy

, see NOS(E)Y.

not all there

, see THERE, ALL.

not-class

. Not first-rate: coll (–1887).

not likely

!, see LIKELY!, NOT. not much!, See MUCH!, NOT.

not half

, adv. Much, very; as in ‘not half screwed, the gent was!’: (mostly Cockney) ironic coll: C.20. 2. As exclamation, esp. of emphatic assent; as in ““Did you like it?”—“Not half!””: id.: from ca 1905.

not Jack out of doors nor yet gentleman

. One not quite a gentleman; one of ambiguous status: C.17 semi-proverbial coll. John Clarke, 1639.

not meant

. (Of a horse) not intended to win: the turf: ca 1860–1910.

not much frocks

. Socks: rhyming s. of ca 1880–1910. Pugh (2): ‘Never doin’ no honest work out o’ quod from the time when they was in not much frocks an’ nickin’ the baby’s milk to when their poor ole shakin’ legs got them lagged on the kinchin lay.’

not so old nor yet so cold

. A late C.17– mid-18 semi-proverbial c.p. of doubtful and perhaps dubious meaning. Swift, Polite Conversation.

not tonight, Josephine

! A c.p. used—or said to be used—by husbands, lovers, boy friends, refusing a request for sexual intercourse: late C.19–20. Apocryphally attributed to Napoleon refusing Josephine.

not worth a

... These similes all have a coll—several, indeed, a s.—ring. Some will be found at the key n., but for convenience I summarize Apperson's masterly forty, and add one: not worth a bands' end, mid-C.19–20 dial.; bean, late C.13–20, but in C. 19–20 only=penniless; button, C.14–20, ob.; cherry, late C.14–15; chip, C.17; cobbler's curse, late C.19–20 dial. (cf. tinker's curse); cress, C.14–15; ?hence, curse, C.19–20; dodkin, do(i)tkin, or doit, from ca 1660, ob.; fart, C.19–20, low; farthing, C. 17–20; fig, C.16–20; flea, C.15–17; fly, late C.13–20, ob.; gnat, late C.14–16; gooseberry (Shakespeare); groat, C.16– early 19; haddock, C.16; hair, early C.17; haw, late C. 13–16; hen, late C.14–mid-16; herring (cf. haddock), C.13; leek or two leeks, C.14–mid-17; louse, late C.14–20, latterly dial.; needle, C.13–15; nut, late C.13–mid-14; pea or pease, late C.14–early 17; pear, C.14–16; pin, from ca 1530, ob.; point or blue point, ca 1540–1690; potato (Byron, ? nonce-use); rush, occ. bulrush or two rushes (cf. leek), mid-C.14–20, ob.; sloe (cf. haw), C.13–14; straw, late C.13–20; tinker's curse, mid-C.19–20, orig. dial.; rotten apple, mid-C. 15– early 16; egg, C.15–19; ivy leaf, late C.14—mid-15; onion, C.16; shoe-buckles, C.17; three halfpence, mid-C.17–early 18.

notch

. The female pudend: low coll: late C.18–20; ob. cf. NOCK.

note

. Intellectual signature, political war-cry: Society coll: from ca 1860; ob. Ware quotes the Daily News, 18 Nov. 1884, 'Culture is the "note" of Boston.' 2. A £1 note; hence, the sum of £1: coll: since ca 1870.

note, change one's

. To tell a (very) different story: late C.17–20: coll till ca 1850, then S.E. Ex modulated singing.

note-blanker

*, see JILTER.

note-shaver

. A usurious bill-discounter: commercial coll (–1902). Orig. U.S.

noter

. A note-book: Harrow School: late C.19–20. Oxford -er.

notergal wash

; occ. abbr. to n. (or N.) wash. Grubbiness: lower classes': 1857– ca 80. Either ex no wash at all or ex Nightingale wash, Florence Nightingale having stated that a person could, if necessary, keep himself clean with a pint of water per day.

nothing

. See DANCE; NECK; SAY NOTHING. 2. Ironically spoken it=something very considerable: coll, mostly Australian: late C.19–20.

nothing, no

. Nothing whatever: coll: from the 1830s. Harper's Magazine, March 1884, 'There is no store, no post-office, no sidewalked street—no nothing.' cf. the (–1854) Northants dial. a new nothing to hang on one's sleeve, nothing at all.

nothing but up and ride

? A semi-proverbial c.p.=Why, is it all over?; is that the end? ca 1650–1750. Howell, 1659; Ray; Fuller, 1732.

nothing doing

! see DOING!, NOTHING.

nothing like leather

. A c.p. applied to anything that smacks—esp. if one-sided or tendentially-of the doer's or the speaker's trade (orig. that of a currier): late C.17–20. L'Estrange, 1692; Mrs Gaskell, 1855. The anecdotal 'etymology' is that a cobbler once extolled leather for its value in fortifications. For an implied obscenity, see LEATHER, 2.

nothing to do with the case

! That's a lie!: a polite c.p. dating from W.S.Gilbert's The Mikado, 14 March 1885; ob.

nothing to make a song about

, see SONG ABOUT.

nothing to write home about

. Unremarkable; usual; mediocre: coll: late C.19–20.

notice to quit

*. Danger of dying, esp. from ill-health: from ca 1820: c. until ca 1850, then coll; ob. Esp. have notice to quit, to have a fatal illness and to know that it is fatal.

notionable

. Sensible: shrewd: coll, mostly Cockney': from ca 1890. Pugh, 'Not a notionable idea to his conversation from beginning to end.' Contrast the Wiltshire notionable, having an inclination for something.

nottamizer

. A dissecting surgeon: ca 1825–60. Smeaton, 1828. Ex anatomy.

nottub

. A button: back s.: late C.19–20.

nouns

! A C.16–18 oath=(God's wounds); coll. Earliest as Cock's or Od's nouns, nouns by itself being unrecorded in print before 1608.

nourishment, sit up and take

. To become alert or healthy after apathy or illness: from ca 1890: coll. Ex the sick-room+ S.E. take notice, (esp. of babies) 'to show signs of intelligent observation', Dickens, 1846.

nous

. Intelligence; esp. common sense: academic s. >, by 1890, S.E. 1706, Baynard, 'A Demo-brain'd Doctor of more Note than Nous'; 1729, Pope, who, as still sometimes happens, writes it in Gr. characters (vous); Barham; Reade. 'Curiously common in dial.', W. Ex the Gr. philosophic sense of mind or intellect, as in Cudworth, 1678. 2. App., ca 1820–40, it =uppishness. Bee; therefore London fashionable s. 3. Ex sense 1, the rare nous, to understand: from ca 1858; ob.

nous-box

. The head: 1811, Lex. Bal.: s. >, ca 1880, coll; ob. Ex preceding.

nouvelle

. New; stylish: smart society: ca 1815–25. Passim in Boxiana, 1818–24; castigated by Jon Bee in 1823. An aping of the French nouveau, nouvel, nouvelle, new.

nova

. Nine, gen. in sums of money: from ca 1890, but much less gen. than NOBBA: Parlary. P.H.Emerson, 1893. Ex It. nova.

Nova Scotian pump

. A bucket with a line attached to draw water from overside, referring to the hard work in Nova Scotian ships: nautical: late C.19–20. Bowen. cf. the next three entries.

Nova Scotian soda

. Sand and canvas supplied, instead of soda, for cleaning paintwork: nautical: late C.19–20. cf.:

Nova Scotian sun(-light)

. The moon(-light): nautical: late C.19–20. A moonlight night being, in a hard-worked Nova Scotian ship, considered as opportune for some job, by the men deemed unnecessary.

Nova Scotian towing

. Towing a boat with the dories out forward, to save expense of a tug: Grand Banks fishermen's: late C.19–20. Bowen. cf. the preceding three entries.

novelty, the

, the female pudend, C.18–20 (ob.), may be euphemistic S.E.

novi. (pl. novis)

. A new boy: several English Public Schools': late C.19–20. Ex L. novi (homines), the newcomers, the newrich.

now

. Really, truly, indeed: coll: mid-G.19–20. As in: 'Did you now?'

now or never

. Clever: rhyming s. (–1909).

now we shall be shan't

. A jocular perversion of now we SHAN'T BE LONG: a non-aristocratic c.p.: Dec. 1896–ca 1900.

now we shan't be long

, see SHAN'T BE LONG.

now we're busy

! A c.p. implying action: 1868: ob. Ware, 'Also an evasive intimation that the person spoken of is no better for his liquor, and is about to be destructive': a c.p. dating from the 1880s.

nowhere, be

. To be badly beaten, hopelessly out-distanced: 1755. From ca 1820, often figurative. In gen. use from ca 1850. J.Greenwood, 1869, 'The brave Panther when he has once crossed the threshold of that splendid damsel...is, vulgarly speaking, nowhere.' Contrast the U.S. sense, utterly at a loss, completely ignorant.

nowheres

, see SOMEWHEREs.

nozzle

. The nose: mainly pugilistic: 1755, Johnson; Meredith, in Harry Richmond, ‘Uncork his claret...; straight at the nozzle.’ Ex S.E. sense, a small spout, etc., the word itself being a diminutive of nose.

nozzle

, v.t. To shrink (gen. clothes): tailors’: from ca 1870; ob. Prob. ex steaming-process. 2. Hence, to pawn: also tailors’: from ca 1875.

nozzler

. A blow, esp. a punch,. on the nose: mostly pugilistic: 1828.

nth, esp. to the nth (or nth plus one or 1)

. To the utmost; loosely, exceedingly: 1852, Smedley, ‘Minerva was...starched to the nth’: coll: largely, university and scholastic. Less gen. (except in S.E., i.e. lit. usage), nth power, nth degree.

nub

*. The neck: c.: ca 1670–1830. Extant, though very ob., in East Anglian dial. as the nape of the neck. Perhaps cognate with dial. sense, knob; but cf. the app. earlier v., to hang. 2. (?hence,) the gallows: c.: late C.17–early 19. 3. Copulation: c.: C.18–early 19. ?ex dial. sense, a protuberance: cf., however, the C.18–20 dial. v., to jog or shake. 4. A husband: c. > low s.: late C.18–19. Either ex preceding sense or ex an hub.

nub

, v.t. To hang (a person) by the neck: c. of ca 1670–1840. Head; Fielding. ?origin, the earliest dates of n. and v. being somewhat hazy.

nubbies

. Female breasts: Australian low: late C.19–20.

nubbing

, vbl n. Hanging: c.: ca 1670–1840. 2. Sexual intercourse: mid-C.18– early 19: c. Ex NUB, n., 3.

nubbing-cheat

; occ., in C.19, -chit. The gallows: c.: ca 1670–1840, then only as an archaism. Head, B.E., Grose, Maher, ca 1812 (nubbing-chit), Ainsworth. cf. NUBBLING-CHIT. See CHEAT. F. & H. gives a brave synonymy: e.g. BEILBY'S BALLROOM; CRAP (n., 2); hanging-CHEAT, (the) QUEER-'EM, (the) stifler, TYBURN cross, WOODEN-LEGGED MARE.

nubbing-cove

. The hangman: c.: mid-C. 17–early 19. See NUBBING, 1.

nubbing-ken

*. The sessions-house: c. of mid-C.17–early 19.

nubbling-chit

*. A corrupt, rare variant of nubbing-chit (see NUBBING-CHEAT): C. 19 only. Martin & Aytoun in their picaresque Bon Gaultier Ballads, 1841.

nubbly

. Smutty: late C.19–20; ob.

nucloid

. A reserve ship with only a nucleus crew: naval officers': ca 1890–1910. cf.:

nuddikin

. The head: low: C.19–20; ob. Also noddleken. cf. dial. noddle-box.

nuff

. Enough, esp. in to have had one's nuff, to have had enough, i.e. more than enough, drink; to be drunk: military: ca 1880–1910.

nuff ced or said

, see N.C.

nug

*. An endearment, gen. with my (dear): c.: late C.17–early 19. Ex:

nug

*, v. To fondle; to coït with, though occ. v.i. The word is very rare in print, but it is implied in NUGGING-DRESS and -HOUSE. c. of late C.17–mid-19. ?a corruption of nudge: cf. dial. nug, to nudge, jog with the elbow, knock or strike.

nugget

. A thick-set young beast (esp. heifer or calf): Australian, mostly rural: from ca 1850: coll >, ca 1890, S.E. Mundy's Antipodes, 1852. Often a good nugget. 2. Henoe, a short, thick-set person: Australian coll: from ca 1890. Often as a nickname. This usage is paralleled in late C.19–20 Eng. dial. Ex shape. cf. NUGGETY.

nugget

, v. (Gen. v.t.) To appropriate (usually one's neighbour's) unbranded calves: Queensland s. >, ca 1900, gen. Australian s. Mrs C. Praed, 1885; R.M. Praed, 1887. Ex the n., 1. (Whence vbl n., nuggeting: 1887.)

nuggets

. Money, esp. cash: coll: from ca 1890; ob. Milliken, 1892.

nuggety

. Thick-set, esp. if short: Australian: from ca 1885: coll >, ca 1905, S.E. Daily News, 9 April 1887. Ex NUGGET, n., 1.

nugging

*, vbl n. Sexual intercourse: late C.17–mid-19 c. Mainly in next four.

nugging-cove

*. A fornicator: C.18–mid-19 c. Ex NUG, v.

nugging-dress

*. An odd or exotic dress; esp. a loose dress affected by, and characteristic of, harlots: late C.17–mid-19: c.

nugging-house

*. A brothel: c.: mid-C.18– mid-19. Ex NUG, v.

nugging-ken

*. The same: c.: mid-C.18– early 19. Ex NUG, v.

null

*. To strike, beat, thrash: c. of ca 1780–1870. Ex S.E. annul.

null-groper

*. One who sweeps the streets in search of nails, old iron, etc.: c. of ca 1820–60. Prob. nail-groper perverted.

nulling-cove

*. A boxer: ca 1810–1910: c. >, ca 1850, pugilistic s. Ex NULL.

Numans

*. Newgate: C.17 c. Rowlands. i.e. New+MANS. Later Newmans, NEWMAN'S.

Number Nine or 9

*. The Fleet Prison: c. of ca 1820–50. It was situated at No. 9, Fleet Market.

number nip

. The female pudend: low: C. 19–20; ob.

number of one's mess, lose the

, see MESS.

number one

. One's self or one's own interests, esp. in look after, or take care of, number one. C.18–20: S.E. until C.19, then coll. T.Pitt, in Diary, 1704–5; Dickens; Judy, 29 July 1871, 'If a man doesn't take care of No. 1, he will soon have 0 to take care of.' cf. ONE, 1. 2. Urination; occ., a chamber-pot: children's: late C.19–20. Manchon, 'I want to do number one.' cf. NUMBER TWO, 1. 3. The CAT-O'-NINETAILS; punishment therewith: prison j. and prison c. (–1889); ob. cf. NUMBER TWO, 2. 4. The first lieutenant: naval (–1909). 5. See NUMBER ONES.

number one (or 1) chow-chow

. (Of a meal) exceptionally good; (of an object), utterly worthless: Anglo-Indian coll (–1882). See CHOW-CHOW.

number one (or 1), London,—be at

. To have the menstrual discharge: low: mid-C. 19–20; ob. cf. NUMBER ONE, 2.

number ones

. A seaman's best uniform: naval: late C.19–20.

number six

, see NEWGATE KNOCKER. number sixes, see SIXES.

number two

. Defecation: nursery: late C. 19–20. cf. NUMBER ONE, 2. 2. The birch: prison j. and prison c.: from ca 1885; ob. cf. NUMBER ONE, 3.

numbers, by

. In an orderly, indeed somewhat too 'regimental', manner: military coll: late C.19–20. Ex drilling by numbers, esp. instructions to recruits.

numbers, consult the book of

. To call for a division, put the matter to the vote: Parliamentary: ca 1780–1850. cf. (the) BOOK OF WORDS. Ex the Biblical Book of Numbers, which contains a census of the Israelites.

numbers the waves, he

. (Other persons, rare.) He wastes his time or engages in an impossible task: late C.18–mid-19 semiproverbial c.p. Ray, 1813.

numms, numms

*. A dickey; a clean collar on a dirty shirt: late C.17–early 19 c. ?etymology.

nun

. A courtesan; a harlot: from ca 1770, ob.: S.E. >, ca 1810, coll or s. (Perhaps much earlier: see NUNNERY.) cf. ABBESS.

nunky (occ. nunkey)

; nunks. Coll forms of †S.E. nuncle, an uncle: resp. late C.18–20; from ca 1840 (ob.). Charlotte Smith, 1798, ‘Old nunky looks upon you as still belonging to him.’ Comic Almanack, 1841, ‘Come, nunks, one game at Blindman’s-buff.’

nunnery

. A brothel: late C.16–20; ob.: S.E. till ca 1780, then s. Nashe; Fletcher, in The Mad Lover, 1615. cf. NUN.

nunquam

*. A very dilatory messenger: c.: ca 1560–1620. Awdelay. Ex L. numquam, never. cf. S.E. numquid, an inquisitive person.

nuntee (or -y)

. An occ. variant of NANTEE.

nunyare

. Edibles; a meal: Parlary: from ca 1855. A corruption of MUNGAREE. Ex It. mangiare, to eat. Mayhew, London Labour, III, 201.

nuppence

. No money: from ca 1885; ob. Ex no pence after tuppence.

Nuremberg egg

. A watch, egg-shaped: C.16–early 18: coll. Invented there.

nurse

. An old man's maid-cuw-mistress: low coll: C.19–20; ob. 2. A capable first lieutenant 'nursing' a figure-head captain: naval coll: ca 1800–40.

nurse

, v. To cheat (gen. out of): either c. or s.: from ca 1780; ob. 2. (Of trustees) to eat up property: from ca 1858. cf. NURSE, BE AT. 3. To cheat a rival company's omnibus of passengers by keeping close to it; gen. by having one bus before, one behind: 1858: omnibus drivers' and ticket-collectors'. 4. To hinder a horse in a race by hemming it in with slower ones: the turf: from ca 1892. P.H.Emerson, 1893.

nurse, be at

. To be in the hands of (esp. dishonest) trustees: ca 1780–1840. (cf. NURSE, v., 2.) Gen. of the estate.

nursed in cotton, be

. To be brought up very, or too, tenderly: late C.18–mid-19 coll. Ray, 1813.

nursery

. A race for two-year-olds: the turf: from ca 1882. Coll 2. (the n.) The female pudend: low: C.19–20; ob.

nursery business

. The playing of successive cannons: billiards: from ca 1890.

nursery noodle

. A very fastidious critic: literary: ca 1900–14.

nurse's vail

. A nurse's petticoats wet with urine: low: C.19–20; ob. by 1890. Punning vail, a gratuity.

nursesey, nursie

. A coll, mainly children's, form of nurse, n.: from ca 1810.

nut

. The head: 1858, Mayhew, 'Jack got a cracker'—a heavy punch—'on his nut.' 2. Hence, brains, intelligence: 1888, J. Runciman; ob. 3. A person: coll: 1887, Manville Fenn, 'He is a close old nut'; slightly ob. Esp. an old nut; cf. a silly CHUMP. 4. A tough youth: Australian s. or coll: 1882, A.J.Boyd, 'He is a bully, a low, coarse, blasphemous blackguard—what is termed a regular Colonial nut'; ob. cf. the Staffordshire dial. sense, a hardheaded fellow, and the Yorkshire one: a troublesome, disobedient boy. 5. Whence, a dare-devil: Australian: from ca 1895. Esp. the nut. 6. A dandy, esp. if in a cheap way: from late 1903; ob. except as KNUT. Cf. FILBERT. Prob. ex NUTTY, 3. 7. A drink, esp. of liquor: low: from ca 1898; ob. 8. A present; an action designed to please: c. or low s.: ca 1810–50. cf. the v., 1. 9. See NUTS.

nut

, v. To curry favour with; to court, to ogle: ca 1810–90: ?orig. c. cf. NUT, n., 8, and NUTS, 1. 2. To punch on the head, gen. v.t.: boxing: from ca 1870; ob. Ex the n., 1.

nut, crack a

. To drink a (gen. silver-mounted) coconut shell full of claret: Scots coll: ca 1820–80. Scott; Notes and Queries, 1889 (7 S., viii, 437).

nut, off one's

. Crazy: 1873, Miss Braddon. Ex NUT, n., 1. 2. In liquor, drunk: low: 1860, H., 2nd ed.; ob. by 1910.

nut, sweet as a

, see SWEET AS A NUT.

nut, work one's

. To think hard; to scheme: orig. (–1902), dial. >, ca 1905, s., esp. in Australia. cf. NUT OUT.

nut at, be a

. To be extremely good at (e.g. a game): from ca 1900. Whence NUT (n., 6), dandy.

nut-crack

. Nut-crackers (the instrument): from ca 1570: S.E. till C.19, then low coll.

Nut-Crack Night

. Hallowe'en: coll (C.18–19) and dial. (C.18–20; ob.). Brand, 1777. Because nuts were, in C.18, flung into the fire.

nut-cracker

. The head; hence a sharp blow thereon: boxing: from ca 1870; ob. Ex NUT, n., 1. In the pl: 2. A pillory: c.: late C.17–early 19. ?ex the shape. 3. The fists: boxing: from ca 1870; ob. 4. A curved nose and protuberant chin: C.19–20 (ob.): coll. Ex S.E. nut-cracker as adj. describing 'the appearance of nose and chin...produced by the want of teeth'. 5. The teeth: coll: C.19–20.

nut-cut

. Roguish, mischievous: ca 1860–1914. H., 3rd ed. ('Anglo-Indian'). cf. NUT, n., 6.

nut out

. To consider; work out: military from ca 1908. F. & Gibbons, 'I've got to nut it out.' Prob. ex NUT, n., 2, and NUT, WORK ONE'S.

nut-worker

. A schemer; a shirker; a malingerer; military: from ca 1906. Ex NUT, WORK ONE'S.

nutmeg-grater

. A beard: 1848, Sinks; †by 1900.

nutmegs

. The human testicles: low coll: C.17–20; ob. cf. NUTS, n., 2, and APPLES.

nuts

. A delightful thing, practice, experience: from ca 1589 (Apperson): S.E. until ca 1780, then coll until ca 1850, then s.; ob. Fletcher, Cotton, Lamb, Milliken. Almost an adj., as in Grose, 1st ed., ‘It was nuts for them; i.e. it was very agreeable to them.’ (A particularly good example occurs in Head & Kirkman, 1674, ‘It was honey and nuts to him to tell the guests.’) Prob. ex C.16 nuts to, an enticement to, ‘recorded in a letter from Sir Edward Stafford to Burghley (1587)’, W. cf. NUT, v., 1. 2. The (gen. human) testicles: low coll: late C.18–20. Perhaps suggested by the †S.E. sense, the glans penis.

nuts, for

. (Always with a negative, actual or implied.) At all: coll: 1895, W.Pett Ridge in Minor Dialogues; 1899, The Times, 25 Oct., ‘They can’t shoot for nuts; go ahead.’

nuts on or upon, be

. To set high value upon; be devoted to; fond of or delighted with (person or thing): 1785, Grose: on not before ca 1840; upon rare after ca 1870. Punch, 1882 (LXXXII, 177), ‘I am nuts upon Criminal Cases, Perlice News, you know, and all that.’ 2. Hence, to be very clever or skilful at: from ca 1880. 3. Hence, to detest: 1890, Punch, 22 Feb. Ex cleverness or skill directed against some person or thing. cf.:

nuts on or upon, be dead

. The same as the preceding in all three senses: from ca 1890, though 1894 is the earliest O.E.D. record. Orig. an intensive, it >, by 1910, merely the more gen. form of be nuts on. Anticipated in 1873 by William Black's 'My aunt is awful nuts on Marcus Aurelius.'

nuttled

, ppl adj. Deceived or tricked by a friend: low: from ca 1860; ob. Ex NUT, v., 2, possibly influenced by sense 1, and NUTS, 1.

nutting

, vbl n. Ogling; paying of court; currying of favour: ca 1810–90. See NUT, v., 1.

nutty

. Amorous; with (up)on, fond of, in love with, enthusiastic about: 1821, Egan, 'He was so nutty upon the charms of his fair one.' Slightly ob. Ex NUTS ON, BE. 2. Not quite right in the head: Pall Mall Gazette, 27 May 1901. Semantically ex sense 1: cf. S.E. be mad about a girl. 3. Spruce; smartly dressed or turned out: 1823, Byron (of a girl), 'So prim, so gay, so nutty, and so knowing'; ob. Perhaps ex NUTS, 1; cf. NUT, n., 6. 4. Whence, agreeable: ca 1890. Milliken, 1893, 'Life goes on nutty and nice.' 5. Spicy; piquant: 1894, Sala in London up to Date, 'The case, he incidentally adds, promises to be a nutty one'; slightly ob. Ex the nuts in a cake via the idea of fullness of detail. 6. (Nutty.) The inevitable nickname of men surnamed Cox: naval and military: late C.19–20. Prob. ex sense 3 or sense 4, but perhaps ex NUTS, n., 2, by indelicate association.

nux

*. The object in view; the LAY (2) or ‘game’: c., orig. and mainly North Country: from ca 1860; ob. ?ex L. nux, a nut, hence a nut to crack.

nygle

*, see NIGGLE. nym, see NIM.

nymph of the pave

. A harlot: s. (–1851); ob.

nyp

, see NIP. nypper, see NIPPER.

O

o (or oh) be easy, sing

. 'To appear contented when one has cause to complain, and dare not', Grose, 3rd ed. Coll: ca 1785–1830.

o (or, more gen. oh) be joyful

. A bottle of rum: nautical: ca 1850–1910. 2. Earlier (–1823), of brandy or any other good liquor; †by 1860.

'o (or oh) be joyful' on the other side of his mouth, make one sing

. (Gen. I'll make you ...your mouth.) A c.p. threat: mid-C.18– early 19.

o-be-joyful works

. A public-house: late C.19–early 20.

o beggar me

, ex the alternative o Bergami! You're a liar!: London lower classes': ca 1820–30. Ex Bergami, a lying Italian witness at Queen Caroline's trial. cf. NON ME.

o.d.v. or O.D.V.

Brandy: jocular(–1887): virtually †. i.e. eau-de-vie.

o.k.

; gen. O.K. All right; correct; safe; suitable; what is required; comfortable, comfortably placed: orig. U.S. s.; >, ca 1880, Eng. s. and, ca 1895, Eng. coll. Alfred Glanville Vance, 'the great Vance' of the music-halls (from the middle sixties to the late eighties, C.19), used to sing:

The Stilton, sir, the cheese, the O.K.
thing to do,
On Sunday afternoon, is to toddle to the Zoo.

The expression was taken to England by Artemus Ward and was well acclimatized by 1880 at the latest. Thornton records it for the U.S. at 1828 and gives an anticipation (likewise by Andrew Jackson) at 1790: but on these two instances the O.E.D. throws icy water and gives 1840 as the date. Dr Allen Walker Read, 'The Evidence on "O.K."'—in the Saturday Review of Literature, 19 July 1941—has argued for dating it back to 1840 and to a semi-secret political society known as 'The Democratic O.K.', wherein the letters O.K. are used as a cabalistic symbol, perhaps for 'Old Kinderhook', the nickname of Martin Van Buren. However, it has recently been shown by Dr David Dalby ('The Etymology of O.K.', The Times, 14 Jan. 1971) that similar expressions were used very early in C.19 by Negroes of Jamaica, Surinam and South Carolina; a Jamaican planter's diary of 1816 records a Negro as saying 'Oh ki, massa, doctor no need be fright, we no want to hurt him.' The ultimate origin is to be sought in West African languages, either in the Mandingo o ke 'that's it' or 'all right', or the Wolof waw kay 'yes indeed'. The use of kay alone is recorded in the speech of black Americans as far back as 1776; significantly, the emergence of O.K. among white Americans dates from a period when refugees from southern slavery were arriving in the north. At the time (ca 1839) its etymology was a puzzle to white Americans, who usually 'explained' it as=oll (or orl) korrekt (or k'rekt).

In the 1930s it was fashionably thought to derive from the Amerindian Choctaw (h)oke, 'it is so'. (Such fanciful etymologies as aux Cayes and och aye! can be summarily dismissed; o.k. is an evergreen of the correspondence column.)

o.k.

; O.K., v.i. and, more gen., v.t. To pass as correct: orig. (–1885), U.S.; anglicized as a coll ca 1900. e.g. to o.k. an account, a document.

O my

, see MY!, 2.

o.p.

; O.P. Opposite the prompter. (cf. p.s., prompt side.) Theatrical s. (–1823) >, ca 1870, coll >, ca 1900, j. 2. Earlier (ca 1809–20, though recorded later), old price(s), in reference to the demonstrations at Covent Garden Theatre, London, in 1809, against the proposed new tariff of prices. Byron alludes to it in a letter of 12 June 1815 to Moore. 3. (Of spirits) overproof: j. when lit.; when fig., it is coll, as—to borrow from the O.E.D.—in Walch, Head over heels, 1874, “Pshaw”, cried Sandy (Clan MacTavish) in his beautiful O.P. Scotch.’

o.p.h.

; O.P.H. Off, as in ‘Dammit! I’m off.’ Jocular: late C.19–20. (Obviously, off is perverted to oph; but the pronunciation, gen. slow, is O-P-H.)

o per se o

*; or with capital Os. A crier: early C.17 c. Dekker.

o.t. (or O.T.), it's

. It's (very) hot: non-aristocratic: from ca 1880.

o.v. or O.V.

The oven, or that open space below the stage in which the Pepper's-ghost illusion is worked: showmen's and low actors': late C.19–early 20.

O.V.O.

A low phrase listed by Ware with the remark, 'Quite inexplicable. No solution ever obtained from the initiates.' Perhaps it's just as well.

o yes

! A jocular perversion of oyez!: from before 1887; slightly ob.

oaf

. A wiseacre: coll: late C.17–mid-18. Ex S.E. sense.

oak

*. He who, in highway robbery, keeps watch on behalf of the highwayman: c., late C.16–early 17. Greene, 1591. He affords security. 2. A man of good substance and credit: late C.17–mid-19: c. >, ca 1750, s. Ex the solidity of oak. cf. †U.S. oak, strong. 3. An oaken, hence an outer door, esp. in sport oak, in C.19–20 gen. sport one's oak, to shut one's outer door as a sign that one is engaged. 1785, Grose: university s. >, ca 1820, coll. 4. A joke: rhyming s.: late C.19–20.

oak, close as

. Very retentive of secrets; secretive: semi-proverbial coll: C.17–18. Shakespeare: Colman, 1763, 'I am close as oak, an absolute free-mason for secrecy.'

oaken towel

. A cudgel, orig. and mainly of oak; hence rub one down mth an oaken towel, to cudgel, to beat him: low (?orig. c.): C.18–mid-19. In U.S. c., an oak towel is a policeman's club.

oaks, felling of

. Sea-sickness: C.17 coll. Jocular, as Withals (1608) shows in his Dict. ?ex vomiting upon the oak of a ship.

oakum, pick

. To be in a poor-house: lower classes' coll (–1887). Ex the same phrase in S.E. (to be in prison).

oar in, put or shove an or one's

. To interfere: resp. coll from ca 1730, as in Moncrieff, 1843; s. from ca 1870, as in Mrs Henry Wood (1874). Coffey, 1731, 'I say, meddle with your own affairs; I will govern my own house, without your putting in an oar.' Ex following entry; there is, however, the transitional put an (or one's) oar in every man's boat, as in Brathwait, 1630.

oar in every man's boat

, occ. †barge, have an. To be concerned in everyone's affairs: mid-C. 16–20, ob.: coll >, ca 1650, S.E. Udall, Florio, Howell, cf. preceding entry.

oars

. A waterman: C.17–19: either coll or S.E.

oars, first

. A favourite, esp. in be first oars with: coll: 1774, C.Dibdin's song, The Jolly Young Waterman, 'He was always first oars when the fine city ladies|In a party to Ranelagh went, or Vauxhall': whence the origin.

oars, He or rest (up)on one's

. To take things easily: resp. 1726, Shelvocke; 1836, Lady Granville: both coll till ca 1850, then S.E. Ex leaning on the handles of one's oars.

oat

. An atom or particle, but esp. in have not an oat, to be penniless: from ca 1870 (ob.): low. Perhaps suggested by groat, but more prob., as H. suggests, iota corrupted.

oat-stealer

. An ostler: C.19–20; ob. Jocular coll. Ex OSTLER.

oath, Highgate

, see HIGHGATE, SWORN AT.

oath!, my

. A mild expletive: mostly Australian and New Zealand: late C.19–20. Ex the more trivial senses of S.E. oath. See also COLONIAL OATH.

oath, take an

. To drink (liquor): low: C. 19; mostly U.S.

oatmeal

. (Gen. in pl.) A profligate roisterer (one of a set): coll: ca 1620–40. Ford, in The Sun's Darling, 1624; see also Nares. Semantics obscure.

oatmeal, all the world is

(gen. not). Everything is delightful (or not): proverbial coll: ca 1540–1700. Udall, Swetnam. (cf. BEER AND SKITTLES.) ?ex Oatmeal as food.

oatmeal, give (a person) his

. To punish: rebuke severely: mid-C.18–early 19. Boswell.

oatmeal party

. Scotsmen: naval coll: late C.19–20. Ex the staple Scottish food.

oats, earn a gallon of

. (Of horses) to fall on the back and roll from side to side: provincial coll: C.19. Halliwell.

oats, feed of

. A whip; a whipping: mostly rural: C.19–20; ob.

oats, wild

. A dissolute young man: coll: ca 1560–1620. Gen. a nickname. Becon (d. 1570), ‘Certain light brains and wild oats’. Prob. ex, though recorded some twelve years earlier than, sow one's wild oats, to commit youthful follies, while to have sown...indicates reform: coll; in late C.19–20, S.E.: 1576, Newton, 'That wilfull... age, which...(as wee saye) hath not sowed all theyr wyeld Oats'. Ex the folly of sowing wild oats instead of good grain; cf. Fr. folle avoine.

Oats and Barley

. Charley: rhyming s. (–1859).

oats and chaff

. A footpath: rhyming s. (–1857); ob.

ob

. Abbr. OBIT: Winchester College: C. 19–20.

ob and sol

. Scholastic, hence any subtle disputation: late C.16–17: coll. 1588, 'Very skilful in the learning of ob and sol'. Also obs and sols, as in Burton, 1621; occ. sols and obs. Abbr. objection and solution in C. 16 books of theology. The derivative oband-soller, a subtle disputant, is either a nonce or a very rare usage.

Obadiah

. A Quaker: C.18–mid-19: coll, Ex the common Quaker name.

obfuscated; obfuscated

. Drunk: coll: from ca 1855; ob. The former is in ‘Ducange Anglicus’, 1857; the latter (30 Dec. 1872) is a sol. Also obfuscation: H.Kingsley, 1861, ‘In a general state of obfuscation’. Ex S.E. sense, to stupefy.

obit

. An obituary notice: journalistic: 1874, W.Black in the Athenaeum, 12 Sept., ‘It was the custom of his journal to keep obits in readiness.’ Prob. ex obituary, not a revival of mid-C.15–17 S.E. obit, the same.

object

. A laughing-stock; GAPE-SEED: coll: from ca 1820. cf. ‘little object (of children)=a half-playful half-angry endearment’, F. & H. Ex S.E. object of pity, mirth, derision, etc.

obligate

. To make indebted, to bind, a person by a kindness or a favour: late C. 17–20: S.E. till ca 1860; then—except in U.S. (where coll)—slightly sol., or at least catachrestic; ob.

oblige

. To favour a company (with, e.g., a song): coll: 1735, Pope. 2. (Of a charwoman) to work for: charwomen’s coll: late C.19–20. ‘The lady I “oblige”’.

observationist

*. One (gen. a pedlar, hawker, etc.) who spies out likely booty for thieves: c. (–1889); ob.

obsquatulate

. An occ. form of ABSQUATU- LATE.

obstreperlous, -olous, -ulous; obstropalous, -olous, -ulous; also abstrepolous, -ulous

. Obstreperous: from ca 1725: sol. when not deliberately jocular; Halliwell, however, in 1847, characterizes it as ‘genuine London dialect’. Resp. first recorded: ca 1780, ca 1760, 1727; 1736 (Sessions), ca 1770, 1748 (Smollett); ab-forms only in C.18. Commonest: obstropolous, -uhus.

obvious

. (Of women) stout: Society: 1897 –ca 1914. Ex the signs of pregnancy.

obviously severe

. ‘Hopelessly rude of speech’: Society: ca 1890–1914. Ware.

occabot

. Tobacco: back s. (–1851). (TIB fo occabot, bit of tobacco.)

occasion

. A notable celebration, a special ceremony, an event of note: coll: from ca 1860.

occasion, improve the

. To offer a prayer; give a homily or moral address: coll (mostly clerical): from ca 1860. G.Macdonald, 1865, in Alec Forbes.

occifer

. An officer: late C.19–20. Also ossifer.

occupant

. A harlot: late C.16–early 17: a vulg. Marston, 1599. Ex OCCUPY. 2. A brothel: C.17: a vulg. cf. NANNY-HOUSE. Ex preceding sense.

occupy

. (v.t. and v.i.) to cohabit (with); lie with: C.16–early 19: S.E. in C.16, then a vulg., as in Florio, Rowley, Hexham, Rochester, D’Urfey, Grose. In consequence of its vulgar use in this sense, this verb was little used in literature in the 17th and 18th century: cf. [Shakespeare, 2 Henry IV, at II, iv, 159] ‘as odious as the word occupy’. cf. L. occupare amplexu and see FUCK.

occupying-house

. A brothel: late C.16–17: a vulg. Florio.

ocean pearl

. A girl: rhyming s.: late C.19–20. Also ivory pearl.

oceans

. A (very) large quantity or number: from ca 1840: coll almost S.E.

ochive

*; also oschive. A knife: c.: C.18–20; ob. A New Canting Dict., 1725, defines oschive as a bone-handled knife, as if ex L. os, a bone+chive, a knife, but oschive may be an etymologizing theory and perversion of ochive. Ex Romany o chif, the knife. More gen., chive; occ. chif(f). See CHIVE-FENCER.

ochorboc

. Beer: Italian organ-grinders’ (–1909). It. bocca (mouth), thus: occa+ b+intrusive oc.

ochre

*. Money: c. >, ca 1870, low s.: 1854, Dickens, ‘Pay your ochre at the doors’; ob. Also, gold, money. Ex the colour of gold. cf. with caution, GILT.

o’clock, know what’s

. To be alert; shrewd: low coll: from ca 1835. Dickens, Thackeray. Ex the S.E. sense, to know the real state of things. cf. WHAT’S WHAT; TIME OF DAY, 3, 4.

o’clock, like one

; see LIKE A...

October

; october. Blood: boxing: from ca 1850; ob. ‘Cuthbert Bede’, ‘Now we’ll tap your best October.’ Ex October (ale or cider). cf. CLARET.

od, ‘od

; occ. odd. Also with capitals. God, in oaths and asseverations: coll, though orig. euphemistic S.E.: C.17–early 19. Whence od rabbit it!, 1749, Fielding; od rat it! (also in Tom Jones), whence DRAT (it)!; od rot it!, from ca 1810; od save’s! (lit., God save us), C.19–20, mainly and in C.20 only dial.

odd

, adj. Homosexual: partly euphemistic, partly coll: from ca 1890. cf. C.20 queer, homosexual.

odd-come-short

. In pl, odds and ends: rural coll: 1836, T.Hook; slightly ob. 2. Some day, coming shortly: coll: from ca 1875; ob. Usually one of these odd-comesHORTS (as in Harris's Uncle Remus); but except in U.S., much less gen. than:

odd-come-shortlies

. Some day soon: coll: C.18–20; ob. Swift, 'Miss, when will you be married?... One of these odd-come shortly's, Colonel.'

odd fish

, see FISH.

odd job man

. One 'who professes to do anything and only does his employer': trades' (–1909). Ware.

odd-trick man

. A hanger-on, for profit, at auctions: auctioneers': mid-C.19–20. James Greenwood, In Strange Company, 1873. Ex card-playing.

oddish

. Tipsy: low coll: from ca 1850; ob. cf. QUEER, adj., 2.

odds

! see ODS.

odds, it is or makes no

. It makes no difference (for good or ill): C.17–20: S.E. till C.19, then coll. T.A.Guthrie, 'But there, it's no odds.'

odds?, what's the

. What difference does it make?: coll: mid-C.19–20. App. earliest as what odds?: 1826, Sessions, 'I asked Jackson whose they were—he said, "What odds; they are mine."' odds?, where's the

. A low coll form (–1887) of the preceding.

odds, within the

. Possible or possibly; esp. just or barely possible: sporting coll (–1887) >, by 1890, gen. coll.

odds of, be no

. As in ‘It’s no odds o’ mine’ (Greenwood), no concern of mine: (low) coll: mid-C.19–20.

odno

. Lit., nod. Rare except in ride on the odno, to travel by rail without paying: back s.: 1889, Sporting Times; ob.

ods, od’s

; odds. (Also ADS; UDS.) God’s, gen. in combination, in late C.16–early 19 coll oaths and asseverations; extant as a jocular archaism. The second member is frequently perverted, as in bud ex blood, NOUNS or OONS ex wounds, ZOOKS ex hooks. cf.:

ods bobs

. A C.18 reduction of and corruption of:

ods bodkins

, a jocular exclamation, is a late C.19–20 perversion of ods bodikins, lit. God's little body, a C.17–19 oath. See ODS.

of?, what are you doing

. What are you doing? (dial. and) low coll: C.19–20. Abbr. or slovenly corruption of †what are you in the doing of.

of it

, see IT, OF.

off

, v. To depart, go away: low coll: 1895, Westminster Gazette, 21 Sept., 'He took down his hat, and off'd.' In C.20, gen. off it. Ex dial.: 1889 (E.D.D.). 2. off with, to remove or take off instantly: from ca 1890: sol. when not jocular (coll). Daily News, 23 Feb. 1892, 'They offed with his head.' 3. To refuse, reject: 1908, A.S.M. Hutchinson, Once Aboard the Lugger, 'I haven't offed that yet—haven't refused it, I mean'; ob.

off

, adj. Out of date; no longer fashionable: coll: 1892, Illustrated Bits, 22 Oct., 'Theosophy is off—decidedly off.' Perhaps ex restaurant j. ('Chops are off'). 2. Hence, stale; in bad condition, e.g. of a cricket pitch: low coll: from ca 1895. 'Smells a little bit off, don't it?', F. & H. Abbr. off colour. 3. Hence, out of form: coll: from ca 1896. 4. Hence, in ill health: coll: from late 1890s.

off

, n. Start of a horse-race: sporting coll: late C.19–20. ‘You can bet, on the course, right up to the off.’ Ex the cry ‘They’re off.’

off, be

. To depart; run away: coll (–1887). Baumann; 1892, Ally Sloper, 27 Feb.

off, cannot (or could not) be

. As in Greenwood, ca 1880, ‘I couldn’t be off likin’ it,’ I could not help—or refrain from—liking it: (low) coll: mid-C.19–20.

off, have the bags

*. To have independent means—and live on them: c. (–1887).

off bat

. Point, in cricket: Winchester College: coll or j.: mid-C.19–20.

off chump

. Having no appetite: stables’ (–1909). Perhaps off champing.

off duty

*. Not engaged in stealing: c. (–1887).

off-go

. A start, a beginning: Scots coll: 1886, R.L.Stevenson.

off it

. See OFF, v. 2. A variant of off one's CHUMP or NUT or ROCKER, etc. See those nn.

off one's chump, coconut, nut, onion (2), rocker

, see the nn. off one's feed or oats, see FEED.

off the hinge

. Out of work: low: from ca 1850; ob. Ex:

off the hinges

. Out of order; upset; disheartened: coll till C.18, then dial., where it gen.=in bad health, spirits, or temper. Cotgrave. Ex a door unhinged.

off the hooks

. Crazy, mad (gen. temporarily); coll: C.17–mid-19. Beaumont & Fletcher; Scott. 2. Crestfallen (this sense was ob. by 1750, †by 1800); ill-humoured: coll (ob.); from ca 1630; in C.19–20, mainly dial. Davenport, 1639. (3. In dial., also shabby, worn out, ailing.) 4. Out of work: coll: C.18. North, Lives of the Norths, 1740. (This interpretation is not perfectly certain.)

off the horn

. (Of steak) very hard: low: from ca 1870; ob.

off the rails

, see RAILS, OFF THE. off with, see OFF, v., 2.

offer up

. To lift; to help to raise: London labourers', esp. in the building trade: late C.19–20.

offhandish

. A coll form (–1887) of off hand, brusque, inconsiderate, casual.

office

. One's office is one's 'ordinary Haunt, or Plying-[?playing-]place, be it Tavern, Ale-house, Gaming-house or Bowling-green', B.E.: late C.17–18. 2. A signal, a (private) hint; a word of advice; (in sporting s.) valuable information: C.19–20: ?orig. c. Esp. in give the office (1803) and take the office (1812, likewise in Vaux), the latter slightly ob.

office

, v. To give information (about something); warn, intimate to: low (?orig. c.): 1812, Vaux; Moore, 1819, 'To office ...To the Bulls of the Alley the fate of the Bear'.

office, cast of (e.g. your)

. 'A Touch of your Employment': coll: late C.17–18. B.E. prob. means a helping hand from one in a (good) position.

office, cook's

. The galley: nautical: from ca 1850; ob.

office, give one the

, see OFFICE, n., 2.

office-sneak

. A stealer of umbrellas, overcoats, etc., from offices: coll: from ca 1860.

officer's mount

. A harlot: military (the ranks'); late C.19–20. Punning Army j. for a horse.

officers of the 52nds

. Young men rigidly going to church on the 52 Sundays in a year: city of Cork (–1909). As if of the 52nd regiment.

offish

. Distant; reserved: coll: from ca 1830. L.Oliphant, 1883. cf. stand-offish.

offishness

. Aloofness; reserve: coll: from ca 1880. Ex offish and, like it, of persons only.

ofter

. A frequenter or habitué: sporting: ca 1884–1910. Ex oft, often.

ogg or og

. (Usually pl.) Stones of fruit, e.g. CHERRY-OGGS: non-aristocratic: mid-C.19–20. Origin?

ogging ot tekram

. Going to market: back s. (–1859).

ogle

. See OGLES. 2. ‘An ocular invitation or consent, side glance, or amorous look’, F. & H.: coll: C.18–20. Cibber, 1704, ‘Nay, nay, none of your parting ogles.’ Ex:

ogle

*, v.i. and t. To look invitingly or amorously (at): from ca 1680: c. until ca 1710, coll till ca 1790, then S.E. Implied in B.E.’s ogling, ‘casting a sheep’s Eye at Handsom Women’; and in the Shadwell quotation at OGLING; D’Urfey. Ex Low Ger. oegeln, same meaning. 2. To look; to look at: c. and S.E.: from ca 1820; ob. Haggart, 1821, ‘Seeing a cove ogling the yelpers’. Ex S.E. sense, to examine.

ogled

*, with determining word, e.g. QUEER-OGLED, squinting: late C.18–20; ob.; c. >, ca 1840, low s.

oglen, rum

*. 'Bright, piercing eyes', Bee: c.: ca 1820–50. cf. etymology of OGLE, v., 1.

ogler

. A punch in the eye: boxing s. (–1887); ob.

oglers

*. Eyes: c.: from ca 1820; ob. Haggart. A variation on:

ogles

*. (Extremely rare in singular.) Eyes: mid-C.17–20; c. until ca 1805, then boxing s. until ca 1860, finally low gen. s.; ob. 'Cuthbert Bede'; Thackeray. Ex the v. Hence, QUEER ogles (see also OGLED), cross eyes; RUM ogles, bright or arresting eyes.

ogling

, vbl n. The throwing of amorous or insinuating glances: from ca 1680; c. until ca 1710, then coll, then, by 1790, S.E. Shadwell, 1682, 'They say their Wives learn ogling in the Pit,' a marginal gloss reading: 'A foolish Word among the Canters for glancing.'

oh

, see O BE....

oh, after you

! That'll do!; stop talking!: tailors' c.p.: from ca 1870. Ironical.

oh, dummy

! Nonsense!; HUMBUG!: tailors' c.p.: from ca 1860.

oh, my leg

! A low c.p. addressed, ca 1810–50, to one recently liberated from gaol. A gibe at the gait caused by fetters.

oh, swallow yourself

! Hold your tongue!: don't bother!: proletarian: from ca 1875; ob.

oh well! it's a way they have in the Army

, see IT'S A WAY...

oick or oik

. A townee; a CAD: at certain Public Schools in the North and the Midlands: late C.19–20.

oil

. An oil-painting: coll: from ca 1890. (Gen. in pl.) 2. See OILS, 2. 3. In addition to its popularity in proverbs and pro-verbial sayings (there are 89 in Apperson), oil is of frequent occurrence in various humorous and/or ironic phrases that began as coll and may have > S.E.; indeed, since it is arguable that all except oil of giblets were always S.E., it is better to list them all together: oil of angels, a gift, a bribe, late C.16–17, as in Greene (and see below); oil of barley or malt, beer, mid-C.17–early 19, as in B.E.; oil of Baston (a topographical pun; basting), a beating, C.17, Withals—with which cf. oil of gladness (Grose, 2nd ed.), hickory (gen. as h. oil), holly (C.17), rope (C.18, Mrs Centlivre), stirrup (late C.18–mid-19, Grose, 2nd ed.: also as stirrup-oil), strappem (C.19), and whip (mid-C.17–mid-18, Fuller), and also the C.18–20 dial. (ob.) birch, hazel (also in form h. oil, coll and dial.), oak, strap, the form strapoil occurring as C.19–20 jocular coll; oil of giblets or horn, the female spendings (this, certainly, is low s!), C.19–20; oil of palms (Egan's Grose), or palm-oil, a bribe, C.19–20, ob.—cf. oil of angels; oil of tongue, flattery, with which cf. the late C.14–mid-15 S.E. hold up oil, to consent flatteringly (Apperson), and the rare oil of fool, flattery, as in Wolcot.

oil

, v. To cheat: Charterhouse: late C.19–20. Hence OILER, 2. 2. v.i., to toady: Harrow School: late C.19–20. cf. OIL UP TO, and the corresponding sense of GREASE. 3. To act in an underhand way; to obtain unfairly: Rugby School: from ca 1880. Hence, oiler, one who does this. 4. To evade; an evasion: Winchester: late C.19–20.

oil, strike

. To have good luck, be successful: orig. U.S.; anglicized ca 1875. Ex the S.E. sense, to discover oil-springs.

oil-butt

. A black whale: whalers': late C.19–20. Ex the abundance of oil which its carcase yields.

oil of

..., see OIL, n., 3.

oil-painting, be no

. To be plain-looking; ugly: coll: late C.19–20. cf. PICTURE, 3.

oil the knocker

. To fee the porter: from ca 1850; ob.

oil the wig

. To become tipsy, while oil one's wig is to make a person tipsy: provincial s. or coll: late C.18–19.

oil up to

. To toady to: Harrow School: late C.19–20. cf. OIL, v., 2.

oiler

. An oilskin coat: coll, orig. (middle 1880s), U.S., anglicized, esp. in the Navy, by 1900. cf. OILIES. 2. A cheat: Charter-house: late C.19–20. Ex OIL, v. cf. BUMFER.

oilies

. The same as OILER, than which, in English use, it is slightly earlier: coll: late C.19–20. Also in dial.

oils

. See OIL, 1. 2. (Very rare in the singular.) An oilskin coat: coll: 1891, J. Dale, Round the World. cf. OILER and OILIES.

oiner

. A cad: university: ca 1870–1915. Etymology obscure: ?Gr. οὐνίζω, smell of wine.

ointment

. Money: coll: C.15–17. Ex the C.13 fabliau, De la Vieille qui Oint la Palme au Chevalier. 2. The semen virile: low: C.18–20, ob. 3. Butter: medical students': from ca 1859.

old

. Money: low: 1900, G.R. Sims, In London's Heart, 'Perhaps it's somebody you owe a bit of the old to, Jack.' ?abbr. old stuff. 2. Much: coll: early C.19, but rare. See the Scott quotation in the adj., 2. 3. the old, the master: ca 1860–1910. Abbr. the old man.

old

, adj. Crafty, clever, knowing: from ca 1720; ob. Defoe, 'The Germans were too old for us there.' Esp. in such phrases as OLD BIRD, DOG, FILE, HAND, SOLDIER, STAGER. 2. A gen. intensive=great, abundant, excessive, splendid: coll: mid-C.15–20. Anon., ca 1440, 'Gode olde fyghting was there'; Tarlton, 1590, 'There was old ringing of bells'; Cotton, 1664, 'Old drinking and old singing'; Grose; Scott, 1814, 'So there was old to do about ransoming the bridegroom.' From ca 1860, only with gay, good, grand, high, and similar adj., as in the Referee, 11 March 1883, 'All the children...had a high old time,' and with any as in 'any old time' or 'any old how'. 3. Ugly: c.: late C.18–early 19. Perhaps ex OLD HARRY, NICK, ONE, ROGER, etc., the devil. 4. (Mostly in terms of address.) Indicative of affection, cordiality, or good humour: coll: 1588, Shakespeare, 'Old Lad, I am thine owne'; B.E.; Grose; Hume Nisbet, 1892, 'Now for business, old boy.' Also old bean, CHAP, FELLOW, man, THING, top, etc. 5. Hence, of places familiar to one: coll: late C.19–20. Often good old. 6. A gen. pejorative: C.16–20: S.E. or coll or s. as the second member is S.E. or coll or s.; the practice itself is wholly (orig., almost wholly) unconventional. e.g. OLD block, fizgig, FOGGY, STICK IN THE MUD. 7. In combination with (e.g.) HARRY, NICK, ONE, SCRATCH, the devil: coll: from Restoration days, the earliest record in the O.E.D. being Old Nick in L'Estrange, 1668; old, however, was, in S.E., applied to Satan as early as C.11. Ex the S.E. sense in this connection: primeval. Seealso OLD BENDY.

old, any

, see OLD, adj., 2.

old, good

. An approving phrase that gives a coll and familiar variation to good. C.19–20. Perhaps ex OLD, adj., 2 and 4.

old Adam

. The penis: low coll: C.19–20. Ex S.E. sense, natural sin.

old as Charing Cross or as Paul's (i.e. St Puul's) or as Paul's steeple . Ancient; very old indeed: coll: ca 1650–1820. Howell, 1659 (Paul's steeple); Ray, 1678 (Charing Cross). Other topographical similes are †old as Aldgate and, in dial., †Cale Hill, †Eggerton, †Giastonbury Tor, †Pandon Gate; cf. S.E. old as the hills.

old as my tongue and a little older than my teeth, as . A c.p. reply to an inquiry as to one's age: coll (slightly ob.) and dial.: C.18–20. Swift, Polite Conversation, Dial. I.

old as the itch, as . Extremely old: (low) coll: C.18. Fuller.

old bach

. A confirmed bachelor: coll: from early 1870s.

old bag

. An elderly, slatternly prostitute, hence pejoratively of an unpopular younger one: low: late C.19–20. Franklyn 2nd proposes a rhyme on old HAG, but I doubt this: cf. BAG, n., 4.

Old Bailey underwriter

. A forger on a small scale: ca 1825–50. Moncrieff, Van Diemen's Land, 1830. ?orig. c.; certainly low.

old beeswing

. A s. vocative (ob. by 1910). See BEES-WING, and OLD COCK.

old (or, as with all names for the devil, Old) bendy or Bendy

. The devil: C.19–20 dial. rather than coll. Dial. also are (all with old): a'ill thing; BOGY; botheration; BOY; carle; chap; child; cloots or CLOOTIE; dad; FELLOW; GENTLEMAN; hangie; HARRY (!); hooky; HORNY; lad; Mahoun; man; NICK or Nicker or Nickie or Nickie Ben; ONE; Sam; Sanners or Sanny or Saunders; Scrat(t), SCRATCH, Scratchem; Smith; smoke; sooty; soss or Soss, and thief. See under the coll and s. terms; cf. also OLD, adj., last sense. My essay 'The Devil and his Nicknames' in Words!

old Billy

. The devil, but rarely except in like old Billy, like the devil, i.e. hard, furiously, etc. Astley, 1894. cf. the like similes.

old bird

*. An experienced thief: c.: 1877. 2. An experienced, knowing person: coll: from ca 1887. cf. OLD DOG; OLD HAND; OLD SOLDIER; OLD STAGER.

old blazes

. The devil: low: 1849; ob. See OLD, adj., 7.

old block

, see BLOCK. old bloke, see BLOKE.

old boots

. The devil. Only in...as old boots and esp. like old boots, a gen. intensive adv. Smedley, 1850, ‘was out of sight like old boots’; Milliken, ‘I jest blew away like old boots.’ See OLD, adj., 7. 2. See OLD SHOES, RIDE IN...

old boy

. A coll vocative: C.17–20. Shakespeare. cf. OLD CHAP. See OLD, adj. 4. 2. See entry at OLD BENDY: coll and dial.: C.19 (?earlier)–20. 3. Any old or oldish man, or one in authority, esp. one’s father, a headmaster, the managing director, etc.: coll: C.19–20. cf. OLD MAN. This (like the preceding sense) always, except in the vocative, goes with the. 4. A strong ale: brewers’ coll: ca 1740–80.

old buck

. A coll term of address: late or even mid-C.19–20: but it occurs as early as 1829 in Glascock, Sailors and Saints, and so, as a naval usage, may go back to ca 1810, 1800 or even 1790.

old buffer

. An old fellow: C.19. It occurs in, e.g., W.N.Glascock, Sailors and Saints (I, 30), 1829, ‘...all for that old buffer on the hill’.

old buster

. Old chap, gen. as vocative: 1905, H.A.Vachell in The Hill, ‘You funny old buster!’

old chap

. A coll vocative (–1823). Egan’s Groser: Anstey. See CHAP and OLD, adj., 4.

old China

. A variant, mostly as a vocative, of CHINA, a mate or companion.

old chum

. See CHUM, 3. (ca 1840–1900; increasingly rare. C.P.Hodgson, Reminiscences, 1846.)

old clo

! A c.p. applied to anything worn out, exhausted, behind the times: proletarian: from ca 1860; ob. Ex the street cry.

old cock

. COCK (=man, fellow) +OLD, adj., 4. Used both in address, from before 1800, (Mark Lemon, 1867, ‘Mr Clendon did not call Mr Barnard old cock, old fellow, or old beeswing’) and in reference =an (old) man (Marriott-Watson, 1895, ‘He was a comfortable old cock...and pretty well to do’).

old cockalomm (or -elorum)

. A very familiar variation (–1887) of the preceding, slightly ob.

old codger

. See CODGER (Colman, 1760), and OLD, adj., 6.

old crawler

, esp. preceded by regular. A pejorative, whether in reference or in the vocative: late C.19–20: (mainly Australian) coll or s. ‘Rolf Boldrewood’, 1888. Prob. ex pub-crawler or CRAWLER (2), a contemptible person, a toady.

old cuff

. See CUFF, 1, in relation to OLD, adj., 4.

old Davy

. The devil: coll, mainly lower classes’: from late C. 18. 2. DAVY JONES, the ‘spirit of the sea’, hence the sea itself: ca 1780–1830.

old ding

. The female pudend: low: C.19–20; ob. ?ex DING, to strike.

old dog

. See OLD DOG AT IT. 2. Abbr. gay old dog: coll: C.19–20. 3. (Of a person) ‘a lingering antique’, F. & H.: coll: 1846, Dickens; ob. Ex sense 1. 4. A half-burnt plug of tobacco remaining in a pipe: low: from ca 1850; orig. prison c.

old dog at common prayer

. (Of a clergyman) ‘A Poor Hackney that cou’d Read, but not Preach weir, B.E.: late C.17–mid-18. cf.:

old dog at it, be

. To be expert at something: coll: ca 1590–1880. Nashe, ‘Olde dogge at that drunken; staggering kind of verse’. cf. the S.E. proverbial old dog for a hard road.

old donah

*. A mother: tramps’ c. (–1893) >, by 1914, also Cockney s. P.H.Emerson. See DONA; cf. OLD GIRL or WOMAN.

old driver

. The devil: low: C.19–20; ob. cf. SKIPPER, 3.

old dutch or Dutch

, gen. preceded by my, occ. by your or his. One's wife: from the middle 1880s. When Albert Chevalier introduced the term into one of his songs (cf. the later, more famous, poem, My Old Dutch), he explained that it referred to an old Dutch clock, the wife's face being likened to the clock-face. Prob. influenced by DUCHESS.

old enough to know better

. A mostly feminine c.p. reply to 'How old are you?': late (?mid) C.19–20. cf. OLD AS MY TONGUE...

old ewe dressed lamb-fashion, an

. An old woman dressing like a young one: coll: 1777, The Gentleman's Magazine, 'Here antique maids of sixty three|Drest out lamb-fashion you might see'; Grose, 1785, as above. †by 1900. See MUTTON DRESSED AS LAMB, the mod. form, and LAMBFASHION.

old fake

*. A criminal undergoing his second probation: Australian c.: ca 1830–70.

old fellow

. A coll vocative: 1825, C.M, Westmancott. See FELLOW.

old file

. A miser: see FILE. 2. An old, or rather an experienced, man: low: from ca 1850; ob. Ex sense 1; cf. OLD, adj., 6.

old floorer

. Death: low: from ca 1840; ob. cf. S.E. the leveller.

old fogy

, see FOGY. old gal, see OLD GIRL. old geezer, see GEESER.

old gentleman

. The devil: s. > coll; also dial. C.18–20. T.Brown, 1700; Barham. 2. A card slightly larger and thicker than the others: cardsharpers' c.: 1828, G. Smeeton, Doings in London. Ex sense 1 (the very devil for the sharped). 3. Time personified: C.18. Ned Ward (1703): cited by W.Matthews.

old gentleman's bed-posts

. A variant (–1874) of DEVIL'S BED-POSTS.

old geyser

. i.e. old geezer: see GEESER.

old girl or gal

. A wife; a mother: resp. low (–1887) > respectable coll, and, from ca 1895, low s. that has remained such. Baumann (my old girl, my wife); The Idler, June 1892 (the old gal, wife). cf. OLD WOMAN.

old gooseberry

. The devil: low: from ca 1790. Grose, 3rd ed.; 1861, H.Kingsley in Ravenshoe; ob. App. orig. only in the next entry. 2. Hence (?), wife: low London (–1909).

old gooseberry, play (up)

. To play the devil: coll: from ca 1790; ob. H.Kingsley, 1865, ‘Lay on like old gooseberry.’

old gown

. Smuggled tea: low: from ca 1860; ob.

old grabem pudden

. Old woman—whether wife or mother: rhyming s.: since ca 1870.

old hag, the

. The matron: Preparatory Schools': late C.19–20. cf. HAG.

old hand

. An experienced person; an expert: coll: 1785, Grose. See OLD, adj., 1. cf. OLD BIRD, DOG, FILE, SOLDIER, STAGER. 2. An ex-convict: c. (mostly Australian): 1861, T.McCombie, Australian Sketches. 3. The Old Hand: a coll nickname for Gladstone from 1886 until his death.

Old Harridan, the

. Fortune personified: C. 18. Ned Ward, 1700.

old Harry

. The devil: coll: from ca 1740; ob. cf. by the Lord HARRY!, 1687, Congreve. 2. In B.E.: 'A Composition used by Vintners, when they bedevil their Wines', which explains the semantics.

old Harry, play

. To play the devil: coll: 1837, Marryat, ‘They’ve played old Harry with the rigging.’ cf. OLD GOOSEBERRY, PLAY. Ex preceding entry. H.’s etymology (old hairy) is very ingenious: but, I fear, nothing more.

old Harvey

. The large boat (launch) of a man-of-war: nautical: from ca 1850; ob.

old hat

. The female pudend: low: from late C.17: Fielding; Grose, ‘Because frequently felt’. Ob.

old horney (horny) or Hornington

. The penis: low: C.18–20; ob. cf. the indelicate sense of HORN and Miss HORNER, the female pudend. 2. The devil (only with horney or horny): see HORNY.

old horse

; also salt horse. Salt junk: nautical: from ca 1858. 2. (Also and esp. old hoss.) A coll vocative: orig. U.S., ‘but now in common use here among friends’, H., 5th ed.

Old Horse, the

, see HORSE, n., 5.

old house on or over one's head, bring an

. To get into trouble: from ca 1575 (ob.); coll till C.19, then proverbial S.E. Gascoigne; Sedley.

old huddle and twang

. App. a coll intensive of old huddle, a miserly old person: ca 1575–1640. Both are in Lyly, 1579. cf. OLD FILE.

old identity

, see IDENTITY.

old image

. A very staid person: coll: 1888, 'Rolf Boldrewood', 'You're a regular old image, Jim, says she'; slightly ob. ?ex graven image.

old iron

. Shore clothes; work up (i.e. refurbish) old iron, to go ashore: nautical: C.19–20, ob. Ex the re-painting of rusted iron. cf. CLOBBER.

old jacker

. A senior boy retained to show the youngsters the ropes: training-ships': late C.19–20; ob.

old Jamaica

. The sun: nautical rhyming s.: late C.19–20. Abbr. old Jamaica rum.

old lad

. A coll vocative: late C.16–20. See OLD, adj., 4.

old lady

. A term of address to a woman come down in the world: low (–1823); †by 1900. 2. A card broader than the rest: cardsharps' c.: 1828, G.Smeeton. See OLD GENTLEMAN. 3. The female pudend: low: C.19–20. cf. OLD MAN, n., 1. 4. One's wife or mother: coll: from late C.18. Mostly U.S.

Old Lady of Threadneedle Street, the

. The Bank of England: coll: 1797, Gilray; Punch, 1859, ‘The girl for my money. The old lady of Threadneedle Street’. Ex its position in London, its age, and its preciseness.

old lag

, see LAG, n., 6.

old ling

. The same as OLD HAT: low: mid-C.18–mid-19.

old man

. The penis: low: C.19–20. cf. OLD LADY, 3, and OLD WOMAN, 4. 2. The captain of a merchant or a passenger ship: from ca 1820; orig. U.S.; anglicized ca 1860. W.Clark Russell, Sailors’ Language, 1883. 3. Whence, the officer in charge of a battalion: military: C.20. 4. A husband: low (also jocular) coll: 1768, Sterne; 1848, Thackeray; 1856, Whyte-Melville. 5. A father: low coll: 1792, U.S.; 1834, British. cf. OLD WOMAN, 2. 6. A coll vocative: 1885, Punch, 24 Aug. cf. OLD BOY, CHAP, FELLOW. 7. A full-grown male kangaroo: Australian coll: 1827, Peter Cunningham, Two Years in New South Wales; J.Brunton Stephens, ‘The aboriginal corruption is wool-man.’ 8. A master, a BOSS (2): late C.19–20: s. ?orig. U.S. 9. ‘The ridge between two sleepers in a feather bed’, F. & H.: low (–1890). 10. A blanket for wrapping up a baby or young child: nurses’: late C.19–20.

old-man

, ad j. Large; larger than usual: Australian coll: 1845, R.Howitt; slightly ob. Ex the kangaroo: see preceding entry sense 7. cf. PICCANINNY, adj.

old man's milk

. Whisky: low coll: from ca 1860; ob. (Different in dial.)

old mother Hubbard, that's

. That's incredible: non-aristocratic c.p. of ca 1880–1910. Ex the nursery-rhyme.

old moustache

. An elderly vigorous man with grey moustache: lower classes': ca 1880–1914.

old Mr Goree or Gory

*. A gold coin: mid-C.17–early 19: c. >, ca 1750, s. Perhaps ex the bright colour; ?cognate with Romany gorishi, a shilling, ex Turkish ghrush; most prob., however, ex the place (Goree).

old Mr Grim

. Death: coll: C.18–mid-19. cf. OLD FLOORER.

old Nick

. The devil: coll: 1668, L'Estrange. (The date of F. & H.'s earlier record is suspect.) Suspect also is 'Hudibras' Butler's etymology: 'Nick Machiavel had no such trick,|Though he gave's name to our 'Old Nick.' Often abbr. to Nick. Certainly ex Nicholas, perhaps influenced by Ger. Nickel, a goblin. cf. OLD HARRY; see OLD, adj., last sense. 2. See BOY WITH THE BOOTS.

old one, often spelt old 'un

. The devil: C.11–20: S.E. until C.18, then coll; ob. See OLD, adj., 7. 2. A quizzical familiar term of address: coll (–1811); slightly ob. 3. Hence, one's father: coll: 1836, Dickens. (Like preceding senses, with the.) 4. Hence, the pantaloons (who was gen. the fool's father): theatrical: from ca 1850; ob. 5. A horse more than three years old: from ca 1860: racing coll > S.E. 6. The headmaster: Public Schools': late C.19–20.

old oyster

. A low vocative: from ca 1890; ob. Milliken, 1892, 'Life don't want lifting, old oyster,' which puns the Shakespearean tag.

old palaver

, see PALAVER, n., 1.

old paste-horn

. (Gen. a nickname for) a large-nosed man: mostly shoemakers': from ca 1856; ob. See PASTE-HORN and cf. CONKEY.

old peg(g)

. ‘Poor Yorkshire cheese, made of skimmed milk’, Grose, 1st ed.: late C.18–mid-19 coll, C.18–19 dial. ?because hard and dry.

old pelt

. ‘Applied to old and worn-out pressmen—referring to the old ink pelts used in olden times by these individuals for distributing the ink’ (B. & L.): printers’: mid-C.19–20; ob.

old pharaoh

. A variation of PHARAOH: late C.17–early 19. G.Meriton.

old plug

, see PLUG, n., 3.

old poker

; Old Poker. The devil: coll: 1784, Walpole, ‘As if old Poker was coming to take them away’. Perhaps ‘he who pokes’, but more prob. poker=hobgoblin, demon (cf. Puck, and Irish pooka): if the latter, then S.E. until C.19, then coll, after ca 1830, mainly U.S.; except in U.S., †by 1880. cf. by the holy POKER, which it may have suggested.

old pot

. An old man: late C.19–20: see OLD, adj., 4 and 6, and POT, 6 and 13. 2. the old pot, one's father: low: late C.19–20; ob. P.H.Emerson.

old pot and pan

. OLD MAN=husband, father; occ. OLD WOMAN= wife, woman: mid-C.19–20 rhyming s.

old put

, see PUT, 2.

old rip

, see RIP. 2. An old prostitute showing signs of age: low: late C.19–20.

old Robin

. An experienced person: coll: ca 1780–1830. J.Potter, 1784. cf. OLD BIRD, HAND, SOLDIER, STAGER. See OLD, adj., 1.

old Roger

. The devil: coll: ca 1720–1840. cf. OLD HARRY; OLD NICK. 2. The pirates' flag: 1723; by 1785, replaced by jolly ROGER.

Old Ruffin

*. An early C.19 form of RUFFIN, the devil: c. Ainsworth.

old salt

. An experienced sailor: nautical coll: C.19–20. See OLD, adj., 1.

old scratch or O—S—

. The devil: low coll: 1740; Smollett; Trollope. In late C.19–20, mostly dial. See also SCRATCH.

old shaver

. See SHAVER. cf. the more gen. young shaver.

old shell

. An old (sailing-ship) sailor: nautical: mid-C.19–20; ob. Ex S.E. shellback.

old shoe

*. Good luck: c.: C.19. 'Prob. alluding to shoes and slippers thrown at a newly married couple' (B. & L.).

old shoes

. Rum: low: late C.19–20; ob. Why?

old shoes (occ. boots), ride in (or more gen., wear) another man's

. To marry, or to keep, another man's mistress: coll: C.19–20; ob.

old shoes! up again

! 'No rest for the wicked!': semi-proverbial coll (–1887); ob.

old shopkeeper

, see SHOPKEEPER.

old shovel penny

. 'The paymaster, who is generally an ancient' (Ware): military (–1909).

old six

. Old ale at sixpence a quart: proletarian: ca 1860–1914.

old soldier

. An experienced, esp. if crafty, man: coll: 1722, Defoe, ‘The Captain [was] an old soldier at such work.’ See OLD, adj., 1. cf. COME THE OLD SOLDIER. Contrast: 2. A simple fellow, gen. in the proverbial an old soldier, an old innocent: mid-C.19–20; very ob. R.L.Stevenson in St Ives, 1894. 3. An old quid of tobacco; a cigar-end: low: late C.19–20. 4. One who can drink for three days on end (–1650). 5. See old SOLDIER, 2.

old-soldier

, v. To COME THE OLD SOLDIER over (a person): coll: 1892. cf.:

old soldier, fight the

. To shirk duty; sham sick: nautical: early C.19. John Davis, The Post Captain, 1805. i.e. like an OLD SOLDIER.

old son

. My fine fellow: my dear chap: Australian coll: from ca 1870; ob.

old split-foot

. The devil: low jocular: ?orig. U.S. (Lowell, 1848); very ob.

old sport

. A coll term of address: 1905. Ex sporty a good fellow.

old square-toes

. A coll nickname for a pedantic, old-fashioned man: from ca 1860; ob. Sun, 28 Dec. 1864. 2. But square-toes appears as early as 1785 for 'one's father' or 'father'; †by 1860.

old strager

. A very experienced person: coll: 1711, Shaftesbury, whence we see that the term was orig. applied to travellers by stage-coach; the gen. sense was well established by 1788. 2. See OLD STICKER.

old stander

. A naval seaman transferring from ship to ship as his captain is transferred: naval coll: C.18–mid-19, Bowen virtually implies. cf. last entry.

old stick

. A pejorative applied to a person (cf. STICK, n., 3): coll: C.19–20; ob. See OLD, adj., 6. cf. next entry. 2. A complimentary vocative: ca 1800–70. Halliwell. cf. OLD, adj., 4.

old stick in the mud

. (In vocative and reference) a very staid person: coll: from ca 1820. Moncrieff, 1823, Tom and Jerry.

old sticker

. Army officers' s. of ca 1810–50, as in John L.Gardner, The Military Sketch-Book, 1827, “Good-tempered Old Stagers” and “Old Stickers”, meaning thereby that they can “go” at the bottle, and “stick” at the table till “all’s blue”.’

old strike-a-light

. One’s father: ca 1850–60. Ex his exclamation on being asked for loans.

old stripes

, see STRIPES

old sweat

. An old soldier, esp. of the Regular Army: military: from ca 1890. Ex his strenuous efforts. cf. OLD SOLDIER.

Old Tay Bridge

. A middle-aged lady bankclerk: bank-clerks' nickname: late C.19–20. The old bridge across the Firth of Tay at Dundee was blown down in 1879.

old thing (Old or Ould Thing, the)

. The language of the Irish tinkers: those tinkers' (–1891). O.E.D. at Shelta. 2. Female pudend: lower classes': mid-C.19–20 (perhaps very much earlier). Orig., euphemistic. 3. Beef and DAMPER (7): Australian coll: ca 1845–80. Prob. ex '—, the same old thing!'

old-timer

. One given to praising old times: coll: 1860, Music and Drama; ob. Mostly U.S. 2. One long established in place or position: from ca 1810: coll.

old toast

. The devil: low: C.19–20; ob. Occ. old foaster, likewise ob. (cf. the U.S. old smoker.) Prob. ex: 2. 'A brisk old fellow', Grose, 1st ed.: c. or low s.: ca 1690–1830.

old Tom

. Gin; esp. very good strong gin; low: from ca 1820; ob. Brewer's etymology ex one Thomas Chamberlain, a brewer of gin, may be correct.

old trout

. A C.19–20 survival, now slightly ob., of trout, a dowdy woman.

old truepenny

, see TRUEPENNY. old 'un, See OLD ONE.

old whale

. An old sailing-ship seaman: nautical: from ca 1860; ob.

old whip

, see WHIP, OLD.

old whiskers

. A cheeky boys' salute to a working-man whose whiskers are a little wild and iron-grey: mid-C.19–20. Ware.

old wigsby

. A crotchety, narrow-minded, elderly man: middle classes' coll: C.19–20; ob. Ware. cf. Fr. perruque.

old wives' Paternoster, the

. 'The devil's paternoster', i.e. a grumbling and complaining: coll: ca 1575–1620. H.G. Wright, 1580, 'He plucking his hatte about his eares, mumbling the olde wives' Paternoster, departed.'

old woman

. A wife: low (except when jocular) coll: 1823, 'Jon Bee'. cf. OLD MAN, 3. 2. A mother: low coll: orig. (1834), U.S.; anglicized ca 1850. cf. OLD GIRL. 3. A prisoner who, unfit for hard work, is put to knitting stockings: prison c.: from ca 1860. 4. The female pudend: low: C.19–20. cf. OLD MAN, 1.

old woman's poke

. A shuffling of cards by the juxtaposed insertion of the two halves of the pack: card-players' coll (–1887).

olds

. Old persons; old members of a set, class, etc.: coll: 1883, Besant, 'Young clever people...are more difficult to catch than the olds.'

oldster

. The nautical sense (a midshipman of four years' service) is j. 2. An elderly or an experienced person: coll: 1848, Dickens in Dombey and Son. On YOUNGSTER.

olive-branch

. A contemporaneous synonym of RAINBOW.

olive oil

! Au revoir!: 1884, orig. music-halls'; ob.

Oliver

*; occ. oliver. The moon: c.: ca 1780–1900; nearly †by 1860. Esp. in Oliver is up or O. whiddles, the moon shines, and O. is in town, the nights are moonlight. Ainsworth, in Rookwood (1834), has 'Oliver puts his black night-cap on,' hides behind clouds. Perhaps Oliver was coined in derision of Oliver Cromwell: cf. OLIVER'S SKULL. 2. Among tramps conversant with Romany, Olivers (rare in singular) are stockings: from before 1887. 3. A fist: abbr. (–1909) of rhyming s. Oliver Twist.

Oliver Twist

. See OLIVER, 3. (Mid-C.19–20; ob.)

Oliver's skull

. A chamber-pot: low: ca 1690–1870; ob. by 1820.

oll

. All: (dial. and) low coll: C.19–20.

ollapod

. A (gen. country) apothecary: coll: ca 1802–95. Ex George Colman's The Poor Gentleman, 1802. (Sp. olla podrida; lit., putrid pot.)

'oller, boys, 'oller

! A collar: rhyming s.: late C.19–20.

olli compolli

*. 'The by-name of one of the principal Rogues of the Canting Crew', B.E.: c.: late C.17–mid-19. What was his role, unless he were, perchance, the JACK-OF-ALL-TRADES? And what the etymology of this rhymed fabrication unless on olio?

olly, olly

! An invitation to a school-fellow to play with one or to accompany one on an errand; occ., a term of farewell: Cockney children's: from ca 1870. Perhaps ex ho there! or ex Fr. aller—or ex both.

omee

; omer; ome; homee, homey. A man; esp. a master, e.g. a landlord: c. and Parlary (>, in late C.19, also gen. theatrical): from ca 1840. Ex It. homo via Lingua Franca. See quotation at PARKER. 2. Hence, an inferior actor: theatrical: since ca 1890.

omnes

. A mixture of odds and ends of various wines: wine-merchants' (–1909). Ex ALLS, L. omnes meaning all.

omni gatherum

; or as one word. A variant of OMNIUM GATHERUM.

omnibus

. The female pudend: low: from ca 1840. 2. A harlot: low: ca 1850–1910. Available 'to all'.

omnium(-)gatherum

; also o. getherum, C.17; o. githerum, C.16. A mixed assemblage of things or persons: coll: 1530. Mock L. ending added to gather. 2. Hence a medley dance popular in mid-C.17: coll. 3. Omnium (in S.E. sense): coll: ca 1770–95.

omnium gatherum

, adv. Confusedly, promiscuously: mid-C.17: coll. Ex preceding.

on

, adj. Concupiscent: low coll: C.18–20; ob. Halliwell. 2. Whence, ready and willing: coll: from ca 1870. e.g. are you on?, are you agreed, prepared, willing? 3. Whence, fond of: 1890, L.C.O'Doyle, 'Woddell was not much on beer': coll. 4. No: back s. (–1859). e.g. ON DOOG, no good. 5. Tipsy: low, esp. public-house: C.19–20. Gen. a bit on. Perhaps ex on the BOOZE. 6. Present; nearby; likely to appear: Winchester Coll.: from ca 1830; ob. ?ex on view.

on

, adv. or adv.-adj. Having money at stake, a wager on (something): from ca 1810: racing coll until ca 1885, then S.E. Sporting Magazine, 1812; Standard, 23 Oct. 1873, 'Everyone...had something on.' Since 1870, gen. have a bit on, as in George Moore's Esther Waters: this phrase is coll. 2. Hence, standing or bound to win: racing (–1874) > gen. coll. 'You're on a quid if Kaiser wins,' H., 5th ed.

on phrases: see the key words.

on, hot

, see HOT ON.

on and off

, n. Lemonade on tap: Tonbridge: late C.19–20.

on at, be

. To nag (someone); reprove constantly: Australian coll: late C.19–20. cf. GO ON ABOUT.

on doog

. No good: 1851, Mayhew, I. Back sl.

once

. Energy, vigour; impudence: low: 1886, Referee, 24 Oct., ‘I like Shine—I cannot help admiring the large amount he possesses of what is vulgarly called “once”’; virtually †. Ware, ‘The substantivising of “on”—most emphatic.’

once, in

. First time; at the first attempt: low coll: late C.19–20. G.R.Sims, 1900, ‘You’ve guessed it in once, father.’ cf. S.E. in one.

once a week

. A magistrate: rhyming s. (on BEAK) : mid-C.19–20.

once-a-week man

; or Sunday promenader. A man in debt: London: ca 1825–40. Egan, Real Life in London. Sunday was the one day on which he could not be arrested for debt.

once aboard the lugger and the girl is mine

! A jocular c.p. late C.19–20. Ben Landeck, My Jack and Dorothy, a melodrama produced at the Elephant and Castle theatre. ca 1889–90.

once before we fill and once before we light

. A drinking c.p. recorded by Ned Ward in 1709.

oncer

. A person in the habit of attending church only once on a Sunday: coll: from ca 1890. cf. TWICER, 2.

onces

. Wages: artisans' (–1909); ob. Ex once a week.

oncoming

. (Of women.) Sexually responsive: coll: late C.19–20.

one

. Oneself; one's own interest: coll: 1567, R.Edwards, 'I can help one: is not that a good point of philosophy'; †by 1830. In C.19–20, NUMBER ONE. 2. A grudge; a score; a blow, kiss, etc.: 1830, Galt, 'I owed him one': s. >, ca 1890, coll. 3. A lie: late C.19–20: s. Esp. 'That's a big one!'

one, a

. A very odd or amusing person: from ca 1905. 'He's a one!'

one a-piece

, see. To see double: coll: 1842, Punch (ii, 21); ob.

one and a peppermint drop

. A one-eyed person: low London (–1909).

one and elevenpence three farden

. Garden; pardon: rhyming s.: since ca 1870.

one-and-thirty

. Drunk: semi-proverbial coll: mid-C.17–18. Ray. Ex the scoring of full points at the old English game of one-and-thirty.

one and t’other

. Brother: rhyming s.: late C.19–20.

one-armed landlord

. A pump: Somersetshire s. (–1903) rather than dial. Ex the cheapness of water compared with beer.

one better, go

. To do better, to SCORE: from ca 1890: s. Spectator, 7 May 1892. Ex play at cards.

one-bite

. (Gen. pl.) A small, sour apple—thrown away after being tested with one bite: costers': from ca 1870.

one consecutive night

. A c.p. denoting 'enough': Society and theatrical: 1890, Daily News, 15 Aug.

one-drink house

. A public-house where only one drink is served within (say) an hour: coll of London lower classes: ca 1860–1905.

one-er, †onener, oner, winner

. A person, a thing, of great parts, remarkable (e.g. a notable lie), most attractive, dashing; an expert: 1840, Dickens, 'Miss Sally's such a one-er for that, she is'; 1857, Hughes, wunner; 1861, Dutton Cook, onener (pron. wun-ner); 1862, Thackeray, oner. Perhaps oner is ex one, something unique, influenced—as W. suggests—by dial. wunner, a wonder. (cf. ONE, A.) 2. Esp. a knock-out blow: 1861, Dutton Cook, as above. 3. Something consisting of, indicated by, characteristic of or by, '1': coll: 1889 (of cricket). Esp. of one church-going a day. 4. Esp. a shilling: low: late C. 19–20; ob. 5. A clay marble all of one colour: London schoolchildren's: from ca 1880. Opp. TWOER, 4.

one five

. Hand: low: ca 1860–1910.

one for his nob

, see NOB, ONE FOR HIS.

one hand for yoorself and one for the ship

! Be careful: a nautical c.p. (C. 19–20) addressed to a youngster going aloft.

one-horse

. Insignificant; very small: coll: orig. (1854), U.S.; anglicized—mostly in the Colonies—ca 1885. Goldwin Smith, 1886, ‘Canada has been saddled with onehorse universities.’

one in

, adj. ‘Hearing another’s good for-tune and wishing the same to oneself’, F. & H.: tailors’: from ca 1870. Contrast ONE OUT.

one in ten

. A parson: coll: late C. 17–19. Ex tithe.

one in the box, have

. To be pregnant: lower classes': late C.19–20.

one in the eye

. A misfortune, a set-back, a snub, an insult: late C.19–20. G.R. Sims, 1900, 'It was...“one in the eye” for her aunt.'

one-legged donkey

. The single-legged stool which the old coastguard was allowed for purposes of rest, designed to capsize the moment he drowsed off: nautical: C.19.

one lordship is worth all his manners

. A C.17 c.p. punning manors.

one nick or nitch

. A male child, TWO NICK (nitch) being a baby girl: printers': from ca 1860. Ex an anatomical characteristic.

one o'clock, like

, see LIKE A...

one of my cousins

. A harlot: coll: late C.17–early 19. Ex a lie frequently told by the amorous-vagrant male.

one of them or us

. A harlot: coll: resp. C.19–20 (extant only with stressed them); mid-C.18–mid-19. cf. ONE OF MY COUSINS. 2. (Only one of them.) A shilling: urban lower classes' (–1909).

one of those, I (really) must have . A non-aristocratic c.p. of ca 1880–3. Ex a comic song.

one on (him, you, etc.)!, that's

. That is a point against you!: coll: late C. 19–20.

one out

, adj. I'm lucky!: tailors': from ca 1870. Contrast ONE IN. cf.:

one out of it

! I'm keeping out of this!: tailors': from ca 1870.

one side to his mouth, on

. (Of a horse) that feels the bit on only one side of his mouth: turf coll: from ca 1850.

one two, preceded by a, his, the

, etc. Two blows in rapid succession: boxing coll: from ca 1820. Egan, 'Belcher...distinguished for his one two'.

one-two

; or the old one-two. Male masturbation: low, mostly Cockney: late C.19–20.

one under the arm

. An additional job: tailors': from ca 1870; ob. Ex things carried comfortably under the arm.

one up, have

. To be a second lieutenant or a lance-corporal: Army coll: late C.19–20.

one or a marble (up)on another's taw, I'll be

! I'll get even with him some time!: low: ca 1810–50.

one with t'other, the

. Sexual intercourse: low: C.17–18. Anon. song, Maiden's Delight, 1661, in Farmer's Merry Songs and Ballads, 1897.

onee

. One: low theatrical: from ca 1850; ob. Influenced by Parlary.

onener, oner

, see ONE-ER.

one's eye

. A hiding-place for CABBAGE: tailors': from ca 1850; ob.

onicker

*. A harlot: c.: from ca 1880; ob. Walford's Antiquarian, 1887. cf. ONE NICK.

onion

*. A seal, gen. in pl. bunch of onions: c.: 1811, Lex. Bal.; ob. Esp. if worn on a ribbon or a watch-chain; occ. applied to other objects there worn. Ex the shape. 2. The head, esp. in off his onion, crazy: from ca 1890: low. Ex the shape.

onion, it may serve with an

. An ironical C.17 c.p. Howell.

onion, off one's

, see ONION, 2.

onion-hunter

*. A thief of seals worn on ribbons, etc.: c.: 1811. See ONION, 1.

onions, give

(someone). To strike; assault, PITCH INTO: Sessions, Nov. 1874; †by 1910. Ex their strong smell or ex their tendency to make one's eyes water.

onker

. A sailing-ship on the Baltic timber trade: Thames-side: late C.19–20. Ex the interminable onk-urr onk-urr of the windmill pumps carried by these old ships, many of them since to be broken up.

oodles

. A large quantity, esp. of money: orig. U.S.; anglicized ca 1890. Overland Monthly, 1869 (iii, 131), ‘A Texan never has a great quantity of anything, but he has “scads” of it or oodles or dead oodles or scadoodles or “swads”.’ Prob. ex (the whole) boodle (O.W.Holmes), with which cf. CABOODLE.

oof, ooftish

. Money: low: resp. from ca 1880; from ca 1870 (and ob.). Sporting Times, 26 Dec. 1891, ‘Ooftish was, some twenty years ago, the East End [Yiddish] synonym for money, and was derived from [Ger.] auf tische [properly auf dem tische], “on the table”, because one refused to play cards for money unless the cash were on the table’. cf. PLANK, 3.

oof-bird

. A source, gen. a supplier, of money: 1888. Ex preceding on the golden goose. Whence the feathered oof-bird, (a supplier, a source of) money in plenty.

oof-bird walk, make the

. To circulate money: low: from ca 1888; ob.

oofless

. Poor; temporarily without cash: from ca 1889. See OOF. Contrast OOFY.

ooftish

, see OOF.

oofy

. Rich; (always) with plenty of cash: low: from ca 1889. See OOF.

oolfoo

. A fool: low: late C.19–20. By transposition and addition. Also oolerfer: centre s.: from ca 1860.

oons

; occ. oun(e)s. A coll variation, late C.16–20 (very ob.), of 'ZOUNDS.

ooperzootics

. An unspecified complaint: s. Chorus of a popular song about 1890:

Father's got 'em. Father's got 'em.

He's got the ooperzootics on the brain,
He's running round the houses
Without his shirt and trousis, Father's got 'em coming on again.

oops-a-daisy

! A c.p. of consolation as one picks up a child that has fallen: late (?mid) C.19–20.

opaque

. Dull; stupid: London: ca 1818–40. (Adumbrates dim.)

open-air

. An open-air meeting: Salvation Army's coll: 1884.

open arse

. A medlar: C.11–20: S.E. till ca 1660, then low coll till ca 1820, then dial. Grose, 1st ed, (at medlar), cites a C.18– early 19 c.p.: (it is) never ripe till it is rotten as a t—d, and then (it is) not worth a f—t. 2. Hence, a harlot: C.17–mid-18. Davies, The Scourge of Folly, ca 1618, puns thus on meddler, medlar: 'Kate still exclaimes against great medlers...I muse her stomacke now so much shoulde faile|To loath a medler, being an open-tail.' See also OPEN UP.

open c or C

. The female pudend: low: C.19–20; ob. (?orig. printers’.)

open house, keep

, see KEEP OPEN HOUSE.

open lower-deckers

. To use bad language: naval: late C.18–mid-19. Bowen, ‘The heaviest guns were mounted on the lower decks.’

open one’s mouth too wide

. To bid for more than one can pay for: from ca 1880. Stock Exchange.

open the ball

, see BALL, OPEN THE.

open to

. To tell, or admit, to (a person): London lower classes’: 1895, People, 6 Jan., ‘I knew then that Selby had got a bit more [money] than he opened to me’; slightly ob.

open up

, v.i. (Of a woman, sexually) to spread: low coll bordering on S.E.: mid-C.19–20. Ex S.E. sense, to become open to view. cf. the rare C.17 open-tail, a harlot, a light woman, and OPEN ARSE.

opera buffer

. An actor in opera bouffe: theatrical: 1888; ob. Punning opera-bouffe.

opera house

. A workhouse: C.19. Ex L. opera, work. 2. A guard-room; detention-quarters or -cells: military: from the 1890s.

operation

. A patch, esp. in trousers-seat: tailors' (—1909).

operator

. A pickpocket: coll bordering on S.E.: C.18–mid-C.19. Ex the †S.E. sense, one who lives by fraudulent operations.

opposite

, n. The saloon bar: public-house coll: late C.19–20. Opposite the less ‘superior’ bar.

opt

. The best scholar: schools’ (–1887). Abbr. L. optimus.

optic

. (Gen. in pl.) An eye: C.17–20: S.E. till ca 1880, then jocular coll. Licensed Victuallers’ Gazette, 10 April 1891, ‘A deep cut under the dexter optic’.

or out goes the gas

! A c.p. threat to put an end to whatever is going on: ca 1880–1905.

or something

. A vague, final tag, either to avoid full details or explanation or because the speaker doesn’t know: coll: late C.19–20.

oracle

*. A watch: C.18 c. or low s. Swift, 'Pray, my lord, what's o'clock by your oracle?' Prob. S.E. oracle influenced by L. hora (cf. Romany ora, hour, watch). 2. The female pudend: low: C.18–20. Gen. HAIRY ORACLE.

oracle, work the

. To raise money: from ca 1820. J.Newman, Scamping Tricks, 1891. Hence, 2, to contrive a robbery: c. (–1887) ex S.E. sense, to obtain one's end by (gen. underhand) means. 3. work the double, dumb, or hairy oracle, (gen. of the man) to copulate: low: C.19 (?earlier)– 20; ob.

orange

. The female pudend: Restoration period.

orange dry, squeeze or suck the

. To exhaust, drain, deplete: late C.17–20 (squeeze > † ca 1860): S.E. until ca 1880, then coll.

orate

. To hold forth, 'speechify': C.17–20: S.E. till ca 1830, then lapsed until ca 1865, when, under the influence of U.S. (where still serious), it was revived as a jocular term.

oration

, v.i. To make a speech: coll: from ca 1630; slightly ob. J.Done, 1633, ‘They ...had marvailous promptitude...for orationing.’

oration

, n. A noisy disturbance; a clamour, a din: low: ca 1820–60. ‘She kicked up such an oration,’ Sessions, 1833. By a confusion of uproar and oratorio and oration.

oration box

. The head: ca 1815–60. Spy, II, 1826:

orchard

. The female pudend: low: C.19–20; ob. See JACK IN...

orchestra

; in full orchestra stalls. Testicles: rhyming s.: late C.19–20. On BALLS.

orchid

. A titled member of the Stock Exchange: from ca 1880. Because decorative.

order, a large

. An excessive demand or requirement: Pall Mall Gazette, 24 July 1884, ‘...An agreeable piece of slang, a very large order.’

order of the..., the

. e.g....of the BATH, a bath;...of the BOOT, a kick, a violent dismissal;...of the PUSH (5), a dismissal. All are coll and essentially middle-class; from ca 1880. Perhaps suggested by such knight mock-titles as KNIGHT OF THE pigskin, a jockey.

order of the day, the

. The most usual thing to do, think, etc., at a given period: coll: from ca 1790. Arthur Young, 1792.

order-racket

*. The obtaining of goods from a shopkeeper by false money or false pretence: ca 1810–70. See RACKET.

ordinar’

. Ordinary: lower-class coll: mid-C.19–20. (Nevinson, 1895.) Also in Scottish: in England, until C.19, it was S.E.

ordinary

. A wife: low coll: C.19–20; ob. cf. OLD DUTCH.

ordinary

, adj. Ordinary-looking, plain: from ca 1740: S.E. till ca 1880, then coll and (esp. in Cambridgeshire) dial. Knowledge, 10 Aug. 1883.

ordinary, out of the . Unusual: coll: late C.19–20. (cf. the etymologically equivalent extraordinary.)

organ

. A pipe: ca 1780–1850. Hence, cock one's organ, smoke a pipe. Presumably ex the resemblance to an organ-pipe. 2. A clothes' trunk: Scottish servants': C.19–20; ob. 3. A workman lending money to his fellows at very high interest: printers': from ca 1860. Hence, play the organ, to apply for such a loan, and, among soldiers, want the organ, to be trying to borrow money.

organ, carry the

. To shoulder the pack at defaulters' or at marching-order drill: military: ca 1870–1910.

organ, want the

, see ORGAN, 3.

organ-pipe

. The wind-pipe, the throat; hence the voice: low s. > coll: from ca 1850; slightly ob. Ex the shape and purpose of both. 2. In pl it was, ca 1840–90, used among boxers for the nostrils, as in Augustus Mayhew, Paved With Gold, 1857.

or noko

, pron. orinoker. A poker: rhyming s. (–1857); ob. 2. A variant of ORONOKO.

orlop, demons of the . Midshipmen and junior officers: naval jocular coll (–1887); virtually †.

ornary, ornery

. Ordinary: illiterate coll (and dial.): C.19–20. Contrast the American sense: unpleasant, intractable, bad-tempered, etc.

ornicle

. A policeman, magistrate, or anyone in authority: showmen's: from ca 1870. Oracle? as having the last word.

ornithorhynchus

. A creditor: Australian: ca 1895–1915. i.e. a duck-billed platypus: F. & H. explain as 'a beast with a bill'.

Oronoko

. Tobacco: 1703, Ned Ward. Rare. Perhaps influenced by Mrs Aphra Behn's Oroonoko, or The Royal Slave, 1688.

orphan collar

. A collar unsuitable to the shirt with which it is worn: jocular (–1902). Orig. U.S.

orts of

, see OUTS OF. oschive, see OCHIVE.

Oscar

. A male homosexual: coll: late C.19–20. Ex Oscar Wilde.

ossifer

, see OCCIFER.

ossy

. Horsey (adj.): 1881, Earl Grenville.

ostiarius

. A prefect doing, in rotation, special duty, e.g. keeping order: Winchester College coll or j.: C.19–20. Revived by Dr Moberly ca 1866. L. ostiarius, a door-keeper. ‘The official title for the Second Master’, Mansfield, 1866; ob.

ostler

. An oat-stealer: late C.18–mid-19. I suspect that this is rather a Grose (1st ed.) pun than, except jocularly, an actual usage. cf. OAT-STEALER.

other thing!, if he doesn’t like it he may do the

. i.e. LUMP (3) it, or go to hell: coll (–1887).

otherguess

. Different: from ca 1630: S.E. until ca 1820, then coll and dial. cf. †S.E. othergates.

otomy

; occ. ottomy. A C.18–19 form of the dial. and (low) coll ATOMY. Swift, Grose, Ainsworth. Whence OTTOMIZE.

otter

. A sailor: C.18–20; very ob. Street Robberies Consider'd. 2. n. and adj.; also otto. Eight: occ. eightpence: Parlary and costers' s.: from ca 1850. Ex It. otto, via Lingua Franca. P.H.Emerson, 1893, 'I'll take otto soldi.'

otto

, see OTTER, 2.

ottomize

. To anatomize: mid-C.18–mid-19; low coll. Ex OTOMY.

ottomy

, see OTOMY.

ought

. Nought (a cipher): sol. and dial.: from ca 1840. Dickens, 1844, ““Three score and ten”, said Chuffey, “ought and carry seven”.’ Prob. ex a nought > an ought. Hence, oughts and crosses, a children’s game: 1861, Sala.

ould

. Old: low coll (and dial.): C.19–20.

ounce

*. A crown (coin): c. of ca 1720–1830. Silver being formerly estimated at five shillings an ounce.

’ounds

. A coll form of wounds (e.g. God’s wounds): C.18. cf. ’ZOUNDS.

our—

. A familiar way of referring to a member of one's family: Cockney, Northern and Scottish coll: C.19–20.

ourick

. A Gentile (gen. pl): pejorative Jewish coll: late C.19–20. Ex Yiddish.

ourn

. Ours: mid-C.17–20: dial. and low coll. Partly èx †S.E. our(e)n, our; partly ex our on mine. cf. HERN; HISN; YOURN.

Our Venerable Aunt

. The R.C. Church: Protestants': since ca 1870. Punning Mother Church. Also HOLY AUNT.

out

, n. (Mostly in pl.) One out of employment or (esp. political) office: 1764: coll till ca 1790, then S.E. Goldsmith, Chatterton. Ex the adj.-adv. 2. A dram-glass: public-house and low: ca 1835–1910. Dickens, in Sketches by Boz. These glasses are made two-out (half-quartern), three-out a (third), four-out (a quarter). 3. An outing or excursion; a holiday: from ca 1760: dial. and, from ca 1840, coll; very ob. as the latter. 4. An outside passenger on a coach, etc.: 1844; ob.: s. >, ca 1850, j. J.Hewlett, 1844, 'Room for two outs and an in'. 5. (Also in pl.) A loss: lower classes' coll (–1909).

out

, v. To disable; knock out: Sessions, Aug. 1857: boxing s. Ex to knock out. 2. Hence, in c. to kill: 1899, Daily News, 11 Sept., but prob. dating from 1897 or 1898: see OUT, adj., 9. 3. See OUT IT and OUT WITH. 4. To dismiss from employment: late C.19–20.

out

, adj. Unfashionable: coll or, as the O.E.D. classes it, S.E.: 1660, Pepys in Diary, 7 Oct., 'Long cloakes being now quite out'; ob. ?ex go out of fashion. 2. (Of a girl, a young woman) at work, in domestic service: coll >, ca 1890, S.E.: 1814, Jane Austen. 3. Topsy: C.18-mid-19. ?ex out, astray. 4. Having been (esp. recently) presented at Court: Society coll >, ca 1890, S.E.: The Night Watch (I, 258), 1829, 'She has been out these two seasons.' Ex to come out at Court. 5. Wrong, inaccurate: coll or, as the O.E.D. holds, S.E.: mid-C.17–20. Ex out in one's count, guess, estimate. 6. Having a tendency to lose: s. verging on coll: from ca 1850; ob. Ex out of luck. 7. Not on sale: from ca 1830; market-men's coll > j. Ex out of stock. 8. In c.: (recently) released from gaol: from ca 1880. Ex out of gaol. 9. Dead: c.: 1898, Binstead, The Pink 'Un and the Pelican. Ex to knock out. cf. OUT, v., 2. 10. See next entry, 3. 11. See OUT WITH.

out

, adv. The orig. form of all the adj. senses: see preceding entry. 2. See ALL OUT. 3. In existence; one could find: coll >, ca 1905, S.E.: from ca 1856. G.A. Lawrence, 1859, 'Fanny was the worst casuist out.' ?ex out before the world or out on view.

out?, does your mother know you're

. See MOTHER... The c.p. reply is, Yes, she gave me a farthing to buy a monkey with! are you for sale?

out, play at in and

, see IN-AND-IN and IN-AND-OUT.

out-and-outer

*. A very determined, unscrupulous fellow: c. of ca 1810–70. Ex out and out, adv. 2. Hence, a person or thing perfect or thorough of its kind: from ca 1814; ob. 3. Hence, a WHACKING great lie: from ca 1830; ob. 4. A thorough-going supporter: coll: 1833; slightly ob. 5. An out-and-out possessor of some quality: coll: 1852, Thackeray. 6. A thorough scoundrel: from ca 1870. Ex sense 1. 7. A thorough bounder, an ‘impossible’ person: from ca 1905.

out at elbows

, see ELBOWS.

out at leg

. (Of cattle) feeding in hired pastures: rural coll: C.19–20; ob.

out for an airing

. (Of a horse) not meant to win: the turf: Sporting Times, 29 June 1888. Opp. be on the JOB.

out it

. To go out, esp. on an outing: coll: 1878, Stevenson, ‘Pleasure-boats outing it for the afternoon’. Ex ob. S.E. out, v.i.

out of (occ. Christ’s, but gen.) God’s blessings (occ. heaven’s benediction, Shakespeare in Lear) into the warm sun

. From better to worse: proverbial coll: mid-C. 16–mid-19. Palsgrave, 1540, ‘To leappe out of the halle into the kytchyn, or out of Christ’s blessynge in to a warme sonne’; Howell; 1712, Motteux, who misunderstands it to mean ‘out of the frying-pan into the fire’. Skeat derives it ex the congregation hastening, immediately after the benediction, from the church into the sun. Occ. out of a or the warm sun into God’s blessing, from worse to better (Lyly).

out of collar

. (Of servants) out of place: 1859, H.; †by 1910.

out of commission

. Requiring work: clerks’ coll (–1909).

out of flash

, see FLASH, OUT OF.

out of it, the hunt, the running

. Debarred; having no share, no chance; wholly ignorant: from ca 1880: coll. Ex sport.

out of print

. Dead: booksellers': from ca 1820; very ob.

out of register

. (Of a drunken person) walking crookedly: printers': from ca 1860. A page out of register is a type-area not square on page or sheet.

out of sorts

, see SORTS, OUT OF.

out of the cupboard, come

. To go out to work on one's first job: lower classes' (-1909),

out of the way (for so and so)

*. In hiding because wanted by the police (for such and such a crime): c.: from ca 1810; ob.

out of town

*. 'Out of cash; locked up for debt', Bee: c.: ca 1810–50. Opp. IN TOWN.

out of twig

*. Reduced by poverty to the wearing of very shabby clothes: c. of ca 1810–60. Vaux, who notes put out of twig, to alter a stolen article beyond recognition, and put oneself out of twig, to disguise oneself effectually.

out or down there

. Turn out or be cut (or knocked) down: boatswains' c.p. to lazy seamen: C.19.

out with

. To bring out, show: coll: Sessions, Dec. 1783 (p. 15): 'He out with the knife and shewed it me.' 2. Hence, to utter, esp. unexpectedly, courageously, etc.: coll: 1870, Spurgeon, 'He outs with his lie.' 3. Gen. be out with, to be no longer friendly towards: (mostly nursery) coll: from before 1885.

outcry

. An auction: C.17–19: †S.E. in England by ca 1800, but surviving in India as a coll until late C.19.

outface it with a card of ten

, see CARD OF TEN.

outing

. A pleasure-trip, an excursion: orig. (–1821), dial. >, ca 1860, coll >, ca 1905, S.E. Sun, 28 Dec. 1864, blames H. for omitting this term. 2. The vbl n. of OUT, v., 2.

outing dues

*. Execution (for murder): c.: late C.19–20; ob. G.R.Sims. Ex OUT, v., 2.

outrun the constable

, see CONSTABLE.

outs, be (at)

. To quarrel; to be no longer friends: coll: C.19–20; ob.

outs, drink the three

. To drink copiously: a coll c.p.: C.17. Two specific meanings: S. Ward, 1622, ‘Wit out of the head, Money out of the purse, Ale out of the pot’; T. Scott, 1624, ‘To drink by the dozen, by the yard, and by the bushell’.

outs, gentleman of (the) three

. See GENTLEMAN OF...(Baumann, 1887, has four outs: without wit, money, credit, or good manners.)

outs of, make no

. To fail to understand; misunderstand: (somewhat low) coll: C.19–20; ob. Possibly influenced by, or a corruption of, make orts of, to undervalue; cf. S.E. make (a person) out, to understand him.

outside

. An outside passenger: 1804: coll till ca 1890, then S.E. 2. The utmost: coll: from ca 1690. Esp. in OUTSIDE, AT THE.

outside

, preposition. More than, beyond: (low) coll: from before 1887. Baumann cites novelist Greenwood, 'Tuppence outside their value'.

outside, at the

. At the (ut)most: from ca 1850. Esp. of number or price: e.g. 'In a few weeks, at the outside, we may expect to see...' Literary Gazette, Jan. 1852. Ex OUTSIDE, n., 2.

outside!, come

. Fight it out!: coll: late C.19–20. Ex lit. sense.

outside, get

, see OUTSIDE (OF), GET.

outside, Eliza or Liza

! Get out of this!: a low c.p.: from ca 1850; ob. Ware defines it as ‘drunk again, Eliza’ and says that it is ‘applied to intoxicated, reeling women’.

outside (of), get

. To eat or drink (something): from ca 1890. Also be outside of: same period: ob. cf. the U.S. sense, to understand. 2. (Of a woman) to coït with: low: from ca 1870.

outside of a horse

. On horseback: coll, mostly Australian: 1889, ‘Rolf Boldrewood’.

outside the ropes

. Ignorant (of a particular matter); being merely a spectator: 1861, Lever, ‘Until I came to understand... I was always “outside the ropes”.’

outside walkee

. A paddle-steamer: nautical: late C.19–20. Ex pidgin: cf. INSIDE WALKEE, the reference being to the position of the motive power.

outsider

. One who fails to gain admission to the ring; the turf: coll: from ca 1860. Ex outsider, a non-favourite horse, a sense that, despite the O.E.D., may have been coll at its inception (1857). 2. A person unfit to mix with good society: coll: from ca 1870.

outsiders

*. Nippers with semi-tubular jaws used in housebreaking: c. and j.: 1875 (O.E.D.).

outsize

. A person (gen. female) rather larger than the majority: from ca 1890. Ex drapery j. The O.E.D. records it for 1894 as rather an out size and as S.E.; yet I believe that spelt as one word (C.20) it is to be considered coll.

outward-bounder

. A ship outward-bound: nautical coll: 1884, Clark Russell.

ovate

. To greet with popular applause, with an ovation: journalistic coll: 1864, Sala; Saturday Review, 3 May 1890, ‘Mr Stanley...was “ovated” at Dover.’

ovator

. One who participates in a popular welcome (to another): journalistic coll: 1870, Evening Standard, 22 Oct. Like preceding, ex S.E. ovation.

oven

. The female pudend: low: C.18–20, ob. D’Urfey. Perhaps with reference to the C.16–19 (extant in dial.) proverb, he (or she) that has been in the oven [as a hiding-place] knows where to look for son, daughter, etc. 2. A large mouth: ca 1780–1910. Ex S.E. oven-mouth, a wide mouth. 3. See o.v.

oven, in the same

. In the same plight: low coll: C.19–20; ob.

over

! A variant (–1860) of over the LEFT shoulder!, I don’t believe you!

over, do

. To possess a woman: low coll: C.18–20; ob.

over, get

. To get the better of: coll: 1870, Hazlewood & Williams.

over-and-over

. An acrobatic revolution of oneself in the air, a complete turn (or more): acrobats' coll (–1887).

over at the knees

. Weak in the knees: C.19–20: stable coll.

over backs; hence overs

. Leap-frog: resp. Cockney coll (mid-C.19–20) and Cockney s. (from ca 1890).

over-boyed

. (Of a ship) officered by youths: naval coll: ?mid-C.18–mid-19.

over-day tarts

. The darkened and damaged appearance about the gills and fins of a herring more than 24 hours caught: fish trade (1889). Ex the blood there extravasated and its resemblance to an overflowing jam tart.

over-eye

. To watch (carefully): non-aristocratic coll: C.19–20; ob. Ex oversee.

over goes the show

! A proletarian c.p. of ca 1870–1900 referring to a disaster or to a sudden change.

over one's time

. (Of women) having passed the date on which the period should have begun: mostly feminine coll: mid-C. 19–20.

over-rate it

. To overdo one's part: theatrical: from ca 1860; ob.

over shoes, over boots

. Completely: coll: late C.16–early 19. Shakespeare, Breton, Welsted (1726). Scott. cf. the S.E. over head and ears.

over the bender

, see BENDER. over the broomstick, see BROOMSTICK, JUMP.

over the chest

, see GUN. over the coals, call over the, see COALS.

over the door, put

. To turn (someone) out into the street: coll: C.18–mid-19. cf. give the KEY OF THE STREET.

over the gun

, see GUN, OVER THE.

over the hill

. Past mid-Atlantic; occ. (of a ship) over the horizon: nautical: late C.19–20.

over the left (shoulder)

, see LEFT, OVER THE.

over the letter

*. (Of a partridge or a pheasant) shot before the season begins: poachers' c. (–1909).

over the mark

. Topsy: coll: ca 1820–80. In a letter written in 1846—from what is now Winnipeg—Robert Clouston, a Scot, remarks, 'Those not accustomed to dine at these parties will get over the mark (tipsy) before they have any idea of it.'

over the stile

. (Sent) for trial: rhyming s. (–1859).

over the water

*. In King's Bench Prison: London c.. ca 1820–50. The reference is to the 'other' side of the Thames.

overdraw the badger

, see BADGER, OVERDRAW.

overflow and plunder

. A method of fleecing the audience by sending them from dearer to yet dearer seats: theatrical: ca 1880–1900.

overheat one's flues

. To get drunk: low, mostly Cockney (–1887).

overrun the constable

, see CONSTABLE, OUTFUN.

overseen

. Somewhat drunk: late C.15–20: S.E. till C.17, then coll till ca 1820, then dial. L'Estrange. cf. OVERSHOT; OVERTAKEN.

overseer

. A man in a pillory: mid-C.18– early 19. Ex the C.16–17 S.E. sense, one who looks down at anything, hence a spectator.

overshot

. (Very) drunk: C.17–20; ob. Marston, 1605; Lyell. cf.:

oversparred

. Top-heavy; unsteady; drunk: nautical: 1890, Clark Russell; ob.

overtaken

. Drunk: late C.16–20: S.E. till C.18, then coll till ca 1850, then dial. Hacket, 1693, ‘I never spake with the man that saw him overtaken’; Congreve; Halliwell; Mrs S.C.Hall. Ex overtaken in or with drink.

overtroys box

. A cupboard-like box for books: Winchester College: from ca 1880.

owl

. A harlot: C.19–20 (ob.): coll verging on S.E. 2. A member of Sidney Sussex College, Cambridge: Cambridge University: ca 1810–90.

owl

, v.i. To smuggle: coll: ca 1735–1820. Ex OWLER. 2. To sit up at night: from the 1890s; ob.

owl (or by owls), live too close to the, or near a, wood to be frightened by an

. To be not easily frightened: C.18–early 19 as proverbial coll, then dial. Swift, however, has ‘Do you think I was born in a wood to be afraid of an owl?’

owl, take the

. To become angry: coll: late C.18–mid-19.

owl in an ivy-bush, like an

, see IVY-BUSH.

owl-light, walk by

. To fear arrest: coll: ca 1650–1700.

owler

. A person, a vessel, engaged in smuggling sheep or wool from England to France: late C.17–early 19: orig. c. or s. Ex ob. S.E. v., owl. cf.:

owling

. Such export: late C.17–early 19. See preceding entry for status.

owls to Athens, bring

. To bring ‘coals to Newcastle’: proverbial coll: late C.16–18. Melbancke’s Philotinus, 1583; Hacket’s Williams, 1693. The owl is Athene’s bird.

own, on its or one’s

. On its or one’s own account, responsibility, resources, merits: from ca 1895: coll.

own up

. To confess; admit (v.t. with to): coll: 1880, Trollope, ‘If you own up in a genial sort of way, the House will forgive anything.’

owned, be

. To make many converts: clerical: ca 1853–75. cf. SEAL, n.

owners’ man

. A captain or officer protecting the owner’s interest by cheese-paring; an officer related to the owners: nautical coll: late C.19–20.

ownest

. (e.g. my ownest own, (my) dearest one: Society (–1887) >, by 1910 at latest, rather cheap.

owt

. Two: back s. (–1859).

ox has (hath) trod on his foot, the black

. He knows what poverty, misfortune, illhealth, old age, etc. is: proverbial: from ca 1530: coll till ca 1750, then S.E.; ob. Tusser, Ray, Leigh Hunt.

ox-house to bed, go through the

. To be cuckolded: late C.17–early 19: semiproverbial coll. Obviously because he has horns.

ox-pop

. A butcher: low: ca 1810–80.

ox up

; knock up; mob. To promote (a pupil): Christ's Hospital: resp. ca 1840–80, from 1850, 1890.

oxer

. An ox-fence: fox-hunting: 1859, G.A.Lawrence, 'A rattling fall over an "oxer"'; Whyte-Melville; Kennard, The Girl in the Brown Habit, 1886.

oxford

; Oxford. A crown piece: low: ca 1885–1914. Hence half-oxford, a half-crown piece: ob. Binstead, The Pink 'Un and the Pelican, 1898. It is an abbr. of OXFORD SCHOLAR. 2. As in 'Are you Oxford or Cambridge?', i.e. 'Are you at (or, were you at) Oxford or Cambridge University?': coll: C.19–20.

Oxford,—send verdingales (farthingales) to Broadgates at or in . A c.p. of ca 1560–1670 (later in dial.) in reference to farthingales so big that their wearers could not enter an ordinary door except sideways. Heywood (1562), Fuller, Grose's Provincial Glossary.

Oxford clink

. The C.18–mid-19 sense, a play on words, a mere jingle, is prob. S.E. 2. A free pass: theatrical: ca 1890–1915.

Oxford scholar

. Five shillings (piece or sum): from ca 1870, in the S.W. of England; now ob. Rhyming s. on DOLLAR.

oyl

, see OIL, 3.

oyster

. A gob of phlegm: low coll: late C.18–20. 2. The female pudend: low: C.19–20; ob. (cf. the oyster, the semen.) 3. Profit, advantage: jocular: ca 1895–1915. Ex a prophet's (profit!) and an oyster's beard. 4. (Gen. in pl.) One of the holes in a cooked duck's back: domestic: late C.19–20.

oyster, a choking or stopping

. A reply that silences: coll: ca 1525–1600. Skelton (stopping); Udall (the same); J.Heywood, 1546 (choking).

oyster, as like as an apple to an

. Very different: coll: ca 1530–1680. More, 1532, 'Hys similitude...is no more lyke then an apple to an oyster'; L'Estrange, 1667. In 1732, Thomas Fuller has the form, as like as an apple to a lobster.

oyster, old

, see OLD OYSTER.

oyster-faced

. Needing a shave: low (mostly London): ca 1895–1915. See OYSTER, 3.

oysters, drink to one's

. To fare accordingly (esp., badly): coll: mid-C.15–early 16. J.Paston, 1472, ‘If I had not dealt ryght corteysly... I had drownk to myn oystyr.’

P

p and q; P. and Q

. Of prime quality: C.17–20: coll in C.17, dial. thereafter. Rowlands (Pee and kew, as it is sometimes written). Origin obscure.

p.b. or P.B., the

. The public: theatrical. (–1909). Also the pub.

p.c. (or P.C.)

. Poor classes: Society: from ca 1880; ob.

p.d. or P.D.

An adulterating element in pepper: trade: from ca 1870. i.e. ‘pepperdust’.

p.d.q.

; P.D.Q. Pretty damn(ed) quick: late C.19–20. Free Lance, 6 Oct. 1900, ‘I’d be on my uppers if I didn’t get something to do P.D.Q.’

p- (or P-) maker

. The male, the female pudend: low: mid-C.19–20. See PEE.

p.p.! or P.P.

*! A pickpocket: c. (–1887). 2. Play or pay, i.e. go on with the arrangement or forfeit the money; esp., the money must be paid whether the horse runs or not: mostly the turf: from ca 1830; slightly ob.

p.p.c.

A ‘snappish good-bye’: middle classes’: late C.19–early 20. Ex p.p.c. (i.e. pour prendre congé, to take leave) written on a visiting card. 2. Hence, to p.p.c., to quarrel with and CUT (2) (a person): Society: from ca 1880; virtually †.

p.s. or P.S.

See O.P., 1. 2. An advance on wages: hatters’ (–1909). Ex postscript written p.s.

ps and qs (or Ps and Qs), learn one's

. To learn one's letters: coll; 1820, Combe. Ob. Prob. ex children's difficulty in distinguishing p and q, both having tails. cf.:

ps and qs (or Ps and Qs), mind one's

. To be careful, exact, prudent in behaviour: coil: 1779, Mrs H.Cowley, 'You must mind your P's and Q's with him, I can tell you.' Also peas and cues; occ. (and ob.) be on (or in) one's ps and qs. Perhaps influenced by P AND Q; perhaps cognate with preceding entry; perhaps, as F. & H. suggests, ex 'the old custom of alehouse tally, marking "p" for pint and "q" for quart, care being necessary to avoid over- or under-charge'. 2. Grose, 2nd ed., shows that ca 1786–1830, there was the more dignified sense, 'to be attentive to the main chance'.

p.t.

A pupil teacher: teachers' coll: late C.19–20.

P.W.Abney

. A high, feminine hat appearing in 1896: lower classes': late 1896–7. Ex Prince of Wales Abney Cemetery, the hat being worn with 'three black, upright ostrich feathers, set up at the side ...in the fashion of the Prince of Wales's crest feathers' (Ware).

pa

. A mainly childish abbr. of PAPA: (in C.20, low) coll: 1811, L.M.Hawkins, 'The elder sat down...and answered "Yes, Pa!" to everything that Pa said.' 2. Hence, the relieving officer of a parish: lower classes' (–1909). cf. DADDY, 3.

pa-in-law

. Father-in-law: Society (–1887). See PA, 1.

pac.

A cap: back s. (–1859).

pace, alderman's

. A slow, dignified gait: coll: from ca 1580; ob. Melbancke, 1583; Cotgrave; 1685, S.Wesley the Elder, 'And struts...as goodly as any alderman'.

pacer

. Anything (esp. a horse) that goes at a great pace: coll (–1890).

paces, show one's

. To display one's ability: coll: from ca 1870. Ex horses.

pack-thread, talk

. To speak bawdily in seemly terms: coll: late C.18–20; very ob. (In North Country dial., merely to talk nonsense.) Ex packing-thread, used for securing parcels. cf. WRAPPED-UP.

packet

. A false report: coll: mid-C.18–19; mostly Northern. cf. PACKETS!

packet-rat

. A seaman in the old transatlantic sailing packets: nautical coll: C.19. Bowen.

packet to, sell a

. To hoax; lie to; deceive: coll: 1847 (E.D.D.); ob. Hardy, 1886, The Mayor of Casterbridge, ch. xliii. cf. PUP, SELL A.

packets

! An expression of incredulity: mid-C.19–20; very ob. Ex PACKET.

packing

. Food: low (–1909). cf. S.E. stuff oneself with food and INSIDE LINING.

packing-ken

*. An eating-house: c. (–1909). Ex the preceding.

packing-penny to, give a

. To dismiss: coll: late C.16–early 19; Jonson. By pun.

packs

. Storm-clouds: nautical coll (– 1887).

packstaff

, see PIKESTAFF.

Pad

. A not very gen. abbr. (–1887) of PADDY.

pad

*. A path; a road. Esp. the high pad, the highway; in C.16–17, occ. padde. From ca 1565: c. until C.19, then dial. Harman; Middleton & Dekker; Prior; Scott. Ex Old High Ger. pfad. 2. An easypaced horse: 1617, Moryson: coll until C.19, then S.E. Also PAD-NAG. 3. A highway robber: c.: ca 1670–1840. Head, B.E., Messink, Byron. Ex next sense. See also PAD, HIGH and LOW, and PADDER. 4. Robbery on the highway: 1664, Etherege, ‘I have laid the dangerous pad now quite aside’; Bee; Henley & Stevenson: c. until C.19, then low s.; very ob. 5. (Ex sense 3, 4.) A street-robber: low: ca 1820–50. cf. pads and wods in Ned Ward (1709), for ‘highwaymen’. 6. A bed: ca 1570–1890: low s. verging on c. Drayton, Broome, Defoe, Grose, Brandon. In C.16–17 also padde. Ex the S.E. sense, a bundle of straw, skins, etc., on which to lie. 7. Occ. (–1874) an itinerant musician. Ex sense 3. 8. A walk: c. (–1839). Ex sense 1 of:

pad

*, v. To travel on foot as a vagrant: C.17–20; c. until C.19, then mainly dial. Rowlands, 1610, ‘O Ben mort wilt thou pad with me?’ Ex S.E. pad, to walk (1553, O.E.D.). Prob. cf. the n., sense 1. See also PAD THE HOOF. 2. To rob on foot or on the highway: ca 1635–1840: orig., prob. c.; never better than low s. Ford, 1638, ‘One can...cant and pick a pocket, Pad for a cloak or hat.’

pad, gentleman of the

. Also knight (ca 1670–1840), squire (ca 1700–1830) of the pad. A highwayman: C.18–mid-19: low s. > low coll. Farquhar. See PAD, n., 4.

pad, go (out up)on the

*. To (go out to) rob on the highway: c.: late C.17–mid-19. B.E., who notes the variant go a-padding. See PAD, n., 1.

pad, high

*. The highway: ca 1565–1800; c. 2. Hence, C.17–early 19, a robber on the highway, esp. a highwayman. Contrast:

pad, low

*. A footpad: c.: late C.17–early 19. Ex PAD, n., 1. cf. preceding.

pad, on or upon the

*. (Engaged in robbery) on the highway: c.: late C.17–early 19; prob. low s. after ca 1790. L'Estrange. 2. Hence, on tramp: C.19–20, though not with certainty recorded before 1851, Mayhew. Both senses ex PAD, n., 1; the former, gen. upon; the latter, on.

pad, rum

*. 'A daring or stout Highwayman', B.E.: c.: late C.17–early 19. See RUM, adj., 1; PAD, n., 3; and cf. PAD, HIGH, 2.

pad, sit

*, see: pad, stand. To beg by the wayside: c.: 1859, H.; 1862, Mayhew; ob. Properly, while remaining stationary—and standing. Obviously sit pad is to beg from a sitting position: recorded in 1851, likewise in Mayhew. In both, the beggar gen. has a piece of paper inscribed 'I'm starving—blind—etc.' Also stand Paddy.

pad, upon the

, see PAD, ON THE.

pad, water

*. 'One that Robbs Ships in [esp.] the Thames,' B.E.: c.: late C.15– early 19. See PAD, n., 3.

pad-borrower

. A horse-thief: s. > low coll: ca 1780–1840.

pad-clinking

. ‘Hobnobbing with footpads,’ says F. & H., defining it as c.: Kingsley’s note to the sole record, 1865, says ‘Alluding to the clinking of their spurs’.

pad-horse

. An easy-paced horse: from ca 1630; ob. Coll quickly > S.E. Jonson.

pad in the straw

. A hidden danger: coll: 1530, Palsgrave; not quite † in dial. Still, Gammer Gurton’s Needle; Ray. Ex †S.E. pad, a toad.

pad it

. To tramp along, esp. as a vagrant: late C.18–20, or perhaps from as early as 1690: s. >, ea 1840, low coll >, ca 1890, S.E.

pad-nag

. An easy-going horse: from ca 1650; ob. Coll >, ca 1810, S.E. 1654, Whitelocke, ‘A sober...well-paced english padde nagge’.

pad round

. To pay excessive attention to a customer: tailors’ coll: from ca 1870. Ex the S.E. pad, (of animals) to walk, etc., ‘with steady dull-sounding steps.’

pad the hoof

. To go on foot: from ca 1790. On plod o’ the hoof (Shakespeare), beat the hoof (mid-C.17–early 19). cf. PAD IT.

pad-thief

. A horse-thief: late C.17–early 19: coll >, ca 1750, S.E. Shadwell.

padde

, see PAD, n. padden-crib or -ken, see PADDING-CRIB. (Answers, 11 May 1889.)

padder

*. A robber on the highway; esp. a footpad: C.17–20; ob.: orig. c. >, in C. 18, low s.; in late C.19–20, archaic S.E. Rowlands, Scott. cf. PADDIST. Ex PAD, v., 1, influenced by PAD, n., 3. 2. See:

padders

. Feet; shoes or boots: low: from ca 1825; ob. Egan, Finish to Tom and Jerry, 1828, ‘My padders, my stampers, my buckets, otherwise my boots’.

paddin-ken

*. See PADDING-CRIB. P.H. Emerson in Signor Lippo Lippi, 1893.

padding

*. Robbery on the highway: c.: ca 1670–1840. (see PAD, GO...). 2. Short, light articles in the magazines: journalistic coll (–1887); ob. Baumann notes that the term is used ‘in opposition to the serial stories’. 3. Talk: s.: Ned Ward, 1703.

padding

*, adj. Practising highway robbery: c. of ca 1670–1840. Eachard, fig.

padding-crib, -ken

*; loosely padden-c. and -k. A lodging-house for the underworld, esp. for vagrants: c.: from ca 1835; ob. Ex PAD, v., 1., and n., 5. Brandon distinguishes thus: p.-c., a boys' lodging-house; p.-k., a tramps' lodging-house: a distinction that seems to have been lost as early as the 1850s.

Paddington fair (day)

*; or P. Fair(-day). A hanging (day): c.: late C.17–early 19. Tyburn was in the parish of Paddington. Ex 'a rural Fair at the Village of that Name, near that Place' (Tyburn), B.E. cf.:

Paddington frisk, dance the

*. To be hanged: c.: ca 1780–1830. cf.:

Paddington spectacles

*. The cap drawn over a criminal's eyes at his hanging: either c. or low s.: early C.19. cf. the preceding pair of entries.

paddist

. A professional highwayman: ca 1670–1800: Scots s. >, in C.18, coll.

paddle

. A hand: late C.19–20; low and ob. ?suggested by DADDLE.

paddle

, v. To drink strong liquor: low: from ca 1860; ob. ?ex noisy drinking. Hence, to have paddled, to be intoxicated. 2. To run away; to abscond: c. (–1860) >, by 1890, low. Ex S.E. paddle, to toddle.

paddle one's own canoe

, see CANOE, PADDLE...

paddler

. A paddle-steamer: coll: from ca 1890.

Paddy

. A nickname (cf. PAT) for an Irishman: coll: Sessions, 1748; 1780, A. Young, 'Paddies were swimming their horses in the sea to cure the mange.' Ex the very common Irish name, Patrick, of which Paddy is the Irish diminutive. Also Paddylander (see PADDY LAND), PADDYWHACK. cf.:

paddy

. A rage, a temper: coll: 1894, Henty. Also PADDY-WHACK. cf. IRISH, and see esp. Words! at 'Offensive Nationality'. 2. Erroneous for baddy: Motley and recent dictionaries. 3. A paddywhack (i.e. unlicensed) almanac: coll and dial. (–1876). 4. A hobby, a fad: non-aristocratic (–1887). Ex PAD, n., 2.

Paddy, stand

, see PAD, SIT.

Paddy Doyle, do

. To be a defaulter: naval and military: late C.19–20.

Paddy Land or Paddyland

. Ireland. Hence, Paddylander, an Irishman. Coll: from ca 1820.

paddy-melon

, see MELON, 3.

paddy over, come (gen. the)

. To BAMBOOZLE, KID (2), HUMBUG: from ca 1820; slightly ob. Ex PADDY, and the Irishman's reputation for BLARNEY.

Paddy Quick

. A stick. 2. Thick. Both rhyming s. (–1859); the latter, ob. 3. A kick: rhyming s.: mid-C.19–20.

Paddy rammer

. A hammer: rhyming s., esp. among urban labourers: late C.19–20.

paddy-row

. 'More jackets off than blows struck, where sticks supply the place of fists', Bee: coll: from ca 1820; ob.

Paddy Wester; OCC. paddywester

. A bogus seaman carrying a dead man's dischargepapers; a very incompetent or dissolute seaman: nautical: from ca 1890. Bowen, 'After a notorious boarding-house keeper in Liverpool who shipped thousands of green men as A.B.'s for a consideration.'

paddy-w(h)ack, paddyw(h)ack, paddy w(h)ack

; or with capitals. An Irishman (in C.18–early 19, only if big and strong): coll: 1785, Grose (at whack); cf. O.E.D. date. Humorous on PADDY. 2. Whence, on the analogy of PADDY, 1, a rage, a temper: coll: 1899, Kipling, ‘He’ll be in a ravin’ paddy-wack.’ 3. A paddywhack (unlicensed) almanac: coll (–1886); †by 1910. cf. PADDY, 3. 4. A smack; a smacking: Australian children’s: late C.19–20. Elaboration: paddy(-)whack the drumstick. Partly echoic, partly rhyming.

Paddy’s hurricane

. A dead calm: nautical: from ca 1840: ob. Also Irishman’s h.

Paddy’s Land

. Ireland: coll (–1864). Also PADDY LAND.

Paddy’s lantern

. The moon: nautical: late C.19–20. Prob. after PARISH-LANTERN.

Paddy’s market

. A market for the sale of second-hand goods, esp. clothes: coll: mid-C.19–20.

paddywester

. An occ. form of PADDY WESTER.

paddyw(h)ack

, see PADDY-W(H)ACK.

padre

. A chaplain: naval (1888, Chambers's Journal, 14 Jan.) and military (–1900). Ex Portuguese (lit. a father) as used, from ca 1580, in India for any priest or parson.

paff

! A coll interjection (contemptuous): mid-C.19–20; ob. Hence piff and paff, jargon.

page of your own age, make a

. Do it yourself: semi-proverbial coll: Draxe, Bibliotheca Scholastica Instructissima, 1633; Ray; Swift.

pagoda-tree

, gen. preceded by shake the. (To obtain) rapid fortune in India: s.; by 1870, coll: 1836, T.Hook, 'The amusing pursuit of "shaking the pagoda-tree" once so popular in our Oriental possessions.’ Slightly ob. by 1886. App. ex a coin that, owing to the design of a pagoda thereon, was called a pagoda.

pahny

. An occ, variant of PARNEE.

paid

. Tipsy: ca 1635–70. Shirley, The Royal Master, 1638.

‘paid’ to, put

. ‘To regard a matter as finished, as over and done with’: S.E. of an account, coll in such fig. connections as ‘Oh, don’t worry; you can put paid to any friendship that ever existed between him and me; I’ve found out the sort of fellow he really is!’ (Lyell): late C.19–20.

paint

. Money: esp. among house-painters (–1866); ob. cf. BRADS; SUGAR. 2. Jam: military: from the 1890s. Ex its inferior quality.

paint

, v.i. To drink (something strong): 1853, Whyte-Melville, ‘Each hotel... called forth the same observation, “I guess I shall go in and paint”.’ Ob. 2. v.t., to make numerous corrections on (a proof): printers’ (–1909). Ex resulting appearance.

paint-brush baronet

. An ennobled artist: Society coll: 1885, Referee, 28 June; extremely ob. cf. GALLIPOT BARONET.

paint one's eye for him (her, etc.)

. To give him a black eye: low (–1887).

paint the town red

, see RED, PAINT THE TOWN.

painted mischief

. Playing cards: 1879, Daily News, 8 March. Ob.

painter, cut one's

. To prevent a person's doing harm: late C.17–mid-18 nautical s. 2. Hence, to send a person away: nautical s. (–1785). 3. (Of oneself) cut one's or the painter, to depart unceremoniously: nautical (–1867). 4. Hence, to sever one's connection: gen. coll (–1888) >, ca 1905, S.E. ('The painter being the rope that holds the boat fast to the ship', Grose.) Occ. slip the painter, in senses 3, 4: from ca 1865.

painter, let go the

. To deliver a (heavy) punch: boxers' (–1887); ob. Ex nautical j. cf. PAINT ONE'S EYE.

painter, what pleases the

. A late C.17– mid-18 c.p. in the world of art and literature: 'When any Representation in the Productions of his or any Art is unaccountable, and so is to be resolv'd purely into the good Pleasure of the Artist,' B.E.

pair of

. Pair is coll (and often humorous) when used of 'the two bodily members themselves, as "a pair of eyes, ears, lips, jaws, arms, hands, heels, legs, wings", etc', O.E.D.: late C.14–20.

pair o(f) compasses

. Human legs: London: ca 1880–1910. The term arose when the male leg began to be narrowly encased.

pair o(f) drums

, see DRUMS, PAIR OF.

pair of hands

. A man: coll: from ca 1630.

pair of lawn sleeves

. A bishop: coll: 1844, Macaulay.

pair of oars

. A boat rowed by two men: coll verging on S.E.: C.17–20.

pair of shears

, see SHEARS.

pair of shoes, a different or another

. A different matter: coll: 1859, Thackeray; 1865, Dickens. Both have another.

pair of spectacles

, see SPECTACLES.

pair of wheels

. A two-wheeled vehicle: coll: from ca 1620. Cockeram.

pair of wings

*. (A pair of) oars: ca 1790–1890: c. Ex speed. 2. Sleeves: tailors’: late C.19–20.

pair off with

. To marry: coll: 1865, Miss Braddon in Sir Jasper. Ex S.E. sense, to go apart, or off, in pairs.

pakeha

. A white man: a Maori word colloquially adopted in New Zealand ca 1850. Perhaps ex a Maori word meaning a fairy; perhaps a Maori attempt at BUGGER, ‘said to have been described by Dr Johnson (though not in his dictionary), as “a term of endearment amongst sailors”’, a theory app. supported by Morris. (Pronounced as a molossus, the as being, as always in Maori, given the Continental value.)

pakka

, see PUKKA.

pal

*. An accomplice: c. (–1788). Grose, 2nd ed. (chosen pells, pell being an occ. C.18–19 form); Vaux, 1812, patt. In late C.19, this sense > low s. 2. Earlier and from ca 1850 the prevailing sense, a CHUM, a friend: 1681–2, the Hereford Diocesan Register, ‘Where have you been all this day, pall?’: s. >, ca 1880, low coll. Ex Romany pal, brother, mate (cf. c. and Romany blo(w)en), ex Turkish Gypsy, pral, plal, brother; ultimately related to Sanskrit bhratr, a brother (cf. L. frater). (cf. PALLY.) Hence:

pal

, v.i. To associate (with); become another’s ‘pal’ (q.v.): perhaps orig. c.; certainly, at best, low s. (–1879) >, ca 1905, (decreasingly low) coll. Often, esp. in C.20, pal in with, pal up (to or with); in C.19, occ. pal on. ‘The Autobiography of a Thief’, in Macmillan’s Magazine, 1879, ‘I pailed in with some old hands at the game.’ 2. (Gen. pall) to detect: c.: 1851, Mayhew; ob. Perhaps ex the n., 1, or, more prob., ex the Romany preposition palal, palla, after, as in av palla, lit. to come after, i.e. to follow, and dik palla, to look after, i.e. to watch: cf. be after a person, to pursue him, desire strongly to find or catch.

palace

. A police-station: policemen’s: from ca 1870; somewhat ob.

palampo

. A bed-spread, a quilt: Anglo-Indian coll (–1864). A corruption of palempore, itself of doubtful etymology.

palarie

*, v.i. and t. To talk, speak: vagrants' c. (–1893); ob. P.H.Emerson, 'She used to palarie thick [cant] to the slaveys.' A variant of PARLARY (see p. 11) influenced by PALAVER, v.

palatic

. Drunk: 1885, The Stage, 'Sandy told me he last saw him dreadfully palatic': theatrical; very ob. i.e. paralytic corrupted.

palaver

. A fussy, ostentatious person: Scots coll: C.19–20; ob. Gen. old palaver. Presumably ex: 2. Conversation or discussion, gen. idle, occ. (in C.19–20) flattering or wheedling; JAW: nautical s. >, ca 1790, gen. coll: 1748, Smollett, 'None of your palaver.' Ex S.E. (orig. trade and nautical) sense, a parley, a conference, esp. one with much talk, itself ex Portuguese palavra (cf. Sp. palabra), used by the Portuguese in parleying with the natives on the African coast. cf. the v. 3. Hence, business, concern: from middle 1890s. C.Hyne, 1899, 'It's not your palaver...or mine.'

palaver

, v. To talk much, unnecessarily, or (in C.19–20) plausibly or cajolingly: from ca 1730: s. or coll > in C.19–20 definitely coll, latterly almost S.E. Ex the preceding, but until ca 1775 unrecorded except as palavering. 2. Hence, to flatter; wheedle: from ca 1780; ob.

palaver to (a person) for (a thing)

*. To ask one for something; beg it: tramps' c. (–1859). Ex PALAVER, v., 2.

palaverer, OCC. palaverist

. One who palavers; one given to palavering: from ca 1785 (ob.); coll. Ex PALAVER, v., 1. cf.:

palavering

, vbl n. and ppl adj. Copious or idle talk; very talkative: resp. 1733, 1764 (O.E.D.): s. or coll until C.19, then definitely coll. Foote, 'He is a damned palavering fellow.' Ex PALAVER, v.

pale

. Pale brandy: London coll: mid-C. 19–20; ob. Mayhew, 1861, 'A "drain of pale", as she called it, invigorated her.'

Palestine in London

. Low: ca 1820–50. Egan, 1821, ‘That portion of the parish of St Giles, Bloomsbury, inhabited by the lower Irish.’ cf. HOLY LAND.

palette

. A hand: late C.18–19. cf. DADDLE and PADDLE.

pall

. See PAL, n., 1, and v., 2. 2. To detect: c. or low s.: 1859, H.; †by 1900. 3. To stop, e.g. pall that!, stop (doing) that!, and pall there!, silence!: nautical (–1864); ob. Ex pall, properly pawl, an instrument used to stop the windlass. See PAWL, the earlier, more gen. form. 4. To appal; daunt (as in C.14–17 S.E.): nautical (–1864). (cf. PALLED.) Abbr. appal, or ex the nautical order ease and pall.

pallaver

, see PALAVER, esp. v., 2.

palled, be

. Not to dare to say more: low coll (–1864). Ex appal, or PALL, v., 3 or 4.

palliard

*. A vagrant that lies on straw; but esp. ‘he that goeth in a patched cloke’, Awdelay: c. of ca 1560–1830; ob. by ca 1750. 2. In C.17–early 18, the seventh ‘rank’ of the underworld: born beggars affecting hideous sores. Ex Fr. paillard, itself ex paille, straw.

palliasse

. A harlot: low: C.19–20; ob. Ex palliasse, a straw, i.e. cheap, mattress.

palliness

. Comradeship; the being pals (see PAL, n., 2): from ca 1890. cf. PALSHIP.

pallish

. Friendly, CHUMMY (adj.): mostly schools’: 1892 (O.E.D.); ob. Ex PAL, n., 2. cf.:

pally

. Friendly; THICK: from 1895 or slightly earlier. Ex PAL, n., 2. cf. preceding.

palm-acid or -oil

. A caning on the hand: schoolboys’: from ca 1860; ob.

palm-oil ruffian

. An old-time trader on the West Coast of Africa: since ca 1860. Buying oil and drinking gin.

palm-soap

. Money; a bribe: low (–1860); ob. On S.E. palm-oil, a bribe.

palmer

*. A beggar that, under the pretence of collecting ‘harp’ halfpence, by palming steals copper coins from shopkeepers: c. (–1864). Contrast PALMING. 2. A shy fellow: Durham School: from ca 1870; ob.

Palmer is concerned, Mr

. A c.p. applied, ca 1810–50, to a briber or a bribee. Ex the S.E. palm-oil, a bribe. Contrast PALM--ACID and cf. PALM-SOAP.

Palmer’s twister

. (Gen. pl.) A strychnine pill: medical: ca 1870–1910. The medicine employed by Palmer of Rugeley in getting rid of Cooke.

palming

*. The robbing of shops by pairs, the one bargaining, the other palming desirable articles: c. (—1839); slightly ob. Contrast PALMER, 1.

palming-racket

*. ‘Secreting money in the palm of the hand’, Vaux: c. (—1812); ob.

palone

, see POLONE.

palship

. Friendship; being pals: 1896 (O.E.D.); ob. Ex PAL, n., 2. cf. PALLINESS.

Paltock’s Inn or inn

. A poverty-stricken place: ca 1578–1610: coll almost imm. > S.E. Gosson, ‘Comming to Chenas, a blind village, in comparison of Athens a Paltockes Inne’. Presumably ex some wretched inn, the host one Paltock.

pam or Pam

. The knave of clubs: 1685, Crowne; ob. Coll. Pope, ‘Ev’n mighty Pam, that Kings and Queens o’erthrew.’ Abbr. Fr. pamphile, a card-game and esp. this card, which, in trumping, ranks highest. 2. A card-game rather like nap: from ca 1690; ob. Coll >, ca 1780, S.E. Addison, in The Guardian, 1713, ‘She quickly grows more fond of Pam than of her husband.’

Pamp, (as) snug as old

. Very comfortable: lower classes’ (—1887); ob. Who was Pamp? The name is prob. fanciful ex a pampered person. 2. (pamp or P.) A Pampero, i.e. a River Plate gale: nautical: late C.19–20.

pan

*. A bed: c.: C.18. Hall, 1708. 2. Money: c.: mid-C.18–mid-19. Halliwell. 3. (the pan). The workhouse: tramps’ c. (—1893). P.H.Emerson. The etymologies are extremely obscure, as are the connexions—if any. Perhaps all three are cognate with Romany pan(d), to ‘shut, fasten, close, tie, bind, etc.’, Smart & Crofton; sense 1 may, via dial., be ex pan, a beam of wood.

pan

, v. To catch; capture: coll, mostly U.S. and Colonial: 1887.

pan, shut one’s

. To hold one’s tongue: from ca 1830; ob. Marryat, in Peter Simple, ‘Shut your pan.’ Ex that part of an †gun or pistol which holds the priming. cf. S.E. flash in the pan.

pan on, have a

. To be low-spirited: printers': from ca 1860. ?ex Fr. panne, a failure, a FIZZLE, a breakdown, e.g. pannes de métro.

pan out

, v.i. To turn out; (of an event) be: coll: orig. (1871), U.S.; anglicized ca 1895, but common in South Africa (the paradise of American mining-engineers) as early as 1891: witness Pettmann. Referee, 7 April 1901, 'We do not want to know about... the M.C.C.'s big roller...or how the members' luncheon pans out as a commercial speculation.' Ex mining (the shaking of gold-bearing gravel in a pan). 2. v.t., to yield: Australian (and U.S.) coll: 1884, Melbourne Punch, 4 Sept., 'The department ...only panned out a few copper coins.'

pan-pudding, stand to one's

. To hold one's (lit. or fig.) ground: coll: late C.17–early 18. Motteux's Rabelais. (A heavy pudding, gen. of flour.)

panam

, see PANNAM.

Pancridge parson

. A term of contempt: C.17–18. Field, 1612; Halliwell.

pandemonium

. A gambling-hell: educated gamblers' (—1823); †by 1900. 'Jon Bee', who implies a pun on hell being the place of all the devils. 2. The lower deck subalterns' quarters in the old naval troopships: naval and military: ca 1850–1910. Bowen.

pandie, pandy

. A stroke from cane or strap on the hand as punishment: coll, mostly school and nursery and mainly Scots: A. Scott, 1805. Ex L. pande palmam or manum, hold out your hand! 2. (pandy): a 'revolted Sepoy in the Indian Mutiny of 1857–9': coll: 1857; ob. Ex Pande, the surname of the first man to revolt in the 34th Regiment. 3. Hence, an Indian soldier: Regular Army: late C.19–20; ob.

pandie, pandy

, v. To cane, strap: coll (mostly school and nursery): 1863, Kingsley, 'She...pandied their hands with canes.' Ex the n., 1.

pane of glass

. A monocle: Regular Army: since ca 1870.

panel-crib, -den, -house

*. A brothel where theft is (deliberately) rife: c. (—1860); ?orig. U.S. Bartlett, 1860 (panel-house, low s.). Whence the next two entries.

panel-dodge or game

. Theft in a panelhouse: low s. > low coll: resp. 1885, Burton, Thousand Nights; Century Dict., 1890. Ex PANEL-CRIB, etc.

panel-thief, -thieving

. A thief, theft, in a PANEL-CRIB: low s. (—1860) > low coll; perhaps orig. U.S. (see Bartlett, ed. of 1860).

panem

*, see PANNAM.

panicky

. Like, given to, panic: very or excessively afraid or nervous: coll: 1869, Echo, 12 Oct. 'Hence the delays, mystification, and consequent panicky results'.

pan(n)am; panem; pan(n)um

*. Bread: c.: resp. mid-C.16–20, C.17–18, C.17–20. Harman; Brome (pannum); B.E. (panam); Bee (panum); Vance. Ex L. panis, and prob. ex the accusative panem, via Lingua Franca. cf. Fr. s. panam, bread.

pannum(, etc.)-bound

*. Deprived of one's food-, esp. bread-, allowance: prison c.: mid-C.19–20. Ex preceding. cf. PANNAMSTRUCK and:

pannum(, etc.; or cokey)-fence or, gen., -fencer

*. A street pastry-cook: c.: from ca 1840. Ex PANNAM, and see FENCE.

pannam(, etc.)-struck

*. Starving: c.: C.19–20; ob. Ex PANNAM.

pann(e)y

*. The highway: c. of ca 1750–1830, John Poulter, 1753, 'I'll scamp on the panney.' Etymology obscure: perhaps ex Romany. 2. A house; lodgings, rooms: c. of ca 1785–1880. 3. Whence FLASH pann(e)y, often simply panny, a brothel; a public-house frequented by thieves: c. of ca 1820–1920. 4. A burglary: c.: implied in Grose, 1788; ob. Ex preceding sense, via do a PANN(E)Y. cf. PANN(E)Y-LAY. 5. A fight between two, among more than two women: low (–1909). Cognate with Devonshire panel, to hurt, or pain, and Nottinghamshire panneling, a severe beating.

pann(e)y, do a

*. To rob a house: commit a burglary: c.: Grose, 1788; Lytton; ob. Ex preceding entry, sense 2. cf. CRACK (v., 4) a crib.

pann(e)y-lay

*. A burglary: c.: from ca 1820; ob. See PANN(E)Y, 2.

pann(e)y-man

*. A housebreaker: c.: C.19–20; very ob. Ex PANN(E)Y, 2.

pannier

. A robed waiter at table in the Inner Temple: coll: 1823. Origin unknown, says S.O.D.; but is not the term an abbr. of pannier man, ‘a servant belonging to the Temple or Gray’s Inn, whose office is to announce the dinner’, Grose, 3rd ed., 1796 (=1790 or 1791)? W. compares with BOOTS and BUTTONS.

pannier, fill a woman’s

. To render her pregnant: C.17–18; low coll. Cotgrave.

pannikin-boss or -overseer

. An overseer in a small, ‘unofficial’ way on a station: Australian coll (–1896); ob.

pannikin into another shed, roll one’s

. To seek work with another employer: Australian coll (–1902); ob. cf. the preceding entry.

pannum

*, see PANNAM. panny, see PANN(E)Y.

pannyar

. ‘The old name for the slave trade on the African coast’, says Bowen: nautical: ?C.18–mid-19. Prob. ex pannier, a basket.

panorama

(pron. panorammer). A hammer: rhyming s.: since ca 1870. D.W. Barrett, Navvies, 1880.

pantables, stand upon one’s

. To stand on dignity: coll: ca 1570–1760. G.Harvey, Cotton, Horace Walpole. Moreover, pantable is corrupt for pantofle, a slipper, a shoe. Other corruptions are pantacle, pantocle, pantap(p)le, pantaphel, pantop(p)le, pantible.

panter

*. A hart: c.: late C.17–early 19. Grose, ‘That animal is, in the Psalms, said to pant after the fresh water-brooks’ (1785 revised by 1796). 2. The human heart: from ca 1720 certainly; possibly from late C.17: low s., prob. orig. c.; slightly ob. A song of ca 1725, quoted in Musa Pedestris; Grose, 2nd ed., ‘Frequently pants in time of danger’. 3. See:

panthers

. The female breasts: low: C.19–20; ob. Ex PANTER, 2. cf. HEAVERS.

panteys

; in C.20, gen. panties. Pantaloons: ca 1848–60: coll: orig. and mainly U.S. (Burton, Waggeries, 1848). 2. Women’s or children’s drawers: 1905: coll.

pantible

, see PANTABLES.

pantile

. ‘Erroneously applied to flat Dutch or Flemish paving tiles, and so’—in the pl—‘to the Parade at Tunbridge Wells which was paved with these’, O.E.D.: ca 1770–1830. Properly ‘a roofing tile transversely curved to an ogee shape’ (id.). cf. PANTILE-HOUSE. 2. A hat: ca 1859–90. Ex shape. cf. TILE. 3. A flat cake, jam-covered: schoolboys’: from ca 1863. Ex sense 1. 4. A hard biscuit, esp. one of those carried by Liverpool ships: nautical: from ca 1880; ob. Ex sense 1.

pantile(-)house, (-)shop

. ca 1780–1830: s. rapidly > coll: resp. 1785, Grose; 1796, Grose (hence, 1790 or 1791). ‘A Presbyterian, or other dissenting meeting house, frequently covered with pantiles, called also a cock pit’, Grose, 1st ed.

Pantile Park

. London’s roofs and chimney-pots: jocular coll: mid-C.19–20; extremely ob.

pantiler

. A Dissenter: coll: app. ca 1720–1890, but not recorded before 1863, according to F. & H., 1889 according to the O.E.D.; it occurs in H., 1860. Ex PANTILE, 1. 2. Hence, a religious prisoner: prisonstaff s.: early C.19. Mayhew, 1856, ‘The officers...used to designate the extraordinary religious convicts as “pantilers”.’

pantocle, pantofle, pantople

, see PANTABLES.

pantry shelves

. Female breasts: domestic: since ca 1870; ob.

pants

. Pantaloon: low coll: orig. (1842; 1846, O.W.Holmes) and mainly U.S.; ob. cf. sense 4 and PANTEYS, 1. 2. Pantalettes: coll: orig. (1851), U.S.; ob. 3. Hence, coll (in shops, only of men's) for drawers: 1874, H., 5th ed., 'American term for trousers. Here used to represent the long drawers worn underneath'; 1880, Daily News, 8 Nov., 'Pants and shirts sell rather freely.' cf. PANTEYS, 2. 4. Hence, trousers: orig. (–1874), U.S.; low coll, mostly Colonial: late C.19–20.

panum

*, see PANNAM.

panupetaston

. A loose, wide-sleeved overcoat: Oxford University: ca 1850–80. H., 5th ed., 1874, 'Now out of fashion'. Prob. ex Gr.

panzy

*. A burglary: c. (–1857); †by 1900. A perversion of PANNEY, 3.

pap

*. Paper; esp. paper money: c.: 1877, Horsley, Jottings from Jail, 'A lucky touch for half-a-century'—£50—'in pap'. Ex paper influenced by S.E. pap: or the other way about.

pap, (e.g. his) mouth is full of

. A c.p. applied to one still childish: late C.18– early 19. Ex pap, babies' food. cf. the C.18 proverb, boil not the pap before the child be born.

pap-feeder

*. A spoon: c. of ca 1850–90. Mayhew, 1858.

pap with a hatchet, give

. To punish as if one were doing a kindness or conferring a benefit: ca 1589–1719; ob. by 1650. Coll. Lyly or Nashe, 1589; G.Harvey, 1589; D'Urfey, 1719. Halliwell's 'to do any kind action in an unkind manner' perhaps misses the irony.

papa

; (C.18) pappa. Father: from ca 1680: S.E. until ca 1780: then a childish coll; since ca 1880, ob. except when jocular. Ex Gr. πάπ(π)ας via Fr.; ultimately cognate with pap, a breast (see esp. W., Adjectives and Other Words): cf. MAM. See also DAD; DADDY.

paper

. Broadside and similar publications: coll (–1851); ob. Mayhew. cf. PAPER-WORKER.
2. Free passes to an entertainment; collectively, the recipients of such passes: 1870, Figaro, 15 July, 'The best sort of paper for a theatre is Bank of England notes.' Also OXFORD CLINK and STATIONERY. cf.:

paper

, v.t. To fill (a theatre, etc.) by means of free passes: before 1879. Webster, Supplement, 1879. Ex the n., 2. cf. PAPERY.

paper

, adj. corresponding to the n., 2: theatrical (–1909). Esp. in paper house.

paper, reading the

. The excuse given for taking a nap: c.p.: from ca 1880.

paper-boat

. Any lightly built vessel, esp. a paddle excursion-steamer: nautical coll: late C.19–20.

paper-collared swell

. A ‘white-collar worker’ (esp. a clerk): New Zealand: ca 1860–1900. A.Bathgate, Colonial Experiences, 1874.

paper-fake

. A DODGE or LAY (2) with paper, e.g. selling ballads: Cockney: ca 1850–80. Mayhew.

paper-maker

*. A rag-gatherer, guttersearcher: c. >, by 1860, low: from ca 1835; ob. Brandon. 2. One who, pretending to be the agent of a paper-mill, collects rags free and then sells them: c. (–1839); ob.

paper-man

. An officer ‘who, being employed on the staff’, is ‘not available for regimental duty’, Standard, 24 Oct. 1892; prob. it was used some few years earlier: military coll: ob.

paper-marriage

. A Society wedding: from ca 1890. Ex fees paid in banknotes.

paper-mill, the

. The record office of the Court of Queen’s Bench: legal: ca 1840–1900.

paper-minister

. A minister who reads his sermons: Scots coll: 1854, H.Miller. The E.D.D. records, at 1828, paper-ministry, ‘a ministry of preachers who read their sermons’.

paper-padded

. (Of foot-wear) shod with paper instead of with leather: shoemakers' s. (–1887) >, by 1910, coll.

paper-scul (or -skull)

. A silly or foolish fellow. Also adj. Coll: late C.17–early 19.

paper-sculled (-skulled)

. Silly, foolish: coll: C.18–early 19.

paper-stainer

. A clerk: coll: mid-C.19–20; ob.

paper-worker

. A vendor of broadsides: low coll: from ca 1850; ob. Ex PAPER, n. 1. cf. RUNNING PATTERER.

paperer

. The issuer of PAPER, n., 2: theatrical: 1879, says Ware. Ex PAPER, v.

papery

. Occupied by persons with free passes: 1885, Referee, 8 Nov., ‘The stalls were partly papery, and partly empty.’ Ex PAPER, n., 2.

paplar or papler

, see POPLARS.

pappy

. Father: childish coll: 1763, Bickerstaff; 1897, ‘Ouida’. Diminutive of PAPA. 2. A nursery form of pap, infants’ food: coll: 1807, E.S.Barrett; ob.

par

. Abbr. paragraph, esp. of news; journalistic coll: 1879, W.Black; Ware, however, dates par-leader (a short leading article in one paragraph) at 1875. 2. An occ. variant of PA.

par-banging

. Tramping, seeking for work: urban lower classes’ (–1909). Ware. i.e. banging the pavé.

parachute

*. A parasol; umbrella: c. (–1864) >, by 1873, gen. low s.; ob.

parade, burn the

, see BURN THE PARADE.

paradise

. The gallery of a theatre: 1864; always felt to be French; ob. by 1910. Fr. paradis. cf. the cognate the GODS (2) and contrast the Fr. poulailler.

paradise, get or have a penn'orth of

. To get, have, take a drink, esp. of gin: low: ca 1860–1915.

parafinelly

. Over-dressy clothes: (low) Glasgow s.: ca 1880–1905. Ex paraphernalia.

paralysed

. Tipsy: s. verging on coll: ca 1890.

paralytic fit or stroke

. A badly fitting garment: tailors': from ca 1870; slightly ob. By a pun on that affliction.

param, parum

*. Milk: c.: late C.16–17. Harman. Also YARRUM.

parcel

. The day's winnings; a pocketbook: the turf: late C.19–20. The Pink 'Un and the Pelican, 1898 (former); Sporting Times, 6 April 1901 (latter). 2. An English girl sold into a brothel abroad: c. or low (–1887).

parcel-finder

. One who, for lost packets, goes to the pawnbrokers: pawnbrokers' coll (–1887).

parchment

. A bluejacket's certificate of service: naval coll: late C.19–20.

pard

. A partner; a CHUM: orig. (–1872), U.S.; anglicized ca 1885, chiefly in the Colonies. A coll abbr. of partner via pardner: itself a coll (–1887), recorded by Baumann—but orig. U.S.

parding

. Pardon: sol., esp. among Cockneys: C.19–20. Mayhew, 1861.

Paree

. Paris: coll: from ca 1850. Often gay Paree. Ex Fr. pronunciation.

parentheses

. Bandy legs: printers': from ca 1870. Ex the shape: ().

parenthesis, have one's nose in

. To have it pulled: ca 1786–1850. Hence, parenthesis, the having one's nose pulled: ca 1820–40.

parenthesis, iron

. A prison: ca 1810–50. cf. CAGE.

parenthesis, wooden

. A pillory: ca 1810–40. cf. preceding.

pariah brig

. A deep-sea native vessel of India: nautical: late C.19–20. Punning pariah.

parings

*. Illicit clippings of money: c.: late C.17–mid-19. A special application of the S.E. sense. (Grose's chippings is an error.)

parings of one's nails, not to give, lose, part with the

. To be a miser: semi-proverbial coll: from ca 1540; in C.19–20, mostly dial. 'Proverbs' Heywood, Deloney, Mabbe, 'Phraseologia Generalis' Robertson, Northall.

parish-bull, -prig, -stallion

*. A parson: c.: resp. 1811, Lex. Bal., 1864, H., 3rd ed.; F. & H., 1902. Prob. prig=PRICK influenced by PRIG, v., 3. cf. the ambiguous C.17 proverb, the parson gets the children.

parish-lantern

. The moon: dial. and s. (–1847). cf. OLIVER.

parish pick-axe

. A prominent nose: lower classes' (–1909); ob.

parish-rig

. A poorly found ship or an ill-clothed man: Canadian (and Eastern U.S.) nautical: late C.19–20. Bowen. Ex S.E. parish-rigged, cheaply rigged.

parish-soldier

. ca 1780–1850; 'A jeering name'—prob. coll rather than s.—'for a militia man, from substitutes being frequently hired by the parish from which one of its inhabitants is drawn.'

parish-stallion

, see PARISH-BULL.

parishes, his stockings are of (later, belong to) two

. A c.p. applied to one whose stockings or socks are odd: ca 1790–1860.

park

. A prison: low s. and Northern dial.: ca 1820–70. Perhaps ex the privileged circuit round the King’s Bench and/or the Fleet Prison. 2. A back yard, a small strip of garden in a town: jocular coll: from ca 1890; ob. 3. See BUSHY PARK.

park, in the

, see BUSHY PARK, AT.

park-paling(s), -railings

. Teeth: low: 1811, Lex. Bal. (paling); railings from ca 1860. 2. A neck of mutton: low: from ca 1880. Ex the appearance.

parker

. A very well-dressed man frequenting the parks: low London: mid-C.19–20; ob.

parker

*, v.i. and t. To speak (about); ask; beg: c.: from ca 1890; ob. P.H. Emerson, 1893, ‘Have you parkered to the owner for your letties?’ Ex It. pargliare, via Lingua Franca, or a corruption of Parlary. 2. To hand out (money): id.; id. Pugh, “‘If I’d a brighfull o’posh,” she said, “I wouldn’t parker no wedge to you.””

parker from (or with) denarly

. To pay up: Parlary, esp. cheapjacks': from ca 1870. Pugh, cheapjack loquitur: "I like the Birmingham people," I said. "They are nice people, sensible people, and they 'parker from denarly' without fuss." Lit., part from money; parker represents It. partire; for denarly, see DINARLEE.

parkering ninty

. Wages: Parlary: since ca 1860. (P.H.Emerson, Signor Lippo, 1893.)

parky

; incorrectly parkey. Cold; chilly. (Only of weather; in Midland dial., however, it=witty, smart or sharp of tongue.) From 1898 or a little earlier. Prob. ex perky, parky, characteristic of a park; cf. dial. parkin, ginger-bread.

parleyvoo

. Occ. parlyvoo, parl(e)y-vous, parlezvous. The French language: coll: 1754, Foote, 'A French fellow...with his muff and parlevous.' 2. The stusy of French: coll: late C.19–20. 3. A Frenchman: 1815 (O.E.D.): slightly ob. cf. Fr. goddam, an Englishman: even C.15 Villon alludes to the oath. Ex parlez-vous, do you speak (e.g. French)?

parleyvoo

, adj. French: 1828, Moir. 2. Loosely, foreign: late C.19–20. Both coll.

parleyvoo

, v.i. To speak French: s. when not jocular coll: 1765, Foote, ‘You know I can’t parler vous.’ Ex the n., 1, q.v. also for variant spellings. 2. Hence, to speak a foreign language: from ca 1880; ob. cf. SLING THE BAT.

parliament!, kiss my

. A rude c.p., based on ‘the Rump Parliament’: early Restoration period. Pepys, Feb. 1660, ‘Boys do now cry, “Kiss my Parliament”.’ 2. Also parliament house. A privy: late C.19–20. Because one sits there.

parliament whiskey

. Whiskey on which inland-revenue dues have been paid: Anglo-Irish coll: from the 1820s.

Parliamentary press

. ‘An old custom of claiming any iron, which happens to be in use, for the purpose of opening the collar seam’, Barrère & Leland, 1889. Tailors’: ob.

parlour

; front parlour. The female pudend: low: C.19–20. Whence:

parlour and lie backward, let out one's

. To be a whore: low: C.19–20; ob. cf. LETS OUT HER FORE-ROOMS, etc.

parlour into the kitchen, out of the

. From good to bad: coll: late C.16–17. Florio. cf. OUT OF GOD'S BLESSING INTO THE WARM SUN.

parlour-jump

*, v. Ex PARLOUR-JUMPING: c.: 1894, Arthur Morrison.

parlour-jumper

*. One who specializes in PARLOUR-JUMPING: c.: from ca 1870, says Ware.

parlour-jumping

*. Theft from rooms, esp. by entering at the window: c.: from not later than 1879.

parlous

. Extremely clever, shrewd, mischievous; extraordinary: C.15–20 (ob.): S.E. until ca 1840, then dial. and coll (= AWFUL, terrible).

parly

. A Parliamentary train: railwaymen's (–1887).

parlyvoo, parlyvous

, see PARLEYVOO, n. and v.

parnee, parn(e)y

; in India, mostly pawnee. Water: orig. (–1862) among strolling actors (Mayhew); by 1890, fairly gen. low s., though—witness Yule & Burnell—popular in Anglo-Indian, e.g. in BRANDYPAWNEE, by 1865. English usage derives ex Romany pani, paani, pauni (Smart & Crofton), itself ultimately the Hindustani pani. 2. Rain: Anglo-Indian (–1859); slightly ob. (The term is now common in Parlary and in the s. of Petticoat Lane.)

parnee(-)

, but gen. pawnee(-)game. Waterdrinking, esp. as abstinence from liquor: low: 1893, P.H.Emerson, 'He sticks to the pawnee game.' See PARNEE.

parrot and monkey time

. A period of quarrelling: ca 1885–1915. Adopted ex U.S., Ware noting that it 'started from a droll and salacious tale of a monkey and a parrot'. Whence parrot time.

parrot must have an almond, the

. A c.p. applied to or hinting of incentive, reward, or bribery, very common ca 1520–1640. Skelton; Nashe, Almond for a Parrot, 1590; Shakespeare; Jonson; ‘Water Poet’ Taylor. Ex parrot’s delight in almonds.

parroty time

. The same as PARROT AND MONKEY TIME: 1886, Daily News, 12 Oct. †.

parsley

. The pubic hair: low: C.18–20; almost †. cf.:

parsley-bed

. The female pudend: low: from ca 1600 (see Mabbe quotation in O.E.D.); 1659, Anon., The London Chanticleers, a play; Ned Ward, 1719. Esp. take a turn in the parsley-bed, to coît with a woman; ob. (In folklore—cf. Mabbe, 1622, and R.Brome in The Antipodes, 1640—little girls come from the parsley-bed, little boys from the nettle-bed or from under a gooseberry bush.)

parsnips?, (I) beg (your)

. I beg your pardon!: low jocular coll (–1887).

parson

. Any minister of religion except a priest: coll and, except in country districts, gen. pejorative: mid-C.17–20. South, Hannah More, George Eliot. 2. A signpost, ‘because like him it sets people in the right way’, Grose, 1785: prob. from ca 1750, mainly dial.; ob.

parson

, v, To marry; to church after child-delivery: coll: from ca 1880.

Parson Mallum!, remember

. ‘Pray drink about, Sir!’: late C.16–18: c.p. Like the next, it must have had its origin in some topicality.

Parson Palmer

. ‘One who stops the circulation of the glass by preaching over his liquor’, Grose, 1785: coll: C.18–early 19. Swift, Polite Conversation, Dialogue II. An elaboration of no preaching—or dangerous to preach—over your liquor, as in Aphra Behn, 1682, and app. a semi-proverb, it is a c.p. cf. preceding.

parsoned

, ppl adj. Married in church or chapel: coll (–1886). Esp. married and parsoned, duly and legally married: coll.

parsoness

. A parson's wife: coll, mostly jocular: 1784 (O.E.D.). cf.:

parsonet

. A parson's child: coll, gen. jocular: 1812, G.Colman; ob. 2. A newly fledged or a very unimportant parson: jocular coll: 1834, Gen. P.Thompson, 'fashionable parsonets'; P.Brooks, 1874, 'parsonettes'.

parson's barn

, see BARN, PARSON'S.

parson's journeyman

. A curate: from ca 1810; ob. An assistant curate does most of the itinerant work of his vicar or rector.

parson's nose

. A chicken's or a goose's rump: coll (–1864). cf. POPE'S NOSE by which it was, to Protestants, prob. suggested.

parson's side, pinch on the

. To withhold, cheat him of, his tithes: coll > almost proverbial. Lyly, 1579; T.Adams, 1630.

parson's week

. A holiday from Monday to the Saturday of the following week: Cowper's letter of 28 June 1790 to Lady Hesketh; also, mid-C.19–20, Monday to Saturday of one week. Coll: late C.18–20.

parson's wife, kiss the

. To be lucky in horse-flesh: semi-proverbial coll: late C.18– mid-19.

part

, v.i. To pay, give, restore: from ca 1862: s. >, ca 1910, coll. G.R.Sims, 1880, 'The [people on the] top floor rarely parted before Monday morning.' Ex S.E. part with, C.14–20.

part brass-rags

. To quarrel: naval (from ca 1890) >, by 1900, military. Bowen, 'From the bluejacket's habit of sharing brass cleaning rags with his particular friend'.

part co

. To part company: ?orig. naval: ?since ca 1790; by 1850, ob.; by 1910, virtually †.

parter

. A payer or giver of what is due or advisable; by itself, ‘a free, liberal person’ (H.); a bad payer is a bad parter. From ca 1862: s. Ex preceding.

partial

. Crooked; over-inclined (lit.): coll: late C.18–early 19.

partial to

. Liking; fond of: coll: 1696, Prior, ‘Athens...where people...were partial to verse’; A.Lang, 1889, ‘Cold sausage (to which Alphonso was partial)’.

particular

, n. Something very characteristic or especially liked, e.g. a glass of one’s particular, i.e. of one’s favourite drink: s.: C.19–20. Earliest and mainly in PARTICULAR, LONDON.
2. A very close friend; a favourite mistress: dial. (–1828) >, ca 1830, coll; slightly ob. Gen. P.Thompson, 1830.

particular

, adv. Especialiy: low coll: mid-C.19–20. ‘I want to speak to you awfully particular,’ Boy’s Own Paper, cited by Baumann, 1887. (The O.E.D., giving an example of 1600, describes the usage as rare and †.)

particular, London

. A Madeira wine imported especially for the London market: coll: 1807, Washington Irving; ob. by 1900. Perhaps the origin of glass of one’s particular (see PARTICULAR, n., 1). 2. Hence, ex the colour, a London fog: 1852, Dickens: s. >, ca 1890, coll. Also called London ivy (London fog in gen.; not a particular one): 1889; somewhat ob. cf. PEA-SOUPER.

particular, one’s

. The favoured gallant of a courtesan: brothel coll: 1749, John Cleland; ?ob.

partinger

. A partner: jocular (–1887); ob.

partners

. Two men working together: tailors’ coll (late C.19–20) verging on j.

partridge

. A harlot: low: late C.17–mid-18 Anon. song of ca 1700. cf. PLOVER, by which—plus partridge(-shot), case-shot—it was prob. suggested.

parts, play (a person) any, or one, of one's

. To play a nasty trick on a person: low coll (–1887). Baumann, ‘Don’t play me any of your parts.’

party

. A person: mid-C.17–20: S.E. until ca 1760, then coll (Foote, 1770); from ca 1850, low coll (Bagehct, 1855, ‘A go—ahead party’). Esp. old party, an old per-son. Ex such legal phrases as guilty party, be a party to. See notably Alford’s The Queen’s English, 1863.

pasear

; paseo. A walk: U.S. (–1840), anglicized ca 1890. Ex Sp. paseo, a walk; pasear, to walk. 2. (Only pasear.) To walk: id., id.

pash

*. A ‘small’ coin; a COPPER (2): c. (–1839); †by 1900.

pass in one's checks

. To die: orig. (–1872) and chiefly U.S.; anglicized, esp. in Canada and Australia, ca 1890. Nisbet, 1892, ‘Mortimer...passed in his checks ...unexpectedly.’ Also hand in; also, with either v., chips, which, however, is rare outside U.S. Ex settling one’s accounts at poker.

pass in one's dinner pail

. To die: mostly Cockneys’: ca 1890–1914. Binstead, Mop Fair, 1905.

pass out

. To die: coll: 1899. Prob. abbr. pass out of sight.

pass the compliment

. To give a gratuity: low coll: late C.19–20; ob. Perhaps ex (the ?orig. U.S.) pass the compliments of the day (cf. next).

pass the time of day

. (In passing) to exchange greetings and/or. fleeting gossip: coll and dial.: 1834, A.Parker, ‘Two Indians...halted..., stared..., and then civilly passed the time of day.’

passenger

. An ineffective member of a racing-boat crew: 1885 (O.E.D.). 2. Hence, such a member of any team or (C.20) on a business or other staff: 1892 (O.E.D.): s. Ex travel by ship. 3. A passenger-train: railwaymen's coll (–1887).

passing-out number

. A second-year naval cadet in the training-ship Britannia: late C.19–early 20.

passy

. (Of a master) severe; bad-tempered: Christ's Hospital: ca 1790–1870. Superseded by VISH. Ex passionate, says Blanch in his reminiscences.

past

. Beyond (the power or ability of a person): coll: C.17–20. Beaumont & Fletcher, 1611, 'You are welcome...; but if you be not, 'tis past me|To make you so; for I am here a stranger.'

past dying of her first child, be

. To have had a bastard: coll: mid-C.17–18. Ray, 1678.

past praying for

. (Esp. of persons.) Hopeless: coll: mid-C.19–20.

paste

. Brains: printers’: late C.19–20; ob. Ironically ex PASTE AND SCISSORS.

paste

, v. To thrash; implied in 1851, Mayhew, ‘He...gave me a regular pasting’; H., 5th ed. F. & H. suggests ex bill-sticking; perhaps on BASTE.

paste and scissors

. Extracts; unoriginal padding: journalistic coll: late C.19–20. Usually scissors and paste, gen. considered as S.E. Ex cutting out and pasting up.

paste away

, v.i. To keep on punching: coll: since ca 1870. Sessions, Jan. 1882. See PASTE, v.

paste-horn

. The nose: shoemakers’: 1856, Mayhew; ob. Ex an article of the trade. See also OLD PASTE-HORN. cf. CONK; SMELLER, 2.

pasteboard

. A visiting-card: 1837, T. Hook. cf. PASTEBOARD, DROP ONE'S. 2. A playing-card; playing-cards collectively: 1859, Thackeray.

pasteboard

, v.t. To leave one's visiting-card at the residence of: 1864; ob. by 1900. Ex preceding and following entry.

pasteboard, drop, leave, lodge, shoot one's

. To leave one's visiting-card at a person's residence: mid-C.19–20.

pasteboard-customer

. A taker of long credit; trade: from ca 1860; ob. Either ex cards and compliments or ex S.E. pasteboard, something flimsy.

pasting

, vbl n. A drubbing: see the quotation at PASTE, v.

pastry

. Collective for: young and pretty women: from ca 1885; slightly ob.

pasty

. A book-binder; mostly among publishers, booksellers, and their carmen: from ca 1860; ob. Ex the paste used in binding books.

pasty

, adj. Of the complexion: S.E. 2. Hence, indisposed: (orig. low) coll: 1891, Newman, Scamping Tricks, 'I feel pasty.' 3. Hence, angry: low coll: 1892; ob. Milliken, in the 'Arry Ballads, 'Miss Bonsor went pasty, and reared.'

Pat

. An Irishman; often in address: coll: 1806, Port Folio, 11 Oct. Ex Patrick, the commonest Irish Christian name. cf. PATESS; PATLANDER; PADDY.

Pat and Mick

. The penis: Anglo-Irish: late C.19–20. Rhyming on PRICK, 3.

Pat and Mike

. A BIKE: rhyming s.: late C.19–20.

patch

. The nickname of Sexton, Cardinal Wolsey's domestic jester. T.Wilson, 1553; J.Heywood, 1562. 2. Hence, any 'fool' or jester: ca 1560–1700: coll, soon > allusive S.E. Shakespeare. 3. Hence, an ill-natured or bad-tempered person: C.19–20: coll and dial. Esp. as cross-patch. Scott, 1830. 4. The female pudend: low: C.19–20. ?ob.

patch (up)on, not a

. Not to be compared with: coll: 1860, Reade, 'Not a patch on you for looks'—a very frequent comparison. Anticipated by Daniel Webster, 1850, in but as a patch on.

patched like a whaleman's shirt

. (Of a sail or garment) patched as much as it can be: nautical coll: late C.19–20.

patch(e)y

. A, gen. the, harlequin: theatrical: from ca 1860; ob. Ex costume.

patchy

, adj. Bad-tempered; fractious: coll (ob.) and dial.: 1862, Trollope, 'He'll be a bit patchy...for a while.' Ex PATCH, n., 3.

pate

. The head, esp. the part normally covered with hair: C.13–20: S.E. until C.19, then coll and gen. jocular. Barham, ‘His little bald pate’.

patent-coat

*. An ‘inside skirt coat pocket’, Brandon: c. of ca 1835–90.

patent-digester

. Brandy: coll: from ca 1835; ob. Dickens. Ex its digestive properties.

patent(-)Frenchman

. An Irishman: tailors’: from ca 1870; ob.

patent-inside, -outside

. ‘A newspaper printed [first] on the inside (or outside) only, the unprinted space being intended for local news, advertisements, etc.’, F. & H.: journalists’ (mostly provincial): from ca 1880; very ob.

pater

. A father; also in address: mostly among schoolboys: 1728, Ramsay; Miss Braddon, who italicizes it. Direct ex the L. cf. MATER.

pater-cove

*, see PATRICO.

paternoster

. A fishing-line with hooks and weights at regular intervals: anglers' coll (in C.20, j.): 1849, Kingsley. Abbr. S.E. paternoster-line. Ex rosary-beads.

paternoster, devil's

. A muttering, grumbling; a blasphemous exclamation: coll: late C.14–20, but ob. by C.18. (Chaucer;) Terence in English; Congreve.

paternoster-while, in a

. In a moment (the time needed for a paternoster); quickly: from ca 1360 (ob. by 1890): coll bordering on S.E. Paston Letters.

Patess

. An Irishwoman: coll: 1825, Scott.

patience!, my

. An exclamation of surprise: coll: recorded 1873 (E.D.D.); prob. much earlier.

patience on a monument

. An extremely patient and long-suffering person: coll: from ca 1890. Henley & Stevenson, 1892, use it as an adj. Prob. ex the seeming patience of all statues, as seen in the immediate origin, Shakespeare's 'She sat, like Patience on a monument,|Smiling at grief.'

patience with, have no

. To find too hard to tolerate; be irritated by: coll: 1855, Thackeray, 'I have no patience with the Colonel.'

Patland

. Ireland: C.19–20. Earlier than, for it is the origin of:

Patlander

. An Irishman: 1820, Sporting Magazine, ob. cf. PADDY; PAT.

patrico

*. One of the fifteenth 'rank' of the underworld, a strolling (pseudo-)priest: c.: C.16–20, but ob. by 1820. 2. Hence, C.17–20 (ob. by 1840), any parson or priest: c. The forms include patriarch-(patriarke-) co, C.16 rare, as in Awdelay; pattering- or patring-cove, C.16, Copland; pater-cove, late C.17–19 (e.g. in B.E., Grose, and Lytton), patri-cove (A New Canting Dict., 1725), and patter-cove, C.19–20, as in Henley & Stevenson. (A C.18 song spells it patrico-coe.) Prob. ex PATER + CO(VE).

patrin

*; incorrectly patteran. 'A gipsy trail, made by throwing down a handful of grass occasionally', H., 5th ed.: vagrants' c. Whyte-Melville, 1876, in Katerfelto; 1898, Watts-Dunton in Aylwin. Ex Romany pat(r)in, a leaf, or (and in C.20 only) a trail-sign. (The Romany for trails is patreni or patrinaw.)

patring-cove

*, see PATRICO.

pattens, run on

. (Of the tongue) to clatter; go nineteen to the DOZEN: ca 1550–1620. Udall; (?) Shakespeare. Ex the noise made by clogs.

patter

*. Any secret or technical language: S.E. (says O.E.D.; but prob. orig. c.) of mid-C.18–20. cf. GAMMON AND PATTERN. Ex S.E. patter, to talk rapidly or glibly. 2. A cheapjack's oratory; JAW; speechifying: from ca 1780; c. >, ca 1840, s. Parker, Vaux, Mayhew. 3. Hence, mere talk; gabble: coll: 1858, Gen. P.Thompson, 'A patter...about religion'. 4. A judge's summing-up; a trial: c. or low s.: 1857, 'Ducange Anglicus'. 5. The words of a song, a play, etc.: coll: from ca 1875. J.A.Fuller-Maitland, 1880, 'Mozart and many other composers often introduce bits of "patter" into buffo solos.' 6. A piece of street literature: low (–1889). Answers, 11 May 1889. Ex sense 2 or 5, or perhaps ex PATTERNER, 3. 7. Food: 1855, John Lang, The Forger's Wife. cf. the v., 5.

patter,

v. To talk, speak, esp. as a cheapjack or a conjuror: pedlars's. (–1851). Mayhew. Ex: 2. To talk the secret language of the underworld: c.: from ca 1780. Parker, View of Society. For derivation, see: 3. To speak (some language): c.: 18–12, Vaux. Esp. in PATTERN FLASH. Ex S.E. patter, C.15–20, to talk glibly, rapidly. 4. To try (a person) in a court of justice: c. of ca 1810–50. 5. v.t., to eat: Australian pidgin English: 1833, Sturt, 'He himself did not patter...any of it'; ob. App. ex an Aboriginal dialect.

patter, flash the

*. To talk; esp. to talk s. or c.: c. (from ca 1820) >, ca 1880, low s. Prob. ex PATTERN FLASH. See PATTERN, n., 1 and 2, and FLASH, v.

patter, stand—occ. be in for—the

*. To stand for trial: c.: from ca 1810; ob.Vaux, Haggart. See PATTERN, n., 1. (The legal talk.)

patter-cove

*, see PATRICO.

patter-crib

*. A lodging-house, or an inn, frequented by the underworld: c.: from ca 1830. See PATTER, n., 1, and CRIB, n.

patter flash

*. To talk; also to talk s. or c.: c. (–1812) >, ca 1860, low s. cf. PATTER, V., 2; PATTER, FLASH THE.

patteran

*. Incorrect form of PATRIN.

patterer

. One who speaks c., low s., or Romany: 1849, Ainsworth: c. rapidly > low s. > s. >, by 1900, coll. Ex PATTER, v., 2. 2. Whence, one who ‘speechifies’, esp. a cheapjack: s. (–1851) >, ca 1890, low coll. Mayhew. 3. A vendor of broadsides, etc.: from ca 1850; ob. by 1880: s. >, ca 1870, low coll. Esp. RUNNING PATERER (cf. FLYING STATIONER), one always on the move, and STANDING PATERER, one selling from a pitch. Mayhew. cf. PATTER, n., 6.

patterer, humbox-

*. A parson: c.: from ca 1838; ob. Serialist Reynolds.

pattering

, vbl n. The pert or vague replies of servants: coll: from ca 1690; ob. by 1880. Ex patter, to talk glibly. 2. Talk intended to interest a prospective victim: c. or low s.: 1785, Grose.

pattering-cove

*, see PATRICO.

pattern

. Delightful; brilliant: Anglo-Irish: late C.19–20. Ware derives it thus: pattern fair ex patron fair, i.e. patron saint's fair.

pauca

! Speak little!; say nothing: (?) c.: late C.16–17. i.e., L. pauca verba, few words.

paul

, see PAWL. Paul, rob Peter to pay, see PETER TO PAY.

pauler

, see PAWLER. Also, something very puzzling; a poser: as in Captain Glascock, Land Sharks and Sea Gulls, 1838.

Paul's, old as

, see OLD AS CHARING CROSS.

Paul's (or Westminster) for a wife, go to

. To go whoring: coll: late C.16–18. Shakespeare (implied: 2 Henry IV, I, ii, 58); Ray. Old St Paul's was a resort of loungers and worse (cf. S.E. Paul's men, walkers, loungers).

Paul's pigeon

. (Gen. pl.) A pupil at St Paul's School, London: from ca 1550. Fuller.

Paul's (steeple), old as

, see OLD AS CHARING CROSS.

Paul's work

. A bungled job; a MESS: coll: C.17. Dekker, 'And when he had done, made Poules work of it'.

Pauly

. (Gen. pl.) A follower of Paul Kruger; a Boer: mostly journalists': 1899–1900.

paunch

. To eat: coll: C.17. cf. equivalent pouch and Scots paunch, swallow greedily.

paunches, join

. To copulate: low: C.19–20; ob. cf. join GIBLETS.

paup along

. Bravely to make ends meet: middle and upper classes': from ca 1880. (Edward Burke, Bachelor's Buttons, 1912.) By back-formation ex pauper.

paved, have one's mouth

. To be hardmouthed: coll: C.18. Swift, 'How can you drink your Tea so hot? Sure your mouth's pav'd.'

pavio(u)r's or pavio(u)rs' workshop

. The street: ca 1786–1890. Ex pavio(u)r, paver, a paving stone, extant in dial.

paw

. A hand: coll: from ca 1590. Chapman, 1605, ‘I...layd these pawes|Close on his shoulders’; Dryden; Scott. Jocularly ex paw, a foot. Also fore paw, the hand; hind paw, the foot: both recorded in 1785 (Grose) and ob. 2. Handwriting, esp. a signature: coll: C.18–20; ob. Ex sense 1.

paw

, v. To handle awkwardly, roughly, coarsely, indelicately: coll: 1604, T.M., ‘His palm shall be pawed with pence’; Farquhar; Tennyson. Extension of S.E. senses.

paw

, adj. Improper; scrabrous: ca 1660–1740: s. >, ca 1720, coll. Davenant, ‘A paw-word’—a stock phrase (gen. unhyphenated); Cibber. App. a variant of pah, ‘nasty, improper, unbecoming’, adj. use of pah, interjection. cf. PAW-PAW.

paw-case

. A glove: low (–1864); very ob. Ex PAW, n.

paw-paw

. Naughty; esp. improper; from ca 1720 (S.O.D.): s. >, ca 1820, coll; slightly ob. Grose, 2nd ed., ‘An expression used by nurses, &c., to children’. Ex PAW, adj.

paw-paw tricks

. Naughty tricks: nursery s. > coll: from ca 1785. Whence, 2 masturbation: low: C.19–20. Ex preceding.

paw-pawness

. Nastiness, impropriety: coll: 1828 (O.E.D.); ob. Ex PAW-PAW.

pawked-up stuff

. Bad horses or dogs; poor horsemen: sporting (–1909). Ex Scottish (and Northern dial.) pawk, a trick, an artifice.

pawl

. To check, stop, baffle: nautical coll: from ca 1820. Ex S.E. pawl, to secure or stop by means of a pawl. 2. v.i., to cease, esp. talking: nautical coll (–1867). Ex sense 1. Also spelt PALL, and, as in Smyth, paul. (Esp. pawl there!, stop arguing!)

pawl my capstan!, you

. You're too good for me!: naval: late C.19–20; ob. cf. PAWL, 1.

pawler

. A final argument or unanswerable objection: nautical coll: from ca 1820. Ex PAWL, 1. (Also spelled pauler.)

pawn

. Mast of trees: incorrect for pannage: ca 1660–1700. 2. A pawnbroker: s. or low coll: 1851, Mayhew; ob. By abbr.

pawn

. To slip away from (a person) and leave him to pay the reckoning: low (prob. orig. c.): ca 1670–1750. 2. In error for palm: from ca 1785. Marryat, 1832, ‘Pawnd them off on me’.

pawnee, pawny

, see PARNEE.

pax

. See PAX ON...! 2. A friend: from ca 1780: mostly Public Schools’. At first in good pax. ‘Winchester’ Wrench explains, rightly I think, as a pl of pack, though L. pax is clearly operative. cf.:

pax

! Silence!; truce!: schoolboys' (–1852). Kipling, in Stalky & Co., 1899, 'Pax, Turkey. I'm an ass.' Ex L. pax, peace.

pax, be good

. To be good friends: mostly Public Schools': 1781, Bentham, 'We may perhaps be good pax.' See PAX., 2, and cf. PAX! and PAX, MAKE.

pax!, have

. An elaboration of PAX!: schoolboys': from ca 1860.

pax, make

. To form a friendship: Public Schools': from ca 1840. See PAX, 2.

pax on (it!, him!, etc.)

. CONFOUND IT!, etc.: low coll: ca 1640–1730. Brome, 'Pax o' your fine Thing'; Addison. Corrupted POX.

paxwax; OCC. pax-wax, packwax

. The nuchal ligament: from late M.E.: S.E. until ca 1850, then coll and dial. A C.19–20 variant is paxy-waxy; a late C.17–early 18 one is fixfax, which is a sol. 2. The membrum virile: C.19–20.

pay

. A paymaster: naval coll: late C.19–20. Abbr. pay-bob: id.: id.

pay

, v. To beat, punish: from ca 1580: S.E. until ca 1750, then coll; from ca 1820, s. and dial. cf. PAY OVER..., PAY YOU ...; PAY OUT. 2. To deliver (e.g. a letter): Anglo-Chinese coll (–1864).

pay, be good

(etc). To be sure to discharge one's obligations, esp. one's debts: coll: 1727, Gay, 'No man is better pay than I am'; slightly ob.

pay?, what's to

. What's the matter, trouble?: coll: C.19–20. Ex lit. sense.

pay and no pitch hot or ready!, the devil to

. A nice mess!: nautical: late C.18–19. Punningly ex the paying, i.e. smearing, of a ship's bottom with pitch to stop a leak.

pay away

. To proceed; continue (v.i.), the v.t. form being pay it away. Coll: 1670, Eachard (of talking); in C.19–20, mainly nautical. cf. PAY IT OUT! 2. To fight manfully: mainly nautical s. (–1785) >, ca 1850, coll; ob. 3. To eat voraciously: nautical (–1785); almost †.

pay-bob

, see PAY, n.

pay down

. To send all heavy weights below: nautical coll: late C.19–20.

pay for one's whistle

. To pay excessively for one's fancy or whim: non-aristocratic: from ca 1870; ob.

pay into

. To PITCH INTO, to strike or punch vigorously: (low) coll (–1887). cf. PAY, v., 1.

pay it out

! Keep on talking!: nautical (–1887). Besant, ‘Pay it out. [I don’t care]—not...a rope’s yam.’ Ex paying out a rope.

pay off

, v. To throw (a thing) away: naval: late C.19–20. Ex paying off a crew.

Pay-off Wednesday

. A schoolboys’ term (–1864; ob.) for the Wednesday before Advent. H., 3rd ed., cites also Crib-Crust Monday and Tug-Mutton Tuesday.

pay one’s corner

. Pay one’s share, esp. for drinks; mostly Lancs. and Yorks.: late C.19–20.

pay out

. See PAY IT OUT. 2. To give (a person) his deserts: coll: 1863, Cowden Clarke, ‘They, in return, (as the vulgar phrase has it,) “pay him out”.’

pay out the slack of one’s gammon

. To relate (too) many stories: low (–1887). Prob. nautical at first.

pay over face and eyes, as the cat did the monkey

. To give a terrible beating about the head: a low c.p. (–1860); ob. Ex PAY YOU AS PAUL PAID THE EPHESIANS.

pay the bearer

. (Gen. as vbl n.) To cash a cheque against non-existent funds: bankclerks’: late C.19–20.

pay the shot

. To pay the bill: C.16–20: S.E. till C.19, then coll; ob. Hackwood, Old English Sports, 1907, ‘[they] called for their ale...and...expected the losers “to pay the shot”.’

pay up and look pretty, OCC. big . Gracefully to accept the inevitable: 1894, Sala (pretty); big is very, pretty slightly ob.

pay with a hook

*. To steal: Australian c.: from ca 1870. Brunton Stephens, in My Chinese Cook, 1873, ‘You bought them? Ah, I fear me, John,|You paid them with a hook.’ ?ex HOOK, to steal.

pay with pen-powder

. To write fair promises but fail to pay: semi-proverbial coll: ca 1630–80. John Clarke, 1639.

pay (or pay debts) with the fore-topsail

. To slip away to sea in debt: nautical: mid-C.19–20. Bowen. The military variant is with the drum.

pay you as Paul paid the Ephesians, I will

. Explained by the part gen. added: over the face and eyes and all the damned jaws. A low c.p.: ca 1780–1850. An elaboration of PAY!; cf. PAY OVER FACE AND EYES, the later form of the phrase.

pea

. The favourite; one's choice: low: 1888, Sporting Life, 11 Dec., 'Sweeny forced the fighting, and was still the pea when "Time!" was called'; ob. Ex this is the pea I choose in thimble-rigging. 2. The head: c.: from ca 1840; ob. 'No. 747'. Prob. ex pea-nut: cf. NUT, 1.

pea, pick (occ. do) a sweet

. To urinate: low (mostly among—or of—women): from ca 1860. Punning PEE. cf. PLUCK A ROSE.

pea-man or -rigger

, see THIMBLE-RIG.

pea-soup

. A French-Canadian: Canadian: late C.19–20. Ex the frequency of that dish on French-Canadian tables: late C.19–20.

pea-souper

. A dense yellowish fog: coll: 1890, J.Payn. Ex the next.

pea-soupy

. (Esp. of a dense, yellowish fog) resembling pea-soup: coll: 1860 (O.E.D.).

pea-whacker

. A nautical variant (late C.19–20) of PEA-SOUPER.

peace

, see PIECE.

peach

. A detective; esp. one employed by omnibus, and formerly by stage-coach, proprietors to check receipts: from ca 1835; ob. 2. An attractive girl or (gen., young) woman: orig. (1870s), U.S.; anglicized before 1889. Gen. a regular peach or a peach of a girl. cf. DAISY.

peach

, v. As v.t., it is S.E.=†to impeach; extant when it=to divulge, esp. in peach a word (1883, O.E.D.); ob. 2. v.i., to blab: coll: 1852, Thackeray, ‘The soubrette has peached to the amoureux.’ Ex: 3. v.i., to inform (against a person); turn informer: late C.16–20: S.E. (as in Shakespeare) in C.16–17; coll in C.18–mid-19 (as in Fielding, Hughes); s. in mid-C.19–20. Either absolute or with against or (up)on. Aphetic form of a-peche, to appeach. cf. BLOW THE GAB; give the OFFICE, n., 2; PUT AWAY, 3; SNITCH; SQUEAK; SQUEAL; TIP THE WINK; WHIDDLE.

peaching

, vbl n. Giving of information against a person: turning or being an informer: mid-C.15–20: S.E. until C.18, then coll.

peaching

, ppl adj. See preceding entry. C.17–20: S.E. till C.18, then coll. Moore, 1818, ‘The useful peaching rat’.

peacock

. A horse with a showy action: racing coll: 1869. cf. PEACOCK-HORSE.

peacock

, v. To pay (esp. on ladies and gen. brief) morning calls, at which beer was served: Anglo-Indian: from ca 1850; ob. Graphic, 17 March 1883. Prob. ex the spotless clothes worn by the visitors. 2. v.t. and i., to buy up the choicest land so as to render adjoining territory useless to others: Australia: from ca 1890; ob. Ex picking out the 'eyes' of the land: punning the ocelli on a peacock's feathers. cf. PEACOCKING.

peacock-horse

. A horse with showy mane and tail, and with a fine action: undertakers' coll (–1860). cf. PEACOCK, n.

peacocking

. The practice mentioned in PEACOCK, v., 2—than which it is much commoner. 1894, W.Epps, Land Systems of Australasia.

peacocking business

. A formal, esp. a ceremonial, parade: military: 1870, Daily News, 19 April. Ex the gorgeous display of a peacock.

peacock's tail, the

. Euclid, Bk III, proposition 8: C.16 coll. Ex the figure.

peak

*. Lace: c. (the O.E.D., however, considers it S.E.): mid-C.17–early 19. Ex S.E. peak, a lace ruff. 2. The nose: low: C.19–20.

Peak, send a wife to the (devil's arse-a-)

. To send a woman about her business when she proves vexing: ca 1663–5. Pepys, Diary, 19 Jan. 1663. Ex a courtier's wife being sent home to the Peak in Derbyshire. N.B., ihe devil's arse-a-, or in the, Peak, earlier Peaks arse, is the Peak Cavern.

peaked

. Sickly-looking; pinched, thin, esp. from illness: from ca 1830: mostly coll. Ex sharpness of features.

peaking

. Remnants of cloth: drapers', cloth-warehousemen's, from ca 1859. Presumably related to peak, to dwindle. cf. CABBAGE.

peakish

. Rather thin, pinched, sickly: from ca 1835: coll and dial. Perhaps ex PEAKED.

peaky, peeky

. Feeble, puny, sickly: coll and dial.: from ca 1850. Ruskin, ‘A poor peeky little sprouting crocus’. Suggested by PEAKED.

peaky (occ. peeky)-blinder

. A railwayman from Birmingham: railwaymen’s.: late C.19–early 20. Ex the peaked caps worn by Birmingham ‘toughs’: cf. the entry in the E.D.D.

peakyish

. Rather PEAKY: coll: 1853, ‘Cuthbert Bede’; ob. cf. PEAKISH.

peal

. The peal of the Chapel bell: Winchester College: from ca 1840: coll > j. > S.E. Mansfield. 2. ‘A custom in Commoners of singing out comments on Praefects at Cloister-time’, F. & H.: Winchester: mid-C.19–20; ob. 3. ibid., same period, ob.: ‘Cheers given on the last three Sundays of the Half for articles of dress, etc., connected with going home’, F. & H.

peal, ring (a person) a; occ. ring a peal in one’s ears

. To scold him: late C.18–19. cf. the dial. be or get into a peal, i.e. a temper.

pealer

. Incorrect form of PEELER.

peam(e)y

. A seller of peas: ca 1820–70. Sessions, 1833. A blend of ‘pea-merchant’.

pear

. To appear: C.14–20: S.E. till C.18, then coll and dial. Gen. pear. 2. To obtain money from both sides, e.g. from police for information, from underworld for a warning: c.: from ca 1850. Ex:

pear-making

*. To take bounties from more regiments than one: c.: ca 1810–60. ?the making of pairs, double-crossing.

pearl in a hail-storm, like a

. Impossible to find: non-aristocratic coll (–1887); slightly ob.

pearl on the nail, make a

. To drink: coll: C.17–18. Ray. Ex the (late C.16 +) lit. sense, to drop the moisture remaining in a cup, glass, etc., on to one's nail—a drinking custom recorded by Nashe.

pearlies

. (The singular hardly exists.) Pearl buttons, esp. on a coster's clothes: from ca 1885: low coll. Henley. 2. Teeth: non-aristocratic: late C.19–20.

peas

. Abbr. PEAS IN THE POT: from 1895, says Ware.

peas, as like as two

. Very similar indeed: late C.16–20: coll >, in C.19, S.E. In C.16–17, as...pease; Horace Walpole; Browning, in James Lee's Wife.

peas and cues

, see PS AND QS, MIND ONE'S.

peas in the pot

. Apt to be amorous: low London rhyming s. on hot: from ca 1890. 2. Also, hot in the gen. sense.

pease-field, go into the

. To fall asleep: coll: ca 1670–1800. Ray. A semi-proverbial pun on peace. cf. BEDFORDSHIRE.

pease-kill, make a

. (v.t. with of.) To squander lavishly: Scots coll: C.18–20. Likewise, a pease-kill=a very profitable matter.

pebble

. A person or animal difficult to handle: Australia: from ca 1890; slightly ob. ‘Boldrewood’, 1890, ‘A regular pebble’. From ca 1905, it has, esp. in the big towns, meant rather a FLASH fellow; a LARRIKIN. Ex his ‘hard-boiled’ ways (cf. HARD NUT). Also peb. 2. A familiar term of address: ca 1840–60. Moncrieff, The Scamps of London, 1843. Occ. pebbles.

pebble-beach

, v. To clean out of money: ca 1885–1905. Marshall in ‘Pomes’.

pebbles

. The human testicles: low: C.19–20; very ob. Suggested by STONES.

pebbles, my

. See PEBBLE, 2. Moncrieff, 1843.

pebbly beach, land on or sight a

. To be very short of money; faced with ruin: ca 1885–1905. Marshall in his 'Pomes' (sight a...). cf.:

pebbly-beached

. Penniless—or nearly so. ca 1885–1905. Ex STONY-BROKE.

pec

. Money; Eton College: C.19. Ex L. pecunia.

peck

*; in C.16–mid-17, occ. pek. Food; GRUB: from ca 1565: c. until C.19, then low s. Harman, Jonson, Centlivre, Moncrieff. cf. PECKAGE. 2. A business or concern, as 'a racing peck' (P.H.Emerson, Signor Lippo, 1893): low: ca 1870–1910. Perhaps sex sense 1.

peck

, v.i. and v.t. To eat: mid-C.16–20; c. until C.19, then s. till ca 1860, then coll. Copland; Egan; Dickens, ‘I can peck as well as most men.’ Ex a bird’s pecking; ?cf., however, Welsh Gypsy pek, to bake or roast. 2. To pitch forward; (esp. of a horse) to stumble: coll (mid-C.19–20) and dial.: from ca 1770. Ex †S.E. v.i. peck, to incline.

peck

 combinations, peck being the second member: gere-peck, a turd, C.17–19; grunting-peck, pork, C.17–20, ob.; ruff-peck, bacon, C.17–19; rum-peck, good eating, an excellent meal: late C.17–early 19.

peck, off one’s

. Off one’s appetite: c.: C.18–19.

peck-alley

. The throat: low: C.19–20. Ex PECK, n.

peck and booze or tipple

. Meat and drink: low (BOOZE orig. c.): C.18–20, the former; C.19–20, the latter. Mrs Delany, 1732. cf. BUB and GRUB and:

peck and perch

. Food and lodging: low (?orig. c.): 1828, O.E.D.; slightly ob.

peck-kidg

*, see:

peckage

*; occ. peckidge. Food; foodsupply: c.: C.17–18. Rowlands, B.E. Ex PECK, n. and v., 1.

pecker

. The appetite: mid-C.19–20. Ex PECK, v., 1. Possibly ex the next sense. 2. Resolution, courage: 1848 (S.O.D.); ‘Cuthbert Bede’, 1853, ‘Keep up your pecker, old fellow.’ Perhaps pecker implicitly= beak (hence, head), app. ex the alert sparrow. 3. (With an adj.) an eater, esp. a good or rare pecker: from ca 1860. Ex PECK, v., 1. 4. The penis: low: C.19–20; ob. A pun on COCK?

Peckham, all holiday at

, see ALL HOLIDAY.

Peckham, go to

. To go to, sit down to, a meal: jocular coll: C.19. Bee, 1823; Halliwell.

peckidge

*, see PECKAGE.

peckish

. Hungry: 1785, Grose: in C.18, perhaps c.: C.19, (orig. low) s. George Moore, 1894, 'I feel a bit peckish, don't you?' Ex PECK, n.

pecky

. Choppy (sea, as in Blackmore); (of a horse) inclined to stumble. Coll: from ca 1860, though unrecorded before 1864. 2. (Esp. of kisses) like a bird's peck: coll: 1886, F.C.Philips, 'Flabby, pecky kisses'.

pecnoster

. The penis: low: C.19–20, ob. Ex PECKER, 4; punning paternoster.

peculiar

. A mistress: coll: late C.17–19. Ex the S.E. sense of the adj.: private. 2. A member of the Evangelical party, ca 1837–8: coll nickname at Oxford. Newman. 3. (Of a bowled ball) odd; peculiar to the bowler: cricket coll: 1864; very ob.

peculiarly

. More than usually: coll: from ca 1890. Helen Harris, 1891, ‘The Arabs regard the spot as peculiarly sacred.’ By confusion with S.E. particularly, very.

ped

. A professional runner, walker: 1863, Anon., Tyneside Songs. Abbr. pedestrian.

peddler’s French

. See PEDLAR’S FRENCH. (peddling French is a rare C.16 variant.)

pedestrian digits

. The legs: schoolboys’: ca 1890–1910.

Pedlar

. The ‘inevitable’ nickname of men surnamed Palmer: mostly military: late C.19–20. Ex the medieval palmers or pilgrims.

pedlar’s or peddler’s French

. Underworld slang: 1530, Palsgrave: in C.16, c. or low s.; C.17, s.; C.18, coll; C.19–20, S.E. but long very ob. 2. Hence, any unintelligible jargon: late C.17–early 19: coll.

pedlar’s news

. Stale news: coll: C.19. cf. PIPER’S NEWS.

pedlar’s pad, OCC. horse, pony

. A walking-stick: from ca 1780: coll (†) and dial. (ob.). cf. PENANG LAWYER, contrast SHANKS’S MARE.

pee

. A urination: coll, mostly nursery: C.19–20. Ex:

pee

, v. To make water: coll, esp. nursery: 1788, Picken, (of a cat) ‘He never pee’d his master’s floor.’ A softened perversion of PISS.

pee and kew

, see P AND Q.

pee-pee, do

. A variant of PEE, v.: children’s coll: late C.19–20. cf.:

pee-wee

. Either sexual organ: nursery: C.19–20. Prob. ex the v. 2. A small marble: schoolboys’: ca 1880–1910. ?ex its yellowish colour.

pee-wee

, v. To make water: nursery: C.19–20. An elaboration of PEE, v.

peechy

; rarely peachy. Soon; presently: Regular Army coll: late C.19–20. Hindustani pichhe.

peek-a-boo

. A girl's blouse with perforations: ca 1880–1914.

peeky

, see PEAKY.

peel

. To undress: v.i., 1785, Grose. 2. Hence, v.t., to strip, 1820, 'Corcoran' Reynolds. Both pugilistic j. > gen. coll. Ex peeling fruit. cf. PEELED.

peel eggs

. To stand on ceremony: s. or low coll: from ca 1860; ob.

Peel (occ. peelee) Garlic

, see PILGARLIC.

peel off

. To obtain money by a Stock Exchange transaction: financial: from ca 1860. Ware.

peel one's best end

. To effect intromission: low: C.19–20.

peeled

. Naked: coll: 1820.

peeler, Peeler

. (cf. BOBBY.) A member of the Irish constabulary: 1817, Parliamentary Debates; †by 1860 as a distinct term. 2. Hence, any policeman: 1829, Blackwood's Magazine: s. > coll. Ex Mr (later Sir) Robert Peel, Secretary for Ireland, 1812–18. 3. One ready to strip for a fight: boxing: 1852, Anon., L'Allegro. Ex PEEL.

peenicker pawnee (or -ie)

. A frequent variant of PINNICKY PAWNEE.

peep

*. To sleep: c.: late C.17–mid-18. On sleep.

peep-bo

. Bo-peep: coll: 1818, Alfred Burton; 1837, Dickens, 'A perpetual game of peep-bo'.

peep o' day tree

. 'Providential stage machinery', e.g. a tree whereby escapes and/or rescues are effected: theatrical coll: 1862; ob. Ware. Ex such a tree in Peep o' Day, an extremely successful piece produced at the Lyceum Theatre in 1862.

peep-by

, see PEEPY-BY.

peep-o(h)

! (To and by children.) Look at me!: here I am!, esp. as one emerges from hiding: coll: C.19–20; perhaps centuries earlier.

peeper

*. A looking-glass: c.: from ca 1670; ob. Coles, 1676. Also, as in B.E., peepers. Ex peep, v. 2. A spy-glass: c.: late C.18–early 19. 3. An eye: from ca 1690: c. >, ca 1750, low s. Gen. in pl. cf. GLAZIER, 2; GLIMS; OGLES. 4. In pl, spectacles: c.: C.19–20; ob. 5. (Almost always pl.) A policeman: late C.19–20.

peeper, single

. A one-eyed person: late C.18–mid-19: low (?orig. c.).

peepers

. See PEEPER, 1, 4. 2. painted peepers, peepers in mourning: black eyes: C.19–20; ob. Egan, 1818, ‘Peepers... taken measure of for a suit of mourning’; H., 1860, ‘Painted peepers...’ Pugilistic in origin, mainly such in use.

peeping

*. Drowsy, sleepy: c.: mid-C.17– early 19. cf. PEEPY.

peeping Tom

. An inquisitive person: 1785, Grose: coll >, ca 1850, S.E. Ex the Coventry legend of Lady Godiva.

peepsies

. The pan-pipes: street-performers’ s., almost j.: late C.19–20; ob.

peepy

*. Sleepy: late C.17–20: c. >, ca 1750, s. >, ca 1820, coll (ob.) and dial. Ex PEEP. cf. PEEPING. 2. Given to peeping: coll: 1898, M.P.Shiel, ‘Peepy little bewitching eyes’.

peepy-by, go to

. To fall asleep: from ca 1840. Also go to peep-by: from ca 1850; ob. Both, coll and dial.
Ex PEEPY.

peer

. To make (a man) a peer; ennoble: coll: 1753. 2. To be circumspect: c.: late C.18–mid-19. Ex PEERY, adj.

peery

*, n. (Gen. there's a peery.) A being observed, discovered: c.: late C.18–mid-19. Grose, 1785, 'There's a peery, 'tis snitch, We are observed, there's nothing to be done.' Ex:

peery

*; occ., in C.17–mid-18, spelt peerie; adj. Sly: c.: late C.17–20; extremely ob. Ex to peer. cf. LEARY. 2. Shy, timid, suspicious: from ca 1670; slightly ob. in last, †by 1850 in first and second nuance. Coles and B.E. give it as c., O.E.D. as S.E.; almost certainly, until mid-C.18, either c. or low s. 3. Hence, inquisitive: from ca 1810 (ob.): low.

peeter

*. See PETER. Coles's and B.E.'s spelling.

peety

. Cheerful: C.18: c., says F. & H., but is it? Perhaps ex peart.

peg

. A drink (esp. of brandy and sodawater): Anglo-Indian: 1860, H., 2nd ed., is app. the earliest record; 1864, Trevelyan, '...According to the favourite derivation, because each draught is a "peg" in your coffin'; actually ex peg as one of the pins in a drinking-vessel. 2. A blow, esp. a straight or a thrusting one: s. and dial.: 1748, Smollett. 3. A wooden leg: coll: 1833, M.Scott. 4. A tooth (esp. a child's): late C.16–20: S.E. till C.19, then dial. and nursery coll. 5. A shilling: Scottish c.: 1839, Brandon. 6. A cricket stump: coll: 1891, W.G.Grace. 7. See OLD PEG. 8. A, or the most, telling point in a play: theatrical coll: 1884. Ware, 'Something upon which the actors, or more probably an actor, can build up a scene'.

peg

, v. (See PEG INTO; PEG IT; PEG IT INTO; PEG OUT; PEG UP.) 2. drive: 1819, Moore, 'I first was hir'd to peg a Hack' (i.e. a hackney-coach); ob. 3. (Also with away, off, along) to move, or go, vigorously or hastily: dial. >, ca 1855, coll. Le Fanu, 1884, 'Down the street I pegged like a madman.' 4. To work persistently, 'hammer' away; coll: C.19–20. Esp. PEG AWAY, in eating, and PEG ALONG. 5. To tittle: 1874, H., 5th ed. Ex PEG, n., 1. 6. (Gen. peg up or down.) To copulate, v.t., occ. v.i.: low coll: from ca 1850. 7. v.t., to fix the market price of: Stock Exchange: from ca 1880: s. Gen. as PEG UP. 8. To starve (v.i.): Australian: late C.19–20.

peg, old

, see OLD PEG.

peg, on the

. Under arrest. 2. Fined; having had one's pay stopped. Both military: late C.19–20.

peg, put in the

. To stop giving credit: coll ex dial.: late C.19–20. 'A peg of wood above the latch inside...effectually locked it,' Dr Bridge.

peg, put (oneself) on the

. To be careful, esp. as to liquor, behaviour, etc.: late C.19–20 military; ob. Perhaps suggested by the preceding entry as well as by PEG, ON THE. cf. PIN, KEEP IN THE. 2. put (another)... To arrest: military: late C.19–20. See PEG, ON THE.

peg a hack

. See PEG, v., 2. 2. 'To mount the box of a hackney coach, drive yourself, and give the Jarvey a holiday': c.: ca 1820–50. Egan's Grose.

peg along

. To 'hammer' away: coll: mid-C.19–20. See PEG, v., 3, and cf. the equivalent:

peg away

, v.i.; peg away at, occ. and ob. on. Coll: from ca 1825. Dickens, 1837, ‘...The breakfast. “Peg away, Bob,” said Mr Allen encouragingly.’ Ex ‘industrious hammering in of pegs’, W. See preceding entry.

peg down

, see PEG, v., 6.

peg into

. To hit; let drive at: coll: from ca 1880. Ex PEG IT INTO.

peg (or nail) (in)to one’s coffin, add or drive a

. To drink hard: from ca 1860; ob. Ex the old peg-tankards: cf. PEG LOWER; PEG TOO LOW.

peg it

. A variant, from ca 1860, of PEG, v., 2. 2. Inseparable part of:

peg it into

. To hit: 1834, Dowling, ‘You peg it into him, and pray don’t spare him’: coll; ob. cf. PEG INTO and PEG IT.

peg-leg

. A person with a wooden leg: (low) coll: C.19–20. Ex S.E. sense, a wooden leg.

peg lower, go a

. To drink to excess: coll: C.19–20; very ob.

peg out

. To be ruined: ca 1880–1910. Ex: 2. To die: ?orig. U.S. (1852); certainly anglicized by 1860. Prob. ex cribbage, where pegs are used to keep score; whoever pegs out first, wins. “‘My uncle’s pegged out,” he said. “His game of cribbage is done.”’ Morley Roberts, Maurice Quain, 1897. 3. To go to—and use—the w.c.: a certain Oxfordshire girls’ school: (?) late C.19–20. Ex the feminine posture involved and its resemblance to an old-fashioned clothes-peg.

peg-puff

. An old woman dressing young: Scots coll: from ca 1810; ob. (Perhaps dial.)

peg too low, a

. Tipsy: ca 1870–1915. 2. Hence, (fig.) depressed: from ca 1880.

Peg Trantum's, gone to

. Dead: from ca 1690. †by 1860. Occ. Peg Crancum's (Ned Ward). Note that in East Anglia Peg Trantum is extant for a hoyden.

peg up

. See PEG, v., 6 and 7. (Pall Mall Gazette, 8 April 1882, 'Arbitrarily raising prices...“pegging prices up”, it is called.'

pegged out, be

. To be notorious: low: 1886, Tit-Bits, 31 July; ob.

pegger

. A hard drinker: ca 1873–1915: coll. Ex PEG, a dram, and the v. cf.:

pegging

. Tippling: from ca 1870; ob.

peggy

. A thin poker bent for the raking of fires: coll: from ca 1860; ob. cf. CURATE; RECTOR. 2. (Gen. Peggy.) ‘A hand... called upon to do all the odd jobs in a watch’: nautical: C.19. Bowen. Ex his ‘feminine’ duties. 3. (Gen. pl.) A tooth: children’s coll: late C.19–20. Ex PEG, n., 4. 4. A man with only one leg: navvies’ nickname: ca 1860–1910. (D.W.Barrett, 1880.)

pego

. ‘The penis of man or beast’, Grose: C.18–mid-19. Ned Ward, 1709. Ex Gr. πηγή, a spring, a fountain.

pegs than square holes, there are always more round

. There are always more applicants than jobs: coll: late C.19–20; ob. Ex S.E. round peg in a square hole (or square peg...).

pek

, see PECK.

pelf

. Ill-gotten money: workmen’s (–1887). Implied by Baumann. Ex S.E. pelf, money.

pelfry

*. The booty obtained by picking locks: c.: late C.16–early 17. Greene, 1592. Ex S.E. pelf.

pell

*, see PAL.

pelt

. The human skin: coll (jocular) and dial.: C.17–20. Rowley, ca 1605, ‘Flay off her wicked skin, and stuff the pelt with straw.’ 2. Hence, a man: Yorkshire and Pembrokeshire s., not dial.: 1882.

pelt

, v. To sew thickly: tailors’: from ca 1860. Prob. suggested by pelts, garments made of furry skins.

pelter

. A heavy shower: coll: 1842, Barham, ‘The rain...kept pouring... What I’ve heard term’d a regular pelter.’ Ex the weather v.i. 2. Anything large: coll (–1892) ex dial. (–1851); ob. Milliken. 3. A whoremonger: tramps’ c.: from ca 1850; ob.

pelter, out for a

. In a very bad temper: proletarian: from ca 1860; ob.

peltis-hole

. A Scots coll pejorative addressed to women: late C.16–17. i.e. pelts-hole, i.e. tan-pit.

pempë

. An imaginary object for which a newcomer is sent: Winchester College: C.19–20; ob. Ex πέμπε τὸν μῶρον πρότερον, send the fool further; i.e. keep the idiot moving! cf. oil of STRAP-’EM.

pen

. The male member: late C.16–20 low; ob. (cf. PENCIL.) Ex shape of a pen + abbr. penis. See next entry. 2. A penitentiary; a prison: low, almost c.: from ca 1820. 3. A threepenny piece: Colonial, says F. & H.; but which Dominion?: app. ca 1870–1910. Origin? 4. The female pudend: low: mid-C.19–20. Properly of sows. 5. (As n. or v.) Stink: low: late C.19–20. Abbr. of PEN AND INK.

pen, have no more ink in the

. To be temporarily impotent from exhaustion: low: late C.16–17. e.g. in Weever’s Lusty Juventus. Ex PEN, 1.

pen and ink

. A stink; rhyming s.: from ca 1858. 2. Hence, to stink: id.: from ca 1870. 3. To kick up a STINK (n., 2), i.e. to yell (with pain): Cockney: late C.19–20.

pen-driver

. A clerk; occ. a writer: coll: from ca 1885; very ob. Suggested by QUILL-DRIVER.

pen-gun

; crack like a p.g. To chatter. Scots coll: C.19–20. Scott. Occ. penguin. (A toy gun made from a quill.)

penal

. A sentence or a term of penal servitude: coll: from ca 1890. 2. See PENALS, 2.

penals

. Lines as punishment: mid-C.19–20: Shrewsbury School s. >, by 1890, coll >, by 1900, j. Desmond Coke, The Bending of a Twig, 1906. 2. Hence, penal is a set of 25 lines: from ca 1870: s. > coll >, by 1900, j. ibid.

penance-board

*. A pillory: c.: late C.17– early 19.

Penang lawyer

. The stem of a species of palm much used for walking-sticks, hence a walking-stick so made: col: from ca 1820; ob. Prob. Penang liyar (the wild areca), corrupted. 2. Whence a bludgeon: Singapore: from ca 1870.

penbank

*. A beggar's can: c.: C.18. Bailey. Origin?

pencil

. The male member: low: late C.19–20. Ex shape. cf. PEN, 1.

pencil, knight of the

. A bookmaker: the turf: 1885, Punch, 7 March; ob. cf. PENCILLER.

pencil-fever

. The laying of odds against a horse certain to lose, esp. after it has at first been at short odds: the turf: from ca 1872; ob. Also market-fever and milk-fever. Ex the pencilling of the horse's name in betting-books. Whence PENCILLER.

pencil-in dates

. To make engagements to perform: theatrical coll: 1896; slightly ob.

pencil, open, lost, and found

. Ten pound (sol. for ten pounds sterling): rhyming s.: from ca 1870; ob.

pencil-shover

. A journalist; printers' (–1887); ob. On QUILL-DRIVER.

penciller

. A bookmaker's clerk: the turf; Daily News, 24 Oct. 1879. See PENCIL-FEVER. cf.:

pencilling fraternity

. Bookmakers, collectively: the turf: from ca 1890; ob.

pendulum

. The penis: low: C.19–20; ob. cf. DINGLE-DANGLE.

pene(r)th

, see PENN'ORTH.

Peninsular

. A veteran of the Peninsular War: coll: Quarterly Review, 1888, but prob. in use from ca 1840. Ob. by 1900, †by 1910. 2. (Also called a moll tooler, H., 1st ed.) A female pickpocket: c.: (–1859); very ob.

penman

*. A forger: c.: late C.19–20.

pennam

*. A rare variant of PANNAM. pennel, see PINNEL.

pen(n)e(r)th

. C.16–17 forms of PENN'ORTH.

pennif

. A five-pound note: back sl: 1862. Cornhill Magazine.

penniless bench, sit on the

. To be povertystricken: coll: late C.16–19. Massinger, ‘Bid him bear up, he shall not|Sit long on penniless bench.’ Ex a certain London seat so named. cf. S.E. Pierce Penniless.

penn’orth, pennorth, pen’orth

; penn’worth. Abbr. pennyworth: coll: resp. C.17, C.18–20, C.18–19 (H.); C.17.cf. PEN(N)E(R)TH; PENWORTH.

pennorth, take a

, esp. in the imperative. To go away: Cockney: late C.19. Of fresh air? Or ex PENNORTH OF CHALK?

penn’orth of bread

. Head: navvies’ rhyming s.: ca 1860–1910. (D.W.Barrett, Navvies, 1880.)

penn’orth (or ball) of chalk

. A walk: late C.19–20.

pennorth o(f) treacle

. A charming girl: low London: 1882–ca 1912. Ex JAM, 2.

penny, clean as a

. Completely: coll (and dial.): 1820–1910. cf. the ‘brightness= completeness’ semantics of clean as a whistle.

penny, turn and wind the

. To make the most of one’s money: coll: late C.17–18. An elaboration of S.E. get or turn a or the penny, to endeavour to live; hence to make money.

penny-a-liar

. A jocular variation (–1887; ob.), recorded by Baumann, of:

penny-a-liner

. A writer of paragraphs at a cheap rate, orig. a penny a line; hence, a literary hack: 1834, Ainsworth: journalistic coll >, ca 1905, S.E.

penny-a-mile

. A hat: rhyming s. (on TILE): from ca 1870. 2. Hence, head: late C.19–20.

penny a pound

; often merely penny. Ground: rhyming s.: late C.19–20.

penny(-)awful

. An occ. variant of PENNY DREADFUL: ca 1875–1910.

penny-boy

. A boy haunting cattle-markets in the hope of some droving: coll: C.19. Because paid a penny a beast. Also ANKLE-BEATER.

penny(-)buster

. A small new loaf, or a large bun or roll, costing one penny: ca 1870–1910. H., 1874. But a penny starver is a stale one or an unusually small one (†by ca 1910); orig., however, a starver meant a halfpenny loaf, or, occ., a bun: H., 1874.

penny death-trap

. A penny paraffinlamp: low London: 1897–ca 1915. Made in Germany, these lamps caused numerous deaths.

penny(-)dreadful

. A sensational story or (†by 1910) print: coll: H., 1874; Pall Mall Gazette, 17 Nov. 1892, ‘A Victim of the Penny Dreadful’, title. Occ. penny †awful or (ob.) horrible; cf. BLOOD-AND-THUNDER TALES; SHILLING SHOCKER; (U.S.) dime novel.

penny-farthing

. An old-fashioned, very high bicycle with a large and a small wheel: coll: from ca 1885; ob.

penny for your thought(s)

. A c.p. addressed to one preoccupied: from ca 1540. Heywood’s Proverbs, 1546; Greene; Swift. The -s form, which is not found before C.17, > gen. in C.18; a penny for ’em is late C.19–20.

penny(-)gaff

. A low-class theatre, music-hall: 1851, Mayhew; slightly ob. Also penny-room. Ex GAFF, 6.

penny gush

. ‘Exaggerated mode of writing English frequently seen in a certain London daily paper’: journalistic coll: ca 1880–5. Ware.

penny hop

. A cheap (country) dance: C.19.

penny-horrible

. A PENNY DREADFUL: coll: 1899, Daily News, 13 June; ob. cf. PENNY AWFUL.

penny lattice-house

. A low ale-house: coll: C.18–early 19.

penny loaf

*. A man afraid to steal: c. (–1909). Lit., one who would prefer to live on a penny loaf.

penny locket

. A pocket: rhyming s. (–1909).

penny or paternoster

. Pay or prayers; only in no paternoster, no penny (no work, no pay): proverbial coll: mid-C.16–early 18. Heywood.

penny pick

. A cigar: London: ca 1838–45. Ware derives ex Dickens's Pickwick: ?pick-wick.

penny plain and tuppence coloured

, originally (as in R.L.Stevenson's title for an essay published 1880) a penny plain and twopence coloured, has, since ca 1890, been a c.p. Meaning 'plain or fancy', the phrase seems to have, at first, referred to cheap fiction, costing one penny with plain jacket and, with coloured-picture jacket, twopence.

penny pots

. Pimples on a tippler's face: low: from ca 1850; ob.

penny puzzle

. A sausage: low: ca 1883–1914. Costing a penny, 'it is never found out'.

penny silver, think one's

. To think well of oneself: coll: late C.16–early 18. Gabriel Harvey; Breton; Fuller, 1732. In early quotations, gen. good silver.

penny(-)starver

. See PENNY BUSTER. 2. A penny cigar: low (–1909); ob.

penny stinker

. A bad cigar: mostly Cockney: from ca 1880. ?ex last entry, 2.

penny-swag

. A man who sells articles at a penny a lot in the streets: Cockneys' (–1851); ob. Mayhew. i.e. a 'swagbarrowman' (see SWAG-BARROW) specializing in sales at one penny.

penny to bless oneself with, not a

. No, or extremely little, money: from ca 1540: coll >, by 1700, S.E. (Semi-proverbial: see Heywood's Proverbs.)

penny toff

. 'The lowest description of toff—the cad imitator of the follies of the jeunesse dorée' (Ware): London: ca 1870–1914.

penny-white

. Ugly but rich: coll: late C.17–18. (Rarely of men.)

pennyworth, Robin Hood's

. Anything sold at a robber's price, i.e. far too cheaply: coll: C.17, and prob. earlier. cf. the C.19 proverb, pirates may make cheap pennyworths of their pillage.

pennyworth out of, fetch one's

. To make a person earn his wages, its cost, etc.: coll: late C.17–18. A variation on a pennyworth for one's penny.

pen'orth

, see PENN'ORTH.

pension!, not for a

. Not for all the money in the world: lower classes' coll (–1887); ob.

pensioner

*. A harlot's bully: from ca 1810: c. > low s.; ob. Prob. an abbr. of the †S.E. petticoat-pensioner or petticoatsquire, i.e. any male keep. 2. A blind musician who has a regular round: London itinerant musicians' (–1861).

penthouse-nab

*. A broad-brimmed hat: c.: late C.17–early 19. B.E. (pentice); Grose.

penwiper

. A handkerchief: from ca 1860. 2. The female pudend: low: from ca 1850; ob. cf. PEN, 1.

penworth, pen'worth

. Coll abbr. of pennyworth: C.16–17, C.17. cf. PENN'ORTH, etc.

people

. In people say, etc., it is coll: C.19–20. J.H.Newman, in a letter of 1843, 'People cannot understand a man being in a state of doubt.' 2. Coll too in my, your (etc.) people, my or your relatives, esp. the members of the family to which one belongs: 1851, Carlyle, 'Mrs Sterling had lived...with his Father's people.' cf. PEOPLE-IN-LAW. 3. Thieves: c. (–1887); ob.

people-in-law

. One's husband's or wife's relatives, esp. parents, brothers, sisters: coll: from ca 1890.

pepin

. A C.17 form of PIPPIN, 1.

pepper

, v.t. To put in the accents of a Greek exercise: university: from ca 1880. Ex sprinkling with black pepper. 2. v.t., to HUMBUG, to KID: from ca 1870; ob. Ex throw pepper in the eyes of. The v.i. form is use the pepper-box. 3. To SALT (v., 5) a gold-mining claim: Australian: since ca 1860.

pepper, snuff

. To take offence: coll: C.17. On take PEPPER IN THE NOSE.

Pepper Alley or pepper alley

. Rough treatment, esp. hard punching, as in the Sporting Magazine, 1820, 'His mug... had paid a visit to "pepper alley"': pugilistic; ob. Punningly on the name of a London alley. cf. GUTTER-LANE.

pepper-box

. A revolver: ca 1840–1910. (Revolver invented in 1835.) 2. A ship's lighthouse at the break of the forecastle: C.19 nautical. Also, a shore lighthouse: late C.19–20 nautical (now ob.). Ex the shape.

pepper-box, use the

, see PEPPER, v., 1.

pepper-castor (occ. -er)

. A revolver: 1889; ob. Suggested by PEPPER-BOX.

pepper in the nose, take

. To take offence, grow angry: C.16–mid-18: coll till C.17, then S.E. cf. snuff PEPPER.

pepper on one's nut, have . To be punched on the head: boxers' (–1887); ob.

pepper-proof

. (Not, of course, immune to, but) free from venereal disease: low coll: late C.17–18. cf. PEPPERED OFF.

peppered, be

. To have laid a large stake: turf: from ca 1870. 'He was peppered in one dangerous quarter alone to the extent of three or four thousand pounds,' quoted by B. & L.

peppered off

. 'Damnably Clapt or Poxst', B.E.: low coll: late C.17–18. (†S.E. peppered.) cf. PEPPER-PROOF.

peppermint in one's speech, have a

. To stammer: coll, mostly Cockney: from ca 1890. i.e., an impediment.

pepperminter

. A seller of peppermint water: London lower-class coll (–1851); very ob.

pepst

. Tipsy: s. or coll: ca 1570–90. Kendall, 1577, quoted by Nares. Origin?

per usual (, as)

, see USUAL.

perambulator

. A costermonger: ca 1860–1900: s. Perhaps ineligible: F. & H. not convincing.

perch

. A small and gen. high seat on a vehicle: coll: from ca 1840. 2. Death: C.18. Ex such phrases as knock off the PERCH; drop the PERCH.

perch

, v. To die: ca 1880–1915. Sporting Times, 3 Aug. 1886. cf. next entry. Ex hop or drop the PERCH.

perch, be off to

. To go to bed: from ca 1860; ob.

perch, drop or fall or hop the

; perch, pitch or tip or turn over the. To die: first three, late C.18–20, all slightly ob.; the fourth, late C.16–17, e.g. in Hakluyt; the fifth, C.18 (Ozell's Rabelais, Richardson); the sixth, late C.16–17 (Nashe). Scott, The Pirate, 'I always thought him a d—d fool ...but never such a consummate idiot as to hop the perch so sillily.' cf. HOP THE TWIG. 2. Also, though rarely, hop the perch, to be defeated: same periods.

perch, knock off the

. To perturb; defeat; kill: from ca 1850. Also throw over the perch, C.16–17, as in Fulwell, 1568; turn over the perch, C.17–18, as in facetious Tom Brown; occ. give a turn over the. The second and third senses > coll.

perch, pitch or tip or turn over the

, see PERCH, DROP...

percher

. A dying person: C.18–19. Bolingbroke, 1714. Ex PERCH, DROP..., etc. 2. A Latin cross made horizontally against the name of an absentee: Winchester College (–1891).

peremptory

. Utter, unmitigated; complete: coll: late C.16–17. Ben Jonson. Prob. ex:

peremptory

, adv. Entirely, absolutely: coll: C.16–17. Jonson.

perfect

. (Mostly pejorative.) Sheer; unmitigated; utter: mostly coll: 1611, Shakespeare, ‘His complexion is perfect gallows.’ The phrase perfect nonsense is late C.19–20 coll.

perfect lady

. A harlot: from ca 1880; slightly ob. Origin prob. anecdotal, as Ware says.

perforate

. To take the virginity of: low: C.19–20.

perform

, v.i. To copulate: low: C.19–20. 2. To make a (considerable) fuss, to GO ON ABOUT: C.20: s. > coll.

perform on

, v.t. To cheat, deceive: low: from ca 1870.

performer

. A whoremonger: low: C.19–20.

perger

, see PURGER.

period, girl of the

. A modern girl: Society coll: ca 1880–1900. Coined by Mrs Lynn Linton, who fulminated in this strain in a series of articles published by the Saturday Review.

perish, do a

. Nearly to die from lack of water: Western Australia (–1894).

perishable cargo

. Fruit; slaves: nautical: ca 1730–1800. cf. LIVE LUMBER.

perisher

. A short-tailed coat: from ca 1880; ob. 2. An extreme, e.g. in drunkenness or betting: 1888, ‘Rolf Boldrewood’, ‘Then he...went in an awful perisher... and was never sober day or night the whole [month].’ Ob. 3. Hence, pejoratively of a person: a good early example: ‘You bleeding little perisher’, Sessions, April 1898. This sense probably goes back at least as far as 1850: cf. ‘He had no name. In the thaw they buried him in the pass, and his epitaph was some poor bloody perisher. 1864’: Ruth Park, One-a-Pecker, Two-a-Pecker, 1958, concerning the Otago goldrush of the 1860s.

perishing

. Very cold: Cockneys’: late C.19–20.

periwinkle

. The female pudend: low: mid-C.19–20; ob.

perk

; perks. Perquisites: (the singular, rare, ca 1890–1910;) 1887, Fun, 30 March, ‘The perks, etc., attached to this useful office are not what they were in the “good old times”.’ In Scots, perks is recorded as early as 1824 (E.D.D.).

perk up

. To recover health or good spirits: coll and dial.: from ca 1650. Ex †S.E. perk, to carry oneself smartly, jauntily.

perking

. ‘Any pert, forward, silly Fellow’, B.E.: coll: late C.17–mid-18. Ex adj.

Perkins, perkins

. Beer: ca 1860–90: ‘dandy or affected shortening’, H., 1864. Ex the better-known s. phrase, BARCLAY (AND) PERKINS, perhaps influenced by S.E. perkin, weak cider or perry. cf. PURKO.

perks

, see PERK.

Perks, Board of

. Board of Works: jocular: 1889, Pall Mall Gazette, 27 Sept., as title: ‘Provincial Boards of Perks’.

permanent

. A permanent boarder: hotels, boarding-houses: late C.19–20: coll.

permanent pug

. A fighting man around the door of the premises: journalists', printers', tavern-frequenters': late C.19–20; ob.

pernicated dude

. A swaggering dandy: Canadian: ca 1885–1910. B. & L.

peroney (or -nee)

. For each man; hence, for each person: Parlary, esp. among buskers: mid-C.19–20. Probably an 'easement' or, less likely, a deliberate distortion of per OMEE, per man. cf. a song current among buskers: 'Nantee dinarly; the omee of the carsey|Says due bionc peroney, manjaree on the cross.|We'll all have to scarper the letty in the morning,|Before the bonee omee of the carsey shakes his doss.'

peroon

. For each, apiece; hence, each: Parlary: mid-C.19–20. Lit. 'for one': Italian per uno. cf. the entry preceding this.

perpendicular

. A buffet meal; a party at which the majority of the guests have to stand: 1871, 'M.Legrand', '...An invitation to a Perpendicular, as such entertainments are styled.' 2. Coition between two persons standing upright: low: mid-C.19–20. Also a KNEE-TREMBLER, an UPRIGHT, 2. Contrast with a HORIZONTAL.

perp(endicular)!, strike me

. A Cockney asseveration: late C.19–20; ob.

perpetrate

. To make (e.g. a pun); do (anything treated as shocking): coll: 1849, C.Brontë, 'Philip induced...his sisters to perpetrate a duet.'

perpetration

. The doing of something very bad, or atrociously performed: coll: from ca 1850. (Gen. a humorous affectation by the narrator.)

perpetual staircase

*. The treadmill: c.: late C.19–20. Also everlasting staircase.

perspiry

. Full of, covered with, perspiration: coll: 1860.

persuader

. A spur, gen. in pl: from ca 1786; ob. Grose, 2nd ed., ‘The kiddey clapped his persuaders to his prad, but the traps boned him.’ 2. A pistol: 1841, Leman Rede; slightly ob, 3. Hence, any other weapon: from ca 1845, but anticipated by Marryat in 1833 (‘three rattans twisted into one’, to enforce submission). 4. A whip: coachmen’s (–1887). 5. A JEMMY or other burglar’s tool: c.: from ca 1850; ob. cf.:

persuading plate

*. c., from ca 1880; ob. ‘An iron disk used in forcing safes: it revolves on a pivot, and is fitted with a cutting point,’ F. & H.

persuasion

. Nationality, sex; sort, kind; description: 1864 (S.O.D.). ‘A dark little man...of French persuasion’. Ex persuasion, religious belief, opinion.

pert as a pearmonger, as

. Very cheerful: from ca 1560: coll till C.19, then dial. Harding, 1564; Gay; Swift. Dial. has at least four synonyms, with pert spelt peart.

pertish

. Fairly drunk: coll: ca 1760–1820. Sessions, 1772.

pestilent

, adv. Extremely: coll: late C.17– early 18.

pestle

. A leg: coll verging on S.E.: C.16–17. Skelton, '[Her] myghty pestels...|As fayre and as whyte|As the fote of a kyte'. cf. PESTLE OF PORK. 2. A constable's staff: coll: early C.17. Chapman. 3. A penis: low: C.19–20 ob. Contrast MORTAR (2), the female pudend.

pestle

, v.i. To coït (of a man): low: C.19–20; ob. Ex the n., 3.

pestle, knight of the

, see the KNIGHT paragraph.

pestle of a lark

. Anything very small; a trifle: late C.16–early 18: coll >, by 1690, S.E. Fuller calls Rutlandshire ‘Indeed... but the Pestel of a Lark’.

pestle of a portigue

. A portague, a C.16– early 17 Portuguese gold coin worth about £4: jocular coll (C.17) verging on S.E. Fletcher, 1622.

pestle of pork

. A leg: low coll: C.19–20; very ob. Ex dial., where the phrase=the shank end of a ham, etc., or pork cooked fresh.

petard

. A trick or a cheating at dice, prob. by some kind of bluff or by the use of loaded dice: gamblers’ s. (?orig. c.): Restoration period. J.Wilson, The Cheats, 1662. Prob. ex, or suggested by, hoist with his own petard.

Pete Jenkins

. An auxiliary clown: circus: from ca 1860; very ob. Ex Pete Jenkins (fl. 1855), who planted ‘rustics’ in the audience.

Peter

. A coll abbr. of Peter-see-me (itself ex Peter Ximenes, a famous cardinal), a Spanish wine: C.17. Beaumont & Fletcher, Chances.

peter

*. A trunk, portmanteau, bag; (in C.19–20) a box or a safe: c.: 1668, Head; Smollett; Grose; Lytton; Horsley, 1879. Ex Peter, a rock. 2. Hence, any bundle, parcel or package; a tramp's sack: c.: from ca 1810. 3. A kind of loaded dice, hence the using of them: c.: ca 1660–1750. Wilson, The Cheats. Prob. the correct form is petard, as above: it is F. & H. that lists under peter. Wilson's spelling is Petarrs. 4. A punishment cell: Australian c.: from ca 1880; ob. 5. A partridge: poachers': from ca 1860. 6. The penis: low: mid-C.19–20; ob. cf. JOHN THOMAS. 7. A prison cell: c.: late C.19–20. cf. sense 4.

peter

*, v.t. To cease doing, e.g. speaking: low s. (prob. orig. c.): 1812, Vaux; ob. by 1900. Ex the n., 1: for peter that!=stow that! 2. v.i., (in whist) to call for trumps by discarding an unnecessarily high card: cards (–1887). Ex the blue Peter, which indicates that a ship is about to start. Notes and Queries, 7th Series, iv, 356. 3. Hence, v.i. and t., to run up prices: auctioneers': from ca 1890. 4. See PETER OUT.

peter-biter

*. A stealer of portmanteaux: c.: late C.17–20; ob. Also biter of peters, as in B.E. See PETER, n., 1.

peter (or Peter) boatman

. Gen. pl. A river pirate: ca 1798–1840. cf. PETER-MAN.

peter-claimer

*. A stealer of portmanteaux, esp. a carriage-thief: c.: late C.19–20. See PETER, n., 1.

peter-claiming

*. The stealing of parcels and/or bags, esp. at railway stations: 1894, A.Morrison, ‘From this, he ventured on peterclaiming.’ Ex PETER, n., 1.

Peter Collins

. An imaginary person on whom the GREEN are asked to call for a green-handed (or handed) rake: theatrical and circuses’ (–1889); ob.

peter-cutter

*. An instrument for cutting iron safes: 1862, Mayhew. See PETER, n., 1.

peter-drag

*. See PETER-HUNTING. c.: C.19–20; ob. See PETER, n., 1, and DRAG, n., 5, 6.

Peter Funk

. A member of a gang operating ‘shadily’ (see SHADY, 2) at public auctions: late C.19–20.

Peter Grievous

. A fretful child: coll: mid-C.19–20; ob. 2. ‘A miserable, melancholy fellow; a croaker’: from ca 1850: coll. ?a euphemizing of CREEPING JESUS.

peter-gunner

. A poor shot with a gun: coll: C.17–20; ob. Anon., The Cold Year, 1615 (quoted by Nares). Perhaps ex petre, saltpetre. cf.:

Peter Gunner will kill all the birds that died last summer

. A C.18–mid-19 (?also late C.17) c.p.: ‘A piece of wit commonly thrown out at a person walking through a street or village near London, with a gun in his hand’, Grose, 2nd ed. Ex preceding entry.

peter-hunting

*. The stealing of portmanteaux, boxes, etc., esp. from carriages: c.: Vaux, 1812; ob. Also PETER-DRAG and PETER-LAY. See PETER, n., 1. Whence:

peter-hunting jemmy

*. 'A small crowbar used in smashing the chains securing luggage to a vehicle', F. & H.: c.: from ca 1810; ob.

peter-lay

*. The same as PETER-HUNTING, and as PETER-DRAG. C.18–20 c. See PETER, n., 1.

Peter Lug

. A drinking laggard. Chiefly in Who is Peter Lug?, a c.p. addressed to one who lets the glass stand before him: ca 1680–1830.

peter-man, peterman

*. One who uses 'unlawful engines in catching fish in the river Thames', Bailey: late C.17–early 18: c. Ex peterman, a fisherman. 2. One who specializes in stealing bags, etc., from carriages: from ca 1810; ob. 1812, Sporting Magazine; Anon., The Story of a Lancashire Thief, 1863. Ex PETER, n., 1.

peter out

. To cease gradually; come to an end: U.S. (1854), anglicized as a coll almost imm. Saturday Review, 9 Jan. 1892, 'Human effort of all kinds tends to "peter out".' Orig. U.S., of stream or lode of ore. ?from Fr. péter...; ?cf. to FIZZLE OUT.

Peter Pipeclay

. A Royal Marine: naval: ca 1820–90. Ex his enforced use of pipeclay. cf. PICK HIM UP...

peter that

! see PETER, v., 1.

Peter to pay Paul, rob

; in C.17–19, occ. borrow from, as in Urquhart. To take from one person to give to another: C.15–20; proverbial coll >, ca 1820, S.E. Barclay, 1548, has clothe (surviving till C.18). Lytton, Paul Clifford, ‘If so be as your name’s Paul, may you always rob Peter [a portmanteau] in order to pay Paul.’ Prob. not ex the relations of the two Apostles but ‘merely a collocation of familiar names, Pierre et Paul being used in Fr. like Tom, Dick and Harry in Eng.’: W.

peterer

*. The same as PETER-MAN, 2: c. of ca 1840–70.

peterman

, see PETER-MAN.

peters, biter of

, see PETER-BITER.

Peter's needle, go or pass through St

. (Of children) to be severely disciplined: C.19–20 semi-proverbial coll and dial. ?ex the Biblical eye of a needle.

petticoat

. A woman: s.: Ned Ward, 1709.

petticoat, up one's

. Unduly, or very, familiar with a woman: low: C.18–20; ob.

petticoat-hold

. A life-interest in a wife's estate: coll: late C.18–19.

petticoat-merchant

. A whoremonger: low coll: C.19–20; ob. On S.E. petticoatmonger or petticoat-pensioner.

pettifogger

, see PETTY FOGGER.

pettiloon

. A pantaloons: coll: 1858, Whyte-Melville; ob. Blend of petticoat + pantaloons.

pettitoes

. Feet: law s.: ca 1700–1725.

petty fogger

; perhaps more correctly pettifogger. A Customs man: nautical, esp. quay-hands': late C.19–20; ob.

petty-house

. A water-closet: coll: C.19–20; slightly ob. 'Widely prevalent in familiar use', Murray, 1905. Whence LITTLE HOUSE.

petty lashery

*; petulacery. Petty theft: c.: late C.16–early 17. Both forms in Greene.

pew

. A seat, esp. in take a pew, park oneself in a pew, etc.: C.20. P.G.Wodehouse, A Prefect's Uncle, 1903, 'The genial "take a pew" of one's equal inspires confidence.'

pew, stump the

. To pay: low: ca 1820–30. Moncrieff, Tom and Jerry, 1823, 'It's every thing now o' days to be able to flash the screens—sport the rhino—show the needful—post the pony—nap the rent—stump the pew.' Prob. pew is an abbr. of PEWTER, 1.

pew-opener's muscle

. A muscle in the palm of the hand: medical (–1902). Sir James Brodie, 'because it helps to contract and hollow the palm of the hand for the reception of a gratuity'.

pewter

*. Silver: c. (–1823); †by 1900. 2. Hence, money, esp. if of silver; prize-money: low: 1821, W.T.Moncrieff. 3. A tankard: mostly London coll (1839), verging on S.E.; ob. Abbr. pewter tankard. Hence, 4, a pot sought as a prize: rowing men's (–1874); ob.

pewter, unload

. 'To drink porter out of a quart pot' (Sinks): public-house: ca 1830–70.

pewy

. (Of country) so enclosed by fences as to form a succession of small fields: sporting (esp. hunting): 1828 (O.E.D.). Ex the shape of the old-fashioned, big, enclosed pews.

phan

, see FAN, n., 2.

phant; or fant

; in the North of England, often peeble, by evasion. A phantom-glass, i.e. that sheet of plate-glass, which, set obliquely on the stage, reflects from below, or from the side, the illusion known as Pepper's ghost: showmen's (–1909).

pharaoh

; occ. pharoh. A strong ale or beer: late C.17–early 19. Gen. as OLD PHARAOH. Prob. ex strength derived from oldness—'old as Pharaoh'.

Pharaoh's lean kine, one of . A very thin person: coll: 1598, Shakespeare, 'If to be fat be to be hated, then Pharaoh's lean kine are to be loved.' 2. In C.19–20, with the qualification of looking '(1) as though he'd run away from a bone-house; or (2) as if he were walking about to save funeral expenses' (F. & H.); ob.

pheasant

. A wanton: low: C.17–19; ob. cf. PLOVER and QUAIL. 2. See BILLINGSGATE PHEASANT.

pheantry

. A brothel: low: C.19–20; ob. Ex PHEASANT, 1.

phenomenon

. A prodigy; a remarkable person, occ. animal, or thing: coll: 1838, Dickens, ‘This is the infant phenomenon—Miss Ninetta Crummles.’

phi

, occ. in Gr. form Φ or ϕ . A book deemed by the Bodley’s librarian to be indelicate, and so catalogued under the the Greek letter phi: Oxford coll. Prob. coined by E.W.B.Nicholson, the eccentric and sarcastic Bodley’s librarian 1882–1912. Punning fie!

Philadelphia lawyer

. A smart attorney; a very shrewd person. Esp. in puzzle or beat a P.l., to be extremely puzzling, and be as smart or know as much as a P.l. A U.S. coll (1803), introduced into England ca 1820; ob. cf. BUSH LAWYER.

philander

, ‘to ramble on incoherently; to write discursively and weakly’, H., 1874, like the sense, ‘to wander about’ (as in Arthur Sketchley, quoted by Baumann), is a half-sol., half-coll of ca 1865–1910. ?influenced by meander and wander.

Philip

*. A policeman, mostly in Philip!, the police are coming!: c.: from ca 1860; ob. Possibly by a punning reference to fillip. Whence PHILIPER.

Philip and Che(i)n(e)y

. Two of the common people considered typically: coll: ca 1540–90. Tusser has Philip, Hob and Cheyney. cf. TOM, DICK AND HARRY.

Philiper, philip(p)er

*. A thief’s accomplice: c.: 1860, The Times, 5 Sept.; ob. See PHILIP.

Philippi, meet at

. To keep an appointment without fail: literary coll: ca 1780–1830. Mrs Cowley, 1782, “‘At seven, you say?’” ...“Exactly.”...“I’ll meet thee at Philippi!”” Ex Shakespeare’s Julius Caesar, IV, iii, where the ghost speaks thus.

Philistine

. (Gen. pl.) A drunkard: late C. 17–18.

Philistines

. Earwigs or other such insects: provincial coll, and dial.: late C.17–20. Ex ‘The Philistines are upon thee,’ Judges xvi.

phinney

*. A burial: c.: C.18 (?–19). C. Hitchin, The Regulator, 1718. Origin?

Phip

. A sparrow: coll and dial.: C.14–16 . Less a contraction of Philip (in same sense) than ex the onomatopoeia for a sparrow’s chirp.

phis

. B.E.’s spelling of PHIZ. cf. phys, 1693 (O.E.D.). Both occur also in C.18.

phiz (phizz), phyz

; physog. (cf. PHIS.) Face; expression of face: phiz, etc., is a jocularly coll abbr. of physiognomy; physog, however, is the abbr. of PHYSOGNOMY. Shadwell, 1688; Swift, ‘Abbreviations exquisitely refined; as...Phizz for Physiognomy.’ But PHYSOG not till C.19. A RUM phiz is an odd one: low: late C. 18–20.

phiz-gig

. An old woman dressed young: C.19. 2. ‘A pyramid of moistened gunpowder, which, on ignition, fuses but does not flash’, F. &H.: schools’: from ca 1840.

phiz-maker

. A maker of grimaces: C.18: coll.

phizog

, see PHYSOG; also PHIZ.

phos, phoss, even foss

. Phosphorus: s. >, ca 1890, coll abbr.: from ca 1810. 2. Esp., in c. of early C.19, a bottle of phosphorus, used by cracksmen to get a light. Whence:

phossy, OCC. fossy, jaw

. Phosphorus necrosis of the jaw: coll: 1889.

photo

. A photograph: coll abbr.: 1870, Miss Bridgman, 'I should like her photo.' 2. As v.: coll: 1870, Carlyle. 3. As adj.: likewise coll (technical): 1889.

phunt

. One pound sterling: grafters': late C.19–20. Perhaps derived ex PONTE and influenced by Ger. Pfund.

phut, go

. To come to grief; fizzle out; be a failure: coll: 1892, Kipling; A.S.M. Hutchinson, 1908. Partly echoic, partly ex Hindustani phatna, to explode.

phys

, see PHIS.

physic

. Sexual attentions; coition: coll: C.17–mid-18. Massinger, 'She...sends for her young doctor,[Who ministers physic to her on her back'; D'Urfey. 2. Medicine: late C.16–20: S.E. till ca 1850, then coll. Mrs Henry Wood, 1862, 'You'll take the physic, like a precious lamb:' 3. Losses; wagers, points: gaming: from ca 1820; ob. 4. Hard hitting: pugilistic: from ca 1830; ob. cf. PUNISHMENT. 5. Strong drink: from ca 1840. cf. MEDICINE; POISON.

physic

, v. To treat, dose, with medicine, esp. with a purgative: C.14–20; S.E. till ca 1850, then coll. cf. the n., 2. 2. ‘To punish in purse or pocket’: 1821, Egan; ob. cf. the n., 3.

physic-bottle

. A doctor: non-aristocratic (–1909).

physicking

, n. and adj. Corresponding to PHYSIC, n., 2., and PHYSIC, v., 1 and 2: mid-C.17–20; S.E. until ca 1810, then coll. Bee, 1823, both n. and adj.

physiog

. A coll abbr. of PHYSIOGNOMY: ca 1865–1920. cf. PHIZ and PHYSOG.

physiognomy

. The face or countenance: (low) coll: C.17–20; ob. Fletcher & Shirley, ‘I have seen that physiognomy: were you never in prison?’ cf. PHYSOGNOMY.

physog; OCC. phizog, physog

. See PHIZ. App. recorded first in the Lex. Bal., 1811. cf. PHYSIOG.

physognomy

. Physiognomy: sol.: C.19–20. See PHYSIOGNOMY.

phyz

. See PHIZ; cf. PHYSIOG, PHYSOG; note PHYSIOGNOMY.

phyzog

, see PHYSOG.

pi

; gen. pie. A miscellaneous collection of books out of the alphabet: booksellers' coll: from ca 1880; ob. Ex printers' pi(e). 2. (Only pi.) A pious exhortation: Public Schools' and universities': 1870. 3. cf. the adj., whence pi, a pious person: late C. 19–20; ob. Ex pious.

pi

, adj. Pious; virtuous; sanctimonious: schools' and universities': 1870, O.E.D., whose first record of the adj., however, is for 1891.cf. then., 2.

pi-gas, -jaw

. A serious admonition or talk: schools' and universities': ? -jaw from ca 1875; -gas, ca 1880–1915. See JAW and GAS. Ex:

pi-jaw

, v. To give moral advice to; admonish: schools' and universities': from middle 1880s. Ex PI, adj. F. & H., 1902, quoting a glossary of 1891, 'He pijawed me for thoking.' cf. PI-GAS, and:

pi-man

. A pious fellow: from ca 1900; ob. To-day, 22 Aug. 1901. Ex PI, adj., but prob. also containing a pun on pieman.

piache

. Mad; on stone-mad, often stonepiache: Regular Army: late C.19–20. Ex Hindustani.

pialler

. To speak; speak to: New South Wales and Queensland 'pidgin': mid-C. 19–20. R.M.Praed, 1885. Exan Aboriginal dialect: cf. YABBER.

pianny

. Tipsy: Regular Army: late C.19–20. Ex PARNEE.

piano

. To sing small, take a back seat: Society: ca 1870–80. Ex musical piano, softly.

piazzas, walk the

. (Of prostitutes) to look for men: ca 1820–70. Ex the piazzas—wrongly so called—of Covent Garden. 2. Hence, ca 1870–1910, to walk the streets: likewise of prostitutes.

picaninny

, see PICCANINNY.

picaro, on the

. ‘On the make’, prowling for easy money: coll: C.18. Smollett, trans. of Gil Blas, ‘I see you have been...a little on the picaro.’ Ex Sp. picaro, a rogue, via the English picaroon (Sp. picarón).

Piccadilly crawl

. A style of walking prevalent in Society in the Eighties. Ob. cf. ALEXANDRA LIMP; GRECIAN BEND; ROMAN FALL.

Piccadilly fringe

. Front hair of women cut short and brought down, and curled over the forehead: lower classes': ca 1884–1900. Presumably suggested by PICCADILLY WEEPERS. Ware states that the 'fashion originated in Paris about 1868'.

Piccadilly weepers

. 'Long carefully combed-out whiskers of the Dundreary fashion', H. 1874. Ob. Because worn by dandies on Piccadilly, London. cf. DUNDREARIES. cf.:

Piccadilly window

. A monocle: London (non-aristocratic): the 1890s; ob. Because frequently seen in Piccadilly.

piccaninny

; occ. picaninny or pickanin(n)y. A child: coll bordering on S.E.: 1785, Grose; 1817, 'The little pickaninny has my kindest wishes.' Orig. applied, in the West Indies and America, to Negro and other coloured children. Ex C.17 'Negro diminutive of Sp. pequeño or Portuguese pequeno, small...; cf. Port. pequenino, tiny. It is uncertain whether the word arose in Sp. or Port. colonies, or in the E. or W. Indies, but it has spread remarkably,' W.

piccaninny

, adj. Little: Australian coll: from 1840s; slightly ob. Ex preceding.

piccolo and flute

. A suit (of clothes): rhyming s.: since ca 1870. cf. WHISTLE AND FLUTE.

picey

, adj. Mean: Regular Army: late C. 19–20. Perhaps ex pice, a quarter-anna.

pick

. An abbr. (–1887) of S.E. pickwick, a very inferior cigar; ob. 2. A toothpick: coll (–1890). 3. An anchor: nautical: late C.19–20.

pick

, v.i. To eat: 1786, Capt. T.Morris, ‘If it wasn’t for shame, I could pick till tomorrow at dinner’: s. till C.20, then coll. Ex S.E. sense, to eat daintily.

pick

, adj. Chosen; best: coll: 1819, Lady Morgan; ob. Ex pick, choice.

pick a hole in (a person's) coat

. To be censorious: coll verging on S.E.: late C.16–19. Anon., Mar-Prelate's Epitome, 1588; Ray; Manning in a letter to Lamb. Whence S.E. pick holes in.

pick a soft plank

! Sleep easy!: a nautical c.p. addressed to young seamen sleeping on deck for the first time: mid-C.19–20; ob. Bowen. 2. Hence, to find an easy job: nautical coll: late C.19–20.

pick and cut

. To pick pockets: low coll (?orig. s.): C.17. Shakespeare, Winter's Tale, 'I picked and cut most of their festival purses.'

pick-and-dab

. A meal of potatoes and salt: Scots coll: C.19–20.

pick-axe

. 'A fiery mixture of Cape smoke, pontac'—a dark, dry wine medicinally valuable—'and ginger-beer, in much request in the diamond fields', Pettman: South African: ca 1870–90. Boyle, To the Cape for Diamonds, 1873. Ex its 'brutality'.

pick flies off

. To find fault with: tailors': from ca 1860; ob.

Pick- (or Picked-) Hatch

, see PICKTHATCH.

pick him up and pipeclay him and he'll do again

! A bluejackets' c.p. remark on a Royal Marine fallen on the deck, esp. if he fell hard: ca 1860–1910.

pick-it-up

. The diamond bird: Australian boys' coll: from mid-1890s. G.A.Kearland, 1896, gives the origin in this bird's 'treble note'.

pick-me-up

. A stimulating liquid, orig. and mainly liquor: coll: 1867, Latham, 'To drink home-brewed ale...instead of pick-me-ups'. 2. Hence, any person or thing (e.g. seaside air) with a bracing effect: 1876, 'Ouida' (of a person).

pick off

. To hit (a person) with a stone: Winchester College: mid-C.19–20.

pick out robins' eyes

. To side-stitch black cloth or any delicate material: tailors': from ca 1860.

pick-penny

. A miser: coll bordering on S.E.: C.18–19. Ex S.E. sense, a greedy amasser or stealer of money. 2. A sharper: coil: ?C.17–18.

pick-up

. A chance (esp. if carnal) acquaintance (gen. female): low coll (–1895). Ex the S.E. pick up with, to make acquaintance with someone casually met. 2. A pick-up match: coll: late C.19–20. One in which the opposing sides are chosen by the two captains selecting one player alternately.

pick up

, v. To cheat, grossly deceive (a person): low (–1860); †by 1900. Ex: 2. To 'establish contact' with an unwary person: c.: from ca 1780; ob. 3. To meet casually, esp. of a man on the look-out for a girl: late C.19–20. cf. preceding entry. Orig. of harlot 'picking up' a man: c. or low: from ca 1720. cf. the dial. nuances recorded by the E.D.D. 4. (cf. senses 2, 3.) To rob a man thus: he is allured into speaking with a harlot, whose bully then comes up to extort money or who herself decamps after taking his money 'in advance' and perhaps his watch as well: c. (–1861). Mayhew.

pick up one's crumbs

. To be convalescent: coll: 1580, Lyly; 1754, Berthelson; in midC.19–20, dial. i.e. to put on weight as well as to eat healthily.

pickanin(n)y

, see PICCANINNY.

picker-up

*. A thief or a swindler 'picking up' an unwary person: c. (–1812); ob. See PICK UP, v. 2. Hence, a harlot: c.: mid-C. 19–20. ob. 3. 'A dealer buying on quotations trickily obtained from a member trapped into giving a wrong price', F. & H.: Stock Exchange: from ca 1890.

pickers and stealers

. Hands: coll: C.17–20; slightly ob. Shakespeare, 'So I do still, by these pickers and stealers.' Ex the Catechism 'To keep my hands from picking and stealing', which dates from 1548–9. Baumann considered Shakespeare's use to be s.; the O.E.D. considers the phrase, at no matter what period, to be S.E.

picking gooseberries

! Goodness knows!; doing God knows what!: a c.p. of early C.19. John Davis, The Post Captain, 1805.

pickle

. A predicament, sorry plight, unpleasant difficulty: mid:-C.16–20: S.E. till C.19, then coll. Byron, ‘The Turkish batteries thrash’d them...into a sad pickle.’ A fig. use of the lit. secondary S.E. sense, pickled vegetables. 2. Hence, perhaps via rod in pickle, a mischievous or—ob.—a troublesome child; any person constantly causing trouble: coll: the former late C.18–20; the latter, late C.18–19, Anon., History of a Schoolboy, 1788, ‘He told Master Blotch he was a pickle, and dismissed him to his cricket.’ 3. Hence, a wild youth or young man: s. or coll: ca 1810–40. 4. A wretchedly produced, cheap book: booksellers’ (–1887); ob. Esp. one that won’t sell.

pickle

, v. To HUMBUG; to GAMMON; C.19. Perhaps ex nautical S.E. sense, to rub salt or vinegar on the back of a person just flogged.

pickle, in

. Venereally infected: low coll: late C.17–early 19. Ex salivation. 2. Drunk: late C.17–mid-18. Farquhar (m that pickle); Vanbrugh. (Slang, p. 65.)

pickle-herring

*. A wag; a merry companion: c. (–1887).

pickle-jar

. A coachman in yellow: ca 1850–1910.

pickle-manufacturer

. A publisher of cheap, badly produced books: booksellers': ca 1885–1914. See PICKLE, n., 4.

pickle-me-tickle-me, play

. To coït: low coll: mid-C.17–18. Urquhart.

pickied

. Roguish; waggish: coll verging on S.E.: late C.17–early 19. cf. PICKLE, n., 2.

pickled pork

. Conversations: since ca 1890. Rhyming s. on talk.

pickles

. Dissection specimens (straight) from the operation theatre: medical: from ca 1860. 2. As an exclamation, nonsense! or BALLS!: from ca 1850; ob. Also all pickles.

pickles, case of

. A quandary; a serious breakdown: C.19–20; ob.

pickling-tubs

. ‘Wellington, or top boots’ (Sinks): low: ca 1830–70.

Pickt-Hatch

(often Pict-, occ. Pick-, and properly Picked-Hatch), go to the Manor of, late C.16–mid-17; go to Pickt-Hatch Grange, ca 1620–40. To go whoring; to whore: c., says Grose; more prob. s. or low coll. In Shakespeare’s time, specifically a brothelly tavern in Turnmill Street, Clerkenwell; hence, from ca 1620, any brothel or low locality. A pickt hatch, i.e. a hatch with pikes, was a common brothelsign. Shakespeare, in Merry Wives; Jonson; Randolph, ‘Why the whores of PictHatch, Turnbull or the unmerciful bawds of Bloomsbury.’

picnic

. A rough-and-tumble; noisy trouble: coll: from ca 1895. F. & H. records it at 1898. Prob. ex: 2. ‘An awkward adventure, an unpleasant experience, a troublesome job’, Morris: Australian coll: at least as early as 1896. Ex the U.S. coll sense, ‘an easy or agreeable thing’.

Pict-Hatch

, see PICKT-HATCH.

picture

. A portrait, a likeness, of a person: C.16–20: S.E. until ca 1890, then coll when not affected. 2. A fine example; a beau-ideal: coll (–1870). e.g., ‘a picture of health’; often ironical as in ‘a pretty picture’, a strange figure (F. & H., 1902). 3. Hence, a very picturesque or beautiful object: coll: from ca 1890. e.g. ‘She’s a picture.’ In Berkshire dial. as early as 1859. See also OIL-PAINTING.

picture, fake a

, see FAKE A PICTURE.

picture, lawful

, see LAWFUL PICTURE.

picture, not in the

. Inappropriate, incongruous; (in racing) unplaced: coll: late C.19–20.

picture or portrait, King’s or Queen’s

, see QUEEN’S PICTURE.

picture-askew

. A jocular perversion of picturesque: coll: from ca 1870. cf. GUST.

picture-frame

, see SHERIFF'S PICTURE-FRAME.

pictures

. A jocular name for the flitches of bacon, &c., when hanging to a ceiling or against a wall: South Lancashire s. (–1905) rather than dial.

piddle

. Urine; occ., the act of making water: coll, mostly nursery: C.19–20. Ex:

piddle

, v. To urinate: late C.18–20: coll. esp. childish; in C.20, low coll. Ex PISS influenced by paddle; perhaps an unconscious blend. 2. Hence, of rain: low (–1887). Baumann, 'It piddled buckets.' 3. Ex sense 1, metaphorically of ineffectual writing. Scott, letter of 10 Nov. 1814, concerning a play: 'He piddles through a cullender.'

pie

, see PI; PYE.

pie!, by cock and

, see COCK AND (BY) PIE!, BY.

pie, like

. Zestfully, vigorously: s. verging on coll: from ca 1885; ob. Henley, 1887, 'I goes for 'Olman 'Unt like pie.' ?ex zestful eating of pie.

pie, make a

. To combine with a view to profit: coll: ca 1820–1910. Ex concerted cooking.

pie, put in

, see PUT IN PIE.

pie, put into the

. At book sales, to put into a large lot, to be sold at the end: auctioneers': from ca 1860.

pie and one

. Son: rhyming s.: late C.19–20.

pie-ard

. A term of abuse in the Regular Army: late C.19–20. Ex Hindustani for a pariah dog.

pie-jaw or piejaw

. Incorrect forms of PI-JAW. A.H.Tod, Charterhouse, 1900.

pie-pusher

. A street pieman: low coll (–1900).

pie-shop

. A dog: low London: 1842–ca 1915.

piebald

. v.t., formed (–1909) ex, and corresponding to:

piebald eye

. A black eye: low: late C.19–20.

piebald mucker sheeny

. A low old Jew: East London (–1909).

piece

. A woman or girl: C.14–20: S.E. until late C.18, then (low) coll and gen. pejorative. Esp. sexually, as in Grose, 3rd ed.: ‘A damned good or bad piece; a girl who is more or less active and skilful in the amorous congress’. (Also C.19–20 dial.) cf. the Cambridge toast, ca 1810–30, ‘May we never have a piece (peace) that will injure the Constitution.’ In C.19–20, usually considered as short for piece of tail; see TAIL, 2 and 3. 2. A slice of bread: Scottish, esp. Glaswegian, coll: late C.19–20. 3. See PIECE, THE. 4. Patter: pitch-holders’ in any open market, e.g. the old Caledonian, that in Portobello Road, the Sunday market in Petticoat Lane: late (?mid) C.19–20.

piece, the

. The thing, matter, affair; it: lower classes’: late C.19–20. e.g., ‘He’ll fight the piece out with you.’

piece of entire

. A jolly fellow: ca 1820–80. cf. later bit of all right.

piece of muslin

. A female, esp. a girl: (low) coll: ca 1875–1910. Prob. an elaboration of S.E. piece of goods. cf. the C.20 bit of skirt.

piece of mutton

. A female viewed as a sexual partner: low coll: C.17–early 19.

piece of pudding

. A piece of good luck; a welcome change: proletarian: from ca 1870; ob.

piece of stuff

. A woman: naval: ca 1790–1860. The Nightwatch (I, 151), 1828.

piece of thick

. A piece of pressed cake tobacco: non-aristocratic: from ca 1860.

piece of work

. A commotion, fuss, disorderly bustle: coll: 1810, ‘He kept jawing us, and making a piece of work all the time.’

piece-out

. Employment, a job (esp. if temporary), a loan: tailors’: from ca 1860. Ex the S.E. v. sense, ‘to enlarge by the addition of a piece’: cf. also S.E. piecework.

piecee one

. First rate: pidgin (mid-C.19–20) > naval (C.20). Granville.

pieces

*. Money: c.: mid-C.19–20; ob. Perhaps ex pieces of eight.

pieces, all to

. Gen. with be or go. Exhausted; collapsed; ruined: from ca 1665: till C.19, then S.E. Pepys, 29 Aug. 1667, ‘The Court is at this day all to pieces’; Ray, of a bankrupt.

pieces, fall or go to

. To be brought to childbed: mid-C.19–20: s. > coll.

piejaw

, see PI-JAW.

pieman

. The player who cries at pitchand-toss: from ca 1850; ob. Ex the real pieman’s cry, ‘Hot pies, toss or buy, toss orbuy’. 2. See PI-MAN.

piercer

. A piercing eye: 1752, Foote, ‘She had but one eye..., but that was a piercer.’ s. until C.19, then coll; slightly ob.

piffing

. An †variant of SPIFFING.

piffle

. Very ineffective talk; feeble, foolish nonsense: from ca 1890: s. ex dial. (C.19–20). Ex echoic piff (W.), though imm. ex the v. Saturday Review, 1 Feb. 1890, ‘...“piffle” (to use a University phrase...’.

piffle

, v. To talk, to act, in an ineffective, esp. in a feeble, manner: dial. (–1847) >, ca 1880, s. For origin, see the n.

piffler

. An ineffective trifler; a twaddler; ‘an earnest futility, i.e. a person with a moral end in view, and nothing to back it but a habit of talking, or writing sentimental rubbish’, F. & H.: 1892.

pig

*. A sixpence: c.: from ca 1620; ob. Fletcher, 1622. cf. HOG. 2. A policeman, a detective; esp. (also GRUNTER, 4) a police-runner: c. of ca 1810–90. H., who, in 1873, writes, ‘Now almost exclusively applied by London thieves to a plainclothes man, or a “nose”.’ 3. A pressman: printers’: 1841, Savage’s Dict. cf. DONKEY. 4. A garment completely spoiled: tailors’: from ca 1860; ob. Also PORK. 5. Hence, goods returned by a retailer to a wholesaler, or by wholesaler to manufacturer: drapers’: from ca 1870. 6. A small piece, esp. a bit, i.e. a section, of orange: children’s, mostly Cockney (–1887).

pig, bleed like a

. To bleed much: coll: C.17–20. Dekker & Webster, 1607, ‘He bleeds like a pig, for his crown’s crack’d.’ In C.17–20, occ. stuck pig.

pig, China Street

. A Bow Street officer: ca 1810–30: c., or low s. See PIG, 2.

pig, cold

. The pulling of bedclothes off sluggards and leaving them to lie in the cold: coll: ca 1780–1870. 2. Goods returned from on sale: ca 1820–80. 3. A corpse: medical: from ca 1840; very ob.

pig, follow like an Anthony

, see ANTHONY. pig, Goodyer’s, see GOODYER’S.

pig, in

. Pregnant: rural upper classes': since ca 1870.

pig, keep a

. To occupy the same rooms as another student: Oxford undergraduates' (–1887); ob.

pig, long

, see LONG PIG.

pig, stare like a stuck

. To look fixedly or in terror: coll: 1749, Smollett, 'He stared like a stuck pig at my equipment.'

pig-a-back

. A corruption, esp. children's, of pick-a-back. See PIGGY-BACK.

pig and goose, brandy is Latin for

. A c.p. excuse for drinking a dram of brandy after eating pig or goose: ca 1780–1880.

pig at a tater, go at it like a

. To act like a bull in a china shop: late C.19–20: orig., Black Country dial.

pig at home, have boiled

. To be master in one's own house, 'an allusion to a well-known poem and story', Grose, 1785: coll: ca 1780–1830.

pig by the ear, pull the wrong

. To make a mistake: ca 1540–1870; from ca 1750, also get the wrong pig or sow by the ear. Coll. Heywood, 1546.

pig-eater

. An endearment: C.19.

pig-faced lady

. The boar-fish: Tasmanian coll: ca 1840–90.

pig in a poke

. A blind bargain: mid-C.16–20: coll till C.19, then S.E. A poke here= a bag; indeed, bag is occ. substituted.

pig in shit, (as) happy as a . Very happy (though perhaps rather dirty): low coll, the ordinary coll form being...in muck. C.19–20. cf. U.S. pig in clover.

pig (or sow) in the arse or tail, grease or stuff a fat

. To give unnecessarily, e.g. to a rich man: the grease...arse form, ca 1670–1830; the stuff...tail, late C.18–19: low coll.

pig in the sun, snore like a

. To snore vigorously or stertorously: coll: mid-C.19–20.

Pig Islander

. A New Zealander: Australian coll: late C.19–20. Ex the (formerly) numerous wild pigs in rural N.Z.

pig it

. Late C.19–20 coll form of ob. S.E. pig, live filthily together.

pig-jump, -jumper, -jumping

. 'To jump... from all four legs, without bringing them together': a horse that does this; the doing thereof: Australian: resp. 1893, 1892, 1893.

pig-market

. The proscholium of the Divinity School at Oxford: Oxford University: late C.17–early 18. 'Oxonienses' Wood, 1681.

pig-meater

. A bullock that will not fatten: Australian: 1884, 'Rolf Boldrewood'. Because fit only for pigs' food.

pig-months

. Those months in which there is an r (September–April): non-aristocratic: C.19–20; ob. Ware, 'The months in which you may more safely eat fresh pork than in the...summer months.'

pig, no good alive,—like a

. Selfish; greedy; covetous: coll and dial.: late C.16–20; in C.19–20, mainly dial. In C.16–18, gen. hog, and nearly always in form...he'll do no good alive.

pig of his or one's own sow, (gen. give one a)

. To pay one back in his own coin: semiproverbial coll: ca 1530–1890. ‘Proverbs’ Heywood; Fielding; Reade.

pig on pork

; esp. draw pig on pork, to draw post-dated cheques: commercial: ca 1810–80. J.W., Perils, Pastimes and Pleasures, 1848.

pig-poker

. A swineherd: coll and dial.: C.19.

pig-running

. The chasing, in sport, of a short-tailed, well-greased and/or -soaped, preferably large pig: coll verging on S.E.: ca 1780–1890.

pig-sconce

. A dullard; a lout: coll: ca 1650–1900. Massinger; Meredith.

pig-sticker

. A pork-butcher: low: from ca 1850. 2. A long-bladed pocket-knife: from ca 1880. 3. A sword: from ca 1890. cf. PORKER.

pig-sty

. The press-room: printers': from ca 1845. Ex PIG, 3. 2. An abode, a place of business: jocular coll: from ca 1880. Ex pig-sty, a miserable hovel. cf. DIGGINGS; DEN.

Pig-Tail

. A Chinese: 1886, Cornhill, July: coll till ca 1905, then S.E. 2. (pig-tail, or as one word.) An old man: low urban coll: ca 1810–45. Ware, 'From the ancients clinging to the 18th century mode of wearing the hair'. 3. A roll of coarse tobacco: ?ca 1780–1860.

pig-tail

, adj. Chinese, as in pig-tail brigade, party, land: coll: late C.19–20.

pig to play on the flute, teach a

. To attempt the impossible; do something absurd: coll: C.19.

pig-tub

. The receptacle for kitchen-refuse: lower classes' (–1887); slightly ob.

pig-widgeon, -widgin

. A simpleton; a fool: coll: ca 1685–1890. An intensive of widgeon, fig. used of a fool (–1741), just possibly influenced by gudgeon. Prob. related to S.E. pigmgen, -in.

pig will make a good brawn to breed on, a brinded

. 'A red-headed man will make a good stallion,' Ray: a c.p. of ca 1670–1750.

pig-yoke

. A quadrant; a sextant: nautical: 1836, Marryat, 'This was the "ne plus ultra" of navigation;...old Smallsole could not do better with his pig-yoke and compasses.' Somewhat ob. Ex the roughly similar shape.

pigeon

. See PIGEON, FLY A BLUE. 2. Gen. in pl., one of a gang of lottery-sharpers that specialize in insuring tickets: late C.18 –early 19 c. Grose, 3rd ed., where see a full description. 3. Hence, any person hastening with news surreptitiously obtained: c. of ca 1820–50. 4. A simpleton; a dupe: from ca 1590. G.Harvey, 1893. Esp. in pluck a pigeon, to fleece someone. cf. the v. 2. 5. (occ. pidgin.) Business, concern, duty, task: from early 1800s. e.g. 'This is his pigeon.'

pigeon

, v. See PIGEON THE NEWS. 2. To deceive grossly; dupe; swindle: 1675, Cotton; 1807, E.S.Barrett, 'Having one night been pigeoned of a vast property', O.E.D., which classifies as S.E.: but surely s. (cf. the n., 4.)

pigeon, fly a blue

*. To steal lead from a roof, esp. of a church: c.: from ca 1785; ob. Grose, 2nd ed.; 1823, Bee (fly the pigeon). 2. But fly the b. p. is nautical s.: to heave the deep-sea lead: 1897 Kipling.

pigeon, milk the

, see MILK THE... pigeon, Paul's, see PAUL'S PIGEON. pigeon, pluck a, see PIGEON, n., 4.

pigeon and kill a crow, shoot at a

. To blunder deliberately: coll: from the 1630s; ob.

pigeon-cracking

*. Same as PIGEONFLYING, 1859, H.; ob.

pigeon-fancier

*. A professional gambler: gamblers' c. of ca 1800–50. J.J.Stockdale, The Greeks, 1817. Pun on PIGEON, n., 4.

pigeon-flying

*. Stealing lead from roofs on buildings: c.: C.19–20. Also bluey cracking. See fly a blue PIGEON.

pigeon-hole

. A too-wide gap between two words: printers': 1683, Moxon; ob. cf. RAT-HOLE. 2. A small study: Winchester College: from ca 1850. 3. The female pudend: low: C.19–20; ob. 4. (Extremely rare—?, indeed, non-existent—in singular.) The stocks; the instrument confining the hands of a prisoner being flogged: c.: late C.16–17. Greene, Eachard.

pigeon-hole soldiers

. Clerks and orderlies: military coll: from ca 1870; ob. Echo, 1 July 1871.

pigeon-holes

, see PIGEON-HOLE, 4.

pigeon the news

. To send news by carrierpigeon: s. verging on coll: from ca 1820. cf. PIGEON, n., 3.

pigeoner

. A swindler or a sharper: 1849: coll >, ca 1900, S.E. Ex PIGEON, v., 2.

pigeons with one bean, catch (or take) two

. To 'kill two birds with one stone': semiproverbial coll: ca 1550–1700. North's Dial of Two Princes, 1557.

piggies

. Toes of baby or small child: domestic: late C.19–20. Ex the nursery rhyme 'This little piggy went to market, this little piggy stayed at home.'

piggot, Piggot

; Pigott. To forge: political coll: 1889–ca 1895. 'A reminiscence of the Parnell Commission: the expression was born in the House of Commons, 28th Feb. 1889,' F. & H. 2. Ware shows that it was used also as 'to tell an unblushing lie to', gen. in the passive; that there was a n. corresponding to this sense of the v.; that the term derived from the forger Pigott—which is the correct spelling.

Piggy

. The ‘inevitable’ nickname of any man surnamed May: naval and military: late C.19–20.

piggy-back

. A nursery and dial. variant of pick-a-back: C.19–20. Also PIG-A-BACK.

piggy-wig

; piggy-wiggy. A pet pig; hence, a humorous endearment: coll: resp. 1870, Lear; 1862, Miss Yonge.

pight

. The p. tense and p. ppl of pitch used wrongly as a present tense: late C.16.

Pigot, pigot

; properly Pigott, see PIGGOT.

pigs

, abbr. of PIG’S-EAR, 2.

pigs, please the

. If circumstances permit: coll: late C17–20; ob. Facetious Tom Brown, Lytton. Perhaps orig. Irish; perhaps a corruption of pix (pyx), or more prob. ex pixies, fairies.

pigs and whistles, go to

. To be ruined: Scots coll: from ca 1780. Mrs Carlyle, 1862, uses make p. and w. of as=to upset, or perturb, very greatly. In Scots, pigs and whistles is fragments.

pig's back, on the

. In luck's way. Anglo-Irish (–1903). Perhaps ex a golden amulet in the shape of a pig.

pig's-ear or -lug

. A very large lapel or collar flap: tailors': from ca 1860; ob. 2. Beer; rhyming s.: late C.19–20.

pig's eye

. In cards, the ace of diamonds: low (–1864). Ex appearance.

pig's foot

! see FOOT!, MY.

pigs fly, when

. Never: coll: C.17–20; ob. Withals, in his Dict., defines terra volat as ‘pigs flie in the ayre with their tayles forward’. (cf. BLUE MOON, Greek kalends; Queen DICK; etc.) In C.19–20, much less common than the S.E. pigs might fly!, perhaps!

pig’s fry

. A tie: from ca 1880.

pig’s-lug

, see PIG’S-EAR.

pigs (occ. hogs) to a fair

—more gen. a fine—market, bring one’s. To do well; make a profit: C.17–20: coll >, by 1800, S.E. Rowlands, Urquhart, Murphy (carry), Planché.

pigs (or hogs) to market, drive one’s

. To snore: coll: C.18–20; ob. (In C.19–20, mainly dial.) Origin explained in Swift’s ‘I’gad he fell asleep, and snored so hard, that we thought he was driving his hogs to market.’ New Zealanders (late C.19–20) say drive the pigs home, esp. driving...

pig's(-)whisper

. A grunt: low coll: C.19–20. Whence:

pig's whisper, in a

. Very quickly indeed; in a very short time: s. > low coll: implied in Bee, 1823; 1837, Dickens, 'You'll find yourself in bed in something less than a pig's whisper'.

pigskin

. A saddle: sporting: from ca 1860. Dickens. Hence:

pigskin, knight of the

. A jockey: sporting: 1898, Sporting Times, 26 Nov., 'Riding rings round their crack knights of the pigskin.'

pigsn(e)y

; (occ. in pl. -yes.) An endearment: C.14–early 19: S.E. till C.18, when (Grose, 1785) low if used to a woman. Lit., pig's eye, with intrusive or prosthetic n.

pigsty

, see PIG-STY.

pigtail

, see PIGTAIL.

pijaw

. An occ. form of PI-JAW (see also PI-GAS).

pike

. A turnpike road: coll and dial.: from ca 1830. (Mostly U.S.) 2. A tollbar or -gate: coll and dial.: 1837, Dickens. Abbr. turnpike. 3. The toll paid thereat: coll: 1837, Dickens, fig. of death. 4. A tramp: c.: from ca 1860; ob. Ex turnpike road or perhaps ex PIKER.

pike

*, v. To depart: from ca 1520: S.E. until 1650, then s.; in C.18–20, low s. verging on c. Ex pike oneself, same sense. 2. In C.18–20 c., to go; occ. to run: Shirley, The Triumph of Wit, 1724. 3. Hence, to die: late C.17–20: low s. All senses often in form PIKE OFF.

pike, bilk a

. To cheat a toll-keeper: low: C.18–19.

pike, go

. To walk; depart: coll and dial.: C.16–17. cf. PIKE, v., 1.

pike, prior

, see PIKE I!

pike, tip a

*. To walk; to depart; esp. escape, give the slip to: c.: C.18–mid-19. Song, 1712, ‘Tho’ he tips them a pike, they oft nap him again.’ cf. PIKE OFF and PIKE ON THE BEEN.

pike I

! An interjection implying prior claim or privilege: schools’: C.19–20; ob. ?=I go first. (cf. BAGS; PLEDGE.) Also in the form, prior pike!

pike it

*. To go, depart: c. > low s.: late C.18–20. G.Parker, ca 1789, ‘Into a booze-ken they pike it.’ Elaboration of PIKE, v., 1. cf.:

pike it!, if you don't like it take a short stick and

. A London c.p., rhyming variety, of ca 1870–1900. Ex preceding.

pike-keeper

. A toll-keeper: coll and dial.: 1837, Dickens. Abbr. turnpike-keeper.

pike off

*. To depart; run away: c.: late C.17–20; ob. In mid-C.19–20, it is also common in dial. 2. To die: c.: late C.17–20; ob. Elaborations of PIKE, go, die.

pike on the been (or bene)

*. To run away as fast as possible: c.: mid-C.17–18. Origin, meaning of been? Prob. it=bien, bene, excellent: hence, run away on a good road, i.e. to good purpose.

piked off

*, ppl adj. Clear away, safe; dead: c.: late C.17–20; ob.

pikeman

. A toll-keeper: coll and dial.: 1857, ‘Tom Brown’ Hughes. cf. PIKE-KEEPER.

piker

*. A tramp or a vagrant; occ. a Gypsy: c. (–1874) ex dial. (–1838). Borrow, Lavo-Lil, 1874. Ex PIKE, v., 1, or PIKE IT. 2. The nose: North Country (mostly Northumberland) low s.: late C.19–20. 3. Gen. in pl, wild cattle: Australia: late C.19–20; ob. Ex PIKE (OFF), go, depart.

pikestaff

. The penis: low coll: C.18–20; ob. pikestaff, plain as a, see PLAIN...

pikey

*. A tramp, a Gypsy: c. (or low s.) and dial.: mid-C.19–20. cf. PIKE and PIKER.

pilcher

. A coll term of abuse: ca 1600–40. Ben Jonson. Perhaps pilcher, a pilchard.

pile, go the whole

. To GO THE WHOLE HOG: lower classes’ (–1887).

pile, have a

. To have a difficult task, a hard time: Canadian coll: late C.19–20.

pile, make one's

. To make a fortune: coll: from ca 1850. Mostly Colonial and U.S.; pile itself (1731) is S.E. Ex idea of a pile of coins.

pile-driver

. The male member: low: mid-C.19–20: ob. 2. A heavy blow or punch: sporting coll: mid-C.19–20, pile-driving

. Sexual intercourse: low: mid-C.19–20. cf. preceding term. 2. Steaming or sailing into a heavy head sea: nautical: late C.19–20. Bowen.

pile it on

is a coll form of pile on the agony, see AGONY.

piie up

. To run (a ship) ashore: nautical coll: late C.19–20.

Pilgarlic(k)

; in C.18, occ. Peel(e) Garlic, as in Grose (1st ed.). Used of oneself; almost always poor Pilgarlic: coll and dial.: C.17–20; rare after ca 1880. Anticipated in Skelton; Beaumont & Fletcher, ‘There got he a knock, and down goes pil-garlick’; Echard, 1694; Swift, ‘They all went to the opera; and so poor Pilgarlick came home alone’; Grose; Punch, 21 April 1894, ‘No! ’tis Bull is pilgarlic and martyr’; Collinson, 1927, ‘The once popular “Everybody’s down on poor Pilgarlic”...’ Ex S.E. sense, a bald head (which resembles a peeled head of garlic). 2. A fop: early C.18. Ned Ward.

pilgrim-salve or pilgrim’s salve

. Excrement: coll: mid-C.17–early 19. Anon., A Modern Account of Scotland, ‘The whole pavement is pilgrim-salve.’ The O.E.D. considers it euphemistic S.E., but I very much doubt this classification.

pilgrim’s staff

. The membrum virile: low: C.18–19.

pill

. A physician: 1860, H., 2nd ed.: military from ca 1855; †by 1915. cf. BOLUS. Also pills, 1899, Cassell’s Saturday Journal, 15 March. 2. A ball, esp. a black balloting-ball or a tennis ball: late C. 19–20. cf. PILLS, 2, and the v., 1. 3. (Of a person) a bore: 1897, Maugham, ’Liza of Lambeth, ‘Well, you are a pill!’; slightly ob. 4. Punishment; suffering; a sentence of imprisonment: low coll: from the mid1890s. Abbr. bitter pill; often ‘That’s a pill, that is!’ 5. A drink: from ca 1899; ob. 6. As a cannon-ball or a bullet, pill (C.17–20) is rather jocular S.E. than coll in C.17– mid-19, then coll. 7. (In billiards) see PILLS, 3.

pill

, v. To reject by ballot: 1855, Thackeray, 'He was coming on for election... and was as nearly pillled as any man I ever knew in my life.' 2. v.i., to twaddle, talk platitudinously: university: ca 1885–1910.

pill and poll

*, v.t. To cheat (a comrade) of (his REGULARS): c.: from ca 1835. Ex S.E. sense.

pill-box

. A small brougham: coll: 1855, Dickens, referring, however, to a few years earlier; ob. by 1895. 2. A doctor's carriage: ca 1870–1910. 3. A pulpit: jocular coll: from ca 1870; ob. 4. A soldier's cap: ca 1890–1910.

pill-driver

. An itinerant apothecary: coll: mid-C.19–20. Ex S.E. pill-monger, -peddler. cf. PILL-PUSHER.

pill-pate

. A friar; a shaveling: C.16 coll. Bacon, 'These smeared pill-pates, I would say prelates,...accused him.' i.e. pilled or shaven pate.

pill-pusher

. A doctor: lower classes' (–1909). cf. (?ex) PILL-DRIVER.

pill-yawl

. A Bristol Channel pilot boat: nautical: late C.19–20. Bowen.

pillar and post

. A ghost: 'the ghost' (monetary, see GHOST WALKS...): theatrical rhyming s.: late C.19–20.

pillars to the temple

. A woman's legs: Public Schoolmen's: late C.19–20. Not so much euphemistic as playfully allusive.

pil(l)icock, pil(l)cock, pillock

. The penis: a vulgarism: C.14–18. Lyndsay, Florio, Cotgrave, Urquhart, D'Urfey. 2. Hence an endearment, addressed to a boy: late C.16–17: a vulgarism. Florio. Whence:

pil(l)icock (etc.)-hill

. The female pudend: low: C.16–17. Shakespeare, in King Lear, puns thus on Lear's pelican daughters: 'Pillicock sat on pillicock-hill.'

pilling

. The vbl n. of PILL, v., 1. Recorded in 1882; but prob. 27 years earlier.

pillocks; pillocky

. 'He's talking pillocks' (nonsense) and 'Don't talk so pillocky' (so foolishly and nonsensically): Cockney: late C.19–20. Blend of PILL(S), testicle(s), and its synonym BALLOCKS.

pillory

. A baker: late C.17–mid-18. ?semantics.

pillow-mate

. A wife; mistress; harlot: coll: C.19–20.

pillow-securities

. Safe scrip: financial coll: ca 1860–1915. Ware quotes the Daily Telegraph, 8 July 1896, “‘Pillow securities’—those which do not trouble an investor’s dreams at night and which a man need not worry about.’

pillows under folk’s, men’s, or people’s elbows, sew

. To give them a false sense of safety or security: coll: late C.14–17. The Geneva Bible; Wycherley.

pills

. A physician, esp. in Army and Navy: see PILL, n., 1. 2. Testicles: low: late C.19–20. Ex PILL, n., 2. 3. Billiards, esp. in play pills: 1896, Westminster Gazette, 28 Oct., ‘We can play pills then till after lunch, you know.’ cf. PILL, n., 2. 4. The inevitable nickname of any man surnamed Holloway: naval and military: late C.19–20. Prob. ex the well-known Holloway’s Pills and Ointment.

pilot, sky

, see SKY PILOT.

pilot’s grog

. Additional liquor served in an Indiaman beating up the Hughli under a pilot: nautical coll: mid-C.19–early 20.

pimgenet, pimgim(n)it

. ‘A large, red, angry Pimple’, B.E.; any pimple, O.E.D.: s. > coll: late C.17–18; extant in C.19 as dial. cf. the C.18 c.p. nine pimgenets make a pock royal.

Pimlico, walk in

. (Of a man) to be handsomely dressed: ca 1670–1720. Aubrey. The walks called Pimblico-Path, near the Globe Theatre, London, were frequented only by well-dressed men. cf. the C.19 Devonshire to keep it in Pimlico, to keep a house clean and attractive.

pimp

. A male procurer: C.17–20. ‘The word is app. of low slang origin, without any recorded basis,’ The Century Dict.; B.E. and Grose still consider as s. or coll, but prob. S.E. by 1660. Perhaps ex Old Fr. pimpreneau, a scoundrel. 2. ‘A small faggot used about London [and the Southern counties] for lighting fires, named’—orig., Defoe tells us, by the woodmen—‘from introducing the fire to the coals,’ Grose, 1st ed. Coll: from ca 1720; ob., except in Surrey.

pimp-whisk

, from ca 1700; pimp-whiskin(g), 1638, Ford. A PIMP, esp. a notable pimp: s. or low coll, †by 1830. 2. ‘Also a little mean-spirited, narrow-soul’d Fellow’, B.E.: coll: late C.17–mid-18. Obviously whiskin(g) is an elaboration or a diminutive of WHISK, a whipper-snapper.

pimple

. A boon companion: late C.17– early 18. Congreve, 1700, ‘The sun’s a good Pimple, an honest Soaker.’ 2. The head: low: C.19–20; ob. (With these senses, considered together, cf. C.20 old top.) 3. A hill: lower classes’: from late 1890s. 4. The nose: pugilistic: ca 1815–60. ‘A Real Paddy’, 1822. 5. A baby’s penis: women’s: late C.19–20.

pimple and wart

. A quart: public-house rhyming s.: late C.19–20. 2. Port wine: public-house rhyming s.: late C.19–20.

pimple in a bent

. Something minute: coll: ca 1580–1650. Stanyhurst, ‘I should bee thoght over curious by prying owt a pimple in a bent.’ A bent is either a grassstem or a flower-stalk. cf. thimble in a haystack.

pin

. See PINS. 2. The penis: low coll: C.17–20. Glapthorne. cf. PIN-CASE. 3. A trifle; almost nothing, as in not worth a pin, care not a pin. Perhaps orig. (C.14) coll, but very soon S.E. 4. 4½ gallons; the vessel holding it: 1570, O.E.D.: perhaps coll in C.16–17, but thereafter, if not from the first, S.E.

pin

, v. To seize: 1768, the Earl of Carlisle, ‘I am sure they intended to pin my money’; ob. 2. Hence, to steal, esp. if rapidly: c.: C.19–20; ob. cf. NAB; PINCH; SNAFFLE. 3. To catch, apprehend: c. (—1864). 4. To pawn clothes (v.i.): low: from ca 1880; ob. Prob. a corruption of pawn.

pin, be down

. To be indisposed: coll: C.19–20; ob. cf. PEG TOO LOW.

pin, keep in the

. To abstain from drinking: from ca 1835: dial., and s. >, ca 1880, coll. Prob. suggested by PIN, PUT IN THE. cf. PEG, PUT ON THE,.

pin, let loose a

. To have an outburst, esp. go on a drinking-bout: from ca 1850: dial., and s. >, ca 1880, coll; ob.

pin, nick the

. To drink fairly: coll: mid-C.17–18. cf. PEG phrases. In old-fashioned tankards, there were often pegs or pins set at equal perpendicular distances.

pin, put in the

. To cease; esp. to give up drinking: from ca 1830: dial., and s. >, ca 1880, coll. Mayhew. For semantics, cf. preceding entry; perhaps, however (as the O.E.D. suggests), ex a pin or a peg used for making something fast or for checking motion, the pin being a linch-pin. As a c.p. it='put a sock in it!', i.e. close your mouth!, SHUT UP!: ca 1860–90.

pin-basket

. The youngest child in a completed family: coll in C.18–mid-19, then dial.

pin-buttock

. A thin or a bony buttock or behind: late C.16–20 (ob.): coll >, ca 1660, S.E. Shakespeare, All's Well, 'The pin-buttock, the quatch-buttock, the brawn-buttock, or any buttock'. Opp. BARGE-ARSE, and comparable with S.E. pin-tail.

pin-case or -cushion

. The female pudend: low: C.17–20; ob. See PIN, n., 2.

pin-money

. A woman's pocket-expenses: late C.17–20; coll till C.19, then S.E. Orig. a settled allowance: see, e.g., Grose. 2. Money gained by women from adultery or occasional prostitution: late C.19–20; slightly ob. Allusion to PIN, n., 2.

pin-pannierly fellow

. A covetous miser: coll: ?C.17. Kennett MS. (Halliwell). One who pins up his panniers or baskets; one who hates to lose a pin.

pinch

. A certainty: racing: from ca 1885. Marshall, Pomes, from the Pink 'Un, 1886–96. ?by confusion with U.S. cinch. 2. pinch, the. Pilfering during purchase; exchanging bad for good money, or giving short change: c.: late C.18–20; slightly ob.

pinch

*, v. To steal: from ca 1670: c. until ca 1880, then also low s. Head, 1673, 'To pinch all the lurry he thinks it no sin.' Ex the pinching movement of predatory fingers. cf. MAKE; NAB; NICK; WIN. 2. Hence (gen. pinch...for), to rob (a person): C.19–20, ob.; c. until ca 1860, then also low s. 3. v.i., to pass bad money for good: c. of ca 1810–60. Ex sense 1. cf. the n., 2. 4. To arrest: c.: 1860, H., 2nd ed.; 1861, Mayhew, 'He got acquitted for that there note after he had me pinched.' Similar semantics. cf. GRAB; PULL IN. To urge (a horse), esp. press it hard; exhaust by urging: racing coll: 1737, Bracken, 'It is the vulgar Opinion that a Horse has not been pinch'd...when he does not sweat out.'

pinch, on a

. A somewhat illiterate variant of at a pinch: prob. from ca 1800.

pinch, on the

*. A-stealing, either as at PINCH, n., 2, or gen. From ca 1800.

pinch-back, -belly, -commons, -crust, -fart, -fist, -gut, -penny, -plum

. A miser; a niggard: all coll > S.E.: -back, C.17–19; -belly, 1648, Hexham; -commons, Scott, 1822, ‘niggardly pinchcommons’, ob.; -crust, C.17–18, as in Rowlands, 1602; -fart, late C.16–17, as in Nashe; -fist, late C.16–20, ob.; -gut, a niggardly purser: nautical (–1867), ex pinch-gut, a miser, mid-C.17–20, slightly ob.—in C.19–20, a vulgarism. cf. PINCH-GUT MONEY; -penny, C.15–mid-18, as in Lyly, ‘They accompt one...a pynch penny if he be not prodygall’; -plum, from ca 1890.

pinch-bottom, -buttock, -cunt

. A whoremonger: low coll: C.19–20; ob. cf. PINCH-PRICK.

pinch-fart, pinch-fist

, see PINCH-BACK.

pinch-gloak

*. A shoplifter: c.: from ca 1810; ob. See GLOACH and PINCH, v., 1, and n., 2.

pinch-gut

. See PINCH-BACK and cf. PINCH-GUT MONEY. 2. Hence, a badly fed ship: nautical coll: mid-C.19–20.

Pinch-Gut Hall

. ‘A noted House’—?a tavern-brothel—‘at Milend’, —i.e. Mile End Road, East London—‘so Nicknam’d by the Tarrs, who were half Starved in an East-India Voiage, by their then Commander, who Built (at his return) that famous Fabrick, and (as they say) with what he Pinch’d out of their Bellies’, B.E. Late C.17–mid-18.

pinch-gut money

. ‘Allow’d by the King to the Seamen, that Serve on Board the Navy Royal, when their Provision falls Short; also in long Voyages when they are forced to Drink Water instead of Beer’, B.E. Coll, from ca 1660; ob. Smyth, who gives it as pinch-gut pay (1867).

pinch-gut vengeance

, see WHIP-BELLY.

pinch on the parson’s side

, see PARSON’S SIDE. pinch-penny, -plum, see PINCHBACK.

pinch-prick.

A harlot: a wife keen, and insistent, on her conjugal rights: low coll: C.19–20; ob. cf. PINCH-BOTTOM, etc.

pinch the regulars

*. To take an undue share, or keep back part of the booty: c.: C.19–20. See PINCH, v., and REGULARS.

pinch-wife

. A churlish, vigilant husband: (rather low) coll: C.19–20; ob.

pincher

*. A thief, esp. a shoplifter: c.: C.19–20. 2. One who indulges in the act of PINCH, v., 3: same status, period, and authority. 3. Pincher is the ‘inevitable’ nickname, mostly naval and military, of any man surnamed Martin: late C.19–20. Bowen, ‘After Admiral Sir William F. Martin, a strict disciplinarian, who was constantly having ratings “pinched” for minor offences’.

pinching lay

*. The giving of short change or bad money: c.: late C.18–20; ob. Also the pinch. See PINCH, v., 3, and n., 2.

pincushion

, see PIN-CASE.

ping

. To speak in a quick singing high voice: sportsmen's: first half of C.19. Ware, 'From the sharp ping of the old musket'.

pink

. An outstanding SWELL or dandy: buckish: ca 1815–40. Pierce Egan, 1821.

pink

, adj. Smart; exceedingly fashionable: 1818, Lady Morgan, 'It was Lady Cork's "Pink night"; the rendezvous of the fashionable exclusives': †by 1890, except in U.S. Ex †S.E. sense, exquisite.

pink, Dutch

. Blood: boxing: 1853, Bradley's Verdant Green, 'That'll take the bark from your nozzle, and distill the Dutch pink for you, won't it?' Ob. by 1910. Ex the S.E. sense (1758).

pink spiders (occ. elephants)

. Delirium tremens: late C.19–20: mostly low. Ob.

pink wine

. Champagne: military (–1909); ob. Prob. an evasion.

pinkany, -eny

; variants in -ck-; also pink nye, pinken eye, etc. (As an endearment) darling, pet: nursery coll > S.E.: late C.16–early 17. Nashe, Massinger. Lit. pink (a narrow, hence little, hence dear) eye, Influenced by PIGSNEY.

pinked

, ppl adj. Carefully and beautifully made: tailors’: mid-C.19–20.

pinker

. A blow that draws blood: pugilistic: ca 1880–1914.

pinkie, pinky

. Anything small; orig. and esp. the little finger: Scots coll, mostly among children: C.19–20. Lit., the little pink one. 2. Red wine: since ca 1890; ob.

pinking dindee

. A sweater or mohawk: Irish coll: C.18. Lit., a ‘turkey-cock’ given to pinking with a rapier.

pinky

, see PINKIE.

pinna, pinner, pinny

. A pinafore: resp. C.19–20, coll; from ca 1845, coll (†by 1910) and dial.; from ca 1855 (G.Eliot, 1859), coll, mostly nursery. (cf. the forms NANNY, NANNA.)

pinnel, OCC. pennel

*. Penal servitude: c.: from ca 1860; ob. By abbr. and corruption of the two defining words. H., 1874, ‘As “four-year pinnel”’. cf. PENAL.

pinner

, see PINNA.

pinner-up

*. A seller of broadside songs and ballads: c.: 1851, Mayhew; ob. by 1900. Even in 1873, H. could write, 'There are but one or two left now.' Songs were usually pinned-up on canvas against a wall.

pinnicky pawnee (or -ie)

and numerous other spellings. Drinking-water: mid-C.19–20: Indian >, by 1900, gen. Army s.

pinnock to pannock, bring

. To cause ruin: coll: C.16–early 17. Huloet, 1552, 'Brynge somethynge to nothyngge, as the vulgare speache is, to brynge pynnock to pannock.' Origin obscure.

pinny

, see PINNA.

pins

. (Rare in singular.) Legs: coll and dial.: 1530, Anon., Hickscorner, 'Than wolde I renne thyder on my pynnes As fast as I might goe'; 1781, General Burgoyne in one of his sprightly comedies, 'I never saw a fellow better set upon his pins.' Ex the primary sense of pin: a peg. cf. PEG-LEG.

pins, on one's

. Alive; faring well (cf. S.E. on his legs); in good form: coll and dial.: from ca 1810.

pins and needles

. The tingling that accompanies the restoration of circulation in a benumbed limb: coll: 1844, J.T.Hewlett; 1876, G.Eliot, 'Pins and needles after numbness'. Ex the feeling of being pricked with those articles.

pin's head in a cartload of hay, look for a

. To attempt the impossible: coll: mid-C.16–18. Calphill, 1565. Hence find a pin's head ..., to do wonders. cf. thimble in a bottle of hay or in a haystack.

pinsrap

. A parsnip: back s.: from ca 1880.

pint

. Praise; recommendation: tailors': from ca 1860; ob. A pint is sufficient recommendation?

pint, the price of a

. A sum sufficient to buy a pint of ale or beer: coll: late C.19–20.

pint of mahogany

. (A glass of) coffee: low (–1909). Ex its colour.

pint-pot

. (A nickname for) a seller of beer: coll: ca 1560–1620. Shakespeare.

pintle

. The penis: pintel in A.-S., it is S.E. until ca 1720, then (dial. and) a vulgarism (ob.): cf. the degradation of PIZZLE and PRICK.

pintle-bit or -maid

. A mistress; a kept whore: low coll: C.19–20; ob.

pintle-blossom

. A chancre: low: C.18–20; ob. Contrast GROG-BLOSSOM.

pintle-case

. The female pudend: low: C.19–20; ob. See PINTLE.

pintle-de-pantledy

. ‘Sadly Scared, grievously put to it’, B.E. at pit-a-pat: coll: mid-C.17–early 19. Skinner, 1671.

pintle-fancier or -ranger

. A wanton: Jow: C.19–20; ob. cf. PINTLE-MERCHANT.

pintle-fever

. Syphilis or gonorrhoea: low coll: C.19–20; ob.

pintle-keek

. An inviting leer: low Scots coll: C.19–20.

pintle-maid

, see PINTLE-BIT.

pintle-merchant, -monger

. A harlot: C.18–20: low. Ob. cf. Yorkshire pintle-twister.

pintle-ranger

. See PINTLE-FANCIER and cf. PINTLE-BIT and PINTLE-MERCHANT.

pintle-smith, -tagger

. A surgeon: low coll: from ca 1780.

pints round

! A c.p. request to one dropping his shears: tailors': from ca 1850; very ob. by 1902. cf. PINT.

pinurt pots

. Turnip tops: back s. (–1859).

pioneer

. An early convict in Australia: Australian ironic coll: mid-C.19–20.

pip

, preceded by the. Syphilis: coll verging on S.E.: late C.16–17. Ex the poultry disease. 2. The mark on a playing-card: coll (–1874). H., 5th ed., ‘The ace is often called “single pip”.’ 3. See PIP, GET THE and GIVE THE.

pip

, v. To blackball: clubs’: 1880, Huth’s Buckle. Prob. suggested by PILL, v. 2. To take a trick from (an opponent): cards: from ca 1885. 3. To hit with a missile, esp. a bullet; to wound; to kill: military: 1900. Perhaps ex sense 1 or as with a fruit-pip, or ex: 4. To beat, defeat, e.g. in a race: 1891. Ex senses 1 and 2. 5. To fail (a candidate): 1908.

pip, get or have the

. To be depressed; (ob.) to be indisposed: coll: from ca 1885. Marshall, in Pomes, ‘It cost a bit to square up the attack;|For the landlord had the pip.’ Ex the poultry disease via the Thackerayan ‘The children ill with the pip, or some confounded thing’, 1862. cf. Devonshire dial. take the pip, to take offence: occurring as early as 1746.

pip, give the

. To depress; from ca 1890: coll.

pip-pip

! A ‘hue and cry after anyone, but generally a youth in striking bicycle costumery’: low (–1909). Ex the cyclist’s warning by horn. Ware. 2. Good-bye!: from ca 1904.

pipe

. The human voice: C.17–20: S.E. until late C.19, then coll; slightly ob. Ex pipe, a bird's note or song. 2. A boot; esp. a top-boot: low (?orig. c.): from ca 1810. Ob. (Extremely rare—?non-existent—in the singular.) 3. The female pudend: low: C.19–20. 4. The urethra: late C.19–20. Abbr. water-pipe. 5. A satirical song, ballad, or prose-piece written on paper, which was then rolled up in the form of a pipe and left at the victim's door: Tasmanian coll: early C.19. 6. A good look (at..): low: from ca 1880. Ex the v., 4.

pipe

, v. To talk; speak: coll: late C.19–20. Esp. in pipe-up, speak up, as in Whiteing's remarkable novel, No. 5 John Street (1899), 'Nance is called to oblige with a song. She is shy...But the Amazon brings her forward..."Pipe up, yer blessed little fool".' Ex playing on a pipe. 2. To weep: low: 1797, Mrs M.Robinson; ob. Ex PIPE AN (or ONE'S) EYE, than which it has been much less gen. 3. To follow, to dog: detectives' s. (–1864). 4. (Also pipe off.) Hence, to watch; spy: c.: from ca 1870. H., 1874; 'Pomes' Marshall; 'Dagonet' Sims. 5. v.i., to pant, breathe hard from exertion or exhaustion: boxing: 1814. De Quincey, 1827, 'The baker came up piping'; Dickens, 1848. Ex pipes, the lungs.

pipe, Her Majesty's or the Queen's (tobacco-)

. 'The kiln in the great East Vault of the Wine-Cellars of the London Docks, where useless and damaged goods that have paid no duty are burnt: as regards tobacco, a thing of the past, stuff of this kind being distributed to workhouses, &c.', F. & H., 1901 (pub. 1902). Coll: from ca 1840.

pipe, take a

. To weep: 1818, Hogg; ob.: Scots coll. cf. PIPES, TUNE ONE's, and:

pipe an or one's eye, OCC. one's eyes

. To weep: 1789, C.Dibdin: nautical s. >, ca 1860, gen. coll. 'An obscure variation on to pipe away..., with allusion to the boatswain's whistle', W.Earliest, pipe one's eye; pipe one's eyes, from ca 1810, ob. in C.20; pipe an eye is loose and rare. cf. PIPE, v., 2.

pipe and smoke it!, put that in your . Digest that if you can!: coll: 1824, Peake; Dickens in Pickwick; Barham; Miss Braddon.

pipe down

. To be quiet: nautical coll: mid-C.19–20. Ex S.E. sense, 'to dismiss by sounding the pipe', and cf. PIPE, v., 1.

pipe in (or OCC. with) an ivy-leaf

. To busy oneself, either to no purpose or, more gen., as a consolation for failure; to do any silly thing one likes, gen. as you may go pipe in an ivy-leaf: coll: C.14–20; very ob.—indeed, rare since C.17. Semi-proverbial. An ivy-leaf being emblematic of very small value, and it being a notable art of country boys to produce shrill sounds by blowing through folded leaves or grass-blades.

pipe-layer, -laying

. Political intriguer, intrigue: orig. (ca 1835), U.S.; partly anglicized ca 1890: coll. Ex a water-supply camouflaging an electoral plot.

pipe off

*, see PIPE, v., 4.

pipe on

*. To inform against: c.: from ca 1875; ob. See PIPE, v., 4.

pipe one's eye

. A variant of PIPE AN EYE.

pipe-opener

. (An) exercise taken as a 'breather': coll: 1879. Ex pipes, the lungs.—Ware classifies it as a university term and defines it as the 'first spurt in rowing practice—to open the lungs'.

pipe out, put one's

. To spoil one's chance, sport, or showing; to extinguish: 1720, Ramsay, 'Their pipe's put out': coll till C.19, then S.E. and dial.; ob. 2. Hence, to kill: low: from ca 1860; ob.

pipe up

. See PIPE, v., 1. 2. Also, to call, shout: same period.

pipeclay

. v.t., to put into meticulous order (esp. accounts): 1833, Marryat; 1853, Dickens; nautical coll >, ca 1860, gen. coll. Ex pipe-clay, a white cleaning-material. 2. v.i. and t., to hide defects in material or mistakes in workmanship: from ca 1850. Ex sense 1.

piper

. A broken-winded horse: 1785, Grose; 1831, Youatt: s. >, ca 1825, j. cf. ROARER. Connected with S.E. pipes, lungs. 2. A detective or spy: c.: from ca 1850. Esp., ca 1860–1910, a person employed to spy on the conductor of an omnibus: low.

piper!, by the

. A mild, proletarian asseveration (–1887); slightly ob. Ex dial.

piper, drunk as a

. Very drunk: 1770, Graves, Spiritual Quixote, ‘Jerry...proceeded so long...in tossing off horns of ale, that he became as drunk as a piper’: coll >, early in C.19, S.E.; †by 1890. (Dial.: piper-fou.)

piper (occ. fiddler), pay the

. To pay the bill, lit. and fig.: 1681, Flatman; Congreve; Smollett; Brougham; Carlyle: coll till C.19, then S.E.

piper's cheeks

. Puffed, swollen, or very big cheeks: coll: late C.16–17. Withals, 1602.

piper's news

. Stale news: Scots coll: from ca 1820; ob. Hogg.

piper's wife

. A whore: coll: late C.18–19.

pipers

. Lungs: pugilistic: mid-C.19–20; ob.

pipes

. See PIPE, n., 2. A boatswain: nautical nickname: early-C.19–20. Ex the giving of orders by sounding a pipe.

pipes, pack, or put, or shut up one's

. To cease from action, more gen. from speech: coll: mid-C.16–18; in C.18, virtually S.E. Olde, 1556, put up; Nashe, pack up. While shut up is C.18 and perhaps early C.19. Ramsay has poke up. Ex the 'musical tube'.

pipes, set up one's

. To cry aloud; yell: ca 1670–1800: coll >, by 1710, S.E.

pipes, tune one's

. (To begin) to weep or cry: Scots coll and dial.: late C.18–20. Ex PIPE, voice, and pipes, lungs.

piping

, n. Weeping, crying: s. >, ca 1850, coll: 1779, Seward, 'No more piping, pray'; Marryat, 1837. Ex PIPE, v., 2, though piping is recorded the earlier.

pipkin

. The female pudend, esp. in crack her pipkin, to deflower a girl or woman: low: late C.17–early 19. Ned Ward, 1709; Grose. Ex cook's breakages, pipkin being a small earthenware pot. 2. The head; pugilism: from ca 1820; ob. Jones, The True om'd Boxer, 1825. 3. H., 1860, gives pipkin, the stomach, as Norwich s. (or coll): perhaps rather dial. Extremely ob.

pippin

. A pejorative term of address: ca 1660–1820. Cotton, 1664, 'Thou'rt a precious Pepin,[To think to steal so sllily from me.' Whence: 2. (Gen. my p.) An endearment, mostly costermongers': C.19–20; ob. cf. RIBSTONE. N.B.Byron called his wife 'Pippin'.

pippin, sound as a

. Rosy-cheeked; very healthy: lower classes' coll (–1887). Ex the apple's 'high colour'.

pippin-squire

. An APPLE-SQUIRE: s. or coll: C.17. Rowlands.

pippy

. Shaky (of stocks): Stock Exchange: from ca 1890. ?ex PIP, GET THE.

pipey

. Apt to PIPE AN EYE: from ca 1860: s. >, by 1890, coll.

pirate

. Gen. pl. Naval small craft on any irregular or detached duty: naval coll: late C.19–20. Bowen.

pirler

. An occ. form of PURLER.

piscatorial

. Dubious: jocular: since ca 1845, but never common. (Francis Francis, Newton Dogvane, 1859.) A word-play on FISHY, 1.

piso

. A miserly or stingy fellow: military: late C.19–20. cf. the †Northern dial. pesant, ‘a stern, hard-hearted miser’.

piss

, n. Urine: late M.E. + : S.E., but in C.19–20 a vulgarism. Ex:

piss

, v. To urinate: M.E. + : S.E., but considered a vulgarism from ca 1760. (Because of its ‘shocking’ association, wrongly regarded as low coll. cf. ARSE; CUNT; SHIT.) Ex Old Fr. pisser, prob. echoic.

piss!, a

. A vulgar Restoration expletive. Etherege, The Man of Mode.

piss, do a

. To make water: low coll: C.19–20. See PISS, n.

piss, rods in

. A prospective punishment, scolding: low coll: from ca 1620. Mabbe, 1623; Cotton, Virgil Travestie, 1678. Ob. Like brine, urine hardens canes.

piss, so drunk that he opened his shirt collar to . Blind drunk: low coll: C.19–20; ob.

piss-a-bed

. The dandelion: coll verging on S.E.; also dial.: mid-C.16–20; †by 1900, except in dial. Ex (not its colour but) its diuretic virtues. cf. Fr. pisser-en-lit.

piss blood

. To toil: low coll: late C.19–20. Ex strain of effort. cf.:

piss bones or children or hard

. To be brought to childbed: low coll: C.19–20; ob. cf. the preceding entry.

piss down one's back

. To flatter him: low coll: late C.18–19.

piss-factory

. A public-house: C.19–20 (ob.); low. Liquor makes rapid urine.

piss-fire

. A blusterer: C.18–19: (low) coll and dial. ?ex the old proletarian habit of extinguishing a fire by pissing it out. cf. the †proverb, money will make the pot boil though the devil piss in the fire.

piss in a quill

. To agree on a plan: coll: C.17–19.

piss-kitchen

. A kitchen maid: low coll: C.18–19.

piss-maker

. A great drinker: low coll: late C.18–19.

piss money against the wall

. To squander, waste money, esp. in liquor: late C.15–19: S.E. until C.18, then (low) coll.

piss more than one drinks

. Gen. pisses... he... A semi-proverbial c.p. preceded by vain-glorious man and applied to a boaster: late C.17–early 19.

piss off

. To depart, esp. to depart quickly: low: late C.19–20.

piss on a nettle

. See NETTLE, TO HAVE PISSED ON A, and cf. the proverbial as surly as if he had pissed on a nettle.

piss one's tallow

. To sweat: C.17–20; very cb. Urquhart, 'He's nothing but Skin and Bones; he has piss'd his Tallow.' Ex S.E. sense of a deer thinning in the rutting-season.

piss out of a dozen holes

. To have syphilis: low: late C.19–20.

piss pins and needles

. To have gonorrhoea: low coll: from ca 1780.

piss-pot

. A nickname for a medical man: coll: late C.16–17. Ex: 2. A chamber-pot: mid-C.15–20: S.E. until mid-C.18, then a vulg. 3. An objectionable fellow (a STINKER): late C.19–20.

piss-pot emptier

. A cabin steward: Merchant Navy: late C.19–20.

piss-proud

. Having a urinal erection: low coll: late C.18–20. Grose, 2nd ed., where occurs the c.p. that old fellow thought he had an erection, but his—was only piss-proud, ‘said of any old fellow who marries a young wife’. cf. PRIDE OF THE MORNING.

piss pure cream

. To have gonorrhoea: low: C.19–20, ob. cf. PISS PINS AND NEEDLES.

piss the less,—let her cry, she'll

. A semiproverbial c.p.: late C.18–20; ob. Supposed to have orig. been addressed by consolatory sailors to their harlots. In Grose, 3rd ed., it occurs in the form the more you cry, the less you'll p-ss.

piss (up)on, as good...as you would desire to

. Excellent; extremely, as in Tom Brown's 'There are some Quacks as Honest Fellows as you would desire to Piss upon', 1700: (low) coll: late C.17– early 19. cf. PISSED, AS GOOD...and POT, AS GOOD...

piss-warm

, adj. Distastefully tepid: low coll: late C.19–20.

piss when one can't whistle

. To be hanged: low: from ca 1780; ob.

pissed, as good—occ. as very—a knave as ever

. As good a man, etc.—as big a knave—as may be: (low) coll: C.18–20; C.18–19. See POT, AS GOOD..., and cf. PISS UPON...

pissed in the sea,—‘every little helps’, as the old woman (or lady) said when she

. A c.p. applied to urinating in sea or stream, hence to any very small contribution: mid-C.19–20. Adumbrated in the proverbial saying, ‘Everything helps, quoth the wren, when she pissed into the sea’—quoted by The Oxford Dictionary of Proverbs for the date 1623.

pisser

. The penis; the female pudend: low s. or coll: C.19–20. 2. A urinal: low coll: late C.19–20.

pisser, vinegar-

. A niggard; miser: coll: C.18. 2. ? (in C.17) a sour fellow: cf. Anon.’s 2nd Return from Parnassus, 1602, ‘They are pestilent fellowes, they speake nothing but bodkins, and pisse vinegar.’

pisses my goose, such a reason

. A very poor reason: C.18–19: low coll. cf. PISSETH...GOOSE.

pisseth, by fits and starts as the hog

. Jerkily; intermittently: coll: C.18–19.

pisseth, when the goose

. Never. Often preceded by you'll be good. Coll: C.18–20; ob. cf. PISSES MY GOOSE, SUCH A REASON.

pissing

, vbl n. As in the tin-whiffin is when you can't shit for pissin(g), a low rhyming c.p.: ca 1870–1910.

pissing

, adj. Paltry; brief: coll verging on S.E. (cf. piddling): C.16–early 19.

pissing candle

. A small make-weight, or any very inferior candle: coll almost S.E.: C.18–19.

Pissing Conduit

. A conduit with a flow resembling a stream of urine, esp. 'one near the Royal Exchange set up by John Wels (Lord-mayor, 1430),' F. & H.: late C.16–17. Shakespeare, 1 Henry the Sixth, IV, vi: 'I charge and command that, of the city's cost,|The pissing conduit run nothing but claret wine,|The first year of our reign.'

pissing-while

. A very short time; an instant: coll: C.16–mid-19. Palsgrave; Still, Gammer Gurton's Needle, 'He shall never be at rest one pissing-while a day'; Shakespeare; Ray's Proverbs.

pissy pal

. A public house crony: mostly Cockney: late C.19–20. Ex their simultaneous use of the urinal for the discharge of their heavy cargo.

pistol

. A swaggering bully: coll >, ca 1640, allusive S.E.Shakespeare, Merry Wives, dramatis personae, 'Bardolph, Pistol, Nym, sharpers attending on Falstaff'. cf. Florio's definition of pistolfo. 2. The male member: late C.16–20; low coll verging on euphemistic S.E.; ob. See esp. Shakespeare, King Henry the Fifth, II, ii, the play on Pistol's name and pistol.

pistol-shot

. A drink: ca 1850–1910. cf. (drink a) SLUG and S.E. pocket-pistol.

pit

*. A breast-pocket; a fob: c.: from ca 1810; ob. 2. The female pudend. It is an open question whether pit and its variants, pit-hole and -mouth, pit of darkness, and bottomless pit, are low coll or euphemistic S.E. C.17–19.

pit, fly or shoot the

. To turn tail: coll verging on S.E. and indeed, in C.19, achieving it: ca 1670–1890. The form with shoot occurs in a letter written by Andrew Marveil in 1675. Richardson, Pamela, ‘We were all to blame to make madam here fly the pit as she did.’ As does a cowardly cock in cock-fighting.

pit, knight of the

, see the KNIGHT paragraph.

pit, shoot the

, see PIT, FLY THE.

pit and boxes (or, in C.19–20, back and front shops) into one, lay

. To remove or destroy the division between anus and vagina: from ca 1780; ob. ‘A simile borrowed from the playhouse, when, for the benefit of some favourite player, the pit and boxes are laid together,’ Grose, 1785.

pit(-)circler

. An occupant of the pit: theatrical: ca 1880–1910.

pit-hole

. A grave: lower classes' coll (–1887). 2. See PIT, 2.

pit-man

*; pitman. A pocket-book carried in the breast-pocket: c. (–1812); †by 1900. Ex PIT, n., 1 + -MAN(S), the c. suffix.

pit-pat's the way

! Go on!; don't stop!: proletarian c.p.: ca 1870–1914.

pit-riser

. A burst of powerful acting which evokes an enthusiastic acclamation from the pit: theatrical: from ca 1814; ob. Ex a saying by Edmund Kean.

pitch

. A place of sale or entertainment; a stand: 1851, Mayhew: showmen's and tramps' s. >, ca 1870, low coll >, ca 1880, coll >, ca 1910, S.E. Prob. ex pitch a tent. 2. Hence, a sale, a performance: low (showmen's, tramps'): from ca 1860. Vance, The Chickaleary Cove, ca 1864; Hindley, 1876, 'When I had done my pitch and got down from the stage.' 3. A short sleep: low: from ca 1870; ob. 4. A talk, chat: 1892, Pall Mall Gazette, 7 Sept.: in Australia, prob. since ca 1870. Ex PITCH A TALE.

pitch

, v.i. To sit down; take a seat (and a rest): late C.18–20; coll; ob., except in dial. (where pitch oneself). Ex S.E. sense, to place oneself. 2. To do business: showmen's and tramps': from ca 1880. Henley, 1887, 'You swatchet-coves that pitch and slam'. Esp. among circus folk, 'To go on tour': prob. since ca 1865. Like the n., 1, this may orig. have been c. Also PITCH, DO A. 3. See PITCH A or THE FORK, A TALE. 4. To utter base coin: c. (–1874). 5. To go to bed for less than the ordinary time; have a short sleep: esp. among bakers, busmen, etc.: from ca 1870. Perhaps because they pitch themselves down on the bed.

pitch, do a

. See PITCH, n., 2, and v., 2. From ca 1860. Henley, 1887, 'A conjuror Doing his pitch in the street.'

pitch, make a

. (Of a cheapjack) to attempt to do business: low coll (–1874).

pitch, queer the.

To spoil a sale, a performance: showmen's and cheapjacks': 1875, Frost, Circus Life. See PITCH, n., 1, 2.

pitch a or the fork, a tale

. To tell a story, esp. if romantic or pitiful: resp. s., ca 1859–1920; from ca 1865; s. Anon., A Lancashire Thief, 'Brummagem Joe... could patter and pitch the fork with any one'; London Herald, 23 March 1867, 'If he had had the sense to...pitch them a tale, he might have got off.' cf. PITCH IT STRONG. 2. See PITCH THE FORK.

pitch-and-Fill

. Bill=William. Rhyming s. (–1859).

pitch and pay

, v.i. To pay on the nail: coll: C.15–mid-19. Tusser; Shakespeare, Henry the Fifth, 'Let senses rule; the word is "pitch and pay";|Trust none'; Evans, Yorkshire Song, 1810. Ex a Blackwell Hall enactment that a penny be paid by the owner of every bale of cloth for pitching.

pitch-fingers

. A pilferer. Whence pitch-fingered thievishly inclined. Coll: from ca 1840.

pitch in

, v.i. To set vigorously to work: coll, chiefly U.S. and Colonial: 1847 (O.E.D.). 2. Hence, to take a hand; to begin eating: coll: from ca 1850. Perhaps ex:

pitch into

. To attack energetically, with blows or words (hence, to reprimand): Sessions, 1827, ‘Beddis...began to pitch into Joseph Durden with his fists’; Dickens, 1852 (with words); Grant Allen, 1885 (of eating heartily). Coll.

pitch it

. To desist; leave one’s job; to cease doing something: tailors’: late C.19–20.

pitch it mild

. Usually in imperative. Don’t exaggerate: a Canadian coll variant of DRAW IT MILD: late C.19–20. cf.:

pitch it (too) strong

. To exaggerate: from ca 1870: s.

pitch-kettled

. Puzzled; ‘stumped’: ca 1750–1830. Cowper, ‘I...find myself pitch-kettled,|And cannot see...|How I shall hammer out a letter.’ Lit., stuck fast, as in a kettle of pitch.

pitch-pole, pitchpole

. To sell at double the cost price: coll: ca 1850–90.

pitch the fork

. See PITCH A FORK. 2. Hence, to put a penny on the counter for, say, bacon and to receive both the bacon and the penny: vagrants' c.: from ca 1870. Thus the tramp avoids a charge of mendicancy.

pitch the hunters

, see HUNTERS.

pitch the nob

, see PRICK-THE-GARTER.

pitch-up

. One's family or chums; a group or crowd: Winchester: from ca 1850. Hence:

pitch up with

. To associate with: Winchester: from ca 1860.

pitched

. CUT: tailors': from ca 1860.

pitcher

. The female pudend: low coll: C.17–20; ob. Wycherley. 2. A street vendor: since ca 1870: s. 3. See SNIDE-PITCHER.

pitcher, bang a

. To drain a pot: coll: C.19–20; ob. cf. †S.E. pitcher-man, a toper.

pitcher, crack a

. To take a virginity; whereas crack one's pitcher is to lose it: C.18–20; ob. Coll, almost S.E. See PITCHER, 1, and cf.:

pitcher, cracked

. A harlot still faintly respectable: coll: mid-C.18–mid-19. Smollett.

pitcher that holds water mouth downwards, the miraculous

. The female pudend: a conundrum c.p. of mid-C.18–mid-19.

pitcher-bawd

. ‘The poor Hack’—wornout whore—‘that runs of Errands to fetch Wenches or liquor’, B.E.: low coll: late C.17–mid-18.

pitching, go (a)

. To turn somersaults: circus (–1887).

pitchpole

, see PITCH-POLE, pitchy-man, See DOLLY-MAN.

pitman

*. An occ. form of PIT-MAN.

pitman's crop

. A very close hair-cut, usual among miners on account of the dirty nature of their work: mining-towns' coll: late C.19–20.

pitster

. One in, a frequenter of, the pit: theatrical coll (–1887). Perhaps on TIPSTER.

pittite

. One sitting in the pit at a theatre: coll: 1807 (S.O.D.). Thackeray. Occ. pitite.

Pitt's picture

. A bricked-up window: ca 1787–1800: political. Done by the poor and the miserly, to save paying Pitt's window-tax.

pity the poor sailor on a night like this

! A semi-jocular c.p. à propos of a stormy night: late C.19–20.

piz or pizz

. A young man-about-town: Society: ca 1760–80. cf. PUZ(Z).

pize on, upon, of

; pize take it; etc. Coll imprecations: C.17–20. Since ca 1840, only dial. Cognate, prob., with pest, POX, and possibly POISON. Middleton, Shadwell, Smollett, Scott.

pizzle

. The penis of an animal, esp. of a bull: from ca 1520. Hence, C.17–20, of a man. S.E. until ca 1840, then dial. and a vulg. Ex Flemish pezel or Low Ger. pesel, orig. a little sinew.

pizzle

, v. (Of the male) to coït with: C.18–20: low coll. Ex the n.

place

. An abode; a place of business: coll: mid-C.19–20. 2. A privy, a w.c.: coll: C.19–20; ob. 3. the place, the privities: low coll or perhaps euphemistic S.E.: C.18–20. Sterne, ‘You shall see the very place, said my uncle Toby. Mrs Wadham blushed.’

place

, v. To identify (thoroughly); remember in detail: orig. (ca 1855) U.S.; anglicized as a coll ca 1880.

place, hot

, see HOT PLACE.

place of sixpenny sinfulness

. The suburbs; esp. a brothel there: coll: C.17. Dekker.

placebo, be at or go to the school of—hunt (a)—make—play (with)—sing (a)

. To play the sycophant, be a time-server or servile: coll: resp. approx. mid-C.16—early 17 (Knox); 1360–1600 (Langland); 1480–1600 (Caxton); 1580–1650; 1340–1700 (Chaucer, Bacon). Ex the Office for the Dead. Lit., L. placebo=I shall be acceptable.

placer

*. A woman in an official brothel, e.g. in France: c., esp. white-slavers': from ca 1895.

placket

. A woman, as sex; the female pudend: low coll: resp. C.17; C.17–18. With second sense, cf. placket-racket, the penis (Urquhart). Ex placket, a petticoat-slit or (dress or petticoat) pocket-hole, occ. a chemise.

placket-stung

. Venereally infected: coll: mid-C.17–18. Ray.

plague

. Trouble: coll: 1818, Scott, ‘Deil a ...body about my house but I can manage when I like...; but I can seldom be at the plague’, i.e. of doing it. (Slightly ob.) Like the next seven entries, ex the weakening of S.E. sense of the respective words. 2. The menses: women’s: mid-C. 19–20. cf. the CURSE.

plague

, v. To trouble, bother; tease, annoy: late C.16–20: S.E. until C.18, then coll. Gay, 1727, ‘Husbands and wives... plaguing one another’; 1833, Harriet Martineau.

plague

! In ‘a plague (up)on, of’, or ‘take’: from ca 1560; ob. Coll verging on S.E. and, after ca 1720, better considered as S.E. Also how the, or what a, plague!: late C.16–18: coll > S.E.

plagued

. PLAGUILY: coll (–1887). Baumann, ‘I’m plagued hard up.’

plaguesome

. Troublesome, teasing, annoying: C.19–20; S.E. > coll ca 1860; ob.

plaguily

. Exceedingly: coll: C.18–20. Swift; Landor, 1828, ‘Ronsard is so plaguily stiff and stately.’ Ob. by 1850.

plaguy

. ‘Pestilent’; CONFOUNDED; excessive, very great: coll: late C.17–20; ob. Motteux, 1694, ‘Women that have a plaguy deal of religion’; Punch, 17 May 1879, ‘A plaguy rise in the price’.

plaguy

, adv. Exceedingly, very: coll: from ca 1740, earlier examples connoting a degree of some quality that troubles one by its excess. Richardson, in Pamela, ‘I’m a plaguy good-humoured old fellow.’ Ob. Ex preceding entry.

plain

. Unwatered, undiluted, neat: coll: from ca 1850. Only of drinks.

plain as a pack-saddle

. Obvious; very open: coll: mid-C.16–mid-18. T.Wilson, 1553; Wither; Ray; Bailey.

plain as a packstaff

. The more gen. C.16–17 form (Becon, J.Hall) of:

plain as a pikestaff

. Very clear or simple; beyond argument: late C.16–20: coll >, ca 1750, S.E. Shacklock, 1565; Greene, 1591; Smollett; D’Urfey; Trollope. cf. preceding and:

plain as a pipe-stem

. Exceedingly plain, clear: coll: late C.17–18. cf. last three, and next two, entries.

plain as Salisbury

. The same: coll: 1837, Dickens; curiously adumbrated, as the O.E.D. indicates, in Udall, 1542. Punning Salisbury Plain. (By the way, plain as the sun at noonday is S.E.) cf. Shakespeare’s plain as way to parish-church.

plain as the nose on one's or your face

. The same: coll: late C.17–20. Congreve, “‘As witness my hand’...in great letters. Why, ’tis as plain as the nose on one’s face.’

plain-headed

. Plain(-looking): Society: ca 1880–1910.

plain over (someone), put the

. To search: Scottish (esp. Glasgow) policemen’s: since ca 1880. Ex-Inspector Eliot, Tracking Glasgow Criminals, 1904.

plain statement

. An easy piece of work; a meal plain to indifference: tailors’: from ca 1860; slightly ob. Ex a statement contrasted with an invoice.

Plains of Betteris

. ‘The diversion of billiards’, Egan’s Grose: Oxford University: ca 1820–40.

plaister

, see PLASTER.

planet

*. A candle: c.: 1840, Longfellow; ob. by 1890. (As source of light.)

plank

, v. To put or set down; deposit: s. and dial.: 1859 (O.E.D.). Perhaps ex U.S. sense (no. 3), though this may well come ex Eng. dial. Note, however, that, 2, Egan's Grose, 1823, has plank, to conceal, and classifies it as Scottish c.—which suggests that, in this sense, the term is a perversion of PLANT, v., 1. 3. To table (money); pay readily: earliest Eng. record, 1835, Crockett (plank up); the U.S. dates (see esp. Thornton) are: plank, 1824; plank up, 1847; plank down, 1850. Both nuances are prob. a fusion of put on the plank(s) and plank as an echoic v. expressing violent action (cf. plonk); note that Ware has plank the knife in(to), to stab deeply.

plant

*. A hiding-place (orig. at a FENCE'S): c.: from ca 1787. Ex the v., 1. 2. Hence, hidden plunder or valuables (the plant): c.: from ca 1810. 3. 'A position in the street to sell from', H., 1 st ed.: low: from ca 1858; slightly ob. 4. A swindle or a cleverly planned robbery: c. >, ca 1890, low s.: 1825, Westmacott. 5. A spy; detective: c.: 1812, Sporting Magazine; ob. Hence, 6, a decoy: c.: from ca 1830; ob. 7. A cordon of detectives: c.: 1880. 8. Loosely, a trick, a deception: 1889, Notes and Queries, 'The dispassionate scholar finds the whole thing a "plant".' (Senses 1–3: ex the v., 1; the other senses, derived from these.) 9. (Extremely rare in singular.) A foot: (?) low: C.17–18. Ex †S.E. plant, the sole of the foot.

plant

*. To conceal, hide: c.: C.17–20, Rowlands, Martin Mark-All, ‘To plant, to hide’. Now esp. Australian, says the O.E.D. in 1909. Ex the planting of a seed, perhaps influenced by sense 2. cf. the, n., 1, 2. 2. Hence, to hide (esp. horses) until a suitable reward is offered: Australian: 1840, Sydney Herald, 10 Feb. 3. To place or set in position; to post (a person): mid-C.16–20: S.E. till ca 1705, then coll >, by 1780, low coll. J.Drake, 1706; Zangwill, 1892. 4. Whence, to achieve, or to assist, sexual intromission: C.17–20: low coll. cf. PLANT A MAN. 5. To bury: Grose, 1785; Mark Twain, Innocents at Home. 6. To abandon: s. or coll: 1821, Byron; rare and ob. cf. Fr. planter là. 7. To select a person or a building for a swindle or a robbery: c.: C.19–20; ob. 8. To plan, or devise, or prepare by illegal methods: c. or low s.: 1892, Daily News, 27 May, ‘The affair was “planted” between two brothers.’ 9. To utter base coin: c.: C.19–20; ob. 10. To HUMBUG; deceive: c.: C.19–20; ob. 11. To dispose cards for cheating: c.: from ca 1840. 12. (In mining) to SALT: c. almost imm. > low s.: from ca 1850. Reade, 1850. 13. In conjuring, to prepare a trick by depositing an object in the charge of a confederate: coll: from ca 1880. 14. To deliver (a punch); to drive (the ball) into the goal or ‘into’ another player: boxing, football: from 1808 and ca 1880 resp.: s. >, as to football, coll in C.20. 15. Hence, to hit: at certain Public Schools, esp. Marlborough: late C.19–20. C.Turley, Godfrey Marten, Schoolboy, 1902, ‘You would plant him every time if you were taught properly.’

plant, in

*. In hiding; hidden: c.: 1812, Vaux. Ex PLANT, n., 1.

plant, rise the

*. ‘To take up and remove anything that has been hid, whether by yourself or another’, Vaux, 1812: c. cf.:

plant, spring a

*. To unearth another’s hidden plunder: c.: 1812, Vaux. cf. preceding.

plant a man

. To copulate: coll: C.18–19. (Rarely of a woman.)

plant home

. To deliver (a, or as a, blow); hence, in argument, to make a point, and, in gen., to succeed (plant it, or one, home). From ca 1885: s. A special use of PLANT, v., 14

plant the books

*. To stack the cards: c.: mid-C.19–20: ob. See PLANT, v., 11.

plant (the) whids and stow them

*. To be very wary of speech; purposely say nothing: c.: C.17–mid-19. Rowlands, Grose. cf. STOW it!; WHID=word.

plant (a person) upon (another)

*. ‘To set somebody to watch his motions’: c. (–1812); ob. Vaux. Merely a special application of PLANT, v., 3.

planter

. A blow; esp. a punch in the face: sporting: from ca 1820; ob. Sporting Magazine, 1821, 'Smith put in a dreadful planter on Powell's throat.' 2. A horse apt to refuse to budge: (orig. Anglo-Indian) coll: 1864, 'Competition Wallah' Trevelyan. 3. A stealer and then hider of cattle: Australia: 1890, 'Rolf Boldrewood'. Ex PLANT, v., 1; cf. PLANT, v., 2, and:

planting

, adj. Cattle-stealing: Australia: 1890, 'Rolf Boldrewood'. cf. PLANT, v., 2; PLANTER, 3.

planting

, n. A burial: Welsh: mid-C.19–20. cf. PLANT, v., 5.

plants

, see PLANT, n., 9.

plants, water one's

. To shed tears: C.19.

plaster

. A huge shirt or applied collar: non-aristocratic: ca 1890–1914. Ware. This looks like a corruption of Fr. plastron, a (stiff) shirt-front.

plaster

, v. To shatter (a bird) with shot, blow it into a pulp: sporting: 1883, Bromley-Davenport. cf. quotation at PLASTERER. 2. To flatter (a person); proletarian: from ca 1860; ob.

plaster of warm guts

. ‘One warm Belly clapt to another’, B.E.: ‘a receipt frequently prescribed for different disorders’, Grose, 1785. A late C.17–mid-19 low coll, almost a (men’s) c.p. cf. the frequent, and often well-meant c.p. advice, what you need is a woman: mid-C.19–20.

plasterer

. A clumsy shot with a gun (cf. PETER GUNNER): sporting: 1883. Bromley-Davenport, Sport, 1885, ‘The plasterer is one who thinks nothing of the lives and eyes of the men who surround him, and blows his pheasant to a pulp before the bird is seven feet in the air.’ cf. PLASTER.

plasterer’s trowel and Seringapatam

. Fowl and ham: rhyming s. (–1909); ob.

plate, be in for the

. To be venereally infected: ca 1780–1850. ‘He has won the heat...a simile drawn from horse racing,’ Grose, 1785.

plate, foul a

, see FOUL A PLATE.

plate-fleet comes in, when the

. When I make or get a fortune: coll: ca 1690–1830. The Plate fleet was that which carried to Spain the annual yield of the American silver mines. cf. the C.19–20 when my ship comes in.

plate it

. To walk: from ca 1890: rather low, slightly ob. Ex PLATES.

plate of meat

. A street: rhyming s. (–1857). Contrast PLATES OF MEAT.

plated butter

. A piece of butter genuine superficially, internally lard: low London (–1823); †by 1900.

plates

. Short for PLATES OF MEAT: from ca 1885. Marshall, ‘Pomes’, ‘A cove we call Feet, sir, on account of the size of his plates’.

plates of meat

. Feet: rhyming s. (–1874).

play

, v. See PLAY IT OFF and PLAY OFF. 2. To make fun of: coll: 1891, Kinglake, in The Australian at Home, ‘They do love to play a new chum.’

play a big game

. To try for a big success: low (–1909).

play a cross

*, see PLAY A CROSS.

play a dark game

. To conceal one’s motive: coll, verging on S.E.: from ca 1885. Milliken, 1888, ‘Bin playing some dark little game?’

play across

*; occ. play a-cross or a cross. Same as play BOOTY: c. of ca 1810–70.

play artful

. To feign simplicity; keep something in reserve: low coll: from ca 1840.

play at hell and turn up Jack was a nautical elaboration (?ca 1790–1860) of play hell, to cause a tremendous commotion or much damage. John Davis, The Post-Captain, 1806.

play at push-pin or two-handed put

, see PUSH-PIN...

play board

. The stage in Punch and Judy: showmen's coll: mid-C.19–20.

play camels

. To drink too much: to get drunk: Anglo-Indian (–1909). Ex a camel's drinking habits.

play diddle-diddle

, v.i. To play tricks; to wheedle: coll: C.16. Skelton.

play it off

. To make an end; the imperative=it's time you finished: s. or coll: late C.16–mid-17. See esp. Shakespeare, 1 Henry the Fourth, II, iv, 'They call drinking deep, dyeing scarlet; and when you breathe in your watering, then they cry hem, and bid you play it off.' Lit., orig., and gen., however, this is merely a form of PLAY OFF, v., 2.

play it (too) low

; occ. play low. To take (a mean) advantage: s. > coll: resp. 1892, Zangwill; Referee, 15 Aug. 1886. 2. v.t., play or play it(low) down on: U.S. (1882), anglicized ca 1890: s. > coll. Marie Corelli, 1904.

play least in sight

, v.i. To hide; keep out of the way: coll: C.17–mid-19. R.West, 1607.

play low, play low down (on)

, see PLAY IT (TOO) LOW.

play off

; play with oneself. To masturbate: low: C.18–19; C.19–20. 2. To toss off or finish (liquor): late C.16–mid- or early 17. See quotation at PLAY IT OFF; Dekker, 1607, ‘He requested them to play off the sacke and begon.’

play off one’s dust

. To drink: ca 1870–1910. (Remove it from one’s throat.)

play owings

. To live on credit: sporting (–1909): s. verging on coll.

play possum

, see POSSUM. play square, see SQUARE. play straight, see STRAIGHT.

play tapsalteerie

. To leap backwards; fall head over heels: Scots coll: 1826, John Wilson. The Scots adv. tapsalteerie (?ex top+Fr. sauter)=topsy-turvy.

play the ace against the jack

. (Of a woman) to grant the favour: low: C.19–20; ob. A figure that, taken from cards, is suggested by jack=JOHN THOMAS.

play the duck

. To show oneself a coward: coll: C.17. Urquhart.

play the game

. To act honourably: coll: 1889, Daily Chronicle, 2 May 1904. ‘Men do not talk about their honour nowadays—they call it “playing the game”.’ (Lit., playing to the rules; cf. it’s not CRICKET and PLAY UP, 1.)

play the (giddy) goat

, see GOAT, PLAY THE, and GIDDY GOAT.

play the Jack

. To play the knave: coll: ca 1560–1700. Golding; Ray.

play the whole game

. To cheat: ca 1780–1840. Grose, 1785. Perhaps lit., play every trick one can: as well as one knows.

play to the gallery

. To court applause, esp. if cheaply and coarsely: theatrical coll: from ca 1890.

play to the gas

, says the Daily Mail of 16 March 1899, ‘is used in the general sense in reference to small audiences, but strictly it means that an audience was only large enough to render receipts sufficient to pay the bill for the evening’s lighting.’ Theatrical s.: ca 1890–1905.

play up

. To do one’s best: coll: from ca 1895. Newbolt, 1898, ‘Play up, play up, and play the game!’ See also PLAY THE GAME: prob. both phrases are taken from the playing-fields, but play up may have been suggested by PLAY UP TO. 2. To be troublesome: coll: late C.19–20. Of animals, esp. horses, and persons.

play up to

. To take one’s cue from another: to humour another, back him up, or to meet him on his own ground; to flatter: coll: from ca 1825. (Implied in) Disraeli, 1826. cf. PLAY UP, 1. Ex: 2. So to act in a play as to assist another actor: theatrical s.: 1809, Malkin, ‘You want two good actors to play up to you.’

play with oneself

, see PLAY OFF.

play with (the ease of) a tooth-pick

v.t. To play (one's opponents' bowling) with ease: cricket coll: 1899, J.C.Snaith; slightly ob.

please God we live

. God permitting: lower classes' coll (–1887).

please, I want the cook-girl

! A London c.p. directed at, or said of, 'a youth haunting the head of area steps': ca 1895–1915. Ware.

please oneself

. To do just as one likes: coll, esp. in please yourself!: late C.19–20. Ex the S.E. sense, to satisfy, esp. to gratify, oneself.

please the pigs

, see PIGS, PLEASE THE.

pleased as a dog wlt h two choppers

. Delighted: mostly lower-class: late C.19–20. With two tails. cf.:

pleased as a dog with two tails

. Delighted: coll: late C.19–20.

pleased as Punch, (as)

. Extremely pleased: 1828, The Night Watch (II, 126).

pleasure-baulker

. A petticoat: buckish: ca 1810–40. David Carey, Life in Paris, 1822.

pleasure-boat

. The female pudend: low: C.19–20; ob.

pleasure-garden padlock

. A menstrual cloth: C.17–early 19. ?coll or euphemistic S.E.

pleb or plebs

. At Westminster School, a tradesman's son: pejorative: mid-C.19–20; slightly ob. Ex L. plebs, the proletariat. 2. (Only as pleb.) Any plebeian: 1823, 'Jon Bee'. cf. U.S. plebe, a newcomer at West Point, and:

plebbish

; plebbishness. Plebeian (character or condition); caddish(ness): 1860, O.E.D. See preceding.

plebs

, see PLEB, 1.

pleceman, pliceman

; or p'l. -A policeman: low coll (–1887).

pledge

. To give away. Esp. in pledge you!, after you (with that)!, and I'll pledge it you when I've done with it. Winchester: C.19–20. See esp. R.G.K.Wrench, Notions, 2nd ed., 1901.

plenipo

. A plenipotentiary: coll: 1687, Dryden; rare in C.19–20. Vanbrugh, 1687, ‘I’ll...say the plenipos have signed the peace, and the Bank of England’s grown honest.’ 2. The male member: low: C.18–19. cf. Captain Morris’s scabrosity, The Plenipotentiary, ca 1786.

plenipo

, v.i. To be or act as a plenipotentiary: coll: 1890. Rare.

pliceman

, see PLECEMAN.

plier

. A hand: from ca 1830: somewhat low. In C.20, ob. 2. (Gen. plyer.) A crutch: c.: mid-C.17–early 19. 3. A trader: coll: C.18–early 19. The idea of plying one’s trade is latent in all three senses.

ploll-cat

. A whore: C.17. A corruption of †S.E. pole-cat, the same.

plotty

. Full of intrigue, having an intricate plot, as in Edwin Pugh, Tony Drum, 1898, ‘Novels of a common type, plotty and passionate, but gilt-edged with the properties.’

plough

, n. Ploughed land: hunting s. >, ca 1900, hunting coll: 1861, Whyte-Melville, ‘It makes no odds to him, pasture or plough.’ Ex East Anglian dial., where it occurs in 1787. 2. Rejecting a candidate in an examination, whether action or accomplished fact: 1863, Charles Reade. (cf. PLOUGHING.) Ex:

plough

, v. To reject in an examination: university (orig. Oxford): 1853, Bradley, Verdant Green; 1863, Reade, ‘Gooseberry pie...adds to my chance of being ploughed for smalls.’ cf. S.E. pluck, concerning which, in relation to plough, Smyth-Palmer in his Folk-Etymology makes some interesting, by no means negligible, suggestions.

plough the deep

. To (go to) sleep: rhyming s. (–1859).

plough with dogs!, I might as well

. This is useless, or very ineffective!: C.17–20: a c.p. >, by 1700, semi-proverbial; from ca 1860, only in dial.

ploughed

, ppl adj. See PLOUGH, v. 2. Topsy: low: ca 1852–1910. cf. SCREWED.

ploughing

. A plucking in an examination: university: 1882, Emma Worboise. Ex PLOUGH, v., and cf. PLOUGH, n.

plouter

, see PLOWTER.

plover

. A wanton (cf. PHEASANT and QUAIL): c.: C.17. Ben Jonson. 2. A dupe or a victim: c.: ca 1620–40. Esp. green plover, as in Jonson and Chapman, ‘Thou art a most greene Plover in policy, I Perceive.’ Prob. suggested by equivalent PIGEON, and cf. GREEN.

plowed

, see PLOUGHED.

plowter

; occ. plouter. To copulate: low: C.19–20; ob. ?plough corrupted or ex plouter, plowter, to splash about in mire or water.

'ploy, ploy

. To employ: dial. (late C.17–20) and, hence coll, late C.19–20. As a n., it is used in the Public Schools for a task.

pluck

. Courage: 1785, Grose: boxing s. >, ca 1830, gen. coll. Scott, in 1827, called it a 'blackguardly' word, and ladies using it during the Crimean War were regarded with the same shocked admiration as one felt towards those who in the War of 1914–18 used the exactly analogous guts; it is now almost S.E. Ex pluck, the heart, lungs, liver (and occ. other viscera) of an animal, hence, ca 1710, of a person. 2. In photographs, boldness, distinctness of effect: photographic: 1889. cf. PLUCKY, 2.

pluck, against the

. Reluctantly: ca 1785–1850: s. > coll.

pluck a pigeon

, see PIGEON, n., 4.

pluck a rose

. To visit the privy: coll: C.17–19. Chiefly among women and because the rural w.c. was often in the garden.

pluck Sir Onion or the riband

. To ring the bell at a tavern: resp. late C.17–mid-18; late C.17–early 19. Prob. riband refers to a bell-push; perhaps onion, the round ‘handle’.

pluck-up fair

. ‘A general scramble for booty or spoil’, O.E.D.: ca 1570–1650: coll.

plucked

. Courageous: gen. preceded by cool-, good-, rare-, or well-; or by bad-. Coll: 1848, Thackeray (good plucked); Hughes, 1857 (bad plucked); 1860, plucked ’un.

plucked, hard-

. Hard-hearted: coll: 1857, Kingsley; ob. cf. bad-PLUCKED and PLUCKLESS.

pluckily

. Bravely: coll: 1858, Trollope.

pluckless

. Faint-hearted: coll > S.E.: from ca 1820; ob. Ex PLUCK, 1.

plucky

. Courageous, esp. over a period or by will-power: coll: 1842, Barham, ‘If you’re “plucky”, and not over-subject to fright’; Disraeli, 1826, had ‘with as plucky a heart’. Ex PLUCK, n., 1; cf. PLUCKED. 2. (Of negative or print) bold, distinct: photographic coll: 1885. cf. PLUCK, n., 2.

pluff

. A shot from a musket, etc.: coll: 1828, J.Wilson. Ex the echoic S.E. (mainly Scots) pluff, an explosive emission of air (1663). cf. PLUFFER. 2. As adv. or interjection: coll, mainly Scots: 1860. cf. S.E. phit.

pluffer

. A shooter, a gunner: coll (orig. Scots): 1828, J.Wilson. See PLUFF, 1.

plug

, n. A punch; a knock (occ. fig.): 1798, Pitt, ‘The bill...in spite of many Plugs from Sir W.Pulteney, will certainly pass.’ 2. A draught of beer: 1816, ‘Come, sir, another plug of malt,’ O.E.D. Ob. 3. An inferior horse: s.: Colonial and—prob. ex—U.S.: 1872, in U.S. Also old plug, ob. Ex plug, a stop-hole, perhaps influenced by plug-tobacco, often inferior and rank. But in Australia, from ca 1880, a good, steady, though slow horse, and in New Zealand, late C.19–20, a horse that is ‘a good sort’. 4. Hence, an inferior, deteriorated, or damaged object or person: from ca 1890. 5. Hence, a workman with irregular apprenticeship: mostly artisans': from ca 1875. 6. Any defect: low: from ca 1895. Ex senses 1, 3. 7. A translation: school and university: 1853, Bradley, Verdant Green, 'Those royal roads to knowledge ...cribs, crams, plugs, abstracts, analyses, or epitomes'. Ob. by 1900. 8. A 'plughat', i.e. a top hat: U.S. (-1864), partly anglicized ca 1890; Kipling, e.g., uses it in 1891. Prob. because 'the head fits in it like a plug'.

plug

, v. (Of the male) to coït with: low: C.18–20. cf. PLUG-TAIL. Ex S.E. sense, drive a plug into. 2. To punch, esp. plug in the eye: 1875, P.Ponder, 'Cries of... "Plug him!"...'. cf. sense 1. 3. To shoot (v.t.): 1875, J.G.Holland; 1888, 'Rolf Boldrewood', 'If that old horse... had bobbed forward...you'd have got plugged instead.' 4. To continue, persist, doggedly: 1865, at Oxford (O.E.D.); soon gen. 5. 'To labour with piston-like strokes against resistance': 1898, G.W. Steevens (that brilliant unfortunate). 6. to kick (a person's) behind: from ca 1870; ob.

plug-tail

. The penis: low: late C.17–18. Ned Ward, A Walk to Islington, 1699.

plugger

; plugging. An impersonator, -ation, at elections: Canadian coll: 1897, Westminster Gazette, 1 Dec. ?ex plug, to insert something closely (as a stop-gap). 2. e.g. a rower, a runner, who 'plugs' along; the corresponding effort: coll: late C.19–20. Ex PLUG, v., 4.

pluggy

. Short and stumpy: dial. (-1825) >, ca 1860, coll. Agnes Strickland, 1861, 'A short, pluggy (thick) man, with a pug nose'. Ex S.E. n. plug.

plum

; in C.17–18, gen. plumb. A fortune of £100,000:1689, the Earl of Ailesbury. Steele, ‘An honest gentleman who...was worth half a plumb, stared at him’; Thackeray. Slightly ob. 2. Hence, loosely, a fortune: coll: 1709, Prior, ‘The Miser must make up his Plumb,’ though here, as in most other instances, the specific sum may be intended. Slightly ob. 3. (?hence) a rich man; orig. and properly, the possessor of £100,000; C.18–early 19. Addison, 1709, ‘Several who were Plumbs ...became men of moderate fortunes.’

plum, give a taste of

. To shoot (a person) with a bullet: low: 1834, Ainsworth; †by 1900. i.e. plumb, lead.

plum-cash

. Prime cost: pidgin English (–1864).

plum-duff

. Plum-pudding or dumpling: 1840: coll, orig. nautical, >, ca 1890, S.E.

plum pudding

. A coach-dog (the dog with dark spots which runs after carriages): Mayhew, II, 1851. Ex the markings; it is a sort of Dalmatian.

plum-tree!, have at the

. A c.p., either semi-proverbial or in allusion to a song: C.18–19. Punning S.E. plum-tree, the female pudend (Shakespeare). cf:

plum-tree shaker

. ‘A man’s yard’, Cotgrave, 1611, at hoche-prunier. C.17–18.

plumb

, n. See PLUM. 2. v.t., to deceive: ca 1850–1910: low. ?ex plumb, to fathom. 3. v.i. (1889) and v.t. (C.20), to work (properly, in lead) as a plumber: coll.W. S.Gilbert, ‘I have plumbed in the very best families.’ Ex plumber.

plumb

, adv. As an intensive: quite; completely: 1587, Anon., ‘Plum ripe’: coll >, by 1750, also dial. In mid-C.19–20, mainly U.S., but wherever used, in this period rather s. than coll.

plummy

. Rich; desirable; very good: 1812, Vaux: s. >, ca 18 80, coll. London Herald, 23 March 1867, ‘Ain’t this ’ere plummy?’ Ex S.E. plum, something good.

plummy

, adv. Well; ‘nicely’: Cockney: 1851, Mayhew, I; †by 1910. Ex adj.

plummy and slam

*. All right: c.: ca 1860–1910.

plump

. A heavy fall or sudden plunge: coll verging on S.E.: from ca 1450. 2. Hence, a blow (cf. PLUMPER): 1763, C. Johnston; 1785, Grose, ‘I’ll give you a plump in the bread basket’: s. >, by ca 1810, coll. Ob. by 1850.

plump

, v. To utter suddenly, abruptly; blurt out: coll verging on S.E.: 1579, Fulke, ‘A verie peremptoire sentence, plumped downe...’ 2. To come (very suddenly, i.e.) plump; plunge in, burst out: coll, bordering on S.E.: 1829, Lamb. 3. To shoot; hit hard, punch: 1785, Grose, ‘He pulled out his pops and plumped him’; †by 1860.

plump

, adj. Big; great; well-supplied: coll, verging on S.E.: 1635, Quarles, ‘Plump Fee’; B.E., ‘Plump-in-the-pocket, flush of Money’; Pollok, 1827. Slightly ob. 2. (Of speech) blunt, flat: coll verging on S.E.: 1789, Mme D’Arblay, ‘She...made the most plump inquiries.’ Slightly ob. cf. the adv., 2, PLUMPLY, 1, and PLUMPNESS.

plump

, adv. With a sudden fall or encounter: late C.16–20: coll verging on and sometimes merging in S.E.: 1610, Jonson. 2. Bluntly, flatly: 1734, North, ‘Refuse plump’: coll. cf. the adj., 2.

plump currant

. In good health; gen. in negative: ca 1787–1850.

plumper

. A heavy blow: 1772, Brydges, ‘Gave me a plumper on the jaw,|And cry’d: Pox take you!’ †by ca 1860. 2. An arrant lie: low coll: 1812. Ob. 3. Something that, in its kind, is uncommonly large: coll: 1881, Punch, 1 Oct. 4. Hence, all one’s money staked on one horse: turf coll: from ca 1881.

plumply

. Unhesitatingly; plainly, flatly: coll bordering on S.E.: 1786, Mme D’Arblay, ‘The offer was plumply accepted.’ Slightly ob. cf. PLUMP, v., 1, and adj., 2; also PLUMPNESS. 2. With a direct impact: same status: 1846, O.E.D. cf. PLUMP, n., 1; PLUMP, v., 2.

plumpness

. (Of speech) directness, bluntness: coll verging on S.E.: 1780, Mme D’Arblay.

plunder

. Gain, profit: from ca 1850. Mayhew, 1851, 'Plunder...a common word in the horse trade.' Ex the S.E. sense of property acquired illegally or shadily. 2. A grafter's stock or goods: grafters': from ca 1890. Perhaps ex sense 1.

plunge

, n. A reckless bet: from ca 1877: racing s. >, ca 1890. gen. coll. Ex:

plunge

, v. To bet recklessly; speculate deeply: 1876, Besant & Rice, 'They plunged..., paying whatever was asked.' (Orig. and mostly) racing s. >, ca 1890, gen. coll. Lit., 'go in deep'.

plunger

. A cavalryman: military: 1854, Thackeray, 'Guardsmen, "plungers", and other military men'. Prob. plunge (of a horse), to throw by plunging. 2. A reckless better, gambler, speculator: 1876, 'The prince of plungers'. Ex plunge, to dive. 3. A Baptist: Church s.: C.19–20. Ex plunging (immersion) in water at baptism.

plunging

. Reckless betting, deep speculation: 1876: racing s. >, ca 1890, gen. coll.

plunk

. A fortune; any large sum: 1767, Josiah Wedgwood; †by 1850. cf. the U.S. plunk, a dollar. As it precedes plunk, the v., by some thirty years, the word may be ex PLUM, 1, on CHUNK or hunk.

plush

. The pubic hair: low: C.19–20. cf. FLEECE, 2. 2. Overplus of grog: nautical: 1825, Glascock, The Naval Sketch-Book (I, 24). Slightly ob. 3. Hence, that overplus of gravy which goes to the cook of each mess: nautical (–1867).

Plush, John

. A footman: coll: from ca 1845; ob. Ex plushes, such plush breeches as are worn by footmen, +Thackeray's The Yellowplush Papers, 'by Charles Yellowplush, Esq.', the former recorded in 1844 (O.E.D.), the latter pub. in 1837.

plyer

*, see PLIER.

Plymouth cloak

*. A cudgel: 1608: c. >, ca 1660, low s. >, ca 1700, s.; †by 1830, except historically. Dekker, 'Shall I walk in a Plymouth cloak (that's to say) like a rogue, in my hose and doublet, and a crabtree cudgel in my hand?' The staff, cut from the woods near Plymouth by sailors recently returned from a long voyage, was jocularly supposed to serve as a cloak to those walking in cuerpo, i.e. in hose and doublet: Ray's Proverbs. Bowen notes that in the old Navy it='an officer's or warrant officer's cane'.

po

. A chamber-pot: C.19–20: coll >, ca 1880, low coll. (When, as rarely, written or pronounced pot, it is S.E.) Ex the pronunciation of pot in Fr. pot de chambre.

poach

. To blacken (the eyes): boxing s. > gen. ca 1890: ca 1815–1920. Moore, Tom Crib, ‘With grinders dislodg’d, and with peepers both poach’d’. Ex Fr. yeux pochés. 2. v.t., to gain unfairly or illicitly (an advantage, esp. a start in a race): the turf: from ca 1891. Ex S.E. sense, to trespass (on).

po’chaise

; po-chay or po’chay; pochay. Abbr. post-chaise: coll: resp. 1871, Meredith; 1871 (id., po’chay); 1827, Scott, in Chronicles of the Canongate.

poacher

. A broker dealing out of, or frequently changing, his market: Stock Exchange coll: from ca 1890.

poaching country

. ‘Resort of all who go shooting’, Egan’s Grose: Oxford University: ca 1820–50.

pock

. Small-pox; syphilis: from M.E.: S.E. until C.19, then dial. and low coll. Gen. the pock. cf. POX and POCKY.

pock-nook, come in on one's own

. 'As we say in Scotland when a man lives on his own means', Sir A.Wylie, Works, 1821. Late C.18–20; ob. Coll. A pock-nook is a sack-corner or -bottom.

pock- (Eng. poke-)pudding

. An Englishman: Scots coll: C.18–20. Burt, Letters, 1730; Herd. Lit., a bag-pudding; hence, a glutton. In C.18, also pock-pud.

pocket, he plays as fair as if he'd picked your

. A c.p. applied, in C.19, to a dishonest gambler.

pocket and please yourself!, if not pleased put hand in . A mid-C.17–18 c.p. retort addressed to grumblers. Ray, Proverbs.

pocket-book dropper

*. A sharper specializing in, or adept at, making money by dropping pocket-books (gen. containing counterfeit) and gulling the gullible: c.: C.19–20; ob. cf. DROP-GAME and FAWNEY RIG.

pocket-hank(y)

. A pocket-handkerchief: resp. low coll and gen. coll: late C.19–20.

pocket pistol

. ‘For a Pocket Pistol alias a dram bottle to carry in one’s pocket, it being necessary on a journey or so, at Nicholl’s pd 0.1.0’ (paid one shilling): entry of 29 June 1763, in James Woodforde’s Diary: ? ca 1740–1840. Ex shape.

pocket the red

. To effect intromission: billiard-players’ erotic s.: late C.19–20.

pocket-thunder

. A breaking of wind: low coll: C.19–20; ob.

pockets to let(, with)

. Penniless: jocular coll: ca 1820–1900. Moncrieff, in Tom and Jerry, 1823, ‘Clean’d out! both sides; look here—pockets to let!’

pocky

. A coarse pejorative or intensive: a vulg.: ca 1598–1700. Jonson, ‘These French villains have pocky wits.’ Ex S.E. sense, syphilitic.

pocta

. A member of the Society for Prevention of Cruelty to Animals: coachmen’s: ca 1885–1910.

pod, in

. Pregnant: low (–1889). cf. PODDY.

pod, old

. A big-bellied man: proletarian: from ca 1860. cf. PODDY.

poddy

, n. A ‘poddy calf’, i.e. a calf fed by hand: Australian coll: late C.19–20. Jice Doone. Prob. ex dial.

poddy

, adj. Obese, esp. as to the waistline: coll: 1844, Edward FitzGerald. Prob. ex dial. pod, a large, protuberant abdomen. 2. Tipsy: (low) coll: ca 1860–1910. ?ex sense 1. cf. POGY.

podge

. A short, fat person; such an animal: dial. and coll from ca 1830. 2. Occ. a nickname: from ca 1840. Cognate with PUDGE. 3. A special application is: an epaulette, as in Marryat, 1833: nautical; †by 1890.

podgy

. Squat; short, stout, and (if of an animal) thick-set: dial. and coll >, ca 1905, S.E.: from ca 1835. Occ., as a n., a nickname. Ex PODGE, 1. 2. A C.19 variant of POGY.

pody cody

! A low coll perversion of body of God!, an oath: late C.17–early 18. Perhaps, however, of Urquhart’s invention (1693 in his Rabelais).

poge, pogh, pogue

, see POKE, n. pogey, see POGY.

poge-hunter

*. A thief specializing in the removal of purses: from ca 1870. e.g. in Pugh (2). Ex poge=POKE, n., 7=a purse: mid-C.19–20.

poggle

; puggle or puggly. An idiot: Anglo-Indian coll (–1886). Ex Hindustani pagal, a madman or idiot. 2. Hence, in the Army (late C.19–20), mad.

poggle (or puggle) pawnee

. Rum; any spirituous liquor: Regular Army: late C. 19–20. Ex POGGLE, 2.

poggled

; puggled. Mad-drunk; mad: id.: id. Ex preceding.

pogram

. A Dissenter; a (gen. Nonconformist) formalist; a religious humbug: 1860; †by 1902. H., 3rd ed.: ‘from a well-known dissenting minister of the name’.

pogy

*. (Hard g.) Tipsy: c. >, in C.19, low: ca 1780–1890, but surviving in U.S. c. Etymology problematic: but perhaps cognate with Romany pogado, crooked, ex pog(er), to break, or ex POGGLE. cf. POGY AQUA; cf., too, PUGGY-DRUNK.

pogy (or pogey) aqua

*! Make the grog strong! (lit., little water!); c. or low: ca 1820–1910. Ex It. poca aqua.

point

. A point to which a straight run is made; hence, the cross-country run itself: sporting (esp. hunting) coll: 1875, Whyte-Melville, Riding Recollections. 2. See POINTS, GET, and POINTS TO, GIVE. 3. ‘The region of the jaw; much sought after by pugilists’, C.J.Dennis: coll: late C.19–20.

point, make his or their

. (Gen. of a fox) ‘to run straight to the point aimed at’: hunting coll: 1875, Whyte-Melville, ib. cf. POINT, 1.

point-failure

. Failure in examination: Oxford University: ca 1820–40.

Point Nonplus

. 'Neither money nor credit' (Sinks): ca 1820–70.

point to, show a

. To swindle; act dishonourably towards: New Zealand coll: late C.19–20. cf. POINTS TO, GIVE.

pointer

. The penis: low: C.19–20. 2. A hint or suggestion; a useful piece of information: U.S. (1884) anglicized ca 1890: coll. But perhaps ex dial. (Pointing what to do.)

points, get

. To gain an advantage: 1881 (O.E.D.): coll variant of S.E. gain a point in the same sense. Cognate with:

points to, give

. To be superior to, have the advantage of: coll: from ca 1880. Ex S.E. sense, to give odds to (an opponent).

poison

. Liquor; a drink of liquor: coll: adumbrated in Suckling's Brennoralt, approached in Lytton's Pelham, first indubitably used by the Americans, Artemus Ward and, in 1867, Pinkerton ('Name your poison'), and generalized in England ca 1885. Marshall, Pomes, "'My favourite poison", murmurs she, "is good old gin"; Milliken, 1888, 'Wot's yer pison, old pal?' Hence, ca 1885–90, nominate your poison, say what you'll drink.

poison, like

. Extremely: gen. in hate each other (or one another) like poison: coll. Palsgrave, 1530, has 'Hate me like poison', but hate like poison > gen. only in C.19. Barham, 'And both hating brandy, like what some call pison'.

poison-pate(d)

. Red-haired: coll: late C. 17–early 19. B.E. (poison pate, prob. also n.); Grose's poisoned-pated should doubtless read poison-pated.

poisoned

. Pregnant: (?orig. c. >) low s. or coll: late C.17–early 19. Ex the swelling that often follows poisoning.

pojam

. A poem set as an exercise: Harrow School: late C.19–20; ob. A blend: poem+ jam (or perhaps pensum, an imposition, with intensive j.).

poke

*. Stolen property: c.: from ca 1850; ob. The Times, 29 Nov. 1860. Ex poke, a bag, pocket, etc. 2. 'A blow with the fist', Grose, 2nd ed.: from ca 1787. Ex the corresponding v. 3. An act of sexual intercourse: low coll: C.19–20. Ex sense 2 and v. 4. Hence, a mistress, permanent or temporary. A good, a bad poke: a woman sexually expert or clumsy (or cold). Low: C.19–20. 5. A poke-bonnet: coll verging on S.E.: from ca 1840. Hood, ca 1845, 'That bonnet we call a poke.' 6. A fish's stomach: coll and dial.: 1773, Barrington. 7. A purse: c.: mid-C.19–20. Ex †a bag, etc.

poke

, v. To coït with (a woman): low coll C.19–20. Ex poke, to thrust at. cf. the n., 3, and POKER, 2. 2. (With up) to confine in a poky place: coll: 1860, Miss Yonge. Gen. as (be) poked up. 3. v.i., to project very noticeably: dial. and coll: from ca 1828.

poke, get the

. A Scottish (esp. Glaswegian) variant of get the BAG, to be dismissed: late C.19–20. Also in Yorkshire dial., which has the corresponding give the poke, to dismiss.

poke a smipe

. To smoke a pipe: Medical Greek or marrowskying: ca 1840–90. See Slang at 'Spoonerisms'.

poke bogey

. (v.t. with at.) To HUMBUG: s. or low coll: ca 1880–1910. cf. S.E. poke fun.

poke-bonnet

. A bonnet projecting-brimmed: coll: 1820, O.E.D., where the earliest quotation suggests an origin in poking people's eyes out; more prob. ex poke, to thrust forward. 2. Occ. applied to the wearer of one: coll: late C.19–20.

poke borak or borax

, see BORAK.

poke fly

. To show how: tailors': from ca 1860. See FLY, adj.

poke full of plums!, a

. An impertinent c.p. reply to which (is the) way to (e.g.) London?: ca 1580–1680. Melbancke, 1583; Torriano, 1666.

poke-hole; poking-hole

. The female pudend: low coll: C.19–20; ob. Ex POKE, v., 1.

poke in the eye

, see THUMP ON THE BACK.

poke-pudding

, see POCK-PUDDING. poke up one's pipes, see PIPES, PACK...

poker

. A sword: jocular s. or coll: late C.17–20; ob. cf. CHEESE-TOASTER. 2. The penis: low: from ca 1810. Ex POKE, v., 1. 3. (Also HOLY POKER.) An Oxford or Cambridge University bedell carrying a mace before the Vice-Chancellor: university: 1841. Because he carries a mace or 'poker' (jocular S.E.) 4. A single-barrelled gun: sporting: C.19. Ex the shape. 5. A clumsy fencer: fencing coll: C.19–20; ob. 6. A casual labourer in the dockyard timber-trade: Londoners': from ca 1850. Mayhew, 'From their poking about the docks for a job.' 7. See OLD POKER.

poker, burn one's

. (Cf. men) to get a venereal infection: low: C.19–20; ob. See POKER, 2.

poker!, by the holy

. (Occ., ca 1840–90, the wholly Irish by the h.p. and tumbling Tom!) Occ., ca 1870–1910, by the holy iron! A mainly jocular expletive, of uncertain meaning (cf., however, OLD POKER) and Irish origin: 1804, Maria Edgeworth.

poker, chant the

. To exaggerate: to swagger: s. or low coll: C.19. ?ex preceding.

poker, Jew's

, see JEW'S POKER. poker, old, see OLD POKER.

poker-breaker

. A wife: low: C.19–20; ob. See POKER, 2. cf. Yorkshire pintle-twister.

poker-pusher

. A naval stoker: naval: late C.19–20.

poker-talk

. Fireside chit-chat: coll: 1885, Mrs Edwardes. Ex the fireside poker.

pokey

. A Yorkshire s. (not dial.) term for goods paid for on the 'truck' system: from ca 1870. 2. (Usually the pokey.) Prison: low Australian: late C.19–20. Ex poky place?

poking-hole

, see POKE-HOLE.

pol

! By Pollux!: a coll asseveration: late C.16–early 17. Nashe, Dekker. 2. the pol or Pol: see POLL, n.

pole

. The weekly wages account: printers': from ca 1850. ?because affixed to a pole or because it resembles a pole by its length; or, more prob., a corruption of poll, head, i.e. a 'per capita' account. 2. The male member, esp. when erect: low: C.19–20; slightly ob.

pole, get on the

. To verge on drunkenness: low (–1909). Prob. ex POLE, UP THE, 3.

pole, up the

. In good repute; hence, strait-laced: military: ca 1890–1910. Perhaps up the pole=high up. 2. (Gen. up a pole: Manchon.) In difficulties; e.g. over-matched, in the wrong: low: from ca 1890. 'Pomes' Marshall, 'But, one cruel day, behind slops he chanced to take a stroll,| And...he heard himself alluded to as being up the pole.' Perhaps ex pole, the part of the mast above the rigging. 3. (Rather) drunk: 1896, says Ware. 4. Annoyed, irritated: nautical: late C.19–20. 5. In Australia, 'distraught through anger, fear, etc.; also, disappeared, vanished', C.J.Dennis: late C.19–20.

pole-axe

. A low jocularity on police: ca 1860–70.

pole-axing

. The reducing of wages to the point of starvation: printers' (–1887); ob.

pole, (with) lead at both ends,—he is like a rope-dancer's

. A c.p. applied to a dull, sluggish fellow: ca 1787–1830.

pole-work

. COLLAR-WORK, and which explains it; a long wearisome business: coll: from ca 1870. Ex North Country dial. of late C.18–20. 2. Sexual intercourse: low: mid-C.19–20; ob. Also poling.

poley

; polley. (Of cattle) hornless; lit., polled: English dial. and, from ca 1840, Australian coll. 2. In Australian coll, from ca 1880, also a hornless beast.

police-nippers

. Handcuffs; occ., leg-irons: low: mid-C.19–20; ob.

policeman

. A fly; esp. a BLUE-BOTTLE fly, which inversely=a policeman, esp. a constable. Mostly London (–1860). E.D. Forgues, La Revue des Deux-Mondes, 15 Sept. 1864. 2. A sneak, a mean fellow, an untrustworthy man: c. (–1874). 3. Under sail, the member of the watch who keeps on the alert to catch an order and rouse his mates: nautical: late C.19–20. Bowen.

policeman always a policeman, once a

. A late C.19–20 c.p., imputing ‘habit is second nature’. cf. the proverbial once a captain always a captain (Peacock, 1831); once a knave and ever a knave (C.17); and once a whore and ever a whore (C.17–18)—all three cited by Apperson.

poling

, see POLE-WORK, 2.

polish

, v. To thrash, to PUNISH: ca 1840–1910. Ex POLISH OFF.

polish (or pick or eat) a bone

. (Gen. of eating with another.). To make a meal: ca 1787–1915. Contrast:

polish off

. Summarily to defeat an adversary: boxing s., 1829 (O.E.D.) >, ca 1835, gen. coll.=to finish out of hand, get rid of (esp. a meal) quickly. Dickens, 1837, 'Mayn't I polish that ere Job off?' Ex polish, to give the finishing touches to by polishing.

polish one's arse on the top sheet

. (Of men) to coït: low: late C.19–20.

polish the King's iron with one's or the eyebrows

. 'To be in gaol, and look through the iron grated windows', Grose, 1st ed.: ca 1780–1840: (prob. c. >) low s.

polite, do the

, see DO THE POLITE.

politician's porridge, carmen's comfort, porter's puzzle

, are found in Ned Ward's The London Spy Compleat, 1703, as= beer. At the best, they are very rare; at the worst, they merely represent Ward's alliterative ingenuity.

polka, matrimonial

. (Gen. the m.p.) Sexual intercourse: low coll: 1842.

poll

. (Occ. pol.) A pass in the examination for the ordinary, not the Honours, B.A. degree. Gen. as the Poll, the passmen, and as go out in the Poll, to be on the list of passmen. Hence, poll, a passman; occ. poll-man. Cambridge University s. first recorded ca 1830, poll is prob. ex Gr. οἱ πολλοί, the many, ‘the general run’. Bristed, 1855, ‘Several declared that they would go out in the Poll’; J.Payn, 1884, ‘I took...a first-class poll; which my good folks at home believed to be an honourable distinction.’ 2. A wig: C.18–early 19. Hall, 1708; Grose, 1788. Ex poll, the head. 3. A woman; esp. a harlot: nautical: from ca 1860. P.H.Emerson, ‘A poll gave him a bob.’ 4. A decoy bitch used in stealing dogs: c.: from ca 1870. 5. Poll. Mary, as a gen. name for a parrot: C.17–20: coll soon > familiar S.E. As Peg=Meg, Margaret, so Poll=Moll, Mary.

poll

*, v. See PILL AND POLL. From ca 1835: c., as in Brandon, 1839; P.H. Emerson, 1893, ‘He accused us of polling.’ 2. To defeat; outdistance: printers’ and sporting: from ca 1870. 3. To snub: low: from ca 1875; ob.

Poll, Captain of the

. The highest of the passmen: Cambridge University (see POLL, n., 1): ca 1830–90.

poll-man

, see POLL, n., 1.

poll off

. To become drunk: low: from ca 1860; ob. ?ex poll, head.

poll parrot

, or with capitals. A talkative, gossipy woman: low, mostly London: from ca 1870.

poll-thief

*. A thief; an informer: c.: from ca 1890.

poll up

. To court; live in concubinage with: low: from ca 1870. cf. polled up, living in unmarried cohabitation; in company with a woman: H., 1859. cf. MOLLED UP.

pollaky

!; or o(h) Pollaky (or p.)! An exclamation of protest against too urgent enquiries: a non-aristocratic c.p.: ca 1870–80. Ex the advertisements in The Times agony column by an Australian detective resident at Paddington Green—one Pollaky (accented on second syllable).

poller

*. A pistol: c. of ca 1670–1750. A Warning for Housekeepers. Lit., a plunderer. 2. The same as POLL-THIEF. P.H. Emerson, 1893.

polley

, see POLEY.

pollrumpitious

. Unruly or restless; foolishly confident: coll or s.: from ca 1860. ?ex poll, head+RUMPUS. (Much earlier in dial.)

polly

. ?a boot, a shoe: from ca 1890. P.H.Emerson, 1893, ‘All I get is my kip and a clean mill tog, a pair of pollies and a stoock, and what few medazas [?mezadas*] I can make out of the lodgers and needies.’ 2. Apollinaris water: 1893, G.Egerton. 3. As a name for a parrot: C.17–20: coll soon > familiar S.E.

polly, do

*. To pick oakum in jail: c.: from ca 1860. cf. MILL DOLL.

Polly Flinder

. A window: Cockney rhyming s.: late C.19–20.

Polly, put the kettle on, and we'll all have tea

. A c.p.: from ca 1870; ob. Ex the well known nursery song and country dance (–1797).

polone; palone

. A girl or woman: low theatrical. The word goes back to ca 1850 and is often used in combination as adj. 'female', as in STRILL polone, a female pianist. Ex Romany: cognate with BLOWEN.

polony, drunk as a

. Exceedingly drunk: London lower classes' (–1909). Ware derives ex Fr. soul comme un Polonais (drunk as a Pole).

polore; palore

, erroneous for POLONE.

polrumptious

. A variant of POLLRUMPTIOUS.

polty; dolty

. Easy: cricketers', ca 1890–1910. ?cognate with Kentish polt, saucy.

Polyphemus

. The penis: C.19–20 (ob.) cultured. Via Monops, the one-eyed one.

pom

. A Pomeranian dog: coll: C.19–20. cf. peke. Aldous Huxley has somewhere remarked that 'there is no inward, psychological contradiction between a maudlin regard for poms and pekes and a blood-thirsty hatred of human beings.'

pom-pom

. A Maxim automatic quick-firing gun: 1899: echoic coll >, by 1905, S.E.

pomray, Pommy

. A newcomer from Britain, esp. from England: Australian: C.20. The O.E.D. Sup. records it at 1916, but it was current before the Great War. Origin obscure; possibly a corruption of TOMMY imported by Australian soldiers returning from the Boer War (1899–1902). Or perhaps ex Pomeranian, a very ‘superior’ sort of dog. It may also have developed from JIMMY GRANT thus: Jimmy Grant > immy-granate > pomegranate > pommy.

pompaginis

, see AQUA POMPAGINIS.

Pompey (or the black dog Pompey) is on your back

! A c.p. (—1869) addressed to a fractious child: provincial coll, and dial. cf. the old South Devonshire your tail’s on your shoulder. W.Carew Hazlitt.

Pompey’s pillar to a stick of sealing-wax

. Long odds: coll: ca 1815–60. Tom Moore, 1819. cf. ALL LOMBARD STREET TO A CHINA ORANGE.

pompkin, Pompkinshire

, see PUMPKIN, 1.

’pon my life

. A wife: rhyming s.: late C.19–early 20. More gen. TROUBLE AND STRIFE.

ponce

; ponce-spicer; pouncey. A harlot's bully or keep: (prob. c. >) low s.: resp. 1872, ca 1890, 1861 (Mayhew). H., 5th ed., 1874, 'Low-class East-end thieves even will "draw the line" at ponces, and object to their presence in the boozing-kens'; Henley, 1887, 'You ponces good at talking tall.' Prob. ex pounce on, though possibly influenced by Fr. Alphonse, a harlot's bully, or by Fr. pensionnaire, 'boarder, lodger', conceivably with a pun on English pensioner. cf. BOUNCER; FANCY-COVE; MACK; PROSSER, 3; SUNDAY MAN, 2.

ponce on

. To live on the earnings of (a prostitute): low: late C.19–20.

poncess

*. A woman who supports a man by prostitution: c. from ca 1870; ob.

poncho

. A loose overcoat: 1859, H.; †by 1900. Ex Castilian poncho, a military cloak.

Pond, the

. The North Atlantic Ocean: from ca 1830: (mainly nautical) s. >, ca 1880, gen. coll >, ca 1905, S.E. Ex the C.17–19 S.E. sense, the ocean. Occ. the Big Pond, as in Haliburton and Sala; also the Herring Pond, and even the PUDDLE.

poney

, see PONY.

pong

. A stink: low: from ca 1850. ?origin; cf. the v., 1, its prob. origin. 2. Beer: low: from ca 1860. H., 3rd ed., where spelt ponge. Variants pongelo(w) (H., 1864), pongellorum (F. & H., 1902), these being fanciful endings. Origin obscure: ?suggested by PARNEE (pawnee). Ware, who defines it as ‘pale ale—but relatively any beer’, classifies the term as ‘Anglo-Indian Army’.

pong

, v. To stink: low: from ca 1850. cf. the n., 1. Prob. ex Romany pan (or kan), to stink. 2. (Also ponge.) To drink (esp. beer): low: from ca 1870. Less gen. than the n. 3. v.i., to vamp, or amplify the text (of a part): theatrical: from ca 1890; slightly ob. Perhaps cognate with pong, a ringing blow, a bang. 4. To perform, esp. to turn somersaults: circus: from ca 1850. Perhaps via Lingua Franca ex L. ponere. 5. Hence, to talk, esp. to GAS: theatre, music-hall, circus: from ca 1890. cf. sense 3.

ponge, pongelo(w), pongellorum

. See PONG, n., 2, and v. 2. But whereas pongelow is recorded (H., 1864) as a v., pongellorum is not so recorded.

ponging

, n. Somersaulting: circus s.: mid-C.19–20. See PONG, v., 4.

pongo

. A monkey: showmen's: mid-C.19–20. In S.E., properly 'a large anthro-poid African ape'; loosely, indeed erroneously, the orang-outang, 1834. Native name.

pongy

. Evil-smelling: late C.19–20. Ex PONG, n., 1.

ponte

. A pound (sterling): showmen's from ca 1850. Ex It. pondo. cf. POONA.

pontic

. Credit: London s. (–1823) > Lincolnshire s. (–1903). Abbr. upon tick (see TICK, n., 2).

Pontius Pilate

. A pawnbroker: late C.18–19. Grose, 1785. Why? 2. The drugget-covering tied to the thwart to prevent chafing: Oxford rowing men's (–1884); ob. Why?

Pontius Pilate's counsellor

. A briefless barrister: legal: from ca 1780; ob. One who, like Pilate, can say, 'I have found no cause of death in him.' Grose, 1785. cf. Fr. avocat de Pilate.

ponto

. A pellet kneaded from new bread: school: late C.19–20. St James's Gazette, 15 March 1900 (Matthew Arnold pontopelted at school). ?origin: possibly connected with the punto of ombre and quadrille (the card-game); cf. sense 2. 2. Punto, at cards: a corruption: 1861.

pontoon

. Vingt-(et-)un, the card-game: 1900: military coll >, by 1910, gen. S.E. A corruption of, more prob. an approximation to, vingt-un.

Pony

. An 'inevitable' nickname of men surnamed Moore: military: from ca 1885. Ex 'a well-known sporting character': actually 'Pony' Moore of the Moore & Burgess Minstrels.

pony

. A bailiff; esp. an officer accompanying a debtor on a day's liberty: coll: C.18– mid-19. 2. Money: low: ca 1810–40. Lex. Bal., Moncrieff (see quotation at PEW, STUMP THE), Ainsworth. Prob. ex: 3. £25:1797, Mrs M.Robinson, 'There is no touching her even for a poney.' In Sinks, 1848, it=£50. Perhaps because only a small sum, as a pony is a small horse. (cf. PONY UP.) N.B., among brokers, a pony is £25,000 of stock, i.e. 25 £1000-shares. cf. MONKEY. 4. A small glass of liquor: 1884, in U.S.; anglicized ca 1890, chiefly as a small measure of beer. 5. In gambiing, a double-headed or double-tailed coin: c. > low s.: late C.19–20. For origin, see GREY. 6. Short for PONY AND TRAP.

pony, post the

. To pay: a C.19 variant of post the COLE: see POST, v., 3, and PONY, 2.

pony (occ. lady), sell the

. To toss for drinks: low: late C.19–20. Ex PONY, 2, 5. Hence, he who has to pay, buys the pony.

pony and trap

. To defecate: rhyming s. on CRAP: late C.19–20. cf. TOM-TIT.

pony up

, v.i. and t. To pay; settle: a mostly U.S. variant and derivative of post the PONY: 1824, U.S.; partly anglicized ca 1840. Prob. ex PONY, 2.

pooch

, see POUCH

poodle

. Any dog: (sarcastic) coll: from ca 1880; slightly ob.

pooja, puja

. (Gen. pl.) Prayers: Anglo-Indian: 1863, Trevelyan in The Competition Wallah. Ex Sanskrit puja, worship.

poon

. To prop (a piece of furniture) with a wedge: Winchester College (–1891). Wrench, Notions. Prob. ex L. ponere, to place. Imm. ex: 2. v.i., to be unsteady: ibid.: ca 1830–70. Wrench, ‘Hence you wedged the leg that pooned.’

poona

. £1; a sovereign: costermongers’: from ca 1855. ?pound corrupted or ex Lingua Franca (cf. PONTE) or, less likely, pound influenced by poonah, a painting, etc., on the analogy of QUEEN’S PICTURE.

poonts

. The paps: low: from ca 1870. Etymology obscure.

poop

. The seat at the back of a coach: coll: ca 1614–80. Ex the poop of a ship. 2. The posteriors: low coll: from ca 1640. Ned Ward, ‘While he manages his Whipstaff with one Hand, he scratches his Poop with the other.’ Ob. cf. sense 1. 3. A breaking of wind: low coll: late C.18–20. Ex v., 2; cf. †S.E. poop, a short blast, a toot.

poop

. To coït: C.17–18; low coll. cf. POOP-NODDY. 2. To break wind: dial. and low coll: C.18–20. Bailey, 1721, ‘To Poop, to break Wind backwards softly’. Ex S.E. poop, to make an abrupt sound; to toot. Occ. poupe. 3. Hence, to defecate (L. cacare): (?late) C.19–20: low coll, mostly of and by children.

poop-downhaul

. An imaginary rope: nautical coll (–1883). cf. the operation, equally imaginary, of ‘clapping the keel athwart-ships’. Clark Russell’s glossary.

poop-noddy

. Sexual intercourse: low coll: C.17. (cf. POOP, v., 1.) Anon., Wily Beguiled, ‘I saw them close together at poop-noddy.’ So F. & H.; the O.E.D. suggests that it=cony-catching, occ. cony-catcher, noddy being a simpleton.

poop-ornament

. An apprentice: nautical: ca 1850–90. Athenaeum, 8 Feb. 1902, ‘Miscalled “a blarsted poop ornament”, the drudge even of ordinary seamen’.

pooped

. Exhausted; very tired: since ca 1890. ‘Must stop for a bit; I’m pooped.’ Probably ex the nautical S.E. v. poop: a sailing ship was temporarily disabled when a following sea came inboard from over the stern.

pooper

. A great wave coming over the stern (formerly called the poop): nautical coll: late C.19–20.

poor

. Unfortunate; in pitiable condition or circumstances: C.13–20: S.E. until ca 1855, then coll. Mrs Carlyle, 1857, ‘He looked dreadfully weak still, poor fellow!’ 2. When said, as from ca 1785, of the dead person whom one has known, poor verges on coll.

poor as a Connaught man

. Extremely poor: Anglo-Irish coll: ca 1802, Maria Edgeworth.

poor as a rat, as

. Extremely poor: a C.18–20 (ob.) coll variation of as poor as a church-mouse. E.Ward, 1703, ‘Whilst men of parts, as poor as rats...’

poor creature

. (Gen. pl.) A potato: low London: ca 1820–50.

poor knight of Windsor

. See next: coll and dial.: C.19. Scott, The Bride of Lammermoor, 1818, has this footnote, 'In contrast ...to the baronial "Sir Loin"', concerning:

poor man (of mutton)

. The blade-bone of a shoulder of mutton: Scots coll: C.19–20. Scott: see preceding entry.
2. (poor-man.) As a heap of corn-sheaves, four upright and one a-top, it is prob. dial.: Scots, C.19–20.

poor man's blessing

. The female pudend: low coll: C.19–20.

poor man's goose

. Bullock's liver, baked with sage, onions, and a little fat bacon: (low) coll (–1909). cf. POOR MAN'S TREACLE. (In Warwickshire dial., it is 'a cow's spleen stuffed and roasted', E.D.D., 1903.)

poor man's oyster

. A mussel: coll: 1891, Tit-Bits, 8 Aug.: ob.

poor man's side

, or with capitals. The poor man's side of the Thames, i.e. South London: a coll (–1887; very ob.) verging on S.E. Baumann. Opp. rich man's side, the North side of the Thames: same period.

poor man's treacle

. An onion: (low) coll: late C.19–20.

poor Robin

. An almanach: coll: ca 1660–1760. Ex Robert Herrick, who issued a series of so-called almanachs.

poor soldier who can't stand his comrade's breath, it's a

. A military c.p. proffered by the culprit when his companions complain of wind-breaking: from the 1890s.

poorly

. (Always in the predicate, except in POORLY TIME.) In poor health; unwell: from ca 1750: S.E. until ca 1870, then nearcoll.

poorly time

. The monthly period: lower-class women's coll (–1887).

pooser

. A huge, uncouth thing: low Northumberland s. (–1903). Ex dial. poose (or pouse), to strike. cf. WHOPPER.

poot

. A shilling: East London (–1909). Ex Hindustani. Oriental beggars were, before that date, common there.

pooty

is a favourite mid-Victorian adjective meaning 'pretty'—of which, via purty, it is a perversion. 'A pooty little bit of money', W.M.Thackeray, Pendennis, 1849–50.

pop

; Pop. A club chiefly of Oppidans: Eton College: C.19–20. Founded in 1812; see e.g. Etoniana, 1869. Traditionally derived ex L. popina, a cook-shop, the rooms having long been over a confectioner's. 2. A popular concert: coll: 1862. W.S.Gilbert, 'Who thinks suburban hops more fun than Monday Pops'. cf. PROM. 3. (Gen. in pl.) a pistol: C.18–20; o b. Hall, 1714; Harper, 1724, 'Two Popps Had my Boman when he was ta'en'; Grose; Marryat. Like the next, ex the sound. 4. A drink that fizzes from the bottle when the cork—'pop goes the cork'—is drawn; gen. ginger-beer: coil: 1812, Southey. Occ., but †by 1870, champagne, as in Hood, 'Homemade pop that will not foam.' cf. FIZ. 5. An, the, act of pawning: 1866, Routledge's Every Boy's Annual. Ex the v., 3. 6. See POP, IN.

7. As=father, orig. and almost wholly U.S. (1840). Also poppa (–1897), popper (–1901): likewise mainly U.S. Ex papa.

pop

, v. To fire a gun: coll: 1725, A New Canting Dict.; ob. 2. v.t., to shoot: s. or coll >, in C.20, S.E. Gen. with down (1762) or off (1813). 3. To pawn: 1731, Fielding; Barrie, 1902, ‘It was plain for what she had popped her watch.’ cf. POPSHOP; pop up the SPOUT. 4. See POP OFF and POP THE QUESTION. 5. To lose one’s temper: tailors’: late C.19–20.

pop, in

. In pawn: from ca 1865: low. The n., only thus. cf. POP, v., 3, and n., 5.

pop, let fly the

. To fire the pistol: midway between c. and low s.: late C.18–mid-19.

pop goes the weasel

!, now gen. regarded as a nursery-rhyme tag, was in the 1870s and 80s a proletarian (mostly Cockney) c.p. Ware, ‘Activity is suggested by “pop”, and the little weasel is very active. Probably erotic origin. Chiefly associated with these lines—Up and down the City Road|In and out the Eagle,|That’s the way the money goes,|Pop goes the weasel!’

pop it in

, v.i. To effect intromission: low coll: C.19–20. Contrast:

pop it on

, v.t. To ask for more, esp. a higher price: coll: 1876, Hindley. 2. To make a bet: from ca 1890.

pop-lolly

. A sweetmeat: cheapjacks' s. or coll: 1876, Hindley, 'Lollipop and poplolly'.

pop off

. See POP, v., 2. 2. To die: 1764, Foote, 'If Lady Pepperpot should happen to pop off'. Also pop off the hooks, from ca 1840, as in Barham.

pop-shop

. A pawn-shop: 1772, The Town and Country Magazine; 1785, Grose. Ex POP, v., 3.

pop the question

. To propose marriage: 1826, Miss Mitford, 'The formidable interrogatory...emphatically called "popping the question"': s. Ex S.E. pop the question, to ask abruptly.

pop up the spout

. Same as POP, v., 3: low: 1859, H., 1st ed. See SPOUT.

pop visit

. A short visit: society coll: C.17–18. Jonson in The Alchemist.

pop-wallah

. A teetotaller: military: late C.19–20. Lit., a ginger-beer fellow. See POP, n., 4, and WALLAH.

pope

. As a pejorative (a pope of a thing), as an imprecation ('A pope on all women,' 1620), in as drunk as a pope, and in (e.g. know, read) no more than the pope, i.e. nothing, the term is on the borderland between S.E. and coll: all these phrases are † except in dial. 2. See POPE OF ROME.

Pope o' Rome

, see TROT THE UDYJU, and:

pope of Rome

. A home; home, adv.: rhyming s. (–1859). Often abbr, pope (Ware, 1909).

poperine pear

. The penis: low coll: late C.16–mid-17. Shakespeare, Romeo and Juliet, in the quarto edition; passage afterwards suppressed. Ex shape.

pope's eye

. The thread of fat, properly 'the lymphatic gland surrounded with fat', in (the middle of) a leg of mutton: from ca 1670: S.E. till C.19, then coll. Shirley Brooks, 1852, 'The pope's eye on a Protestant leg of mutton'. Presumably eye ex its rounded form.

pope's (occ. Turk's) head

. A round broom, with a long handle: from ca 1820: coll >, ca 1890, S.E.; ob. Maria Edgeworth, in Love and Law, 'Run...for the pope's head.'

pope's nose

. A turkey's, a fowl's rump: coll: late C.18–20. cf, PARSON'S NOSE.

pope's size

. Short and fat: trade s. > j.: from ca 1885; ob. Mostly tailors'.

poplars, popler(s), poppelars

*; rarely, paplar. Porridge; esp. milk-porridge: c.: C.17–early 19. Dekker (poplars); Middleton (popler); Grose, 1st ed. (poplers). Prob. a corruption of pap (for infants, invalids).

poppa

, see POP, n., 7.

popped

. Annoyed; esp. in popped as a hatter, very angry: tailors': from ca 1860. ?=popped off; apt to pop off. cf. mad as a HATTER.

poppelars

*, see POPLARS.

popper

. A pistol: 1750, Coventry; ob.: s. > coll in late C.19–20, also a rifle or a shotgun (E.Seago, 1933). 2. See POP, n., 7.

poppite

. A performer at (1895), a frequenter of (1901), the popular concerts: coll. Ex POP, n., 2.

poppy

, adj. Popping, exploding: coll: 1894, Kipling, 'Little poppy shells'. 2. (Of the ground) causing the ball to 'pop' (itself, j.): cricket coll: from 1874.

poppy-show

. A display, esp. if accidental, of underclothes; orig. and properly, of red or brown flannel underclothes: low coll: late C.19–20. Ex dial. poppy-show, a peepshow, a puppet-show.

pops and a galloper, his means are two

*. He is a highwayman: late C.18–early 19: c. or low s. i.e., two guns and a horse.

popsy

. An endearment for a girl: nursery coll: 1862. Ex S.E. pop, similarly used: see the next entry.

popsy-wopsy

. A foolish endearment: (mostly nursery) coll (–1887). 1892, Ally Sloper's Half-Holiday, 19 March, 'Bless me if the little popsy-wopsy hasn't been collecting all the old circus hoops and covering them with her old muslin skirts.' Reduplicating popsy ('archaic pop, darling, short for poppet', W.).

porangi

. (Extremely) eccentric, crazy; (very) stupid: New Zealand coll: late C.19–20. Adoption of Maori word.

porgy

, see GEORGIE-PORGIE.

pork

, A spoiled garment; goods returned by a customer: tailors': from ca 1860. cf. PIG, n., 5. 2. Women as food for men's lust: low: C.18–20; ob. cf. MUTTON.

pork, cry

. To act as an undertaker's tout: low: late C.18–mid-19. The raven, 'whose note sounds like...pork', is 'said to smell carrion at a distance'.

pork-boat

. (Gen. pl.) A Worthing fishing-boat: nautical: ca 1860–1910. cf. the Sussex pork-bolter, a Worthing fisherman. Presumably opprobrious, fishermen having a superstitious dread of pigs.

pork-pie

. A coll abbr. of pork-pie hat (a style modish ca 1855–65): 1863; ob. 2. A 'toreador' hat, modish in the 1890s: coll: Spectator, 26 Dec. 1891, 'The bull-fighter's hat known in England as the "pork-pie"'.

porker

*. A sword: c. of ca 1685–1740. Shadwell, The Squire of Alsatia, 1688, 'The captain whipt his porker out.' cf. PIGSTICKER, 3; but porker is more prob. a perversion of POKER, a sword. 2. A Jew: low: ca 1780–1900. Because, traditionally, Jews never eat pork: on the principle of lucus a non lucendo.

porky

, adj. Of, concerning, resembling pork; obese; coll: 1828.

porpoise

. A very stout man: late C.19–20: coll.

porps! porps

! ‘The old time whalers’ cry when porpoises were sighted’, Bowen: C.19.

porridge-bowl

. The stomach: low: mid-C.19–20; ob. cf. BREAD-BASKET and contrast PORRIDGE-HOLE.

porridge-disturber

. A punch in the belly: pugilistic: from ca 1815; ob.

porridge-hole

. The mouth: lower-class Scots’ (–1909).

port for stuffs

. ‘Assumption of a commoner’s gown’, Egan’s Grose: Oxford University: ca 1820–40. The double pun is obvious.

port-hole

. The fundament; the female pudend: low coll: from ca 1660; ob.

Port Mahon sailor

. An inferior seaman: naval: C.19. 'A perfectly safe port' in Minorca: Chisholm's Gazetteer.

port wine

. Blood: pugilistic: ca 1840–90. Augustus Mayhew, Paved With Gold, 1857. Much less gen. than CLARET.

portable property

. Easily stolen or pawned valuables—especially plate: coll: 1885, Referee, 7 June. Ware.

portcullis

. A silver halfpenny: coll bordering on S.E.: late C.16–early 17. Jonson. Ex portcullis design.

porthole

, see PORT-HOLE. portigue, see PESTLE OF A PORTIGUE.

portmanteau

. A ‘big high explosive shell, a name introduced during the Russo-Japanese War’: naval; ob. Bowen.

portmantle, portmanty

. A portmanteau: C.17–20: S.E. till C.19, then resp. dial. and low coll.

portrait

, see QUEEN’S PICTURE.

portrait, sit for one’s

. To be inspected ‘by the different turnkeys...that they might know prisoners from visitors’, Dickens in Pickwick: prison: ca 1835–80.

Portug(u)ee

. A Portuguese: low coll, largely nautical: 1878, Besant & Rice. 2. Any foreigner except a Frenchman: naval: late C.19.

Portug(u)ee parliament

. A forecastle discussion which degenerates into all talkers and no listeners: nautical: late C.19–20. Bowen.

Portuguese man-of-war

. A nautilus: nautical coll verging on S.E.: C.19–20; ob.

Portuguese pumping

. A nautical phrase (–1909), of which Ware was unable to discover the meaning. Nor have I; but I agree with Ware that ‘it is probably nasty’: it refers almost certainly to either defecation (suggested by PUMP SHIP) or masturbation.

pos, poss, poz, pozz

. Positive: coll abbr.: resp. 1711, 1719, 1710 (Swift), 1710 (Swift), all †by 1860. The most frequent, poz, may date from as early as 1706 or 7, occurring as it does in Polite Conversation; poss (e.g. D’Urfey, ‘Drunk I was last night, that’s poss’) is rather rare. 2. As adv., positively: coll: late C.18–early 19, but adumbrated in Swift. 3. Only pos and poss (gen. the latter): possible; usually in if poss. Low coll: from ca 1885; slightly ob.

posa

. A treasurer: Pidgin English (–1864). A corruption of purser.

posh

*. Money; specifically, a halfpenny or other coin of low value: c. (–1839); ob. Ex Romany posh, a half, as in posh-horri, a halfpenny, and posh-koorona, a half-crown. 2. A dandy: Society s. (–1897). ?ex sense 1; i.e. a moneyed person (cf. PLUM, 1, 3). Or perhaps a corruption of (big) POT (6).

positive

. Certainly no less than; down-right; indubitable, ‘out-and-out’: coll: 1802, Sydney Smith, ‘Nothing short of a positive miracle can make him...’

poss

, see POS.

posse mobilitatis

. The mob: coll: ca 1690–1850. On posse comitatus.

possible

. A coin, gen. in pl. money: ca 1820–50. 2. Hence, means or necessities; supplies: 1824 (O.E.D.). 3. (Orig. highest possible.) The highest possible score, esp. in rifle-shooting: coll abbr.: 1866.

possle

; more correctly postle. An earnest advocate: lower classes' satirical (–1909). i.e. apostle.

possum

. Opossum: C.17–20; S.E. till mid-C.19, then coll.

possum, play

. To pretend; feign illness or death: orig. U.S. (–1824); partly anglicized ca 1850. Ex the opossum's feigned death.

possum-guts

. A pejorative, gen. in address: Australian: 1859, H.Kingsley; ob.

post

. Such mail as is cleared from one receiving-box or as is delivered at one house: coll: from ca 1890.

post

, v. Often post up and gen. in the passive, esp. in the past passive ppl: to supply with information or news: U.S. coll (1847), anglicized ca 1860; > S.E. ca 1880. Prob. ex posting up a ledger. 2. To summon (a candidate) for examination on the first day of a series: Oxford University: C.18. Amherst, 1721, ‘To avoid being posted or dogged.’ (See DOG, v.) Ex S.E. post, to hurry a person. 3. To pay: from ca 1780; ob. Esp. post the COLE, orig. c., 1781, C.Johnston; post the neddies, c., 1789, G.Parker; post the pony, 1823, Moncrieff—see PONY; post the tin, 1854, Martin & Aytoun. After ca 1870, the term is influenced by post, to send by post. 4. To promote (someone) to post-captain: naval: ca 1790–1850.

post, bet on the wrong side of the

. i.e. on a losing horse: turf coll (–1823); †by 1900.

post, between you and me and the (bed-

; in late C.19–20, often gate-). In confidence: coll >, ca 1910, S.E.: 1832, Lytton; Dickens.

post, knight of the

, see KNIGHT.

post, make a hack in the

. To use, consume, a considerable part of a thing: from ca 1840: coll >, by 1870, S.E.; ob.

post, on the

. Dealing with postage; applied esp. to the clerk dealing with this: commercial and insurance coll: late C.19–20.

post a letter

. To defecate: euphemistic: since ca 1890.

post-and-rail

. A wooden match, as opposed to a wax Vesta: Australian: from ca 1880; ob.

post-and-rails tea

. Ill-made tea: from ca 1850; ob. Only Australian. Ex floating stalks and leaves; the reference being to post-and-rail fences.

post-chaise

. To travel by post-chaise: coll: 1854, Thackeray. Ob.

post-chay, post-shay

. A post-chaise: ob. coll: 1757, F.Greville. cf. PO'CHAISE.

post-horn

. The nose: ca 1820–90: (low) coll. Ex noise and shape.

post-mortem

. The examination after failure: Cambridge: 1844, Punch, ‘I’ve passed the post-mortem at last.’ Punning the examination of a corpse.

post-nointer

. A house-painter. 1785, Grose; †by 1850.

post-shay

, see POST-CHAY.

post te, e.g. chum or hat

. A Charterhouse c.p., from ca 1870, to indicate disapproval (of, e.g., hat or companion). A.H.Tod, Charterhouse, 1900, implies derivation ex a post te of (anything), the right to use a thing after the ‘owner’ has done with it (mid-C.19–20); itself ex post te (in L., ‘after thee’) as in post te math. ex, ‘May I glance over your mathematical exercise?’

post the blue

. To win the Derby: racingmen's (–1909). cf. POST, v., 3; the blue is the blue riband of racing, the Derby.

Postage Stamp, the

. Any hotel, etc., known as the Queen's Head: taverns': 1837–ca 85. Ex the design on stamps.

postie; OCC. posty

. A postman: coll (–1887). It is recorded in dial. in 1871. For form, cf. goalie, goal-keeper.

postil(l)ion of the Gospel

. A gabbling parson: 1785, Grose; †by 1870.

postman's sister, the

. An unnamed or secret informant: middle-class coll: ca 1883–1914. cf. JINKS, 2.

postmaster general

. The Prime Minister: a late C.17–early 19 nickname. Grose, 1785, ‘...Who has the patronage of all posts and places’.

posty

, see POSTIE.

pot

.(The money involved in) a large stake or bet: 1823, ‘Jon Bee’: sporting. e.g. Lever, ‘The horse you have backed with a heavy pot.’ 2. Hence, any large sum: coll: 1870, L.Oliphant, ‘Harrie...won a pot on the French horse.’ 3. Any horse heavily backed, i.e. gen. the favourite: 1823, ‘Jon Bee’; H., ‘Because [he] carries a pot of money’. 4. A prize, orig. and esp. if a vessel (gen. of silver), given at sports and games: 1885, O.E.D. 5. (A) sixpence: medical students’: ca 1858–1915. H., 2nd ed., 1860, ‘A half-crown...is a five-pot piece’; Household Words, 20 June 1885, ‘Because it was the price of a pot or quart of “half-and-half”.’ 6. A person of importance, gen. as a big pot: coll: 1880, Hardy; 1891, The Licensed Victualler’s Gazette, 9 Feb., ‘Some of the big pots of the day’. Coll. >, by 1910, S.E. Cf. the naval nuance (–1909); an executive officer. 7. A steward: nautical: ca 1870–1920. 8. the pot or Pot, the Canal: Winchester College: from ca 1840. Hence, pot-cad, a sawyer on the Canal; pot-gates, lock-gates; pot-houser, a leap into the Canal from the roof of a house called pot-house. 9. Top: back s. (–1859). 10. See POTS. 11. A woman: c. (–1857); virtually †. 12. A stew: nautical coll: late C.19–20. Abbr. (the inevitable) pot of stew. 13. A person: in pejorative s. or coll combinations, as FUSS-POT, a fussy person and SWANK-pot, a conceited one: late C.19–20. cf. sense 6. 14. A POT-HAT: ca 1890–1914.

pot

, v. To shoot or kill for the pot, i.e. for food; to kill by a pot-shot: coll: 1860 (O.E.D.). 2. v.i. to have a pot-shot, v.t. with at: 1854 (O.E.D.): coll till C.20, then S.E. cf. POT

AWAY. 3. To win, BAG: 1900, H.Nisbet, 'He has potted the girl.' cf. the v., 1, and n., 4. 4. See POT, PUT ON THE. 5. To deceive; outwit: mid-C. 16–20: S.E. until C.19, then s., as in Tom Taylor's Still Waters, 1855, 'A greater flat was never potted'; ob. 6. See POT ON. 7. To stake a large sum on (a horse): turf: from ca 1870. cf. the n., 1.

pot, as good a piece as ever strode a

. As good a girl as you could find: low coll: mid-C.19–20. cf. PISSED, AS GOOD AS EVER, and PISS UPON...

pot, give moonshine in a mustard

. To give nothing: coll: ca 1660–1800. Ray.

pot, go to

. To be ruined or destroyed; to get into a very bad condition: mid-C.16–20: S.E. till C.19, then coll; in C.20, low coll. (Whence go to pot!, go to the devil: coll: late C.17–20.) Orig., go to the pot, lit. 'to be cut in pieces like meat for the pot'.

pot, gone to

. Dead: C.19. See preceding entry.

pot, on the

. At stool: low: ca 1810–60. 2. In trouble, vexed: low: ca 1840–80. Sinks, 1848.

pot, put in the

. Involved in loss: turf (–1823); †by 1900.

pot, put on

. To exaggerate, e.g. to overcharge: from ca 1850; ob. 2. (Also to pot.) To wager large sums: sporting: 1823, ‘Jon Bee’; ob. See POT, n., 1.

pot, put on the big

. To snub; to be patronizing: from ca 1891: coll. (Occ., big omitted.)

pot, upset the

. To beat the favourite: sporting: from ca 1860. Ouida.

pot and spit

. Meat boiled and meat roasted: coll verging on S.E.: late C.17–18. Ex the respective modes of cooking.

pot away

, v.i. To keep shooting: coll: from ca 1855. Ex POT, v., 2.

pot-boiler

. Any literary or artistic work done for money: coll: 1803 (S.O.D.). i.e. something that will keep the pot boiling. 2. Hence, a producer of ‘pot-boilers’: coll: 1892, G.S.Layard.

pot-cad

, see POT, n., 8.

pot calls the kettle black arse, the

, see BLACK ARSE.

pot-faker

. A hawker, a cheapjack, esp. in crockery: low: from ca 1870; ob.

pot-gates

, see POT, n., 8.

pot-hat

. In Notes & Queries, 1891 (7th Series, xii, 48), we read: ‘Until lately... always...short for “chimney-pot hat”, less reverently known as a “tile”; but at the present time...often applied to a felt hat,' the latter—to be precise as BOWLER—being, by 1930, slightly ob., the former historical. Coll: 1798, Jane Austen.

pot-head

. A stupid person: coll: 1855, Kingsley. App. ex:

pot-headed

. Thick-headed, stupid: coll: More, 1533. Whence preceding entry.

pot-hooks and hangers

. Shorthand: coll: C.19.

pot-house

. An easy-going club: clubmen's coll (–1909). Jocular on S.E. sense.

pot-houser

, see POT, n., 8.

pot-hunter

. One who follows sport for profit, lit. for pots: coll: 1874, H., 5th ed. See POT, n., 4. Ex S.E. sense, one who hunts less for the sport than for the prey. cf. the next entry. 2. In very local c. of late C.16, the same as a BARNACLE. Greene, 1592.

pot-hunting

. The practising of sport for the sake of the prizes: coll: 1862, Saturday Review, 7 July; Good Words, 1881, 'Some men are too fond of starrng or pot-hunting at "sports".' cf. POT-HUNTER.

pot in the pate, have a

. To be the worse for drink: coll verging on S.E.: ca 1650–1780. Bracken, in his interesting Farriery Improved, 1737, 'An Ox...would serve them to ride well enough, if they had only a Pot in the Pate.'

pot joint

. In grafters' s. of late C.19–20, thus in P.Allingham, Cheapjack, 1934, 'An enormous number of crockery sellers are Lancashire men, and their great stalls, where they sell all kinds of china by mock auction, are usually called "pot joints".'

pot(-)mess

. 'A stew made of bits and pieces too numerous for specification,' Granville: naval coll: late C.19–20. cf. POT, n., 12.

pot of all

. A leader-hero, a ‘demi-god’: Cockney: ca 1883–1914.

pot of beer

. Ginger beer: teetotallers’ (–1909).

pot o(f) bliss

. A fine tall woman: taverns’: from ca 1876; ob.

pot of O

is the abbr. of pot of O, my dear: rhyming s. for beer: 1868, says Ware; ob.

pot on

. To be enthusiastic for: non-aristocratic s. (–1887) >, by 1900, coll; ob. Baumann quotes Punch: ‘When their fancy has potted on pink’ (Wenn sie sich in Rosa verliebt haben).

pot on, put the

. See PUT THE POT ON. 2. To exaggerate: from ca 1870; ob. 3. To overcharge: tradesmen’s: mid-C.19–20.

pot scum

. 'Bad or stinking dripping', Sinks: domestic coll: ca 1825–1910.

pot walks, the

. A c.p. applied to a drinking bout: ca 1560–1750.

pot-walloper

. A heavy drinker: coll: late C.19–20; ob. Ex: 2. A tap-room loafer; (theatrical) a PROSSER: low: from ca 1870. 3. A scullion; a cook on a whaler: s. (–1860) > coll. 4. A pejorative term of address: 1820: coll >, ca 1870, S.E. Ex the S.E. political sense=potwaller. 5. Incorrectly (prob. on preceding sense) applied to anything very big and/or clumsy: late C.19–20.

pot-walloping

. Making vigorous but clumsy movements: catachrestic: 1899 (O.E.D.). Ex preceding, 5.

pot with two ears, make a or the

. To set one's arms akimbo: coll: ca 1670–1760. Cotton, 1675, '...A goodly port she bears,|Making the pot with the two Ears.'

pot-wrestler

. The cook on a whaler: nautical: from ca 1840. cf. POT-WALLOPER, 3.

potato

. A pejorative coll, as in Smollett's 'I don't value [him] a rotten potato': ca 1750–1850. cf. POTATOES. 2. A large hole in fleshings or stockings: coll: late C.19–20.

potato, hot

, see HOT POTATO.

potato!, take a red-hot

. A c.p. (ca 1840–60) 'by way of silencing a person...a word of contempt', Sinks, 1848. A very hot potato in one's mouth is a sharp deterrent from loquacity.

potato, the or the clean

. The best; the correct or most apposite thing: resp. 1822, 1880. Esp. in quite or not quite the (clean) potato. 2. A non-convict; a person of good character: Australian: ca 1825–70.

potato-box

. The mouth (cf. POTATO-JAW): from ca 1870.

potato-finger

. A long thick finger; a penis; a dildo: (low) coll: C.17–18. Esp. in Shakespeare's Troilus and Cressida. Ex supposed aphrodisiac virtues of the sweet potato.

potato-jaw or -trap

. The mouth: resp. 1791, Mme D'Arblay; 1785, Grose. Orig. Irish.

potatoes

, abbr. of:

potatoes in the mould

. Cold: from ca 1870.

potatoes, small

. Nothing much, nothing great: orig. U.S. (1836), anglicized ca 1860. cf. POTATO, 1.

potching

. The taking of tips from a person whom one has not served: waiters' (–1883). Graphic, 17 March 1883. Prob.= poaching.

potle-bell, ring the

. 'To confirm a bargain by linking the little fingers of the right hand ', F. & H.: Scots dial. and coll, mostly among children: C.19–20.

pots

. Potatoes: greengrocers' coll: since ca 1870.

pots and pans, make

. 'To spend freely, then beg', Bee, 1823: ca 1820–1900.

pottage

. The Book of Common Prayer: C.17. Frequent in the less reputable writings of the time. Esau sold his birthright for a mess of pottage.

potted

; occ. potted out. Confined (e.g. in a lodging): coll: 1859, The Times, 21 July; ob. by 1890. 2. Dead and buried: from ca 1860; ob. Ex horticulture. 3. Snubbed, suppressed: non-aristocratic: from ca 1880; ob.

potted fug

. Potted meat: either dial. or local s.: Rugby (town): from ca 1860.

potter-carrier

. An apothecary: low coll and dial. form of pothecary: ca 1750–1820. Foote, 1764, ‘Master Lint, the potter-carrier’.

potting

. Shooting; esp. the taking of pot-shots: coll: 1884 (O.E.D.). Ex POT, v., 2.

pottle

. A bottle (of hay): incorrect: ca 1730–1850. Fielding.

potty

. A tinker: lower classes’ (–1909). Ex his pots and pans.

potty

, adj. Indifferent; shaky; very unpromising (business scheme): 1860, H.; rather ob. 2. (Of a stroke) feeble; clumsy: cricketers’: from 1870. 3. Trivial, insignificant: 1899, Eden Phillpotts. Ex potter (about). 4. Easy, simple; safe: 1899: s.

pouch

. A present of money: 1880, Disraeli: s.; ob. Ex sense 1 of the v.

pouch

, v. To supply the pouch, i.e. the purse or pocket, of; to tip: s. >, in C.20, (low) coll: 1810, Shelley; 1844, Disraeli, 'Pouched in a manner worthy of a Marquess and of a grandfather'. Slightly ob. 2. To eat: low coll: 1892, Milliken, 'Fancy pouching your prog on a terrace.' Ex S.E. sense, to swallow.

pouch-mouth

, n. and adj. A ranter; ranting: coll, somewhat rare: early C.17. Dekker, 'Players, I mean, theaterians, pouch-mouth stage-walkers'. i.e. ore rotundo.

pouchet

. A pocket: either coll or a corruption of pocket by Fr. pochette. Radcliffe, 1682, 'Did out of his Pouchet three nutmegs produce.' †by 1800.

poudering-tub

, see POWDERING-TUB.

pouf

. A would-be actor: theatrical: ca 1870–1910. Ex poof!, pouf!

poulain

. A chance: low coll: 1785, Grose; ob. Ex Fr. poulain.

poulderling

. An undergraduate in his second year: university: C.17. Anon., The Christmas Prince, 1607. ?origin.

poulterer

*. A thief who steals and guts letters: c.: C.19. ?ex quill=a quill pen, perhaps via metaphor of feathers as letters.

poultice

. A fat woman: Society: ca 1880–1900. 2. A very high collar, suggestive of a neck poultice, ring-like in shape: Society: ca 1882–1912. 3. See POULTICE OVER.

poultice-mixer

. A sick bay attendant: naval (–1909). cf. POULTICE-WALLAH.

poultice over the peeper

. A punch or blow on the eye: low (–1909).

poultice-wallah

. A physician's, esp. a surgeon's, assistant: military: from ca 1870. See WALLAH and cf. POULTICE-MIXER and:

poultice-walloper

. A sick-bay attendant: naval: late C.19–20.

poultry

. Women in gen.: coll: C.17–20. Chapman. Hence, celestial poultry, angels, ex the wings. cf. HEN; HEN-PARTY, and contrast COCK.

poultry-rig

*. The DODGE noted at POULTERER: c.: C.19.

pounce

. A variant of PONCE.

pounce, on the

. Ready to leap verbally: Anglo-Irish: 1887, when brought into fashion by E.Harrington, M.P. Daily News, 10 Oct. 1890, “‘On the pounce’”, as the irreverent phrase goes.’

pounce-shicer, and pouncey

, see PONCE.

pound

, v., see POUND IT and POUNDED.

pound

. Pounds, whether weight or sterling: S.E. until mid-C.19, then coll and dial. ‘He’s worth a thousand pound if he’s worth a penny’; ‘That bullock weighs eight hundred pound.’ (In combination, however, the uninflected pl is S.E.: e.g. ‘a four pound trout’.)

pound, go one’s

. To eat something up: military: ca 1870–1914. Ex the fact that a soldier’s ration of bread used to weigh 1 lb., his ration of meat nearly 1 lb. (actually ³/₄ lb.), as mentioned in the Pall Mall Gazette, 1 July 1885.

pound, in for

*. Committed for trial: c.: C.19–20; ob. Ex pound=prison.

pound, shut (up) in the parson's

. Married: 1785, Grose: †by 1860.

pound and pint

. The bare Board of Trade ration scale: nautical: late C.19–20. Bowen.

pound-and-pint idler

. A naval purser: naval: late C.19–early 20. Ex preceding.

pound it

. To bet, wager, as on a virtual certainty, esp. in I'll pound it: 1812, Vaux; ob. by 1900. Ex offering £10 to 2s. 6d. at a cock-fight. Dickens, 'I'll pound it that you han't.' cf. POUNDABLE.

pound (of lead)

. Head: rhyming s. (late C. 19–20).

pound the stones

. To walk a beat: police: C.20. Via the coll pound the beat (late C.19–20).

pound-text

. A parson: coll: late C.18–20; Ob. cf. CUSHION CUFFER.

pound to an olive(, it's a)

. It's a certain bet: Jewish coll (–1909). Perhaps ex Jewish fondness for olives.

poundable

. (Esp. of the result of a game, the issue of a bet) certain, inevitable; or considered to be such: low (?c.): 1812, Vaux; ob. by 1890.

pounded

, ppl adj. Discovered guilty of impropriety: male Society: ca 1820–50. Egan, Life in London, 1821. Ex the pounding of strayed animals.

pounders

. (Rare in singular.) Testicles: coll: late C.17–18. Dryden's Juvenal, VI, 117.

poundrel

. The head: coll: 1664, Cotton, ‘Glad they had scap’d, and sav’d their poundrels’; †by 1830. Origin obscure, though prob. connected with weight.

poupe

, see POOP, n., 3, and v., 2.

pour

. A continuous rain; esp. a steady pour (all the morning): coll: late C.19–20.

pouter

. The female pudend: low: C.19–20; ob. cf. DIDDLY-POUT.

poverty

. Some strong liquor that was in vogue in the 1720s. Anon., The Quaker’s Opera, 1728. See BUNTER’S TEA.

poverty-basket

. A wicker cradle: s. or coll: ca 1820–70.

powder

, v.i. To rush: coll and dial.: lit., in Quarles, 1632, 'Zacheus climb'd the Tree: But O how fast...he powder'd down agen!'; fig., from ca 1730. Ex the rapid explosiveness of powder. 2. Hence, to spur (a horse) to greater speed: sporting (–1887). 3. v.t., to camouflage the fact that a horse is glandered: horse-copers': from ca 1860. 'No. 747', p. 20.

powder-monkey

. A boy employed to carry powder from magazine to gun: 1682, Radcliffe, 'Powder-monkey by name': naval coll till C.19, then S.E.

powder or shot, not worth

. Not worth cost or, esp., trouble or effort: 1776, Foote: coll till ca 1850, then S.E.

powdered chalk, (take a)

. (Go for) a walk: rhyming s.: late C.19–20. Not very common, but perhaps the origin of U.S. take a powder.

powdering (one's) hair, be

. To be getting drunk: taverns': C.18–20; extremely ob. Ware, 1909, remarks: 'Still heard in remote places. Euphemism invented by a polite landlord.'

powdering-tub

. A salivating cradle or pit, used against syphilis: late C.16–early 19: humorous S.E. until C.18, then coll. Shakespeare. 2. With capitals, ‘the Pocky Hospital at Kingsland near London’, B.E.: low coll: late C.17–mid-18.

Powell it

. To walk: sporting coll: ca 1810–50. Boxiana, II, 1818. Ex the name of a famous early C.19 walker.

power

. A large number of persons, number or quantity of things; mueh: from ca 1660: S.E. until ca 1820, then dial. and (low) coll. Dickens, ‘It has done a power of work.’ 2. Penis: low and rather rare: mid-C.19–20. Prob. suggested by sexual potency.

poweration

. A large number or quantity; much: coll: ca 1830–1910. Also dial.

powerful

. Great in number; in quantity: dial. and low coll: 1852, in U.S.; anglicized in 1865, by Dickens, ‘A powerful sight of notice’.

pox

. Syphilis: C.16–20: S.E. until mid-C. 18; then a vulg. That the word was early avoided appears in Massinger's 'Or, if you will hear it in a plainer phrase, the pox', 1631. Often French pox (Florio, 'The Great or French poxe'); occ. Italian, German, Spanish, Indian pox, also (the) great pox—Swift has the greater pox; cf. FRENCH CROWN. Altered spelling of pocks, orig. applied to the pustules of any eruptive disease. See also POWDERING-TUB. cf. POX!, and:

pox

, v. To infect with syphilis: late C.17–20: S.E. until mid-C.18, then a vulg. Amory, 1766, 'She...lives...to...pox the body.' cf.:

pox

! (cf. the n. and v.) In imprecations and irritated exclamations, esp. a pox of or on...!, (a) pox take...!, a pox!, what a pox!, with a pox!, pox on it! Late C.16– mid-19: S.E. until C.18, then a vulg. Shakespeare, 1588, 'A pox of that jest'; Fielding, 1749, 'Formalities! with a pox!'

poxed, poxt

, ppl adj. Infected with syphilis: late C.17–20: S.E. until mid-C.18, then a vulg.

poyson

; poysoned, see POISON; POISONED. poz, pozz, see POS.

pozzy

. Jam: military: late C.19–20. Perhaps ex a South African language, for the Africans of S.A. ‘used the word, before 1900 at least, to designate any sort of sweetmeat or preserve.’

practicable

, n. A door, window, staircase, etc., actually usable in a play: theatrical coll: 1859, Wraxall. Ex the corresponding theatrical adj. (1838).

practicable

, adj. Gullible; illicitly accessible; facile: 1809, Malkin. Ex S.E. practicable, feasible.

practical

, n. (Rare in singular.) A practical joke; a trick: 1833, M.Scott. Ob.

practical politician

. A public-house, self-appointed orator or spouter: coll: late C. 19–20.

practise in the milky way

. To fondle a woman’s breasts: low cultured coll: verging on, but not achieving, S.E.: C.17–20; ob. Carew, 1633.

practitioner

*. A thief: c.: from ca 1865; ob. J.Greenwood, 1869.

prad

*. A horse: c.: app. not recorded separately before 1799, but implied in Grose, 2nd ed., 1788, in PRAD-LAY. Egan, Dickens, Mayhew, Marriott-Watson. Ex Dutch paard, a horse. cf. CHARING CROSS; GEE; PRANCER; and esp. PROD, 2.

prad-cove

*. A horse dealer: c.: from ca 1820; ob.

prad-holder

*. A bridle: c.: 1798, Tufts, A Glossary of Thieves' Jargon.

prad-lay

*. Cutting bags from behind horses; the stealing of bridles, etc.: c.: 1788, Grose.

prad-napper

*; -napping. A horse-thief; horse-thieving: c.: C.19–20; ob. See PRAD.

pradback

*. Horseback: c. (–1812); ob.

prag, pragge

*. A thief: c. of ca 1590–1600. Greene, 1592. Prob. ex PRIG, n., and v.

praise

. (The name of) God: a Scots euphemistic coll: C.17–early 19. Callander, 1782, ‘Praise be blest, God be praised. This is a common form still in Scotland with such as from reverence, decline to use the sacred name.’ Ex †S.E. praise, ‘an object or subject of praise’.

pram

. A perambulator (for infants): coll abbr.: 1884, Graphic, 25 Oct., ‘Nurses... chattering and laughing as they push their “prams”’. 2. Hence, a milkman’s handcart: coll: 1897.

prams

. Legs: low Glasgow s., verging on c.: late (?mid-)C.19–20. Prob. a corruption of the old c. term, GAM(S).

prance

. To dance, caper, gambol: mid-C. 15–20; S.E. until ca 1850, then coll.

prancer

*. A horse: c.: ca 1565–1860. cf. the S.E. usage: a prancing or mettlesome horse. See also PRANKER. 2. A highwayman: C.17: c. >, ca 1680, low s. Day, Head. 3. Hence, a horse-thief: c.: C.18– mid-19. Anon., The Twenty Craftsmen, 1712, ‘The fifteenth a prancer... If they catch him horse-coursing, he’s nooz’d once for all.’ 4. A cavalry officer: military: from ca 1870; ob.

Prancer, the Sign of the

*.The Nag’s Head (inn): from ca 1565 (very ob.): c. >, in C.19, low s. Also the Sign of the Prancer’s Poll.

prancer’s nab or nob

*. A horse’s head as a sham seal to a counterfeit pass: c.: late C.17–mid-19. cf.:

prancer’s poll

*. The same: late C.17–mid-18. 2. See PRANCER, THE SIGN OF THE.

pranker

*. A horse: c.: late C.16–17. Greene. Prob. a corruption of PRANCER, 1.

prannie or pranny

. Female pudend: low: late C.19–20. A term of contempt among men.

p'raps

. Perhaps: coll abbr. (in C.19, rather low): 1835, Hood; prob. much earlier.

prat, pratt

*. A tinder-box: c.: late C.17– early 19. ?origin. 2. (Gen. in pl.) A buttock; a thigh: mid-C.16–20: c. >, ca 1820, low. 3. A behind: late C.16–20: c. >, in C.19, low. Rowlands, 1610, 'And tip lowr with thy prat'; Marriott-Watson, 1895, 'We ain't to do nothing...but to set down upon our prats.' cf. U.S. c. sense, a hip-pocket. 4. The female pudend: low: C.19–20.

prat

*, v. To go: c.: 1879, Horsley. Connected perhaps with the n., 3, but prob. with Romany praster, to run. 2. Hence, prat oneself—or, more gen., one's frame—in, to butt in, come uninvited, interfere: low: late C.19–20. 3. To beat, to swish: late C.16–20 (ob.): low. App. ex the n., 3. Shakespeare, Merry Wives, IV, ii.

prat about

. To potter, mess about: low: late C.19–20. cf. PRAT, n., 2, 3, and v., 2.

prate-roast

. A talkative boy: ca 1670–1840: low: Glanvill; B.E.; Grose (1st ed.), who, by the way, certainly errs when he describes it as c.

pratie, praty

. A potato: dial. and Anglo-Irish: 1832, a Scots song; Marryat; Reade, 1857, has the very rare spelling pratee. A slurred abbr. Also see TATER (-UR); TATIE.

prating cheat

*. The tongue: c.: ca 1565–1860. See CHEAT, a thing.

pratt

*, see PRAT, n.

pratting-ken

*. A low lodging-house: c.: from ca 1860. ‘No. 747’. Ex PRAT, n., 2. cf. KRADYING-KEN.

prattle-box

. A chatterer: coll: Ned Ward, 1703. cf. S.E. chatterbox.

prattle-broth

. Tea: late C.18–mid-19. Grose, 1788. cf. CHATTER-, SCANDAL-BROTH.

prattle-cheat

*, see PRATTLING-CHEAT.

prattling-box

. A pulpit: low: late C.18– mid-19. cf. HUM-BOX.

prattling-cheat

*. An occ. variant of PRATING CHEAT.

prattling-parlour

. A private apartment: ca 1820–60. Moncrieff, 1821.

pratts

*, see PRAT, n.

praty

. Talkative: coll (gen. low): C.19–20; ob. Ex S.E. prate, (idie) talk. 2. See PRATIE.

prawn, silly

. A pejorative applied to persons; gen. you silly prawn or the s.p.: coll: from ca 1905; slightly ob. It may date from ca 1890, for in 1895 W.Pett Ridge, Minor Dialogues, has: ‘Ah, I expect you’re a saucy young prawn, Emma.’

pray with knees upwards

. (Of women) to coït: low: 1785, Grose.

prayer-bones

. The knees: low coll: from ca 1850; ob.

prayer-book

. A small holy-stone (cf. BIBLE): nautical s. >, ca 1870, nautical coll (ob.): 1840, Dana, 'Smaller handstones...prayer-books...are used to scrub in among the crevices and narrow places, where the large holystone will not go.'

prayer-book parade

. 'A promenade in fashionable places of resort, after morning service on Sundays', F. & H.: from ca 1880; very ob. cf. CHURCH-PARADE.

prayers, at her last

. (adj. applied to) an old maid: late C.17–mid-19. cf. lead APES IN HELL.

prayers, say

. (Of horses) to stumble: sporting: C.19–20; ob. cf. DEVOTIONAL HABITS.

prayers backwards, say

. To blaspheme; to curse: coll: late C.17–early 19. Ray's Proverbs; Ned Ward, 1706, 'They pray... backwards'; Nathan Bailey's Erasmus, 1725.

pre

. A prefect: Public-Schoolboys': late C.19–20. Also prae.

preach

. An act of preaching; a sermon; a discourse; tediously moral talk (cf. PI-JAW): C.16–20. Mrs Whitney, 1870, 'I preached a little preach.' Slightly ob.

preach at Tyburn Cross

*. To be hanged: c. or low s.: ca 1810–60.

preachification

. vbl n. of next: coll: 1843, Lockhart. cf. PREACH.

preachify

. To deliver a (tedious) sermon; moralize wearisomely: coll: 1775, S.J. Pratt.

preachifying

. Tedious moralizing: coll: 1828.

preachiness

. The being PREACHY: coll: 1861, O.E.D. cf. preceding entry.

preaching-shop

. A church; more gen., a chapel: coll: from ca 1840. Thackeray. Pejorative on preaching-house (1760), Wesley's name for a Methodist Chapel.

preachy

. Given to preaching; as if, as in, a sermon: coll: 1819, Miss Mitford, 'He was a very good man...though preachy and prosy.'

preachy-preachy

. Tediously moral or moralizing: coll: 1894, George Moore, 'I don't 'old with all them preachy-preachy brethren says about the theatre.'

precious

. Egregious; arrant; (pejoratively) thorough; occ. an almost meaningless intensive: coll: late M.E.-C.20. Lydgate; Jonson, 1605, 'Your worship is a precious ass'; Darwin, 1836.

precious

, adv. Exceedingly; very: coll: 1837, Dickens (who, as W. remarks, popularized this use), ‘We’ve got a pair o’ precious large wheels on’; Baumann, however, implies its use as early as the 1740s. Ex the adj. cf. PRECIOUS FEW.

precious coals

! A coll expletive: ca 1570–1620. Gascoigne. Prob. ex precious!= precious blood or body, recorded by the O.E.D. in 1560.

precious few

.Very few: coll: 1839(O.E.D.). Ex PRECIOUS, adv. Perhaps ex U.S.A., where it is recorded in 1802.

preciously

. Exceedingly; very: coll: 1607, Middleton; Thackeray. cf. PRECIOUS, adv.

predeceased

. Obvious: ca 1890–1915; orig. legal. Perhaps ex Queen Anne’s dead.

pref

. A prefect: Scottish Public Schools': since ca 1870. Contrast PRE.

prefer room to company

, as in 'She prefers my room to my company' and a hint, 'I prefer your room to your company': virtually a c.p.: late C.19–20.

premises

. The female pudend: low: C.19–20.

premune

. A praemunire (=a predicament): coll abbr.: ca 1755–1800. Mrs Lennox, 1758.

prep

. Preparation of lessons; the period of such preparation: school s.: 1862, O.E.D.; Eden Phillpotts, in The Human Boy, 1899. 2. Abbr. of next: school s.: from 1900 at the latest.

prep school

. A preparatory school: school s.: 1899 (O.E.D. Sup.), but prob. earlier.

Prescott

. A waistcoat: rhyming s. Gen. Charley Prescott (–1859).

present

. A white spot on a finger-nail: coll: C.19–20; slightly ob. Suggested by S.E. gift in the same sense. The white spot on the finger-nail has a different meaning for each nail. Starting with a thumb the verse runs—‘A gift, a friend, a foe; a letter to come, and a journey to go.’

presenterer

. A whore: low coll: ca 1820–70. (A presenter of herself.)

preserve (of long bills)

. A collection of outstanding debts: Oxford University: ca 1820–50.

press, hot

, see HOT PRESS.

pressed off

, ppl adj. Finished: tailors’ coll: late C.19–20.

preterite

, n. and adj. (A) veryold(person); Society: ca 1870–1900. Ware, ‘Especially applied to women’. cf. ANNO DOMINI and HAS BEEN.

prettification

. Rendering finically or cheaply pretty: coll: from ca 1855.

prettified

, adj. (Made) pretty in a too-dainty or in a cheap way: coll: from ca 1851. Ex:

prettify

. To make pretty, esp. if cheaply or pettily: to represent prettily: coll: 1850, Mrs Trollope, ‘Your money to prettify your house’.

pretty

. This S.E. adj. has, since ca 1850, had a slightly coll tinge. 2. The adv. (C. 16–20) has been almost coll since ca 1890: i.e. in sense of ‘rather’, ‘considerably’. Contrast:

pretty

, adv. Prettily: 1667 (O.E.D.); S.E. until C.19, then coll; in C.20, low coll.

pretty, do the or speak or talk

. To affect amiability or courtesy in action or speech: low coll: from ca 1890. J.Newman, Scamping Tricks, 1891, 'We can talk pretty to each other.'

pretty-behaved

. Prettily behaved: coll: late C.18–20. cf. PRETTY-SPOKEN.

pretty-boy clip

. Hair brought flat down over the forehead, and cut in a straight line from ear to ear: Society: ca 1880–1900. Ware.

pretty dancers, the

. The Aurora Borealis: Scots coll: C.19–20. cf. MERRY DANCERS.

pretty-face

. The whip-tail kangaroo: Australian coll: from ca 1885.

pretty Fanny's way, only

. Characteristic: c.p. (in C.19, a proverb) on only her (his) way: ca 1720–1900. Ex Parnell, ca 1718, ‘And all that’s madly wild, or oddly gay,| We call it only pretty Fanny’s way.’

pretty much

. Almost; to a large extent: coll: since ca 1860.

pretty-pretty

, pretty things, knick-knacks, 1875, and pretty-pretty, rather too, or prettily pretty, 1897, are given by O.E.D. as S.E.: but orig. they were almost certainly coll.

pretty-pretty

. Ornamental work on shipboard: nautical coll: from ca 1880. Bowen. Ex preceding.

pretty-spoken

. Speaking prettily: coll: 1809, Malkin. cf. PRETTY-BEHAVED (12 years earlier).

prettyish

. Rather pretty: coll: 1741, Horace Walpole, ‘There was Churchill’s daughter, who is prettyish and dances well.’

preventive

. A preventive officer: nautical: 1870, E.D.D.

previous

; gen. too previous. Premature; hasty: s. >, ca 1895, coll: 1885, Daily Telegraph, 14 Dec., ‘He is a little before his time, a trifle previous, as the Americans say, but so are all geniuses.’ Whence:

previousness

. The coming too soon or being premature, hasty: coll: 1884 in U.S.; anglicized ca 1890. Ex preceding term.

prey

*. Money: c.: late C.17–early 19. Ex S.E. sense.

price—?, what

. (Occ. admiring, but gen. sarcastic; in reference to a declared or well-understood value.) What do you now think of—? Just consider, look at—!: orig. racing ('What odds—?'), then gen.: from ca 1890. P.H.Emerson, 1893, 'What price you, when you fell off the scaffold.'

priceless

. (By itself, it=) ludicrous; extremely amusing. With n., egregious: e.g. 'priceless ass' (of a person): s. from ca 1906.

prick

. A pimple: coll: C.17–18. Jonson, Marston, et al., in Eastward Ho!, III, ii, 'I have seen a little prick no bigger than a pin's head...swell to an ancome,' i.e. a boil or ulcer; this is a quibble on sense 3. 2. An endearment: late C.16–17. (cf. PILLICOCK, 2.) Ex: 3. The penis: 1592: S.E. until ca 1700; in C.18–20, a vulg. verging, in C.20, on low coll. Shakespeare; Robertson of Struan, Hanbury Williams, Burns. Ex basic sense, anything that pricks or pierces. cf. COCK. See esp. Grose, P., and Allen Walker Read, Lexical Evidence, 1935 (Paris; privately printed). (The variant prickle, dating from ca 1550, has always been S.E.: in C.19–20, literary only.) 4. An offensive or contemptuous term (applied to men only), always with silly; gen. you silly prick, occ. the s.p.: low: late C.19–20. 5. 'Perique: Issue tobacco wrapped in canvas and lashed with spun yara into a cylindrical shape tapered to a point', Granville: naval: since ca 1890.

prick

, v. To mark a course on (a chart): naval officers' coll: late C.19–20.

prick-ear or -ears

; or with capitals. A Roundhead: a coll nickname: 1642; †by 1690. Though influenced by PRICK-EARED (or -lugged), prick-ear derives mainly ex the fact that ‘the Puritan head-gear was a black skull-cap, drawn down tight, leaving ears exposed,’ F. & H., or, as B.E. defines prick-eared fellow, ‘a Crop, whose Ears are longer than his Hair’.

prick-eared

, adj. Roundhead: ca 1640–1700: coll verging on S.E. cf. preceding.

prick for a (soft) plank

. To find the most comfortable place for a sleep: nautical: C. 19–20.

prick has no conscience

, see STANDING PRICK...

prick-(in-)the-garter

; also prick-(in-)the-loop. A fraudulent game, in which pricking with a bodkin into the loop of a belt figures largely: C.19. In C.17–18 called prick-(in-)the-belt; in C.18 s., the old nob. Orig. coll, but almost imm S.E.

prick-louse

; occ. as in Burns, prick-the-louse. (Also nip-louse.) A tailor: coll: C.16–20; in C.19–20, mainly dial. Dunbar, L'Estrange.

prick-teaser

. A late C.19–20 variant of COCK-TEASER. Often abbr. to p.t.

prick-the-garter, play at

. To coït: C.18–19; low. Ex PRICK-IN-THE-GARTER.

prick-the-louse

, see PRICK-LOUSE.

pricket

. A sham bidder: auctioneers': C. 19–20; ob. cf. PUTTER-UP.

prickly Moses

, see MOSES, PRICKLY.

pride-and-pockets

. Officers on half-pay: coll: ca 1890–1915. P.H.Emerson, 1893.

pride of the morning

. A morning erection due to retention of urine: late C.19–20 (low) coll. Also morning-pride. Perhaps suggested by the S.E. and dial. p. of the m., an early morning shower of rain, and cf. †proud, ‘swollen’.

pridgeman

*, see PRIGMAN.

priest, a great

. An ineffectual but strong desire to stool: Scots coll: C.18–19.

priest-linked

, see PRIEST SAY GRACE, LET THE.

priest of the blue bag

. A barrister: coll: from ca 1845; ob. Kingsley, 1849, ‘As practised in every law quibble...as if he had been a regularly ordained priest of the blue bag’. cf. GREEN-BAG.

priest say grace, let the

, v.i., To marry: coll: C.17–18. Hence, priest-linked, joined in matrimony: late C.17–early 19.

priest spoke on Sunday, know more than the

. To be worldly-wise: coll: C.15–20; in C.19–20, mostly dial. Bale, ca 1540.

priestess

. A priest's wife: coll: 1709, Mrs Manley.

prig

*; in C.16–18, often prigg. A tinker: c.: 1567; †by 1690. Perhaps ex dial. prig, v.i., to haggle about the price; prob., however, connected closely (see, e.g., PRIG, PRINCE) with: 2. A thief: 1610, Rowlands: c. >, ca 1750, low s. In C.19–20, gen. a petty thief. Ex the v., 1. 3. Hence, a cheat: late C.17–early 19: c. >, ca 1750, s. 4. See PRIG-NAPPER, 2. 5. A fop, coxcomb: late C.17–early 19. B.E., ‘A Nice beauish, silly Fellow, is called a meer Prig’; Grose, ‘a conceited coxcomical [sic] fellow.’ 6. Hence, a vague pejorative (dislike, contempt): late C.17–18 coll. Shadwell, 1679, ‘A senseless, noisie Prig’. 7. A religious precisian, esp. a dissenting minister: coll: late C.17–mid-18. Facetious Tom Brown, Arthur Murphy. ‘Perhaps partly a violent shortening of precisian,’ W. Hence, 8, a precisian in manners, a purist in speech, esp. if conceited, didactic, or tedious: coll >, in C.19, S.E.: 1753, Smollett; George Eliot, in Middlemarch, ‘A prig is a fellow who is always making you a present of his opinions.’

prig

; Prigg (as for n.), v. To steal: 1561, Awdelay; Harman: c. >, in C.19, low s. In C.19–20, gen. applied to petty theft. ?a corruption (cf. that in sense 4) of †prick, to pin, to skewer. 2. Hence, to cheat, to swindle: low s.: 1819, Sporting Magazine, '[He] shook hands with me, and trusted I should soon prig the London cocknies.' 3. v.i., to beg, importune: 1714, Woodrow; G.Douglas, 1901: coll and dial. Prob. ex prig, to haggle. 4. To ride: 1567, Harman: c. and dial.; †by 1850. Cognate with S.E. prick, as in Spenser's 'A gentle Knight was pricking on the plaine.' 5. Hence, v.i., to coit: c.: late C.17–early 19.

prig, prince

, c. of late C.17–early 19: B.E., 'A King of the Gypsies; also a Tophthief, or Receiver General', i.e. a notable (or important) thief, or a very important FENCE. Ex PRIG, n., 2.

prig (or prigg-ing-lay), work on the

. To thieve: c.: C.19–20; ob. cf. :

prig and buzz

, n. and v. Picking of pockets! resp. 1789, G.Parker (p. and b., work upon the), ob.; C.19–20, ob. Both, c. See BUZZ, n., 2 and PRIG, n., 2, and v., 1.

prig-man

, see PRIGMAN.

prig-napper

*. A thief-taker: c.: late C.17– early 19. 2. A horse-stealer: c.: mid-C. 17–mid-18. This sense leads one to posit an unrecorded PRIG, n., a horse, ex PRIG, v., 4.

prig-star

*. A rival in love: c.: mid-C.17–18. Ex PRIG, n., 2, or v., 1. Obviously, star may= -ster. 2. cf. PRIGSTER.

prigg,

* see PRIG, n. and v.

prigger

*. A thief: c. >, in C.19, low s.: 1561, Awdelay. e.g. p. of cacklers, prancers, a poultry-, horse-thief. Ex PRIG, v., 1. (In C.16, often priggar.) 2. A highwayman: C.17 c. Ex prig, to ride; prigger also meaning any rider: c. (or low s.) and dial. 3. Hence, a fornicator: c. (?> low s.): C. (?18–)19. EX PRIG, v., 5. cf. PARISH-prig or -BULL.

priggery

*. Thievery; petty theft: c.: C.18– early 19. Fielding, 1743. cf. PRIGGISM.

prigging

, vbl n. to PRIG, v. e.g. B.E., ‘Riding; also Lying with a Woman’; Greene, 1591, ‘This base villany of Prigging, or horse-stealing’. From ca 1820, mostly of petty theft; and, as such, low s.

prigging

, adj. Thieving; thievish: from ca 1567: c. >, in early C.18, low s. Ex PRIG, v., 1.

prigging law, lay

. Theft; esp. pilfering: c.: resp. late C.16–17 and C.19–20; ob. Greene; Maginn, 1829, ‘Doing a bit on the prigging lay’. (Prob., despite a lack of examples, the law form endured till ca 1750, when—again prob.—the other arose: see LAW and LAY.) Ex PRIG, v., 1.

priggish

. Thievish; dishonest: c.: late C.17–early 19. Ex PRIG, n., 1.

priggism

. Thieving: (c. or) low s.: C.18. Fielding, 1743, ‘The great antiquity of priggism’.

prigman

*; occ. prig-man. A thief: c. of ca 1560–1600. Awdelay (prygman); Drant, 1567 (pridgeman). Ex PRIG, n., 2, or, more prob., v., 1.

prigster

*. A thief: c. >, by 1840, low s.: C.19. Ex PRIG, v., 1. 2. A vague pejorative: 1688, Shadwell; †by 1750. Ex PRIG, n., 6. 3. See PRIG-STAR, 2: B.E. and Grose both spell without hyphen: prigstar.

prim

. ‘A silly empty starcht Fellow’, B.E.: late C.17–19: low s. >, by 1750, coll and dial. Ex both the adj. and the v.

prime

as a universal approbative adj. ca 1810–40 is a coll almost s.

prime

, adv. Excellently; in prime order: coll: 1648, Gage, ‘Prime good’; C.Scott, Sheep-Farming, ‘The hoggets will be prime fat by Christmas.’

prime kelter, in

. (Of a ship, esp. her rigging) in excellent condition: nautical coll: C.19–20.

primitive

. Unmixed; undiluted: society s. of ca 1890–1910.

primo

. The chairman, or master, of a Buffalo lodge: friendly societies': from ca 1880: coll >, in C.20, j. Ex L. primus, the first.

prinado

*. A sharper, prob. female: c. of ca 1620–60. Dekker; Brathwait, Clitus's Whimzies, 1631, 'His Nipps, Ints, Bungs, and Prinado's...ofttimes prevent the Lawyer by diving too deep into his Client's pocket.' Origin obscure: the O.E.D. hazards Sp. preñada, pregnant: unmarried pregnant women of the lower classes used to tend to become criminals.

Prince Alberts

. Burlap wound round the feet when a man's socks are worn out: sailing-ships': from ca 1860: ob. 2. Hence rags used in the same way: from ca 1860. 'Tom Collins', Such Is Life, 1903, 'Unlapping from his feet the inexpensive substitute for socks known as "prince alberts"'. cf. S.E. albert, a watch-chain.

prince prig

*, see PRIG, PRINCE.

Prince's points

. Shilling points at whist: Society and clubmen's coll: 1877–1901. H.R.H. (afterwards King Edward VII) argued that 'the best whist-players were not necessarily the richest of men,' Ware.

princecock, -cox

. The female pudend: low coll: C.16–mid-19. Ex S.E. sense.

princod

. 'A round, plump person', Grose, 1st ed.: Scots coll: ca 1780–1860. Ex S.E. sense, a pincushion. (Possibly, however, it never emerged from dial.)

princum

. Nicety of dress, fastidiousness of behaviour: coll: late C.17–18. D'Urfey. 1690. A mock-Latin perversion of PRINK. cf.:

princum-prancum

, see PRINKUM-PRANKUM.

Princum Prancum, Mistress (B.E.) or Mrs

(Grose, 1st ed.). A fastidious, precise, formal woman: coll: late C.17–early 19. See PRINKUM-PRANKUM, stressing prink rather than prank.

prink

, n. An act of making (gen. oneself) spruce: coll: 1895 (O.E.D.). Ex:

prink

, v.t. To make spruce; in reflexive, to dress oneself up: coll: 1576, Gascoigne, ‘Now I stand prinking me in the glasse.’ The v.i., in the reflexive sense, is also coll: C.18–20 (D’Urfey); in C.19–20, much the more gen. Cognate with equivalent prank.

prinked

. The ppl adj. of PRINK, v.t., and = ‘all dressed up’. Coll: 1579, North.

prinker

. A very fastidious dresser of self: coll: from ca 1860. Webster, 1864. cf.:

prinking

. A fastidious adorning, mostly of oneself: coll: 1699, Farquhar. See PRINK, v.

prinkum-prankum

. A prank: coll: late C.16–17. Nashe. A reduplication on prank with um (see PRINCUM) added to each element. 2. (gen. pl.) Fine clothes; fastidious adornment: C.18–early 19: coll. Here the stress is laid on PRINK (see the v.). See also PRINCUM PRANCUM, MISTRESS.

print, out of

, see OUT OF PRINT.

printed character

. A pawn-ticket: low s. (? > coll): from ca 1860; ob.

Printing House Square

, adj. Powerful, crushing, ex cathedra; from The Times being published in that locality: London clubmen's coll: ca 1810–80. Ware.

prithee

. I pray thee; i.e. please!: coll: 1577, G.Harvey; †, except as an archaism, by 1880. Addison, 'Pr'ythee don't send us up any more Stories of a Cock and a Bull.' An abbr. corruption.

prittle-prattle

. Chatter; coll: Ned Ward, 1703. Reduplication of S.E. prattle.

private business

. Additional work done with a tutor: Eton College: late C.19–20.

Private Leak

. One whose position cannot be discovered: nautical: late C.19–20. Bowen.

private property

. The generative organ: low coll: C.19–20. Suggested by privity (-ies), privates.

privateer

. A woman competing with prostitutes but not depending on prostitution for her whole livelihood: Society: ca 1890–1914.

prize faggots

. Well-developed breasts in women; low London (–1909). Ware. A faggot is a kind of rissole.

prize-packet

. A novice who pays to play: theatrical: late C.19–20. Globe, 27 July 1899, ‘Another man spent a happy holiday as...a prize packet.’ Punning S.E. prize-packet and, I suggest, surprise-packet.

prizer

. A prize-winner: coll, somewhat rare: mid-C.19–20.

pro

. A pro-proctor: university (esp. Oxford) coll: from ca 1750, if not earlier. It occurs in The Gentleman’s Magazine, May 1784. 2. An actor: theatrical (–1859). i.e. one who belongs to the profession, i.e. acting. (N.B., the profession is rather j. than coll, though orig. it may possibly have been theatrical coll.) 3. Hence, any professional as opp. to an amateur: e.g. cricketer, 1867; journalist, 1886; golfer, 1887. Coll. 4. A probationer nurse: medical: late C.19–20.

pro-donna

. An actress: music-halls’; from ca 1880; ob. Lit., professional lady.

proby

. A probationer: Australian prison warders': ca 1820–90. Louis Becke, Old Convict Days, 1899.

procesh

. A procession: late C.19–20. (Never as v.; contrast:)

process

. To be part of, go along with a procession: coll: 1814. Ex procession, on progress.

process-pusher

. A lawyer's clerk: legal (–1909). He serves writs.

procession

, as applied to a race, esp. a boat-race (above all, one in which there are only two crews), implies 'an ignominious defeat' (Graphic, 24 March 1883); in C.19, coll; in C.20, S.E.

procession, go on with the

. To continue (esp. in the imperative): coll: late C.19–20; very ob.

proctors' dog or bulldog

. The orig. of bulldog, one of the university police: Oxford and Cambridge University: 1847, Tennyson in The Princess, 'He had climbed across the spikes...|And... breath'd the Proctor's dogs.'

proctour, i.e. proctor

*. Awdelay, 1561, 'Proctour is he, that will tary long, and bring a lye, when his Maister sendeth him on his errand,' i.e. of the 12th of the 25 orders of knaves: c.: mid-C.16–early 17. Ex S.E. sense, one licensed to beg for a hospital. 2. A drunkard who talks copious nonsense: s. (–1650).

prod

, n. and v. (Of a man) the act of coition; to coït: C.19–20: low coll. cf. POKE, v. 2. A horse; esp. an old horse: from ca 1890. A perversion of PRAD.

prodigious

. Prodigiously; very greatly; very: from ca 1670: S.E. until ca 1750, then coll; in late C.19–20, low coll; ob. E. de Acton, 1804, 'A prodigious high hill'. cf.:

prodigiously

. Exceedingly; very: coll: C.18–20; ob. Swift, 1711, 'It snowed... prodigiously.'

prof

; often, in C.19, proff. A professor: U.S., 1838; anglicized ca 1860.

profesh

. Profession; esp. the p., the stage: (lower-class) actors': from ca 1885.

profession, the

. See note at PRO, 2.

prog

. Food in gen.: 1655, Fuller, 'The Abbot also every Saturday was to visit their beds, to see if they had not shuffled in some softer matter or purloyned some progge for themselves'; Swift; Disraeli. Prob. ex corresponding v. 2. Hence, food for a journey, a picnic: coll: 1813 (O.E.D.).

prog

, v. To poke about for food; to forage: C.17–20: in C.17, (low) s.; C.18, s. > low coll: C.19–20, mainly dial. Origin obscure. 2. To prognosticate: printers': from ca 1870.

prog-basket

. A provision-basket on journey or picnic: coll: mid-C.19–20. Ex PROG, n., 2.

progger

. A beggar: late C.17–20: s. until ca 1750; then coll till ca 1850; then dial. Ex PROG, v., 1.

prokking

, n. Foraging: mid-C.17–20: s. >, by 1700, coll; ob. J.Chappelow, 1715, ‘All their...prokking is for themselves.’ Ex PROG, v., 1.

prokking

, adj. Begging; foraging: from ca 1620: s. >, by 1700, coll; very ob. Ex PROG, v., 1.

proggins

. A proctor: from ca 1898.

prognostic

. An artistic eater: literary, ca 1900–10. i.e. PROG, n., 1+gnostic, one who knows, obviously with pun on S.E. prognostic.

proing

, vbl n. Being a professional (esp. actor, showman, singer): coll (–1887); slightly ob.

prom

. A promenade concert: 1902, Free Lance, 4 Jan. 1902, ‘There is never one of the programmes at the Proms...unworthy of the...most cultured music-lover.’

promenade

. A promenade concert: coll now verging on S.E.: 1901, Westminster Gazette, 18 Sept.

promiscuous

. Carelessly irregular; haphazard; casual: low coll: 1837, Dickens; L.Oliphant, 1883. 2. Casually; incidentally: 1885, Grant Allen. cf. sense 2 of:

promiscuously

. Unceremoniously; promptly: coll: C.17. Rowlands, 1609. 2. Casually; incidentally: coll: 1812. Leslie Stephen, 1871, ‘The stone was dropped promiscuously.’

promise

. Declare; assert with assurance: coll: mid-C.15–20. Esp. in I promise you, I assure you; I tell you confidently or plainly.

promo

. A promotion: Charterhouse: from ca 1880. A.H.Tod, Charterhouse, 1900. An unexpected, perhaps an undeserved promotion was, ca 1890–1905, a Stedman.

promoss

. To talk rubbish; play the fool: Australia: ca 1885–1910. ?origin.

promoted

. Dead: Oct.–Nov. 1890. Ex the public funeral of Mrs Booth, General Booth's wife, and Salvation Army j.

promoter

. A fool-catcher: coll: from ca 1880. Ex company-promoter.

promotion, be on one's

. To behave with marriage in view and mind: coll: 1836 (O.E.D.); 1848, Thackeray, ““Those filthy cigars,” replied Mrs Rawdon. “I remember when you liked ’em, though,” replied her husband...“That was when I was on my promotion, Goosey,” she said.’ Ex on promotion, on approval or trial.

prong

. A table fork: waiters’: from ca 1880. Anstey, Voces Populi, II, 1892.

Prooshan, -in

. (A) Prussian: low coll: C.19–20. cf. quotation at PRUSSIAN BLUE.

Prooshan blue, my

, see PRUSSIAN BLUE.

prop

. See PROPS, 2–4. 2. Any stage requisite; a portable article used in acting a play: theatrical: 1864, H., 3rd ed. Ex property. Gen. in pl: actor's props, acting material provided by himself; (manager's) props, articles provided by the manager for stage use. cf. PROPS, n., 4. 3. A breast-pin; a tie-pin: c.: 1850, Dickens, ‘In his shirt-front there’s a beautiful diamond prop.’ Perhaps ex prop, a support; more prob. ex Dutch prop. 4. The leg: s. and dial. (1793); the arm extended: s. only: 1869. See PROPS, 3. Hence partly: 5. A straight hit; a blow: pugilistic and low street: Sessions, Dec. 1856; 1887, Licensed Victuallers’ Gazette, 2 Dec., ‘Ned met each rush of his enemy with straight props.’ Ex the v., 1. 6. The gallows: Punch and Judy s. verging on j.: from ca 1860. 7. A proposition, as in geometry: schools': 1871, 'M.Legrand'.

prop

, v. To hit; knock down: pugilistic and low: 1851, Mayhew, 'If we met an "old bloke"...we "propped him".' Perhaps by antiphrasis ex prop, to support, influenced by drop; but cf. the n., 5.

prop, kick away the

. To be hanged: low coll: early C.19.

prop-nailer

*. A stealer of pins or brooches: c.: 1856, Mayhew. Ex PROP, n., 3.

prop on, put the

. To seize an opponent's arm and thus prevent him from hitting: pugilistic: from ca 1860; ob. cf. PROPS, 3.

propensities, have musical

. (Of a horse) to be a ROARER: sporting, esp. journalists' (–1887);ob.

proper

. (Of things.) Excellent; admirable: from late M.E.: S.E. >, ca 1850, coll >, ca 1890, low coll. 2. (Of persons.) Respectable; decorous: 1818, Moore: somewhat, and increasingly, coll. 3. Thorough; complete; perfect: C.14–20: S.E. till C.19, then dial. and coll. Miss Yonge, ‘Old Markham seems in a proper taking.’ cf. sense 1.

proper

, adv. Excellently; thoroughly; without subterfuge; handsomely: an intensive adv.=hard (‘Hit him proper!’) very much: mid-C.15–20: S.E. until ca 1820, then coll; since ca 1880, low coll. Conan Doyle, 1898, “‘Had ’em that time—had ’em proper!” said he.’

proper, make oneself

. To adorn oneself: low coll: from ca 1870. cf. Fr. propre, clean.

proper bit of frock

. A pretty and clever well-dressed girl: London lower classes’: ca 1873–1910. Ware.

properly

. Admirably; handsomely; well: C.14–20: S.E. until C.19, then coll; in C.20, low coll. 2. Thoroughly, perfectly; very: C.15–20: S.E. until ca 1850, then coll. Daily News, 18 March 1896, ‘The accused said he got “properly drunk”.’

propers

, adj. Rejected, refused: lower classes' (–1909) . Ware implies an erotic connotation.

property, alter the

. To disguise oneself: late C.17–early 19: coll >, by 1750, S.E.

prophet

. A sporting tipster: journalistic: 1884, Pall Mall Gazette, 3 May; slightly ob.

prop'ly, proply

. Properly: slovenly coll: C.19–20.

propose

, v.i. To offer marriage: coll: 1764, Gray in his poem The Candidate.

proppy

. Like a prop or pole: coll, but rare: 1870, O.E.D.

proprietary

. To own: journalistic: 1887, Referee, 31 July; ob. Ex proprietor.

props

. See PROP, n., 2. 2. Crutches: late C.18–20. i.e. things that support. 3. The arms; not, as Manchon defines it, fists: low: 1869, Temple Bar, vol. XXVI, ‘Take off your coat and put up your props to him.’ cf. PROP, v., 1. Prob. same semantics as for sense 2; cf. PROP, n., 4. 4. (Also propster.) The property-man: theatrical: from ca 1889. cf. PROP, n., 2.

propster

, see PROPS, 4.

pros

; occ. pross. A water-closet: Oxford and Cambridge University (–1860). Abbr. πρὸς τινα or τὸν τόπον. cf. the old undergraduate WHEEZE: ‘When is pote used [or, put] for pros?|When the nights are dark and dreary,|When our legs are weak and weary,|When the quad we have to cross,|Then is pote put for pros’: doubtless a double pun, for pote=(chamber-) pot, pros=a w.c., and pote=Gr. πότε, when?, pros=Gr. πρὸς, to. cf. TOPOS.

pros

, adj. Prosper: low London(–1887); ob. ?ex prosperous. 2. Occ. as adv.

prose

, n. and v. A lecture; to lecture: Winchester College: from ca 1860. Ex S.E., a prosy discourse or ex: 2. Familiar talk; a talk: coll: 1805, Mrs Creevey; ob. by 1890. Ex: 3. prose, v. To chat; gossip: coll: 1797, Tweddell; ob. by 1890. 4. A prosy, esp. if dull, person: coll: 1844, Dickens. Ex sense 2.

pross

. One who, to an (itinerant) actor, throws money: low theatrical: 1851, Mayhew; very ob. Prob. ex prosperous: cf. PROS, adj. 2. Hence, a cadged drink: theatrical: from ca 1860. 3. A prostitute: low (mostly London): from ca 1870. 4. See PROSS, ON THE, and cf. PROSSER and the v. 5. A variant of PROS, n.

pross

, v. To cadge (a meal, a drink); occ. v.i.: theatrical: from ca 1860. Either ex the n., 2, or the v., 2. Anon., ca 1876, 'I've prossed my meals from off my pals.' 2. 'To break in or instruct a stage-infatuated youth', H., 1st ed.: theatrical: from ca 1858; ob. This sense may have been influenced by Romany pross, to ridicule.

pross, on the

, adj. and adv. Looking for free drinks, etc.; on the cadge: theatrical >, ca 1890, low gen. s.: from ca 1860. P. H.Emerson, 1893. 2. Breaking in (and sponging from) a stage-struck youth: theatrical: from ca 1865.

pross about

. To MOOCH or hang about: low: from ca 1890. Pugh (2), ‘Afternoon I prosses about in ‘Ampstead.’ Ex PROSS, v., 1.

prosser

. A cadger of refreshment, stomachic or pecuniary: theatrical: from ca 1880. cf. Prossers’ Avenue and ‘For he don’t haunt the Gaiety Bar, dear boys,|A-standing (or prossing for) drinks,’ Referee, 18 Nov. 1883. 2. Hence, a LOAFER, a hanger-on: 1886, Cornhill Magazine, Nov. Senses 1 and 2, prob. ex: 3. A PONCE: low: from ca 1870. Ex PROSS, n., 3.

prossie

. An Australian late C.19–20 variant of PROSS, n., 3.

prostituted

. (Of a patent) so long on the market that it has become known to all: commercial coll (–1909).

protected man

. ‘A merchant seaman unfit for the Royal Service and therefore free of the press-gang’, F. & H.: naval coll: ca 1800–50.

proud, do one

. To flatter (ob.); to honour; to treat very generously: coll: 1819 (O.E.D.); 1836, Clark, Ollapodiana Papers, 'I really thought, for the moment, that "she did me proud".'cf. 'the Cull tipt us Rum Prog, the Gentleman Treated us very High,' B.E. and:

proud, do oneself

. To be delighted (ob.); to treat oneself well, live comfortably: coll: from ca 1840. Ex preceding entry.

proud as an apothecary

. Very proud or conceited: a C.17 coll. cf.:

proud as old Cole's dog

. Exceeding proud: C.19: coll. Southey explains that this animal 'took the wall of a dung-cart and got squeezed to death by the wheel'. Anecdotal origin.

prov, on the

. Out of work and on the provident funds of a trade society or union: workmen's: from ca 1870; > ob. on the Dole's arrival.

provender

*. 'He from whom any Money is taken on the Highway', B.E.: c. of late C.17–early 19. Ex provender, food, a provider thereof. 2. Hence, money taken from a person on the highway: c.: C.18.

provender pricks one

. One grows amorous: coll: ca 1540–1750. Heywood, E.Ward.

providence

. One who appears, or acts, in the character of Providence: coll: 1856, Emerson.

province of Bacchus

. Drunkenness: Oxford University: ca 1820–40.

provost

. A garrison or other cell for short-sentence prisoners: military coll (–1890) >, ca 1905, S.E.; ob. Abbr. provost-cell.

prow

. A bumpkin: naval: ca 1800–90. ?ex ob. prow, good, worthy.

prowl

. To womanize: low coll: late C.17–20. B.E., as proling (sic). (Like a wild beast for meat: cf. MUTTON.) 2. To wait for ‘the GHOST (3) to walk’: theatrical: from ca 1870; ob. 3. To go about, looking for something to steal: c. (–1887).

Prowler, Hugh

. A generalized (?low) coll nickname for a thief, a highwayman: mid-C.16–17. Tusser, ‘For fear of Hugh Prowler get home with the rest.’

proxime

. Proxime accessit: coll abbr. (schools’, universities’): 1896.

pruff

. Sturdy: Winchester College: from ca 1870. Ex proof against pain. Pascoe, 1881, ‘Deprive a Wykehamist of words ...such as quill...pruff...cad...and his vocabulary becomes limited.’

prugg(e)

. A female partner; a doxy: C.17: either (low) s. or c. Nares (1822); Halliwell (1847). Prob. cognate with PRIG and perhaps with PROG.

Prunella, Mr; or prunella

. A clergyman: late C.18–mid-19. Clergymen's, like barristers', gowns were formerly made from this strong (silk, later) worsted stuff.

Prussian blue, my

. An endearment: ca 1815–70, though app. not recorded before 1837, Dickens, “Vell, Sammy,” said the father. “Vell, my Prooshan Blue,” responded the son.’ Punning the colour; ex the tremendous popularity of the Prussians after Waterloo: cf. the old toast, Prussian blue.

prygge

, see PRIG, n. and v. prygman, see PRIGMAN. pr’ythee, see PRITHEE.

Ps and Qs

. See imm. after P.S or P.S. 2. Shoes: rhyming s.: late C.19–20.

psalm-smiter

. A ranting nonconformist; a street preacher: low: from ca 1860; ob. ?ex psalm-singing, noisily religious. cf. CUSHION-CUFFER.

pub

. A public-house (see PUBLIC, n.): 1859, H., in his first ed.: s. >, ca 1890, coll. Anon., The Siliad ca 1871, ‘All the great houses and the m or pubs.’

pub (always pub t)

. To frequent pubs: coll: 1889, Jerome K. Jerome. Ex preceding.

public

. A public-house: coll: 1709, a churchwarden’s account; ob. Scott “‘This woman keeps an inn, then?’ interrupted Morton. “A public,” in a prim way, replied Blane,’ cf. PUB.

public

, adj. In, of, a public-house: coll: mid-C.18–20. Ex preceding.

public buildings, inspector of

. An idler; a loafer: from ca 1850; ob. Hence, one in search of work: from ca 1860.

public ledger

. A harlot: low: late C.18–20; very ob. ‘Because like that paper, she is open to all parties’, Grose, 2nd ed. Punning the Public Ledger, a London commercial newspaper, established 1760.

public line, something in the

. A licensed victualler: coll. Dickens, who, in 1840, originated—or, at the least, gave currency to—the phrase; prob. on the public business.

public man

. A bankrupt: ca 1810–80. Perhaps suggested by †S.E. public woman (Fr. femme publique), a harlot.

public patterer

*. A SWELL MOBSMAN (see both words) who, pretending to be a Dissenting preacher, harangues in the open air to attract a crowd for his confederates to rob: c.: ca 1860–1910. See PATTERER.

pucka, pucker

, adj., see PUKKA.

pucker

. Excitement; (a state of) agitation: coll: 1741, Richardson; Smollett, 1751, ‘The whole parish was in a pucker: some thought the French had landed.’ Rare except as in a pucker, which Grose, 2nd ed., defines as ‘in a dishabille’, a sense †by 1880; ‘also in a fright’, which is a little too strong. Common, moreover, in dial.; cf. the Lancashire puckerashun, vexation or agitation. Ex the puckering of facial skin. See PUCKER UP.

pucker

, v. To talk privately: showmen’s s. (perhaps orig. c.): 1851, Mayhew, ‘The trio...began puckering...to each other in murdered French, dashed with a little Irish.’ ?a corruption of Romany rok(k)er, or vok(k)er, to talk: cf. ROCKER.

pucker up

. To become angry: coll: C.19–20. Ex the n., and S.E. v., primary sense.

pucker-water

. An astringent employed—esp. by ‘old experienced traders’, i.e. prostitutes—to counterfeit virginity: low coll: Grose, 1785; †by 1890. Gen., water impregnated with alum. (cf. post-parturition astringents.) Ex pucker, to contract.

puckering

*, vbl n. Private talk: c. and showmen’s s. (–1859). Ex PUCKER, v.

puckerow

; occ. pukkaroo. To seize: Anglo-Indian and military (–1864). Ex Hindustani, where this, as in all the Anglo-Indian -ow vv., is the form of the imperative, not of the infinitive.

pud

. A (child's) hand; an animal's forefoot: a nursery coll: 1654. Lamb, 1823, 'Those little short...puds'. Origin unknown: but cf. Dutch poot, a paw, and the later pudsy, plump, chubby. 2. Pudding: lower and lower-middle classes': late C.19–20.

pud

, v. To greet affectionately or familiarly: proletarian coll: from ca 1860; ob. Ex the n., 1.

pudden

. Pudding: dial. and low coll: C.16–20. 2. A MESS or failure: Cockney coll: late C.19–20.

pudden

, v. C.17–20. To supply with pudding; treat with a pudding(-like substance): low coll. 2. Esp., in c., to silence a dog by throwing a narcotic ball to it: 1858, Youatt.

pudden club, put in the

. To render pregnant: low: late C.19–20. See also PUDDING, WITH A BELLYFUL OF MARROW-.

pudding

*. Liver drugged for the silencing of house-dogs: c.: 1877, but prob. much earlier—see PUDDEN, v., 2. Horsley, Jottings from Jail. cf. the old saying ‘Pudding is poison when it is too much boiled’ (Swift). 2. Coition; the penis; the seminal fluid: low coll: from Restoration days. Wit and Mirth, 1682; D’Urfey. 3. See PUDDINGS.

pudding, give or make or yield the crow(s) a

. To die; also and orig., to hang on a gibbet: late C.16–19. Shakespeare, ‘He’ll yield the crow a pudding one of these days.’

pudding!, not a word of the

. Say nothing about it: coll c.p. of late C.17–early 18.

pudding, ride post for a

. To exert oneself for a small cause: colh C.18–19 coll.

pudding, with a bellyful of marrow-; in the pudding club

. Pregnant: low: C.19–20; ob. cf. PUDDING, n., 2.

pudding about the heels

. Thick-ankled: low coll: C.19–20; very ob.

pudding for supper, have a hot

, see HOT PUDDING.

pudding-bag

. A stocking pennant used as a vane: nautical: late C.19–20. Bowen. Ex shape.

pudding-bellied

. With great paunch: coll: C.18–20.

pudding-filler

. A glutton: Scots coll: C.16–19. Dunbar. See PUDDINGS.

pudding-house

. The stomach, the belly: low: late C.16–20; ob. Nashe. cf. BREAD-BASKET. 2. A workhouse: low: ca 1830–70. Sinks, 1848.

pudding-ken

*. A cook-shop: c.: C.19–20; ob. P.H.Emerson. cf. PUDDING-SNAMMER.

pudding-sleeves

. A clergyman: ca 1720–1860. cf. PRUNELLA.

pudding-snammer

*. A cook-shop thief: c. (–1839); slightly ob. Brandon.

puddings

. The guts: mid-C.15–20: S.E. till C.18, then dial. and low coll. Shakespeare; Brydges, 1772; Grose, 1st ed., ‘I’ll let out your puddings,’ i.e. disembowel you.

puddings and pies

. Eyes: rhyming s. (–1859). Later, MINCE-PIES.

puddle

. The female pudend: low: C.19–20. 2. the Puddle or puddle, the Atlantic Ocean: coll: from ca 1880. cf. the POND. 3. A muddle, a mess: late C.16–20: S.E. till ca 1850, then coll and dial.

puddle

, v. To tipple: low coll: from ca 1870; ob. ?ex PIDDLE on FUDDLE.

Puddle-Dock, the Countess or Duchess of . An imaginary aristocrat: coll: C.18–mid-19. Swift, ‘Neverout. I promised to squire the Countess to her box. Miss. The Countess of Puddledock, I suppose.’ Ex an almost permanent, large and dirty pool in Thames Street, which runs parallel to the river, London, E.C.4.

puddling

, adj. A vague pejorative: coll: 1764, Foote; ob. Ex PUDDLE.

pudge

. A short squat person; anything both short and thick: coll and dial.: 1808, Jamieson. Of obscure origin but prob. cognate with PODGE.

pudsy

. A foot: late C.18–20: a nursery coll. A diminutive of PUD.

pudsy

, v. To greet affectionately or with familiarity: coll: C.19–20; ob. Ex pudsy, a term of endearment, esp. to a baby, itself ex pudsy, plump.

puff

. A decoy in a gambling-house; a mock-bidder at auctions: resp. 1731 and (–1785). 2. A sodomist: tramps' c.: from ca 1870. 3. Breath, 'wind': s. and dial.: 1827, Sporting Magazine. Hence, out of puff, out of breath: same status and period. 4. Life; existence: tailors' > (low) gen.: from ca 1880. As in never in one's puff, never, and as in 'Pomes' Marshall, 'He's the winner right enough! It's the one sole snip of a lifetime—simply the cop of one's puff.'

puff

, v. To break wind: low: late C.19–20.

puff and dart

. Beginning, commencement: rhyming s. (on start): late C.19–20. Barrett, Navvies, 1880.

puff-ball

, v.t. In the 1890s, John Masfield tells us in his history (1933) of the Conway training ship, ‘large cakes of soft bread were moulded in tea at tea-time to the size and similitude of dumplings and then thrust down the victim’s neck between his shirt and the skin’: a mess’s punishment of an ‘impossible’ member.

puff-guts

. A fat man: low coll: 1785, Grose; slightly ob.

puff-puff

. A locomotive; a railway-train: nursing coll: from ca 1870. Echoic. cf. PUFFER and PUFFING BILLY.

puff the glim

. Horse-coping s. from before 1890, thus: ‘Old horses are rejuvenated by puffing the glim,...filling up the hollows ...above [the] eyes by pricking the skin and blowing air into the loose tissues underneath,’ Tit-Bits, 11 April 1891. (Verging on c.)

puffer

. A steam-engine: coll: verging on S.E.: 1801 (O.E.D.). cf. PUFF-PUFF.

puffickly

. Perfectly: proletarian coll: mid-C.19–20. Anstey, Voces Populi, II, 1892.

puffin, plump as a . Very plump: coll > S.E.: C.19–20. Ex corpulence of young bird.

puffing Billy or billy

. A locomotive: coll: late C.19–20. cf. PUFF-PUFF and PUFFER.

pug

. A boxer: sporting: 1858, Mayhew, ‘Known by his brother pugs to be one of the gamest hands in the ring’. Abbr. pugilist. Hence Pug’s or Pugs’ Acre, that corner of Highgate Cemetery where Tom Sayers and other ‘pugs’ lie buried. 2. A dog of no matter what breed: coll: from ca 1860. See sense 7. 3. A bargeman: coll: late C.16–early 17. Lyly, 1591, ‘With a good winde and lustie pugges one may goe ten miles in two daies.’ 4. A ship’s boy: coll: late C.16–17. ‘Hudibras’ Butler. 5. A harlot: coll: C.17–early 18. Ned Ward. 6. An upper servant in a large house (etc.): from ca 1840. Halliwell. 7. A nickname for a dog or a monkey: coll: resp. (–1731), Bailey; 1664. † except in dial. 8. Hence, like ‘monkey’, to a child: mid-C.18–20, but since ca 1850, † except in dial. 9. A fox; gen. as a nickname: C.19–20: coll. R.S.Surtees, 1858, ‘Pug...turns tail, and is very soon in the rear of the hounds.’

pug-Nancy

. A woman: C.17–19: Ned Ward, 1703.

pug-nasty

. A dirty slut: coll: late C.17– early 19. Ex PUG, 5. cf. PUG-NANCY.

puggard

*. A thief: c.: C.17. Middleton, 1611. Ex pug, to tug, pull.

puggle, puggly

, see POGGLE. puggle pawnee, see POGGLE P. puggled, see POGGLED.

puggy

. A coll endearment to a woman or a child: C.17–early 18. 2. A monkey: Scots coll: from ca 1820. Ex PUG, 7. 3. A nickname for a fox: coll: 1827. Ex PUG, 9.

puggy-drunk

. Extremely drunk: rather low: late C.19–20. Prob. ex POGY influenced by POGGLE, 2, and with an allusion to PUGGY, a fox (cf. FOXED, drunk).

pugified

. Snub-nosed: coll: late C.18– mid-19. cf. S.E. pug-nosed.

Pug's or Pugs' Acre

, see PUG, 1.

pug's or pugs' hole, parlour

. The house-keeper's room in a large establishment: coll (–1847). Halliwell (pugs'-hole). The latter not till late C.19.

puja

, see POOJA.

pukaroo

. To break (something), ruin (a plan), confuse (an issue): New Zealand coll: late C.19–20. Ex Maori pakaru, to destroy.

puker

. A good-for-nothing: a Shrewsbury School coll: C.19–20. Prob. ex the famous Shakespearian passage beginning: 'The infant Mewling and puking in the nurse's arms'.
2. An orange: preparatory schools': from ca 1870.

pukka

, often pucka; also pakka, puckah, pucker. Certain, reliable; genuine; excellent: Anglo-Indian coll: from ca 1770. Grant Allen, 1893, 'That's a good word ... Is it pucker English, I wonder.' In pukka sahib it connotes the acme of gentlemanliness. 2. Permanent, as of an appointment: mid-C.19–20: coll. Ex Hindu pakka, substantial.

pukkaroo

, see PUCKEROW.

pull

*. A mechanical 'catch' or knack; an ulterior and hidden motive: c.: 1812, Vaux; †by 1890. Prob. ex pulling of strings and wires. 2. Hence, an illicit trick or manipulation: card-sharpers' c. (–1861). 3. See PULL IN. 4. An anxious moment: lower classes' (–1909); slightly ob. Ex the pull at one's heart.

pull

*, v. To arrest: c.: 1811, Lex. Bal. cf. PULL IN and PULL UP. 2. Hence, to raid: c. (–1871); ob. Figaro, 15 April 1871. 3. To steal; occ., to cheat: c.: 1821, Haggart; Mayhew. †by 1900.

pull, in

*, Under arrest: c. of ca 1810–70. EX PULL, v., 1.

pull a cluck

. To die: low from ca 1870. Echoic.

pull a horse's head off

; esp. a vbl n., pulling... So to check a horse's progress that he does not win: turf: from ca 1860.

pull a kite

. To look or be serious: low: C.19–20;ob.

pull a soldier off his mother!, ('pull'? He or you) wouldn't

. A c.p. directed at laziness or slacking: nautical (from ca 1880) >, by 1900, military.

pull about

. To treat roughly or without ceremony: coll and dial.: C.19–20. Ex S.E. sense, to pull this way and that. 2. Hence, to take liberties with a woman: low coll: from ca 1860. cf. PULLY-HAULY, PLAY AT; MUCK ABOUT. 3. pull oneself about, to masturbate: low coll: C.19–20.

pull-back

. A retarding or repressing act or influence: late C.16–20: S.E. till C.19, then coll and dial.

pull-down

. The moustache that succeeded the NAP, n., 9: Society: ca 1870–90. Ex its shape.

pull down

*, v. To steal from shop doors: c. (–1839).

pull down the blind

! A c.p. addressed to couples love-making: London lower classes': from ca 1880; ob.

pull down the shutter

. Butter: rhyming s.: late C.19–20.

pull foot

. To decamp; run hard: coll: 1818. M.Scott, 'The whole crew pulled foot as if Old Nick had held them in chase,' 1833. cf. PULL IT and dial. pull feet or hotfoot, to walk fast.

pull-guts

. A fishmonger: s.: Ned Ward, 1700.

pull in

*. To arrest: c. >, ca 1890, low s.: C.19–20. Implicit in Vaux, 1812, ‘To pull a man, or have him pulled, is to cause his apprehension for some offence; and it is then said that Mr Pullen is concerned.’ cf. PULL, v., 1; PULL OVER; PULL UP.

pull in the pieces

. To make money; receive good wages: proletarian: from ca 1860; ob.

pull it

. To decamp; run as fast as possible: coll: 1804 (O.E.D.). cf. PULL FOOT.

pull off

. To obtain (some benefit): sporting: 1870 (O.E.D.). Ex sporting j., to win. 2. Hence, to succeed with, or in effecting, something: 1887, Black, ‘We haven’t pulled it off this time, mother.’

pull one's load

. To do all one can: coll, mostly Canadian: late C.19–20. (Esp. in present perfect.) cf. the S.E. pull one's weight.

pull one's pudden or wire

. (Of the male) to masturbate: low: late C.19–20.

pull oneself off

. (Of the male) to masturbate: low: late C.19–20.

pull out

. To hurry work in hand: tailors' s. verging on j.: from ca 1860. 2. To buy or sell for ready money: Stock Exchange coll: ca 1805–1910. 3. (v.i.) To exaggerate: low: ca 1830–80. Sinks, 1848. 'To stretch it a bit.'

pull over

. To arrest: low: mid-C.19–20; very ob. cf. PULL, v., 1, and PULL UP. 2. putt (oneself) over (an edible). To eat: London lower classes': 1886, Referee, 6 June; very ob. cf. get OUTSIDE OF.

pull the ladder up, Jack, I'm all right

! A late C.19–20 variation of FUCK you, JACK...

pull the string

. To use all one's influence: tailors' coll: mid-C.19–20. 2. To do well: proletarian: from ca 1870; ob.

pull-through

. A very thin man: military: from ca 1905. Ex the rifle pull-through.

pull up

*. To arrest: 1812, Vaux: c. >, by 1835, low s. >, by 1870, coll >, by 1910, S.E. Dickens in Boz. Ex the act of pulling up, of checking, a fugitive. cf. PULL, v., 1.

pull up a Jack

*. To stop a post-chaise on the highway with a view to robbery: c. of ca 1810–50.

pull up one's boot

. To make money: costermongers' (~1909). Ware, 'When a man prepares for his day's work, he pulls on and strings up his boots.'

pull your ear

! Try to remember!: lower classes' c.p. of ca 1860–1910.

pulled

, see PULL, v., 1. pulled up, see PULL UP.

pulled trade

. Secured work: tailors' coll: from ca 1860.

Pullen is concerned, Mr

, see PULL IN.

pullet

, A young girl: coll: C.19–20: ob. cf. PULLEY.

pullet, virgin

. 'A young woman...who though often trod has never laid', Bee, 1823: low: ca 1820–70.
Ex PULLET; and cf.:

pullet-squeezer

. A womanizer who 'likes 'em young'; a 'chicken-fancier': from ca 1830; somewhat ob. Ex PULLET; cf. PULLET, VIRGIN.

pulley

*. A confederate thief, gen. a woman: c. (–1859); very ob. Ex Fr. poulet.

pulling the right string?, are you

. Are you correct ?; are you going the right way about it?: cabinet-makers' c.p.: from 1863, says Ware. Ex small measurements being made with string.

pully-hauly (in Grose, -hawly)

. A rough-and-tumble; a romp: coll: late C.18–19.

pully-hauly, play at

. To romp with women; esp. to copulate: coll: late C.18–20; slightly ob. The idea, however, is extant in dial. pulling and hauling time and dragging time: cf. the †dial. pulling time. See Grose, P.

pulpit-banger, -cackler, -cuffer, -drubber, -drummer, -smiter, -thumper

; pulpit-cuffing, -drubbing, etc. A ranting parson; a violent sermon or moral exhortation: coll bordering on S.E.: late C.17–20; -drubber (-drubbing), †by 1850; -cuffer and -drummer, very ob.

pum-pum

. A fiddler: coll: C.18–mid-19. Echoic.

pump

. The female pudend: low coll: late C.17–20; ob. Also (as in Ned Ward) pumpdale. 2. The penis: low: C.18–20; ob. Also pump-handle. 3. A breaking of wind: Scots low coll: C.19–20. 4. A public-house: Scots coll: C.19–20; ob. 5. A solemn NOODLE: low: mid-C.19–20; ob. 6. See PUMPS.

pump

, v. To coït with (a woman): low: C.18–20; ob. 2. To urinate: low coll: C.18–20; ob. except in form PUMP SHIP. 3. To break wind: Scots low coll: C.19–20. 4. To duck under the pump: coll: late C.17–mid-18. Esp. as treatment applied to bailiffs, constables, and pick-pockets. 5. To weep: low: 1837, Marryat, ‘And she did pump|While I did jump|In the boat to say, Good bye.’ Ob. Partly ex S.E. sense, partly ex PUMPS.

pump, ignorant as a

. Extremely ignorant: coll verging on S.E.: late C.19–20.

pump, purser's

, see PURSER'S.

pump at Aldgate, draught on the

, see ALDGATE.

pump-dale

. See PUMP, n., 1.

pump-handle

, n. See PUMP, n., 2. 2. v. In greeting, to shake (a hand or person by the hand) as if working a pump: coll: 1858, R.S.Surtees. Also v.i.

pump-handler

. A hand-shake as in preceding: coll: J.T.Hewlett, 1844, 'Exchanged the salute for a most hearty old English pump-handler'.

pump is good but your or the sucker's dry, your

. A c.p. addressed to one trying to pump, i.e. extract information: from ca 1780; ob.

pump (oneself) off

. To masturbate: low: C.19–20; ob. cf. FRIG.

pump ship

. To make water: nautical s. (–1788) >, ca 1870, gen. gentlemanly coll. 2. To vomit: nautical: late C.18–mid-19.

pump-sucker

. A teetotaller: low: from ca 1870; ob.

pump-thunder

. A blusterer: coll : C.19–20. 2. Also, without hyphen, a v.; likewise ob.

pump-water, christened in or with

. Redfaced: coll or, in form he (she) was christened..., c.p.: late C.17–mid-19.

pumper

. Any effort that puts one out of breath: coll (–1886).

pumping

. The vbl n. of PUMP, v., 4.

pumpkin

; pompkin. A man or woman of Boston: late C.18–early 19. Grose, 1785, ‘From the number of pompkins raised and eaten’ there. (Whence, perhaps, the orig. and mainly U.S. some—occ. big—pumpkins, persons—occ. things—of importance. Coll: mid-C.19–20.) 2. The head: mid-C.19–20.

pumpkins of oneself, think

. To think well of oneself: 1897, Ouida, The Massarenes; ob. cf. PUMPKIN, 1 (parenthesis); cf. POTATOES, SMALL.

pumps

. Eyea: low: 1825, Buckstone, ‘Your pumps have been at work—you’ve been crying, girl’: ob. by 1910. cf. PUMP, v., 5.

pun

. Punishment: Harrow School: mid-C.19–20. Abbr., s. > coll. cf. PUN-PAPER. 2. Pound or pounds (£): sol.: C.19–20. cf. Northern dial. pund.

pun

(v.i.) or pun of (v.t.), at Hertford; pun out (v.i. and t.), London. To inform (against): Christ's Hospital, orig. at the country section: mid-C.19–20. Ex dial. pun, to pound.

pun-paper

. Ruled paper for impositions: Harrow. See PUN, n., 1.

punce

. An occ. variant of PONCE. 2. To kick (someone) with one's clogs: Lancashire: late C.19–20. Ex S.E. punch and s. PURR.

punch (or P.)

; Suffolk punch. An inhabitant of Suffolk: coll nickname (—1884). Ex the famous breed of horses. 2. (Punch only.) A short, thickset man: navvies' nickname: mid C.19–20. (D.W.Barrett, Navvies, 1880.)

punch

, v. To deflower: coll: C.18–19. Ward and Grose imply it in PUNCHABLE. Ex S.E. punch, to pierce. 2. (Gen. punch it.) To walk: c.: 1780, Tomlinson, ‘Now she to Bridewell has punch’d it along’; Grose; Haggart. 3. v.i., to drink punch: 1804, Coleridge.

punch, cobbler’s

. Urine with a cinder in it: low: ca 1810–60.

Punch and Judy

. Lemonade: English Illustrated Magazine, June 1885.

punch-clod

. A farm-labourer; clodbopper: rural coll: C.19–20; ob.

punch-house

. A brothel: coll: late C.17– mid-19. Ex the S.E. sense, a tavern where punch may be had, and ex PUNCH, v., 1.

punch it

, see PUNCH, v., 2.

punch one's ticket

. To hit (a man) with a bullet: from 1899 (ob.), mostly military. J. Milne, The Epistles of Atkins, 1902.

punch outsides

*. To go out of doors: c.: C.19–20; ob. See PUNCH, v., 2.

punchable

. 'Ripe for man': (low) coll: C.18–19. Ex PUNCH, v., 1. cf.:

punchable nun

. A harlot: Ned Ward, 1709.

Puncheous Pilate

. A lower classes' c.p. (–1909) 'jocosely addressed to a person in protest [against] some small asserted authority', Ware. Punning Punch and Pontius Pilate.

puncture

. To deflower: cyclists' low s.; late C.19–20. Ex punctured tyres. 2. v.i. and in passive, (of cycle or rider) to get a puncture: coll: from ca 1893. Ex the tyre's being punctured.

pundit

; occ., before C.20, pundet. An erudite expert: coll: 1816. Saturday Review, 15 March 1862, 'The doctors of etiquette and the pundits of refinement'. Ex Hindi pandit, a learned man.

punish

. To handle severely, as in boxing (1812); food and drink (1825); the bowling, at cricket (1845); a horse (1856); a plant (1882): s. 2. To hurt, pain: coll and dial.: from mid-C.19.

punisher

. A hard hitter: in boxing, 1814, Sporting Magazine; at cricket, 1846. 2. A heavy task: coll: 1827, ibid., 'Fifty miles' road-work this day...a punisher'. 3. A farrier who visits forges and cadges from his fellows without doing any work or rendering any service for the loan: London farriers': late C.19–20.

punishing

, adj. Exhausting; handling severely; esp. hard-hittin g: s. >, ca 1850, coll: 1819, Moore, 'An eye that plann'd punishing deeds'; in boxing, 1820, J.H. Reynolds; in cricket, 1846; Field, 28 Jan. 1882, 'Each course today was of the most punishing kind.'

punishment

. Severe handling, orig. that dealt out by a cricketer or a boxer: s. >, ca 1890, coll: 1846, W.Denison (Lewis); 1856, H.H.Dixon. 2. Pain; misery: coil and dial.: from mid-C.19.

Punjab head, have a

. To be forgetful; Punjab head, forgetfulness: Anglo-Indian, esp. Indian Army's: from the 1880s. An allusion to the (supposed) fact that service in the Punjab saps the memory.

punk

. A punctured tyre: cyclists': late C.19–20; ob. cf.:

punk

, v. To puncture (a tyre): cyclists': late C.19–20; ob. cf. the n.

punker

. A frequenter of (S.E.) punks or harlots: ca 1735–1800. Addison.

punse

. The female pudend: Yiddish and low London: late C.19–20.

punt

. An occ. C.19 variant of POONA, £1.

punt

, v. To act as a decoy: auctioneers' (–1891). See PUNTER, 1. Prob. ex: 2. To bet upon a race, etc.: 1873, implied in Punter; Pall Mall Gazette, 13 Sept. 1887. Ex punting at faro, baccarat, etc. 3. Hence, to be a purchaser, to buy something: grafters': late C.19–20. cf. sense 4 of PUNTER.

punt-about

. An irregular form of football: Charterhouse coll (–1900). A.H.Tod. cf. SHOOTABOUT.

punter

. An auctioneer's decoy or mockbidder: auctioneers': from ca 1880. See esp. Answers, 2 April 1891. Prob. suggested by PUNTING. 2. An outsider betting on horses in a small way: s. (–1874) >, by 1900, coll. 3. Hence, a small-scale speculator 'watching the fluctuations in speculative securities' (A.J.Wilson); from the early 1890s: s. >, by 1910, coll. 4. (Prob. ex sense 2.) A grafter's customer, client, or victim: grafters': late C.19–20. Ex PUNT, v., 3.

punting

. (Gen. of an outsider) a betting on horse-races: from ca 1873. See PUNT, v., 2.

punting-shop

. A gambling den: 1874, H., 5th ed. cf. PUNT, v., 2.

pup

. A pupil: school and college s.: 1871, 'M.Legrand'. Jocularly approximated to pup=a puppy. cf. PUPE.

pup

, v. To be brought to childbed: low coll: from ca 1860. (As a BITCH.)

pup, in

. Pregnant: low coll: from ca 1860. As a BITCH: cf. PUP, v.

pup, sell a

. To swindle, v.i. Gen. sell one a pup. c. >, ca 1905, gen. coll: late C.19–20, though not recorded before 1901, Daily Chronicle, 4 May, 'There is a poetical phrase in our language, "to sell a man a pup".' cf. SEE A MAN about a dog.

pupe

. A pupil-room: Eton College: mid-C.19–20. cf. PUP, n.

puppy

*, n. and adj. (A) blind (man): c. > low s.: from ca 1850; ob. Mostly U.S. (e.g. in Matsell). Ex the blindness of new-born puppies.

puppy-dog

. A puppy: children's coll: late C.16–20. Shakespeare.

puppy-match

. A snare: coll: ca 1690–1750. J.Smyth's Scarronides, 'He... might catch|Us Trojans in a puppy-match.' ?ex the stealing of puppies.

puppy's mamma

, see DOG'S LADY.

pupsie, pupsy

. A puppy: a children's coll: C.17–20. Cotgrave. cf. POPSY.

purchase

*. Stolen goods; booty: c.: late C.16–mid-17. Greene; Shakespeare. 2. Those from whom it is taken: c.: late C.16– early 17. Greene, 1592.

pure

*. A mistress, esp. a kept mistress; a wanton: ca 1685–1830: c. >, ca 1750, low s.: 1688, Shadwell, ‘Where’s...the blowing that is to be my natural, my convenient, my pure?’ By antiphrasis. 2. A ‘pure’ physician, a ‘pure’ surgeon. (i.e. the one, not the other; not a general practitioner.) Medical coll: 1827, Lancet. 3. ‘Dog’s-dung is called pure, from its cleansing and purifying properties,’ Mayhew: coll >, ca 1905, j.: 1851.

pure

, adj. Excellent; splendid: very pleasant. (Indeed, a gen. intensive.) ca 1675–1900, though ob. by 1850; it is, however, extant in several diall. Wycherley, 1675; Cibber, 1704, ‘She looks as if my master had quarrelled with her... This is pure’; Henley & Stevenson, 1884, ‘O, such manners are pure, pure, pure!’ cf. PURELY. 2. See PURE AND...

pure, purest

*. ‘A Top-Mistress, or Fine Woman’, B.E.; ‘a courtesan of high fashion’, Grose: ca 1690–1830: c. >, ca 1750, (low) s. Ex PURE, n., 1.

pure and

...(another adj.). Nice, or fine, and...; also quasi-adverbially, excellently, very well, thoroughly. 1742, Fielding, ‘[The hogs] were all pure and fat’: coll >, ca 1840, dial.

pure-finder

. A street collector of dogs’ dung: coll from ca 1850; in C.20, j.; slightly ob. Mayhew, 1851. See PURE, n., 3.

pure Merinoes

, see MERINOES, PURE.

purely

. Excellently; very well: 1695, Congreve: s. >, ca 1750, coll. Hood.

purge

. Beer: military and low gen.: from ca 1870. cf. the barrack-room c.p. rhyme, recorded by F. & H. in 1902, Comrades, listen while I urge;|Drink, yourselves, and pass to purge. Copious liquid prevents costiveness.

purger or perger

. A teetotaller; hence, a pejorative: ca 1860–1920: low. Vance, ca 1864, in The Chickaleary Cove, ‘My tailor serves you well, from a purger to a swell.’ ?one who, to keep himself fit, takes laxatives or purges instead of beer: cf. PURGE.

puritan, Puritan

. A whore: coll: C.18. Prob. ex Puritans’ reputed hypocrisy.

purko

. Beer: military: ca 1870–1910. Ex the name of the makers, Barclay, Perkins and Co. Perhaps influenced by PURGE and suggested by PERKINS.

purl

. A fall, or a dive, head foremost or head over heels: 1825, Sporting Magazine: s. >, ca 1870 coll. Ex S.E. purl, to whirl or spin round. cf. PURLER and:

purl

, v.i. and v.t. To turn head over heels: coll and dial.: 1856, Reade. Ex the n. 2. To dive: Winchester College: late C.19–20. Ex the n.

purler

. A headlong fall; a throw head foremost; a knock-down blow, esp. a blow that casts one head foremost: coll: 1867, Ouida, in her best-known story, Under Two Flags. Ex PURL, v., influenced by PURL, n. Variant pirler; *pir*l is frequent in dial. for the preceding pair of terms.

purple

, adj. Glorious; ROYAL: coll, 1894, Pall Mall Gazette, 20 Dec., ‘A purple time of it’. Ex the purple of royal robes (cf. born in the purple).

purple

. Blood: Scottish: 1804, Couper, Poetry; ob. cf. CLARET.

purpose, a- or o'

. On purpose: S.E. (gen. a purpose) >, ca 1790, dial. and low coll.

purpose as the geese slur upon the ice (or as to give a goose hay), to as much . Uselessly: semi-proverbial coll: late C.17–19, C.18–20. cf. to no more purpose than to beat your heels against the ground or wind.

purposes, for (e.g. dancing)

. For (e.g.) dancing: coll, tautological: late C.19–20.

purr

, n. 'A rushing-in, Lancashire fashion, with the head against the opponent's guts', Bee, 1823: pugilistic: ca 1810–50. It causes the opponent to purr or grunt.

purr

, v. To kick (a person), esp. with clogs: Lancashire: late C.19–20.

purse

. The female pudend: low coll: C.17–20. (Beaumont & Fletcher.)

purse

, v.i. To take purses; to steal: late C.16–17: low coll (?orig. s.). Lyly, 1592. Beaumont & Fletcher, in The Scornful Lady, ‘Why I’ll purse: if that raise me not, I’ll bet at bowling alleys.’

purse, no money in his

. Impotent: low: C.19–20. Ex PURSE, n.

purse a purgation, give a person’s

. To take money from one: coll: ca 1540–80. Heywood.

purse-catcher, -emptier, -lifter, -snatcher

. A stealer of purses: s. or coll verging on S.E.: resp. C.17, C.17, late C.19–20, late C.19–20.

purse-finder

. A harlot: low: C.19–20, ob.

purse-proud

. Lecherous; amorous: low: C.18–20, ob. See PURSE, n.

pursenets

*. c. of ca 1608–1830: ‘Goods taken upon Trust by young Unthrifths at treble the Value’, B.E.; but first in Dekker. cf. the dial. purse-net, the movable net in which ducks are snared, and RABBIT-SUCKER. 2. Also, though prob. in the singular form: a small purse: ca 1690–1750: app. likewise c.

purser’s

. Contemptuous or derisive in PURSER’S DIP, an undersized candle; purser’s quart (Smollett), a short quart; etc.: nautical coll: C.18–20; slightly ob. Because a purser, i.e. ship’s storekeeper and treasurer, was often dishonest. cf.:

purser’s (gen. pusser’s) crabs

. Navy uniform boots, with toe-caps: naval: late C. 19–20: Bowen. See CRAB-SHELLS.

purser's (gen. pusser's) dagger

. A service clasp-knife: naval: late C.19–20. cf.:

purser's (gen. pusser's) dip

. A candle: nautical: mid-C.19–20; slightly ob.

purser's (gen. pusser's) dirk

. Same as PURSER'S DAGGER: naval: late C.19–20.

purser's (gen. pusser's) grin

. A hypocritical grin; a sarcastic sneer: nautical coll: C.19–20; ob. Esp. in the c.p., there are no half laughs or purser's grins about me; I'm right up and down like a yard of pump water.

purser's grind

. A coition bringing the woman no money but some consolation in the size or potency of the member: low nautical: mid-C.19–20.

purser's name

. A false name: nautical coll >, in C.20, S.E.: C.19–20; ob. Ex false name given to the purser by a passenger travelling incognito.

purser's (gen. pusser's) pack

. The Slop Chest: naval coll: late C.19–20.

purser's pump

. A siphon, because prominent in a purser's stores; a bassoon, 'from its likeness to a syphon', Grose, 1788: nautical of ca 1785–1890.

purser's shirt on a handspike(, like a)

. (Of clothes) ill-fitting: nautical: C.19–20; ob.

purser's (gen. pusser's) stocking

. A metaphorical article in the Slop Chest: naval: mid-C.19–early 20.

purser's (gen. pusser's) tally

. A name assumed by a seaman, esp. if naval: (naval) coll: C.19.

purser's (gen. pusser's) yellow

. Naval soap: naval coll: late C.19–20.

purting glumpot

. A sulky person: dial. and low coll: from ca 1850. Ex glum, gloomy, and dial. purt, to sulk.

push

, n. A thronging, a crowd, of people: low s. (perhaps orig. c.) >, in C.20, gen. s.: 1718, C.Hitchin, 'A push, alias an accidental crowd of people'; Vaux, 1812, 'When any particular scene of crowding is alluded to, they (the underworld) say, the push...at the...doors; the push at the ...match.' Ex the inevitable pushing and jostling. 2. Hence, a gang or a group of convicts, as in Davitt's Prison Diary, 1888; or a band of thieves, as in Anon., 'No. 747', reference to the year 1845; or, in Australia, a gang of LARRIKINS, as in the Melbourne Argus, 26 July 1890, and esp. in Morris's dictionary: in C.19, c.; in C.20, low s., as indeed the 'larrikins' sense was from the first. 3. A robbery; a swindle; a dealing out of profits: c.: from ca 1860; slightly ob. Not unnaturally ex sense 2. 4. See PUSH, DO A. 5. Mostly in give or get the push. A dismissal, esp. from employment: from ca 1870: s. Anon., ca 1875, 'The girl that stole my heart has given me the push.'

push

, adj. Stylish, smart; (of clothes) best, splendid: university s. by 1903, when P.G. Wodehouse, in Tales of St Austin's, says of a brightly coloured waistcoat that it is 'quite the most push thing at Cambridge'. This is the earliest form of posh, adj., and may itself be ex POSH n., 2, or possibly a corruption of Scottish tosh, clean, neat, trim.

push

, v. See PUSH OFF and PUSHED. 2. v.i. (occ. push on), rarely v.t., to coït (with): low coll, gen. of the male: C.18–20. Robertson of Struan.

push, do a

. To coït: low, gen. of the male: late C.19–20. 2. See DO A PUSH.

push, stand the

. (Of a woman) to coït: coll: C.18–19. cf. PUSH, DO A.

push about the bottle

. To drink heavily: naval officers': ca 1790–1870.

push-cycle

. A foot-propelled bicycle, as opposed to a motor-cycle: coll: from ca 1904.

push-cyclist

. A bicyclist, opp. to a motorcyclist: coll: from ca 1905.

push off

. To depart: mid-C.18–20. Semantics: pushing off a boat. Sessions, May 1740 (trial of Eliz. Pooley), ‘He...heard somebody cursing and swearing and a woman...say, d-n it, push off, or go off.’

push one’s barrow

. To move on, away; to depart: mostly costers’: from ca 1870.

push out the boat

, see BOAT, PUSH OUT THE.

push-penny

. A coll variant (–1903) of SHOVE-HALFPENNY.

push-pin, OCC. -pike, play at; play at put-pin

. To coït: low coll: resp. C.17–18, late C.17–18, and mid-C.16–mid-18. Rycharde’s Misogonus, 1560; Massinger, 1623, ‘She would never tell|Who play’d at pushpin with her’; Ned Ward, 1707, ‘When at pusha-pike we play|With beauty, who shall win the day?’ cf. PUSH, v., 2; PUSH, DO A; and PUSHING-SCHOOL.

pushed

. Short of money: coll: from ca 1825. Abbr. pushed for money. 2. Drunk: ca 1870–1910. Perhaps ex the tendency to fall; cf.:

pushed?, did she fall or was she

. A c.p. dating from ca 1908, orig. applied to a girl losing her virginity. A woman named Violet Charlesworth was found dead near Beachy Head at the foot of the cliff. Suicide was at first presumed, but later a suggestion of foul play was made and the newspaper headline appeared ‘Did she fall or was she pushed?’ The innuendo caught the public fancy and for a long time the phrase was used on every possible and impossible occasion.

pusher

. A fledgeling canary unable to feed itself: ca 1690–1750. Perhaps because it pushes with its bill. 2. A girl, a woman: low. Also SQUARE-PUSHER, a virtuous girl. See also SQUARE-PUSHING. Late C. 19–20. 3. A blucher boot: shoemakers’: from ca 1860. 4. A finger of bread used as a feeding-implement: nursery coll: from ca 1880. 5. In pickpocketry, he who pushes the prospective victim against the actual thief: c.: late C.19–20.

pushing-school

. A brothel: low: late C.17–19. Ex the S.E. sense, a fencing-school: cf. also PUSH, v., 2, and PUSH, DO A.

pushing-tout

*. A thieves' scout or watchman that brings intelligence of an accidental crowd or assemblage: c.: C.18. C.Hitchin, 1718.

puss

. The female pudend: low: C.17–20. Cotton, 'Aeneas, here's a Health to thee,| To Pusse and to good company.' Also, in C.19–20, pussy, pussy-cat. 2. A cadet of the Royal Military Academy: ca 1820–80. Ex the short jacket with pointed tail. Also pussy. 3. A hare: coll: late C.19–20.

puss-in-boots

. A swaggerer: military: from ca 1908. Ex the fairy tale.

pusser's crabs, dagger, dip, dirk, grin, pack, stocking, tally and yellow

, see PURSER'S, etc.

pusserpock

. Bad, hard salt-meat: naval (–1909); ob. A corruption of purser's pork, the purser being the purchaser.

pussy

, see PUSS.

put

. A rustic; a dolt: 1688, Shadwell; Grose (country put, a frequent variant): s. until ca 1750, then coll until ca 1830, then S.E. and archaic. The discrimination of put, a blockhead, and country put, a bumpkin, is logical: but the distinction cannot be pressed. 2. Hence, loosely, a chap, fellow: coll: ca 1800–30. Gen. applied, somewhat contemptuously, to elderly persons: cf. Thackeray in Vanity Fair, I, xi, ‘The captain...calls [his father] an old put.’ 3. A harlot: ?C.17–18: F. & H., but who else ?! (Ex Fr. putain, a whore.) 4. See:

put, do a

; have a put-in. To coït: low coll: C.19; C.19–20(ob.).

put, play at two-handed

. To coït: low: C. 18–early 19. cf. PUSH-PIN.

put (or lay) a churl upon a gentleman

, see CHURL...

put a hat (up)on a hen

. To attempt the impossible: proverbial coll: mid-C.17– mid-19. Ray.

put a nail in (a person's) coffin

. To talk ill of: tailors': mid-C.19–20.

put a new face (or head) on

. To disfigure by punching; hence, to get the better of: U.S. (–1870), anglicized by 1890.

put a poor mouth on

(a position). To complain (moaningly) about: Anglo-Irish (–1884).

put a steam on the table

. To earn enough money to obtain a hot Sunday dinner: lower classes': from ca 1860. Ware, ' Refers chiefly to boiled food'.

put-away

. An appetite; a (considerable) capacity for food or drink: low: late C.19–20. Ex the v., 1. 2. Imprisonment: late C.19–20; ob. Ex the v., 2. 3. An information to the police: (c. or) low s.: late C.19–20. Ex the v., 3.

put away

, v.t. To eat, drink, gen. in large quantities: 1878, Besant & Rice, 'I never saw a man put away such an enormous quantity of provisions at one time.' 2. To put in gaol: s. >, in C.20, coll: 1883 (O.E.D.). 3. To inform against: (c. or) low s.: from ca 1890; app. orig. Australian. 4. To pawn: s.: 1887, Daily News, 22 Oct. 5. To kill: coll: 1847, Anne Brontë.

put away proper

. To give a good funeral: lower-classes' coll: late C.19–20.

put down

. To eat: lower classes', esp. Cockney coll (–1909). 2. To cash (a cheque): c., and police s.: late C.19–20.

put down south

, see SOUTH.

put 'em up

! Raise your arms!: from ca 1860: coll. 2. Put up your fists!: coll: late C.19–20. A variant is stick 'em up!, in both senses. Contrast PUT IT UP !

put-in

, n., see PUT, DO A.

put in

, v. To pass (a period of time), gen. at or with the help of some occupation: coll: C.G.Gibson, 1863.

put in a hole

*. To defraud: c.: from ca 1860. A variant of put in the HOLE.

put in one's eye, as much as one can

. (Virtually) nothing: coll: late C.17–early 19.

put in one's motto

. To LAY DOWN THE LAW; butt rashly into a conversation: low coll: from ca 1880.

put in pie

. To spoil or bungle (a thing), lead (a person) astray: printers' (–1887); ob. Ex the jumble of printers' pie.

put in the garden, hole, peg, pin, or well

*. See at the nn.

put in the pudden club

, see PUDDEN CLUB, PUT IN THE.

put it in

, v.i. To achieve intromission: perhaps rather a S.E. approximation to euphemism than a coll: when, however, there is no thought, intention or subconscious impulse towards euphemism, it may be considered a coll and not, from the psychological nature of the case, S.E.

put it on

, v. i. To SHOW OFF: late C.19–20. Prob. ex put on airs. 2. v.t. To extract money from (a person) by threats, lying or whining: low London: late C.19–20. People, 6 Jan. 1895.

put it on her

. To drive a ship hard in a strong breeze: nautical coll (sailing-ships’): mid-C.19–20. The it=her set of sails.

put it over

, see PUT OVER.

put it there

! Shake hands: coll: late C.19–20. Mostly Colonial.

put it up

! Have done!; stop!; shut up!: low(–1859); †by 1910.

put it where the monkey put the nuts

! Go to blazes!: a low c.p.: late C.19–20. An elaboration of the low familiar S.E. stick it up your arse!

put off

. To disconcert, disturb: s. (–1909).

put-on

. A deception, subterfuge, excuse: coll: from ca 1860. 2. An ‘old woman mendicant who puts on a shivering and wretched look’: c. or low (–1909). Ware.

put on

, v. To begin to smoke: coll: prob. from ca 1870. It occurs in Conway Edwardes's play Heroes, 1876, 'Put on a smoke'. 2. To initiate (a person): coll: from ca 1860; ob.

put on a boss

. To assume a malevolent look: low (–1909). Ware, 'Squinting suggests malevolence.' Ex BOSS-EYED.

put on a cigar

. To assume gentility: lower classes': mid-C.19–20; ob.

put on the flooence (unnecessary spelling) or fluence

, see FLUENCE. put on the peg, see PEG, PUT ON THE.

put on the pot

. To give oneself airs: late C.19–20. See POT, n., 6.

put one's bones up

; put up one's forks. To be prepared to fight: proletarian: from ca 1865.

put one's forks down

*. To pick a pocket: c.: mid-C.19–20; ob.

put one's hair in(to) a curl or put a curl in one's hair

. To make one feel (very) fit: coll: from ca 1870; slightly ob.

put oneself outside

. To eat; occ., to drink: from ca 1860. cf. get OUTSIDE OF.

put out

*. To kill: c. and low: late C.19–20. Ex:

put out (a person's) light

*. To kill: c. and low: 1884, Graphic, 24 Sept.

put over

. To knock over with a shot, to kill: Australian: 1859. H.Kingsley; ob.

put ‘paid’ to

, see ‘PAID’ TO.

put-pin

, see PUSH-PIN.

put stuff on

, see STUFF ON THE BALL.

put that in your pipe

...! see PIPE AND SMOKE IT.

put the gloves on

*. To improve (a person): Scots c.: 1868; slightly ob.

put the lid on

, see LID ON...

put the miller's eye out

, see MILLER, DROWN THE.

put the pot on

. To bet too much money on one horse: sporting: from ca 1820. See POT, n., 1.

put the strings on

, see STRINGS ON.

put the traveller on

, see TIP THE TRAVELLER.

put the value on

. To sign (a canvas): artists' (–1909); ob.

put the windows in

. To smash them: low urban (–1909).

put through

. To succeed with (some plan, e.g.) by swindling: low: late C.19–20; ob. Ex the S.E. (orig.—1847—U.S.) sense, carry to a successful issue.

put to bed

. To defeat: music-halls' (–1909); ob.

put to find

. To put in prison: low (–1909).

put together with a hot needle and burnt thread

. To fasten insecurely: ca 1660–1850: semi-proverbial coll.

put-up

*. A laying of information against a fellow-criminal: c. (–1823); ob. Bee, who implies that put-up serves also as n. to PUT UP, v., 2.

put up

. To show, achieve, e.g. a good fight: coll: from ca 1890. Field, 30 Jan. 1892, ‘Pettitt put up a good game.’ 2. To plan in advance (a robbery, a swindle, a fraud): c.: from ca 1810. 3. Hence, to preconcert anything devious or underhand or disingenuous: from ca 1890. ‘Barclay put up a job to ruin old Overton,’ Sporting and Dramatic News, 13 Aug. 1892. 4. See PUT IT UP.

put up a stall

. To act or speak misleadingly: low: late C.19–20. cf. STALL, n., 3.

put-up job

*. (The chief use of the adj. put-up.) A pre-arranged crime or deception: as the former, c. (from ca 1838); as the latter, s. A put-up robbery occurs in 1810, a put-up affair in 1812 (Vaux).

put up one’s hat

; put one’s hat up. To pay serious court; often put your hat up there!, I see you mean to make one of the family: lower classes’: late C.19–20.

put (a person) up to

. To enlighten or forewarn about; inform of; instruct in: coll: 1812, Vaux. 2. To incite or excite to (some act, to do something); to induce, persuade (to do something): coll: 1824 (O.E.D.).

put your head in a bag

! Be quiet: (low) coll: from ca 1890. A horse with its head in the nose-bag does not trouble about other things.

Putney!, go to

. Go to the devil!: from ca 1840; ob. From ca 1850, occ. go to Putney on a pig, by a typical assonantal addition. Kingsley, 1863, 'Now, in the year 1845, teliing a man to go to Putney was the same as telling a man to go to the deuce.' cf. BATH; HALIFAX; HONG-KONG; JERICHIO.

putt

. See PUT, n., 1, of which it is a C.17–18 variant.

putter-up

*. One who plans and prearranges robberies, frauds, swindles; esp. 'a man who travels about for the purpose of obtaining information useful to professional burglars', H., 5th ed.; also, in C.20, an instigator to crime: c. >, ca 1910, low s. and police coll: 1812, Vaux.

puttock

. A whore; a greedy person: coll verging on S.E.: C.16–20.

putty

. Money: mostly (?and orig.) U.S.: mid-C.19–20; ob. Prob. glaziers' at first. 2. A glazier, a house-painter; in the Navy, any painter rating: from ca 1820. Ex frequent use of putty. 3. Sticky mud at the bottom of a body of water: 1880, P.H. Emerson: dial. and s.

putty, could not fight

. I am, he is, you are, etc., a very poor fighter (with one's hands); hence, also of, e.g., an army. Coll: late C. 19–20.

putty and plaster on the Solomon knob, the

. Be silent!; the Master's coming: a Freemasons' c.p. intimation: from ca 1870. Masonic punning on Masonic j.

putty and soap

. Bread and cheese: low: ca 1830–80. Sinks, 1848.

putty cove or covess

. An unreliable man or woman: c. of ca 1820–90. Ex softness of putty.

putty medal

. (A satirical recommendation to) a reward for mischief, incompetence, or injury: non-aristocratic coll: 1856, says Ware, who adds: ‘No medal at all’.

putty wallah

. A messenger or orderly attached to an office: Bombay: mid-C.19–20.

puv

. A field: chimney-sweeps’: C.19. (George Elson, The Last of the Climbing Boys, 1900.) Ex the synonymous Romany phuv, itself related to Sanskrit bhumi.

puz(z)

. A young man about town: London Society: ca 1760–80. cf. PIZ.

puzzle the monkey

. A coll variant, since ca 1880, of S.E. monkey-puzzle (the Araucaria imbricata).

puzzle-cause

; -cove. A lawyer: resp. coll of ca 1780–1830; c. or low of ca 1830–1900, mostly U.S. (Matsell). But while p.-cove=any lawyer, p.-cause is one ‘who has a confused understanding’. cf. PUZZLE-TEXT.

puzzle-headed spoon

. An Apostle spoon: C.19: coll.

puzzle-text

. A clergyman; esp. ‘an ignorant, blundering parson’, Grose, 1st ed., 1785: ob. by 1830. †by 1870. cf. PUZZLE-CAUSE.

puzzling arithmetic

. A statement of the odds: gamblers’ coll (? > j.): C.17. Webster, 1613, ‘Studying a puzzling arithmetic at the cockpit’.

puzzling-sticks

*. The triangle to which culprits were tied for flagellation: (prob. c. >) low s.: 1812, Vaux; †by 1870.

pyah

. Weak; paltry, inferior; useless: mainly nautical (–1864). Ex pariah.

pye

. A contraction of pariah-dog: Anglo-Indian military (–1886).

pygostole

. An ‘M.B.’ coat or waistcoat: Church: 1844. Lit. rump-stole, ex Gr. πυγή.

pyke

; occ. pike. A civilian that stands an impecunious soldier a drink: military: ca 1870–1910.
?ex Fr. s. pékin, a civilian.

pyke off

, see PIKE, v.

pysoe

. A close-fisted seaman: nautical: late C.19–20. Cognate with †Scottish pyster, to hoard up.

pyze

. A variant of pize: see PIZE ON.

Q

q

*, see LETTER Q.

q, que, cue, kue, not worth a

. Of negligible value: coll > S.E.: C.16. Skelton, 'That lyberte was not worth a cue.' Ex q, half a farthing. 2. See P AND Q; PS AND QS.

Q.b.b.

A Queen's bad bargain: reign of Queen Victoria: coll. cf. K.b.b., and see BAD BARGAIN. Also (K.h.b. and) Q.h.b., Queen's hard bargain, as in the Cornhill Magazine, Feb. 1865. cf. Queen's or King's bad shilling.

q (or Q) in a corner

. Something not at once seen but brought to subsequent notice: legal: from ca 1870; ob. Perhaps= query in a corner, suggested by the old game of Q in the corner (prob., puss in the corner). cf.:

Q-in-the-corner cove

. A keen (and cautious?) follower of boxing: pugilistic: ca 1815–60. Boxiana, IV, 1824, ‘Great doubts have been expressed by the “Q-in-the-corner coves”, whether Randall is actually well, or only “patched up”.’ Here, Q app.=‘query’ or ‘question’.

Q.S.

QUEER STREET: non-aristocratic: late C.19–20; ob.

q.t. (or Q.T.), on the

; or on the strict q.t. On the quiet: resp. ca 1870, 1880. Anon., Broadside Ballad, 1870, ‘Whatever I tell you is on the Q.T.’

qua

*; qua-keeper. A prison; a gaoler: c. of late C.18–early 19. Tufts (dict. of flash), 1798. I suspect an error for quad=quod.

quack

. A pretended doctor: 1659 (O.E. D.): coll till C.19, then S.E. Abbr. QUACK-SALVER. See esp. the essay entitled ‘Quacks and Quackery’ in my Literary Sessions. 2. A duck: late C.19–20. More Often, QUACK-QUACK. cf. QUACKING-CHEAT.

quack

, v. Play the quack (see the n., 1): C.17–20: coll till C.19, then S.E. 2. To change (the title of a book), v.t.: C.18: booksellers'. Centlivre, 1715, 'He has an admirable knack at quacking titles... When he gets an old good-for-nothing book, he claps a new title to it, and sells off the whole impression in a week.' Ex quack, to palm off as a quack would.

quack, in a

. In a mere moment: Scots coll: from ca 1840.

quack-quack

. A duck: an echoic nursery coll: recorded 1865 (O.E.D.), but prob.—as indeed with all such words—used much earlier. cf. BOW-WOW.

quacker

. A duck: coll: C.19–20. cf. QUACK, n., 2, and:

quacking-cheat

*. A duck: c.: from ca 1565; †by 1860. See CHEAT.

quacksalver

. A pretended doctor: 1579, Gosson: coll till ca 1660, then S.E.; ob. One who sells his salves by quacking (noisy patter). cf. QUACK, n., 1.

quad

*. A prison: c.: late C.18–20. Also and much more gen. QUOD. Prob. ex quadrangle. 2. A quadrangle: 1820 (O.E. D.): Oxford s. >, ca 1860, gen. coll. Trollope, ‘The quad, as it was familiarly called...’ 3. A horse: low: 1845, ‘No. 747’ (p. 416); 1885, English Illustrated Magazine, April, ‘The second rider...got his gallant quad over, and...went round the course alone.’ Abbr. quadruped. 4. A bicycle for four: 1888 (O.E.D.). Abbr. quadruple. 5. A quadrat: printers’: from ca 1880: coll >, by 1890, j. 6. Hence, a (printer’s) joke: printers’: 1884.

quaedam

. A harlot: cultured coll: late C.17–18. Hacket. Lit., a certain woman: cf. one of those, euphemistic for a harlot.

quaegemes or quae-gemes

. A bastard: coll: C.18–early 19.

quail

, a harlot, or a courtesan—C.17– early 18—may orig. have been coll or even s., but it is gen. treated as S.E.: cf., however, PHEASANT and PLOVER. C.17–18. Motteux, ‘With several coated quails, and lac’d mutton, waggishly singing’. Ex the bird’s supposed amorousness. It is interesting to note that in U.S. university s. (now ob.), quail is a girl student.

quail-pipe

. A woman's tongue: late C.17–19. 2. The throat: late C.17–18 (Dryden, Pope): on border-line between coll and S.E., the O.E.D. treating it as the latter. Ex the pipe with which quail are decoyed.

quail-pipe boot

. (Gen. in pl.) A rather coll or illiterate form of quill-p. b.: C.17–18.

quaint

. In C.14–15, queinte or queynte; in C.15–16, also quaynt(e). The female pudend: C.14–20: in C.14–16, a vulg.; in C.17–20, dial., now †except in parts of the North Country, where ob. Florio, 'Conno, a woman's privie parts or quaint, as Chaucer calls it.' If not a mere variant of, certainly cognate with CUNT: 'Chaucer may have combined Old French coing with M.E. cunte, or he may have been influenced by the Old Fr. adjective coint, neat, dainty, pleasant,' Grose, P., q.v. for fuller discussion.

quake-breach or -buttock

. A coward; dolt; sot: coll verging on S.E.: late C.16–17.

Quaker

. A member of the Society of Friends: 1653, H.R., (title) A Brief Relation of the Irreligion of the Northern Quakers (O.E.D.); coll until ca 1810, then S.E., but never recognized, though in mid-C.19–20 often used, by the Society. Orig. a pejorative nickname, ex supposed ‘agitations in preaching’, Grose. 2. A rope or lump of excrement: low: C.(?18–)19. cf.:

Quaker, bury a

. To defecate: low: C.(? 18–)19. See QUAKE, 2.

Quaker’s bargain

. A ‘yea or nay’ bargain; a ‘take it or leave it’ transaction: coll: late C.18–19. Ex the well-known directness, reliability and integrity of the Quakers.

Quaker’s or Quakers’ burying-ground

. A privy; a w.c.: low: C.19. Ex QUAKE, 2.

quaking cheat

*. A calf; a sheep: c. of ca 1560–1850. See CHEAT.

qual

. Abbr. the QUALITY: s.: Ned Ward, 1715.

qualified

. Damned, bloody, etc.: euphemistic coll: 1890, Kipling, ‘He was... told not to make a qualified fool of himself.’

qualify

, v.i. To coït: cultured s.: late C.19. ?ex qualify as a man.

quality, the

. The gentry: late C.17–20: S.E. until ca 1830, then dial. and low coll. Mrs Centlivre notably omits the; A. Trollope, 1857, ‘The quality, as the upper classes in rural districts are designated by the lower...’ Whence:

quality hours, the

. Late hours for rising and for eating: lower classes’ ironic coll: mid-C.19–20.

qually

. (Of wine) ‘Turbulent and Foul’, B.E.: late C.17–mid-18: coll rapidly > j. ?cloudy corrupted.

quamino or Q

. A Negro on shipboard: nautical: mid-C.19–20. ?ex a Negro name. cf. QUASHEE.

quandary

. A state of perplexity; the difficulty causing it: coll till C.19, then S.E.: 1579, Lyly, ‘Leaving this olde gentleman in a great quandarie’. Occ., C. 17–early 18, as a v.: the Rev. T.Adams (d. 1655), ‘He quandaries whether to go forward to God, or...to turn back to the world.’ The O.E.D. concerning the etymology, rejects M.E. wandreth, abbr. hypochondry, and Grose’s and Baumann’s qi’en dirai-je? Prob. L. quam dare? or quando dare?, less likely quantum dare?

quantum

. A drink: from ca 1870; very ob. Ex S.E. sense, a sufficiency.

quantum suff

. Enough: coll: C.19–20; slightly ob. J.Beresford, 1806; 1871, Anon., The Siliad, ‘I, too, O comrade, quantum suff. would cry.’ Ex the medical formula in prescriptions: quant(um) suff(icit), ‘as much as suffices’.

quarrel-picker

. A glazier: coll (?orig. s.): late C.17–18. A pun on quarrel, a small pane of glass, ex Old Fr. (cf. carreau).

quarrom(e) or -s; quarron or -s

*. A or the body: c. of ca 1565–1830. Harman and Grose, quarromes; Brome and B.E., quarron; Anon., The Maunderer's Praise ..., 1707, quarrons. Perhaps ex Fr. charogne or It. carogna.

quarry

. The female pudend: C.18–19: coll, bordering on S.E. euphemism.

quart

. A quart-pot, esp. as a drinking vessel: Australian coll: late C.19–20. Perhaps ex Devonshire usage (1865: E.D.D.).

quart-mania

. Delirium tremens (cf. GALLON-DISTEMPER): ca 1860–1910.

quart-pot tea

. Tea brewed over an open fire in a tin pot holding a quart: Australian coll: Mrs H.Jones, Long Years in Australia, 1878; 1885, Finch-Hatton, Advance Australia; ob.

quarter-decker

. An officer with manners (much) better than his seamanship: naval coll: from ca 1865; slightly ob. Ex deck used by superior officers and/or cabin-passengers. Like the next, recorded first in Admiral Smyth's Sailor's Word-Book, 1867. cf. QUEEN'S PARADE.

quarter-deckish

. Punctilious: naval coll: from ca 1865; slightly ob. Ex preceding.

quarter flash and three-parts foolish

. A fool with a smattering of worldly knowledge: c.p.: ca 1815–50. Pierce Egan, London, 1821.

quarter of a sec!, (wait) a

. A Society intensification of half a SEC!: ca 1900–14.

quarter pound bird's eye

. A quarter-ounce of tobacco: lower classes' (–1909).

quarter sessions

! A jocose form of swearing: legal coll (–1909).

quarter-sessions rose

. A 'perpetual' rose: gardeners' coll: from ca 1880. Ex the Fr. rose de quatre saisons, i.e. all the year round.

quarter stretch

*. Three months' imprison-ment: c.: (?)from ca 1815. See STRETCH, n., 2.

quartered

, see RIDER, 2. A coll.

quartereen

. A farthing: (low) theatrical and showmen's: from ca 1850. (cf. QUATRO.) Perhaps suggested by U.S. quarteroon, a quadroon, but more prob. by the It. quattrino.

quarterer

. Four, esp. in quarterer saltee, four-pence: Parlary: mid-C.19–20. Ex It. quattro.

quartern of bliss

. A small, attractive woman: low London: from ca 1882; ob. cf. POT OF BLISS.

quarto

; Mr Quarto. A bookseller; a publisher: coll: mid-C.18–mid-19.

quashee, -e

; occ. quassy. A Negro; above all, a Negro seaman from the British West Indies; esp. as a nickname: coll: from ca 1830. e.g. Michael Scott, 'I say, quashie.' Ex a Negro proper name.

quat

. A contemptuous pejorative applied to a (gen. young, nearly always male) person: early C.17. Shakespeare, Webster. Ex quat, a pimple.

quat, go to

. To defecate: low coll: C.19–20; very ob. Ex quat, to squat.

quatch

, as in Shakespeare's quatch-buttock, may be coll and may=flat.

quatro

. Four: from ca 1850; Parlary. Ex It. quattro. cf. QUARTERER.

quaver

. A musician: low coll or s.: from ca 1860; ob.

quean

; incorrectly queen. A homosexual, esp. one with girlish manners and carriage: low. late C.19–20; ob. except in Australia. Prob. ex quean, a harlot, influenced by Queenie, a girl's name, and dial. queanish, effeminate. cf. QUEANIE.

Quean Street

, see QUEEN STREET.

queanie

; incorrectly queenie. A NANCY: late C.19–20; Australian. See QUEAN.

queen

, see QUEAN.

Queen Anne—Queen Elizabeth—my Lord Baldwin—is dead

. A c.p. retort on old news: coil: resp. 1722; C.18, e.g. in Swift; ca 1670–1710, as in Ray. A ballad of 1722, cited by Apperson, ‘He’s as dead as Queen Anne the day after she dy’d’; Barham. Swift, ‘What news, Mr Neverout? Neverout. Why, Madam, Queen Elizabeth’s dead.’ The first was oqc., ca 1870–1910, elaborated to Queen Anne is dead and her bottom’s cold. cf. the Yorkshire Queen Anner, ‘an old-fashioned tale; a tale of former times’.

Queen Anne’s fan

. Fingers to nose: coll: mid-C.19–20; ob. See SIGHT, 5.

Queen Dick

, see DICK... 2. Queen Dick, to the tune of the life and death of. To no tune at all. Late C.18–early 19 coll.

Queen Elizabeth

. See QUEEN ANNE. 2. The street-door key: c.: ca 1860–1910. On BETTY.

Queen Elizabeth's pocket-pistol

. 'A Brass Cannon of a prodigious Length at Dover Castle', B.E.: a coll nickname, ca 1680–1780. Smollett.

queen (or Queen) goes on foot or sends nobody, where the

. A water-closet: low coll: ca 1860–1915.

queen of the dripping-pan

. A cook: coll: from ca 1850; ob.

Queen Street, live in

; or at the sign of the Queen's Head. To be governed by one's wife: coll: ca 1780–1850.

queenie

. See QUEANIE. 2. queenie! A 'mock endearing name called after a fat woman trying to walk young': Cockney: 1884–ca 1914. Ex Queenie, come back, sweet, addressed in a Drury Lane pantomime of 1884 to H.Campbell, who, exceedingly fat, was playing Eliza, a cook.

Queen's Arms, The

; or The Hen and Chickens. Home: commercial travellers': from ca 1890. It comes into conversations concerning hotels; thus: "Where do you stay in York?" "Oh, at The Queen's Arms (or, The Hen and Chickens)." With punning reference to wife or to wife and children.

Queen's bad or hard bargain or bad shilling

, see Q.B.B. and BAD BARGAIN.

Queen's bus

* or, as in Baumann, carriage. A prison van: ca 1860–1901: c. (But the King's bus did not 'take on'.)

Queen's gold medal

. (Gen the.) A shilling: lower classes' (–1887); †by 1902.

Queen's head

. A postage stamp: (low) coll: ca 1840–1901. King's head, †by 1910. Moncrieff, The Scamps of London, 1843.

queen's or Queen's parade

. The quarter-deck: naval coll: ca 1865–1901.

Queen's or King's picture or portrait

. Money; coins: coll verging on S.E.: C.17–20; slightly ob. Brome; Ned Ward, 'Queen's pictures, by their features,| Charm all degrees of human creatures'; Judy, 27 April 1887.
2. A sovereign: C.19–20; ob. Mayhew.

Queen's pipe

, See PIPE, HER MAJESTY'S. Orig. Queen's tobacco-pipe.

Queen's or queen's stick

. A stately person: (low) coll: ca 1870–1910.

Queen's woman

. (Gea. in pl.) A soldier's trull: military coll, bordering on S.E.: ca 1860–1905. A Royal Commission report of 1871.

queer

*, adj. (Orig. opp. to RUM, excellent, which in C.19–20 has approximated to queer.) Base, criminal; counterfeit; very inferior: c.: C.16–20. First in Scots, 1508, as=odd, eccentric, of questionable character, prob. coll (not c.) and soon > S.E., this sense being perhaps independent of the c. (not attested before 1561); by 1560 very gen. in Eng. c. Awdelay, as quire; Harman, quyer, of liquor; Dekker, quier; Fletcher the dramatist, quere; B.E., queere; Spectator, queer, as in Grose. Origin obscure, but perhaps ex quire=choir: Awdelay, ‘A Quire bird is one that came lately out of prison’: cf. Grose’s definition of QUEER-BIRD, and see CANARY; or, as H. suggests, ex Ger. quer, crooked. 2. Not until C.19 do the derivative senses occur: drunk, 1800, W.B.Rhodes, ‘We feel ourselves a little queer.’ 3. Hence, unwell; giddy: s. from ca 1810, e.g. in Vaux. cf. QUEERY. 4. Unfavourable, inauspicious: coll: late C. 19–20. 5. Not honest; SHADY: coll: late C.19–20. 6. Shrewd; alert: c.: late C.18– early 19. But this may merge with preceding sense. 7. Of strange behaviour; (slightly) mad, orig. (a bit) queer in the head: coll: 1840, Dickens. This links with sense 3, but prob. deriving imm. ex queer in one’s attic. (In gen., cf. the n. and v.; also the queer combinations and phrases.) For the relation of this word to RUM, see E.Partridge, ‘Neither Cricket nor Philology’ in A Covey of Partridge, 1937.

queer

*, n. Counterfeit money: c.: from ca 1810. Vaux; Egan, 1821, ‘The dealer in Queer’. cf. SHOVER OF THE QUEER, a counterfeiter. 2. An inferior substitute for soot: dealers in soot: (low) s.: ca 1815–70. Egan in Boxiana, vol. ii. 3. A hoax, a quizzing: low: late C.18–20, ob. Ex the v., 1. 4. A look: low s. verging on c.: Henley & Stevenson, 1892, ‘Have a queer at her phiz’; ob. 5. See QUEER, TIP THE, and QUEER, IN.

queer

, v. To ridicule; to puzzle: from ca 1790: s.; ob. 2. To hoax; cheat: trick: evade: c. or low s.: late C.18–20. Anon., 1819, ‘There’s no queering fate, sirs.’ 3. To spoil, ruin: from ca 1790: c. >, ca 1840, low s. cf. PITCH, QUEER THE. e.g. queer the OGLES, blacken someone’s eyes. 4. Hence, ‘to put (one) out; to make (one) feel queer’, S.O.D.: 1845, W.Cory, ‘Hallam was rather queered’; Hindley, 1876, ‘Consumption was queering him.’

queer, in

*. Wrong, e.g. with the police: c.: late C.19–20.

queer, shover of the

*, see QUEER, n., 1.

Queer, Sir Quibble

. ‘A trifling silly shatter-brain’d Fellow’, B.E.: late C.17– mid-18.

queer, tip (one) the

*. To pass sentence of imprisonment on: c.: from ca 1820; ob.

queer as a three-dollar bill

. Very odd (or strange) indeed: Canadian: late C.19–20. ‘There are no $3 bills’ (Leechman).

queer as Dick’s hatband

, see DICK’S HATBAND.

queer bail

*. Fraudulent bail: c.: 1785, Grose; ob.

queer belch

. Sour beer: low: ca 1825–70. Sinks, 1848.

queer bird

*; in C.16–mid-17, quire bird. One only recently out of gaol but already returned to crime: c.: mid-C.16–early 19. Awdelay. 2. An odd fellow: from ca 1840: s. cf. QUEER COVE.

queer bit, cole, money, paper, screens, soft

*. Base money, q. paper and soft obviously applying only to notes: resp. c., late C.18–20; late C.17–20, ob., c.; C.19, s. or low coll; C.19–20, low; C.19–20, c. (ob. in C.20); mid-C.19–20, c.

queer bit-maker

*. A coiner of counterfeit: c.: 1785, Grose; Ware. cf. QUEER COLE-MAKER.

queer bitch

. ‘An odd out-of-the-way fellow’, Grose, 1785; recorded 1772; †by 1870.

queer bluffer

*. ‘A sneaking, sharpening, Cut-throat Ale-house or Inn-keeper’, B.E.; ‘the master of a public house, the resort of rogues and sharpeners’, Grose, 1st ed.: c.: late C.17–early 19. See also BLUFFER.

queer booze

*. Poor lap, SWIPES; ‘small and naughtye drynke’, Harman: c. >, ca 1750, low s.: ca 1560–1830. See also BOOZE.

queer bung or boun

*. An empty purse: c.: mid-C.17–early 19.

queer card, fellow, fish

; in pl, also queer cattle. A person odd in manner, strange in opinion: coll: resp. C.19–20; 1712, Spectator; 1772, ‘Gods are queer fish as well as men’; (gen. of women), 1894, G. Moore—but prob. much earlier—coll.

queer checker

. A swindling box-keeper: low theatrical: late C.18–mid-19.

queer clout

*. ‘A sorry, coarse, ord’nary or old Handkerchief, not worth Nimming’ (i.e. stealing), B.E.: c.: late C.17–18.

queer cole

*. Counterfeit money: c.: from ca 1670. See QUEER BIT.

queer-cole fencer

*. A receiver, or utterer, of false money: c.: late C.17–19.

queer cole-maker

*. A counterfeiter: c.: late C.17–20; ob.

queer cove

*. A rogue: c.: late C.16–mid-19. 2. A strange fellow: low >, by 1900, gen. s.: from ca 1830. cf. QUEER BIRD.

queer cramp-rings

*. Bolts; fetters: c. (–1567); †by ca 1750.

queer cuffin, OCC. q. cuffen or cuffing

*; even cuffin quire (Elisha Coles, 1676). A magistrate: c.: C.17–19. Dekker, ‘Because he punisheth them belike’ and ‘Quier cuffin, that is to say, a Churle, or a naughty man’, which gives the secondary sense, ‘a churl’, recorded by B.E. and Grose.

queer cull

*. ‘A Fop, or Fool, a Codshead; also a shabby poor Fellow’, B.E.: c.: late C.17–mid-19: c. See CULL.

queer degen

*. ‘An Iron, Steel, or Brass-hilted Sword’, B.E.; ‘an ordinary sword’, Grose, 1st ed. c. of ca 1670–1830. Opp. RUM DEGEN.

queer diver

*. A bungling pickpocket: c.: mid-C.17–early 19.

queer doxy

*. A jiltkig jade; an ill-dressed harlot: c.: mid-C.17–mid-18.

queer drawers

*. ‘Yarn, coarse Worsted, ord’nary or old Stockings’, B.E.: c.: late C.17–18.

queer duke

*. A decayed gentleman: a starveling: c.: mid-C.17–18.

queer ’em or ’um or ’un

*; queerum. The gallows: c.: ca 1820–60. Bee, 1823 (queer ’em); Sonnets for the Fancy, 1824, ‘The queerum queerly smear’d with dirty black’. ?queer them or queer one.

queer fella, the

. The person who happens to be in command: Regular Army: late C. 19–20.

queer fellow

; queer fish, see QUEER CARD.

queer fun

*. A bungled trick or swindle: c.: late C.17–18.

queer-gammed

*. Very lame; crippled: c., in C.20 slightly ob. George Parker, 1789, ‘Though fancy queer-gamm’d smutty Muns|Was once my fav’rite man.’ See GAM, n., 2.

queer gill

*. A shabby fellow: c.: ca 1800–40. Ainsworth, in Rookwood, 1834, ‘Rum gills and queer giils’. See GILL and cf. CULL.

queer in one’s (occ. the) attic

. A variant—ca 1820–1910—of QUEER, adj., 7. Ex QUEER, adj., 3. 2. Hence, perverse, wrong-headed: low (–1887); ob.

queer it

*, see QUEER, v., 3. cf. PITCH, QUEER THE.

queer ken

*. A prison: c.: 1608, Dekker; Grose, †by 1850. 2. A house not worth robbing: c.: late C.17–18. Here, queer= worthless. cf.:

queer-ken hall

*. A prison: c.: 1610, Rowlands, who spells quirken hall. C.17; on queer ken. Prob. genuine c., but Rowlands often ‘improved on’ Dekker, who, although he used Harman somewhat à la Molière, prob. knew the underworld intimately.

queer kicks

*. ‘Coarse, ord’nary or old Breeches’, B.E.: c.: late C.17–early 19.

queer money

*, see QUEER BIT.

queer mort

*. ‘A dirty Drab, a jilting Wench, a Pockey Jade’, B.E.: c.: C.17– early 19. Grose (2nd ed.) records only ‘a diseased strumpet’. Contrast RUM MORT.

queer nab

*. A shabby hat, or a cheap one: c.: late C.17–early 19. B.E., who uncompromisingly defines it as ‘A Felt, Carolina, Cloth, or ord’nary Hat, not worth whipping off a Man’s Head’.

queer-ogled

*. Squint-eyed: c. (–1887).

queer on or to

*. To rob; treat harshly: resp. c. and low s.: C.19–20; ob. cf. QUEER, v., 3, 4.

queer paper

*, see QUEER BIT.

queer peeper

*. An interior mirror: late C.17–18.

queer peepers

*. Squinting or dim-sighted eyes: c. >, by 1830, low s.: C.18–20; ob.

queer place, the

*. Prison: c.: late C.19–20. By euphemism. cf. QUEER KEN, 1.

queer plunger

*. One who works a faked rescue of a drowning man: c.: 1785, Grose. It applies both to the ‘victim’ and to the ‘rescuer’. In order that the ‘rescuer’ WANGLE a guinea from a humane society; moreover, the supposed ‘suicide’ often got a small sum.

queer prancer

*. An inferior or a foundered horse: late C.17–early 19 c. B.E.; Grose, 1st ed., who records also ‘a cowardly...horse-stealer’: c.: late C.18–early 19.

queer put

. ‘An ill-looking, foolish fellow’ (Sinks): low: prob. ca 1800–60.

queer roost, dorse (or doss) or sleep (up-) on the

*. To live together as supposed man and wife: c.: late C.18–mid-19.

queer rooster

*. A police spy residing among thieves: c.: 1785, Grose; †by 1890.

queer-rums

*. Confusing talk: c. of ca 1820–50. Lit., bad-goods.

queer screen

*. A forged bank-note: c. (–1812). cf. QUEER BIT.

queer-shover or shover of the queer

*. See QUEER, n., 1. From ca 1870.

queer soft

*, see QUEER BIT.

queer stick

. A very odd, or incomprehensible, fellow: coll: late C.19–20. cf. dial. rum stick and the c; and dial. RUM DUKE.

queer start

. A strange business: ca 1820–80: low >, by 1860, gen. Anon., Autobiography of Jack Ketch, 1836. See START, n., 3.

Queer Street, in

*. In a serious difficulty; very short of money: (–1811); c. >, ca 1840, s. >, ca 1890, coll. 1837, Lytton, ‘You are in the wrong box—planted in Queer Street, as we say in London’; Dickens.

queer the pitch

, see PITCH, QUEER THE.

queer the stifler

, see STIFLER.

queer thing, the

. A basket or sack hoisted in a Grand Banks schooner to recall the dories: fishermen’s: late C.19–20. Bowen.

queer to

*, see QUEER ON.

queer topping

*. A frowsy or inferior wig or other head-dress: c.: late C.17–18.

queer wedge

*. Base gold or, more gen., silver: c.: ca 1800–60. 2. A large buckle, says Grose, in his 3rd ed.: c.: late C.18– early 19.

queer whidding

*. A scolding: c.: C.18– mid-19. Ex:

queer whids

*. Esp. in cut queer whids, to give evil words: c.: 1567, Harman. Ob.

queered

. Tipsy: 1822, Scott, ‘You would be queered in the drinking of a penny pot of malmsey.’
†by 1850. See QUEER, adj., 2.

queerer

. A quizzer, a hoaxer: ca 1810–50. Colman, 1812, ‘These wooden wits, these quizzers, queerers, smokers’. Ex QUEER, v., 1.

queerish

. Somewhat QUEER, in various senses: coll: mid-C.18–20. Also in dial.

queerly

*. Like a criminal: c.: late C.17– early 19.

queerum

*, see QUEER ’EM.

queery

. Shaky: low, esp. boxing: ca 1820–70. Jones, The True-Bottomed Boxer, 1825.

queint(e)

, see QUAIN. queme, see QUIM.

quencher

; frequently a modest quencher. A drink: coll: 1840, Dickens.

quierier

. A chimney-sweep irregularly soliciting custom, e.g. by knocking at the doors of houses: low: from ca 1845. Mayhew (also GUMBLER). cf. KNULLER.

querry and quetry

in Greene's Second Cony-Catching, 1592, are prob. misprints for quarry; nevertheless they are late C.16 c. and=a surety (to be victimized).

question, ask (a horse) a

. To test before racing: the turf: Licensed Victuallers' Gazette, 7 Nov. 1890, 'A thorough judge of horses...and...not afraid of asking them a question, like some trainers we know of.'

question, pop the

, see POP THE QUESTION.

question lay

*. ‘To knock at the Door, and ask for the Gentleman of the House, if a Bed [a-bed] you desire the Servant not to disturb him, but you will wait untill he rises, and then an opportunity to steal something’, C.Hitchin, The Regulator, 1718:c.: C.18.

queynte

, see QUAIN. Quhew, see WHEW, THE.

qui, get the

. To be dismissed: printers’: from ca 1875. Ex quietus.

qui-hi or -hai or-hy

. An Anglo-Indian, esp. of the Bengal Presidency: Anglo-Indian coll: 1816, Anon., Quiz; Thackeray, ‘The old boys, the old generals, the old colonels, the old qui-his...paid her homage.’ Ex Urdu koi hai, ‘Is anyone there?’—in India a summons to a servant. Yule & Burnell, who cf. (Bombay) DUCK, n., 4 and MULL, n., 3. 2. In the Regular Army, qui-hi is used (mid-C.19–20) in its lit. sense.

qui tam

; qui-tam, quitam. A solicitor who seeks such a conviction that the resultant penalty goes half to the informer (i.e. the lawyer himself), half to the Crown: also adj., as in Moncrieff, 1843, ‘The quitam lawyer, the quack doctor’; qui tam, as n., app. recorded first in this sense in H., 3rd ed., 1864; in C.20, ob. except as legal s. 2. The adj., however, figures also in the earlier qui-tam horse, ‘one that will both carry and draw’, Grose, 3rd

ed.: legal, †by 1860. Ex the legal action so named; L., ‘who as well’. 3. But qui tam, an informer, occurs as early as 1816 in ‘Quiz’s’ Grand Master: coll.

Quibble Queer, Sir

, see QUEER, SIR QUIBBLE.

quick

. Dapper and clever: Society: 1870s and 1880s.

quick and nimble

; more like a bear than a squirrel. A c.p. addressed to one moving slowly when speed is required: C.18–mid-19.

quick stick(s)

. Rapidly: hurriedly. Esp. in the s. phrase, cut quick sticks, to start or depart thus (cf. CUT ONE’S STICK): coll: from ca 1860. Occ. in quick sticks (Dublin Vniversity Magazine, April 1835). The first phrase and the last occur also in various diall.

quicker than hell would scorch a feather

. Promptly: sailing-ship officers’ c.p. ‘duly impressed on all youngsters’: mid-C.19–20; ob. Bowen. cf. an icicle’s chance in hades.

quicumque (loosely quicunque) vult

. A very compliant girl (sexually): 1785, Grose; †by 1850. Also an Athanasian wench. Ex quicumque vult salvus esse, whosoever will be saved, the opening words of the Athanasian Creed.

quid

*. A guinea: c.: 1688, Shadwell; †by 1800. Perhaps L. quid, what?, for ‘the wherewithal’: cf. QUIDS. Hence, 2, a sovereign, or the sum of twenty shillings: low: C.19–20. 3. A shilling, says Grose, 3rd ed., but this I believe to be an error. 4. As a pl=quids, sovereigns or £, as in Dickens, 1857, “‘Take yer two quid to one’”, adds the speaker picking out a stout farmer.’ 5. See QUIDS. 6. The female pudend: low: C.19–20; ob.

quid est hoc

‘?’ ‘hoc est quid.’ A late C.18– early 19 punning c.p. As H. explains, the question is asked by one tapping the bulging cheek of another, who, exhibiting a ‘chaw’ of tobacco, answers hoc est quid. Lit., ‘What is this? This is a quid [of tobacco].’

quid-box

. A snuff box: ?1790–1850. (Wm Maginn, Whitehall, 1827, at p. 53.)

quid-fishing

*. Expert thieving: c. (–1909). Ex QUID, 2.

quid to a bloater, (it's) a

. (It's) a certain bet: low urban (–1909); slightly ob.

quidding

, vbl n. The chewing of tobacco: Conway training ship (–1900).

quids

*. Money, or rather cash, in gen.: late C.17–20 (ob.): c. >, ca 1750, low s. Moore, 1819, 'If quids should be wanting, to make the match good'. Ex QUID, 1.

quids, tip the

*. To spend money: c.: late C.17–19. 2. To lend money: c.: mid-C. 18–mid-19. See QUIDS.

quien

. A dog: low (?orig. c.): mid-C.19–20; ob. Reade, 1861, "Curse these quiens," said he.' Origin obscure, but obviously cognate with L. canis, Fr. chien, a dog. Perhaps ex Northern Fr. dial.

quier

, see QUEER, adj., 1.

quiess kateer

? How are you: Regular Army (late C.19–20). Direct ex Arabic for ‘well, very’.

quiet, on the

. Quietly, unobtrusively, secretly: s. >, ca 1910, coll: 1860, H., 2nd ed. Whence Q.T., ON THE.

quiet as a wasp in one’s nose(, as)

. Uneasy, restless: coll: 1670, Ray; ob.

quiff

. ‘A satisfactory result: esp. an end obtained by means not strictly conventional’, F. & H.: low: from ca 1875; ob. Ex dial. quiff, a dodge or trick, a knack, a ‘wrinkle’. 2. Whence, ‘an idea, fancy, movement, suggestion’: Anglo-Indian (–1909). 3. As an oiled lock of hair plastered on forehead, the S.O.D. considers it S.E., W. as s., orig. East End of London. Perhaps ex It. cuffia; cognate with coif. F. & H., 1902 (first record), says ‘military’; Ware dates it at 1890.

quiff

, v.i. To copulate: C.18–20 (very ob.): low. D’Urfey, ‘By quiffing with Cullies, three Pound she had got’; Grose, 2nd ed., gives quiffing, copulation. Not in O.E.D.; origin problematic. 2. v.i., to do well; jog along nicely, merrily: from ca 1870. Prob. ex the dial. n. quiff (see QUIFF, n., 1); cf.:

quiff

, ad j. Smartly dressed (esp. for a particular occasion): military: from ca 1908. Ex the n., 1.

quiff in the press

. To move a breast pocket to the other side: tailors’: from ca 1870. cf. the Somersetshire dial. use (E.D. D.).

quiff the bladder

. To conceal baldness: low: from ca 1870. Lit., to coif the bladder-resembling head; more prob.—cf. QUIFF, n., 1—ex dial. quiff, a DODGE, a trick.

quiffing

, see QUIFF, v., 1.

quifs

. Manoeuvres: military: late C.19–20; virtually †. Ex QUIFF, n., 1 or 2.

quill

. To curry favour: Winchester College: C.19–20. Perhaps ex jump in quill, to act in harmony, and in a or the quill, in concert. cf. QUILLED.

quill, brother—knight—of the

, see BROTHER...and KNIGHT.

quill-driver

. Anybody on shipboard doing clerical work: nautical coll: late C. 19–20. Bowen. Ex S.E. sense.

quilled

, adj. Pleased: Winchester College: C.19–20. Prob. ex QUILL.

quiller

, occ. quilster. A toady: Winchester: C.19–20. Ex QUILL.

quim

. The female pudend: a vulg.: C.17–20. Variants, queme, quim-box, quimsby, quin, all † except the second, itself ob. Prob. ex Celtic cwm, a cleft, a valley. Hence such C.19–20 compounds as quim-bush, -whiskers, -wig, the female pubic hair; q.-stake or -wedge, the penis; q.-sticker, a whoremonger; q.-sticking or -wedging, and quimming, sexual intercourse.

quimsby, quin

, see QUIM.

quinsy, choked by a hempen

. Hanged: C.16–early 19.

quire

*, see QUEER, adj., 1.

quirken

*, see QUEER-KEN HALL.

quirklum

. A puzzle: Scots: late C.18–19. (‘A cant term’ in Jamieson=s.)

quis

? Who wants some?: Public-Schoolboys': mid-C.19–20. The answer is ego! Direct ex Latin.

quisby

. An idler: 1837 (O.E.D.). Desmond, Stage Struck, 'That old quisby has certainly contrived to slip out of the house.' ?ex QUIZ, an eccentric. See QUISBY, DO.

quisby

, adj. Bankrupt, 1853; out of sorts, 1854; queer, not quite right, 1887, Punch, 30 July, 'Arter this things appeared to go quisby.' ?ex QUIZ, an eccentric, or ex the n.

quisby, do

. To idle: 1851, Mayhew. Ob. See QUISBY, n.

quisi

. Low; obscene: Anglo-Chinese (–1864).

quitam

, see QUI TAM.

quite!; quite so

! Yes!; no doubt!; I agree: coll: from the mid-1890s. cf. Fr. parfaitement and our EXACTLY! and RATHER!

quite a bit

. Fairly often; a fair amount (n.), rather (adv.): coll: late C.19–20. ‘It hurts quite a bit.’

quite too nice

. Nice: female aesthetic Society: 1880s and 1890s.

quitsest

. A release, discharge: late C.16– early 17: prob. coll. Holinshed. ?ex quietus est.

quius kius

! Hush!; cease!: theatrical c.p. of ca 1880–1910. The kius reduplicates quius ex quietus.

quiz

. (Of arbitrary origin, perhaps on QUEER, adj.; cf. QUOZ.) An eccentric person: 1782, Mme D’Arblay: Oxford s. >, ca 1830, gen. coll and, ca 1860, S.E. 2. Hence, an odd-looking thing: coll: 1798, Jane Austen; ob. 3. A monocle: from ca 1810: coll. Abbr.

quizzing-glass, as in Thackeray, 1843, ‘The dandy not uncommonly finishes off with a hora quizzing-glass.’ Ob. Prob. ex sense 1.

quiz

*, v.i. and t. To watch; play the spy: c.: from ca 1890. Ex dial.

quockerwodger

. A politician acting under an outsider’s orders: political (–1859); †by 1887. Ex dial. quocker-wodger, a puppet on strings.

quod or quad

*. A prison: late C.17–20: c. until ca 1780, then low s. B.E.; Fielding; Tarras, Poems, 1804 (quad). Gen. in quod. Prob. ex quadrangle. cf.:

quod

*, v. To imprison: from ca 1810: c. >, ca 1840, low s. Vaux, Tom Taylor. Ex n.

quod-cove

*. A turnkey: c.: 1812, Vaux; †by 1910. Ex QUOD, n. cf.:

quod-cull

*. A prison warder: c.: C.18. C. Hitchin, The Regulator, 1718.

quodded

, adj. In prison: low: from ca 1820. Ex QUOD, imprison.

quodding dues are concerned

*. It is a case of imprisonment: c. (–1812); †by 1890.

quodger

; quodjer. By what law? : legal: 1864. Ex L. quo jure.

quoniam

. A drinking-cup of some kind: drinking s.: early C.17. Healy, 1609, ‘A Quoniam is a glasse...well knowne in Drink-allia.’ 2. The female pudend: low: C.17–18. ?a learned pun, suggested by QUIM, on L. quoniam, whereas (all males desire it).

quota

*. App. c. for a share (esp. of plunder): late C.17–early 18. cf. EARNEST.

quote

. A quotation, 1885. 2. A quotation-mark, 1888. Literary, publishing, and printing coll >, ca 1910, S.E., but certainly not dignified S.E.

quoz

. An odd or absurd person or thing: coll: ca 1790–1810. Also, as in Mme D’-Arblay, as a plural. A jocular perversion of QUIZ, n., 1. 2. As an ejaculation or a retort, indeed a monosyllabic c.p.: same period. This word is the subject of an entire song in The New Vocal Enchantress (a song-book), 1791, at pp. 32–4. Also occ. as diminutive quozzy.

quyer

*, see QUEER, adj., 1. (A variant spelling of quire.)

R

r.i.p. (or R.I.P.), let him, her, it

, etc. Let him, her, etc., rip; i.e. don't bother about him, her, etc.: late C.19–20. Ex the abbr. of requiescat in pace, on tombstones. cf. RIP!, LET HER.

R.M.D.

(separately articulated). Immediate payment: (unexalted) financial coll: late C.19–20. Ex ready money down.

R.O.

, see RELIEVING OFFICER.

rabbit

. A new-born babe, mostly in rabbit-catcher, a midwife: low: ca 1780–1850. Grose, 1785. 2. Political (ob.) as in report of the House of Commons Election Commission, 1866, 'Out of £50...he had paid a number of rooks and rabbits.... In general...the rabbits were to work in the burrow and the rooks to make a noise at the public meetings.' 3. 'A rabbit, as a horse that runs "in and out" is sometimes called', 1882, The Standard, 3 Sept.: racing. 4. See BUNNY, 2.

rabbit

, v. In imprecations, it=confound, as in Fielding's "Rabbit the fellow!" cries he,' 1742, and Smollett's 'Rabbit it! I have forgot the degree,' in the same decade. cf. DRABBIT! (–1787), and od(d) rabbit. The O.E.D. considers rabbit an alteration of rat in od rat, DRAT; F. & H.'s rot it won't 'fit'.

rabbit or rabbits, buy the

. To have the worst of a bargain; to be a dupe: orig. (1825), U.S.; anglicized ca 1850; very ob. cf. the C.16 proverb, who will change a rabbit for a rat?

rabbit, fat and lean like a

. A mid-C.17– early 19 coll. Ray, 1678; explained in Swift's Polite Conversation, Dialogue I: 'I am like a Rabbit, fat and lean in Four-and-twenty Hours,' a rabbit responding very promptly to food.

rabbit, live

. The male member: low: C.19–20; ob. Whence skin the live rabbit or have a bit of rabbit-pie, to coït: cf. RABBIT—PIE. cf. dial. rabbit, 'to coït'—as in John Masefield, Reynard the Fox, 1919, "I'll larn 'ee rabbit in my shed!"

rabbit-catcher

, see RABBIT, n., 1.

rabbit-hunting—or (a) coney-catching— with a dead ferret, go

. To undertake something with unsuitable or useless means: coll: ca 1670–1820. Ray; Fuller, 1732.

rabbit-pie

. A harlot: low: mid-C.19–20; ob. Ex RABBIT, LIVE, q.v. also for phrase.

rabbit-pie shifter

. A policeman: low London: ca 1870–1920. Barrère & Leland quote a music-hall song of ca 1870, ‘Never to take notice of vulgar nicknames, such as “slop”, “copper”, “rabbit-pie shifter”, “peeler”.’ He tells harlots to ‘move along’.

rabbit-pulling

. A variant of BABY-PULLING; cf. rabbit-catcher at RABBIT, 1.

rabbit-skin; OCC. cat-skin

. An academical hood: university: from ca 1850; ob. cf.:

rabbit-skin, get one's

. To obtain the B.A. degree: university: from ca 1850; ob. Ex preceding; the trimming is of rabbit's fur.

rabbit-sucker

*. A young spendthrift 'taking up Goods upon Tick at excessive rates', B.E.: c. of C.17–early 19. Dekker. Prob. ex Shakespearian sense, 'baby' rabbits. cf. PURSENETS. 2. Also, a pawn-broker; a tally-man: c. or low s.: ca 1720–60.

rabbiter

. A side-handed blow on the nape of the neck: Winchester College: from ca 1875. As in killing a rabbit. 2. In pl, a form of punishment: Charterhouse: C.19. A.H.Tod, Charterhouse, 1900.

rabbits

! see WHITE RABBITS!

rabsha(c)kle

. A profligate: coll: ?C.17–18. F. & H.: but who else? cf. S.E. ramshackle.

Rachel or rachel

, v. To rejuvenate; renovate: ca 1890–5. Ex Madame Rachel, the ‘beautiful for ever’ swindler. (The C.20 is kinder to such impositions.)

rack

. A bone, gen. in pl: slaughterers’ coll >, ca 1890, j.: 1851, Mayhew. 2. A rib of mutton: Winchester School coll (–1870). Ex S.E., a neck of mutton.

rack off

. To make water: low coll: late C. 19–20; ob. Ex wine-making.

rack-rider

. The samlet: Northern fishermen’s coll: late C.19–20. Because gen. it appears in bad weather.

rackaback

. A GORMAGON: ca 1785–1850.

rackabimus

. ‘A sudden or unexpected stroke or fall’, Jamieson, who adds that ‘It resembles racket’: Scots: late C.18–19.

racket

*. A DODGE, trick; plan; line, occupation, esp. if these are criminal or SHADY: c. (–1812) >, ca 1860, low s. Ex racket, noise, disturbance. 2. Esp. as in be in a racket, be privy to an illicit design, and as set forth in Egan’s Groser, 1823, ‘Some particular kinds of fraud and robbery are so termed, when called by their flash’—i.e. underworld—‘names; as the Letter-racket; the Order-racket... In fact, any game’—i.e. illicit occupation or trick—‘may be termed a racket...by prefixing thereto the particular branch of depredation or fraud in question.’ Whence the various U.S. ‘rackets’: see esp. Irwin. cf. RACKET-MAN.

racket, stand the

*. To take the blame for one’s gang: c. (–1823) >, by 1850, s. >, by 1900, coll. 2. Hence, to pay the bill, stand the expense: since ca 1830: s.

racket-man

*. A thief: c.: from ca 1850; ob. Mayhew. Ex RACKET, 2.

racket(t)y

. (Of places) low, SHADY: Cockney: ca 1840–90. Mayhew, I, 1851. Ex RACKET, 1.

raclan

*. A married woman: tramps' c.: from ca 1830. cf. Romany rakli, a girl.

rad

. A Radical: political s., in C.20 coll: 1831, Lincoln Herald, 7 Jan. Disraeli in Coningsby, 'They say the Rads are going to throw us over.' 2. A radiator: servants': from ca 1905.

raddled

. Tipsy: late C.17–18. Motteux. cf. dial. raddle, to do anything to excess; but more prob. ex raddle, to colour coarsely with red.

radical

; Hunt's breakfast powder. Roasted corn: ca 1820–60. Sinks, 1848. Prob. at first radical Hunt's..., then divided into a pair of synonyms. This was 'Orator' Hunt the Radical's favourite breakfast dish.

rafe or Ralph

. A pawn-ticket: low; esp. at Norwich: from ca 1860; ob.

raffle-coffin

. A ruffian, lit. a resurrectionist: C.19 lowcoll. Corruption of rifle(-coffin).

raffs

. 'An appellation given by the gownsmen of the university of Oxford to the inhabitants of that place', Grose, 1785: coll: ca 1780–1920. cf. riff-raff.

rag

. A farthing: c.: ca 1690–1850. Because of so little value. 2. A bank-note: 1811, Lex. Bal., which proves that rag also= bank-notes collectively. 3. Hence, money in gen.: from ca 1810. 4. A flag: from ca 1700: coll till C.20, then S.E. Kipling, 1892. cf. RAG, ORDER OF THE. 5. The curtain: theatrical and showmen's: from ca 1875. 6. Hence, a dénouement, a 'curtain': id.: from ca 1880. 7. A street tumbler: circus: 1875, The Athenaeum, 24 April. 8. See RAG, ORDER OF THE. 9. The tongue: from ca 1825. Ex RAG, RED. 10. Talk; banter, abuse: from ca 1880. Gen. ragging. cf.: 11. A jollification, esp. and orig. an undergraduates' display of noisy, disorderly conduct and great high spirits, considered by the perpetrators as excellent fun and by many outsiders as 'a bloody nuisance': university >, ca 1910, very common in the Army and Navy; 1892, Isis, 'The College is preparing for a good old rag tonight'; Daily Mail, 10 March 1900, 'There was keen excitement at Cambridge yesterday when the magistrates proceeded to deal with the last two prosecutions of students arising out of the notorious rag in celebration of the relief of Ladysmith'; but in existence from ca 1860 (O.E.D. Sup.). Ex the S.E. v., to annoy, tease. 12. See RAG, THE. 13. See RAGS.

rag

, v.t. and i. To question vigorously or jocularly; waylay, or assail, roughly and noisily; Sessions, June 1739 (trial of Samuel Bird and Suzannah Clark), 'On Monday night Bird and Clark came to their House to ragg (scold) her Grandfather for what he had talk'd of concerning them.' 2. To create a disturbance, hold a 'rag' (see n., 11): university: Isis, 1896, ‘The difficulty of “ragging” with impunity has long been felt’; but implied by Baumann in 1887 and, in the first nuance, recorded by O.E.D. (Sup.) for 1891. Perhaps abbr. of bully-rag. Origin: see RAG, n., 11. 3. Hence, to wreck, make a mess of, by way of a rag: Public Schools’: 1904, P.G.Wodehouse, The Gold Bat, ‘Mills is awfully barred in Seymour’s. Anybody might have ragged his study.’ In c. (mainly of Norwich) to divide (esp. plunder): 1860, H., 2nd ed. Prob. ex, or at the least cognate with, the †S.E. sense, to tear in pieces. Also go rags.

rag, chew the

. To scold, complain; sulk or brood: low and military, 1888. Ex RAG, n., 9, tongue.

rag, dish of red

. Abuse: low: from ca 1820; ob. Egan, Anecdotes of the Turf, ‘She tipped the party such a dish of red rag as almost to create a riot in the street.’ See RAG, RED.

rag, have two shirts and a

. To be comfortably off: coll: ca 1670–1800. Ray.

rag, order of the

. (Preceded by the.) The military profession: coll: 1751, Fielding; slightly ob. See RAG, n., 4.

rag, red

. (Also RED FLANNEL.) The tongue: low: late C.17–20; slightly ob. B.E., Grose, Combe, Bruton (1826, ‘Say ...why that red rag...is now so mute’), W.S.Gilbert, 1876. See RAG, n., 9.

Rag, the

. (Also the rag). The regimental brothel: Indian Army (non-officers’): from ca 1880.

rag, too much red

. Loquacious: low: from ca 1840. See RAG, RED.

rag, win the shiny

*, see SHINE-RAG...

rag, without a

; not a rag (left). Penniless: coll: late C.16–20; ob. Shakespeare, ‘Not a rag of money’, though here rag rather= scrap.

rag a holiday, give the red

. To be silent: low: from ca 1850; ob. See RAG, n., 9.

rag-(and-bone-)shop

. A very dirty and untidy room: coll: from ca 1880; ob.

rag-and-snatcher man

. A rag-and-bones man: chimney-sweeps': C.19. (George Elson, 1900.) Here, snatcher apparently= a bone; if so, it probably comes ex dogs snatching bones.

rag-bag or -doll

. A slattern: coll: from ca 1862.

rag-box or -shop

. The mouth: low: from ca 1890. Kipling, 1892, 'You shut up your rag-box and 'ark to my lay.'

rag-carrier

. An ensign: 1785, Grose; †by 1890. Ex RAG, n., 4.

rag-fair

. An inspection of soldiers' kitbags, etc.: 1785, Grose: military. Ex the S.E. sense, an old-clothes market at Houndsditch, London: which, contrary to F. & H., is certainly S.E.

rag-gorger or gorgy

, see RAG-SPLAWGER.

rag-mannered

. Violently coarse or vulgar; coll: C.19–20; ob.

rag money

. Bank notes, bills of exchange, etc.: from ca 1860; coll till C.20, then S.E.

rag on every bush,—(oh,) he has a

. He is, or is in the habit of, paying marked attention to more than one girl at a time: from ca 1860; ob.

rag out

, v.i. To show the white flag or feather: ca 1880–1910.

rag out, get one's

. To bluster (ob.); to grow angry; low: from ca 1880. Explained by the synonymous get one's SHIRT OUT, and by RAG, n., 9.

rag-sauce

. Chatter; impudence: low: from ca 1840. Ex RAG, n., 9.

rag-seeker

*, see RAG-SOOKER.

rag-shop

. See RAG-BOX. 2. See RAG(-AND-BONE) SHOP. 3. A bank: c. or low s.: 1860, H., 2nd ed.; ob. See RAG, n., 2.

rag-shop boss or cove

. A banker: from ca 1865; ob. 2. See:

rag-shop cove

. A cashier: low: from ca 1865. 2. See preceding entry.

rag-sooker

*, occ. -seeker. c. as in Anon.'s The Tramp Exposed, 1878, 'The ragsooker, an instrument attached to the end of a long pole for removing clothes-pins from the lines, and afterwards dragging the released clothes over the fence'. cf. ANGLER.

rag-splawger

. A rich man: low (if not orig. c.): ca 1858–1900. Gen. ‘used in conversation to avoid direct mention of names’. Also rag-gorger or (Vaux) gorgy: low (perhaps orig. c.): ca 1820–1900. See GORGER.

rag-stabber

. A tailor: from ca 1870; ob. Also STAB-RAG. cf. SNIP.

rag-stick

. An umbrella, esp. if loose and unreefed: lower classes’ (–1909).

rag-tacker

. A coach-trimmer: ca 1820–70. 2. A dressmaker: ca 1850–1920.

rag-tailed

. Tattered; of, or like, a raga-muffin: coll (–1887).

rag-time

, adj. Merry: coll: from 1901 or 1902.

rag-trade

. The purchasing of false bank-notes, which are then palmed off on strangers: 1843, Marryat: mostly U.S.; ob. 2. Tailoring; dress-making; the dry-goods trade in gen.: from ca 1880: coll.

rag-water

. Any inferior spirits: late C.17– early 19. 2. Esp. gin: ca 1780–1850. Grose, 2nd ed., ‘These liquors seldom failing to reduce those that drink [such spirits] to rags’: which is not an etymology but a pun.

rage, the

. The fashion or vogue: 1785, The New Rosciad, ‘’Tis the rage in this great raging Nation,|Who wou’d live and not be in the fashion?’ Coll till ca 1850, then S.E. cf. GO, n., 3.

rager

. An old, fierce ‘ bullock or cow that always begins to rage in the stock-yard’, Morris: Australian coll: 1884, ‘Rolf Boldrewood’.

ragged

. Collapsed: rowing s., says F. & H., 1902. 2. Inferior, wretched (game, form, display): coll (–1887). 3. (Of time, a period) wretched, unfortunate, ill-starred: coll (–1887). Baumann, ‘A ragged week’. 4. Unwell; tired and unwell: Australian coll: late C.19–20.

ragged-arse

, adj. Tattered; fig., disreputable, ruined: a vulg.: from ca 1880.

ragged robin

. A keeper's follower: New Forest s. or dial.: from ca 1860. (Rare in singular.)

ragged soph

, see SOPH.

raggery

. Clothes, esp. women's: coll bordering on S.E.: very ob. Thackeray, 1855, 'Old hags...draped in majestic raggery'. cf. Fr. chiffons.

raggie, raggy

. A particular friend (ex the sharing of brass-cleaning rags: Bowen); but gen. in pl, as be raggies, to be steady chums: naval (–1909). Ware implies that it is mildly pejorative.

raggy,

adj. Annoyed, SHIRTY: 1900, G. Swift. EX RAG OUT, GET ONE'S.

raging favourite

. A coll variant (–1887) of a hot favourite.

rags

. See RAG, n., 3. 2. rags, go. See RAG, v., c. sense. 3. Old lace used for decorative purposes: art s. verging on coll and j.: from ca 1880; ob. Ware. 4. A steward in charge of the linen: nautical: late C.19–20.

rags, flash one's

. To display, gen. ostentatiously, one's bank notes: low (?orig. c.): from ca 1860.

rags, in the

. In trouble or disgrace; in a dispute: tailors': from ca 1860.

rags (on), have the

. To be having one's period: women's low coll: from ca 1860.

rags a gallop, tip one's

. To move; depart, esp. if hastily: low: 1870, Hazlewood & Williams, in Leave It to Me, 'I see; told you to tip your rags a gallop, and you won't go.' Here tip=give.

rags and jags

. Tatters: coll: from ca 1860; very ob.

rags and sticks

. A travelling outfit: showmen's and low theatrical: from ca 1870. Hindley, 1876, 'Rags and sticks, as a theatrical booth is always termed'.

rail-bird

. A tout watcher of race-horses being exercised: sporting, esp. turf: from ca 1890; slightly ob. Ex his vantage-point on gate or hurdle.

railings, count the

. To go hungry: low: from ca 1860; slightly ob. See also SPITALFIELD(S) BREAKFAST.

rails

, see HEAD-RAILS.

rails, dish of

. ‘A lecture, jobation, or scolding from a married woman to her husband’, Grose, 1st ed. (where misplaced); late C.18–mid-19.

rails, front

. The teeth: low: C.19–20; slightly ob. Also HEAD-RAILS.

rails, off the

. Not in normal or proper state or condition; morally or mentally astray: 1859, Gen. P.Thomson: coll.

railways

. Red stockings worn by women: railwaymen’s (—1909). Ex red signal.

rain, (know enough to) get out of the

. To (be shrewd enough to) look after oneself, e.g. to refrain from meddling: to be common-sensical: coll: 1848, Durivage, ‘Ham was one of ’em—he was. He knew sufficient to get out of the rain’; but anticipated by H.Buttes in 1599: ‘Fooles...have the wit to keep themselves out of the raine.’ In Australia, to keep out of the rain.

rain, right as

, see RIGHT AS...

rain-napper

. An umbrella: low: ca 1820–1910.

rainbow

. A discoloured bruise: from ca 1810; ob. An excellent example of what G.K.Chesterton well names the poetry of slang. 2. A mistress: ca 1820–70. Egan, Life in London, 1821, ‘The pink of the ton and his rainbow’. Because dressed in a variety of colours. 3. A footman: from ca 1820; very ob. Egan, ibid., ‘It was the custom of Logic never to permit the Rainbow to announce him.’ Abbr. RAINBOW, KNIGHT OF THE. 4. A pattern-book; ca 1820–60. Egan, ibid. Ex the variety of colours. 5. A sovereign: costers’: from ca 1850; ob. Perhaps suggested by RHINO, for rainbow is in Costerese pronounced rinebo; perhaps, however, ex rainbow as a sign of better weather—as a sovereign is of better times. 6. A gay young spark: ca 1835–70. Sinks, 1848.

rainbow, knight of the

. A footman in livery. Grose, 1785. See KNIGHT.

rains, the

. The rainy season: Anglo-Indian coll (in C.20, S.E.): 1616, Sir T. Roe.

raise

. A rise in salary: coll: late C.19–20. Ex U.S. sense, an(y) improvement (1728: O.E.D. Sup.).

raise a barney

, see RISE A BARNEY. raise Cain, see CAIN.

raise-mountain

. A boaster: coll: ?C.17–18.

raise the colour

. To find gold: Australian coll: mid-C.19–20.

rake

. A comb: jocular: from ca 1860. Also, garden-rake and, ca 1840–60, raker: low.

rake it in

. To make money fast: coll: late C.19–20. ‘He’s simply raking it in!’

rake-jakes

. A blackguard: C.18–20; ob. Rhyming on JAKES. cf. S.E. rake-kennel.

rake-out

. A fill of tobacco: Cockney: from ca 1890; very ob.

rake out

. To coït with (a woman): low: C. 19–20.

rake the pot

. To take the stakes: racing: from ca 1825. See POT, n., 1.

raked fore and aft

. Desperately in love: naval: late C.19–20. Ex damage done by well-directed shelling.

raker

. A very fast pace: coll: 1876 (S.O. D.). Perhaps ex rake, (of hunting dog) to run head down. 2. A heavy bet: sporting: 1869, Bradwood, The O.V.H.; 1884, Hawley Smart, in From Post to Finish; 1891, Sportsman, 25 March, ‘Jennings... stood to win a raker...over Lord George.' Esp. in go a raker (cf. sense 1), to bet heavily or, more gen., recklessly (1869). 3. See RAKE, n. 4. A good stroke: golfers' coll: 1899.

rakes, carry heavy

. To swagger; put on SIDE: C.17 coll. Terence in English, 1614.

ral, the

. The admiral: naval (–1909).

ralizo

, see RARZO.

rally-o(h)

! Proceed vigorously: Conway cadets' c.p. of encouragement (–1891).

Ralph, ralph

. See RAFE . 2. In printers' s., from ca 1810, 'The supposed author of the tricks played upon a recalcitrant member of a chapel', F. & H.

Ralph Spooner

. A fool: coll: late C.17– early 19. In Suffolk dial., Ralph or Rafe means the same thing (E.D.D.).

ram

. An act of coition: low: C.19–20. cf. S.E. ram-rod, the penis. Ex v., 1. 2. A crowd; a crush: Shrewsbury School: from ca 1880. Ex the force of a battering ram. cf. v.t., 2.

ram

. To coït with (a woman): low: C.19–20. cf. POKE; RIDE. 2. v.t., to get (a boy) off a punishment: Shrewsbury School: from ca 1880.

ram and dam(n)

. A muzzle-loading gun: jocular coll: 1866; ob.

ram booze

, see RUM BOOZE.

ram-cat

*; ram-cat cove. A man wearing furs: c.: from ca 1860. Ex ram-cat, a he cat.

ram-jam

. A surfeit: s. and dial.: from ca 1885. EX RAM-JAM FULL.

ram-jam

, v. To stuff (esp. with food): from ca 1885. Ex:

ram-jam full

. Packed absolutely full: dial. and (mostly U.S.) s.: 1879, Waugh.

ram-reel

. A dance, men only: Scots coll (in C.20, S.E.): C.19–20. D.Anderson, 1813, ‘The chairs they coup, they hurl an’ loup,|A ram-reel now they’re wantin’’. cf. BULL-DANCE; STAG-PARTY.

ram-rod

. A ball bowled along the ground: Winchester School: from ca 1840. (Also raymonder.) Mansfield. Ex the straightness of its ‘flight’. 2. The penis: low: mid-C.19–20.

ram-skin

(or one word). A bailiff: Anglo-Irish: C.19. ‘A Real Paddy’, Real Life in Ireland, 1822, ‘He would take even a mat made of a ram’s fell.’

ram-struck mutton

. ‘Tough meat from old ewes past breeding’ (Baker): Australian: late C.–1920.

Ramasammy or r

. A Hindu: Southern India. An Indian coolie in Ceylon: Ceylon. This coll (–1828) is a corruption of Ramaswami, a frequent Hindu surname in Southern India.

rambler

. A whore: C.17. In, e.g., The English Rogue.

rambounge

. ‘A severe brush of labour’, Jamieson: Scots: late C.18–mid-19. This ram is the dial. prefix=strong; very. cf.:

rambustious, ramgumption

. See RUMBUSTIOUS, RUMGUMPTION. (cf. U.S. rambunctious, 1854.)

ramfeezled

. Exhausted, worn out: mostly dial., whence, ca 1890–1910, coll.

ramjollock

. To shuffle (cards): C.19. ?lit., jumble well. Also late C.19–20 Shropshire dial.

rammaged

. Tipsy: Scots coll or, more prob., dial.: late C.18–20. Ex ramished.

rammer

*. An arm: c.: late C.18–20; ob. 2. The leg: pugilistic: ca 1840–80. Augustus Mayhew, Paved With Gold, 1857, ‘Jack got a “cracker on his nut” which knocked his “rammers” from under him.’ Cracker, as ‘a heavy punch’, occurs earlier—in, e.g., Boxiana, IV, 1824. 3. The penis: low: mid-C.19–20.

ramming

. Forceful, pushing: 1825, Sporting Magazine, ‘The most ramming... cove you ever saw perform’; ob. by 1900. Ex ram, the animal.

rammo

. The former naval evolution, ‘Prepare aloft for action’: bluejackets’: late C.18–mid-19. Bowen. Ex ramming a ship.

ramp

*. A robbery with violence: c.: Vaux, 1812; ob. Moncrieff, 1830, ‘And ramp so plummy’. Ex ramp, to storm, rage, violently, or v.t., to snatch, tear. 2. A swindle: c. >, by 1905, s.: from ca 1880. G.R.Sims. 3. A footpad and garrotter: c.: from ca 1870; ob. cf. RAMPER. 4. A race-course trickster: c.: from ca 1860. Also, rampsman (H., 1st ed., 1859) and ramper, as in H., 5th ed., 1874, and in Runciman’s Chequers, 1876, ‘A man who is a racecourse thief and ramper hailed me affably’: cf. the quotation at RAMPER. 5. A hallmark: c.: 1879, Horsley. Ex the rampant lion forming part of the assay stamp for gold and silver.

ramp

*, v.t. To thief or rob with violence: c. (–1811) >, ca 1860, low s. See the n., 1, for origin. cf. RANK; RANT. 2. Esp. to force (a person) to pay an alleged debt: c.: 1897, Daily News, 3 Sept., ‘Charge of “ramping” a book-maker’; but it must be at least as early as the horse-racing sense of RAMPER (see the n., 4).

ramp, on the

*. Engaged in swindling: c: late C.19–20.

rampage, on the

. Storming about: coll: 1860, Dickens, Great Expectations.

ramper

* and rampsman. See RAMP, n., 4. cf. Daily News, 12 Oct. 1887, ““Rampers”, i.e. men who claimed to have made bets to bookmakers, and hustled and surrounded them if they refused to pay’. cf. RAMPING. 2. (ramper only.) A noisy, turbulent street-ranger, esp. if a youth: low London (–1909); ob.

ramping

*. The practice described in sense 1 of preceding entry: c. (–1891) >, by 1905, s. 2. ‘Calling at houses where parcels [have] just been delivered from tradesmen to customers, and obtaining possession of them under various pretences’: c.: from ca 1870.

ramping

, adj. and adv. Rampant(ly): lower classes’ coll (–1887). Baumann has ramping mad.

ramps, the

. A brothel: Regular Army: late C.19–20. Perhaps ex rampant or on the RAMPAGE.

rampsman

*, see RAMPER. ramrod, see RAM-ROD.

ran-cat cove

, see RAM-CAT. ran-tan, on the, see RANTAN.

Randal's-man or randlesman

. A green handkerchief white-spotted: pugilistic (–1839); ob. Ex the colours of Jack Randal, the famous early C.19 boxer.

randan

, see RANTAN.

randem-(or random-)tandem

. Three horses driven tandem: from ca 1870: coll >, ca 1890, S.E.; ob. Ex: 2. adv. In that manner in which three horses are harnessed tandem: 1805: coll >, by 1870, S.E. Ex S.E. randan on tandem. Also, as in H., 1860, random.

randle

. ‘A set of nonsense verses, repeated in Ireland by school boys, and young people, who have been guilty of breaking wind backwards, before any of their companions; if they neglect this apology, they are liable to certain kicks, pinches, and fillips, which are accompanied with diverse admonitory couplets,’ Grose, 1785; ob. by 1880. Whence:

randle

, v. To punish (a schoolboy) for breaking wind: C.19. Halliwell. Ex preceding. 2. See RANDLING which is much commoner than the v. proper.

randlesman

, see RANDAL'S-MAN.

randling

. The punishment, by hair-pulling, of an apprentice refusing to join his fellows in taking a holiday: mostly at Birkenhead: 1879, Notes and Queries. Ob.

random

, see RANDEM-TANDEM.

randy

. Violent; esp. sexually warm, lecherous: from ca 1780: dial. and coll; in C.20, mainly dial. Burns, 1785; Lex. Bal., 1811; Halliwell, 1847; E.D.D. ?ex rand, to rave, perhaps †Hindustani randi-baz, a lecher.

randy beggar

. A Gypsy tinker: Northern coll (–1874) and dial. (–1806). Ex preceding.

randyvoo

. A tavern that is the resort of recruiting sergeants: military (–1909). 2. Hence, noise and wrangling: mostly military (–1909). Ex rendez-vous.

ranger

. The penis: low: C.18–20. Ex range, to be inconstant. 2. See ATLANTIC RANGER.

rank

*. To cheat: c. and low s. (–1864). Prob. ramp corrupted, with some influence exercised by U.S. outrank, 1842, and rank, 1860, to take precedence of. cf. RANT.

rank and riches

; or hyphenated. Breeches: rhyming s.: 1887, ‘Dagonet’ Sims.

rank and smell

. A common person: lower classes’: ca 1870–1905. Punning rank, smelly and (high) rank + SWELL.

rank outsider

. A vulgar fellow, a cad: from ca 1880; coll >, 1910, S.E. Ex the turf.

ranker

. An officer risen from the ranks: 1874, H., 5th ed.; 1878, Besant & Rice, 'Every regiment has its rankers; every ranker his story': coll. 2. A corruption of rank DUFFER: low London: from ca 1870; ob. 3. See GENTLEMAN RANKER.

rant

. To appropriate forcibly: low (–1887). Walford's Antiquarian. Corruption of RAMP, v. 2. To be unduly free with (females): low (–1887). Ibid. Perhaps ex RAMP, v., 1, influenced by S.E. rantipole, v.; more prob. a dial. form of rend.

rantallion

. 'One whose scrotum is so relaxed as to be longer than his penis', Grose, 1st ed.: low: ca 1780–1850. Cognate with, perhaps even a blend of, 'rantipole' and 'rapscallion', so closely related to each other in meaning.

rantan; ran-tan

; also randan. A spree: from ca 1710; coll >, in C.19, S.E. except as in the next entry; by itself, randan (etc.) is extremely ob. ?ex at random. 2. Hence, a riotous person: coll soon > S.E.: 1809; ob. by 1890.

rantan, on the

. On the spree; drunk: coll: from ca 1760; slightly ob.; since 1853, gen. in the form, on the ran-tan. See preceding.

rantipole, ride

. Same as ride St George (see RIDING...). Low: late C.18–19.

rantum-scantum

. Copulation, esp. in play at r.-s.: low: mid-C.18–early 19. ?a rhyming combination ex †S.E. rant, to be boisterous or noisily gay; cognate with rantipole. 2. A wordy and mutual recrimination: low: ca 1820–95.

Ranzo

. ‘A native of the Azores, from the number named Alonzo who shipped in the whalers, where “Rueben [sic] Ranzo” was a favourite shanty’: nautical coll: mid-C.19–20. Bowen.

rap

, v.t. To barter; SWAP: late C.17–20: s. (†by 1850) and dial. Perhaps ex ob. S.E. sense, to transport, remove. 2. v.i., to take a false oath: c.: from ca 1740; †by 1890. Fielding, in Jonathan Wild, ‘He [is] a pitiful fellow who would stick at a little rapping for a friend’; id., Amelia, I, ch. X, the footnote establishing the c. origin. Perhaps ex rap (out) an oath. 3. Also, v.t., to swear (something, against a person): 1733, Budgell, ‘He ask’d me what they had to rap against me, I told him only a Tankard.’ 4. To knock out; to kill: c., esp. Australian > low s.: 1888, Rolf Boldrewood, ‘If he tries to draw a weapon, or move ever so little, he’s rapped at that second’; ob. Ex Scots rap, ‘to knock heavily; to strike’.

rap, not care a

. To care not at all: 1834: coll >, ca 1850, S.E. Ex rap, an Irish counterfeit halfpenny.

rap, on the

. On a bout of dissipation; slightly drunk: low (–1893). Milliken, ‘The way the passengers stared at me showed I was fair on the rap.’

rape

. A pear: back s. (–1859).

rapless

. Penniless: coll: from ca 1880: very ob. Binstead.

rapped

, ppl adj. Ruined: from ca 1870; ob. 2. (Killed) dead: low (?orig. c.): from ca 1888. See RAP, v., last sense.

rapper

. An arrant lie: S.E., declares O.E.D.; coll, F. & H. Arising early in C.17, this sense is prob. best considered as coll until ca 1850, then S.E.; in C.20, it is mostly dial. See esp.

Grose, P. 2. A dealer who raps at doors to find out whether there is anything worth buying; secondhand (e.g. curio) dealers' coll: late C.19–20.

rapping

. Perjury: mid-C.18–19. See RAP, v., 2 and 3.

rare

. Excellent, fine, splendid, as applied to comparatively trivial objects; often ironically. Coll: 1596, Shakespeare, 'Master Bassanio, who indeed gives rare new liveries'; 1878, Mrs Henry Wood, 'Guy will about die of it...Rare fun if he does.' 2. As an intensive: coll: 1833, Harriet Martineau, 'They put me in a rare passion.'

rare and (another adj.). A coll intensive: 1848, Mrs Gaskell, 'We got a good supper, and grew rare and sleepy'; slightly ob. except in Northern dial.

rarzo (or rahzo)

. A red-nosed man: Cockney: late C.19–20. 'Whatcher, rarzo!' Ex raspberry colour, whence also RAZZO.

rascal

. 'A man without genitals', Grose, 1785: low: ca 1750–1850. Ex deer.

rasher of bacon

. Some fiery liquor: ca 1750–70. Toldervy, 1756. See quotation at SLUG, n., 1.

rasher of wind

. A very thin person: from ca 1860; slightly ob. cf. YARD OF PUMP-WATER. 2. Any person or thing of negligible account: from ca 1890. Daily Telegraph, 7 April 1899, ‘Lets ’em howl, an’ sweat, an’ die, an’ goes on all the time, as if they was jest rashers o’ wind.’

rasp

. The female pudend: low: C.19–20; ob. 2. See RASP, DO A.

rasp

, v.i. and t. To coït (with): low: C.19–20; ob. Rare compared with:

rasp, do a

. To coït: low: C.19–20. Gen. of the male: for semantics, see PUCKER-WATER, which not only astringes but roughens and hardens.

raspberry

. A disapproving, fart-like noise, described by F. & H. as stable s., but gen. considered to be theatrical of late C.19–20. Ex RASPBERRY-TART, 1. 2. Hence, a gesture or a sign made in disapproval: theatrical: from the middle 1890s. 3. Abbr. RASPBERRY-TART, 2: low, mainly military: late C.19–20.

raspberry, get or give the

. To ‘get the bird’ (see BIRD, n., 2), to be hissed; to hiss: theatrical: late C.19–20. Mainly and properly when the disapprobation is shown by a RASPBERRY, 1.

raspberry-tart

. A breaking of wind: low rhyming s. on FART: from ca 1875. 2. The heart: rhyming s.: from ca 1890. ‘Pomes’ Marshall, in the Sporting Times, 29 Oct. 1892, ‘Then I sallied forth with a careless air,|And contented raspberry-tart.’ (In U.S., though now ob., a dainty girl: cf. Eng. JAM-TART, 2.)

rasper

. A difficult high fence: hunting s. (1812) >, ca 1840, j. >, ca 1870, S.E. Ainsworth, 1834, ‘A stiff fence, captain—a reg’lar rasper’. 2. A person or thing of sharp, harsh, or unpleasant character: 1839, Dickens, ‘He’s what you may a-call a rasper, is Nickleby.’ 3. Anything that, in its own way, is extraordinary; e.g. a large profit on the Stock Exchange: from ca 1860.

raspin, the

*. A house of correction; a gaol: c.: early C.19. ?lit., the unpleasant thing, perhaps a pun on grating, adj., and gratings, n. cf. the †Scots rasp-house, as in Scott, 1818.

rasping

. (High and) difficult to jump: 1829: hunting coll >, ca 1870, S.E. Dr J. Brown, 1858, ‘You cannot...make him keep his seat over a rasping fence.’ See RASPER, 1.

rasping gang

*. ‘The mob of roughs and thieves who attend prize-fights’, H., 1864: c.; ob.

rat

*. A drunken person taken into custody: c.: late C.17–early 19. ?ex idea of a drowned rat or, more prob., ex drunk as a RAT. 2. A clergyman: C.17. ‘Microcosmography’ Earle, ‘A profane man... nicknames clergyman...rat, black-coat, and the like.’ Prob. current also in C.18, since Grose puns thus: ‘Rats. Of these there are the following kinds: a black rat and a grey rat, a py-rat and a cu-rat,’ esp. as, in C.17–early 18, rat occ. designated a pirate. 3. A police spy: c.: from ca 1850. Ex the gen. term of contempt. 4. An infernal machine for the foundering of insured bottoms: nautical coll (from ca 1880) > j. 5. See RATS and RATS! 6. In Australia, a street urchin; a wharf labourer: C.J. Dennis: late C.19–20.

rat!, rat it! or rat me

! A low coll imprecation: late C.17–20; ob. Vanbrugh, Hoadly, Thackeray, Conan Doyle. Ex rot. cf. DRAT!

rat, do a

. To change one's tactics: coll: from ca 1860. Ex S.E. rat, to desert.

rat, drunk as a

. Hopelessly tipsy: coll: mid-C.16–17. Boorde, 1542.

rat, smell a

, see SMELL A RAT.

rat and mouse

. A house: rhyming s.: late C.19–20.

rat back-clip

. Short hair: lower classes': ca 1856–1900.

rat-castle

. A prison: s.: Ned Ward, 1703. Rats both lit. and fig. abound there.

rat-firm, -house, -office, -shop

. A workshop, etc., where less than full union rates are paid: trade unions' coll (–1888).

rat-hole

. Too large a gap between printed words: printers': from ca 1870.

rat it!; rat me

! See RAT! rat-office, see RAT-FIRM.

rat-shop

. A shop or factory that employs non-union workers: lower classes': from ca 1875. See also RAT-FIRM.

rat-trap

. A bustle or dress-improver: ca 1850–1900. cf. BIRD-CAGE.

rate of knots, at the

. Very fast: naval coll: mid-C.19–20. Granville. Current also in Australia and New Zealand since ca 1860.

rather

! (In replying to a question) I should think so; very decidedly: coll, orig. somewhat low: 1836, Dickens, ““Do you know the mayor’s house?” inquired Mr Trott. “Rather,” replied the boots, significantly, as if he had some good reason for remembering it.’ Occ. rayther, from ca 1860: very affected; ob. by 1905. cf. the very genteel QUITE! Often emphasized by stressing the second syllable.

rather of the ratherest

. Slightly in excess or deficit: dial. and coll: 1787, Grose’s Provincial Glossary; 1860, H., 2nd ed.

ratherish

, adv. Slightly; somewhat: coll, orig. U.S. (1862), anglicized ca 1890. Ob.

rations

. A flogging: naval and military: ca 1880–1910.

rats

. A star: back s.: from ca 1875. (Not very gen.) 2. See RATS, GET. 3. the rats, delirium tremens: from ca 1865. Ex RATS, GET, 3.

rats

! A contemptuous retort=BOSH: (low) coll: orig. U.S., but anglicized ca 1891. ‘Pomes’ Marshall, ‘One word, and that was Rats!’ Prob. ex:

rats, get or have or see

. To be out of sorts (rarely with see): 1865, E.Yates, ““Well ...old boy, how are you?”...“...Not very brilliant...” “Ah, like me, got rats, haven’t you?”” 2. To be drunk; very drunk: from ca 1865. Likewise ob., very ob. 3. (Rarely get or have.) To have delirium tremens: low: from ca 1865. 4. Hence (though not with get), to be eccentric: (low) coll: from ca 1880. 5. Hence, from ca 1885, to be crazy.

rats, give (one) green

. To malign; slander: ca 1860–1910. Perhaps ex rats: sick ’em!, a call to a dog... Perhaps not.

rats, in the

. Suffering from delirium tremens: low and military: from ca 1880. Ex RATS, 3.

rats and mice

. Dice: from ca 1860.

rats in the garret or loft or upper storey

. Eccentric; mad: from ca 1890; ob. Prob. ex BATS IN THE BELFRY and RATS, GET ..., 3, 4, 5.

rat's-tail

. A writ: legal: from ca 1870. ?ex scroll on cover. 2. A pigtail: s.: Ned Ward, 1714.

rattat

, see RUTAT.

rattle

*. A coach: c.: late C.18–early 19. Grose, 1785. Rare except in rattle and pad, a coach and horses. More gea. is RATTLER: yet cf. RATTLE, TAKE. 2. The commander's report of defaulters: naval: late C.19–20. Bowen. cf. the †S.E. rattle, a sharp reproof. 3. A quarrel: s.: Ned Ward, 1703.

rattle

, v. To move or work quickly and/or noisily: s. and, from ca 1850, dial.: late C.17–20. Esp. in rattle away or off.

rattle, spring the

. (Of a policeman) to give the alarm: policemen's (–1887); ob.

rattle, take

*. To depart hurriedly: c.: late C.17–mid-18. B.E., 'We'll take Rattle, ...we must not tarry, but whip away': a quotation that may possibly premise RATTLE, a coach, as early as late C.17; otherwise we must suppose that rattle, v., has been substantivized.

rattle, with a

. With unexpected rapidity: turf (–1909). Coll.

rattle and drive

(or hyphenated). Scamped work: workmen's coll (–1887).

rattle-bag, devil's (Scots deil's)

. A bishop's summons: coll: from ca 1725; †by 1900. Scott.

rattle-ballocks

. The female pudend: low: late C.18–20; ob.

rattled

. Very drunk: coll: late C.19–20. Lyell. cf. FLOORED, 2.

rattler

*. A coach: early C.17–mid-19: c. >, ca 1750, s.: 1630, J.Taylor the Water Poet. Like RATTLE, because it rattles. 2. Hence, a cab; ca 1815–1910: Moore, 1819; Egan, 1821, ‘At length a move was made, but not a rattler was to be had.’ 3. A train: c. (1845: ‘No. 747’) >, by 1874 (H., 5th ed.), low.

rattler, mace the

*. To travel, esp. on a train, without a ticket: c.: mid-C.19–20.

rattlers

. Teeth: s. > low coll: C.19–20; ob. 2. A railway (–1859); ob. by 1900. cf. RATTLER, 3.

rattles, the

. A or the death-rattle: (low) coll: from ca 1820. 2. (With the often omitted.) The croup: somewhat coll: C.18–20.

rattletrap

. The mouth: from ca 1820. Scott. 2. A chatterbox: coll: 1880, Anon., Life in a Debtors' Prison, 'You're as great a rattletrap as ever.' Both senses tend to be low; the former is somewhat ob.

rattling cove

*. A coachman: c.: mid-C.17– early 19. cf. RATTLE, n. and v. cf.:

rattling mumper

*. A beggar plying coaches and carriages: c.: mid-C.17–early 19.

rattling-peeper

*. A coach-glass: c.: mid-C.18. The Scoundrel's Dict., 1754.

ratty

. Wretched, miserable; mean: orig. (–1885), U.S. and Canadian, anglicized ca 1900. Blackwood's Magazine, Nov. 1901, 'Both were pretty "ratty" from hardship and loneliness.' Ex lit. sense, infested with rats. 2. Angry, irritated: from ca 1906. ?ex U.S.; cf. RATS IN THE GARRET and RATS! But prob. ex the appearance of a cornered rat.

raughty

, see RORTY.

rave

. A strong liking; a craze; a passion: from ca 1899; ob. by 1910. F. & H., 1901 (pub. 1902), 'X has a rave on Miss Z.' Ex the ob. late C.16–20 S.E. sense, a raving, a frenzy, excitement.

raven

. A small bit of bread and cheese: taverns' (–1909); ob. Ex the story of Elisha and the ravens.

‘Ravilliac

, any Assassin', B.E.: coll: ca 1610–1750. Properly Ravaillac. Ex François Ravaillac, who, the assassinator of Henry IV of France, died in 1610.

raw chaw

. A dram of spirituous liquor: low s.: ca 1810–60. Captain Glascock, Land Sharks and Sea Gulls, 1838.

raw lobster

. A policeman: C.19. In contrast with LOBSTER, a soldier. 2. A sailor dressed in blue: ca 1800–55. Contrast boiled LOBSTER.

raw meat

. The penis: low coll: mid-C.18–20. Anon., The Butcher (a song), 1766. 2. A nude (female) performer of the sexual act: low: C.19–20; ob.

raw recruit

. A nip of undiluted spirits: from ca 1860; very ob.

raw uns or 'uns, the

. The naked fists: pugilistic: 1887, Daily News, 15 Sept., 'This encounter was without gloves, or, in the elegant language of the ring, with the raw uns'; 1891, Sporting Life, 26 March, 'Even Jean Carney...has been obliged to abandon the raw-un's for gloves pure and simple.' Slightly ob. (Here, raw=unprotected or uncovered.)

rawg

. A waggon: Shelta: C.18–20.

rawniel or rumniel

. Beer: Shelta: C.18–20.

raws, the

. Bare fists (cf. RAW 'UNS): coll: from ca 1895. In 1899, Clarence Rook says of the hooligan that 'He has usually done a bit of fighting with the gloves...But he is better with the raws, and is very bad to tackle in a street row.'

ray

*. The sum of 1s. 6d.: c.: 1861, Mayhew. ?ex or cognate with the already long † S.E. ray, a small piece of gold or gold leaf.

ray-neck

. A landsman in a clipper packet's crew: nautical: mid-C.19–20; ob. Bowen thinks that it may represent a corruption of rawneck.

raymonder

, see RAM-ROD. rayther, see RATHER.

razor, real

. A defiant, quarrelsome, or bad-tempered scholar: Westminster School: from 1883; ob. Ware.

razor-strop

. A copy of a writ: legal: from some date after 1822, when the lit. sense appears (O.E.D.).

razors

. Inferior liquor: Regular Army: late C.19–20; very ob. Ex the gripe it produces.

razzle

. Abbr. of RAZZLE-DAZZLE, 2. Esp. in on the razzle, on the SPREE.

razzle-dazzle

. ‘A new type of roundabout ...which gives its occupants the... sensations of an excursion at sea’, Daily News, 27 July 1891. 2. A frolic, a SPREE; riotous jollity: U.S. (1890, Gunter), anglicized ca 1895, esp. in on the razzle-dazzle, gen. of a drunken spree. Binstead, More Gal’s Gossip, 1901, ‘Bank-holidayites on the razzle-dazzle’. An echoic word expressive of rapid movement, bustle, active confusion, but orig., I think, a reduplication on dazzle as in Gunter’s ‘I’m going to razzle-dazzle the boys...with my great lightning change act,’ 1890, in Miss Nobody.

razzle-dazzle

, v. To dazzle: anglicized ca 1895 ex U.S.; ob. See preceding, 2. cf.:

razzle-dazzler

, gen. in pl. A sock that dazzles: 1897, Daily News, 10 Aug., ‘Two dozen pair of plain socks and half a dozen pair of the sort known as “razzle-dazzlers”’. Ex RAZZLE-DAZZLE, v.

razzo

*. The nose: c.: from ca 1895. Clarence Rook, The Hooligan Nights, 1899. For origin, see RARZO.

razzorridge

. Shaving: s.: Ned Ward, 1703. On razor.

re-dayboo

. Re-debut: music-halls’ coll: 1899–ca 1903. Lit., a first appearance for the second time.

re-raw

, occ. ree-raw. Esp. on the re(e)-raw. A drinking-bout: low: from ca 1850; ob. Dickens, 1854. Prob. ex Scots ree, excited with drink, + Anglo-Irish ree-raw, noisy, riotous.

reach-me-down

, adj., 1862; reach-me-downs, n., 1862. Thackeray; Besant & Rice. Ready-made, or occ. second-hand, clothes; in late C.19–20, often of such, hence of any, trousers: perhaps always S.E. (ex U.S.). Coll.

reacher

*, A beggar who walks always with a female mate: c.: early C.17. Dekker. 2. A gross exaggeration: coll: 1613, Purchas; †by 1720. 3. A blow delivered at one's full reach: boxing: late C.19–20; ob.

read

*, v.i. Rarely v.t. To steal: c.: Anon., A Song, ca 1819, 'And I my reading learnt betime,|From studying pocket-books, Sirs.' Ex READER, 1.

read and write

. To fight: rhyming s. (–1857). 2. A flight: id. Rare.

read between the lines

. To discern the underlying fact or intention: from ca 1865: coll.

read me and take me

. (In reference to riddles) a Restoration c.p. equivalent to get me? or get me! Dryden, Marriage à la Mode.

read of tripe

. Transported for life: rhyming s. (–1859). H.’s approximation; †by 1900.

read the paper

. To have a nap: coll: from ca 1860. A very common excuse.

reader

*. A pocket-book: c.: 1718, C. Hitchin, The Regulator. 2. Whence, a newspaper, a letter, etc.: c.: from ca 1840. 3. A marked card: c. or gamblers’ s.: 1894, Maskelyne, ‘The preparation of “faked” cards or “readers”’.

reader-hunter

*. A pickpocket specializing in pocket-books: c. (–1812). Ex READER, 1. See quotation at READ.

reader-merchant

*. (Gen. in pl.) ‘Pickpockets, chiefly young Jews, who ply about the Bank to steal the pocket-books of persons who have just received their dividends there’, Grose, 2nd ed.: late C.18–20; ob. Ex READER, 1, and see MERCHANT.

readered

*. Wanted by the police: c.: from ca 1845. ‘No. 746’ (p. 412). Ex READER, 2, and the fact of being ‘advertised’ in the Police Gazette.

ready, or the ready

*. Money, esp. money in hand: c. until C.19, then low s. till ca 1870; by 1930, rather ob. Shadwell, ‘Take up on the reversion...; and Cheatly will help you to the ready’; Arbuthnot, 1712, ‘He was not flush in ready’; Egan, 1821, ‘The waste of ready’. Abbr. ready money. Often with RHINO: ready rhino (T.Brown, 1697) is adumbrated in Shadwell’s the ready, the rhino (1688).

ready

, v. To pull a horse so that he shall not win: racing: Black, 1887. 2. To contrive, manipulate, engineer, WANGLE: from ca 1890. ‘Pomes’ Marshall, ‘He made us all...believe he could ready his chance.’ (Sense 1 is ex †S.E. sense, prepare, put in order.) cf. READY UP. 3. Hence, to bribe: low (–1909).

ready, (at) a good

. Thoroughly alert; occ. dead certain: low (?orig. c.): from ca 1890; ob. cf. on the SPOT.

ready gilt

. Money (in hand): a C.19 variant of READY, n. See also GILT.

ready thick'un

*. A sovereign (coin): c.: from ca 1860.

ready to drop

. (Of a person) exhausted: late C.19–20: coll.

ready up

. To prepare, or contrive, illicitly or not honourably: Australian: 1893, Melbourne Age, 25 Nov., 'A great deal has been "readied up" for the jury by the present commissioners.' Prob. ex READY, v., 3.

readying, readying-up

. vbl nn. of READY, v., and READY UP.

real

, adv. Extremely, very: coll: from ca 1880 in England, earlier in Scotland and U.S.; esp. in real nice. Ex real as adj. before another adj., esp. when no comma intervenes (J.Fox, 1718, ‘An Opportunity of doing a real good Office’.)

real jam

. A very delightful person or thing: s. verging on coll: 1879, Justin McCarthy, ‘Real jam, I call her’; Punch, 3 Jan. 1885, ‘Without real jam—cash and kisses—this world is a bitterish pill.’ Earlier, a sporting phrase for anything exceptionally good: from ca 1870.

real Kate

. A kind matron: Clare Market, London: ca 1882–1900. Ex Kate, the charitable queen of the market.

real live

, see LIVE, adj.

real peacer (or P.)

. A ‘dashing’ murderer: low coll: late C.19–early 20. Ex Charles Peace, the celebrated murderer.

real raspberry jam

. The superlative of JAM-TART, a girl: low: ca 1883–1915.

real thing, the

. The genuine article (fig.): 1818, Lady Morgan, ‘He is the real thing, and no mistake.’

ream

*. Genuine; honest, honourable, above-board: an occ. C.19 c. variant of RUM, adj. very rare outside London. Mayhew, 1851, ‘A “ream”...concern’. cf.:

ream-penny

. (Gen. in pl.)=Peter-pence. C.17: coll and dial. Ex Rome-penny.

ream-pennies, reckon (up) one’s

. To confess one’s faults: coll: ca 1650–1700. Ray. Ex REAM-PENNY.

rear, rears, the

. The latrine: university: from ca 1880. cf.:

rear

, v. To visit the latrine; to defecate: from ca 1890; university >, ca 1905, gen. s. Perhaps of military origin: a man ‘taken short’ is told to ‘fall out to the rear’.

rear up

, v. To become extremely angry: coll: late C.19–20. Ex horses.

rearer

. The upsetting of a vehicle—the wheel(s) on one side going into a ditch, drain, etc.—so that the vehicle turns underside up: 1827 (O.E.D.); very ob. 2. A battledore: Restoration period.

rec, the

. The recreation ground: lower-class, esp. Cockney, coll: from ca 1890 or earlier.

receipt

. Punches received: boxers’: mid-C.19–20; extremely ob. Bell’s Life, ‘He showed strong symptoms of receipt.’ cf. RECEIVER-GENERAL, 2.

receipt of custom

(or hyphenated). The female pudend: C.19–20; ob. cf. Grose's CUSTOM-HOUSE GOODS. (Where Adam made the first entry.)

receiver-general

. A harlot: C.19. Lex. Bal., 1811. Ex S.E., a chief receiver of public revenues. 2. 'A boxer giving nothing for what he gets', F. & H.: boxing: Boxiana, III, 1821.

recep

. Reception by an audience: theatrical and music halls': late C.19–20.

reckon up

. To talk of, maliciously or even slanderously: non-aristocratic: from ca 1870.

reckoning, cast up one's

. To vomit: low (–1788); very ob. More gen. cast up one's ACCOUNTS.

reckoning, Dutch

. A bill that, if disputed, grows larger; a sharing of the cost or the money, plunder, etc.: coll: late C.17–20; ob. Swift. See the paragraph on DUTCH.

record, smash the

. To go one better: coll, esp. in athletics: from ca 1890. Break, cut (†), lower the record are S.E.

recruit

, n. See RECRUITS. 2. ‘To get a fresh-supply of money’, Grose, 1785: coll. cf. the next two entries.

recruiting service

. Robbery on the highway: ca 1810–40: s. verging on c. (Lex. Bal.) Ex:

recruits

*. Money, esp. expected money: late C.17–early 19: c. B.E., ‘Have you rais’d the Recruits,...is the Money come in?’ Ex Army.

rector

. ‘A poker kept for show: curate [q.v.] = the work-a-day iron; (2) the bottom half of a tea-cake or muffin (as getting more butter), the top half being the curate, and so forth’, F. & H.: coll: from ca 1860; ob.

rector of the females

. The penis: C.17–20; ob. Either low coll or, more prob., euphemistic S.E. Rochester.

red

, n. The port side of a ship; it shows a red light; cf. green, the starboard side, which shows a green one: nautical coll: late C.19–20.

red

*, adj. Made of gold; golden: C.14–20: S.E. till C.17, then c, See esp. RED CLOCK, ROGUE, STUFF, TACKLE, TOY, 'UN.

red, paint the town

. To have a riotously good time: U.S. (–1880), anglicized ca 1890 as a coll. Anon., Harry Fludyer at Cambridge, 'Won't he paint the whole place red on Tuesday night!'

red ace

; occ. red C. The female pudend: low: mid-C.19–20.

red and yellow, Tom Fool's colours

. A c.p. (semi-proverb) in allusion to brightly coloured clothes: already old in 1874. Ex a jester's parti-coloured dress.

red beard

. (App.) a watchman or constable: C.17: ?c. Dekker & Webster, 1607, 'White haire may fall into the company of drabs as red bearded into the society of knaves.' 2. A red marble: London schoolboys' (-1887).

red breast, redbreast

. A Bow Street runner: C.18-early 19, though app. first recorded by Dickens in 1862. Ex red waistcoat.

red clock

*. A gold watch: c.: from ca 1860. Also RED 'UN. cf. RED LOT.

red cross

. An English ship: nautical coll: C.17. Smith, 1626.

red-currant jelly

. (Not as n., but as adj. in the predicate.) ‘He’s red-currant jelly’ is County s., of ca 1840–1900, applied to a tradesman or merchant who, retiring to the country, out-Counties the County. Usually, however, simply currant jelly. (A staple produce on the shop-keeper’s shelves.)

red(-)dog

. Prickly heat: Anglo-Indian coll: ca 1740–1800.

red duster

. The Red Ensign: naval: late C.19–20.

red eel

. A term of contempt: coll: C.19.

red flag

, see RED RAG, MOUNT THE.

red flag at the mast-head

. In dead earnest: naval coll: mid-C.19–20; ob. Ex a single-flag signal enjoining either ‘close action’ or ‘no quarter’.

red flannel

. The tongue: low: C.19–20; ob. cf. RED RAG, 1.

red fustian

*. Red wine, esp. port or claret: c.: late C.17–early 19. 2. Porter: C.19.

red-headed

. Zealous: Conway trainingship cadets’: late C.19–20.

red heart

. ‘Redheart’ rum; hence, any rum: London taveras’: ca 1870–1910. (Coll rather than s.)

red herring

. A soldier (1827; very ob.). cf. SOLDIER, a red herring.

red herring ne'er spake word but e'en,
Broil my back, but not my weamb or womb

(i.e. stomach). A c.p. of ca 1670–1700. (The weamb form is dial.)

red hot

. 'Extreme; out-and-out', C.J. Dennis: coll: late C.19–20. Not as, e.g., a red-hot socialist, but as that's red hot, that is!

red-hot treat

. An extremely dangerous person: lower classes' (–1909); ob.

red-ink

. Blood: pugilistic: ca 1840–90. Augustus Mayhew, Paved With Gold, 1857.

red inside (allee) same as Queen Victoria

. A c.p., used of—and reputedly by—dark-skinned races: late C.19–20. i.e. a dark skin does not preclude moral merit.

red lamp

. A brothel: coll: late C.19–20. Ex U.S. red light district.

red lane

. The throat: coll: late C.18–20. Grose, 1st ed.; 1812, Colman; ob. Also in dial.

red-letter man

. A Roman Catholic: coll: late C.17–early 19. Ex red-letter day and cf. RED NECK.

red(-)liner

. ca 1840–80, as in Mayhew's London Labour, II, 564, 'The Red Liners, as we calls the Medicity officers, who goes about in disguise as gentlemen, to take up poor boys caught begging'. ?ex putting a red line under an offender's name.

Red Lion Lane

, see LANE.

red lobsters

. The original Metropolitan Police: Londoners': ca 1830–60.

red lot

*. Gold watch and chain: c., and low: late C.19–20. See RED, adj.

red neck

. A Roman Catholic: Northern (esp. Lancashire) coll and dial.: C.19.

red-nosed rooter

. A port-maintopman: Conway cadets': 1890s.

red one

, see RED 'UN and cf. RUDDOCK.

red petticoat shall pay for it, the lass in the

, see LASS IN...

red rag

. The tongue: mid-C.17–20, ob. cf. RED FLANNEL. 2. A menstrual cloth: low coll: C.19–20. cf.:

red rag, flash the

. To menstruate: low: C.19–20. Ex RED RAG, 2.

red rag, mount the

. To blush: coll: C.19–20. Occ. red flag.

red ribbon

. Brandy: ca 1820–1910. After 1890, c. (Contrast RED FUSTIAN.)

red rogue

*. A gold coin: c.: C.17. Fletcher, in The Mad Lover. See RED.

red-sail (yard) docker

*. A buyer of ‘stores stolen out of the royal yards and docks’, Grose, 1st ed.: c. of ca 1780–1840.

red shank, red-shank, redshank

*. A duck: c.: mid-C.16–19. 2. A turkey: C.18. Ex the pool-snipe so named. 3. A woman wearing no stockings: Connaught coll: from ca 1840. Ex the historical S.E. red-shank.

red shirt

*. A back scarified with the cat-o'-nine-tails: Australian c.: ca 1820–70.

red steer, the

. A bush fire: Australian rural: late C.19–20. cf. the South German der rote Hahn (the red cockerel), meaning 'fire', usually in a phrase translatable as 'putting the red cock on someone's roof'.

red stuff

*. Gold articles: c.: late C.19–20. David Hume.

red tackle

*. A gold chain: c.: 1879, Macmillan's Magazine, 'I touched for a red toy...and red tackle.'

red tape

*. Red wine: c. of C.19. Lytton in Paul Clifford. cf. RED FUSTIAN.

red tie

. Vulgarity: Oxford University coll: ca 1876–1900.

red toy

*. A gold watch: c.: 1879 (see quotation at RED TACKLE).

red 'un

*. The O.E.D. instances red ones in C.16: prob. coll. But red 'un is c.: from ca 1860. Gen., a gold coin and usually a sovereign; occ. an object made of gold (Sims, in the Referee, 12 Feb. 1888); e.g. a gold watch: c. (–1864), as in H., 3rd ed. cf. REDDING.

red, white and blue

. Cold salt beef: Conway cadets': late C.19–20.

redbreast

, see RED BREAST.

redding

. A gold watch: c. of ca 1860–1915. A corruption of RED 'UN, perhaps influenced by dial. redding, oxide of iron, red ochre.

redemptioner

. A man who works his passage: nautical coll: C.19.

Redfern

. A perfectly-fitting lady's coat or jacket: Society coll: ca 1879–1915. Ex a celebrated ladies' tailor.

redge

*, see RIDGE.

redraw

. A warder: low back s. (–1875). Greenwood, in Low-Life Deeps, 'Shying a lump of red oakum at the redraw'.

reds

. Blushes: coll and dial.: C.19–20. 2. The menses: mid-C.16–20; S.E. till C.18, then coll; almost †.

redshank

, see RED SHANK.

redundant

. Impertinent: City of London: 1899–1900. Ex a phrase by Horatio Bottomley.

redwop

. Powder: back s.: from ca 1890.

ree-raw

, see RE-RAW.

reeb

. Beer: back s. (–1859).

reef

*. ‘To draw up a dress-pocket until a purse is within reach of the fingers’, F. & H.: c.,: from ca 1860. Ex nautical S.E.

reef (or two), let out a

. To undo a button or so, esp. after a meal: from ca 1870: nautical > gen.

reef taken in, need a

. To be drunk: from ca 1880: nautical > gen.

reefer

. A midshipman: nautical: 1818, Burton. Because, says Smyth, he has to ‘attend to the tops during the operation of taking in reefs’.

reek

*. Money: c.: early C.19. ?ex reek-penny.

reel, dance the miller’s

; dance the reel o’ stumpie or of bogie. To have sexual intercourse: low Scots coll: C.18–20; ob.

reeler

*. A policeman: c. (–1879); ob. Presumably on PEELER.

reeling

, n. Feeling (gen. pl): rhyming s. (–1909).

reener

*. A coin (less, app., than a florin); tramps’ c.: from ca 1890. P.H.Emerson, 1893, ‘The old man never give her a reener.’ ?DEANER corrupted.

reesbin

. A gaol: tramps' c., and tinkers' s. verging on c.: 1845, reference in 'No. 747' (p. 413). Prob. a corruption of prison on Romany stariben (whence STIR, n., 2).

ref

. A reformer: political (–1909); ob.

refresh

. A refreshment, esp. of liquor: coll, verging now on s.: from ca 1884. Ex:

refresher

. A drink: coll: 1841, T.Hook. cf. the pun in 'As a rule barristers don't object to refreshers,' Ally Sloper's Half-Holiday, 3 Aug. 1889. cf. PICK-ME-UP.

reg. duck-egg

. An egregious '0': cricketers': late C.19–20. See DUCK, n., 6.

regardless

, see GOT UP, 2.

regent

. 'Half a sovereign' (coin): ca 1820–60. Sinks, 1848. By a not despicable pun.

regimental sports

. Coal-carrying fatigue: Regular Army: late C.19–20; ob.

regular

. A drink taken at a fixed hour: coll: from ca 1850. 2. See REGULARS. 3. One who quits a pleasure-party at 11 or 12 at night. A laugh at his regular, wholesome habits.

regular

, adj. Thorough, absolute; perfect: coll: 1821, Shelley, 'A regular conjuror'; 1850, Smedley, 'A regular sell'; 1888, Cornhill Magazine, March.

regular Callao

. A free-and-easy ship lax of discipline: nautical coll: late C.19–20.

regular tradesman

. Anyone who thoroughly understands his business or occupation: proletarian coll: mid-C.19–20; ob.

regularly

. Thoroughly; wholly: coll: 1789, ‘Regularly dissipated’. cf. REGULAR, adj.

regulars

*. A division of booty: c.: from ca 1810. Lex. Bal., Vaux, Moncrieff, ‘Gypsy’ Carew. Abbr. regular share(s).

regulated, be

. To go through the Press Gang’s perfunctory medical examination: naval coll: ca 1750–1840. Bowen.

regulator

. The female pudend: low coll: late C.18–19. Prob. ex the S.E. sense, a regulating power or principle (1766, O.E.D.).

reboboam

. A shovel hat: coll of ca 1845–70. C.Bronte, 1849. 2. A quadruple magnum, a double jeroboam, gen. of champagne: from ca 1860; ob.

reign

*. A period of wrongdoing; a successfully criminal period out of gaol: c.: from ca 1810. cf.:

reign

*, v. To be at liberty, esp. at profitable liberty: Australian c. >, by 1910, gen. c.: late C.19–20.

reign of Queen Dick

, see DICK, QUEEN.

relation

. A pawnbroker: Londoners': ca 1845–1900. Mayhew, II, 1851. Suggested by synonymous UNCKLE.

relations (or country cousins) have come, her

. She is in her menstrual period: lower classes' c.p.: mid-C.19–20.

reliever

. An old coat usable by all (the workmen): ca 1845–1900. Kingsley.

relieving officer (rarely a)

. One's father, because he pays one's debts: 1857, G. Lawrence. Grenville-Murray, 1883, 'The Relieving Officer, or...the "R.O."', was a term of endearment which [he], in common with other young noblemen and gentlemen at Eton, applied to his father.' Slightly ob.

religion, get

, see GET RELIGION.

religious

. (Of a horse) apt to go down on his knees: late C.18–mid-19. cf. DEVOTIONAL HABITS and contrast the old West American religious applied to horses: free from vice.

religious painter

. 'One who does not break the commandment which prohibits the making of the likeness of any thing in heaven or earth, or in the waters under the earth', Grose, 2nd ed.: ca 1780–1820. Either a little joke of Grose's or painters' s.—he was a painter and draughtsman.

relish

. Coition with a woman: low: C.19. cf. GREENS, 4.

Relish, the

. The (sign of the) Cheshire Cheese: late C.18–mid-19.

rem-in-re

, esp. be caught with. Copulation, esp. be taken in the act of: low: from ca 1860; ob. Lit., a thing in a thing.

remedy

*. A sovereign (coin): c.: ?mid-C.18–early 19. Ex the technical S.E. remedy, the permissible variation of weight in coins (also called tolerance).

remedy-critch

. A chamber-pot: late C.18– early 19. A critch=any earthenware vessel; remedy, because therewith discomfort is remedied.

remember Parson Mallum (or Meldrum, Malham, or Melham)

! see PARSON MALLUM...

remi

. A holiday: Westminster School: from ca 1860. Ex remedy in that sense.

reminisce

. To relate reminiscences, esp. if freely: coll: from ca 1880. Ex the jocular reminisce, v.i. and t., to recollect, + reminiscences.

removal

. A murder: political: 1883–5. Ex a witness's euphemism in the Phoenix Park assassination case.

rent

*. Plunder: c.: late C.18–mid-19. Implied in Grose's COLLECTOR. 2. See RENTS. 3. Money; cash: lower classes': late C.19–20.

rent, collect

. To rob on the highway: c.: late C.18–mid-19. See RENT, n., 1; also in Bee, 1823. See esp. RENT-COLLECTOR.

rent, pay (someone) his

. To punish: coll: C.14–(?)16. S.Oliphant's NewEnglish. (?)

rent-collector

*. A highwayman, esp. one who fancies money only: c.: (?late C.18–) early 19. cf. COLLECTOR; RENT.

rents (in C.17, rent) coming in . Ragged; dilapidated: a punning coll c.p. of C.17– mid-18. Withals, 1616, “‘That hath his rent come in’”; Swift, Polite Conversation, Dialogue I, ‘I have torn my Petticoat with your odious Romping; my Rents are coming in; I’m afraid, I shall fall into the Ragman’s Hands.’

rep

. Reputation: coll: ca 1705–50 (extant in U.S.). Shipperry, ‘Upon rep’; D’Urfey, ‘Dames of rep’; Fielding. (See REP, ON.) 2. Hence, a man (ob.) or woman (†by 1850) of loose morals: coll: 1747, Hoadly. Here, rep is ex reprobate, influenced by sense 1, and suggested by DEMI-REP. 3. Hence, a worthless or inferior object: coll: 1786, Wolcot, ‘The fiddle...though what’s vulgariy baptiz’d a rep’. Very ob. 4. A repetition (lesson): school s., esp. at Har-row: from ca 1860. Anstey. At Charterhouse, esp.: poetry as repetition: late C.19–20. cf. PREP.

rep, on or 'pon or upon

. On (my) word of honour, lit. on my reputation: coll: C.18, though rare after ca 1750. See REP, 1. Swift, 'Do you say it upon Rep?'

repairs, no

. Reckless; neck or nothing: from ca 1880; ob. (Gen. of contests.)

reparty

. A repartee: Society: 1874–ca 90. (Satirical.)

repentance curl

. The English society form of the curl known in Fr. as repentir: 1863–ca 90.

reporter

. A (hair-trigger) pistol: coll, mostly Irish, verging on S.E.; †by 1910. Jonah Barrington, 1827. Ex the suddenness of the report.

reposer

. A final drink; a nightcap: coll: from ca 1870. (Repose-inducing.)

repository

. A lock-up, a gaol: ca 1780–1830.

republic of letters, the

. The Post-Office: ca 1820–50. Punning S.E. sense.

reservoir!, au

. Au revoir!: jocular coll (–1897); ob. cf. OLIVE OIL!

residential club

. A usual assemblage of idlers, esp. those frequenting the British Museum for warmth or shelter: jocular coll verging on S.E.; from ca 1890; ob., as (thanks be!) is the practice.

resin up

. To smarten up (a man) at his work: nautical: late C.19–20. Ex resining a fiddle.

responsible

. A sensible actor able to take the lead: theatrical coll: from ca 1890.

respun; OCC. rispin

. To steal: tinkers' s., bordering on c.: from ca 1850. ?origin. Just possibly ex or cognate with Scots risp, to rasp, to file.

rest

, v. To arrest: mid-C.15–20; S.E. until C.19, then dial. and low coll.

rest?, and the

. A c.p. retort on incompleteness or reticence: from ca 1860.

rest and be thankful, the

. The female pudend: C.19–20; ob.

resting

. Out of work: theatre, music-hall: late C.19–20.

resurrection-bolly

. Beefsteak pudding: preparatory schools': late C.19–20.

resurrection-cove

. A body-snatcher: low: ca 1810–95. Vaux; Baumann.

resurrection-jarvey

. A nocturnal hackney-coachman: ca 1820–60. Westmacott.

resurrection(-pie)

. A dish made from remains: from ca 1864: coll till C.20, then S.E.: orig. and esp. a schoolboys' term.

reswort

. Trousers: back s. (–1874).

ret

. A reiteration in printing: printers' (–1874).

retoure

*, see TOUR.

retriever

*. A 'verser' (see VERSING LAW); local c. of ca 1592. Greene.

retsio

. An oyster: back s. (–1874).

returned empty

. A Colonial bishop returning to, and gen. taking up a post in, Britain: Church: from ca 1890.

revenge in lavender

. A vengeance reserved: coll bordering on S.E.: late C.17– early 19. See LAVENDER...

reverence

, see SIR REVERENCE.

review of the black cuirassiers

. A visitation by the clergy: late C.18–early 19. Grose, 1785. Ex priestly black and shining crosses and/or crucifixes. cf. CROW-FAIR.

reviver

. A drink (rarely of non-intoxicants): orig. Society: 1876, Besant & Rice, ‘It was but twelve o’clock, and therefore early for revivers of any sort.’ cf. REFRESHER.

revlis

. Silver: back s. (–1859).

reward

. Dogs’ or hounds’ supper: kennels’ s.: C.19–20. Ex S.E. sense, entrails given to hounds imm. after the kill.

r’ghoglin or gogh’leen

. To laugh: Shelta: C.18–20.

rheumatic dodge

*. The gaining of sympathy—and alms—by a pretence of (acute) rheumatism: c. (–1887).

rheumaticky

. Afflicted with rheumatism: coll: from ca 1850.

rheumatics

; often the r. Rheumatism: late C.18–20: coll: from ca 1890, considered increasingly low coll. Ex the adj. cf. RHEUMATIZ and RHEUMATICKY.

rheumatism in the shoulder

. Arrest: low: from ca 1820; ob. Esp. have r. in the s., to be arrested.

rheumatiz, r(h)umatiz

; occ. (esp. until ca 1830) rheumatise or -ize, or rheumatis. Rheumatism: dial. and low coll: 1760, Foote, ‘My old disorder, the rheumatise’.

rhino

*; occ. rino, ryno, but not after C.18. Money: 1688, Shadwell; B.E.; Grose; Barham. c. until ca 1820, then low s. >, ca 1870, gen. s. Often READY rhino. Origin problematic; there is prob. some allusion to the size of a rhinoceros, or to the price which almost any part of its corpse will fetch as an aphrodisiac: cf. next three entries. c. synonyms are: BIT; COLE; GELT; LOAVER; LURRY; PEWTER; QUIDS; REEK; RIBBIN; the s. and coll synonyms are too numerous to list—see F. & H. at rhino and H. at pp. 61–5. 2. Rhinoceros: coll abbr.: 1884.

rhino-fat

. Rich: C.19. Ex preceding; suggested by RHINOCERICAL; cf.:

rhinoceral

. Rich: from ca 1860. See RHINO; abbr. cf.:

rhinocercal

*. Rich: c. until C.19, then s.; †by 1860. Shadwell, B.E., Grose. As Shadwell has both rhino and rhinocercal in 1688, the latter may well be the origin of the former. See RHINO.

rhubarb

. A loan: dockers': late C.19–20. Ex its ruddy length, or from the illiterate pronunciation rubub, rhyming on SUB (n., 7), a loan. 2. Genitals, male, or, occ., female. e.g. 'How's your rhubarb coming up, Bill?' 3. See next entry. 4. A rumpus, ROW; a loud confused noise; noises off, esp. those of a mob: theatrical: late C.19–20. Ex off-stage actors intoning the sonorous word 'rhubarb' to represent the noise of a mob. The custom goes back at least to the time of Charles Kean, ca 1852.

rhubarb (pill)

. A hill: rhyming: late C.19–20.

rhumatiz

, see RHEUMATIZ.

rhyme-slinger

. A poet: coll: from ca 1850.

ri

, see LEP.

rib, crooked

. A cross-grained wife: coll: late C.18–20, ob. (The S.E. rib, a wife, is Biblical in origin and affected esp. by Scottish poets.)

rib-baste

or, much more gen., -roast. To thrash: coll: resp. late C.16–17, late C.16–20, ob. Occ. a n., with variant rib-roasting, -basting. Gascoigne, ‘I hope to give them al a rybbe to roste for their paynes’; Smollett, ‘He knew he should be rib-roasted every day, and murdered at last’; H., 1874, ‘Ribroast...Old; but still in use’. cf. next two entries.

rib-bender or -roaster

; occ. rib of roast; ribber. A punch on the ribs: boxing: from ca 1810; the 2nd and 3rd, very ob. Tom Moore has ribber, ‘Cuthbert Bede’ rib-roaster, Hindley rib-bender. cf. the next entry. 2. A ball rising so high as to endanger the batsman’s body: cricket: 1873; ob.

rib-bending or -roasting

; ribbing. The vbl n. counterparts of RIB-BENDER, etc.

rib-roast, -roaster

, see RIB-BASTE and RIB-BENDER.

rib-shirt

. A front or dickey worn over a grubby shirt: lower classes': from ca 1880; ob.

rib-tickle

; rib-tickler. To thrash, also tickle one's ribs. A punch in the ribs; thick soup. From ca 1850; slightly ob. cf. RIB-BASTE and -BENDER.

ribband

, see RIBBIN. ribber, see RIB-BENDER.

ribbin

*; also ribband, ribbon. Money: c.: late C.17–mid-19. ?cf. FAT, being ex ribbing (cf. RIBS), or ex ribbon, gen. of rich stuff. cf.:

ribbin runs thick or thin, the

*. There is, he (etc.) has, much or little money: late C.17– mid-19. See RIBBIN.

ribbon

*, see RIBBIN. 2. See RIBBONS. 3. A bell-pull: c.: late C.17–mid-18. B.E., ‘Pluck the Ribond,...ring the Bell at the Tavern’. Ex likeness of ribbon to rope. 4. Esp. BLUE RIBBON: gin: c.: from ca 1810; ob. Prob. suggested by SATIN. 5. After ca 1860, ribbon (but not BLUE RIBBON)= spirits in gen.; ob. H., 3rd ed. (‘Servants’ term’).

ribbons

. Reins: 1813 (O.E.D.): sporting coll >, ca 1880, S.E. Dickens in Pickwick. Esp. in handle or †flutter the ribbons.

ribs

. (A nickname for) a stout person: coll: C.19–20; ob. They do not show.

ribston(e)

. A Cockney’s term of affectionate address: 1883, Milliken in Punch, 11 Oct. Abbr. ribston(e) PIPPIN.

rice-bags

. Trousers: a trifle low: ca 1890–1910. On BAGS, trousers.

rice Christian

. An Aboriginal ‘accepting’ Christianity for food: Society coll: 1895, Referee, 11 Aug.; ob.

rich

. Very entertaining—preposterous, ridiculous—outrageous: mid-C.18–20 S.E. verging on coll. 2. Spicy; indelicate: coll: from ca 1860.

rich as a new-shorn sheep

. An ironic, semi-proverbial c.p. of C.16–mid-18. Churchyard, Breton, Fuller.

rich as crazes

. Rich as Croesus: Anglo-Irish (—1909).

rich man’s side

, see POOR MAN’S SIDE.

rich one

. The wealthy wife of ‘a man who finds home not to his liking’: better-class harlots’ coll (—1909).

Richard, Richard Snary, Richardanary

. A dictionary: s., low coll, sol.: resp. late C.18–20, e.g. in Grose, 2nd ed., an abbr. of R.S.; from ca 1620, as in ‘Water Poet’ Taylor; C.19–20 (also dial.), a corruption of R.S. All ob. cf. DICK, which indicates the semantics.

Richard the Third

. A bird: rhyming s.: late C.19–20. 2. A TURD: id.: id.

Richardanary

, see RICHARD.

rick(-)ma(-)tick

. Arithmetic: school s. and gen. sol.: C.19–20. On ’rithmetic, as in the three Rs, reading, ’riting and ’rithmetic.

rick-rack

. A policeman's whistle: Manchester children's: ca 1860–80. Jerome Caminada, Detective, II, 1901. Echoic.

ride

. (Gen. used by women.) An act of coition: low: C.19–20. Ex the v. (cf. the scabrous smoke-room story of the little boy that wanted 'a ride on the average'.) Esp. in have or get a ride.

ride

, v. To mount a woman in copulation: v.i. and t.: M.E.-C.20: S.E. till ca 1780 then (low) coll. D'Urfey has ride tantivy. cf. RIDER, 1. 2. See RIDER, 2. (3. For relevant phrases not under ride, see the second member; e.g. ride BODKIN.) 4. To cart: South African coll: 1897, Ernest Glanville, Tales from the Veld, 'I want you to ride a load of wood to the house.'

ride as if fetching the midwife

. To go in haste: coll: late C.17–mid-19. Ray.

ride behind

, see RIDER, 2.

ride (a man) down like a main-tack

. To overwork him: nautical coll: mid-C.19–20.

ride out

. To be a highwayman: coll: C.17–18. Anon., The London Prodigal, 1605. cf. Chaucer's riden out, to go abroad, serve on a military expedition (the description of the knight, in the Canterbury Prologue).

ride rantipole

, see RANTIPOLE, RIDE. ride rusty, see RUSTY, RIDE. ride St George, see RIDING ST GEORGE.

ride the black donkey

. To be in a bad humour: coll: mid-C.19–early 20.

ride the donkey

*. To cheat in weight (weighing): c. (–1857).

ride the fore-horse

. To be early; ahead of another: coll: ca 1660–1840. Etherege; Scott.

ride the fringes

. To perambulate the boundaries of a chartered district: Irish coll of ca 1700–1820. Anon., Ireland Sixty Years Ago, 1847. A corruption of ride the franchises.

ride the mare

. To be hanged: (c. or) low: late C.16–17. Shakespeare. See THREE-LEGGED MARE.

ride the wild mare

. To play at see-saw; hence, I conjecture, to act wildly or live riotously: coll: late C.16–mid-17. Shakespeare; Cotgrave, ‘Desferrer l’asne...we say, to ride the wilde mare.’

rider

. An—esp. customarily—actively amorous man: low coll: C.18–20; ob. Ex RIDE, v. cf. RIDING ST GEORGE. 2. ‘A person who receives part of the salary of a place or appointment from the ostensible occupier, by virtue of an agreement with the donor, or great man appointing. The rider is said to be quartered upon the possessor, who often has one or more persons thus riding behind him,’ Grose, 3rd ed. Coll of late C.18–mid-19. 3. A passenger: cabmen’s coll (–1887); ob.

ridg

*. An early variant of:

ridge

*; occ., in C.19, redge. Gold: c.: from ca 1660; ob. by 1840, †by 1900. Head (implied in RIDGE-CULLY). A CLY full of ridge, a pocketful of money. 2. Hence, a guinea: ca 1750–1830. ?ex ridge, a measure of land.

ridge

*, adj. Good; valuable: Australian c.: late C.19–20. Ex the n., 1.

ridge, thimble of

*. A gold watch: ca 1830–60: c. Ainsworth, 1834.

ridge-cully

*. A goldsmith, lit. a gold-man (see RIDGE and CULLY): c.: 1665, Head. Very ob. by 1880. Whence, prob.:

ridge-montra

*. A gold watch: C.19 (7–20): c. See RIDGE and MONTRA.

riding

. Adroitness; ability: sporting (–1886); ob. Ex a jockey's skill.

riding-hag

. A, the, nightmare: coll: C.19–20; ob.

riding St George or the dragon upon St George

, n. and adj. (The position of) the woman being on top in the sexual act: late C.17–mid-19. (This posture was supposed to be efficacious if the parents wanted their child to be a bishop.) A pun on the legend of St George and the dragon, adumbrated in Fletcher's Mad Lover. Also known as riding RANTIPOLE.

riffle

. A shuffle 'in which...the thumbs "riffle", or bend up the corners of the cards', Maskelyne: from ca 1890: sharpers' s. verging on c. cf.:

riffle

, v. To do this (see the n.): same period, status and authority. 2. See:

rifle

; in C.17, often riffle. To coït with, or to caress sexually, a woman: coll verging on S.E.: C.17–20; ob. Prob. ex the S.E. rifle, (of a hawk) to tread (the hen).

rifler

*. In PRIGGING LAW (horse-stealing), app. he who takes away the stolen horse: c. of late C.16–early 17. Greene’s Second Cony-Catching, 1592.

rifting

, vbl n. Cleaning gear, harness, etc.: Regular Army: late C.19–20. Perhaps ex dial. rift, ‘to break up (grass-land) with the plough’.

rig

. Ridicule, esp. in run one’s rig upon a person: from ca 1720: s. till C.19, then coll; in C.20, dial. Thackeray. 2. A trick or DODGE; a swindling scheme or method: 1775, Anon., ‘I’m up to all your knowing rigs.’ cf. RIG SALE. 3. A prank; a mischievous or a wanton act: coll: from ca 1720; ob. 4. A (somewhat SHADY) manipulation of the money-market; a corner: 1877 (O.E.D.); s. >, ca 1890, coll. (Senses 2–4 follow naturally ex sense 1.) 5. Outfit; (style of) dress: coll: mid-C.19–20. Ex the rig of a ship; but cf. the v., 3. Also RIG-OUT and -UP.

rig

, v. To play tricks on, to befool: from ca 1820: s. >, ca 1860, coll. Ex the n., 1 and 3. 2. Hence, to manipulate illegally or illicitly: from ca 1850: s. >, ca 1880, coll; slightly ob. cf. RIG THE MARKET and RIG UP, v. 3. To clothe; supply with clothes: from ca 1530: S.E. until C.19, then coll. Sporting Magazine, 1821, ‘The gentlemen were neatly rigged, and looked the thing to a T.’ cf. RIG OUT, v.

rig, run a or the

; run one's rigs. To play pranks, even if wanton ones; run riot: s. >, ca 1820, coll: thus, Cowper, 1782, 'He little dreamt, when he set out,|Of running such a rig!'; r. the r., 1797; r. one's rigs, 1802.

rig-me-role

. See RIGMAROLE. Only in C.18.

rig-mutton

. A wanton: coll: C.17–18. Elaboration of rig, a wanton.

rig-my-role or -roll

. See RIGMAROLE. C.18 only.

rig-of-the-day, the

. The Service dress to be worn on the day concerned: naval coll: since ca 1880.

rig-out

, n. An outfit; (esp. a suit of) clothes, a costume: coll: from ca 1820. cf. RIG, n., 5, v., 3; RIG-UP; and:

rig out

, v. To dress; provide with clothes: from ca 1610: S.E. until C.19, then coll.

rig sale

. An auction-sale under false pretences: 1851, Chambers's Journal.

rig the market

. To engineer the (money-) market in order to profit by the ensuing rise or fall in prices: 1855, Tom Taylor, 'We must rig the market. Go in and buy up every share that's offered.' Ex RIG, v., 2, and n., 4.

rig-up

, n. An outfit; (style of) dress: coll: from ca 1895; ob. cf. RIG-OUT, n.

rig up

, v.t. To send (prices) up by artifice or manipulation: commercial s.: 1884, Pall Matt Gazette, 14 Feb. Ex RIG, v., 2.

rigby

, see RIGSBY.

rigged

. Ppl adj. of RIG, v., 2: O.E.D. records at 1879, but prob. considerably older. 2. Of v., 3.

riggen

(riggin; properly, rigging), ride the. To be extremely intimate: dial. and low coll: C.19–20; òb. Here riggen (rigging) is the back(bone), though the coll use may have been influenced by sartorial RIGGING.

rigger

. A racing boat: Durham School: late C.19–20. ?ex: 2. Outrigger: coll abbr.: late C.19–20. 3. A thimble-rigger: from ca 1830: low coll >, by 1900, S.E. 4. One who ‘rigs’ an auction (1859) or the market (1883): s.

riggers

. Clothes made to look like new: low: ca 1820–80. Sessions, Oct. 1840 (p. 1044). Ex RIG, v., 2, with pun on RIG, n., 5.

rigging

. See RIGGEN, RIDE THE. 2. Clothes: C.17–20; òb. Not c., as B.E. asserts, but s. 3. The vbl n. of RIG, v., 2.

rigging, climb the

, see CLIMB THE RIGGING. rigging, ride the, see RIGGEN, RIDE THE.

rigging, rum

*. Fine clothes: c.: late C.17–18.

riggmonrowle

. An occ. C.18 form of RIGMAROLE.

right

, adj. See RIGHT, ALL; RIGHT AS... RIGHT ENOUGH; RIGHT YOU ARE! 2. Favourably disposed to, trustable by, the underworld: c.: ca 1865, 'No. 747' has right screw, a 'good fellow' warder.

right, a bit of all

. Excellent; most attractive, delightful: coll: from ca 1870. Often applied by a fellow to a girl, with the connotation that she is very pretty or very charming or, in the sexual act, ardent or expert (or both). Slightly ob. cf. the mock-French translation: un petit morceau de tout droit.

right!, all

. Certainly!; gladly!: 1837, Dickens: coll. Like next entry, prob. ex c. sense (ca 1810–50), ‘All’s safe or in good order or as desired’: Lex. Bal. cf. RIGHT YOU ARE!

right, all

, adj. and adv. As expected; safe(ly); satisfactor(il)y: coll: 1844, Edward FitzGerald, ‘I got your letter all right.’ Ex preceding entry.

Right, Mr

; Miss R. The right person—the person one is destined to marry (i.e. he or she who, before marriage, seems to be the right life-partner): coll: Sala, 1860, ‘Mr Right’; Kipling, 1890, ‘Miss Right’.

right as

... There are various coll phrases denoting that one is quite well or comfortable or secure, that a thing, a job, a prospect, etc., is dependable or quite safe: right as a fiddle (–1903; F. & H.), an ob. corruption of the much earlier fit as a fiddle; ...a line (C.15–early 17; e.g. Chapman); ...a trivet (1837, Dickens);...anything (–1903; F. & H. Very gen.);...my glove (1816, Scott; ob.);...my leg (C.17–18; e.g. Farquhar);...ninepence (1850, Smedley), in C.19 often nice as ninepence (H., 5th ed.);...rain (1894,W.Raymond); ...the bank (1890,‘Rolf Boldrewood’, ?on safe as the Bank of England).

right as a ram's horn

. (Very) crooked: ironic coll: C.14–17 (?early 18). Lydgate, Skelton, Ray. cf. the late C.19–20 coll as STRAIGHT (occ. as crooked) AS A DOG'S HIND LEG.

right away

. Immediately, directly: U.S. (–1842), perhaps ex Eng. dial.; anglicized as coll by 1880.

right cool fish

. 'One who is not particular what he says or does', Spy, 1825; Eton: ca 1810–90.

right-coloured stuff

. Money: Norfolk s. (–1872), not dial.

right-down

. Downright, outright; veritable: low coll (–1887). Baumann, 'A right-down swindle'. Ex dial., which has also right-up-and-down.

right down

, adv. Wholly, quite: coll: Jan. 1835, Sessions, 'I was right down certain that the money was bad'; ob.

right enough

, adj. Esp. in that's right enough=that's all right so far as it goes (but it doesn't go nearly far enough); or, that's all right from your point of view. Coll: late C.19–20. Contrast:

right enough

, adv. All right, well enough; esp., all right (or well enough) although you may not at present think so. Coll: from ca 1880; 1885, Anstey's The Tinted Venus. cf. preceding entry.

right eye, or hand, itches,—(and) my

. A coll c.p.; the former denotes prospective weeping, the latter (an unexpected) heritage or gift of money: C.18. Swift.

right forepart

. (One's) wife: tailors': late C.19–20. Ex tailoring j.

right in one's, or the, head

. (Gen. preceded by not.) (Un)sound of mind: coll: C.19–20. App. orig. dial.: cf. the Scottish no richt.

right off, put

. To give a violent distaste for a thing, a plan, or dislike for a person: coll: late C.19–20.

right sort

. Gin: low: ca 1820–50. ‘Peter Corcoran’ Reynolds.

right tenpenny on the cranium, hit

. To hit the nail on the head: non-aristocratic jocular coll: ca 1890–1915.

right up and down, like a yard of pumpwater

. Straightforward and in earnest: nautical: mid-C.19–20. cf. RIGHT-DOWN.

right you are

! ALL RIGHT!; certainly!; agreed: s. (–1864). Churchward, 1888 ‘Right you are; I don’t think I’ll go up.’

righteous

. Excellent, e.g. ‘a righteous day’, a fine one: coll: from ca 1860. Contrast WICKED.

righteous, more holy than

. Very holey or tattered: late C.19–20. Applied to both persons (now ob.) and, always more gen., garments, esp. socks, stockings. (This kind of pun is rare among the upper and upper-middle classes.)

rights, be to

*. To have a clear (legal) case against one: c. of ca 1850–1910.

rights, catch (bang) to

*. To catch (a person) doing something he ought not to do: c.: from ca 1860. cf. last entry.

rigmarole

; in C.18, occ. rigmarol. A string of incoherent statements; a disjointed or rambling speech, discourse, story; a trivial or almost senseless harangue: coll: from ca 1730. Mme D'Arblay, 1779. A corruption of ragman roll, C.13–early 16, a rambling-verse game; also a list, a catalogue. (Other C.18 variations are rig-me-role, my-roll or -role, and riggmonrowle.) 2. (Without a or the.) Such language: coll: C.19–20.

rigmarole

, adj. (With variant spellings as for the n.) Incoherent; rambling: trivially long-winded: coll: from ca 1750. Richardson, 1753, 'You must all...go on in one rig-my-roll way'; 1870, Miss Bridgman, 'A rigmarole letter'.

rigmarole

, v.i. To talk rigmarole: coll: from ca 1830.

rigmarolish

. Rather like a rigmarole: coll: 1827, J.W.Crocker. The adv. (-ly) is too seldom used to be eligible.

rigs

. See RIG, n., 1, and RIG, RUN A.

rigs, up to one's or the

. Wide-awake, FLY; expert: s.: C.19–20; ob. In late C.18–early 19, up...rig.

rigsby

. A wanton; a romping (lad or) girl: coll: from ca 1540. In late C.17–20, only dial. In C.16, occ. rigby. Ex rig, a wanton.

rile

. To vex, anger: coll: U.S. (1825), anglicized ca 1850, though the consciousness of its U.S. origin remained until ca 1890; the v.i. rile up, grow angry, has not been acclimatized in Britain. A later form of S.E. roil.

riled

, ppl adj. Vexed, annoyed, angry: see RILE. riling, annoying, etc.: id.

rim-rack

. To strain or damage (a vessel), esp. by driving her too hard in a sea: Grand Banks fishermen's coll: late C.19–20. Prob. cognate with the Aberdeen rim-raxing, a surfeit (-ing).

rimble-ramble

, n. and adj. Nonsense, non-sensical: late C.17 coll. Reduplication on ramble.

rimp

. To sprint; a sprint: Christ's Hospital: late C.19–20. Ex the Homeric adverb ρίμφα, swiftly.

rinder

. An outsider: Queen's University, Belfast: mid-C.19–20. Ex rind of fruit.

ring (gen. with the)

. The female pudend: low coll verging on euphemistic S.E.—or is it the other way about? C.16–20, but rare after C.18. Also black—hairy—Hans Carvel's ring. 2. 'Money extorted by Rogues on the High-way or by Gentlemen Beggars', B.E.: c. of late C.17—early 19. By 1785, it applied to any beggars; 'from its ringing when thrown to them', Grose. 3. Anus (also ring-piece): low: late C.19–20.

ring

, v. To manipulate: change illicitly: from ca 1785: perhaps orig. c.; certainly low s. (See ring the CHANGES.) 2. Simply to change or exchange: from ca 1810: orig. low, then gen. s. 3. Hence, or ex sense 1, to cheat (v.i.; also ring it): low: late C.19–20. 4. v. reflexive: c. from ca 1860, as explained in the Cornhill Magazine, 1863 (vii, 91), 'When housebreakers are disturbed and have to abandon their plunder they say that they have rung themselves.' 5. See RING IN. 6. v.i. (of cattle), to circle about: Australian coll (–1884 >, ca 1910, S.E. 'Rolf Boldrewood'. 7. Even more essentially Australian is ring, v.i. and v.t., to shear the most sheep in a day or during a shearing (at a shearing-shed): from ca 1895: coll. A.B.Paterson (Banjo as Australians affectionately call him), 1896, 'The man that "rung" the Tubbo shed is not the ringer here.' See RINGER, 2. 8. See RING A PEAL.

ring, cracked in the

. No longer virgin: late C.16–20; ob.: coll. In C.16–17, occ. clipped (with)in the ring. Lyly; Beaumont & Fletcher. See RING, n., 1. Punning on the †S.E. use, of coins so damaged as to be valueless.

ring, go through the

. To go bankrupt: commercial: ca 1840–80. ?ex circus.

ring, lose one's

. To lose one's virginity: coll: C.19–20. cf. RING, n., 1, and cracked in the RING.

ring (a person) a peal

. To scold: coll: C.18–mid-19. Grose, 2nd ed., 'Chiefly applied to women. His wife rung him a fine peal!'

ring-dropper, -faller

*. One who practises RING-DROPPING: c.: resp. from ca 1795 and ca 1560–1600. cf. FAWNEY-DROPPER, and:

ring-dropping

*. The dropping of a 'gold' ring and subsequent prevailing on some MUG (n., 4) to buy it at a fair price for gold: c.: from ca 1820.

ring in

. To insert, esp. to substitute, fraudulently: from ca 1810: orig., perhaps c., certainly at least low s. (Notably in gambling.) cf. RING, v., 1.

ring it

. The v.i. form of the preceding: low: late C.19–20. 2. See RING, v., 2.

ring-man

. The ring-finger: from ca 1480: coll till C.18, then dial. Ascham.

ring-neck

. A jackaroo: Australian coll: 1898, Morris, ‘In reference to the white collar not infrequently worn by a Jackaroo on his first appearance’.

ring-pigger

. A drunkard: coll: ca 1560–1600. Levins.

ring-tail

. A recruit: military: ca 1860–1914. cf. ROOK(E)Y; SNOOKER. 2. A novice: Canadian: late C.19–20, ex U.S.

ring the changes

, see CHANGES, RING THE.

ringer

. A bell: (low) coll: late C.19–20; ob. 2. An excellent person or thing, esp. with REGULAR: Australian: 1894, Geelong Grammar School Quarterly, April, ‘Another favourite [school] phrase is a “regular ringer”.’ Ex ringer, that shearer who does the most sheep.

ringie, the

. The man who, at two-up, keeps the ring, arranges the wagers, and pays out the winnings: Australian and New Zealand coll: late C.19–20.

ringing castors

*. The practice of substituting bad hats for good: c. (–1812); virtually †. Ex RING, v., 2.

ringing the horse-shoes

. A welcome to a man who has been out boozing: tailors’: mid-C.19–20.

rings

. Abbreviated reference to an officer's rank, denoted by the number of rings on his sleeve: since ca 1890 in the Navy.

rings round, run

. To beat hollow: Australian s. (–1891). Argus, 10 Oct. 1891. Ex sport, prob. ex Rugby, or ex Australian football. cf. CIRCLING-BOY.

rink, get out of one's

. To sow wild oats: coll: from ca 1870. Perhaps ex skating; prob. ex Scots rink, 'the sets of players' forming sides at curling and quoit-playing.

rino

, see RHINO.

rinse

. A wash: coll: 1837, Dickens, "I may as vel have a rinse," remarked Mr Weller.' 2. A drink: from ca 1870; ob.

rinse

, v. i. To drink, esp. liquor: from ca 1870. Prob. ex rinse down (with liquor).

rinse-pitcher

. A toper: coll: ca 1550–1640. Bullein.

Rio

. Rio de Janeiro: coll, mostly nautical: mid-C.19–20.

Riot Act (to), read the

. To reprove, administer a reproof: coll: from ca 1880.

rip

. A mild term of reproof: coll and dial.: C.19–20. Ex rip, a rake, which may be ex reprobate. Rarely applied to a female. 2. A quick run, a rush: coll ex dial.: from ca 1870; ob. in coll. 3. A sword: ca 1690–1750. Ned Ward, 1700. Proleptic.

rip

! An exclamation: coll: late C.16–mid-17. cf. RIP ME!

rip!, let her or him

. A callous punning on r.i.p., i. e. requiescat in pace, let him (her) rest in peace. Late C.19–20. cf. R.I.P.!, LET...

rip and tear

. To be very angry: from ca 1870 (ob.): coll and dial. Prob. on rip and swear, an intensive of dial. rip, to use bad language, to swear.

rip into

. To attack, to fight, (someone) with one's fists: Australian: late C.19–20.

rip me

! A low coll asseveration: mid-C. 19–early 20. Marriott-Watson.

ripe

. Drunk: C.19–20; ob. Either ex reeling-ripe (Shakespeare, Tennyson) or ex ripe, (of liquor) fully matured, with the occ. connotation of potent, or merely suggested by mellow.

ripper

. A person or thing esp. good: 1838, of a ball bowled extremely well at cricket; 1851, Mayhew. Prob. ex RIPPING, adj. 2. In boxing, a knock-down blow: from ca 1860; very ob. 3. A notable lie: from ca 1860; ob. cf. WHOPPER. 4. One behaving recklessly; a RIP: 1877 (O.E.D.); ob. 5. A longshoreman taking his fish inland to sell: fishermen's: late C.19–20.

ripping

, n. A ceremony (involving the ripping of his gown), 'incidental to the departure of a Senior Colleger for King's College, Cambridge', F. & H.: Eton College: C.19–20: s. > coll > j.

ripping

, adj. Excellent; very fast; very entertaining: 1826, Sporting Magazine, 'At a ripping pace'; 1858, 'Ripping Burton' (ale). cf. RATTLE, v.; STUNNING; THUNDERING. 2. Occ. it verges on the adverbial, as in 'A ripping fine story' (Baumann, 1887) and 'A ripping good testimonial' (Conan Doyle, 1894). cf.:

rippingly

. Excellently: capitally; splendidly: 1892, Hume Nisbet.

ripstone

. An incorrect form of RIBSTONE: Dickens in Pickwick.

rise

. A rise in salary: coll >, ca 1890, S.E.: 1837, Dickens, 'Eighteen bob a-week, and a rise if he behaved himself. 2. In Australia, 'an accession of fortune', C.J.Dennis: coll: late C.19–20. 3. A fit of anger: Eton s. (–1880); Cockney coll (–1895). 4. A disturbance or commotion: low: ca 1840–70. Sinks, 1848.

rise

, v. To raise, grow, rear: coll: 1844, Dickens, 'Where was you rose?' O.E.D. 2. To listen credulously, often with the connotation of to grow foolishly angry: coll: 1856, Whyte-Melville. Ex a fish rising to the bait: cf. BITE, V., 3 and the S.E. get, have, or take a rise out of a person.

rise, get a

. To experience an erection: coll: late C.19–20. 2. To cause someone to BITE (3): coll: late C.19–20. Ex angling.

rise a barney

. To collect a crowd: showmen's: from ca 1855.

rise and shine

, see ROUSE AND SHINE.

rise (or raise) arse upwards

. To be lucky: coll: ca 1670–1800. Ray. Rising thus from the ground was regarded as lucky.

rise the plant

, see PLANT, RISE THE.

risk, take a

. To risk venereal infection: euphemistic coll: mid-C.19–20.

risky

. Secretly adulterous: Society coll: ca 1890–1905. ‘John Strange Winter’.

rispin

, see RESPUN.

Rit, rit

. A ritualistic Anglican clergyman: university: ca 1870–1910.

ritualistic knee

. A sore knee caused by kneeling at prayers: medical coll: ca 1840–60.

River Lea

. Tea: rhyming s. (–1859); until ca 1900. 2. The sea: id.: (–1903).

River Ouse

. A drink; a drinking-bout: rhyming s. (on BOOZE): late C.19–20.

river(-)rat

. ‘A riverside thief: specifically one who robs the corpses of men drowned’, F. & H. In the former sense, S.E.; in the latter, c.: from ca 1880.

river tick; gen. River Tick

. Standing debts discharged at the end of one’s undergraduate days: Oxford University: ca 1820–50.

rivets

. Money: from ca 1840. Prob. suggested by BRADS.

rivet(t)ed

, ppl adj. Married: app. ca 1695–1730. Congreve, The Way of the World, 1700. cf. ‘the modern spliced and tied up, the Scottish buckled, and the Australian hitched or...hitched up’, Slang, p. 64.

rizzle

. To enjoy a short period of absolute idleness after a meal: provincial s.: 1890, Cassell’s Saturday Journal, 2 Aug., ‘the newest of new verbs’. Perhaps ex dial. rizzle, to dry by the heat of sun or fire, via the notion of sunning oneself.

roach, sound as a

, see SOUND AS...

roach and dace

. The face: rhyming s. (—1874).

road

. A harlot: coll: late C.16–17. Shakespeare. 2. The female pudend. C.(?)17–20, very ob.: either low coll or S.E. euphemism. cf. ROAD-MAKING. 3. Way, manner; esp. in any road, occ. anyroad: non-aristocratic, non-cultured coll: late C.19–20. In dial. before 1886; Australian by 1888 (Boldrewood). Ex: 4. Direction; esp. all roads, in every direction: (mostly lower-class) coll: mid-C.19–20.

road, gentleman or knight of the

. A high-wayman: C.18–19: coll > journalistic S.E. See the paragraph at KNIGHT.

road-hog

. An inconsiderate (cyclist or) motorist: 1898 (O.E.D.), though, in U.S., as early as 1891, of a cyclist: coll.

road-making

; road up for repairs. A low phrase indicating menstruation: mid-C.19–20. See ROAD, 2.

road-starver

*. A long coat without pockets: mendicants' c.: ca 1881–1914.

roader

. 'A parcel to be put out at a roadside station', The Times, 14 Feb. 1902: railway coll. 2. A young SWELL in the Mile End Road: East London (—1909).

roadster

. A tramp: late C.19–20.

roaf

. (cf. ROUF.) Four: back s. (—1874). Ex the sol. pronunciation of four as foär or foër. 2. Whence (same period) roaf GEN, four shillings; roaf yanneps, fourpence.

roam on the rush

. (Of a jockey) to swerve from the straight line at the finish [of a race] when the rush takes place: turf: from ca 1870.

roar

. (Of horses) to breathe noisily: 1880: coll >, in C.20, S.E. cf. ROARER, 1. 2. (Of cattle) to low continuously, whence the n. roaring: Australian coll: late C.19–20.

roar up

. To speak abusively to; shout at: lower classes': from ca 1905.

roaratorio

, see RORATORIO. roaration, see RORATION. roaratorious, see RORITORIOUS.

roarer

. A broken-winded horse: from ca 1810: coll >, ca 1900, S.E. Lex. Bal. cf. ROAR, v. 2. A riotously noisy reveller or bully: late C.16–early 18: coll. D.Rowland, 1586; 1709, Steele. Ex roar, rore, to riot. 3. A noisy or a rousing song: 1837, Marryat: coll.

roarin' horn

. An urgent erection: low Australian: late C.19–20. cf. ROARING JACK below.

roaring

. The disease in horses noted at ROAR and at ROARER, 1. From ca 1820: coll >, by 1900, S.E.

roaring

, adj. Brisk, successful, esp. in roaring trade: from ca 1790: coll >, ca 1860, S.E. 2. Boisterous; (of health) exuberant: 1848, Thackeray.

roaring blade, boy, girl, lad, ruffian

. A street bully; a riotous, noisy, lawless female: C.17–mid-18 (later, only archaic): coll. A roaring blade, 1640, Humphry Mill; r. boy, 1611, J.Davies; r. girl, 1611, Middleton & Dekker (title); r. lad, 1658, Rowley, etc. (but current from ca 1610); r. ruffian, 1664, Cotton, roaring forties, R.F.

‘The degrees of latitude between 40° and 50° N—the most tempestuous part of the Atlantic’, F. & H.; occ. the corresponding zone in the South Atlantic. Nautical coll. From ca 1880.

roaring Jack, have a

. To have an urgent erection: low: late C.19–20. Clamant—and cf. JACK IN A BOX, 8.

roaring ruffian

, see ROARING BLADE.

roast

*. To arrest: c.: late C.17–early 19. Perhaps on (ar)rest, via the idea of giving a person a hot time. 2. (Also roast brown.) To watch closely: c.: 1888, G.R.Sims, ‘A reeler was roasting me brown.’ cf. ROASTING, n., c. sense. 3. To ridicule, to quiz (a person), severely or cruelly: 1726, Shelvocke: s. >, ca 1760, coll; ob. cf. to WARM. 4. In telegraphy, to click off a message so fast that it cannot be followed by (a person; v.t.): 1888 (O.E.D.): telegraph-operators’.

roast, smell of the

. To get into prison: coll: ca 1580–1640. Nares.

roast a stone

. To waste time and energy: coll: ca 1520–1620. Skelton.

roast-beef dress

. Full uniform: naval coll: C.19. cf. roast-beef coat in Alfred Burton, Johnny Newcome, 1818. Either ex ROAST-MEAT CLOTHES, or ex the uniform of the royal beef-eaters.

roast (h)and an(d) new (or noo)

. Roast shoulder (of mutton) and new potatoes: eating-house waiters' (–1909).

roast meat, cry

. To talk about one's good fortune or good luck: coll: C.17–early 19. Camden, B.E., Grose, Fielding, Lamb. Northall, 1894, notes that in dial. it also= to boast of women's favours.

roast meat and beat with the spit, give

(a person). 'To do one a Curtesy, and Twit or Upbraid him with it', B.E.: coll: ca 1670–1820.

roast-meat clothes

. Sunday or holiday clothes: coll: late C.17–mid-19.

roast meat for worms, make

(one). To kill: coll: late C.16–early 18. Shakespeare. cf. the jocular S.E. food for the worms.

roast snow in a furnace

. To attempt the absurd or unnecessary: coll: C.19–20; ob.

roaster

. An extremely hot day: a heat wave: coll: late C.19–20.

roasting

, vbl n. of ROAST, v., in all senses except the first; sense 2 occurs mostly in give (one) a roasting, recorded for 1879, and get a roasting, to be very closely watched.

roasting-jack

. The female pudend: low: mid-C.19–20; ob. Ex S.E. sense.

rob(-o’)-Davy

. Metheglin: a mid-C.16– mid-17 coll variation of roberdavy. Taylor the Water Poet.

rob Peter to pay Paul

, see PETER TO PAY PAUL, ROB.

rob the barber

. To wear long hair: lower classes’ coll: late C.19–20.

rob(-)the(-)ruffian

. The female pudend: low coll: C.19–20; ob.

roba

, see BONA ROBA.

robbo

. A cab or buggy plying for hire: Australian: ca 1880–1910. Ex robber.

robe

. A wardrobe: furniture-dealers' coll: late C.19–20. cf. BOARD, n.; they may be written 'board and 'robe.

Roberdsmen, Robert's men

*, etc. 'The third (old) Rank of the Canting Crew, mighty Thieves, like Robin-hood', B.E.: c.: C.16–17. In other than this technical sense, it covers the period C.14–20 and is S.E., though long archaic. Prob. on Robert+ robber.

Robert

; Roberto. A policeman: coll: resp. 1870, ca 1890; both ob. Ex Robert Peel. cf. PEELER.
2. A shilling; esp. in accept Her Majesty's Robert, to enlist in the Regular Army: military: ca 1860–1901. On BOB.

robin

. See ROBIN REDBREAST. 2. A penny: low: from ca 1890; ob. 3. A 'little boy or girl beggar standing about like a starving robin': c. and low: late C.19–20; ob. Ware.

Robin Hog

. (Prob.) a constable: coll: early C.18.

Robin Hood

. An audacious lie: coll: ?C. 18–19. Abbr. tale of Robin Hood.

Robin Hood

, adj. Good: from ca 1870.

Robin Hood('s) bargain

. A great bargain: Coll: C.18. cf. PENNYWORTH, ROBIN HOOD('S).

Robin Hood's choice

. This—or nothing. Coll: C.17.

Robin Hood's mile

. A distance two or three times greater than a mile: coll: ca 1550–1700. Almost proverbial.

Robin Redbreast

; r.r. A Bow-Street runner: ca 1820–70. Also robin and RED BREAST.

Robin Ruddock

. Gold coin: ?late C.16– mid-18. See RUDDOCK, 1.

robin's-eye

. A scab (sore): low: mid-C. 19–20; ob. Ex shape.

Robinson

, see JACK ROBINSON.

Robinson Crusoe

. Do so: from ca 1890.

robustious

was, ca 1740–90, a coll. See esp. Johnson.

Roby Douglas

. The anus: nautical: ca 1780–1850. Grose, 1785, ‘One eye and a stinking breath’: which indicates an allusion to one so named.

Rochester portion

. ‘Two torn Smocks, and what Nature gave’, B.E.: late C.17–early 19. (N.B., portion is marriage-portion, dot; what=physical charms in gen., but esp. the genitals in particular.) cf. the C.18–19 equivalent, a WHITECHAPEL PORTION. Pegge, 1735, cites R. p. as a Kentish proverb.

rock

. School (opp. to baker’s) bread: Derby School: from ca 1850. Less s. than coll > j. 2. A medium-sized stone: Winchester School coll: from ca 1860. Perhaps owing to U.S. and Australian use of rock as a stone however small.

rock

*, v. To speak: tramps’ c. (–1893); very ob. Abbr. ROCKER.

rock-a-low

. An overcoat: dial. and (low) coll (–1860); ob. by 1890.=Fr. roquelaure.

rock-creeper

. A coastal ship: nautical: since ca 1870.

rock-nosing

. Inshore boat work in the old whalers: whalers' coll: ca 1850–1910. Bowen.

rock of eye and rule of thumb, do by

. To guess instead of measuring precisely: tailors': from ca 1860. Presumably rock= a movement to and fro.

Rock(-)Scorpion

. A mongrel Gibraltarine: naval, military: 1818, A.Burton. cf. S.E. Rock English, the Lingua Franca spoken at Gibraltar (Borrow, 1842).

rocked

. Absent-minded, forgetful: low (–1812); †by 1900. Ex:

rocked in a stone kitchen

. A little weak in the head; foolish: coll: late C.18–mid-19. Grose, 2nd ed., 'His brains having been disordered by the jumbling of his cradle' on the stone floor. cf. HALF-ROCKED.

rocker (or rocker)

*; (occ. ROCK). To speak: tramps' c.: from ca 1850; since ca 1900, gen. low s. (–1818). C.Hindley, 1876, 'Can you rocker Romany...?'; A. Morrison, 1894, 'Hewitt could rocker better than most Romany chals themselves.' Ex Romany rocker (Sampson's raker) to talk, speak, with variant voker (cf. L. vox, vocare); cf. Romany rocker(o)mengro, lit. a talk-man, i.e. a lawyer.

rocker, off one's

. (Temporarily) mad; extremely eccentric: low: 1897 (O.E.D.). Ex the piece of wood that enables a chair or a cradle to rock.

rockiness

. Crazy: from ca 1898. Ex S.E. term influenced by off one's ROCKER.

rocks, on the

. Without means: coll (–1889). Ex stranded ship.

rocks, pile up the

. To make money: U.S. (rocks, money, 1847), partly anglicized ca 1895. Kipling uses it in 1897. Prob. ex rock=a nugget: cf. ROCK, n., 2.

rocks and boulders

. (The) shoulders: rhyming s.: late C.19–20.

rocky

, adj. A vague pejorative: e.g. unsatisfactory (weather), unpleasant or hard (for, on a person): 1883 (O.E.D.). Ex S.E. rocky, unsteady, unstable, tipsy. Hence go rocky, go wrong.

rod

. The penis: coll: C.18–20. Also fishing-rod: C.19–20: s. cf. the Fr. verge, which is literary.

rod

, v.i. and t. To coït (with): low: C.19–20. Ex the n.

rod at, or under, one's girdle

. With various vv., it implies a whipping, present or past: coll verging on S.E.: ca 1579–1620. Lyly, Jonson.

rod-maker

. ‘The man who made the rods used in BIBLING’, Mansfield, referring to ca 1840: Winchester School: coll > j.

rod dy

. A rhododendron: London lowerclass coll: 1851, Mayhew.

rod ger

, see ROGER, v.

rod ney or R.

A (very) idle fellow: coll: ca 1865–1910. Ex dial., where still extant, in the North and Midlands. cf. the sad declension of SAWNEY.

roe

. The semen: low: from ca 1850; ob. Hence, shoot one’s roe, emit. Ex fish-roe. Possibly extant far earlier, in view of Mercutio’s jibe at Romeo, ‘Without his roe, like a dried herring’ (R & J, II, iv).

rofe fil

; occ. ro(u)f-e fil. A life sentence: back s. (–1859) of for life. On for life.

roge, roging

*. C.16–17 forms of ROGUE, ROGUING.

roger

*. A beggar pretending to be a university scholar: c. of mid-C.16. Copland. cf. ROGUE. 2. A goose: c.: mid-C. 16–18. Also Roger (or Tib) of the buttery: C.16–18. 3. A portmanteau: c.: late C.17– early 19. Perhaps a corruption of poge (see POKE, n.). 4. A thief-taker: c. of ca 1720–60. ?via postulated rogue-er, a taker of rogues. 5. The penis: from ca 1650: perhaps orig. c. Ex the name Roger: cf. DICK, 4; JOHN THOMAS. 6. A ram: rural coll of ca 1760–1900. Ex the name. 7. A bull: coll (–1785); ob. 8. See ROGER, JOLLY. 9. See OLD ROGER.

roger

; often rodger, v. To coït with (a woman): perhaps orig. c. In The Secret Diary of William Byrd of Westover, 1709–1712, this gentleman of Virginia was using roger for all his sexual relations with his wife, e.g. ‘I rogered her lustily’ (26 Dec. 1711) and ‘I lay abed till 9 o’clock this morning...and rogered her by way of reconciliation’(1 Jan.1712). Grose, 1st ed., ‘From the name Roger, frequently given to a bull.’

Roger, jolly

; in late C.19–20, occ. Roger. A pirate’s flag: 1785, Grose: coll >, ca 1850, S.E. Earliest record, 1723, as OLD ROGER (W.). (A white skull in a black field; ironic.)

Roger Gough

. Scrub (or brush) bloodwood: Australian coll: from early 1880s. ‘An absurd name’, Morris: either ex the general that won the battles of Sobraon and Ferozeshah, or, as the Australasian, 28 Aug. 1896, suggests, a corruption of an Aboriginal word now lost.

Roger (or Tib) of the buttery

*; or r. (or t.) ..., see ROGER, n., 2.

Rogers

. A ghastly countenance: Society: ca 1830–50. Ware. Ex Rogers, the poet, when old, or ex the Jolly ROGER of the pirates.

roglan

. A four-wheeled vehicle: Shelta: C.18–20.

rogue

*. A professed beggar of the 4th Order of Canfers: c.: mid-C.16–17; then historical. Awdelay implies it in wild rogue; Dekker; B.E.; Grose. Whence S.E. senses. Perhaps an abbr. of ROGER, n., 1, of problematic origin, unless a perversion of †rorer, a turbulent fellow, on L. rogare, to ask. 2. Short for ROGUE AND VILLAIN.

rogue

*, v. To be a beggar, a vagrant: c. of ca 1570–1630. Ex the n.

rogue, wild

*, A born rogue ever on tramp or-a-begging: c.: ca 1560–1700. Awdelay.

rogue and pullet

*, A man and woman confederate in theft: c.: mid-C.19–20.

rogue and villain

. A shilling: rhyming s. (–1857). On shillin'.

rogue in grain

. A corn-chandler: ca 1780–1840. Lit., a great rogue. cf.:

rogue in spirit

. 'A distiller or brandy merchant', Grose, 2nd ed.: ca 1780–1840. Prob. suggested by ROGUE IN GRAIN, with a pun on spirit(s).

rogue wlt h one ear

. A chamber-pot: late C.17–early 18. Randle Holme.

rogue's salute

. The single gun on the morning of a court-martial: naval jocular coll: late C.19–20. Bowen.

rogue's yarn

. 'Coloured thread found in the heart of government rope to prevent its being stolen' (Granville); naval coll: C. 19–20.

roguing

*, n. Tramping as rogue or vagrant: ca 1575–1720: prob. orig. c. Harrison, 1577. The c. origin is postulated, for roguing is ex ROGUE, n., via the v. cf.:

roguishness

*. The being a ROGUE: late C.16–early 17: prob. orig. c.

rogum poguin, or dragum pogram (-um)

. The plant goat's beard eaten as asparagus: late C.18–mid-19: less s. than dial. and low coll. Grose, 3rd ed., 'So called by the ladies'—ironic, this—'who gather cresses, &c.'

roister, royster

*. In C.17–early 18 c., one of a band of 'rude, Roaring Rogues', B.E.

roker

. A ruler (esp. flat roker): stick; poker: schools': from ca 1850. Ex roke, to stir a fire, a liquid: Halliwell.

roker (rare), rokker

*, v., see ROCKER.

roll

, n. See ROLLS. 2. Conceit; SIDE; presumption: Shrewsbury School: from ca 1870. By pun ex the words roll from side to side.

roll

, v. To rob (a drunken person): nautical: since ca 1810. Alfred Burton, Johnny Newcome, 1818.

roll in every rig

. To be up to every trick; be up-to-date: low. Old song, 1790, ‘We roll in every knowing rig.’

roll in one’s ivories or ivory

*. To kiss: 1780, Tomlinson in his Slang Pastoral, ‘To roll in her ivory, to pleasure her eye’. After ca 1850, always ivories. c.; ob. cf. ivory, IVORIES; e.g. flash the IVORIES.

roll into

. To pitch into; to thrash: coll: Australian (and U.S.): 1890, ‘Rolf Boldrewood’.

roll me in the dirt

(occ. hyphenated). A shirt: rhyming s. (–1874); †by 1915. In late C.19–20, DICKY (or Dicky) dirt.

roll me in the gutter

. Butter: rhyming s.: late C.19–20.

roll-me-in-the-kennel

. A spirituous liquor (?gin): ca 1720–50. See quotation at BUNTER’S TEA.

roll of snow

*. (A piece of) linen; (bundle of) underclothing: c. (–1839). Sec SNOW.

roll one’s hoop

. To go ahead; be successful (both with a connotation of playing safe): coll: from ca 1870; ob.

roll out

. To rise (esp. in the morning): coll: from ca 1880. Abbr. roll out of bed.

roll the leer

*. To pick pockets: c.: from ca 1820; †by 1900. Egan, Boxiana, III, ‘The boldest lad|That ever mill’d the cly, or roll’d the leer’.

roll up

. A roly-poly pudding: coll; in C. 20, S.E. and ob.: 1856 (O.E.D.). 1860, George Eliot. cf. DOG IN A BLANKET. 2. A meeting: Australian: 1861: coll; anticipated in Grose (at Hussar-Leg). ‘Rolf Boldrewood’, 1890, ‘As if you’d hired the bell-man for a roll-up’.

roll up

, v.i. To assemble: Australian s. 1887, J.Farrell, ‘The miners all rolled up to see the fun.’ cf. ROLL UP, n., 2.

rolled on Deal Beach

. Pitted with smallpox: nautical: late C.19–20. Bowen. Ex ‘the shingly nature of that beach’.

roller

. A roll-call: Oxford University: 1883 (O.E.D.). Occ. rollers. Oxford -er. 2. See:

rollers

*. The horse and foot (police) patrols: c.: ca 1810–40. Presumably because they rolled along at a great pace. 2. U.S. rolling stock: Stock Exchange: from ca 1885. 3. See ROLLER.

rolling

. Smart, clever: low: ca 1770–1870. ?ex rolling blade; cf. ROLLING KIDDY. 2. Very rich: coll: 1905, H.A.Vachell, ‘He’s going to marry a girl who’s simply rolling.’ Abbr. rolling in money (or wealth).

rolling billow

. A pillow: rhyming s.: late C.19–20.

rolling Joe

*. A smartly dressed fellow: app. ca 1830–90. cf. ROLLING, 1.

rolling kiddy

*. A smart thief: c.: ca 1820–90. Egan, ‘With rolling kiddies, Dick would dive and buy’; Lytton.

rolling off a log, (as) easy as

. Very easy, easily: U.S. (1847), anglicized as a coll ca 1870.

rolling-motion dickey

. The three-wavy-lined blue jean collar worn by the Royal Naval Volunteer Reserve before the First World War: naval: late C.19–early 20.

rolling-pin

. The male member: low: mid-C.19–20. cf. ROLY-POLY, 3.

rolls

. A baker: C.19–20. coll; ob. Also, but rather S.E. than coll, master of the rolls: mid-C.18–20; slightly ob. Adumbrated by Taylor the Water Poet.

roly-poly

. Un-deux-cinq (a game): Londoners': ca 1820–50. 2. A jam roll pud ding: 1848, Thackeray: coll till ca 1880, then S.E. Abbr. roly-poly pudding, also in Thackeray (1841). Also ROLL UP and DOG IN A BLANKET. 3. The penis: low: mid-C.19–20; ob.

rom

. See RUM (adj.). 2. Occ. among tramps, rom=a male Gypsy: from ca 1850. In Romany, rom is a bridegroom, a husband; any (adult) male Gypsy.

Roman

. 'A soldier in the foot guards, who gives up his pay to his captain for leave to work; serving like an ancient Roman, for glory and the love of his country', Grose, 1st ed.: military: ca 1780–1830. 2. See SKY.

Roman Candle

. A Roman Catholic: mostly Army: late C.19–20. Ex the use of candles.

Roman fall

. That affected posture in walking which throws the head well forward and puts the small of the back well in; mostly among men, the women favouring the GRECIAN BEND: coll: ca 1868–71. Orchestra, 25 March 1870.

Romany, patter

. To talk Romany: C.19–20: low. Vaux; Ainsworth.

Romany rye

. A gentleman who talks and associates with Gypsies: mid-C.19–20: coll. Ex Romany rai or rei, a gentleman. Popularized by Borrow's The Romany Rye, 1857.

romboyle, or -s

*. The watch (early police): mid-C.17–18 c. Occ. rumboile, -boyle.

romboyle

*. To make hue and cry; search for with a warrant: c.: late C.17–early 19. Esp. romboyed, wanted by the constables. Whence RUMBLE.

rombullion

, see RUMBULLION. rombustical, rombustious, see RUMBUSTICAL, RUMBUSTIOUS.

rome

*. See RUM, adj., 1. So for combinations, e.g. rome mort.

Rome, gone to

. See GONE TO ROME. cf. return from Rome, (of bells) to resume ringing after the forty-eight hours' Easter silence: Roman Catholic coll (–1890).

Rome-runner

. A person, esp. a cleric, constantly running off to Rome in search of spiritual and monetary profit: coll: mid-C.14–15.

Rome Ville, Romeville

*; in C.16–early 17, often -vyle; also Rumville. London: c.: mid-C.16–mid-19. Lit., excellent city. See RUM, c. adj., 1.

romely

*, see RUMLY.

Romeville

*, see ROME VILLE. Romford, see RUMFORD.

romp

. To move rapidly (and with ease): racing: from ca 1890. J.S.Winter, 1891, ‘To use the language of the turf, she romped clean away from them.’ cf.:

romp away with

. To win (a race) easily: racing s.: from ca 1890. Ex ROMP. cf.:

romp home or in

, v.i. To win very easily: racings. >, in C.20, gen. coll: 1888, ‘Thormanby’ (romp in); Sporting Life, 20 March 1891 (romp home, fig. of the winner of an athletic half-mile).

ronny

, see ROUNY.

roo, ’roo

. A rake: Society coll: mid-C.19–20; ob. i.e. roué. 2. A kangaroo: Australian: late C.19–20. Properly a termination: cf. kangaroo, potoroo, wallaroo.

roof

. A hat: 1857, Hughes; ob. 2. The head: 1897, ‘Pomes’ Marshall; slightly ob.

roof!, come off the

. Anon-aristocratic c.p. addressed to a person being high and mighty: from ca 1890; ob. W.Pett Ridge, Minor Dialogues, 1895.

roof-scraper

. A spectator at the back of the gallery: theatrical coll (–1909).

Rooinek

. A British immigrant (1897); in Boer War, a British soldier: Boers' nickname: late C.19–early 20. In South African Dutch, lit. red-neck. The name replaced rooibatje, red coat.

rook

*. A housebreaker's JEMMY or crow (whence rook): ca 1786–1850. 2. As a swindler or a sharper, from ca 1575, and until C.19, s. (in C.18, coll); perhaps orig. c. cf. HAWK. 3. A clergyman: 1859, H., 1st ed.; ob. Ex black clothes. 4. A sloven: tailors': from ca 1870; ob. ?because his laziness 'rooks' (see the v.) others of their time. ?or because rooks' nests are untidy. 5. A swindle: Australian: late C.19–20. cf. sense 2.

rook

, v. To cheat; defraud, and defraud of; charge extortionately: late C.16–20: s. (?orig. c.) >, in C.19, coll.

rookery

. A gambling-hell: coll: 1751, Smollett; ob. Like the next, ex ROOK, to cheat. 2. A brothel: coll: 1821, Egan; ob. 3. A densely populated slum: coll: 1823, Bee: coll till C.20, then S.E. Ex rookery, a colony of rooks. 4. The subalterns' quarters in barracks: military (–1860). Ex the noise. 5. A scolding-match, a row, disturbance: s. > coll: 1824 (O.E.D.). Also dial. cf. preceding sense.

rook(e)y

; rookie. A (raw) recruit: military: 1893, Kipling. A perversion of recruit, no doubt; but with a pun on rooky, rascally, scampish.

rooking

, vbl n. of ROOK, v.: mid-C.17–20.

room(e)

, adj., see RUM, adj., 1.

roomer

. A lodger, esp. if occupying only one room: coll: anglicized ca 1875 ex U.S.

roon

*; though rare in singular. A mushroom: tramps' c.: late C.19–20. By perversion of Kentish 'room.

roosher

*. A constable: c.: from ca 1870; ob. Either a corruption of ROZZER, or ex Scots rooser, ruser, a braggart.

roost

. A garret: low Scots coll: C.19–20. Jamieson, 1808. 2. A resting-place; a bed: coll. The London Guide, 1818. 3. A city-dweller affecting a hyphenated name was, in the 1890s, stigmatized by the country-dweller thus: Robb-Smith became Roost-Smith; Carter-Jones became Roost-Jones; and so forth.

roost

, v.i. To perch; seat oneself: coll: 1816, Scott. Ex fowls. 2. v.t., to imprison: military: ca 1870–1910. ?ex roster. 3. v.i., to cheat; v.t., roost over: also, to take a rise out of a person: low: from ca 1880; ob.

roost-lay

*. The practice—and art—of stealing poultry: c.: from ca 1810.

rooster

. The female pudend: low: mid-C. 19–20; ob. Where the COCK roosts. 2. See QUEER ROOSTER. 3. A member who makes himself heard: Parliamentary: from ca 1860; ob. 4. An angler keeping to one place: River Lea anglers' (–1909). 5. Penis: low: C.19–20. Orig. euphemistic for COCK. Contrast sense 1.

roosting-ken

*. A lodging-house; a 'doss-house': c. (–1887).

root

. Money: coll (–1899); ob. Abbr. root of all evil. 2. (Also man-root.) The penis: low coll: C.19–20. 3. Whence, a priapism: low: late C.19–20. Esp. in have the, get the r. cf. ROOTLE. 4. A kick on the posterior: late C.19–20; orig. Public Schools’. Ex:

root

, v.t. To kick (a ball, a person): late C.19–20. Semantics: uproot, root up. Perhaps orig. Public Schools’.

root, the old

. The male member: perhaps rather coll than s.: C.19–20.

root-about

. Promiscuous football practice: schools’ (orig. Leys): late C.19–20.

root about

, v.i. To indulge in such practice: id.: same period.

rooter

. Anything very good, of prime quality. 1860, H., 2nd ed. e.g. a very smart dress, a brilliant gem. 2. Hence, anything (or any act) very flagrant (e.g. a lie) or brutal (attack, blow, ?orig. kick): from ca 1865. Both senses very ob.

rooti

, see ROOTY.

rootle

, v.i. To coït: low: from ca 1850; ob. Ex S.E. sense, to grub, poke about. 2. Also, as n., in do a rootle, from ca 1880. cf. ROOT, n., 2, 3.

rooty; rooti

. Bread: military: in India, from ca 1800; fairly gen. from 1881, when the Army was reorganized. First recorded in 1883, G.A.Sala (a notable slangster) in the Illustrated London News, 7 July. Ex Hindustani roti.

rooty gong

. A long-service medal: Regular Army: late C.19–20. Ex preceding + GONG. Occ. rooty medal.

rope

, v.t. To hold a horse in check so that it shall not win: racing coll: 1857, G. Lawrence. Also, in late C.19–20, rope in. 2. v.i., to hold back in order to lose a race: racing and athletic coll: 1874, H., 5th ed.

rope, cry (a)

. To cry a warning: late C.16–17: coll. Shakespeare, ‘Winchester Goose, I cry a rope! a rope!’; Butler, 1663, ‘When they cry rope’. ?ex hanging rope.

rope, for the

. Due, or condemned, to be hanged: police coll: late C.19–20. Charles E. Leach.

rope-hooky

. (Of hands) with fingers curled in: nautical coll: late C.19–20. Esp. an old SHELL-BACK’S, from years of handling ropes.

rope in

. See ROPE, 1. 2. To decoy; enlist the services of: U.S. (–1848), anglicized, as a coll, ca 1890; after ca 1918, S.E. Prob. ex lassoing. 3. Hence, rope in the pieces, to make money: coll: late C.19–20.

rope to the eye of a needle, put a

. To attempt the absurd, the impossible: semi-proverbial coll: C.19.

Rope-Walk (or r.w.), go into the

. 'In the law...a barrister is said to have gone into the rope-walk, when he has taken up practice in the Old Bailey,' Temple Bar, 1871; ob. As Serjeant Ballantine shows in his Reminiscences, 1882, when he says, 'What was called the Rope-Walk [at the Old Bailey] was represented by a set of agents clean neither in character nor person', the rope-walk meant also a set of shysters battenning on Criminal Law; moreover, he implies that the term dates back at least as early as 1850.

rope-yarn Sunday

. A Sunday off: nautical coll (–1887); slightly ob. 2. More correctly, a synonym of MAKE AND MEND: nautical coll: late C.19–20.

ropeable

. Angry; quick-tempered: from ca 1890: Australian. Ex ropeable (i.e. wild) cattle.

roper

. A hangman: †, says Bee in 1823. See Mr ROPER. 2. One who 'ropes' a horse (1870) or, in athletics, himself (1887): coll. See ROPE, 1 and 2. Occ. (of a horse only), roper-in.

Roper, Mr

; or the roper. The hangman: jocular coll: ca 1650–1750. (cf. John ROPER'S WINDOW.) cf. Roper's news, no news, in the Cornish that's Roper's news—hang the crier!

Roper, Mrs

. A Marine; the Marines: naval (–1868); ob. 'Because they handle the ropes like girls, not being used to them' (Brewer). cf. the C.17 S.E. sense of roper: one deserving the rope.

Roper, marry Mrs

. To enlist in the Marines: naval (–1864); ob. Ex preceding.

roper-in

. See ROPER, 2. 2. A decoy to a gambling den: U.S. (–1859), anglicized ca 1880: coll. See ROPE IN.

Roper's window, John

. A rope-noose: ca 1550–1640: coll. Huloet.

ropes

. One who plays at half-back in football: schoolboys': from ca 1880; ob.

ropes, be up to or know the

. To be well-informed, expert; artful:. coll: 1840, Dana, 'The captain...knew the ropes'; be up to, not before ca 1870 and only in 'artful' sense.

ropes, on the high

, see HIGH ROPES.

ropes, pull or work the

. To direct; exercise one's influence: coll: from ca 1880.

ropes, put up to the

. To inform fully; to 'put wise': from ca 1875: coll. Ex ROPES, BE UP TO THE. Besant & Rice, 1877, have 'You've put me up to ropes'; up to the... is much commoner, at least in C.20.

roping

, vbl n., see ROPE, v.

ropper

*. A scarf; a comforter: tramps' c.: 1873, Greenwood. ?wrapper perverted, asks F. & H.: this seems viable, for cf. †Scots roppin, to wrap.

roram

*. The sun: c.: late C.18–mid-19. Tufts. ?ex Roland, suggested by OLIVER, c. for the moon, as F. & H. ingeniously suggests.

roration

; rarely roaration. 'An oration pronounced with a loud unmusical voice', Grose, 1785; †by 1890: jocular coll or s. As in RORATORIO, roar is punned. cf.:

roratorio or roaratorio

. 'Roratorios and Uproars, oratorio's and opera's, Grose, 1785; †by 1890. Sometimes sol. (cf. the Northamptonshire roratory, an oratorio), sometimes jocular coll or s. cf.:

roritorious

; roaratorious. (Jubilantly) noisy: ca 1820–60. Egan, 1821, ‘The Randallites’—i.e. partisans of the great boxer—‘were roritorious and flushed with good fortune.’ Punning oratorio and uproarious, and perhaps notorious. cf. the S.W. dial. rorry-tory, ‘loud, noisy, stirring’.

rork (or rorke), rorker

. A town boy, a CAD: Tonbridge: since ca 1870. Perhaps ex raw.

rortiness

; rarely rortyness. The abstract n. of:

rorty

; occ. raughty. Of the best; excellent; dashing; lively; jolly; sprightly: costers’: from ca 1860. ‘Chickaleary’ Vance, ca 1864, ‘I have a rorty gal’; Milliken, 1893, ‘We’d a rare rorty time of it’; Whiteing, 1899, ‘A right-down raughty gal’. Ware ranks a rorty toff as inferior to a rorty bloke. W. suggests a rhyme on naughty; B. & L. suggest ex Yiddish rorität, anything choice. 2. Amorous: low: from not later than 1893.

rorty, do the

. To have a good time: costers’ (–1893). Milliken. Ex RORTY, adj., 1.

rorty dasher

; 2, rorty toff. A fine fellow; 2, an out-and-out swell: costers’: from ca 1880.

rory

; R. Short for:

Rory o’ More

. A whore (–1874; ob.); a floor (–1857); a door (–1892). Resp. H., 5th ed.; ‘Ducange Anglicus’; ‘Pomes’ Marshall, ‘I fired him out of the Rory quick.’

rose

. The female pudend; a maidenhead: C.18–20. A debasement of medieval and Renaissance literary symbolism. 2. A bitch: showmen’s: from ca 1860. 3. An orange: 1860, H., 2nd ed. ?ex the sweet smell.

rose, pluck a

. To take a virginity; (among women) to ease oneself in the open air: both coll verging on euphemistic S.E.: C.18–20. Swift (2nd sense).

rose, strike with a feather and stab with a

. To punish playfully: coll: ca 1888–1914. Ex a music-hall refrain; cf., however, Webster's 'M. If I take her near you, I'll cut her throat. F. With a fan of feathers,' 1612. cf. RUN THROUGH THE NOSE WITH A CUSHION.

rose, under the

. In confidence; on the QUIET; secretly: mid-C.16–20: S.E. >, ca 1660, coll >, ca 1850, again S.E. Dymock, 1546. Here, rose=rose-bush; sub rosa is modern, not Classic, L.Grose, 2nd ed., mentions that the rose was 'sacred to Harpocrates, the God of Silence', as does Sir Thomas Browne.

rose in judgement

. Turned up: tailors': from ca 1860.

rosebud

. Mouth: Cockney: late C.19–20.

rosebuds

. Potatoes: rhyming s. (on spuds): late C.19–20.

rosella

. A European working bared to the waist: Northern Australia (–1898). ‘The scorching of the skin...produces a colour which probably suggested a comparison with the bright scarlet of the parrakeet so named,’ Morris.

Rosemary Lane to a rag shop

. Heavy odds: coll: ca 1810–90. Boxiana, III, 1821.

roses and raptures

. A literary c.p. (ca 1830–90) applied to the Book of Beauty kind of publication.

rosey

, see ROSY.

rosh

; roush. To horse-play: Royal Military Academy: from ca 1880. Hence, stop roshing!, be quiet! Perhaps a corruption of rouse.

rosin

. A fiddler: coll: 1870, Figaro, 31 Oct., ‘They playfully call me “Rosin”... yet I must...go on with my playing.’ Ex the rosin used on violin bows. 2. Fiddler’s drink: coll: early C.17–20; ob. Ex S.E. rosin, to supply with, or to indulge oneself in, liquor.

rosin-back

. A horse that has had its back rubbed with rosin in order to ensure a firmer seat for the bareback rider: circus coll: late C.19–20.

rosin-the-bow

. A fiddler: coll (–1864); very ob. Ex a song so titled. cf. ROSIN, 1.

rosser

, see ROZZER. rost=ROAST.

rost, turn roast to

. From arrogant to become humble: coll: C.16. Halliwell. Prob. ex the humbling of a boastful cook, rost being rust.

rosy, always preceded by the

. Wine: 1840, Dickens, ‘Richard Swiveller finished the rosy, and applied himself to the composition of another glassful.’ Orig. and properly, red wine; cf. Fr. s. le rosé, which Kastner & Marks have omitted in their excellent Glossary. 2. Blood: sporting (–1891); ob. Sporting Life, 25 March 1891. Suggested by CLARET. 3. Good fortune: Cockney (–1893). Milliken. Ex rosy, favourable, of good omen.

rosy, do the

. To have a ROSY (3), i.e. pleasant, time: Cockney (–1893); ob. Milliken, ‘A-doin’ the rorty and rosy as lively as ‘Opkins’s lot’.

Rosy Lee

. Tea: rhyming s.: late C.19–20.

rot

. Nonsense, trash, BOSH: s.: 1848, O.E.D.; 1861, H.C.Pennell, “‘Sonnet by M.F.Tupper’”. A monstrous pile of quintessential rot.’ Like ROTTER, ‘app. first at Cambridge’, W. Ex rot, dry rot, decay. Also TOMMY-ROT, and dry rot: coll (–1887).

rot

, v. To chaff severely: 1890, Lehmann, ‘Everybody here would have rotted me to death’; slightly ob. Ex the n. 2. To talk nonsense: 1899, Eden Phillpotts; ob. 3. In imprecations: late C.16–19: coll. Shakespeare, 1588, ‘But vengeance rot you all.’ Semantics: ‘may you go rotten!’ Also in rot it!, C.17–18, and rot (up)on, C.17. In rot um!, um=‘em, them. 4.

To spoil; mar nonsensically or senselessly: 1908, A. S.M.Hutchinson, 'He was rotting the whole show.' Also rot up; orig. Public Schools'.

rot

! Nonsense!; BOSH!: from ca 1860. Henley & Stevenson, 1892, 'Oh, rot, I ain't a parson.' Ex the n.; quite independent of the v., 3. cf. ROTTEN!

rot about

. To waste time from place to place; to play the fool: from late 1890s.

rot-funk

. A panic: cricketers': ca 1890–1914.

rot-gut

; occ. rotgut. Any unwholesome liquor; esp. inferior weak beer: late C.16–20: coll >, by C.19, S.E. G.Harvey, 1597. Occ. as adj.: C.18–20. T.Hughes, 'rot-gut stuff'. Grose, 1785, rhymes thus, 'Rot gut, small beer, called beer a bumble,|Will burst one's guts before 'twill make one tumble.'

Rot-his-bone, be gone to

. To be dead and buried: late C.18–early 19. Punning Ratisbon. cf. be gone to the DIET OF WORMS.

rot it

!; rot on!; rot um!; rot upon! see ROT, v., 3. For rot up, see ROT, v., 4.

rotan

. A wheeled vehicle: 1725, A New Canting Dict.; Grose; †by 1870. Prob. c. Ex L. rota. Whence, according to Bee, comes Rotten Row: which etymology may be correct.

Rothschild

, see COME THE ROTHSCHILD.

rotten

. In a deplorable state or ill-health; ill; worthless; BEASTLY: from ca 1880. R. L. Stevenson, 1881, ‘You can imagine how rotten I have been feeling.’ 2. rotten! An expletive corresponding to sense 1: from ca 1890.

Rotten Row

. ‘A line of old ships-in-ordinary in routine order’, Smyth, 1867: nautical; ob. 2. A bow: rhyming s. (–1909).

Rotten Row, belong to

. (Of ships) to be in ordinary: naval: C.19. 2. Whence (likewise of ships) to be discarded as unserviceable: nautical: from ca 1800; ob. A pun on Rotten Row, perhaps via rotten borough.

rotten sheep

. A useless person (esp. male), a mean traitor: Fenian: 1889, Daily News, 3 July; ob. Ex a sheep affected with the rot.

rotter

. An objectionable person: 1894, George Moore. Ex ROT, n., and ROTTEN. Perhaps orig. U.S., where it is—1839, but see comment at ROT, n.

rouf

. Four: back s.: Mayhew, I, 1851. cf. ROAF.

rouf-efil

, see ROFEFIL.

rouge

, n. A force-down in Rugby football: London schools': ca 1875–1900. Pun on rough?

rouge route, the

. The 'red light' district of London: Londoners': ca 1660–1700. William Boghurst's contemporary account of the Great Plague of London. The term shows the French influence of the Restoration Court.

rough

, n. A rough rider: coll: 1899, Daily News, 23 Feb.; ob.

rough

, adj. See ROUGH ON. 2. Of food, esp. fish: coarse, inferior, stale: London coll: from ca 1850; slightly ob. Mayhew, 'The...“rough” fish is bought chiefly for the poor.'

rough, a bit of

. A woman, esp. if viewed sexually: low: from ca 1870.

rough, cut up

, see CUT UP NASTY.

rough and tough

. A (?rhyming) coll variant of rough: ca 1880–1915.=rough neck, a rough, ignorant fellow.

rough and tumble

(often hyphenated). A free fight; a go-as-you-please fight: from ca 1810: boxing coll >, ca 1910, S.E. (The adj. is S.E.) 2. The female pudend: low: from ca 1850. Also the rough and ready. cf. ROUGH, A BIT OF, and ROUGH MALKIN.

rough as a tinker's budget (bag)

. Very rough: ca 1650–1700. Howell.

rough as I run or it runs

. Though I am rough, coarse, ignorant; it's certainly rough: coll: late C.17–mid-19. T.Brown, 1687, 'If you don't like me rough, as I run, fare you well, madam'; Ray, 1813, 'Rough as it runs, as the boy said when the ass kicked him'.

rough diamond

. A person of good heart and/or ability but no manners: from ca 1750: coll till ca 1880, then S.E. The Adventurer, 1753; Lytton.

rough fam or fammy

*; occ. hyphenated. A waistcoat pocket: c.: ca 1810–50. In c., FAM is the hand: ?ex the habit of putting one's thumb in the pocket.

rough-knot

. A Marine: naval: ca 1780–1850. John Davis, The Post Captain, 1806; W.N.Glascock, Sailors and Saints (I, 213), 1829.

rough Malkin (or m.)

. The female pudend: low Scots: C.16. 'Malkin' is a cat's name; cf. PUSS.

rough off

(a horse). To break-in without troubling about 'the fancy stuff', esp. for station work: Australian rural coll: late C.19–20.

rough on

. Hard for; bearing hardly on: coll: U.S. (1870, Bret Harte), anglicized ca 1885 (e.g. Besant, 1887). ?ex rough luck (cf. tough luck). 2. Severe on or towards (a person): coll: U.S. (1870), anglicized ca 1890. Recorded in Australia in 1878. cf.:

rough on rats

; gen. it's... Rough luck: from ca 1890. Ex the name of a rat-poison.

rough ride

. To ride an unbroken horse; hence, to domineer over a person: Australian coll: resp., late C.19–20 and since ca 1910.

rough-rider's (or -ers') wash-tub

. The barrack water-cart: military: ca 1890–1915.

rough up

. A contest arranged at short notice; an informal contest: orig., boxing: 1889, Referee, 26 Jan. 2. A violent quarrel, a 'free for all': since ca 1890. Sessions, 22 June 1896, 'There was a little rough-up, and I found myself stabbed in the arm.'

roughing

, vbl n. A students' interrupting of a university teacher of whom they disapprove by scuffling their boots on the floor: Scottish undergraduates' s. (late C.19–20).

round

. A shirt collar: 1859, H.; †by 1910. Perhaps ex trade names all rounds, all rounders.

round

, v.i. To PEACH (3), lay information: low: from ca 1859. v.t., round on. Prob. a development of round on, to turn upon and berate.

round

. Languid: tailors': from ca 1870; ob. ?ex circular padding.

round, bet

. To bet upon—or against—several horses: the turf: from ca 1820.

round-about

*. A treadmill (invented ca 1821): prison coll rather than s. or c.: from ca 1823; ob. 2. A female thief's all-round pocket: c.: from ca 1820. 3. A house-breaking tool that cuts out a round piece (about five inches in diameter) from shutter or door: c.: from ca 1820. Occ. round Robin, C.19.

round and square

. Everywhere: rhyming s. (—1903). Not very gen.

round betting

, see ROUND, BET.

round dozen

. Thirteen lashes with the CAT-O'-NINE-TAILS; naval coll: C.19.

round me houses

. The earliest form of ROUND THE HOUSES.

round mouth, gen. preceded by the

. The fundament: low: ca 1810–70. Also brother r.m., esp. in Brother round mouth speaks, he has broken wind.

round-mys

. Trousers: rhyming s. (–1909). Abbr. ROUND ME (my) HOUSES.

round o (or O)

. A notable lie: coll: C.17. Ex the oh! of remonstratory surprise. 2. No runs; batsman's score of '0': cricket coll: ca 1855–65. Reade in 1863 refers to it as 'becoming obsolete'.

round one or 'un

. A notable lie: mid-C.19–20; ob.

round robin

. The host: low coll: mid-C.16–17. Coverdale, Foxe, Heylin. cf. JACK IN A BOX. 2. A housebreaker's tool: see ROUND-ABOUT, 3. 3. 'A good hearty swindle', Clarkson & Richardson, 1889: c.

round shaving

. A reprimand: (low) coll: from ca 1870; ob. Ex dial.

round the bend

. Crazy; mad: naval: mid-C.19–20; ob.

round the corner, get (one)

*. Deliberately to annoy an irritable person: c.: ca 1810–50. Vaux, who notes the variant get (one) out.

round the corner, wrong (all)

. Having had something strong to drink: lower classes': from the middle 1890s; slightly ob.

round the houses

. Trousers: rhyming s. (1857) on sol. pronunciation, trousies. An improvement on orig. form, ROUND ME HOUSES.

round 'un

, see ROUND ONE.

roundem

*. A button: c.: from ca 1860. A disguising of round (cf. ROUNDY).

rounder

. One who peaches: low: 1884 (O.E.D.). Ex ROUND, v. 2. A short, close-fitting jacket: coll: mostly Cockney: from ca 1890. Milliken, 1893, ‘That’s me in plaid dittos and rounder.’ Ex roundabout in same sense.

Roundhead

. A Puritan: coll: 1641; S.E. by 1800. Ex cropped head. cf. SQUARE HEAD.

rounding

. A betraying of one’s associates: low: 1864. See ROUND, v.; cf. ROUNDER, 1.

rounds

*. Trousers: tramps’ c.: from ca 1890. P.H.Emerson. Ex ROUND THE HOUSES.

rounds of the galley

. Openly expressed abuse of a seaman by his mess-mates: naval: ca 1850–1910.

roundy(-ken)

*. A watch-house or lock-up: c. of ca 1825–60. Egan. Lit., round place.

rouny

*. A potato: c. of ca 1820–70. Haggart. Also (?misprint), ronny. A corruption of roundy, a round object: cf. dial. roundy, a lump of coal.

rouse

*, v.i. To fight: c.: 1888, Evening Standard, 26 Dec.; ob.

rouse and shine

(naval, C.19); rise and shine (naval and military, C.20). A c.p. order to get out of bed.

rouser

. A formidable breaking of wind: coll: C.18. Swift. 2. A handy man: Australian coll: C.20. Lawson, 1902. Ex rouse-about.

roush

, see ROSH.

roust

. An act of coition: coll: late C.16–17. Hall, Satires, ‘She seeks her third roust on her silent toes.’ Ex roust, a roaring or bellowing.

roust

, v.i. To coit: coll: late C.16–17. Ex the n.; the corresponding S.E. sense is ‘to shout, bellow’. 2. To steal: c.: ca 1820–80. Haggart. Ex dial. roust, to rout out.

roustabout

. A rouseabout or handy man, esp. at a shearing: Australian: 1883: coll >, by 1905, S.E. Ex U.S. roustabout, a deck hand or wharf labourer.

router-putters

*. Cows’ feet: c.: ca 1820–60. Haggart. Ex router, (Scots dial. for) a cow.

rovers

. Thoughts: Scots coll: C.19–20; ob. Jamieson. Ex wandering thoughts.

row

. A disturbance; a noisy quarrel: perhaps orig. c. (John Poulter, Discoveries, 1753) > s. >, ca 1910, coll. Esp. in make a row (1787), kick up a row (1789, O.E.D.), and get into a row. Origin obscure; W. suggests that it is cognate with rouse= carouse. 2. A noise: 1845 (O.E.D.); s. >, ca 1910, coll. Eton School Days, 1864, ‘Chorley cried, Hold your row, will you?’

row

, v. To assail roughly: attack (a person or his rooms): 1790 (O.E.D.): s. until ca 1890, then coll; ob. Ex the n., 1. 2. v.i., to make a disturbance; to quarrel: 1797 (O.E.D.). 3. To RAG (2), v.i.: university: ca 1820–80. 4. To scold severely, to reprimand (v.t.): from ca 1810: s. Byron. 5. To criticize harshly or sharply: from ca 1825. 6. See ROW IN THE BOAT.

row?, what's the

. What's the noise about? What's the matter or trouble?; 1837, Dickens, 'What's the row, Sam?'

row in

. To conspire: low: from ca 1860. Ex next entry.

row (in the boat)

*. To go shares (with): c. of ca 1810–60.

row up

. To reprimand severely: 1845 (O.E.D.): coll; in C.20, S.E. but ob. ?ex: 2. To rouse noisily: C.19–20; ob. s. >, ca 1890, coll.

rowdy

. Money: from ca 1840: low. Ob. Leman Rede (rowdy); Thackeray (the r.). ?ex RUDDY, n.

rowdy

, adj. (Of horse or bullock) troublesome: Australian s. (–1872) >, by 1900, coll. C.H.Eden, 1872; A.B.Paterson, ‘And I can ride a rowdy colt, or swing the axe all day.’ Extension of S.E. sense.

rowdy-dow

. Abbr. of next, or ex row-dedow, a din. From ca 1860. H., 2nd ed., ‘Low, vulgar; “not the cheese”, or thing’.

rowdy-dowdy

. Noisily rough; turbulently noisy: from ca 1850. Reduplication on ROWDY.

rowing

, vbl n. To ROW, v., esp. in senses 1 and 4.

rowing man

. A spreester, fast liver: university: ca 1875–1910. Ex ROW, v., 2, and 3.

rowl

. Money: low: C.19. Prob. a corruption of ROYAL (IMAGES).

rowlock

(phrase), see RULLOCK.

rows, the

. The rows of hovels in the miners' section of a mining town: miners' (and their families') coll: since ca 1870.

royal

. A member of the Royal Family: coll: 1788 Mme D'Arblay. 2. A privileged labourer working regularly enough but not on the staff: dockers' coll: 1883, G.R.Sims.

royal

, adj. Noble; splendid; excellent: coll: from ca 1580; but not gen. before ca 1850. e.g. a royal time.

royal bob

, Gin: ca 1729–70. cf. ROYAL POVERTY. ?origin.

royal image

. A coin: mid-C.18–early 19: coll or perhaps S.E.; coll, however, is royal images, money: mid-C.18–mid-19. On royal (ryal), the coin; on the analogy of (King's and) QUEEN'S PICTURE.

royal poverty

. Gin: ca 1725–80. N.Bailey. cf. ROYAL BOB. Perhaps because, though a ROYAL drink, gin is apt to lead to poverty.

royal-roast

. Roast meat and vegetables for, and on, the lower deck: naval coll: late C.19–20. cf. royal roast and straight bake, roast meat and baked potatoes: id.: id.

royal scamp

*. A highwayman that, without brutality, robs only the rich: c.: late C.18–early 19. See SCAMP.

Royal Standbacks, the

. 'A regiment imagined by others...not to have shewn particular keenness about going into action': military coll: C.19–20; slightly ob.

royally

. Splendidly; excellently: coll: 1836, E.Howard, 'Royally drunk'.

royster

*, see ROISTER. rozin, see ROSIN.

rozzar

*; occ. rosser. A policeman: c.: from ca 1870. See ROOSHER for possible etymology; cf., however, Romany roozlo (or -us), strong.

rub

. A rubber in card-games: 1830, 'An occasional rub or two of whist', O.E.D.: coll till C.20, then S.E. 2. A loan (e.g. of a newspaper): military: ca 1880–1910.

rub

, v. See RUB DOWN, IN, OFF, OUT, RUB, TO, UP. 2. F. & H. postulates rub as a variant of RUB OFF and RUB UP; I doubt its independent existence. 3. As the base of RUB TO, it occurs in 1737. 4. B.E. and Grose describe rub, to go, run away, as c., but it is familiar S.E.

rub-a-dub

, n. A pub; a club: late C.19–20 rhyming s.

rub and a good cast

! A c.p. warning: ca 1635–90. Clarke; Ray. Ex bowls.

rub-belly

. Coition: low coll: C.18–20.

rub-down

*, n. corresponding to the ensuing v.: c. of late C.19–20.

rub down

. To search (a prisoner) by running the hands over his body: coll: 1887. More gen., run the RULE OVER. 2. To scold, reprimand: from ca 1895; ob.

rub in

. To emphasize annoyingly; insist vexatiously or unkindly upon; remind naggingly of. Esp. as rub it in. Daily News, 26 May 1870. 'Rubbing it in is a well-known phrase amongst the doubtful portion of the constabulary,' esp. as=to give fatal evidence (Ware). cf. dial. rubber.

rub of the thumb, give (a person) a

. To explain something to; esp. to show him how to do something: coll: mid-C.19–20; ob. Ex some trade. cf.: 2. To show appreciation for good work: tailors': late C.19–20.

rub-off

. A copulation: coll: late C.17– early 19. Congreve. 2. A masturbation: low: C.19–20; ob. In this sense, RUB-UP is much more gen.

rub off

, v. In same senses and periods as RUB-OFF. 2. See RUBBED OFF.

rub on

. To make do, ‘rub along’: coll: ca 1870–1910. Sessions, 18 Sept. 1893.

rub out

. To kill: orig. (1848), U.S.; anglicized ca 1870: S.E. until C.20, then coll. Ex erasing. 2. To cut (a pattern); tailors’: mid-C.19–20.

rub, rub

! ‘Us’d on the Greens when the Bowl Flees too fast, to bave it forbear, if Words wou’d do it’, B.E.: a bowling c.p. soon > j.: late C.17–18.

rub to

*. (See RUB, v.) To send, carry off, to (prison): c.: ca 1670–1840. Anon., Warning for Housekeepers, 1676. Prob. a development of rub, to go, to run.

rub-up

. See RUB-OFF, 2. From ca 1620: low coll. Esp. do a rub-up. Also rubbing-up. Ex:

rub up

. The v. corresponding to RUB OFF, 2, and RUB-UP, n. Low coll: C.17–20. This sense is almost inseparable from: 2. So to caress a person that he or she becomes actively amorous: low coll: from ca 1620. Fletcher's Martial.

rubacrock

; gen. rubbacrock. A filthy slattern: coll: C.19–20; ob. Ex S.W. dial.; the word occurs in the famous Exmoor Scolding, 1746.

rubba(d)ge

; rubbi(d)ge; occ. rubbich. Rubbish: C.19–20. When not dial. (see esp. E.D.D.) it is low coll, verging indeed on sol.

rubbed about, be

. (Of a person) to be made a convenience: tailors': from ca 1870.

rubbed down with the book (or B.), be

. To be sworn on the Bible: London proletarian: from ca 1880. Nevinson, 1895.

rubbed off

. Bankrupt and gone, indeed run, away: coll: late C.17–18.

rubbed(-)out

. Dead: see RUB OUT. ‘Of late frequently used in fashionable novels’, H., 1864.

rubbedge, rubbege

, see RUBBADGE.

rubber

. A caoutchouc eraser: coll: late C.18–20. 2. Some illicit device or swindling trick: c.: early C.17. Dekker, ‘Betting, Lurches, Rubbers, and such tricks’. Prob. connected with the rubber of games of skill and/or chance.

rubber, fake the

, see FAKE THE RUBBER.

rubber(-)neck

; (-)necking. A very inquisitive person; excessive curiosity or inquisitiveness: U.S. (–1900), partly anglicized, esp. in Australia, ca 1905; slightly ob. Ex ‘considerable craning and stretching', as though one's neck were made of rubber: as in the Pall Mall Gazette, 8 March 1902.

rubber-up

. The agent expressed in RUB UP, v.: low coll: C.19–20.

rubbich

, see RUBBADGE.

rubbing-up

. The act in RUB UP, v. Also RUB-UP.

rubbish

. Money: low: ca 1820–60. Egan, 1821, 'She shall stump up [q.v.] the rubbish before I leave her.' cf. S.E. dross and filthy lucre. 2. Luggage, esp. household effects and furniture: Anglo-Indian military: early C.19.

rubigo

. The penis: (low) Scots coll: late C.16–17. R.Sempill. ?ex L. ruber, red, on L. rubigo (or robigo), rust (on metals), perhaps influenced by L. prurigo, lasciviousness.

rubric, in or out of the

. In, out of, holy orders: coll: late C.17–18. Farquhar.

ruby

. Blood: boxing: 1860, Chambers's Journal; 'Pomes' Marshall, ca 1886, 'You'd be sure to nark the ruby round his gilt.' cf. CARMINE; CLARET. 2. See:

Ruby, cross the

. To cross the Rubicon: fast life: early C.19, when ruby was s. for port wine.

ruck

*, v. To lay information (see also RUCK ON): c. >, by 1900, low s.: from ca 1884. 2. To grow angry or irritated: low: from ca 1890; ob. Ex sense 1, or independently ex ruck (up), as applied to clothes; origin of sense 1 is hazy.

ruck, come in with the

. 'To arrive at the winning-post among the unplaced horses' (B. & L.): turf: from ca 1860.

ruck (or rucket) along

. To walk quickly: ca 1890–1910: Oxford University. While ruck, prob. the earlier form, may derive ex dial. ruck, to go, rucket may be an elaboration suggested by rocket along.

ruck on

*; occ. ruck upon. To SPLIT ON a PAL; BLAB about (a person): c. >, ca 1900, low s.: 1884, Daily News, ‘I told the prisoner that I was not going to ruck on an old pal.’ 2. To go back on; to disown: Cockney: late C.19–20. Pugh (2), “‘I don’t care,” said Deuce, defiantly...“I ain’t goin’ to ruck on Dad.”’

ruckerky

. Recherché: Society: 1890s. Ware quotes the Daily Telegraph of 4 April 1898.

rucket along

, see RUCK ALONG.

rucktion

; gen. ruction. A disturbance, uproar, noisy quarrel, ROW: dial. (–1825) >, ca 1830, coll. In the pl, trouble, esp. noisy and avoidable trouble. The C.19 variant ’ruction, combined with Lover’s use of the word, points to origin in insur- rection; P.W.Joyce, in English in Ireland, postulates ‘the Insurrection of 1798, which was commonly called “the Ruction”’.

ruddock

*. A gold coin: 1567, Turberville: †by 1750; ob. indeed by 1650. Occ. red or golden ruddock. Prob. ex ruddock, a robin (redbreast); cf. RUDDY. 2. In pl, money, gold; esp. gold money: late C.16–17. Also red or golden r. Heywood, ca 1607 (printed 1631), ‘They are so flush of their ruddocks.’ cf. GLISTENER and RIDGE and RED ONE.

ruddy

*. A sovereign: c. and low sporting (–1887). Baumann has thirty ruddy, £30. Ex colour. cf.:

ruddy

, adj. BLOODY; CONFOUNDED: euphemistic s.: from ca 1905. (Synonymous colour; rhyme.)

ruff, the wooden

*. The pillory: c.: ca 1690–1830. Punning the neck-wear.

ruff-peck

*. Bacon: c. of ca 1565–1750. Harman, Dekker, Shirley (1707). ?lit., rough food.

ruffelar or -er

*, see RUFFLER.

ruffemans

*. A variant of RUFFMANS.

ruffer

. One who is rough: lower classes' (–1909).

ruffian

*. See RUFFIN. 2. In boxing s., a boxer disregarding science in his desire for victory: ca 1820–50.

Ruffians' Hall, he is only fit for . A c.p. applied to an apprentice overdressed: London: coll: ca 1640–1820. Fuller; Grose's Provincial Glossary. Ex a part of Smithfield where, ca 1590–1860, 'Trials of Skill were plaid by ordinary Ruffianly people, with Sword and Buckler.' Blount, 1764.

ruffin or Ruffin

*; also spelt Ruffian. The devil: c.: 1567, Harman (ruffian); Dekker (Ruffin); B.E. (Ruffin); Grose (Ruffian); Ainsworth (Old Ruffin). Ruffin, the name of a fiend (C.13–early 16), influenced by ruffian, a cut-throat villain. 2. Whence, a justice of the peace: c.: ca 1620–1820. Fletcher, ca 1622 (Ruffin); B.E. (Ruffin); Grose (ruffin, 1st ed.; 2nd ed., ruffian).

ruffin, to the

*, see NINES, TO THE.

ruffin cook ruffin, who scalded the devil in his feathers

. A c.p. applied to a bad cook: ca 1780–1860. Prob. influenced by PUFFIN.

rufflar

*, see RUFFLER.

ruffle

*, (gen. in pl.) A handcuff: c.: ca 1780–1850. Punning on the wrist-ornament.

ruffler

; also ruffelar or -er, rufflar, ruffleer, rufler. A vagabond: c.: ca 1530–1620. Copland. 2. Esp. one of the 1st or the 2nd order or rank of ‘canters’: C.17–18. 3. A beggar pretending to be a maimed soldier or sailor: c. of ca 1560–1830. Awdelay; Grose, 1st ed. (The term derives ex ruffle, to deport oneself arrogantly.)

ruffmans

. A hedge: c. of ca 1620–1840. Fletcher (1622). Lit., rough time. 2. Harman and B.E. define it as the wood, a bush; Grose as a wood, a bush, or a hedge: as wood or bush, it is a special application of sense 1: ca 1565–1840. See -MANS.

rufler

, see RUFFLER.

rufus or Rufus

. The female pudend: low: mid-C.19–20; ob. Ex rufous.

Rug

. A Rugbeian: Rugby School (—1892).

rug

, see RUG, AT.

rug, all

*. Safe; certain: c. > gaming s.: late C.17–18. B.E., ‘It’s all Rug,...the Game is secured.’
2. Hence, ‘safe’ in general: C.18–early 19: s. Rowe, 1705, ‘Fear nothing, Sir; Rug’s the Word, all’s safe.’ Perhaps ex the warmth and snugness afforded by rugs. cf.:

rag, at

. In bed; asleep: low (?c.): ca 1810–60. Prob. rug (of bed) influenced by all rug: an interesting clue is offered by the Devonshire rug, warm. cf. RUGGINS.

Rugby, real

. Cruel: Public Schools’ (–1909); virtually †. Ex the roughness of Rugby football.

rugger

. Rugby football: s. (1893). Ex Rugby on Oxford -er.

ruggins

*; more gen., as in Vaux and in Egan's Groser, Ruggins's. Bed: c. of ca 1810–70. Lytton, 1828, 'Toddle off to ruggins'. An elaboration of rug of bed, influenced by all rug and at rug; or perhaps merely rugging (coarse blanket cloth) pluralized or genitivized (rugging's), with g omitted.

ruggy

*. Safe; withdrawn, secluded: c. (–1887); ob. See RUG, ALL.

ruin

. See BLUE RUIN. By itself, rare: 1820, J.H.Reynolds.

rule of three(, the)

. Penis and testes; low: C.18–20. D'Urfey. 2. Hence, copulation, C.19–20. Other mathematical indelicacies are addition, multiplication, subtraction, all implying the juxtaposition of opponent genitals.

rule over, run the (occ. a)

*. To search: c. (–1874). H., 5th ed.; Horsley; 'Pomes' Marshall, 'Run the rule through all|His pockets.' cf. RUB DOWN, which has remained low s., and FRISK, ob. c. 'No. 747' has it for 1845: (of a pickpocket) to feel over the person of (a prospective victim).

ruler

, v. To rap, beat, with a ruler: coll: 1850, Dickens; ob.

rullock

. A rowlock: nautical coll (–1825). Baumann has shove one's ear into a seaman's rullock (to seek a quarrel with a sailor), which is ob.

rum

, n. A needy rural clergyman in Ireland: ca 1720–40. Swift. Perhaps ex the adj., 1, as a mark of appreciation. 2. A ‘rum’, i.e. questionable, person (gen. male): ca 1800–50. Ex the adj., 2. 3. An old, hence an unsaleable book: ca 1810–30. ‘Anecdotes’ Nichols. Ex the adj., 2.

rum

, v. To cheat: ca 1810–20. ‘He had rummed me,’ 1812. Ex the adj., 2.

rum

*, adj.; variants: rome, C.16–18; room(e), C.17. Excellent; fine, good; valuable; handsome; great: c.: ca 1565–1910; but comparatively rare after ca 1810. The sense varies with the n.: see the ensuing list of terms, to many of which there is a precisely contrasted sense afforded by QUEER with the same n. Harman, 1567; Jonson; B.E.; Grose; Vaux; H.; Smyth (RUM-GAGGER). Quotations are here unnecessary: see the combinations, which illuminate and objectify this strange adj. It may well, as H. suggests, derive from Rome (“the glory that was Rome”) as a city of splendid repute and fame; the dial. ram, very or strong, is ineligible, for its history does not go far enough back;

Romany rom, a male (Gypsy), is a possibility, but not so probable as Rome. (cf. REAM.) Note that in Turkish, 'Roman' is Rûm; the Gypsies passed through Turkey—indeed there is a Turkish Gypsy dialect. Note, too, that L. Roma is cognate with, perhaps actually derived ex, that Teutonic radical hruod (fame) which occurs in Roger and Roderick, and in Ger. Ruhm (fame), whence ruhmvoll, famous: cf. the s. sense of FAMOUS itself. 2. Either hence, by ironic 'inversion', or ex Rom, a Gypsy, used attributively (for the adj. is Romano or -ani)—A New Canting Dict.'s (1725) and Grose's remarks (1785) at Gypsies make it clear that, even so early, the Gypsies had a 'rum' reputation—comes the sense 'queer, odd, eccentric, strange, questionable, disreputable': such terms as RUM BITE, RUM BOB, 2, RUM BUBBER, (esp.) RUM COVE, RUM CULL, RUM FUN, RUM NED, taken along with those C.18 strictures on the Gypsies, may have caused the change of sense from excellent, fine, etc., to queer, strange, etc. The earliest record is of 1774, but this sense does not > gen. until ca 1800, as the O.E.D. points out. The remarkable merging with the c. sense of QUEER, of which, from ca 1820, it is mostly a mere synonym, is due, in part, to the vitality of queer itself, for in c. queer was more potent after ca 1790 than rum was. H.Kelly, 1774, 'Rum tongue' (language); Grose; Dickens, 1837, 'There's rummer things than women in this world.' See also 'Neither Cricket nor Philology' in A Covey of Partridge. cf. RUMMY. 3. Strangely silly: late C.17–18. This is an extremely rare sense: I know it only in RUM NED, where the silliness may reside only in the second member. (N.B. Of the clear instances in Grose, 3rd ed., forty belong to sense 1; three to sense 2; only one to sense 3. And practically all of Grose's terms were already in B.E.; B.E.'s terms, with one exception (RUM NED), are all in sense 1.)

rum, come it

. To talk oddly: low: ca 1820–70. 2. Hence, to act oddly: low: mid-C.19–20; ob.

rum beak or beck

*. A justice of the peace: c.: late C.17–early 19. See BEAK, BECK.

rum bing

*, see RUM BUNG.

rum bit or, mostly, bite

*. A clever trick or swindle; c.: late C.17–early 19. See BITE, n., 2. 2. (Only bite.) Hence, a clever rogue: c.: early C.19.

rum bleating cheat

*. A (very) fat wether: c.: late C.17–early 19. See CHEAT.

rum blowen

* (C.19) or blower (late C.17–18). ‘A handsome wench’, Grose, 1st ed.; esp. one ‘kept by a particular Man’, B.E. See BLOWEN; BLOWER, 2.

rum bluffer

*. A jolly inn-keeper or victualler: c.: late C.17–18. See BLUFFER.

rum bob

*. ‘A young Prentice; also a sharp, sly Trick, and a pretty short wig’, B.E.: late C.17–early 19, except the third (†by 1780).

rum-boile

. A variant of ROMBOYLE, n.

rum booze, bouse, bouze, buse, buze

*. (See BOOZE, n.) Good wine (mid-C.16–19) or other liquor (C.17–19): c. 2. ‘Flip made of white or port wine, the yolks of eggs, sugar and nutmeg’, Spy, 1825: Oxford University: ca 1815–50.

rum-boozing welts

*. Bunches of grapes: c.: mid-C.17–early 19. Lit., excellent-liquor lumps or bunches.

rum-bottle

. A sailor: naval: ca 1860–1900. Ex his fondness for rum.

rum bub

*. Very good liquor: c.: late C.17–18.

rum bubbler

*. ‘A dexterous fellow at stealing silver tankards from inns and taverns’, Grose, 1st ed.: c.: late C.17–18. Ex BUB, liquor.

rum buffer

* (C.18–early 19) or bughar, gen. bugher (late C.17–early 19). A handsome and/or valuable dog; c. See BUFFER.

rum bung (occ. bing)

*. A full purse: c.: late C.17–early 19.

rum chant or chaunt

*. ‘A song’, Grose, 3rd ed.; ‘a good song’, Vaux, 1812: the latter seems to be the correct definition. A late instance of RUM, adj., 1.

rum chub

*. ‘Among butchers, a customer easily imposed on’, Grose, 1st ed.: c.: late C.17–early 19.

rum clank

*. A gold or silver cup or tankard: c.: C.18–early 19. See CLANK.

rum clout, wipe, wiper

*. ‘A Silk, fine Cambrick, or Holland Handkerchief’, B.E.: c.: late C.17–19; wipe not before C.19.

rum co or coe

*. A smart lad: late C.16– early 17. cf. RUM COVE.

rum cod

*. A full purse (esp. of gold); a large sum of money: c.: late C.17–early 19. B.E.; cf. RUM BUNG.

rum cole

*. ‘New Money’; ‘Medals, curiously Coyn’d’, B.E.: c.: late C.17– early 19. See COLE. Also, in first nuance, rum GELT.

rum coll

*. A rhyme-needed variant, early C.18, of RUM CULL, 1.

rum cove

*. ‘A great Rogue’, B.E.: c.: C.17–mid-18. Rowlands; Dekker’s use stresses rum, rich. 2. Hence, ‘a dexterous or clever rogue’, Grose, 1st ed.: c.: mid-C.18–mid-19. (cf. COVE.) A very operative term: see RUM, adj., 2. 3. A ‘queer fish’ (see QUEER CARD); low: mid-C.19–20.

rum cull

*. ‘A rich Fool, that can be easily ...Cheated...; also one that is very generous and kind to a Mistress’, B.E. ∴ c.: ca 1670–1840. cf. the U.S. sugar-daddy. 2. A manager: low theatrical: from ca 1860. Esp. the master of a travelling troop (–1864). Perhaps ex: 3. An intimate friend (gen. in the vocative): low: ca 1840–90. Selby, 1844, ‘What’s in the wind, my rum cull?’

rum cully

*. Elisha Coles’s variant (1676) of RUM CULL, 1.

rum customer

. A person, an animal, that it is risky, even dangerous to meddle with or offend: late C.18–20. cf. queer CUSS (2). 2. Hence, in the pugilistic circles of ca 1800–50, a hard-punching, a skilful, attacking boxer, known also as a swishing hitter.

rum cuttle

*. A sword: c.: early C.17. Rowlands, 1609. A CUTTLE is a knife.

rum dab

*. ‘A very Dextrous fellow at fileing, thieving, Cheating, Sharping, &c’, B.E. (at dab, not at rum): late C.17–early 18: c.

rum degen or tol or tilter

*. A splendid sword; esp. a silver-hilted or silver-inlaid one: c.: late C.17–18.

rum dell, doxy, mort

*. A handsome whore: C.17–early 19. Jonson (roome mort); B.E. (in this sense, dell and doxy); Grose (id.). See separately RUM DOXY and RUM MORT.

rum diver

*. A skilful pickpocket: c.: C.18–mid-19. Also rum file.

rum doxy

*. A beautiful woman, a fine wench: c.: late C.17–early 19. 2. A ‘light Lady’, B.E.: late C.17–early 18.

rum drawers

*. Silk, or very fine worsted, stockings: c.: late C.17–18.

rum dropper

*. A vintner (wine-merchant); landlord of a tavern: c.: mid-C.17–18. Coles, 1676; Ned Ward (1709); Grose.

rum dubber

*. A dexterous picklock: c.: late C.17–18.

rum duchess

*. A jolly, handsome woman: c.: late C.17–mid-18. cf.:

rum duke

*. A jolly, handsome man: c.: late C.17–18. B.E.; Grose, who (1785) adds, ‘an odd eccentric fellow’, or, as he defines at duke, ‘a queer unaccountable fellow’: c.: late C.18–mid-19. Extant in East Anglian dial. in 1903. 3. Gen. in pl, ‘The boldest and stoutest fellows lately among the Alsations [see ALSATIA], Minters, Savoyards, and other inhabitants of privileged districts, sent to remove and guard the goods of such bankrupts as intended to take sanctuary in those places’, Grose: c.: late C.17–mid-18.

rum fam or fem

*. A diamond ring: c.: ca 1850–90. See FAM.

rum file

*. See RUM DIVER: late C.17– early 19.

rum fun

*. A sharp trick; a clever swindle: c.: late C.17–18.

rum gagger

*. One of those impostors ‘who tell wonderful stories of their sufferings at sea, or when taken by the Algerines’, Grose, 1st ed.: c. of ca 1780–1850; then nautical s. (witness Smyth, 1867), with the Algerian gambit omitted; ob.

rum gelt or gilt

*, see RUM COLE.

rum gill

*. A clever thief; a handsome man: c. of ca 1820–50. Ainsworth.

rum glimmer

*, gen. spelt glymmar (or -er). The chief of the link-boys: c.: late C.17–18. See GLIM.

rum go

. A puzzling and not too respectable contretemps; a mysterious (not merely because wholly unexpected) occurrence or, esp., development of a plot, situation, etc.: late C.18– 19. Perhaps orig. c.: in Oct. 1783 (Sessions, p. 952), a thief says, ‘By God, this is a rum go.’ Thackeray, 1850, and George Eliot, 1876; rummy go is in Punch, 1841. See RUM, adj., 2, and GO, n.

rum going

*. Fast trotting: c. or low s.: ca 1820–60. Jones, 1825, The True Bottom’d Boxer.

rum gut(t)lers

*. Canary wine: c.: mid-C.17–18. cf. S.E. guzzle. 2. ‘Fine Eating’, A New Canting Dict., 1725: c.: C.18.

rum hopper

*. A drawer at a tavern: c.: late C.17–18. One who hops or ‘springs to it’ with great alacrity.

rum johnny or Johnny

. A native wharf-labourer: Anglo-Indian: C.19–20; ob. Prob. ex RUM, adj., 2; but see Yule & Burnell. 2. A whore: naval and military: mid-C.19–20. Ex Hindustani ramjani, a dancing-girl.

rum Joseph or joseph

*. A very good coat or cloak: c.: late C.17–18. B.E. at Joseph.

rum ken

*. A popular inn, tavern, brothel: c. of ca 1810–60. Egan, 1821.

rum kicks

*. ‘Breeches of gold or silver brocade, or richly laced with gold or silver’, Grose, 1st ed.: c.: late C.17–early 19.

rum kiddy

*. A clever young thief: c.: late C.18–early 19. G.Parker, 1781.

rum maund (or mawnd)

*. ‘One that Counterfeits himself a Fool’ while begging: late C.17–18. B.E., Grose. See MAUND. cf.:

rum maunder

*. A late C.18–19 early form of the preceding. F. & H., where it is defined as ‘a clever beggar’.

rum mizzler

*. A thief clever at escaping: c.:ca 1780–1900. cf. NEEDY MIZZLER and see MIZZLE.

rum mort

*. See RUM DELL. 2. A queen; the Queen: c.: Harman, 1567 (Rome mort); B.E.; Grose. †by 1840. 3. Hence, a great lady: c.: late C.17–early 19. See MORT.

rum nab

*. ‘A Beaver, or very good Hat’, B.E.: late C.17–early 18, the former (Shadwell, 1688); until ca 1830, the latter. See NAB, n., 3.

rum nantz or Nantz

*. Good French brandy: c.: late C.17–early 19.

rum ned or Ned

*. ‘A very silly fellow’, B.E.; ‘a very rich silly fellow’, Grose: c.: late C.17–18. cf. RUM CULL, 1; cf. RUM, adj., 2.

rum one or un (’un)

. (Gen. r. one) a settling blow, punch: boxing: early C.19. 2. (Gen. r. un). An odd or eccentric fellow; a strange-looking animal or object; a strange affair: from ca 1825. Dickens. Prob. ironic on: 3. (Only rum un.) A ‘stout fellow’; a capital chap: c.: ca 1820–50. Jones, 1825; Moncrieff, 1830, in the vocative. cf. RUM CULL, last sense.

rum omee (or omer), OCC. rum homer, of the case

*, see OMEE.

rum pad

*; Moore writes it rumpad. The highway: c.: late C.17–early 19. The v. rum-pad, to attack, rob, on the highway, is only ‘literary’ c. of late C.19. 2. A highwayman: an error or a catachresis: C.17– mid-18. J.Shirley; The Scoundrel’s Dict.

rum(-)padder

*. One of ‘the better sort of Highwaymen, well Mounted and Armed’, B.E.: mid-C.17–early 19: c. Ex RUM PAD.

rum peck

*. Good food: c.: late C.17– early 19.

rum peeper

*. A silver looking-glass: c.: late C.17–18.

rum phiz or phyz

. ‘An odd face or countenance’; Grose, 1st ed.: low: from ca 1780; ob.

rum prancer

*. A very fine horse: c.: late C.17–early 19.

rum quid(d)s

*. A large booty; a great share of spoil: c.: late C.17–early 19.

rum ruff peck

*. Westphalia ham: c.: late C.17–18. Contrast RUFF-PECK.

rum slim or slum

*. Punch: c.: ca 1780–1890. Parker (slim); Egan (slum); H., 3rd ed. (slim). ?the ‘originator’ of rum sling, rum punch (cf. gin sling).

rum snitch

*. A hard blow on the nose: c.: late C.17–early 19.

rum squeeze

*. Copious drink for the fiddlers: c.: id.

rum start

. An odd occurrence: s. and dial.: from ca 1840; slightly ob. as s. Recorded in ‘No. 747’ as used in 1845.

rum strum

*. A long wig, esp. if a fine one: c.: late C.17–18. 2. A handsome wench or harlot: c.: late C.17–early 18. See STRUM, n., 1 and 2.

rum tilter

*; rum tol (see TOL). A RUM DEGEN: c.: late C.17–early 19.

rum Tom Pat

*. A clergyman (not a hedge-priest): c. of ca 1780–1840. See quotation at ADAM, v.

rum topping

*. A rich head-dress: c. of ca 1670–1810. Orig. of the style designated by commode.

rum touch

, see TOUCH, RUM. rum un (’un), see RUM ONE.

Rum ville or vyle; Rumville

*, London: c.: C.17–19. See ROME VILLE.

rum wipe or wiper

*, see RUM CLOUT and quotation at RUMMY, adj.

rumble

, n. An (improvised) seat for servants at the back of a carriage: 1808; coll till ca 1840 > then S.E.; ob. Abbr. RUMBLE-TUMBLE. 2. A stage-coach: coll: ca 1830–50. This differentiation (F. & H.) is open to dispute.

rumble

*, v. To rule out unceremoniously, handle roughly: ca 1810–50. Ex ROMBOYLE, v. 2. Hence, to test, try; handle; examine: c. of ca 1820–1900. Haggart. 3. Hence, v.i. & t., to detect; fathom, under-stand; low: from ca 1875. Binstead, 1898, ‘I soon rumbled he was in it when I heard ...’ cf. TUMBLE TO, by which this sense may have been suggested and has certainly been influenced. 4. To experience stomachic gurgles, whether audible or inaudible: coll: late C.19–20.

rumble-tumble

. See RUMBLE, n., 1. C.19: coll till ca 1830, then S.E. Ex the noise. 2. Any wheeled vehicle that rumbles: 1806, J. Beresford; †by 1910. Coll till ca 1840, then S.E. and dial.

rumbler

. Same as RUMBLE, n., 1: coll: ca 1800–20. 2. A hackney coach: ca 1815–60: coll. Moncrieff, 1823, ‘A rattler ...is a rumbler, otherwise a jarvey.’ 3. Hence, a four-wheeled cab: ca 1860–1910. 4. Prison: low: Australian: ca 1820–70. A perversion of RUMBO, n., 2.

rumbler, running

*. A carriage-thief’s con- federate: c.: ca 1820–80. ?ex:

rumbler’s flunkey

. A footman; one who, for tips or wages, runs for cabs, etc.: low: ca 1815–90. Anon., The Young Prig (song), ca 1819. See RUMBLER, 2, 3.

rumbo

. Rum-punch: ca 1750–1840, then archaic: coll till C.19, then S.E. Smollett, 1751, ‘He and my good master...come hither every evening, and drink a couple of cans of rumbo apiece.’ Either fantastic on rum or ex RUMBULLION. 2, A prison: c. of ca 1720–1830. Also rumboken (Harper, 1724). Perhaps ironic on RUM, adj., 1. 3. Stolen rope: nautical and dockyard s. (–1867). cf. RUMBO-KEN, 2. 4. See:

rumbo

, n. and adj. Plenty, plentiful; sufficiency, sufficient; good: low: 1870, Hazlewood & Williams; 1876, Hindley, “‘Chuck rumbo (eat plenty), my lad’”; Pall Mall Gazette, 21 Dec. 1895 (horses and carts described as rumbo, good). Prob. ex coll Sp. rumbo, liberality, generosity (cf. rumbosamente, grandly, liberally), via Lingua Franca.

rumbo

! Splendid!: lower and lower-middle classes’: ca 1860–1915. Ex Sp. via the Gypsies.

rumbo-ken

*. See RUMBO, n., 2. 2. A pawnbroker’s shop: c.: (?) ca 1700–1850.

rumbowling

. Anything inferior or adulterated: nautical (–1864). (Occ. as adj.) Prob. a corruption of S.E. rombowline. 2. Grog: nautical (–1885). Ex sense 1, but perhaps influenced by RUMBO and:

rumbullion, -ian; OCC. rombullion

. Rum: ca 1650–1750: coll soon > S.E. ?etymology.

rumbuptious

. Obstreperous: coll: ca 1786–1895. H., 5th ed., ‘Haughty, pugilistic’ (?quarrelsome). Ex dial. ram (see RUMBUSTIOUS) + bump on fractious. (N.B., BUMPTIOUS is later than rumbumptious, GUMPTION earlier than RUMGUMPTION.)

rumbustical

; occ. (†) rombustical. Boisterous, very noisy; unruly: coll and dial.: 1795, O.E.D. Prob. on †S.E. robustic ex RUMBUSTIOUS. cf.:

rumbusticate

. To coït with (a woman): late C.19–early 20. Ex RUMBUSTICAL on SPIFLICATE.

rumbusticator

. A moneyed man: ca 1890–1910. cf. preceding two entries.

rumbustious

; occ. (†in C.20) rombustious. Same as RUMBUSTICAL: coll: 1778, Foote, ‘The sea has been rather rumbustious.’ Lytton, 1853, rambustious. Prob. a perversion of robustious on dial. ram, very, strong, and RUM, adj., 1. (This type of word >, ca 1840, very gen. in U.S.: cf. CATAWAMPUS.)

Rumford (properly, Romford), ride to

. To get a new pair of breeches, or an old pair new-bottomed: coll: ca 1780–1830. Grose, 1st ed.; in the 2nd he adds, ‘Rumford was formerly a famous place for leather breeches.’ But cf.: you (one, etc.) may or might ride to Romford (up)on a (this, etc.) knife, a c.p. imputing bluntness: ca 1705–1860. Swift, ‘Well, one may ride to Rumford upon this knife, it is so blunt’; Notes & Queries, 1901, referring to ca 1850–70, ‘You might ride to Romford on it.’

Rumford or Romford lion

. A calf: coll: C.18–mid-19. More gen. is ESSEX LION: calves being very numerous in Essex.

rumgumption

. Common sense: coll (mostly Scots and Northern): from ca 1770. A strengthened form of GUMPTION.

rumly

*. Finely; excellently; gallantly; strongly: c. of ca 1670–1770. In C.17, often romely, as in Rowlands, 1609. Ex RUM, adj., 1. 2. Oddly; eccentrically: s.: 1819, Moore, ‘Thus rumly floored’. Ex RUM, adj., 2.

rummage

. To caress a woman sexually; possess her: low coll: C.19–20; ob. Ex S.E. rummage, to disarrange, disorder; to knock about.

rummagy

. Such as may be found, obtained, by rummaging in rubbish: coll: 1899, Baring-Gould, 'The "rummagy" faces'; slightly ob.

rummily

. Oddly, queerly: 1827, Scott: s. >, ca 1890, coll. Ex RUMMY, adj.

rumminess

. Oddness; singularity: 1899, Eden Phillpotts: s.

rummish

. Rather odd or peculiar: 1826. Ex RUM, adj., 2.

rummy

, adj. Odd; singular: 1828, Sporting Magazine, 'A neat, but rather rummy looking blue pony'. Moncrieff's 'rummy Spitalfields wipes' may mean odd handkerchiefs, but it might be a variant on RUM WIPE, a silk handkerchief.

rummy

, adv. Capitably, excellently, well: c. of ca 1825–40. Moncrieff, 1830, has ‘We chaunt so rummy’ (cf. RUM CHANT) and ‘We frisk so rummy.’ Ex RUM, adj., 1, via some of the rum combinations.

rump

. To flog: ca 1810–90: coll. Vaux, 1812. 2. (Of the male) to coït with, esp. dorsally: low: from ca 1850; slightly ob. As v.i., of either sex: cf. RUMPER. cf. loose in the RUMP; RUMP-SPLITTER.

rump, he hath eaten the

. The semi-poverbial c.p. applied to one who is constantly talking: ca 1670–1800. Ray.

rump, loose in one’s or the

. (Of women) wanton: coll: C.18–mid-19. D’Urfey.

rump and a dozen

. An Irish wager, ‘A rump of beef and a dozen of claret’, Grose, 2nd ed.: coll: late C.18–mid-19. Also called buttock and trimmings (Grose).

rump-and-kidney men

. ‘Fidlers that Play at Feasts, Fairs, Weddings, &c. And Live chiefly on the Remnants, of Victuals’, B.E., who—wrongly, I think—classifies it as c.; Grose doesn’t. (Prob.) coll: late C.17– early 19.

rump(-)and(-)stump

, adv. Completely; utterly: dial. and coll: from ca 1820; ob. Lit., rump and tail; cf. lock, stock, and barrel. A rhyming phrase perhaps suggested by (utterly) stumped. The synonymous rump and rig is wholly dial.

rump-splitter

. The penis: low coll: ca 1650-1800. Urquhart.cf. RUMP, 2. Whence, a whoremonger: low: C.19–20; ob. cf. loose in the RUMP, and:

rump-work

. Copulation: low coll: C.19–20; ob. cf. RUMP, 2, and RUMPER.

rumpad

, see RUM PAD.

rumper

. A whore; a whoremonger: low: C.19–20; very ob. Ex RUMP, 2, though partly a pun on Rumper, a member of the Rump Parliament.

rumption

. A rumpus: 1802: coll till ca 1820, then dial. Prob. ex RUMPUS on GUMPTION.

rumpty

. One thirty-second of £1: Stock Exchange: 1887.

rumpus

. An uproar or, †in C.20, a riot; a ROW, quarrel: coll: 1764, Foote, ‘Oh, Major! such a riot and rumpus!’ Always in collocation with riot before ca 1785; Grose has it in his 2nd ed. Also without article, gen. as riotousness, noise, quarrelling: 1768, O.E.D.; slightly ob.

W. suggests a s. use of Gr. ῥόμβος, spinning top, also commotion, disturbance; tentatively, I suggest a fanciful perversion of rumble, used, esp. as v., of the noise made by the bowels (C.16 onwards), for Grose, 1785, says ‘There is a rumpus among my chitterlins, i.e. I have the cholick.’ 2, A masquerade: c.: ca 1810–40.

rumpus

, v. To make a rumpus: coll: 1839, Hood; ob. (See the n.)

rumtitum

. In fine condition, gen. of a bull or a whoremonger: from ca 1810. cf. rumtitum, rumtidy(-tum), in refrains, though these are unrecorded before 1820. Sinks, 1848, has rum ti tum with the chill off (excellent), with a pun on the spirit rum. The term rum-ti-tum is an elaboration of rum-tum, a rhyming reduplication of RUM, adj., 1.

Rumville

*, see ROME-VILLE.

rumy

*. A good girl or woman: tramps' and Gypsy c. (–1859). A perversion of Romany romeni, a bride, a wife.

run

. To manage: U.S. (1827), anglicized as coll ca 1860. 2. To tease, irritate, nag at: Australian coll (1888); rather ob. 'Rolf Boldrewood'.

run, get the

. To be discharged from employment: from ca 1870.

run, give the

. To dismiss from employment: since ca 1875. Prompted by preceding entry.

run, have a

. To take a walk, a CONSTITUTIONAL: coll: from ca 1880. 2. Esp. have a RUN FOR IT. 3. To desert ship: naval: late C.18–mid-C.19.

run, let it

, see LET IT RUN.

run, on the

*. Wanted by the police: orig. (late C.19), c. In c., however, it implies leaving the usual haunts when one is wanted by the police.

run a rule over

*, see RULE OVER.

run-about

. From ca 1890: coll. See COMPULSORY. 2. Usually in pl run-abouts (or one word), ‘cattle allowed to graze freely’: Australian coll: late C.19–20.

run about after (someone's) arse

. To be obsequious or subservient to: low: late C.19–20.

run across

. To meet by chance: late C.19–20: coll.

run as swift as a pudding would creep

. To be very slow: coll: early C.17.

run away and play marbles

! An insulting c.p. rejoinder or dismissal: late C.19–20. C.H.Bacon, a Sedbergh boy, aptly pointed out, in July 1934, that an exact equivalent occurs in Shakespeare's Henry V: where the Dauphin sends the King a present of tennis balls.

run big

. (Of a horse.) To be forced to race when too fat: sporting: late C.19–20; ob.

run down

. The gangway or bridge between stage and auditorium: conjurors' coll (from ca 1880).

run (something) fine

. (Esp. run it or that fine.) To leave only a very small margin (gen. of time): coll: 1890.

run for it, have a

. To make a fight: coll: from ca 1890; slightly ob.

run for one's money, a

. An ample quid pro quo; extended liberty; a good time in exchange for one's money: C.19 racing s. >, ca 1890, coll.

run goods

. 'A maidenhead, being a commodity never entered', Grose, 2nd ed.: ca 1786–1840. Punning the nautical sense, contraband, and see COMMODITY.

run in

. To arrest: coll: 1872.

run of one's teeth or knife and fork, the . Victuals free: s., 1841 (in C.20, coll); coll (ca 1860). Ex the run, freedom, of a place.

run off one's legs

. Bankrupt; gen. he is run off his legs. Coll: ca 1670–1760. Ray. (Apperson.) cf. RUN OVER SHOES.

run on

. To rum up an account: lower classes' coll (–1887).

run on (a person), get the

*. To play a dirty trick on (him): c. (–1887). 2. See RUN UPON.

run one way and look another

. To play a double game: coll: from ca 1850; ob.

run one's face, or shape, for

. To obtain an article on credit: coll: orig. (–1848) and mainly U.S.; anglicized ca 1880; ob.

run one's tail

. To be a whore: from ca 1850. See TAIL.

run out on

. To embroider, enlarge on: coll: late C.19–20; ob.

run over him, the coaches won't

. He is in gaol. Also where the coaches..., gaol. A coll c.p. ca 1820–70. cf. where the FLIES WON'T GET AT IT.

run over shoes

; be run over shoes. To get, be, heavily in debt: coll: late C.16–early 17.

run rings round

, see RINGS ROUND.

run rusty

, see RUSTY.

run straight

. To remain faithful to one's husband: Society s. (from ca 1870) >, by 1910, gen. coll. Ex the language of the stable.

run the rule over

, see RULE OVER.

run thin

. To back out of a bargain: from ca 1880; ob. Ex dial.

run through the nose with a cushion

. To strike playfully: coll: late C.17–early 18. cf. stab with a ROSE.

run to

. To understand, comprehend: coll (–1859). 2. To afford, be able to pay: 1859, H.: coll till C.20, then S.E. Always in the negative or the interrogative. Ex horse-racing, thus:

run to it!, won't

. A sporting c.p. (–1909; ob.) applied to a horse that has insufficient staying power to reach the winning-post.

run to seed

; occ. hyphenated. Pregnant: low coll: from ca 1860; ob. 2. Shabby: coll: 1837, Dickens, 'Large boots running rapidly to seed'.

run upon (a person), get the

. To have the upper hand of; be able to laugh at: coll (–1859) >, by 1890, S.E.; very ob. Also get the run on.

runner

. A clothes-thief entering a house in the dark: c.: late C.17–early 18. cf. BUDGE. 2. A wave: coll: from ca 1870; ob. 3. A dog-stealer: c. (–1909).

runner-up

. A docker employed by gangers to liven up the gangs and expedite the work: nautical: late C.19–20. Bowen.

running glasier, glazier

*. A thief posing as a glazier: c. of ca 1810–70.

running horse or nag

. A gleet, a CLAP: low: ca 1780–1860.

running leather, have shoes of

. To be given to wandering or rambling: semi-proverbial coll: from ca 1850; ob.

running (occ. flying) patterer or stationer

. A hawker of books or, more gen., broadsheets, newspapers, about the streets: C.19, c. > low s. (Mayhew); late C.17–19, coll.

running ramp

*. In The Post Boy robbed of his Mail, Anon., 1706, it was—to reconstruct an apparent misprint—defined as ‘formed of those Home-Beggars that scout for Weddings and Burials’: c.: ?ca 1700–60.

running rumhle, the

*. The practice of a running RUMBLER: ca 1770–1830.

running rumbler

*, see RUMBLER.

running smobble

*. ‘Snatching goods off a counter, and throwing them to an accoraplice, who rushes off with them’, Grose, 2nd ed.: c. of ca 1787–1840. Cognate with SMABBLE (or SNABBLE); cf. the next entry; as running smabble, it occurs in 1718, in C.Hitchin, The Regulator.

running snavel

*. A thief specializing in the KINCHEN-LAY: c.: C.18. cf. preceding entry and see SNAFFLE, of which SNAVEL is a corruption on SNABBLE.

running stationer

, see RUNNING PATTERER.

runs, the

. Diarrhoea: coll: late C.19–20. Ex frequent hasty visits to the w.c.

ruof

. Four: back s. (–1874). 2. Hence, four shillings: from ca 1880.

rural, do a

. To ease oneself in the open air: coll: C.19–20; ob. Obviously suggested by Swift's pluck a ROSE.

rural coach

. A tutor not attached to a college: undergraduates' (–1887); ob.

rush

, n. (See also RUSHER.) A robbery (specifically with violence) of many objects at one rush: c.: from ca 1785. cf. U.S. rush, a street encounter, which Thornton records at 1860. 2. Hence, any swindle: c. or low s.: from ca 1840. cf. the v., 1.

rush

, v.t. To cheat (gen. rush out of); esp. to charge extortionately: 1885, former; ca 1895, latter. F. & H., 'I rushed the old girl for a quid.' The semantics being: not to give time to think. 2. To arrest: c.: from ca 1890; ob. Clarence Rook, The Hooligan Nights, 1899.

rush, do a

. To back a safe horse: racing: from ca 1860; ob. 2. To lay a dummy bet: bookmakers': from ca 1870. i.e., rushing the public into betting on this horse.

rush, give it to (one) upon the

. To make a violent effort to get in or out of a place: c.: ca 1810–40.

rush, give one the

. To sponge on a person all day and then borrow money from him at the finish, 'or pursue some such procedure', H.: low: from ca 1860.

rush, roam on the

. In horse-racing, to swerve as the finishing spurt begins: sporting: from ca 1880; ob. cf. ROPE, v., 1.

rush-buckler

. A violent bully: coll: ca 1530–90. Robinson's More, 'Bragging rush-bucklers'.

rush-dodge

*, see RUSH, n., 1, and RUSHER, 1.

rush for and rush out of

, see RUSH, v.

rush-light

. Some strong liquor: ca 1750–80. Toldervy, 1756. See quotation at SLUG, n., 1.

rush up the frills or petticoats or straight

. To coït with a woman without any preliminary blandishments: low coll: from ca 1850; ob. The third comes from horse-racing (cf. RUSH, ROAM ON THE).

rusher

, gen. in pl. ‘Thieves who knock at the doors of great houses, in London, in summer time, when the families are out of town, and on the door being opened by a woman, rush in and rob the house; also house breakers, who enter lone’—unoccupied—‘houses by force’, Grose, 1st ed.: c. of ca 1780–1850. cf. RUSH, n., 1. 2. A person (gen. male) of a GO-AHEAD nature or habits: coll: late C.19–20; ob.

rushing-business

. Robbery by adroitness or with apparent fairness: c.: from ca 1880.

russia

; R. A pocket-book: c. (–1877); ob. The reference in ‘No. 747’ is valid for 1845. Because made of Russia (leather).

Russian

. A ‘difficult’, unruly animal: Australian: 1888, ‘Rolf Boldrewood’; ob.

Russian law

. ‘A 100 blowes on his bare shins’, John Day, 1641: mid-C.17 coll.

rust

, n. Old metal: London (–1884); ob. cf. RUSTING and RUST, v. 2. Money: low: ca 1855–1910. Mayhew, 1858, ‘There’s no chance of nabbing any rust (taking any money).’ 3. See RUST, NAB THE. 4. See RUST, IN.

rust

, v.i. To collect and sell old metal: London (–1884); ob.

rust, in

. Out of work: theatrical: 1889; ob. Punning rest (see RESTING) and rusty.

rust, nab the

*. To be refractory (orig. of horses); hence, take offence: c. of ca 1780–1890. cf. RUSTY. 2. To be punished: c.: from ca 1890; †by 1850. cf. nab the BIB, the STOOP. 3. See RUST, n., 2.

rust, take (the)

; also nab the rust. (Of horses) to become restive: coll: 1775, Colman (take rust).

rustiness

. Annoyance (state of); bad temper: 1860, Whyte-Melville; ob. Ex RUSTY, adj.

rusting

. The frequent vbl n. of RUST, v.

rustle

. To bestir oneself, esp. in business: U.S. (–1872), anglicized ca 1885 as a coll. But rustler (adopted by Morley Roberts in 1887) has not caught on.

rusty

*. An informer: c.: 1830, Lytton, ‘He’ll turn a rusty, and scrag one of his pals!’

rusty

, adj. Ill-tempered; annoyed: coll: 1815, Scott, ‘The people got rusty about it, and would not deal.’ Esp. cut up, or turn, rusty. 2. Amorous, lecherous: Australian: late C.19–20.

rusty (or grub), ride

. To be sullen: coll: ca 1780–1840. Ex reasty, restive, applied esp. to a horse.

rusty ballocks

. A red-headed man: mostly naval: late C.19–20.

rusty guts, rusty-guts

; rustyguts. ‘An old blunt fellow’, B.E.: late C.17–mid-18. 2. Then, though now slightly ob., any ‘blunt surly fellow’, Grose, 1785. Both B.E. and Grose consider it a ‘jocular misnomer of rusticus’.

rust, keep a

. To make mischief: coll: late C.17–18. ?ex dial. rut, friction (itself ex rub); the O.E.D. considers it ex †rut, noise, disturbance, which is the more likely, for dial. rut may not date back so far.

rutat; OCC. rattat

. A potato: back s. on TATE(or U)R. Mid-C.19–20. H., 1st ed.; Ware, ‘Ruttat-pusher (1882). Keeper of a potato car’ (i.e., barrow).

rutter

*. One of a party (gen. numbering four) of swindlers; he stood at the door: c.: late C.16; Greene.

rux

, v. To reprimand, or blame, scold, severely: T.M.Ellis, 1899. Prob. ex dial. rux, shake; to tread upon. 2. In Public School s., rux up the arse=a, or to, kick: since ca 1880. The ultimate source of all these senses is perhaps rough-house, n., as it is of U.S. and Canadian ruckus.

ry

. A sharp trick; a dishonest practice: Stock Exchange: from ca 1860; ob. It may possibly be a distorted abbr. of RIG, n. Brewer's anecdotal origin may just conceivably be correct.

rybeck

. A share: low London (mostly Yiddish): 1851, Mayhew.

ryder

. A cloak: low: ca 1870–1910. Prob. ex Romany ruder, to clothe.

ryno

, see ROMANY RYE.

ryno

, see RHINO.

S

'S

; rarely 's. A coll euphemistic abbr. of God's in oaths; gen. continuous with governing words as in 'SBLOOD and 'SLIFE: C.16–20; from mid-C.18, only 'literary'.

s. and b.

; S. and B. An occasional variant (–1887; very ob.) of B. AND S.

S.S.

; P.P. SHIMM(E)Y showing; petticoat peeping: hortatory c.pp. from one girl to another, in ref. to dress disarranged: ca 1895–1915.

S.W.A.K.

'Sealed with a kiss' on the back of an envelope: coll: late C.19–20. Also S.W.A.L.K., where L.=loving.

sa

. Six: showmen's, mostly Parlary: from ca 1850. P.H.Emerson, 1893, 'I was hired out...for sa soldi a day.' Ex Lingua Franca.

sa'

. Save, esp. in God sa' me: C.17–mid-19: S.E. till ca 1660, then coll. Shadwell, 1668, 'As God shall sa' me, she is a very ingenious Woman.'

sa soldi

. Sixpence: see SA.

sabe, save

, see SAVVY.

sable Maria

. A variant of BLACK MARIA.

sabby

. A pidgin English variant (–1864) of SAVVY.

saccer

. The sacrament: Harrow School: late C.19–20. By the Oxford -er.

sack

*. A pocket: c.: late C.17–mid-19. B.E.; Mayhew, 1858. 2. A hammock: naval: C.19.

sack

, v. To ‘pocket’, take (illicit) possession of: coll: C.19–20; ob. E.S.Barrett, 1807, ‘He sacked the receipts, without letting them touch one farthing.’ 2. To dismiss one from employment or office: from ca 1840. Gen. in passive. Ex (get and/ or) give the sack, see BAG. 3. To defeat (in a contest, esp. in a game): from ca 1820 (orig. Anglo-Irish); rare after ca 1860. ?ex sack, to plunder. 4. To expel: Public Schools’: from ca 1880. Ex sense 2.

sack, bestow or confer the order of the

, see SACK, THE ORDER OF THE.

sack, break a bottle in an empty

. To make a cheating bet, a hocus wager, ‘a sack with a bottle in it not being an empty sack’, Grose, 2nd ed.: coll: late C.18–mid-19.

sack, buy the

. To become tipsy: s. > coll: ca 1720–1840. Ex sack, generic for the white wines formerly imported from Spain.

sack, dive into a

*. To pick a pocket: c.: late C.17–early 19.

sack, get or give the

, see BAG, and SACK, v., 2. cf.:

sack, the order of the

. Gen. as get or give (occ. bestow, confer) the order... A dismissal from employment, a discharge from office, a being discarded by sweetheart or mistress (rarely lover): from ca 1860. Yates, 1864, 'I'd...confer on him the order of the sack.' cf. ORDER OF THE...

sack 'em up men

. Resurrectionists: ca 1830–70.

sack of coals

. A black cloud (gen. black clouds) in the Southern Hemisphere: nautical: late C.19–20.

sacking

*. Prostitution; sacking law, harlotry as practised by the underworld with a view to further gain: c. of late C.16– early 17. Greene, 1592, 1591 resp. Ex the S.E. v., sack, to lay waste.

sacks to the mill!, more

. Pile it on!; there's plenty here!: coll: late C.16–18, then dial. Nashe; Middleton & Rowley in The Spanish Gipsie; Richardson.

sacred lamp

. A ballet-girl burlesque: theatrical: 1883–ca 1900. Ex a cynicism by John Hollingshead ('The sacred lamp of burlesque'), parodying Ruskin.

sacrifice

. A(n alleged) loss: coll >, ca 1880, S.E. Dickens, 1844, 'Its patterns were last Year's and going at a sacrifice,' Esp. alarming or astounding s.

sacrifice

. To sell, or claim to sell, at less than cost price: from ca 1850: coll >, ca 1880, S.E. Ex the n.

sad

. Mischievous, troublesome, merry, dissipated: late C.17–20 (ob. except in sad dog): coll. Chiefly of a place ('London is a sad place,' Mackenzie, 1771) and a person, esp. in sad dog, in C.18–mid-19 a debauched fellow, and thereafter rare except in playful reproach. Farquhar, 1706, 'S. You are an ignorant, pretending, impudent Coxcomb. B. Ay, ay, a sad dog.'

sad vulgar

. A vulgarian: Society: ca 1770–1820. Ware cites the St James's Gazette of 17 Aug. 1883.

saddle

. The female pudend; woman as sexual pleasure: coll verging on euphemism: C.17–20, but rare since C.18. 2. 'An additional charge upon the benefits' from a benefit-performance: 1781, Parker: theatrical.

saddle-back

, see SADDLEBACK. saddle becomes..., see SADDLE SUITS...

saddle-leather

. The skin of the posteriors: coll: mid-C.19–20. Punning S.E. sense.

saddle on the right or wrong horse, put the

. To blame—occ., to praise—the right or wrong person (loosely, act, thing): coll: from ca 1750. Ex the earlier set...(1607) and lay...(1652), both †by 1840. An occ. variant: place, mid-C.19–20, ob. Also s. upon...

saddle one's nose

. To wear spectacles: coll: late C.18–mid-19.

saddle-sick

. Made ill or very sore by riding: coll and dial.: late C.18–20; ob. cf. SADDLE-LEATHER.

saddle suits a sow, suit one as a

. To suit, become, fit ill; be very incongruous: coll: C.18–19. Swift, who has become for suit.

saddle the spit

. To give a meal, esp. a dinner: coll: late C.18–mid-19. Ex S.E. saddle a spit, to furnish one.

saddle upon

..., see SADDLE ON...

saddleback

. A louse: C.19–20; ob. (Not in the best circles.)

saddling-paddock

. A place where lovers tend to congregate: Australian (–1909). Semantics: RIDE, riding.

safe

*. (Gen. the safe.) Inside waistcoat pocket: c.: late C.19–20. Esp. among pick-pockets.

safe..., a

. e.g. ‘He is a safe second’, i.e. he is sure to obtain second-class honours: coll: late C.19–20.

safe (and sound), be or arrive

. To have duly arrived, be at one’s destination: coll: 1710, Swift, ‘I send this only to tell that I am safe in London.’

safe as..., as

. Very safe: coll: none recorded before 1600, thus: as safe as a church, 1891, Hardy (not very gen.); safe as a crow (occ. sow) in a gutter, ca 1630–1730, Clarke, Ray; as a mouse in a cheese, ca 1670–1750, Ray; as a mouse in a maltheap, ca 1630–1700, Clarke, Ray; as a mouse in a mill, ca 1600–50, Davenport; as a thief in a mill, ca 1620–1750 (then dial.), Beaumont & Fletcher, Swift; as anything, from ca 1895, F. & H. (1903); as Chelsea is dial.; as coons, 1864, †by 1920; as houses, 1864, Yates; as safe, 1860, Whyte-Melville; as the bank, 1818; as the bellows, 1851, Mayhew (mostly Cockney).

safe card

. An alert fellow: from ca 1870; slightly ob. cf. CARD, 2.

safe un

. A horse that will not run, certainly will not (because meant not to) win: the turf: 1871, ‘Hawk’s-Eye’, Turf Notes, ‘The safe uns, or “stiff uns”...horses that have no chance of winning’.

sag

. To drift off a course: nautical coll: late C.19–20. Bowen. 2. To be illicitly absent from work: Liverpool: late C.19–20.

saha

! Good-night!: naval: late C.19–20. Ex Maltese.

sahib

. A thoroughly honourable gentleman: mainly in the Services: late C.19–20. Ex Arabic and Urdu term of respectful address.

said than done, no sooner

; 2, (that's) easier. Both these phrases, obvious in meaning, are C.19–20 coll.

saïda

; saïda bint or girl, see BINT.

sail about

. To saunter about: coll: late C. 17–mid-18.

sail in

, v.i. To arrive, to enter: coll: from ca 1870. Ex S.E. sail in, to move in a dignified or a billowing manner. 2. Hence, to begin boldly (to act): from ca 1880. 3. Hence the special sense, to begin to fight: 1891, Morning Advertiser, 30 March. cf.:

sail into

. To attack, e.g. with one's fists: from ca 1891. 2. To begin vigorously on (e.g. a meal). cf. SAIL IN, 3. 3. To enter (a building, a room, etc.): C.18–20. Tom Brown, 1700, 'From thence I sailed into a Presbyterian Meeting near Covent-Garden': cf. SAIL ABOUT.

sailor

is a Regular Army term of ca 1855–1910. 'A "sailor" was the slang term for any person whose nature was so generous, and whose finances so sound, as to allow the quaffing of many cups at his personal charge,' Robert Blatchford, My Life in the Army, 1910.

sailor-teasers

. 'Studding sails and flying kites which the sailor disliked intensely': nautical coll: C.19. Bowen.

sailor's blessing

. A curse: nautical: from ca 1880. cf. FUCK YOU, JACK, 'I'M ALL RIGHT.

sailor's champagne

. Beer: lower classes' jocular coll. (–1909); ob.

sailor's friend, the

. The moon: nautical coll: mid-C.19–20.

sailor's pleasure

. 'Yarning, smoking, dancing, growling, &c.', Clark Russell, 1883; ob. As applied to the first three, it is S.E.; to the last, coll.

sailor's waiter, the

. A second mate on a sailing-ship: nautical (–1840); ob.

sailor's weather

. 'A fair wind and just enough of it': sailing-ships' coll: C.19–20.

sails

. A sail-maker: nautical (–1840). cf. CHIPS.

sails, take the wind out of one's

. To nonplus; surprise, gen. unpleasantly: mid-C. 19–20: coll (orig. nautical) >, ca 1905, S.E.

sails like a haystack

, see HAYSTACK.

saint

. ‘A piece of spoilt timber in a coach maker’s shop, like a saint, devoted to the flames’, Grose, 2nd ed.: ca 1785–1850.

saint and sinner

. Dinner: rhyming s.: late C.19–20.

St Alban’s clean shave

. The clean-shaven face of a high churchman: ecclesiastical: late C.19–early 20.

St Anthony, dine with

. A variant of DINE WITH DUKE HUMPHREY, to go without dinner or, loosely, any other meal: 1749, Smollett, translation of Gil Blas.

St Anthony pig

, see ANTHONY. St Benedict, St Francis, see ST PETER.

St Geoffrey's day

. Never: coll: ca 1786–1850. cf. Queen DICK.

St George, riding and the dragon upon

, see RIDING ST GEORGE. And cf.:

St George a-horse-back

. The act of kind: C.17–18. Massinger, ca 1632, omits St.

St Giles, dine with

, see DINE WITH ST GILES.

St Giles's carpet

. A sprinkling of sand: Seven Dials, London: C.19.

St Hugh's bones

. Shoemaking tools: coll: C.17–mid-18; then dial., extant in Cheshire. Dekker, 1600; E.Ward, 1700.

St John's Wood donas

. Harlots, courtesans: taverns'; ca 1880–1912. Many once lived there.

St Lubbock's day

. August bank-holiday: 1871: coll; ob. Ex Sir John Lubbock, the institutor, who brought in an Act in that year. Ware records St Lubbock, an orgy or drunken riot: lower London: ca 1880–1914.

St Luke's bird

. An ox, 'that evangelist being always represented with an ox', Grose, 1st ed.: c. or low: ca 1780–1850.

St Marget's ale

. Water: coll: 1600, Munday & Drayton; †by 1800. cf. Adam's ale.

St Martin's (le Grand)

. A hand: Londoners' rhyming s.: late C.19–20.

St Martin's lace

. Imitation gold-lace: coll: 1607, Dekker. (cf. etymology of tawdry.) S.E. cf.:

St Martin's ring

. A copper-gilt ring: coll: C.17–early 18. Anon., early C.17, Plain Percival, ‘I doubt whether all be gold that glistereth, sith Saint Martin’s rings be but copper within, though they be gilt without.’

St Martin's the Grand

. A hand: rhyming s. (–1857).

St Mary's knot, tie with

. To hamstring: Scots coll: 1784, The Poetical Museum.

St Monday

. Monday: South African coll (–1896). Because observed as a holiday by the Malays. Ex: 2. Esp. keep Saint Monday, to be idle on Monday as a result of Sunday’s drunkenness: 1753, Scots Magazine, April, (title) ‘St Monday; or, the tipling tradesmen’.

St Nicholas

, see NICHOLAS.

saint of the saucepan

. A good cook: coll verging on S.E.: 1749, Smollett; ob.

St Patrick

. The best whisky: coll: ca 1650–1850. Ex drink at St Patrick's well: coll: 1648, anon., A Brown Dozen of Drunkards; †by 1850.

St Peter

, silence and mortification; St Radegonde, a small cross studded with nails; St Benedict, a hair-shirt; St Francis, the discipline, i.e. the whip or scourge: Roman Catholic ecclesiastical s.: late C.19–20. Ex incidents recorded in hagiology.

St Peter's son

*. (Gen. in pl.) A general thief, 'having every finger a fish-hook', Grose, s.v. FIDLAM BEN: c. of ca 1710–1850.

St Radegonde

, see ST PETER.

St Thomas a' Waterings, the 'Spital (or 'spital) stands too nigh

. A semi-proverbial c.p. derived ex London topography, waterings being a pun: C.17–mid-18; e.g. in the anon. play, The Puritan, 1607. 'Widows who shed most tears are sometimes guilty of such indiscretions as render them proper subjects for the public hospitals,' Hazlitt. (There is a cynical early C.17 play dealing with a woman successfully courted at her husband's funeral. cf. the classical Widow of Ephesus.)

sakes (alive)

! A (low) coll exclamation: from ca 1840: mostly dial. and U.S.

sal

. A salivation, or treatment for syphilis: 1785, Grose, who adds 'in a high sal, in the pickling tub or under a salivation'. †by 1860. 2. A salary: theatrical: 1859, H., 1st ed.; 1885, Household Words, 29 Aug.

sal hatch, or S.H.

An umbrella: lower classes' (–1909). Perhaps ex a proper name: cf. MRS GAMP and †S.E. sal hatch, a dirty wench.

sal slappers

. A common woman: costers' (–1909).

salad

. After having been wakened, to have another nap: nautical, applied only to officers (–1877). cf. the C.16–early 17 S.E. pick a salad, to be trivially engaged.

salad march

. A ‘march of ballet girls in green, white, and pale amber—from the usual colours of salads’: late C.19–early 20 theatrical coll. Ware.

salamander

. A fire-eating juggler: circus (–1859).

salamon

*. A C.17–19 form of SALMON.

sale, house of

. A brothel: coll: late C.16–17. Shakespeare in Hamlet.

salesman’s dog

. A shop-tout: ca 1690–1840. On BARKER, 3.

Salisbury

. A civil lie; a polite evasion: political: ca 1890–1900. Pall Mall Gazette, 5 March 1890, ‘The famous Salisbury about the Secret-Treaty...must henceforth be read “cum grano salis-bury”.’ Ex the statesman.

Sallenger’s (or Sallinger’s) Round, dance

. To wanton; copulate: coll: C.17–early 18. Sallenger’s Round was an indelicate ballad of ca 1600; lit., St Leger’s.

Sally

, see AUNT SALLY.

sally

*, v.; sallying, vbl. n. These c. terms, valid for 1865 in ‘No. 747’, are of obscure sense; it is, however, clear that they refer to some not very skilled DODGE for illicitly obtaining money.

Sally Nixon (occ. s.n.)

. Salenixon (sal enixum); workmen’s: from ca 1880. By ‘Hobson-Jobson’.

salmagundy

. A cook: coll: C.18–early 19. Ex the dish so named.

salmon; OCC. salamon, salomon or -an, and solomon

*. The Mass; Harman defines as also an altar, a sense not recorded after C.16. Rare except in by salmon!, by the Mass!, the beggar's expletive or oath, or in the C.18–early 19 so help me salmon!: c. of ca 1530–1830. Copland, Overbury, Moore-Carew, Scott. Prob. a corruption of the Fr. serment, an oath. 2. A corpse fished from a river, esp. the Thames: water-rats' c.: mid-C.19–20.

salmon and trout

. The mouth: rhyming s. (–1859); ob. H., 1st ed., as salmon trout, which is rare after ca 1870; the 5th ed. has s. and t.

salmon-gundy

. A (rather low) coll, indeed almost sol. form of salmagundy: late C.18– early 19. (See also SALMAGUNDY.)

saloman, -mon

*. The former a frequent, the latter a rare variant of SALMON: resp. C.17 and mid-C.16–early 19. Resp., Overbury; Harman, Middleton, Shirley.

salt

. A sailor; esp. one of long experience, when often old salt (as in Hughes, 1861): coll: 1840, Dana, 'My complexion and hands were enough to distinguish me from the regular salt.' Occ., though by 1910, ob.: salt-water. 2. (An instance of) sexual intercourse: coll: mid-C.17–early 18. Ex salt, amorous, lecherous. cf.:

salt

, v.i. To copulate: coll: (?)C17– early 18. Ex the S.E. adj.: cf. the n., 2. 2. v.t., to admit (a freshman) by putting salt in his mouth, making him drink salty water, or practising on him some similar burlesquery: students': ca 1570–1650. 3. In an invoice or account, to price every article very high, gen. in order to allow a seemingly generous discount on settlement (salt an account, an invoice, etc.): commercial: 1882, Ogilvie. Perhaps directly ex next sense: 4. To insert in the account books fictitious entries with a view to enhancing the value of a business to a prospective buyer: commercial: from ca 1850. (Gen. salt a book, the books, etc.) Prob. suggested by: 5. In mining, to sprinkle or plant an exhausted or a bogus claim with precious dust, nuggets, or gems: orig. (–1864), of gold in Australia; of diamonds, ca 1890; of oil, ca 1900. H., 3rd ed.; Pall Mall Gazette, 22 Dec. 1894, 'Even experienced mining men and engineers have been made victims by salters.'

salt

, adj. Dear, costly, excessive in amount (of money): C.18–20 dial. >, ca 1850, s.: as s., slightly ob. H., 2nd ed., "It's rather too salt," said of an extravagant hotel bill'; F. & H., 'as salt as fire =salt as may be'. Also salty. 2. Aristocratic; wealthy: 1868; slightly ob. Ex the salt of the earth, a phrase that began ca 1840 to be used of the great in power, rank, wealth—a trivial use that, during the First World War, > ob. 3. Drunk: late C.19– early 20. Abbr. SALT JUNK.

salt, we shan't take

. Our box office returns will be very small: theatrical c.p. (–1909). Ware, ‘We shall not take enough money to pay for salt, let alone bread.’

salt and batter

. Assault and battery: partly s., partly illiterate: since ca 1830. An Old Etonian, Cavendo Tutus; or, Hints upon Slip-Slop, being the 2nd part of his The Alphabet Annotated, 1853.

salt and spoons, come after with

. To be slow or dilatory: coll: late C.17–18. B.E., ‘One that is none of the Hastings’; cf. HASTINGS SORT.

salt-beef flag

. ‘The Blue Peter, in anticipation of the diet’: nautical: late C.19–20. Bowen.

salt-beef squire

. More usual than SALT-HORSE SQUIRE.

salt-box

*. A prison cell; esp. the condemned cell at Newgate: c. of ca 1810–90. Ex (?smallness and) bitterness.

salt-box cly

*. A flapped outside pocket: c.: ca 1810–40.

salt-cellar

. The female pudend: low: C. 19(?–20). cf. SALT, n., 2.

salt down

. To put by (money, 1873, or stock, 1897); store it away. Ex salt, to preserve with salt.

salt eel

. A rope's end, in have (a) salt eel for supper, to receive a thrashing: ca 1620–1830: naval coll. Mabbe, Congreve, B.E., Smollett, Colman, Grose.

salt horse or junk

. Salted beef: nautical coll >, ca 1870, S.E.: resp. 1840 (O.E.D.); 1837, Marryat. Whence salt-horse squire.

salt-horse squire

. A warrant as opp. a commissioned officer: naval: mid-C.19Z early 20.

salt junk

, adj. Drunk: rhyming s.: ca 1890–1910. n.: see SALT HORSE.

salt on one's, its, the tail,—cast or fling or lay or put or throw

. To ensnare, capture: coll: mid-C.17–mid-19, C.18–19, late C.16– mid-19, mid-C.19–20, and C.19–20. Lyly; ‘Hudibras’ Butler, ‘Such great achievements cannot fail|To cast salt on a woman’s tail’ (see TAIL); Swift (fling); Lamb, 1806, ‘My name is...Betty Finch ...you can’t catch me by throwing salt on my tail’; Dickens, 1861 (put).

salt-pits

. A or the store of Attic wit: Oxford University: ca 1820–40. Ex Attic salt.

salt-water

. See SALT, n., 1. (Ainsworth, 1839.) 2. Urine: coll: late C.17–18. Tom Brown.

Saltash luck

. ‘A wet seat and no fish caught’: naval: late C.19–20. Bowen. Ex Saltash, a small town four miles N.W. of Devonport.

salted

. Experienced: of horses, coll, 1879; of persons, s., 1889. 2. See SALT, v., 5.: recorded by O.E.D. in 1886, but doubtless twenty years older.

saltee

. A penny: Parlary: mid-C.19–20. Reade, ‘It had rained kicks all day in lieu of saltees.’ Also saulty. Ex It. soldi.

salter

. One who salts mines: from ca 1890. See SALT, v., 5.

salting

, vbl n., see SALT, v., 2 and 5.

salts

. Smelling salts: coll: 1767; slightly ob. 2. Epsom salts: coll: 1772.

salts and senna

. A doctor: a nickname from ca 1860; ob. Ex salts.

salt's pricker

. A thick roll of compressed Cavendish tobacco: naval (—1909). Ware.

salty

. See SALT, adj., 1: mostly U.S. (1847, Robb).

salubrious

. Drunk: from ca 1870; ob. 2. In reply, esp. to a query as to health, 'Pretty or very well, thanks!': from ca 1880; ob. Perhaps via SCRUMPTIOUS.

Salvation jugginses—rotters—soul-sneakers

. Members of the Salvation Army: London lower classes': 1882–4. Ware.

salve

, n. Praise; flattery: 1859, H., 1st ed.; rather ob. cf. S.E. lip(-)salve, flattery.

salve over

. To persuade or convince by plausibility or flattery: coll: 1862 (O.E.D.).

Sam

; occ. sam. A Liverpudlian: dial. and s.: from ca 1840. Perhaps ex SAMMY, 1. Also and gen. Dicky Sam (1864, H., 3rd ed.). 2. A fool: 1843, Moncrieff, 'I'm a ruined homo, a muff, a flat, a Sam, a regular ass.' Ex SAMMY, n., 1, and adj. 3. See SAM, UPON MY, and SAM, STAND.

sam

, v. Abbr. (—1909; proletarian) of the next. 2. To slam (esp. a door): Lancashire rhyming s. (—1905) rather than dial.

sam, or Sam, stand

. To pay the reckoning, esp. for drinks or other entertainment: 1823, Moncrieff; 1834, Ainsworth, 'I must insist upon standing Sam upon the present occasion'; Henley. Prob. the sam is cognate with that of upon my SAM, and derives either ex SALMON, as I prefer, or ex Samuel, as the O.E.D. suggests; H.'s theory of U.S. origin (Uncle Sam) is, I feel sure, untenable.

Sam, uncle

, see UNCLE SAM.

sam!, upon my

; more gen. 'pon my sam! A jocular asseveration: 1879, F.J.Squires. See SAM, STAND for etymology; it is, however, not improbable that 'pon my sam is a corruption of dial. 'pon my sang(s), recorded as early as 1860, by my sang occurring at least as early as 1790, and my sang ca 1840 (E.D.D.). cf. on my (sammy) SAY-SO.

Sambo

, gen. in address. A Negro: coll: from C.18. John Atkins, A Voyage to Guinea, Brasil and the West Indies, 1735. 2. A Negro rating: nautical. Ex S.E. sense, a Negro with a strain of Indian or European blood.

same here

; same there. What you say applies equally to me; to you: resp. from ca 1880 and from ca 1870, the latter being orig. a tailors' c.p.

same like

. Same as; exactly like: coll, almost sol.: from ca 1870. W.Pett Ridge, Mord Em'ly, 1898, 'Beef Pudding same like Mother makes'—a cheap eating-house's advertisement.

same o.b.

Same old BOB (shilling): lower classes' c.p.: ca 1880–1910. Ex usual entrance-fee.

same old 3 and 4

. Three shillings and four pence a day wages: workmen's (–1909).

samkin

. An occ., now ob., variant (–1886) of SIMKIN, 2.

Sammy or sammy

; occ. sammy soft or S.S. A fool: from ca 1830; slightly ob. Peake, 1837, 'What a Sammy, give me a shilling more than I asked him!' cf. SAM, n., 2. 2. (Sammy.) A Hindu idol (e.g. of Siva): British soldiers' (in India): late C.18–20. Ex Swamy, ex Sanskrit suamin, Lord.

sammy

, adj. Foolish: from ca 1810; ob. Whence the n., 1. cf. SAMMY SOFT.

sammy-house

. An idol-temple: British soldiers' (in India): 1859. Ex SAMMY, n., 2.

Sammy Soft (or s.s.)

. A fool: from ca 1840; slightly ob. See SAMMY, n., 1.

sample

. To caress intimately, or to ‘occupy’, a woman for the first time: coll: C.19–20. Ex sample, to ‘obtain a representative experience of’. cf.: 2. To drink: from ca 1845. Porter, 1847, ‘Old T. never samples too much when on business.’ Via ‘drink as a test or trial’.

sample-count

. A commercial traveller: commercial coll: 1894, Egerton; very ob.

sampler

. The female pudend: C.19–20; ob. Semantics: needlework.

sam(p)son or S

. A drink of brandy and cider, with a little water and some sugar: dial. and s.: from ca 1840; ob. Halliwell. Also, mainly dial. and from ca 1880, Samson with his hair on, which denotes a very strong mixture of the same ingredients, as in ‘Q’, Troy Town, 1888. 2. A baked jam pudding: Durham School: from ca 1870. Both senses ex the sense of power, the second perhaps also ex toughness.

samshoo

. Any spirituous liquor: Anglo-Chinese (–1864). Ex samshoo, a specific fiery spirit, rice-distilled.

san skillets, or S.S.

The sans-culottes of Paris: proletarian: late C.18.

sanakatowmer

. A heavy fall; a violent blow: nautical: late C.19–20. Bowen. Echoic.

sancipees

, see SANK.

sand

*. Moist sugar: c. of ca 1810–50. 2. Money: C.19. cf. DUST. 3. Constancy of purpose; courage: stamina: orig. (ca 1870), U.S.; anglicized ca 1895, but never very gen. cf. GRIT. 4. Salt: nautical: mid-C.19–20. 5. Any sugar: Canadian, and at Bootham School: late C.19–20. cf. sense 1.

sand, eat

. (Gen. of the helmsman) to shorten one's watch by turning the hour-glass before it has quite run out: nautical s. or coll: ca 1740–1820. Memoirs of M. du Gué-Trouin (properly Du Guay Trouin or Duguay-Trouin), 1743. Ex the sand in the glass.

sand-bag, -boy, -man, -paper

. See these as single words.

sand-rat

. A moulder in a foundry: engineers': from ca 1875. 2. An Indian Army term, dating from ca 1880. Richards, '... These native girls, who being in the last stages of the dreaded disease and rotten inside and out, only appeared after dark. These were the sand-rats and it was a horrible form of suicide to go with them.'

sand-storm medal

. (Gen. pl.) An Egyptian Army decoration: military: late C.19–20.

sandhag

*. A long sausage-shaped bag of sand used as a weapon: orig. (–1871), c.; by 1900 gen. s. Pocock, Rules of the Game, 1895.

sandbag

, v. To fell with a sandbag: orig. (–1890), c. >, ca 1910, gen. s. App. both weapon and word were first used in U.S.

sandbagger

. A ruffian using a sandbag as a weapon: c., orig. U.S. (1884), anglicized ca 1890.

sandbeef

. A sandwich: Anglo-Indian (–1887).

sandboy (properly sand-boy), as happy or jolly or merry as a . Very happy, etc.: resp. late C.19–20, never very gen.; 1823, ‘Jon Bee’, this being the usual form; 1841, Fitz-Gerald, ‘We will smoke together and be as merry as sandboys.’

sandman (from ca 1870, occ. sandy man) is coming, the

. Addressed to, or remarked of, children showing signs of sleepiness: a nursery coll: 1861. cf. DUSTMAN, Ex rubbing eyes as if sand were in them.

sandpaper

. To rub out or off; to remove: 1889, Answers, 9 Feb., ““Can’t do it,” said Lancaster, “and I hope to be sandpapered if I try”.’ Ob.

sandpapering the anchor

. Doing unnecessary work aboard ship: nautical jocular coll: mid-C.19–20. Bowen.

sands, leave or put a person to the long

. To abandon; place in a difficulty: Scots coll of ca 1670–1700. J.Brown, 1678, ‘How quickly they were put again to the long sands (as we say).’ Ex sands, a desert or perhaps a sand-bank.

sandwich

. A sandwich-man: 1864 (H., 3rd ed.) though adumbrated by Dickens ca 1836: coll >, ca 1910, S.E. 2. A gentleman between two ladies: from ca 1870; ob. Perhaps ex Thackeray’s ‘A pale young man...walking...en sandwich’ (Vanity Fair, 1848). Rather coll than s.

sandwich

, v. To set or insert between dissimilars: from ca 1860: coll.

sandwich board

. A police-ambulance stretcher: lower classes': ca 1870–1914.

Sandy

. A Scotsman: a coll nickname (–1785), mostly Scots. Ex Sandy, abbr. Alexander, a very gen. Scottish name. 2. (sandy.) Gen. pl; Thames barge-men who dredge for sand in the river: nautical coll, esp. Thames-side: late C.19–20. Bowen.

sandy man

, see SANDMAN.

sangaree

. A bout of drinking (to excess): coll: ca 1820–70. Ex S.E. sense, a cold drink made of spiced wine diluted.

Sangster

. An umbrella: London: ca 1850–70. Ex the inventor of a special kind.

sanguinary

, jocular for BLOODY, is s. verging on coll (–1909).

sanguinary James

. (cf. BLOODY JEMMY, its origin.) A (raw) sheep's-head: 1860, H., 2nd ed.; ob.

sank, sanky, occ. sancipees (or centipees— F. & H. erroneously centipers)

. A tailor employed by a clothier in the making of soldiers' clothing: ca 1780–1870. Perhaps ex Yorkshire dial. sanky, boggy, spongy, but prob. cognate with dial. sank, to perform menial offices as servant in a dining-room, itself a variant of skink, to wait on the company.

sank-work

. The making of soldiers' clothes: coll: ca 1850–1920. Mayhew, 1851; Baumann. This word bears a curious resemblance to the C.14 S.E. sank, to bring together; see, however, remarks at SANK, whence it derives, and cf. Mayhew's suggestion that the origin resides in Fr. sang (Norman sanc), blood, in reference to a soldier's work or to the colour of his coat.

Santa

. Santa Claus: coll, mostly of the nursery: from ca 1880. cf. SANTY.

santar or -er

*. He who, in a trio of thieves working together, carries away the booty: c.: late C.16–early 17. Greene, 1591. i.e. to sanctuary.

Santy

. Santa Claus: coll, mostly Canadian: late C.19–20. cf. SANTA.

sap

. A fool or a simpleton: 1815, Scott: coll >, ca 1900, S.E. Milliken, ca 1893, ‘Sour old sap’. Abbr. sapskull, and cf. saphead. 2. One who works, esp. studies hard; a book-worm: schools’: 1798, Charlotte Smith; 1827, Lytton, ‘When I once attempted to read Pope’s poems out of school hours, I was laughed at, and called a sap’; Goschen, 1888, ‘...Those who...commit the heinous offence of being absorbed in [work]. Schools and colleges...have invented...phrases... such as “sap”, “smug”, “swot”, “bloke”, “a mugster”.’ Whence:

sap

, v. To be studious or a great reader: schools’: 1830 (O.E.D.), but implied in SAPPING.

sap-head

. A sot: s.: Ned Ward, 1703.

sap out

. To work up (a subject); resolve (a problem or a 'construe'): Shrewsbury School: from ca 1880. cf. SAP, v.

sap the flas

. A Cockney c.p. used when the drink does not go round freely: ca 1880–1910. Back s. for pass the salt.

sapper

. One who studies hard: Eton: 1825, Westmacott. cf. SAP, v. and n., 2. 2. A gay, irresistible fellow: music-halls': late C.19. Ex Fr. sapeur.

sappiness

. Foolishness; folly: coll: late C.19–20. See SAP, n., 1.

sapping

. Hard study: schools': 1825, Westmacott. cf. SAP, n., 2, and v.

sappy

. (Of a caning) severe: Durham School: from ca 1870. Ex S.E. sense: vigorous, rich in vitality, perhaps influenced by dial. sense, putrescent. (As= foolish, sappy dates from C.17; certainly S.E. up till ca 1860; by 1870, it seems to have > coll: see e.g. H., 5th ed.)

sarcy

. A low coll form of SAUCY: C.19–20. Moncrieff, 1843. Prob. influenced by sarcastic: see SARKY.

sard

, to copulate, C.10–17, seems to have, in late C.16, > a vulg.

sardine-box

. A prison-van: lower classes' (–1909); ob. (Packed as if with sardines.)

sardine-tin

. A clumsy steamer; nautical: late C.19–20.

sardines, packed like

. Crowded, huddled: mid-C.19–20: coll till C.20, then S.E. Ex the close packing of sardines in tins. Occ. like sardines (in a tin). cf. the U.S. sardine, a sailor on a whaling ship.

Sarey Gamp

. An elaboration of GAMP (n., 3), an umbrella: mid-C.19 London.

sargentlemanly

. So gentlemanly: satirical low coll: ca 1870–1900.

sark

. To sulk: Sherborne School: from ca 1880. Prob. ex sarcastic; cf.:

sarky

. Sarcastic: (low) coll: late C.19–20. cf. SARK.

sarvice

. Service: low coll and dial.: C.18–20. Ex the older S.E. pronunciation.

sass, get too much

. To become too bold, or powerful, or wicked: ‘English Negro s.’ of the West Coast of Africa: from ca 1870, i.e. SAUCE.

sassage

. A sausage: either sol. or low, esp. Cockney, coll (–1887). cf.:

sassenger

; sassing. A sausage: col., mostly children’s: late C.19–20; slightly ob.

sat

. Satisfaction: universities’: ca 1860–1900, (Ex L. satis.) 2. A fag: Public Schools’ (–1909); ob. Abbr. satellite, a jocular name for a fag.

sat-upon

. Repressed, humiliated; down-trodden: coll: from ca 1890.

satchel-arsed fellow

; satchel-arsed son of a whore. A man fitted by Jon Bee’s indictment in 1823: ‘Some chaps put on certain habiliments in a very bag-like manner’: †by 1900.

sate-poll

. A stupid person: low s. > coll: late C.19–20. ?=sated poll (head).

satin

. Gin: from ca 1860, ob. Ex white satin, see WHITE RIBBON. cf.:

satin, a yard of

. A glass of gin: mostly among women (–1864). cf. RIBBON and TAPE, esp. among servants.

Saturday pie

. A RESURRECTION PIE: lower classes' (–1909); ob.

Saturday soldier

. A volunteer: 1890, Globe, 11 Aug.; ob. Also cat-shooter.

Saturday(-)to(-)Monday

. A mistress for the week-end: coll (–1903); very ob.

satyr

*. A professional stealer of cattle, horses, sheep: C.18 c. ‘Highwaymen’ Smith, 1714. Prob. ex the Roman representation of satyrs as goat-like.

sauce

. Impudence, impertinence: coll and dial.: 1835, Marryat; perhaps much earlier (see more SAUCE THAN PIG and SAUCEBOX). Ex SAUCY. 2. A venereal infection: coll: C.18–early 19. Vanbrugh.

sauce

, v. To charge (a person) extortionately: coll (or jocular S.E.): late C.16–early 17. Shakespeare. 2. To strike; to thrash: coll: 1598, Jonson; †by 1750. 3. Hence, in C.17–18, to reprimand (severely); rebuke smartly: coll. Shakespeare. 4. Hence, to address impertinently: low coll: from ca 1860. Dickens, 1865, ‘Don’t sauce me in the wicious pride of your youth.’

sauce, carrier’s or poor man’s

. Hunger: mid-C.19–20: coll; but the latter soon S.E.

sauce, eat

; gen. to have eaten sauce. To be saucy: coll: C.16. Skelton, who has the variant to have drunk of sauce’s cup.

sauce than pig, (have) more

. (To be) very impudent, impertinent: coll: late C.17–18. cf. SAUCEPAN RUNS OVER.

saucebox

. An impudent or impertinent person: coll: 1588, Marprelate's Epistle; ob. Tylney, 1594, 'You master saucebox, lobcock, cockscomb'; Fielding; Miss Mitford. cf. SAUCE, n., 1. 2. 'In low life it also signifies the mouth'; H., 3rd ed., 1864.

saucepan lid

. A Jew: rhyming s. (on YID): late C.19–20. 2. A child: rhyming s. (on KID, n., 1): late C.19–20. 3. A mild deception, a leg-pulling; hence also v., as in 'Now you're saucepan-lidding me': rhyming s. (on KID, n., 5, v., 2–4): late C.19–20.

saucepan on the fire, have the

. To be desirous of, ready for, a scolding bout: coll and dial.: mid-C.19–20; almost † as coll. cf.:

saucepan runs (occ. boils) over, your

. You're very saucy: a late C.17–18 c.p. or coll. cf. SAUCE THAN PIG, saucer, off one's

. Not in the humour; indisposed: Australian: ca 1860–1910.

saucers

. Eyes, esp. if wide-opened or very large: coll: 1864, Mark Lemon, 'I always know when he has been in his cups by the state of his saucers.' Ex S.E. eyes like (or as big as) saucers, saucer-eyes (or -eyed), etc.

saucy

. Impudent or rude; impertinent: coll: late C.18–20. Ex C.16–18 S.E. senses (insolent, presumptuous). 2. Hence, smart, stylish: coll: from ca 1830. An East End tailors' broadside advertisement of ca 1838 runs, 'Kicksies made very saucy.'

saucy box

. A SAUCEBOX (1): coll: 1711, Swift; †by 1780.

saucy jack

. An impudent fellow: coll: ca 1550–1700. cf. JACK SAUCE.

saulty

, see SALTEE.

sausage

; live sausage. In sexual sense, it is on the marches of coll and S.E. 2. (sausage or S.) A German: lower classes': late C.19–20. Suggested by German sausage. 3. (sausage.) Short for sausage and mash, cash: rhyming: since ca 1870.

sausage toad

. Sausage toad-in-the-hole: eating-houses' coll: late C.19–20.

sausages

. Fetters: low: ca 1820–65. Sinks, 1848. Shape: string of sausages=a chain. 2. Side whiskers: mid-C.19–20.

sausanmash

. A sausage and mashed potatoes: junior clerks' (–1909).

savage

, adj. Furiously angry; unsparing in speech: from 1820s: mostly coll.

save

, v.t. To protect oneself, or one's book of bets, by hedging; to keep (a horse) on one side, not betting against it, thus making it a clear winner for oneself: the turf: 1869.

save!

; save? see SAVVY.

save-all

. One of 'boys running about gentlemen's houses in Ireland, who are fed on broken meats that would otherwise be wasted', Grose, 1785: Anglo-Irish coll: mid-C.18–mid-19. Prob. ex the save-all candlestick.

save oneself

. To hedge: racing coll: 1869, Broadwood, The O.V.H., 'Most who received the news at least saved themselves upon the outsider.' See SAVE, v.

save-reverence

, see SIRREVERENCE.

saved by the bell

. Saved by a lucky intervention: coll; often as a c.p.: late C.19–20. Ex the bell signifying the end of a round in a boxing match.

saver

. A prudent covering bet: the turf: from ca 1890. Nat Gould, 1891, ‘I’ve put a saver on Caloola.’ Ex save (oneself), to bet thus.

savers

! Halves!: boys’: late C.19–20.

savey, savie

, see SAVVY. saving!, hang, see HANG SAVING!

saving chin

. A projecting chin: coll: ca 1776–1840. Bridges; Grose, ‘That catches what may fall from the nose’. cf. the proverb he would save the droppings of his nose, applied to a miser.

savvy

; also sabby, sabe, savey, savie, savvey, scavey, n. Common sense, good sense; GUMPTION: 1785, Grose; ‘Rolf Boldrewood’, 1888, ‘If George had had the savey to crack himself up a little’. Hence, acuteness, cleverness: 1864, H., 3rd ed. Forms: savvy, mid-C.19–20; SABBY (– 1864); sabe, since ca 1820, now rare; savey, 1785; savie, Scottish, C.19–20; savvey, from ca 1880; scavey, C.19. Ex Negro-izing of Fr. savoir, to know, or more prob. of Sp. sabe usted, do you know; imm. ex:

savvy

; also sabby, sabe(e); savey; savvey; scavey, v. (Resp. C.19–20; mid-C.19–20; C.18–20; C.19–20; C.18.) v.t. (in C.20, occ. v.i.), to know: 1785, Grose, “‘Massa me no scavey’”. For etymology, see end of n. 2. In pidgin English, also to have, to do, etc., etc.: C.19–20.

saw, held at the (occ. a) long

. Held in suspense: coll: ca 1730–1830. North’s Lord Guildford, 1733, ‘Between the one and the other he was held at the long saw over a month.’

saw your timber

! Go away!: low: from ca 1855; ob. On CUT (v., 4) your stick; a further elaboration is AMPUTATE ONE’S MAHOGANY.

sawbones

. A surgeon: from ca 1835, Dickens in 1837 saying, ‘I thought everybody know’d as a sawbones was a surgeon.’

sawder

, rare except as soft sawder. Flattery; soft speech: 1836, Haliburton; Grant Allen, ‘I didn’t try bullying; I tried soft sawder.’ Prob. ex the v.; perhaps ex solder, n. cf. BLARNEY.

sawder

, v. To flatter; speak softly to: 1834, Lover. Prob. on to solder, perhaps influenced by:

sawdust

. Same as SAWDER, n.: rather low (–1887). 1893, Milliken, ‘True poetry... not sawdust and snivel’; ob. Either SAWDER (n.) corrupted or ex sawdust as used, in various sports, to soften a fall.

sawdust bloke

. A circus rider: circus coll: from ca 1860.

sawdusty

. The adj. of SAWDUST: low: 1884, Punch, 11 Oct., ‘Me doing the sawdusty reglar’; ob.

Sawney

; occ. Sawny. A Scot: a (mainly pejorative) coll nickname: C.18–20. Tom Brown; Gay, ‘He sung of Taffy Welch, and Sawney Scot.’ Ex Alexander; cf. SANDY.

sawn(e)y

. A fool; a stupid or very simple (gen., man): late C.17–20. In late C.19–20, through (non-Scottish) dial. influence, it often=a soft, good-natured fellow. Prob. ex zany (in 1567 spelt zawne in Edwards’s Damon and Pythias), though conceivably influenced by SAWNEY. 2. Bacon: c. (–1812). Vaux; Mayhew, who restricts to stolen bacon. ?ex sawn, bacon being cur off in slices (rashers). cf. SAWNEY-HUNTER.

sawn(e)y

, v. To wheedle or whine: coll: ca 1805–90. Southey, 1808, ‘It looks like a sneaking sawneying Methodist parson.’ Ex the adj., perhaps also in part ex, or influenced by, the East Anglian sanny, ‘to utter a whining, wailing cry without apparent cause’. 2. To be soft; to fool about: coll: mid-C.19–20. Ex n., 1, and adj., 2.

sawn(e)y

, adj. Whining, wheedling: ca 1800–50. cf. the v., 1. 2. Foolish; softly good-natured or sentimental: s. > coll: C.19–20. Rhoda Broughton, 1873, ‘There is no sawny sentiment in his tone, none of the lover’s whine.’ Ex the n., 1.

sawn(e)y (rarely sawny)-hunter

*. One who purloins bacon and/or cheese from grocers’ shops: 1856, Mayhew, The Great World of London. See SAWNEY, n., 2.

saxpence!, bang goes

. A c.p. (–1890) addressed to a person excessively careful about small expenses. Originated by Charles Keene, Punch, 5 Dec. 1868; repopularized by Sir Harry Lauder.

say

. Yes; back s. (–1851). (Logically but not actually sey.) 2. Six: Parlary: mid-C.19–20. Ex It. sei.

say!

; I say! An introductory interjection; a mere exclamation: coll: resp., orig. U.S., anglicized ca 1900; C.17–20. Beaumont & Fletcher, 1611, ‘I say, open the door, and turn me out these mangy companions.’

say

, see APE’S PATERNOSTER; BO; JACK ROBINSON; KNIFE; MOUTHFUL; PRAYERS; WHEN!

say away

! Speak, then!; ‘fire ahead!’: coll: mid-C.19–20. cf. FIRE AWAY.

say for oneself, have nothing to

. To be, by habit, silent: coll: mid-C.19–20.

say it again

! I heartily agree with you: tailors' c.p.: from ca 1870.

say nothing when you are dead

. Be silent!: c.p. of ca 1670–1750.

say-so, on my (sammy)

. On my word of honour: coll: mid-C.18–20 (...sammy... not before ca 1880); ob. cf. upon my SAM.

say so!, you don't

. Expressive of astonishment (occ. of derision) at a statement: coll: from ca 1870.

saying one's prayers, be

. To be scrubbing the floor: jocular domestic: late C.19–20.

says, it

. The book mentioned, or its author, says: C.10–20: S.E. until mid-C.19, then coll.

says he

. Said he: coll: late C.17–20. Congreve. cf.:

says I

; says you. I say; you say: sol. or jocular coll: late C.17–20. Dryden, Bage.

'Sblood or 'sblood

! A coll form of (by) God's blood!: late C.16–mid-18, then archaic. See 'S and cf. the following more or less coll oaths: 'Sbobs (i.e. Od's bobs), late C.17–mid-19; 'Sbodikins (= God's bodikins), ca 1670–1800, then archaic; 'Sbody (God's body), C.17; 'Sbores (like 'Sbobs, obscure in meaning), C.17; 'Sbud(s), which = 'Sbodikins, ca 1670–1760, then archaic.

scab

. A pejorative applied to persons, a 'scurvy' fellow, a rascal or scoundrel: from ca 1590; slightly ob. except in next sense; not after C.18 applied to women. Occ., as in Lyly, a constable or a sheriff's officer (not after C.18). Shakespeare, Defoe, Kipling. Ex the skin-disease or the crust forming over a sore: cf. SCURF, 1. Hence, 2, a workman refusing to strike, esp. one working while his companions are on strike: orig. (1811), U.S., anglicized ca 1880. Occ. attributively. 3. Among tailors, a button-hole: from ca 1870; ob. Ex the shape of a sore-crust.

scab

, v. To behave as a, be a, SCAB (n., 2): C.20, O.E.D. recording at 1905.

scab-raiser

. A drummer: military: ca 1850–95. Because one of his duties was to wield the CAT-O’-NINE-TAILS, thus raising sores.

scabbado

. Syphilis: mid-C.17–mid-18: coll verging on S.E. Bailey’s Erasmus, 1725. Ex S.E. scab+ado, a mock-foreign suffix.

scabby

. Vile, contemptible, beggarly: C.18–20: S.E. until mid-C.19, then coll. Smollett; Meredith, 1861, ‘A scabby sixpence?’ Ex lit. S.E. sense. 2. Among printers, unevenly or blotchily printed: from ca 1870. Ex sense 1. 3. At Christ’s Hospital, stingy: mid-C.19–20. cf. quotation in sense 1. 4. Pertaining to one who does not employ union labour: from ca 1890: Australian s. Ex SCAB, n., 2.

scabby neck (or S.N.)

. A Dane; esp. a Danish sailor: nautical (–1864); ob.

scadger

. A mean fellow, a contemptible beggar of loans: low: from ca 1860; ob. Perhaps ex CADGER on Cornish scadgan, a tramp. At Winchester College, a rascal: †by 1901.

scaff

. A selfish fellow: Christ's Hospital: mid-C.19–20. (cf. SCABBY, 3, and SCALY.) Perhaps influenced by dial. scaff, one who wanders idly about, or derived ex †dial. scaff-and-raff, the rabble.

scaffold-pole

. A fried potato-chip: low London (–1909).

scalawag

; more gen. scallawag and (esp. in C.20) scallywag; occ. scal(l)iwag, scallowag, skallewag, but very rarely in C.20. A ne'er-do-well or disreputable fellow; a scoundrel. (Esp. in C.20, frequently playful like rascal.) U.S. s. (–1848), anglicized ca 1860 and >, ca 1910, coll. Bartlett, 1st ed.; Haliburton, 1855, 'You good-for-nothing young scallowag'; Melbourne Argus, 1870, 'Vagrants are now [in Melbourne] denominated scalawags.' The earliest recorded dates (considerably earlier ones prob. occur in unpublished letters) of the various forms are: scalawag, 1848; scallowag, 1854; scallywag, 1864; scalliwag, 1891; scallowag, 1855; skallewag, ca 1870. Origin problematic: prob. cognate with, or a survival of, the †Scottish scurryvaig, a vagabond: itself perhaps ex L. scurra vagas, a wandering buffoon (O.E.D.); W. suggests origin in dial. scall, skin-disease. 2. Hence, in politics, an impostor or a rascally intriguer: 1864, Sala: s. >, ca 1890, coll. 3. Ex sense 1, in trade-union s., one (rarely of women) who will not work: 1891, in the Labour Commission glossary; ob.

scalawag

, etc., as adj., dates in England from ca 1865.

scald

. To infect venereally: coll: late C.16–20; ob. (Lit., to burn.) cf.:

scald

, adj.; scalded. Venereally infected: coll: resp., C.17–18; C.18–20.

scald-rag

. A dyer: a C.17 coll nickname. ‘Water Poet’ Taylor.

scalder

. A venereal infection, esp. a CLAP: low: from ca 1810; ob. cf. SCALDING-HOUSE. 2. Tea, the beverage: low: from ca 1890. Sydney Watson, Wops the Waif, 1892, ‘I’m good at a hoperation, I can tell yer, when it’s on spot and scalder (which being interpreted, meant cake and tea).’ Ex the heat.

scalding-house(, Cupid's)

. A brothel: late C.16–17: on border-line between coll and S.E. Middleton's quotation, cited by F. & H., makes it, however, appear as if the term had no such gen. meaning, though it may have been so used in allusively jocular S.E.

scaldings

! A warning, esp. among sailors and at Winchester: 'get out of the way!'; 'be off!'; 'look out!': mid-C.19–20; slightly ob. Smyth's Word-Book and Adam's Wykehamica. Ex cry scaldings, to announce loudly that one is carrying scaldings, i.e. boiling liquid.

scaldrum

*. A beggar; tramps' c.: mid-C.19–20; ob. Prob. ex:

scaldrum-dodge

*. Tramps' c. of mid-C.19–20 (ob.), as in Mayhew, 1851, London Labour, I, 'By then Peter was initiated into the scaldrum-dodge, or the art of burning the body with a mixture of acids and gunpowder, so as to suit the hues and complexions of the accident to be deplored.' Practised chiefly by 'schools of shallow coves', groups of men pretending to have escaped from shipwreck, fire, or similar perils. Prob. a perversion of scald or scalding (nn.).

scale

. To mount a woman: coll: C.17–20. Wentworth Smith, The Puritan, 1607. 2. To impress; to astound: low (–1887); ob. Perhaps ex S.E. scale, take by escalade.

scaley

, see SCALY. scaliwag, scallawag, scalliwag, scallowag, scallywag, see SCALAWAG.

scalp

. A charm worn on a bangle: Society: 1896–1914. Ware, ‘Given by young men to young girls’.

scalp

. To buy very cheap so as to sell at less than ruling price: Stock Exchange coll: 1888, Pall Mall Gazette, 15 Oct., ‘... “Scalped” the market on a big scale for a small profit per bushel’. One who does this is a scalper, which occurs in the same article; scalping arose about the same time; both coll.

scaly

; incorrectly scaley. Shabby, poor, in poor health: late C.18–20; ob. Southey, 1793. Ex S.E. skin-disease sense. 2. Hence, stingy: from ca 1810; like sense 1, slightly ob. Egan, 1821, ‘If you are too scaly to tip for it, I’ll shell out and shame you.’ The sense is very common at Christ’s Hospital (cf. SCAFF). 3. Ex senses 1 and 2, despicable: mid-C.19–20. Besant & Rice, 1875, ‘If I were an author—they are a scaly lot, and thank Heaven I am not one.’

scaly-back

. A sailor: nautical: mid-C.19–20. Perhaps suggested by:

scaly fish

. An ‘honest, rough, blunt sailor’, Grose, 2nd ed.: late C.18–19.

scamander

. To loaf: 1860, H., 2nd ed., ‘To wander about without a settled purpose’. Coll. cf. (perhaps ex) Yorkshire dial. skimaundering (hanging about), which may—or may not!—derive ex the Classical river Scamander.

scammered

. Tipsy: low: from ca 1840; ob. Carew’s Autobiography of a Gipsy, 1891— the reference being valid for the year 1845. Perhaps ex SCUPPERED on dial. scammer, to climb or scramble.

scamp

*. A highway robber: 1781, Messink, ‘Ye scamps, ye pads, ye divers’. Ex v., 1. 2. Hence, highway robbery (cf. scampery): 1786; like sense 1, †by 1840 or, at latest, 1850. 3. A cheat or a swindler: ca 1805–40: rather s. than c. Ex sense 1.

scamp

*, v. To be, or go out as, a highway robber: c.: ca 1750–1840; implied, however, as early as C.16 in scampant, ‘used in imitation of rampant in a rogue’s burlesque coat of arms’, W. The Discovery of John Poulter, 1753, ‘I’ll scamp on the panney,’ i.e. go out and rob on the highway. Prob. ex SCAMPER. 2. v.t., to rob (a person) on the highway: c. (–1812); †by 1870.

scamp, done for a

*. Convicted (esp. for highway robbery): c. of ca 1810–50.

scamp, go (up)on the

*. To rob as occasion offers: c. of ca 1820–1910. (Applied to tramps and beggars, not to professional thieves.)

scamp, royal

*. ‘A highwayman who robs civilly’, Grose, 1st ed.: c. of ca 1780–1840.

scamp, royal foot

*. A footpad who does this: ibid. and id.

scamper

. To run hastily; to BOLT: 1687, ‘Facetious’ Tom Brown: s. until mid-C.18, then coll till ca 1830, then S.E. Either ex scamp, v. of motion, or ex †Dutch schampen, to go away, to escape.

scamperer

*. A street ruffian: C.18–early 19: prob. orig. c. Steele.

scamping

, adj. Dishonest: ca 1820–60: orig., prob. always, c. Bee, 1823, ‘Fellows who pilfer in markets, from stalls or orchards, who snatch off hats, cheat publicans out of liquor, or toss up cheatingly—commit scamping tricks.’

scampsman

. A highwayman: c.: late C.18–mid-19. Ex SCAMP, n., 2.

scandal-broth, -potion, -water

. Tea: coll; resp. 1785 (Grose), 1786 (Burns), 1864 (H., 3rd ed.): all ob. by 1900.

scandal-proof

. adj. applied to ‘a thorough pac’d ALSATIAN or Minter’, B.E.: prob. c.: late C.17–mid-18.

scandalous

. A wig: c.: late C.17–18.

scanmag

, from ca 1850; scan-mag, from ca 1820; scan. mag. (or S.M.), 1779, Sheridan. Scandal. Abbr. scandalum magnatum, an old law term for a scandal of magnates.

scapa

. An occ. form of SCARPER. cf. SCAPER.

Scaparey

, see JOHNNY SCAPAREY.

scape

. A snipe: a coll nickname: from ca 1860. Ex flushed snipe's cry. 2. See 2 in:

scape

. 'To neglect one's brush', Bee: artistic: ca 1820–50. 2. n. and v. (To) escape: S.E. in Shakespeare, but by 1850 it is coll.

scaper

. An occ. variant of SCARPER. Mayhew.

Scarborough warning

; in C.19, occ. S. surprise. A very or too short notice, or none at all: coll: mid-C.16–20; ob. ‘Proverbs’ Heywood, Fuller, Grose, P.H.Emerson. ‘In 1557 Thomas Stafford entered and took possession of Scarborough Castle before the townsmen were aware of his approach,’ E.D.D.

scarce, make oneself

. To retire; to absent oneself, disappear: coll: 1785, Grose; 1821, Scott, ‘Make yourself scarce—depart—vanish!’

scare the shit out of

; scare shitless. To scare very badly indeed: low: late C.19–20.

scare up

. To find, discover (e.g. scare up money): coll: from ca 1850. Ex shooting game.

scarecrow

*. c.: 1884, Greenwood, ‘The boy who has served [a thief] until he is well known to the police, and is so closely watched that he may as well stay at home as go out’. Ob.

scarehead

. A headline in large, thick type meant to arouse attention: journalistic coll: from ca 1900.
Abbr. scare headline.

scarlet

. A MOHOCK or aristocratic street ruffian: coll or s.: ca 1750–60. J.Shebbeare, 1755.
Either ex colour of dress or on BLOOD.

scarlet, dye

. To drink deep or hard: late C.16–early 17. Shakespeare.

scarlet beans

, see SOW POTATOES.

scarlet countenance, wear a

. To be impudent or shameless: coll: late C.19–20. Ex S.E. scarlet, (of an offender) deep-dyed.

scarlet-fever

. (A) flirtation with or passion for a soldier: jocular: ca 1860–1910. With reference to the scarlet uniform. 2. A great admiration for soldiers: jocular (—1889).

scarlet horse

. A hired horse: ca 1780–1840. Punning high-red.

scarlet runner

. A Bow Street officer: mid-C.19. Ex the scarlet waistcoat. 2. A footman: from ca 1860. Partly ex sense 1, partly ex the vegetable. 3. A soldier: late C.19–very early 20. Also scarlet runners, the old-fashioned red-jacketed uniform: same period.

scarper

*. To run away; v.t. to decamp from: Parlary and c.; as latter, it > low Cockney ca 1905. Selby, 1844, ‘Vamoose—scarper—fly!’ Ex It. scappare via Lingua Franca. See Slang. 2. On the stage, it= to leave a play without notice: from ca 1900.

scarper the letty

. To leave one’s lodgings without paying: mid-C.19–20: Parlary >, by 1900, theatrical. Ex SCARPER, 1, and see LETTY.

scarve

. A finger-ring: Parlary: late C.19–20. Not from any Italian word, but app.—this is a mere guess—a Parlary'd shape of an English term: scarf-ring.

scat

! Go away: coll: 1869 (O.E.D.). Hence, occ. as jocular v. Mostly U.S. Prob. abbr. of S.E. scatter.

scatter

. To make water: proletarian: from ca 1860.

scavenger's daughter

. An instrument of torture: coll: C.17. (Afterwards, merely historical.) Journals of the House of Commons, 14 May 1604. On Skevington's (or Skejfington's) torture, the technical S.E. term being Skevington's gyves (1564) or irons. Invented ca 1545 by Leonard Skevington (or Skeffington), Lieutenant of the Tower of London.

scavey

, see SAVVY. scawfer, see SCOFFER.

scellum

*, see SKELLUM.

scene-rat

. A supernumerary in ballet or pantomime: theatrical: from ca 1880; ob.

scent, on the

. On the road; travelling about: show- and circus-men's: from ca 1865.

scent-bottle

. A water-closet: euphemistic s. (–1887).

scent-box

. The nose: pugilistic: from ca 1825; virtually †. cf. SMELLER, 2.

sceptre

; in C.18, occ. scepter. A sceptred gold unite: coll: C.18–20; in mid-C.19–20, virtually S.E. In 1736, Folkes writes, 'Sovereigns or Unites [properly, unites], vulgarly called Scepters'.

scew

, see SKEW. schack-stoner, see SHACK-STONER.

scheme

. A collection of the questions likely to be asked in the various subjects of examination: universities': ca 1775–1810. Gentleman's Magazine, 1780. 2. A practical joke at Winchester, ca 1840–1910. Wrench, 'The candle on reaching a measured point ignites paper, which by burning a string releases a weight; this falls on the head of the boy to be waked.' cf. old S.E. scheme, 'a party of pleasure', and the more relevant dial. sense, an amusement.

schemozzle

, see SHEMOZZLE. schice(r), see SHICE(R). schickster, see SHICKSTER.

schism-shop

. A Nonconformist place of worship: Anglican pejorative coll: late C.18–20. cf. HERESY-SHOP.

schitt

. A goal at football: Winchester: ca 1830–60. Prob. ex shot.

schlemihl

. A booby: Jewish coll: late C.19–20. Ex Yiddish.

schlemozzle

, see SHEMOZZLE.

schlenter

*. Dubious, untrustworthy; make-believe: South African (diamond fields): from ca 1890: c. >, by 1900, low s. The Comtesse de Brémont, The Gentleman Digger, 1891. Whence, 2, as a n.: imitation gold: 1898, Cape Argus, weekly ed., 16 March. 3. (Also n., only in pl.) Imitation diamonds: 1899, Griffith, Knaves of Diamonds. Senses 2, 3 were prob., at first, c. Ex Dutch slenter, a trick.

schliver

*. A clasp-knife: c. (or low): ca 1820–1910. Ex CHIVER.

schnorrer

. A Jewish beggar: Yiddish coll: 1892, Zangwill. Ex schnurren, to beg.

schofel or -ful

, see SHOFUL.

schol

. A scholar: Harrow: mid-C.19–20. 2. A scholarship: late C.19–20, ibid.

scholar

. In illiterate use, one whom the speaker regards as exceptionally learned: mid-C.17–20. Often merely, one who is able to read and write: C.19–20. Not s. but coll.

scholar as my horse Ball, as good a

. No scholar at all: a coll, semi-proverbial c.p. of ca 1630–70. John Clarke, 1639.

scholard, schollard

. A scholar: resp. C.19–20; C.16–20: low coll >, ca 1850, sol. Also in senses indicated at SCHOLAR.

school

. A number or a group of persons met together in order to gamble: from ca 1810: perhaps orig. c. > low s. ca 1880. cf. SCHOOLING, 2. 2. Hence, a MOB (n., 2) or gang of thieves or beggars: mostly c. (in C.20, however, s.): mid-C.19–20. Mayhew. (The term may apply to four, three, or even two persons.) See quotation at SCALDRUM-DODGE.

School Board will be after you!, the

. Take care!: London lower classes': ca 1881–1900.

School-Board worrier

. A school-inspector: London teachers' (–1887).

school-butter

. A flogging: C.17–19. Pasquil's Jests, 1604.

school of Venus

. A brothel: coll: late C.17–19.

schoolie or -y

. A school—as opp. to a house—prefect: Scottish Public Schools': from ca 1880.

schooling

*. A term of confinement in a reformatory: c. (–1879); slightly ob. 2. ‘A low gambling party’, H., 1859: c. >, ca 1890, low s. See SCHOOL, 1. 3. Hence, a, or the, playing of pitch and toss: c. (–1888); slightly ob.

schoolman

. A fellow-member of a SCHOOL: c. or low s.: 1834, Ainsworth; ob.

schoolmaster

. (Gen. in training other horses) a horse good at jumping: stables’ coll: late C.19–20. Prob. ex S.E. sense, the leader of a school of fishes; esp. of a bull whale.

schoolmaster, bilk the

, see BILK...

schooly

, see SCHOOLIE.

schooner

; frigate; full master. Among youths, new-comer; handy fellow; passed master in navigation: naval: late C.19– early 20.

schooner on the rocks

. A cooked joint surrounded by potatoes: naval: late C.19–20.

schooner-rigged

. Destitute: sailing-ships': late C.19–20; ob.

s(c)hroff

. A banker; treasurer; confiden-tial clerk: Anglo-Indian coll: mid-C.16–20. Ex Arabic.

schwassle-box

, see SWATCHEL. science, blinded with, see BLINDED WITH SCIENCE.

science, the

. Boxing or, as in Dickens (1837), fencing: from ca 1830: s. >, ca 1870, coll. cf. the profession (see note at PRO, 2).

scientific

. A scientist: coll: 1830, Lyell; De Morgan. Slightly ob.

scientifics

. Scientific matters: low coll: ca 1840–70. Lover.

scissorean operation

. Gutting a book: literary: ca 1890–1915. On Caesarean operation.

scissors!

; oh, scissors! Indicative of disgust or impatience: 1843, Selby; ob. cf.:

scissors, give (a person)

. To treat drastically, pay out: mid-C.19–20; ob. ?ex CUT UP.

sciver

. A shoemaker's knife: shoemakers': from ca 1890. A corruption of CHIVER.

scoach

. Rum: Regular Army: late C.19–20.

scobolotcher, scobberlotcher

. An undergraduate walking round a quadrangle, hands in pockets, deep in thought and/or counting trees. C.16–20. Used by Dr Ralph Kettle (1563–1643), President of Trinity College, Oxford (Aubrey's 'Life' of him, 1697). The O.E.D. attempts no etymology, but does compare the North Country and East Anglian scopperloit, scoppoloit, a time of idleness or of play, and the rare scoterlope, to wander aimlessly.

scoff

. Food: South African coll: 1856, the Rev. F.Fleming, Southern Africa; 1879, Atcherley. Ex Cape Dutch: see the v. 2. Hence, a meal: id.: late C.19–20. (The term, ca 1890, > gen. among tramps and sailors, often as scorf.) cf.:

scoff

; often scorf; in South Africa, gen. skoff. v.t. To eat voraciously: s. (–1864) and dial. (1849). Prob. ex dial. scaff. 2. Hence, modified by South African usage (see the n.), v.t., simply to eat: from ca 1880: outside of South Africa, nautical (W. Clark Russell, 1883). 3. Occ. v.i.: late C.19–20 and rare outside South Africa. But this may be the primary sense, as we see from Lady Barnard's South African Journal, 1798, '[The Boer] concludes that the passengers want to scoff (to eat)': see W. 4. (Ex sense 1.) To seize; to plunder: 1893, Kipling, 'There's enough [gold-leaf] for two first-rates, and I've scoffed the best half of it.'

scoffer

*; occ. scawfer. Gold or silver plate: c.: mid-C.19–20; ob. ‘Gypsy’ Carew: a reference that is valid for 1845.

scold

. A scolding: coll and dial.: from ca 1725; ob. except in Scots.

scold

, v.i. To be constantly uttering reproofs: coll: mid-C.18–20.

scoldrum (dodge)

*. A variant of SCALDRUM (DODGE).

scold’s cure

. A coffin: low: ca 1810–60. Esp. nap the s.c., be coffined.

scollogue

. To live or act dissipatedly, wildly: low (–1857); †by 1900. Perhaps ex SCALAWAG.

scolopendra

. A harlot: ca 1630–1700. D’Avenant. Ex sting in centipede’s tail.

sconce

. The head; esp. the crown of the head: 1567, Damon and Pythias; Thackeray. Perhaps ex sconce, a fort, or its Dutch original, schans. 2. Hence, wit, sense, judgement, ability: coll: mid-C.17–20; ob. 3. Occ. the person himself: coll: ca 1570–1750. Kendall, 1577. 4. See SCONCE, BUILD A.

sconce

, v. To fine, mulct: university (orig.—see Minsheu, 1617—and mainly Oxford): C.17–20. Until C.19, of officials fining undergraduates; in C.19–20, of undergraduates fining one of themselves (gen. a tankard of ale) for a breach of manners or convention. Randolph, ‘Honours of Oxford’ Miller, Colman the Elder, ‘C.Bede’. Perhaps ex the n., 1 (via ‘so much a head’). 2. (Gen. sconce off.) To reduce (the amount of a bill, etc.): coll: 1768, Foote; †by 1910. Occ. to sconce one’s diet, to eat less: coll (very ob.): C.19–20. 3. v.i. and v.t., to hinder; get in the way (of): Winchester, mainly in games (e.g. a catch at cricket): late C.19–20. Public School Magazine, Dec. 1899. Prob. ex preceding sense.

sconce, build a

. ‘To run a score at an alehouse’, Bailey (1730); ‘run deep upon tick’, B.E. defining build a large sconce. There is often the connotation of lack of intention to pay the account, for Grose, 1785, defines it as ‘a military term for bilking one’s quarters’. ca 1640, Shirley; Tom Brown; Goldsmith. †by 1840. Ex sconce, a (small) fort.

sconce off

; sconce one's diet, see SCONCE, v., 2.

sconcing

is the vbl n. of SCONCE, v., all senses. Very gen.

scoodyn

. The fouling of a ship's bottom: nautical coll: C.19–20; ob. Possibly by antiphrasis ex dial. scud, to clean, scrape clean; but prob. ex Shetlands dial. scovin, crust adhering to a vessel in which food has been cooked.

scoop

. Male hair worn low and flat on the forehead: military: ca 1880–90. 2. See SCOOP, ON THE. 3. News obtained (and, of course, printed) in advance of a rival newspaper: journalistic: orig. U.S., anglicized ca 1890: s. 4. In the money-market, a sudden reduction of prices enabling operators to buy cheaply and to profit by the ensuing (carefully planned) rise: Stock Exchange: orig. (–1879) U.S., anglicized ca 1890. 5. An advantage, a (big) haul, a very successful or, more properly, a lucky stroke in business: 1893, Kipling; Daily Chronicle, 27 July 1909, 'Her engagement...at the Palace is a big "scoop".' This last sense follows ex nos. 3, 4, which, in their turn, derive ex the S.E. sense, an act of scooping.

scoop

, v. (Gen. scoop in, occ. scoop up.) To obtain (a lot of money), make a big haul of; to appropriate in advance: orig. (ca 1880) U.S., anglicized ca 1890. Ex S.E. sense, to heap up by means of a scoop. 2. (Occ. scoop out.) To get the better of (a rival) by anticipating him or by obtaining what he has failed to obtain: journalistic; orig. U.S., anglicized ca 1890. Elizabeth Banks, The Newspaper Girl, 1902, ‘Miss Jackson...[is] going to print it in tomorrow’s paper, and I shall be scooped.’

scoop, on the

. On the drink; engaged in dissipation: 1884 (O.E.D.); ob.

scoop out

, see SCOOP, v., 2. scoop up, see SCOOP, v., 1.

scoot, occ. skoot or skute

. A scooting (see the v.): s. and dial. from ca 1860. Esp. in do a scoot, run away, late C.19–20, and on the scoot, on the run (lit. and fig.), 1864.

scoot

; occ.—though, as to the n., very rarely in C.20—skoot, skute; skewt seems to have remained U.S. (Gen. with about, along, away, off, round, etc., as adv.) To go (away) hurriedly or with sudden speed: orig. (ca 1840) U.S.; anglicized ca 1860: s. Quarterly Review, 1869, ‘The laugh of the gull as he scoots along the shore’. Ex the mainly nautical s. scoot, to dart, move quickly: see SCOUT, v., 1.

scoot-train

. An express train: late C.19–20; ob. Ex SCOOT, n., but see v.

scooter

. One who goes with sudden swiftness or hurriedly: dial. (–1825) and (from ca 1860) s. >, ca 1910, coll. See SCOOT, v.

scorch

. A very fast run on (motor-)cycle or motor-car: 1885 (O.E.D.): coll >, ca 1905, S.E.

scorch

, v.i. To ride a bicycle, drive a motor-car, etc., at considerable or very great speed: coll (–1891) >, ca 1905, S.E. Implied in n. and in:

scorcher

. A furious propeller of cycle or car (etc.): 1885: coll. Daily Telegraph, 7 Jan. 1901, ‘The police have been keeping a sharp look-out for scorchers.’ Ex the v. 2. An exceedingly hot day: coll: 1874. Often a regular scorcher. 3. Any thing or person severe, notably eccentric, deplorably hasty; a scathing remark, vigorous attack, etc.: orig. schoolboys’: 1885, Hawley Smart. 4. Hence, a sensation-causer, habitual or incidental, deliberate or unintentional: 1899, Conan Doyle; ob. 5. A rotten potato: greengrocers’ (–1887).

scorching

, n. Furious riding (of cycle) or driving (of car, etc.): from ca 1890: coll till ca 1905, then S.E. Ex SCORCH, v.

scorching

, adj. Very hot; esp., immoral or indelicate: coll: 1897, Referee, 24 Oct.

score

, n. The gaining of a point or points in games: coll: from ca 1840. 2. Hence, a notable or successful hit in debate, argument, or keen business: likewise coll: from ca 1890, cf. the v. 3. Twenty pounds (£20): c.: late C.19–20.

score

, v.i. and v.t. To gain (a success): from ca 1880: coll. cf.:

score off

. To achieve a success over, make a point at the expense or to the detriment of (gen. a person): coll: 1882, 'Lucas Malet', 'For once she felt she had scored off her adversary.' Ex scoring at games: cf. then., sense 1.

scorf

. See SCOFF. (A low variant, more frequent of the v. than the n.)

scorny

; occ. scorney. Scornful: low coll: 1836, Haliburton. Also Cornish dial.

scorp

. A late C.19–20 naval and military abbr. of:

scorpion

. A civilian native inhabitant of Gibraltar: military: 1845. Also, from ca 1870, as in H.M.Field, 1889, ‘A choice variety of natives of Gibraltar, called “Rock scorpions”’. Ex the scorpions that infest the Rock of Gibraltar.

Scot

. A very irritable or quickly angered person: from ca 1810; slightly ob. Bee, 1823, shows that, orig. at least, it may have been a butchers’ term, ‘the small Scots oxen coming to their doom with little resignation to fate’. 2. Hence, gen. scot, a temper, or passion of irritation: 1859, H., 1st ed. cf. SCOTTY and SCOTTISH, adj., and PADDY, n.

Scotch

or (though very rare in C.19) scotch. (A drink of) Scotch whisky: from ca 1885: coll. >, ca 1905, S.E. ('Pomes' Marshall, 'He had started well on Scotches.') 2. A leg: abbr. SCOTCH PEG.

Scotch

, adj. Mean (of persons); ungenerous (of acts): coll: C.19–20. Esp. be Scotch, as in 'He's (or He must be) Scotch.' (The Scot's, like the Jew's, meanness is actually apocryphal.) Ex following combinations.

Scotch bait

. A halt and a rest on one's staff as practised by pedlars: coll: ca 1780–1850.

Scotch bum

. A kind of (dress-)bustle: coll: C.17.

Scotch casement

. A pillory: late C.18– mid-19.

Scotch chocolate

. Brimstone and milk: coll: ca 1780–1850. cf.:

Scotch coffee

. Hot water flavoured with burnt biscuit: from ca 1860; ob. Orig. and mainly nautical; prob. suggested by SCOTCH CHOCOLATE.

Scotch fashion, answer

. To reply to a question by asking another (à la Jésus): coll: 1834, Michael Scott, The Cruise of the Midge; slightly ob.

Scotch fiddle

. The itch: coll: 1675, Rochester; ob. Also WELSH FIDDLE.

Scotch fiddle, play the

. To work the index finger of one hand like a fiddle-stick between the index and middle finger of the other: coll: from ca 1820. H., 2nd ed. To do this ‘provokes a Scotchman in the highest degree, it implying that he is afflicted with the itch’, H.

Scotch (occ. Scots) Greys or greys

. Lice: C.19–20. Punning the regiment. Hence, headquarters of the Scotch Greys, a lousy head: from ca 1820 (ob.).

Scotch hobby

. A scrubby little Scotch horse: coll: C.17–early 19.

Scotch or (mid-C.19–20) Scottish mist

. Rain: coll: 1589, Anon., Pap with a Hatchet; ‘Phraseologia’ Robertson, 1681; Grose, 1st ed., ‘A sober soaking rain; a Scotch mist will wet an Englishman to the skin’; Scott.

Scotch ordinary

. A privy: ca 1670–1750.

Scotch peg

. A leg; rhyming s. from mid-1850s. H., 3rd ed., has it in full, whereas H., 1st ed., only implies it in ‘scotches, the legs’; it occurs, however, in ‘Ducange Anglicus’, 1857.

Scotch pint

. A bottle holding two quarts: from ca 1820; ob.

Scotch prize

. A capture by mistake: coll, mostly nautical (–1818); ob.

Scotch rabbit

. A WELSH RABBIT (cf. SCOTCH FIDDLE); ca 1740–70. Mrs Glasse, the C.18 Mrs Beeton, gives a recipe in 1747.

Scotch seamanship

. Seamanship by brute force: nautical coll from ca 1890; slightly ob. St James's Gazette, 9 April 1900. cf. SCOTCH PRIZE.

Scotch tea

, see TEA.

Scotch or occ. Scottish warming-pan

. A wench: coll: ca 1670–1880. Ray; S. Wesley the Elder; Grose. An elaboration of WARMING-PAN, 1. 2. A breaking of wind: low: ca 1810–1910.

scotchie (or S.)

. A marble with gay stripes: schoolboys' (–1887). In reference to tartan. 2. (Gen. in pl.) A leg: late C.19–20. Ex SCOTCH PEG. 3. See SCOTCHY.

Scotchman

. A florin: South Africa, esp. among the Africans (–1879). (Atcherley, whom Rider Haggard repeats in Jess, 1886.) Ex that canny Scot who, among the Kaffirs, passed off a number of florins as half-crowns; which may account for a story related in J.Milne's The Epistles of Atkins, published in 1902 and dealing with the Boer War. 2. A Scotch fir: coll: 1901, 'Lucas Malet'.

Scotchman hugging a or the Creole

, often without a or the before Scotchman. A clusia or kind of creeper: West Indian coll: 1835, M.Scott.

Scotchmen

*. Lice: c. (–1887). Ex SCOTCH GREYS.

Scotchy

. A coll nickname for a Scotsman: C.19–20. cf. JOCK, 2.

Scots Greys

, see SCOTCH GREYS.

Scott!, great

, see GREAT SCOTT!

Scottish

. Irritable; easily angered: low: ca 1810–80. Ex SCOT, 1.

Scottish mist, warming-pan

, see SCOTCH M., W.-P.

Scotty

. A Scotsman: coll: late C.19–20. Prob. ex SCOTCHY.

scotty

. Angry; apt to grow easily annoyed: C.19–20. Ex SCOT, 2. It is defined in Sinks, 1848, as ‘savage, wild, chagrined’.

scour

*; often spelt scow(e)r, scowre. To decamp, run away, depart hurriedly: ca 1590–1870: s. with more than a tinge of c., as have the next three senses. Greene, Shadwell, Grose. Ex S.E. scour, to move rapidly or hastily. 2. v.i. to roam noisily about at night, smashing windows, waylaying and often beating wayfarers, and attacking the watch: ca 1670–1830. Shadwell, Prior. 3. Hence, v.t., to ill-treat (esp. the watch or wayfarers) while street-roistering: ca 1680–1750. Dryden, ‘Scowring the Watch grows out of fashion wit.’ 4. v.t. to roister through (the streets): ca 1690–1830. 5. To wear, esp. in scour the CRAMPRING(S) or DARBIES, i.e. to wear, or to lie in chains: ca 1450–1840 (cramp-rings not before mid-C.16, darbies not before late C.17): s. >, ca 1560, c. Awdelay, B.E., Egan’s Grose. Ex scour, to cleanse by rubbing. (Ex this sense comes SCOURING, n.) 6. To coït with (a woman): coll: C.17–19.

scourer, often scowrer

. One who behaves as in SCOUR, 2: s. verging on c.: ca 1670–1830. Wycherley. cf. HAWCUBITE; MOHOCK; MUN, 2; NICKER, 2; TITYRE-TU. 2. Hence, a night-thief: c.: late C.17–18. Anon., The Gentleman Instructed, ca 1700, ‘[In London] he struck up with sharpers, scourers, and Alsatians.’

scouring

*. (An) imprisonment: c.: 1721, Defoe; †by 1820. 2. adj. to SCOUR, v., 2–4.

scouse

. Any kind of stew: naval coll, from ca 1820, or earlier. 2. (Scouse) A native of Liverpool: s.: latc C.19–20. Abbr. LOBSCOUSE.

Scouseland

. Liverpool: nautical and (Liverpool) dockers': late C.19–20. cf. SCOUSE.

scousy or scowsy

. Mean, stingy: Christ's Hospital: since ca 1860; ob. Marples, 'Perhaps SCABBY+LOUSY'.

scout

. A college servant at Oxford (cf. the Cambridge gyp): Oxford University: C.18–20: coll till ca 1850, then S.E. Hearne, 1708; Grose, 1st ed.; 'Cuthbert Bede'. Prob. ex the military, just possibly ex the †cricket, sense. 2. A member of the watch: c. of mid-C.17–early 19. Coles, 1676; Shadwell, 1688; Haggart, 1821. Ex †scout, a watchman.

scout

, v.i. To dart; go, move, suddenly and swiftly: mid-C.18–early 19: orig. and mainly nautical. Captain Tyrrell, 1758; Anon., Splendid Follies, 1810; 'Sponge was actually obliged to scout out of the room to conceal his risible muscles'. Ex Swedish skjuta, v.i., to shoot. cf. SCOOT, v. 2. See SCOUT ON THE LAY. 3. 'To shoot pigeons outside a gun-club enclosure', F. & H.: coll: from ca 1880. Ex S.E. pigeon-shooting sense of the n.

scout-cull

*. A watchman: c.: C.18. C. Hitchin, The Regulator, 1718.

scout-ken

*. A watch-house: c. of ca 1810–40. Ex SCOUT, n., 2.

scout-master, scoutmaster

. A schout (Dutch chief magistrate): catachrestic: ca 1650–1700.

scout on the lay

*. To go searching for booty: c.: late C.18–19. See LAY, n., 2.

SCOW

, v. To be illicitly absent: mostly Liverpool: late C.19–20. Short for:

scowbank

, n. (1861). See SCOWBANKER. 2. v., to loaf: dial. (–1868) >, ca 1880, s. ?etymology.

scowbanker

; also skow-, occ. skull- and, ca 1890–1910, showbanker. A loafer, a tramp: mostly Australian (–1864). Ex U.S., where it dates from mid-C.18. Perhaps of Irish origin.

Scowegian

. (Pron. Scow-wegian.) A Scandinavian: West Canadian and nautical: late C.19–20. Ex Scandinavian+ Norwegian.

scow(e)r

, see SCOUR. scowre(r), see SCOUR, v., and SCOURER.

scrag

*. A person's neck: c.: from ca 1750; slightly ob. ?ex crag, Scottish craig, the neck. 2. The gallows: C.19 c. Ex the v. 1, or abbr. SCRAG-SQUEEZER. 3. At Shrewsbury School (–1881), a rent across a paper signifying 'no marks'. Perhaps ex the v., 4, to handle roughly. 4. A very rough tackle at Rugby football (cf. the v., 4): Public Schools' (–1903).

scrag

*, v.t. To hang by the neck: from ca 1750 (slightly ob.): c. until ca 1840, then s. Toldervy; Tomlinson; Grose; Barham. 2. Hence, to wring the neck of: from ca 1820. 3. To garotte: c. or low s.: mid-C.19–20. 4. To manhandle, properly (as in Rugby football), to twist the neck of a man whose head is conveniently held under one's arm: early C.19–20. Kipling, Stalky & Co., 'Don't drop oil over my "Fors", or I'll scrag you.' (I'll scrag you has > a vague threat and c.p., esp. among schoolboys.) Ex dial.

scrag a lay

*. 'To steal clothes put on a hedge to dry', Tufts: c.: late C.18–early 19. cf. SNOW.

scrag-boy

*. A hangman: c.: from ca 1780; ob. Ex SCRAG, n., 1 and v., 1.

scrag-'em fair

*. A public execution: c. of ca 1810–50. Ex SCRAG, v., 1.

scrag-hole

. The gallery: theatrical (–1909); ob. Ex the craning of scraggs or necks.

scrag-squeezer

*. A gallows: ca 1820–1900; c. Henley, 1887; Villon's Straight Tip, 'Until the squeezer nips your scrag.' Ex SCRAG, n., 1.

scragged

*. Dead by hanging: c.: mid-C. 18–20; ob.

scragger

*. A hangman: c. or low s.: 1897, P. Warung.

scragging

*. An execution: C.19–20: c. >, ca 1880, low s.; slightly ob. Ex SCRAG,V., 1.

scragging-post

*. A gallows: c.: from ca 1810; slightly ob.

Scragg's Hotel

*. The workhouse: tramps' c.: from ca 1880; ob. Daily Telegraph, 1 Jan. 1886.

scrán

*; occ., though—except in dial.—very rare in C.20, skran. A reckoning at a tavern or inn: c. of ca 1710–40. In Bacchus and Venus, 1724, ‘Frisky Moll’s Song’ by Harper. App. this sense, without leaving any record that I have found, survived until 1903, when listed as low s. by F. & H. ?etymology. 2. ?hence (or perhaps cognate with scrannel), food, esp. broken victuals: s. (–1785) and dial. (–1808); in mid-C.19, the word verged on c. 3. Hence, refuse (of food): mostly dial. (–1808) and, as s., †by 1910. 4. Ex sense 2, a meal: from ca 1870: mostly military. 5. See SCRAN TO, BAD. 6. See SCRAN, OUT ON THE.

scrán

, v.t. To provide with food: c. (in C.19–20, low s.): from ca 1740; slightly ob. (This entry seems to show that the n., 2, existed half a century before our earliest record.) 2. v.i. to collect broken victuals: c. (?orig. dial.) >, ca 1880, low s.: from the 1830s. Ex the n., 2.

scran, out on the

*. Begging for scraps of food: c. (–1864). Prob. ex SCRAN, v., 2. cf. SCRANNING.

scran-bag

*. A receptacle for scraps of food: c.: from ca 1850. Burn, Autobiography of a Beggar-Boy, 1855. Ex SCRAN, n., 2. 2. Hence, a haversack: military (–1864). 3. A receptacle for the impounding of articles carelessly left about: nautical: late C.19–20.

scran-pocket

*. A c. variant (–1887) of SCRAN-BAG, 1; Ob.

scran to, bad

. Bad luck to—!: Anglo-Irish coll: from ca 1840. Lever, P.H. Emerson. Perhaps ex SCRAN, n., 2. cf. BAD CESS TO.

scrاند

*. An occ. variant of SCRAN, n.

scranning

*, vbln. A begging of scraps of food: Scots dial. (–1839), whence c. (–1859), as in H., 1st ed. Ex SCRAN, v., 2; cf. SCRAN, OUT ON THE.

scrap

. A blow, a punch: c. of early C.17. Rowlands in Martin Mark-All. cf. sense 3, of independent origin. 2. (In C.18–19, occ. scrapp) An intention, design, plot, always either vile or villainous: ca 1670–1830: either c. or low s. ?ex scrape. 3. ?hence, a struggle, scrimmage, fisticuffs: from ca 1873. cf. U.S. scrape, a rough encounter, 1812 (Thornton).

scrap

, v.i. To fight, esp. with the fists (–1874). Ex the n., 3. 2. To scrimmage (–1891). 3. Ex sense 1, v.t. to box with: 1893, P.H.Emerson, ‘I was backed to scrap a cove bigger nor me.’

scrap, do a

, see DO A SCRAP.

scrap-up

. An occ. variant of SCRAP, n., 3.

scrape

. A shave: jocular coll (–1859). cf. v. and SCRAPER. 2. Cheap butter: 1859, H., 1st ed. 3. See SCRAPE, BREAD AND. 4. Short shrift: coll: 1899, Pall Mall Gazette, 5 April, ‘From the French adventurers he was only likely to get what schoolboys call scrape.’

scrape

, v.i., v.t., and v. reflexive. To shave: jocular coll: from ca 1770.

scrape, bread and

. Bread with but a smear of butter: orig. schools’: coll: 1861; 1873, Rhoda Broughton, ‘Happiness thinly spread over their whole lives, like bread and scrape!’ Ex S.E. scrape, a thin layer. 2. Hence, short commons: coll: from ca 1865.

scrape!, go

. Go away!: contemptuous coll: early C.17. Cotgrave.

scrape the enamel

. To scratch the skin by falling: cyclists’: from ca 1890; ob.

scrape the kettle

. To go to confession: lower-middle-class and proletarian Catholic: late C.19–20.

scraper

. A barber: pejorative coll: from ca 1790. 2. A razor: jocular coll: from ca 1860. See SCRAPE, v. 3. As a cocked hat, esp. if gold-laced, naval coll of ca 1790–1840, verging on S.E. 4. A short one to two-inch whisker, slightly curved: Society: ca 1880–90. Ware. 5. See:

scrapers, take to one's

. To make off: Anglo-Irish: from ca 1820. Here, scraper= a foot, esp. a heel; cf. scrape with one's feet.

scraping-castle

. A water-closet: low: ca 1850–90.

scrapings of his nails!, he wouldn't give you the

. A semi-proverbial, coll c.p. (–1887), applied to a very mean person; slightly ob.

scrapp

, see SCRAP, n., 2.

scrapper

. A pugilist; any fighter, whether with fists or weapons: from ca 1820.

scrapping

. Fighting or boxing: from ca 1890. See SCRAP, v., and cf. SCRAPPER.

scrappy

. A farrier: Regular Army: late C.19–20. Ex the scraps of iron or hoof he leaves about.

Scratch

. Gen. and orig. Old Scratch. The devil: coll: 1740. In late C.19–20, mostly dial. Ex scrat, a goblin, on scratch.

scratch

. A competitor starting from scratch in a handicap contest: coll: 1867. 2. In billiards, a fluke: coll: from ca 1890.

scratch, bring to the, come (up) to the or toe the

. To bring oneself or another to the requisite point, lit. or fig.; to do, or cause to do, one's duty: coll >, ca 1890, S.E.: resp. 1827, Scott; 1834, Ainsworth; 1857, 'Cuthbert Bede'. Ex the line drawn on the ground or floor to divide the boxing-ring.

scratch, no great

. Of little value or importance: orig. (1844), U.S., anglicized ca 1858; slightly ob. Lit., not very painful.

scratch a beggar before you die, you'll

. You will die a beggar: a semi-proverbial c.p. of ca 1630–1800. Clarke, Ray, Fuller.

scratch-down

. The public scolding of a man by a woman: low (–1909). Ware.

scratch-me

. A lucifer match: London's lower classes' (–1909).

scratch my breech and I'll claw your elbow

. Let us indulge in reciprocal flattery: C.17–19: a semi-proverbial c.p. cf. ca me, ca thee, and S.E. scratch me and I'll scratch thee.

scratch one's arse with, not a sixpence to . Penniless: low coll: mid-C.19–20; ob.

scratch one's wool

. To puzzle; wonder greatly: tailors': from ca 1870. On S.E. scratch one's head; and see jocular S.E. wool, hair.

scratch-platter

, see TAILOR'S RAGOUT.

scratch-rash

. A scratched face: artisans' (–1909). cf. GRAVEL-RASH.

scratched

. Tipsy: C.17 c. or s. 'Water-Poet' Taylor, 1622.

scratcher

. A lucifer match: proletarian (–1909). cf. SCRATCH-ME. 2. A pay-master, or his clerk: naval: late C.19–20; ob. Ware, ‘From the noisy times of quill pens’. 3. A toe: Anglo-Irish: C.19. ‘A Real Paddy’, Life in Ireland, 1822. 4. Usually pl, scratchers. The hand (Boxiana, IV, 1824): ca 1815–60. 5. A small ship: Merchant Natty: late C.19–20. It scratches the dock wall in entering at ebb tides.

scratching one’s balls (or bullocks), be or sit

. Instead of being either active or alert, to sit or loll in idleness and vacancy: low coll: late C.19–20.

scratching rake

. A comb: proletarian: from ca 1870; ob.

Scratchland

. Scotland: ca 1780–1890. cf. SCOTCH FIDDLE.

scratchy

. (Of a batsman) lacking sureness and confidence in his strokes: cricket coll: 1904.

scream

, v. (Of a thief, robbed by another) to apply to the police: c.: from ca 1885.

scream the place down

. To go to Scotland Yard to report one's loss: c. from ca 1900.

screamer

. An animate or inanimate of exceptional size, intensity, attractiveness: orig. U.S., anglicized in 1850 by Frank Smedley. Runciman, 1888, 'She's a screamer, she's a real swell.' 2. A startling, exaggerated, or extremely funny book, story, etc.: 1844, Dickens. 3. Hence, one who tells exaggerated or very funny stories: 1849, Albert Smith. 4. 'A thief who, robbed by another thief, applies to the police', F. & H.: c.: from ca 1890.

screaminess

. The quality of being SCREAMY: coll: from ca 1880.

screaming

. Splendid; excellent: orig. theatrical (–1859). Ex SCREAMER, 1.

screaming gin and ignorance

. Bad newspaper writing: sporting reporters': 1868– ca 80.

screamy

. Apt to scream; (of sound) screaming; fig., very violent, exaggerated, or unseemly in expression; (of colour) glaring: coll: in 1882, Spectator describes two of Swinburne's sonnets as 'thoroughly unworthy and screamy'. cf. SCREAMER, 2.

screave

*, see SCREEVE.

screech

. Whisky: low: from ca 1880; ob. ?ex its strength or possibly ex its tendency to make some females screech. See also SCREIGH.

screed

. ca 1870–90 a journalistic coll (later S.E.) for 'an illogical or badly written article or paper upon any subject', H., 5th ed. 2. Hence, a picture execrably painted: artists' (– 1887); ob.

screen

*. A bank or currency note: esp. if counterfeit: from ca 1810: c. (cf. queer SCREEN) ca 1820–50, it often meant esp. a £1 note (cf. SCREEVE, n., 2), as in Egan, 1821. The word, which may be a witty perversion of SCREEVE, was ob. by 1900.

screen, queer

*. A forged note: c. (–1812). Vaux, Lytton, Ainsworth. See SCREEN.

screen-faking

*. The forging of notes: c.: 1830, Moncrief. See SCREEN.

screeve

* (1801); also screave (1821), scrieve (from ca 1850), scrive (1788). Any piece of writing: 1788; Scots s. or coll. 2. Whence, a banknote: (mainly Scottish) c.: ca 1800–90. Sporting Magazine, 1801, ‘The one-pound screeves’; Haggart. 3. A begging letter, a petition, a testimonial: c.: from ca 1810. (From ca 1890, letter is the predominant sense.) 4. A drawing in chalk on the pavement: c.: from ca 1855. Ex the v., 2; and see SCREEVING. The etymology is not so simple as it looks: prob. ex dial. scrieve, to write, or ex the Dutch schrijven; ultimately ex L. scribere; cf.:

screeve

*; occ. scrieve. v.t. to write (esp. a begging letter, a petition): c. and East-End s.: mid-C.19–20. ‘No. 747’, reference 1845; Mayhew, 1851. Ex It. scrivere via Lingua Franca; perhaps imm. ex the n., 1–3. 2. Whence, v.i., draw on the pavement with chalk; to do this as a livelihood: c.: 1851, Mayhew.

screeve, fake a

*, see FAKE A SCREEVE.

screeve-faker

*. The same as SCREEVER, 1: ca 1850–1910.

screever

*; occ. scriever. One who, for a living, writes begging letters: c.: 1851, Mayhew. Ex SCREEVE, v., 1. 2. A ‘pavement artist’: c. and East-End s.: implied by Mayhew in 1851 (see quotation at SCREEVING) and recorded by H. in 1859. Punch, 14 July 1883, ‘Here is a brilliant opening for merry old Academicians, festive flagstone screevers and “distinguished amateurs”’.

screeving

*. vbl n. of SCREEVE, v., 1 and 2. Mayhew, 1851, ‘By screeving, that is, by petitions and letters’; ibid., ‘Screeving or writing on the pavement’.

screigh

; occ. skreigh. Whisky: Scottish s.: C.19–20. Lexicographer Jamieson. i.e. a screech: proleptic usage.

screw

*. A skeleton key: c.: 1795, Potter; slightly ob. 2. ?hence, a turnkey or prison warder: 1821, Egan: c. until ca 1860, then low s. 3. A robbery effected with a skeleton key: c. of ca 1810–90. 4. the screw, the doing of this, esp. as an occupation: c.: ca 1810–80. 5. An old or otherwise worthless horse: 1821; ‘Nimrod’ Apperley, 1835, ‘Mr Charles Boulton, the best screw driver in England’. Coll >, ca 1890, S.E. Perhaps by the semantic process illustrated by RIP or orig. of a race-horse that can, by ‘screwing’, be made to gain a place. 6. Wages, salary (–1859). 7. Hence (?), a dram, a PICK-ME-UP: 1877. cf. 7*a*, a bottle of wine: Anglo-Irish (–1827); ob. Barrington. 8. See SCREW, FEMALE. 9. (Whence, or more prob. ex the v., 2,) an act of copulation: C.19–20: low. 10. Whence, a woman qua sexual pleasure: low: late C.19–20. 11. See SCREWS, THE. 12. A glance, a look; esp. take a screw at. 13. A tight-fisted person: coll: ca 1820–90. ‘He would call her an old screw, or skinflint’ (Hogg’s Instructor, Nov. 1855, ‘Memoranda by a Marine Officer’).

screw

*, v. To break into (a building) by using a skeleton key: c.: from ca 1810. Arthur Morrison. See the n., 1, 2, and 3. 2. To copulate with (a female): low (–1785).

screw, all of a . Very crooked or twisted: coll (–1887). Perhaps influenced by askew.

screw, fake a

*, see FAKE A SCREW.

screw, female

; occ. simply screw. A harlot: resp. ca 1780–1850 and ca 1720–1870.

screw, under the

, see UNDER THE SCREW.

screw-driver

. A hammer: carpenters' and joiners' jocularly: late C.19–20.

screw-jaws

. A wry-mouthed person: coll (–1788) verging on S.E.; ob.

screw loose, a

. A phrase indicative of something wrong: from ca 1820: s. until ca 1840, then coll till ca 1880, then S.E. Egan, 1821; Dickens; Trollope. Ob. in this gen. sense. 2. Hence, (slightly) crazy or mad, gen. as have a screw loose: coll: from ca 1870.

screw one's nut

. To dodge a blow aimed at the head: London lower classes': from the early 1890s. People, 6 Jan. 1895. A double pun—on NUT and on screw.

screw-thread, drunken

. A defective helical ridge of a screw: a technological coll: from ca 1850. Ronalds & Richardson, Chemical Technology, 1854.

screw up

, v.i. To force one into making a bargain: coll: late C.17–mid-19. Ex S.E. sense, to tighten up with a screw. 2. To garotte: c.: 1845 (p. 419 of ‘No. 747’); ob.

screw up (someone’s) ogle

. To punch so hard in the eye that it closes: boxing: ca 1805–40. Plymouth Telegraph, early 1822.

screwed

. Tipsy: 1838, Barham, ‘Like a four-bottle man in a company screw’d,| Not firm on his legs, but by no means subdued.’ s. >, ca 1870, coll. For semantics, cf. TIGHT. cf. SCREWY, 2; BLIND; BLOTTO; CORNED; FUZZY; PARALYSED; SCAMMERED; three SHEETS IN THE WIND; SQUIFFY; WET. F. & H. gives a magnificent synonymy; H., in the Introduction, a good one.

screwed on right or the right way, have one’s head

. To be shrewd and business-like; be able to look after oneself: coll: mid-C.19–20.

screwed up

. Vanquished: Oxford and Cambridge undergraduates': late C.19– early 20. Ex 'the ancient habit of screwing up an offender's door', Ware. 2. (Also screwed up in a corner.) Penniless: artisans' (–1909). Ware, 'Without money—can't move'.

screwing

*. A house- or shop-breaking: c.: from ca 1810. See SCREW, v., 1.

screws, the

. Rheumatism: coll and dial.: mid-C.19–20. Ex instrument of torture.

screwsman

*. A thief using a skeleton key: c. (–1812). Ex SCREW, n., 1–3.

screwy

. Mean, stingy: 1851, Mayhew, 'Mechanics are capital customers... They are not so screwy.' Coll >, ca 1890, S.E. Ex S.E. screw, a miser. 2. Drunk (cf. SCREWED): 1820, Creevey: coll >, ca 1890, S.E.; ob. 3. (Of horses) unsound: 1852, Smedley, 'It's like turning a screwy horse out to grass': coll >, ca 1890, S.E. Ex SCREW, n., 5.

scribbler's luck

. 'An empty purse and a full hand', Pelican, 3 Dec. 1898: coll from ca 1890.

scribe

. A bad writer: journalistic: ca 1870–90.

scrieve

*, see SCREEVE.

scrimmage

. A free-fight, scuffle, or confused struggle: coll: 1780, Johnson (skrimage); 1826, Fenimore Cooper (skrimmage); 1844, Catholic Weekly Instructor (scrimmidge); 1859, H., 1st ed. (scrimmage). Ex S.E. sense, a skirmish, prob. via dial.

scrimshander

, see SCRIMSHAW.

scrimshank, n.

, see SCRIMSHAW.

scrimshank; OCC. skrim-. v.i.

, to shirk work: military (–1890). Kipling, 1893. Prob. a back-formation from:

scrimshanker; OCC. skrimshanker

. A shirker: military (–1890). Tit-Bits, 26 April 1890, ‘Besides the dread of being considered a skrimshanker, a soldier dislikes the necessary restraints of a hospital.’ Etymology obscure: perhaps a perversion of SCOWBANKER. The importance of the subject may be gauged from the fact that in 1843 there appeared a book entitled On Feigned and Factitious Diseases, chiefly of Soldiers and Seamen.

scrimshanking; skrim-

. vbl n. and ppl adj. ex SCRIMSHANK, v.

scrimshaw (work); OCC. scrimshander, -y

. Mostly U.S. Small objects, esp. ornaments, made by seamen in their leisure: nautical: from ca 1850: s. >, ca 1880, coll >, ca 1910, S.E., as the v. has prob. always been. Etymology unknown, though the word is prob. either ex, or influenced by, the surname Scrimshaw. On whaling-ships, also scrimshank, which may be the source of SCRIMSHANKER.

scrip

. A small (gen. written-upon) piece of paper: from ca 1615: S.E. until ca 1680, then c. till early C.19, then dial.; in c., esp. in BLOT THE SCRIP, it occ.=a bond. ?ex scrap: cf.:

scrip-scrap

. Odds and ends: coll: C.19–20. Reduplication on scrap.

scripper

*. He who, in a swindle, keeps watch: c.: late C.16–early 17. Greene, describing ‘high law’. ?etymology, unless ex †Scots scrip, to jeer.

scribe

*, see SCREEVE, n.

scroby, or claws, (for breakfast), be tipped the

*. ‘To be whipt before the justices’, Grose, 1st ed.: c. (orig. at least) of ca 1780–1850. The C.18 form is be tipped the scroby; claws came ca 1810, for breakfast (rare with scroby) was added about the same time; from ca 1850 (†by 1890), the term survived as get scroby (H., 1st ed., 1859, ‘to be whipped in prison before the justices’). See TIP, v.; with claws cf. CAT-O’-NINE-TAILS; scroby is a mystery unless perchance it=scruby, scurvy, here used fig. (cf. do the dirty on).

scroo(d)ge

, see SCROUGE, v.

scroof

. A sponger: c. or low (–1823); †by 1890. A variant form of scruff, scurf, hence anything worthless.

scroof

*, v.i. To sponge or live on a person; v.t., scroof with: c.: ca 1840–1910. Perhaps ex the n. Whence scroofer, a parasite: same status and period.

scrope

*. A farthing: c. of ca 1710–1820. Hall; Grose, 2nd ed. ?origin.

scroudge

, see SCROUGE, v.

scrouge; OCC. scrowge

. A crush; a crowd: low coll: 1839. C.Keene, 1887, ‘I went to the Academy “Swarry” last night—the usual scrouge.’ Ex:

scrouge

, the earliest and gen. form; also scroo(d)ge (C.19–20), scroude (C.19–20), scrowge (C.19–20), skrouge (C.19–20), and skrowdge (C.18). v.t. to crowd; to inconvenience by pressing against or by encroaching on the space of: low coll: mid-C.18–20. Ex scruze, to squeeze, ‘still preserved, at least in its corruption, to scrouge, in the London jargon’, Johnson, 1755. 2. v.i. in same senses: from ca 1820. (The vbl n. scrouging is fairly gen.)

scrouperize

. To coit: a rather literary coll: mid-C.17–early 18. Translations of Rabelais. cf. later S.E. scroop, to scrape.

scrousher

. An old, esp. if broken-down, gold-pro prospector or digger: New Zealand: since ca 1862; long merely historical. Perhaps an imitative word. 2. Hence(?), a prostitute: low Australian: late C.19–20.

scrovie, -y

. A useless hand shipped as an able-bodied seaman: nautical: late C.19–20. Cognate with S.E. scruffy: cf. SCROOF.

scrowge

, see SCROUGE, v.

scrub

. ‘One who pays not his whack at the tavern’, Bee: public-house coll: ca 1820–60. Ex scrub, a shabby fellow. 2. A small (dirty or slovenly) boy: Christ’s Hospital: since ca 1860. 3. Handwriting: Christ’s Hospital: mid-C.19–20. Ex sense 2 of:

scrub

, v. To drudge: coll: late C.19–20. Ex scrubbing floors, steps, etc. 2. v.t. to write fast: Christ’s Hospital: mid-C.19–20. Ex L. scribere. 3. To reprimand: naval: late C.19–20.

scrub and wash clothes

. A substitute expression in reading aloud for a word suddenly come upon which the reader cannot pronounce: naval coll: late C.19–20.

scrub-dangler

. A wild bullock: ca 1885–1920. cf. SCRUBBER, 1.

scrub(b)ado

. The itch: mid-C.17–early 19; coll on †S.E. scrub, the same.

scrubber

. An animal living in the scrub: Australian coll >, ca 1900, S.E.: 1859, H. Kingsley in Geoffrey Hamlyn. 2. Hence, a person living there: 1890, ‘Rolf Boldrewood’. 3. An outsider; in university circles, ‘one who will not join in the life of the place’ (cf. the Oxford SMUG); Australian: 1868; slightly ob. Ex sense 1, as is: 4. Any starved-looking or ill-bred animal: Australian coll (–1898). cf. the Australian j. scrub-bull, an inferior bull or bullock.

scrubbing

. A flogging of four cuts: Winchester: ca 1840–1900. Mansfield, ‘The ordinary punishment was called scrubbing.’ Ex gen. coll of ca 1810–50, often in sense of defeat.

scrubbing-brush

. The pubic hair: low: mid-C.19–20. 2. A loaf containing more bran and chaff than flour: Australian: from ca 1880.

scruey

. See SCREWY, 2. Thackeray, 1855.

scruff

. Newfoundland s. of ca 1860–1900. Figaro, 25 Nov. 1870, quoting from the Montreal News, on ‘Codland Habits’: ‘The best society is called “merchantable”, that being the term for fish of the best quality; while the lowest stratum is “scruff” or “dun”.’ Ex ob. S.E. scruff applied to anything valueless or contemptible.

scruff

, v. To hang: C.19 coll. Ex scruff, the nape of the neck. 2. To manhandle; to attack: Australian coll: late C.19–20. i.e. take by the scruff of the neck.

scrum

. A scrum in Rugby football: coll: 1888. 2. Hence, a crowd or RAG(11): Rugby School from the 1880s.

scrumdolious

. SCRUMPTIOUS, of which it is an elaboration; late C.19–20.

scrump

, see SKRIMP.

scrumptious

. First rate, excellent, ‘glorious’: coll: 1859, H., 1st ed.; 1865, Meredith, ‘Hang me, if ever I see such a scrumptious lot.’ Ex U.S. coll sense, stylish (of things), handsome (of persons). 2. The sense ‘fastidious, hard to please’ is by the O.E.D. queried as U.S. only: perhaps orig. U.S. (whence the O.E.D.’s quotation, 1845), but app. current in England ca 1855–75, for the life-time edd. of H. define the word as ‘nice, particular, beautiful’. Prob. ex dial. sense of mean, stingy; sense 1, therefore, as W. points out, may have been influenced by sumptuous.

scrumptiously

. The adv. of the preceding: coll: from not later than 1880.

scruncher

. A glutton: coll: from ca 1860. Ex scrunch, to bite crushingly.

scud

. A fast runner: schools': 1857, Hughes in Tom Brown, 'I say...you ain't a bad scud'; ob. Ex scud, to move quickly. 2. Hence, a fast run: from ca 1870; slightly ob. cf.:

scud

, v. (Of persons) to run: naval: late C.18–mid-19. Ex the S.E. nautical sense.

scuddick, the gen. form; also scuddock, scurrick, scuttick (mostly dial.), skiddi(c)k (id.), and skuddick

. An extremely small sum or coin, amount or object: s. and dial.: from ca 1780; in C.20, only dial. 'Jon Bee', 1823, 'Used negatively; "not a scuddick"..."Every scuddick gone"; "she gets not a scuddick from me".' Perhaps ex †S.E. scud, refuse; more prob. ex dial. scud, a wisp of straw, despite the fact that this sense is not recorded until 1843—many dial. terms were almost certainly existent 'ages' before their earliest appearance in print. 2. In c. of ca 1820–60, a halfpenny: only in form scurrick.

scuff

*. A(ny) crowd: c.: from late 1870s. Macmillan's Magazine, 1879 (XL, 501), 'This got a scuff round us': 'Dagonet' Sims in the Referee, 12 Feb. 1888. Ex more gen. S.E. sense, a noisy crowd.

scuffle-hunter

*. One who hangs about the docks on the pretence of looking for work but actually to steal anything that comes his way: c. and nautical s. from ca 1790; ob. Colquhoun's Police of the Metropolis, 1796.

scuffy

. Inferior, contemptible: Christ's Hospital (–1887). Prob. ex scurfy.

scufter

*. A policeman: Northern c. (cf. BULKY): ca 1855–90. Ex either scuffe, to throw up dust in walking (cf. dial. scuff, to shuffle), or, more likely, scuff, to buffet.

scug

; skug. (Latter very rare in C.20.) An untidy or ill-mannered or morally undeveloped boy: a shirker at games; one 'undistinguished in person, in games, or social qualities': Eton and Harrow: from ca 1820. Westmacott, 1825, refers it to sluggish; perhaps, however, ex Scots and Northern scug (skug), a pretence; ex Yorkshire and Lancashire dial. scug, scum; but possibly SCADGER.

scuggish

; scuggy. adj. to the preceding.

scull

. The head of a college: university (–1785); ob. by 1864 (see H., 3rd ed.), †by 1890. Punning skull. 2. ‘A one horse chaise or buggy’, Grose, 1st ed. (also sculler); ca 1780–1830. 3. See SCULLS.

scull-race

. An examination: university: ca 1810–70. Ex SCULL, 1.

scull-thatcher

. A wig-maker: coll (–1785); ob. 2. Whence, a hatter: C.19–20; ob.

sculler

, see SCULL, 2.

scullery-science

. Phrenology: jocular coll: ca 1830–60. Chorley, 1836. Punning skull.

sculls

. A waterman plying sculls: coll: C.18–20. cf. OARS.

sculp

. A piece of sculpture: coll: 1883, Daily News, 18 Jan. cf.:

sculp

, v.t. To sculpture: from ca 1780: S.E. until ca 1880, then (gen. jocular) coll. R.L.Stevenson, 1887. 2. Hence, v.i.: coll: 1889, W.E.Norris; 1893, Kipling, ‘Men who write, and paint, and sculp’.

scum

*. Enough: c. of ca 1720–50. Street Robberies Consider’d, 1728. ?etymology.

scupper

. To take by surprise and then massacre: military: 1885 (the Suakin Expedition). 2. Hence, to kill: military: late C.19–20. ?ex COOPER, to ruin.

scuppered

. Killed, dead in battle: naval, hence military: late C.19–20. Ex preceding.

scurf

, adj. (Of labour) cheap: Cockney: ca 1845–90. Mayhew, II, 1851, cf. the n., 2.

scurf

. A mean, a ‘scurvy’ fellow: ca 1850–1915. Mayhew, 1851, “‘There’s a scurf!’ said one; ‘He’s a regular scab,’ cried another.’ cf. SCAB, n., 1. 2. A SCAB (n., 2): from ca 1850. 3. Also, an employer paying less than the standard wage: from ca 1850. Like sense 2, first in Mayhew.

scurf

*, v. To apprehend, arrest: c. of ca 1810–50. ?ex S.E. scruff.

scurrick

*, see SCUDDICK.

scuse or ’scuse

. (Esp. in ‘scuse me!’) To excuse: late C.15–20: S.E. until C.19, then (when not, as occ., deliberately humorous) coll verging on illiteracy. T.E.Brown, 1887, “‘Scuse me, your honour.’

scushy

. Money: Scottish: late C.18–mid-19. Shirrefs, Poems, 1790. Origin?

scut

. The female pudend or pubic hair: coll: late C.16–20; ob. Ex scut, a short upright tail, esp. of hare, rabbit, deer. (Implied in Shakespeare, Cotton, D’Urfey, and several broadsides, but not, I believe, defined as the pudend before Grose, 1st ed.) Also, the behind: C.18. Ned Ward, 1709. 2. A person; occ. a number of persons: coll and dial., either jocose or pejorative: from early 1890s. Ex S.E, sense.

scutter

. To go hastily and fussily or excitedly or timorously: coll and dial.: from ca 1780. Mrs Delany, 1781, ‘She staid about 24 hours, then scutter’d away to Badminton.’ The vbl n. is frequent, the ppl adj. rare. Prob. ex scuttle on scatter, Imm. ex dial.

scuttick

, see SCUDDICK.

scuttle

. An undignified withdrawal: political: 1884; slightly ob. Ex:

scuttle

, v.i. To withdraw with unseemly haste from the occupation, or the administration, of a country: political: 1883, Lord Randolph Churchill in a speech delivered on 18 Dec.; slightly ob. Ex S.E. sense, ‘to run with quick, hurried steps’. 2. v.i. to shout in order to attract the attention of the masters to one’s being roughly treated: Christ’s Hospital: mid-C.19–20; ob. Whence scuttle-cat, one who does this: †by 1903. 3. To deflower: orig: nautical: mid-C.19–20. Whence scuttle a ship, to take a maidenhead. 4. To stab: c.: from ca 1860; ob. 5. To go, to depart: schoolboys’ s. (from ca 1906) now verging on coll. cf. S.E. scuttle away. 6. See SCUTTLE A NOB. 7. See SCUTTLING, 2.

scuttle, do a back

. To engage in an act of sodomy: low: late C.19–20.

scuttle, on the

. On a bout of drinking or a round of whoring: from ca 1870; slightly ob. cf. preceding entry and see SCUTTLE, v., 3.

scuttle a nob

. To break a head: pugilistic: from ca 1810; ob. Randall.

scuttle a ship

, see SCUTTLE, v., 3. scuttlecat, see SCUTTLE, v., 2.

scuttle-mouth

. A small oyster in a very large shell: costermongers': 1848, though first recorded in vol. I (1851) of Mayhew's London Labour.

scuttler

. An advocate of SCUTTLE (see the n.): political: 1884 (O.E.D.); ob.

scuttling

. The policy implied in SCUTTLE, v., 1: political: 1884; ob. 2. As street-fighting between youthful groups, scuttling, like scuttle the v. (1890) and the n. (1864), is gen. considered S.E.: perhaps orig. coll or dial.

'sdeath!, 'sdeynes!, 'sdiggers

! Abbr. God's death!, deynes or dines!, and diggers!: resp. C.17–18, then archaic; early C.17 (Jonson); late C.17. All coll except perhaps the first, which should perhaps be considered S.E.; all may be euphemistic, though this is to underestimate the power of colloquialism, which is at least as great as that of euphemism.

'sdheart

, see 'SHEART.

sea?, who wouldn't sell a farm and go to

. A nautical c.p. spoken when something unpleasant or extremely difficult has to be done: mid-C.19–20.

sea-blessing

. A curse; curses: jocular nautical coll: late C.19–20.

sea-coal

. Money: C.19, mainly nautical. On sea-cole=sea kale. See COLE. 2. Smuggled spirits: mid-C.18–mid-C.19.

sea-cook, son of a

. A term of abuse: nautical coll: 1806, John Davis, The Post-Captain. M.Scott, 1836, 'You supercilious son of a sea-cook'.

sea-coot

. A seaman, esp. if of fresh water or scant ability: nautical (–1887); ob. Prob. ex preceding, with a pun on (silly) COOT.

sea-crab

. A sailor: nautical: ca 1780–1890. cf. SCALY FISH.

sea daddy

. A staid rating: naval: since ca 1900. Granville, ‘Usually a badgeman who acts as mentor to new entries’.

sea-grocer

. A purser: a nautical nickname: from ca 1860; ob.

sea-lawyer

. A shark; esp. a tiger-shark: coll nickname: from ca 1810. 2. A grey snapper: id. (–1876). 3. Ex sense 1, a captious and argumentative, or a scheming, fo’c’s’le hand: nautical coll: from ca 1820. (cf. BUSH LAWYER.) Whence sea-lawyering, such behaviour: mid-C.19–20.

sea-pheasant

. A bloater or a kipper: nautical: late C.19–20.

sea-pork

. The flesh of young whales: id.: id.

sea-rover

. A herring: mostly London (–1890). Gen. in a doorstep and a sea-rover, a slice of bread and a herring, and doorsteps and (a) sea-rover, a herring sandwich, as in Whiteing's No. 5 John Street, 1899.

sea-toss

. 'A toss overboard into the sea' (Century Dict.): coll: late C.19–20.

sea-wag

. An ocean-going vessel: nautical: late C.19–20; ob.

sea William

. A civilian: naval: ca 1800–50.

seagly

, see SEDGLEY CURSE.

seagull

. An old sailorman retired from the sea; nautical: late C.19–20; ob.

seal

. A preacher's convert: ecclesiastical: ca 1850–80. Conybeare, 1853. Either ex set one's seal to or ex under (one's) seal. cf. OWNED, BE.

seal

, v. To impregnate (a woman): C.19–20; ob. cf. SEW UP.

sealer

*. 'One that gives Bonds and Judgements for Goods and Money', B.E.: c.: late C.17–early 19. Shadwell, Grose. Also known as SQUEEZE-WAX.

seals

. Testicles: C.19–20; ob. Because they seal a sexual bargain.

seaman if he carries a millstone will have a quail out of it, a

. A mid-C.17–mid-18 semi-proverbial c.p. alluding to the ingenuity displayed by sailors as regards meat and drink.

seaman's disgrace

. A foul anchor: nautical coll: late C.19–20.

sear

; sere. The female pudend: coll: late C.16–17. Partly ex sear, the touch-hole of a pistol, and partly ex light (or tickle) of the sear or sere, wanton.

seaside moths

. Bed vermin: middle classes' (–1909); ob.

seat

. A rider: sporting coll (–1887). Ex have a good seat (in the saddle).

seat of honour, shame, vengeance

. The posteriors; jocular coll (in C.20 ob.): resp. 1792, Wolcot (adumbrated in Bailey's Erasmus, 1725); 1821, Combe, and rare; 1749, Smollett—likewise rare. Ex the fact that 'he was commonly accounted the most honourable that was first seated, and that this honour was commonly done to the posteriors' (Bailey).

seat of magistracy

. 'Proctor's authority', Egan's Grose: Oxford University: ca 1820–50.

Sebastianist

. A Mr Micawber, one who believes that something good will turn up some day: coll (late C.19–20) among the English Colony at Lisbon. Ex the Portuguese. In 1578, King Sebastian was defeated in Morocco and never again heard of: but half Portugal, refusing to credit his death, believed that he would return and lead them to victory.

sec

. A second: coll: from ca 1880.

second

; third. Second mate; third mate: nautical coll: mid-C.19–20. Often in address, as in 'Go easy, third!' 2. (Also adj.) Second-hand; seconds, second-hand goods: dealers' coll: C.19–20.

second dickey

. The second mate: nautical: late C.19–20.

second fiddle

, see FIDDLE, SECOND.

second greaser

. Second mate under sail: nautical: late C.19–20. Bowen.

second-hand daylight

. The light of another world: non-aristocratic: ca 1890–1910. Ex a music-hall song. cf.:

second-hand sun

. Refracted sunlight: poor people's coll (–1909).

second-hand woman

. A widow: Army in India: 1859–ca 1900.

second-liker

. A second (e.g. drink) like—the same as—the first: taverns': 1884; slightly ob.

second mate's nip

. A full measure of liquor: nautical coll: late C.19–20. Bowen.

second over the head

. Rather worse than the first: Conway cadets': late C.19–20.

second picture

. The 'tableau upon the rising of the curtain to applause, after it has fallen at the end of an act, or a play': theatrical coll: 1885. Ware.

second-timer

. A prisoner convicted for the second time: coll: late C.19–20.

secret, in the grand

. Dead: coll: from ca 1780; ob. cf. join the great majority and contrast:

secret, let into the

*. Swindled, e.g. at horse-racing, sports, games: late C.17– early 19: c. >, ca 1730, s. Contrast preceding entry.

sect

. Sex: C.13–20: S.E. until C.19, then coll until ca 1850; then low coll till C.20, when sol. unless deliberately humorous. cf. PERSUASION.

Sedgley (occ. Seagly) curse

. A semi-proverbial coll of ca 1620–1840. Fletcher' ca 1625, 'A seagly curse light on him, which is, Pedro: The feind ride through him booted, and spurd, with a Sythe at's back'; Ray; Defoe; Scott. Ex a town in Staffordshire; but I cannot improve on Apperson's 'I know not why'.

see

, v.i. To coït: low s. verging on c., for it is a prostitutes' word: C.19–20 (? ob.). Also see stars lying on one's back.

see! or you see

. A conversational tag among those who possess a meagre vocabulary: late (?mid-) C.19–20.

see, I

. I agree or understand (as comment on an explanation or an argument): coll: C.19–20.

see a man or, OCC., a friend (, go and)

. To have a drink: late C.19–20, as is see a man about a dog, loosely in same sense, properly to visit a woman sexually. Often, too, = to go to the lavatory (to urinate only): men's: late C.19–20.

see about it, I'll

. A coll evasion: mid-C. 19–20.

see and

...(another v.). To take care to (do something): coll: from ca 1760; slightly ob. Mrs F.Sheridan, ca 1766, 'David... told me he'd see and get me another every jot as pretty.'

see anything

, as in 'Have you seen anything?'—'Have you had your monthly courses?': a lower and lower-middle class feminine euphemism: mid-C.19–20 >, 1910, coll.

see (someone's) arse for dust, you couldn't

. He departed in a tremendous hurry: c.p.: late C.19–20.

see as far into a millstone (or milestone) as

...see MILLSTONE, LOOK. see candles, see SEE STARS.

see (a person) coming

. To impose on; esp., to charge too much: coll: late C.19–20. Gen. in some such phrase as 'He saw you coming,' i.e. saw you were gullible and so took advantage of you. Perhaps ex the Fr. voir quelqu'un venir, which means the same.

see him (her, etc.) damned or further or hanged or to hell or to the devil first, I'll

. I certainly don't or won't agree to his proposal, etc.: coll: resp. 1631, Heywood; mid-C.19–20; 1596, Shakespeare; C.19–20.

see London

, see SHOW LONDON.

see one's aunt

. To defecate: euphemistic s. > coll: mid-C.19–20; ob.

see-otches

, see SEEO.

see stars or spots or candles

. To be dazed: coll: resp. late C.19–20, mid-C.19–20, and mid-C.18–mid-19. Smollett, 1749, 'He... made me see more candles than ever burnt in Solomon's temple.'

see stars lying on one's back

, see SEE, 1.

see the breeze

. To enjoy the fresh air (on a heath): Cockney: ca 1877–1900. cf. TASTE THE SUN.

see the devil

. To become drunk: mid-C. 19–20; ob.

see the king

. To be very experienced, knowing, alert: ca 1870–90. An English modification of the orig. U.S. to see the ELEPHANT.

see things

. To experience hallucinations: coll: late (?mid-) C.19–20.

see through

. To ‘get through’ (a meal): coll: 1863 (O.E.D.); slightly ob.

seed, run to

, see RUN TO SEED.

seed-plot

. The female pudend: C.19–20 (ob.): coll verging on S.E.

seedy

. Of a SHADY character: low: ca 1780–1910. G.Parker, ‘A queer procession of seedy brims and kids’. Ex seedy, shabby. (In other senses—shabby, almost penniless, in poor health—perhaps orig. coll; but the O.E.D. does not think so.)

seedy(-boy)

. A Negro: Anglo-Indian coll: mid-C.19–20. Also sidi(-boy). Ironically ex Urdu sidi, my lord.

seek others and lose oneself

. To play the fool: coll: late C.16–17. Florio.

Seeley's pigs

. Pigiron, orig. and properly in Government dockyards: nautical: ca 1870–1910. Ex Mr Seeley, the M.P. for Lincoln, who revealed that some of the yards were half-paved with iron pigs.

seems to me

. Apparently: coll: 1888, 'John Strange Winter', 'Seems to me women get like dogs—they get their lessons pretty well fixed in their minds after a time.'

seen dead with, (he, I, etc.) would not be

. I detest (properly a person, loosely a thing); it, he, etc., is disgusting: coll: late C.19–20. Lyell.

seen the elephant

, see ELEPHANT.

seen the French King, to have . To be drunk: s.: (–1650).

seeo (OCC. see-o)

. Shoes: back s. (–1859). (Instead of seohs.) Baumann records the form see-otches.

seer

*. An eye (gen. the seer): c. (–1785) > low s.; very ob. cf.:

sees

. The eyes: c. or low s.: from ca 1810. Moore, 1819, ‘To close up their eyes—alias, to sew up their sees’, in a boxing context. cf. SEER and DAYLIGHTS.

seldoms, the

. Money, esp. cash: mostly naval: ?ca 1810–50. Because seldom come by, hard to get.

self, be

. (e.g. be himself.) To be in one's normal health or state of mind: coll: 1849, Macaulay; Daily News, 23 May 1883, on a cricket match, 'Mr Grace was all himself.' Also, late C.19–20 (very rarely of things), to feel like (e.g. one-)self. cf. be one's own man or woman. 2. Hence, of things, be in its usual place: mid-C.19–20.

self and company (or wife, etc., etc.)

is jocular coll, excusable only as a jocularity: late C.19–20.

sell

. A successful deception, hoax or swindle: 1850, Smedley. Ex the v. 2. Hence, a planned hoax, deception, swindle: from ca 1860. 3. Ex sense 1, a (great) disappointment: 1860, H., 2nd ed.; 1874, Mrs H.Wood, 'It's an awful sell...no hunting, and no shooting, and no nothing.'

sell

, v. To take in, deceive; impose on, trick, swindle: C.17–20. Jonson, 1607, Volpone, 'When bold, each tempts the other again, and all are sold'; Smedley; 'Rolf Boldrewood'. Prob. ex sell, to betray (a person, cause, party, or country). 2. See SOLD OUT.

sell (a person) a pup

, see PUP, SELL A.

sell (a person) blind

*. To deceive or swindle utterly: c. (–1887).

selopas

. Apples: back s. (–1859). (A few back s. terms are only in the pl: cf. PINURT POTS; SEE0; SPINSRAP; STARPS; STOOB.)

s’elp (loosely, selp)

. So help, esp. in s’elp me God: C.14–20: S.E. until C.19, then coll. Kipling, 1888, ‘S’elp me, I believe ’e’s dead.’ cf. SWELP and:

s’elp me, Bill Arline!

; s’elp me tater! Synonyms of S’ELP ME BOB!: proletarian: resp. ca 1870–1910 and from ca 1855 (ob.).

s’elp me Bob (bob)

! So help me God!: low coll: from ca 1823, ‘Jon Bee’. J.Payn; ‘Pomes’ Marshall. cf. preceding entry and S’ELP MY GREENS.

s'elp me never

! 'May God never help me if I lie now': low (–1909).

s'elp my greens

! So help me God!: low coll: ca 1850–1910. Mayhew. Obviously greens (q.v., however) jocularly varies Bob, which itself euphemizes or perverts God. See preceding three entries and SWELP and SWOP MY BOB!

semi-bejan

, see BEJAN.

semi-quotes

. Single (instead of double) quotation-marks: coll: world of books, esp. and orig. printing: late C.19–20. See QUOTE.

seminary

. The female pudend: mid-C.19– 20; ob. Punning seminary, a school, college, etc., and semen=liquor seminale.

senal pervitude

. Penal servitude: cheap urban witticism: ca 1900–14. In addition to the switch-over of initial letters, there is a glancing pun on senile.

send

, see COVENTRY; FLEA IN (ONE’S) EAR; and the next entries.

send along

. To send to gaol; esp., to cause to be arrested: Australian coll: since ca 1870.

send for Gulliver

! A Society c.p. (1887– ca 95) on ‘some affair not worth discussion. From a cascadescent incident’ in Part I of Gulliver’s Travels (Ware).

send (a person) for yard-wide pack-thread

. To despatch on a fool’s errand: coll: ca 1800–60.

send her down, Hughie

! An Australian c.p. expressing urgent desire for rain: late C.19–20.

send in

. To drive in: ca 1810–60. Lex. Bal., ‘Hand down the jemmy and send it in; apply the crow to the door, and drive it in.’

send-off

. A God-speed: coll: orig. (1872), U.S.; anglicized ca 1875. 2. Hence, a start in life, in business, etc.: 1894, A. Morrison, ‘A good send-off in the matter of clothes’. 3. Occ. as adj.: 1876, Besant & Rice, ‘A beautiful send-off notice’.

send round the hat

, see HAT, PASS ROUND THE.

send up

. To commit to prison: orig. U.S. (1852); anglicized by 1887, when Baumann recorded it without comment on its American origin. Westminster Gazette, 30 April 1897, ‘Two prisoners...occupied the prison-van...Burns was being “sent up” for wife-beating, and Tannahill for theft’: s.

sender

. A severe blow: from ca 1800: boxing s. Perhaps ex send spinning.

senior

, see JUNIOR.

sensation

. Half a glass of sherry: Australian: ca 1859–90. Prob. ex sense 3, though this is recorded later. 2. In England, a quartern of gin: 1859, H., 1st ed. 3. A (very) small quantity, esp. of liquor, occ. of food, father rarely of other things: mid-C.19–20: coll. Lit., just so much as can be perceived by the senses; cf. the French souçon.

sense, it stands to

. It stands to reason, it's only sensible: coll: 1859, George Eliot. Ex †it is to (good) sense, on it stands to reason.

sensitive plant

. The nose: pugilistic c.: ca 1815–60. Boxiana, II, 1818; III, 1821; IV, 824.

sent

. Sent to prison: lower classes' coll: late C.19–20. People, 20 March 1898.

sent ashore

. Marooned: nautical coll: late C.19–20.

sent to the skies

. Killed, murdered: lower middle classes' (Z1909).

sentimental hairpin

. An affected, insignificant girl: Society: ca 1880–1900. Ware.

sentimental journey, arrive at the end of the

. To coït with a woman: from ca 1870; very ob. F. & H. says 'common' (i:e. used by the lower classes): should not this be read as 'cultured'? Ex the conclusion of Sterne's Sentimental Journey, 'I put out my hand and caught hold of the fille-de-chambre's—. FINIS.' The unworldly postulate 'hand'; the worldly, 'CUNT': to those who know their Sterne, verb. sap.

sentinel

. A candle used at a wake. Anglo-Irish coll: mid-C.19–20. Punningly: because it keeps watch.

sentry, on

. Drunk: rather low: ca 1885–1914. Ex on sentry-go: but why? Perhaps home-service sentries are tempted to take a tot too many in the laudable desire to keep out the cold on night-duty.

sentry-box, Chelsea Hospital to a

, see LOMBARD STREET TO A...

separate

*; but extremely rare in the singular. A period of separate confinement in prison, esp. during the first year of a sentence: from ca 1860: prison c. >, ca 1890, low s. Cornhill Magazine, 1862, vol. vi, p. 640; Anon., Five Years' Penal Servitude, 1877. Abbr. separate confinement.

Sepoy

. Any Indian foot-soldier, esp. an infantryman: Regular Army coll: late C.19–20.

sepulchre

. A large, flat cravat: London middle classes: ca 1870–85. Ex the 'sins' it covered.

serag

, see HEAD-SERAG.

seraglietto

. ‘A lowly, sorry Bawdy-house, a meer Dog-hole’, B.E.: coll: late C.17–18. A diminutive of:

seraglio

. A brothel: coll: late C.17–early 19. Ex seraglio, a harem, though seraglio itself was orig. incorrect when used for serai, a Turkish palace. (The term > gen. ca 1750 with Mrs Goadby, ‘the great Goadby’, who kept an excellent house in Berwick Street, Soho: Beresford Chancellor, Pleasure Haunts of London.)

sere

, see SEAR. serene, -eno, see ALL SERENE.

Sergeant Kite or Snap

. A recruiting sergeant: allusive coll: from ca 1850; ob. by 1900.

sergeant-major

. A fat loin of mutton: butchers': late C.19–20. Ex the usual plumpness of sergeant-majors, with whom the cooks and the quarter-master's staff know that it pays to stand well. 2. A large piece of mutton in the rib part: butchers' (–1889). Barrère & Leland, 'From the white stripes like sergeant's stripes'. 3. In c., dating from ca 1840 but now ob.: 'a large cold-chisel...for cutting through metal plates', p. 422 of 'No. 747', The Autobiography of a Gipsy, 1891—the reference valid for 1845.

sergeant-major's brandy and soda

. A gold-laced stable jacket: military: ca 1885–1914.

sergeant-major's wash-cat

. A new kit: cavalry: ca 1885–1910. 2. A troop's store-man: ca 1885–1914. ?because he supplied a basin.

Sergeant Snap

, see SERGEANT KITE.

Seringapatam

. Ham: rhyming s.: late C.19–early 20. (J.Redding Ware, Passing English, 1909.)

serpent, stung by a

. Got with child: coll: C.19–20; ob. Ex swelling.

serpent by the tail, hold a

. To act foolishly: coll: C.19–20; ob. Ray, 1813.

serve

, v. To treat in a specified—and, gen., unpleasant or inequitable—manner: C.13–20; S.E. until 1850, then—except in formal contexts—coll. 2. To rob, thus ‘I served him for his thimble,’ I robbed him of his watch: c.: from ca 1810; ob. 3. To convict and sentence: c.: from ca 1810; ob. 4. To injure, wound, treat roughly: c.: ca 1810–90. cf. next two entries. 5. To serve a term of imprisonment: criminals’ coll (rather than c.): late C.19–20. 6. To impose a punishment: Bootham School coll: late C.19–20.

serve out

, v. To take revenge on, to punish; retaliate on (a person) for...: from ca 1815: boxing s. >, ca 1830, gen. coll. Sporting Magazine, 1817, ‘The butcher was so completely served out, that he resigned all pretensions to victory.’ By ‘an ironic application of nautical serve out (grog, etc.)’, W. 2. To smash (a fence): hunting s.: 1862.

serve out and out

*. To kill: c. of ca 1810–90. cf. SERVE OUT.

serve out slops

. To administer punishment at the gangway: naval: ca 1790–1890. cf. SERVE OUT, 1.

serve right

. Coll only in (and) serve (e.g. you right!), and serves (e.g. you right!), which indicate satisfaction that someone has got his deserts: from ca 1830. Dickens, 1837, ‘Workhouse funeral—serve him right.’

serve the poor with a thump on the back with a stone

. To be a miser: semi-proverbial coll: ca 1670–1750; Ray.

serves you right

! see SERVE RIGHT.

service

. An imposition: Bootham School: late C.19–20.

service-book, to have eaten one's

, see TEETHWARD.

service lay

*. The DODGE by which one hires oneself out as a servant and then robs the house: c.: C.18. C.Hitchin, The Regulator, 1718.

sessions

. To commit (one) to the sessions for trial: 1857, Mayhew.

sessions

! Well, I'm blown!: late C.19–20; ob. Ex dial. sessions, a fuss, disturbance, argument, difficulty, task.

set

. Abbr. dead set (see SET, DEAD): 1829, The Examiner (O.E.D.): s. >, ca 1860, coll >, ca 1900, S.E.

set

, v. To fix on as prey or victim; to watch with a view to robbing; make a SET at: from ca 1670: perhaps orig. c., as also in late C.19–20 Australian. Gay, in The Beggar's Opera, 1727, 'There will be deep play to-night at Marybone,...I'll give you the hint who is worth setting.' cf. SET, DEAD, 3, and SET, HAVE.

set

, adj.; gen. all set. In the late C.17–18, applied to 'desperate fellows, ready for any kind of mischief' (Duncombe). 2. See SET, HAVE.

set, dead

*. Esp. in make a dead set at. 'Dead Set, a Term used by Thief-catchers when they have a Certainty of seizing some of their Clients', A New Canting Dict., 1725: †by 1850. 2. Also, ca 1780–1860, 'a concerted scheme to defraud a person by gaming', Grose, 1st ed.: like sense 1, it is c. 3. The extant senses—a determined onslaught, an incessant attempt, and (in sport) an abrupt stop—date from ca 1820, derive from those two c. senses, and are gen. considered S.E.: prob., however, they were orig. coll.

set, have

(a person). 'To have [him] marked down for punishment or revenge', C.J.Dennis: low (esp. in Australia): from ca 1890. cf. SET, DEAD.

set about

. To attack, set upon: coll: 1879, Horsley, 'He set about me with a strap till he was tired.'

set (one's) child a-crying

. (Of a watchman) to spring or sound one's rattle: fast life: ca 1810–40. Spy, 1825.

set (something) in a crack

. To settle (a matter) quickly; e.g. set a bet in a crack, to wager smartly at two-up; be set in a crack, (of persons) to be comfortably placed (lit. or fig.), to be very pleased with circumstances: New Zealanders': from the 1890s. Perhaps ex the idea of doing a thing as sharply as the crack of a whip.

set jewels

; gen. as vbl n., setting jewels. To purloin the best parts of a little-known (esp. if clever) book for incorporation in a new work by another author: literary coll: 1873, when originated by Charles Reade à propos of a flagrant instance published at Christmas, 1872; ob.

set-me-up, often preceded by young

. One who sets himself up to be somebody: often pejoratively: late C.19–20.

set-out

. A set or display of china, plate, etc.: coll: 1806, J.Beresford. 2. (Of food) a SPREAD (5): coll: 1809, Malkin. 3. A 'turn-out', i.e. a carriage 'and all': a mainly sporting coll: from ca 1810. 4. A person's costume or manner of dressing (cf. RIG-OUT); an outfit, equipment: coll: from ca 1830. 5. A public show or performance; an entertainment for a number of people; a party: coll: 1818, Lady Morgan. 6. Hence, a company or a set of people: from ca 1850: coll. 7. A to-do or fuss: (low) coll: late C.19–20.

set the hare's head to the goose giblets

. To balance matters, to give as good as one gets: coll: C.17–early 18.

set to rights

. To set right: coll: C.19–20. (Glascock, Sketch-Book, II, 1826.)

set-up

. Bearing, carriage, port: coll (slightly ob.): 1890, T.C.Crawford.

set-up

, adj. Conceited: coll and dial.: mid-C.19–20.

set up for, be

. To be well supplied with: coll: 1863, Mrs Henry Wood, 'I'm set up for cotton gownds.'
Ex S.E. set up, to establish or to equip in business, etc.

setta

; occ. setter. Seven; sevenpence: Parlary (–1859). Ex It. sette.

setter

*. See SETTA. 2. An enticer to liquor or gambling; a confederate of swindlers or sharpers: c.: late C.16–17. Greene, 1592; ob. Ex the dog. 3. Hence, a person used by criminals to watch intended victims: c.: from ca 1640; ob. Memoirs of John Hall. 4. Hence, ‘a Sergeant’s Yeoman, or Bailiff’s Follower, or Second, and an Excise-Officer to prevent the Brewers defrauding the King’, B.E.: c. of late C.17–early 19. Also setting-dog. 5. A police spy; an informer to the police: from ca 1630: S.E. until ca 1850, then c. and low s. 6. A runner-up of prices: late C.17–20 (ob.): mostly among auctioneers.

setter, clock-

. One who, to shorten a spell of duty, tampers with the clock: nautical coll: mid-C.19–20; slightly ob. cf. eat SAND. 2. Hence, a SEA-LAWYER (3): late C.19–20 (ob.): nautical.

setting-dog

*, see SETTER, 4. setting jewels, see SET JEWELS.

settle

. To stun, finish, knock down: C.17–20: S.E. until ca 1750, then coll. Dickens; Kipling. 2. To give (a person) a life-sentence: c.: mid-C.19–20. ca 1850–70, it also=to transport as a convict. cf. WINDED-SETTLED.

settle (a person’s) hash

, see HASH, SETTLE ONE’S.

settlement-in-tail

. An act of generation: legal: C.19–20; ob. (Pun.)

settler

. A parting drink: mid-C.18–20; ob. M.Bishop, 1744. Because it is supposed to ‘stabilize’ the stomach. 2. A crushing remark: coll: from ca 1815. 3. A knockdown blow: coll: 1819, Moore, ‘He tipp’d him a settler.’ 4. Hence, any ‘finisher’ whatsoever: from ca 1820: coll.

settler’s clock

; settler’s matches. A kookaburra; readily inflammable strips of bark: Australian coll: since ca 1870.

seven, be more than

. To be wide-awake; knowing: coll: from ca 1875; slightly ob. A music-hall song of ca 1876 was entitled You’re More Than Seven; Gissing, 1898. Occ. more than twelve.

seven, throw a

. To die: Australian: late C.19–20; ob. A die has no ‘7’.

seven bells out of a man, knock

. To knock him out; give him a thrashing; nautical: late C.19–20.

Seven Dials raker

. A harlot ‘who never smiles out of the Dials’; London costers’ (–1909); very ob.

seven(-)pennorth

*; sevenpence. Seven years’ penal transportation: c. of ca 1820–70.

seven-sided animal

. (U.S. variant, C.19, s.-s. son of a bitch.) ‘A one-eyed man or woman, each having a right side and a left side, a foreside and a backside, an outside, an inside, and a blind side,’ Grose, 2nd ed.: low jocular, also Somersetshire dial.: ca 1785–1890. cf. GORMAGON.

seven-times-seven man

. A ‘hypocritical religionist’: proletarian-satirical (–1909); ob. Perhaps seven-times-seven is meant to rhyme heaven; ?or because he outdoes Psalm cxix, 164.

seven ways for Sunday, looking

, see LOOKING SEVEN WAYS...

sevendible

. Very severe, strong, or sound: Northern Ireland: mid-C.19–20. ‘Derived from sevendouble—that is, seven-fold—and...applied to linen cloth, a heavy beating, a harsh reprimand, &c.’, H., 3rd ed. Coll rather than s., as in the adv. sevendibly: same period.

sevener

. A criminal sentenced to seven years: coll: from the 1890s.

sevenpence

*, see SEVEN(-)PENNORTH.

severe

. Excellent; very large or strong or hard to beat: orig. (1834) U.S. (esp. Kentucky), anglicized ca 1850. De Quincey in 1847 refers to it as ‘Jonathan’s phrase’.

severely

. Greatly, excessively: coll: mid-C.19–20. Whyte-Melville. Ex SEVERE.

sew up

. To impregnate (a woman): coll: C.19–20; ob. 2. See SEWED UP, 1–8.

sew up a person's stocking

. To silence, confute: coll: 1859, C.Reade; ob.

sewed(-)up

; occ. sewn up. Pregnant: coll (not upper nor middle class): C.19–20; slightly ob. 2. Exhausted: from ca 1825 (orig. of horses; not till 1837 of persons): as in Dickens's Pickwick; Smedley, 1850, 'I thought she'd have sewn me up at one time—the pace was terrific': slightly ob. 3. Cheated, swindled: 1838, Haliburton. 4. At a loss, nonplussed, brought to a standstill: 1855, Smedley; 1884, Clark Russell; slightly ob. 5. Severely punished; esp. with 'bunged-up' eyes: boxing: from ca 1860; ob. 6. (Ex senses 2, 7.) Sick: late C.19–20; slightly ob. 7. Drunk:—1818; 1829, Buckstone, 'This liquid...will sew him up'; ob. 8. Grounded: nautical coll: mid-C.19–20. Also sued up.

sewer, common

. An indiscriminate tippler: coll bordering on S.E.: C.19–20. 2. The throat: mid-C.19–20; ob. cf. RED LANE.

sewn up

. A variant of SEWED UP, esp. in senses 4, 6, 7.

'sflesh!, 'sfoot!, 'sgad

! Coll euphemisms for God's flesh!, foot!, and Egad!: C.18, C.17, C.18.

shab

. A low fellow: 1637, Bastwick; 1735, Dyche & Pardon, 'Shab, a mean, sorry, pitiful Fellow, one that is guilty of low Tricks, &c'; 1851, Borrow. Ex shab, a sore. cf. SCAB, n., 1.

shab

, v.i. To play low or mean tricks: mid-C.18–19; extant in dial. Johnson. Ex SHAB, n. 2. v.t., to rob; perhaps rather, to cheat or to deceive meanly: coll: ca 1780–1800. W.Hutton, 1787. 3. v.i., to run away: tramps' and Gypsies' c.: C.19–20. cf. much older S.E. shab off, to sneak away.

shab-rag

. Shabby, damaged, very worn: from ca 1760: s. till mid-C.19, then dial. T.Bridges. Ex SHAB, n. The n., C.19–20, is solely dial. cf.:

shab(a)roon

; also shabbaroon (C.18–19), shabberoon (C.17–18). A ragamuffin; a mean, shabby fellow; an otherwise disreputable or a mean-spirited person: late C.17–mid-19. B.E.; Ned Ward; Halliwell. EZ SHAB, n., on picaroon (cf. PICARO).

shabby, cut up

, see CUT UP NASTY.

shabroon

, see SHAB(A)ROON.

shack

. A misdirected or a returned letter: Post Office: late C.19—early 20. Perhaps ex shack, ‘grain fallen from the ear, and available for the feeding of pigs, poultry, etc.’ (O.E.D.), or ex dial. shack, a vagabond, a worthless fellow.

shack, go

. To share a parcel with one’s school-fellows: Felsted: since ca 1875; ob. cf. Christ’s Hospital shag, a share: ?quelquechose pour chaque personne (or...pour chacun).

shack-per-swaw

. Everyone for himself: London’s East End and gen. London sporting (—1864). A corruption of Fr. chacun pour soi.

shack-stoner

; occ. schack-s. A sixpence: low s., perhaps c.: ca 1890–1910. P.H. Emerson, Signor Lippo, 1893. ?ex six-stoner.

shade

. A very small portion or quantity added or taken away: coll: mid-C.19–20. Ex shade, ‘a tinge, a minute qualifying infusion’ (O.E.D.).

shade

*, v. To keep secret: c.: late C.19–20; ob. Ex shade, to hide.

shadow

. A new boy in the care of one who is not new (the ‘substance’) and learning the ropes from his temporary guardian: Westminster School: from ca 1860. Wm Lucas Collins, Public Schools, 1867. 2. A woman watching ‘dress-women’ prostitutes: c.: ca 1860–1910.

shadow never grow (occ. be) less!, may your

. May you prosper: a Persian phrase introduced to England by Morier in 1824 and, ca 1880, generalized as a coll. Referee, 2 Jan. 1887.

shady

. Uncertain, unreliable, inefficient; unlikely to succeed: 1848, Clough (of a tutor), ‘shady in Latin’: coll; though perhaps orig. university s. 2. Hence, disreputable; not quite honest, not at all honourable: coll: 1862, Saturday Review, 8 Feb., ‘Whose balance-sheets are “shady”’.

shady side of, on the

. Older than: 1807, W.Irving, ‘The younger being somewhat on the shady side of thirty’: coll.

shaft or a bolt of it, make a

. To determine that a thing shall be used in one way or another: late C.16–20: coll till ca 1660, then proverbial S.E.; in C.19–20, merely archaic. Nashe, 1594; Isaac D’Israeli, 1823.

shaft(e)sbury

; S. A gallon-potful of wine with cock: s. > coll: late C.17–early 19. Presumably ex the Dorsetshire town of Shaftesbury.

shag

. A copulation; also, copulation generically: C.19–20. Ex: 2. A performer (rarely of a woman) of the sexual act, esp. in ‘he is but bad shag’; he is no able woman’s man’, Grose, 2nd ed.: late C.18–mid-19. Ex the v., 1. 3. ‘Any coat other than an “Eton” or “tails” is a “shag”’, R.Airy, Westminster, 1902: Westminster School: late C.19–20. Ex shaggy.

shag

, v.t. To coït (with a woman): late C.18–20. Prob. ex †shag, to shake, toss about. cf. n., 1, 2. 2. Whence perhaps, v.i., to masturbate: Public Schools: certainly ca 1900 and prob. many years earlier.

shag, miserable as a . Very miserable indeed: Australian coll: late C.19–20. cf.:

shag, wet as a

. Very wet indeed: a mainly rural coll: from ca 1830. Marryat. Ex shag, a cormorant.

shag back

. To hang back; refuse a fence: hunting coll: from ca 1870.

shag-bag

. A poor, shabby fellow; a worthless fellow: coll: late C.17–20; slightly ob. Ex shake-bag on shag-rag, via cock-fighting.

shag-bag

, adj. Shabby; worthless; inferior: coll: 1888 (O.E.D.). Ex preceding.

shag off

. To go away: low: late C.19–20. Prompted by FUCK OFF.

shagged out

. Exhausted, utterly weary: Clifton College: late C.19–20. Of same origin as SHAG.

shags, go

. To go shares: Public Schools': late C.19–20. cf. go SHACK.

shah

. A tremendous SWELL: mostly Cockney: ca 1880–1910.

shake

. A harlot: low London (–1860); ob. Ex Northern dial. Whence (or ex the v., 1), 2, a copulation: from ca 1860; ob. 3. See SHAKES, NO GREAT. 4. Abbr. milk shake, egg-shake, etc: coll (–1903): ?orig. U.S. 5. Generic for instantaneous or very rapid action: from ca 1815: by C.20, coll. Esp. in a shake (late C.19–20), in the shake of a hand (1816), in a brace (1841) or a couple (1840) of shakes, in two shakes (from ca 1880), in the shake of a lamb's tail (–1903) or jocularly, from ca 1905 of a dead lamb's tail. 6. Hence, a moment: (?late C.19–) C.20. E.Nesbit, 1904, 'Wait a shake, and I'll undo the side gate.' 7. Hence also, a great shake, a very fast pace (–1903). 8. See SHAKES, THE.

shake

, v.t. To coït (with a woman): coll: ?C.16–20; ob. In late C.19–20, rare except in shake a tart. Halliwell, ‘This seems to be the ancient form of shag, given by Grose’ (see SHAG, v., 1). 2. ?hence, v. reflexive, to masturbate: C.19–20. cf. SHAG, v., 2. 3. v.t., to rob (a person): low s., or perhaps c.: C.19–20. Lex. Bal.; in C.20, mainly Australian. cf. the C.15–16 S.E. shake (a person) out of (goods, etc.). 4. (?hence) to steal: from ca 1810: c. >, ca 1880, low s. Vaux; H.Kingsley, 1859, ‘I shook a nag, and got bowled out and lagged.’ See also SHOOK. 5. See SHOOK ON. 6. See SHAKE THE ELBOW. 7. See:

shake

! Shake hands!: from ca 1890; mainly U.S. Often shake on it! (Other forms are very rare, except for, e.g., ‘Well satisfied, they shook on it.’)

shake a cloth in the wind

. To be hanged: late C.18–mid-19. 2. Gen. as ppl adj., shaking... To be slightly intoxicated: nautical: W.N.Glascock, The Naval Sketch-Book (II, 33), 1826.

shake a fall

. To wrestle: C.19–20; ob.

shake a flannin

. To fight: nawies’: ca 1870–1914. A flannin is a flannel shirt or jacket.

shake a leg

. (Gen. in imperative.) To hurry: coll (mainly military and nautical): late C.19–20. Anstey, 1892, ‘Ain’t you shot enough? Shake a leg, can’t yer, Jim?’ Ex S.E. shake a foot, leg, etc., to dance.

shake a loose leg

. To go on the LOOSE: coll: mid-C.19–20.

shake a toe

. To dance: ca 1820–80. Sinks, 1848.

shake and shiver

. A river: theatrical rhyming s.: late C.19–20.

shake-bag

. The female pudend: low: mid-C.19–20.

shake-buckler

. A swashbuckler or bully: coll nickname: mid-C.16–mid-17. Becon.

shake (a person's) fleas

. To thrash: low: C.19.

shake-glim

*. A begging letter, or petition, on account of fire: ca 1850–90.

shake hands with an old friend

. To urinate: euphemistic: since ca 1880.

shake-lurk

*. The same as SHAKE-GLIM, only for shipwreck: c. of ca 1850–1900. Mayhew, 1851. See LURK, a DODGE or LAY (2); and cf. LURKER.

shake one's shambles

, see SHAMBLES...

shake one's toe-rag

*. To decamp: vagabonds' and beggars' c. (–1909). cf. TOERAGGER.

shake-out

. A ‘sudden revulsion and following clearance—due to panic’: Stock Exchange coll: from ca 1880.

shake the bullet

. See BULLET. 2. To threaten to discharge a person: tailors’: from ca 1870; slightly ob.

shake the (OCC. one’s) elbow

. To dice: C.17–20 (ob.): coll >, ca 1800, S.E.

shake the ghost into

. To frighten (a person) greatly: mid-C.19–20; ob.

shake the gum out of a sail

. To test new canvas for the first time in bad weather: nautical coll: late C.19–20.

shake up

, v.i. To masturbate: C.19–20; ob. cf. SHAG, v., 2. 2. v.t., to hurry: nautical coll: late C.19–20. Ex S.E. shake up, to rouse with, or as with, a shake.

shake-up

. An unnerving experience: coll: late C.19–20.

shake your ears!(, go)

. c.p. advice to one who has lost his ears: ca 1570–1790. G. Harvey, 1573; Shakespeare; Mrs F. Sheridan, 1764.

shaker

. A hand: low coll: mid-C.19–20; ob. 2. A shirt: from the 1830s: c. >, ca 1870, low s. 3. An omnibus: busmen's from ca 1870; rather ob. cf. BONE-SHAKER. 4. A beggar who pretends to have fits: c. (–1861). Mayhew.

shakes, in a brace or couple of

, see SHAKE, n., 5.

shakes, no (occ. not any) great

. Nothing remarkable or very important or unusually able or clever: from ca 1815: coll till C.20, then familiar S.E. Moore, 1819, 'Though no great shakes at learned chat'. Ex dicing.

shakes, the

. Any illness or chronic disease marked by trembling limbs and muscles: coll: from the 1830s. 2. Hence, delirium tremens: coll: from ca 1880. Cornhill Magazine, June 1884, 'Until she is pulled up by an attack of delirium tremens, or, as she and her neighbours style it, a fit of the shakes'. 3. Hence, extreme nervousness: coll: from ca 1880.

shakes?, what

*. What's the chance of stealing anything?: c. (–1859).

Shakespeare-navels

. A 'long-pointed, turned-down collar': London youths': ca 1870–80. Ware. Precisely why?

shakester

, see SHICKSTER.

shakings

. Litter, e.g. fragments of paper or thread: Naval: ca 1800–50. W.N.Glascock, Sailors and Saints (I, 143), 1829.

shaler

, see SHEILA.

shall us? Let's

. A c.p., esp. among juveniles: ca 1895–1914. Perhaps it originates in the Cockneys' shall us? for shall we?

shaller dodge

, see SHALLOW DODGE.

shallow

*. A hat: c. of ca 1810–40. 2. See SHALLOW BRIGADE, COVE, DODGE, MORT, SCREEVER. Perhaps ex dial. shalleygonahay, shallegonaked (i.e. shall I go naked?), used chiefly of insufficient clothing.

shallow, do the

*; go shallow. To practise the SHALLOW DODGE: c. (–1887). The earliest shape of the phrase is go on the shallows. cf. SHALLOW, RUN.

shallow, lily-

. A white whip-hat, i.e, a low-crowned one: fashionable s.: ca 1810–40.

shallow, live

*. To live in discreet retirement when wanted by the police: c.: from ca 1870; slightly ob. Contrast SHALLOW, DO THE.

shallow, run

*. To practise the SHALLOW DODGE: c. (–1893). Ripon Chronicle, 23 Aug. 1893, ‘By running shallow I mean that he never wears either boots, coat, or hat, even in the depths of the most dismal winter.’ A synonym of do the SHALLOW.

shallow brigade

. Perhaps merely a more or less literary synonym for school of SHALLOW COVES. Mayhew, 1851. See:

shallow cove

*; s. fellow. C.19–20 tramps’ c. (first recorded in 1839 and now ob.), as in Brandon and in Mayhew, 1851, ‘He scraped acquaintance with a “school of shallow coves”; that is, men who go about half-naked, telling frightful tales about shipwrecks, hair-breadth escapes from houses on fire, and such like...calamities.’ Also a SHIVERING JEMMY. cf.:

shallow dodge

*. The capitalizing of rags and semi-nudity: c.: 1869, Greenwood, 'A pouncing of the exposed parts with common powder blue is found to heighten the frost-bitten effect.'

shallow fellow

, see SHALLOW COVE.

shallow mort or mot(t)

*. A female practiser of the SHALLOW DODGE: 1842, Edinburgh Review, July. cf. SHALLOW COVE.

shallow screever, scriver

*, etc. A man who, very meagrely dressed, sketches and draws on the pavement: c. (–1859). See SHALLOW DODGE and SCREEVER, n.

shallows, go on the

*, see SHALLOW, DO THE. shally-shally, see SHILLY-SHALLY.

sham

. A trick or hoax, an imposture, a fraud: 1677: orig. s., it had by 1700 > S.E. The same with the corresponding v., also in Wycherley in 1677. Prob. ex shame, n. and v.: cf. cut a sham, ‘to play a Rogue’s Trick’, B.E., late C.17–18, and upon the sham, fraudulently (late C.17 only), and put a sham upon, to SELL, to swindle; ca 1680–1830—all three, by the way, s. only for a year or two before being made S.E. 2. Hence, a false testimonial, certificate, or subscription list: c.: from ca 1840; ob. ‘No. 747’. 3. As false sleeve or shirtfront, prob. always S.E. 4. Champagne: 1849, Thackeray. cf. the early C.20 album c.p.: ‘A bottle of champagne for my real friends; of real pain for my sham friends.’ Occ. (–1874) shammy, as in H., 5th ed.: very ob.

sham

, v. To ply with, or treat oneself to, champagne: rare: from ca 1820. Byron. cf. CHAM, n.

sham Abra(ha)m

, see ABRA(HA)MSHAM.

sham-legger

. A man who offers to sell very cheaply goods that are very inferior: low s. (mostly London) of ca 1870–1910.

sham the doctor

. To malingering: military: from the 1890s.

shambles, shake one's

. (Gen. in imperative.) To be off: late C.17–mid-18: either low s. or perhaps, orig. at least, c.

shambly

. Shambling, lurching: nautical coll: late C.19–20. W.E.Llewellyn has described sailors thus: 'Their hands were in a grab half-hook [i.e. as though grasping a grapnel], always, and their shoulders shambly.'

shame

. Anything very ugly, painfully indecent, disgracefully inferior: coll: 1764, Gray, 'His nose is a shame'; 1815, Scott, 'Three [hens] that were a shame to be seen'.

shame to take the money, (it's) a

. That's money very easily come by: c.p.: late C.19–20.

shammy

, see SHAM, n., 4.

shamrock

. A prick with a bayonet: military: ca 1850–1905.

shamrock, drown the

. To drink or go drinking on St Patrick's Day, properly and nominally in honour of the shamrock: 1888, Daily Telegraph, 22 March, but prob. in spoken use many, many years earlier: coll.

shan(d)

*. Base or counterfeit coin: c. (–1812); very ob. Ex dial. shan, paltry. cf. SHEEN.

shanghai

. To stupefy and then put on a vessel requiring hands: nautical s. (orig. U.S.): 1871 (U.S.) and 1887 (England). Ex Shanghai as seaport, or perhaps as propelled from a shanghai or catapult.

Shanghai gentleman

. One definitely not a gentleman: naval (–1909).

Shanks'(s) mare, nag, naggy, pony

. One's legs as conveyance: coll (in C.20, S.E.): resp. 1795 (S.Bishop); nag, 1774 (Ferguson), and naggy, 1744 (an anon. Scottish song), the former being mostly, the latter wholly Scots; pony, 1891, Globe, 5 June. Jocular on shanks, the legs, and gen. as ride S. m. (or n., or p.).

Shannon, to have been dipped in the

. To be anything but bashful, the immersion being regarded as a cure completely effectual and enduring against that affliction: coll: ca 1780–1880. cf. BLARNEY.

shanny

. Idiotic, silly, mad: Cockney (–1887). Ex Kentish dial.

shant

*. A quart or a pot; a pot of liquor (esp. shant of GATTER, a pot of beer): mid-C.19–20: c. and low s. Mayhew, 1851; P. H.Emerson, 1893. ?etymology: cf. SHANTY; SHANTY-LIQUOR.

shan't

! A somewhat uncouth and gen. angry or sullen form of:

shan't!, I

. I shall not (do so): a coll peremptory refusal: C.18–20.

shan't be long!, now we

. It's all right!: a c.p. of ca 1895–1915. Daily Telegraph, 8 Sept. 1896; Maugham, Liza of Lambeth, 1897, “‘Now we shan't be long!’ she remarked.’ Ware derives it from ‘railway travellers’ phrase when near the end of a journey’.

shan't play!, I

. I'm annoyed!; I don't like it: Australian c.p.: from ca 1885; ob. Ex children's peevishness in games.

shanty

. A public-house; a SLY-grog shop; showmen's s. (prob. from ca 1850) >, by 1860, Australian coll; in New Zealand –1862. H.Lawson, 1902, ‘They got up a darnse at Peter Anderson's shanty acrost the ridges.’ Prob. ex Fr. chantier; nevertheless, derivation direct ex SHANT is not impossible: cf. senses 3 and 4. 2. Hence, a brothel: nautical: from ca 1890. 3. A quart of liquor, esp. of beer or ale: 1893, P.H.Emerson. Prob. ex SHANT. 4. Beer-money: 1893, P.H.Emerson, ‘Any shanty in your sky-rocket’. Prob. sense 3 is slightly earlier than, and the imm. source of, sense 4.

shanty

, v. To drink often, habitually, at a SHANTY (sense 1): 1888: Australian coll. ‘Rolf Boldrewood’, 1888, ‘The Dalys and us shantying and gaffing’.

shanty-bar

. The bar in a SHANTY: late C.19–20: Australian coll. H.Lawson, 1902, ‘Throwing away our money over shanty bars’.

shanty-keeper

. One who keeps a SHANTY (1): from 1875: Australian coll. cf. preceding and ensuing entry.

shanty(-)liquor

. SLY-grog-shop drink: Australian coll: 1886, H.C.Kendall, ‘He’ll...swig at shanty liquors.’ Ex SHANTY, n., 1.

shap

, see SHAPO.

shape, spoil a woman’s

. To get her with child: coll: late C.17–20; ob. Facetious Tom Brown, ‘The...king who had spoil’d the shape...of several mistresses’. By an indelicate pun.

shape, travel on one’s

. To live by one's appearance, to swindle: coll: C.19.

shape for you!, there's a

. A c.p. in respect of an extremely thin person or animal: mid-C.19–20; very ob. cf.:

shapes

. An ill-made man, often in vocative: late C.17–mid-19. 2. Hence, a very tightly laced girl: ca 1730–1910. 3. 'An ill-made irregular Lump of Flesh, &c', Dyche & Pardon: ca 1730–1830.

shapes, cut up or show

. To frolic; exhibit flightiness: mid-C.19–20; ob. cf.:

shapes, show one's

. To 'turn about, march off', B.E.: late C.17–mid-19. 2. 'To be stript, or made peel at the whipping post', Grose, 1st ed.: mid-C.18–early 19. 3. To come into view: coll: 1828, Scott; ob.

shapes and shirts

. Young actors' term, ca 1883–1900, for 'old actors, who swear by the legitimate Elizabethan drama, which involves either the "shape" or the "shirt"—the first being the cut-in tunic; the... shirt being independent of shape'. Ware.

shapo

, rare; gen. shappeau or shappo; rarely shop(p)o; less rarely shap. A hat: late C.17–early 19: c. B.E., ‘Shappeau, c. or Shappo, c. for Chappeau’—properly Fr. chapeau—‘a Hat, the newest Cant, Nab being very old, and grown too common’.

shark

. A pickpocket: c. of C.18. J. Stevens, 1707. 2. (?hence) a customs officer: ca 1780–1880. 3. See SHARKS. 4. (Also black shark.) A lawyer: nautical coll: (–1806). 5. A recruit: military: ca 1890–1910. ?on ROOKEY, a rook being a shark. 6. A sardine: jocular nautical: late C.19–20. cf. WHALE.

shark out

. To make off; decamp slyly: dial. (–1828) >, by 1880, low coll.

sharks, the

. The press-gang: 1828, D. Jerrold; †by 1900.

shark’s mouth

. An awning shaped to fit round a mast: nautical coll verging on j.: late C.19–20.

sharp

. A swindler; a cheat: coll: 1797, Mrs M.Robinson; Maskelyne's title for a most informative book, Sharps and Flats. 2. Hence, an expert, connoisseur, actual or would-be wise man: coll: 1865, Pall Mall Gazette, 11 Sept., "'Sharps" who advertise their "tips" in the sporting journals'. Ex sharp, alert. 3. (Gen. in pl.) A needle: c.: late C.19–20. Ex S.E. sharps, one of three grades of needles, including the longest and most sharply pointed.

sharp and blunt

. The female pudend: late C.19–20 rhyming s. on CUNT.

sharp as the corner of a round table

. Stupid: coll (lower classes'): from ca 1870; ob. Prob. by opposition to S.E. sharp as a needle or razor or †thorn.

Sharp come in yet?, has Mr.

A traders' c.p. addressed by one (e.g.) shopman to another to signify that a customer of suspected honesty is about: from ca 1860. cf. TWO-UPON-TEN.

sharper's tools

. Fools: rhyming s.: late C.19–20.

sharping omee

*. A policeman: c. and Parlary: ca 1850–90. See OMEE.

Sharp's Alley bloodworms

. Beef sausages; black puddings: ca 1850–1900. Ex a wellknown abattoir near Smithfield.

sharp's the word and quick's the motion

. A c.p. implying that a person is 'very attentive to his own interest', Grose, 2nd ed.: late C.18–20; slightly ob. Ex sharp's the word, an enjoining of promptitude.

sharpy

. A derisive coll nickname for a person self-consciously alert: late C.19–20.

'shart

, see 'SHEART.

shat

. A tattler: ca 1709–20. Steele in the Tatler, No. 71, 1709.

shave

. A narrow escape: 1834, R.H. Froude: coll >, ca 1860, S.E. Ex S.E. sense, ‘a slight or grazing touch’. 2. Hence, passing an examination by a ‘shave’: university (orig. Oxford): 1840, Theodore Hook; slightly ob. 3. A definitely false, or at the least, an unauthenticated report: military: 1813, Capt. R.M. Cairnes, so that Sala was wrong when, in 1884, he implied that the term arose (in-stead of saying that it > gen. popular) during the Crimean War, though he may have been right when he said that as=a hoax, it arose then; the latter nuance, unless applied to a deliberately false rumour, was †by 1914. ‘From a barber’s shop, the home of gossip’ (B. & P.). 4. ‘The proportion of the receipts paid to a travelling company by a local manager’, F. & H., 1903: theatrical. Ex shaved-off. 5. ‘A money consideration paid for the right to vary a contract, by extension of time for delivery or payment, &c.’, F. & H.: orig. U.S.; anglicized ca 1900. 6. A drink: proletarian: ca 1884–1914. Perhaps ex the excuse of going for a shave. 7. A customer for a shave: barbers’ coll: 1895, W.Pett Ridge.

shave

. To deprive a person of all his money or goods; to charge him extortionately: late C.14–20: S.E. until C.19, then coll verging on s. cf. SHAVING THE LADIES. 2. Hence, to steal (v.t.): late C.16–mid-18. D’Urfey, ‘The Maidens had shav’d his Breeches.’

shave through

, v.i. Abbr. just shave through: from ca 1860: university coll >, ca 1890, S.E. A variant is make a shave: see SHAVE, n., 2.

shaver

. A fellow, chap; also a joker, a wag: late C.16–20: coll. From ca 1830 (though young shaver occurs as early as 1630) only of a youth, and gen. preceded by young or little, very often depreciatively—except that, at sea, old shaver=a man throughout C.19. Marlowe, 1592, ‘Sirrah, are you not an old shaver?...Alas, sir! I am a very youth’; 1748, Smollett, ‘He drew a pistol, and fired it at the unfortunate shaver’; Dickens; P.H.Emerson. Ex shaver, one who shaves (for barbers have always been ‘cute, knowledgeable fellows’); or perhaps ex shaver, an extortioner (esp. cunntng shaver). 2. Very rarely applied to a woman: prob. only in C.17, e.g. Cotton, 1664, ‘My Mother’s a mad shaver,|No man alive

knows where to have her.’ (This instance may, however, be merely an extension of the C.17 coll mad shaver, a roysterer.) cf. the C.20 sporting women’s use of CHAP in address or application to women. 3. A short jacket: late C.19–early 20: lower classes. Because it gen. fits close; cf. BUM-FREEZER, -PERISHER.

shaving

. A defrauding, whether process or completed act: C.17–20. Dekker. Hence shaving terms, the making all the money one can: C.19–20.

shaving-brush

. The female pubic hair: from after 1838; ob.

shaving-mill

. An open boat, sixteenoared, of a type used as privateers in the war of 1812: Canadian.

shaving the ladies

. A drapers’ phrase for overcharging women: 1863, Ouida, ‘We have all heard of an operation called shaving the ladies’; ob. Ex SHAVE, n., 1.

shavings

. Illicit clippings of money: late C.17–20: c. >, ca 1750, s. >, ca 1800, coll >, ca 1860, S.E.

shawk

. An Indian kite: Anglo-Indian: from ca 1870. A blend of shit-hawk: in allusion to the scavenging characteristics of this bird.

shawly

. An Irish fisherwoman, esp. of Dublin: Anglo-Irish: late C.19–20. Ex the great shawl they wore.

she

. A woman: mid-C.16–20: S.E. until mid-C.19, then coll; in C.20, low coll when not jocular. 2. (Also shee.) A plum pudding: Charterhouse: late C.19–20. A.H. Tod, Charterhouse, 1900. cf. HE.

she couldn't cook hot water for a barber

. A c.p. (from ca 1880) directed at a poor house-keeper, esp. a girl unlikely to be able to 'feed the brute'.

she didn't seem to mind it very much

. A proletarian ironic c.p. intimating jealousy: ca 1885–1900.

she-dragon

. A termagant or a forbidding woman, esp. if elderly: from the 1830s: coll bordering on, in C.20 >, S.E. 2. A kind of wig, says F. & H.: ?early C.19: prob. coll.

she-flunkey

. A lady's maid: coll (lower classes'): from ca 1875.

she has (or she's) been a good wife to him

. An ironic proletarian c.p. 'cast at a drunken woman rolling in the streets' (Ware): from ca 1905.

she-house

. A house under petticoat rule: late C.18–mid-19.

'She' is a cat's mother

. A c.p. addressed to (esp.) a child constantly referring thus to his mother: mid-C.19–20; slightly ob.

she-lion

. A shilling: from ca 1780; very ob. By a pun.

she-male

, n. and adj. Female: orig.—ca 1880—London lower classes'. Pairing with HE-MALE.

she-napper

*. A female thief-catcher; a bawd, a pimp: late C.17–mid-19: c. > ca 1750 low s.

she-oak

. Native ale: Australian (1888), hence New Zealand; ob. cf. SHEARER'S JOY. Ex the Australian tree so named: quite! but why? Whence:

she-oak net

. A net spread under the gangway to catch seamen drunk on SHE-OAK: nautical: late C.19–20; ob.

she-school

. A girls' school: C.19–20 (ob.): coll. cf. SHE-HOUSE.

she will go off in an aromatic faint

. A Society c.p. of 1883-ca 86, 'said of a fantastical woman, meaning that her delicate nerves will surely be the death of her' (Ware).

shearer's joy

. Colonial beer: Australian coll: 1892, Gilbert Parker. cf. SHE-OAK.

shears, there's a pair of

. They're very like: coll: C.17–18. Ex the more gen. there goes or went but a pair of shears between (e.g.) them.

'sheart

; occ. s'heart, shart, s'harte, incorrectly (C.18) 'sdheart. A coll euphemism for God's heart!: iate C.16–18. Occ. s'hart.

sheath!, by my

. A trivial oath: coll: ca 1530–50. Heywood, More.

sheave-o, sheaveo, sheavo or sheeyo

. A drunken bout; a free-fight: nautical. A late C.19–20 derivative of: 2. An entertainment: naval: C.19–20. Indeed, F. & Gibbons records it for 1798 thus: ‘Sir John Orde gave a grand chevaux’ (letter of Lieut. Charles Cathcart, 6 May).

shebang

. As a hut, room, dwelling, shop, it has remained U.S.; but derivatively as a vehicle (Mark Twain, 1872) it was anglicized in the late 1890s. Prob. ex Fr. cabane.

sheckles

, see SHEKELS.

sheckles

! A s. Cockney expletive of late C.19–20; ob. Pugh (2). Perhaps cf. SHUCKS!

shed

. To give; give away (something of little value); drop, let go: coll: 1855, Dickens, ‘Would shed a little money [for] a mission or so to Africa’.

shed a tear

. To make water: mid-C.19–20. 2. (?hence by antiphrasis) to take a dram, hence—from ca 1860—any drink: 1876, Hindley, ‘I always made time to call in and shed a tear with him.’ Less gen. and very ob.

shee

, see SHE, 2. sheela(h), see SHEILA.

sheen

*. Counterfeit coin: c. (–1839). Occ., from ca 1880, as adj. Ex SHAN(D), very prob. (cf. Brandon’s and H.’s designation as Scottish); but perhaps influenced by:

sheeny (gen. S.); occ. sheeney, -nie, or shen(e)y

. A Jew: from ca 1810: somewhat offensive. Thackeray, 1847, ‘Sheeney and Moses are...smoking their pipes before their lazy shutters in Seven Dials.’ From ca 1890, occ. as adj., as in the Licensed Victuallers’ Gazette, 23 Jan. 1891, “‘Don’t like that Sheeney friend of yours,” he said.’ 2. Hence, a pawnbroker: mid-C.19–20, W. risks the guess that sheeny may derive ex Yiddish pronunciation of Ger. schön, beautiful, used in praising wares; very tentatively, I suggest that the term arose from the sheeny, i.e. glossy or brightly shiny, hair of some English Jews: cf. SNIDE AND SHINE.

sheeny or S.

; etc. adj. See the n., 1. 2. Fraudulent (person); base (money): late C.19–20. A rare sense, due prob. to SHEEN.

sheep

. A second-classman: Aberdeen University: 1865, G.Macdonald.

sheep-biter

. A butcher: s.: Ned Ward, 1703.

sheep by moonlight, keep

. To hang in chains: late C.18–mid-19. A.E.Housman's note to The Shropshire Lad (1898), ix.

sheep-guts, old

. A term of contempt: coll: C.19–20; ob.

sheep-shearer

*. A cheat or swindler: c.: late C.17–mid-18.

sheep-walk

*. A prison: c. of ca 1780–1840. Messink, 1781.

sheep-wash

. To duck: Winchester: from ca 1890. Ex sheep-dipping.

sheep's head, all jaw,—like a

. A c.p. of a very talkative person: late C.18–20; ob. See JAW, n.

sheep's tail

. Sheep's-tail fat: South African coll (–1888).

sheepskin-fiddle

. A drum: ca 1810–60. Whence sheepskin-fiddler, a drummer (Lex. Bal.).

sheet, on the

. Up for trial; 'crimed': military coll: from ca 1905.

sheet-alley or -lane

. Bed: mid-C.19–20; ob. cf. BEDFORDSHIRE and BLANKET FAIR, and Baumann's (go) down sheet lane into Bedfordshire, to go to bed.

sheet in the wind or (less gen.) wind's eye, a . Half drunk: 1840, Dana, in adumbration; 1862, Trollope, 'A thought tipsy—a sheet or so in the wind, as folks say'; R.L.Stevenson, 1883 (wind's eye). s. >, ca 1890, coll. Ex three SHEETS IN THE WIND.

sheet of tripe

. A plate of tripe: low urban (–1909).

sheets, between the

. In bed: from ca 1860: coll.

sheets in the wind, three . Drunk: 1821, Egan; 1840, Dana: mainly sporting s. > ca 1860, coll.

sheevo

, see SHEAVE-O.

Sheffield handicap

. A sprint race with no defined scratch, the virtual scratch man receiving a big start from an imaginary ‘flyer’: Northern coll and dial.: late C.19–20; ob.

sheila or -er

; occ. shiela(h) or sheela(h). A girl: Australian, hence New Zealand: late C.19–20. A perversion of English dial. and low s. shaler.

shekels

; occ. sheckles. Coin; money in gen.: coll: 1883, F.Marion Crawford, but prob. used at least a decade earlier—cf. Byron’s anticipation of 1823. Ex shekel, the most important Hebrew silver coin.

shelf, on the

. In pawn: C.19–20. 2. Under arrest: military: from ca 1870; ob. 3. Transported: ca 1850–70: c. 4. Dead: from ca 1870.

shell

. An undress, tight-fitting jacket: military: from ca 1880. St James’s Gazette, 22 Dec. 1886, ‘Tunics and shells and messing-jackets and caps.’ Abbr. S.E. shell-jacket (1840, O.E.D.). 2. The female pudend: C.19–20: coll verging on euphemistic S.E. 3. See SHELLS.

shell, in one's

Sulky; not inclined to talk: coll: mid-C.19–20.

shell, old

, see OLD SHELL.

shell-back

. A sailor of full age, esp. if tough and knowledgeable: nautical coll (–1883). Perhaps for the reason given by W.Clark Russell in Jack's Courtship (1883), 'It takes a sailor a long time to straighten his spine and get quit of the bold sheer that earns him the name of shell-back.'

shell out

. To disburse; pay (out): coll: C.19–20. Maria Edgeworth, Tom Moore, Headon Hill. Scott, in 1816, has shell down, but this form is very rare. Ex shell, remove a seed from its shell (etc.). 2. As v.i., to hand over what is due or expected, pay up: coll from ca 1820. 3. To club money together, gen. as vbl n.: ca 1820–50. 4. v.t., ex sense 1, to declare: a rare coll of ca 1860–1910. Mrs Henry Wood.

shelling peas, as easy as

. Very easy: coll: C.19–20.

shells

*; occ. shels. Money: coll of ca 1590–1620. Greene. (cf. the use made of cowries.)

shels

, see SHELLS.

s’help

. See S’ELP. (1904, O.E.D.); cf. S’WELP.

shelve

, gen. v.t. To hold over part of (the weekly bill): printers’ coll: from ca 1870. Contrast HORSE, n., 3.

shemozzle

; occ. shimozzel, s(c)hlemozzle, even chimozzle. A difficulty or misfortune; a ROW: from late 1880s: East End, orig. (esp. among bookmakers) and mainly. Referee, 1 Dec. 1889, schlemozzle; Binstead, 1899, shlemozzle; Anon., From the Front, 1900, chimozzle; J.Maclaren, 1901, ‘If Will comes out of this shemozzle’. A corruption of Ger. schlimm and Hebrew mazel; lit. and orig., ‘bad luck’.

shemozzle

(etc.), v. To make off, decamp: orig. (ca 1901) and mostly East End.

shenan(n)igan or -in

; occ. shenan(n)iken, shi- (with either ending), and, nautical, shenanecking (Bowen). Nonsense, chaff; (the predominant C.20 sense:) trickery, ‘funny’ games: orig. (ca 1870), U.S.; anglicized ca 1890. R.Barr, 1902, ‘If I were to pay them they might think there was some shenanigan about it.’ Perhaps fantastic on the Cornish shenachrum, a drink of boiled beer, rum, sugar, and lemon; but much more prob. the base is nenan(n)igan (etc.) and the origin the East Anglian and Gloucestershire nanna(c)k, nan(n)ick, to play the fool, with imm. origin in the vbl n. nannicking (etc.). It has, however, been suggested by Mr A.Jameson (of Sennan) that the term derives from the Erse sionnach (pronounced shinnuch): cf. Anglo-Irish foxing, hiding or malingering. 2. Hence, as v.i. and t.: late C.19–20.

shenan(n)i(c)ker

. A shirker: from the middle 1890s. Ex preceding, 2.

shen(e)y

, see SHEENY.

shepherd

, n. ‘Every sixth boy in the cricket-bill who answers for the five below him being present’, F. & H.: Harrow: late C.19–20.

shepherd

, v.t. To shadow; watch over (e.g. a rich relative, an heiress, a football or hockey opponent): 1874, H., 5th ed., ‘To look after carefully, to place under police surveillance’: s. Perhaps ex the tending of sheep. 2. To follow (a person) in order to cheat or swindle him, or else to get something from him: from ca 1890: Australian s. 3. To force (the enemy) into a difficult position: military s. (Boer War). Daily Telegraph, 2 April 1900, ‘Cronje was shepherded with his army into the bed of the Modder by a turning movement.’

shepherd’s friend

. The dingo: Australian ironic coll: late C.19–20.

shepherd’s plaid

. Bad: from ca 1870. Contrast ROBIN HOOD, adj.

sherbet

. (A glass of) any warm alcoholic liquor, e.g. a grog: s. (–1890) ex catachresis. (Not among the upper classes.) cf.:

sherbet(t)y

. Drunk: 1890, Licensed Victuallers’ Gazette, 8 Feb., ‘By the time one got to bed Tom was a bit sherbetty’; ob. Ex SHERBET.

sheriff's ball

. An execution: ca 1780–1850.

sheriff's ball and loll out one's tongue at the company, dance at the

. To hang (v.i.): ca 1780–1850. cf. go to rest in a horse's nightcap ibid. (see HORSE-NIGHTCAP), and a variant of the entry-phrase: DANCE on nothing at the sheriff's ball (Grose in his Olio).

sheriff's basket or tub

. A receptacle set outside a prison for the receipt of charity for the prisoners: resp. late C.16–mid-17 (Nashe) and ca 1630–60 (Massinger).

sheriff's bracelets

. Handcuffs: ca 1780–1850.

sheriff's hotel

. A prison: ca 1780–1850.

sheriff's journeyman

. A hangman: early C.19.

sheriff's picture-frame

. The hangman's noose: ca 1780–1850.

sheriff's posts

. 'Two painted posts, set up at the sheriff's door, to which proclamations were affixed', O.E.D.: late C.16– mid-17. Jonson.

sheriff's tub

, see SHERIFF'S BASKET. sherk, see SHIRK.

Sherlock Holmes

! A c.p. directed at detection of the obvious: from ca 1898; very ob. Obviously with reference to Conan Doyle's famous detective. Often abbr. to Sherlock!

sherry

; shirry. A scurry; a rapid or furtive departure: from ca 1820; even in dial., very ob. Haggart, 1821, ‘The shirry became general—I was run to my full speed.’ Ex the v. 2. A sheriff: low (–1859); ob. 3. Cheap ale: taverns’: late C.19–early 20.

sherry

, v. (Also sherry off.) To run away (esp. hastily): 1788, Grose, 2nd ed. In C.19–20, often shirry (as in Haggart, 1821) and, from ca 1850, † except in dial. The O.E.D., prob. rightly, suggests ex (to) sheer (off); less likely a perversion of Fr. charrier, to carry off; less likely still, though not impossibly, ex an offensive-nationality idea, sherry the wine being from Xeres (now Jerez) in Spain.

sherry, go to

. To die: circus-workers’ (–1887). Ex SHERRY, n. and v.

sherry-cobbler

. A cobbler made with sherry: coll: 1809; ob. Ouida.

sherry-fug

. To tipple sherry: university: ca 1870–1915.

sherry off

, see SHERRY, v.

shevoo

. ‘A “Chiveau”, or merry dinner’, ‘Jon Bee’, A Living Picture of London, 1828. The word occurs as shiveau in A.Harris, The Emigrant Family, 1847: an Australian usage. cf. SHEAVE-O, 2.

shevvle

. ca 1860–90, as in the Daily News, 2 Dec. 1864, ‘This is a term recently introduced as a genteel designation for cat’s meat, and evidently derived from cheval, French for horse, as mutton from mouton, &c.’

shew a leg

*. To run away: c. (–1823); †by 1900. 2. (Gen. in imperative.) To rise from bed: mid-C.19–20: nautical >, ca 1910, military. Lit., show a leg from under the bed-clothes. John Masfield, The Conway, 1933, notes that the full call on that training ship has, from before 1891, been: ‘Heave out, heave out, heave out, heave out! Away!|Come all you sleepers, Hey!|Show a leg and put a stocking on it.’

shew-leg day

. A windy day: London coll (–1887); ob. 2. A very muddy day: London coll: from ca 1880. Often pron. shulleg-day.

shice

; occ. chice, schice, shise. Any worthless person or thing: c. of ca 1860–1910. Rare. Prob. ex: 2. Nothing, as work for shice: c. or low s. (–1859). 3. Counterfeit money: c.: 1877, Anon., Five Years' Penal Servitude, 'I ascertained while at Dartmoor that a very large "business" is done in shise.' Either ex SHICER, 1, or direct ex Ger. Scheisse, excrement, or ex the v., sense 1. 4. 'An unprofitable undertaking. A wash-out. "To catch a shice"= to have an unremunerative deal': grafters': late C.19–20.

shice

, v. To deceive, defraud, leave in the lurch, betray; v.i., to WELSH: c.: from ca 1860. Ex n., 2. 2. To befoul: low (–1887).

shice (chice, schice, shise)

, adj. No good: c. or low s. (–1859). H., 1st ed. at chice, 'The term was first used by the Jews in the last century.' ?ex Ger. Scheisse. (See also SHISH.) 2. Whence (or directly ex the n., 3), spurious, counterfeit: c.: 1877, 'Two shice notes' (source as in n., 3). N.B.: Senses 1 and 2 have variants shicery, shickery. 3. Drunk: low: late C.19–early 20. Presumably ex sense 1 influenced by SHICKER, adj.

shice, catch a

, see SHICE, n., 4.

shicer

; occ. schicer, shiser, and, in sense 2, rarely skycer. An unproductive claim or (gen. gold-) mine: Australia: 1855, (Melbourne) Argus, 19 Jan.: s. >, ca 1880, coll >, ca 1910,

S.E. (The occ. spellings are, in this sense, merely illiterate and, in any case, very rare.) Either ex SHICE, adj., 1, or n., 2, or—as W. suggests—direct ex Ger. Scheisser, a voider of excrement; or, just possibly, ex SHICERY. 2. (?hence, or ex SHICE, adj., 1.) A worthless person (the predominant, and virtually the only, C.20 sense); a very idle one; a mean, sponging man; a HUMBUG: low (–1857). Also SHYSTER (H., 1874). 3. A welsher or defaulter: Australian racing: from mid-1890s. Ex sense 1 or 2—or both.

shicery

. Bad; spurious: c. or low s.: from ca 1860; very ob. F. & H., giving no illustration. Either ex SHICER, 2, or a perversion of SHICKERY.

shicker

, v.i.; occ. schicker, shikker, shikkur. To drink liquor; get drunk: prob. from late 1890s: cf. next entry: mostly Australian and not gen. considered respectable. Ex Hebrew shikkur, drunk, as is:

shicker

, etc., adj. Drunk: from late 1890s. (?ex the v.) Binstead, 1899, ‘She comes over shikkur and vants to go to shleeb.’ cf.:

shickered

; shick. Tipsy: C.20 (?also very late C.19). Ex SHICKER, v. cf. 2 in:

shickery

; rarely shickerry. (cf. SHICERY.) Shabby, shabbily; bad, badly: c. or low s.: 1851, Mayhew, ‘The hedge crocus is shickery togged.’ ?ex SHICE, adj., 1. 2. Occ., in late C.19–20, drunk. Perhaps ex SHICKER, adj. Cf. SHICKERED. 3. Spurious: see SHICE, adj.

shi(c)ksel

. A nice Gentile girl: Jewish coll: mid-C.19–20. A diminutive of shiksa: see sense 2 of:

shickster

; occ. shickses, shiksa, shikster, shickster, and (†by 1903) shakester. A lady: 1839, Brandon, shickster; 1857, Snowden (Magazine Assistant, 3rd ed.), shikster; 1859, H., 1st ed., shakester and shickster; 1899, Binstead, shiksa. 2. Hence, any (Gentile) woman or girl: mostly Jewish and pejorative: late C.19–early 20. Contrast SHICKSEL. 3. A Gentile female servant: among Jews: late C.19–20. 4. A none-too-respectable girl or woman: mid-C.19–20: low. Carew, Autobiography of a Gipsy, 1891, p. 414, ‘As I was leavin’ the court, a reg’lar ’igh-flying shickster comes up,’ refers to mid-C.19; cf. H., 3rd ed., ‘A “gay” lady’. Possibly the term derives ex SHICE, adj., 1: that shickster is, in any case, from Yiddish is a virtual certainty; that senses 1 and 4 may orig. have been c. is a possibility, as appears also in:

shickster-crabs

*. Ladies’ shoes: tramps’ c. (–1864); ob.

shie

, see SHY, v. shielah (Jice Doone), see SHEILA, shier, see SHYER.

shif

. Fish: back s. (–1859).

shift

, v.t. To dislodge (a body of the enemy): coll: 1898. 2. To murder: 1898. 3. (The operative origin of senses 1, 2) to dislodge from its back, i.e. to throw (of a horse throwing its rider): coll: 1891. 4. To eat; more gen. to drink: s. (–1896) >, ca 1910, coll.

shift, do a

. To stool: low: from ca 1870; slightly ob.

shift-monger

. A young man-about-town: taverns': ca 1881–90. Ex stiff shirt-front of evening dress.

shifter

*. A sly thief; a sharper: ca 1560–1640: c. >, ca 1600, s. or coll. Awdelay, Florio, Withals. Prob. ex S.E. shift, to use shifts, evasions, expedients, though this is not recorded before 1579. 2. ‘An alarm, an intimation, given by a thief to his pall’, Vaux: c. of ca 1810–40. Because it causes him to shift. 3. A drunkard: from ca 1896; ob. Ex SHIFT, v.

shifting

*. A warning; esp. an alarm conveyed by the watching to the operating thief: c.: from ca 1820; ob. cf. SHIFTER, 2.

shifting ballast

. Landsmen—esp. soldiers—aboard: nautical: late C.18–mid-19.

shifty cove

. A trickster: from ca 1820 (ob.): low. See COVE; cf. SHIFTER, 1.

shig

. A shilling: Winchester: from ca 1840; ob. Mansfield. cf. SHIGGERS. 2. Hence, shigs, money, esp. silver: East End: from ca 1860.

shiggers

. White football shorts costing 10s.: Winchester: mid-C.19–20. Ex SHIG, 1.

shigs

, see SHIG, 2.

shikerry

, see SHICKERY. shikker, -ur, see SHICKER. shiksa, shikster, see SHICKSTER. shiksel, see SHICKSEL.

shilling, take the Queen's or King's

. To enlist in the Army: C.18–20: coll >, by 1830, S.E. Also take the shilling.

shilling(-)dreadful (†in C.20), shocker

. A (short) sensational novel sold at one shilling: coll >, ca 1905, S.E.: 1885, Athenaeum, 14 Nov., 'Mr R.L.Stevenson is writing another shilling-dreadful '; s. shocker, July 1886. The earlier term is on the analogy of PENNY DREADFUL; the latter, due to desire for variation. cf. THRILLER.

shilling to ninepence, bring a

, see NINEPENCE TO...

shilly-shally

. To be undecided; to hesitate; vacillate: 1782, Miss Burney: coll till ca 1850, then S.E. Ex the n. (1755, Shebbeare), itself ex the adj. (1734, Chesterfield), in its turn ex stand shill I, shall I (Congreve, 1700), earlier stand shall I, shall I (Taylor, 1630); shilly-shally as n. and (in C.20, ob.) adj., orig. coll, both > S.E. early in C.19.

shimmey

(1837, Marryat); more gen. shimmy (1856, H.H.Dixon). A chemise: coll; not, as the O.E.D. asserts, merely dial. and U.S. 2. The game of chemin de fer, of the first two syllables of which it is a corruption: Society: late C.19–20.

shimozzel, -le

, see SHEMOZZLE.

shin

. A kick on the shin-bone: (esp. London) schoolboys' coll (–1887).

shin off

. To depart: mostly Cockney: since ca 1870.

shin out

. To pay up (v.i. and v.t.): proletarian: from ca 1860; ob.

shin-plaster

. A bank-note: U.S., anglicized ca 1860; ob.

shin-scraper

*. A treadmill: c.: 1869, J. Greenwood, 'On account of the operator's liability, if he is not careful, to get his shins scraped by the ever-revolving wheel'.

shin-stage, (take) the

. (To go) a journey on foot, not by stage-coach: non-aristocratic coll: mid-C.18–mid-19. cf. SHANKS'S MARE.

shin up

. To climb (v.i.): C.19–20. (W.N. Glascock, Sailors and Saints, 1829, at I, 21.)

shinan(n)igan or -in or -i(c)kin

, see SHENAN(N)IGAN.

shindig

. An altercation, a violent quarrel, a tremendous fuss: late C.19–20. Ex SHINDY, 3.

shindy

. A spree or noisy merrymaking: from ca 1820. Egan, 1821, ‘The Jack Tar is ...continually singing out, “What a prime shindy, my mess mates”.’ Either ex ‘the rough but manly old game of “shinty”’ (J.Grant, 1876) or, more prob., ex sense 3, which therefore presumably derives ex shinty. 2. A (rough) dance among sailors: nautical (–1811). 3. See SHINES. (The sense, a row or a commotion, from the 1840s, is gen. considered S.E., but it may orig. have been coll. ?ex sense 1 or 2.)

shine

. A fuss, commotion, ROW: coll: from ca 1830. Dickens, 1852. Esp. make (or kick up) a shine. Perhaps ex shine, brilliance, influenced by SHINDY, 1. Hence, 2, boasting; chaff(ing); esp. no shine, honestly, sincerely, genuinely: tailors’: mid-C.19–20. 3. Money: from ca 1840: (?c. >) low s. ?ex shiners. cf. SHINEY; SHINO. 4. See SHINE TO, TAKE A.

shine

, v.i. To raise money, or display it: late C.19–20; ob. Ex shine, to excel. 2. To boast: tailors’: from ca 1860; ob. cf. SHINER, 4.

shine, cut a

. To make a fine show: coll: 1819 (O.E.D.). Occ. (†by C.20), make a shine.

shine from or out of, take the

. To deprive of brilliance; to surpass, put in the shade: coll: 1818, Egan, Boxiana, I, out of; 1819, Moore, from, which is † in C.20.

shine-rag, win the

. To lose; be ruined; London, ca 1850–1910. Occ. shiney-rag, as in H., 1st ed., ‘Said in gambling when any one continues betting’ after the luck sets in against him.

shine to, take a

. To take a fancy to or for: coll: U.S. (–1850), adopted ca 1890 by Australians. cf. dial. shiner, a sweetheart, one’s flirt.

shiner

. See SHINERS. 2. A mirror; esp. a card-sharper’s: from ca 1810; perhaps orig. c. 3. A clever fellow: coll and dial.: from ca 1820. 4. A boaster: tailors’: from ca 1860. cf. SHINE, v., 2. 5. A silk hat: coll: 1867, F.Francis. 6. A stone so built into the wall of a house that its thick end is outward: South African: 1881, Douglass, Ostrich Farming. 7. A diamond: South African: 1884, Queenstown Free Press, 15 Jan. cf. SHINERS. 8. (Shiner.) The inevitable nickname of any man surnamed Green or Wright, Black or White, Bryant (Bryant & May’s matches) or Bright: naval and military: late C.19–20.

shiners

. Money; coins, esp. guineas and/ or sovereigns: 1760, Foote, ‘To let a lord of lands want shiners, ’tis a shame.’ Occ. in singular as a gold or, less gen., a silver coin: C.19–20: Surr, 1806; ‘Pomes’ Marshall. cf. SHINE (n., 3); SHINEY; SHINO.

shines

. Capers; tricks: U.S. (1830), anglicized ca 1860: coll. cf. SHINDY with its sense-history very similar to that of SHINE, shines, nn. 2. ?hence, copulation between human beings: from ca 1870.

shines like a shitten barn door, it

. It shines most brilliantly: a low coll of C.18–mid-19. Swift, Polite Conversation, ‘Why, Miss, you shine this morning like a sh—barndoor.’

shiney, properly shiny

. Money; esp. gold nuggets: 1856, Reade; very ob. cf. SHINERS; SHINO.

shiney-rag

, see SHINE-RAG.

shingle short, have a

. To have a TILE LOOSE, to be mentally deficient: from ca 1850: Australian s. >, ca 1910, gen. coll. Mundy, 1852; Mrs Campbell Praed, 1885.

shingle-splitting

. The bilking of creditors by retiring to the country: Tasmanian: 1830, The Hobart Town Almanack; †by 1900. Here, shingle=a piece of board.

shingle-tramper

. A coastguardsman: naval coll (–1867); ob. by 1900. Because he constantly walked the shingle of the (pebbly) shore.

shining saucepan and rusty pump

. A nautical c.p. (late C.19–20) applied to a happy ship.

Shinkin-ap-Morgan

. A Welshman: a coll nickname: mid-C.17–mid-18, when TAFFY > gen. A broadside ballad of ca 1660 (see Farmer's Musa Pedestris) has: 'With Shinkin-ap-Morgan, with Blue-cap, or TEAGUE,|We into no Covenant enter, nor league.'

shino

. An ob. variant of SHINE, n., 3: from ca 1860. On RHINO. cf. SHINERS.

shins, break (one's)

. To borrow money (cf. U.S. shinner, shinning): late C.17–20; slightly ob. Ex the old Russian custom of beating on the shins those who have money and will not pay their debts.

shins, clever

, see CLEVER SHINS.

shiny, the

, see SHINEY. cf. SHINE (n., 3); SHINERS; SHINO.

shiny rag, win the

, see SHINE-RAG.

ship

. A body of compositors working together: printers' coll: 1875, Southward's Dict. of Typography. Abbr. companionship. cf. STAB, n. 2. See SHIP, OLD. 3. See SHIP, OUT OF A.

ship

, v.t. To pull out of bed, mattress on top: Sherborne School: from ca 1860. 2. To turn back in a lesson: Shrewsbury School: from ca 1860. Both are prob. ex ship (off), to send packing. 3. To drink (v.t.): nautical coll (–1887). Lit., take on board.

ship, old

. A jocular coll address to a sailor: orig. and mostly nautical, to a former ship-mate: mid-C.19–20; ob. Cupples, The Green Hand, 1849.

ship, out of a

. Out of work: theatrical: ca 1880–1910.

ship a bagnet

. To wear a bayonet: naval: late C.18–mid-19.

ship a swab

. To receive a sub-lieutenant's commission: naval: early C.19–early 20. The 'swab' was the single epaulette conferred by this rank. In W.N.Glascock, Sketch-Book, I, 1825, p. 113, it=to be a fully qualified captain. To ship an epaulette occurs in Glascock's Sailors and Saints, 1829, at II, 14; at I, 5, occurs ship swabs, thus 'Boys' shipping swabs before they shave'—glossed as 'Mounting epaulettes, which in his day denoted a captain'.

ship blown up at Point Nonplus

. (Indicates that a man is) plucked penniless or politely expelled: Oxford University: ca 1820–50. Point Nonplus is a punningly imaginary geographical feature.

ship for a ha'porth of tar, lose (or spoil) a . Erroneous for lose a sheep...: mid-C.19–20. 'Tar is used to protect sores or wounds in sheep from flies, and the consequent generation of worms,' Apperson; tar being the cause of the error. (The proverb dates from late C.16.)

ship-husband

. A sailor seldom on shore and even then anxious to return to his ship: nautical coll: from ca 1840; ob. Marryat, 1842. Punning the now ob. ship's husband, an agent that looks after a ship while it is in port.

ship in full sail

. (A pot of) ale: rhyming s. (–1857).

ship-mate with, be

. To have personal knowledge (of a thing): nautical: late C. 19–20. Bowen, ‘e.g. “I’ve never been ship-mate with single top-sails”.’

ship one’s land-face

. To revert to one’s sea-going attitude: nautical: late C.19–20; ob. With hard-case skippers a significant c.p. was fetch me a bucket of water to wash off my land-face: a hint to the crew of squalls ahead.

ship’s cousin

. A rating or apprentice berthed aft, but working with the men: nautical: late C.19–20. Prob. suggested by S.E. ship’s husband.

ship’s lungs

. De Hall’s patent bellows for ventilating men-of-war: naval coll: late C.19–early 20.

shipwrecked

. Topsy: East London (–1909). cf.:

shipwrecky

. Weak; ‘shaky’: mid-C.19–20; coll (not very gen.). Hughes, 1857.

shiralee

; shirralee. A swag or bundle of blankets, etc.: Australian: from ca 1880; ob. Ex an Aboriginal word. cf. BLUEY.

shirk

. At Winchester, from ca 1860, shirk in is to walk, instead of plunging, into water, while shirk out is to go out without permission. cf. SHIRKSTER.

shirk

, in its orig. sense, ‘shark, sharper’, ‘needy parasite’ and ‘to live as a parasite’ (C.17–18), may have been coll or s. or even c. Also sherk, shurk. A variant of SHARK.

shirkster

. One who shirks: Winchester; from ca 1860. Ex SHIRK.

shirralee

, see SHIRALEE. shirry, see SHERRY, n. and v.

shirt, fly round and tear one's

. To bestir oneself: coll: C.19–20; ob.

shirt, lose one's

. To become very angry: from ca 1865. Ex SHIRT OUT...

shirt!, that's up your

. That's a puzzler for you! Mid-C.19–20; ob.

shirt collar

. (The sum of) five shillings: rhyming s. (on dollar): from ca 1850; ob. OXFORD SCHOLAR is more usual.

shirt does!, do as my

. Kiss my ARSE!: low c.p.: C.18–20; ob. D'Urfey.

shirt full of sore bones, give one a

. To beat him severely: coll: C.18. Thomas Fuller, Gnomologia, 1732.

shirt in the wind

. A piece of shirt seen through the fly or, much more gen., through a hole in the seat: late C.19–20; ob. Gen. flag in the wind.

shirt on, bet or put one's

. To bet all one's money on, hence to risk all on (a horse): from ca 1890.

shirt out, get or have (a person's)

. To make or become angry: from middle 1850s. 'Ducange Anglicus' (have); H., 1st ed. (get). Ex the dishevelment caused by rage. cf. SHIRTY.

shirt-sleeve

. A flannel dance: Stonyhurst: late C.19–20. 'The costume is an open flannel shirt and flannel trousers,' F. & H.

shirtey

. Incorrect for SHIRTY.

shirtiness

. The n. (late C.19–20) formed from:

shirty

. Angry (temporarily); ill-tempered (by nature); apt to become quickly angered: from late 1850s. Maugham, 1897, Liza of Lambeth, ‘You ain’t shirty ’cause I kissed yer?’ Ex SHIRT OUT.

shise, shiser

, see SHICE; SHICER.

shish

. A late C.19–20 variant of SHICE, adj., 1, and the v. Perhaps on SHIT.

shit, shite

. Excrement; dung: late C.16–20 (earlier as diarrhoea, a sense †by C.15); S.E., but in C.19–20 a vulgarism. As n., shite is in C.19–20 comparatively rare except in dial. As excrement, prob. ex the v., common to the Teutonic languages: cf. SHICE; SHICER. i.e. it is ultimately cognate with shoot. 2. As a term of contempt applied to a person (rarely to a woman), it has perhaps always, C.16–20, been coll; in C.19–20, it is a vulgarism. In C.19–20, esp. a regular shit, in late C.19–20 an awful s. N.B., many compounds and all proverbs (even Swift’s shitten-cum-shites) from n. and v. are S.E., but where they survive (e.g. shit-breech) they survive as vulgarisms: they (e.g. shit-fire, s.-word) do not here receive separate definition unless (e.g. SHIT-SACK) in a specifically unconventional sense: all those which are herein-under defined have always been coll or s. See Grose, P., and A.W.Read, Lexical Evidence, 1935 (Paris; privately printed), for further details.

shit, shite

, v. To stool: C.14–20: S.E., but in C.19–20 a vulgarism; at the latter stage, shite is less gen. than shit. See n., 1. 2. To vomit: low coll (–1887).

shit

!; rarely shite! An exclamation: rather low coll than a vulgarism: C.19 (?earlier)– 20. cf. Fr. merde!

shit, fall in the

. To get into trouble: low coll: since ca 1870. cf. SHIT, IN THE.

shit, happy as a pig in

. ‘Happy, even if lacking in grace’ (Atkinson): non-aristocratic coll: late C.19–20.

shit, in the

. In trouble: low coll: mid-C.19–20. Often land (another) in the shit.

shit, only a little clean

. A derisive c.p. addressed to one bedaubed or self-fouled: C.19–20. In Scottish, gen....clean dirt.

shit a brick

. To defecate after a costive period: low: late C.19–20. cf. BAKE IT.

shit-bag

. The belly; in pl, the guts: low: mid-C.19–20. 2. An unpleasant person: low: late C.19–20.

shit cinders!, go and eat coke and

. A low, derisively defiant c.p. of late C.19–20; ob. (A good example of popular wit.)

shit-face

is a low, late C.19–20 term of address to an ugly man.

shit-hole

. The rectum: low: coll: C.19–20.

shit-hunter

. A sodomist: cf. STIR-SHIT. low: C.19–20.

shit in your teeth

! A retort on disagreement: C.18–mid-19; coll.

shit it in silver, swallow a sovereign and

. A semi-proverbial c.p. indicative of the acme of convenience: C.19–20 (ob.) vulgarity.

shit not far behind that, there's . A workmen's c.p., evoked by a noisy breaking of wind: late C.19–20.

shit on

. To impose on, use shamelessly: low: late C.19–20. 'He's shitting on you.'

shit on your own doorstep, you don't

. You don't 'foul your own nest': c.p.: late C.19–20.

shit or bust with (e.g.) him, it's

. He loves bragging: low coll: late C.19–20. Key: 'He's all wind.'

shit-pot

. A thorough or worthless humbug (person); a sneak: low s., and dial.: mid-C.19–20; ob.

shit-sack

. A Nonconformist: 1769, Granger's Biographical History of England, concerning Wm Jenkin; this coll term may have arisen in late C.17; †by 1860. Grose, 2nd ed., repeats Granger's anecdotal 'etymology'.

shit-shark

. A nightman: low: mid-C.19–20; ob.

shit-shoe (OCC. s.-shod)

. 'Derisive to one who has bedaubed his boot', F. & H.: a low coll of mid-C.19–20; very ob. cf. only a little clean SHIT.

shit-stirrer

. One who, by his actions, causes everybody unnecessary trouble: low: late C.19–20. The Canadian form is shit-disturber. Contrast STIR-SHIT.

shit through one's or the teeth

. To vomit: low: late C.18–mid-19. Grose, 2nd ed., gives the following c.p., (Hark ye, friend,) have you got a padlock on your arse, that you shite through your teeth?

shit to a shovel, like

. Very adhesive(ly) indeed: low coll: mid-C.19–20.

shit(-)wallah

. A sanitary man: Army: late C.19–20.

shit weighs heavy

! A low Canadian c.p., directed at a boaster: late C.19–20.

shite

! see SHIT!

shite-poke

. The bittern: Canadian: since ca 1880. 'From popular belief it has only one straight gut from gullet to exit, and has therefore to sit down promptly after swallowing anything' (D.E.Cameron in letter of 23 Aug. 1937). But Dr Leechman says that the shit- or shite-poke (euphemistically shy-poke) is a bird of the heron family and that it is so named because 'it habitually defecates on taking flight when alarmed'.

shits, the

. Diarrhoea: coll: mid-C.19–20.

shitten door

, see SHINES LIKE...

shitten look, have a

. To look as if one needed to defecate: workmen's coll: late C.19–20.

Shitten Saturday

. Easter Saturday: (dial. and) schools': from ca 1855; ob. Ex Shutin Saturday, for on it Christ's body was entombed.

shitters

. Diarrhoea: dial. and low coll: C.19–20.

shittle-cum-shaw, shittle (or shiddle)-cum-shite, shittletidee

. Occ. as nn. in allusion, often as exclamations: both contemptuous: C.19–20 (ob.) dial and low coll reduplications on SHIT and shite, app. influenced by shittle, fickle, flighty.

shivareen

is the Canadian shape of SHIVAROO: from ca 1870.

shivaroo

. A spree; a party: Australia: 1888, (Sydney) Bulletin, 6 Oct., ‘Government House shivarooos’; slightly ob. On Fr. chez vous (cf. SHEVOO) ex U.S. shivaree, a noisy serenade, itself a corruption of charivari, itself echoic.

shiver my timbers

! see TIMBERS!, MY.

shivering Jimmy (occ., in late C.19–20, James)

. A beggar who, on a cold day, exposes himself very meagrely clad for alms: low, mostly London (—1860). Perhaps ex s. J., dial. for shivering grass. cf. SHALLOW COVE and see SHALLOW DODGE.

shivers, the

. The ague: coll: 1861, Dickens, in Great Expectations. 2. Hence (often cold shivers), horror, nervous fear: coll: from ca 1880.

shivery-shakes

. The same; chills: coll: mid-C.19–20. Whence:

shivery-shaky

. Trembling, esp. with ague or the cold: coll: mid-C.19–20. Anon., Derby Day, 1864, 'He's all shivery-shaky, as if he'd got the staggers, or the cold shivers.'

shlemozzle

, see SHEMAZZLE. shlenter, occ. variant of SCHLENTER. shoal, see SHOOL.

shoal-water off, in

. e.g. 'In shoal-water off the horrors', on the brink of delirium tremens; 'near' in any fig. sense: nautical coll: late C.19–20; ob.

shobbos of, make

. To set in good order; to tidy up: Jewish: late C.19–20. To make clean and neat as if for the Shobbos or Sabbath.

shock-a-lolly

, see WALLY.

shocker

. See SHILLING SHOCKER, which, from 1890, it occ. displaces. Coll > S.E.

shocking

. Extremely shocking or disgusting or objectionable: coll: 1842, Browning, 'Shocking|To think that we buy gowns lined with Ermine|For dolts....,' but doubtless in spoken use a decade earlier at least. cf. SHOCKINGLY, and:

shocking

, adv. Shockingly: low coll: 1831, “‘Vot a shocking bad hat!’—the slang Cockney phrase of 1831, as applied to a person: in 1833, Sydney Smith describes New York as “a shocking big place””.

shockingly

. Extremely or very, esp. in pejorative contexts: 1777, Miss Burney, ‘Dr Johnson...is shockingly near-sighted.’ cf. SHOCKING, adj. 2. Shockingly ill: coll: 1768, Goldsmith, ‘You look most shockingly to-day, my dear friend.’ 3. Hence, from ca 1880, ‘abominably’, very badly. W.G.Marshall, ‘Shockingly paved.’

shod, come in hosed and

. To be born to a good estate: coll: C.19–20, ob. cf. be born with a SILVER SPOON IN ONE’S MOUTH.

shod (all) round, be

. To know all about married life: coll: C.18–early 19. Swift, in Conversation, I, “‘Mr Buzzard has married again...” “This is his fourth wife; then he has been shod round.”’ 2. ‘A parson who attends a funeral is said to be shod all round, when he receives a hatband, gloves, and scarf: many shoeings being only partial,’ Grose, 2nd ed.: late C.18–mid-19. Four items, in each case.

shoe-buckles, not worth

. Worthless: coll: late C.17–18. Ray.

shoe is on the mast, the

. 'If you like to be liberal, now's your time': a c.p. of C.19: sailors' > gen. lower classes'. In C.18, 'when near the end of a long voyage, the sailors nailed a shoe to the mast, the toes downward, that passengers might delicately bestow a parting gift.'

shoe-leather

*! Look out!; be careful!: c.: mid-C.19–20; ob. Perhaps cf. Warwickshire dial. s.-l., a kicking.

shoe pinches him, his

. He is drunk: coll: C.18. Franklin's Drinker's Dict.

shoe the cobbler

. 'To tap the ice quickly with the fore-foot when sliding', F. & H.: coll: from ca 1840; ob. cf. COBBLER'S DOOR...

shoe the goose

. To undertake or do anything futile or absurd: coll: C.15–18. Hoccleve, Skelton, Breton. By late C.18, it has > a proverb, gen. in form shoe the goslings, usually, however, applied to a busybody smith. 2. To get drunk: coll: C.17. Cotgrave. Extant in Shropshire and Herefordshire dial.

shoe the (wild) colt

. To demand an initiation-fee from one entering an office or employment: dial. (–1828) and coll; very ob. as the latter. Punning colt, a greenhorn. Also part of the ceremony of being sworn in at HIGHGATE, and of apprentices' initiations in various trades.

shoemaker

. The large Antarctic gull: nautical (–1867). Perhaps jocular on its scientific name, skua antarcticus.

shoemaker's pride

. Creaking boots or shoes: dial. and coll: mid-C.19–20. cf.:

shoemaker's stocks, be in the

. To be pinched by strait shoes: ca 1660–1910. Pepys, 1666; Ray, 1678; B.E.; Grose. cf. last entry.

shoes, die in one's

. To be hanged: ca 1690–1910: S.E. until C.19, then coll.

shoes, make children's

. To be occupied absurdly or trivially; (to be made) to look ridiculous: coll: late C.17–19; in C.19, mainly dial. Behn, 1682, 'Pox! shall we stand making children's shoes all the year? No: let's begin to settle the nation, I say, and go through-stitch with our work.' cf.

shoes, make feet for children's

. To coït: late C.18–mid-19. Ex preceding.

shoes are made of running leather, my, your

, etc. I, you, etc., am—are—of a wandering disposition, or very restless: semi-proverbial coll: from ca 1570; ob. Churchyard, 1575; Hone, 1831.

shoesmith

. A cobbler: jocular coll: C.19–20; ob. On S.E. sense, a shoeing-smith.

shoey

. A shoeing-smith: military: late C. 19–20. 2. (Shoey.) The 'inevitable' nickname of men surnamed Smith: military: late C.19–20.

shoful

* (1828, Sessions); occ. schofel(l) (1839), schoful (1859), shofel (1839), shofle (1862), shouful (–1914), (?only in sense 4) shovel (1864); often showfull (1851). (Only in sense 1 as an adj.) Counterfeit money: Brandon, 1839; 1851, Mayhew: Carew's Autobiography of a Gipsy. Yiddish almost imm. > Cockney s. verging on c., which indeed it may orig. have been—as Smythe-Palmer, 1882, says it was. Ex Yiddish schofel, worthless stuff, ex Ger. schofel, worthless, base, ex Yiddish pronunciation of Hebrew shaphel (or -al), low, as the O.E.D. so clearly sets forth. (Also SHOFUL MONEY: cf. SHOFUL-MAN.) 2. A low-class tavern: low: ca 1850–1910, and perhaps never very gen. Mayhew, 1851. Prob. directly ex the adj. schofel (see sense 1) with place or tavern suppressed. 3. A humbug, an impostor: ca 1860–90. See sense 1. 4. (Often spelt shofle, occ. shovel.) A hansom cab; among cabmen, a 'shoful' cab, according to Mayhew (London Labour, III, 351), is one infringing Hansom's patent: 1854, Household Words, vol. viii. There is little need to suppose with the O.E.D., that this sense may have a distinct origin, though H., 3rd ed., suggests the similarity of a hansom to a shovel or a scoop, and his successor in the 5th ed. cites (à titre de curiosité) a friend's 'shoful, full of show, ergo, beautiful—handsome—Hansom'. 5. See:

shoful(jewellery)

*. Sham jewellery: 1864, H., 3rd ed., but prob. a decade older: c. Here, SHOFUL may be adj. or n.: cf. SHOFUL MONEY.

shoful-man

*. A counterfeiter of coins, notes, etc.; occ.=SHOFUL-PITCHER: c.: 1856, Mayhew.

shoful(-)money

*. Counterfeit money: c.: from the 1850s. See SHOFUL, 1.

shoful (etc.)-pitcher

*. A passer of counterfeit money: c. (–1839).

shoful-pitching

*. Passing of counterfeit money; c. (–1857). ‘Ducange Anglicus’; H., 2nd ed.: but the reference in Carew’s Autobiography of a Gipsy is to some twelve years earlier than in ‘Ducange Anglicus’.

shoful pullet

. ‘A “gay” woman’, H., 2nd ed.: low (?c.): ca 1860–90.

shoke

. A hobby; a whim: Anglo-Indian: mid-C.19–20.

sholl

*. (Gen. v.t.) To crush the wearer’s hat over his eyes: c.: from ca 1860; ob. ?ex shola (hat), a sola topee.

shonky

, n.; shonk. A Jew: low: mid-C.19–20. Hence:

shonky

, adj. Mean, money-grubbing: late C.19–20.

shont

. A foreigner: Cockney: from ca 1880. cf. SHONK.

shoo to a goose, cannot say

. To be timid, bashful: from ca 1630: coll till C.19, then S.E.—with BOO much more frequent.

shook

*, ppl (adj.), itself sol. Robbed; lost by robbery: c. of ca 1810–80. Vaux, 1812, ‘I’ve been shook of my skin, I have been robbed of my purse.’ See SHAKE v., 3 and 4, and cf. next entry. 2. A synonym, ca 1810–50, of ROCKED.

shook?, have you

*. Have you succeeded in stealing anything?: c. of ca 1810–80. See SHAKE, v., 4, and cf. SHOOK.

shook on

. (Sense 1, gen. of a man; 2, of either sex.) In love with, or possessed of a passion for: Australian: 1888, ‘Rolf Boldrewood’, ‘He was awful shook on Madge; but she wouldn’t look at him.’ 2. Having a great fancy for (a thing): 1888, ‘Boldrewood’, ‘I’m regular shook on the polka.’ cf. the very Australian crook, ill.

shook-up

; esp. reg’lar s.u. Upset; nerveracked: low coll: late (?mid-) C.19–20.

shool

; Shool. A church or chapel: East London: from ca 1870. Ex the Jews’ term for their synagogue.

shool

; occ. shoole (Grose, 2nd ed.) or shoal (C.19); often shule (C.18–20), v. To go about begging, to sponge, to ‘scrounge’: dial. and s.: from 1730s. Smollett, 1748, ‘They went all hands to shooling and begging’; Lover, 1842. Perhaps ex shool, a shovel, via dial. shool, to drag the feet, to saunter. 2. Hence, to skulk: dial. and s.: from ca 1780; ob. 3. To impose on (a person): 1745, Bampfylde-Moore Carew. Ex sense 1. 4. To carry as a ‘blind’: 1820, Clare: dial. and s.; ob.

shooler or shuler

; occ. shoolman. A beggar, vagabond, ‘scrounger’, loafer: 1830, Carleton, ‘What tribes of beggars and shulers’. cf. SHOOL, v., 1.

shoon

*. A fool; a lout: c. of late C.19–20; ob. ?on loon.

shoot

. Amount, number: see SHOOT, THE WHOLE.

shoot

, v.i. (Also shoot a bishop.) To have a wet dream: low: from ca 1870; ob. 2. v.t., to unload: railway: 1872, Echo, 29 July; slightly ob. Prob. on shoot rubbish. 3. To experience the sexual spasm: low: mid-C.19–20. Whence sense 1. cf. flog the BISHOP.

shoot, the whole

. The entire amount or number or price, etc.: 1884 (O.E.D.) or perhaps from as early as 1880 (Ware); s. Occ. the entire shoot (?first in 1896).

shoot-about

, see SHOOTABOUT.

shoot between or (be)twixt wind and water

. To coït with a woman: coll: late C.17–20; ob. Implied in Congreve, 1695. A double anatomical allusion. 2. To infect venereally: late C.17–early 19. Gen. in the passive, punning the S.E. sense, ‘to receive a shot causing a dangerous leak’.

shoot in the eye

. To do (a person) a bad turn: coll: late C.19–20.

shoot in the tail

. To coït with (a woman); to sodomize: low: mid-C.19–20.

shoot into the brown

. To fail: Volunteers’: ca 1860–1915. Ex rifle-practice, at which the poor shot misses the target, his bullet going into the brown earth of the butt.

shoot on the post

. To catch and pass an opponent just before the tape: sporting: from ca 1870; ob.

shoot one's linen

. To make one's shirt cuffs project beyond one's coat cuffs: coll: 1878, Yates, in The World, 16 Jan. cf. SHOOT YOUR CUFF!

shoot one's lines

. To declaim vigorously: theatrical: from ca 1870.

shoot one's milt or roe

. To ejaculate seminally: low: mid-C.19–20.

shoot one's star

. To die: late C.19–20; ob. Ex evanescent shooting stars.

shoot over the pitcher

. To brag of one's shooting: coll: C.19.

shoot that

! Oh, be quiet!: late C.19–20. Possibly ex such Americanisms as shoot that hat! 2. Stop talking (about), as in shoot the shop!: late C.19–20.

shoot the cat

, see CAT, SHOOT THE.

shoot the crow

. To depart without paying: 1887, Fun, 8 June; ob. cf. BURN THE TOWN.

shoot the moon

, see MOON, SHOOT THE; SHOVE THE MOON.

shoot up the straight, do a

. To coït with a woman: low: mid-C.19–20. cf. do a RUSH, and SHOOT IN THE TAIL.

shoot white

. To ejaculate: low: from ca 1870. Whence a Boer War conundrum.

shoot your cuff

! ‘Make the best personal appearance you can and come along’ (Ware): lower classes’: ca 1875–90. The semantics are those of SHOOT ONE’S LINEN.

shootabout

. An irregular form of football: schools', esp. Charterhouse: late C.19–20. Also shoot-about, as in A.H.Tod, Charterhouse, 1900. cf. PUNT-ABOUT and COMPULSORY.

shooter

. A gun or pistol; esp. a revolver: resp. 1840, 1877: s. >, ca 1910, coll. 2. A shooting-stick: printers': from ca 1860. Prob. on sense 1. 3. A black morning coat as distinguished from the tail coat worn by the Fifth and Sixth Forms: Harrow: from ca 1870.

shooter's hill

. The mons veneris: low: late C.19–20; ob. Punning Shooter's Hill, London. 2. Whence take a turn on Shooter's Hill, to coït. Ex SHOOT, 3.

shooting stick

. A gun: ca 1825–1900.

shop

, always preceded by the. A place of business; where one works: coll: 1827, Thomas Surr, Richmond. An extension of the basic sense (a building, a room, where things are sold). 2. Often, Oxford or Cambridge University: from ca 1840: s. >, ca 1880, coll; slightly ob. Clough in his Long Vacation Pastoral, 'Three weeks hence we return to the shop'; Thackeray, 1848. Esp. the other shop, which is often used of a rival (chiefly, the most important rival) establishment of any kind. 3. Linked with the preceding sense is the jocular one, place—any place whatsoever. Thus, in political s., the House of Commons, as in Trollope's Framley Parsonage, 1861; among small tradesmen, one's house or home; among actors, the theatre, from ca 1880. Mid-C.19–20. cf. SHOP, ALL OVER THE. 4. Hence, in racing, a ‘place’ (1st, 2nd, or 3rd): from ca 1870. 5. An engagement, ‘berth’: theatrical: 1888, Jerome K. Jerome, ‘Being just before Christmas..., there was no difficulty in getting another shop.’ From twenty years earlier in dial. (Also gen. s.: 1898, W.Pett Ridge, Mord Em’ly.) 6. A prison: c.: late C.17–18. cf. the v., 1. 7. ?hence, the mouth: dial. and s.: from ca 1860. Whence shut your shop!, be silent! 8. (Certainly ex ‘prison’ sense.) A guard-room: military: mid-C.19–20. 9. A public-house: buckish: ca 1810–40.

shop

*, v. To imprison: late C.16–20: S.E. until mid-C.17, coll till late C.17, then c. 2. To put (an officer) under arrest in the guard-room: military (–1864). 3. To lay information on which a person is arrested: c.: early C.19–20. Ex sense 1. 4. Whence, or directly ex sense 1, to kill: c.: late C.19–20. Perhaps influenced by ship, to send packing. 5. To dismiss (a shop-assistant): from ca 1860; ob. Prob. ironically on S.E. shop, to give a person work (1855, O.E.D.). 6. be shopped, get a shop; to gain 1st, 2nd or 3rd place: the turf: from ca 1890 and 1870 resp. Ex the corresponding n. 7. (Gen. in passive.) To engage a person for a piece: theatrical (–1909). Ex the n., 5. 8. To punish severely: pugilistic: ca 1870–1910.

shop, all over the

. Much scattered, spread out, dispersed; erratic in course: 1874 (=1873), H., 5th ed., ‘In pugilistic slang, to punish a man severely is “to knock him all over the shop”, i.e. the ring, the place in which the work is done’; 1886, Pall Mall Gazette, 29 July, ‘Formerly, the authorities associated with our fisheries were “all over the shop”, if a vulgarism of the day be permissible’: coll. Ex SHOP, n., 3.

shop, come or go to the wrong

. To come (go) to the wrong person or place to get what one requires: coll: late C.19–20. Lyell. See SHOP, n., 3.

shop, get a

, see SHOP, v., 6.

shop, shut up

. To cease talking: mid-C.19–20. cf. SHOP, n., 7. 2. shut up (a person's) shop. To make him cease; to kill him: late C.19–20; ob.

shop, sink the

. To refrain from talking shop: coll: late C.19–20. Prob. on sink the ship.

shop-bouncer

. Mid-C.19–20; ob. low s., bordering on c. A variant of SHOP-LIFT. Ex:

shop-bouncing

*. Shop-lifting; c. (–1839).

shop-door

. Trouser-fly: from ca 1890. Also your shop-door is open!

shop-lift

*. A shop-thief; esp. one who, while pretending to bargain, steals goods from the shop: ca 1670–1830: c. until ca 1700, then S.E. Head, 1673. See LIFT.

shop-lifter

*. The same: 1680, Kirkman: c. or s. until C.19, then coll till ca 1840, then S.E. cf. SHOP-LIFT. (Perhaps always S.E.: shop-lifting.)

shop lobber

. A dandified shop-assistant: ca 1830–70. Sinks, 1848.

shop-masher

. A very well, or much, dressed shop-assistant: lower classes': ca 1885–1910.

shop-mumper

. A beggar operating in shops: c. (–1887).

shop-pad

. A shop-thief: C.18: s. > coll. Dunton, 1705. See PAD, n., 5.

shop-'un

. A preserved as opp. to a fresh egg: coll: 1878, dramatist Byron, 'I knows 'em! Shop-'uns! Sixteen a shilling!'

shopkeeper

. An article still, after a long time, unsold: 1649, G.Daniel, who uses the frequent variant old shopkeeper.

shore loafer

. Any civilian: bluejackets' pejorative coll: late C.19–20.

shore saints and sea devils

. A nautical (mid-C.19–20; ob.) c.p. applied to such sailing-ship skippers as were lambs with the owners and lions with the crew. cf. SHIP ONE'S LAND-FACE.

Shoreditch, the Duke of

. A mock-title: coll verging on S.E.: ca 1547–1683. See esp. Ellis's History of Shoreditch, p. 170.

short

. A card (any below the 8) so tampered-with that none above the 8 can be cut, thus reducing the chances of an honour's turning up to two to one: gaming: mid-C.19–20. (Not to be confused with shorts, short whist.) 2. The same as SHORT, SOMETHING: coll: 1823, Egan's Grose, cf. the adj. 3. A revolver: Fenian: from ca 1885.

short

, adj. Undiluted: coll: from ca 1820. See n., 2, and SHORT, SOMETHING. 2. A cashier's 'Long or short?' means 'Will you have your notes in small or large denominations?', short because thus there will be few notes, long because many, or because the latter method is short, the former long: bankers' > gen. commercial coll: from ca 1840. 3. 'A conductor of an omnibus, or any other servant, is said to be short, when he does not give all the money he receives to his master,' H., 3rd ed.: from ca 1860; ob. cf. SHORT(-)ONE.

short, bite off

. To dismiss, or refuse, abruptly: tailors': from ca 1870. Prob. ex the habit of biting instead of cutting thread or cotton.

short, something

. (A drink of) undiluted spirits: coll: from ca 1820. Either because, as Egan (1823) suggests, 'unlengthened by water' or, as O.E.D. proposes, ex short name—e.g. 'brandy', not 'brandy and water'.

short, taken

, see TAKEN SHORT.

short and sweet, like a donkey's gallop

. A coll elaboration of short and sweet: late C.19–20: coll and dial.

short and thick, like a Welshman's prick

. A low c.p. applied to a short person very broad in the beam: mid-C.19–20.

short-arse

. A short person: coll, mostly Cockney: from ca 1890. Ex:

short-arsed

. (Of a person) that is short: coll: from ca 1870.

short cock

. Cheese: Yorkshire s. (–1904), not dial.

short hairs, have by the

, see HAIRS, GET BY THE SHORT.

short(-)head

. A horse that fails by a short head: racing coll: 1883, J.Greenwood, 'That horribly anathematized short head'.

short home, come

. To be put in prison: coll: C.17–18. Ex S.E. sense, to fail to return (orig. and esp. from an expedition).

short(-)length

. A small glass of brandy: coll (Scots, esp. Glasgow): 1864, Glasgow Citizen, 19 Nov., 'The exhilarating short-length'.

short-limbered

. Touchy: late C.19–early 20. cf. SHORT-WAISTED.

short of a sheet

. Mentally deficient: late C.19–20; ob. cf. SHINGLE SHORT.

short(-)one

. A passenger not on the waybill: coaching: ca 1830–70. Because the way-bill is short of this passenger's name: cf. SHORT, adj., 3. 2. See SHORT 'UN.

short(-)stick

. (Occ. collective.) A piece, or pieces, of material of insufficient length: drapers': from ca 1860. Once a Week, 1863, viii, 179.

short time

. A visit to a prostitute for one copulation only: low coll: late C.19–20.

short 'un

. A partridge: poachers' (–1909). Ware derives ex 'the almost complete absence of tail feathers'. Contrast LONG ONE, and see TALL 'UN.

short-waisted

. Irritable; touchy: esp. among tailors: from ca 1870. cf. SHORT-LIMBERED.

shortening

, vbl n. Clipping coins (as a profession): c.: ca 1865; ob.

shorter

. A coin-clipper: low s. verging on c.: 1857, Borrow's Romany Rye.

shot

. Amount due for payment; one's share thereof: late C.15–20: S.E. until late C.18, then coll. cf. the whole SHOOT. 2. A corpse disinterred: body-snatchers' s. > j.: 1828, Annual Register; ob. by 1900. App. ex a good shot for the doctors. 3. A meridional altitude ascertained by shooting the sun: nautical (–1867).

shot

, v. To make a weak-winded horse seemingly sound: horse-dealers' (–1874). By dosing with small shot to 'open his pipes'.

shot

, adj. Topsy: from ca 1870. Ex being wounded by a shot. cf. the U.S. shot in the neck, perhaps the imm. origin, and SHOTAWAY, and OVERSHOT.

shot

! Look out, a master's coming!: Royal High School, Edinburgh: late C.19–20. 2. Abbr. good shot!; gen. 'shot, sir!': late C.19–20: coll.

shot, be

. 'To make a disadvantageous bet which is instantly accepted', F. & H.: the turf: from ca 1880. 2. To be photographed: photographers' coll: from ca 1885.

shot, do a

, see DO A SHOT.

shot, hot

, see HOT SHOT.

shot, like a

. Very quickly; immediately: coll: 1809, Malkin. 2. Hence, very willingly, unhesitantly: coll: late C.19–20.

shot, pay the

, v.i. and t. To coït (with a woman): coll: C.17–19. F. & H. quotes two C.17 broadside ballads. Ex pay the shot, to pay the bill or one's share of it, now coll (see SHOT, n., 1).

shot-away

. Tipsy: nautical: late C.19–20. cf. SHOT, adj.

shot-bag

. A purse: 1848, Durivage, 'Depositing the "tin" in his shot-bag'; slightly ob. Ex SHOT, money, as in not a SHOT IN THE LOCKER.

shot between or (be)twixt wind and water

, see SHOOT BETWEEN...

shot-clog

. A simpleton tolerated only because of his willingness to pay the SHOT: mid-C.19–20; ob. cf. SHOT-SHIP.

shot first, I'll see (him, her, gen.) you

. Damned if I'll do it!: low coll: 1894, 'John Strange Winter'.

shot himself

! A c.p. applied to someone breaking wind in or near a company of men, often with the c.p. comment, if he's not careful, he'll shit himself: late C.19–20.

shot if—

; I'll (or may I) be. Mildly imprecatory or strongly dissenting: low coll: 1826, Buckstone, 'He, he he! I'll be shot if Lunnun temptation be onything to this.' H., 1st ed., has the ob. variant, I wish I may be shot if—. cf. SHOT FIRST...

shot in the eye

. An ill turn: coll: late C.19–20; slightly ob. Pearson's Magazine, Sept. 1897, 'Getting square with the millionaire who had done him such an unscrupulous shot in the eye'.

shot in the giblets or tail

. Pregnant: low: mid-C.19–20.

shot in the (or one's) locker, have still (or still have) a

. To be still potent: late C.19–20.

shot in the locker, not a

. Destitute of money, ideas, or anything else: naval coll: mid-C.19–20. Much earlier, in a positive form, in an unidentified British song reprinted in the Port Folio of 17 May 1806:

Then with shot in my locker, a wife and a cot,
Tobacco, grog, flip, and no purser,
I'll sit down contented with what I have got,
And may each honest tar do no
worser.

It occurs also in W.N.Glascock, The Naval Sketch-Book (I, 207), 1825; but earliest of all in George Brewer, Bannian Day (a farce), 1796, I've always got a shot in the locker.'

shot of

. A mid-C.19–20 Cockney variant of SHUT OF. Sessions, Oct. 1836.

shot on the post, be

. To have a competitor pass one as one eases for, or wearies at, the finish: athletics coll: 1897. Ex: 2. The same of horses in racing: adumbrated in 1868: coll.

shot-ship

. 'A company sharing and sharing alike', F. & H.: printers': from ca 1875.

shot-soup

. Inferior pea-soup: nautical: late C.19–20; ob. Ex peas like bullets.

shot 'twixt

...see SHOOT BETWEEN...

shouful

, see SHOFUL.

should say (suppose, think), I

. I'm very much inclined to say, etc.; I certainly do say, etc.: coll: 1775, C.Johnston, 'I should rather think he has a mind to finger its finances.'

shoulder

, v.i. and t. To take passengers without entering them on the way-bill, thus defrauding the employer: coaching: ca 1810–70. 'Jon Bee', 1823; cf. his Picture of London, 1828 (p. 33). 2. Hence, v.t., of any servant embezzling his master's money: from ca 1860. Both senses very frequent as vbl n.

shoulder, over the (left)

, see LEFT, OVER THE.

shoulder, slip of the

. (Of the woman ‘victim’) seduction: coll: C.19.

shoulder-feast

. A dinner for the hearse-bearers after a funeral: ca 1810–60.

shoulder-knot

. A bailiff: ca 1825–80. Ex hand clapped on victim’s shoulder.

shoulder-sham

*. A partner to a FILE: c.: late C.17–early 19.

shoulder-stick

. A passenger not on the way-bill, i.e. one whose fare goes into the pockets of driver and guard: coaching: ca 1825–70. cf. SHORT-ONE and SHOULDER.

shouldering

, see SHOULDER.

shout

. 'A call to a waiter to replenish the glasses of a company: hence, a turn in paying for a round of drinks. Also, a free drink given to all present by one of the company; a drinking party', this last being rare: Australian, hence New Zealand; mid-C.19 as, e.g., in Wm Kelly, Life in Victoria, 1859:1863, H.Simcox, 'Many a "shout" they're treated to.' Ex the v.i. 2. Hence, one's turn to entertain another: same period. e.g. 'It's my shout this time.' 3. An alarm: fire-brigades': from ca 1880.

shout

, v. To stand drinks to the company, hence to even one person: v.i., 1859, H. Kingsley; v.t., to pay for drinks for (a person, persons), hence for (say) 'smokes', 1867, Lindsay Gordon; hence, late C.19–20, to entertain (a person, persons). Australian, hence New Zealand; by 1864 well-known in England. Ex shouting to the waiter to fetch drinks.

shout, go on the

. To embark on a bout of drinking; to drink to excess: from ca 1890: orig. Australian; by 1905, gen. Kipling. See SHOUT, n., and cf. next two entries.

shout, stand (a)

. To pay for drinks all round: 1887, 'Hopeful', 'There is a great deal of standing "shout" in the Colonies.' See SHOUT, n., 1.

shout oneself hoarse

. To get drunk: gen. s. (–1903). Punning lit. sense of the whole phrase and the s. sense of SHOUT, v.

shouted, be

. To have one's wedding banns proclaimed: since ca 1860. (Williams Westall, Sons of Belial, 1895.)

shouter

. One who 'shouts': 1885, Douglas Sladen. See SHOUT, v. cf.:

shouting

, vbl n. (Issuing) an 'all-in' invitation to drink: see SHOUT, v.

shov

*. A knife: c. (–1909). Ex chiv(e) (see CHIVE-FENCER) on shove.

shove

, n. See SHOVE, THE; SHOVE, ON THE; also SHOVE IN THE EYE, THE MOUTH. 2. A coition: coll: C.18–20. Ned Ward, 1707. Esp. in give (a woman) a shove. cf. the v., 2, and PUSH, v., 2. 3. Empty talk; self-glorification: coll, at first (ca 1880) low urban, but by 1887 (at latest), gen. Prob. ex: 4. Energy; initiative: (low) coll: from the 1870s; ob. Presumably suggested by equivalent push.

shove

, v.t. To thrust, put, carelessly or roughly or hurriedly into a place, a receptacle: familiar S.E. often merging into coll: 1827, Scott, 'Middlemas...shoved into his bosom a small packet.' Also shove aside (1864) or away (1861). 2. Gen. v.t. To coït (with): coll: C.17–20; ob. 3. See vbl phrases here ensuing. 4. (Of cabmen) 'to adopt unfair methods to obtain fares', Baker: Australian: from ca 1880.

shove, be on the

. To keep moving, to move: coll: late C.19–20.

shove, get and give the

, see SHOVE, THE.

shove, on the

. On the move; moving: coll: late C.19–20. Milliken, 1893, 'There's always some fun afoot there, as will keep a chap fair on the shove.'

shove, the

. A dismissal: 1899, Whiteing in No. 5 John Street, has both get the shove and give the shove, to be dismissed, to dismiss. cf. PUSH, n., 5.

shove along

, v.t. To cause sailing ships to make as much speed as possible: naval coll: late C.18–19. (W.N.Glascock, Sketch-Book, I, 1825.)

shove-along, in

. In echelon: soldiers' and sailors': late C.18–mid-19. (Glascock, I, 1825.) By the process of 'Hobson-Jobson'.

shove for

. To go to; make a move towards: coll: 1884, Mark Twain, 'Me and Tom shoved for bed.' cf. SHOVE, BE ON THE, and modern coll shove off.

shove-halfpenny

. A gambling game akin to shovel-board: 1841, Punch, 27 Nov., 'The favourite game of shove-halfpenny': s. >, ca 1910, coll. On the †shove-groat, slidegroat, and shove-board (later shovel-board). shove in (a thing). To pawn it: low coll: late C.19–20.

shove in one's face

. To put in one's mouth: low coll: late C.19–20.

shove in the eye

, etc. A punch in the eye, etc.: coll: late C.19–20. Whiteing, 1899, 'Mind your own bloomin' business, or I'll give you a shove in the eye.'

shove in the mouth

. A drink: 1811, Lex. Bal.; ob.

shove on

. To lay a bet of so much on (a horse): turf coll: late C.19–20.

shove the moon

. To slip away with one's goods without paying the rent: low: 1809, G.Andrewes, slang-lexicographer; †by 1880. cf. shoot the MOON.

shove the queer

*, the article being occ. omitted. To pass counterfeit money: c.: mid-C.19–20: ?orig. U.S. Matsell. See QUEER, n.

shove the tumbler

*. To be whipped at the cart's tail: c.: late C.17–early 19. Hall's Memoirs, 1708, 'Those cast for Petit-larceny shove the tumbler'. A TUMBLER (2) is a cart.

shove underground

. To bury: coll: from ca 1870.

shove-up

*. Nothing: c. or low s. of ca 1810–60. Ex †shove-up socket, a GADGET enabling a candle to burn right out.

shovel

. A hansom cab. See SHOFUL, 4. 2. An engineer in the Navy: nautical: ca 1855–70. Because they were rough and ignorant.

shovel, or fire-shovel, he or she was fed with a

. A c.p. applied to a person with a very large mouth: ca 1780–1850.

shovel, put to bed with a

. To be buried: coll: from ca 1780; very ob. In C.19, occ. with a spade.

shovel, put up one's

. To cease work: workmen's coll: from ca 1890; slightly ob.

shovel!, that's before you bought your

. That is one against you; that settles your HASH: coll: ca 1850–1910.

shovelling

is a form of bullying at Sandhurst, ca 1830–55: coll. 'Spread-eagling the victim on the table and beating him with racquet-bats and shovels', A.F. Mockler-Ferryman, Annals of Sandhurst, 1900.

shover

*. A passer of base coin: c.: orig. U.S.: anglicized ca 1890. Abbr. SHOVER OF THE QUEER. 2 . (Also shuvver, shuffer.) A chauffeur: jocular coll: 1908.

shover of the queer

*. The same: c.: U.S., anglicized ca 1870. Figaro, 20 Feb. 1871, 'A saloon...headquarters of all the counterfeiters and shovers of the queer in the country'. See QUEER, n.

show

. Any public display (a picture-exhibition, a play, a fashionable assembly or ceremony, a speech-making, etc.): coll: 1863, Sala. Ex show, an elaborate spectacle. 2. Hence, a matter, affair, concern: 1888, Rider Haggard, in the Summer Number of the Illustrated

London News, ‘Their presence was necessary to the show.’ 3. A group or association of persons. Mostly in boss the SHOW, and implicatively in give the SHOW AWAY.

show

, v.i. In boxing, to enter the ring as a combatant: boxing coll of ca 1813–50. 2. Hence, to appear in society or company; at an assembly, etc.: coll: 1825, Westmacott, ‘He shows in Park’; 1898, Jean Owen, ‘If the king was in the cabin...no subject might show on deck.’ In C.20, this sense is ob., show up being much more gen.: show up, likewise coll, occurring first in W. Black’s Yolande, 1883 (‘Don’t you think it prudent of me to show up as often as I can in the House...so that my good friends in Slagpool mayn’t begin to grumble about my being away so frequently?’) and meaning also to turn up for an appointment. 3. To exhibit oneself for a consideration: coll: 1898, Daily News, 2 April, ‘He got a living by “showing” in the various public-houses.’

show, boss or run the

. To assume control; act as manager: 1889, BOSS (perhaps orig. U.S.); in C.20, often run. See SHOW, n., 2, 3.

show, do a

. To go to a public entertainment: coll: from ca 1906. See SHOW, n., 1.

show, run the

, see SHOW, BOSS THE. show a leg! see SHEW A LEG, 2. show a point to, see POINT TO.

show away, give the

. To blab, confess; to expose the disadvantages or pretentiousness of an affair, esp. one in which a group is concerned: 1899, Delannoy, £19,000, 'I didn't want to give the show away': s.

show-box, the

. The theatre: theatrical: from ca 1870; ob.

show-leg day

, see SHEW-LEG DAY.

show (him) London

. To hold one, upside down, by the heels: schools': from ca 1880. Opp. see London, to be thus held; also, to hang by the heels from a trapeze, a horizontal bar, etc.

show off

, v.i. To act, talk, ostentatiously or in order to attract attention to oneself: coll: from ca 1790. Gilbert White; D.C. Murray.

show up

, see SHOW, v., 2.

showbanker

, see SCOWBANKER. showful(l), see SHOFUL.

showing, a front

. A short-notice parade: military: late C.19–20; ob. Because while one might possibly pass muster in front, at the back...

shrap

*. Wine used in swindling: very local c. of ca 1592. Greene, The Black Book's Messenger. Prob. ex †shrap(e), a bait, a snare.

shred(s)

. A tailor: late C.16–early 19. cf.:

shreds and patches

. A tailor: coll: C.18–20; ob.

shrewdy

. A shrewd, esp. a cunning, person; a trickster: coll: late C.19–20. Mostly military and Australian.

Shrewsbury clock, by

. A coll phrase lessening or even cancelling the period of time—or the fact—mentioned: late C.16–20; ob. Shakespeare; Gayton, ‘The Knight that fought by th’ clock at Shrewsbury’; Mrs Cowley, 1783; Stevenson, 1891.

shriek

. An exclamation-mark: coll: 1864, Dean Alford; ob.

shrieking sisterhood

. Women reformers, hence female busybodies: journalistic coll: ca 1890–1910. Milliken, 1893, ‘This yere shrieking sisterhood lay ain’t ’arf bad.’

shrift!, he hath been at

. An ecclesiastical c.p. of C.16: applied to one who has been betrayed he knows not how. Tyndale, The Obedience of a Christian Man, 1528. The implication is that the priest to whom he confessed has betrayed him.

shrimp

. A harlot: ca 1630–70. Whiting, 1638, in Albino and Bellama.

shroff

, see SCHROFF.

shrubbery

. (Gen. the female) pubic hair: coll: late C.19–20.

shtumer

, see STUMER.

shucks

! Nonsense!; I don't care!: coll: 1885: U.S. partly anglicized ca 1900. Ex shuck, typifying the worthless, itself orig. (and still) a husk or shell.

shuffer

, see SHOVER, 2.

shuffle

, v.t. To feign, as in shuffle asleep, pretend to be asleep. Whence shuffler. Winchester: mid-C.19–20. Ex S.E. sense, act evasively.

shuffler

*. (App.) a drinker; prob. one who WANGLES or scrounges drinks: Brathwait, 1652. Always with RUFFLER and SNUFFLER. 2. Usually in pl (shufflers), the feet: pugilistic: ca 1840–90. Augustus Mayhew, Paved With Gold, 1857. The oldtime boxer used to shuffle about on his feet; it was Jim Corbett who introduced—or at least popularized—‘ballet dancing’ in the ring.

shule

; shuler, see SHOOL; SHOOLER. shulleg-day, see SHEW-LEG DAY.

’shun

! Attention!: military coll (from the middle 1880s). cf. HIPE.

shunt

. To move aside (–1859); to kill (–1909): railwaymen’s coll. Ex lit. sense.

shurk

*. A variant of SHARK. See SHIRK.

shut-eye

. A deception, trick or swindle: s.: naval, 1899.

shut it

! Be silent!; stop that noise!: from mid-1880s. ‘Pomes’ Marshall, ca 1890, ‘Oh, shut it! Close your mouth until I tell you when.’

shut of, be or get

. (See also SHOT OF.) To be free from, rid of: late C.16–20: S.E. until C.19, then coll; in late C.19–20, low coll. ‘Rolf Boldrewood’, 1888, ‘Father)... gets shut of a deal of trouble...by always sticking to one thing’; R.L.Stevenson, 1891, ‘What we want is to be shut of him.’ In active mood from ca 1500, whence this passive usage. cf. dial. be shut on, as in Mrs Gaskell’s Mary Barton, 1843, and shut, a riddance.

shut up

. To end (a matter): coll: 1857, Dickens, ‘Now, I’ll tell you what it is, and this shuts it up.’ 2. (Gen. in imperative: cf. SHUT IT! and SHUT YOUR FACE!) To cease talking; stop making a noise: 1853, ‘C.Bede’; Mursell, Lecture on Slang, 1858, ‘When a man...holds his peace, he shuts up’; Maugham, 1897. s. >, ca 1890, coll. Ex S.E. sense, to conclude one’s remarks. The C.17 equivalent was SNECK (or SNICK) UP! 3. v.i. ‘To give up, as one horse when challenged by another in a race’, Krik, Guide to the Turf (Krik being the pseudonym of B.Reid Kirk, Amicus Equus...And a Guide to Horse Buyer, 1884); racing coll (?orig. s.). cf.:

shut up

, adj. Completely exhausted: ca 1860–1900.

shut-up house

. The land headquarters of the local Press Gang: naval coll: late C.18– mid-19. Bowen.

shut up shop

, see SHOP, SHUT UP.

shut up shop-windows, have

. To be bankrupt: coll: ca 1675–1850. Ray, 1678. cf. SHUTTERS, PUT UP THE, 2.

shut up your garret

! Hold your tongue!: low (–1909). cf.:

shut your face, head, neck, rag-box

! Be quiet!; stop talking: low: from mid-1870s: perhaps (except for last, which occurs in Kipling, 1892) orig. U.S., for shut your head! is recorded first in Mark Twain in 1876 and this appears to be the earliest of these phrases; shut your neck is in Runciman, Chequers, 1888; shut your face, from before 1903. All on the analogy of shut your mouth!, which, though admittedly familiar, is yet S.E. cf. SHUT IT! and SHUT UP, 2.

shuts

. As n., a hoax, a SELL; as interjection, ‘sold again!’ Christ’s Hospital: from ca 1860.

shutter

, gen. pronounced shetter. To con-vey a drunk on a shop-shutter to the police-station, the police carrying him: low Cockney (–1909); very ob.

shutter-racket

*. The practice of stealing from a building by boring a hole in a window-shutter and taking out a pane of glass: c. of ca 1810–60.

shuttered

(often pron. shettered). In a state of complete ignominy: low (–1909). Perhaps ex sense 2 of:

shutters, put up the

. To 'bung up' the eyes of one's opponent: boxing: mid-C.19–20; slightly ob. 2. To stop payment, announce oneself bankrupt: coll: midC.19–20. Ex S.E. sense, to close a shop for the day. cf. SHUT UP SHOP-WINDOWS.

shutters up, got the

, see GOT THE SHUTTERS UP.

shuttle-bag, swallow the

. To get husky-throated: (?dial. and) coll: mid-C.19–20.

shuvly-kouse

. A public-house: low urban (–1909); virtually †. Ware, 'This phrase spread through London from a police-court case, in which a half-witted girl used this phrase.'

shy

. A quick and either jerky or careless (or jerkily careless) casting of a stone, ball, etc.: coll: 1791, Brand. Ex v., 1. 2. Hence, a GO (n., 8), attempt, experiment, chance: coll: 1823, Egan's Groser; 1824, Egan (vol. IV of Boxiana), 'I like to have a shy for my money.' 3. Fig., a 'fling', a jibe or sarcasm (at...): 1840, De Quincey, 'Rousseau...taking a "shy" at any random object'. 4. The Eton Football sense, orig. (1868) coll, soon > j. 5. A thrower, esp. in cricket: coll: 1884.

shy

, v. (In late C.19–early 20, occ. shie.) v.i., to throw a missile jerkily or carelessly or with careless jerkiness: coll: 1787, Bentham, ‘A Sort of cock for him...to shie at’. Perhaps ex SHY(-)COCK. 2. Hence, v.t.: To throw, toss, jerk: coll: lit., 1824, Egan; fig., Scott, 1827, ‘I cannot keep up with the world without shying a letter now and then.’

shy

, adj. Short, low (of money): low: 1821, Haggart, ‘Although I had not been idle during these three months, I found my blunt getting shy.’ †by 1900. 2. Whence shy of, short of (money; hence provisions, etc.): Australia and Canada: late C.19–20. cf. U.S. shy, shy of, lacking, short of, a usage perhaps influencing, but not originating, the Australian. 3. Disreputable; not quite honest: 1849, Thackeray, ‘Mr Wagg ...said, “Rather a shy place for a sucking county member, ay, Pynsent?”’; 1864, H. J.Byron, ‘Shy turf-transaction’. s. >, ca 1900, coll. Prob. ex S.E. sense, timid, bashful. 4. ?hence, doubtful in quantity and/or quality: 1850, Thackeray, ‘That uncommonly shy supper of dry bread and milk-and-water’; Mark Lemon, 1865, ‘Her geography is rather shy, and I can make her believe anything.’

shy, coconut

. An amusement (and its means) consisting in throwing balls at coconuts: 1903: coll.

shy(-)cock

. A wary person, esp. one who keeps indoors to avoid the bailiffs: 1768, Goldsmith. 2. Hence, a cowardly person: 1796, F.Reynolds. Both senses †by ca 1850, the latest record being of 1828. Prob. ex lit. sense, a cock not easily caught, one that will not fight.

shy of the blues

*. Anxious to avoid the police: c.: from ca 1870.

shyer

; shier. One who throws as in SHY, v.: coll (–1895).

shyin'

, see SHINE, adj.

shyster

. An unprofessional, dishonest, or rapacious lawyer (1856); hence, anyone not too particular as to how he conducts business (1877); hence (–1903), a generic pejorative: U.S., anglicized resp. ca 1890, 1900, 1905. Either ex SHY, adj., 3, or ex SHICER: cf. next sense. 2. 'A duffer, a vagabond,' H., 3rd ed.: from ca 1860. This sense, independent of U.S. shyster, is a variant of SHICER, 2.

si quis

. A candidate for holy orders: from ca 1860; ob. Ex the public notice of ordination, so named because it began Si quis, if any...

sice

*. Sixpence: c.: ca 1660–1850. Tatham, 1660; Covent Garden Drollery, 1672; B.E.; Grose; Lytton. Ex sice, the six in dice.

sick

. Disgusted; exceedingly annoyed or chagrined: from ca 1800. 1853, Surtees, ‘How sick he was when the jury...gave five hundred pounds damages against him.’ Ex sick (of), thoroughly weary (of), prob. via sick and tired (of).

sick

, n. Mostly in give (someone) the sick, to disgust: low coll: ca 1840–1930. Sessions, Nov. 1849, ‘If I have many such markets as this, it will give me the sick.’

sick, enough to make a horse

, see SICK AS A CAT. sick, the, see SICKS, THE.

sick as a cat, cushion, dog, horse, rat,—as

. Very sick or ill indeed: coll verging on S.E.: resp. 1869, Spurgeon; ca 1675–1800, Ray, Swift; late C.16–20, G.Harvey, Garrick, Mrs Henry Wood; ca 1680–1830 (Meriton, 1685; Sterne; Grose), then coll; late C.19–20, ob. As a horse does not vomit, to be as sick as a horse connotes extreme discomfort. Northamptonshire dial. is logical in that it applies the phrase to a person ‘exceedingly sick without vomiting’ (Miss Baker, 1854)

sick-bay moocher

. A malingering: Conway cadets’: from before 1891. See MOOCHER.

sick friend, sit up with a

. (Of a man) to excuse oneself for absence all night from the conjugal bed: from ca 1880; slightly ob. cf. SEE A MAN about a dog.

sick of the fever burden

. To be BONELAZY: coll: C.16–17. e.g. in Fulwood's Enemy of Idleness, 1593, 'You have the palsey or eke the fever burden'; Ray. cf. SICK OF THE LOMBARD FEVER.

sick of the idle crick and the belly-work in the heel

. As preceding: coll: ca 1670–1750. Ray, 1678, thus: sick o'th'idle crick, and the belly-work i' th' heel, therefore prob. orig. Northern dial. Derisive, presumably, of an illness alleged to excuse idleness. cf.:

sick of the idles

. Exceedingly lazy; idle without the will to work: coll: 1639, John Clarke; Ray, 1670. Ob. by 1850, but not yet †. cf. preceding two entries and:

sick of the Lombard fever

. The same: coll: ca 1650–1720. Howell, 1659; Ray, 1670. cf. SICK OF THE FEVER BURDEN.

sick of the simples

, see SIMPLER, BE CUT FOR THE.

sick up

, v.i. and t. To vomit: low coll: late (?mid-) C.19–20.

sickrel

. ‘A puny, sickly Creature’, B.E.: late C.17–early 18. O.E.D. says that it is c.: but B.E. does not so classify it. Pejorative on sick: cf. cockerel on cock.

sicks (occ. sick), the

. A feeling of nausea. Esp. in give one the sicks, to get on a person’s nerves: late C.19–20.

side

. Conceit, swagger; pretentiousness. Earliest and often put on side, to give oneself airs, to SWANK. Hatton, 1878; ‘Pomes’ Marshall. Ex side, proud, or more prob., as W. suggests, by a pun on put on side at billiards.

side

*! Yes: Northern c. (–1864); ob. ?on ‘I side with you!’

side, on the

. In addition; not downright illegally, yet dubiously, in unacknowledged commissions, tips, bribes: coll: late C.19–20.

side-boards

. A shirt-collar: low (–1857); †by 1900. Prob. the same collar as that defined at SIDEBOARD. 2. Whiskers: from ca 1890.

side-lights

. Eyes: nautical: late C.19–20.

side-pocket, want as much as a dog (or toad) wants a

. A c.p. applied to one who desires something unnecessary: late C.18–20; ob. Grose, 1st ed., toad (at toad); dog in Grose, 2nd ed., where also the variant as much need of a wife as a dog of a side-pocket, applied to a debilitated old man. Quiller-Couch, 1888, ‘A bull’s got no more use for religion than a toad for side-pockets.’ Occ. monkey, unrecorded before 1880; very rarely cow, as in Whyte-Melville, 1862.

side-scrapers

. SIDE-WINGS: London middle classes’: ca 1879–89.

side-sim

. A fool: C.17 coll. Nares records for 1622. ?opp. Sim subtle, a crafty person or a subtle one. Sim=Simon. cf. simple Simon.

side up with

. To compare, or compete, with: 1895, Punch, 23 Feb.; ob.

side wind

. A bastard: naval: ?ca 1780–1850. ?punning BY-BLOW.

side-wings

. Whiskers: late C.19–20; ob. Contrast SIDE-BOARDS.

sideboard

. A ‘stand-up’ shirt-collar: 1857, ‘Ducange Anglicus’; ob. Gen. in pl. (H., 1st ed., shows that the term was applied to the collars of ca 1845–55.)

sideboards

. Whiskers: from ca 1890; very ob. cf. SIDE-WINGS.

'sides

, Besides; moreover; late C.16–20: S.E. until C.19, then coll and dial.

sidey

, see SIDY. sidi-boy, see SEEDY(-BOY).

sidledywry

. Crooked: late C.18–early 19. Grose, 2nd ed. Ex sidle+awry.

sidy

; occ.—but incorrectly—sidey. Conceited; apt to SWANK it: 1898 (O.E.D.): s. >, ca 1910, coll; ob. Ex SIDE.

sif, siff

, see SYPH.

sift

*, v.t.; occ. v.i. To steal small coins, i.e. such as might be conceived of as passing through a sieve: thus F. & H. (1903); but in 1864, H. says that it=to purloin ‘the larger pieces, that did not readily pass through the sieve’! It appears, however, that F. & H. is right, for in

H., 1874, we find ‘To embezzle small coins, those which might pass through a sieve—as threepennies and fourpennies—and which are therefore not likely to be missed’.

sight

. A multitude or a (great) deal: late C.14–20: S.E. until mid-C.18, then coll (in C.20, virtually s.). Sheridan & Tickell, 1778, ‘They wear...a large hat and feather, and a mortal sight of hair.’ 2. As adv.: coll >, ca 1890, s.: 1836, T.Hook; 1889, Grant Allen, ‘You’re a sight too clever for me to talk to.’ 3. An oddity, often pejoratively (‘You’ve made yourself a perfect or regular sight’): late C.17–20: S.E. until C.19, then coll. cf. FRIGHT. 4. An opportunity or chance. Esp. get within sight, to near the end, and get within sight of, to get anywhere near. Coll: late C.19–20. 5. ‘A gesture of derision: the thumb on the nose-tip and the fingers spread fanwise: also Queen Anne’s fan. A double sight is made by joining the tip of the little finger (already in position) to the thumb of the other hand, the fingers being similarly extended. Emphasis is given by moving the fingers of both hands as if playing a piano. Similar actions are taking a GRINDER... or working the COFFEE-MILL...; pulling BACON...; making a nose or LONG NOSE; COCKING SNOOKS, &c,’ a passage showing F. & H. to advantage. (The custom seems to have arisen in late C.17: see the frontispiece to the English Theophrastus, 1702, and cf. Spectator, 1712, ‘The prentice speaks his disrespect by an extended finger.’) T.Hook, 1836, ‘Taking a double sight’; Dickens, 1840, ‘That peculiar form of recognition which is called taking a sight’. Ex nautical j., the outstretched fingers roughly resembling a quadrant.

sight, give a

. Variant of take a sight (SIGHT, 5): Sessions, 6 April 1847.

sight, put out of

. To consume; esp., to eat: coll: from ca 1870. cf. GET OUTSIDE.

sight, take a

, see SIGHT, n., 5.

sighter

*. A minute dot on a card: card-sharpping c. (–1894).

sign of a house or a tenement to let

. A widow's weeds: 1785, Grose; ob. by 1900. In American low s., a house for rent (Irwin).

sign of the cat's foot, live at the

. To be hen-pecked: C.19–20; very ob.

sign of the feathers, the

. A woman's best good graces: mid-C.19–early 20.

sign of the five, ten, fifteen shillings, the

. An inn or tavern named The Crown, Two Crowns, Three Crowns: late C.18–20; ob.

sign of the horn, at the

. In cuckoldom: C.19–20; very ob.

sign of the prancer, the

, see PRANCER...

sign of the three balls, the

. A pawnbroker's: C.19–20; coll.

signboard

. The face: from ca 1870; very ob. cf. DIAL.

signed servant

. An assigned servant: Australian coll: ca 1830–60. Ex that convict system under which convicts were let out as labourers to the settlers.

sigster

. A short sleep: low: ca 1830–60. Sinks, 1848.

sil

*, see SILVER-BEGGAR.

Silas Hocking

. A stocking: theatrical rhyming s.: late C.19–20. Silas Hocking's very popular novels appeared over a period of fifty years or more, beginning in ca 1879.

silence

. To knock down, to stun: implied in 1725 in A New Canting Dict. (at silent). 2. Hence, to kill: C.19–20.

silence in the court, the cat is pissing

. A c.p. addressed to anyone requiring silence unnecessarily: ca 1780–1850. cf.:

silence-yelper

*. An usher in a court of law: c. (–1909). i.e. 'silence!'-yelper.

silencer

. A blow that knocks down or stuns: C.19–20. Ex SILENCE, 1.

silent

*. Murdered: c. (–1725). cf. SILENCE, 2.

silent beard

. The female pubic hair: coll: late C.17–early 19. T.Brown (d. 1704): Works, ii, 202.

silent flute

. The male member: late C.18– mid-19.

silk

. A Q.C. or K.C.: 1884 (O.E.D.): coll till ca 1905, then S.E. Abbr. silk-gown, a Q.C.: 1853, Dickens, ‘Mr Blowers, the eminent silk-gown’. A Counsel’s robe is of silk; a Junior Counsel’s, stuff. 2. A bishop: ecclesiastical: late C.19–early 20. The apron is of silk.

silk, carry or sport

. To ride in a race: turf coll: 1884, Hawley Smart. Ex the silk jacket worn by jockeys.

silk, obtain, receive, take

. To attain the rank of Counsel: legal coll >, ca 1905, S.E.: obtain, very rare before C.20, and perhaps always S.E.; receive, 1872, Standard, 16 Aug.; take, 1890, Globe, 6 May. Contrast:

silk, spoil

. To cease being Counsel; esp. on promotion: legal coll >, ca 1900, S.E.: 1882, Society, 4 Nov., 'Ere long he "spoiled silk" (as the saying is), and was made a Serjeant.' ?ex despoil oneself of.

silk-gown

, see SILK, 1.

silk-port

. Assumption of a gentleman commoner's gown: Oxford University: ca 1820–60.

silk-snatcher

*. A thief addicted to snatching hoods or bonnets from persons walking in the street: c. of ca 1720–1840.

silks and satins, support one's

. To parade, or prank oneself out in, silk and satin: modistes' coll (–1887); slightly ob.

silkworm

. A woman given to frequenting drapers' shops and examining goods with-out buying: coll: C.18. Steele, 1712, in the Spectator, No. 454.

sillikin

. A simpleton: 1860, G.A.Sala.

silly

. A silly person: coll: 1858, K.H. Digby, 'Like great sillies'.

silly

, adv. Sillily: C.18–20; S.E. until mid-C.19, then (low) coll and dial.

silly

, v. To stun: coll: ca 1850–1900. Sessions, 10 May 1859, 'I felt great pain from the blows...it half sillied me at the time.' cf.:

silly, knock

. To infatuate: coll: from ca 1890. (Lit., to stun, stupefy.)

silly (or S.) Billy

. A clown's juvenile butt: coll: ca 1850–1900. Mayhew, 1851, 'Silly Billy...is very popular with the audience at the fairs.' 2. Hence, gen. affectionately, a SILLY: coll: late C.19–20. cf. SILLY WILLY.

silly season

. In Great Britain, the months of August and September, when—owing to recess of Parliament and to other prominent persons' being on holiday—there is a shortage of important news, the lack being supplied by trivialities. 1871, Punch, 9 Sept., 'The present time of the year has been named "the silly season"': coll till ca 1910, then S.E. Whence:

silly-seasoner, -seasoning

. A typical silly-season article or story (1893); the writing and publishing of such matter (1897). Still coll.

silly Willy

. A simpleton: coll: C.17 (?– C.19). cf. SILLY BILLY, 2.

silver-beggar or -lurker

*. c.: s.-b., 1859, Sala; s.-l. from ca 1860; both ob. 'A tramp with BRIEFS or FAKEMENTS concerning bogus losses by fire, shipwreck, accident, and the like; guaranteed by forged signatures or SHAMS of clergymen, magistrates, &c., the false subscription-books being known as DELICATES. Also'—from ca 1870—'sil=(1) a forged document, and (2) a note on "The Bank of Elegance" or "The Bank of Engraving",' i.e. a counterfeit banknote; likewise ob.

silver-cooped

. (Of a naval seaman) deserting for the merchant service: nautical coll: late C.18–early 19. Ex the bounties offered to the crimps. 2. Hence, (of any merchant seaman) ‘shipped through the crimps’: nautical coll: C.19.

silver fork

. A wooden skewer, used as a chopstick when forks were scarce: Winchester: †by 1870.

silver hell

. A low-class gaming saloon or den: coll: from ca 1840; ob. Moncrieff, 1843, ‘He’s the principal partner of all the silver hells at the West End.’ Only or mainly silver was risked.

silver hook, catch fish with a

. To buy a fish (or several fish) to ‘conceal unskilful angling’, as F. & H. delicately say: anglers’: C.19–20; ob. Perhaps on the proverbial angle with a silver (or golden) hook, to get things by bribery, or only through paying for them.

silver-laced

. Lousy: low s. (?orig. c.) of ca 1810–1910. Ex the colour of lice.

silver spoon in one's mouth, born with a

. Born rich: C.18–20: coll till ca 1850, then S.E. Motteux, 1712; Buckstone, 1830, ‘Born...as we say in the vulgar tongue, with...’ Anticipated by John Clarke in 1639, born with a penny in one's mouth.

silver-tail

; silver-tailed, n. and adj. (A) SWELL: Australian bushmen's coll. (–1890); ob. Opp. copper-tailed, democratic. A.J.Vogan, The Black Police, 1890.

simkin or simpkin

; or with capitals in sense 1. The fool in (comic) ballets: theatrical coll from ca 1860. Mayhew, 1861. Ex simkin, a fool. 2. (simkin; occ. samkin.) Champagne: Anglo-Indian coll (1853); slightly ob. Ex native pronunciation.

simon (or S.)

. A sixpence: c.: late C.17Z 19. Prob. by a fancy on the name: since TANNER, 6d., is unrecorded before 1811, simon cannot derive from ‘the old joke... about St Peter's banking transaction, when he “lodged with one Simon a tanner”’ (Household Words, 20 June 1885), but tanner may well have come from Simon in this connection. 2. A trained horse: circus: from ca 1850; ob. Is this a pun? On what? 3. A cane: King Edward's School, Birmingham: ca 1850–90. Ex Acts ix, 43.

Simon Pure (occ. Simon- or simon-pure), the or the real

. The real or authentic person or, from ca 1859 (H., 1st ed.), thing: coll: the real S.P., 1815, Scott; the S.P., 1860, W.C.Prime. Ex Simon Pure, a Quaker who, in Mrs Centlivre's A Bold Stroke for a Wife, 1717, is, for part of the play, impersonated by another character; see esp. Act V, scene 1. 2. Its use as an adj. is mainly, as it certainly was orig. (Howells, 1879), American.

Simon soon gone

*. In Awdelay, Simon soone agon, 'He, that when his Mayster hath any thing to do, he will hide him out of the way': c. of ca 1560–90.

simper like a furmity kettle

, see FURMITY KETTLE.

simpkin

, see SIMKIN.

simple infanticide

. Masturbation: pedantic coll or s.: late C.19–20.

simpler

*. A simple or foolish man much given to lust: c. of late C.16–early 17. Greene, 1592; Rowlands, 1602. i.e. simple +er.

simples, be cut for (in C.17–early 18 of) the

. To be cured of one's folly: mid-C.17–20: s. (not c.) until ca 1820, then mainly, and in C.20 nothing but, dial. In C.18 often in semi-proverbial form, he must go to Battersea, to be cut for the simples, as in Grose, 1st ed., where also the corrupt variant, ...to have their simples cut, for at Battersea simples (medicinal herbs) were formerly grown in large quantities. Cognate is the C.18 semi-proverbial sick of the simples, foolish: coll.

simpson

; occ. incorrectly, simson. Also with capital. Water used in diluting milk: dairymen's: 1871, Daily News, 17 April, 'He had, he stated on inquiry, a liquid called Simpson on his establishment.' Ex the surname Simpson, that of a dairyman who, in the late 1860s, was prosecuted for such adulteration. 2. Hence, inferior milk: 1871, Standard, 11 May, Police Report, 'If they annoyed him again he would christen them with Simpson, which he did by throwing a can of milk over the police.' 3. Almost co-extensive is the sense, 'That combined product of the cow natural and the COW WITH THE IRON TAIL', Standard, 25 Dec. 1872. See also SIMPSON, MRS; cf. CHALKER and SKYBLUE, 2, and next entry. 4. A milkman: mostly London (–1887); †by 1910.

simpson or S.

; incorrectly simson. To dilute (milk) with water: 1872, The Times, 24 Dec. Ex n., 1. Also SIMPSONIZE, gen. v.t.

Simpson, Mrs.

The (village) pump: mostly among dairymen (–1874). Also Simpson's cow and:

Simpson-pump

. A pump as a means of diluting milk: dairymen's: from ca 1879. Punch, 31 Jan. 1880. cf. preceding entry.

Simpsonize, -ise

. Gen. v.t., to dilute milk with water: dairymen's: 1871, Echo, 13 Dec. Ex SIMPSON, n., 1; and cf. the v.

Simpson's cow

. See SIMPSON, MRS: dairymen's (–1903).

sin

. (e.g. 'It's a sin that or to...') A shame; a pity: C.14–20: S.E. until C.19, then coll. cf.:

sin, like

. Very vigorously; furiously: late C.19–20. Here, sin=the devil.

Sinbad

. An old sailor: nautical: ca 1860–1910. Ex the legendary figure.

Sinbad the Sailor

. A tailor: rhyming: late C.19–20.

since when I have used no other

. A c.p. applied to any (gen. domestic) article: from ca 1890. Ex the witty Pears' Soap advertisement of a tramp ('Twenty years ago I used your soap, since when I have used no other'). cf. GOOD MORNING!...

sines

. (Generic for) bread, whereas a sines is a small loaf: Winchester: from ca 1870; †by 1915. Perhaps a pun on natural sine(s) and sign(s).

sing a bone

is the Australian Aboriginal practice of pointing the bone at someone under a curse: the former is s., the latter is S.E.: sing a bone, late C.19–20. For the practice, see Archer Russell, A Tramp Royal in Wild Australia, 1934.

sing it!, don't

; or don't chant the poker! Don't exaggerate!: proletarian c.p. of ca 1870–1910.

sing like a bird called the swine

. To sing execrably: coll: ca 1675–1750. Ray, 1678; Fuller, 1732.

sing out

*. c. of ca 1810–40. Scott, 1815, in a note to Guy Mannering, ch. xxviii, says, 'To sing out or whistle in the cage, is when a rogue, being apprehended, peaches against his comrades.' (N.B., the phrase is not sing out in the cage.) cf.:

sing out beef

*. To call 'Stop thief': c. of ca 1810–40. (More gen. cry BEEF or give (hot) beef.) Possibly a rhyming synonym.

sing placebo (or P.)

, see PLACEBO.

sing small

. To make less extravagant or conceited claims or statements: coll: 1753, Richardson, ‘I must myself sing small in her company’; Clement Scott, 1885. Perhaps suggested by S.E. sing another, or a different, tune, to speak, act, very differently, though it may follow naturally ex C.17–early 18 sing small, to sing in a small voice: cf. Shakespeare’s ‘Speaks small like a woman’.

single-peeper

. A one-eyed person: ca 1780–1850. On single-eyed.

single-pennif

. A five-pound note: back s. on finnup (see FIN(N)IF-): from 1850.

single-ten or singleten

. See senses 1, 2 of:

singleton

. ‘A very foolish silly Fellow’, B.E., where spelt single-ten: late C.17–early 19. Grose, 1st ed. Prob. ex †S.E. single, (of persons) simple, honest, on simpleton, but possibly ex single(-)ten, the 10 in a card-suit, thus: the ‘10’ is below and next to the knave and—by the age-old juxtaposition of fools and knaves—is therefore a fool. 2. ‘A nail of that size’, says B.E. puzzlingly; Grose, who likewise has singleten, is no clearer with ‘a particular kind of nails’. Late C.17–early 19. Possibly one that was one inch long. 3. ‘A cork screw, made by a famous cutler of that name [Singleton], who lived in a place called Hell, in Dublin; his screws are remarkable for their excellent temper,’ Grose, 1st ed.: coll: ca 1780–1830.

sink

. A toper: coll: mid-C.19–20; ob. cf. common SEWER. 2. the sink. The throat: mid-C.19–20. 3. A heavy meal: Leys School: late C.19–20. cf. STODGE. 4. Hence, a glutton: ibid.: late C.19–20. 5. the sink (or S.). The Royal Marine office in a battleship: naval: late C.19–20.

sink, fall down the

. To take to drink: late C.19–20: ?rhyming s. cf.:

sink-hole

. The throat: low: ca 1830–90. Sinks, 1848. cf. last entry.

sink me

! A coll imprecation: 1772, Bridges, ‘But sink me if I...understand’; very ob. Prob. orig., and mainly, nautical.

sinker

*. A counterfeit coin: c. (–1839). Gen. in pl, bad money, ‘affording a man but little assistance in keeping afloat’, H., 3rd ed. 2. A small, stodgy cake (of the doughnut kind): late C.19–20. Gen. in pl.

sinks

. The five: dicing coll (–1860). Ex Fr. cinq.

sinner

. A publican: coll: from ca 1860; ob. Ex Luke xviii. 2. Affectionately for a person (usually male), as in ‘You old sinner!’; coll: late C.19–20, cf. the affectionate use of SCAMP, SCALAWAG; BASTARD, etc.

sip

. A kiss: London lower classes’: ca 1860–1905. Ware. Ex the bee sipping: cf. that popular early C.20 song in which the male warbles, ‘You are the honeysuckle, I am the bee.’

sip

. To make water: back s. (–1903) on PISS.

sip, do a

, see DO A SIP.

sipper

. Gravy: low: late C.19–20. ?ex dial. sipper-sauce (ex C.16–17 S.E. sibber-sauce), sauce, influenced by to sip. cf. JIPPER. 2. A tea-spoon: low: ca 1810–90.

Sir Berkeley

. Female genitals; hence, sexual intercourse (from the male angle), late C.19–20. Short for Sir Berkeley Hunt: mid-C.19–20 variant of BERKELEY Hunt.

Sir Cloudesley

. A choice drink of small beer and brandy, often with a sweetening and a spicing, and nearly always with lemon-juice: nautical: late C.17–mid-18. Ex Clowdisley Shovell (1650–1707), knighted in 1689 for naval services, esp. against pirates.

Sir Garnet

; often all Sir Garnet. All right: whether as predicate or as answer to a question: from ca 1885. ‘Pomes’ Marshall, ‘And the start was all Sir Garnet,|Jenny went for Emma’s Barnet.’ In C.20 often corrupted to (all) sirgarneo. Ex Sir Garnet (later Viscount) Wolseley’s military fame.

Sir Garny

. A Cockney variant, dating from ca 1890, of SIR GARNET. E. Pugh, Harry the Cockney, 1912.

Sir Harry

. A privy; a close-stool. Esp. in go to, or visit, Sir Harry: C.19–20: coll and (in C.20, nothing but) dial.; app. orig. dial. cf. MRS JONES; SIR JOHN.

Sir Jack Sauce

, see JACK SAUCE.

Sir John

. A close-stool: coll (C.19) and dial. (C.19–20); ob. cf. SIR HARRY.

Sir Oliver

, see OLIVER. sir reverence, see SIR REVERENCE.

Sir Roger, (as) fat as

. A real Falstaff in girth and weight: lower classes' coll: ca 1875–1900. Ex Sir Roger Tichborne of the famous law-suit.

Sir Sauce

, see JACK SAUCE.

Sir Sydney

*. A clasp-knife: c. of ca 1810–50. Why?: unless Sydney, Australia, already had a notorious underworld.

Sir Thomas Gresham, sup with

. To go hungry: C.17 coll. Hayman, 1628, ‘For often with DUKE HUMPHREY thou dost dine,|And often with sir Thomas Gresham sup.’ Sir Thomas Gresham, 1519–79, founded the Royal Exchange and was a noted philanthropist.

Sir Timothy

. ‘One that Treats every Body, and pays the Reckonings every where’, B.E.: coll: late C.17–early 19. Prob. ex a noted ‘treater’.

Sir Tristram’s knot

. A hangman’s noose: coll: mid-C.16–early 17. Wm Bullein. Prob. ex some famous judge or magistrate.

Sir Walter Scott

. A pot (of beer): rhyming s. (–1857); ob.

sirgarneo

; all sirgarneo, see SIR GARNET.

sirrah

may orig. (C.16) have been coll.

sirretch

. A cherry; more properly, cherries: back s. (–1859). The ‘logical’ seirrehc is impossible, the former e is omitted, hc reversed, and t interpolated to make the ch sound unequivocal.

sirreverence

; frequently sir-reverence. Human excrement; a lump thereof: late C.16–20: S.E. until ca 1820, then mainly (in C.20, nothing but) dial. In late C.18– mid-19, a vulgarism. Ex save (via sa’) reverence, as an apology.

sis

; often sis. Sister: coll: gen., term of address: orig. (–1859), U.S.; anglicized before 1887. cf.:

sissie, sissy

; occ. Cissy, cissy. An effeminate boy or man; hence a passive homosexual: late C.19–20; ob. in latter sense. Ware declares it to have originated in 1890 as a Society term for an effeminate man in Society; the O.E.D. (Sup.) that it was orig. U.S. s.—but is this so? Ex sissy, sister, as form of address orig. (–1859) U.S. but anglicized before 1887: coll: cf. SIS.

sit

. An engagement (for, in, work): general s.: 1888, Jacobi. Abbr. situation.

sit-down-upons

. Trousers: 1840, J.T. Hewlett; ob. cf. SIT-UPON, 2.

sit-in-'ems

. Trousers: jocular (–1887); ob. cf. SIT-DOWN-UPONS.

sit longer than a hen

, see SITTING BREECHES.

sit-me-down

. One's posterior: semi-nursery, semi-jocular: late C.19–20.

sit on or (rare in C.20) upon

. To check; snub or rebuke: 1864. Often as sat upon, squashed, 'pulled up'.

sit up, make one

. 'To make one bestir oneself, to set one thinking, to surprise or astonish one', Pettman, who wrongly regards it as esp. South African: coll (–1887).

sit up and beg

. To have an erection: low: late C.19–20. Ex a dog's trick.

sit up and take notice

. To take (a sudden) interest: coll orig. (1889), U.S.; anglicized by 1900.

sit upon

. See SIT ON. 2. (Only in pl: sit-upons.) Trousers: 1841, J.T.Hewlett; ob. Suggested by SIT-DOWN-UPONS. 3. One's posterior: euphemistic: late C.19–20. cf. SIT-ME-DOWN.

sith-nom, sithnom

. A month: back s. (–1859).

sitter

. A sitting-room: Harrow (from ca 1890) >, by 1902, Oxford University undergraduates'. Charles Turley, Godfrey Marten, Undergraduate, 1904. The term has > gen. in bed-sitter. cf. BREKKER; RUGGER; SOCKER, 3; see 'Oxford-er,' p. 11. 2. In cricket a very easy catch: 1898, Tit-Bits, 25 June, 'Among recent neologisms of the cricket field is "sitter". So easy that it could be caught by a fieldsman sitting.' 3. An easy mark or task (1908). Ex shooting a sitting bird.

sitting(-)breeches on, have one's

; in C.19, occ. wear one's sitting breeches. To stay long in company: coll: ca 1870–1910. From ca 1880, sit longer than a hen. cf. the Yorkshire sit eggs, to outstay one's welcome.

sitting-pad

*. Begging from a sitting position on the pavement: c. (–1859); ob. See PAD, n.

sitting-room

. The posteriors: late C.19–20 jocular; slightly ob. (cf. SIT-ME-DOWN.) Prob. ex the smoke-room story of 'only a pair of blinds for her sitting-room' in connection with a pair of drawers. cf. the mid-C.16–early 18 sitting-place, the posterior, the rump.

situation

. A 1st, 2nd, or 3rd place: 1871: racing coll >, ca 1905, S.E. ‘Thormanby’, Men of the Turf, ca 1887, ‘The three worst horses, probably, that ever monopolized the Derby “situations”’.

siv(v)ey or sivvy, ’pon my

! On my word of honour!: low: mid-C.19–20; slightly ob. J.Greenwood, 1883. Not asseveration, but prob. DAVY, corrupted, or, as Baumann implies, soul.

siwash

. A mean and/or miserable seaman: Nova Scotian (and U.S.) nautical: mid-C.19–20. A corruption of Fr. sauvage, wild, savage.

six

. A privy: Oxford University: ca 1870–1915. ?origin.

six-and-eightpence

. ‘The usual Fee given, to carry back the Body of the Executed Malefactor, to give it Christian Burial’, B.E., who classes it as c.: more prob. coll: late C.17–mid-18. 2. A solicitor or attorney: coll: 1756, Foote. Because this was a usual fee. cf. GREEN-BAG.

six-and-tips

. Whiskey and small beer: Anglo-Irish coll: ca 1780–1850. An elaboration of †six, six-shilling beer.

six feet and itches

. Over six feet: lower classes' (–1909); ob. Ex inches written as ichs.

Six Mile Bridge assassin

. (Gen. pl.) A soldier: Tipperary: late C.19–early 20. Ware, 'Once upon a time certain rioters were shot at this spot, not far from Mallow.'

six-monther

. A third-term cadet in the old training-ship Britannia: naval coll: late C.19–early 20.

six-monthser

. A very severe stipendiary magistrate: police coll (–1909). i.e. one 'who always gives, where he can, the full term (six months) allowed him by law'.

six of everything, with

. Respectably married: work-people's coll (–1909). Applied only to the girl: her trousseau contains six of everything.

six-on-four, go

. To be put on short rations: naval: late C.19–20. Thus, a six-on-four is a supernumerary borne on a warship: Bowen, 'Supposed to have twothirds rations'. cf. SIX UPON FOUR.

six-pounder

. 'A servant maid, from the wages formerly given to maid servants, which was commonly six pounds [per annum, plus keep]', Grose, 1st ed.: coll: ca 1780–1850.

six quarter, get

. To be dismissed from employment: commercial: ca 1860–1910. Origin?

six-quarter man

; three-quarter man. A superior—an inferior—employee: clothdrapers' (–1909). Ware, 'There are two widths of cloth—six quarter and three quarter.'

six upon four

. Short rations: nautical coll: 1838, Glascock in Land Sharks and Sea Gulls; ob. Because the rations of four had to suffice for six. See also go SIX-ON-FOUR.

six-water grog

. Grog in which water: grog s.: 1:6. Nautical coll: 1826, Glascock. In mid-C.19–20, often six-water.

sixer

*. Six months' hard labour: c. or low s.: 1869, 'Pomes' Marshall, 'I see what the upshot will be,|Dear me!|A sixer with H.A.R.D.' 2. A sixth imprisonment: 1872 (O.E.D.): low s. rather than c. 3. The six-ounce loaf served with dinner: prison c. (–1877). 4. Anything counting as six: orig. (1870) and mainly in cricket: coll. 5. A Christian girl: East End of London: late C.19–20. Ex Yiddish SHICKSTER.

sixes

. Small hook-curls worn by men; composed of forehead hair, they are plastered to the forehead: military: ca 1879–90. Ex shape. If Manchon has not erred, the term app. > number sixes and an underworld term, still extant though ob.

sixpences, spit

, see SPIT SIXPENCES.

sixpenny

. A playing-field: 1864, Eton School Days: Eton College; ob. Ex the junior cricket club founded in 1830 and known as the Sixpenny Club, the subscription being sixpence; the name applied only in the summer. 2. The chocolate-coloured, white-ringed cap awarded as a 'colour' for junior cricket at Eton: mid-C.19–20.

sixpenny

, adj. Inferior, cheap; worthless: coll: ca 1590–1630. Esp. sixpenny striker, a petty footpad (as in Shakespeare's 1 Henry IV).

sixth-forming

. A caning by the prefects assembled in the sixth-form room: Public Schools' coll: late C.19–20.

sixty, like

. Very vigorously or rapidly: orig. (1848), U.S.; anglicized ca 1860. ?abbr. like sixty to the minute or like sixty miles an hour. cf. FORTY.

sixty per cent

. A usurer: coll: 1853, Reade; slightly ob. cf. Fletcher, 1616, 'There are few gallants...that would receive such favours from the devil, though he appeared like a broker, and demanded sixty i' th' hundred.'

size

, n. Jelly (to eat): London street s.: ca 1840–90. Augustus Mayhew, Paved With Gold, 1857.

size

; gen. size up. To gauge, estimate; to regard carefully (in order to form an opinion of): coll: orig. (1847), U.S.; anglicized ca 1890. Marriott-Watson, 1891, size; Newnham Davis, 1896, size up. cf. the rare S.E. size down, v.t., to comprehend.

size of (a thing), the

. What it amounts to: coll: from the middle 1880s. e.g. ‘That’s about the size of it.’ Ex dial.

sizzler

. An exceedingly fast ball, racehorse, etc.: coll: late C.19–20. cf. the familiar S.E. sense, a broiling hot day.

skalbanker

, see SCOWBANKER. skallewag, see SCALAWAG.

skater

. An N.C.O.'s chevron: Regular Army: late C.19–20; ob. Perhaps because its wearer 'skates on thin ice'.

skates(-)lurk

*. 'A begging impostor dressed as a sailor', H., 1st ed.: c.; †by 1903. Perhaps=skate's LURK, a fish's—hence a FISHY—trick!

skeary, skeery

. Terrifying; (mostly U.S.) timorous: low coll: C.19–20. Blackmore.

skedaddle

. A hasty flight; a scurry: coll: with article, 1870, Mortimer Collins; without, 1871, Daily News, 27 Jan. Ex:

skedaddle

; occ. (though not in C.20) skeedadle, v.i. (Of soldiers) to flee: orig. (1861), U.S., anglicized ca 1864. H., 3rd ed., 'The American War has introduced a new and amusing word.' Prob. of fanciful origin, though H.'s 'The word is very fair Greek, the root being that of σχεδάννυμι to disperse, to "retire tumultuously", and it was probably set afloat by some professor at Harvard' is not to be dismissed with contempt. 2. Hence, in gen. use, to run away, decamp, hastily depart: coll: 1862; Trollope, 1867. 3. Also ex sense 1, (of animals) to stampede or flee: 1879, F.Pollock.

skedaddler

; skedaddling. One who ‘skedaddles’ (see the v.) (1864); the act (–1898).

skeery

, see SKEARY.

skeeter

. A mosquito: coll: orig. (1852), U.S.; then, ca 1870, Australian; then ca 1880, English—but it is still comparatively rare in Britain.

Skeffington’s daughter

, see SCAVENGER’S DAUGHTER.

skein of thread

. Bed: rhyming s.: from ca 1870.

skelder

*, v.i. To beg, esp. as a wounded or demobilized soldier: c.: late C.16–mid-17, later use (esp. in Scott) being archaic. Ben Jonson. 2. v.t., to cheat, defraud (a person); obtain (money) by begging: c.: late C.16–mid-17. Ben Jonson. Perhaps Dutch bedelen perverted.

skeldering

*, vbl n. and ppl adj. of SKELDER: late C.16–mid-17 c. Ben Jonson, who, I surmise, introduced it from Holland; cf. SKELLUM.

skeleton army

. Street-fighting or -brawling: London: late 1882–3. Ex the Skeleton Army ‘formed to oppose the extreme vigour of the early Salvation Army’ (Ware).

skel(l)um

; scellum. A rascal, villain: perhaps orig. coll, but certainly very soon S.E. Coryat, D’Urfey. Ex Dutch or Ger. schelum.

skelter

. A quick run, a rush, a scamper: dial. (–1900). Ex helter-skelter.

skerfer

. A punch on the neck: boxing: from ca 1880; ob. Ex scruff, the nape of the neck.

sket

*. A skeleton key: c.: from ca 1870. By telescoping skeleton.

sketch

. A person whose appearance offers a very odd sight (cf. SIGHT, 3): coll: from ca 1905. e.g. ‘Lor, what a sketch she was!’ 2. A small amount; a drop (of liquor): 1894 (O.E.D.); very ob. cf.:

sketchy

. Unsubstantial (meal); flimsy (building, furniture); imperfect: coll: 1878, O.E.D.

skettling

. Full-dressing: naval officers’ (–1909). Perhaps a pun on scuttling.

Skevington’s daughter

, see SCAVENGER’S DAUGHTER.

skew

*; occ. scew. A cup or wooden dish: c. of ca 1560–1830. Ex Low L. scutella, a platter, a dish: cf. the Welsh Gypsy skudela in the same sense. 2. At Harrow School, from ca 1865, a hard passage for translation or exposition; also, an entrance examination at the end of term (that at the beginning of term is a dab). Ex v. 3. In back s. (–1859): see KEW.

skew

, v.t. To fail in an examination: gen. as be skewed: 1859, Farrar in Eric, or Little by Little. 2. Also v.t., to do (very) badly, fail in (a lesson): likewise Harrow (–1899). Occ. v.i.: late C.19–20. Perhaps ex skew at, look at obliquely, esp. in a suspicious way.

skew-fisted

. Ungainly, awkward: coll: late C.17–18.

skew-gee

. Crooked; squinting: low coll: late C.19–20. Ex on a, or the, skew, slantwise (1881). cf. SKEWVOW.

skew-the-dew

. A splay-footed person: low: late C.19–20; ob. cf. SKEWVOW.

skew-whiff

, adj. and adv. Crooked(ly); askew: dial. and coll: 1754.

skewed

, see SKEW, v., 1.

skewer

. A pen: from ca 1880; ob. Ex shape. 2. An Aboriginal throwing-spear: Australian: since ca 1860. 3. A sword: ca 1840–1900. Sinks, 1848.

skewgy-newgy

. A composition of caustic used to keep decks clean: yachtsmen's: 1886, St James's Gazette, 7 April, 'The mysterious name'. Very!: unless it be perchance a reduplicated perversion of caustic.

skewings

. Perquisites: gilders', from ca 1850. Ex skew, to remove superfluous gold leaf. 'Analogous terms are cabbage (tailors'); blue-pigeon (plumbers'); menavelings (beggars'); fluff (railway clerks'); pudding, or jam (common)', F. & H. See those terms.

skewvow

. Crooked: coll or s.: ca 1780–1880. An elaboration of skew, a slant, or possibly a jocular perversion of SKEW-WHIFF. Whence SKEW-GEE and SKEW-THE-DEW.

Ski

, see SKY.

skid

, n., see SKIV.

skid, put on the

. To act, speak, cautiously: coll: 1885, Punch, 31 Jan. Ex skid, a chain or block retarding a wheel. Also (s)he might put the skid on is a coll semi-c.p. applied to a talkative person, occ. with the addition with advantage to us, you, his listeners: from ca 1870; ob.

skiddi(c)k

, see SCUDDICK. skiddoo, see SKIDOO. skie, see SKY, v.

skidoo, skiddoo

. To make off, to depart: 1907, Neil Munro. Ex SKEDADDLE.

skied

; skyed. (Of a picture) hung on the upper line at the Exhibition of the Royal Academy: artistic coll >, ca 1900, S.E.: 1864, H., 3rd ed., at skyed. Opp. FLOORED, 3.

skiff

. (Presumably) a leg: low s. of ca 1890–1910. Morning Advertiser, 6 April 1891, ‘To drive an “old crock” with “skinny skiffs”’. ?origin: perhaps cognate is dial. skiff, to move lightly, skim along; ?cf. also †dial. skife, to kick up one’s heels.

skiffle

. A great hurry; among tailors, a job to be done in a hurry; low coll or s.: late C.19–20. With this thinning of scuffle, cf. that of BUMF in BIMPH; the word exists also in West Yorkshire dial.

skilamalink

. Secret; SHADY: East London: late C.19–20; ob. Ware, 1909, remarks: ‘If not brought in by Robson, it was re-introduced by him at the Olympic Theatre, and in a burlesque.’ Origin?

skill

. A goal kicked between posts: football: from ca 1890. This being the result of skill.

skillet

. A ship’s cook: nautical: from ca 1880; ob. Ex the cooking-utensil.

skilly

. Gruel; oatmeal soup: 1839, Brandon: low s. >, ca 1890, coll. Abbr. skilligolee, perhaps on skillet, often, in dial., pronounced skilly. 2. Hence, a fount carrying its own lead: printers': ca 1870–1910. It was unpopular with composers, for it lent itself to ill-paid piece-work. 3. Tea or coffee supplied to messes: Conway cadets': late C.19–20.

skilly and toke

. Anything mild or insipid: proletarian: from ca 1860. See SKILLY, 1, and TOKE, n., 1.

skilly-pot

. A teapot: H.M.S. Conway: late C.19–20. cf. SKILLY, 3.

skim

*. c.: 1869, Daily News, 29 July, 'They thought it contained his skim (money)'; ob. Perhaps the 'skim' of milk, i.e. cream.

skimmer

. A broad-brimmed hat: Sedgely Park School: ca 1800–65. One could send it skimming into the air.

skin

*. A purse: c. of ca 1810–80. Vaux, Haggart, Mayhew. Because made of skin. Hence, a QUEER skin is an empty one. 2. ?hence, and ?ca 1830–60, a sovereign. Perhaps partly by rhyming suggestion of ‘sovrin’. 3. See SKINS. 4. A horse; a mule: military: from the late 1890s. 5. Foreskin: coll: mid-C.19–20.

skin

, v.t. At cards, to win from a person all his money: 1812, Vaux. 2. Hence, to strip (of clothes, money); to fleece: 1851, Mayhew. In C.20, almost coll. cf. SKIN-GAME; SKIN THE LAMB. 3. To steal from: c. or low s.: 1891, Morning Advertiser, 21 March, ‘Sergeant Hiscock...saw him skinning the sacks—that is, removing lumps [of coal] from the tops and placing them in an empty sack.’ 4. To shadow, esp. just before arresting: c.: from ca 1880; ob. 5. In gaming, to PLANT (11) (a deck of cards): from ca 1880. 6. To lower (a price or value): 1859, H., 1st ed.; ob. 7. Also skin alive. To thrash: orig. (–1888), U.S.; anglicized ca 1895. Headon Hill, 1902, ‘I’d have skinned the ’ussy if I’d caught her prying into my grounds.’

skin, go on the

. To save money by rigid economy over a period: military, esp. in India: from ca 1885; ob. cf. SKIN, v., 1 and 2.

skin, in a bad

. Angry: ill-humoured: late C.18–mid-19. Prob. suggested jocularly by S.E. thin-skinned.

skin, in his, her

, etc. An evasive reply to a question as to a person’s whereabouts: coll: C.18–20. Swift, Polite Conversation, Dialogue I. cf. THERE AND BACK.

skin a razor

. To drive a hard bargain: coll: from ca 1870; ob.

skin a turd, he'd

. He is parsimonious: low Canadian c.p.: late C.19–20.

skin alive

, see SKIN, v., 7.

skin and blister

. A sister: rhyming s.: late C.19–20.

skin-and-grief

. A variant of skin-and-bones, (a) skinny (person): lower classes, (–1887); ob.

skin and whipcord, all

. Extremely fit; with not a superfluous ounce of fat: coll: (U.S. and) Colonial: from ca 1880; slightly ob.

skin-coat

. The female pudend. Esp. in shake a skin-coat, to coït: mid-C.17–18. 2. Skin. Only in curry one's skin-coat, to thrash a person: C.18–mid-19.

skin-disease

. Fourpenny-ale: low: ca 1880–1914.

skin-game

. A swindling game: 1882. Ex SKIN, v., 1; 2. cf.:

skin-house

. A gambling den: from ca 1885; ob. Suggested by SKIN-GAME.

skin-merchant

. A recruiting officer: coll: late C.18–mid-19. Burgoyne, 1792. A cynical reflection on the buying and selling of skins; cf. modern gun-fodder.

skin of one's teeth, by or (C.16–17) with the . Narrowly; difficultly: mid-C.16–20: S.E. until C.19, then coll. Orig. a lit. translation of the Hebrew.

skin of the creature

. A bottle (containing liquor): Anglo-Irish: mid-C.19–20. See CREATURE.

skin the cat

. ‘To grasp the bar with both hands, raise the feet, and so draw the body, between the arms, over the bar’, F. & H.: gymnastics: 1888.

skin the lamb

. Lansquenet (the game of cards): 1864, H., 3rd ed.; ob. A perversion of lansquenet. 2. v. When an outsider wins a race, the bookmakers are said to ‘skin the lamb’: 1864, H., 3rd ed. Lit., fleece the public. Also, from ca 1870, have a skinner. 3. Hence, to concert and/or practise a swindle: from ca 1865. 4. Also, to mulct a person in, e.g. blackmail: from ca 1870.

skin the live rabbit

. To retract the prepuce: low: late C.19–early 20.

skin-the-pizzle

. The female pudend: low: mid-C.19–20. See PIZZLE.

skin-tight

. A sausage: (lower classes') coll: from ca 1890; ob.

skinned rabbit

. A very thin person: coll: from ca 1870; slightly ob.

skinner

. Mayhew, 1856, “Skinners”, or women and boys who strip children of their clothes’, in order to eye lustfully their nakedness: low s. verging on c.; ob. 2. skinner, have a. Here, skinner may be a punning corruption of winner; the whole phrase, however, is prob. a light-hearted perversion of SKIN THE LAMB (2), as H., 5th ed. (1874) suggests. Hence, a skinner has by 1893 >=a result very profitable to the bookies, as it had, in essence, been twenty years earlier. 3. A driver of horses: Canadian: late C.19–20. cf. SKIN, n., 4. 4. A hanger-on for profit at auctions: mid-C.19–20; ob.

skinners

. Mental torture; terrible anxiety: low urban (–1909); slightly ob. Because it ‘flays’ one.

skins

. A tanner: coll: ca 1780–1860.

skip

. A dance: Anglo-Irish coll: late C.19–20. cf. HOP. 2. A skipper: Ned Ward, 1715.

skip

, v. To make off (quickly): C.15–20: S.E. until ca 1830, then coll (mostly U.S.) with further sense, to abscond. Marryat, King's Own, 1830. 2. Hence, to die: late C.19–20. Often skip out. Savage, Brought to Bay, 1900.

skip-Jack

. A dandy: s.: Ned Ward, 1703.

skip-kennel

. A footman: coll: ca 1680–1840.

skip-louse

. A tailor: coll: 1807, J.Beresford; ob. cf. PRICK-LOUSE.

skip the gutter

! Houp la!; over she goes!: proletarian: ca 1865–1910.

skipper

*; in C.16–mid-17, often skypper. A barn: c.: mid-C.16–19; but after late C.19, only in SKIPPER-BIRD. As H. suggests, prob. ex the Welsh ysgubor (a barn), of which the y is silent, or, as O.E.D. proposes, ex Cornish sciber (the same). 2. Hence, a ‘bed’ out of doors: tramps’ c.: late C.19–20. 3. The devil: C.19. ?ex skipper, a captain. 4. A master, a boss: coll: late C.19–20. Ex skipper, captain: cf. coll sense of CAPTAIN. 5. A military captain: naval: C.19–20: Alfred Burton, 1818. 6. One who is retreating (–1909): c. cf. SKIP, v., 1.

skipper; gen. skipper it

*. To sleep in a barn or hay-rick, hence under, e.g. a hedge: c.: mid-C.19–20. ‘No. 747’ p. 413, valid for 1845; Mayhew, 1851, ‘I skipper it—turn in under a hedge or anywhere.’ Ex the n., 1. cf. HEDGE-SQUARE and:

skipper-bird

*. Mid-C.19–20 c., as in: Mayhew, 1851, ‘The best places in England for skipper-birds (parties that never go to lodging-houses, but to barns or outhouses, sometimes without a blanket)’. Also KEYHOLE-WHISTLER. Ex SKIPPER, n., 1, and v.

skipper’s daughter

. A crested wave: from ca 1888: coll.

skirry

. A run or scurry: either coll or familiar S.E., as is the v.: resp. 1821, Haggart (who also has the v.) and 1781, George Parker. Ex scurry.

skirt

. A woman: mid-C.16–20: S.E. until late C.19, then s. Hence, a light skirt is a loose woman: late C.19–20 (Manchon). 2. the skirt, women in gen.; women collectively: late C.19–20. Hyne, 1899. cf.:

skirt

, v.i. To be a harlot: late C.19–20, ob. cf. SKIRT, FLUTTER A. 2. To skirt-dance: coll: mostly Cockney: from ca 1880.

skirt, a bit of . A woman, a girl: late C.19–20. Not necessarily pejorative. Hence:

skirt, do a bit of

. To coït with a woman: late C.19–20. Ex preceding.

skirt, flutter a

. To be a harlot: late C.19–20: coll. Ob.

skirt-foist

*. A female cheat: c. of ca 1650–1700. A.Wilson, ca 1650.

skirt-hunting

. A search, ‘watch-out’, for either girls or harlots: coll: late C.19–20.

skit

. Beer: military: from the 1890s. Ex S.E. skit, a small jet of water.

skit

*. (Gen. v.t.) To wheedle: c.: late C.18–mid-19. Prob. ex S.E. skit, to be skittish, to caper.

skite

. A boaster; boasting: Australian: late C.19–20. Abbr. blatherskite (see BLETHERSKATE); or possibly ex Scottish and Northern dial., a person viewed with contempt; cf. also SKYTE.

skitting-dealer

*. A person feigning dumbness: C.18 c. Ex †skit, to be shy.

skittle

. Chess played without ‘the rigour of the game’: coll: mid-C.19–20. 2. Also as v.i.: id.: id.
3. To knock down; to kill: mostly Australian: late C.19–20. Ex the game of skittles.

skittles

. Nonsense: coll: 1864, Orchestra, 12 Nov., ‘Le faire applaudir is not “to make oneself applauded”, and “joyous comedian” is simply skittles.’ Perhaps ex not all BEER AND SKITTLES. 2. Hence, an interjection: coll: 1886, Kipling, ““Skitties!” said Pagett, M.P.’

skiv

(1858, O.E.D.); skid (1859, H., 1st ed.). A sovereign (coin). ‘Fashionable s.’, says H. 2. A bookmaker’s runner or tout: racing s., esp. at Epsom: late C.19–20.

skivvy; OCC. skivey

. A maid servant, esp. a rough GENERAL: from ca 1905. Ex SLAVEY.

skivvy

! A naval asseveration or exclamation (–1909). Ex Japanese.

skoff

, see SCOFF.

skookum

. Satisfactory (‘Everything’s skookum’): Canadian West Coast: late C.19–20. Chinook jargon; lit., ‘strong’.

skoot

, see SCOOT. skowbanker, see SCOWBANKER. skower, see SCOUR. skran, see SCRAN. skreigh, see SCREIGH. skrim(m)age, see SCRIMMAGE.

skrimp, skrump or scrump

, v.i. and v.t. To steal apples: dial. and provincial s.: late C.19–20. 2. Hence, to ‘scrounge’: Army: late C.19–20.

skrimshank, -er

, see SCRIMSHANK, -ER.

skrip

. A c. spelling of SCRIP.

skrouge, skrowdge

, see SCROUGE, v.

skrump

, see SKRIMP.

skrunt

. A whore: Scots dial. >, by 1890, coll: mid-C.19–20.

skuddick

, see SCUDDICK. skug, see SCUG.

skulker

. ‘A soldier who by feigned sickness, or other pretences evades his duty, a sailor who keeps below in time of danger; in the civil line, one who keeps out of the way, when any work is to be done’, Grose, 1st ed.; 1748, Smollett, Roderick Random: coll till ca 1830, then S.E.

skull

; skull-race, -thatcher, see SCULL, etc.

skullbanker

, see SCOWBANKER.

skull's afly!, my

. I'm awake, alert, shrewd!: C.19. cf. FLY, adj.

skunk

. A mean, paltry, or contemptible wretch: coll: orig. (1841), U.S.; anglicized ca 1870. Referee, 1 June 1884, 'The blood-thirsty and cowardly skunks.' Ex the stinkemitting N. American animal.

skunk

, v. To betray; leave in the lurch: London school-boys' (–1887). Ex preceding.

skute

, see SCOOT.

Sky

; occ. Ski. An outsider: Westminster School (–1869). Ex the Volsci, a tribe traditionally inimical to Rome; the Westminster boys being Romans. 2. Hence, though recorded earlier, 'a disagreeable person, an enemy' (H., 2nd ed.): ca 1860–1910.

sky

*. A pocket: c.: 1893, P.H.Emerson; Charles E.Leech. Abbr. SKY-ROCKET.

sky

, v. To throw up into the air; esp. sky a copper, as in the earliest record: 1802, Maria Edgeworth. 2. Hence, with pun on BLUE (v., 2), to spend freely till one's money is gone: from ca 1885. 'Pomes' Marshall, 'With the takings safely skyed'. Ob. 3. To throw away; at football, to charge or knock down: Harrow: from ca 1890. F. & H., 1903; Vachell, 1905. Ex sense 1. 4. See SKIED.

sky-blue

. Gin: perhaps orig. c.: 1755, The Connoisseur; †by 1859. 2. Thin or watery milk: late C.18–20: S.E. until ca 1850, then coll. Ob. cf. SIMPSON, n.; CHALKER.

sky-blue pink

. Jocular c.p. for colour unknown or indeterminate: since ca 1885.

sky falls,—we shall catch larks, if or when the

. A semi-proverbial c.p. retort on an extravagant hypothesis: late C.15–20; ob. cf. if pigs had wings...

sky-farmer

*. A beggar who, equipped with false passes and other papers, wanders about the country as though in distress from losses caused by fire, hurricane, or flood, or by disease among his cattle: c.: 1753, John Poulter. †by 1850. As Grose, 1st ed., suggests, either because he pretended to come from the Isle of Skye or because his farm was ‘In the skies’.

sky-gazer

. A sky-sail: nautical: from ca 1860; ob. On nautical sky-scraper.

sky-high

. Very high indeed: coll: 1818 (Lady Morgan), adv.; 1840, adj.

sky-lantern

. The moon: coll: ca 1840–70. Moncrieff, 1843.

sky-light

; skylight. An eye: nautical: 1836, Michael Scott; ob.

sky-parlour

. A garret: 1785, Grose: coll >, ca 1840, S.E. Also (in Baumann) skylodging: lower classes’ coll (–1887); slightly ob.

sky-pilot

. A clergyman, esp. if working among seamen: low (–1887; Baumann) > nautical s. (1888, Churchward) > by 1895 (W.Le Queux, in The Temptress) gen. s. Because he pilots men to a haven in the skies.

sky-rocket; OCC. skyrocket

. A pocket: rhyming s.: 1879, J.W.Horsley. cf. SKY, n.

sky-scraper; OCC. skyscraper

. A high-standing horse: coll: 1826, Hone; ob. Like the following senses, it derives ex the nautical sky-scraper, a sky-sail. 2. A cocked hat: nautical: ca 1830–90. 3. The penis: low: from ca 1840. 4. An unusually tall person (gen. of a man): coll: 1857, ‘Ducange Anglicus’. 5. In cricket, a skied ball: coll: from ca 1890; slightly ob. 6. A rider on a PENNY-FARTHING bicycle: ca 1891–1900. Daily News, 7 March 1892, ‘...Often derisively styled “sky-scrappers”’.

sky the towel

. To give in, yield: boxers’ (from ca 1890).

sky-topper

. A very high person or thing (e.g. house): coll: from ca 1880. A variant of SKY-SCRAPER.

skycer

, see SHICER. skyed, see SKIED.

Skying a Copper

. Hood's poem, A Report from Below, 'to which this title was popularly given until it absolutely dispossessed the true one' (Ware). 2. Hence, making a disturbance—upsetting the apple-cart: lower classes': ca 1830–50; Hood dying in 1845.

skylark

, n. and v.; and derivatives skylarker, skylarking. Perhaps orig. s., as in Sessions, April 1803, but soon S.E.

skylarker

*. A housebreaker who, both as a blind and in order to spy out the land, works as a bricklayer: c.: from ca 1850; ob.

skylight

. A 'daylight' or unliquored interval at top of one's drinking glass: 1816, Peacock; ob. by 1880. Suggested by daylight. 2. See SKY-LIGHT.

skypper

*, see SKIPPER, n., 1.

skyrocket

, see SKY-ROCKET. skyscraper, see SKY-SCRAPER.

skyte

. A dayboy: Shrewsbury School: from ca 1840. Pascoe, 1881. Gen. in pl: Desmond Coke, The Bending of a Twig, 1906, ‘Are not the despised Day Boys called Skytes—“Scythians” or “outcasts”?’ cf. the Westminster SKY. 2. A fool: Scottish Public Schools’ coll: mid-C.19–20.

slab

. A milestone: low: ca 1820–1910. Abbr. slab of stone. 2. A bricklayer’s boy: ca 1840–90. Ex dialect. 3. A portion; a tall, awkward fellow: both Australian: late C.19–20.

slab-dab

. A glover: s.: Ned Ward, 1703.

slabbering-bib

. A parson's, lawyer's, neckband: late C.18–mid-19. Lit., a slobberingbib.

slack

. The seat (of a pair of trousers, gen. mentioned): coll: mid-C.19–20. Prob. ex SLACKS. 2. A severe or knock-down punch: boxing: C.19. Ex Jack Slack, a powerful hitter. Also slack un. cf. AUCTIONEER. 3. Impertinence, decided CHEEK: from ca 1810: s. >, ca 1910, coll. T.Hardy, 1876, 'Let's have none of your slack.' Abbr. slack-jaw. 4. A spell of inactivity or laziness: coll: 1851, Mayhew. Ex slack period or spell.

slack

, v. To make water: late C.19–20. Ex relaxation. Also slack off.

slack, hold on the

. To be lazy; avoid work: nautical (–1864); ob. Ex the loose or untautened part of a rope.

slack and slim

. Slender and elegant: non-aristocratic (–1887); slightly ob.

slack in stays

. Lazy: nautical coll: early C.19–20. Bowen, ‘From the old description of a ship which is slow in going about’.

slack off

, see SLACK, v. slack un, see SLACK, n., 2.

slacken your glib

! Shut up!: low (–1887).

slacker

. A shirker; a very lazy person: coll: 1898 (O.E.D.). cf. SLACKSTER.

slacks

. Trousers (full length): 1824: coll >, ca 1905, S.E. Surtees. 2. Pilfered fruit: late C.19–20: greengrocers’ s.

slackster

. A SLACKER: ob. Daily Chronicle, 6 Nov. 1901, ‘There are “slacksters”, as the slang of the schools and universities has it, in all professions.’

slag

. A coward; one unwilling to resent an affront: late C.18–early 19. Corruption of S.E. slack(-mettled). 2. A (watch-)chain, whether of gold or of silver: c.: (–1857); ob. Perhaps a perversion of slack (hanging slack). 3. A rough: grafters’: late C.19–20. Probably ex: 4. One who looks at the free attractions but avoids the paying shows: showmen’s: since ca 1880.

slagger

*. A brothel-keeper: c. or low (–1909). Prob. a corruption of SLACKER: cf. SLAG, 1.

slam

*. A variant (–1887) of SLUM, n., 2, 4, 5.

slam

, v. To brag; esp. among soldiers, to simulate tipsiness and brag of numerous drinks: from ca 1880. cf. SLUM, v. Perhaps ex: 2. To PATTER; talk fluently: itinerant showmen’s: from ca 1870. Henley, 1884, ‘You swatchel coves that pitch and slam’. According to H., 5th ed., ex ‘a term in use among the birdsingers’—presumably dealers in singing birds—‘at the East-end [of London], by which they denote a certain style of note in chaffinches.’

slam-bang shop

. A variant (Bee, 1823; †by 1910) of slap-bang shop: see SLAP-BANG.

slammer, slamming

. (Anything) exceptional; a WHOPPER, WHOPPING: from ca 1890; ob.

slaney

*. A theatre: c.: from ca 1880. Ex SLUM (v., 8), to act.

slang

. The special vocabulary (e.g. cant) of low, illiterate, or disreputable persons; low, illiterate language: 1756, Toldervy: c. >, ca 1780, s. >, ca 1820, coll >, ca 1850, S.E. Likewise, the senses 'jargon' (1802), 'illegitimate colloquial speech', i.e. what now we ordinarily understand by 'slang' (1818) and 'impertinence' or 'abuse' (1825), began as s. and > S.E. only ca 1860. The etymology is a puzzle: the O.E.D. hazards none; Bradley, Weekley, Wyld consider that cognates are afforded by Norwegian slenja-keften, to sling the jaw, to abuse, and by several other Norwegian forms in -sleng; that slang is ultimately from sling there can be little doubt—cf. SLANG THE MAULEYS; SLING LANGUAGE and SLING THE BAT; that it is an argotic perversion of Fr. langue is very improbable though not impossible. (See esp. the author's Slang ToDay and Yesterday, revised edition, 1935, at pp. 1–3.) All the following senses, except the last two, derive ultimately ex sense 1. 2. Nonsense; HUMBUG: ca 1760–90. Foote, 1762. 3. A line of work; a LAY (2) or LURK: c. of ca 1788–1800. 4. A warrant or a licence, esp. a hawker's: from ca 1810: c. >, ca 1850, s. 5. A travelling show: showmen's (–1859). Ob. 6. Hence, a performance or 'house' in a show, e.g. a circus: showmen's: 1861, Mayhew. cf. SLANG-COVE. 7. (Gen. in pl.) A short measure or weight: London, mostly costermongers': 1851, Mayhew. 8. (Ex Ger. c. Schlange, a watch-chain, or Dutch slang, a snake.) A watch-chain; any chain: c.: from ca 1810. 9. See SLANGS, 1.

slang

*, adj. Slangy: 1758: c. >, ca 1780, s. >, ca 1820, coll >, ca 1850, S.E. Ex the n., 1. 2. (Of persons or tone.) Rakish, impertinent: ca 1818–70: s. > coll. Ex sense 1. 3. (Of dress.)

Loud; extravagant: coll: ca 1830–70. 4. (Of measures, weights.) Short, defective: costers’: 1812, Vaux. 5. Hence, adv., as in Mayhew, 1851, ‘He could always “work slang” with a true measure’; ob.

slang

, v.i. To remain in debt: university s. of ca 1770–1800. See (?) Smeaton Oliphant (à propos of tick), The New English, at II, 180. 2. To exhibit at (e.g.) a fair: 1789, G. Parker; late-C.18–20. 3. v.i. and t., to cheat, swindle, defraud: 1812, Vaux. Also slang it (Mayhew, 1851). 4. To fetter: c. of ca 1810–50. Implied in SLANGED, and prob. ex SLANGS, 1. 5. v.i. to use slang; rail abusively: 1828, Lytton: s. > coll; slightly ob. 6. v.t. to abuse, scold, violently: 1844, Albert Smith. cf. SLANGING.

slang, boy of the

*. A C.19 variant of SLANG-BOY.

slang, on or upon the

*. At one’s own line of work: c. of ca 1788–1850.

slang, out on the

. Travelling with a hawker’s licence: 1864, H., 3rd ed.

slang a dolly to the edge

. 'To show and work a marionette on a small platform outside the booth'—as a means of attracting customers for the play shown inside: showmen's: from ca 1875. cf. SLANG, v., 2.

slang-and-pitcher shop

. A cheapjack's van or stock-in-trade: mid-C.19–20. Ex SLANG (4), a hawker's licence, +pitcher (see PITCH, v., 2).

slang-boy

*. (Gen. pl.) A speaker of (underworld) cant: late C.18–mid-19. G.Parker, 1789. Also boy of the slang.

slang-cove, -cull

. A showman: CULL, c. or showmen's s. of ca 1788–1850 (G.Parker, 1789); COVE, showmen's s. of mid-C.19–20 (Mayhew, 1851).

slang it

. To use false weights: low: mid-C.19–20. cf. SLANG, n., 7 and v., 3.

slang the mauleys

. To shake hands (lit., sling the mauleys): late C.18–20: low London. Of MAULEY, the hand, the dial. form is mauler. 2. See SLANGER OF ONE'S MAULEYS.

slang-tree

. A stage; a trapeze: resp. itinerant actors' and showmen's: mid-C.19–20. Ex SLANG (n., 5), a travelling show. cf. SLANG-COVE and:

slang-tree, climb (up) the

. To perform; make an exhibition of oneself: showmen's: resp. mid-C.19–20 and late C.19–20.

slanged

*, ppl adj. In fetters: c.: 1811, Lex. Bal. cf. SLANGS, 1, and SLANG, v., 4.

slanger of one's mauleys (or morleys)

. A boxer; one who excels with his fists: 1822, David Carey, Life in Paris; †by 1890.

slanging

, vbl n. Exhibiting (e.g. a two-headed cow) at fair or market: showmen's s. verging on c.: late C.18–19. G.Parker, 1789. Ex SLANG, v., 1. 2. Abuse; violent scolding: mid-C.19–20: s. >, ca 1880, coll >, ca 1910, S.E. Lever, 1856. Ex SLANG, v., 6. 3. Singing: music halls': ca 1880–1900. Ware derives it ex 'the quantity of spoken slang between the verses'.

slanging-dues concerned, there has or have been

. A low London c.p. uttered by one who suspects that he has been curtailed of his just portion or right: ca 1810–50.

slanging match

. An altercation: since ca 1860: coll >, ca 1910, S.E.

slangs

*. Fetters; leg-irons: c.: from ca 1810; ob. Cognate with SLANG (8), a watch-chain or any chain whatsoever. cf. SLANGED. 2. the slangs. A collection of travelling shows; the travelling showman's world or profession: showmen's: prob. from ca 1850, though app. the first record occurs in T.Hood the Younger's Comic Annual, 1888 (p. 52). Ex SLANG (5), a travelling show.

slangular

. Belonging to, characteristic of, slang (highly colloquial speech): jocular S.E. verging on coll: 1853, Dickens. On angular.

slangy

. Flashy or pretentious (ca 1850–90), and (of dress) loud, vulgar (ca 1860–1900); may orig. have been coll. cf. SLANG, adj., 2, 3.

slant

. A chance; an opportunity (e.g. of going somewhere): 1837, Fraser's Magazine, 'With the determination of playing them a slippery trick the very first slant I had'. Ex nautical slant, a slight breeze, a favourable wind, a period of windiness. 2. A plan designed to ensure a particular and favourable result (or scene of operations for that result): Australian: 1897, P.Warung; slightly ob. 3. An opportunity: Australian: since ca 1870.

slant

*, v. To run away: c.: from ca 1890. Ex dial. (Graham, 1896), to move away, itself ex slant, to move, travel, obliquely. 2. (v.i.) to exaggerate: from ca 1900; ob. Prob. ex slant, 'to diverge from a direct course'. 3. In racing, to lay a bet (v.i.): from ca 1901.

slantindicular

(1855, Smedley); occ. slanting- (1840, J.T.Hewlett) or slanten- (1872, De Morgan). Slanting, oblique; neither perpendicular nor horizontal: jocular coll, orig.—1832—U.S. 2. Hence, fig.: from ca 1860. 3. Occ. as n. and adv. Ex slanting on perpendicular. cf.:

slantindicularly

, etc. Slantingly, obliquely: 1834, De Quincey: jocular coll. Though recorded earlier than the adj., it must actually be later.

slaoc

. Coals: back s. (–1859).

slap

*. Plunder, booty, SWAG (n., 3): c.: late C.18–early 19: mainly Anglo-Irish. ?ex slap, a blow. 2. Make-up: theatrical: 1860, H., 2nd ed.; ob. ‘Pomes’ Marshall, 1897, ‘You could just distinguish faintly| That she favoured the iudicious use of slap.’ Perhaps ex the dial. version of slop; perhaps, however, as Ware suggests, ex ‘its being liberally and literally slapped on’.

slap

, v. Gen. slap along. To move, walk, quickly: from ca 1825: coll and (in C.20, nothing but) dial. ?ex slap, i.e. bang, a door.

slap

, adj. Excellent; first-rate; in style: from ca 1850; ob. Mayhew, 1851, ‘People’s got proud now...and must have everything slap.’ Abbr. SLAP-UP.

slap

, adv. Quickly, suddenly, unexpectedly: coll: 1672, Villiers; Sterne. Also slap off (Reade, 1852, ‘Finish...slap off’) and †slap down (1865, Dickens). Lit. as if with a slap. 2. With vv. of motion: coll: 1676, Etherege (slap down); 1766, Mrs F. Sheridan; 1890, ‘Rolf Boldrewood’. 3. With vv. of violent collision or impact: coll: 1825. Meredith, 1861, ‘A punch slap into Old Tom’s belt’. 4. Directly; straight: coll: 1829, Marryat, ‘I...lay slap in the way’; Barham, ‘Aimed slap at him’. 5. Precisely: coll: 1860, H., 2nd ed., “‘Slap in the wind’s eye,” i.e. exactly to windward’.

slap at, have a

. To engage in a fight with; to attempt: coll: late C.19–20.

slap-bang

, whether adj., adv., or n. (except in its c. sense), is almost certainly S.E.; but slap-bang shop, which ‘lived’ ca 1780–1850, is prob.—until C.19, at least—coll, while its abbr., slap-bang, is c. In 1785, Grose, who gives a secondary sense that is indubitably coll or even s., defines it thus: ‘Slap-bang shop, a petty cook’s shop where there is no credit given, but what is had must be paid down with the ready’—i.e. with cash—‘slap-bang, i.e. immediately. This is a common appellation for a night cellar frequented by thieves, and sometimes for a stage coach or caravan’: with the latter, cf. the later, long †, slap-bang coach.

slap down and slap off

, see SLAP, adv., 1 and (s. d. only) 2.

slap of the tongue

. A reprimand; a sharp reply: Anglo-Irish: late C.19–20.

slap-up

, adj. Excellent; superior, first-rate; grand: 1823, Bee, who says that it is Northern but does not distinguish between persons and things; 1827, Sporting Magazine, ‘That slap-up work, The Sporting Magazine’; of persons, certainly in 1829, ‘slap-up swell’ (Thackeray, 1840, has ‘slapup acquaintances’): both, s. >, ca 1860, coll. On BANG-UP (2).

slash

*. An outside coat-pocket: c. (–1839). Abbr. slash pocket. Ex slash, a vertical slit for the exposition of the lining or an under garment of a contrasting or, at the least, different colour.

slash, in the

. Fighting; tailors’: from ca 1860.

slasher

. Any person or thing exceptional, esp. if exceptionally severe: from ca 1820: coll. cf. RIPPER.

slashing

. Exceptionally vigorous, expert, successful, brilliant, notable: from ca 1820: coll. Dickens, ‘A slashing fortune’, 1854. cf. SLASHER.

slashing

, adv. Very; brilliantly: coll: from 1890s; slightly ob. F. & H., 1903, ‘A slashing fine woman; a slashing good race; and so forth’. Ex the adj.

slat

*. A sheet: c.: a mid-C.17–mid-18 variant of SLATE, n., 1. 2. A half-crown: c.: a late C.18–early 19 variant of SLATE, n., 2.

slate

*. A sheet: c.: 1567, Harman; 1622, Fletcher; Grose, 1st ed.: †by 1840, and prob. ob. a century earlier. ?origin, unless a perversion of flat (even, level): cf. Ger. Blatt. cf. SLAT, 1. 2. A half-crown: c.: late C.17–18. ?origin. cf. SLAT, 2. 3. As in Andrew Lang, 1887 (earliest record), “‘Slate’ is a professional term for a severe criticism’: book-world coll. 4. A quarrel: from ca 1880. Ex:

slate

. To criticize severely: coll: 1848, Alaric Watts; Blackmore; Saintsbury; Kipling; Kernahan. Ex: 2. To abuse; reprimand or scold severely: 1840: s. (orig. political) >, ca 1870, coll. Ex: 3. To thrash; beat severely: ca 1825–70, then very rare: app. orig. Anglo-Irish. If this sense is earlier than the next but one, then it may well derive ex the Scottish and Northern slate, ‘to bait, assail, or drive, with dogs’, esp. since this hunting term was used fig. at least as early as 1755. 4. Hence, as a military coll, to punish (the enemy) severely: 1854, in the Crimea. 5. (Perhaps the originating sense: presumably ex covering a roof with slates.) To BONNET (2), knock his hat over the eyes of (a person): 1825, Westmacott. Ob. by 1890. As v.i. in form, FLY A TILE. 6. (Perhaps ex the military sense.) To bet heavily against (a horse, a human competitor): sporting: from early 1870s; slightly ob. 7. In medical s., gen. in the passive, to prophesy the death of (a patient): late C.19–20. Ex putting his name on a slate: see the author's Slang.

slate, on the

. 'Written up against you': lower classes' coll: late C.19–20.

slate loose or off, have a

. To be mentally deficient: s. >, ca 1900, coll: loose, 1860, H., 2nd ed.; off, 1867, Rhoda Broughton. The latter, ob. cf. SHINGLE SHORT; TILE LOOSE, and dial. have a slate slipped.

slated

, ppl adj. See SLATE, v., esp. in senses 1, 2. cf. SLATING. slated, be. To be expected to die. See SLATE, v., 7.

slating

, vbl n. See SLATE, v., esp. in senses 1, 2, 4. 2. adj., little used.

slaughter-house

*. A gaming-house where men are employed to pretend to be playing for high stakes: sharpers' c.: 1809 (O.E.D.); ob. 2. A shop where, at extremely low prices, goods are bought from small manufacturers (glad of a large turn-over even at a very small profit): 1851, Mayhew. One would, if it were not for the libel laws name several firms that buy thus. cf. SLAUGHTERER. 3. A factory paying miserable wages: operatives' (-1887). 4. The Surrey Sessions House: c. (-1909). 5. A particularly hard sailing ship with a brutal afterguard: nautical: late C.19-20; slightly ob. Bowen.

slaughterer

. A vendor buying very cheaply from small manufacturers: 1851, Mayhew. cf. SLAUGHTER-HOUSE, 2. 2. A buyer for re-manufacture: as books for pulp, cloth for shoddy, &c.: late C.19-20 commercial.

slaughterman

. A manufacturer paying very low wages: (esp. furniture) operatives' (-1887). cf. SLAUGHTER-HOUSE, 3.

slave-driver

. A stern taskmaster or master: coll: from ca 1840.

slave one's life (coll) or guts (low coll)

. To work extremely hard: late C.19-20.

slavey

. A male servant: coll: ca 1810–60. Thackeray. Ex slave. 2. A female servant: coll: ca 1810–70. 3. Esp. a hard-worked GENERAL: 1821, Egan; P.H.Emerson. cf. SKIVVY. 4. A servants' attic: London students' (–1887); ob.

slaving gloak

*. A servant: c.: C.19.

slawmineyeux

. A Dutchman: nautical: ca 1860–1910. Ex Dutch ja, mynheer (yes, sir).

slay

. At Shrewsbury School, from ca 1890, as in Desmond Coke, The Bending of a Twig, 1906, “Slays” are spreads [feasts], ambitious beyond all imagining, ordered from the Shop.’

sleek-and-slum shop

*. ‘A public house or tavern where single men and their wives resort’, Bee: c. of ca 1820–90. See SLUM, a room.

sleek wife

*. A silk handkerchief: c. (–1823).

sleep black

. To sleep unwashed: chimney-sweeps' coll: mid-C.19–20; ob.

sleep-drunk

. Very drowsy; MUZZY (2); coll: from ca 1870; ob. Ex heavy awaking.

sleep on bones

. (Of children) to sleep in the nurse's lap: coll: C.19–20; ob.

sleep the caller

. To lose a shift by failing to hear the caller: miners' (esp. North Country) coll: late C.19–20. i.e. to oversleep (by failing to hear) the caller.

sleep tight, mind the fleas don't bite

. A children's bed-time c.p.: late C.19–20.

sleeping near a crack, (I, he, or you) must have been . A c.p. reply to an inquiry as to how a male has caught a cold: lower and lower-middle classes': late C.19–20. An innuendo in respect of the anatomical CRACK (2).

sleeping-partner

. A bed-fellow: jocular coll: mid-C. 19–20.

sleepless hat

. A hat with the nap worn off: ca 1860–1905. cf.:

sleepy

. Grose, 2nd ed., has this punning c.p.: the cloth of your coat must be extremely sleepy; for it has not had a nap this long time: late C.18–early 19. Whence SLEEPLESS HAT.

sleepy-seeds

. The mucus forming about the eyes in sleep: nursery: late C.19–20. Suggested by SANDMAN and sleepy sickness.

sleepy-walker

. A sleep-walker: lower classes' coll (–1887).

sleeve-board

. A word hard to pronounce: tailors': from ca 1870. Ex hardness.

sleever

. An order taken by a COMMERCIAL (2) on a good day but held up for the next day, to preclude reporting a blank day to his employers: commercial travellers': late C.19–20. i.e. an order 'up one's sleeve'.

slender in the middle as a cow in the waist, as

. Very fat: C.17–20 (ob.): coll till C.19, then dial. Burton, 1621; Fuller, 1732; Evans, Leicestershire Words, 1881.

slew

. To defeat, baffle, outwit: late C.19–20.

slewed; OCC. slued

. Tipsy: coll: 1834, M. Scott (slewed); Dickens, 1844 (slued). Ob. Ex slew, to swing round. See SCREWED for short synonymy. 2. Hence, beaten, baffled: coll: late C.19–20.

slice, take a

. ‘To intrigue, particularly with a married woman, because a slice of [sic] a cut loaf is not missed’, Grose, 2nd ed.: coll: mid-C.18–mid-19. Ex the C.17–20 proverbial it is safe taking a shive (in C.18–19, occ. slice) of a cut loaf, as in Shakespeare’s Titus Andronicus.

slice of fat

*. A profitable robbery: c. (–1887).

slice off

. To settle part of (an old score): military (–1909); very ob.

slick

, v. To despatch rapidly, get done with: coll: 1860, H., 2nd ed.; ob. Ex slick, to polish: cf. polish off.

slick-a-dee

*. A pocket-book: Scots c. (–1839); ob. On DEE (2), the same.

'Slid

! Coll abbr. God's lid, a late C.16–17 petty oath.

slide

. (Esp. in the imperative.) To decamp: coll: U.S. (–1859), anglicized ca 1890. Whiteing, 1899, 'Cheese it, an' slide.' Occ. slide out. Ex slide, to move silently, stealthily.

slide up the board or the straight, do a

. (Of a man) to coït: low: from ca 1870. cf. RUSH UP THE FRILLS OF STRAIGHT.

sliders

. A pair of drawers: coll: late C.17– mid-18. J.Dickenson, 1699.

'Slidikins

. A petty oath: coll: late C.17–18. Ex 'SLID on 'Sbodikins.

'Slife

! God's life!: C.17–18 coll. Preserved only in period plays and Wardour Street novels. By abbr. cf. 'SLID, and:

'Slight

! God's light!: a late C.16–17 oath: trivial coll.

slightly-tightly

. Bemused (not drunk) with liquor: fast life: ca 1905–14. Perversion of slightly TIGHT (5).

sligo, tip (someone) the

. To warn by winking; wink at: 1775, S.J.Pratt, 'I tips Slappim the sligo, and nudges the elbow of Trugge, as much as to say,...I have him in view.' Prob. on sly: o is a common s. suffix.

slim

*. Rum (the drink): c.: 1789, G. Parker; †by 1850. ?rum perverted.

slime

, v.i. To CUT (3) games; to LOAF: Durham School: late C.19–20. Ex S.E. slime, to crawl slimily. 2. To sneak along: Felsted: late C.19–20, Whence do a slime, to take a mean or crafty advantage. cf. 3. To move, go, quietly, stealthily, or sneakingly: Harrow: late C.19–20. Howson & Warner, 1898, ‘His house-beak slimed and twug him.’

slime, do a

, see SLIME, 2.

sling

. A draught of, pull at, a drink, bottle: 1788; †by 1903, prob. by 1860, perhaps by 1830. cf. GO, n., 2.

sling

. To utter: coll: C.15–20. See SLING LANGUAGE and cf. sense 3. 2. To distribute or dispense: s. (–1860) >, ca 1890, coll. H., 2nd ed., ‘Sling, to pass from one person to another’. 3. Hence, to give (as in ‘Sling us a tanner’): low (1887) >, by 1910, low coll. 4. To do easily: from ca 1864: s. >, ca 1900, coll. Mainly in SLING INK, etc. 5. To use (e.g. slang); relate (a story): from ca 1880: s. See SLING A YARN. 6. To abandon: mostly Australian. H.Lawson, 1902, ‘Just you sling it [liquor] for a year.’ 7. For c. usage, see SLING ONE’S HOOK, 2, and SLING THE SMASH. In c., moreover, sling=to throw away: late C.19–20. 8. See SLING A SNOT. 9. v.i. to sleep in a hammock: Conway cadets: late C.19–20. Abbr. sling one’s hammock.

sling!, let her

, see SLING YOURSELF!

sling a book, poem, an article

. To write one: from ca 1870: s. >, 1900 coll. cf. SLING INK.

sling a cat

. To vomit: low: mid-C.19–20; ob. cf. shoot the CAT.

sling a daddle

. To shake hands: low: from ca 1870. cf. SLANG THE MAULEYS.

sling a foot

. To dance: coll: from ca 1860; ob.

sling a hat

. To wave one's hat in applause: coll: from 1830s; ob.

sling a nasty part

. To act a part so well that it would be hard to rival it: orig. and mainly theatrical: from ca 1880. Ex:

sling (or jerk) a part

. To undertake, to play, a role: theatrical: from ca 1880.

sling a pen

, see SLING INK.

sling a pot

. To drink (liquor): from ca 1870: coll rather than s.

sling a slobber

. To give a kiss; hence, to kiss: low (–1909), Ex SLING, v., 3, and SLOBBER, which, very low s. for a kiss, dates from late C.19.

sling a snot

. To blow one's nose with one's fingers: low: from ca 1860. Also, from ca 1870, simply sling (v.i.): ob, sling a tinkler

. To ring a bell: from ca 1870; ob.

sling a yarn

. To tell a lie: s.: 1904, Strand Magazine, March.

sling about

, v.i. To idle; to loaf: from ca 1870.

sling ink; OCC. sling a pen

. To write: from ca 1864: s. >, ca 1900, coll. Orig. U.S. and app. coined by Artemus Ward.

sling language or words

. To talk: mid-C.19–20: s. >, ca 1900, coll. cf. SLING, v., 1; SLING A YARN; SLING THE BAT.

sling-next

. The two cadets sleeping on either side of oneself: Conway cadets': late C.19–20.

sling off

, v.i. To utter abuse or CHEEK or impertinence. 2. v.t. with at to give CHEEK to, to jeer at, to taunt. Both: late C.19–20.

sling (a person) one in the eye

. To punch one in the eye, gen. with the implication of blackening it: 1899, Whiteing.

sling one's body

. To dance vigorously: London lower classes' (–1909). i.e. sling it about.

sling one's bunk

. To depart: ca 1860–1910. i.e. sling up one's hammock (and go).

sling one's Daniel; sling one's hook

. To make off; decamp: Daniel, 1866, Sessions, Nov.; hook, 1873 or 1874 (H., 5th ed.). The origin of neither is clear; the latter may be nautical, though Ware derives it from mining-procedure. cf. SLING YOURSELF!

sling one's hammock

. To get used to a new ship: naval coll: late C.19–20.

sling one's hook

. See SLING ONE'S DANIEL. 2. In c., to pick pockets: from the 1870s. Anon., 1877, Five Years' Penal Servititde.

sling one's jelly or juice

. To masturbate: low: from ca 1870.

sling over

. 'To embrace emphatically': Society: ca 1905–14. Ex U.S., says Ware.

sling round on the loose

. To act recklessly: from ca 1875. Possibly an elaboration of SLING ABOUT.

sling (a person) slang

. To abuse, scold violently: from ca 1880: s. See SLING, v., 5.

sling tail

. Pickled pork: low: ca 1825–90. Sinks, 1848.

sling the bat

. To speak the vernacular (esp. of the foreign country, orig. India, where one happens to be): military: late C.19–20. Kipling, 1892. See BAT, 3.

sling the booze

. To stand treat: low: from ca 1860. cf. SLING, v., 2.

sling the hatchet

. To talk plausibly: military: late C.19–20. 2. See sling the HATCHET. 3. To tell a piteous tale: s.: 1893, P.H.Emerson.

sling the language

. To swear fluently: lower classes' (–1903); ob.

sling the smash

*. To smuggle tobacco to prisoners: c.: from the 1870s. Anon., 1877, Five Years' Penal Servitude. cf. SLING, v., 2.

sling type

. To set type: printers' s. (–1887) >, by 1910, coll; ob.

sling (esp. it) up

. To abandon (job, country, talk, action, etc.): Australian: late C.19–20.

sling words

, see SLING LANGUAGE.

sling yourself! or let her sling

! Bestir yourself!; get a move on!: low: from ca 1880; the former is very ob. cf. SLING ONE'S DANIEL.

slinge

. To play truant; to stay away from work: Newfoundland coll: C.19–20. Ex Irish and Sc. dial. slinge, to skulk.

slinger

. (Gen. pl.) A piece of bread afloat in tea or coffee; a dumpling, a sausage: low (–1889).
 2. (Slinger.) An inevitable nickname of all men surnamed Woods: naval and military: late C.19–20. cf. LACK(E)RY.

slink

. A sneak, skulker, cheat: dial. (–1824) >, ca 1830, coll. Examiner, 1830, ‘Such a d—d slink’. Ex slink, an abortive calf, etc.

slinky

. Sneaky, mean, sly, furtive: dial. and coll: late C.19–20. Ex SLINK. 2. Hence, (of a person’s gait) stealthy: late C.19–20.

slip

. A counterfeit coin: ca 1590–1630: perhaps orig. c., as its use by Greene suggests. Origin doubtful. The derivative nail up for a slip, to try and find wanting (late C.16–early 17), may, orig. at least, have been coll. 2. A slash-pocket in the rearward skirt of a coat: ca 1810–40. 3. A slipper: domestic: since ca 1880. 4. Baked custard: middle-class: since ca 1860. Slippery stuff.

slip (her, him) a length

. To coït with (a woman): low: late C.19–20. 2. Of a man, to have homosexual relations with: Australian low s.: late C.19–20.

slip at, let

. To rush violently at a person and then assault him vigorously: coll (–1860). cf.:

slip into

. To begin punching (a person) vigorously, gen. with the connotation that the person ‘slipped into’ receives a sound beating: low coll (–1860). cf. preceding entry. 2. To set about a thing, a task, with a will, vigorously: low coll (–1887). 3. To have sexual connection with: low: from ca 1870.

slip it

. To decamp, make off: from ca 1880. J.W.Horsley, Prisons and Prisoners, 1898.

slip one’s breath, cable, wind

. To die: resp. 1819, Wolcot; 1751, Smollett, ‘I told him [a doctor] as how I could slip my cable without direction or assistance’; 1772, Bridges. Orig. nautical s.; by mid-C.19, gen. coll.

slip oneself

. To let oneself go; make the most of a thing or opportunity: Cockney coll: from ca 1890. Edwin Pugh’s Cockney stories, passim.

slip-slop

. Kissing: s.: Ned Ward, 1703.

slip-slops

. Soft drinks: C.18. Ned Ward, The Whole Pleasures of Matrimony, 1714.

slip up

. To swindle; to disappoint: Australian: 1890, Melbourne Argus, 9 Aug., 'I'd only be slipped up if I trusted to them.' Ex slip, to elude, evade, stealthily; give the slip to.

slipper

. A sixpence: tailors' (–1909). Because it slips into corners and cracks. 2. A bed-pan: hospital coll: late C.19–20. Ex shape.

slippery

*. Soap: c. (–1839); slightly ob.

slippery

, adj. Quick: coll: late C.19–20. Prob. ex:

slippy

. Quick; spry, nimble: dial. (–1847) >, ca 1880, coll. Esp. look slippy (Runciman, 1885) and be slippy ('Rolf Boldre-wood', 1889). Coulson Kernahan, 1902, 'We must look slippy about it... It's lucky I haven't far to go.' Ex slippy=slippery in its fig. as well as lit. senses.

slit

. The female pudend; when not a euphemism it is a low coll: C.17–20.

slither

, v.i. To hurry (away): low (–1889). Ex slither, to slide: cf. SLIDE. Imm. ex dial.

sloan

. To hamper, obstruct, baulk: lower classes': 1899 only. Ex jockey Sloan's trick—learnt from Archer—of slanting his horse across the track and thus obstructing the other riders.

slobber

. Ink badly distributed: printers' coll: from ca 1870. 2. A kiss: very low s.: from late C.19. Maugham, Liza of Lambeth, 1897.

slobber

, v. To fail to grasp (the ball) cleanly in fielding: cricket coll: 1851, Pycroft; †by 1890. For semantics, cf. BUTTER in its cricketing sense (v., 5).

slobgollion

. An oozy, stringy substance found in sperm oil: whalemens: from ca 1880. Clarke Russell. Perhaps a perversion of SLUMGULLION on slob, mud, ooze.

slockdolager

, see SOCKDOLAGER.

slog

. (A period of) hard, steady work: coll: 1888. Ex v., 6. 2. A hard punch or blow; (at cricket) a hard hit: coll: 1867 (Lewis); as a SLOGGER (sense 3), it appears also in 1867 (ibid.), but is rare. Ex v., 1; cf. v., 4. 3. A large portion, esp. of cake: Public Schools': late C.19–20.

slog

, v.t. To punch, hit, hard: coll: Sessions, Sept. 1824, 'One of them said, "Go back and slog him"'; v.i., not before 1888. cf. SLUG, v. 2. Hence, to thrash, chastise: 1859, H., 1st ed. 3. Hence, fig., attack violently: coll: 1891, Spectator, 10 Oct., 'They love snubbing their friends and slogging their enemies.' 4. (Ex sense 1.) To make runs at cricket by hard hitting: v.i. and v.t.: coll: resp. early 1860s and in 1867. 5. v.i., to walk heavily, perseveringly: coll: 1872, Calverley. Prob. ex sense 1. cf. FOOT-SLOGGER. 6. v.i. To work hard and steadily, often with away; v.t. with at: coll: 1888, Daily News, 22 May, 'I slogged at it, day in and day out.' Ex sense 1. 7. v.i., to steal fruit, esp. apples: schoolchildren's: from ca 1880. cf. SKRIMP.

slog on, have a

. To work hard or hurriedly or both: 1888.

slogdollager

, see SOCKDOLOGER.

slogger

. (Gen. in pl.) A trial or 2nd-division rowing-race: Cambridge: ca 1852–80. In etymology, prob. cognate with ensuing senses; H., 1860, proposes slow-goers, but this seems unlikely. cf. the Oxford TOGGER. 2. A deliverer of heavy blows: coll: Sinks, 1848; 1857, T.Hughes, ‘The Slogger pulls up at last...fairly blown.’ Ex SLOG, v., 1. 3. At cricket, a hard hitter: coll (–1864). 4. A (hard) punch: pugilistic: Boxiana, IV, 1824; ob. Ex sense 2 reinforced by sense 3. 5. A slung shot (as a weapon): c.: 1892. 6. A quick worker: proletarian coll: from ca 1860.

slogging

, vbl n. (cricket, 1860: Lewis) and ppl adj. See SLOG, v., various senses.

’Slood

. A variant of ’SLUD.

sloop of war

. A whore: rhyming s. (–1859).

sloosh

. A wash, a sound of washing: from ca 1905. Ex sluice. 2. Hence, sloosh or slooshy, v.i. and v.t., to wash: 1907, W.De Morgan.

slop

. A policeman: abbr. of back s. (–1859) ESCLOP (properly ecilop, police); ob. Already in the 2nd ed. (1860), H. writes ‘At first back slang but now general’. 2. A tailor: from ca 1860; ob. 3. At Christ’s Hospital, pejorative for a person: mid-C.19–20. cf. Nashe’s ‘slop of a ropehaler’ (1599).

slop-feeder

. A tea-spoon: low (?orig. c.): from ca 1810. Ex slop(s), tea.

slop trade

. Trade that is ‘no class’: tailors’ coll: mid-C.19–20.

slop-tubs

*. Tea-things: c. >, ca 1870, low: from ca 1820; ob. cf. SLOP-FEEDER.

slope

. A running-away, making-off; escape: coll: U.S. (–1859), anglicized ca 1880. Esp. do a slope: coll and dial.: from ca 1890. Ex:

slope

, v. To make off; run away, decamp: coll: orig. (1839), U.S.; anglicized ca 1857. Song-writer Vance; ‘Pomes’ Marshall. Either ex let’s lope! as H., 1st ed., proposes, or ex slope, to move obliquely. 2. With adv., esp. off (1844, Haliburton) and occ. home(ward), the latter in Mayne Reid, 1851: coll: orig. U.S., anglicized by 1860. 3. (Ex sense 1.) To go loiteringly or saunteringly, 1851. 4. v.t., to leave (lodgings) without paying: 1908. Ex sense 1, influenced by dial. slope, to trick, cheat. 5. In c. of early C.17 (e.g., Rowlands, 1610), to lie down to sleep; to sleep. (cf. slope, v.t., to bend down.) It replaced COUCH A HOG’S HEAD.

slope, do a

, see SLOPE, n.

slopper

. A slop-basin: Leys School: late C.19–20. See ‘Oxford-er’, p. 11.

slopping-up

. A drinking bout: low: from ca 1870; ob.

sloppy

. Very sentimental: coll: late C.19–20. Ex sloppy, feeble, infirm.

slops

, tea still in the chest, is to be considered either s. or low coll (–1859). Ex slops, (weak) tea as beverage.

slosh

. Slush (liquid mud): dial. and Cockney coll (–1887). 2. A drink; drink in gen.: from the middle 1880s.

slosher

. A school boarding-house assistant: Cheltenham College: late C.19–20. ?ex U.S. slosh, to move aimlessly about.

sloshiety paper

. A gushing Society periodical: journalistic: 1883–ca 1890. Punning society+sloshy, slushy.

slouch at, no

. Rather or very good at: U.S. (1874), partly anglicized in late 1890s. F.T.Bullen, 1898, 'He was no "slouch" at the business either.' Ex slouch, a lout, a clumsy fellow.

slour

*. To lock (up); fasten: c. (–1812); ob. by 1890. Vaux; Ainsworth; H., 3rd ed., classifies it as prison c. ?origin unless perchance a perversion of lower. 2. Also, to button (up) a gannet: esp. in sloured hoxter, an inside pocket buttoned up: 1812, Vaux, slour up; the simple v. is unrecorded before 1834 in Ainsworth's Rookwood.

slow

. Old-fashioned; behind the times: 1827, Sporting Times, 'Long courtships are...voted slow.' (The Winchester sense 'ignorant of Winchester notions', dating from ca 1880, is a variant.) 2. Hence, (of things) tedious, dull, boring: coll: 1841, Lever. 3. (Of persons) humdrum; dull, spiritless: 1841, Lever. 4. Hence, sexually timid: late C.19–20.

slow as a wet week, as

. (Of persons) very slow; esp., unenterprising, mostly in sexual matters: late C.19–20.

slow as molasses in winter

, see MOLASSES.

slowed

*. Imprisoned; in prison: c. (–1859); ob. by 1890. Ex show, retard, but perhaps influenced by SLOUR, 1: cf. late C.19–20 slower, to check.

slows, troubled with the

. Slow-moving; sporting; from ca 1870. Perhaps orig. U.S. and punning U.S. slows, milk-sickness.

slubberdegullion

. A dirty and/or slobbering fellow; a sloven ne'er-do-well: from ca 1615; ob. Perhaps orig. coll, which it may have remained till C.19. On slubber (later slobber): cf. TATTERDEMALION.

'Slud

! A C.17–18 oath: coll variant of 'SBLOOD! Jonson, Fielding.

slued

, see SLEWED.

slug

. An unascertained kind of strong liquor: 1756, Toldervy, ‘Tape, glim, rushlight, white port, rasher of bacon, gunpowder; slug, wild-fire, knock-me-down and strip me naked’; †by 1790. 2. ?hence, a dram, a drink: 1762, Smollett, ‘...That he might cast a slug into his bread-room.’ (Since ca 1880, only U.S.) Hence, fire a slug, to take a drink of potent liquor: ca 1780–1840. 3. A set-back; a (great) disappointment: coll: late C.19–20. Ex dial. slug, a defeat. cf.:

slug

, v.t. To strike heavily: dial. (–1862), soon > coll. Echo, 8 March 1869, ‘He has several times been told by unionists on strike that he would be “slugged” if he went on as he was going.’ Perhaps ex dial. slug, a heavy blow, recorded thirty years earlier. cf. SLOG, v., 1. and SLUG, n., 3.

slug, fire a

, see SLUG, n., 2.

sluice

. The female pudend: low coll: late C.17–20; ob. ‘Facetious’ Tom Brown. 2. The mouth: low: from ca 1830; ob. Prob. ex sluice, a channel, influenced by †sluice, a gap, but perhaps imm. ex:

sluice-house

. The mouth: low: 1840, Egan; very ob. cf. SLUICE, 2.

sluice one's or the bolt, dominoes, gob, or ivories

. To drink heartily: low: resp. mid-C.19–20, late C.18–20, and mid-C.19–20. All slightly ob. cf. SLUICE, 2, and:

sluicery

. A public-house: low: ca 1820–90. Contrast SLUICE-HOUSE.

Sluker

. An inhabitant, esp. a harlot, of the Parish of St Luke, London: Cockney (–1909). cf. ANGEL.

slum

*. A room: c.: ca 1810–50. ?origin unless Bee is right in deriving it ex slumber. 2. Nonsense, GAMMON, BLARNEY: c.: ca 1820–1910. Egan's Grose cites, from Randall's Diary, 'And thus, without more slum. began'. Prob. ex sense 4. 3. Hence. Romany: c. of ca 1821–50. 'Jon Bee', 1823, 'The gipsy language, or cant, is slum.' 4. A trick or swindle: c.: 1812, Vaux; 1851, Mayhew. cf. SLUM, FAKE THE; SLUM, UP TO. 5. ?hence, a begging letter: c.: 1851, Mayhew, 'Of these documents there are two sorts, "slums" (letters) and "fakements" (petitions).' Ob. 6. Hence, any letter: prison c. (–1860). Ob. 7. (?ex slum, a begging letter.) An innuendo, a discreditable insinuation: c. (–1864). †by 1900. 8. A chest; a package (e.g. a roll of counterfeit notes): c. (–1859); ob. H., 1st ed., "'He shook a slum of slops", stole a chest of tea.' Perhaps ex sense 4. 9. In the language of Punch and Judy showmen (partly c., partly Parlary), the call: from ca 1860. cf. SLUM-FAKE; SLUMMING, 2. 10. Sweetmeats for coughs: market-traders' (e.g. Petticoat Lane): C.20. 11. Abbr. (1908: O.E.D.) of SLUMGULLION. 12. The cheap jewellery, watches, etc., given as prizes: fair-grounds (carnivals): late C.19–20.

slum

*. To talk nonsense; speak cant: c. of ca 1820–80. cf. n., 2. 2. Hence, v.t., to trick, cheat, swindle: c. (–1859). H., 1st ed., in variant form, slum the gorgier, ‘to cheat on the sly, to be an eye servant’, which is †—prob. since late C.19. 3. Hence, v.t., to hide; to pass to a confederate: c. (–1874). Implied in H., 5th ed., though already implied in SLUMMING, 1. 4. v.t., to do hurriedly and/or carelessly: coll (1865) >, ca 1900, S.E. Perhaps suggested by to slam (a door), influenced by slum, a poverty-stricken neighbourhood. 5. v.i., to enter, or haunt, slums for illegal or rather for illicit or immoral purposes: university s.: Oxford, ca 1860; Cambridge, ca 1864: ob. by 1910. 6. Hence, ‘to keep to back streets in order to avoid observation’, Barrère & Leland: university s. (–1897); ob. 7. Hence, from ca 1899, to keep in the background: gen. coll; ob. 8. v.i., to act: low theatrical: from ca 1870; ob. cf. SLUMMING, 2.

slum, fake the

*. To do the trick; effect a swindle: c.: mid-C.19–20.

slum, up to

*. Alert; knowing: c. (–1823). Ex SLUM, n., 4.

slum-fake

. The coffin in a Punch and Judy show: showmen: from ca 1860. cf. SLUM (n., 9), the call, and SLUMMING, 2.

slum-scribbler

*. One who employs penmanship for illicit ends, e.g. for begging-letters: c. (–1861).

slum shop, sleek-and-

, see SLEEK-AND-SLUM SHOP.

slumber in

. Public Schools' s. of late C.19–20, as in P.G.Wodehouse, Tales of St Austin's, 1903, 'To slumber in is to stay in the house during school on a pretence of illness.'

slumgullion

. 'Any cheap, nasty, washy beverage', H., 5th ed.: from ca 1870; ob. Perhaps a fantasy on slub (=slob) and the gullion of SLUBBERDEGULLION (cf. SLOBGOLLION); certainly fanciful.

slummery

. Gibberish; 'ziph' (see Slang, p. 278): ca 1820–50: low s., perhaps orig. c. 'Jon Bee', 1823, 'Dutch Sam excelled in slummery—"Willus youvus givibus glasso ginibus".'

slumming

*, vbl n. Passing counterfeit money: c. (–1839); ob. Perhaps ex SLUM, v., 1. 2. Acting: low theatrical: from ca 1870; ob. Miss Braddon, 1872, 'The gorger's awfully coally on his own slumming, eh?' cf. SLUM, n., 9; SLUM-FAKE. 3. 'The secreting of type or sorts', Jacobi: printers' s. (–1888). Ex SLUM, v., 2.

slummy

. A servant girl: low: late C.19–20. ?ex slummy, careless, influenced by slummy, from a slum neighbourhood. cf. SLAVEY. 2. One who lives in a slum: coll: late C.19–20.

slums, act in

. To act in very small towns or in low plays: theatrical: ca 1865–1910.

slung

. (Of a picture) rejected: artists' and art-students' (–1909). Prob. suggested by hung.

slung out on hands and knees

. Dismissed: tailors': from ca 1870; ob.

slung sword, ship one's

. To be promoted to warrant officer: naval: late C.19–20.

slur

. A method of cheating at dice: ca 1640–1750: perhaps orig. s. or coll, but soon j. (therefore S.E.). Ex slur, to make a die leave the box without turning (Nashe, 1594).

slush

. Food: nautical: late C.19–20. Ex nautical S.E. slush. cf. SLUSHY, n. 2. ‘Coffee and [?] tea served in a common coffee house’: low urban (–1909).

slush-bucket

. A foul feeder: coll: ca 1780–1850. (Extant in dial.)

slusher

. A cook’s assistant at shearing time on a station: Australian coll. Melbourne Argus, 20 Sept. 1890. cf. SLUSHY, 2.

slushy

. A ship’s cook: nautical coll (–1859). Ex slush, refuse fat of boiled meat. cf. SLUSH, 1. 2. Hence, influenced by SLUSHER, a cook’s assistant at a shearing: Australian coll: 1896, A.B. Paterson, in The Man from Snowy River, ‘The tarboy, the cook, and the slushy... with the rest of the shearing horde’.

sly

. Illegal, illicit: earliest and mainly in sly grog, Australian s., 1844 (O.E.D.)—sly grog-selling, seller, shop. Mayhew, 1851, ‘sly trade’. Ex sly, secret, stealthy. cf. next two entries.

sly, on or upon the . Private(ly), secret(ly), illicit(ly): 1812, Vaux: coll >, ca 1870, S.E. Mayhew, 1851, ‘Ladies that liked a drop on the sly’.

sly, run

. To escape: low s. (?c.): late C.18– early 19. F. & H., whose quotation long anticipates the sporting sense: (of a dog) to run cunningly.

sly-boots

; ca 1730–1830, occ. sly-boot. A sly or crafty person: coll: ca 1680, Lord Guildford was thus nicknamed (North, Lives of the Norths, p. 169). Esp. a person seemingly simple, actually subtle or shrewd. In C.19–20, often jocular and hardly if at all pejorative. cf. †sly-cap, a sly or a cunning man (Otway, 1681), and the much more gen. smooth-boots, late C.16– early 18.

sly grog

, see SLY.

smabble or snabble

*. To despoil, knock down, half-skin; arrest: c. of ca 1720–1840. See SNABBLE.

smabbled or snabbled

. Killed in battle: ca 1780–1840. Ex SMABBLE.

smack

. A liking or fancy: tailors' coll: from ca 1870. 'He had a real smack for the old 'un,' F. & H. Cf. C.14–mid-17 S.E. smack, enjoyment, inclination (for a place). 2. A GO (8): coll: 1889, Pall Mall Gazette, 'I am longing to have a smack at these Matabeles.' 3. Hence, an attempt (at): coll: late C.19–20. Prob. ex dial. Hence:

smack, at one

. At the first attempt; (all) at the one time: coll: late C.19–20. Ex senses 3, 2 of the preceding.

smack at, have a

, see SMACK, n., 2.

smack calfskin

. To kiss the Bible: low: C. 19.

smack(-)smooth

. Perfectly even, level, smooth: 1755, Smollett: coll until late C. 19, then dial. Ex smack, vbl adv. 2. As complement, with semi-advl force: ‘so as to leave a level surface’: 1788, Dibdin. 3. Hence, adv.: smoothly; without hindrance: C.19–20: like sense 2, coll till C.20, then mainly dial. H.Martin, 1802, ‘A tour... went on smack smooth.’

smack-up

. A fight: New Zealanders’: from ca 1906.

smacker

. A peso: South American English: late C.19–20.

smacker, (go down) with a

. (To fall) ‘smack’: lower classes’ coll (–1887).

smacking-cove

*. A coachman: c.: mid-C.17–early 19. Ex whip.

small

, n., see SMALLS. small, sing, see SING SMALL.

small and early

. (or hyphenated). An evening party, few-personed and early-departing: 1880, Lord Beaconsfield; coll. Adumbrated in Dickens, 1865, ‘Mrs Podsnap added a small and early evening to the dinner.’

small beer of, think

. (Gen. with no.) To have (or with no, not to have) a low opinion of (persons, mostly oneself): coll: 1825, Westmacott; Thackeray; Lytton. cf. ‘Thinking no pale ale of himself’ in Francis Francis, Newton Dogvane, 1859. Ex small, i.e. weak or inferior, beer. Also SMALL COALS.

small cap O

. A second-in-command; an under overseer: printers’: from ca 1870; ob. Lit., a small capital letter O, i.e. a capital in a word all of equal-sized capitals.

small cheque

. A dram; a (small) drink: nautical: from ca 1880; ob. cf. knock down a cheque, spend all in drink.

small coals

... A ca 1860–90 variant of SMALL BEER...

small cuts

. A small pair of scissors: tailors': late C.19–20.

small-gang

, v.t. To mob: low: mid-C.19–20; ob. Mayhew, 1851.

small jeff

. A small employer: tailors': late C.19–20. cf. FLAT-IRON JEFF.

small pill

. A diminutive football (used on runs): Leys School: late C.19–20.

small potatoes

, see POTATOES.

smalls

. 'Towns not boasting a regularly built and properly appointed theatre', Ardrossan Herald, 11 Sept. 1891: theatrical coll: from ca 1890. F. & H., however, in 1903 defines thus, implying a singular: 'A one-night performance in a small town or village by a minor company carrying its own "fit-up"'.

smarm, smalm

, v.i. Coll (late C.19–20), to smooth down, as hair with pomade. The word prob. represents a blend: ?smear+ balm.

smart

. A very elegant young man about town: (London) Society: ca 1750–80.

smart

, adj. Rather steep (ground): mid-C. 17–20; S.E. until late C.19, then coll (ob.) and dial.

smart as a carrot(, as)

. Gaily dressed: 1780: coll until mid-C.19, then dial.—which it had been since 1791 at least. Grose, 2nd ed., as smart as a carrot new scraped.

smart as threepence

. Smartly dressed: lower classes' coll (–1887); ob.

smarty

. A would-be clever, cunning, or witty person: U.S. (1880), anglicized—as a coll—ca 1905, chiefly as an impertinent person, and esp. in Australia and New Zealand.

smash

. Lit. and fig., a heavy blow: coll and dial.: 1779. In 1780, it was used like SMACK, 2. 2. Mashed vegetables, esp. turnips: ca 1780–1830. Grose, 1st ed., ‘Leg of mutton and smash, a leg of mutton and mashed turnips, (sea term)’. cf. modern mash, mashed potatoes. 3. Counterfeit coin: c.: late C.18–20; slightly ob. Potter, 1795. cf. v., 2, and SMASH-FEEDER. ?because it ‘smashes’ acceptors. 4. Loose change: c.: mid-C.19–20; rhyming s. on cash. 5. Tobacco: c.: from late 1880s. cf. SLING THE SMASH. ?because it breaks regulations.

smash

*, v. To kick down stairs: c.: late C.17–early 19. Prob. imitative. 2. To pass, occ. to utter (counterfeit money): c.: from ca 1810. Lex. Bal.—but see SMASHER, 4. cf. SMASHING, adj. 3. To give change for (a note, a coin): from ca 1810: either c. or low s.; ob. 4. To beat badly: pugilistic coll: from ca 1820. 5. v.i. to go bankrupt; be ruined: coll: 1839, Hood. Occ. smash up: not before 1870s; very rare in C.20. 6. Esp. smash a brandy-peg, to drink one: military: from ca 1880. Ware cites the Daily News, 7 May 1884.

smash!; smash me!; smash my eyes

! A coll and dial. imprecation: ob. in C.20; resp. 1819 (mostly North Country dial.); 1894; 1833, Scott. H., 3rd ed., defines smash-man-Geordie as ‘a pitman’s oath’ in Durham and Northumberland: cf. GEORDIE and SMASHER, 6.

smash, go (to)

. Variant of SMASH, v., 5: coll: mid-C.19–20.

smash-feeder

*. A silver or a Britannia-metal spoon: c.: resp. ca 1839–59 and ca 1859–1910. (The best imitation shillings were made from Britannia metal.) Ex SMASH, n., 3.

smash me!; smash my eyes

! see SMASH!

smash the teapot

. To break one's pledge of abstinence: urban lower classes' (–1909); ob. 2. To lose the privilege of tea: prison c.: from ca 1880.

smashed

, adj. Reduced in rank: naval (–1909).

smashed(-)up

. Penniless: low: ca 1830–1900. Mayhew; I, 1851. Suggested by BROKE.

smasher

. Anything very large or unusually excellent: 1794. Ob. 2. Hence, a crushing reply, a very severe article or review: coll: 1828, Blackwood's Magazine, 'His reply...was a complete smasher.' Slightly ob. 3. Hence, a heavy fall (1875) or a damaging or settling blow (1897): coll. 4. A passer (1795, Potter) or, less gen., an utterer (1796, O.E.D.) of false money, whether coin or note: c.: late C.18–20. Ex SMASH, n., 3, or it may argue an existence for SMASH, v., 2, at least sixteen years before the app. earliest record. 5. Hence, a base coin or, says F. & H., forged note: c.: mid-C.19–20; very ob. Mayhew, 1851. 6. A North Country seaman: nautical (–1883). Clark Russell. Prob. ex SMASH. 7. 'A soft felt hat with a broad brim', Pettman: South African coll: from ca 1885.

smashing

*. The passing or uttering of false money: c. (–1812). Ex SMASH, v., 2.

smashing

*, adj. Counterfeit: c.: 1857, Borrow. 2. Engaged in 'smashing': c.: 1899, O.E.D. 3. Excellent; the adj. corresponding to SMASHER, 1: C.19–20.

smawm

. A variant, mainly dial., of SMARM.

smear

*. A house-painter: c.: late C.17– mid-18. Street Robberies Considered, ca 1700. Ex the rough work of many painters. 2. Hence, a plasterer: ca 1720–1820: c. >, ca 1750, s.

smear-gelt

*. A bribe: ca 1780–1840: c. or low s. Prob. ex Yiddish schmiergelt.

smeer

*. An incorrect spelling of SMEAR.

smell

. To make smelly; fill with offensive odour: coll: 1887.

smell

, n. A boastful, conceited or otherwise objectionable boy; Sedgeley Park School (now Cotton College): ca 1800–65. Provost Husenbeth, History of Sedgeley Park, 1856. cf. STINKER.

smell a rat

. ca 1780–1830, it was, to judge from Grose (all edd.), c.: not, however, that one lexicographer connotes irrefragable certainty.

smell at, get a

. (Only in interrogative or negative.) To get a chance at; to approach: (low) coll (–1887).
Ex olfactory inaccessibility.

smell my finger

! A low male c.p. with an erotic implication: late C.19–20.

smell of bread and butter

. To be tied to nursery ways: Public Schools' coll: late C.19–20.

smell of gunpowder, there's a

. Someone has broken wind: Army: late C.19–20.

smell one's hat

. To pray into one's hat on reaching one's pew in church: jocular coll (–1887).

smell-powder

. A duellist: coll: ca 1820–60.

smeller

*. A garden: c.: early C.17. Rowlands. Prob. ex SMELLING CHEAT, 1. 2. The nose: late C.17–20: c. >, ca 1750, s. Walker, 1901, In the Blood, ‘I tipped ’im one on the smeller as soon as ’e said it.’ cf. SMELLERS, 1. 3. Hence, a blow on the nose: boxing: from early 1820s. cf. NOSER. 4. Hence, in late C.19–20, fig.: a grave set-back. 5. Anything exceptional in the way of violence, strength, etc.: coll: 1898, Kipling, ‘Good old gales—regular smellers’. cf. SNORTER. 6. A sneaking spy; a Paul Pry: late C.19–20; slightly ob. 7. An objectionable fellow: New Zealand: late C.19–20. cf. SMELL and STINKER.

smeller, come a

. To have a heavy fall (lit. or fig.): low: late C.19–20. cf. SMELLER, 3 and 4.

smellers

. Nostrils: 1678, Cotton, ‘For he on smellers, you must know,|Received a sad unlucky blow.’ Prob. ex smeller, a feeler, e.g. of a fly. 2. As a cat’s whiskers, it may orig. (1738) have been coll—Grose, 1st ed., clearly classifies it as coll or s.—but from ca 1850, at latest, it has certainly been S.E.

smelling cheat or chete

*. A garden; an orchard: c.: 1567, Harman; B.E.; Grose, 1st ed. †by 1830; ob. as early, prob., as 1700. Lit., a smelling, i.e. fragrant, thing. See CHEAT. 2. A nosegay: C.17–early 19 (prob. ob. by 1750): c. It seems likely that after C.16 the predominating sense of smelling cheat is nosegay, for in 1610 Rowlands writes, ‘Smellar, a garden; not Smelling cheate, for thats a Nosegay’.

smelt

*. A half-guinea: c. of ca 1630–1830, but ob. as early, prob., as 1750. Shirley, 1635; Shadwell; Grose, 1st ed. Not impossibly an s perversion—s perversions are fairly common in English c. and s. (cf. the prefix-use of s in Italian)—of melt (v. as n.): the ‘melt’ or melting-down of a guinea. cf. SMISH for MISH.

smelts, westward for

. (Esp. go westward ...) On the SPREE: semi-proverbial coll: early C.17. Lit., in search of ‘conies’ (see CONY), male or female, a smelt being a simpleton.

smiff-box

. The nose: pugilistic: ca 1860–90.

smifligate; smifligation

. Ob. variants of SPIFLICATE, -ATION: 1839, Dickens.

smiggins

*. A barley soup, a (cold) meat hash: prison c.: ca 1820–80. Knapp & Baldwin, Newgate Calendar, vol. iii, 1825. A nickname, perhaps ex a warder named Higgins. (c. etymologies are heartbreaking.)

smile

. A drink of liquor, esp. of whisky: U.S. (1850), anglicized ca 1870: s. till C.20, then coll. Jerome K.Jerome, 1889. cf.:

smile

, v.i. To drink (liquor, esp. whisky): U.S. (1858), anglicized ca 1870.

smile!, I should

. A lot I care!: c.p.: 1891.

smile like a brewer's horse

. To smile delightedly or broadly: coll: C.17. Howell, 1659. A brewer's horse thrives on its food and the circumambient odour of hops.

smilence

! Silence: non-aristocratic (–1909).

smiler

. A kind of shandy-gaff: 1892, Daily News, 16 Nov.; ob.

smirk

. ‘A finical, spruce Fellow’, B.E.: late C.17–early 19. Ex the S.E. v.

smish

*. A shirt: c.: from ca 1810; ob. Perversion of MISH, or via s(e)miche= chemise.

smit

. In love: mid-C.19–20 coll, jocular on archaic past ppl.

smite

. To obtain money from (a tutor): university: ca 1780–1830. ?ex smite hip and thigh. cf. RUSH and STING.

smiter

*. The arm: c.: ca 1670–1815.

Smith!, what an O

. What a grim laugh!: non-aristocratic: ca 1835–50. Lit., ‘what an “O.Smith”!’ ex the cavernous laugh of one O.Smith, a popular actor of villains’ parts.

smithereens; smithers

. Small pieces or fragments: coll and dial., orig. Anglo-Irish: from ca 1840; the latter, only dial. after ca 1890. S.C.Hall, 1841, 'Harness ...broke into smithereens'; Halliwell, 1847, 'Smithers, fragments, atoms'. Actually, smithers, of obscure etymology but perhaps cognate with smite, is the earlier, -een being (as in colleen) an Irish diminutive suffix. Esp. go, and blow, to smithers, and blow, break, knock, split to or into smithereens, and (rare in C.20) go to smithereens; cf. all to smithereens, all to smash.

Smithfield bargain

. A bargain or deal in which the purchaser is taken in: coll: ca 1660–1830. 'Cheats' Wilson, 1662; Richard-son, 1753. Adumbrated in Shakespeare's 2 Henry IV, I, ii. Ex the horse and cattle (now the great meat) market. 2. Hence, ca 1770–1840, a marriage of convenience, with money the dominant factor: coll. cf. Breton, 1605, 'Fie on these market matches, where marriages are made without affection.'

smoak

. C.17–18 spelling of SMOKE.

smock

. Of all the numerous phrases in F. & H. and O.E.D.—'usually suggestive of loose conduct or immorality in, or in relation to women', O.E.D.—only two are to be considered; these may possibly be coll and certainly the latter is not s.: smock-alley (Ned Ward), the female pudend; smock-pensioner, a male keep. cf. SKIRT.

smoke

. A cigar, cigarette, or pipe. 1882: coll. 2. Smoke, the, 1864, H., 3rd ed.; the big S. (–1897); the great S. (–1874): London: tramps' s. >, ca 1900, gen. coll. cf. AULD REEKIE, Edinburgh. 3. (Also smoke-on: ex have a smoke on.) A blush: Scottish Public Schools': from ca 1885.

smoke

, v. To ridicule, make fun of: late C.17–mid-19: coll >, ca 1800, S.E. Ned Ward, in The London Spy, 'We smoak'd the Beaus...till they sneak'd off one by one'; Miss Burney; Keats. Perhaps ex smoke, to suspect (a person). 2. As a specific nuance of this: 'to affront a Stranger at his coming in', B.E.: late C.17–18. 3. To coït with (a woman); C.17–19. 4. v., to blush: Public Schools': from ca 1860. Farrar in St Winifred's, 1862. cf. the C.16 smoke, to fume, be very angry. 5. To decamp: low Australian: mid-C.19–20. Ex smoke along, to ride at great speed.

smoke, like

. Rapidly: ca 1806, an Irish lady's maid writes of the Russian postillions that 'they drive like smoke up the hills' (The Russian Journals of Maria and Katherine Wilmot, 1803–1808, edited by J.H.M.Hide); 1833, M.Scott: coll till ca 1870, then S.E. Ex the manner in which smoke disperses in a high wind.

smoke, the great

, see SMOKE, n., 2.

smoke and oakum, like

. An early C.19 naval form of like SMOKE.

smoke-boat

. A steamer: sailing-ships' pejorative: late C.19–20; ob.

smoke, gammon and spinach,—all

, see ALL SMOKE...

smoke-ho; -oh; smoko

. A cessation from work in order nominally to smoke, certainly to rest: coll: 1897, Frank Bullen; H.Lawson, 1900.

smoke off

. (Gen. in imperative.) To cease blushing: Scottish Public Schools': from ca 1890.

smoke-on

, see SMOKE, n., 3.

smoke-stack

. A steamer: sailing-ship seamen's pejorative coll, as is their steamboat man for a sailor therein: from not later than 1885.

smoker

. A chamber-pot: low: mid-C.19–20; ob. Ex steam arising therefrom in cold weather. 2. A voter: Preston s. or coll: ca 1800–32. Because every man who used the chimney of his cottage had a vote. 3. A steamer: coll: ca 1825–50. cf. PUFFER. 4. One who blushes: Public Schools': 1866. Ex SMOKE, v., 4. 5. A sultry day: low coll (–1887); slightly ob. cf. sense 1.

smoking

, vbl n. of SMOKE, v., esp. 1, 3.

smoko

, see SMOKE-HO.

smoky

. Jealous: s. or coll: late C.17–mid-18. B.E., who is, I think, wrong in classifying it as c. Ex smoky, suspicious.

smole

, n. and v. Smile; esp. in (he) smoled a smile (or smole): jocular >, by 1900, non-aristocratic (–1909); slightly ob. ‘Invented’ by F.C.Burnand, ca 1877 in Punch, says Ware. cf. SMILENCE!

smoocher

. A gold-digger without a licence: Australian: ca 1851–1900.

smoodge

, v.i. To flatter, wheedle, speak with deliberate amiability: Australian: late C.19–20. Ex to smoothe.

smoot

, n. and v., see SMOUT. smooth-boots, see SLY-BOOTS.

smooth white

*. A shilling: c. and low: late C.19–20; ob.

’smorning

. This morning: coll: late C.19–20.

smother

. Trade s., mid-C.19–20, as in Mayhew, 1851, ‘A “lick-up” is a boot or shoe re-lasted, and the bottom covered with a “smother”...obtained from the dust of the room.’

smother a parrot

. To drink, neat, a glass of absinthe: Anglo-French: ca 1900–14. Like so many parrots, absinthe is green. cf. Fr. étrangler un perroquet—the same.

smother (or s’m’other) evening

! A c.p. of cynical refusal: music-halls’: 1884–5. Ex one of the great Arthur Roberts’s songs; it was thus titled and themed.

smouch

. ‘Dried leaves of the ash tree, used by the smugglers for adulterating the black, or bohea teas’, Grose, 1st ed.: ca 1780–1840: perhaps orig. c. or s. 2. See SMOUS.

Smouchy

. A Jew: 1825, The Universal Songster, I, 172. Ex:

Smous, Smouse; Smouch, Smoutch

. A Jew: Smouse, 1705 (Bosman); Smous, 1785 (Grose, who restricts it to a German Jew); smouch, 1765 (C.Johnston); Smoutch, 1785 (Cumberland). The -s, -se, forms are rare in C.19; both -s(e) and -ch forms are †by 1880, except as archaisms. Why the O.E.D. should treat smou(t)ch—an alteration of smous(e)—as S.E., and smous(e) as s., I cannot see: both, I believe, are s., smous(e) coming direct ex the Dutch smous (identical with German-Jewish schmus), patter, profit, Hebrew schmuoss, news, tales; Sewel, 1708, proposed derivation ex Moses—cf. IKEY. 2. Hence, in South Africa, an itinerant (esp. if Jewish) trader: coll: smou(t)ch, 1849; smouse, 1850, but anticipated fifty years before. Also Smouser: 1887 (Pettman); smousing, itinerant trading, from mid-1870s, is another South African coll.

smouse

, v.i., corresponding to SMOUS, 2. smousing, see SMOUS, 2.

smout; smoot

. A compositor seeking occasional work at various houses: printing (–1888). Jacobi. While smoot is in C.20, more gen., smout is recorded the earlier. Ex:

smout; smoot

, v.i. To work on occasional jobs at various houses or even at one if it is not one's regular place of employment: printing: from ca 1680: in C.20, smoot (app. unrecorded before 1892) is the more gen. Moxon. In C.17–18, v.t. as smout on (a firm). Perhaps ex Dutch smutte, to slink: cf. dial. smoot, to creep, and smoot after, to court (a girl) furtively.

Smoutch

, see SMOUS.

smug

. A blacksmith: C.17–18: perhaps c. Rowlands, 1609; Ned Ward; Grose. Prob. ex C.16–17 smuggy, grimy, smutty, dirty. 2. Smuggling: Anglo-Chinese (–1864). cf. the v., 1, and SMUG-BOAT. 3. A (quiet and) hard-working student; esp. (at Oxford) one who takes no part in the social life of the place: university: 1882; ob. See quotation from Goschen at SAP, n., 2, and cf. SCRUBBER, 3. Ex smug, consciously respectable.

smug

*, v. To steal; run away with: 1825, T.Hook: c. rapidly > low s. Perhaps ex smuggle: cf. SMUG-BOAT; SMUGGING, 2. 2. To hush up: 1857, Morning Chronicle, 3 Oct., ‘She wanted a guarantee the case should be smugged’; prob. orig. c.; by 1900, s. ?ex sense 1 or ex smug, to smarten up. 3. (?hence) to arrest, imprison: c.: from mid-1880s. J.W.Horsley, Jottings from Jail, 1887, ‘Then two or three more coppers came up, and we got smugged, and got a sixer each.’ 4. v.i., to copy; to crib: from ca 1860; ob. Perhaps ex sense 2. 5. To work hard: university: from ca 1890. Ex n., 2.

smug-boat

. A boat carrying contraband; esp. an opium boat off the Chinese coast: nautical coll (–1867). Ex smuggle; cf. SMUG, v., 1, and:

smug-lay

*. The DODGE of selling (almost) worthless goods on the ground that they are valuable contraband: c. of ca 1810–50. Ex smuggling.

smuggling

. See SMUG, v. 2. (In pl) smuggings! Mine!: schoolboys' s. (–1859), shouted at the conclusion of a game, when (e.g. at top-spinning or marbles) it was lawful to purloin the plaything. In 1825, Hone notes that this practice is called smuggling. Ex SMUG, v., 1.

smuggle

, gen. v.t. To sharpen (a pencil) at both ends: schools' late C.19–20; ob. cf. the late C.17–18 smuggle, to caress.

smuggle the coal (or cole)

. 'To make people believe one has no Money when the Reckoning is to be paid', Miége, 1687; †by 1750. See COLE.

smuggler

. A pencil sharpened at both ends: schools': see SMUGGLE. Esp. at Winchester.

smuggling-ken

*. A brothel: c. of ca 1720–1830. Punning smuggle, to caress, and smuggle, to ‘contraband’.

smut

*. A furnace; a copper boiler: c. (–1811) >, ca 1840, low s.; †by 1890. As a furnace, app. †by 1859: witness H., 1st ed. Ex smut, soot.

smut!, ditto, brother

, see BROTHER SMUT.

snab

, see SNOB, 1.

snabble

*. To arrest: c.: 1724, Harper, ‘But fileing of a rumbo ken,|My Boman is snabbled again’; †by 1790. Gen. as snabbled. 2. To rifle, plunder, steal; knock down, half-stun: c. of ca 1720–1840. Also SMABBLE; cf. SNAFFLE. 3. Hence, to kill, esp. in battle: c.: mid-C.18–early 19. cf. SMABBLED. 4. Gen. v.t., to copulate: low s.: late C.18–early 19.

snack

. A racquets ball: Winchester: from ca 1860; ob. 2. It is possible that snack, a share, esp. in go snacks, be partners—cf. go snicks (see SNICK, n., 1)—may orig. have been c.: see B.E.

snaffle

*. ‘A Highwayman that has got Booty’, B.E.: c.: late C.17–18. Perhaps ex snaffle, a bridle-bit; but prob. allied with the v., 1. 2. Talk uninteresting or unintelligible to the others present: coll: from ca 1860; almost †. Perhaps because such conversation acts as a snaffle; more prob. ex East Anglian snaffle, to talk foolishly.

snaffle

*. To steal: 1724, Harper, ‘From priggs that snaffle the prancers strong’: c. >, ca 1840, dial. and low s. Cognate with SNABBLE. cf. the n., 1: SNAGGLE; SNAVEL. 2. To seize (a person); arrest: c. (–1860) >, ca 1890, low s. Ex snaffle a horse. 3. To appropriate, to seize a thing for oneself: mostly military: from the middle 1890s.

snaffle-biter

. A horse-thief: s.: Ned Ward, 1709. cf.:

snaffler

*. A thief, only in snaffler of prancers (horses): from ca 1780: c. >, ca 1840, dial. and low s. Ex SNAFFLE, v., 1. 2. A highwayman: ca 1786–1840: c. cf. SNAFFLE, n., 1. 3. As=one who arrests, very rare: C.19.

snaffling lay

*. Highway robbery as a trade: c.: mid-C.18–early 19. Fielding, 1752, ‘A clever fellow, and upon the snaffling lay at least’. Ex SNAFFLE, v., 1; cf. SNAFFLE, n., 1, and SNAFFLER, 2.

snag-catcher

. A dentist: low: from ca 1880; very ob. Ex angling.

snaggle

*, v.i. and t, To angle for geese as a means of stealing them: either c. or low s.: from late 1830s; ob. Often as snaggling, vbl n. Prob. a corruption of sniggle (as in eel-fishing) and perhaps cognate with SNABBLE and SNAFFLE.

snaggle-tooth

. A proletarian woman, esp. if a shrew, with an irregular set of teeth: urban lower classes’ coll (–1909).

snags

. False teeth: ?mostly naval: ca 1800–50. It occurs in W.N.Glascock, Sailors and Saints (I, 183), 1829.

snail(e)y

. A bullock with horn slightly curled, like a snail's: Australian coll: from ca 1880. 'Rolf Boldrewood', 1884.

'Snails

! God's nails!: a coll petty oath: late C.16–early 19.

snail's gallop, go a

. To go very slowly indeed: semi-proverbial coll >, ca 1850, dial: from ca 1545. 'Proverbs' Heywood; Ray, 1670; N.Bailey, 1725; Colman, Jr, 1803; Combe, 1821; Brogden's Lincolnshire Words, 1866.

snaily

, see SNAILEY.

snake

. A skein of silk: tailors': from ca 1870; ob. Ex shape.

snake

*. To steal (something) warily: c.: from ca 1885. Ex dial.

snake, give (a person) a

. To vex, annoy: low (–1887); ob.

snake-charmer

. A bugler; a Highland piper: military: late C.19–20; ob. Ex music played to charm snakes.

snake in the grass

. A looking-glass: rhyming s. (–1859).

snake-juice

. Whisky: Australian: from ca 1890. Ex see SNAKES.

snake-tart

. Eel-pie: mid-C.19–20; ob. cf. DOVE-TART.

snake the pool

. To take the pool: billiards: from ca 1880.

snakes, a caution to

. (Something) very surprising, odd, eccentric, or unusual: 1897, 'Pomes' Marshall, 'Her Sunday best was her week-day worst,|'Twas simply a caution to snakes'; ob. cf. CAUTION, which, prob., it merely elaborates.

snakes!, great

. A coll imprecation: 1897, F.T.Bullen; slightly ob. Orig. U.S. (why in snakes occurring in 1891 in Scribner's Magazine).

snakes, see

. To have delirium tremens: U.S.; anglicized as coll ca 1900. Earlier form, have or have got snakes in one's boots, remained U.S.

snakesman

*. Only in LITTLE SNAKESMAN. cf. SNEAKSMAN.

snam

*. To steal; esp. to snatch (from the person): c.: from ca 1835. Origin?

snam, (up)on the

*. Thus engaged: c.: mid-C.19–20. cf. SNAM.

snap

*. A share: c.: from ca 1560; ob. Awdelay, 1561. Also snaps, as in go snaps, to go shares (cf. SNACK): late C.18–20; Pegge, ca 1800; H., 1st ed., spells it SNAPPS. cf. SNICK, n. 2. (A synonym of CLOYER.) A sharper, cheat, pilferer; esp. a thief claiming a share in booty (cf. sense 1): c.: late C.16–early 17 for ‘cloyer’ nuance; ca 1620–1720 for ‘sharper’ senses: former in Greene, latter in Fletcher and L’Estrange. In Ned Ward, 1731, brother snap is a sharking lawyer: C.18 s. 3. Affair, business; easy job: see SNAP, SOFT, and SNAP AWAY, GIVE THE. 4. Energy: U.S. (1872), anglicized ca 1890: coll >, ca 1910, S.E. Doyle, 1894, ‘A young...man with plenty of snap about him’. cf. GO, n., 7; PEP; VIM. 5. An engagement (for work): theatrical: from ca 1890. cf. SNAPPS.

snap

*, v.i. To go shares with sharpers or thieves: early C.17 c. Field, 1609. cf. the n., 1 and 2; also: SNACK; SNICK (n.).

snap, on the

*. On the look-out for something to steal: c.: mid-C.19–20. cf. snapper-up of unconsidered trifles and SNAP, n., 2. 2. Hence, looking out for occasional work: from ca 1890: s.

snap, soft

. An easy matter, business, project; a profitable affair; an easy job; occ. a pleasant time: s. >, ca 1910, coll: from ca 1885; orig. U.S. (1845).

snap away, give the

. To blab; BLOW THE GAFF: low s.: from ca 1870.

snap the glaze

*. To break shop-windows or show-case glasses: c.: ca 1780–1840.

snappage

*. A share in booty: c.: early C. 17. Rowlands. cf. SNAP, 1; SNAPPING.

snapped

, ppl adj. Abrupt, sudden, unexpected: coll: 1893, Leland.

snapper

*. An accomplice; a sharer (in booty): c.: ca 1530–50. cf. SNAP, n., 1. 2. A taker of snapshot photographs; the taker of the snapshot in question: from ca 1908: coll, now verging on S.E.

snapper-rigged

. (Of a ship) poorly rigged and found; (of a man) poorly clothed: East Canadian (and U.S.) nautical: late C. 19–20.

snapping

*. A share in booty: c.: late C. 16–early 17. Greene, 1591. cf. SNAP, n., 1; SNAPPAGE; SNAPPER; and:

snapps

*. A variant of SNAP, n., 1. H., 1st ed., “Looking out for snapps”, waiting for windfalls; H., 2nd ed., 1860, adds ‘or odd jobs’. cf. SNAP, 5.

snappy

. Smartly intelligent; energetic; lively; pointed (story): coll: 1873. 2. Whence, smart (of dress); neatly elegant: coll: 1881; ob.

snare

. ‘To acquire; to seize; to win’, C. J.Dennis: Australian: late C.19–20. Ex snaring animals.

snarl

. An ill-tempered discussion; a quarrel: tailors’: from ca 1860.

snatch

. A hasty or illicit or mercenary copulation: coll: C.17–20. ‘Melancholy’ Burton, ‘I could not abide marriage, but as a rambler I took a snatch when I could get it.’ 2. Hence, ultimately, though imm. ex Yorkshire dial.: the female pudend: late C.19–20.

snatch-blatch

. The female pudend: from ca 1890. On SNATCH, 2.

snatch-cly

*. A pickpocket, esp. one who snatches from women’s pockets: c.: late C.18–19. See CLY.

snatcher

*. A young and inexperienced thief: c.: from ca 1860. 2. See RAG-AND-SNATCHER MAN.

snatchers

. Handcuffs: Glasgow policemen’s: since ca 1890. Ex-Inspector Elliot, Tracking Glasgow Criminals, 1904. cf. synonymous c. SNITCHER (3).

snavel

*, n. See RUNNING SNAVEL and cf. RUNNING SMOBBLE. 2. v., to Steal, esp. by snatching or by pocket-picking: c.: from ca 1810. A corruption of SNABBLE or of SNAFFLE (v., 1), or perhaps a fusion of both. 3. To catch, to take: Australian: mid-C.19–20.

'Snayles

! A C.16–17 variant of 'SNAILS!

sneak

*; in late C.18–19, gen. the sneak. The practice, or a specific act, of creeping in stealthily with a view to robbery; a theft thus effected: c.: late C.17–20; ob. Esp. in SNEAK, (UP)ON THE. 2. Partly hence, a stealthy departure or flight: c.: from ca 1810. 3. A pilferer, a stealthy enterer with a view to theft: from ca 1780: s. >, ca 1830, coll >, ca 1880, S.E. 4. See SNEAKS.

sneak

*, v.t. To steal from (a place) after stealthy entry: c.: from ca 1810; ob. Prob. ex SNEAK, GO UPON THE. cf. sense 4 and the n., 1. 2. To escape from (a person) by stealth: c.: from ca 1810; extremely ob. cf. the n., 2. 3. To walk about looking for something to steal or pilfer: c.: from ca 1820; ob. 4. To filch; steal furtively, stealthily: coll: 1883. Ex sense 1. 5. To tell tales (v.i.): schools': 1897, Daily News, 3 June, 'Sneaking, in the ethics of the public school boys, is the unpardonable sin.' Ex sneak, to be servile.

sneak, area

, see AREA SNEAK. sneak, evening, see SNEAK, MORNING.

sneak, give it to (a person) upon the

*, see SNEAK, V., 2.

sneak, go upon the

*. To slip into houses whose doors are left open and there steal: c.: late C.18–20; ob. Ex SNEAK, UPON THE.

sneak, morning

*. The practice of ‘going out early to rob private houses or shops by slipping in at the door unperceived’, Vaux: c.: from ca 1810; ob. Ex: 2. In late C.18–20, the person doing this: c. Grose, 1st ed., where also evening sneak, one given to pilfering in the evening, also (in C.19–20) the doing of this.

sneak, upon

* or (in C. 19–20) on the. Stealthily: c.: late C.17–20. Mainly in reference to robbery (see SNEAK, n., 1). 2. Prowling for booty: c.: from ca 1820. cf. SNEAK, v., 3.

sneak, upright

*. A thief preying on potboys, whom he robs of the pots as they are engaged in collecting them: c.: late C.18–20; ob.

sneak on the lurk

*. To prowl about for booty: c.: from ca 1820; ob. An elaboration of SNEAK, v., 3. See LURK.

sneaker

. A large cup (or small basin) with a saucer and cover, esp. for drink; e.g. a sneaker of punch: from ca 1710; perhaps orig. s., soon > coll; by 1830, S.E.

sneaking-budge

*. A lone-hand thief or robber: c.: late C.17–early 19. cf. SNEAK, n., 1, and v., 1, and see BUDGE. 2. Fielding incorrectly uses it to mean pilfering or stealing, n. and adj.

sneaks

*. c. from ca 1870 as in James Greenwood's In Strange Company, 1873, 'Sneaks...are shoes with canvas tops and india-rubber soles.' Ex SNEAK, n., 2.

'Sneaks

! God's neaks!, a coll petty oath: early C.17. Marston. Properly, neaks should be neakes or neakes=nigs. A variant of the oath occurs in Fletcher, 1619, 'I'll...goe up and downe drinking small beere and swearing 'odds neagues.' cf. 'SNIGS!

sneaksman

*. A stealthy thief, cowardly pilferer: c.: from ca 1810. Properly, one who goes upon the SNEAK. Ex SNEAK, n., 1, but perhaps influenced by LITTLE SNAKESMAN. 2. Hence, a shoplifter: c.: mid-C.19–20.

sneck up! snick up

! Go hang!: late C.16–17 coll; extant in dial. ‘Women of Abingdon’ Porter, 1599; Shakespeare; dramatist Heywood. Lit., close the latch! cf. SHUT UP, and the Derbicism put a sneck before one’s snout, to watch one’s speech, to say little or nothing.

sneerg

. Greens: back s. (–1859).

sneeze

. The nose: from ca 1820; very ob. Ex SNEEZER, 2.

sneeze at

. To underrate, disregard, scorn: coll: 1806, Surr; Combe, 1820, ‘A... dame...who wish’d to change her name,| And...would not perhaps have sneezed at mine’. In C.20, mainly in not to be SNEEZED AT.

sneeze- or snuff-lurker

*. A thief that operates after disabling his victim with snuff, pepper, or any similar unpleasantness: c.: from ca 1859; ob. As=snuff, sneeze, once S.E., is now dial. cf. SNUFF, 1, and:

sneeze- or snuff-racket, give it (to a person) on the

*. To do this: from ca 1820; slightly ob. See SNEEZE-LURKER.

sneezed at, not to be

. Not to be underrated, disregarded, despised: coll: 1813, Scott; 1891, Nat Gould. Ex SNEEZE AT.

sneezer

*. A snuff-box: c. of ca 1720–1880. A New Canting Dict., 1725, ‘Cog a Sneezer, Beg a...Snuff-box’. Ex sneeze, snuff. 2. The nose: 1820. cf. SNORTER, 4. 3. Hence, a pocket-handkerchief: low (–1857); ob. 4. A drink, esp. a dram of something strong: from ca 1820: dial. >, ca 1835, s. J.T.Hewlett, 1841, ‘He knew he should get a sneezer of something short for his trouble’; Dickens. Lit., enough to make one sneeze. cf. SNIFTER, 1. 5. Something exceptionally good or bad, big or strong or violent, in some specified respect: s. >, in late C.19, coll: 1820, a blow (dial. >, ca 1840, s.); a gale, early C.19 (mainly nautical); a very well-bowled fast ball, late C.19–20 (cricket); in 1836, Haliburton speaks of ‘a regular sneezer of a sinner’; a martinet (military s. of—1903). cf. preceding sense; SNORTER, 2; SNIFTER, 2. 6. A mouth-gag: c.: from ca 1890. Clarence Rook, The Hooligan Nights, 1899. Ex sense 3.

sneezing-coffer

*. A snuff-box: c. of ca 1810–50. cf. SNEEZER, 1.

Sneezy

. The second month in the French Republican Calendar: late C.18–early 19. Ex (le mois) brumaire, the foggy month.

snell

*. A needle: c.; hawkers' s.: from ca 1845. Ex Scots snell, sharp. cf.:

snell-fencer

*. A needle-hawker: id.: id. Carew, Autobiography of a Gipsy.

snib

*. A petty thief: c.: ca 1605–1840. Dekker; Egan's Grose, where it is described as Scotch cant. ?cognate with snib, to check.

snib

, v. To coït with (a woman): low Scots: from ca 1810. Prob. ex snib, to fasten (a door); cf. snib a candle, snuff it.

snibs

! A term of derision or defiance: late C.19–20.

snick

. A share: s. and dial.: from ca 1720. At Winchester, go snicks (–1891), to go shares. A variant of SNACK, 2. 2. Esp. in for a snick, for a certainty: proletarian: late C.19–20.

snick

, v. To slip, cut, across or along (a road) suddenly or quickly: coll: 1883. Ex snick, v.i., to cut, snip, esp. crisply.

snick-fadge

. A petty thief: c.: mid-C.19–20. Ex S.E. snick off.

snick up

! see SNECK UP!

snicker

. A glandered horse: late C.18– early 19. cf. SNITCHED.

snicking

*. A surreptitious obtaining: c. or low s.: ca 1670–1750. Head, 1673. See SNICK, n., and cf. SNACK; SNAP, v.; SNICKTOG.

snickle

*, v.i. To inform, peach: c.: mid-C.19–20: mostly U.S.Matsell. Prob. ex the now dial. snickle, to snare.

snicks, go

, see SNICK, n.

snicktog

*. To go shares: c.: late C.19–20; ob. Perversion of SNICK, n. cf. SNACK (esp. as go snacks); SNAP, n., 1, and v.; SNICK (esp. go snicks); SNICKING.

snid

*. A sixpence: mainly Scots c. (–1839); ob. by 1900.

sniddy

*, see SNIDE, adj., and SNIDEY.

snide

. An occ. form of SNID. 2. (Occ. snyde.) Anything spurious, esp. base coin or sham jewellery: c. (in C.20, low): implied in SNIDE-PITCHER, as early as 1862, but by itself unrecorded before ca 1885, except in H., 5th ed., 1874, ‘Also... as a [n.], as, “He’s a snide”, though this seems but a contraction of snide ’un’; perhaps, however, the reference in ‘No. 747’ at p. 416 is valid (as=base metal) for 1845. Origin obscure; see the adj. 3. Hence, a contemptible person: c. >, by 1890, low: see quotation from H. for sense 2.

snide; snyde

*, adj. Spurious, counterfeit, sham, bogus: c.: 1862, ‘Snyde witnesses’, O.E.D.; but the reference in Carew’s Autobiography of a Gipsy, p. 418, points to 1845. 2. Hence, mean, contemptible: c.: from ca 1870. ‘Pomes’ Marshall, ‘His pockets she tried,|Which is wifely, though snide.’ Both senses also in forms sniddy and snidey: late C.19–20. Prob. ex S.German aufschneiden (to boast, show off, exaggerate) via Yiddish.

snide and shine (or S. and S.)

. A Jew, esp. of East London: East London Gentiles’ (–1909). For shine, cf. SHEENY.

snide lurk

*. The passing of counterfeit money: c.: from ca 1845.

snide-pitcher

*. A passer of base money: c.: 1862 (O.E.D.). See SNIDE, n., 2.

snide-pitching

*. The passing of counterfeit money: c.: 1868, Temple Bar, ‘Snyde-pitching is...a capital racket.’ See SNIDE, n., 2; cf. last entry.

snidesman

*. A SNIDE-PITCHER: c.: 1897, Arthur Morrison.

snidey

*. Bad; unfavourable: c., and low: from ca 1870. Also sniddy. 2. Dirty: military: from ca 1875.

sniffer

. The nose; pugilistic: ca 1840–90. Augustus Mayhew, Paved With Gold, 1857.

sniffy

. Scornful, disdainful; occ. ill-tempered: coll and dial.: from ca 1870. Lit., apt to sniff in contempt. cf. SNEEZE AT.

snifter

. A dram: low: from ca 1880; ob. Prob. ex U.S. snifter (1848), a small drink of spirits: cf. SNEEZER, 4. 2. Any thing or person excellent, or very big or strong: late C.19–20. Ex dial. snifter, a strong breeze. cf. SNEEZER, 5; SNORTER, 2.

snifty-snidey

. Supercilious, disdainful: Lancashire s. (–1904), not dial. cf. SNIFFY.

snig

. To steal; pilfer: 1892, Kipling. Ex dial.

sniggered if (e.g. you will), I'm

. A mild asseveration (–1860). Very ob. H., 2nd ed., ‘Another form of this is JIGGERED.’

’Sniggers

! A trivial oath: coll: ca 1630–1890. Rowley, Smollett, Haliburton. Whence perhaps SNIGGERED. cf.:

sniggle

, v.i. To wriggle: creep stealthily: dial. (–1837) >, ca 1900, coll. Ex snuggle. 2. Whence, to get (something) in surreptitiously: dial. (–1881) >, ca 1900, coll.

'Snigs

! God's nigs, a trivial oath: coll: ca 1640–90. More prob. a variant than an abbr. of 'SNIGGERS! cf. SNEAKS!

snilch

*, v.i.; rarely v.t. To see; to eye: c. of ca 1670–1850. ?origin. 2. Hence, to examine closely, to feel suspiciously: c.: mid-C.19–20; ob.

snip

. A tailor; often as a nickname: late C.16–20: s. >, in C.18, coll. Jonson, Grose, Trollope. In late C.19–20, the inevitable naval and military nickname of all men surnamed Taylor or Parsons. Ex to snip, as in tailoring. 2. A swindle or cheat: low (–1725); †by 1840. cf. the v. 3. A good tip: racing: from ca 1890. 'Pomes' Marshall. 4. Hence, a bargain; a certainty; an easy win or acquisition: 1894. 5. See SNIPS.

snip

, v.t. To cheat: low: ca 1720–1840. A New Canting Dict., 1725. cf. the n., 2.

snip, go

. To go shares: coll: mid-C.19–20.

snip-cabbage or -louse

. A tailor: resp. C.18–early 19 (E.Ward, 1708); from ca 1820. Both are very ob. For former, cf. trade sense of CABBAGE.

snipe

. A lawyer: from ca 1860. Prob. ex: 2. A long bill, esp. among lawyers, whose bills are often tragi-comic in their length: from ca 1855. Ex the long-billed bird. 3. See:

snipes

*. A pair of scissors: c.: from ca 1810.

snippet

. The female pudend: Liverpool: late C.19–20.

snips

. Handcuffs: low: from ca 1890. Ex snip, adv. denoting sound.

snish

. Ammunition: military: from ca 1905. Ex Scots and Northern dial. snish (more gen. sneesh), snuff.

snitch

*. A fillip on the nose: c.: ca 1670–1750. Also snitchel: same status and period. 2. The nose: late C.17–20: c. >, ca 1830, dial. and low s. B.E. at snite. 3. Hence (cf. NOSE, n.), an informer, esp. by King's evidence: only (?first in Lex. Bal.) in SNITCH, TURN. 4. See SNITCHES.

snitch

*, v.i. To peach, turn King's evidence: c.: C.19–20. Vaux, Maginn. Prob. ex the n.; perhaps cognate with SNILCH. cf. NOSE, v. 2. v.t. To inform against: c.: C.19–20; rare, the gen. form being snitch upon. 3. To arrest (a person): c.: mid-C.19–20.

snitch, turn

*, To turn King's evidence: c.: from ca 1780. cf. NOSE, n.

snitched

, ppl adj. Glandered: horse-dealers' s. (–1876). Hindley. cf. SNICKER, snitchel

, n. See SNITCH, n., 1. 2. v.t. To fillip on the nose: c.: late C.17–early 18.

snitcher

. A member of a set of bloods: ca 1760–80. The Annual Register, 1761. ?origin. 2. One who peaches; an informer: c.: 1827. Ex SNITCH, v., 1. 3. In pl, handcuffs; or strings used therefor: c. (–1860).

snitches

. Handcuffs: c.: from ca 1870. A corruption of SNITCHER, 3.

snitching

. The art and practice of peaching; turning King's evidence: c. C.19–20:

snitching-rascal

. A variant of SNITCHER, 2. (†by 1890.)

snite his snitch

. 'Wipe his Nose, or give him a good Flap on the Face': resp. late C.17–20 (c. >, in C.19, low s.) and late C.17–early 19 (c.; Grose, 1785). By itself snite is S.E. > dial.

sniv

*. To hold one's tongue: c.: ca 1810–50. Ex snib, to fasten. 2. sniv! See BENDER! c. of ca 1810–40.

snivel, do a

. To tell a pitiful tale: tailors': from ca 1865.

sniveller

. A toadying seaman: nautical: late C.19–20.

snob

. A shoemaker, cobbler, or an apprentice thereto: from ca 1780: s. >, ca 1800, coll and dial. In Scots coll, C.19–20, snab. ?etymology. cf. SNOBBER. 2. Hence in the Navy, a man earning extra money by repairing shipmates' boots in spare time: late C.19–20: coll. 3. A townsman: Cambridge University: ca 1795–1870. Perhaps ex sense 1. cf. the corresponding CAD. 4. Among workmen, a BLACK-LEG (3) or SCAB (2): coll: from ca 1859; very ob. Abbr. SNOBSTICK.

snob

, v.i. and t. 'To sloven one's work', F. & H.: tailors': from ca 1870; ob.

snob-shop

. The regimental boot repairer or maker's workshop: military coll: late C.19–20. F. & Gibbons. See SNOB, n., 1.

snobber

. A shoemaker, cobbler: coll: 1900. Ex SNOB, n., 1.

snobbery

. Slovenly work; slack trade: tailors': from ca 1870; ob. cf. SNOB, v. Whence, hide the snobbery, to conceal bad workmanship, inferior material.

snobbing

. Boot-repairing: coll: C.19–20. See SNOB, n., 1.

snob's boot

. A sixpence: tailors': from ca 1870; ob. cf. SNOB'S DUCK.

snob's cat, full of piss and tantrums,—like a

. A low c.p. applied to a person: ca 1820–50.

snob's duck

. 'A leg of mutton, stuffed with sage and onions', F. & H.: tailors': from ca 1870; ob. See SNOB, n., 1, and cf. SNOB'S BOOT.

snobstick

. A non-striker, a SCAB (2): workmen's coll (–1860); ob. Prob. a corruption of KNOBSTICK, as H., 2nd ed., suggests.

snoddy

. A soldier: low: ca 1890–1914. A corruption of SWADDY.

snoodge

, see SNOOZE. snook, see SNOOKS, COCK.

snook

. To answer an examination paper throughout: to defeat (someone) in argument: Shrewsbury: late C.19–20. ?Ex cock SNOOKS. cf. SNORK.

snooker

. A freshman at the Royal Military Academy: R.M.A.: 1872. Prob. ex snook, a variant of snoke, to sneak about (v.i.).

Snooks

. ‘The imaginary name of a practical joker; also a derisive retort on an idle question—Snooks!’, F. & H.: from ca 1860; ob.

snooks, cock; occ. cock a snook; also cut a snook, cut snooks

. To make the derisive gesture described at SIGHT, 5: coll: (resp.) –1903; 1904; 1879; –1903. Origin obscure. ‘Cf. Fr. faire un pied de nez, Ger. eine lange nase machen. Perhaps name Snook-s felt as phonetically appropriate (cf. Walker W.).’

snooze

*; occ. snoose (ob.); in late C.18– early 19, occ. snoodge. A sleep; esp. a nap or doze: 1793 (O.E.D.): c. >, by 1820, s. >, ca 1840, coll: Ex the v. 2. Whence, a lodging; a bed: c.: from ca 1810; ob.

snooze, v.; OCC. snoose

* (†in C.20) and snoodge (late C.18–20: Grose, 2nd ed.: since ca 1850, illiterate). To sleep: 1789, George Parker: c. >, ca 1810, s. >, ca 1840, coll. Grose, 1788, ‘To snooze with a mort [wench]... Cant’. 2. Hence (in late C.19–20, the prevailing sense), to doze, take a nap: from ca 1840: coll. Thackeray, ‘Snooze gently in thy arm-chair, thou easy bald-head.’ Etymology problematic: the word may have been suggested by ‘sleep’, ‘nap’, and ‘doze’.

snooze-case

*. A pillow-slip: low (–1864); slightly ob. Ex SNOOZE, n., 2.

snooze-ken

*. A variant of SNOOZINGKEN.

snoozem

. Sleep; a sleep: low: 1838, Beckett, Paradise Lost; ob. by 1900. An elaboration of SNOOZE, n., 1.

snoozer

. One who snoozes (see the v.); coll: O.E.D., 1878; prob. half a century earlier. 2. ‘One of those thieves who take up their quarters at hotels for the purpose of robbery’: c.: mid-C.19–20. Mayhew.

snoozing

, n. and adj. See SNOOZE, v. From ca 1810. cf.:

snoozing(-)ken

*. A brothel: c. (–1811). See SNOOZE, v. Also, according to F. & H., a lodging-house, bed-room, bed. Occ. snooze-ken.

snoozle

, v.i. To nestle and then sleep; to nuzzle: resp. ca 1830, 1850: coll and dial. Perhaps, as W. suggests, ex SNOOZE+ snuggle+nuzzle. 2. Hence, v.t. to thrust affectionately, nuzzle: coll and dial.: 1847, Emily Brontë.

snoozy

*. A night-constable: c. of ca 1820–60. Ex SNOOZE, v., 1.

snoozy

, adj. Sleepy: drowsy: coll: 1877. See SNOOZE, n., 1.

snoring-kennel

. A bedroom: s.: Ned Ward, 1703.

snork

. To surpass; cap (another) in argument, repartee; do the whole of (an examination paper): Shrewsbury School: late C.19–20. Perhaps ex: 2. A rebuff, a setback: id.: from ca 1880. Perhaps cf. dial. snork, a snort. 3. Whence, snorks!, a term of defiance: id.: from ca 1885.

snorter

. A gale; a strong breeze: 1855 (O.E.D.): s. >, ca 1890, coll. cf. SNEEZER, 5. 2. Anything exceptional, esp. in size, severity, or strength: 1859, J.Lang, ‘The Commander-in-Chief...certainly did put forth “a snorter of a General Order”’: s. >, ca 1890, coll. cf. SNIFTER, 2. 3. A blow, punch on the nose: Boxiana, II, 1818. cf. SNEEZER, 5. 4. The nose: from ca 1880. cf. SNEEZER, 2. Baumann defines it as the mouth and classifies it as boxing s.: I do not know it in this sense, but he may well be right: he almost always is!

snorting

. The ppl adj. corresponding to SNORTER, 2; esp., excellent: late C.19–20.

snorty

. Irritable, irritated; peevish; captious: 1893, Kate Douglas Wiggin, ‘She found Mr Gooch very snorty, very snorty indeed.’ Ex snort contemptuously. cf. SNOTTY, adj., 2.

snossidge

. A sausage: London’s lower classes’: ca 1890–1900.

snot

. Nasal mucus: C.15–20: S.E. until C.19, when dial. and a vulgarism. Cognate with SNITE. 2. Hence, a term of contempt for a person: C.19–20: s. when not dial.; ob. except in dial. 3. A gentleman: Scots c. (–1839); ob.

snot

, v.i., v.t., and v. reflexive. To blow the nose: late C.16–20: mostly dial.; in C. 19–20, also (though very ob.) a vulgarism. Ex the n., 1.

snot-box

. The nose: low coll: mid-C.19–20; ob. Ex SNOT, n., 1.

snot-rag

. A pocket-handkerchief: low: late C.19–20. cf. SNOT-BOX and SNOTTER.

snotted

, ppl adj. Reprimanded: c.: late C.19–20; ob. Prob. a perversion of snouted, rooted up as with the snout; perhaps on SNOTTY, adj., 2.

snotter

. A dirty, ragged handkerchief: low: from ca 1820; ob. Ex SNOT, mucus. 2. The nose: low: from ca 1830; very ob. 3. A handkerchief-thief: c.: mid-C.19–20; ob. 4. A midshipman: nautical (–1903). Perhaps influenced by nautical snotter (a short rope spliced at the ends). More gen. SNOTTY.

snotter-hauling

*. The thieving of handkerchiefs: c.: mid-C.19–20. Ex SNOTTER, 3.

snottie

, see SNOTTY, n. snotties' nurse, see SNOTTY, n. snottily, adv. of SNOTTY, adj., 2.

snottinger

. A handkerchief: low: from ca 1860; ob. Ex SNOT, n., 1, on MUCKENDER. cf. SNOT-RAG, and SNOTTER, 1.

snottle-box

. The nose: low: mid-C.19–20; ob. cf. SNOT-BOX.

snotty; OCC. snottie

. A midshipman: nautical (–1899: The Navy and Army Illustrated, 23 Dec.). Prob. ex the adj., 2, not the adj., 1; ‘Taffrail’, however, derives it ex the buttons worn by midshipmen on their sleeves, whence arose the jest that the buttons were there to prevent them from wiping their noses on their sleeves. Hence, snotties’ nurse, a naval officer detailed to look after the midshipmen: late C.19–20.

snotty

, adj. Filthy; mean, contemptible: late C.17–20: S.E. until C.19, then dial. and s. Ex SNOT, n., 1. cf. S.E. snotty-nosed. 2. Angry, short-tempered; apt to take offence; very proud; proudly conceited: s.: Sessions, May 1847. Prob. ex sense 1.

snout

*. A hogshead: c. of ca 1720–1800. Ex a hog’s nose. 2. Tobacco: c. (–1896: O.E.D.). ‘Stuart Wood’. ?origin. 3. Among hawkers, a cigar: late C.19–20. Ex sense 2 and (?) shape.

snout-piece

. The face: coll: C.17–19. ‘Melancholy’ Burton, 1621.

snouty

. Overbearing; haughty; insolent: coll: 1858 (O.E.D.); somewhat ob. cf. SNIFFY.

Snow

, see SNOWY, 2.

snow

*. Linen; esp. linen hung out to dry or bleach: c. (–1811). Ex whiteness. Also occ. SNOWY.

snow-broth

. Cold tea: 1870, Judd; ob. Ex snow-broth: melted snow.

snow-dropper or -gatherer

*. A linen-thief: c.: from ca 1810, though snow-dropper is unrecorded before 1864, -gatherer before 1859. Ex SNOW, 1.

snow-dropping

*. Linen-thieving: c.: from ca 1810; recorded, 1839. cf. last entry.

snow-rupee

. A genuine rupee: Southern Indian coll (–1886). Ex Telegu tsanauvu, authority, currency, by process of Hobson-Jobson.

snowball

. A Negro: from ca 1780; ob. Ironic nickname.

'Snowns

. A trivial oath: late C.16–early 17; coll abbr. Od's nouns.

snowy

*. Linen; esp. that hung out to dry: c. (–1877). Ex SNOW, 1. 2. (Snowy.) An inevitable nickname of men with flaxen or bleached hair: lower classes'; late C.19–20. Also, in Australia, of Aborigines: late C. 19–20. In the second and third nuances, often Snow.

snub-devil

. A clergyman: ca 1780–1900.

snudge

*. One who, to steal later, hides himself in a house, esp. under a bed: c. (–1676); †by 1840. A special development ex snudge, to remain snugly quiet.

snuff

*, v.i. To blind (esp. a shopkeeper) with snuff and then, all being well, steal his goods: c.: from ca 1810; ob. 2. See SNUFF IT; SNUFF OUT.

snuff, beat to

. To defeat utterly: coll: 1819; ob.

snuff, give

(a person). To rebuke, reprimand, scold: coll: 1890, Anon., Harry Fludyer, 'He rather gave me snuff about my extravagance, but I was prepared for that.' 2. Hence, to punish: coll: 1896, Baden-Powell.

snuff, in high

. In 'great form'; elated: coll: 1840, Dana; slightly ob.

snuff, up to

. Alert; not easily tricked; shrewd: coll: 1811, Poole, 'He knew well enough|The game we're after: zooks, he's up to snuff.' Lit. of one who knows to what dangerous uses snuff can be put. Egan's Grose adds: 'Often rendered more emphatic by such adjuncts as "Up to snuff and twopenny", "Up to snuff, and a pinch above it".'

snuff and toddle

. To die: boxing s.: ca 1810–60. cf. SNUFF IT and SNUFF OUT.

snuff-box

. The nose: 1853, ‘Cuthbert Bede’; ob.

snuff it

. To die: s. (–1874) >, ca 1900, coll. H., 5th ed., ‘Term very common among the lower orders of London... Always to die from disease or accident’. Ex SNUFF OUT.

snuff-lurker

*, see SNEEZE-LURKER.

snuff out

, v.i. To die: s. (–1864) >, ca 1900, S.E. Prob. ex snuffing out a candle. cf. SNUFF IT.

snuff-racket

*. See SNEEZE-RACKET and cf. SNEEZE-LURKER.

snuffers

. The nostrils: ca 1650–1750: s. and dial. Cleveland.

snuffle

. The nose: low: ca 1825–70. Sinks, 1848.

snuffler

. An old debauchee: s.: Ned Ward, 1709.

snuffling community, the

. Harlots: s.: Ned Ward, 1709.

snuffy

. Drunk: low: from ca 1820; ob. Perhaps ex snuffy, apt to take offence, displeased, angry.

snug

. A bar-parlour at inn or PUBLIC: from ca 1860: s. (ob.) and dial. Ex snug, comfortable; cf. S.E. snuggery.

snug

, v. To coït with: C.19–20; ob. Ex snug, to make comfortable: cf. euphemistic ease. 2. Also v.i.: C.19–20; ob. Prob. ex snug down, to nestle.

snug

, adj. Drunk: low: late C.19–20; very ob. cf. euphemistic comfortable.

snug, all's

*. All's quiet: c. of ca 1720–1840. cf. the †S.E. snug, secret, concealed, private. cf.:

snug as a bug in a rug

. Very snug, cosy, comfortable: coll: from ca 1760. See quotation at MOPUS, 3.

snug as a duck in a ditch

. The same: coll: C.18–19. (W.N.Glascock, 1825.)

snug as a pig in pease-straw

. Very comfortable (-bly): coll: ca 1635–70. Davenport, 1639, 'He snores and sleeps as snug|As any pigge in pease-straw.' cf. SNUG AS A BUG IN A RUG.

snuggy

. A public-house snuggery: from ca 1890. cf. SNUG, n.

snug's the word

! Say nothing of this!: coll: C.18–19; ob. by 1860. Congreve, Maria Edgeworth, Lover. cf. SNUG, ALL'S.

snyde

, see SNIDE.

snyder; snider

. A tailor: coll: C.17–20; ob. F. & H., an early C.17 quotation. Ex Ger. Schneider, tailor; prob. imported by soldiers.

so

. Tipsy: coll: from ca 1820. Ex so-so, 1. 2. Menstruating: women's euphemistic coll: mid-C.19–20. 3. Homosexual: from ca 1890. Thus 'a so man' is a homosexual, 'a so book' a Uranian novel, poem, etc. cf. the Venetian così.

so, ever

, see EVER so.

so and so; So and So

. Senior Ordnance Store Officer: military: ca 1890–1914.

so fools say

! A c.p. retort, esp. Cockney, to a person asserting that one is a fool; occ. elaborated with, You ought to know—you work where they're made: from ca 1890; ob. Edwin Pugh, passim.

so glad

! A c.p. of ca 1847 (introduced by the French King) and of 1867–8 (from a song in W.Brough's Field of the Cloth of Gold); mostly London.

so is your old man

! A c.p. from ca 1900; ob.

so long!

Au revoir!: coll: 1865, F.H. Nixon. cf. Ger. so lange, but more prob., as W. suggests, the term is a corruption of salaam, though Ware's suggested derivation ex the Hebrew Selah (God be with you) is not to be wholly ignored.

SO-SO

. Drunk: coll: 1809, Malkin. 2. Menstruating: women's euphemistic coll: mid-C.19–20.

so thin you can smell the shit through him

. A low, mostly Cockney c.p., applied to an extremely thin man: from ca 1880.

so very human was, ca 1880–4, applied in so many ways that the Daily News, 27 Oct. 1884, could speak of it thus: 'In the slang of the day, "so very human".' Rather a c.p. than s.

soak

. To ply with liquor: coll: 1822, Banim. Gen. in passive. Ex soak, to saturate. 2. To pawn: 1882, G.A.Sala, 'Soak my gems'. 3. v.i. gen. as soak it, to be lavish of bait: anglers' coll: late C.19–20. 4. (Also soak it.) Of the male: to linger over the sexual act; to delay withdrawal: low coll: C.19–20.

soak, in; come out of soak

. Drunk; to regain sobriety: low coll (–1887). Ex S.E. soak, a heavy drinking-bout.

soak, put in

. To pawn: late C.19–20. cf. SOAK, v., 2.

soak one's clay or face

. To drink; esp. to drink heavily: resp. C.19–20 (slightly ob.) and C.18. Barham, 1837. cf. SOAK, 1.

soaked

. Tipsy; very drunk: see SOAK, 1. cf. saturated.

soap

. Flattery: 1859, H., 1st ed.; ob. In C.20, gen. SOFT SOAP. Ex the v. 2. Cheese: Royal Military Academy (–1903); ob. 3. Girls collectively: ca 1883–1900. Ex the more gen. bits of soap, girls, esp. harlots and near-harlots.

soap

, v.t. To flatter; address ingratiatingly: 1853, 'Cuthbert Bede'; ob. cf. SOFTSOAP, v.

soap?, how are you off for . A c.p. senseless question: 1834, Marryat; 1886, Baring Gould. Origin obscure—but then the origin of almost every c.p. is obscure!

soap, soft

, see SOFT SOAP, n. and v.

soap and bullion

. Soup-and-bouilli: nautical (–1883); ob. Clark Russell. Partly a play on words and partly because of its nauseating smell. Also hishee-hashee.

soap and lather

. Father: rhyming s.: late C.19–20.

soap and water

. Daughter: rhyming s.: late C.19–20.

soap-crawler

. A toady: ca 1860–1910. Ex SOAP, n., 1.

soap over

, v.t. To HUMBUG: low (–1857); ob. cf. SOFT-SOAP.

soap-suds

. ‘Gin and water, hot, with lemon and lump sugar’, Bee: low: ca 1820–70.

soapy

. Unctuous; ingratiating; given to SOFT SOAP: 1865 (O.E.D.). 2. (Of fits) simulated, or caused by, chewing or eating soap: 1886, Daily News, 13 Dec.

soapy Isaac

, see SUET(T)Y ISAAC.

sober-water

. Soda-water: punning coll: from ca 1853; ob.

soc, Soc

. A trades-union man: printers’: ca 1870–1910. Ex Society.

soccer

, see SOCKER, 3.

social E

. A middle-class evasion of social evil (prostitution) : coll: ca 1870–1905.

society

. A workhouse: artisans' (–1909). Evasive.

Society-maddist

. A person who, not born in Society, spends much time and money to get there: Society: ca 1881–95.

socius

. A companion, a CHUM: Winchester: C.19–20; ob. Ex the school precept, sociati omnes incedunto. cf. the occ., cultured use, since mid-C.19, of socius as a comrade, itself perhaps ex the ecclesiastical term. 2. Whence, v.t., to accompany: ibid.: mid-C.19–20; ob.

sock

. A pocket: c.: late C.17–mid-18. 2. As used by Shadwell in The Squire of Alsatia, 1688, in Act I, Sc. 1, it seems to= a small coin (cf. RAG): prob. c. 3. A blow, a beating: late C.17–20: c. >, ca 1850, low s.; † as a beating, except in give (one) socks. cf. the v., 1. 4. Eatables; esp., dainties: Sedgely Park School, ca 1805–45; Eton: 1825, C. Westmacott. Perhaps ex suckett, dainty. 5. ?hence: credit: low (–1874).

sock

, adv. Violently: (low) coll: late C.19–20. Charles Turley, Godfrey Marten, Undergraduate, 1904, ‘One of you ’as ’it Susan sock in the eye.’ Ex:

sock

*. To hit; strike hard; drub, thrash: late C.17–20: c. >, ca 1850, s. Kipling, 1890, ‘We socks ’im with a stretcher-pole.’ Origin obscure. 2. Hence, to ‘give it’ to a person: 1890, Kipling, ‘Strewth, but it socked it them hard!’ 3. v.i., to deliver blows: 1856. e.g. ‘Sock him one on the jaw!’ Ex sense 1. cf. SOCK INTO. 4. To treat one to SOCK (see the n., 4): Eton (–1850). 5. Hence, to give (one something): Eton (–1889). 6. cf. v.i. to buy, to eat, SOCK (see the n., 4): Eton: 1883, Brinsley Richards, ‘We...socked prodigiously.’ 7. ?hence v.i., to get credit: low: late C.19–20; ob. cf. the n., 5. 8. To win: Winchester College: late C.19–20. cf. the n., 3. 9. To tip (a schoolboy) with money: late C.19–20. Ex sense 4?

sock, give

(one). To beat or thrash soundly; 1864, H., 3rd ed.; ob., the C.20 preferring give (one) socks, recorded by O.E.D. at 1897. Ex SOCK, n., 3. cf. SOCK, v., 1 and 2, and SOCK INTO.

sock, on

. On TICK (2): see SOCK, n., 5.

sock into

. To hit vigorously; pitch into: 1864. Ex SOCK, v., 3.

sock-shop

. The tuck-shop: Eton: mid-C. 19–20. Ex SOCK, n., 4.

sockdologer

(1830), -ager (—1848), rarely -iger (1842); occ. sog- (1869) or slock- (1838) or slog- (1862); also stock- (1864, H., 3rd ed.); occ. -II-. A very heavy blow; a FINISHER: U.S., anglicized, to some extent, ca 1870; ob. A fanciful, assonantal elaboration of sock, a blow (see SOCK, n., 3, and cf. v. 1), influenced by doxology, ‘regarded as final’. 2. Hence, anything exceptional: U.S. (1869), partly anglicized ca 1890; slightly ob. Blackwood’s Magazine, Feb. 1894, ‘The pleasant remembrance of the capture of a real sockdologer’ (large fish).

socket

. A sloven, lout, simpleton, fool: coll: 1772, Bridges, ‘The rabble then began to swear,[What the old socket said was fair’; ob. Also sockie (ob.) and sockethead, †. 2. A heavy blow: low: from ca 1870. Ex SOCK, v., 1. 3. Also soccer. Association football: from ca 1890: orig. Harrow School; by 1903, gen. The O.E.D. records socket at 1891, soccer at 1895; in C.20, usually soccer. By truncated assoc.+ Oxford -er. cf. RUGGER.

socket, burnt to the

. Dying: late C.17–18: coll >, ca 1700, S.E. Ray.

socket-money

. ‘Money demanded and spent upon marriage’ B.E.: late C.17–18. Perhaps ex socket, the female pudend. 2. Hence, ‘money paid for a treat, by a married man caught in an intrigue’, Grose, 1st ed.: mid-C.18–mid-19. Bridges, 1772, cf. dial. socket-brass, hush-money. 3. Also, ‘a whore’s fee, or hire’, Grose, 1st ed.: late C.18–mid-19. 4. Ex senses, 2, 3: hush-money: from ca 1860; ob. cf.:

socketer

. A blackmailer: ca 1860–1910. Ex SOCKET, 4.

socketing

. A variant (ca 1810–50) of BURNING SHAME, 2.

sockhead; sockie

, see SOCKER, 1.

sod

. A sodomist: low coll: early-C.19–20; ob. 2. Hence, a pejorative, orig. and gen. violent: early C.19–20. Often used in ignorance of its origin: cf. BUGGER. 3. Non-pejorative for ‘chap, fellow’ or even for ‘girl, woman’: English and Australian: late C.19–20.

sod about

. To play the fool, indulge in horse-play; to potter about, to waste time: low: late C.19–20. cf. ARSE ABOUT.

sod it

! Low coll expletive: since ca 1880.

sodduk, soddick

. (Soft) bread; Conway cadets’: from before 1880. Prob. a slurring of soft tack.

sodger

, see SOGER and SOLDIER, n., 1.

Sodom

. London: literary coll: C.19. Ex Sodom, generic for any very corrupt place.

soft

. A weakling; a very simple or a foolish person: dial. (–1854) >, by 1860, coll. George Eliot, 1859. cf. SOFTIE. 2. Bank-notes (as opp. to coin): c. (–1823). Also soft-flimsy, from ca 1870. cf. U.S. soft, adj. applied to paper money as early as ca 1830.

soft

, adj. Half-witted: coll (and dial.): 1835, Marryat, ‘A good sort of chap enough, but rather soft in the upper-works’; adumbrated by Miss Burney in 1775. Ex soft, ‘more or less foolish, silly or simple.’ 2. (?hence). Foolishly benevolent or kind; constantly helping others without thinking of one’s own advantage or interests: coll: 1890, ‘Rolf Boldrewood’, ‘He...did a soft thing in bringing those other chaps here.’ Ex soft, compassionate. 3. Easy, idle, lazy: coll: 1889, Daily News, 12 Oct., ‘People crowd into literature [sic], as into other “soft” professions, because it is genteel.’ Ex soft, involving little effort or no work. 4. Broken in spirit: 1898, Sir G.Robertson: coll. Ex soft, physically weak, lacking in stamina.

soft, a bit of hard for a bit of . Copulation: low: mid-C.19–20.

soft, do

*. To utter counterfeit notes: c.: from ca 1870. See SOFT, n., 2.

soft?, hard (arse) or

. Third class or first?: low coll: late C.19–20. cf .:

soft-arse

. An arm-chair: Scottish Public Schools’: late C.19–20.

soft as shit

. Not physically nor morally tough; often applied by workmen to a man who can speak without filth and does occasionally think of something other than gambling, drinking, womanizing: low coll: late C.19–20.

soft ball

. Lawn tennis: Royal Military Academy, Woolwich: late C.19–20 coll.

soft collar

. A soft job; a very suitable locality; something easily obtained; something comfortable or agreeable: Australian coll: from ca 1860.

soft down on

. In love with: low coll: from ca 1870. Elaboration of SOFT ON.

soft-flimsy

, see SOFT, n., 2.

soft horn

. A donkey, lit. or fig.: coll: from ca 1860; ob. Because an ass's ears, unlike horns, are soft.

soft is your horn

. You've made a mistake: c.p.: ca 1820–50.

soft on or upon

. In love with; sentimentally amorous for: 1840: S.E. >, ca 1880, coll. 'Rolf Boldrewood', 1888, 'I... thought she was rather soft on Jim.'

soft-roed

. Tender-hearted: non-aristocratic London coll (–1887); slightly ob. Ex fish-roe.

soft sawder

, n. See SAWDER. 2. v.t. and i. (gen. hyphenated): to flatter: coll: 1843, Haliburton; Hickie's Aristophanes, 1853. cf.:

soft sawder to order

. An elaboration of soft SAWDER, n.: 1883, Entr' Acte, 7 April; ob. 2. Ware records the sense 'clothes made to order' and implies existence ca 1883–1900.

soft-sawderer

. A flatterer: coll: mid-C. 19–20. EX SOFT-SAWDER. cf.:

soft soap

. Flattery; BLARNEY: U.S. (1830), anglicized ca 1860. T.Hughes, 1861, 'He and I are great chums, and a little soft soap will go a long way with him.' Ex soft soap, potash soap, on soft SAWDER.

soft-soap

, v. To flatter: U.S. (1840), anglicized ca 1870. Ex the n.

soft-sop over

is a variant (ca 1875–1910) of SOFT-SOAP, v.

soft sowder

is a variant (e.g. in Carlyle) of soft SAWDER.

soft spot for (someone), have a

. To be either sentimentally or affectionately attached to: coll: since ca 1880. cf. SOFT ON.

soft tack

, see TACK.

soft thing, a

. A very obliging simpleton: coll: mid-C.19–20. Ex SOFT, adj., 1. 2. A pleasant, an easy, task; an easy contest or win: coll: from ca 1890. Ex SOFT, adj., 3.

soft tommy

. Bread, as opp. to biscuits: nautical coll: late C.18. 1878, W.S.Gilbert, 'I've treacle and toffee, and excellent coffee,|Soft tommy and succulent chops.' Also soft TACK (–1828), which has its corresponding HARD TACK. See TOMMY.

softie; properly softy

. A silly, very simple, or weak-minded person: coll and dial.: 1863, Mrs Gaskell, '[Nancy] were but a softy after all.'

sog

. A sovereign (coin): schools': late C. 19–20; very ob. Ex sov.

soger, sojer; sodger

. A soldier: coll and dial.: C.15–20. 2. If applied to a sailor, it constitutes a grave, disgracing pejorative, for it connotes shirking and malingering: nautical coll (–1829). R.H.Dana in Before the Mast; cf. Clark Russell in Sailor's Language, 1883. 3. See SOLDIER, n., 1. 4. Gen. sodger: a big cross made on an examination-paper to indicate a glaring error: Winchester (–1839). cf. PERCHER, 2.

soger; OCC. sodger or sojer

. To shirk and/ or malingering; to pretend to work: mainly nautical (–1840); in C.20, coll. Also soldier.

soil

. To tour in the country: theatrical: ca 1750–1800. (Theatrical Biography, vol. I, 1772.)

soixante-neuf

, adopted from French, is a term diagrammatically descriptive (69) of a reciprocal sexual act: late C.19–20; orig., upper and middle classes'.

sold

, ppl adj. Tricked: see SELL, v. cf.:

sols again and got the money

! A coster-monger's c.p. on having successfully 'done' someone in a bargain: ca 1850–80. Ex SELL, v. cf.:

sold like a bullock in Smithfield

, ppl adj. Badly cheated or duped: almost a c.p.: ca 1810–50. cf. preceding entry.

sold out

. Bankrupt: coll (–1859); ob. cf.:

sold out, be

. To have sold all one's stock (of some article): coll: late C.19–20. Perhaps on the analogy of S.E. be sold up, to have had part or all of one's goods sold to pay one's creditors. cf. preceding entry.

soldier

. A red herring: from ca 1810: sailors' and seaports'. Also sodger, soger. 2. A boiled lobster: ca 1820–1910. Both ex red uniform. 3. An inferior seaman: nautical coll: from ca 1835; ob. cf. SOGER, n., 2. 4. A forest kangaroo: Australian coll: from the late 1890s. 'Rolf Boldrewood'. 5. (Gen. Soldier.) The senior Royal Marine officer on board. Young Soldier, his subaltern: naval: late C.19–20. Bowen.

soldier

, v. See SOGER, v.; but this form began by being coll, and in C.20 is S.E. 2. v.i., to clean one's equipment; doing routine work or fatigues: military: 1885: s. 3. v.t., to use temporarily (another man's horse): Australian (–1891); ob.

soldier, old

. See OLD SOLDIER. 2. An empty bottle: ca 1880–1910. cf. DEAD MARINE. 3. old soldier, come the, see COME THE OLD SOLDIER.

soldier bold

. A cold: rhyming s.: from ca 1860.

soldier-walking

. Any operations by blue-jackets on land: naval: late C.19–20. Bowen. cf. SOLDIER, n., 5, soldiers!, oh

. A proletarian exclamation: from ca 1880; ob. by 1909.

soldier's bite

. A big bite: coll and dial.: C.19–20.

soldier's bottle

. A large bottle: coll: late C.17–early 19.

soldier's breeze

. A variant, dating from the early 1890s, of SOLDIER'S WIND: coll.

soldier's farewell, a

. 'Go to bed!' with ribald additions and/or elaborations: military (–1909).

soldier's friend

. A rifle: military coll: late C.19–20. cf. the Ger. soldier's bride.

soldier's joy

. Masturbation: low coll: ca 1850–1910. 2. Pease pudding: nautical: C.19.

soldier's mast

. A pole mast without sails, ‘during the transition period from sail to steam in the Navy’, Frank C.Bowen: nautical coll: mid-C.19.

soldier's mawnd

*. A sham sore or wound in the left arm: c.: late C.17–mid-18. cf. MASON’S MAUND.
2. Hence, ‘a pretended soldier, begging with a counterfeit wound, which he pretends to have received at some famous siege or battle’, Grose, 1st ed.: c.: mid-C.18–early 19.

soldier's pomatum

. A piece of tallow candle: late C.18–mid-19.

soldier's supper

. A drink of water and a smoke: coll: 1893 (O.E.D.). Ware, ‘Nothing at all—tea being the final meal of the day’. cf. SUBALTERN’S LUNCHEON.

soldier's thigh

. An empty pocket: dial. and s.: mid-C.19–20; ob.

soldier's wind

. A fair wind either way, a beam wind: 1818, Alfred Burton: nautical coll >, ca 1890, j. Kingsley, Clark Russell.

sole-slogger

. A shoemaker: lower classes' (–1887); ob. Baumann recalls Shakespeare's 'surgeon to old shoes'.

solemn

; esp. in give one's solemn, 'to swear on oath', 'give one's word': ca 1890–1915.

solemn(c(h))oly

. Excessive seriousness: coll: from ca 1860. This blend of solemn+ melancholy is an extension of the jocular S.E. adj. coined in America in 1772. A ludicrous perversion is LEMONCHOLY.

solfa

. A parish clerk: late C.18–mid-19. Ex intoning responses.

solid

. (Of time) complete, entire: C.18–20; S.E. until ca 1890, then coll. ‘Rolf Boldrewood’, 1890, ‘I walked him up and down ...for a solid hour.’ 2. adv., solidly: low coll: mid-C.19–20.

solid dig

. Copy that is to be set very close: printers’: mid-C.19–20.

solitary

. Solitary confinement: 1854, Dickens: prison s. >, by 1900, coll. 2. A whale cruising by himself, generally an outcast and savage bull: nautical coll: late C.19–20.

sollomon

*, see SOLOMON.

Solly

. A Jew: coll: since ca 1870. Ex Solomon. cf. IKEY.

solo

. A solitary walk (without a SOCIUS): Winchester: from ca 1870.

solo player

. ‘A miserable performer on any instrument, who always plays alone, because no one will stay in the room to hear him’, Grose, 1st ed.: jocular coll of ca 1780–1850 punning the lit. sense.

solomon

*. A late C.17–early 19 variant of SALMON. 2. A job: navvies’: ca 1860–1910.

solomon-gundy

. A mid-C.18–19 coll form of salmagundy. cf. SALMON-GUNDY.

Solomon Isaac

. A Jew: Canadian: from ca 1870.

sols and obs

, see OB AND SOL.

some hopes

! It is most unlikely: a c.p. from ca 1905.

some people (occ. parents) rear (occ. raise) awkward children

. A c.p., dating since ca 1880 (?earlier) and directed at someone who has been (very) clumsy.

some say ‘Good old sergeant!’

A c.p. spoken or shouted by privates within the sergeant’s hearing: gen. one added (often affectionately), others say ‘Fuck the (old) sergeant!’: military: from ca 1890.

some when

, adv. Some time: Society c.p.: ca 1860–70.

something

, adv. with adj. An intensive, esp. with cruel (s. cruel=cruel or cruelly): dial. and low, in C.20 sol., coll: mid-C.19–20. e.g. ‘‘E suffered something cruel’—or, frequently, ‘some-think cruel’; ‘the heat was something frightful’. 2. As in ‘the something something’ (the BLOODY BASTARD), ‘the some thing horse’ (the BLOODY horse): a coll euphemism: mid-C.19–20. 3. Hence as v. in past ppl, somethinged= DAMNED, etc.: 1859.

something damp

, see DAMP.

something good

. A good racing tip: s. (from ca 1890).

something short

, see SHORT, SOMETHING. somethinged, see SOMETHING, 3.

somewheres

. Somewhere; approximately: dial. and low coll: mid-C.19–20. ‘It’s somewheres along of fifty quid,’ F. & H.; R.L.Stevenson, 1883, ‘I know you’ve got that ship safe somewheres.’

son

. Such phrases as son of Apollo, a scholar (late C.17–mid-19), son of Mars, a soldier (C.16–19), son of Mercury, a wit (id.), son of parchment (id.), son of prattlement, a barrister (C.18–mid-19), and son of Venus, a wencher (late C.17–mid-19) are—except for son of Mars, perhaps always S.E.—coll verging on, and in C.19 being, S.E.: prattlement is in A New Canting Dict., 1725; the first, third, fourth, and sixth in B.E. 2. son of wax, a cobbler, C. 19, is coll. 3. See SON OF A... son, every mother's

, see EVERY MAN JACK.

son of a bachelor

. A bastard: coll bordering on S.E.: late C.17–20; ob. Ray.

son of a bitch or whore

. (Lit., a bastard, hence) a pejorative for a man, a fellow: coll: C.18–20: the former in The Triumph of Wit, 1712, the latter, ca 1703, in 'Facetious' Tom Brown. 2. A moustache and imperial whiskers favoured by cattle-buyers and wool inspectors in the 1890s: Australian: ob.

son of a gun

. 'A soldier's bastard', Bee, 1823; but, as gen. pejorative (increasingly less offensive), it dates from early C.18. cf. last entry.

son of a sea-cook

, see SEA-COOK.

son of a sow or sow-gelder

. A pejorative for a man, a fellow: coll verging on S.E.: C.17–mid-19. Chapman has sow-gelder.

son of the white hen

. A lucky person (properly male): C 17–18: coll. Jonson, 1630; Poor Robin's Almanach, Feb. 1764. Ex Juvenal's gallinae filius albae.

song about, nothing to make a . Very unimportant: coll: mid-C.19-20.

song and dance

. A fuss, a commotion: coll: late C.19–20.

song do not agree, his morning and evening

. He soon tells another story for one told even recently: late C.18–19: coll >, ca 1830, S.E. An elaboration of change ones, or sing another, song.

sonkey

. A lout: c. or perhaps only low (–1887). cf. SAWNEY and SUKEY (4) for both form and sense.

sonnie; properly sonny

. A coll term of address to a boy or to a man younger than oneself, though not if the addressee is old or middle-aged: O.E.D. records at 1870, but prob. existing a decade earlier. In Australia, the -on- is occ. pronounced as in the preposition, as Morris remarked, citing A.B.Paterson’s rhyme of sonny with Johnnie.

sonny

*. To catch sight of, to see, to notice: c.: 1845, in ‘No. 747’; app. †by 1900. cf. GRANNY, to understand.

soogun

. A hay rope: Shelta: C.18–20.

sooer

, see SOOR.

soogey

. To scrub, to scour: naval: late C.19–20. A corruption of squeegee?

sook(e)y

, see SUK'EY, 4.

sool

. To set (a dog) on: Australian coll: from ca 1890. Prob. ex dial. sowl, to handle roughly, or sowl into, to attack fiercely. 2. Hence (as of a dog a cat), to worry: id.: 1896, Mrs Parker, “‘Sool ’em, sool ’em”...the signal for the dogs to come out.’

soonish

. Rather soon; quite soon; a little too soon: 1890 (E.D.D.): coll and dial.

sooper

. A variant (–1909) of SUPER, n., 1–5.

soor; OCC. soocer

. An abusive term: Anglo-Indian (–1864) and Regular Army. Ex Hindustani for a pig.

soot-bag

. A reticule: c. (–1839) >, by late 1850s, low s.

sootie or -y

. A dealer in soot: coll: C.19–20. Boxiana, II, 1818.

so’p

. Esp. in so’p me bob!, a variant of S’ELP...: Cockney: 1898, W.Pett Ridge.

sop

. A simpleton; a milk-sop: from ca 1620: S.E. until ca 1850, then coll; ob.

soph, Soph

. A sophister: coll: mid-C.17–20; mainly Cambridge; ob. at Oxford by 1720, †by 1750. O.E.D. records at 1661; D’Urfey, 1719, ‘I am a jolly soph.’ Partly ex sophomore, which since C.18 is solely U.S. cf. HARRY-SOPH.

sopped through

. Sopping-wet: lower classes’ coll (–1887).

soppy boat

. Gen. pl. Nickname for Folkestone fishing craft: nautical: mid-C. 19–early 20. Bowen.
Ex their wetness.

sore, get

. ‘To become aggrieved’, C.J. Dennis: coll (esp. Australiari and U.S.); late C.19–20.

sore fist

. A bad workman: tailors’: from ca 1870; ob. ?ex write a poor hand, to sew badly, likewise tailorese.

sore-head

. A curmudgeon: Australian: late C.19–20. C.J.Dennis.

sore leg

. A German sausage: military: ca 1880–1915. 2. A plum pudding: low London: from ca 1880; ob. Prob. ex SPOTTED DOG.

sorra

. Dial. and, to some extent, coll form of sorrow: C.19–20.

sorrow

! Sorry!: late C.19–20: orig. and mainly jocular, and mostly Society. Ex sorrow as an imprecation (cf. sorrow on...!). The O.E.D.'s C.15 instance of sorrow=sorry is inoperative; this use was prob. rare.

sorrowful tale

. Three months in gaol: rhyming s. (–1859); ob.

sorry

! I am sorry!: C.19–20: coll >, by 1850, S.E.

sort, a bad or a good

. A bad, a good, fellow or girl, woman: coll: from ca 1880. In C.20, bad sort is rare except as not a bad sort. J.Sturgis, 1882, ‘They cursed and said that Dick was a good sort’. cf. Fr. espèce (de).

sort!, that’s your

. A term of approbation, gen. of a specific action, method, occ. thing: 1792, Holcroft.

sort of; a sort of

. In a way; to some extent; somehow; one might say: dial. (–1790) >, ca 1830, coll: a sort of, ob. by 1890; sort of, app. not before ca 1830. Thackeray, 1859, “You were hurt by the betting just now?” “Well”, replied the lad, “I am sort of hurt”.’ Orig. and mainly U.S. is sorter (1846), orig. a sorter (as in Marryat’s American Diary, 1839). See also KIND OF.

sort of thing

. A tag c.p. of late C.19–20.

sorts, all

. Coll >, in late C.19, idiomatic S.E. is the phrase as used in these two examples from the O.E.D.: 1794, Mrs Radcliffe, ‘There they were, all drinking Tuscany wine and all sorts’; 1839, Hood, ‘There’s a shop of all sorts, that sells everything.’

sorts, out of

. Dispirited; slightly unwell: from ca 1620: S.E. until mid-C.19, then coll. In C.19, it received an unconventional impetus from printers.

sorty

. Similar: coll: 1885; ob. 2. Mixed: coll: 1889, ‘A “sorty” team.’

so's

, see SO IS...

sooss(-)brangle

. A slatternly wench: low coll and dial.: late C.17–19. cf. sooss, a slut (in mid-C.19–20, dial.).

sosseled, sossiled; sossled

, see SOZZLED.

sot-weed

. Tobacco: coll: C.18–early 19. T.Brown, 1702.

sou or souse, not a

. Not a penny; penniless: coll: not a sou from ca 1820 (Byron); not a souse, ca 1675–1820, as in D'Urfey, 1676. Ex the French coin, orig. of considerably higher value than 5 centimes. In C.19 and occ. (though ob.) in C.20, not a sous: see sous.

soul, be a

. To be a drunkard, esp. on brandy: coll or s.: late C.17–mid-18. B.E., ‘He is a Soul, or loves Brandy.’ Ex soul, a person, +Fr. soûl, tipsy (as in Mathurin Régnier, d.1613). cf. SOUL IN SOAK.

soul!, bless my; ’pon my

, etc. A mild asseveration: coll and dial.: the former, C.19–20; the latter, C.15–20, but S.E. till C.19.

soul, have no

. To lack sensibility or gen. decency or emotional force: coll: 1704, Swift.

soul above, have a

. To care not about, be indifferent or indifferently superior to (something): coll: 1899, G.B.Burgin.

soul-and-body lashing

. ‘Under sail, a piece of spun yarn tied round the waist and between the legs to prevent a man’s oilskins blowing over his head when aloft’: nautical: late C.19–20. Bowen. Because a matter of life and death.

soul-case

. The body: late C.18–20; ob. by 1900.

soul-doctor, -driver

. A clergyman: resp. late C.18–mid-19, late C.17–mid-19. On soul-chaplain pr -priest. (In U.S., ca 1818–49, an Abolitionists' name for an overseer of slaves.)

soul-faker

. A member of the Salvation Army: lower classes': 1883–ca 85. Ware, 'Before their value was recognized'.

soul in soak

. Drunk: nautical: ca 1820–1910. Lit., soaking drunk: see be a SOUL and SOAK.

sound

*. Gen. sound a cly, to 'try' a pocket: c.: C.19. See CLOY.

sound as a bell, roach, trout

. Perfectly sound or healthy: coll bordering on S.E.: resp. 1576 (1599, Shakespeare); 1655, T. Muffett, but in late C.19–20, † except in dial. from late C.13, also in Skelton, but in C.19 mainly, and in C.20 only, dial. (Dial., by the way, has also, from mid-C.19, sound as an acorn.)

sound card

. A drinker, a boon companion: s. (–1650).

sound on, be

. To have orthodox or well-grounded views concerning: coll: orig. U.S., anglicized ca 1890. 2. Hence, to be both intelligent on and reliable in (a given subject): coll: from ca 1900. e.g. ‘He’s very sound on the little-known subject of psychopaedics.’

soup

. (Collective from 1856, simple from ca 1890.) Briefs, a brief, for prosecutions given to junior members of the Bar (esp. at Quarter Sessions) by the Clerk of the Peace or Arraigns, to defend such poor prisoners as have no choice, at two guineas a time: legal s. Law Times, 1856, ‘But will soup so ladled out...support a barrister in the criminal courts?’ 2. Hence (both collective and simple), the fee paid for such briefs or such a brief: 1889, B.C.Robinson: s. >, ca 1910, coll. 3. Bad ink: printers’: from ca 1870. Ex its thickness or intrusive clots. 4. Melted plate: c.: late C.19–20; ob. If of silver, also white soup. 5. Nitro-glycerin: c. (–1905). Prob. orig. U.S. 6. Rare, though prob. to be considered coll, is soup, a picnic at which ‘a great pot of soup is the principal feature’, Century Dict.: from ca 1890; ob.

soup, in the

. In a difficulty; in trouble: coll: orig. U.S. (1889), anglicized ca 1895. Pall Mall Gazette, Nov. 1898, ‘Of course he knows we’re in the soup—beastly ill luck.’

soup, white

*, see SOUP, 4.

soup-shop

*. A house (see FENCE, n., 2) for the disposal of stolen plate: c.: 1854 (O.E.D.). Punning the S.E. sense. F. & H., ‘Melting-pots are kept going, no money passing from fence to thief until identification is impossible.’

souper

*. A SUPER (n., 6), i.e. a watch: c.: mid-C.19–20; ob. 2. A cadger of souptickets: coll: from ca 1875. Ex souper, a Roman Catholic converted to Protestantism by free soup or other charity. 3. See PEA-SOUPER.

soupy

. Vomitingly drunk: low (–1909).

sour

*. Base silver money, gen. made of pewter: c.: 1883, J.Greenwood. cf.:

sour, plant the

*. To utter base silver coin: c.: from ca 1883. See SOUR.

sour ale (dial. only, milk) in summer, mend like

. To get worse: (dial. and) coll: late C.17–early 19; extant in dial.

sour apple-tree, be tied to the

. To be married to a bad-tempered husband: semiproverbial coll: late C.17–18. Ray; Bailey. Via crab-apple.

sour cudgel, a

. A severe beating: coll: C. 17. Withals, 1608.

sour on

. To form a distaste or dislike to: U.S. (1862), anglicized as a coll ca 1895. Daily News, 13 Nov. 1900, 'Dan soured on Castlereagh boys...forthwith.' Ex be sour towards.

sour planter

*. A passer of base silver coin: c.: from ca 1885. Ex plant the SOUR. cf. SHOVER, and see SNIDE, n. and adj.

sours, swallow the

*. To conceal counterfeit money: c. (–1887).

sous

. As a sou in not a sous, it is a late C. 18–20 coll: ob. by 1880. W. quotes Barham, ‘Not a sous had he got, not a guinea or note.’

souse, not a

. See SOU, NOT A, and cf. sous.

souse, sell

. To be sullen, surly; to frown: C.17 coll. Cotgrave.

souse-crown

. A fool: coll: late C.17–early 19. Ex souse, a thump.

soused

. Tipsy: coll: mid-C.19–20. Ex soused, soaked in liquor. cf. SOZZLED.

soush

. A house: back s. (–1859). Additional s, euphonic.

south, put down

. Lit., to put into one's pocket; hence, to put away safely, to bank, not to spend: late C.19–20. cf. TROUSER, v.

south jeopardy

. The terrors of insolvency: Oxford University: ca 1820–40. Ex jeopardy, danger+some topical allusion.

south sea or S.S.

* Any strong distilled liquor: c. of ca 1720–50. A New Canting Dict. (1725), where also south-sea mountain, gin: c. of ca 1721–1830. Prob. ex the South Sea. Bubble (1720).

South Spainer

. A North Country ship in the Spanish trade; nautical coll: late C. 19–20. Bowen.

southerly buster

, see BUSTER, 6.

SOV

. A sovereign: coll: 1850, New Monthly Magazine, ‘As to the purse, there weren’t above three or four sovs in it.’

sovereign’s not in it, a

. A nautical c.p. (–1909) applied to a person with jaundice. Ex the sufferer’s dark yellow.

Sovereign’s parade, the

. The quarter-deck [officers’] of a man-of-war in C.18– early 19: naval. Bowen.

sow, as drunk as a

. A C.19–20 (ob.) variant of DAVID’S SOW...

sow-belly

. Salt pork: naval and military: from ca 1870; ob. In Canada, any pork.

sow in or on the arse, grease a fat

, see GREASE A FAT...

sow potatoes (or scarlet-runners, etc.) on his neck, you could or might

. A lower classes' c.p. (–1887; ob.) applied to a man with a dirty neck.

sower

. An Indian cavalryman: Regular Army coll: late C.19–20. By the extension of a Hindustani word. Opp. SEPOY.

sowcar

. A Regular Army term of abuse: late C.19–20. Ex Hindustani for a banker, esp. if miserly.

sowr

*. To beat severely: c.: ca 1720–50. ?=sour.

sow's-baby

. A sucking pig: late C.17–20. 2. Sixpence: c. (–1859). Because smaller than a HOG (a shilling).

sow's ear, come sailing in a

. A coll of ca 1670–1770 (Ray, Fuller). Apperson does not explain the phrase; ?=to prosper.

sozzled; occ. sossled; rarely sosseled

(virtually † in C.20). Topsy: late C.19–20. ‘Pomes’ Marshall, 1897, ‘She was thick in the clear,|Fairly sosselled on beer.’ Prob. ex dial. sozzle, to mix in a sloppy manner: cf. dial. sozzly, sloppy, wet, and, more significantly, U.S. sozzle, to render moist.

spadge

. To walk: Christ’s Hospital: from ca 1780. Ex L. spatiare. Whence spadge, an affected or mincing manner of walking; ibid.: from ca 1880.

spadger

. A sparrow: dial. (recorded, 1862, as spadger-pie) >, ca 1880, coll (orig. provincial). Occ. adj. By dial. corruption rather than fanciful change.

spalpeen

. A low fellow; a mean one; a scamp or rascal: Anglo-Irish coll >, ca 1905, S.E.: 1815, Maria Edgeworth, ‘The spalpeen! turned into a buckeen, that would be a squireen,—but can’t,’ neatly illustrative of the Celtic diminutive suffix -een (properly, in); the radical is of uncertain meaning. The imm. source is S.E. spalpeen, a casual farm labourer. 2. Hence, a youngster, esp. a boy: coll: 1891, Bram Stoker.

spange

, adj. and, occ., adv. New; dressy, smart: R.M.A., Woolwich: from ca 1880. ‘A spange uniform’, a new one; ‘You look spange enough.’ Perhaps ex Northern dial. spanged, variegated.

spangle

*. A seven-shilling piece: c. (–1811); †by 1903. Ex its brightness. 2. A sovereign: theatrical: ca 1860–1905.

spangle-guts, -shaker

. A harlequin: theatrical: from ca 1870. Ex spangled costume. cf.:

spangles

. Acrobats: circus s.: late C.19–20.

Spaniard

. (Gen. pl.) ‘Brighton fishing boats, from a colony of Spanish fishermen in that town’ (Bowen); nautical: C.19.

Spanish (or. s.); gen. the S

. Money; esp. ready money, and again esp., in coin: from ca 1786; ob. Barham, 1837, ‘Bar its synonyms Spanish, blunt, stumpy and rowdy.’ Elliptical for Spanish coin or gold. 2. Sack or canary wine: s. (–1650). 3. A large Spanish onion: lower class coll: mid-C.19–20.

Spanish

, adj. As a pejorative, common in coll and s. ca 1570–1750 and by no means rare until well on into C.19. Ex commercial and naval rivalry (cf. DUTCH). See ensuing tenns and, esp., ‘Offensive Nationality’ in my Words!

Spanish, walk

, see CHALKS, WALK ONE’S.

Spanish coin.

‘Fair words, and compliments’, Grose, 1st ed.: ca 1780–1850. Ultimately ex Spanish courtesy derided; imm. ex SPANISH MONEY.

Spanish fag(g)ot

. The sun: 1785, Grose; †by 1850. Ex heretic-burnings.

Spanish fly

. Cantharides—an extremely potent aphrodisiac, taken. in food or drink: C.19–20.

Spanish gout, needle, pox

. Syphilis: coll: resp. late C.17–early 19; early C.19; C.17–early 19. French, Italian, similarly used.

Spanish guitar

. A cigar: rhyming s.: late C.19–20.

Spanish mare, ride the

. To sit astride a beam, guys loosed, sea rough, as a punishment: nautical: ca 1840–80.

Spanish money

. ‘Fair Words and Compliments’, B.E.: coll: late C.17–18. cf. SPANISH COIN.

Spanish padlock

. ‘A kind of girdle contrived by jealous husbands of that nation, to secure the chastity of their wives’, Grose, 2nd ed.: C.16–19.

Spanish pike

. A needle: coll: 1624, Ford, ‘A French Gentleman that trays a Spanish pike, a Tailor’; †by 1700.

Spanish plague

. Building: dial. and coll: Jate C.17–mid-18. Ray.

Spanish pox

, see SPANISH GOUT.

Spanish trumpeter

; also King of Spain’s trumpeter. An ass braying: ca 1780–1850. The clue is Don Key.

Spanish worm

. A nail met in a board while sawing: carpenters’ coll (–1785); †by 1860. Ex shape.

spank

. A resounding blow, esp. with the open hand: coll and dial.: from ca 1780. In cricket, 1873. Ex the v., 1. 2. Hence, the sound so caused: coll and dial.: 1833, H. Scott. 3. A robbery effected by breaking a window-pane: c. of ca 1810–50. See the v., 4. 4. See SPANKS.

spank

, v. To smack, slap, with the open hand: coll (–1727, N.Bailey) and dial. Echoic (cf. spang). 2. Hence, to crack (a whip): coll (rare and ob.): 1834, M.Scott. 3. To bring down, insert, slappingly: coll and dial., mainly the latter: 1880, Tennyson, ‘An’e spans ’is ’and into mine.’ 4. To rob (a place) by breaking a windowpane (spanking a GLAZE is the c. term): c. (–1812). cf. the n., 3. 5. v.i., to fall, drop, with a smack: coll: 1800, Hurdis, ‘The sullen shower...on the...pavement spans’; slightly ob. 6. v.i., of a boat pounding the water as it sails along: coll (–1891). [The next group derives ultimately ex spank, to slap, to make a spanking sound, etc., influenced by dial. spang.] 7. To move quickly and briskly; to ride, drive, smartly or stylishly at a smart trot or a graceful canter: dial. (–1807) >, by 1811, coll. Thackeray, 1860, ‘A gentleman in a natty gig, with a high-trotting horse, came spanking towards us.’ Frequently with along (first, 1825, in dial.); and esp. of a ship bowling along. 8. Hence, v.t., to drive (horses) with stylish speed: coll: 1825, Westmacott; 1840, Thackeray, ‘How knowingly did he spank the horses along.’ Slightly ob.

spank

, adv. With a smack: coll: 1810; rare, ob. Ex the v., 5.

spank, up the

. At—or, to—the pawn-brokers’: East Enders’: from ca 1870. Nevinson, 1895. Perhaps ex up the SPOUT on bank.

spank, upon the

*. By employing SPANK (n., 3): c.: C.19.

spank a (or the) glaze

*, see GLAZE, SPANK A, and cf. SPANK, v., 4.

spanker

. A gold coin; gen. in pl as= ready money, coin: prob. c. (1663, Cowley) >, ca 1730, s.; †by 1830. Prob. ex †dial. spank, to sparkle. cf. SPANKS. 2. Any thing or person unusually fine, large, or excellent: coll and dial.: 1751, Smollett (concerning ‘a buxom wench’), ‘‘Sblood, ...to turn me adrift in the dark with such a spanker.’ Ex SPANKING, adj., 1. 3. Hence, a resounding blow or slap: coll: 1772, Bridges; Meredith, 1894, ‘A spanker on the nob’; in cricket, 1877. 4. A horse that travels with stylish speed: coll and dial.: 1814, Scott. Ex SPANK, v., 7.

spanking

, n. A (good) beating, esp. with the open hand: coll and dial.: mid-C.19–20. Ex SPANK, V., 1.

spanking

, ppl adj. Very large, fine, smart, showy; excellent: coll and dial.: from early Restoration days. Fanshawe, ca 1666; Bridges, 1772, ‘A table...a spanking dish’. Esp. of girls (–1707): cf. SPANKER, 2. 2. Hence, though influenced by the v. of motion, (of a horse) rapidly and smartly moving: coll and dial.: 1738. 3. Hence, (of persons) dashing: coll: C.19–20; ob. 4. (Of a breeze) brisk: coll: mid-C.19–20. 5. (Of pace) rapid; esp. smartly and vigorously rapid: coll: 1857, T.Hughes, 'The wheelers in a spanking trot, and leaders cantering,'

spanking

, adv. Very: coll (–1887). Baumann, 'A spanking fine dinner'. Ex dial.

spankingly

. Rapidly; esp. with smart rapidity: coll: C.19–20.

spanks

*. Coin (gold or silver): c.: ca 1720–1840. Ex SPANKER, 1.

spanky

. Smart; showily smart: from ca 1870; slightly ob. Ex SPANKING, adj., 1.

spar

. A dispute: coll: 1836 (O.E.D.). Ex spar, a boxing-match.

sparagrass

, see SPARROW(-)GRASS.

spare a rub

! Oblige me with some!; after you with it!: tailors' c.p.: from ca 1860.

spark

. See SPARK, BRIGHT. 2. A diamond: c. (–1874). cf. SPARK-PROP. Ex S.E. spark, a small diamond, orig. diamond spark.

spark

*, v. To watch closely: Australian c. (–1901).

spark, bright

. Ironical for a dull fellow: coll verging on S.E.: late C.19–20. cf. S.E. gallant spark; ex spark, a beau, via gay spark.

spark, have a

. To be a youth, or man, of spirit: Conway cadets': from before 1890. Ex the cliché, have no spark of courage.

spark in one's throat, have a

. To have a constant thirst: 1785, Grose; but adumbrated in Scots ca 1720. Ex the proverbial the smith had always a spark in his throat (Ray, 1678); cf. Spurgeon, 1880, 'He is not a blacksmith but he has a spark in his throat.'

spark-prop

*. A diamond breast-pin: c.: from the middle or late 1870s. Ex SPARK, n., 2.

sparkle up

. To hasten; be quick: proletarian: from ca 1865; ob.

sparkler

. A bright eye (gen. in pl): mid-C. 18–20: S.E. until 1850, then coll. In pugilistic s. of ca 1805–60, any sort of eye, as in Boxiana, III, 1821, 'One of his sparklers got a little damaged.' 2. A sparkling gem; esp. a diamond: from ca 1820: S.E. until mid-C.19, then coll; in C.20, virtually s.

spann-fish

. A sperm-whale: nautical coll (–1887).

sparrer

. A boxer: coll: 1814, ‘Rival sparrers’, O.E.D. 2. Hence, from ca 1860, a sparring partner: coll. This is virtually the sense in Thackeray and Shaw. 3. A sol. form, C.19–20, of sparrow. 4. (Properly sparrow.) A find in a dust-bin, e.g. silver spoon or thimble: dustmen’s (–1895).

sparing bloke

*. A pugilist : mid-C.19–20: c. >, ca 1880, low.

sparrow

. Gen. in pl: beer, or beer-money, given to dustmen: 1879 (O.E.D.). Perhaps ex the colour of these birds and these men. 2. A milkman’s secret customer (gen. in pl): milkmen’s (–1901). Why? 3. See SPARRER, 4.

sparrow-catching

, n. Walking the streets in search of men: low: from ca 1880.

sparrow(-)grass; sparagrass

. Asparagus: mid-C.17–20: S.E. until early C.19, then dial. and coll; by 1870, low coll or, rather, sol. ‘Cuthbert Bede’, in 1865, ‘I have heard the word sparrow-grass from the lips of a real Lady—but then she was in her seventies.’

spasm

. The verse of a song, stanza of a poem: jocular coll: late C.19–20. Ex stanza+the agony caused by much amateur singing.

spatch(-)cock

. A fowl killed, dressed and either grilled or broiled at short notice: orig. (–1785) Anglo-Irish, but from ca 1850 mainly Anglo-Indian: coll >, ca 1860, S.E. R.F.Burton, Goa, 1851. Either abbr. dispatch-cock, or corrupted spitchcock (?spit-cock).

spatch(-)cock

, v. To insert, interpolate: orig. military coll >, almost imm., gen. S.E.: 1901, General Redvers Buller, The Times, 11 Oct., ‘I therefore spatchcocked into the middle of that telegram a sentence in which I suggested it would be necessary to surrender.’ Ex the n. 2. Hence, to modify by interpolation: military coll >, by 1902, gen. S.E.

speak, make a (gen. good or rum)

*. To make a (gen. good) haul, get a (good) SWAG (3): c. (–1811); †by 1860. Ex SPEAK TO.

speak, that would make a cat

, see CAT SPEAK...

speak at the mouth

. To say one's say: ca 1870–1910. Ex North Country dial.

speak brown tomorrow

. To get sun-burnt: Cockney: 1877–ca 1900. cf. TASTE THE SUN.

speak like a mouse in a cheese

, see MOUSE IN A CHEESE.

speak to

*. To rob (person, place); to steal: c.: 1799; 1812, Vaux; †by 1860. A variant of SPEAK WITH. 2. See SPOKEN TO.

speak with

*. c. of ca 1720–1810, as in A New Canting Dict., 1725, 'I will never speak with any thing but Wedge or Cloy, I'll never steal, or'—the basic sense—'have to do with'—a nuance †by 1785—'any thing but Plate, or Money'; Grose, 1st ed. (to rob, steal). cf. SPEAK TO, 1.

speak-softly shop

*. A smuggler's house: c. or low (–1823); †by 1890.

speaky

*. Booty; capture of booty: c. (–1887). Ex mdke a SPEAK.

spec

. A commercial venture: orig. (1794), U.S.; anglicized ca 1820 as s. >, ca 1890, coll. Abbr. speculation. cf. SPEC, ON. 2. Hence, 'a lottery, conducted on principles more or less honest, the prize to be awarded according to the performance of certain horses', J.Greenwood, 1869: racing (mostly London): ca 1850–65. 3. A good or enjoyable thing or a pleasant occasion: Winchester s. (–1891). Perhaps rather from special or from speculation influenced by special. cf. SPEC, ON, 2. 4. See SPECS.

spec, on

. On chance; as, or at, a risk; esp. on the chance of getting something or of making a profit: 1832, Marryat: s. >, ca 1890, coll. See SPEC, 1. 2. At Winchester, on a pleasant occasion or outing: from before 1891.

specing on one's fez

. Expecting to obtain one's cap: Harrow: late C.19–20. cf. SPECK, v.

special

, adv. In a special way; especially, particularly: C.14–20: S.E. until early C. 19, then coll. Helps, 1851, ‘A case came on rather unexpectedly...and I was sent for “special” as we say.’

specimen

. A person: from middle 1850s: derogatory, coll if with bright, poor, etc. s. if alone. Thoreau, 1854, ‘There were some curious specimens among my visitors.’ Ex such phrases as specimens of the new spirit abroad, via such as strange specimen of the human race (Dickens, 1837). cf. SPESS.

speck

, v. To exult; to show oneself confident of a victory: at certain Public Schools, esp. at Shrewsbury: late C.19–20. 2. To search for gold after rain: Australian miners’: late C.19–20. Rain erosion may uncover a lode, or specks of alluvial gold.

speck

, n. A place; a position: Liverpool: late C.19–20. Ex S.E. speck, a spot.

specked wiper

*. A coloured handkerchief: c.: ca 1690–1890.

speckle-belly (or S.)

. A Nonconformist, a Dissenter: provincial s. (–1874); slightly ob. H., 5th ed., ‘A term used in Worcester and the North, though the etymology seems unknown in either place.’ Perhaps ex the tendency of the lower middle class to wear coloured waistcoats: cf. SPECKED WIPER.

speckled

. Of a mixed nature, appearance, character, merit; motley: coll: 1845, S. Judd, ‘It was a singularly...speckled group’ (of persons).

speckled wipe

. Variant, early C.19, of SPECKED WIPER.

specks

. (App. never in singular.) Damaged oranges: costers’ coll; 1851, Mayhew. Ex the markings caused by mildew, etc. 2. See:

specs; also specks

. Spectacles for the sight: dial. (orig. and mainly specks; 1807, Hogg) >, ca 1820, coll (mainly specs). Barham, 1837, ‘He wore green specs with a tortoise-shell rim’; R.D. Blackmore, 1882, ‘Must have my thick specks.’

spectacles

. Two scores of 0 by a batsman in the one match: cricket coll >, ca 1910, S.E.: 1865, Wanothrocht, ‘The ominous “spectacles” have been worn by the best sighted men’; 1885, P.M.Thornton; 1898, Giffen. Abbr. pair of spectacles, same meaning: 1862. Lewis records the rare v., be spectacted, as early as 1854. Ex ‘0–0’ in statistics.

spectacles-seat

. The nose: 1895, Meredith, in The Amazing Marriage (O.E.D.); ob.

speech

. ‘A TIP [n., 2] or WRINKLE [n., 3] on any subject. On the turf a man will wait ...until he “gets the speech”, as to whether [a horse]...has a good chance. To “give the speech” is to communicate any special information of a private nature,’ H., 5th ed.: mainly racing: from ca 1872.

speechless

. Extremely drunk: coll: 1881, Besant & Rice.

speel

*. To decamp: Northern c. (–1839); ob. by 1910. Ex speel (Scottish and Northern dial.), v.i., to clamber, (of the sun) to mount. cf. SPEEL THE DRUM. 2. See SPIEL.

speel-ken

*, see SPELL-KEN.

speel the drum

*. To make off for, or to, the highway, esp. with stolen property: c. (–1859); very ob. Ex SPEEL, 1.

speeler

, see SPIELER. spefflicate, see SPIFLICATE.

spieg

, adj. Smart: Winchester; †by 1903. Perhaps ex spick and span.

speiler

, see SPIELER.

spell

, n. An incorrect spelling: coll: C.18–20. 2. Hence, a mode of spelling a word: coll: C.19–20. Monthly Magazine, 1801, ‘Why should this spell (as school children say...) be authorised?’ 3. A playhouse, a theatre: c. (–1812); ob. Also as adj. Both in Vaux, 1812. Abbr. SPELL-KEN.

spell

*, v. To advertise; put in print: c. (–1864). Esp. spelt in the lear, advertised- for in the newspaper, hence ‘wanted’. Ob. 2. To be spelt: coll, esp. children’s (–1877). Baumann, ‘How does it spell?’

spell for

. To long for: proletarian: mid-C. 19–20.

spell-ken or spellken; occ. speel-ken

* (–1860). A theatre: c. of ca 1800–90. Jackson, ca 1800, as quoted by Byron in Don Juan, note to xi, 19; Vaux. Ex Dutch spel (Ger. spiel), play; cf. SPIELER, and †S.E. spill-house, a gaming house.

spell-oh; occ. spell-ho or (in C.20) spell-o

. A rest: Conway training-ship, and Australian, coll: early C.19–20. Henry Lawson, 1900, ‘Bill...was having a spell-oh under the cask when the white rooster crowed.’ Ex spell-oh, a call to cease work or to rest. 2. Allotted work: on the Conway: from before 1891.

spelt in the lear

*, see SPELL, v.

spencer

. A small glass of gin: low London: 1804 (O.E.D.); †by 1880.

spend, (up)on the

. Spending: late C.17–20: S.E. until late C.19 then coll (rarely upon). Saturday Review, 17 Dec. 1904. The Government is “on the spend”.

sperrib

. A wife: London lower-middle classes’ (–1909); slightly ob. Corruption of spare rib.

spess

. A specimen: Felsted School: 1899, The Felstedian, July, ‘Others...calling out...“frightful spesses”, which word is specimens’. cf. SPECIMEN.

spew-alley

. The female pudend: low: C. 19. 2. The throat: low coll: mid-C.19–20; ob. cf. GUTTER-LANE and RED LANE.

spew her caulking or spew (the) oakum

. ‘A ship spews oakum when the seams start,’ F. & H.: nautical coll (from ca 1860) >, ca 1890, j.

spice

*. c. of ca 1800–50, thus: a spice, a footpad; the spice, footpad robbery. Vaux. ?ex spice of adventure or danger. See SPICE, HIGH TOBY.

spice

*, v.t. To rob: c. (–1811); †by 1850. Lex. Bal. cf. the n. 2. Gen. in full, spice the soot, to mix ashes and earth in with soot: chimney-sweepers’ s.: 1798, O.E.D.; ob.

spice, high toby

*. Highway robbery: c.: late C.18–mid-19. Jackson, ca 1800, as quoted by Byron in his notes to Don Juan, xi, ‘On the high toby spice flash the muzzle.’ See SPICE, n.

spice-gloak

*. A footpad: c. of ca 1810–60. Ex SPICE, n.

spice island

. The rectum; a privy: low: ca 1810–50. 2. Whence, applied to any filthy, stinking vicinity: low coll: ca 1810–70. Punning the Spice Islands.

spicer

*. A footpad: c.: ca 1820–60. Ex SPICE, v., 1.

spicy

. Spirited; energetically lively: 1828 ‘A remarkably spicy team’. Puck, 1844, ‘The milliners’ hearts he did trepah,|My spicy, swell small college man.’ Ob. Perhaps ex †Scottish spicy, proud, conceited. 2. Hence, smart-looking; neat: 1846, T.H.Huxley, ‘The spicy oilcloth... looks most respectable.’ cf. the adv. 3. Hence, handsome: 1868, Whyte-Melville, (of a horse) ‘What a spicy chestnut it is.’ 4. Sexually luscious or attractive: low coll: from ca 1870. Ex spicy, highly flavoured.

spicy

, adv. Smartly: low: 1859, Meredith, ‘He’ve come to town dressed that spicy.’ Ex the adj., 2.

spicy, cut it

. To act the beau, the dandy: lower classes’: from ca 1880. Ex SPICY, adj., 2.

spider

*. A wire pick-lock (of considerable utility): c.: 1845 in 'No. 747'. 2. Claret and lemonade: ca 1890–1915. Ex: 3. A drink of brandy and lemonade: Australian: 1854, Melbourne Argus. 4. An inspector: navvies': from ca 1870.

spider, swallow a

. To go bankrupt: coll: mid-C.17–18. Howell, 1659; Ray: Berthel- son, 1754. Gen. he has, you have, etc., swallowed a spider.

spider-brusher

. A domestic servant: 1833, T.Hook; ob. by 1890.

spider-catcher

. A very thin man: late C. 17–mid-18. 2. A monkey: coll and dial.: ca 1820–70. Halliwell.

spider-claw

, v.t. To grasp and stroke (the testes): low: late C.19–early 20.

spidereen

. Nautical, ca 1860–1915: ‘an imaginary vessel figuring in an unwilling reply: “What ship do you belong to?” “The spidereen frigate, with nine decks, and ne’er a bottom,’ F. & H.

spiel

*. A grafter’s patter: late C.19–20.

spiel

*, v. See SPEEL. 2. To talk glibly, plausibly; to patter: mostly Australian: from ca 1870. Perhaps a back-formation ex:

spieler; OCC. speeler or speiler

. A gambler, esp. a card-sharper; a professional swindler: Australia and New Zealand: 1886, New Zealand Herald, 1 June, ‘A fresh gang of “speelers” are operating in the town.’ Ex Ger. spieler, player, esp. at cards, a gamester. 2. Hence, a glib and crafty fellow: Australia: from ca 1905.

spierized, be

. To have one’s hair cut and shampooed: Oxford University: ca 1870–1910. Ex Spiers, a barber in ‘the High’.

spif

, see SPIFF, adj., 2.

spiff

, n. See SPIFFS. 2. A SWELL: from ca 1873; ob. by 1910. Abbr. SPIFFY, but imm. ex the adj., 2.

spiff

, v.t. Only in past ppl passive: see SPIFFED. 2. v.t, to pay, or allow, commission as to (say) half-a-crown on (a named article): trade: from ca 1890. Ironmonger, 19 Sept. 1891, 'A "job" chandelier...may be "spiffed", say 1s., but a more unsaleable one should bear a higher sum,' i.e. carry a higher commission. EX SPIFFS. cf.:

spiff

, adj. Esp. 5. stores, one where SPIFFS are in force, and spiff system (recorded by O.E.D. at 1890), the procedure of paying commission to the assistants: from ca 1889. Ex SPIFFS. 2. (The form spif is almost wholly dial.) Smartly dressed; dandified; in good spirits or health; excellent, superior: dial. (–1862) >, ca 1870, s. >, ca 1890, coll; ob. F. & H. has: 'Awfully spiff,' 'How spiff you look,' "'How are you?" "Pretty spiff".' ?abbr. SPIFFY; cf. SPIFFING.

spiffed

, ppl adj. Smartly dressed; 'tricked out'; very neat; spruce: 1877, W.S. Gilbert; ob. See SPIFF, v., 1, and cf. SPIFFING and SPIFFY. 2. Topsy: mainly Scottish (–1860); ob. Perhaps ex skewwhiff, or even ex SQUIFFED. cf. SCREWED; SQUIFFY.

spiffing; OCC. spiffin

. (In dial., spiving.) First-rate, excellent; (of, or as to, dress) fine, smart, dandified, spruce: dial. and s. >, ca 1900, coll: 1872, ‘The vulgar Pupkins said ..., “It was spiffing?”’; G. Moore, 1884. Perhaps ex dial. (–1865) spiffyn, n., work well done: O.E.D., which relates RATTLE, v; RIPPING; TOPPING. cf. SPIFF, adj., 2, and SPIFFY, and the dial, spiffer (1882), anything exceptional or very large, fine, good. 2. Hence, adv.; ob.

spifflicate

, etc., see SPIFLICATE, etc.

spiffs

; occ. in the singular. Trade (esp. drapery) s. as in H., 1859: ‘The percentage allowed...to [assistants] when they effect sale of old fashioned or undesirable stock’. (cf. SPIFF, v., 2, and adj., 1.) Prob. cognate with dial. spiffyn: see SPIFFING.

spiffy

. Smart, in the fashion; fine (in appearance); spruce; first-rate, excellent: coll and dial.: 1860, H., 2nd ed. Recorded before SPIFF, adj., 2, but prob. ex this adj., which may have existed in dial. (where earliest in print) some years earlier than 1860. cf. also SPIFFING, for it is certain that SPIFF, n., 2, v., 1, adj., 2, SPIFFED, l, and spiffy form a semantic and presumably a phonetic group, and I suspect that the trade group—SPIFF, n., 1, v., 2, adj., 1, SPIFFS, and dial. spiffyn (see SPIFFING etymology)—is cognate and ultimately ex the same radical; that root, prob., is either an echoic v.—cf. BIFF—with some such sense as to hit (hard), hence to startle or astonish, or an adv. of the spang kind—cf. its use in dial. spiff and spack bran new, quite new.

spiflicate

(–1785); often spifflicate (1841—in dial.) and, mainly Cornish dial., spefflicate (1871): s. that, ca 1870, > coll. ‘To confound, silence, or dumbfound’, Grose, 1st ed., 1785; hence, to handle roughly, treat severely, to thrash, O.E.D., 1796; hence, to crush, destroy, kill, as in Moore, 1818, ‘Alas, alas, our ruin’s fated; All done up, and spiflicated!’; hence, as in ‘Jon Bee’, 1823, to betray (a thief) to the intended victim or to the police—a very ob. sense; and, ex the first or the third nuance, to do something mysterious (and unpleasant) to, often as a vague threat to children—a sense dating from ca 1880 or at latest 1890, the author hearing it first, as a child, ca 1900. Etymology: O.E.D., ‘Prob. a purely fanciful formation. cf. smiflicate, v.’; W., ‘?Fanciful formation on suffocate. cf. dial. smothercate,’ which word blends, or perhaps, confuses smother and suffocate; H., 3rd ed., ‘A corruption of [“stifle”], or of “suffocate”’; I diffidently suggest, ‘Ex spill, to spoil by injury or damage, to render useless, to destroy the value of (a thing)...on the analogy of either castigate, the f being perhaps due to the influence of stifle or even of smother (in both of which the vowels are obviously inoperative on a problematic spilligate) or, more prob., merely arbitrarily intrusive as are so many elements of unconventional vocables; or, preferably, ex spill, as above, +stifle, the dial. form of stifle, +, or with ending on the analogy of castigate, or ex spill+stifle+ending as in fustigate, to cudgel. Cf. the later SMIFLIGATE, and the (app. much later) dial. tussicated, intoxicated.’

spiflicating

, ppl adj. Castigatory; crushing: coll: 1891, Meredith, ‘You’ve got a spiflicating style of talk about you.’ Rare and ob. cf.:

spiflication

. The being ‘spiflicated’, the action of ‘spiflicating’; severe punishment; complete destruction: (mostly jocular) coll: mid-C.19–20; slightly ob. Sir Richard Burton, 1855, ‘Whose blood he vowed to drink—the Oriental form of threatening spiflication’. Ex SPIFLICATE.

spigot-sucker

. A tippler: coll: C.17–18. Cotgrave. Ex the vent-hole peg of a cask. 2. A mouth-whore: low: C.19–20; ob. Ex physiological spigot.

spike

*. A casual ward: tramps' c.: 1866, Temple Bar, xvi, 184 . Ex the hardness of beds, fare, and treatment. 2. Hence, the workhouse: (low) s.: 1894, D.C.Murray, 'To sleep in the workhouse is to go "on the spike".' cf. SPINNIKEN. 3. An Anglican High Church clergyman: ecclesiastical: late C.19–20. (The O.E.D. records it at 1902, but Mr R.Ellis Roberts clearly remembers it in the middle and late 1890s.) Ex SPIKY, 1. 4. A bayonet: military: late C.19–20. 5. Spike. The inevitable nickname of all (male) Sullivans: naval and military: late C.19–20. In areas where Irish potato-hoers were working, tramps used frequently to assume the name on entering the spike (sense 1).

spike

, v. (Of an editor) to reject (a news-item, etc.): journalistic: 1908, A.S.M. Hutchinson, Once Aboard the Lugger.

spike, get the

. To become annoyed or angry: low: 1895 (E.D.D.). cf. cop the NEEDLE.

Spike(-)Park

. The grounds of a prison; hence, from ca 1860, the Queen's Bench Prison: 1837, Dickens; both †by 1890.

spike-ranger

*. A continual tramper from casual ward to casual ward: c.: from ca 1897.

spiker

. (Usually pl.) A shark: nautical: late C.19–20.

spiky

. Extreme and uncompromising in Anglo-Catholic belief or practice: orig. and mainly Church: 1881. Ex the stiffness and sharpness of opinions and attitude. cf. SPIKE, 3. 2. Spiky. A variant of SPIKE, 5. F. & Gibbons, ‘From the celebrated prize fighter’.

spill

. A small fee, gift or reward, of money: 1675, Crowne. †by ca 1840. Constructed with of (e.g. a spill of money). C.18–early 19. Prob. ex to spill; cf. a splash, a small quantity, of liquid. 2. A fall; a tumble, esp. from a horse: from ca 1840: coll >, ca 1890, S.E. Ex the v., 1. 3. A drink: ca 1890.

spill

, v. To cause to fall from vehicle (from ca 1706 or 7) or from horse (–1785): coll: resp. Swift and Grose. 2. Hence, from a boat, a box, etc., etc.: coll: mid-C. 19–20.

spill and pelt

. The practical fun at the end of each scene in the comic portion of a pantomime: theatrical: from ca 1830. Ware. Ex things deliberately spilt and hilariously thrown.

spill milk against posts

. A phrase, says Ware, used in 'extreme condemnation of the habits of the man spoken of': lowest class (–1909).

Spillsbury, come home by

. To have a 'spill', lit. or fig.: coll: late C.17–18. Hacket's Life of Williams, 1692. cf. CLAPHAM; PECKHAM.

spilt milk, cry over

. To indulge vain regrets: 1836, Haliburton; 1860, Trollope; 1900, Dowling: coll >, ca 1900, S.E. In mid-C.19, spilt water offered a feeble rivalry.

spin

. A brisk run or canter; a spurt: coll >, by 1890, S.E.: 1856 (O.E.D.); 1884, Field, 6 Dec., 'After a short undecided spin, Athos took a good lead.' Ex to spin (along). 2. A spinster: Anglo-Indian coll: 1872, 'A most unhappy spin', O.E.D. Ware dates it from 70 years earlier.

spin

, v.t. To fail in an examination: mostly military colleges (–1859) and esp. the R.M.A., Woolwich. Mostly in passive, as in Whyte-Melville, 1868, ‘Don’t you funk being spvm?’ Ex spin, to cause to whirl. 2. Hence, v.i., to be failed in an exam: 1869; rare. 3. To tell a story: naval: ca 1790–1850.

spin, get a

. The same as SPIN, v., 2: same period.

spin a cuff

. To bore a mess with a long, pointless story: naval (–1909). cf.:

spin a cuffer; spin a dippy

. To tell an improbable story; a probable one: naval: late C.19–20. See CUFFER; the dippy, used only in this phrase, may possibly derive ex dippy, crazy.

spin a twist

, see TWIST, SPIN A. spin a yarn, see YARN, n. spin-house, see SPINNING-HOUSE. spin street-yarn, see STREETYARN. spin-text, see SPINTEXT.

spin the bat

. To speak vigorously, very slangily: Indian Army: mid-C.19–early 20. Perhaps ex spin a yarn+SLING THE BAT.

spinach (occ. spelt spln(n)age), gammon and

. Nonsense; HUMBUG: coll: 1850, Dickens, ‘What a world of gammon and spinnage it is, though, ain’t it!’; ob. The words gammon and spinage are part of the refrain to the song, ‘A frog he would awoooing go’. (Early C.19.) cf. GAMMON.

spindle

. The penis: (low) coll: C.19–20; ob. cf. S.E. spindle side.

spindle-prick

. Vocative to a man deficient in energy: low: late C.19–20. (Only mildly abusive.)

spindles, make or spin crooked

. (Of a woman) so to act as to make her husband a cuckold: coll: late C.16–17.

spiniken, -kin

*, see SPINNIKEN.

spink

. Milk: R.M.A., Woolwich: from ca 1890; slightly ob. ?origin if not a perversion of drink nor ex spinked cattle nor ex Fifeshire spinkie.

spinn-house

. Incorrect for spin-house (see SPINNING-HOUSE). spinnage, see SPINACH.

spinniken, loosely -kin

*. A workhouse: c. (–1859). 2. Spinniken, the. St Giles’s Workhouse: c. (–1864). cf. the Lump, that of Marylebone, and the Pan, that of St Pancras, both in H., 3rd ed.; note, however, that by 1874, these two terms were ‘applied to all workhouses by tramps and costers’, H., 5th ed. Ex KEN, a place, on spin-house (see SPINNING-HOUSE).

spinning

. Rapid: coll: 1882, Society, 16 Dec., ‘The Cambridgeshire enjoyed a spinning run.’ Ex spinning, gyrating.

spinning-house; spin-house

. Both ex spin-house, a house of correction for women, on the Continent (ex Dutch spinnhuis, cf. Ger. spinnhaus): the former, a house of labour and correction, esp. for harlots under university jurisdiction: Cambridge: C.19: perhaps always S.E., but prob. orig. coll; the latter, a workhouse: C.18–mid-19 coll, as in Brand's History of Newcastle (1702), where spelt spinn-house. cf. SPINNIKEN.

spinning-out

. Loquacious: lower classes' coll (–1887). Baumann, 'A spinning-out sort of chap'.

spinsrap

. A parsnip; parsnips: back s. (–1859). Also spinsraps.

spinster

. A harlot: coll: ca 1620–1720. Fletcher, 1622; Fuller, 1662, 'Many would never be wretched spinsters were they spinsters in deed, nor come to so public and shameful punishment.' cf. make or spin crooked SPINDLES.

spintext; spin-text

. A clergyman: late C. 17–20: coll (in earliest examples, a nickname or an innuendo-surname) >, ca 1830, S.E.; very ob. Congreve, 1693, 'Spintext! Oh, the fanatick one-eyed parson!' Because he spins a long sermon from the text; cf. the spider-spinning lucubrations of medieval (and a few modern) philosophers. 2. Esp. a prosy one: C. 18–20; ob. Vicesimus Knox, 1788, 'The race of formal spintexts, and solemn saygraces is nearly extinct.'

spirit

, to kidnap (for export to the American plantations), ca 1665–1800, may orig.—to judge by B.E. and Grose—have been coll.

spiritual

. A sacred song; a hymn: coll: 1870, “Negro Spirituals”, T.W.Higginson, in Army Life. Abbr. spiritual song.

spiritual case

. The lower-deck term, probably unintentional at first [i.e. orig. a sol.], for spherical case shot: naval: ca 1840–1900. Bowen.

spiritual flesh-broker

. A parson: coll: late C.17–early 19.

spiritual whore

. A woman infirm of faith; esp. as a C.16 ecclesiastical c.p., she is a spiritual whore (Tyndale, 1528). cf. S.E. go lusting or whoring after strange gods.

spirity

. Spirited; energetic; vivacious: from ca 1630: coll till C.19, then dial. 2. Ghostly: supernatural: jocular coll (–1887).

spiry

. Very distinguished: 1825, T.Hook; ob. by 1890. Ex height.

spit; gen. the very or, in C.20, the dead spit of

. A speaking likeness (of): 1825 (O.E.D.): coll >, ca 1890, S.E.—but still rather familiar. Mayhew, 1851, ‘the very spit of the one I had for years; it’s a real portrait’. Ex such forms as ‘As like an urchin, as if they had been spit out of the mouths of them’, Breton, 1602, and ‘He’s e’en as like thee as th’ had’st spit him,’ Cotton. cf. Fr. c’est son père tout craché.

spit

, v. ‘To foraminate a woman’, F. & H.: v.t.: coll: C.18–20; ob. 2. To leave (visiting-cards), gen. at So-and-so’s: coll: 1782, Mme D’Arblay; ob.

spit, put four quarters on the

. To have sexual intercourse: low: C.19. cf. make the BEAST WITH TWO BACKS and SPIT, v., 1.

spit alley (or S.A.)

. The alleyway in which the junior officers' cabins are situated (in a man-of-war): naval: late C.19–20.

spit and a drag, a

. A smoke on the sly: naval: late C.19–20. Ex spit and drag, a cigarette: rhyming s. (on FAG, n., 5): late C.19–20.

spit and a draw

. A proletarian variant of the preceding. Prob. from the 1890s.

spit and a stride, a

. A very short distance: Fletcher, 1621 (Apperson); 1676, Cotton, 'You are now...within a spit, and a stride of the peak.' Coll till early C.19, then dial.

spit and polish

. Furbishing; meticulous cleaning: naval and, esp., military: from ca 1860 or perhaps even earlier, though unrecorded before 1895: coll. cf. ELBOW-GREASE.

spit brown

. To chew tobacco: nautical coll: late C.19–20.

spit-curl

. A curl lying flat on the temple: U.S. (–1859); anglicized ca 1875 as a coll, chiefly among costers: cf. AGGERAWATORS.

spit o' my hand

! A Cockney expletive, coll rather than s., dating from ca 1880; slightly ob.

spit one's death

. To swear solemnly: Cockney: late C.19–20; ob. Perhaps on may I die! cf. the gesture of licking one's thumb and drawing it across one's throat; and cf. STRIKE ONE'S BREATH.

spit sixpences or white broth

. To expectorate from a dry, though healthy, mouth: resp. coll (1772), Graves, 'Beginning to spit six-pences (as his saying is)' and s. (late C.19–early 20).

Spitalfield(s) breakfast

. ‘A tight necktie and a short pipe’; i.e. no breakfast at all: East End (–1864). Ex the poor district in East London. cf. Irishman’s dinner and SOLDIER’S SUPPER, as well as dine with DUKE HUMPHREY, and the c.p. (–1874; ob.) I’ll go out and count the railings, ‘the park or area railings, mental instead of maxillary exercise’, H., 5th ed.

spite Gabell

. To cut off one’s nose to spite one’s face: Winchester: from ca 1820. Mansfield; Wrench. Ex the inadvisability of trying to get a rise out of Dr Henry Gabell (1764–1831), who was headmaster of the College from 1810 to 1823.

Spithead nightingale

. A boatswain or his mate: nautical coll: late C.19–20; ob.

spiv

. One who lives by his wits—within the law, for preference; esp. by the ‘racing game’; c.: since ca 1890.

splash

. Ostentation; a display thereof; a dash; a sensation: coll: esp. in cut (1806) or make (1824) a splash. cf. CUT A DASH. Ex noisy diving or swimming. 2. Hence, without article: coll: late C.19–20; rare-Westminster Gazette, 5 Dec. 1899, ‘That last speech...caused enough splash for some time to come.’ 3. Face-powder: 1864, H., 3rd ed.; very ob. cf. SLAP, n., 2.

splash

, adj. Fine, elegant, fashionable, distinguished: c. from ca 1830. Ex the n., 1.

splash-up

, adj. and adv. (In) splendid (manner); TIP-TOP: lower classes' (–1887); ob. cf. BANG-UP.

splasher

. A piece of oil-cloth protecting the wall against the splashing from a washhand bowl: domestic coll: late C.19–20.

splashing

, n. Excessive or silly talk: proletarian: ca 1870–1910.

splashing

, adj. and adv.; splashy, adj. Fine(ly); splendid(ly): ca 1885–1920. Baumann, 'A splashing (fine) feed'. cf. SPLASH, n., 1.

splatherer

. A loquacious person; a braggart: tailors': from ca 1875; ob.

splathers!, hold your

. Be silent!: tailors’: from ca 1870; ob. Prob. ex Yorkshire splather, noisy talk. Whence:

splatterdash

. A bustle; an uproar: late C.19–20; ob. ?ex splutter+dash.

splendacious, splendidious, splendidous, splendiferous

. Very splendid, remarkably fine, magnificent; excellent: resp. 1843, Blackwood’s, ‘Some splendacious pattern in blue and gold’ O.E.D., which notes forms in -aceous (Thackeray, 1848) and -atious, all slightly ob. and all coll: C.15–20, being S.E. until C.19 (rare before 1880; now ob.), then coll; splendidous, S.E. in C.17, is rare in coll and now extremely ob.; splendiferous—loosely -erus,—S.E. in C.15–16 for ‘abounding in splendour’, was in C.17–early 19, like splendidious, ‘subterranean’ in usage, and, like splendacious, it arose again in 1843 (Haliburton’s ‘Splendiferous white hoss’, O.E.D.), to be more gen. in U.S. than in Britain. All four are, in mid-C.19–20, jocular in tendency.

splice

. A wife: ca 1820–1930. Ex splice, to marry. 2. Marriage; a wedding: 1830, Galt; 1876, Holland, ‘I’m going to pay for the splice.’

splice

, v. To join in matrimony (–1710): gen. in passive, as in 1751, Smollett, ‘Trunnion! Trunnion! turn out and be spliced, or lie still and be damned.’ Ex lit. nautical sense. 2. Hence. to coït: low: C.19–20. 3. At Winchester College (–1897), to throw or fling.

splice, sit on or (upon) the

. To play a strictly defensive bat: cricket s.: from ca 1905. As if to sit on the shoulder of the bat.

splice the main-brace

, see MAIN-BRACE, SPLICE THE.

spliced(, get)

. (To get) married: late C.18–20. Ainsworth, 1839. Ex SPLICE, v., 1.

spliced, with main-brace well

. Drunk: orig. nautical. See MAIN-BRACE.

splicer

. A sailor: lower classes' coll: late C.19–20. Ex the S.E. sense, one (gen. a sailor) who splices, or specializes in splicing ropes.

split

*. A detective, a police spy, an informer: c. (–1812). Ex the v., 2. cf. SPLIT ON. 2. See SPLITS. 3. A drink of two liquors mixed: coll: 1882, Society, 11 Nov., 'The "nips", the "stims", the "sherries and Angosturas", the "splits" of young Contango'. 4. A split soda: coll: 1884 (O. E.D.); but a soda split occurs in H., 5th ed., 1874. 5. Hence, a half-size bottle of mineral water, 1896. 6. A half-glass of spirits: coll (–1903). 7. A split bun or roll: coll (1905). 8. A split vote (1894). 9. A harlot's bully: c. (–1909). He splits her earnings with her. 10. Change (in money); small change: low: 1893, P.H. Emerson, Signor Lippo. 11. See SPLIT, LIKE.

split

, v.i. To copulate: low: C.18–20. 2. To turn informer, give evidence to the police: c. (–1795) >, ca 1850, low s. 3. Hence, to betray confidence, give evidence injurious to others: 1840, Dickens, but prob. a decade earlier. See also SPLIT ABOUT and SPLIT ON. 4. Hence, v.t., to disclose, let out: 1850, Thackeray, 'Did I split anything?'; ob. 5. v.i., to act vigorously: coll: U.S. (ca 1848), anglicized ca 1870; ob. Prob. ex: 6. v.i., to move, esp. to run, walk, gallop, etc.: coll: 1790, R. Tyler, 'I was glad to take to my heels and split home, right off'; 1888, Adam Lindsay Gordon, Poems, 'We had run him for seven miles or more,|As hard as our nags could split.' Also split along and go like split.

split, (at) full

. At full speed: coll: U.S. (middle 1830s), anglicized ca 1865. 'Rolf Boldrewood', 1890, 'In saddle and off fullsplit'. cf.:

split, like; esp. go like split

. (To go) at full speed: coll: U.S. (ca 1848), partly anglicized ca 1870, but never so gen. as SPLIT, FULL.

split, make all

. To cause, make, a commotion: coll: late C.16–17. Shakespeare.

split about

. To divulge; esp. to the police: 1836, Annual Register.

split along

. To move very fast: coll: C.19–20. See SPLIT, v., 6.

split-arse mechanic

. A harlot: low: C.19. cf. SPLIT-MUTTON, 2.

split-arsed one

. A female (esp., baby): low: late C.19–20.

split asunder

. A costermonger: rhyming s. (–1859); ob.

split-cause

. A lawyer: coll (–1785); ob. by 1870, †by 1910.

split chums

. To break friendship: Conway cadets’: from before 1891. cf. PART BRASS-RAGS.

split fair

. To tell the truth: mid-C.19–20. See SPLIT, v., 2.

split-fig

. A grocer: coll: late C.17–early 19; then dial. cf. NIP-CHEESE.

split-mutton

. The penis: low: ?C.17–19. 2. Women in gen.; a woman as sex: low: ?C.18–20; ob. See MUTTON; cf. SPLITARSE MECHANIC.

split my windpipe

! ‘A foolish kind of a Curse among the Beaux’, B.E.: coll: late C.17–mid-18. Also split me: C.18–early 19 (Cibber, Thackeray).

split on or upon

*. To inform the police about (a person): c. (–1812) >, ca 1840, low s. >, ca 1870, gen. s. Vaux (upon; on app. unrecorded before 1875, O.E.D.). See SPLIT, v., 2, and cf. SPLIT ABOUT and SPLIT FAIR.

split out

*. v.i., to part company, to separate: c.: from ca 1875; ob.

split pea

. Tea; rhyming s. (–1857). Rare; †by 1900.

split soda

. ‘A bottle of soda water divided between two guests. The “baby” soda is for one client’: tavern coll: from ca 1860. Ware.

split the grain, enough to

. Enough to make one drunk: coll: from ca 1880. Pugh (2): ‘But...go easy with this...Jest enough to screw you up, y’know, but not enough to split the grain.’

split-up

. A lanky person: from ca 1875. Ex (well) split-up, long-limbed, itself (Baumann) s. from ca 1870, prob. suggested by SPLITS.

split upon

*, see SPLIT ON.

split with

. To break off acquaintance with; to quarrel with: 1835, G.P.R. James (O.E.D.): s. splits, the

. In dancing or acrobatics, the act of separating one’s legs and lowering oneself until, right-angled to the body, they extend flat along the ground: 1851, Mayhew (II, 569): coll >, ca 1890, S.E. Also, though rare and ob., in the singular, as in Mayhew, III, 1861. 2. The police: grafters’; late C.19–20. Ex SPLIT, n., 1.

splitter

. A lawyer addicted to hair-splitting distinctions: ca 1660–1750. Richard Head, Proteus Redivivus, 1675. cf.:

splitter of causes

. A lawyer: coll: late C. 17–18. cf. SPLIT-CAUSE.

splodger

. A country lout: coll (–1860). 2. (esp. in address) CODGER: rhyming s.: 1856, H. Mayhew, The Great World of London. 3. A body-snatcher (?): ?ca 1840–80.

‘I’m Happy Jack the Splodger.
I’m as happy as I can be,
’Cos when I digs the bodies up,
The worms crawl over me.’
The ‘saga’ of Happy Jack

Perhaps ex English dial. splodge, to trudge through dirt or mire.

splodgy

. Coarse-looking; (of complexion) pimply: proletarian coll: mid-C.19–20.

splosh

. Money: low: 1893, Gus Elen, ‘Since Jack Jones come into that little bit o’ splosh’; ob. ?ex splash; prob. cognate with:

splosh

, adv. Plump: coll: 1891, Anon., Harry Fludyer, ‘Such larks when you heard the ball go splosh on a man’s hat’. Echoic.

spoffish

. Fussy, bustling, officious: 1836, Dickens. Very ob. Perhaps suggested by officious or fussy; obviously, however, derived ex or cognate with SPOFFLE; cf. SPOFFY.

spoffle

, v.i. To fuss or bustle: from ca 1830; very ob. Ex East Anglian dial. spuffle, to fuss, bustle; be in a flurry or great haste (Forby’s glossary, ca 1825). cf. SPOFFISH; SPOFFY.

spoffskins

. A courtesan willing to pretend to (temporary) marriage: low: ca 1880–1910. Perhaps ex:

spoffy

. The same as, and ex, SPOFFISH: 1860, H., 2nd ed.; ob. 2. Hence, n.

spogh

, v.i. To show off, make a display; South African coll: 1871, Dugmore, Reminiscences of an Albany Settler. Ex Dutch pochen, to boast.

spoil

, v. In boxing to damage, injure, seriously: sporting: 1811 (O.E.D.); very ob. Egan, 1821, has spoil one's mouth, to damage the face. 2. To prevent (a person) from succeeding, to render (a building, etc.) unsuitable for robbery: c. (–1812); ob. 3. Hence, in seashore-nautical s., as in R.C.Leslie, 1884, “Spoil a gent” is used...in the sense of disgusting him with the sea and so losing a good customer.’

spoil-bread

. A baker: coll: from ca 1860; ob. cf.:

spoil-broth

. A cook: same status and period. cf. next two entries.

spoil-iron

. A smith: coll: from ca 1780; ob.

spoil-pudding

. A long-winded preacher: ca 1785–1850.

spoil the shape of

, see SHAPE, SPOIL A WOMAN’S.

spoiling salt water

. A sea-cook’s job: nautical coll: mid-C.19–early 20.

spoke

. Spoken: in C.19–20, coll (latterly, low coll) when neither dial. nor jocular (e.g. ‘English as she is spoke’). 2. See SPOKEN TO.

spoke-box

. The mouth: jocular coll: 1874, Anon., The Siliad; ob.

spoke to

*, see SPEAK TO.

spoken

, illiterately spoke, to. Robbed; stolen: see SPEAK TO. 2. In a bad way (gen. physically); dying: c. (–1812); ob. Lit., warned.

spoke(n) to the crack, hoist, screw, sneak

, etc. Robbed or stolen in the manner indicated by the nn.: c.: C.19.

spondoolic(k)s, -ix; spondulacks; spondulicks

(the most gen.), -ics, ix. Money; cash: U.S. (1857), anglicized ca 1885: resp.—1903, 1902;—1903; 1863, ca 1870, and 1857. Perhaps ex Gr. σπόνδυλικός, adj. of σπόνδυλος, a species of shell very popular in prehistoric and early historic commerce; cf. the use of cowrie shells as money in ancient Asia and in both ancient and modern Africa.

sponge

, v.t. To throw up the sponge on behalf of (a defeated person or animal); gen. to be sponged, to have this happen to one: 1851, Mayhew; ob. cf.:

sponge, chuck or throw up the

. To give in; submit: coll: resp. from ca 1875 and 1860. ‘Rolf Boldrewood’, 1889 (chuck); ‘Captain Kettle’ Hune, 1899. Ex boxing, where this action signifies defeat.

spoof

. A nonsensically hoaxing game: 1889. The name and the game were invented by Arthur Roberts the comedian (1852–1933). 2. Hence, a card game in which certain cards, occurring together, are called ‘spoof’; 1895. 3. Ex sense 1: HUMBUG; hoaxing: 1897; an instance of this (–1903). 4. A theatrical variation (ca 1896–1914) of OOF, money. 5. A confidence trick, a swindle: low (–1890); ob.

spoof

, v.t. To hoax; HUMBUG: 1895, ‘I “spoof” him—to use a latter-day term,’ Punch, 28 Dec. Ex n., 1.

spoof

, adj. Hoaxing; humbugging: 1895, ‘I A.Roberts, ‘My “spoof French” has often been the subject of amusement.’

spooferies, the

*. A sporting club—or, generically, sporting clubs—of an inferior kind: ca 1889–1912. Ex SPOOF, n., 1.

spoon

. A simpleton; a fool: 1799 (O.E.D.): s. >, ca 1850, coll; ob. Vaux, 1812, ‘It is usual to call a very prating shallow fellow a rank spoon.’ Ex its openness and shallowness, but imm. ex SPOONEY, n., 1. 2. A sentimental, esp. if silly, fondness: in pl, 1868; in singular, from ca 1880. Slightly ob. Ex be SPOONS ON. 3. Hence, a sweetheart: 1882 (O.E.D.); slightly ob.

spoon

, v.i. To make love, esp. if very sentimentally and, in addition, rather sillily: 1831, Lady Granville. Prob. ex the n., 1. 2. Hence, to flirt: 1875, Trollope. 3. v.t. To court, to make love to, in a sentimental way: 1877, Mrs Forrester; ob. cf. SPOON ON.—All senses are frequent as vbl nn. in the same status; but derivatives not listed here are not much used and are rather S.E. than unconventional.

spoon, come the

. To make ridiculous, too sentimental love: from ca 1890; ob.

spoon in one's mouth, born with a silver

, see SILVER SPOON...

spoon in the wall, stick one's

. To die: coll: mid-C.19–20.

spoon on

. Same as SPOON, v., 3: from ca 1880; ob. Ex SPOON, v., 1.

spoon-victuals

. (Of a batsman) getting under a ball: Cambridge cricketers': 1870s. An elaboration of spoon (in cricket j.).

spooney, spoony

. A simpleton, a fool: 1795, Potter; ob. cf. SPOON, n., 1. 2. Hence (–1812), adj. 3. Sentimentally in love, foolishly amorous: 1836, Marryat; in 1828 with (up)on—‘I felt rather spoony upon that vixen.’ Ex SPOON, v., 1. 4. Hence, one thus in love or thus amorous: 1857, ‘C.Bede’. 5. An effeminate youth or man: ca 1825–80. Thackeray, Vanity Fair, 1848, ‘Jim says he’s remembered at Oxford as Miss Crawley still—the spooney.’ Ex sense 1.

spoons, fill the mouth with empty

. To go hungry: coll: late C.17–18. Ray.

spoons on (1863) or with (–1860; †by 1910), be

. To be sentimentally, esp. if sillily, in love with (a girl; very rarely the converse). Prob. ex SPOON, n., 1. 2. Also (of a couple) it’s (a case of) spoons with them, they are sentimentally in love: from ca 1863; ob.

spoony

. See SPOONEY. 2. Adv., foolishly or sentimentally, esp. in spoony drunk, sentimentally drunk, as in the Lex. Bal., 1811; ob.

spoony stuff

. Weak, sentimental work, below contempt: London theatrical: ca 1882–1915. Ware.

sporrán

. The pubic hair: late C.19–20 low. Ex S.E. sporrán.

sport

, v. To read (a book, an author) for sport: ca 1690–1710. T.Brown, ‘To divert the time with sporting an author’. 2. To stake (money), invest (it) riskily: ca 1705–1860: s. >, ca 1750, coll. 3. Hence, to lay (a bet): ca 1805–50. 4. Prob. ex senses 2, 3: to treat (a person) with food, etc.; to offer (a person) the hospitality of (wine, etc.): ?elsewhere than, 1828–30, in Lytton, as e.g. ‘I doesn’t care if I sports you a glass of port.’ Cognate, however, is: to provide, as in sport a dinner, a lunch, etc.: from ca 1830. 5. Ex sense 2: v.i., to speculate or bet: ca 1760–1820. Chrysal, Johnston. 6. v.t. to spend (money) extravagantly or very freely or ostentatiously: 1859, H.Kingsley ‘I took him for a flash overseer, sporting his salary.’ 7. To exhibit, display, in company, in public, gen. showily or ostentatiously: from ca 1710 (esp. common ca 1770–1830): s. >, ca 1830, coll. Steele, 1712; J.H.Newman, ‘A man...must sport an opinion when he really had none to give.’ 8. Hence, to display on one’s person; esp. to wear: s. (1778) >, ca 1890, coll. ‘Pomes’ Marshall, ‘She sported her number one gloss on her hair|And her very best blush on her cheek.’ 9. To go in for (smoking, riding, billiards, etc. etc.); to maintain (e.g., a house, a carriage): from ca 1805: s. >, ca 1900, coll. 10. To shut (a door), esp. to signify ‘Engaged’: orig. and mainly university. Ex sport OAK (3) or timber. cf. SPORT IN. 11. (Perhaps hence by metaphrasis:) to open (a door) violently, to force (it): ca 1805–20. 12. See vbl phrases here ensuing.

sport, old

, see OLD SPORT.

sport a baulk

, see BAULK.

sport a report

. To publish it far and wide: mid-C.19–20; ob.

sport a right line, be unable to or cannot

. To be drunk: ca 1770–1800. Oxford University. Because of inability to walk straight.

sport a toe

. To dance: 1821, Pierce Egan, Life in London; app. †by 1870.

Sport and Win

. Jim: rhyming s. (–1859); ob.

sport in

. To shut (one) in by closing the door: 1825, Hone, ‘Shutting my room door, as if I was “sported in”; ob. cf. OAK, 3.

sport ivory or one's ivory

. To grin: from ca 1785; ob.

sport literature

. To write a book: 1853, Mrs Gaskell; ob.—very ob.!

sport oak

, see OAK, 3.

sport off

. To do easily, as if for sport: late C.19–20; ob. cf. SPORT, v., 1.

sport silk

. To ride a race: the turf (coll): 1885, Daily Chronicle, 28 Dec. Ex the silk jacket worn by jockeys.

sport the broom

*. c., from ca 1875; as in Anon.'s Five Years' Penal Servitude, 1877, 'If a man wishes to see the governor, the doctor, or the chaplain, he is to "sport the broom", lay his little hairbroom on the floor at the door, directly the cell is opened in the morning.'

sport timber

. The Inns of Court variation of sport OAK (3): from ca 1785; ob.

sported oak or door

. Same as SPORTING DOOR: from ca 1870.

sporter

. A wearer (of something showy, notable): coll: late C.19–20.

sportiness

. Sporty characteristics or tendency: coll: 1896, Daily Chronicle, 31 Oct.

sporting action

. At Winchester College, ‘an affected manner, gesture or gait, or a betrayal of emotion’, F. & H.: from ca 1870. cf. SPORT, v., 7

spoiting chance

. A slight or a problematic chance: coll: from mid-1890s: sporting >, almost imm., gen. Mary Kingsley, 1897, ‘One must diminish dead certainties to the level of sporting chances along here.’

sporting door

. A door closed against intruders: university: from ca 1850; ob. Bristed, 1852. Also the OAK (3). See SPORT, v., in corresponding senses.

sportings

. Clothes worn at the exeat: Charterhouse (–1900). Tod's Charter-house, 1900.

sportsman

is at certain Public Schools a synonym for CHAP, FELLOW, 'man': from ca 1890.

sportsman for liquor

. 'A fine toper' (Ware): sporting: ca 1880–1910.

sportsmanlike

. Straightforward; honourable: coll: 1899, E.Phillpotts.

sportsman's gap

. The female pudend: low: C.19–20. (cf. S.E. sporting house, a brothel, and sporting-piece, a plaything.) Ex gaps in hedges.

sporty

. Sportsmanlike; sporting; generous: 1889: s.

s'pose

. Suppose, esp. in s'pose so!; coll: C.19–20.

spot

. A drop of liquor: coll: 1885, D.C. Murray, 'A little spot of ram, William, with a squeeze of lemon in it.' In C.20 Anglo-Irish coll, it has a specific sense: a half-glass of whiskey. Ex spot, a small piece or quantity. cf. Fr. larne. 2. Hence, a small amount of. Gen. a spot of..., e.g. lunch, hence of rest, work, pleasure, music, etc.: s.: C.19–20. Wm Maginn's translation of Memoirs of Vidocq, 1829, 'He leads them to a spot of work'—a burglary. 3. A cake: low: from ca 1890; ob. See quotation at SCALDER, 2. 4. A person—usually a man—employed by an omnibus company to watch, secretly, its employees: 1894 (O.E.D.): coll >, ca 1910, j. Ex spot (v., 4), to detect.

spot

*, v. To note (a person) as criminal or suspect: c.: 1718 (O.E.D.); 1851, Mayhew, 'At length he became spotted. The police got to know him, and he was apprehended, tried, and convicted.' Perhaps ex †spot, 'to stain with some accusation or reproach.' 2. Hence, to inform against (a person): c.: 1865, Dickens. 3. (Prob. ex sense 1:) to guess (a horse) beforehand as the winner in a race: orig. turf >, ca 1890, gen. coll: 1857, Morning Chronicle, 22 June, 'Having met with tolerable success in spotting the winners.' 4. Hence, to espy; mark, note; recognize, discover, detect: coll: 1860, O.W.Holmes. 5. Whence, prob.: to hit (a mark) in shooting: coll: 1882, Bret Harte. Although the earliest record of this, as of the preceding sense, is U.S., there is perhaps no need to postulate an American origin for either; cf., however, H., 1864, 'Orig. an Americanism, but now gen.' 6. (Ex spotting winners.) To gamble, v.t. and v.i.: low: from ca 1890; ob. 7. To pick out the best of (the land) for one's farm or station: New Zealand (–1898). cf. the Australian PEACOCK (v., 2).

spot, off the

. Silly, imbecile: from ca 1880; ob. 2. See:

spot, on the

*. Alert; quite certain: 1887, Henley, 'Palm and be always on the spot': low, if not orig. c. Hence, off the spot: uncertain, not alert.

spot, soft

. 'An easy, comfortable, or desirable berth, thing, or circumstance', F. & H.: late C.19–20; slightly ob. Ex Northern dial. spot (–1877), a place of employment, a job. 2. See SOFT SPOT.

spot, vacant; gen. have a vacant spot

. To be half-witted: from ca 1890; slightly ob. cf. SHINGLE SHORT; TILE LOOSE.

spots off or out of, knock

, see KNOCK INTO A...spots, see, see SEE STARS.

spotted

, ppl adj. Known to the police: c. (–1791). Tufts. Ex SPOT, v., 1.

spotted Dick

. A suet pudding made with currants or raisins: 1849, Soyer, The Modern Housewife: coll >, ca 1890, S.E. Ex the raisins that, on the surface, give the pudding a spotty appearance. cf. the next three entries.

spotted dog

. The same as preceding entry: from ca 1865: coll. Prob. dog puns dough, as Ware suggests. 2. Among soldiers, a sausage or a saveloy: from ca 1885; very ob. Ex the legend. cf. SPOTTED MYSTERY.

spotted donkey; spotted leopard

. The same as SPOTTED DICK: resp. schools' (–1887), ob.; low urban, from ca 1880.

spotted duff

. A coll variant (from ca 1870) Of SPOTTED DICK.

spotted mystery

. Tinned beef: military: from ca 1880; ob. An elaboration on MYSTERY, a sausage, and on potted (mystery). cf. SPOTTED DOG, 2.

spousy

. A spouse; gen., husband: jocular coll: ca 1795–1820. On HUBBY.

spout

. A large mouth, esp. if mostly open: lower classes' coll (–1909). 2. A showman's palaver or PATTERN (n., 2): showmen's: from ca 1880. 3. The penis: low: C.19–20.

spout

*, v. To pawn: c. (–1811). From ca 1850, (low) s.; in C.20, ob. Hughes, 1861, 'The dons are going to spout the college plate.' Ex spout, a pawnbroker's shoot.

spout, in great

. In high spirits; noisy: late C.18–mid-19; then dial. Grose in his Provincial Glossary, 1787. Perhaps ex spout, to declaim.

spout, up the

. In pawn: coll (–1812). See SPOUT, v. 2. Hence, imprisoned; in hospital: low (–1823); ob. 3. Hence, in a bad way (1853); bankrupt (–1854), this being mainly dial. 4. Pregnant with child: low: late C.19–20. Often in form, to have been put up the spout.

spout Billy

. To make a living by reciting Shakespeare in tap-rooms: low coll (–1823); ob. by 1900. (Poor William!) Also spout Bill. cf. SWAN-SLINGER.

spout ink

. To write books, etc.: coll: from ca 1880; ob. cf. SLING INK.

sprag

. A dandy: s.: Ned Ward, 1709.

sprained one's ankle, to have

, see ANKLE.

sprat

. A sixpence: low s. (–1839) >, ca 1880, gen. s.; slightly ob. Prob. ex its smallness and that of the fish. 2. A sweetheart: low: from ca 1870; ob. cf. fig. use of BLOATER; DUCK, 3; PIPPIN.

sprat-weather

. A dark winter's-day: fishermen's coll (–1887); ob. Such weather is suitable for the catching of sprats.

sprats

. Personal effects; furniture: low: from ca 1880; ob. cf. STICKS, 2.

sprawne

. A prawn: sol.; or, at best, illiterate coll: mid-C.17–mid-18.

spread

*. A saddle: c.: late C.18–mid-19. Tufts. cf. S.E. spread, a coverlet. 2. ?hence, a shawl: low (–1859); ob. 3. Butter: c. (–1811) >, ca 1840, low slightly ob. H., 3rd ed., 'A tenn with workmen and schoolboys'. Because spread, but prob. influenced by bread. cf. SPREADER. 4. An umbrella: ca 1820–50. 5. A banquet; an excellent or a copious meal: coll: from ca 1820. 'Pomes' Marshall, 1897, 'E didn't even give me an invite|To 'is New Year's spread.' 6. Hence, among sporting men, a dinner: from ca 1870. cf. the nuance 'any meal', as in morning spread, breakfast: Spy, II, 1826. 7. An option: Stock Exchange: late C.19–20; ob. Prob. suggested by straddle. 8. See DO A SPREAD. 9. 'A herbalist who sells a mixture of dried plants. He spreads these herbs out in front of him and lectures on the health-giving value of each'; work the spread, 'to graft as a herbalist': grafters': late C.19–20. 10. Jam, marmalade, or anything else spread on bread: Canadian: late C.19–20. Ex sense 3.

spread, do a

, see DO A SPREAD.

spread oneself

. To make every effort, esp. monetary; to do one's very best, 'damn the expense!': orig. (1832) U.S., in sense of making a display; anglicized ca 1890 as a coll.

spread-worker

. A herbalist: showmen's: late C.19–20. See SPREAD, 9.

spreader

*. Butter: c.: early C.17. Rowlands. cf. SPREAD, 3.

spreaders

*. A burglar's large pliers: c.: from ca 1890. Pugh (2).

'Sprecious, Sprecious, S'pretious

. A coll oath: C.17. Jonson. Abbr. God'sprecious.

spree

. A boisterous frolic; a period of riotous enjoyment: Scots dial. >, by 1798, Sessions, coll. Origin problematic; but W.'s provisional identification, via early dial. variant spray, with spreagh, spreath, foray, cattle-raid, ex Gaelic spréidh, cattle, may well be correct. 2. Hence, a drinking bout, a tipsy carousal: coll: 1811, Lex. Bal. cf. SPREE, ON THE. 3. Hardly distinguishable from senses 1, 2: 'rough amusement, merrymaking, or sport; prolonged drinking or carousing; indulgence or participation in this', O.E.D.: Scots dial. (–1808) >, ca 1820, coll. Occ. without article, as in Frank Bullen, 1899, 'A steady course of spree'. 4. A conceited person: Winchester College: from ca 1870; ob. Pascoe, Public Schools, 1881. Ex adj.

spree

, v.i. To carouse; have, take part in, a spree: coll: mid-C.19–20. Mrs Gaskell, 1855. Ex n., 1, 2. Whence spreeing, vbl n. and, occ., adj.

spree

, adj. Befitting a Wykehamist; smart: Winchester: from ca 1860; ob. Perhaps ex SPREE-MESS. 2. Conceited: ibid.: from ca 1870. This sense is applied only to juniors; used of acts, it='permissible only to prefects, or those of senior standing', Wrench. Ex dial.; cognate with S.E. spry and spruce.

spree, on a

. Enjoying oneself: coll: 1847. Ex SPREE, n., 1. cf.:

spree, on or upon the

. e.g. go on the spree. Having a riotous time, esp.—and in C.20 almost solely—on a drinking bout: coll: 1851, Mayhew, who has the †get on the spree; H., 1st ed., ““Going on the spree”, starting out with intent to have a frolic’. Ex SPREE, n., 1, 2, and cf. SPREE, ON A.

spree man

, or as one word. A junior permitted to work hard: Winchester College: from ca 1870.

spree-mess

. A feast, esp. in the form of a SPREAD at tea-time, raised by subscription or given by departing boys and always held at the end of the half-year: Winchester College: ca 1840–60. Mansfield. Ex SPREE, n., 1, 2, 3.

spreeish

. Fond of or frequently sharing in sprees: coll: 1825, C.Westmacott. 2. Slightly intoxicated: coll: Sessions, April 1843. See SPREE, n., 2.

spress or 'spress

. Express; express train: sol.; or rather, low coll (–1887).

spring

, v.i. To offer a higher price: 1832, Sessions; ob. by 1890. Whence SPRING TO. 2. To give; disburse; buy (a certain amount): coll: 1851, Mayhew, ‘It’s a feast at a poor country labourer’s place when he springs sixpenn’orth of fresh herrings’; 1878, J.F.Sullivan, The British Working Man, ‘Wot’s ’e sprung?’ (how much money has he given?). Ex spring, to cause to appear. Contrast RUSH, to charge extortionately. 3. Hence, to afford to buy: late C.19–20. cf. SPRING TO.

spring a partridge

*. To entice a person and then rob or swindle him: c.: late C. 17–mid-18. In A New Canting Dict., 1725, collectively as spring partridges. Ex spring partridges, to cause them to rise.

spring a plant

, see PLANT, SPRING A.

spring-ankle warehouse

*. ‘Newgate, or any other gaol’, Grose, 1st ed.: c. of ca 1780–1840: Anglo-Irish. A sprained ankle=disablement=imprisonment. But cf. ANKLE-SPRING WAREHOUSE.

spring at one's elbow, have a

. To be a gamester: coll: latish C.17–mid-18. Ray, 1678. cf. shake the ELBOW.

spring fleet

. N.E. coast collier brigs going into the Baltic trade in the slack coal season: nautical coll: late C.19–early 20.

spring-heeled Jack

. A rocket-propelled torpedo: naval: very late C.19–very early 20.

spring like a ha'penny knife, with a . Floppy: with no resilience: lower classes' (–1909). Ex 'deadness' of such a knife.

spring to

. To be able to pay or give; to afford: coll: 1901, Anon., Troddles and Us, 'It's seven pound fifteen, and we can spring to that between us.' Ex SPRING, 1. 2. Hence, to be able to accomplish: coll: 1903, F. & H.

springer-up

. A tailor selling cheap, readymade clothes: mid-C.19–20; ob. Mayhew, 1851; H., 1st ed., ‘The clothes are said to be “sprung up”, or “blown together”.’

sprinkle

. To christen: jocular coll: mid-C.19–20.

sprio

. A sparrow: Sedgely Park School: ca 1780–1870. Sparrow > spro >, by the principle of ease of pronunciation, sprio.

spruce up

. To clean and dress oneself to go out or to go on parade: Regular Army coll: since ca 1895. i.e. make oneself spruce or smart.

sprung

. Tipsy: low s. >, in C.20, coll: from ca 1825; ob. Often as in Judd, 1870, ‘Ex-Corporal Whiston with his friends sallied from the store well-sprung.’ Either ex spring, to moisten (in C.19–20, only in dial.), or, as the O.E.D.’s earliest quotation tends to show, ex sprung, split or cracked, masts.

sprung-up

, adj., see SPRINGER-UP.

spud

. A potato: dial. (–1840) >, by 1845, s. Possibly ex Spuddy, the nickname for a seller of bad potatoes (Mayhew, 1851), but prob. spud is the earlier. Perhaps an Anglo-Irish corruption of potato via MURPHY: cf. Spud, the inevitable nickname of any male Murphy and occ. of anyone with an Irish name. W., however, proposes a s. ‘application of spud, weeding instrument’, and pertinently compares the etymology of parsnip. Possible also is the spud adduced in the etymology of: 2. A baby’s hand: dial. and nursery: mid-C.19–20; ob. Halliwell. ?a corruption of pudsy, pudgy, or simply a special application of spud, a stumpy person or thing.

spuddy

. See SPUD, 1. 2. A seller of baked potatoes: costers’: late C.19–20.

spug

. A sparrow: Cotton College: since ca 1875. Adoption of dial. word.

spun-yarn trick

. (Gen. pl.) An unfair trick: naval coll: late C.19–20. Ex the unfair use of spun yarn in competitive evolutions.

spunk

. Mettle, spirit; PLUCK: 1773, Goldsmith, is preceded by Bridges, 1772, ‘Whether quite sober or dead drunk, [I know, my dear, you’ve too much spunk’; Grose. App. coll >, ca 1800, S.E. >, ca 1850, coll >, ca 1890, s.: cf. the quotations and remarks in F. & H., O.E.D., and W., who derives it ex Gaelic spong, tinder. 2. Hence, the seminal fluid: coll: C.19–20. cf. METTLE. 3. A match: c. or low s. (–1839). Ex dial.

spunk-bound

. (Of a man) lethargic; slow-witted: low: late C.19–20.

spunk-fencer

. A match-seller: c. or low s. (–1839). Ex dial. spunk, a match.

spunky

. Spirited; plucky: dial. (Burns 1786) >, ca 1800, coll. Lamb, 1805, ‘Vittoria Corombona, a spunky Italian lady’; 1819, Moore, ‘His spunkiest backers were forced to sing small.’

spur

*. To annoy: c.: from ca 1875; ob. Whence:

spur, get the

*. To be annoyed: c.: from ca 1880. cf. cop the NEEDLE.

spur in one's head, have got a

. To be (slightly) drunk: ca 1770–1800: orig. and mainly jockeys'. Gentleman's Magazine, 1770.

spurt

. A small quantity: s. (–1859) and dial. >, ca 1890, dial. only. Prob. ex spurt, a brief effort, a short run, etc.

Spy, Black; b.s.

, see BLACK SPY.

squab

, n. A fat person: coll: Ned Ward, 1722.

squab

, v.i. To squeeze by: King Edward School, Birmingham: late C.19–20. Prob. ex squab, to squeeze flat, influenced by sense of squash. 2. (Gen. as squob.) v.i. and v.t., to treat thus:

‘With foot on wall or desk, and back against the victim who is similarly treated on the other side, or pressed against the opposite wall’, F. & H.: ibid.: id.

squab up

, v.i. and v.t. To push: ibid., id.

squabash

. A crushing blow; to crush, defeat: resp. 1818, Prof. Wilson, and 1822: s. >, ca 1860, coll. A blend of squash+ BASH. cf. Scottish stramash.

squabble

. (Of type) to be or get mixed: printers’ (–1887).

squad

. A squadron: naval (–1887). (This is independent of the S.E. use in late C.17.)

squad, halt

! Salt: military rhyming s.: late C.19–20.

squaddy

. An occ. perversion of SWADDY: rare before C.20.

squaler

. A weapon consisting of an 18-inch cane surmounted with a pear-shaped piece of lead used for killing squirrels and deer in Savernake Forest: Marlborough College: ca 1843–60. Either for squirreller or because it causes squirrels to squeal. But as squailer it is an archaeological technicality. The weapon is very old; by many archaeologists and ethnologists it is known as a rabbit stick.

squalino

. To squeal: ca 1818–60. Ex squall+squeal; fanciful suffix.

squall

*. A voice: c. of ca 1720–60.

square

, n. See the adj., which it merely substantivalizes. 2. Here, however, it may be noted that, in the underworld, all just and honest practices and actions are called the square, as opp. to the CROSS: from ca 1810. cf. fig. STRAIGHT. 3. A square dance: ball-room coll: ca 1890–1914. 4. A mortar-board: Cambridge: late C.19–20.

square

, v. To settle (a matter) satisfactorily: coll: 1853, Dickens, 'I have squared it with the lad...and it's all right.' Ex square, to equalize, to balance (accounts). 2. Hence, to satisfy or win over, esp. by bribery or compensation; to get rid of thus: s. >, ca 1910, coll: 1859, Lever, 'The horses he had "nobbled", the jockeys squared, the owners "hocussed"'; 1879, T.H.Huxley. Specifically, square his nibs is to give a policeman money: H., 1st ed. 3. Hence, to get rid, or dispose, of by murder: 1888. 4. See SQUARE AT; SQUARE IT; SQUARE ROUND; SQUARE UP.

square

, adj. Only in (up)on the square. (Predicatively.) Free from duplicity; just; straightforward, upright: from ca 1680: S.E. until ca 1830, then coll; by 1860. s. cf.:

square

, adv. Justly; honestly; straight-forwardly: late C.16–20: S.E. until ca 1840, then coll; in C.20, s. Mayhew, 1851, '...I wished to do the thing square and proper.' 2. Solidly, (almost) unanimously: coll: 1867; mostly U.S. 3. Correctly, duly: coll: 1889, 'Rolf Boldrewood', 'Here they were married, all square and regular, by the Scotch clergyman.'

square, be on the

. To be a Mason: mid-C. 19–20.

square, on or upon the

. See SQUARE, adj. 2. Engaged in squad-drill: military coll: late C.19–20. i.e. on the barracks-square.

square, run on the

. To be honest or trustworthy: Society: from ca 1880; very ob.

square, straight down the crooked lane and all round the

. A late C.19–early 20 c.p.: ‘A humorous way of setting a man on his word’, F. & H.

square, turn

. To reform, and get one’s living honestly: from ca 1850.

square affair

. One’s legitimate sweetheart (girl): Cockney and Australian: ca 1890–1914.

square at (1827, De Quincey; ob. by 1890); square up to (from ca 1850). To take up a boxing stance against (a person): coll till ca 1880, then S.E. Ex squaring one’s shoulders.

square back-down

. A palpable shuffling; sporting: from ca 1870. 2. See BACKDOWN.

square clobber, square cove, square crib

. Here, square=respectable, reputable: C. 19–20: coll (though CLOBBER and CRIB are not coll). A variation of square, honest, honourable, etc., applied to the implied activities.

square-face; squareface

. Gin; schiedam: 1879 (O.E.D.). Mostly South African. Ex the square bottles in which it was retailed in all parts of South Africa; Pettman.

square-head; squarehead

. A Scandinavian or a German: coll: late C.19–20. Ex shape of head. 2. Earlier, a free immigrant: Australia: ca 1870–90. 3. In c., an honest man: mid-C.19–20; ob.

square it

. To act, esp. to live, honestly: 1873: coll.

square-mainsail coat

. A frock coat: nautical, esp. naval: late C.19–20.

square off

. To placate (a person): Australian: from ca 1905.

square-pusher

. A decent girl: lower classes' (–1902). Lit., a SQUARE or respectable PUSHER or girl.

square-pushing

. An instance, or the habit, of 'walking out' with a girl or young woman: military: from ca 1885. Ex the military practice of strolling with nurse-maids and other maids round the square, or perhaps by back-formation ex the preceding. See also PUSHER, 2.

square round

. To make room: Winchester coll: mid-C.19–20. Ex dial. sense, 'to sit so as to widen the circle and make room for others' (E.D.D.).

square-rigged

. Well-dressed: from ca 1850 (ob.); coll, orig. and mainly nautical. Ex the lit. S.E. sense. cf. RIG-OUT.

square (the) yards

. To settle a score, esp. to take vengeance: from ca 1835 (ob.); nautical. Dana, 'Many a delay and vexation...did he get to "square the yards with the bloody quill-driver".'

square-toes

, see OLD SQUARE-TOES.

square up

. To pay (a debt): coll: 1862, Mrs Henry Wood, 'I can square up some of my liabilities here.' Ex SQUARE, v., 1.

square up to

, see SQUARE AT.

squaresel

. A square-sail: nautical coll (–1887).

squarum

. A lapstone: shoemakers': from ca 1860. i.e. a square one.

squash

. A scrimmage or rough scrum: school football s.: from middle 1850s.

squash

, v. To silence or snub (a person) crushingly: coll: from ca 1900.

squash ballad

. A ballad ‘prompting war and personal devotion’: pacifists’: 1896–1910. Ware. ?ex sentiment.

squashed fly or, gen., flies

. A sandwich biscuit with currants: children’s: late C.19–20.

squat

. A seat: London lower classes’ (–1909). Also do a squat.

squatter

. A kind of bronze-wing pigeon: Australian coll nickname: from ca 1870.

squattez-vous

! Sit down!: from late 1890s. Kipling’s Stalky, ‘Be quick, you ass!... Squattez-vous on the floor, then!’ cf. TWIGGEZ-VOUS.

squawl

*. A variant of SQUALL.

squeak

*, n. A criminal that, apprehended, informs on his colleagues: c. (–1795); ob. by 1850, †by 1880. cf. the v., 1, and SQUEAL.

squeak

*, v. To turn informer: c.: C.18–20; ob. A New Canting Dict., 1725; Ainsworth. cf. SQUEAL. Ex: 2. To confess (v.i.): s.: late C.17–20; ob. In C.19–20, rare except as in sense 1. Dryden, 1690, ‘Put a civil question to him upon the rack, and he squeaks, I warrant him.’

squeak beef

*. To cry ‘Stop thief!': c.: late C.17–early 19.

squeak on

*. The v.t. form of SQUEAK, v., 2.

squeak than wool, more

, see WOOL, MORE SQUEAK THAN.

squeaker

. A pot-boy: ca 1670–1830. 2. A child; esp. a bastard: from ca 1670. cf. SQUEALER, 2. 3. A youngster: nautical: mid-C.18–19. Bowen, who notes that in the training-ship Conway it designates a mizzen-top cadet (late C.19–20). John Masefield, however, in his history of the Conway (1933), defines it as ‘a small, noisy cadet’—not that the definitions are mutually exclusive! Comparable is the late C.19–20 Public School sense, a boy in the lowest form. 4. A BLAB; an informer, esp. to the police: C.19–20. cf. SQUEAK, n. 5. A foxhound: sporting: 1828 (O.E.D.). 6. A pig, esp. if young: coll: from ca 1860. 7. A heavy blow: 1877: s. >, ca 1890, coll; ob. Ex effect. 8. See SQUEAKERS. 9. An Australian coll name applied to various birds from their cries: 1848, J.Gould, The Birds of Australia. 10. A cicada: South African coll (mostly juvenile): from the 1890s. Its ‘cry’ is hardly a squeak. 11. A tapioca pudding: nautical: late C.19–20.

squeaker, stifle the

.To get rid of a bastard: late C.17–20; ob. 2. Hence, in C.19–20, to procure abortion. Both senses, low s.; almost c.

squeakers

*. Organ pipes: c.: late C.18–20; ob.

squeal

*. An informer: Scots c. (–1823); ob. cf. SQUEALER, 1. 2. Bacon: late C.19–20.

squeal

*, v.i.; v.t. with on. To turn informer: c., orig. (–1864), North Country; but in late C.19–20 mainly U.S. cf. SQUEAK, v., 1.

squealer

*. An informer: c. (–1864). Ex SQUEAL, v. 2. An illegitimate baby: low s. (–1864). cf. SQUEAKER, 2. 3. A noisy small boy: Wellington (the English public school): late C.19–20. cf. SQUEAKER, 3.

squeegee

. Squeeze (n. and v.): (in C.20, low) coll: late C.18–20.

squeegee, all

. Very much askew: ca 1860–1910. Perhaps by corruption.

squeegee band

. An improvised ship's band: nautical: 1896, The Navy and Army Illustrated, 3 Oct. Ex the sound made by the squeegee (a rubber deckscraper) when vigorously used.

squeeze

*. The neck: c. (–1812); ob. Also squeezer. Ex squeezing by the gallows-rope. 2. Hence, the rope itself: c.: from ca 1830; ob. 3. Silk: c. (–1839). Also as adj. from ca 1870. Ex squeezeability into very small space. 4. Hence, a silk tie: c.: 1877 (O.E.D.). 5. Work, esp. in a crowd, e.g. stealing at a theatre: c. (–1864); ob. Perhaps ex: 6. A crowded assembly or (social) gathering: coll: 1799, Mrs Barbauld, 'There is a squeeze, a fuss, a drum, a rout, and lastly a hurricane, when the whole house is full from top to bottom.' 7. An escape, esp. if a narrow one: coll: 1875; ob. Ex squeeze by or past. 8. A strong commercial demand or money-market pressure: coll: 1890 (O.E.D.): trade and Stock Exchange. 9. An illegal exaction: Anglo-Chinese coll: from ca 1880. 10–12. Without date or quotation, F. & H. gives the following three s. senses: a hard bargain (from ca 1870); hence, a Hobson's choice (from ca 1880); a rise in salary (ca 1890–1910), this last because of the difficulty of obtaining it.

squeeze

. To bring into trouble: 1804 (O.E.D.); ob. by 1890.

squeeze, at (1897) or upon (1892; ob.) a

. At a pinch: coll.

squeeze-box

. A ship's harmonium: naval (–1909). Ware, 'From the action of the feet'.

squeeze-crab

. A morose or a peevish man: low (–1887).

squeeze-em-close

. Sexual intercourse: coll: mid-C.19–20.

squeeze-wax

. A surety: C.18–early 19. Ex sealing.

squeezer

*. The hangman's noose: c.: from ca 1830; ob. 'Father Prout' Mahoney. 2. Hence, the neck: c. of ca 1840–90. cf. SQUEEZE, n., 1. 3. (Gen. pl.) One of a set of cards with index values shown in the corners: from ca 1880.

squelcher

. A heavy blow, crushing leading article, etc.: coll: 1854, 'Cuthbert Bede', 'There's a squelcher in the breadbasket.' 2. Fig., e.g. in argument: from ca 1890; ob.

squib

. An apprentice PUFF, getting half the salary of a PUFF (one who, at a gaming-house, receives money with which, as a decoy, to play): ca 1730–1830: c. > s. > coll. 2. A gun: 1839, G.W.R.Reynolds; almost †. 3. A sweet in the form of a squib: coll: mid-C.19–20. Mayhew. 4. (Gen. pl.) A head of asparagus: London (mainly costers’): from ca 1850. Mayhew. Ex shape. 5. A paint-brush; gen. pl (–1864). 6. In Christ Church (Oxford) s., any member of the University not privileged to belong to ‘the House’: ca 1860–70.

squiffed

. Tipsy: late C.19–20; ob. Prob. ex SQUIFFY.

squiffer

. A concertina: rather low: prob. dating from ca 1890, for it was orig. a nautical term. Perhaps a perversion of squeezer: cf. dial. squidge for squeeze.

squiffy

. Slightly drunk: from ca 1873. 2. Hence, drunk, in any degree: from ca 1880. Kipling, 1900, ‘I never got squiffy but once...an’ it made me horrid sick,’ Prob. ex SKEW-WHIFF, perhaps on SWIPEY.

squilde

. A ‘term of street chaff’: London proletariat: 1895–6. A blend of a Christian and a surname, i.e. Oscar Wilde.

squint

, v. To lack (anything material): tailors': from ca 1870; ob.

squint-a-pipes

. A squinting person: from ca 1786; †by 1870.

squinters

. The eyes: boxers' and low: from ca 1860; ob. It may, however, have, orig., been Oxford University s. of ca 1760–1860. It occurs in the poem 'A Familiar Epistle' on p. 367 of The Gentleman's Magazine, May 1784.

squinting

. Being without a necessity or a requisite (e.g. food): tailors': from ca 1860.

squire

. A title prefixed to a country gentleman's surname and thus forming, very often, part of his appellation: mid-C. 17–20: S.E. until C.19, then coll. cf. SQUIRE, THE.

squire, stand

. To stand treat: coll: ca 1780–1850. cf.:

squire, the

. ‘A Sir Timothy Treat-all’, B.E.: late C.17–early 19. Sometimes amplified to squire of the company, as in Grose, 1st ed. cf. preceding entry. 2. A simpleton or a fool: late C.17–mid-18. B.E., who adds: ‘A fat Squire, a rich Fool’. cf., perhaps abbr. of squire of ALSATIA.

squire of Alsatia

, see ALSATIA. squire of the company, see SQUIRE, THE, 1.

squire of the gimlet

. A tapster: jocular coll: ca 1670–1800.

squire of the pad

, see PAD.

squire of the placket

. A pimp: jocular coll: ca 1630–1800. D’Avenant. With these squire terms, cf. the much larger KNIGHT group.

squirish

. Of ‘One that pretends to Pay all Reckonings, and is not strong enough in the Pocket’, B.E.: late C.17–mid-18. Ex SQUIRE, THE, 1. 2. Foolish: same period. See SQUIRE, THE, 2.

squirl

. A flourish in writing: dial. (ca 1840) >, before 1900, coll. Prob. ex squiggle and twirl.

squirm

. A small objectionable boy: Public Schools: from ca 1880; ob. cf. SQUIRT.

squirrel

. A harlot: late C.18–mid-19. Grose, 2nd ed., ‘Because she, like that animal, covers her back with her tail. Meretrix corpore corpus alit.’

squirt

. A paltry person; a contemptible person, esp. if mean or treacherous: coll: U.S. (–1848), anglicized ca 1875; common also in dial. cf. SQUIT. 2. Hence, at Public Schools, an obnoxious boy: from ca 1880. cf. SQUIRM. 3. A doctor; a dispensing chemist: from late 1850s; slightly ob. Ex squirt, a syringe. 4. Champagne: low: from ca 1870; ob. Ware, ‘Suggested by its uppishness’. cf. FIZZ. 5. A water-pistol: mostly boys’: from ca 1900.

squirt

, v.i. To blab: low coll: C.19. Prob. ex excremental sense.

squirt, do a squeeze and a

. (Of the male) to coït: low: C.19–20. Also squirt one's juice.

squish

. Marmalade: university (–1874), hence Public Schools'. Ex squishy, soft and wet, or squish, v.i., to squirt out splashily or gushingly. 2. At Winchester, from ca 1880, also and mainly, it=weak tea.

squit

. In the same sense as, and prob. cognate with, SQUIRT, n., 1: dial. (–1825), partly colloquialized ca 1880 (cf. Anstey, 1889, 'He's not half a bad little squirt'). Esp. a small cadet (Conway s.: late C.19–20).

squitters

. Diarrhoea: mid-C.17–20: S.E. till C.19, then dial.; in late C.19–20, also schoolboys' s. Cognate with squirt.

squivalens

. Extras; perquisites: Australian: ca 1870–1910. Perhaps ex equivalents.

squiz

. 'A brief glance', C.J.Dennis; a sly glance: (low) Australian. Ex squint+ QUIZ. (cf. swiz.)

squo

. Racquets played with a soft-ball: Charterhpuse: from ca 1880. Also in squoball and -court. By a slurring of squash, that game. (A.H.Tod.)

squob; squob up

, see SQUAB; SQUAB UP.

sres-wort; sreswort

. Trousers: back s. (–1859).

sret-sio

; sretsio. Oysters: back s. (–1874). H., 5th ed., where, of SPINSRAP; sret-sio; SRES-WORT; STARPS; STORRAC; STUN; STUNLAW, it is said that 'all these will take the s, which is now [i.e. there] initial, after them, if desired, and, as may be seen, some take it doubly.'

St

, see SAINT.

stab, 'stab

. Establishment, as in on (the) stab, in regular work at a fixed wage, as opp. to occasional piece-work: printers' (–1864).

stab

, v.i. s. or coll (?orig. c.), ca 1670–1780, as in Cotton's Complete Gamester: 'Stabbing,...having a smooth box and small in the bottom, you drop in both your dice in such a manner as you would have them sticking therein...the dice lying one upon another; so that, turning up the box, the dice never tumble...by which means you have bottoms according to the tops you put in.'

stab in the thigh

. To coït (with a woman): coll: C.19–20.

stab-rag

. A (regimental) tailor: military: from ca 1840. Punch, 1841. Also RAGSTABBER: mid-C.19–20, cf. PRICK-LOUSE.

stab yourself and pass the bottle

! Help yourself and pass the bottle: a theatrical c.p. (–1864); very ob. Ex dagger-and-poison melodrama.

stabber with a Bridport dagger

, see BRIDPORT DAGGER.

stable Jack

. A cavalryman: infantrymen's (–1909); ob.

stable-mind

. Devotion to horses: Society (–1909); ob. By a pun.

stable-my-naggie, play at

. To coït: C.19–20; ob.

Stable Yard, the

. The Horse Guards, Whitehall: Londoners' and Army: ca 1810–60.

stack

. To shuffle (a pack of cards) in a dishonest manner: C.20: coll. Ex U.S. (late C.19). 2. Hence, to take an unfair advantage: from ca 1905: coll.

stacks (of. the ready)

. Plenty of money: coll: late C.19–20. In the singular, stack, a quantity, is S.E. (unrecorded before 1894: O.E.D.).

staff, the worse end of the

. (Gen. preceded by have.) The disadvantage: coll: ca 1530–1890. One of the Coventry Plays, 1534; J.Wilson, The Cheats, 1664; North, 1740.

staff-breaker or -climber

. A woman: low: C.19–20. Ex such literary euphemisms as staff, staff of life, and staff of love. cf. allusive S.E. lance.

staff naked

. Gin: low (–1857). Perhaps a mere misprint for STARK-NAKED.

Stafford court, be tried or have a trial in

. To be (severely) beaten, greatly ill-used: coll: early C.17. Cotgrave. (cf. the late C. 14–early 15 clad in Stafford blue, blue-bruised by beating; either coll or merely jocular S.E.) Prob. ex:

Stafford law

. ‘Club’ law; violence: coll: late C.16–mid-17. Occ., as in ‘Water-Poet’ Taylor, Stafford’s law. Punning staff. cf. preceding entry.

stag

*. An infonner: c. (–1725) >, ca 1820, low s.; virtually †. Ex the animal; cf. STAG, TURN. 2. A professional bailsman or alibi-provider: c. of ca 1820–90. Perhaps ironically on ‘noble beast’. 3. Any such applicant for shares as intends to ‘sell immediately at a profit or, if no profit quickly accrues, is ready to forfeit the deposit money: commercial: 1846, Thackeray. Perhaps ex sense 1. 4. Hence, an irregular outside dealer: commercial: 1854. 5. A shilling; low s. (–1857); ob. Henley, 1887. cf. HOG. 6. See STAGDANCE, -MONTH, -PARTY, -WIDOW. 7. . See STAG, IN. 8. Sentry-go: military: late C.19–20. Prob. ex sense 1.

stag

*, v.t. To observe, watch, detect: late C.18–20: c. >, ca 1850, low s. (Also, from ca 1820, as v.i.) Ex the n., 1. 2. Hence, v.i., to turn informer (against): c.: from late 1830s. W.Carleton, 1839. cf. person); to cripple (him) financially; STAG, TURN. 3. To be severe towards (a refuse a loan to: from ca 1810. Daily News, 13 July 1870, ‘A man refusing..., his line was...“staggered”, and when he went for an advance it was resolutely refused.’ Ex sense 1. 4. v.i. and v.t., to beg (money); (–1860); ob. 5. v.i., to deal in shares as a STAG (see the n., 3 and 4): commercial: dun (a person): low s., perhaps orig. c. mid-C.19–20. Often stag it, as in Thackeray, 1845.

stag, in

. Naked: C.17 coll. Dekker, 1602. ?ex a stag's colour.

stag, the

. Nystagmus (a succession of involuntary eyeball-twitchings): miners': late C.19–20.

stag, turn

*. To impeach one's accomplices: c. (–1785) >, ca 1840, low s. Grose, 1st ed., 'From a herd of deer who are said to turn their horns against any of their number who is hunted'.

stag-book

. A book containing (gen. only) the names of bogus shareholders: commercial: 1854, Household Words. See STAG, n., 3.

stag-dance

. A dance with only men present: U.S. (–1848), partly anglicized ca 1870. cf. BULL-DANCE; STAGPARTY.

stag-mag

. A stage-manager; to stage-manage: theatrical: from ca 1880.

stag-month

. The month of a woman's lying-in: from ca 1870; ob. cf. the C.18 GANDER-MONTH; cf. also the next two entries.

stag-party

. A party of men: U.S. (1856), anglicized ca 1870. cf. STAG-DANCE.

stag-widow

. A man whose wife is lying in: from ca 1870. cf. STAG-MONTH.

stage-dooring

. Hanging about the scenes, or about doors reserved for actors: theatrical coll: from ca 1870.

stagger

*. A spy; a look-out: c. (–1859) >, ca 1880, low s. Ex STAG, v., 1. 2. An attempt: dial. (–1880) >, ca 1890, s. Esp. in telegraphers's. (–1895), 'a guess at an illegible word in a telegram', Funk & Wagnall.

staggering Bob

. A calf: Canadian and Australian: mid-C.19–20. Ex Irish and North Country dial.; semantically cf. QUAKING CHEAT.

staggers, the

. A drunken fit: coll: C.19–20. Ex have the staggers, to be unable to walk straight.

staggery

. (Of an animal) affected with staggers (1778); (of a person) apt to stagger; unsteady (1837, Dickens). Coll.

stagging

, vbl n.; ppl adj. See STAG, v., 5. Kingsley, 1849: both.

Staines, be at

. To be in pecuniary difficulties: ca 1810–50. Also, be at the Bush, in reference to the Bush Inn at Staines.

stairs!, on the

. A tailors' c.p. (from ca 1860) when a job is called for.

stairs without a landing, the

*. A treadmill: c.: ca 1880–1910. J.Greenwood, 1884, 'He's lodging now at Coldbath Fields—getting up the stairs without a landing.' cf. EVERLASTING STAIRCASE.

stake

*. A booty acquired by robbery, a SWAG (3); if large, a prime or a heavy stake: c. (–1812) >, ca 1850, low s.; ob. 2. Hence, same period, a valuable or desirable acquisition of any kind is a stake. 3. A (usually large) sum of money: Canadian coll: late C.19–20. 'He's made a stake in gold-mining.'

stake

, v. To give, or to lend for a long while, something to (someone): coll: late C.19–20.

stale

*. A thief's or sharper's accomplice, gen. acting as a decoy: ca 1520–1650: S.E. >, ca 1590, c., as in Greene and 'Water-Poet' Taylor. Ex stale, a decoy-bird. An early form of STALL.

stale bear or bull

. A BEAR having long been short of , a BULL having stock: Stock Exchange coll: from ca 1890.

stale drunk

, adj. Having been drunk at night and having taken too many spirit stimulants the next morning: from ca 1860.

stalk, the

. The gallows in Punch and Judy: showmen's: mid-C.19–20.

stalk a judy

. To follow (and accost) a woman: low: late C.19–20. cf.:

stalk the streets

. (Of either sex) to look for sexual satisfaction: late C.19–20; ob.

stalky

. Clever, cunning; cleverly or cunningly contrived: schoolboys': ca 1895–1900. Thus in Kipling's school-story. i.e. good at stalking.

stall

*. A pickpocket's helper, who distracts the victim's attention: c.: from ca 1590. Greene, 1591; Dekker. (Also stallsman.) Ex stall, a decoy-bird. cf. STALE. 2. Hence, the practice, or an act, of 'stalling', i.e. thus helping a pickpocket: c.: from ca 1810. Vaux, 'A violent pressure in a crowd, made by pickpockets'. 3. Hence, a pretext—or its means—for theft or imposition: from ca 1850: c. Mayhew. 4. Hence, any pretext or excuse; esp. a playing for time: from ca 1855. cf. STALL-OFF, n.

stall

*, v. To screen (a pickpocket or his thieving): c.: from ca 1590. Ex STALL, n., 1.: STALL OFF, and cf. STALL UP. 2. v.i., to make excuses, allege pretexts, play for time: from ca 1870. Ex the n., 3. 3. v.i., to play a role: theatrical: from ca 1860. Perhaps suggested by preceding sense. 4. v.i., to lodge, or to stay the night at, a public house: from ca 1855; slightly ob. Prob. ex dial. (in Shakespeare, S.E.) stall, to dwell. 5. v.i., to travel about: c.: ca 1840–90. 'No. 747'. Perhaps the imm. origin of sense 4. 6. See STALL ONE'S MUG and STALL TO THE ROGUE. 7. v.i., to hang about: grafters': late C.19–20. Ex senses 2 and 4.

stall, chuck (one) a

*. The same as STALL, v., 1: c.: from ca 1880. J.Greenwood in the Daily Telegraph, 30 Dec. 1881, republished in 1884.

stall, make a

*. To effect a robbery as in STALL UP: c. (–1812).

stall, put up a

, v.i. To mislead, to deceive, to hoodwink: lower classes' (late C.19–20) and military (C.20). Ex STALL, n., 4.

stall-off

*. An act of 'stalling off'; an evasive trick or story; a pretence, excuse, or prevarication: c.(–1812). Vaux; Mayhew. cf.:

stall off

*, v. See STALL, v., 1: c.: from ca 1810. 2. Hence, to avoid or get rid of evasively or plausibly: c. (–1812) >, ca 1850, s. 3. Hence, to extricate, free, get off (a person) by trickery or other artifice: c. (–1812) >, ca 1860, s.; ob. 4. Hence, or ex sense 2, to keep the mastery, maintain superiority, over (a competitor, be it horse, as orig., or man): sporting: 1883 (O.E.D.). Frequently stall off the challenge of (another horse in the race).

stall one's mug

. To depart; esp. hurriedly: c.: mid-C.19–20; ob. Gen. stall your mug!, a sharp order. Prob. ex STALL OFF, v., 2.

stall-pot

. (Gen. pl.) The occup

nt of a stall-seat: theatrical (–1909).

stall to the rogue; OCC. to the order of rogues

*. To install (a beggar) in roguery, appoint him a member of the underworld: c.: ca 1565–1840, but archaic after C.17. By itself, stall is rare; Fletcher, 1622, has ‘I...stall thee by the Salmon’—by the beggar’s oath—‘... To mand on the pad.’

stall up

*. To hustle, after surrounding, a person being robbed: c. (–1812). Vaux, who specifies the method whereby the victim’s arms are forced up and kept in the air. cf. STALL, v., 1.

stall-whimper

*. A bastard: c. (–1676) †by 1840.

staller

. A person constantly, or very good at, making excuses or playing for time: from ca 1870. Ex STALL, n., 3, via v., 2.

staller-up

*. One who acts as in STALL UP: c.: from ca 1810. 2. Hence, any accomplice of a pickpocket: c.: from ca 1820.

stalling

*. The ‘ordination’ and/or actual ‘ordaining’ of a beggar: c. (–1688); †by 1850. Randle Holme. See STALL TO THE ROGUE.

stalling-ken

*. Also, in C.16, staulinge, stawling-; in C.17, stawling-, stuling-. A house, office or room for the reception of stolen goods: c.: ca 1565–1840, but archaic after ca 1750. Here, stalling simply= placing.

stallion

. A piebald horse: circusmen’s: from ca 1860.

stallsman

*; incorrectly, stalsman. See STALL, n., 1.: c. (–1839); ob.

stam flash

*. To talk the s. of the underworld: c.: late C.17–early 19. See FLASH, n.; stam, unrecorded except in this phrase and ignored by the O.E.D., is prob. cognate with A.-S. stemn, a voice, via the stefne (steven) of M.E., which has occ. examples in -m- or -mn-; its imm. source is prob. either Ger. stimmen, to make one’s voice heard, to sing (cf. the lit. meaning of to cant, particularly significant for our phrase), or the corresponding Dutch v., stemmen.

stammel

. ‘A brawny, lusty, strapping Wench’, B.E.: late C.16–early 19. Deloney, 1597. Perhaps=‘wearer of a stammel’—coarse woollen—‘petticoat.’ The form strammel does not occur before C.18 and is gen. applied to an animal.

stammer. And stutter

*. Butter: c. of ca 1820–60. Ex its effect.

stammer and stutter

. Butter: theatrical rhyming s.: late C.19–20.

stamp

*. See STAMPS. 2. ‘A particular manner of throwing the dice out of the box, by striking it with violence against the table’, Grose, 2nd ed.: from ca 1770: dicing coll >, by 1830, j.; ob.

stamp-and-go

. A shanty sung for a straight pull along the deck: nautical: late C.19–20.

stamp-crab

. A heavy walker: late C.19– early 20; ob. On BEETLE-CRUSHER.

stamp-drawers

*. Stockings: c.: C.17– early 19. See DRAWERS and STAMPS.

stamp-in-the-ashes

. Some fancy drink: early C.16. cf. SWELL-NOSE.

stamp one's drum

*. To punch a hole in one's billy or kettle when it has become too old for further use; gen. as vbl n., stamping: tramps' c.: late C.19–20.

stampers

*. Shoes or boots: c.: from ca 1565; ob. Egan, 1828, 'My padders, my stampers, my buckets, otherwise my boots'. cf. STAMPS, 2. 2. Hence, feet: c.: ca 1650–90. cf. STAMPS, 1. 3. Carriers: c.: from ca 1670. Sporting Magazine, 1819, 'Coster-mongers, in all their gradations, down to the Stampers'; †by 1860. Hence in late C.17–18, deuseaville stampers, county or country carriers (see DAISYVILLE).

stamping-ground

. A field, a park, a byway, notoriously frequented for amorous dalliance: British Empire: late C.19–20. Ex the stamping and covering by stallions.

stamps

*. Legs: c.: ca 1565–1840. Because with them one stamps. cf. STAMPERS, 2. 2. Hence, shoes: c. (–1812); ob. cf. STAMPERS, 1. 3. Types, esp. in picking up stamps, composing: printers' s. (–1875). cf. stamp, a die.

stand

. A thief's assistant that keeps watch: c. of ca 1590–1640. Greene; 'Water-Poet' Taylor. Ex standing on watch: cf. STANDING. 2. An erectio penis: low coll: C.19–20. Ex the v. 3. A mouth-whore: low (?rather, c.): late C.19–20.

stand

, v. To make a present of; to pay for: coll: from ca 1825:1835, Dickens, '[He] "stood" considerable quantities of spirits-and-water.' 2. Hence, to pay for the drinks of (a person, or persons): coll: from ca 1840. 3. To make stand; set upright, leave standing; set firmly in a specified place, or position: 1837, Dickens: coll >, ca 1870, familiar S.E. e.g. 'stand a child in the corner'. 4. See STAND IN; STAND UP; STAND PAD: also See PATTER; RACKET; SAM; VELVET.

stand always!’, as the girl said

‘. A c.p., mid-C.19–20 (ob.), with a punning reference to priapism. Ex the physiological S.E. sense of stand.

stand and freeze

. Stand at ease: military jocular, rather than rhyming s.: from ca 1895.

stand at ease

! Cheese: military rhyming s.: late C.19–20. 2. Fleas: rhyming s.: late C.19–20.

stand bluff or buff

. To swear it is so; to stand firm; to take the consequences: late C.17–20; bluff, †by 1900; buff, ob. ‘Hudibras’ Butler; Fielding; Sheridan, 1777 (bluff: ?earliest record); Scott. See BUFF.

stand from under

. Thunder: theatrical rhyming s.: late C.19–20.

stand (one) in

. To cost (a person) so much, the sum gen. being stated: C.15–20: S.E. until ca 1850, then coll; in C.20, fashionable s. when not dial. Thackeray, 1848, ‘It stands me in eight shillings a bottle.’

stand on one’s hind legs

. To show temper: coll: late C.19–20.

stand one's hand

. To meet the bill (esp. for the company's refreshment or entertainment): coll: from ca 1880. H.Nisbet, 1892, 'I used to see her...“standing her hand” liberally to all...in the bar.' cf. STAND SHOT.

stand pad or (derivatively) Paddy

*. (Of a pedlar) to sell from a stationary position: tramps' c.: resp. C.18–20 and late C.19–20. Ex PAD, a road.

stand ready at the door

. To be handy for use: coll: mid-C.19–20; ob. Ex spade, axe, saddle and bridle, whip, standing there.

stand right under

! Clear out!: nautical coll (–1887). Ex nautical j. stand from under!

stand sam

, see SAM, STAND.

stand shot; rarely stand the shot

. Same as STAND ONE'S HAND: coll: from ca 1820. v.t. with to. cf. stand SAM and S.E. stand treat.

stand the bears

. To suffer: s.: Ned Ward, 1703.

stand the patter

, see PATTERN, STAND THE.

stand to sense

, see SENSE, IT STANDS TO.

stand-up

. A dance: low coll: 1851, Mayhew, 'It was a penny a dance..., and each stand-up took a quarter of an hour.' 2. A meal or a snack taken standing: coll (1884). cf. PERPENDICULAR, 1. 3. An act of copulation done standing: low coll: mid-C.19–20. Also a PERPENDICULAR (2) or KNEE-TREMBLER.

stand up

, v.i. To shelter from the rain: coll and dial.: 1887, ‘Mark Rutherford’.

stand up with

. To dance with: coll: 1812, Jane Austen, ‘If you want to dance, Fanny, I will stand up with you’; ob. 2. To act as bridesmaid or groomsman for: mid-C.19–20.

stander

*. A criminal’s, esp. a thief’s, sentinel: early C.17 c. Rowlands, 1610.

standing

*. A thieves’ station: c.: 1548, Latimer; †by 1590.

standing, take

. To accept composedly, endure patiently or without fuss: coll: 1901, The Free Lance, 27 April, ‘Like a philosophical American, he took it standing, merely remarking...’ Ex taking a high jump without a run up.

standing budge

*. A thief’s or thieves’ sentinel: c.: late C.17–early 19. B.E., ‘The Thieves Scout or Perdu’; Grose. cf. sneaking BUDGE.

standing dish

. Anyone who is constantly lunching, dining, or calling at a house': Society coll: from ca 1870; slightly ob. Ex the j. of cookery.

standing part

. 'The original structure of anything that has since been embellished, even down to a much-patched pair of trousers' (Bowen); nautical coll: late C.19–20. Ex the nautical j. senses.

standing patterer

. One of those men 'who take a stand on the curb of a public thoroughfare, and deliver prepared speeches to effect a sale of any articles they have to vend' (esp. broadsides), H., 1st ed.: London s. (from ca 1850), ob. by 1890, †by 1910; The Metropolitan Streets' Act, 1867, made it very difficult for them. Contrast FLYING STATIONER and cf. PAPER-WORKER.

standing prick has no conscience, a

. A low c.p. (mid-C.19–20) that, from its verity and force, has >, virtually, a proverb. In Nathaniel Field's Amends for Ladies, 1618, there is this arresting adumbration: 'O man, what art thou when thy cock is up?'

standing room for (a man), make

. To receive him sexually: low: late C.19–20. Whence understandings, a woman's conquests; ob.

standing ware

. A variant of STAND, n., 2: mid-C.19–20.

stang(e)y

. A tailor: low: late C.18–20; ob. (cf. PRICK-LOUSE.) Ex the needle: cf. stang, an eel-spear. 2. A person under petticoat government: rural (–1860). Ex the custom of riding the stang, where stang=a pole.

stap my vitals

! A coll exclamation or asseveration: late C.17–20; ob. Ex Lord Foppington's pronunciation, in Vanbrugh's The Relapse, 1696, of stop. In late C.19–20, occ. affectedly, stap me!

star

*. A 'starring the glaze'; the star, this practice: c. (–1812); ob. Vaux, 'A person convicted of this offence, is...done for a star.' See STAR THE GLAZE. 2. One who 'shines' in society; a very distinguished person: mid-C.19–20: mostly coll. 3. Hence, in late C.19–20, a famous actor or actress, esp. the most prominent one in any given play or film: coll. Ex the v., 2. 4. 'An article introduced into a sale after the catalogue has been printed: marked in the official copy by a star', F. & H.: auctioneers': from ca 1880. 5. In reference to the badge worn by first offenders: prison s.: 1882 (O.E.D.). e.g. star-class prisoners.

star

, v. See STAR THE GLAZE. 2. v.i., to act the leading part in a play: 1824 (O.E.D.): coll >, by 1860, S.E. Also, from 1825, star it: same status. 3. Hence, v.t., as in star the provinces, to tour there as the STAR (n., 3) of a dramatic company: 1850, Thackeray, ‘She...had starred the provinces with great éclat’: coll till ca 1870, then S.E.

star, good on the

*. (Esp. of a building) easy to open, i.e. burgle: c. (–1812). Also GOOD (1) ON THE CRACK (4).

star and garter!, my

; gen pl. A coll expression of astonishment: 1850, R.G. Cumming, ‘My stars and garters! what sort of man is this?’ Ex honorific decorations, and cf. my STARS!

star company

. A company with one star, and the rest mere nobodies: theatrical coll: ca 1884–1914.

star-gazer

. A penis in erection: C.18–20; ob. 2. A hedge whore: from ca 1780; ob. 3. A horse that, in trotting, holds its head well up: late C.18–mid-19. 4. An imaginary sail: nautical: from ca 1865; ob. Smyth; Clark Russell. Prob. suggested by nautical sky-scraper.

star-gazing on one's back, go

. (Of a woman) to coït; low: mid-C.19–20. Ex STAR-GAZER, 2.

star it

, see STAR, v., 2.

star-lay

*. Robbery by breaking windows: c.: from ca 1810; ob. Ex STAR THE GLAZE.

star-pitch

*. A sleep(ing) in the open: tramps' c.: from ca 1870. cf. HEDGE-SQUARE.

star-queller

. An actor whose imperfect acting mars that of better actors: theatrical: ca 1880–1910.

star the glaze

*. 'To break and rob a jeweller's show glass', Grose, 2nd ed.: c.: from ca 1786; ob. 2. Hence, to smash any window (or showcase) and steal the contents: c.: C.19–20; ob. Ex star, to mark or adorn with a star. cf. STAR, n., and STAR-LAY.

starboard fore-lift(, give a person a shake of one's)

. The right hand: nautical: mid-C. 19–early 20.

starbolic naked

. A corruption of starkballock naked, utterly naked: low (esp. Australian): since ca 1870.

starbowlines

. The starboard watch: nautical: mid-C.19–20; ob. cf. LARBOLIANS.

starch out of, take the

. (Of a woman) to receive sexually: low: mid-C.19–20. Ex the S.E. sense, to abase or humiliate, with allusion to the semen virile.

starcher

. A stiff white tie: late C.19–20; ob. Ex † starcher (starched cravat).

starchy

. Drunk: from ca 1870; ob. (Not upperclass s.)

stare, as like as one can (or could)

. Very like in appearance: coll: 1714, Gay, 'A fine child, as like his dad as he could stare'; Jane Austen. Ob.

stare-cat

. An inquisitive neighbour, esp. if a woman: women's; orig. U.S., anglicized ca 1902. cf. RUBBER-NECK.

stare like a dead (1694, Motteux) or a stuck (1720, Gay) pig

. To gape and stare in utter astonishment or dismay: coll: the former, rare and †by 1800; the latter (G. Parker, 1789; Joseph Thomas, 1895), actively extant, but considered, in C.20, as slightly vulgar. Apperson, who cites the Cheshire stare like a choked throstle and like a throttled cat or earwig.

starers

. Long-handled eye-glasses; a lorgnette: coll (Society >, by 1900, gen.): 1894, Anthony Hope, The Dolly Dialogues.

staring-quarter

. An ox-cheek: late C.18– mid-19. In dial., a ‘staring quarter’ is a laughing-stock.

stark-ballock naked

, see STARBOLIC NAKED.

stark-bol(l)ux

. Stark-naked: Australian: since ca 1890. Ex preceding.

stark-naked

. (Neat or raw) gin: low: 1820, J.H.Reynolds; almost †. cf. STRIPME-NAKED. 2. Occ. any unadulterated spirit: from late 1850s. 3. Hence, adj.: unadulterated: mid-C.19–20. All senses derive ex the notion of resultant poverty.

starling

. See BROTHER STARLING. 2. A marked man: police: from ca 1890. Because ‘spotted’ or starred, marked with an asterisk for future reference.

starn

, n. Stern: nautical coll (–1887). Ex dial.

starps

. Sprats: back s. (–1859). See SRET-SIO.

starrer

, see ANGLER.

stars!, my

. Good heavens!: coll: 1728, Vanbrugh & Cibber, ‘My stars! and you would really live in London half the year, to be sober in it?’ 2. See STAR AND GARTER. cf.:

stars, see

, see SEE STARS.

stars out

! A Conway cadets’ c.p. expressive of incredulity: ca 1900.

start

. The brewer’s procedure whereby he empties several barrels of liquor into a tub and thence conveys it, through a leather pipe, down to the butts in the cellar: late C.17–mid-18. 2. A prison: from ca 1820; ob. c. >, ca 1860, low s. Ex the Start, a C.18–19 nickname for Newgate Prison, either as starting-point of a personal ‘epoch’, or ex Romany stardo, imprisoned, and so cognate with STIR, prison. 3. A surprising incident or procedure: 1837, Dickens (QUEER START). Often RUM(MY) start: mid-C.19–20: cf. RUM GO. Ex the start of surprise.

start

, v.t. To beat with a rope’s end: naval: late C.18–19. 1825, W.N.Glascock. 2. ‘To apply a smart word to an idle or forgetful person’, Gentleman’s Magazine, 1825. i.e. to make him jump by startling him. 3. To begin to complain, scold, boast, abuse or reminisce: coll: C.19–20.

start in

, v.i.; v.t. with on. To begin work, one’s job (on or at): coll: U.S. (–1892), anglicized ca 1900. e.g. ‘I start in, Monday.’

start on

. To tease, jest at, bully: coll: late C.19–20.

start tack or sheet

, see TACK OR SHEET.

starter

*. A question: c.: late C.17–early 18. Because apt to make one start in surprise or dismay. cf. START, n., 3., and v. 2. A laxative. Its opposite is stopper, an astringent. These two terms, orig. undergraduates', date back to the 1890s. 3. One who frequently changes his occupation or his employer: ca 1810–80.

starting

. A reprimand; a beating: proletarian: from ca 1820; ob. Ex START, v., 1 and 3.

starvation

, adv. Gen. starvation cheap, as in Kipling, 1892 (the adv.'s first appearance in print): coll. Lit., so as to cause starvation: hence, excessively, extremely.

stash

*. To stop, desist from: c. (–1811) >, ca 1840, low s. >, ca 1870, s. Lex. Bal., 1811, 'The cove tipped the prosecutor fifty quid to stash the business'; 1841, Leman Rede, 'Stash your patter'—SHUT UP!—'and come along.' Prob., as W. suggests, ex STOW+squash: cf. Vaux at stash. Perhaps, however, it blends stop+ squash: Chignell. 2. Hence, to quit (a place): 1889, 'Rolf Boldrewood', 'The rest of us...stashed the camp and cleared out.' 3. See next three entries.

stash it

. Specifically, 'to give over a lewd or intemperate course of life', H., 1859; ob. 2. stash it! Specifically, be quiet!: ibid. See STASH, 1.

stash the glim

*. To cease using the light; to extinguish it: c. (–1823) >, ca 1840, low s.; †by 1890. cf. douse the GLIM. Ex STASH, 1.

stash up

. To terminate abruptly, as in the earliest record (H.G.Wells’ Tono Bungay, 1909), ‘She brought her [piano] playing to an end by—as schoolboys say—“stashing it up”.’ Ex STASH, 1.

state

. A dreadful state, esp. of untidiness, confusion, dirtiness: coll: 1879, F.W. Robinson, ‘Just look what a [dirty] state I am in!’ 2. Agitation, anxiety, state of excitement: coll: 1837, Marryat.

state, lie in

. To be ‘in bed with three regular harlots’, Grose, 1st ed.: ca 1780–1850.

state of elevation, in a

. A coll >, in late C.19, S.E.; very ob. As in Smollett, 1749, ‘We drank hard, and went home in a state of elevation, that is half-seas over.’

state tea

. A 'tea at which every atom of the family plate is exhibited': Society: ca 1870–1914. Ware, 'Probably suggested by State ball'.

state-the-case-man

. 'A pressed seaman whose protests were strong enough to bring an Admiralty order that he should be given a chance to state his case': naval coll: ca 1770–1840.

states can be saved without it

. A political, hence cultured, c.p. expressive of ironic condemnation: ca 1880–90.

states of independency

. The 'frontiers of extravagance', Egan's Grose: Oxford University, ca 1820–40.

station-jack

. A meat pudding used on stations: Australian coll: 1853.

stationery

. Free passes: theatrical: from ca 1880; ob. Ex synonymous PAPER, 2.

staulinge-, stawling(e)-ken

*, see STALLING-KEN.

stave-off

. A scratch meal: coll: from ca 1880. Binstead.

stay

. A cuckold: ca 1810–50. ?because he stays his hand.

stay

. To lodge or reside regularly or permanently: standard Scots (C.18–20) >, in late C.19, Colonial, esp. South African, Australian, and New Zealand.

stay, come to

. To become permanent, established, recognized, regularly used: coll: orig. (1863, Abraham Lincoln), U.S.; anglicized in late 1890s. Athenaeum, 13 April 1901, ‘Lord Byron as a letter-writer has come to stay.’

stay and be hanged

! A lower-middle class c.p. of C.19–early 20: ‘Oh, all right!’

stay out

. To stay in, esp. because on the sick list: Eton College (–1857). See esp. Brinsley Richards's and 'Mac' 's memoirs of Eton. By antiphrasis.

stay-tape

. A tailor: coll: ca 1780–1850. Ex the frequency with which that article figured in tailors' bills. 2. A dry-goods clerk or salesman: trade: mid-C.19–20; ob.

stay-tape is scorched, one's

. One is in bad health: tailors': late C.19–20.

staying

. For a day, a week, etc., as in 'They have staying visitors': non-aristocratic coll (–1887).

staysel

. A staysail: nautical coll (–1887).

'stead for instead

is coll in late C.19–20.

steady

. A steady admirer, wooer, of a girl (rarely vice versa): U.S. (ca 1899), anglicized by 1907.

steady the Buffs

! A c.p. of adjuration or of self-admonition: mid C.19–20: military. Of anecdotal origin.

steal

. A thieving; a theft; a thing stolen: Scots (–1825) >, ca 1890, coll. Saturday Review, 26 July 1890, 'This is an audacious steal from "In a Gondola"!'

steal a manchet or a roll out of tbe brewer's basket; gen. have stolen...

To be tipsy: coll: ca 1670–1820. Ray, 1678, manchet; Fuller, 1732, roll.

stealers, the ten

. The fingers: first half of C.17. Davenport, 1639. Ex Shakespeare's PICKERS AND STEALERS.

steam

. A trip or excursion by steamer: coll: 1854, Kingsley (O.E.D.). Ex nautical usage as in a few hours' steam away. 2. A dish cooked by steaming: coll (orig. military): 1900 (O.E.D.).

steam

, v.t. To convey on any steampropelled vessel: coll: 1901 (O.E.D.).

steam, keep up the

, see STEAMER.

steam ahead, away

. To put on speed: coll: 1857, T.Hughes, 'Young Brooke...then steams away for the run in'; ahead not before late C.19. Ex the motion of a railway engine or of a steamer.

steam-engine

. A potato-pie: Lancashire s. (–1864); ob. Prob. ex the steam it emits when properly served at table.

steam-kettle

. A steamer: sailing-ships' pejorative: mid-C.19–20; ob.

steam on the table, have

. To have a boiled joint—generally steaming—on Sunday: workmen's: late C.18–20.

steam-packet

. A jacket: rhyming s. (–1857).

steam-tugs

. (Bed-)bugs: from ca 1890.

steamboat man

, see SMOKE-STACK.

steamboating

, n. Cutting simultaneously a pile of books which are as yet uncovered: book-binders's. (–1875) >, by 1890, coll >, by 1910, j.

steamer

. A tobacco-pipe. A SWELL s., a long one: ca 1810–50. Bee, 1823, ““Keep up the steam or steamer,” to smoke indefatigably’. 2. Stewed kangaroo, flavoured with pork: Australian: late C.19–20.

steamer ticket

. A master mariner's certificate valid only on steamships: nautical coll: from ca 1880; ob.

steaming

. A steamed pudding: military (–1897). cf. STEAM, n., 2.

Stedman

, see PROMO.

steel, the

*. Any prison or lock-up: c. >, ca 1900, low s.: 1845, ‘No. 747’, p. 413 (steel); 1889, Thor Fredur, ‘He pitched into the policeman, was lugged off to the steel, ...and got a month’; but adumbrated in Lex. Bal., 1811. Ex the Steel, a nickname for Coldbath Fields prison, London, itself an abbr. of Bastille. cf. CHOKEY; LIMBO; QUOD; STIR. 3. A rare c. sense, viable only ca 1835–60, is that given by Brandon and ‘Ducange Anglicus’: the treadmill.

steel-bar driver or flinger

. A tailor; esp. a journeyman tailor: resp. ca 1850–90; ca 1780–1890. Prob. steel bar, a needle, is also s. of same period.

steel-nose

. Some kind of strong liquor: mid-C.17. Whitlock’s Zootomia, 1654.

steel-pen coat

. A dress coat: coll: 1873 (O.E.D.); ob. Ex the resemblance between the split nib and the divided coat-tail.

steep

. Excessive, esp. of price, fine or damages, taxes, and figures; hard to believe, exaggerated, esp. of stories: U.S. (1856), anglicized ca 1880. Baumann, ‘This sounds very steep’; Westminster Gazette, 22 April 1895, ‘This is rather a steep statement.’ cf. stiff (price) and tall (story).

steer

. A piece of information; mostly give a steer: nautical: from ca 1870.

steer a trick

. To take a turn at the wheel: nautical: mid-C.19–20.

steer small

. To exercise care: from ca 1800: nautical coll >, by 1900, j. Ex S.E. sense, ‘to steer well and within small compass’ (Smyth).

steerage hammock

. A long meat rolypoly (meat-pudding): nautical: late C.19–20.

steever

, see STIVER.

steevin

*. A rare variant of STEPHEN. Bee, 1823.

stems

. Legs: low: from ca 1860; ob.

step

. Gen. a good step (Sterne, 1768) or a tidy step (Blackmore, 1894); occ. a goodish step (–1888). A walking distance: dial. and coll: mid-C.18–20. 2. A stepfather or stepmother: coll: late C.19–20.

step

. To depart, make off, run away: coll: mid-C.19–20, though adumbrated as early as C.15. The variant step it occurs both in Mayhew, vol. III, and in H., 1st ed. 2. Hence, to desert: military: from ca 1870. 3. To clean one's own doorstep or others' doorsteps: coll: 1884; slightly ob. Ex doorstep.

step!, mind the

. A c.p. 'look after yourself!' to a parting visitor: from ca 1880. Ex lit. admonition, perhaps orig. to a drunkard.

step below

. To die: boxers's.: ca 1810–60.

step out

. To die: low: 1806, John Davis, The Post-Captain.

stephen; gen. steven

*. Money; esp. ready money: c. and low s.: ca 1810–50. Lex. Bal., ‘Stephen’s at home; i.e. he has money’; Ainsworth. Perhaps suggested by stever= STIV(V)ER. 2. Esp. in Stephen’s at home, the money’s there or ready.

stepper

*. A treadmill: prison c.: mid-C. 19–20; ob. Mayhew. cf. EVERLASTING STAIRCASE. 2. See STEPPERS. 3. A doorstep-cleaner, esp. a step-girl: coll: 1884. Ex STEP, v., 3. 4. A trotting horse: Cockney: 1899, C.Rook, The Hooligan Nights.

steppers

. The feet: 1853, Household Words. cf. STAMPERS, 2; STEPPER, 1.

stepping-ken

*. A dance-hall: late C.19–20: orig. c. and mostly U.S.

steps

. Thick slices of bread and butter, overlaying each other on a plate: London lower classes': mid-C.19–20; ob. cf. DOORSTEP.

steps, up the

*. At the Old Bailey: c.: late C.19–20.

stereo

. Stale news: printers' coll: from late 1880s. Ex stereotype.

stereo

, adj. Stereoscopic: from ca 1875: coll.

sterics, the

. Hysteria: a low coll abbr. of hysterics: 1765, Foote.

sterling

. Persons born in Great Britain or Ireland: Australian coll: ca 1825–1910. Peter Cunningham, 1827. Gen. in juxtaposition to the complementary CURRENCY.

stern

. The buttocks, esp. of persons: late C.16–20: mostly jocular, and since ca 1860 gen. considered a vulgarism. Furnivall, 1869, ‘We don’t want to...fancy them cherubs without sterns.’ 2. Also of hounds: hunting: mid-C.19–20.

stern, bring (a ship) down by the

. To overofficer (a ship): nautical coll: from ca 1835. Dana. Officers slept towards the stern.

stern-chaser; -post

. Resp. a sodomite, a penis: nautical: mid-C.19–20.

stern galley

. Posteriors: Conway cadets’: from before 1887.

steven

, see STEPHEN. stever, see STIVER.

stew

. (Great) alarm, anxiety, excitement: 1806, J.Beresford: coll >, ca 1905, S.E. In late C.19–20, esp. be in an awful stew. 2. A state of perspiration or overheating: coll: from ca 1890. Ex stew, to remain in a heated room (etc.). cf.:

stew

, v.i. To study hard: orig. and mainly school s.: 1866, Every Boy's Annual, 'Cooper was stewing over his books.' See STEW, n., 2; cf.:

stew-pot

. A hard-working student: gen. derisory: from ca 1880. Ex STEW, v.; the pun on the kitchen utensil was perhaps suggested by SWOT.

stewed

. (Not very) drunk: s. (–1874; virtually †) synonym with CORNED.

stibber-gibber

, adj. Given to telling lies: mid-C.16: ?c. Awdelay, 1561. ?origin.

stick

. See STICKS. 2. A sermon: late 1750s–early 1760s. ?because wooden. 3. A dull, stupid, awkward, or (in the theatre) incompetent person: C.19–20: S.E. until mid-C.19, then coll. Via wooden. 4. Quasi-adverbially as an intensive of alliterative phrases; esp. in stick, stark, staring (w)ld, 1839, Hood; mad, 1909, W. J.Locke). 5. Gen. the stick, esp. give (a child) the stick; (in C.20) get the stick, to be caned. A beating with a stick: coll: 1856, Charlotte Yonge. 6. A crowbar or JEMMY: c.: from ca 1870. Horsley, Jottings from Jail. 7. A candle-stick; a candle: silversmiths’: resp. coll and s.: late C.19–20. 8. A badly printed ink-roller: printers’: from ca 1870. 9. A mast; a spar: nautical coll: C.19–20. 10. Gen. the stick. A venereal disease: low: from ca 1880. 11. A variant form of STICKER, 4:1863; ob. 12. See BOARD, n., 2. 13. A ladder: builders’: late C.19–20. Jocular. 14. A log: Australian sawmills’: late C.19–20. Ex sense 9. 15. Penis: (?) C.17–20. cf. archaic Fr. verge.

stick

, v.t. (Of the man) to coït with: low: C.19–20. 2. v.t. (Mostly of persons) to continue long, remain persistently, in one place: C.19–20: coll until late C.19, then S.E. Of a cricketer, as early as 1832 (see STICKER, 4). 3. v.t., to put up with (things), tolerate (persons): 1899, ‘He could not “stick” his mother-in-law,’ Daily News, 26 Oct. Also stick it, to continue, without flinching, to do something: the phrase was used by soldiers in the Boer War (1899–1901), as J.Milne, The Epistles of Atkins, 1902, makes clear. ‘Appears to be a...variation on to stand it’, W. 4. To bring to a stand(still): incapacitate from advance or retirement: coll: 1829, Scott, in the passive as in gen.; Westminster Gazette, 14 July 1902, ‘The climber may easily find himself “stuck” on the face of a precipice.’ 5. Hence, to nonplus; puzzle greatly: coll: 1884, Literary Era, ‘You could not stick me on the hardest of them.’ 6. To cheat (a person) out of money or in dealing; impose illicitly upon: 1699; slightly ob. Blackwood’s Magazine, 1843, ‘They think it ungentelemanly to cheat, or, as they call it, “stick” any of their own set.’ Sometimes, esp. in the underworld, to desert: mid-C.19–20; esp. stuck by a pal. Also, stick with, to saddle (a person) with (anything unpleasant, sham, or worthless), e.g. with an inferior horse: 1900. 7. To settle (a matter); gen. stick a point: from ca 1890; ob. Lit., make it stick: cf. stay put. 8. To persuade to incur expense or loss; ‘let in for’: coll: 1895, J.G.Millais, ‘[He] publishes his work (at his own expense) and sticks his friends for a copy.’ 9. See STICK IT IN; STICK OUT, etc. 10. See STUCK ON. 11. (cf. sense 2.) Of a horse:. to refuse to start, to jib, to be obstinate: South African coll (–1891). cf. STICKS, 6.

stick, as close or full as (ever) it (he, they, etc.) can or could

. This coll phrase expresses crowding or repletion: 1776, G.Semple, ‘Piles...driven in as close together as ever they can stick’; 1889, ‘Rolf Boldrewood’, ‘She...was...as full of fun... as she could stick.’

stick, be high up the

. To be eminent in one’s profession or at one’s work: ‘So high up the stick, they have no time...to answer inquiries,’ Sir C.Morgan, 1818; †by 1890.

stick, cut one’s

. A variant (Barham, Dickens, De Quincey, Thackeray, Kingsley, Boldrewood), ob. in C.20, of cut one’s sticks: see CUT, v., 4.

stick, every

, see STICKS, 2.

stick, fire a good

. To be an excellent shot: shooting coll: from ca 1840. The stick is the gun or rifle; suggested by play a good STICK.

stick, get the

. To be, as the most smartly turned out man, excused guard-duty and made the guard’s orderly: Regular Army coll: late C.19–20.

stick, have the fiddle but not the

. To have the means but not the sense to use them properly: coll: C.19. cf.:

stick, play a good

. (Of a fiddler) to play well: 1748, Smollett; ob. Ex stick, a violin bow. 2. Hence, to perform, or play one's part, well at anything: coll: C.19–20.

stick, shoot for the

. To shoot with a view to a good bag, not merely for pleasure: sporting coll: 1834 (O.E.D.). Ex a tallystick.

stick, the wrong or right end of the

; gen. preceded by have or get. To have the advantage or the disadvantage in a contest or a bargain: coll: 1890, 'Rolf Boldrewood'.

stick a bust

*. To commit a burglary: c. (–1899).

stick a pin there

! Hold hard: coll: C.18. C.Hitchin, The Regulator, 1718.

stick and bangers

. A billiard-cue and balls: sporting: late C.19–20.

stick and lift

, v.i. To live from hand to mouth: low: from ca 1870; ob.

stick-and-string man

. ‘The old type of seaman, generally applied by a junior with a touch of envy’ (Bowen): nautical: late C.19–20; ob.

stick-at-it

. A persevering, conscientious person: coll: 1909, H.G.Wells.

stick away

, v.i. To hide (an object); v.i., to go into hiding: South African coll: late C.19–20. Hicks, The Cape as I Found It, 1900. cf. S.E. stick (a thing) out of the way.

stick-flams

*. A pair of gloves: c.: late C. 17–19. Perhaps a corruption of stick(-on-the)-FAMS (lit., stick-on-the-hands).

stick for drinks

. To win the toss to decide who shall pay for them: late C.19–20. An elaboration of STICK, v., 5; cf. ibid., 8.

stick-hopper

. A hurdler: athletic coll: late C.19–20; ob. See STICKS, 5.

stick in it, with a

. (Of a drink, esp. tea or coffee) with a dash of brandy: C.19–20. In late C.19–20, only Colonial and U.S. cf. Fr. du café avec.

stick-in-the-mud occurs as coll nickname as early as: Sessions, 7th session, 1733, ‘James Baker, alias, Stick-in-the-Mud’.

stick-in-the-ribs

. Thick soup (like glue): from ca 1870: not upper-class.

stick it

. See STICK, v., 3, and cf. STICK IT OUT. 2. A contemptuous exclamation to a person; ‘Oh, buzz off!’: low: late C. 19–20. i.e. up your anus.

stick it in or on

, v.i. To charge extortionately. v.t. stick it into, or, occ., on to: s. (–1821) >, ca 1880, coll: 1844, Dickens, ‘We stick it into B. ...and make a devilish comfortable little property out of him.’ See STICK, v., 5, and cf. RUSH.

stick it out

. To endure and go on enduring: coll: 1901, ‘Lucas Malet’, ‘It would be ridiculous to fly, so she must stick it out.’ A variant of stick it: see STICK, v., 3.

stick it up

. To cause a charge to be placed against one’s name, orig. (1864) in a tavern-score, hence (also in 1864) in gen.—i.e. to obtain credit—as in stick it up to me!, put it on my account! Coll.

stick-jaw

. A pudding or a sweetmeat that is very difficult to chew: coll: 1829, Caroline Southey. Occ. as adj.: late C.19–20: coll.

stick like shit to a blanket

. To be very sticky: low coll: late C.19–20.

stick man; stickman

*. The accomplice of a pair of women engaged in robbing drunken men; to him they entrust their booty: c. (–1861); slightly ob.

stick on

. See STICK IT IN.

stick on the price

, to increase it: coll: mid-C.19–20. H., 1st ed., ‘stick on, to overcharge, or defraud’.

stick one’s spoon in the wall

, see SPOON IN THE WALL. Stick Oneself up, see STICK UP TO BE.

stick out

. v.i., to be conspicuous; esp. too conspicuous: mid-C.17–20: S.E. until mid-C.19, then s. (mainly U.S.). Daily Chronicle, 3 Dec. 1902, “‘Of her’ is all very well ...but when it occurs too often it “sticks out”, as Mr Henry James would say.’ Esp. it sticks out a mile,

it's obvious: used absolutely or with that. 2. See STICK IT OUT. 3. To persist in demanding (e.g. money): coll: v.i., 1906; v.t. with for, 1902. 4. Hence, (v.t. with that) to persist in thinking: coll: 1904, R.Hichens, 'Do you stick out that Carey didn't love you?' Also stick (a person) out, to maintain an opinion despite all his arguments: coll: from ca 1905.

stick-slinger

*. One who, gen. in company with harlots, robs or plunders with violence: c. (–1856). Mayhew. cf. BLUDGER.

stick to

. To remain resolutely faithful to; or, despite all odds, attached to (a person or a party): C.16–20: S.E. until ca 1860; thereafter, coll; ca 1800–60, however, it was familiar S.E. 'Mrs Alexander' 1885, 'But I should have stuck to him through thick and thin.' 2. To refrain; hold (something) back: coll: 7 Feb. 1845, Sessions.

stick-up

. A stand-up collar: from ca 1855 (ob.): coll >, by 1890, S.E. 'Ducange Anglicus', 1857.

stick up

. See STICK UP FOR—TO—TO BE—STICK IT UP. 2. v.i., to stand firm in an argument: coll: 1858, Darwin, 'I admired the way you stuck up about deduction and induction.' 3. (v.t.) In Australia, to stop and rob (a person) on the road: 1846, J.L.Stokes: coll >, by 1880, S.E. Ex making the victim stick up his hands. 3a, Hence, to rob (a bank, etc.): 1888, Boldrewood: coll >, by 1890, S.E. 4. Hence, to demand money from (a person): 1890, Hornung: Australian coll >, by 1910, S.E. 5. To stop: 1863: Australian coll >, by 1890, 'standard'. 6. To pose or puzzle: 1896: Australian coll. 7. To increase

(the price or, in games, the score): from ca 1875. C.Sheard, in his song, I'm a Millionaire, ca 1880, 'Though some stick it up, now I'll pay money down'; F. & H., 1903, 'To stick up tricks (points, runs, goals, &c.)=to score'. 8. In cricket, to cause (a batsman) to play strictly on the defensive: coll: 1864, Pycroft: cf. STICK v., 4.

stick up for

. To champion (a person); defend the character or cause of: coll: U.S. (1830s) >, almost imm., British. 1835, Anon., A History of Van Diemen's Land; Anstey, 1882, "'Why, you are sticking up for him now!" said Tom...astonished at this apparent change of front.' cf. STAND UP FOR.

stick up to

. To oppose; esp. to continue offering resistance to: coll: from ca 1840: dial. till ca 1860, then coll. Contemporary Review, Feb, 1889, 'If there is no one who dare stick up to [the head boy], he soon becomes intolerable.'

stick up to be; OCC. stick oneself up to be

. To claim to be: coll: 1881, Blackmore, 'I never knew any good come of those fellows who stick up to be everything wonderful.'

stick wallah

. A man scheming to get the STICK, esp. one who habitually aims at this: Regular Army: late C.19–20. Perhaps ex S.E. button-stick.

stick with

, see STICK, v., 6.

sticker

. A commodity hard to sell: coll: 1824, Dibdin. cf. SHOPKEEPER, and see STICKY, adj., 2. 2. Hence (–1887), a servant whom a registry office has difficulty in placing. G.R.Sims. 3. A lingering guest: coll (–1903). 4. A slow-scoring batsman hard to dislodge: cricket coll: 1832, Pierce Egan, in his Book of Sports; 1888, A.G.Steel; 1903, W.J.Ford. 5. ‘A pointed question, an apt and startling comment or rejoinder, an embarrassing situation’, F. & H.: coll: 1849, Thackeray. Ex STICK, v., 5. 6. A sticking knife, fishing spear, gaff: coll: 1896, Baring-Gould. 7. A two-, three-, four-sticker is a two (etc.)-masted ship, esp. a schooner on the Canadian and American coast: nautical coll: late C.19–20. 8. A butcher: proletarian coll from ca 1840. 9. A paper-hanger: builders’: late C.19–20.

sticker-up

. One who warmly or resolutely defends (always for something): coll: 1857, Borrow in Romany Rye. EX STICK UP FOR. In Australia: 2. A rural method of cooking meat by roasting it on a spit: 1830, The Hobart Town Almanack: coll >, by 1870, S.E. And, 3, a bushranger: 1879, J.W. Barry: coll >, by 1890, S.E.; ob. Ex Australian stick up. cf. STICKING-UP.

sticking, or dead stick

. A contretemps in which all the actors get muddled: theatrical: from ca 1860; the former, very ob.

sticking-up

. The action of stopping (person or vehicle) on the road and robbing him or it: 1855, Melbourne Argus, 18 Jan.: coll >, by 1890, S.E. Ex Australian STICK UP (v.). cf. STICKER-UP, 3.

stickman

, see STICK MAN.

sticks

*. (Rare in singular.) Pistols: from ca 1786: c. >, ca 1840, s.; ob. by 1859 (H., 1st ed.); †by 1914, except in still extant SHOOTING-STICK (1890). Whence, stow your sticks!, hide your pistols. Ex shape. 2. Household furniture: from ca 1810: s. until C.20, then coll. Abbr. sticks of furniture. The singular is rare and, in C.20, ob.: 1809, Malkin, every stick, app. the only form. 3. Legs: 1829, Glascock. 4. The stumps: cricket coll (in C.20, S.E.): from ca 1840. 5. Hurdles: athletic coll: from mid-1890s. cf. STICK-HOPPER. 6. A horse that will not move; one that won't pull: South African coll (–1891). Bertram Mitford. Ex Cape Dutch steeks, used in the same way. 7. A drummer: military (–1909).

sticks, (as) cross as two

. Very angry: coll: mid-C.19–20; ob.

sticks, beat (1820)—rarely knock (Thackeray, 1840)—all to

. Utterly to overcome, clearly or completely to surpass: coll. Barham, ‘They were beat all to sticks by the lovely Odille.’

sticks, cut one’s

. To make off: see CUT, v., 4. cf. cut one’s STICK.

sticks, go to

. To be ruined: coll: ca 1842, Carlyle. Emphatically, go to sticks and staves, as in Susan Ferrier, 1824. Kingsley, 1855, has the variant go to noggin-staves. Lit., be smashed.

sticks, in quick

. Immediately; very quickly or rapidly: 1872, Besant & Rice, ‘You won’t pay her any more attentions, for you shall come out of this place in quick sticks.’ Prob. a fusion of STICKS, legs, and cut one’s sticks, see CUT, v., 4.

sticks, knock all to

, see STICKS, BEAT ALL TO.

sticks and stones

. One's household goods and possessions: proletarian coll: mid-C. 19–20.

stick(s) up

. To set up a boat's mast: nautical s.: stick, 1845, rare in C.20; sticks, from not later than 1888 (Clark Russell). Occ. fig. Ex stick, a mast.

stick's end, keep (a person) at the

. To treat with reserve: coll: 1886, Stevenson; ob. cf. wouldn't touch (him, it) with a BARGE-POLE.

sticks to, hold the; hold sticks with

. To compete on equal terms with: resp., dial. (ca 1817) >, ca 1860, coll; and coll (1853, Reade). Perhaps ex single-stick.

sticky

, n. (Not to be confused with S.E. stické, a game that, fusing racquets and lawn tennis, had a vogue ca 1903–13.) Lawn tennis in its first decade or perhaps its first three lustres: sporting and social. Ex sphairistiké, the game's original designation: invented, like its object, in 1874 by Major Wingfield. 2. Sealing-wax: from late 1850s. 3. Sticking-plaster: lower and lower-middle class coll: late C.19–20.

sticky

, v. To render sticky: coll: 1865, Mrs Gaskell, ‘I was sadly afraid of stickying my gloves.’ Not a common word.

sticky

, adj. (Of persons) wooden, dull; awkward: 1881, Mrs Lynn Linton. Ex STICK (3), a dull person. 2. (Of stock) not easy to sell: Stock Exchange: 1901, The Times, 24 Oct.: s. cf. STICKER, 1.

sticky-fingered

. Thievish; covetous: proletarian: from ca 1870.

stievel

*. A fourpenny piece: old c., says Baumann. But this may be a confusion with STIVER.

stiff

*. Paper, a document; esp. a bill of exchange or a promissory note: c. (–1823). (In ‘No. 747’ (a reference valid for 1845), an announcement-bill—a nuance app. †by 1900.) Hence, give (one) the stiff, to give (one) either of these documents; take the, or do a bit of, stiff, to accept a bill or a promissory note. 2. A forged bank-note: c.: late C.19–20; ob. 3. Ex sense 1, a clandestine letter: c.: late C.19–20. Griffiths, Fast and Loose, 1900. 4. A hawker’s licence: London c. or low s.: from ca 1890. 5. A corpse: U.S. (–1859), anglicized ca 1880. Medical students’ carve a stiff (dissection). Abbr. STIFF ’UN, 1. 6. ?hence, a horse certain not to run or, if running, not to win: the turf: from ca 1880. Abbr. STIFF ’UN, 2. 7. A wastrel; a penniless man: 1899, Daily Chronicle, 10 Aug. Perhaps orig. South African. Because cramped by lack of money. 8. Money: low: late C.19–20. 1897, ‘Ouida’, The Massarenes. Prob. ex sense 1.

stiff

, adj. Closely packed: late C.17–20: S.E. until C.19, then coll, but only in stiff with, densely crowded with: 1907, ‘There seemed...more yachts than ever, and the water was “stiff” with masts and rigging.’ 2. Certain to win: (esp. Australian) turf: late C.19–20. Prob. ex STIFF ‘UN, 2, by antiphrasis.

stiff, bit of

, see STIFF, n., 1.

stiff, bookmaker’s

. ‘A horse nobbled at the public cost in the bookmakers’ interest’, F. & H.: the turf: from ca 1880. See STIFF, n., 6.

stiff, cut up

. See CUT UP NASTY. Thackeray, ca 1885.

stiff and stout, the

. A penis erectus: low: mid-C.17–20; ob. Urquhart.

stiff-arsed

. Haughty; supercilious: low coll: mid-C.19–20. Ex stiff-rumped: cf. STIFF-RUMP; STIFF IN THE BACK.

stiff as a poker

. (Gen. of posture) very stiff: coll: 1797, Colman, Jr.

stiff blade

. A fellow-drinker: s.: from ca 1650.

stiff-dealer

*. A dealer in STIFF, n., 1.: c.: from ca 1820. ‘Jon Bee’.

stiff-fencer

. A hawkers of writing paper: London low: from ca 1850. Ex STIFF, n., 1.

stiff in the back

. Resolute; firm of character: coll: late C.19–20. ‘Anthony Hope’, 1897, ‘Are you going to let him off?... You never can be stiff in the back.’

stiff-lifter

. A body-snatcher: Yorkshire s. (–1904), not dial. Ex STIFF, n., 5.

stiff one

, see STIFF 'UN.

stiff or hard

? By promissory note or in hard cash?: commercial: from ca 1860.

stiff-rump

. A person haughty or supercilious; an obstinate one: coll: late C.17– early 19. Addison & Steele, 1709. cf. STIFFARSED; STIFF IN THE BACK.

stiff 'un; OCC. stiff one

. A corpse: 1823, Egan's Groser (one); 1831, The Annual Register. Also STIFFY. 2. A horse certain not to win: the turf: 1871, 'Hawk's-Eye', 'Safe uns, or stiff uns'. Also STIFF, n., 6; cf. DEAD 'UN; STUMER.

stiff upper lip, carry or have or keep a

. To be firm, resolute; to show no, or only slight, signs of the distress one must be feeling: coll: resp. 1837, ob.; 1887, very ob.; and 1852. App. orig. U.S., for the earliest examples of carry and keep are American.

stiffen

. To kill: 1888. 2. Hence to prevent (a horse) from doing its best: the turf: 1900, Westminster Gazette, 19 Dec.

stiffen it!, God

. A low oath: late C.19–20. Eden Phillpotts, Sons of the Morning, 1900. Lit., render it useless, destroy it; but gen. as a vague and violent expletive. cf. STIFFEN.

stiffener

. A blow that renders one unconscious: mid-C.19–20.

stiffy

. A corpse: late C.19–20. See STIFF, n., 5, and STIFF 'UN, 1.

stifler

*. Always the s.: the gallows: c.: 1818, Scott; ob. Hence, NAB THE STIFLER, to be hanged; queer the stifler, to escape hanging. 2. A camouflet: military: 1836: s. 3. A dram of strong spirit: Anglo-Irish: C.19. It takes one's breath away.

still

. A still-born infant: undertakers': from ca 1860.

still he is not happy

! A c.p. applied to one whom nothing pleases, nothing satisfies: ca 1870–75. Ware quotes the Daily Telegraph, 28 July 1894, as attributing it to a phrase often spoken in a Gaiety burlesque of 1870.

still sow

. 'A close, slie lurking knave', Florio: coll: late C.16–mid-17. Ex the proverb the still sow eats up all the draff. 2. A harlot: s.: Ned Ward, 1709.

stilting

*. 'First-class pocket-picking', J. Greenwood, 1884: c. ?a perversion of tilting, or a pun on stilting, the action of stilt-walking.

Stilton, the

. The correct thing: 1859, Hotten; virtually †. A polite variation of the CHEESE.

stim

. A stimulant, gen. of liquor: Society: 1882.

stimulate

, v.i. To drink alcoholic stimulants: C.19–20; S.E. until mid-1830s, then coll (mostly U.S.); except in U.S., †by 1930.

sting

, n. Penis: lowish: late C.19–20. cf. PRICK, 3.

sting

*. To rob; to cheat: c. (–1812); †by 1903. 2. Hence, to demand or beg something, esp. money, from (a person); to get it thus: late C.19–20. 3. (Also ex sense 1.) To swindle, often in a very mild way and gen. in the passive voice: late C.19–20. 4. Sting oneself, to get stung, is coll and surprisingly old: 1663, Tuke, ‘I’ve touch’d a nettle, and have stung my self.’

sting-bum

. A niggard: late C.17–early 19.

stingareeing

. ‘The sport of catching Stingrays, or Stingarees’: New Zealand coll: 1872, Hutton & Hector, The Fishes of New Zealand.

stinger

. Anything that stings or smarts: late C.16–20: S.E. until C.19, then coll, in such senses as a sharp, heavy blow (1823, Bee) or the hand that deals it (1855, Browning)—something distressing, such as a very sharp frost (1853, Surtees)—a trenchant speech or a pungent (or crushing) argument, as in late C.19–20.

stinger, fetch a

, see FETCH A STINGER.

stingo

. Strong ale or beer: from ca 1630; ob. except in the trade name, Watney’s stingo nips. Randolph, ca 1635; Ned Ward, 1703; Bridges, 1774; ca 1840, Barham (styngo); 1891, Nat Gould, ‘Host Barnes had tapped a barrel of double stingo for the occasion.’ Ex its ‘bite’+Italianate o. cf. BINGO. 2. Hence, as adj. (C.19–20) and, 3, fig. energy, vigour (late C.19–20: coll).

stingy

. (Of, esp. nettles) having a sting: coll: late C.19–20.

stink

*. A disagreeable exposure; considerable alarm: c. (–1812) >, ca 1850, low s. >, ca 1910, gen. s. 2. Hence, a ROW, or a fight: late C.19–20.

stink, kick up a

, see PEN AND INK, 3; cf. STINK, 2.

stink-car

. A motor-car: ca 1900–10. Sporting Times, 27 April 1901. Prob. ex STINKER, 4, on the analogy of stinkard.

stink-finger, play at

. To grope a woman: low: mid-C.19–20.

stink for a nosegay, take a

. To err egregiously, be very gullible: coll: late C.18– mid-19. Malkin, Gil Blas, 1809.

stink-pot

. See sense 3 of STINKER. 2. An objectionable fellow: late C.19–20. 3. A motor-car: ca 1898–1914.

stinker

. A stinkard, or disgusting, contemptible person: C.17–20: a vulgarism. 2. A black eye: c. (–1823); †by 1910. cf. sense 5. 3. Any of the ill-smelling petrels, esp. the giant fulmar: nautical coll (–1896). Also stink-pot (–1865). 4. Anything with an offensive smell: a vulgarism: 1898, a motor-car; 1899, a rank cigar—former in O.E.D.; the latter in C.Rook, The Hooligan Nights. 5. A heavy blow: London, esp. boxing, s.: 1821, Pierce Egan, Life in London.

stinkibus

. Bad liquor; esp. rank, adulterated spirits: C.18. Ned Ward, 1706; Smollett, 1771 (stinkubus). Spurious-Latin suffix on stink, cf. STINGO. 2. (Ex sense 1.) ‘A cargo of spirits that had lain under water so long as to be spoiled’, John Davidson, Baptist Lake, 1896: smugglers’: C.19.

stinking

. Disgusting; contemptible: C.13–20: S.E. until C.19, then a vulgarism. cf. STINKER, 1.

stinking

, adv. A late C.19–20 Scots (somewhat uncouth) coll, as in I’d be stinking fond, i.e. foolish, to do it, I should never think of doing it, I’d certainly not do it.

stinkious

. Gin: C.18. Perhaps ex STINKIBUS.

stinks

. Chemistry: universities' and Public Schools': 1869 (O.E.D.). Ex the smells so desired by youth. 2. By 1902, also Natural Science: ibid. 3. In late C.19–20, a teacher of, lecturer on, chemistry: Public Schools'.

stinky

. A farrier: military: from ca 1870. Ex burning of hair or hooves.

stipe

. A stipendiary magistrate: rural: from ca 1859.

stir

. An illiterate form of sir (in address): Scots: 1784, Burns; ob. cf. the slightly later Scottish stirra, sirrah. 2. A prison: mid-C.19–20: c. >, ca 1900, low s. Mayhew, 1851, 'I was in Brummagem, and was seven days in the new "stir"'; 1901, Referee, 28 April, 'Mr...M'Hugh, M.P. ..., has gone to stir...for a seditious libel.' Abbr. Romany stariben, steripen: cf. also Welsh Gypsy star, to be imprisoned, and stardo, imprisoned. (Much nonsense has been written about this word.) 3. A crowd: low: late C.19–early 20. Ex stir, bustle, animation: cf. PUSH. 4. Stew: military: late C.19–20. Ex the cooking-operation.

stir-shit

. A sodomist: low: C.19–20.

stir on, have plenty of

. To be wealthy: late C.19–early 20.

stir up

. To visit on the spur of the moment: lower classes' (–1909). Ware.

Stir-Up Sunday

. The last Sunday before Advent: dial. (–1825) >, ca 1860, coll. The appropriate collect begins 'Stir up, we beseech Thee, O Lord'; but, as the O.E.D. observes, 'the name is jocularly associated with the stirring of the Christmas mincemeat, which it was customary to begin making in that week.'

stirabout

*. A pottage of maize and oatmeal: prison c. (–1887). 2. Any pudding or porridge made by stirring the ingredients—generally oatmeal or wheat-flour—when cooking: lower classes' (–1909. Ware. Ex dial.

stirrup-oil

. A beating, esp. with a strap: jocular coll (–1676) bordering on S.E.: ob. except in the All Fools’ Day practical joke. Lexicographer Coles. Prob. suggested by stirrup-leather, an instrument of thrashing. cf. STRAP ’EM.

stirrups, up in the

, see UP IN THE STIRRUPS.

stitch

. A tailor: coll: from late C.17; very ob. cf. STITCH-LOUSE. 2. ‘Also a term for lying with a woman’, Grose, 1st ed.: low: late C.18–20; ob. 3. Elliptical for stitch of canvas: nautical, esp. naval, coll: since ca 1790; by 1850, S.E. W.N. Glascock, Sketch-Book, I, 1825, ‘Standing out on a wind, with every stitch they could crack’.

stitch-back

, Beer; strong liquor: ca 1690, B.E.; E. Ward, History of the London Clubs; †by 1800.

stitch-louse

. A tailor: 1838, Beckett; ob. Ex STITCH on PRICK-LOUSE. cf.:

stitch off

. To refrain from, have nothing to do with a thing; in the imperative, it= ‘keep off it!’: tailors’: late C.19–20. Ex tailoring j.

stitches, or S

. A sail-maker, esp. on board ship: nautical gen. as nickname: mid-C.19–20.

stitches, man of

. The same as STITCH-LOUSE: mid-C.19–20 coll. cf. preceding two entries.

stiver

. A small standard of value; esp. in not a stiver, not a penny: coll: mid-C.18–20. Ex stiver, a small Dutch coin. Other spellings: stu(y)ver, C.18; stuiver, C.19; ste(e)ver, late C.19–20, when the usual form; Yiddishly, shtibbur.

stiver-cramped

. Needy: coll: ca 1780–1850.

stiver’s worth of copper

. A penny: East London: late C.19–20.

stizzle

. To hurt: Tonbridge School: from ca 1880. 2. To cane (a boy): Tonbridge: since ca 1870. Marples, ‘Origin obscure’: ? a blend of stick+sizzle.

stoat

. A virile person, esp. male, and mostly in FUCK like a stoat, frequently and athletically: low coll: since ca 1870.

stoater

, see STOTER.

stock

. A stock of impudence; esp. a good stock: coll: late C.18–mid-19. Also absolutely.CHEEK. 2. As in LIVESTOCK.

stock

, v. To arrange (cards) fraudulently—i.e. to STACK them—may orig. (–1864) have been s. The O.E.D. classifies stocking, such manipulation, as s.: 1887.

stock-buzzer

*. A pickpocket of handkerchiefs: c. (–1861). Mayhew.

stock-drawers

*. Stockings: c.: mid-C. 17–early 19. See DRAWERS.

stock in, take

. Esp. large, etc., stock in, rarely of. To be interested in, have faith in, consider important: coll: 1878, Anon., ‘Taking large stock in Natural Selection’.

stock-in-trade

. The privities: coll: late C. 19–20. Punning the lit. sense.

stock of, take

. To scrutinize (gen. a person) with interest, curiosity, suspicion: coll (–1864). Ex S.E. sense, to evaluate, assess.

stockdol(l)ager

, see SOCKDOLOGER.

stocking

. A store of money: gen. a fat or a long stocking: dial. (–1873) >, ca 1875, coll. S.R.Whitehead, 1876, ‘She had a “stocking” gathered to meet the wants of an evil day.’ Ex a stocking used in preference to a bank. 2. See STOCK, v.

stocking crib

*. A hosier’s shop: c.: ca 1810–60. Ex CRIB, n., 3.

stodge

. Heavy eating; gorging: mostly schools’: 1894, Norman Gale, concerning a bowler at cricket, ‘Your non-success is due to Stodge.’ Ex stodge, ‘stiff farinaceous food’, and see STODGING. 2. Hence, a heavy meal: mostly schools’. 3. The crumb of new bread (–1899). cf. sense 1. 4. Any food: s.: from ca 1880. Ex senses 1 and esp. 2.

stodge

, v.t. To work steadily (at something, esp. if wearisome, dull, or heavy): coll: 1889 (S.O.D.). Prob. ex: 2. See STODGING. 3. To trudge through slush or mud; to walk heavily: dial. (–1854).

stodged

, ppl adj. Crammed with food: dial. and coll: from ca 1870. cf. STODGING.

stodger

. A gormandizer: s. or coll: late C.19–20. cf. STODGE, n., 1. 2. A dull and/ or spiritless person: coll: from not later than 1904. 3. A penny bun: Charter-house (–1900).

stodging

, vbl n. and ppl adj. Gormandizing: coll: late C.19–20. Ex STODGE, v.t., to gorge (oneself or another) with food; often in passive: dial. (–1854) >, by 1860, coll; the O.E.D., which considers it to have been always S.E., records stodge as v.i. only in 1911—but it occurs in Baumann (sich satt essen) in 1887. cf. STODGED.

stogy

, a coarse cigar, may, orig. in England (ca 1890), have been coll. Ex Conestoga, U.S.A.

stoll

*. To understand (e.g. stoll the PATTER): North Country c.: from ca 1860. ?a corruption of stall, to place, used fig. 2. v.i., to tipple: low s.: from ca 1880; ob. Whence stolled, tipsy. ?origin: perhaps cognate with rare Norfolk stole, to drink, swallow.

Stolypin's necktie

. 'The final halter': political: 1897–ca 1914. Ex a formerly well-known Russian functionary.

stomach, hot

, see HOT A STOMACH.

stomach on one's chest, (have got) a

. (To have) something lying heavy on one's stomach: jocular coll (–1887).

stomach thinks my throat is cut, my

, see THROAT (IS) CUT...

stomach-worm gnaws, the

. I'm hungry: ca 1785–1850.

stomjack, or stom Jack

. Stomach (n.): nursery sol. (–1887).

stone

. See STONES cf. STONE-FRUIT. 2. stone, kill two birds with one. See BIRDS. 3. A diamond: South African s. (1887). 4. the stone. Diamonds: late C.19–20: gemdealers' coll verging on j. A gem-trade proverb runs, 'When the stone goes well, all goes well.'

stone and a beating, give a

. To beat easily: racing s. from ca 1850 >, by 1900, sporting coll. Ex racing and athletics j., stone being a stone-weight.

stone-brig

, see STONE-DOUBLET.

stone-broke; ston(e)y-broke

. (Almost) penniless; ruined: resp. from before 1887 (Baumann) and now rare; 1894, Astley. The link between the two forms is provided by R.C.Lehmann's Harry Fludyer, 1890, 'Pat said he was stoney or broke or something but he gave me a sov.'

stone(-)doublet, jug, pitcher, tavern; brig, frigate

. A prison; orig. and esp. Newgate: -doublet—the exemplar—B.E.; Motteux, 1694; †by 1850; -jug—in C.19, the commonest, whence JUG—late C.18–19, Grose, 3rd ed., and Reade, 1856; -pitcher, ca 1810–60; -tavern, late C.18–mid-19, Grose, 3rd ed.; -brig and -frigate are both nautical (mainly naval), C.19, the latter recorded by Frank C.Bowen. Dial. has stone-house and, in 1799, U.S. has stone jacket.

stone-fence

. A drink of whisky with nothing added: ca 1870–1910. B. & L., at neat; at stone-fence, however, it is defined as 'brandy and ale'.

stone-fruit

. Children: low C.19–20; ob. Ex STONES; punning lit. sense.

stone-jug; stone-pitcher; stone-tavern

, see STONE-DOUBLET.

stone the crows

! An Australian expletive: coll: probably since mid-C.19.

stone under weight or wanting, two

. Castrated: punning coll: 1785, Grose (under weight, the wanting form not before C.19); ob.

stone (up) in the ear, take a

. To play the whore: late C.17–mid-18. Shadwell, 1691; ‘Facetious’ Tom Brown. cf. STONES.

stone-wall; stonewall

. Parliamentary obstruction; a body of Parliamentary obstructionists: 1876: Australian >, by 1898, New Zealand political s. cf. the C.16–17 proverb, it is evil running against a stone wall and:

stone-wall; gen. stonewall

. To play stolidly on the defensive: cricket s. (1889). Lit., to block everything as though one were a stone wall; but imm. ex S.E. stonewall, a cricketer doing this (1867). 2. In politics, v.i. and v.t., to obstruct (business) by lengthy speeches and other retarding tactics: Australian s. (from ca 1880) >, ca 1900, fairly gen. Ex the n.

stone(-)waller; stone(-)walling

, n. and adj. One who stonewalls (in sport, ca 1890; in politics, ca 1885); the act or practice of doing this and the corresponding adj. (in cricket, ca 1895; in politics, 1880), see the v.

stone wanting, two

, see STONE UNDER WEIGHT.

stones

. Testicles: C.12–20: S.E. until ca 1850, then—except of a horse—a vulgarism. cf. STONE-FRUIT; take a STONE (UP) IN THE EAR. 2. Diamonds: South African s. (1887, South African Sketches, by Ellis).

stones, off the; on the stones

. Outside London; in London: coll: ca 1830–80. Bulwer Lytton, 1841 (off the stones); Surtees, 1858, ‘They now get upon the stones.’ Ex the hardness of London streets.

stonewall

, see STONE-WALL. stoney, see STONY. stoney-broke, see STONE-BROKE.

’stonish

. To astonish: in C.19–20, gen. coll and mostly nursery.

stonnicky

. A rope’s end as an instrument for the inculcation of naval smartness: training-ships’: ca 1860–1910. Perhaps cognate with stunner.

stony

; less correctly, stoney. (Almost) penniless, ruined: from ca 1890. For earliest record, see STONE-BROKE. For semantics, cf. HARD-UP. cf.:

stony- (occ. stoney-)broke

. The same: see STONE-BROKE.

stoob(s)

. Boots: back s. (–1859). See SRET-SIO.

stook

*. A pocket-handkerchief: c. (–1859). 1893 P.H.Emerson (stooch). Prob. ex Yiddish: cf. Ger. Stück. Hence, stook-buzzer or -hauler, a pickpocket specializing therein. 2. Gen. in stook, in trouble: London proletarian of late C. 19–20. From Yiddish, where it means difficulties and is pronounced stooch.

stool-pigeon

*. A card-sharper's decoy: c.: from ca 1880.

stool's foot in water, lay the

. To prepare to receive a guest or guests: coll: ?C.18– mid-19.

stoop

*. Always the stoop. The pillory: c. of ca 1780–1840. Whence NAB (nap) the stoop, to be pilloried; stoop-napper, one in the pillory: both c.: same period. Ex the position therein enforced. 2. Catachrestic when used of a porch or a veranda: late C.18–20. Canada (and U.S.).

stoop

*, v.i. To become a victim to crook or criminal: c.: late C.16–early 17. Greene. 2. To set (a person) in the pillory: c. of ca 1810–40. Ex n., 1.

stooping match

*. ‘The exhibition of one or more persons in the pillory’, Vaux: c.: ca 1810–40.

stop

*. A police detective: c. (–1857); app. †by 1903. Ex action.

stop, on the

*. ‘Picking pockets when the party is standing still’: c.: mid-C.19–20. cf. STOP(-)LAY.

Stop-Hole Abbey

*. The chief rendezvous of the underworld: c.: late C.17–early 19. It was at some ruinous building in London.

stop(-)lay, the

*. Pocket-picking by two confederates, of whom one stops the victim and engages him in conversation and the other robs him: c.: mid-C.19–20.

stop my vitals

! ‘A silly Curse in use among the Beaux’, B.E.: coll: late C.17–18. Often STAP MY VITALS!

stop off

, v.t. To desist from, to cease doing or making: New Zealand: since ca 1880, ‘Stop that row, Tommy...stop it off.’ G.B.Lancaster, Sons o’ Men, 1904.

stop one’s blubber

*. A New Canting Dict., 1725, ‘I’ve stopt his Blubber...’ ‘I’ve done his Business. He’ll tell no Tales, &c.’: c.: C.18.

stop out

, v.t. To cover (one’s teeth) with black wax to render them invisible to the audience: theatrical coll: from ca 1870. Ex etching.

stop-out

, n. A person given to stopping out late at night: coll: late C.19–20.

stop the show

. To hold up the performance because of the loud, continuous applause for one's own acting: theatrical coll: late C.19–20.

stop thief

. Beef: rhyming s. (1859, H.); orig. (–1857), stolen meat, as in ‘Ducange Anglicus’, but not after 1870 at latest.

stop up

. To sit up instead of going to bed: coll: 1857, Mrs Gaskell.

stopper

. Something that brings to a standstill or that terminates: s. (1825, W.N.Glascock) >, in late C.19, coll. Esp. in clap a stopper on (‘that jaw of yours’, Marryat, 1830), and in put a or the stopper on, to cause to cease (Dickens, 1841): both s. >, ca 1890, coll. 2. See STARTER, 2.

stopper

, v.t. To stop: 1821, Scott, ‘Stopper your jaw, Dick, will you?’ cf. STOPPER, n., 1830 quotation. Ex lit, nautical sense.

stopping, hot

, see HOT-STOPPING.

stopping oyster

, see OYSTER, A CHOKING.

stops!, mind your

. Be careful: coll: 1830, Marryat, ‘Mind your stops...or I shall shy a biscuit at your head.’
Ex an injunction to a child reading aloud.

store

. ‘A bullock, cow, or sheep bought to be fattened for the market: 1874: Australian coll >, by 1900, standard.

storey, upper

, see UPPER STOREY.

storrac

. Carrots: back s. (–1859).

story

. A lie: a coll euphemism: ca 1697, Aubrey; Barham. Chiefly in to tell stories and what a story! 2. Whence, a STORY-TELLER: low coll and among children; esp. as you story!, you liar!: 1869. 3. See UPPER STOREY.

story-teller

. A liar: euphemistic coll: 1748, Richardson, ‘Wicked story-teller’.

story with, do the

*. To copulate with (a woman): prostitutes’ c.: C.18. Select Trials from 1720 to 1724, pub. in 1734.

stosh

*. A variant of STASH.

stoter; occ. stotor; also stoater and stouter

*. A sharp, heavy blow: late C.17– early 19: c. >, ca 1800, low s.: Motteux, 1694, stoater; B.E., stoter; stouter, 1769. Only H. and F. & H. record stotor. Ex:

stoter

, v. To fell heavily; hit hard: c.: 1690, D'Urfey; B.E., 'Stoter him, or tip him a Stoter, settle him, give him a swinging Blow'; †by 1750. Ex Dutch stooten, to push or knock.

stotious

. Drunk: s.: late C.19–20. An artificial word; cf. GALOPTIOUS.

stoupe

. To give up (v.i.): c.: C.18–early 19. Halliwell. Ex to stoop.

stout

, ca 1670–1700, was s. for strong beer. Swift; Johnson.

stout across the narrow

. Corpulent: coll: C.20; ob. Anon., Troddles, 1901.

stouter

*, see STOTER

stove-pipe (hat)

. A top hat, a CHIMNEY-POT: mid-C.19–20 (ob.); U.S. >, ca 1865, English. In late C.19–20, coll. Ex shape.

stove-pipes

. Trousers: 1863.

stow

*, v.i. To cease talking, to SHUT UP: c. (–1567); ob. by 1820, †by 1850. Harman, ‘Stow you, holde your peace’; B.E., ‘Stow, you have said enough’; Grose, 3rd ed., ‘Stow you, be silent.’ 2. Hence, v.t., to desist from: c. (–1676) >, ca 1800, low s. >, ca 1850, gen. s. Coles, 1676, ‘Stow your whids,...speak warily’; stow (one’s) jabber, 1806; stow (one’s) mag, 1857; ‘Ouida’, 1882, “‘Stow that, sir,” cried Rake, vehemently.’ Ob. Prob. ex S.E. stow, ‘to place in a receptacle to be stored or kept in reserve’. cf. STASH, and:

stow faking!; stow it

*! Stop doing that!, gen. as a warning in the underworld: c.: resp. ca 1810–1900; C.19–20, ob. See STOW. cf.:

stow magging and manging

*! Be silent!; lit., stop talking!: c. of resp. ca 1810–80, ca 1820–80. See MAG, v., and MANG. Bee, 1823, has the variant stowmarket!

straddle

, v.i. ‘In Sports and Gaming, to play who shall pay the Reckoning’, Dyche & Pardon, 1735; †by 1820.

straemash

is a mainly dial. variant of STRAMASH.

stragger

. A stranger: Oxford University undergraduates’: late C.19–20. By ‘the Oxford -er’.

stragglng money

. A sailor who overstays his furlough: nautical from ca 1800. Because he has money left.

straight

, n. See the adj. and in the STRAIGHT.

straight

, adj. (Of an utterance) outspoken; (of a statement) unreserved, certain: coll (–1887). Hence, straight talk, (a piece of) plain speaking: 1900. 2. Of persons or their conduct: honest, honourable; frank: coll: 1864 (O.E.D.). In C.16–mid-17, this sense was S.E., but ‘the present use...is unconnected.’ 3. Hence, (of any person) steady, (of a woman) chaste: coll: 1868, Lindsay Gordon, keep (one) straight, the chief usage. 4. (Of accounts) settled: coll: C.17–20. 5. See STRAIGHT FACE. 6. (Of spirits) undiluted, neat: Canadian coll: adopted, ca 1880, ex U.S.

straight

! Honestly!; it’s a fact!: low coll: 1890, Albert Chevalier; 1897, ‘Pomes’ Marshall, “‘If that isn’t a good ‘un,” the bookie cried, “I’ll forfeit a fiver, straight.””

straight, in the

. A rare form of straight, on the, behaving reputably or like a good citizen: from late 1890s. Edgar Wallace, 1900, ‘O the garden it is lovely—That’s when Jerry’s in the straight!’ Ex lit. sense, along a straight line. 2. Near the end: racing coll > gen. (–1903). Ex coming up the straight of a racecourse and making a final effort.

straight, on the

, see STRAIGHT, IN THE.

straight, out of the

. Dishonest; illicit, illegal: late C.19–20.

straight arm

, see MAKE A STRAIGHT ARM.

straight as a dog's hind leg

. Crooked: jocular coll: late C.19–20. cf. Swift's 'Straight! Ay, straight as my leg, and that's crooked at knee.' Contrast:

straight as a loon's leg

. Absolutely straight: nautical coll: late C.19–20.

straight as a pound of candles

. Very straight: coll: 1748, Smollett, 'My hair hung down...as...straight as a pound of candles'; ob. cf. the (C.19) Cheshire straight as a yard of pump water, applied to a tall, thin man, and Ray's (C.17–18) straight as the backbone of a herring, which may have been coll before being proverbial S.E. 2. Hence, very honest: coll: C.19–20; extremely ob.

straight drinking

. Drinking without sitting down—bar-drinking: London taverns': ca 1860–1905.

straight face; also keep one's face straight

. (To do) this as a restraint from laughing: coll: 1897, Spectator, 25 Sept., 'An expressive vulgarism... "with a straight face".'

straight from the bog

. A c.p. applied, in late C.19–20, to a crude Irishman.

straight from the horse's mouth

. (Of information, news, etc.) genuine, authentic, correct: sporting s. (since ca 1830) >, by 1900, coll.

straight-hair

. A convict: West Australian: ca 1840–70. 2. A West Australian: since ca 1870.

straight hooks

. A butchers' joke, e.g., on April the First: from ca 1860.

straight line, get on the

*. To get on the right scent or track: c. (–1887).

straight racket, on the

*. Living honestly: c.: from ca 1885; ob.

straight tip

, see TIP, STRAIGHT.

straight up and down the mast

. (Of weather) calm: Irish nautical (–1909).

straighten up

, v.i. To become honest or honourable: s. (ca 1906). Ex lit. sense, to assume an upright posture.

Straights (OCC. Streights), the

*. Jonson, 1614: †by 1700; prob. c. Perhaps ex straight, adj., or straits, n. Gifford, 1816, ‘These Streights consisted of a nest of obscure courts, alleys, and avenues, running between the bottom of St Martin’s Lane, Half Moon, and Chandos Street’; they were ‘frequented by bullies, knights of the post, and fencing masters’. cf. BERMUDAS.

strain hard

. To tell a great or hearty lie: coll: late C.17–18,

strain one's taters

. To make water: low: from ca 1880; ob. Ex the colour in which potatoes have been washed or strained.

stram, the

*. (Harlots') street-walking: c. >, ca 1900, low s.; ob.: 1887, Henley, 'You judes that clobber for the stram'. ?ex U.S. stram, to walk some distance (1869), influenced by STRUM, v., or strumpet.

stramash; also straemash

, very rare outside of dial. A disturbance; a rough-and-tumble: dial. (–1821) >, ca 1835, coll. Barham, ca 1840, former sense; Henry Kingsley, 1855, 'I and three other... men...had a noble stramash on Folly Bridge. That is the last fighting I have seen.' Ex Northern and Scottish stramash, to break, crush, destroy, itself perhaps ex stour (a disturbance)+smash.

stram(m)el

, see STAMMEL and STROMMEL.

strammer

. Anything exceptional, esp. in size or intensity; this and stramming, huge, great, are dial. >, ca 1850, coll. Ex dial. stram, to bang or strike: it is therefore one of the numerous percussive intensives.

strange

. Crazy; silly; stupid: Australian coll: late C.19–20.

stranger

. A guinea: low (–1785). Ex rarity. 2. A sovereign: from ca 1830: low.

strangle-goose

. A poulterer: ca 1780–1900.

strap

. A barber: mid-C.19–20. Ex †strap, a strop, +(Hugh) Strap, a barber in Smollett's Roderick Random, 1748. 2. Credit: dial. (–1828) >, ca 1880, s. Esp. on strap, occ. on the strap. Slightly ob.

strap

, v.i. To lie with a woman, esp. as vbl n. strapping: c.: late C.17–19. Prob. ex strapping (wench, youth, etc.). 2. To work, esp. if energetically, v.t., with at: from ca 1810; ob. Also with away (1849), and to (both v.i. and v.t.: mid-C.19–20). 3. v.t., to allow credit for (goods): dial. (–1862) >, ca 1890, s. Ex the n., 2.

strap-'em, oil of; strap-oil

. Often preceded by a dose of. A thrashing with a strap: C. 19–20. Halliwell, 1847, 'It is a common joke on April 1st to send a lad for a pennyworth of strap-oil, which is generally ministered on his own person.' On STIRRUP-OIL.

strap(-)hanger

. A passenger compelled, or occ. choosing, to hold on to a strap in omnibus, train, etc.: from ca 1904: s. Punch, 8 Nov. 1905.

strap-oil

, see STRAP 'EM.

strapper

. A very energetic or an unremitting worker: 1851, Mayhew, 'They are all picked men...regular "strappers", and no mistake.' Ex STRAP, v., 2. 2. Penniless: English and Canadian: late C. 19–20. Probably ex rural strap, to strip (a cow), hence to draw (anything) dry, hence (London) to work to the limit.

strapping

, vbl n. Lying with a woman: c.: late C.17–19.

straps

. Sprats: a modified rhyming (or, perhaps, back) s. that is low urban (–1909).

straw

, v.i. To do as in STRAWER, 1: London: mid-C.19–20; ob.

straw, one's eyes draw

. Grose's variation of STRAWS, DRAW; straw is rare.

straw, pad in the

, see PAD IN THE STRAW.

straw and t'other serves the thatcher, one eye draws

. He (she, etc.) is half asleep: coll: late C.18–mid-19. An elaboration of STRAWS, DRAW.

straw-chipper

. A barber: low: ca 1820–50. Moncrieff, 1823. cf. NOB-THATCHER.

straw-hat

. A Billingsgate fishwife: s.: Ned Ward, 1703.

Straw House

. The Sailors' Home, Dock Street, London: nautical: mid-C.19–20. Bowen, 1929, mentions that 'a century ago seamen were [there] given a sack of straw for their bed.'

straw-yard

, see STRAWYARDS.

strawberry

. A BRANDY-BLOSSOM or liquor-caused face-pimple: low (–1887).

strawer

. London s. > coll (now almost †) of mid-C. 19–20, as in Mayhew, 1851, 'The strawer offers to sell any passer by...a straw and to give to the purchaser a paper which he dares not sell...political, libellous, irreligious, or indecent.’ Ex STRAW, v. 2. A straw hat: schools’. cf. STRAWYARD, 2.

strawing

, vbl n., see STRAWER, 1.

straws, draw, gather, or pick

. (Of the eyes, not the person) to show signs of sleep: late C.17–20 (ob.): coll >, by 1850, S.E. Motteux (draw), Swift (draw), Grose (draw straw), Wolcot (pick), J.Wilson (gather). Both gather and pick are virtually †. cf. STRAW AND...

strawyard

. See STRAWYARDS. 2. A (man’s) straw hat: coll: late C.19–20; ob.

strawyard bull, like a

. A jocular reply (often amplified by full of fuck and half starved) to ‘How do you feel?’ or ‘How are you?’: low c.p.: from ca 1870; ob.

strawyarder

. A longshoreman acting as a sailor: nautical: mid-C.19–20; slightly ob. 2. Esp. (–1903), a SCAB on shipboard duty during a strike.

strawyards, the

. Night shelters (refuges, homes) for the destitute: the London poor: mid-C.19–20; ob. Mayhew, 1851.

streak; OCC. streek

. To go very fast: 1768, ‘Helenore’ Ross, ‘[She] forward on did streak.’ Gen. streak off (like greased lightning: 1843, Carleton); occ. streak away, as in Field, 25 Sept. 1886. s. >, in late C.19, coll. Prob. ex flashes of lightning. The form to streak it is U.S.

streak, like a

. With exceeding swiftness: late C.19–20. i.e. like a streak of lightning.

streak away

, see STREAK.

streak down

. To slip or slide down; to descend: s. (–1889): app. mostly South African. cf. STREAK, v.

streak of lightning

. A glass, gen. of gin, occ. of other potent spirit: mid-C.19–20; very ob. Ex its sudden effect.

streak of misery

. A tall, thin, miserable-looking person: coll: late C.19–20.

streaky

. Bad-tempered, irritated; irrit-able: from late 1850s; ob. H., 2nd ed. Perhaps suggested by U.S. streaked, disconcerted, annoyed (1834: Thornton). 2. Changeable; variable: coll: 1898, Bartram (of courage, weather): 1899, A.C.Benson (of additions to a building).

stream, the

. The fairway: an anchorage: nautical coll: late C.19–20.

Stream's Town

; or s.t. The female pudend: low: ca 1820–90.

streek

, see STREAK, v.

street, down or up

. Towards or in the lower or the upper end of the street: low: coll: 1876, Miss Braddon.

Street, Grub

, see GRUB STREET. street, key of the, see KEY. street, man in the, see MAN IN THE STREET.

street, not in the same (constructed with be and either as or with)

. (To be) far behind (lit. or fig.); much inferior to: s. >, ca 1910, coll: 1883, Mrs Kennard, comparing two race-horses.

street, not the length of a

. A small interval: s. (1893, O.E.D.) that, like preceding entry, was orig. sporting; cf. STREETS AHEAD.

Street, Queer

, see QUEER STREET.

street, up one's

. What one can do well, what one knows all about: coll: late C.19–20.

street-chanting

*. The practice of singing in the streets for a living: c. (–1887).

street-ganger

*. A beggar: c.: late C.19– early 20.

street-knocker, grin like a

. To grin like a CHESHIRE CAT: coll: from the 1830s. Prob. ex its brightness.

street-pitcher

. A vendor or a mendicant taking a station (or PITCH) in the street: from late 1850s; slightly ob. H., 1st ed., who adds the specific sense (†by 1890) of the ‘orator’ advertising various activities (e.g. ballad-singing) and, where relevant, selling illustrative broadsheets or booklets.

street-yarn, spin

. To walk about idly, gossiping from house to house: coll: mid-C.19–20; U.S., anglicized ca 1870; ob. cf. YARN.

street-yelp

. A c.p. of the streets: lower classes': 1884; ob.

streets, be in the

. A lower classes' coll variation (–1887) of walk the streets, to be a prostitute.

streets ahead (of) or better (than), be

. To be far ahead (of) in a race: from ca 1895. 2. Hence, to be much superior (to): 1898 (O.E.D.). Both s.

Streights, the

, see STRAIGHTS.

stretch

*. A yard (length): c. (–1811). Vaux, ‘Five...stretch signifies five... yards.’ 2. A year’s imprisonment, esp. with hard labour: c.: from ca 1810. Vaux; Haggart, Horsley, Edgar Wallace. Ex sense 1+a long stretch. Thus one, two, three (four, etc.) stretch=two (etc.) years’ imprisonment, as in Haggart, 1821, and J. Greenwood, 1888. See also QUARTER STRETCH.

stretch

, gen. v.i.; occ., in late C.19–20, stretch it. To exaggerate; tell lies: coll: from ca 1670. D’Urfey, Grose. cf. STRAIN HARD.

stretch leather

, v., see LEATHER, n., 2, and cf. LEATHER-STRETCHER.

stretch off the land, a

. A short sleep: nautical: late C.19–20. Ex a ship lying at anchor near land.

stretch one’s legs according to the coverlet

. To adapt oneself to (esp. one’s financial) circumstances: late C.17–18: coll >, by 1750, S.E.Bailey, 1736. Ex the very old proverb, whoso stretcheth his foot beyond the blanket shall stretch it in the straw.

stretched, has had his breeches

. (The boy) has received a thrashing: lower-class coll: mid-C.19–20.

stretched of one's mess

, see MESS, LOSE THE NUMBER OF ONE'S.

stretcher

. A university-extension student: university: late C.19–20; ob. 2. A layer-out of corpses: Anglo-Irish coll: late C.19–20. 3. A large membrum virile: low coll: 1749, John Cleland.

stretcher-fencer

. A vendor of trouser-braces: low: mid-C.19–20. Ex:

stretchers

. Trouser-braces: low: mid-C. 19–20. cf. preceding entry.

stretching

. Helping oneself at table without the help of servants: coll: from ca 1895.

stretching-bee, -match

. A hanging: low: resp. ca 1820–80 and ca 1820–1910.

stretchy

. Stretchable, elastic: coll: 1854. 2. Hence, too easily stretched, too elastic: coll: from mid-1880s. 3. Inclined to stretch one's limbs or to stretch and yawn; sleepy: coll: from ca 1870. cf. the C.17 proverb, stretching and yawning leadeth to bed.

'Strewth

! God's truth!: low coll when not deliberately jocular: 1892, Kipling, "Strewth! but I socked it them 'ard.'" Often pronounced drawlingly: ster-ruth.

strict Q.T., on the

, see Q.T.

stride-wide

*. Ale: c.: ca 1570–1620. Harrison's Description of England, 1577.

strides

. Trousers: theatrical (–1890). In which one strides; cf. STRIDE in C.19 tailoring j.

strike

*. A sovereign (coin) or its equivalent: c.: from ca 1700. 2. A stike or stick, a measure of quantity in small eels: incorrect: from ca 1670. 3. In curses: mid-C.19–20 coll. 4. A watch: c. (–1909). On the lucus a non lucendo principle.

strike

*, v.t. and v.i. To steal; to rob: c. of ca 1565–1750. Harman, Greene, B.E. 2. Hence, v.i., to borrow money: c.: C.17– early 19 (perhaps until late C.19). Mynshul, 1618. Esp. as vbl n., striking. 3. Hence, v.t. and v.i., to ask (a person) suddenly and/or pressingly for (a loan, etc.): low: mid-C.18–20; slightly ob. Fielding, 1751, ‘...Who in the vulgar language, had struck, or taken him in for a guinea’. cf. STING, v., 2. 4. v.i., to beg (also strike it): (low) Australian: from late 1890s; slightly ob. as strike. 5. Semantically ex sense 1: to open, as in strike a JIGGER, to pick a lock, to break open a door: c. (–1857). 6. As in Baumann’s ‘How warm you strike in here!’, the connotation is a timely and most welcome arrival: lower classes’ coll (–1887).

strike, make a

. To be successful; lucky: coll: from ca 1860. Ex strike, the horizontal course of a stratum (of gold, etc.).

strike a bright

. To have a bright idea: tailors’ and lower classes’ (–1909); ob. 2. To have a piece of good fortune: proletarian: from ca 1880; ob.

strike a hand

*. (Of a thief) to be successful on a given occasion: c.: late C.16–early 17. Greene, 1592. cf. STRIKE, v., 1.

strike a jigger

*, see STRIKE, v., 5.

strike a light

. To run up a tavern score: see LIGHT. 2. strike a light! A mild expletive: coll: from ca 1880. cf. STRIKE ME BLIND!

strike all of a heap

, see HEAP, STRIKE...

strike-fire

. Gin: 1725, G.Smith on distilling.

strike-me-blind

. Rice: nautical (–1890); slightly ob. Bowen, ‘From the old superstition that its eating affected the eyesight’.

strike me blind

! A (gen. proletarian) expletive: coll: 1704, Cibber. Also strike me dumb! (1696, Vanbrugh; †by 1890); ... LUCKY! (1849, Cupples);...silly! (–1860; very ob.);...pink!, mid-C.19–20; and strike me!, late C.19–20. These imprecations may be constructed with if or but. cf. STRIKE A LIGHT, 2, and the Australian strike me up a gum-tree! (from ca 1870).

strike-me-dead

. Small beer: naval: from early 1820s; ob. cf. STRIKE-FIRE. 2. Bread: military rhyming s.: from ca 1899.

strike me lucky!—pink!—silly!—up a gum-tree

! see STRIKE ME BLIND! For the first, see also LUCKY!, STRIKE ME.

strike oil

, see OIL, STRIKE.

strike one's breath or spit one's death

= to 'cross one's heart' in assurance of one's truthfulness, often with the gesture of licking one's thumb and drawing it across one's throat: Australian coll: late C.19–20.

strike—or give me the bill

! Mind what you're about: coll: ca 1660–1750. Walker, 1672. Ex injunction to man clumsy with this weapon.

striking

*, vbl n., see STRIKE, v., 1 and 2.

strill

. A lie with intent to cheat: North Country c. (–1864); ob. Origin? 2. A piano: Parlary: late C.19–20. Hence, strill OMEE or strill POLONE, a pianist male or female. It app. derives ex Italian strillo, a shrill cry, a piercing note, etc.: cf. Italian strillare, to shriek, to scream.

string

. A subject argued out; an argument (or logical résumé); a commodious set of syllogisms: Oxford University: C.18. Amherst, 1721; the O.E.D. records it also at 1780. Rarely in singular. Ex string, a continuous series. 2. A HOAX; a discredited story: printers': from ca 1890. Prob. ex STRING, ON A.

string

, v., see STRING ON.

string, brother of the

, see BROTHER...

string, feel like going to heaven in a

. To feel utterly and confusedly happy: coll: C. (?18–19). Lit., so happy that one would willingly die a martyr; in late C.16–18, go to heaven in a string (applied orig. to Jesuits hanged temp. Elizabeth) meant, simply, to be hanged, as in Greene and Ned Ward.

string, go to heaven in a

, see preceding entry.

string, on a

. Esp. have or have got (one) on a string, to HOAX, befool: coll: from ca 1810. ‘Pomes’ Marshall, ‘You can’t kid me...they’ve been having you on a string.’ Ex lead in, or have in or on, a string, to have completely under control. cf. STRING ON. 2. Hence, have (or keep) on a string, to keep a person in suspense for a long time: coll: late C.19–20. 3. get (one) on a string or line. See LINE, GET INTO.

string on

. To befool, to ‘lead up the garden path’, as, e.g. ‘You can’t string him on!’: from ca 1810. (Whence U.S. string, to HUMBUG.)

stringer

. A ball difficult to play: cricket: from ca 1890. Perhaps ex STRING ON. 2. In pl, handcuffs: 1893, Kipling.

strings on, put the

. To hold (a horse) back in a race, to ROPE him: turf: ca 1860–1900. Fraser's Magazine, Dec. 1863.

stringy-bark

. Australian as in A.J.Vogan, Black Police, 1890, 'Stringy-bark, a curious combination of fuisl [sic] oil and turpentine, labelled "whisky"'. Ex the: 2. adj. Rough or uncultured; also (and orig.) rustic, belonging to the bush: Australian coll >, ca 1900. S.E. (slightly ob.): 1833, New South Wales Magazine, 1 Oct., concerning inferior workmanship, 'I am but, to use a colonial expression, "a stringy-bark carpenter".'

strip

*. To rob (a house or a person); esp. to steal everything in (a house); to swindle (a person) out of his money: late C.17– mid-18: c. B.E., whose phrases are of the 'strip the ken, to gut the house' order, i.e. with direct object and no further construction. Ex strip...of, to plunder...of.

strip a peg

. To buy ready-made, or second-hand clothes: 1908; slightly ob.

strip-bush

. A fellow who steals clothes put out to dry after washing: either c. or low s. (–1864) ;ob.

strip-eel

. A fishmonger: s.: Ned Ward, 1700.

strip-me-naked

. Gin: from ca 1750. Toldervy, 1756. cf. STARK-NAKED.

strip (someone's) masthead

. To thrash: nautical: ca 1760–1840. Sessions, 1786 (8th session).

stripes; old s. or O.S

. A tiger: jocular coll: resp. 1909, 1885. 2. (Also stripey.) A sergeant of Marines: naval, esp. as a nickname: late C.19–20. Ex his badge of office.

stripped

. (Of spirits) unadulterated, neat: mid-C.19–20; ob.

strippers

. 'High cards cut wedge-shape, a little wider than the rest, so as to be easily drawn in a crooked game', F. & H.: gaming coll: from mid-1880s. See esp. Maskelyne, Sharps and Flats, 1894. Ex the manner of stacking, with a pun on impoverishment.

stripping law

*. The (jailers') art and/or practice of fleecing prisoners: c.: late C.16– early 17. Greene. cf. LAY, n., 2.

strive

. To write with care: Christ's Hospital: from ca 1870. Ex L. scribere, to write, via to SCRIVE, on strive, to try very hard.

strode a pot, as good as ever

, see PISSED, AS GOOD...

stroke, take a

. (Of the male) to coit: low coll (–1785); ob.

strolling mort

*. A pretended-widow beggar roaming the country (often with a RUFFLER), making laces, tape, etc., and stealing as chance favours her: c.(–1673); †by 1830. In C.17, often strowling m.

strommel

* (ca 1565–1840); also strummel (C.16–19), very common; stramel (C.18) and strammel (C.18–19); strommell (C17–18) and stromell (C.17); and strumil (C.18, rare). Straw: c. of ca 1565–1830. Harman, B.E., Grose (1st ed.), Scott. Perhaps via Anglo-Fr. ex Old Fr. estramer: cf. stramage, rushes strewn on a floor. 2. Hence, hair (prob. orig. of straw-coloured hair): c. (–1725); †by 1850, except in Norfolk. Ainsworth, ‘With my strummel faked in the newest twig’, done in the newest fashion. cf. STRUM, n., 1, and:

strommel- or strummel-faker

*. A barber: c. of ca 1810–40. Ex STROMMEL, 2.

strommel- or strummel-patch

*. A very contemptuous epithet for a person: late C. 16–early 17 c. Jonson, 1599, ‘The horson strummell patch’. Ex STROMMEL, 1.

strong

. (Of a charge or payment) heavy: coll: 1669; ob.

strong, be going

. To be vigorous or prosperous: coll: 1898, Punch, 22 Oct., ‘And though, just now, we’re going strong,|The brandy cannot last for long.’ Ex horse-racing.

strong, come it

. See COME IT STRONG; cf. go it STRONG.

strong, come out

. To speak or act vigorously or impressively; to ‘launch out’: coll: 1844, Dickens. cf. be going STRONG and:

strong, go it

. To act recklessly or energetically: coll: from ca 1840. cf.:

strong, pitch it

. To exaggerate; tell a TALL story: coll: 1841, Hood.

strong man, play the part of the

. To be whipped at the cart’s tail: low: ca 1780–1840. Grose, 1st ed., ‘i.e. to push the cart and horses too’.

strong on

. Laying great stress on: coll: 1883, ‘Strong on the proprieties’.

strong on, go

. To uphold or advocate energetically and/or emphatically: coll: 1844, Disraeli, “‘We go strong on the Church?’” said Mr Taper.’

strowling mort

, see STROLLING MORT.

struck

. Bewitched: dial. and coll: 1839, J. Keegan. In composition, struck with. cf. STRUCK so.

struck comical, be

. To be very astonished: low coll (–1828). cf. STRUCK.

struck on

. (Low) coll form of struck with, charmed by (orig. a person—of the opposite—gen. female—sex): from early 1890s.

struck so

. Struck motionless in a particular posture or grimace: from ca 1850: low coll. Mayhew.
Ex STRUCK, bewitched.

struck with

, see STRUCK.

strue

. To construe or translate: schools' coll: late C.19–20. 2. Hence, a 'construe': Shrewsbury School coll: from ca 1890.

struggle and strain

. A train: rhyming s.: late C.19–20.

struggle-for-lifer

. A struggler for life: s. or coll (—1895). Ex biological struggle for life, though imm. ex Daudet's struggle-for-lifEUR (1889). 2. Hence, one who, thus struggling, is none too scrupulous in seeking success: 1899; ob.

struggle with, I (etc.) could

. I could do with, I'd gladly take (e.g. a drink): lower classes' coll (–1887); ob.

strum

*. A wig: late C.17–early 19. Ex STROMMEL. A RUM STRUM is a long One. 2. A strumpet; a wench (if RUM, then handsome): c.: late C.17–early 19. 3. See STRAM.

strum

, v.i. and v.t. To have intercourse (with a woman): low: from ca 1780; ob. Semantically, to play a rough tune (on her). Possibly suggested by a pun on the n., 2.

strummel, s.-faker, s.-patch

*, see STROMMEL, etc.

strunt

. The male member: C.17. Middleton, in Epigrams and Satyres, 1608. Ex S.E. and dial. strunt, the fleshy part of an animal's tail.

strut like a crow in a gutter

, see CROW IN A GUTTER.

'Struth

! 'An emaciated oath', C.J. Dennis: low: late C.19–20. (God's truth!) Also 'STREWTH.

stub (or stubb)

. See STUBBS. 2. 'The lower part of a rainbow' (Bowen): nautical coll: mid-C.19–20; ob. An extension of the S.E. sense.

stub

, v. To kick (a football) about: Felsted: late C.19–20. Ex stub one's toe.

stub-faced

. Pitted with small-pox: late C.18–19. Grose, 2nd ed., where is the phrase the devil run over his face with horse stubs (horseshoe nails) in his shoes.

stubb

, see STUB, n.

stubble

. The female pubic hair: low: C.18–20. Whence, shoot over the stubble (or in the bush), to ejaculate before intromission, and take a turn in the stubble, to coït (both, C.19–20).

stubble it!; stubble your whids

'! Hold your tongue: c.: resp. late C.17–19 (B.E. and Lytton) and ca 1810–50 (Lytton). Prob. ex stubble, v.t., to clear of stubble.

Stubbs, put (a person) through

. To inquire from a financial agency whether a person's credit is good: commercial coll: late C.19–20. The firm of Stubbs was founded in 1836.

stubbs

*. Nothing: c. of ca 1810–1900. Ex stub, the end (of, e.g., a cigar).

stubs in his shoes

, see STUB-FACED.

stuck

. See FLY-STUCK. 2. Adversely affected; left in an unenviable position; penniless; grossly deceived; utterly mistaken: from ca 1863. cf. STUCK IN.

stuck, dead

. Utterly ruined or flabbergasted; wholly disappointed: low: from ca 1870.

stuck by

. Deserted or grossly deceived or imposed on by (esp. one's pal): low: from ca 1880.

stuck for

. Lacking; at a loss how to obtain: from ca 1870. Esp. stuck for the ready, penniless. cf. STUCK and dead STUCK.

stuck in

(e.g. one's calculations). Mistaken; also, at a loss concerning: from ca 1870. Prob. an elaboration of STUCK, 2.

stuck in the mud

. Cornered, baffled, nonplussed, stalemated: from ca 1880.

stuck on

. Enamoured of (gen. a man of a woman): late C.19–20: rare among upper classes. Ex U.S. sense, captivated with (things).

stuck on one's lines

. Having forgotten one's speech(es): theatrical coll: mid-C.19–20. Mayhew, III.

stuck pig

, see STARE LIKE A DEAD PIG.

stuck-up

. Unjustifiably ‘superior’; offensively conceited or pretentious: coll: 1829. 2. See STICK UP, v., 8.

stuckuppishness

. The n. of STUCK-UP: coll: 1853.

stud book, in the

. Of ancient lineage; esp. in Burke or Debrett; upper class: late C. 19–20.

studding-sails on both sides, (with)

. With a girl on each arm: nautical: late C.19–20; ob.

studify

, v.i. To study: illiterate coll: 1775, T.Bridges; †by 1850.

studnsel, stunsail or -sel

. Nautical coll (–1887) for studding-sail.

study

. To take care and thought for the convenience, desires, feelings of (a person); esp. to humour (him): coll: mid-C.19–20. Dickens, 1852; Mrs Carlyle, 1858, ‘With no husband to study, housekeeping is mere play’. Ex study the advantage, convenience, feelings, wishes, of (a person).

study up

, v.t. To study for a special purpose: coll: from ca 1890.

stuff

. Medicine: C.17–20: S.E. until mid-C.18, then coll. Moore, 1819, ‘It isn’t the stuff, but the patient that’s shaken.’ Also (ob. by 1890) doctor’s stuff, recorded in 1779 (O.E.D.). Ex stuff, ‘matter of an unspecified kind’. 2. Money, esp. cash: adumbrated by Bridges, 1772; definite in Sheridan, 1775, ‘Has she got the stuff, Mr Fag? Is she rich, hey?’; Nat Gould, 1891. Slightly ob. Perhaps ex stuff, household goods, hence personal effects. 3. Whisky, always the stuff (Croker, 1825) or good stuff (1861, Meredith): coll. Prob. ex sense 1. 4. Stolen goods (stuff or the stuff): c. and low s.: 1865, Daily Telegraph, 5 Nov. 5. ?hence, ‘contraband’ smuggled into gaol: c.: late C.19–20. Esp. tobacco (–1904). 6. Men as fighting material: coll: 1883, Manchester Examiner, 24 Nov., ‘The army of Ibrahim included a good deal of tougher stuff than the ordinary fellah of Egypt.’ 7. Often employed as a coll (mid-C.19–20) to connote vagueness in the speaker’s mind or intention, or to imply ignorance of the precise term or name. ‘Does he suspect? Or is this chance and stuff?’, R.L.Stevenson, The Wrong Box, 1889.

stuff, v.t.; stuff up

. To HOAX, HUMBUG, befool (cf. CRAM): ?orig. (1844) U.S., in form stuff up; English by 1859 as stuff. Slightly ob. Prob. ex stuff (a person) with. 2. Hence, v.i., ‘to make believe, to chaff, to tell false stories’, H., 1st ed.; ob. by 1890, †by 1900. 3. v.i., to be or to live in a stuffy atmosphere or place; to be inside when one could be in the open air: late C.19–20. 4. (Of man) to copulate with: low: late (?mid-) C.19–20. Ex upholstery. Hence the defiant c.p., go and get stuffed.

stuff,—and

. And such dull or useless matters: coll: late C.17–20. J.Lewis, ca 1697, ‘You pretend to give the Duke notions of the mathematics, and stuff’; 1774, Goldsmith, ‘Their Raphaels, Corregios [sic], and stuff’; 1852, Thackeray.

stuff, bit of

, see BIT OF STUFF. stuff, do one’s, see DO ONE’S STUFF. stuff, good, see STUFF, n., 3. stuff, hot, see HOT STUFF. stuff, know one’s, see DO ONE’S STUFF.

stuff on the ball, put

. To make the ball break: cricketers’: ca 1880–1905. For stuff we now say work and for put we prefer get: S.E.

stuffed monkey

. ‘A very pleasant close almond biscuit’: Jews’ coll, mostly London: from ca 1890. Zangwill.

stuffing out of

. See KNOCK THE BOTTOM ...But there are variants: beat...(1887, very ob.) and take...(1906, Lucas Malet): coll.

stuffy

. Angry, irritable; sulky; obstinate, ‘difficult’: U.S., anglicized ca 1895 as a coll; authorized by Kipling, 1898 (get stuffy).

stug

. Guts: back s.: late C.19–20.

stugging

. The rolling motion of a ship that is stranded: nautical coll: mid-C.19–20. Cognate with stog, to walk heavily.

stuling-ken

, see STALLING-KEN.

stumble

, see TRUCKLE-BED.

stumer; occ., in C.20, stumor; rarely stumour

. 'A horse against which money may be laid without risk', H., 5th ed., where spelt shtumer; racing s.: from ca 1873. This sense and this spelling were both ob. by 1904. In Glasgow sporting s., however, it is still applied to a horse that is losing. The word perhaps derives from Yiddish; but? cf. Swedish stum, dumb or mute. 2. Hence, a forged cheque or a worthless one (an 'R.D.'): 1890, Blackwood's (stumer). 3. Hence, or direct ex sense 1, a counterfeit banknote or a base coin: 1897, 'Pomes' Marshall (see quotation in next sense). 4. Hence (often as adj.), a sham; anything bogus or worthless: 1897, 'Pomes' Marshall, in a poem entitled The Merry Stumer, 'Stumer tricks ...stumer stake...stumer note... stumer cheque'.

stump

. A leg: S.E. except in the pl, when (in C.19–20, at least) coll, esp. in stir one's stumps, to walk or dance briskly: C.17– mid-18, bestir..., as in Jonson and B.E.; mid-C.17–20, stir..., as in Anon., Two Lancashire Lovers, 1640; 1774, Bridges, 'Then cease your canting sobs and groans, And stir your stumps to save your bones'; 1809, Malkin; 1837, Lytton. 2. Money: low s.: ca 1820–50. Ex stump, a small piece. cf. STUMPY.

stump

, v. To walk: from late 1850s. Gen. stump it, which in Lytton, 1841, means to decamp, a sense very ob and rare. Ex stump, to walk clumsily. 2. To beggar, ruin: dial. (–1828) >, by 1830, s. Esp. in passive, to be penniless, as in Sessions, Nov. 1834, and 'Pomes' Marshall, 1897, 'In the annals of the absolutely stumped'. Ex stump, to truncate, or perhaps (H., 1860) ex cricket. 3. See STUMP UP.

stump, pay on the

. To disburse readily and/or promptly: coll: late C.19–20.

stump it

, see STUMP, v., 1.

stump up

, v.t. To pay down, disburse: 1821, Egan (see quotation at RUBBISH); 1881, Blackmore. Rare. Ex stump up, to dig up by the roots. cf. PLANK, v., 3. 2. Hence, v.i., to pay up; to disburse money, FORK OUT: 1835, Dickens, ‘Why don’t you ask your old governor to stump up?’ 3. To exhaust (a horse) by strain: 1875, Reynardson: coll >, by 1900, S.E.

stumped

, adj., see STUMP, v., 2.

stumper

. Small cricket: Tonbridge School (–1904). At Harrow, stumps: coll. Ex stump-cricket.

stumps

, see STUMP, n., 1. 2. See STUMPER. 3. it’s (a case of) stumps with (us). (We) are lost, ruined: low (–1887), Ex STUMP, v. 2.

stumpy

. Money: low: 1821, Moncrieff; 1835, Dickens. Ob. Ex STUMP, n., 2, which was perhaps suggested by short of BLUNT (money). 2. A stumpy person; gen. as nickname: coll and dial.: mid-C.19–20. Ex adj. 3. Whence, a Thames sailing barge without a topmast: nautical coll: from ca 1870.

stun

. Nuts: back s. (–1859). See SRETSIO; cf. STUNLAW(S). 2. Stone (weight): sol. or, at best, low coll (–1887). cf. PUN, 2.

stun

*, v. To cheat, swindle, as in stun out of the REGULARS, to defraud or deprive (a man) of his rightful share of booty: c.: late C.19–20; ob. Ex lit. sense of stun and perhaps influenced by STING, v., 1.

stung, be

, see STING.

stunlaw(s)

. Walnuts: back s. (–1859).

stunned on skilly, be

*. To be sent to prison and compelled to eat skilly: c. (–1859); †by 1900. cf. STUN, v.

stunner

. An exceedingly attractive woman (Albert Smith, 1848) or thing (1848, Thackeray, of the performance of a play); a person excellent at doing something (Thackeray, 1855, of a cook) or a thing excellent in quality or remarkable in size (from ca 1875): coll. cf. STUNNING.

stunners on, put the

. To astonish; confound: low (–1859). Ex STUNNER.

stunning

. Excellent, first-rate; delightful; extremely attractive or handsome: coll: 1849, Dickens (of ale); 1851, Mayhew (of a ring); of a girl, from not later than 1856, F.E.Paget, ‘The most stunning girl I ever set my eyes on’. Ex stun, to astound; cf. STUNNER and STUNNERS ON. cf. Fr. épatant, an exact semantic parallel. 2. Hence, clever, knowing: low coll (–1857); †by 1900.

stunning

. adv. Exceedingly: coll: 1845, in ‘The Stunning Meat Pie’, in Labern’s Comic Songs, was the line ‘A stunning great meat pie’. See the adj.

stunning Joe Banks

. ‘Stunning’ par excellence: low London: ca 1850–80. Ex STUNNING+Joe Banks, a noted public-house keeper and FENCE (fl. 1830–50), who, despite the lowness of his customers, was notoriously fair in his dealings with them.

stunningly

. The adv. of STUNNING: coll: mid-C.19–20.

stunsail, stunsel

, see STUDNSEL.

stunt

. An item in an entertainment: coll: 1901, Westminster Gazette, 31 Jan., ‘There will be many new “stunts” of a vaudeville nature.’ Ob. Ex U.S. stunt, an athletic performance, any (daring) feat, 1895, itself perhaps ex Ger. stunde, an hour or, more prob., ex Dutch stond, a lesson. 2. Hence, an enterprise undertaken to gain an advantage or a reputation: coll: it occurs in a letter of 17 Feb. 1878 from Samuel (‘Erewhon’) Butler to Miss Savage, ‘It was a stunt for advertising the books.’

stunt

, adj. In the senses of the noun: coll.

stupe

. A fool: 1762, Bickerstaffe, ‘Was there ever such a poor stupe?’; Blackmore, 1876. Coll >, ca 1900, dial. Ex:

stupid

. A stupid person: coll: 1712, Steele; 1860, George Eliot. Ex adj. 2. Bacon: Westmorland and Warwickshire s. (–1904), not dial.

stupid

, adj. Very drunk: euphemistic, mostly Anglo-Irish, coll: C.19–20.

sturaban or -bin

*. A variant of STURIBEN.

sturdy beggar

*. A beggar who rather demands than asks, esp.—or rather, only—if of the 5th (in C.18, the 50th) Order of beggars: c.: C.16–18. An underworld application of the other world’s gen. description.

‘sturiben or -bin; OCC. sturaban or -bin

. A prison: c.: ca 1855–1925, STIR being the usual C.20 word. A corruption of Romany stariben (steripen).

stush

*. A variant of STASH.

styx; Styx

. A urinal: Leys School (–1904). Ex the gloomy river.

sub

. A subordinate: coll: late C.17–20 (slightly ob.), but uncommon before Herbert Spencer’s use of it in 1840. 2. A subaltern (officer): coll: mid-C.18–20. Thackeray, 1862, ‘When we were subs together in camp in 1803’. 3. A subject: coll: 1838, Beckett, ‘No longer was he heard to sing,|Like loyal subs, “God save the King!”’; very ob. except in U.S. 4. A subscriber: coll: 1838, Hood. Rare and virtually †. 5. A substitute: cricketers’ coll: 1864. 6. A subscription: coll (–1904). 7. An advance of money, esp. on wages: coll: 1855. Ex subsist money (1835). 8. A sub-lieutenant: naval: coll: late C.19–20; cf. sense 2. 9. All: Anglo-Indian (–1864). cf. SUBCHEESE.

sub

, v.i. To pay, or receive, a SUB (n., 7): coll: from early 1870s. 2. From late 1890s, to pay (a workman) SUB. 3. v.i. and v.t., to sub-edit: coll, orig. and mainly journalistic: from ca 1890. 4. v.i., to act as a substitute (for somebody): coll: from late 1870s. 5. To subscribe: late C.19–20.

sub, do a

. To borrow money: proletarian: from ca 1865; ob. Ex SUB, n., 7.

sub-beau

. ‘A wou’d-be-fine’, B.E.: coll: late C.17–mid-18. Also demi-beau.

sub on one’s contract

. To raise a loan, using contract as a proof of ability to repay: theatrical: late C.19–20. See SUB, v., 1.

subaltern’s luncheon

. A glass of water and a tightening of one’s belt: coll: late C.19–20; ob. cf. SOLDIER’S SUPPER.

subby

. A sub-warden: Oxford undergraduates’: from ca 1870. 2. A subaltern: military: ca 1860–1910.

subcheese or sub-cheese

. Everything, all there is, the whole SHOOT: Indian Army: Forces in India: mid-C.19–20. Here, cheese is probably Hindustani chiz, thing: cf. CHEESE, THE.

sublime

, when ironical, is coll: late C.19–20. e.g. ‘sublime conceit’.

sublime rascal

. A lawyer: ca 1820–80.

subsee

. Vegetables: Regular Army: late C.19–20. Ex Hindustani.

substance

, see SHADOW.

subtle

. Drunk: s. (–1650).

subtle as a dead pig

. Very ignorant or stupid: coll: ca 1670–1720. Walker, 1672; Robertson, Phraseologia Generalis, 1681.

such

, adj. An intensive, the criterion being vague and/or ignored: coll: mid-C.16–20. Udall, ca 1553, ‘Ye shall not...marry... Ye are such...an ass’; 1900, W.Glyn, ‘...Where we stayed the night at such an inn!’

such, as

. Accordingly or consequently; thereupon: (rather illiterate) coll: 1721. W.Fowler, 1814, ‘[She] motioned for me to come to her Highness. As such she addressed me in the most pleasant manner possible.’ Ex as such, in that capacity.

such a dawg

! A theatrical c.p. (1888–ca 1914) applied to a tremendous MASHER.

such a few; such a many

. So (very) few; so (very) many: coll: from ca 1840; ob. Thackeray, 1841, ‘Such a many things in that time’.

such a reason my goose pissed or pissed my goose

. A c.p. retort on anyone making an absurd excuse, giving an absurd reason: late C.18–mid-19.

such a thing as...!, there is

. Look out for—!: a coll threat: late C.19–20. Ex the hint that since this thing exists it must be considered.

suck

*, Strong drink: c.: late C.17–early 19. Hence, RUM suck, excellent liquor. Ex suck, a small draught or drink. 2. A breast-pocket, says F. & H.; open to doubt. 3. A disappointing or deceptive incident, event, or result: U.S. (1856), anglicized ca 1890. Gen. suck-in, orig. U.S.; anglicized ca 1880. Ex SUCK IN, v. 4. A toady: university: from ca 1860; ob. Ex SUCKER. 5. See SUCKS.

suck

. The fellator's v. (i. and t.) and occ. n.: low coll: C.19–20.

suck-and-swallow

. The pudendum muliebre: low: C.19–20. cf. SUCKER, 3.

suck-bottle, -can, -pint, -pot, -spigot

. A confirmed drunkard or tippler: coll verging on S.E.: resp. mid-C.17–mid-18 (Brome), C.19, C.17–19 (Cotgrave), C.19–20 (ob.), and late C.16–17.

suck-casa

. A public-house: low: mid-C.19–20. Ex SUCK, n., 1+CASA.

suck-egg

. A silly person: dial. (–1851) > s. (–1890).

suck eggs, teach one's grandmother to

, See GRANDMOTHER HOW TO...

suck-in

, n. See SUCK, n., 3. 2. v., to deceive; to cheat: dial. (–1842) >, by 1850, s. (orig. U.S.; re-anglicized, as s., in late C.19). Ex suck in, to engulf in a whirlpool.

suck it and see

! A derisive c.p. retort current in the 1890s.

suck off

. A v. denoting the act of fellation: low coll: C.19–20.

suck one's face

. To drink: low coll: late C.17–mid-18.

suck-pint, -pot, -spigot

, see SUCK-BOTTLE. suck the monkey, see MONKEY SUCK THE.

suck the mop

. To be the victim of an omnibus ‘nursing’ exploit: ca 1870–80. See NURSE, v. 2. ‘To wait on the cabrank for a job’: cabmen’s (–1889); ob. Ware.

suck the sugar-stick

, see SUGAR-BASIN.

suck up to

. To insinuate oneself into another’s favour; to toady to: schoolboys’ s. (–1860). Kipling, 1900, ‘That little swine Manders...always suckin’ up to King’.

sucked that out of his (or her or...) fingers, he (etc.) hasn't

. He hasn't thought of that by himself—that's not his idea—he has authentic (or mysterious) information: c.p., mostly Cockney: late C.19–20.

sucker

. A parasite or sponger: U.S. (1856); partly anglicized ca 1890. 2. A GREENHORN; a simpleton: coll: U.S. (1857), partly anglicized ca 1895. 3. The membrum virile: low: C.19–20; ?ob. 4. A baby: lower classes' coll: C.19–20. 5. (Gen. pl.) A sweet: dial. (–1823) >, by 1870, coll. cf. SUCKS. 6. A lesbian; fellatrix: low coll: C.19–20.

suckey

, see SUCKY.

sucking Nelson

. A midshipman: nautical coll: from ca 1820; ob. Lit., immature N.

sucks

. Sweetmeats: coll: 1858, T. Hughes. (Lit., things to suck.) Also, collective singular, as in a knob of suck (1865). cf. SUCTION, 4.

sucks

! An ‘expression of derision’: Bootham School: also, and from ca 1890, at other schools. Often sucks to you.

suckster, suckstress

. A fellator, -trix: low coll: C.19–20; ob.

sucky

*. Ratherdrunk: late C.17–19; c. >, ca 1750, low s. Ex SUCK, n., 1.

suction

. The drinking of (strong) liquor; drinking: 1817, Scott. 2. Hence (–1887; nautical, says Baumann), strong drink. 3. The phrases power of suction, capacity for BOOZE (Dickens, 1837); live on suction, to drink hard (–1904). 4. Sweetmeats: Winchester: late C.19–20. cf. SUCKS.

sudden death

. A decision by one throw (not, e.g., by two out of three): 1834, Maginn. 2. A fowl served as a spatchcock: Anglo-Indian: 1848. 3. A crumpet or a Sally Lunn: university (–1874); ob. 4. Coffee: Cockney: late C.19–20; ob.

suds, in the

. In a difficulty; perplexed: from ca 1570: S.E. until C.18, then coll; in C.19–20, s.; very ob. Swift; Grose, 1st ed. 2. Fuddled; slightly drunk: ca 1765–80.

suck up

, see SEWED UP.

suet(t)y Isaac

*. Suet pudding: c. (–1904); ob. Also soapy Isaac. Ex sallowness.

suff

. Enough: New Zealand: from ca 1880. “‘I’ve ’ad suff o’ you, Tommy, I’m goin’ ‘ome’”: G.B.Lancaster, Sons o’ Men, 1904. Short for sufficient.

suffer much?, do you

. A c.p. of mock pity: late C.19–20; ob.

sufferer

. A tailor: low: from ca 1820; ob. ?ex patience. 2. A sovereign (coin): 1848, Sinks, †by 1900. cf.:

sufferin(g)

. A sovereign (coin): Cockney: mid-C.19–20.

suffering cats

! An agonized c.p. directed at bad, or very shrill, singing: from ca 1870. Ex caterwauling.

suffier

*. A (seeming) drunkard taking part in VERSING LAW (swindling with false gold): c.: late C.16–early 17. Greene.

Suffolk bang

. An inferior, excessively hard cheese: nautical coll: C.19.

Suffolk punch

, see PUNCH, n.

Suffolk stiles

. Ditches: coll: mid-C.17– early 18. Fuller, 1662. cf. ESSEX STILE.

sugar

. Money: low: 1862, Cornhill Magazine, Nov., ‘We have just touched for a rattling stake of sugar at Brum.’ Ex SUGAR AND HONEY. 2. A grocer: lower classes’ (–1909).

sugar

! A cry of triumph, uttered as one stands upon one leg and shakes the other up and down: ca 1830–70. Sinks, 1848. Victory is sweet.

sugar

, v.i. To shirk while pretending to row hard: Cambridge University rowing (–1890). 2. To tamper with (food); to fake (accounts); to give a specious appearance of prosperity to: from ca 1890. Prob. suggested by ‘cooking’ accounts and ‘salting’ mines (see COOK, SALT).

sugar and honey

. Money: rhyming s. (–1859). cf. SUGAR, n.

sugar-baby

. A child averse from going outside the house while it’s raining: domestic: late C.19–20.

sugar bag

. (A nest of) native honey; water sweetened with it: Australian rural coll: late C.19–20.

sugar-basin; sugar-stick

. The female, the male, pudend: low: resp., mid-C.19–20; late C.18–20. Ob. Whence suck the sugarstick, sexually to take a man.

sugar candy

. Brandy: rhyming s. (–1859); ob.

sugar (for the bird), little bit of

. A premium, a bonus; an unexpected benefit or acquisition: low: 1897–ca 1910.

sugar on, be

. To be much in love with (a person): non-aristocratic (–1887). Punning be SWEET ON.

sugar-shop

. ‘A head centre of bribery’, electioneering (–1909); ob. Ex SUGAR, n., 1.

sugar-stick

, see SUGAR-BASIN.

sugared!, I'm or I'll be

. I'm DAMNED!; it connotes (profound) astonishment or (great) perplexity: from ca 1890. Anon., Troddles, 1901. Euphemistic for buggered.

suicide

. Four horses driven in a line: Society and sporting: ca 1860–1900.

suit

*. 'Game', LAY (n., 2); method, trick; pretence; imposition: c. of ca 1810–50. 2. A watch and seals: c. of ca 1830–90. Ex S.E. suit, a complete set.

suit, birthday

, see BIRTHDAY SUIT.

suit, upon the

*. In the (specified) manner: see SUIT, 1.

suit and cloak

*. A ‘good store of Brandy or any other agreeable Liquor, let down Gutter-lane’, B.E.: c.: late C.17–early 19.

suit of mourning

. A pair of black eyes: ca 1820–80.

suite

*, see SUIT, 1.

sukey

. A kettle: low (–1823); ob. ?origin: cf. Welsh Gypsy šukar, to hum, to whisper. ?hence, 2, a general servant or SLAVEY: from ca 1820; ob. Ex Sukey, a lower-class diminutive of Susan, a name frequent among servants. 3. Hence, sukey-tawdry, a slatternly woman in fine tawdry: ca 1820–50. 4. Perhaps hence, a simpleton: mid-C.19–20.

Sullivanize (or ise)

. To defeat thoroughly: sporting: late 1880s–90s. Ex John L. Sullivan (1858–1918), that American who dominated the heavy-weights from 1882, when he won fame, until 1892, when Jim Corbett ended his career. In Oct. 1887 he visited England, where he was received by the Prince of Wales and idolized by the crowd. He battered his opponents into unconsciousness, the police often having to interfere.

sulphur

. Pungent or lurid talk: 1897: s. Slightly ob. Because sulphurous. cf. sense 2 of:

sultry

. Indelicate: 1887, Kipling, ‘Sultry stories’: s. 2. Hence (of language), lurid: 1891, ‘Sultry language’, O.E.D.: s. cf. SULPHUR. 3. Uncomfortable, lively, HOT: 1899, Conan Doyle, ‘I shall make it pretty sultry for you.’

sum

. An arithmetical problem to solve to which one must apply a rule; such a problem solved: coll: C.19–20. Dickens, 1838 has ‘Sums in simple interest’.

sum

! Adsum!: Public Schools’ coll: mid-C.19–20.

sumjao

. To warn, correct, coerce: Anglo-Indian coll: 1826. Ex Hindustani.

summat

. As ‘somewhat’, it is low coll (prob. ex the dial. use); as ‘something’, it is sol.: both, C.19–20.

summer-cabbage

. An umbrella, a parasol: fast life: ca 1810–45. 2. A woman: F. & H.; but is this so? If correct, of ca 1850–1900.

summerhead

. A sun-umbrella: Anglo-Indian coll: 1797. Corrupted sombrero.

sumpsy

. An action of assumpsit: legal: from ca 1860.

sun, have been in the; have, or have got, the sun in one’s eyes

. To be drunk: resp. 1770 and 1840, Dickens, have; have got not before ca 1860. Also have been standing too long in the sun (1874). cf. SUNSHINE. Ex sun-dazzle or -drowsiness.

sun, taste the

, see TASTE THE SUN.

sun-dodger

. A heliographer: military: 1900, Illustrated Bits, 22 Dec. Via sun-signalling.

sun-dog

. A mock sun: nautical coll verging on S.E.: from ca 1630.

sun over the foreyard, get the

. To drink before noon: nautical (–1904). Bowen defines sun over the foreyard as ‘the time by which a drink is permissible’; gen. the sun is over the foreyard. cf. have been in the SUN.

sun shines out of (someone’s) arse(-hole), think

. To regard almost with idolatry: low coll: late C.19–20, for certain; and perhaps since late C.16.

sunburnt

. Having many (orig. and esp., male) children: late C.17–early 19. Punning son. 2. ‘Clapped’ (see CLAP, v., 1): ca 1720–1890. Punning BURNED.

Sunday

. To spend Sunday (with a person): Society coll (–1909); ob.

Sunday, look both or nine or two ways for

, see LOOK NINE...

Sunday-afternoon courting-dress

. (Of servant-girls) best clothes: lower classes’ coll (–1887).

Sunday clothes on, the old man has got his

. A low c.p. indicating an erectio penis. In allusion to starched. From ca 1880.

Sunday face

. The posteriors: low: from ca 1860; ob.

Sunday flash togs

. (Of men) best clothes: low (–1880).

Sunday girl

. A week-end mistress: ca 1890–1915.

Sunday-go-to-meeting clothes and togs

. Sunday clothes: resp. coll (C.20) and s. (1894, Baring-Gould). By jocular amplification of Sunday clothes. cf. SUNDAY-AFTERNOON COURTING-DRESS.

Sunday man

. ‘One who goes abroad on that day only, for fear of arrests’, Grose, 1st ed.: from ca 1780; ob.: coll >, ca 1850, S.E. 2. A prostitute’s bully: low: from ca 1880. Because he walks out with her on that day.

Sunday out(, one’s)

. A domestic servant’s monthly or alternate Sunday free: from late 1850s: coll. (Orig. a servants’ term.)

Sunday promenader

, see ONCE-A-WEEK MAN.

Sunday saint

. One who, having been dissolute all the week, turns respectable and sanctimonious on Sunday: coll: from ca 1870. cf. Scottish Sunday face.

Sundayfied

. Suitable to Sunday; in Sunday clothes: coll: 1899 (O.E.D.).

Sundayish

. Rather like, or as on, Sunday: 1797: coll >, by C.20, S.E.

Sundays

, see MONTH OF SUNDAYS.

Sundays come together or meet, when two

. Never: semi-proverbial coll: from ca 1610; ob. except in dial. but cf. when two Sundays come in a WEEK: Haughton, 1616; Ray. cf. Shropshire the first Sunday in the middle of the week and St TIBB's EVE.

Sunderland fitter

. The Knave of Clubs: jocular North Country coll (–1847) Halliwell.

sundowner

. A tramp habitually arriving at a station too late for work but in time to get a night's shelter and a ration: Australian coll >, by 1910, S.E.: 1875, Miss Bird. 2. A drink taken at or about sundown: India, Singapore, the East Indies, Australia: late C.19–20.

sundowning

. This practice: Australian coll: from ca 1890. Kinglake.

sunk

. Ruined: mid-C.19–20: coll

sunny bank

. A good fire in winter: coll: late C.17–early 19. Ex the warmth, with pun on banking a fire.

sunny south

. The mouth: rhyming s.: 1887, Referee, 7 Nov.

sunshine, have been in the

. To be drunk: 1857, George Eliot. As early as 1816 in dial. See SUN, HAVE BEEN IN THE.

sunspottery

. The science of solar spots: astronomers' (–1887).

sup(e)

. A variant of SUPER, n., 1 (H., 1st ed.), 3 (1824, O.E.D.), 4 (–1904, F. & H.), and 6 (–1904, F. & H., esp supe and SLANG (n., 8), watch and chain).

super

. A supernumerary: 1853, 'Cuthbert Bede': theatrical s. >, ca 1880, coll. 2. A supernumerary on a ship, i.e. a supercargo: nautical s. (1866), >, ca 1890, coll. 3. Ex senses 1 and 2, a supernumerary in gen.: coll: from ca 1880. 4. A superintendent of a station: Australian and New Zealand s.: from ca 1850, >, ca 1900, coll. 5. A police superintendent, esp. in address: coll: mid-C.19–20. 6. (Also souper). A watch: c.: from late 1850s. Ware derives it from soup-plate, hence SOUPER, hence super. cf. SUPER, BANG A; SUPER-SCREWING.

super

, v. To be a SUPER, sense 1; often as vbl n., supering. 2. See SUPER LIST.

super

, adj. Superficial (in measurement; gen. after the n.): trade coll: 1833, T. Hook, ‘At so much per foot, super’. 2. Superfine: trade coll: from ca 1840. Bischoff, Woollen Manufacture, 1842.

super, bang a

*. To steal a watch by breaking the ring: c. late C.19–20. See SUPER, n., 6.

super list, be on the

. To be marked for supersession (Turley); more gen., be supered, to be superseded: at certain Public Schools: from the 1880s. Charles Turley, Godfrey Marten, Schoolboy, 1902, “‘I have been in Lower Fourth exactly four terms,’” he went on, “and my people are getting sick, and Sandy says I shall be ‘supered’ in a term or two.”

super-screwing

*. Watch-stealing: c. (–1859). Ex twisting handles off. See SUPER, n., last sense, and bang a SUPER.

supered, be

, see SUPER LIST.

supernacular

. (Of liquor) excellent: 1848, Thackeray; ob. Ex:

supernaculum

. A liquor to be drained to the last drop; excellent liquor; excellent anything: C.17–20; ob. W.King, 1704, ‘Their jests were Supernaculum’: Grose, 1st ed. (‘Good liquor’). Ob. Ex the adv. cf. SUPERNACULAR. 2. Hence, a draught that utterly empties cup or glass: 1827, Disraeli. 3. A full glass: mid-C.19–20; like sense 2, ob.

supernaculum, adv.; occ., C.16, -nagulum, -neg-, and, C.17, -naculum, -nagulum

. To the last drop: late C.16–20; ob. Nashe, 1592, ‘Drinking super nagulum, a devise of drinking new come out of France’. Ob. Ex the practice of placing one’s upturned glass on the left thumb-nail, to show that not a drop has been left: a mock-L. translation of the Ger. auf den Nagel (trinken). cf. Fr. boire rubis sur l’ongle. 2. Often elliptically, as in Cotton, 1664, and fig., as in Jonson, 1598, ‘[Cupid] plaies super nagulum with my liquor of life.’

supersnagative

. First-rate; splendid; excellent: Australians’ and New Zealanders’: from ca 1890; ob. Perhaps ex superfine on SUPERNACULAR, but prob. fanciful on superlative.

superstitious pie

. A minced or a Christmas pie: a Puritan or Precisian nickname: late C.17–mid-18. Because, by Puritans, made some weeks before Christmas.

supouch

*. An inn-hostess; a landlady: c.: late C.17–18. ?origin, unless ex sup, n.+ (to) pouch.

supper, give the old man his; supper, warm the old man's

. To confer the act of kind; to sit, skirts raised, before the fire. Low: late C.19–20.

supper, set one his

. To perform a feat that another cannot imitate, let alone surpass: coll (–1891).

supple both ends of it

. To abate a priapism: low Scots: late C.18–20.

suppose or I suppose

. Nose: rhyming s. See I SUPPOSE.

suppose or supposing

, introductory of a proposal or a suggestion, is coll: resp. 1779 and late C.19–20.

Surat

. An adulterated or an inferior article: coll (mostly Lancashire): 1863, The Times, 8 May; ob. Surat cotton is inferior to American.

sure

! Certainly!; with pleasure!; agreed!: coll: early C.18, in England, whence it fled to the U.S. Farquhar, in The Beaux' Stratagem, 1707.

sure!, be; I am sure!; you may be sure

! At end of sentence, these phrases when asseverative are coll: 1830, N.Wheaton, 'To all my inquiries... I only received for answer—"I don't know, I'm sure".'

sure, for

. As certain; for certain: indubitably: late C.16–20: S.E. until late C.19, then coll. Stevenson, 1883, 'Desperate blades, for sure'.

sure!, to be

. Of course!: mid-C.17–20: S.E. until late C.19, then coll. 2. Often concessively: admitted!; indeed!: coll: mid-C.19–20.

sure!,—well, I’m; well, to be sure

! I am surprised: coll: 1840, Thackeray, “Well, I’m sure!” said Becky; and that was all she said’; well, to be sure!, app. not before late C.19.

sure and..., be

. (Only in infinitive or imperative.) To be careful to; not to fail to: coll: from ca 1890. ‘Be sure and look!’

sure as..., as

. Very sure. Of these phrases prob. only those are coll of which the criterion-member or the gen. tone is familiar S.E. or coll. Thus, (as) sure as the Creed or one’s creed is S.E., as is (as) sure as fate or death; but (as) sure as a gun (B. & Fletcher, 1622; Steele, 1703; Meredith, 1859) is coll, as are sure as eggs (Bridges, 1772), sure as eggs is eggs (Goldsmith), sure as God made little apples (late C.19–20; orig. dial.), sure as the devil is in London (mid-C.18), and the following in Ray, 1670, as sure as check, or Exchequer pay (ca 1570–1620), as sure as a juggler’s box (ca 1650–1740), and as sure as a louse in bosom (late C.17–18), or, late C.17–mid-18, in Pomfret.

sure I don’t know!, I’m

. As asseverative tag, it is coll: mid-C.19–20.

surely me

. A proletarian variation of to be SURE!, sense 1: from ca 1880.

surf

. An actor or musician or sceneshifter who combines night-work at the theatre with some daily work outside: theatrical: from late 1850s. ?pun on serf. 2. Hence, a parasite, toady, sponger: low (–1887); ob.

surly as a butcher's dog, as

. Extremely surly: coll: late C.17–20; ob. Ray: Spurgeon, 1869. Because the animal gets so much meat to eat. Apperson, who gives also the Cheshire surly as a cow's husband.

surly boots

. A grumpy, morose fellow: coll, verging on S.E.: C.18–20; ob. e.g. Combe, 1812. cf.:

surly chops

. A nautical variant of the preceding: coll (–1887).

surtout

, see WOODEN SURTOUT.

surveyor of the highway(s)

. A person reeling drunk: late C.18–mid-19.

surveyor of the pavement

. A person in the pillory: late C.18–mid-19.

sus

. ‘The remains of the Praefects’ tea, passed on to their valets in college’: Winchester College: late C.18–19. Wrench. Ex dial. sus(s) or sooss, hog wash.

sus. per coll

. Hanged by the neck: ca 1780–1850. Ex suspensus per collum (F. & H.; or suspensio..., W.; or suspendatur ..., O.E.D.), the jailor’s entry against a hanged man’s name. cf.:

susancide

. Self-murder: half-wits’ jocular (–1909). Ex Susan+suicide.

suspence or suspense, in deadly

. Hanged: ca 1780–1860.

suspicion

. A very small quantity; a minute trace: 1809, Malkin: coll >, ca 1880, S.E.Trollope, 1867, 'He was engaged in brushing a suspicion of dust from his black gaiters.' Ex Fr. soupcon; cf. Fr. larne and SPOT, n., 1.

sut

. Satisfactory; fortunate: tailors': from ca 1870. ?corruption of sat(isfactory). 2. As an exclamation, it='good!' or 'serve you right!': late C.19–20.

sutler

*. 'He that Pockets up, Gloves, Knives, Handkerchiefs, Snuff and Tobacco-boxes, and all the lesser Moveables', B.E.: c. of late C.17–early 19. Ex military sense.

s'velp me

. A Cockney variation of 'WELP.

swab

. A naval officer's epaulette: nautical jocose or pejorative: since ca 1780:1798, Sporting Magazine; Marryat. Ob. Ex the shape of a swab, anything for mopping up. 2. A surly or despicable fellow: s.: Ned Ward, 1709.

swabber, swobber

. (Gen. pl.) In whist, the Ace of Hearts, Knave of Clubs, and the Ace and Deuce (2) of Trumps: late C.17– early 19: coll >, by 1750, S.E. First recorded in B.E. Prob. ex S.E. sense. 2. A drinker who spills his drink on the table: sailors' s. (–1650).

swack

. A deception, whereas swack-up is a falsehood: mid-C.19–20. 2. Also v.t., swack up, to deceive. All: Christ's Hospital: from ca 1860. Perhaps cognate with Scottish swack, supple, smart, or swack, a whack.

swad

*. A soldier: dial., and c. >, mid-C. 19, s.: C.18–20; ob. in s. by 1910. The Memoirs of John Hall, 1708; Smyth, 1867, 'A newly raised soldier'. In late C.19– early 20, esp. a militiaman. Perhaps ex swad, a bumpkin, a lout. cf. SWADKIN; SWADDY, and:

swad-gill

. A soldier: low s. (–1812) and dial.; † in s. by 1860. Vaux, who spells it swod-gill. Ex SWAD+GILL, a fellow.

swadder

*. A pedlar: c. of ca 1565–1750. In C.18, esp. of a pedlar given to robbery with violence. Perhaps cognate with swad as a term of abuse. cf. SWADDLER, 4.

swaddie

, see SWADDY.

swaddle

. To beat soundly; to cudgel: coll: ca 1570–1840. ca 1570, Anon., ‘Thy bones will I swaddle, so have I blisse’; Dryden; B.E., ‘I’ll Swaddle your Hide’; Scott. Ex swaddle, to bandage.

swaddler

. A Methodist: a coll (mainly Anglo-Irish) nickname from ca 1745. C. Wesley, Journal, 10 Sept. 1747, where the anecdotal origin is given; Grose; Academy, 11 May 1889. 2. Hence, a Methodist preacher, esp. in Ireland: coll: C.19. 3. Any Protestant: Anglo-Irish coll: from ca 1870. 4. (Often swadler.) A member of the 10th Order of the underworld: c. of late C.17–early 19. Grose, 1st ed., ‘who not only rob, but beat and often murder passengers’. Ex SWADDLER, on SWADDLE.

swaddling

, vbl n. See SWADDLE, v. 2. Methodism; conduct (supposed to be) characteristic of Methodists: coll: mid-C. 18–early 19. See SWADDLER, n., 1. 3. adj., Methodist: coll: mid-C.18–20; ob. In C.19–20, Protestant in gen.: likewise coll.

swaddy; swaddie, swoddy

. A soldier: low >, ca 1860, naval and military s.: C.19–20. Vaux, 1812; Smyth, 1867, ‘A discharged soldier’, with which cf. Smyth on SWADKIN. Ex SWAD, n. Among soldiers, in late C.19–20, gen. of a private and esp. as a term of address. cf. U.S. swatty.

swadkin

*. A soldier: c. (1708, John Hall) >, ca 1850, dial. and naval s. (–1867); as latter, ob. Smyth, ‘A newly raised soldier’. Diminutive of SWAD. cf. SWAD-GILL; SWADDY.

swadler

*, see SWADDLER, 4.

swag

*. A shop: c. (–1676); ob. ?origin. (cf. SWAG-SHOP.) Hence, a rum swag is a shop full of rich goods: †by 1850. 2. Imm. ex SWAG-SHOP: one who keeps a ‘swagshop’; s. (?low): 1851, Mayhew. 3. Any quantity of goods, esp. a pedlar’s wares or a thief’s booty, esp. as recently or prospectively obtained: c. (–1811) >, ca 1850, lows. >, by 1890, gen. s. in the wider sense, any unlawful gains or acquisition. Lex, Bal. Vaux, who, like the preceding glossarist, notes the nuance, ‘wearing-apparel, linen, piece-goods, &c.’ as, in a robbery, distinguished from ‘plate, jewellery, or more portable articles’—†by 1900; Dickens, 1838, “‘It’s all arranged about bringing off the swag, is it?’” asked the Jew. Sikes nodded; ‘Pomes’ Marshall. Perhaps ex dial. swag, a large quantity; prob. ex the swag or bag in which the booty is carried. 4. Imm. ex, or the origin of, SWAG-SHOP and therefore ex sense 1: trade in small, trivial, or inferior articles: from ca 1850. Mostly in combination (see, e.g., SWAG-BARROW); when by itself, it is gen. attributive, as in Mayhew, 1851, ‘The “penny apiece” or “swag” trade’. 5. A tramp’s (hence, miners’ and others’) bundle of personal effects: 1852, Samuel Sidney, The Three Colonies of Australia, ‘His leathern overalls, his fancy stick, and his swag done up in a mackintosh’; 1861, McCombie, Australian Sketches; 1902, Pall Mall Gazette, 2 July, ‘The unmarried shearer, roaming, swag on back, from station to station’. Coll >, ca 1880, S.E. Ex sense 3, which Cunningham notes as established in Australia before 1827. 6. Prizes offered at games of skill; showmen’s: late C.19–20. Ex SWAG, n., 3. 7. A state, trend or tendency of the betting: sporting, esp. pugilistic: ca 1810–50. Boxiana, III, 1821, ‘The scene was now changed—the Cockneys are alive: the swag is now for London.’ Prob. ex sense 3.

swag

, adj. Worthless; gen. it's swag: low: from ca 1860. Ex SWAG, n., 4.

swag

, v.i. Gen. as SWAG IT. 2. v.t., to rob, plunder: c. (–1887). Ex n., 3.

swag-barrow

. A coster's cart, esp. one carrying small or trashy articles (see SWAG, 4): low s.: from ca 1850. Also, swag-barrowman, a coster, or another, carrying on such trade. Both in Mayhew, 1851; ob.

swag-chovey bloke

*. A marine store dealer: c. (–1839) >, ca 1870, low s.: late C.19–20; ob. See SWAG, 4; CHOVEY is a shop.

swag it

. To carry one's SWAG (5): 1861, McCombie: coll >, ca 1890, S.E.

swag-man; swagman

. A man in the SWAGTRADE or keeping a SWAG-SHOP: from ca 1850. Mayhew, 1851. Gen. swag-man. 2. A man travelling with a SWAG (5): Australian: 1883, Keighley: coll >, ca 1890, S.E. Gen. swagman. Also SWAGSMAN.

swag of, a

*. ‘Emphatically a great deal’, Vaux: c. of ca 1800–50. Ex SWAG, n., 3.

swag-seller

*. A pedlar: vagrants’ c.: late C.19–20. Ex SWAG, n., 3.

swag-shop

. A shop specializing in trivial or trashy articles, very cheap: mid-C.19–20: lower-class London. Mayhew, 1851. See SWAG, 1 and 4.

swag-straps, look for one’s

. To consider leaving one’s job in search of another; New Zealand (mostly rural): late C.19–20. See SWAG, n., 5.

swag-trade

. The trade in SWAG, 4: mid-C.19–20.

swagger

. A SWAGGER-CANE or -STICK: military coll (–1887). i.e. a stick carried for swagger or show. 2. In Australia, hence in New Zealand, one who carries a SWAG (5): 1855, Melbourne Argus, 19 Jan.: coll >, ca 1880, S.E. cf. SWAG-MAN, 2; SWAGSMAN, and SWAGGIE.

swagger

, adj. Smart, fashionable; SWELL; rather showy or ostentatious: (orig. Society)s.: 1879, Cambridge Review; 1897, ‘Ouida’, ‘Lord, ma’am, they’ll...take the matches away from their bedrooms, but, then, you see, ma’am, them as are swagger can do them things.’ Ex S.E. swagger, superior and/or insolent behaviour.

swagger-cane or -stick

. An officer’s cane or stick for parade-ground appearance; a private’s or non-com.’s walking-out stick or short cane: military coll: resp. 1889, 1887 (O.E.D.). Ex SWAGGER, adj.; cf., however, SWAGGER, n., 1.

swaggering

, n. Tramping, esp. in the outback: Australian coll: late C.19–20.

swaggering Bob

. An impudent buffoon: theatrical coll: mid-C.19–20; ob.

swaggery

. A non-aristocratic variant (–1887; slightly ob.) of SWAGGER, adj.

swaggie, swaggy

. A man carrying a SWAG (5) as a habit: Australian (gen. humorous) coll: 1892, E.W.Hornung; 1902, Henry Lawson. Ex SWAG-MAN, 2.

swagman

, see SWAG-MAN.

swagsman

. The same as SWAGGIE: 1879, J.Brunton Stephens: coll >, ca 1890, S.E. Ex SWAG-MAN, 2. 2. In c. (–1859), an accomplice who, after a burglary, carries the plunder. Ex SWAG, n., 3. Also a FENCE: c. (–1904). 3. An occ. variant of SWAG-MAN, 1.

swallow

. Capacity (for food): late C.16–20: S.E. until ca 1850, then coll. 2. Esp. as a mouthful: from ca 1820: S.E. until ca 1890, then coll. These two senses are sometimes indistinguishable, as in the c.p., ‘What a swallow!’, which may refer to one act of swallowing or to appetite. Ex swallow, the throat or gullet.

swallow

, v. To prepare (a part) hastily: theatrical: 1898 (O.E.D.). Ex SWALLOW THE CACKLE.

swallow a hair

. To get drunk: s. (–1650).

swallow a gudgeon

. To be gulled: coll: 1579, Lyly; Dekker & Webster, 1607; Fuller, 1732; Halliwell. †by 1900. Ex fig. gudgeon. Apperson.

swallow a sailor

. To get drunk upon rum: ports’ and harbours’ (–1909). Ware.

swallow a spider

, see SPIDER, 3, and SPIDER, SWALLOW A.

swallow a stake

. See SWALLOWED A STAKE; the earlier to have eaten a stake is recorded by Palsgrave in 1530, but, app., was †by 1700.

swallow a tavern-token

. To get drunk: coll: late C.16–18. Jonson, Every Man in His Humour, ‘Drunk, sir! you hear not me say so: perhaps he swallowed a tavern token or some such device.’ cf. TAVERNFOX.

swallow (or swaller) and sigh

. Collar and tie: theatrical rhyming s.: late C.19–20.

swallow bobby

. ‘Some of the first “nobs” in the colony [of New South Wales] used to “swallow bobby” (make false affidavits to an enormous extent)’: A.Harris, Settlers and Convicts, 1847: Australian: ca 1810–90. cf. swallow the ANCHOR, and S’ELP ME BOB.

swallow my knife?—you say true, will you

. I doubt it!: a c.p. applied esp. to an impossible story: from ca 1890 (ob.): not aristocratic.

swallow-tail

. A dress-coat: coll: 1835, Frith, 'I should look a regular guy in a swallow-tail.'

swallow the anchor

, see ANCHOR, SWALLOW THE.

swallow the cackle

. To learn a part: theatrical (–1890).

swallowed a stake and cannot stoop, he (she) has

. A c.p. applied to a very stiff, upright person: from ca 1660; ob. L'Estrange, 1667; Fuller, 1732. cf. at SWALLOW A STAKE.

swallowed a dictionary, he (she) has

. He (she) uses very long words: coll: late C.19–20.

swan-slinger

. A Shakespearian actor: theatrical (–1890); ob. Ex the phrase, to sling the Swan of Avon (late C.19–20; ob.). cf. SPOUT BILLY.

swank

. Showy or conceited behaviour or speech; pretence: dial. (–1854) >, ca 1904, s. Daily Chronicle, 17 April 1905, ‘What he said is quite true, barring the whisky—that is all swank’; Ware, 1909, records analogous senses, ‘small talk, lying’ as printers’ s. Dates make it appear that the n. derives ex the v., but, dial. records being notoriously incomplete, the reverse may be true: in either case, swank, as Baumann suggests, derives prob. ex Ger. Schwang as in in S. sein (or gehen), to be in the fashion. 2. (Ex sense 1.) The tricks one plays; one’s ‘game’: Cockney: from ca 1890. C.Rook, The Hooligan Nights, 1899. 3. Hence, flattery, BLARNEY: id.: id. ibid., ‘I...calls ’im a rare toff an’ a lot of old swank of that kind.’

swank

, v. To behave showily or conceitedly; to swagger; to pretend (esp. to be better than, or superior to, what one is): dial. (–1809) >, ca 1870, s., though not gen. till ca 1901. H., 5th ed., ‘Swank, to boast or “gas” unduly’; A.McNeill, 1903, ‘To see...your sons swanking about town with Hon. before their names’. For the most viable etymology, see the preceding entry: but one cannot ignore these possibilities: Perhaps ex swing (the body) via either Scottish swank, agile, or swagger; or simply a perversion of SWAGGER. 2. To work hard: Public and military school s. (–1890). Perhaps ex SWOT +swank.

swanker

. One who behaves as in SWANK, v., 1 and 2: same period and status. cf. swanking, the vbl n.

swank(e)y

*. Inferior beer: c. (–1859). Prob. ex Ger. schwank, feeble. 2. A conceited or pretentious person: ca 1830–80. Ex SWANK, v., 1.

swank(e)y swipes

. Table beer: 1848, Sinks. cf. SWANK(E)Y, 1.

swannery, keep a

. To make out that all one's geese are swans: coll (–1785); ob. by 1890.

swap, swop

. An exchanging; an exchange: coll >, ca 1850, s.: resp. ca 1625 (Purchas) and 1682 (Flatman). Ex swap, an act of striking (esp. the hands as a sign of a bargain made); or more imm. ex the v. cf. SWAP, HAVE THE.

swap, swop

, v.t. To exchange (for something else, or a thing with somebody else): coll >, ca 1850, s.: resp. 1594, Lyly, 'Ile not swap my father for all this,' and 1624, Quarles, '...That for his belly swopt his heritage'. A 'low word', says Johnson; 'Irish cant', says Egan (1823). Orig. a horse-dealer's term ex swap (strike) a bargain. 2. See SWAP AWAY. 3. v.i., to make an exchange: coll >, ca 1850, s.: 1778, Miss Burney; 1885, Jerome K. Jerome, 'I am quite ready to swop.' Ex sense 1. 4. v.t., to dismiss from employment: 1862, Macmillan's Magazine. cf. SWAP, HAVE THE. 5. v.i., to change one's clothes: 1904, D.Sladen. Ex sense 1.

swap or swop, have or get the

. To be dismissed from employment: from before 1890. Ex SWAP, v., 4.

swap away or off

, v.t. To exchange: coll >, ca 1850, s.: resp. 1589, R.Harvey, 'He swapt away his silver for Copper retaile,' and from ca 1860; the latter, orig. and mainiy U.S. Ex SWAP, v., 1.

swapper, swopper

. One who exchanges: late C.17–20: coll >, ca 1850, s. Ex SWAP v., 1. 2. Gen. swapper. Anything very big, a WHOPPER (esp. of a lie): s. and dial.: from ca 1700. Ex swap, to strike.

swapping

. An exchanging, an exchange; barter: coll >, ca 1850, s.: 1695, J. Edwards. Ex SWAP, v., 1. cf; SWAPPER, 1; SWAP, n.

swapping, swopping

, adj. Very big: coll >, ca 1850, s.: mid-C.15–20. Middleton, 1624, 'Swapping sins'. Ex swap, to strike; cf. SWAPPER, 2, and WHOPPING.

swarbout

is an occ. C.16 variant of SWORBOTE.

swarry; OCC. swarree, swarrey

. A soirée or social evening: coll, in C.20 considered somewhat sol.: 1837, Dickens, ‘A friendly swarry’; 1848, Thackeray (swarrey). 2. H., 5th ed., ‘A boiled leg of mutton and trimmings’: is this a mistake founded on the Dickens passage (and repeated by F. & H.), or, as H. says, a resultant therefrom?

swash-bucket

. A slattern: proletarian coll: from ca 1870; ob. Ex swash-bucket, a receptacle for scullery refuse (ex swash, pig wash). In dial. as early as 1746 for ‘a farmhouse slattern’.

swat

. A (smart or heavy) blow: dial. (–1800) >, ca 1840, s. or coll, but never very gen. Ex next entry. 2, 3, 4. See SWOT.

swat

, v. To strike smartly: dial. (–1796) >, before 1848 (Bartlett), U.S.; reimported into England before 1904 (witness F. & H.) as a coll. 2. See SWOT.

Swatchel

. Punch, in Punch and Judy: showmen's (esp. and orig. P. & J. showmen): mid-C.19–20. Perhaps cognate with swatch, a sample or specimen, ex swatch, a sample piece of cloth; possibly, as the O.E.D. (Sup.) suggests, ex Ger. schwätzel, frequentative of schwatzen, to tattle. Hence swatchel (occ. schwassle)-box, the Punch and Judy show or, more correctly, the booth; and swatchel-cove, a Punch and Judy man, or, esp., the patterer. Other terms, all from ca 1850, are: buffer (q.v.), the dog Toby (recorded in 1840), and buffer-figure, the dog's master; crocodile, the demon; darkey or D., the Negro; filio, the baby; (the) frame, the street arrangement or PITCH, etc.; (the) letter cloth, the advertisement; Mozzy (q. v.), Judy; nobbing slum (q.v.), the bag for collected money; peepsies (q.v.), the pan-pipes; (the) slum (q.v., 9), the call; (the) slum-fake, the coffin; the stalk (q.v.) (occ. prop.), the gallows; tambour (q.v.), the drum; vampire (q.v.), the ghost; vampo or V. (q.v.), the clown. Despite its Italian origin, Punch and Judy vocabulary contains far more c. and/or low s. than Italian words.

sway (away on) all top-ropes

, see TOP-ROPES.

swaying the main with an old mess-mate(I've been)

. The bluejackets' c.p. explanation of a bibulous evening ashore: from ca 1860.

swear

. A formal oath: mid-C.16–20: S.E. until ca 1870, then coll. Eden Phillpotts, 1899, 'We swore by a tremendous swear.' 2. Hence a profane oath, a SWEAR-WORD; a fit of swearing: coll: 1871, C.Gibbon, 'A good swear is a cure for the bile.' 3. A harsh noise made esp. by a cat, occ. by a bird: coll: 1895 (O.E.D.). Ex:

swear

, v.i. (Of a canine or feline or, occ., a bird) to make a harsh and/or guttural sound: from late C.17: S.E. until C.19, then coll. The O.E.D. gives, at 1902, an example of a locomotive ‘swearing’.

swear at

. (Mostly of colours) to clash with: coll: 1884, Daily News, 10 Nov., ‘Two tints that swear at each other’. Ex Fr. jurer.

swear by

. To accept as authoritative, have (very) great confidence in: coll: 1815, Jane Austen; 1890, G.A.Henty, ‘His fellows swear by him.’ Ex swear by, to appeal to (a god).

swear by, enough to

. A very small amount or slight degree: mid-C.18–20: coll >, in mid-C.19, s. On (just) enough to mention.

swear like a cutter (C.17–20; ob.), or a lord (C.16–17), or a tinker (C.17–20), or a trooper (1727)

. To swear profusely: coll soon > S.E.

swear off

. To renounce: lower classes' s. (–1887) >, ca 1900, gen. s.

swear through an inch or a two-inch board; ...a nine-inch plank

; and see quotation in sense 2. To back up any lie: coll: resp. 1678, Ray; 1728, Earl of Ailesbury; from ca 1800, app. Nelson's variation of the other forms, according to Clark Russell in 1883. Dickens, in 1865, has 'That severe exertion which is known in legal circles as swearing your way through a stone wall'. cf. the Cheshire semi-proverbial 'Oo'd swear the cross off a jackass's back,' oo being 'she'. 2. These phrases are also indicative of vigorous bad language, as in R.Franck, 1658, 'It's thought they would have sworn through a double deal-board, they seem'd so enrag'd.'

swear-word

. A profane oath or other word: coll; orig. U.S., anglicized ca 1880. cf. the U.S. cuss-word.

swearing-apartment

. The street: taverns' (–1909). Ware. Prob. ex the barmaids' ex clamatory question, 'If you want to swear, why don't you go out into the street?'

sweat

. A long run taken in training: Public Schools': late C.19–20.

sweat

. To lighten (a—gen. gold—coin) by friction or acid: coli (–1785) >, ca 1850, S.E. Ex sweat, to cause to perspire. 2. To deprive of: from ca 1784, as in Anon., Ireland Sixty Years Ago, 1847, ‘[In] 1784 ... “sweating” him, i.e. making him give up all his fire-arms’. cf. S.E. sweating, a ruffianly practice of the MOHOCKS. 3. Esp. to fleece, to BLEED: from ca 1840: low s. Smyth, 1867 (see SWEAT THE PURSER). 4. v.i. and v.t., to squander (riches): from late 1850s. Ex sweat, to give off, get rid of, as by sweating. 5. Hence, v.t., to spend (money): from ca 1860. 6. Hence, to remove some of the contents of: 1867, in Conington’s Horace, ‘He’d find a bottle sweated and not rave.’ 7. To unsolder (a tin box, etc.) by applying fire or a blowpipe: c. (–1909). cf. senses 1, 6. 8. Perhaps ex sense 1: v.t., to pawn: low s. (orig., prob. Anglo-Irish): from ca 1800; †by ca 1880. 9. To force (a person) to do something: Winchester: mid-C.19–20. 10. Hence, v.i., to be engaged in compulsory work: ibid.: late C.19–20.

sweat, all of a

. (Of a street, pavement, etc.) like a bog; slushy: coll, esp. London (–1887).

sweat, old

, see OLD SWEAT.

sweat-box

. A cell for prisoners waiting to go before the magistrate: low s.: from ca 1875, though unrecorded before 1888 (Churchward’s Blackbirding).

sweat-gallery

. (Coll for) fagging juniors: Winchester: from ca 1865; ob. Ex SWEATER, 2.

sweat one's guts out

. To work extremely hard: (mostly lower class) coll: late C.19–20.

sweat-rag

. A pocket-handkerchief: Australia: C.20. Lawson, 1902.

sweat the purser

. To waste Government stores: naval: from ca 1840. In George Brewer's farce, Bannian Day, 1796, at I, iii, p. 8, and II, iii, p. 25, it seems to mean 'to take an illicit or, at the least, a sly drink at the expense of the ship's purser'.

sweater

. An occupation or act causing one to sweat: coll: 1851, Mayhew, 'The business is a sweater, sir.' 2. A servant: Winchester: from ca 1860. cf. SWEATGALLERY. 3. A broker working for very small commissions, thus depriving others of business and himself of adequate profit: Stock Exchange coll: from ca 1870.

swede talk

. Rural talk, countryman's talk: Cockney: late C.19–20.

sweep

. A sweepstake: coll (1849) >, ca 1905, S.E.Kipling. 2. A scamp, a disreputable: from ca 1850. F. & H., 'You dirty sweep'. Ex (chimney-)sweep. 3. (Also BOGEY.) Mucus (esp. hardened mucus) that can easily be extracted from the nostrils: domestic and nurses', chiefly Scottish: late C.19–20. cf.:

sweep

, v. To chimney-sweep for: low coll: 1848, Thackeray, 'The chimney-purifier, who has swep' the last three families'.

sweeper

. A train that, following a through train, calls at all stations: Australian coll (–1908). Because it 'sweeps up' all passengers. 2. A sweepstake: Harrow and Oxford: late C.19–20. By the 'Oxford -er'.

sweeps and saints

. Stockbrokers and their clientele: City of London: mid-C.19–20; ob. Ware, 'From the First of May (Sweeps' Day) and the First of November (All Saints' Day) being holidays on the Exchange'.

sweep's frill

. 'Beard and whiskers worn round the chin, the rest of the face being clean shaven', F. & H.: 1892, Tit Bits, 19 March. cf.:

sweep's-trot

. A loping amble: coll: 1842 Lover; ob.

sweet

*. Gullible; unsuspicious: c. (–1725) >, in late C.19, low s. 2. Clever, expert, dexterous: c. (–1725). cf. SWEET AS YOUR HAND. 3. In the speaker's opinion, attractive, very pleasant: coll: 1779. Fanny Buraey, 1782, 'The sweetest caps! The most beautiful trimmings!' cf. NICE, and Fr. mignon.

sweet as a nut

, adj. and adv. Advantageous(ly); with agreeable or consummate ease: coll: late C.19–20.

sweet as (or 's) your hand

*. 'Said of one dexterous at stealing', Grose, 1st ed.: c. (ob.) of C.1 8–20.

sweet-lips

. A glutton; a gourmet: (low) coll: from ca 1870; ob.

sweet on, be

. ‘To coakse, wheedle, entice or allure’, B.E.: late C.17–18. The O.E.D. considers it S.E.; B.E. classifies it as c.; prob. coll, as, I think, is the mid-C.18–20 sense, to be very fond of, enamoured with (one of the opposite sex).

sweet-pea

. Whiskey: Anglo-Irish: ca 1810–70. ‘A Real Paddy’, Life in Ireland, 1822. Ex the colour of the resultant urine.

sweet-pea, do or plant a

. (Of, and among, women) to urinate, esp. in the open air: mid-C.19–20. Prob. suggested by pluck a ROSE, and, of course, punning on PEE.

sweetbread

. A bribe; a timely reward of money: coll: ca 1670–90. Hacket, 1670, ‘A few sweetbreads that I gave him out of my purse’.

sweeten

*. A beggar, says F. & H.: is this so? If correct, c.: presumably C.18.

sweeten

*, v. To decoy, draw in; swindle: c.: late C.17–early 19. 2. v.i., see SWEETENING, 1. 3. v.t., to allay the suspicions of (a victim): C.18: c. or low s. 4. To bribe; give alms to: late C.18–20: c. >, ca 1850, dial. and low s. Haggart, former nuance; Egan's Grose, latter. Prob. ex sense 1. 5. To contribute to (the pool), increase the stakes in (the pot, at poker): cards: from 1896. cf. SWEETENING. 6. v.i., to bid at an auction merely to run up the price: orig. and mainly auctioneers' (–1864). cf. SWEETENER.

sweeten and pinch

. Occ. v., gen. n., ca 1670–1720, as in Anon., Four for a Penny, 1678: to get money, by politeness and considerateness, from a man about to be arrested. BUM-BAILIFFS's.

sweetener

*. A decoy; a cheat or a swindler: c.: late C.17–early 19. Ex SWEETEN, v., 1. 2. A GUINEA-DROPPER: c.: same period. Ex SWEETENING, 1. 3. One who, at an auction, bids to run up the price: auctioneers' (–1864). 4. A temporary officer (gen. first mate) replacing his predecessor, who is in hiding: nautical, with esp. reference to the Atlantic clipper packets: ca 1850–1910. 5. See:

sweeteners

*. The lips: c. or low s.: from ca 1860. Esp. fake the s., to kiss.

sweetening

*. Guinea-dropping, i.e. the dropping of a coin and consequent swindling of a gullible finder: c.: from ca 1670; †by 1870. The Country Gentleman's Vade Mecum, 1699. 2. The vbl n.—both the action and the concrete result—of SWEETEN, v., 5. 3. That of SWEETEN, v., 6. 4. That of SWEETEN, v., 4.

sweetheart

. A tame rabbit: (sporting and dealers') coll: from late 1830s. Blaine's Encyclopaedia of Rural Sports, 1840. Ex winning ways of such rabbits.

sweetheart and bag-pudding

. A c.p. applied to a girl got with child: C.17–early 18. Day, Humour out of Breath, 1608; Ray, 1670.

sweetie

. A sweetmeat: dial. (–1758), and coll (from ca 1820) >, ca 1890, S.E. W. Havergal, 1824, 'Baby...was satisfied with a bit of sweetie'; Thackeray, in 1860, has 'Bonbons or sweeties'; the pl is much the more gen.

sweetmeat; OCC. sweet-meat

. The male member. 2. A mere girl who is a kept mistress. Both senses are low and date from mid-C.19.

sweetner

*. See SWEETENER, 1, 2, of which it is a frequent variant.

swell

. A fashionably or smartly dressed person (cf. HEAVY SWELL: 1819); hence, though rare before ca 1820, a (very) distinguished person, a lady or gentleman of the upper classes: s. (–1786) >, in late C. 19, coll. Sessions, Dec. 1786; Bee, 1823, of nob and swell, ‘The latter makes a show of his finery;...the nob, relying upon intrinsic worth, or bona-fide property, or intellectual ability, is clad in plainness.’ Byron; Thackeray. Usually of men, and prob. ex SWELL, CUT A. 2. Hence, one who has done something notable or who is expert at something: s. >, in late C.19, coll: 1816, Moore, but not gen. before ca 1840; Barham, ‘No! no!—The Abbey [Westminster] may do very well|For a feudal nob, or poetical “swell”’; the Eton usage. 3. See SWELLS.

swell

, adj. Stylishly dressed: from ca 1812. Prob. ex n., 1. 2. Hence, from ca 1820, gentlemanly (Byron, 1823) or lady-like; of good social position (Disraeli, 1845). 3. (Of things) stylish, very distinguished: from ca 1811. 4. Hence, excellent, whether of things (e.g. a swell time) or of persons considered as to their ability (e.g. a swell cricketer): not before mid-C.19 and—except in U.S.A.—slightly ob. All four senses were orig. s. (1–3, indeed, were low s. for a decade or more); they > coll only in late C.19.

swell

, v. To take a bath: Winchester: from ca 1860; ob. Ex SWILL, v. 2. See SWELL IT.

swell, cut a; do the swell

. To swagger: resp.—1800–1840, as in The Spirit of the Public Journals, 1800, ‘Our young lords and... gentlemen “cutting a swell” as the fashionable phrase is’, O.E.D.; and mid-C.19–20 (ob.), as in Baumann. (cf. SWELL, n., 1.) Ex swell, arrogant behaviour.

swell (or itch)?, does your nose

. (Gen. completed by at this or at that.) Are you angry or annoyed?: coll: C.19.

swell, rank

. ‘A very “flashly” dressed person...who...apes a higher position than he actually occupies’, H., 1st ed.; ob. by 1900. Ex SWELL, n., 1, first nuance.

swell fencer

. A street vendor of needles: low London (–1859).

swell-head

. A drunken man: low: late C. 19–20. Prob. ex U.S.

swell-headed

. Conceited; puffed with pride: coll: 1817, Cobbett, ‘The upstart, ...swell-headed farmer can bluster... about Sinecures.’

swell hung in chains, a

. A much-bejewelled person: low: mid-C.19–20; ob.

swell it

. To play or ape the fine gentleman: low (–1887); ob. Ex SWELL, n., 1.

swell mob

*. That class of pickpockets who, to escape detection, dress and behave like respectable people: 1830, Sessions: c. >, by 1870, low s. Ex SWELL, adj., 1 and 2+MOB.

swell-mobsman

*. One of the SWELL MOB: c. (–185!) >, by 1870, low s. Mayhew; Hotten, 3rd ed., ‘Swell mobsmen, who pretend to be Dissenting preachers, and harangue in the open air for their confederates to rob’.

swell-nose

. Strong ale: early C.16. Anon., De Generibus Ebriosorum, 1515.

swell's lush

. Champagne: Australian: ca 1830–1900. In, e.g., Sketches of Australian Life and Scenery (by a Resident), 1876. See the two elements.

Swell Street, be (–1812) or live (–1904) in

. To be a well-off family man of good social standing: low: from ca 1810; ob. By 1864 Swell Street had > the West End (London).

swelldom

. The world of 'swells' (n., all senses): coll: 1855, Thackeray; ob.

swelled head

. Excessive conceit, pride, or vanity: coll: 1891, Kipling, 2. Perhaps only one of Grose's jokes, and at most a piece of military punning s. of late C.18– early 19: 'A disorder to which horses are extremely liable...Generally occasioned by remaining too long in one livery-stable or inn, and often rises to that height that it prevents their coming out of the stable door. The most certain cure is the unguentum aureum...applied to the palm of the master of the inn or stable,' 2nd ed. cf. OAT-STEALER.

swelled nose

, see SWELL?, DOES YOUR NOSE.

swellish

. Dandified: 1820 (O.E.D.): s. >, in late C.19, coll. Ex SWELL, n., 1. 2, Gentlemanly; distinguished: from ca 1830: id.

swellishness

. The n. of SWELLISH, 2: coll: late C.19–20.

swellism

. The style (esp. in dress) or the social habits of a SWELL, in sense 1, rarely in other than the first nuance: 1840 (O.E.D.): s. >, by ca 1870, coll; ob. cf.:

swellness

. The being a SWELL, esp. in sense 2 and never in the first nuance of sense 1: coll: 1894, T.H.Huxley, 'My swellness is an awful burden.' cf. SWELLISHNESS; SWELLISM.

swells

. Occasions—e.g. Sunday churchservices—on which surplices are worn: Winchester: from ca 1860. Ex SWELL, adj., 3.

swelp, s'welp

. (God) so help: as in Whiteing, 1899, 'Swelp me lucky, I ain't tellin' yer no lie!' Also swelp me! (–1887); swelp me or my bob! (–1904); swelp me davy (–1887); swelp my greens or taters! (id.), with which cf. the (–1895) dial. bless my taters! and the earlier (1864) s'elp my tater! See also S'ELP ME BOB!, S'ELP MY GREENS! (1864); likewise s'help! Ex so help (me, God!).

swelter

. Hot, hard work: lower classes' (–1887). cf.:

swelter, do a

. To perspire profusely: 1884. Ex S.E. swelter, a state of perspiration.

Swensker

. A Swede: nautical coll: mid-C. 19–20. Bowen, 'A corruption of Svenske'.

swi

. A florin: low Australian: late C.19–20. Ex Ger. zwei, two.

swift

. A fast-working compositor: printers' (–1841). Savage's Dict. of Printing.

swift

, adj. Apt to take (sexual) liberties with, or to accept them from, the opposite sex: coll: late C.19–20. Suggested by FAST (2, 3).

swiftly flowing

. Going: Australian rhymings.: late C.19–20.

swig; in C.16, also swyg

. Liquor: coll: mid-C.16–20; very ob.—has been so since early C.19. Udall, 1548. Etymology unknown: W. proposes Scandinavian svik, a tap. 2. Hence, a 'pull'; a (copious) draught: coll >, in late C.18, s.: from ca 1620. Middleton & Rowley, 'But one swig more, sweet madam'; Ned Ward; Marryat; Whiteing. Also, in C.17, swigge. 3. At Oxford University (orig. and esp. Jesus College), toast and (spiced) ale, or the bowl in which it is served: from ca 1825. Hence, Swig Day, the day (?St David's) it is ritualistically served.

swig; in C.18, occ. swigg

. v.i. To drink deeply, eagerly, or much (esp. strong liquor): mid-C.17–20: coll >, in early C.19, s. Ex n., 1. 2. v.t., with either the liquor or its container as object: coll >, in early C.19, s.: resp. 1780, ‘Slang Pastoral’ Tomlinson, ‘To swig porter all day’, and 1682, in Wit and Drollery, ‘I...swigg’d my horn’d barrel,’ this latter nuance being ob.

swig, play at

. To indulge in drink: coll: late C.17–18. Ex SWIG, n., 2.

Swig Day

, see SWIG, n., 3.

swigged

. Tipsy: mid-C.19–20: rather proletarian.

swigging

, vbl n. (1723) and ppl adj. (1702). See SWIG, v., 1.

swigman

*; in C.16, also swygman. ‘One of the 13th Rank of the Canting crew, carrying small Haberdashery-Wares about, pretending to sell them to colour their Roguery’, B.E.; Awdelay, 1561, says that he ‘goeth with a Peddlers pack’. c. of ca 1560–1800. Prob. ex SWAGMAN, despite the fact that swag, a bulgy bag, is recorded only in early C.14.

swiling

, n. Sealing: Newfoundland nautical coll: late C.19–20. By corruption.

’Swill

. A coll euphemism for (by) God’s will: C.17. Marston.

swill

. A bath: Shrewsbury School coll: mid-C.19–20.

swill

, v.i. To wash at a conduit by throwing water over the body: Winchester College coll: C.19–20. cf. the Shrewsbury n. and:

swilled, get

. To take a bath: Shrewsbury School coll: mid-C.19–20.

swim

. A swimming, i.e. a dizzy, feeling: dial. and coll: 1829, Ebenezer Elliott. 2. A plan or enterprise, esp. a tortuous or a SHADY one: 1860, Sala; slightly ob.

swim, give one's dog a

. To have the excuse of doing something or, esp., a reason for something to do: South African and Australian coll. An English approximation is take one's dog for a walk.

swim, how we apples

, see APPLES SWIM...

swim, in the

. Whereas in the swim with, in league with, has always, it seems, been S.E., in the swim, lucky, very fortunate, is coll and ob.: in 1869, Macmillan's Magazine (the earliest record, by the way) explained that it derives ex swim, a section of river much frequented by fish. By 1864, in a good swim=in luck, doing a good business; by 1874, in the swim=in the inner circle, movement or fashion; popular: a sense that, from coll, >, ca 1900, S.E. 2. In c. (–1860): a long time out of the hands of the police.

swim, out of the

. The opp. to in the SWIM, except that it has no c. sense: 1869. Rare in C.20.

swim for it, make (a man)

*. To cheat (a pal) out of his share of booty: c.: late C. 19–20.

swim in golden grease, lard, oil

. To receive many bribes: C.17 coll. Jonson.

swimmer

*. A counterfeit (old) coin: c.: late C.17–early 19. Why? 2. A guardship: c. (–1811); †by 1860. cf. S.E. swimmer, an angler's float. 3. A half-push stroke: cricketers' (–1909).

swimmer

*, v. To cause (a man) to serve in the Navy instead of sending him to prison: c. (–1812); †by 1860. Gen. be swimmured. Ex the n., 2.

swimmer, have a

*. A variant of the preceding term: 1811, Lex. Bal.

swimming market

. A (very) good market: Stock Exchange coll: from ca 1860.

swindge, swindging

, see SWINGE, SWINGEING.

swindle

. A lottery; a speculation; a toss for drinks: 1870, Legal Reports; slightly ob. Ex lit. S.E. sense. 2. Something other than it appears to be, a FRAUD: coll: 1866. cf. sense 1. 3. Any transaction in which money passes: from ca 1870, as in what's the swindle?, what's to pay?, which may orig. have been U.S., in why don't you pay him his swindle?, his price, and in let's have a swindle!, let's toss for it; all three phrases are ob., the third only slightly so.

swindle

, v.i. To practise fraud: 1782 ed. of Bailey's Dict.: s. >, ca 1820, S.E. A back-formation ex SWINDLER. 2. Hence, v.t., esp. with out of: C.19–20: s. >, ca 1820, S.E. Sydney Smith, 1803.

swindler

*. A practiser of fraud or imposition for gain; a cheat: ca 1762: c. >, ca 1790, s. >, ca 1820, S.E. e.g. in Foote, 1776; Grose, 1st ed., but 'dictionaried' first in the 1782 ed. of Bailey. Ex Ger. Schwindler, a cheat; cf. schwindeln, to be extravagant or giddy. In England picked up from and applied orig. to German Jews in London; much used, too, by soldiers in the Seven Years' War.

swindling

, n. and adj. ex SWINDLE, v., 1, date from late C.18; by 1820, S.E.

swine, go the complete (or entire)

. A London coll variation (–1887) of GO THE WHOLE HOG; ob.

swine, sing like a bird called the

, see SING LIKE...

swine-up

. A quarrel: lower classes': ca 1880–1915. Ware, 'Suspected to be of American origin'. Ex pigs' bad temper.

swing, the

*. The gallows: c. or low s.: ?late C.18–mid-19.

swing

, v.i. To be hanged: s. >, in C.18, c. > s. >, in late C.19, coll: 1542, Udall, swing in a halter; swing by itself, app. not before C.18; Dickens in Boz, 'If I'm caught, I shall swing.' 2. Hence, v.t., to put to death by hanging: from ca 1815; ob. and, at all times, rare. 3. See next four entries. 4. To control (a market, a price, etc.): commercial coll: late C.19–20; slightly ob. cf. SWING IT.

swing for you if you don't (agree, do it, etc.)!, I'll

. A c.p. threat: proletarian: ca 1820–90. See SWING, v., 1.

swing it

. To wangle successfully, get something by trickery; to shirk or malinge esp. if successfully: from late 1890s. Prob. ex SWING, v., 4.

swing (a matter, business) over one's head or shoulders

. To manage easily; find well within one's powers: commercial: from ca 1890. cf. S.E. swing, scope.

swing-tail

. A hog: low: ca 1786–1860. Contrast SWISH-TAIL.

swing the monkey

. To strike ‘with knotted handkerchiefs a man who swings to a rope made fast aloft’, Clark Russell: nautical coll: from ca 1880.

swinge; in C.16, occ. swynge; in C.16–18, swindge

. To copulate with (a woman): ca 1620–1750. Fletcher, 1622; Dryden, 1668, ‘And that baggage, Beatrix, how I would swinge her if I had her here.’ Ex swinge, to castigate. 2. See all senses of:

swinge off

. To toss off (a drink): ca 1525–1660. Also s. up (Skelton, 1529). ?cf. PUNISH. 2. To infect with (severe) gonorrhoea: late C.17–18. Gen. passive, be swinged off, as in B.E. Perhaps suggested by CLAP. 3. Occ. as variant of SWINGE: late C.17–early 18. Miège.

swingeing, swinging

(pron. swindjing); in C.17–19, occ. swindging. Very effective, great, large, esp. of a lie: coll >, by 1700, s.: late C.16–20, but rare since mid-C.19. Greene, Motteux, Grose (2nd ed.), Dickens. 2. Hence, adv.: hugely: 1690, Dryden; 1872, C.D.Warner, ‘A... swingeing cold night’. cf. S.E. strapping, adj. and adv.

swing(e)ingly

. Very forcibly; hugely: coll >, by 1700, s.: 1672, Dryden, ‘I have sinned swingingly, against my vow.’ Archaic. Ex SWINGEING.

swinger

* (pron. swindjer). A rogue, a scoundrel; Scottish c. (? > lows.) of C.16–mid-18. Dunbar; A. Nicol, 1739. Prob. ex Flemish. 2. Something very effective or large (of a blow, not before 1830s): from 1590s, but rare since ca 1850: coll >, by 1700, s. Ex swinge, to beat. cf. WHOPPER. 3.—Hence, esp. a bold or rank lie: ca 1670–1820. Eachard, 1670, ‘Rap out...half a dozen swingers.’ 4. A box on the ears: Charterhouse coll (–1890). 5. In pl, testicles: low: C.19–20. (Pron. as in swing.) 6. A lame leg: low: ca 1830–75.

swinging

, adj., see SWINGEING.

swinging

. A hanging: from late C.16: s. >, in late C.19, coll. Percivall, 1591, ‘Swinging in a halter’: R.L.Stevenson. Ex SWING, v., 1.

swinging the stick; or, the bludgeon business

*. A robbery committed with brutal violence and a life-preserver or bludgeon: c. (–1861). Mayhew.

swingingly

, see SWINGEINGLY.

swinny

. Drunk: low: late C.19–20. Ex dial. swinny, giddy, dizzy.

swipe; OCC. swype

. A heavy blow; in golf and cricket, a stroke made with the full swing of the arms: C.19–20: coll (?orig. dial.). Perhaps ex sweep; perhaps sibilated wipe, a blow. 2. Hence, one who does this: coll: 1825, Westmacott, ‘A hard swipe, an active field, and a stout bowler’; †by 1900.

swipe

, v.i. and t. ‘To drink hastily and copiously;...at one gulp’: low s. (–1823) and dial. (–1829) >, ca 1860, coll >, ca 1890, s.; in C.20, also of food. Often swipe off, ?ex sweep off. 2. The sporting v.i. (1857) is coll >, ca 1890, S.E. T. Hughes, 1857, ‘The first ball of the over, Jack steps out and meets, swiping with all his force.’ The v.t. not before ca 1851. 3. At Harrow: to birch (v.t.): from ca 1880. A sense-blend of swish, to birch, and swipe, v., 2. 4. To appropriate illicitly; steal; loot: U.S. (–1890), anglicized ca 1900, when used by Kipling.

swiper

. A heavy drinker: 1836, F. Mahony: coll >, by 1890, s. Ex SWIPE, v., 1. 2. The cricketing sense dates from the early 1850s (e.g. in F.Gale, 1853): coll >, in late C.19, S.E. Ex SWIPE, v., 2.

swipes; OCC. swypes

. Small beer: from ca 1786: coll >, in late C.19, s. cf. SWIPE, v., 1, which it inconveniently precedes by thirty years or more. 2. Hence, any beer: from late C.18. Scott; Hood, 'Bread and cheese and swipes'. 3. A potman: ca 1810–50. Ex sense 1.

swipes, purser's

. Small beer: nautical: ca 1786–1870. See SWIPES.

swipey

. (Not very) tipsy: coll: from ca 1820. 1844, Dickens, 'He's only a little swipey, you know.' Never gen. and, by 1900, ob. Ex SWIPES. cf. SQUIFFY.

swiping

is the vbl n. of SWIPE, v., 2; also blind swiping: coll: 1879, W.G.Grace. 2. A birching, esp. by a monitor: Shrewsbury School: from ca 1880. cf. SWIPE, v., 3.

swish-tail

. A pheasant, 'so called by the persons who sell game for the poachers', Grose, 3rd ed.: ca 1790–1870. 2. A schoolmaster: late C.19–20; ob. On BUM-BRUSHER.

swished

, ppl adj. Married: low (?orig. c.): ca 1810–80. cf. SWITCHED.

Swiss

. A pheasant: Oxford: ca 1815–60.

Swiss admiral

. A pretended naval officer: naval coll: from ca 1870; ob. Ex the Fr. amiral suisse, a naval officer employed ashore: cf. the allusive S.E. Swiss navy.

switch

. A chimney-sweep's brush: chimney-sweeps' coll: C.19. (George Elson, 1900.)

switch

, v. To copulate with (a woman): 1772, Bridges, 'Paris...longs to switch the gypsy'; ob. cf. SWINGE, v., 1: many old vv. of coition are sadistic. cf.:

switched

, ppl adj. Married: low (–1864). Prob. suggested by SWISHED. Presumably cognate with SWITCH.

switchel

, n. Cold tea: Newfoundland coll: late C.19–20. Ex U.S. switchel, molasses and water.

switchel

, v. To have sexual intercourse: Restoration period. cf. SWITCH.

switching

. A marriage: low: ca 1840–1900. Mary Carpenter, Juvenile Delinquents, 1853. Ex SWITCH.

swive

, v.t. and i. To copulate (with a woman); hence swiver, swiving, and the Queen of Swiveland (Venus). Excellent S.E. that, dating from late C.14, >, early in C. 17, a vulgarism; †since ca 1800, except as a literary archaism and in several diall.

swivel-eye

. A squinting eye: coll: 1864, H., 3rd ed.; 1865, Dickens; ob. Ex:

swivel-eyed

. Squint-eyed: coll: 1757, Smollett. Perhaps suggested Sheridan's 'T'other [eye] turned on a swivel', 1775.

swivelly

. Drunk: late C.19–20; very ob. Ex swivel on SQUIFFY.

swiver

, see SWIVE. Swiveland, Queen of, ibid.

swiz

; occ. swizz. A FRAUD; great disappointment: late C.19–20 schoolboys'. Prob. an abbr. of SWIZZLE, the longer form being perverted SWINDLE. 2. Abbr. of SWIZZLE, n., 1: mostly Cockney: from ca 1875; ob.

swizzle

. Intoxicating drink, whether a specific cocktail or strong liquor in gen.: s. >, ca 1850, coll: from not later than 1791, for it appears in the 3rd ed. of Grose, where, moreover, it is said that at Ticonderoga, in North America, the 17th (English) Regiment had, ca 1760, a society named The Swizzle Club; 1813, Colonel Hawker, 'The boys...finished the evening with some...grub, swizzle, and singing.' Slightly ob. ?a corruption of SWIG or cognate with the U.S. switchel, which, however, is recorded later and may be ex swizzle; perhaps swizzle derives ex SWIG on guzzle or even on dial. twizzle, v.t., turn round quickly. 2. See swiz.

swizzle

, v.i. To tipple: s. and dial. (–1847) >, ca 1880, coll: ob. Halliwell. Ex the n., 1. 2. v.t., to stir (drink) with a SWIZZLE-STICK: 1859, Trollope (O.E.D.): s. >, ca 1880, coll. Prob. ex sense 1 but strongly influenced by twizzle (see end of swizzle, n., 1). Whence the next entry.

swizzle-stick

. A stick for stirring drink to a froth: coll: 1885 (O.E.D.).

swizzled

. Tipsy: from ca 1850. Ex SWIZZLE, v., 1.

swizzy

. A s. variant of SWIZZLE, n., 1, and v., 1.

swobbers

, see SWABBER.

swob-gill

, see SWAD-GILL. swoddy, see SWADDY.

Swolks

! see 'SWOUNDS!

swollen head, have a

. To be tipsy; coll: late C.19–20; ob.

swop

, see SWAP.

swop me bob or Bob

! A perversion of S'ELP (via SWELP) ME BOB!: 1890, P.H. Emerson.

sworbote (or S.)!, God

. A coll corruption of God's forbote!: ca 1580–1620.

sword, ship one's slung

, see SLUNG SWORD.

sword-racket

*. Enlisting in various regiments and deserting after getting the bounty: c. of ca 1810–50.

sworder

. A ship engaged in catching sword-fish: nautical coll: late C.19–20.

sworn at Highgate

, see HIGHGATE.

swot, swat

. Mathematics: ca 1845–95: military. Also, a mathematician. (Rarely swat.) Perhaps ex a R.M.A. professor's pronunciation of sweat (v.). 2. Hence, (hard) study: Public Schools' (–1881) and universities'. Perhaps imm. ex v. 3. One who studies hard: 1866. Ex second nuance of sense 1.

swot; OCC. swat

, v.i. To study hard: from ca 1859: Army >, ca 1870, gen. at the universities. Ex n., 1. Hence swot (swat) up, to work hard at, esp. for an examination; to MUG UP: rare before C.20.

swot, in a

. In a rage: Shrewsbury (school): late C.19–20. Corruption of sweat.

'Swounds

! A coll euphemism for God's wounds!: 1589, Nashe; †by 1650. cf. the very rare perversion of 'Swounds: Swolks!, recorded by Swift in his Polite Conversation.

swret-sio

. The earliest form (–1859) of SRET-SIO.

swyg

, see SWIG, n. swygman, see SWIGMAN. swynge, see SWINGE. swype, see SWIPE. swypes, see SWIPES.

sycher and zoucher

*. A contemptible person: c., and low: from ca 1780; ob. B. & L.: “‘Sich” is provincial for a bad man.’

Sydney-bird, -duck, or -sider

. A convict: Australian: ca 1850–90. Ex the convict settlement.

Sydney duck

. Any one of the numerous—many of them disreputable—Australians who rushed to California in 1849 ff.: mid-C.19–20; in C.20, mostly historical. Orig. an Americanism, it was adopted, ca 1860, in Australia. They sailed from Sydney; duck is ironic.

Sydney harbour

. A barber: Australian rhyming s.: late C.19–20.

Sydney or the bush, e.g. it's (either)

. A final choice or decision: Australian (esp. N.S.W.) c.p.: late C.19–20.

syebuck

. A sixpence: low: ca 1780–1850. Ex SICE, six; the buck may be a mystifying suffix suggested by HOG, a shilling, but cf. BUCK, n., 6.

syntax

. A schoolmaster: coll of 1780–1860. cf. William Combe's Tour of Dr Syntax, 1813. Ex grammar. cf. GERUND-GRINDER.

syph; incorrectly siph

. Syphilis: coll: late C.19–20. Contrast CLAP.

syrup

. Money: dispensing chemists' (–1909). cf. BRADS.

T

T, marked with a

. Known as a thief: coll: late C.18–mid-19. ‘Formerly convicted thieves were branded with a “T” in the hand,’ F. & H.

t. and o.; T. and O

. Odds of two to one: sporting: from ca 1880; ob.

t.b. or T.B.

. Top boy: London schools’ coll (–1887).

t.t.; OCC. tee-tee

. Teetotal; a teetotaller: late C.19–20.

t.w.k.

Too well known: Army in India: mid-C.19–20.

ta!; rarely taa

! Thanks!: coll, orig. and mainly nursery: 1772, Mrs Delany, ‘You would not say “ta” to me for my congratulation.’ Ex a young child’s difficulty with th and nks. cf.:

ta-ta

! Good-bye!: au revoir!: coll, orig. and chiefly nursery: 1837, Dickens, ““Tar, tar, Sammy,” replied his father.’ Perhaps suggested by Fr. au ’voir.

ta-ta’s (or -tas), go; go for a ta-ta

. (Of a child) to go for a walk: (proletarian) nursery coll: late C.19–20. Ex TA-TA!

tab

. (Gen. pl.) An ear; tailors’: from ca 1870. 2. An old maid; loosely, any oldish woman: theatrical (–1909). Abbr. TABBY, 1.

tab, drive

. ‘To go out on a party of pleasure with a wife and family’, Grose, 1st ed.: ca 1780–1830. Perhaps ex:

tabby; occ. tabbie

. An old maid: coll (in C.20, S.E.): 1761, G.Colman, 'I am not sorry for the coming in of these old tabbies, and am much obliged to her ladyship for leaving us to such an agreeable tête-à-tête'; Grose, 1st ed., 'Either from Tabitha, a formal antiquated name; or else from a tabby cat, old maids being often compared to cats'. 2. Hence, a spiteful tattler: coll: from ca 1840. cf. cat. 3. Loosely, any woman; mostly in tabby-party, a gathering of women: coll (–1874).

tabby party

, see TABBY, 3.

table, on the

, adj. and adv. On the operating table: medical coll: mid-C.19–20.

table-cloth, the

. A white cloud topping Table Mountain: South African, esp. Cape Town coll >, ca 1880, S.E.: from mid-1830s.

table-end man

. A husband whose desires are so urgent that he cannot wait to go upstairs: domestic: late C.19–20.

table-part

. A role ‘played only from the waist upwards, and therefore behind a table’: theatrical coll: C.19–20.

tace is Latin for a candle

! Be quiet; it’d be better for you to stop talking!: coll: 1688, Shadwell, ‘I took him up with my old repartee; Peace, said I, Tace is Latin for a candle’; Swift; Fielding; Grose, 2nd ed.; Scott; then in dial., occ. cat for candle. The pun is double: L. tace=be silent!; a candle is snuffed or otherwise extinguished. cf. BRANDY IS LATIN FOR A GOOSE.

tach

. A hat: back s. (–1859). Via tah aspirated.

tache on, keep one’s

. To remain unruffled; keep one’s temper: Anglo-Indian: late C.19–20. Punning thatch (head of hair, see THATCHED) and Tatcho’s hair-restorer.

tachs

. A fad: Tonbridge School: from ca 1880. Ex tache, a trait, now dial.; cf. the Somersetshire tetch, a habit or gait.

tack

. Foodstuff, esp. in soft tack, bread, and HARD TACK, ships' biscuit: orig. (ca 1830), nautical. Marryat, soft tack, 1833. cf. TACKLE (4), victuals, which is rather later. Prob. a sailor's pun on either tackle, cordage, or tack, a ship's (change of) direction, or ex dial. tack, cattle-pasture let on hire. The O.E.D. considers it S.E.; more prob., I think, nautical s. >, ca 1860, coll and then perhaps, in C.20, S.E. cf. TOMMY. 2. Hence, food (esp. cooked food) in gen.: coll: late C.19–20. Lyell, 'What a filthy looking restaurant! What ever [sic] sort of tack do they give you in this place?!' 3. A feast ia one's study: Sherborne School: from ca 1870. 4. Gear (harness, etc.): hunting: late C.19–20.

tack, on the

. Teetotal: military: late C.19–20. EX TACK, 1. cf. TACK WALLAH.

tack-on

. The act of adding something; the thing added: coll: 1905.

tack or sheet, will not start

. Resolute; with mind firmly made up: nautical coll: C.19–20. Ex nautical j.

tack together

. To marry: jocular coll: 1754, Foote; ob.

tack wallah

. A teetotaller: military: late C.19–20. cf. TACK, ON THE.

tacked, have or have got

(a person). From ca 1870. ‘When a man has another vanquished, or for certain reasons bound to his service, he is said to have “got him tacked”.’ H., 5th ed.

tacking

, n. Obtaining one’s end by roundabout means: lower classes’ (–1909). Ex nautical j., perhaps with a glance at tact.

tackle

*. A mistress: c.: 1688, Shadwell. †by 1830. Prob., like the next, ex tackle, instruments, equipment. 2. Clothes: c. >, ca 1840, nautical s.: late C.17–19. B.E., ‘Rum-tackle,...very fine Cloth[e]s’. cf. RIGGING. 3. Orig. (Grose, 2nd ed.) a man’s tackle=the male genitals: late C. 18–20; ob. 4. Victuals: s.: 1857, T. Hughes, ‘Rare tackle that, sir, of a cold morning’; slightly ob. In dial., it dates from mid-C.18. Prob. suggested by TACK. 5. A watch-chain, a red t. being a gold chain: c.: from late 1870s. Ex tackle, cordage, and frequently in combination with TOY, a watch.

tackle

, v. To lay hold of; encounter, attack, physically: coll: orig. (–1828), U.S., anglicized by 1840 at latest. Perhaps ex tackle, to harness a horse, influenced by attack. 2. Hence, to enter into a discussion, etc., with (a person), approach (a person on some subject): coll: 1840, Dickens; 1862, Thackeray, ‘Tackle the lady, and speak your mind to her as best you can.’ 3. Hence, to attempt to handle (a task, situation), or to understand or master (a subject); attack (a problem): coll: 1847, FitzGerald. 4. Hence, v.i., with to (1847, Trollope), to set to; or with, to grapple with (from late C.19 and mainly dial.). 5. v.t., ex senses 1 and 3: to fall upon (food), begin to eat, try to eat: coll: 1889, Jerome K. Jerome, ‘We tackled the cold beef for lunch.’

tacks

. An artist’s paraphernalia: artists’ (–1909). Ware. Ex tackle, equipment.

tact, go on the

. To go on the WATER-WAGGON: military: from ca 1890; ob. Suggested by ‘teetotal’, perhaps; but imm. by corruption, ex on the TACK.

tadger

. Penis: North Country, esp. Yorkshire: late C.19–20. Perhaps ex tadpole.

tadger, tadging

, see TEAICH-GIR.

Tadpole

. A party-hack: political: middle 1880s; ob. Gen. in the phrase Tadpoles and Tapers. Coined by Disraeli.

taepo

, see TAIPO.

taf; taffy

. Fat, adj.; fatty, n.: back s., ‘near’ back s.: from late 1850s.

taff

. A potato: Christ’s Hospital: from ca 1860. ?ex TATIE or TATER. 2. (Taff.) A C.19–20 abbr. (noted by Bowen) of:

Taffy

. A Welshman: a coll nickname dating from ca 1680 though adumbrated in Harrison’s England, where a Welshman is called a ‘David’. Popularized by the old nursery-rhyme, ‘Taffy was a Welshman, Taffy was a thief’ (see interestingly the v. WELSH). Also an ‘inevitable’ nickname of anyone with a Welsh name or accent: lower classes’: mid-C.19–20. Ex a (supposed) Welsh pronunciation of Davy. cf. PADDY; SAWNEY.

Taffy’s Day

. St David’s Day (1 March): late C.17–20. See TAFFY.

tag

. A lower servant, so called because he assists another (cf. S.E. tag after, to follow servilely): servants's. (–1857) > coll. cf. corresponding PUG. 2. An off-side kick: Winchester: from ca 1840. Mansfield. 3. An actor: from ca 1860; virtually †by 1900, †by 1910. Ex tags of speeches. cf.: 4. The last line of a play, whether in prose or in verse: theatrical coll: late C.19–20. It is, Alfred Atkins tells me, considered unlucky to speak it at rehearsals.

taihoa

! Wait a bit!: New Zealand coll: from ca 1840. Direct ex Maori.

tail

. The posteriors; fundament: C.14–20: S.E. until ca 1750, then (dial. and) coll; in late C.19–20, low coll. 2. The penis; more gen., the female pudend: mid-C.14–20: S.E. until C.18, then coll; in C.19–20, low coll. 3. Hence, a harlot: ca 1780–1850; but extant in Glasgow. Grose, 1st ed. 'Mother, how many tails have you in your cab? how many girls have you in your nanny house?' Other derivatives—prob. not coll before late C.17 or early 18, all ob. except those marked †, and all drawn from F. & H.—are these: Penis. †tail-pike, -pin, -pipe, -tackle, -trimmer, and †tenantin-tail, which also=a whore; pudend, tail-gap, -gate, -hole. Also tail-feathers pubic hair; †tail-fence, the hymen; †tail-flowers, the menses; †tail-fruit, children; tail-juice (or -water), urine or semen; tail-trading, harlotry; tail-wagging or -work, intercourse; cf. †TAIL, MAKE SETTLEMENT IN, go tail-tickling or -twitching, play at up-tails all, and, of women only, turn up one's tail, get shot in the tail; hot or †light or warm in the tail, (of a woman) wanton; but †hot-tailed or with tail on fire= venereally infected. These terms are not results of F. & H.'s imagination: most of them will be found in one or other of the following authors: Langland, Chaucer, Shakespeare, Rochester, Motteux, Ned Ward, Tom Brown, C.18 Stevens and Grose. 4. The train or tail-like portion of a woman's dress: late C.13–20: S.E. until C.18, then coll. Bridges, 1774, 'Brimstones with their sweeping tails'. 5. A sword: c.: late C.17–early 19.

tail

, v.i. To coït: C.18–20; ob. 2. v.t., to follow, as a detective a criminal: coll: late C.19–20. Perhaps ex Australian sense, tail (drive or tend) sheep or cattle.

tail, cow's

. A rope's end frayed or badly knotted: nautical coll: from ca 1860. Whence hanging in cow's (or cows') tails, of an ill-kept ship.

tail!, kiss my

. A contemptuous retort: C.18–20; very ob.

tail, make settlement in, and tenant-in-tail

(see TAIL, n., 2) constitute an indelicate pun on the legal S.E. tail (ex Fr. taille, assessment), limitation as to freehold or inheritance. K.W., 1661, has tenure in tail.

tail, she goes as if she cracked nuts with her

. A semi-proverbial c.p. applied to a frisky woman: C.19–early 20.

tail, top over; tail over top

. Head over heels: coll: C.14–20 (ob.): S.E. until mid-C.18, then coll. See TAIL, n., 1.

tail-block

. A watch: nautical (–1864); ob. Ex lit. nautical sense.

tail-board

. The back-flap of a (gen. female) child's breeches: low: from ca 1870. Ex the movable tail-board of a barrow, cart, van, etc.

tail-buzzer

*. A pickpocket: c. (–1859); ob. Ex TAIL, the breech,+BUZ, to steal. Orig., it would seem, of a thief specializing in removing articles from hip-pockets. cf.:

tail-buzzing

*. That kind of pickpocketry (see previous entry): c.: from ca 1845.

tail-drawer

*. A sword-stealer, esp. from gentlemen's sides: c.: late C.17–early 19. Ex TAIL, n., 5.

tail in the water, with

. Thriving, prosperous: coll: ca 1850–1910.

tail is out, one's

. One is angry: non-aristocratic: from ca 1860.

tail is up the turd is out,—as hasty as a sheep, as soon as the

. A low, mostly rural, c.p. from ca 1860.

tail of the cart, the

. (Plenty of) manure: farmers' coll: late C.19–20. Shovelled out freely, the cart-tail being down.

tail off

. To run or go off; to retire, withdraw: coll: 1841, F.E. Paget, 'Mrs Spatterdash...tailed off at last to a dissenting chapel,' O.E.D., which cites from Rider Haggard (1885) the occ. variant tail out of it. Ware, 'From the tails of birds and animals being last seen as they retreat'.

tail-piece

*. Three months' imprisonment: c.: ca 1850–1910. James Greenwood, 1869.

tail-pulling

. ‘The publication of books of little or no merit, the whole cost of which is paid by the author’, F. & H.: publishers’: from late 1890s; ob. In contradistinction to the honourable publication of books of considerable merit and—to say the least of it—inconsiderable saleability. The former is practised only by sharks and amateurs, the latter by all.

tail-tea

. ‘The afternoon tea following royal drawing-rooms, at which ladies who had been to court that afternoon, appeared in their trains’: Society: 1880–1901. Ware.

tail-twisting

. The act of twisting the British lion’s tail: political: 1889 (O.E.D.). Whence the rare tail-twist, v.i., and tail-twister.

tail will catch the chin-cough, (e.g.) his

. A c.p. applied to one sitting on the ground esp. if it is wet: ca 1670–1800. Ray, 1678.

tailer

. An exclamation on falling, or sitting, unexpectedly on one’s behind: late C.16–early 17. Shakespeare, Mid-summer Night, II, i. Ex TAIL, n., 1, whence also: 2. Such a fall: C.19–20; very ob.

tailor

, v.t. To shoot at (a bird) so as to miss or, gen., to damage: sporting: 1889, Blackwood's Magazine. Ex tailor's slashes. 2. v.i., to have dealings or run up bills with tailors: coll: 1861, T.Hughes; very ob. and never common.

tailor, the fag-end of a

. A botcher: coll: late C.16–17.

tailoring, do a bit of

. To SEW UP: from ca 1860; ob.

tailor's ragout

. 'Bread sopt in the oil & vinegar in which cucumbers have been sliced', Grose, 3rd ed. (at scratch platter): ca 1790–1850. See CUCUMBER.

tails

. A tail-coat, as opp. a jacket: coll. 1888.

tails, charity

. A tail-coat worn by a Lower School boy taller than the average: Harrow School: from 1890s. Ex TAILS.

tails of the cat

. A nautical coll variant (–1887; ob.) of CAT-O’-NINE-TAILS.

taipo; OCC. taepo

. A vicious horse; as name for a dog: New Zealand coll: mid-C. 19–20. Perhaps ex Maori: but see Morris. 2. Among Maoris, a s. term for a theodolite, ‘because it is the “land-stealing devil”’ (Morris). Ex taepo, Maori for a goblin.

taj

. RIPPING; luscious: boys’: ca 1900–12. Ex Taj Mahal.

take

, v.i. To be taken: coll and dial.: 1674, †took with child; 1822, took ill, the gen. form; occ. as in 1890, took studious, jocular. Ex be taken ill, etc. 2. v.t., followed by to do: to require (a person or thing of a stated ability, capacity, or nature) to do something: coll: 1890, Field, 8 March, ‘Any ignoramus can construct a straight line, but it takes an engineer to make a curve.’ 3. v.i. To be a good (well) or bad (badly) subject for photographing: coll (orig. photographers’): 1889, B. Howard, ‘The photographers...say a woman “takes” better standing.’ 4. v.i., to hurt: Charterhouse: late C.19–20. Ex a disease or an injection taking, i.e. taking effect.

take a Burford bait

. To get drunk: C.19 coll ex C.18–20 dial. Orig., to take a drink: coll: ca 1630–1780. ‘Water-Poet’ Taylor, 1636; Fuller, 1662; 1790, Grose in his Provincial Glossary.

take a carrot

! I don’t care!: a low c.p. (–1887); slightly ob.

take a dagger and drown yourself

! A theatrical c.p. retort: ca 1860–1910. Ex old coll phrase=to say one thing and do another, as in Ray, 1678.

take a figure

. To appeal to the ballot instead of to tossing: printers’: from ca 1860.

take-a-fright

. Night: rhyming s. (–1859); slightly ob.

take a pull on oneself

, often shortened to take a pull. To take oneself in hand, to pull oneself together: Australian coll: since ca 1860.

take a stretch out of

(esp. a horse). To exercise: Australian coll: late C.19–20. To cause to stretch its limbs.

take a trip

. To give up a job: tradesmen's (–1909). Ware: 'Followed by movement searching for a new situation'.

take a tumble (to oneself)

, see TUMBLE, TAKE A, and TUMBLE TO, v., 2.

take an earth-bath

, see EARTH-BATH.

take an oath

. To take a drink: late C.19– early 20. cf. TAKING IT EASY.

take and give

. To live, esp. as man and wife: rhyming s. (–1909).

take beef

*. To run away: c. (–1859); ob. cf. cry BEEF.

take (one's) Bradlaugh

. To take one's oath: 1883–ca 85. Charles Bradlaugh was 'intimately associated with the Affirmation Bill' (Ware).

take care of

. To arrest: police coll (–1909). By meiosis.

take care of Dowb

. To look after one's self or one's own interests: political, ca 1855–60. The story goes that some high-placed person wished to look after an officer called Dowbiggin and sent to Lord Raglan in the Crimea the message 'Take care of Dowbiggin.' Communications broke down in the middle of the transmission of the message, so all that arrived was 'Take care of Dowb...' and the receiver surmised that Dowb was some part of the Russian force or position. When the true meaning came out 'Take care of Dowb' became current as a euphemism for jobbery of one sort or other.

take charge

, see CHARGE, TAKE.

take down

, v.t. To deceive grossly; to swindle: coll (orig. Australian): 1895, Melbourne Argus, 5 Dec., '[The defendant] accused him of having taken him down, stigmatised him as a thief and a robber.' 2. In Australian sporting s., 'to induce a man to bet, knowing that he must lose... To advise a man to bet, and then to "arrange" with an accomplice (a jockey, e.g.) for the bet to be lost.... To prove superior to a man in a game of skill', Morris: from ca 1895.

take gruel

. To die: lower classes' (–1909). Ex gruel as staple food in long illness among the poor.

take gruel together, we or they

. We or they live together as man and wife: 1884, Referee, 14 Dec.; †by 1890. Ex a euphemism in a police-court case late in 1884.

take-in

. A (gross) deception, a swindle: 1778, Fanny Burney; H., 1st ed., 'Sometimes termed "a dead take in"'(†). Ex the v. 2. Hence, a person who, intentionally or not, deceives one: coll: 1818, Blackwood's, 'There are...at least twenty take-ins... for one true heiress.' 3. Hence, occ. as adj.=deceptive: late C.19–20. 4. A man who takes a woman in to dinner: coll: 1898.

take in

. To deceive, impose on, swindle: coll: 1725, A New Canting Dict.; 1897, 'Pomes' Marshall, 'He was "dicky", She was tricky—[Took him in, and cleared him out.] On draw in. 2. To believe or accept as ‘gospel’: coll: 1864, ‘The Undergraduates took it all in and cheered...’

take in a cargo

. To get drunk: ca 1815–70. Egan, Life in London.

take in your washing

! A nautical c.p. order to a careless boat’s crew to bring fenders, rope’s ends, etc., inboard: late C.19–20. Bowen.

take it

, see TAKE THE BISCUIT.

take it out of that

! Fight away!: London: ca 1820–60. Bee, ‘Accompanied by showing the elbow, and patting it’.

take off

. A mimic; a mimicking, caricature, burlesque: coll: from ca 1850. Ex:

take off

. To mimic, parody; mock: coll: 1750, Chesterfield; 1766, Brooke, 'He ...perfectly counterfeited or took off, as they call it, the real Christian.'

take off corner-pieces or take corner-pieces off

. To beat or manhandle (esp. one's wife): low urban (–1909).

take on

. To show emotion; grieve, distress oneself greatly: C.15–20: S.E. until early C.19, then coll and dial. Whyte-Melville, 1868, 'There's Missis walking about the drawing-room, taking-on awful': that it had, ca 1820, > a domestic servants' word appears from Scott, 1828, 'Her sister hurt her own cause by taking on, as the maid-servants call it, too vehemently.' 2. To become popular, CATCH ON: 1897, Ouida. 3. To welsh: turf: from ca 1860.

take (one) down a peg

. To lower (a person's) pride: coll: mid-C.17–20. 'Hudibras' Butler.

take one's last drink

, See LAST DRINK.

take one's teeth to

. To begin eating (something) heartily: coll: late C.19–20.

take (e.g. energy) out of (a person) is S.E., but take it out of (him) is coll when=to tire or exhaust him (1887) and when=to exact satisfaction from, have revenge on him (1851, Mayhew).

take that fire-poker out of your spine and the (or those) lazy-tongs out of your fishhooks (hands)! A nautical c.p. of adjuration to rid oneself of laziness: late C.19–20.

take the biscuit

. To deserve a prize for excellence; to be supremely remarkable. cf. take the BUN, and take the CAKE. Recorded by 1890, but perhaps far older, for its original seems to be late Medieval and early modern Latin. Wilfred J.W.Blunt, in Sebastiano (p. 88), records that the inn-keeper's daughter at Bourgoin, a famous beauty, was present, in 1610, as a delegate at an International Innkeepers' Congress held at Rothenburg-am-Tauber. Against her name, the Secretary wrote, Ista capit biscottum, 'That one takes the biscuit.' ML possesses biscottus or biscottum, a biscuit. cf.:

take the bun

. See last entry. A lower-classes' variant of ca 1900–14 is take the kettle.

take the cake

, see CAKE, TAKE THE.

take the can back

. To be reprimanded; see CARRY THE CAN: nautical and military: late C.19–20. Perhaps ex illicit usage of its contents.

take the count

, see COUNT...

take the Huntley and Palmer

, see HUNTLEY AND PALMER. take the kettle, see TAKE THE BUN.

take the marbles out of your mouth

! Speak more distinctly: a non-cultured c.p.: late C.19–20.

take the number off the door

. A c.p. of ca 1895–1915, applied to a house where the wife is a shrew. Ware, ‘The removal of the number would make the cottage less discoverable.’

take the tiles off (the roof), enough (or sufficient) to

. Extremely extravagant(ly): Society: ca 1878–1910.

take to one's land-tacks

. To go ashore for a SPREE: nautical: late C.19–20.

take too much

. To drink too much liquor; drink liquor very often indeed: coll verging on S.E.: late C.19–20. Perhaps orig. euphemistic.

take-up

. A point at which a passenger gets in: coachmen's and cabmen's coll (–1887); ob.

take up one's bed

. To leave the shop for good: tailor's: mid-C.19–20.

take your washing in, Ma; here come(s) the (name of unit). A military c.p. addressed, on the line of march, by one unit to another: late C.19–20.

taken short, be

. ‘To be pressed with the need of evacuation of faeces’: coll (–1890). Funk’s Standard Dict. Ex S.E. sense, ‘to be taken by surprise’.

taker

* is a contemporaneous variant of TAKER-UP. Greene, 1591. (In BARNARD’S LAW.)

taker-in

. The agent of TAKE IN, v., 1: coll (–1887).

taker-up

*. He who, in a gang of four swindlers, breaks the ice with, and ‘butters up’, the prospective victim: c. of ca 1590–1620. Greene, 1591.

taking

. Attractive, charming, captivating: C.17–20: S.E. until early C.19, then coll. cf. TAKY.

taking any (occ. with object expressed), not to be

. To be disinclined for: ca 1900–10. Daily News, 10 March 1900, ‘In the language of the hour, “nobody was taking any”.’ Perhaps orig. of liquor. Now, and long, not having ANY.

taking it easy

. Tipsy: ca 1880–1914. Perhaps ex take one’s ease in one’s inn, to enjoy oneself as if at home.

taky

. TAKING: coll; in C.20, ob.: 1854, Wilkie Collins, ‘Those two difficult and delicate operations in art technically described as “putting in taky touches, and bringing out bits of effect”’.

tale, pitch a

. To spin a YARN: coll: late C.19–20.

tale!, tell that for a

. A c.p. indicative of incredulity: from ca 1870.

tale-pitcher

. A ‘romancer’: coll: from ca 1890. Ex pitch a TALE.

talent, the

. Backers of horses as opp. the bookmakers: sporting coll >, ca 1910, j.: from the early 1880s. Clever because they make a horse a favourite.

talk

. To talk about, discuss: late C.14–20: S.E. until ca 1850, then coll. 2. (Of a horse) to ROAR: stable s. (–1864) > coll. 3. See TALKING!

talk big or tall

. To talk braggingly or turgidly: resp. coll, 1699, L’Estrange, and s. (–1888), orig. U.S. Coulson Kernahan, 1900, ‘Public men who talk tall about the sacredness of labour.’ cf. TALL, 1.

talk bullock

. To use much—and picturesque—bad language: New Zealand coll: 1846, Charies R.Thatcher. Both bullock-drivers and their beasts have much to put up with.

talk by a bow

. To quarrel: London lower classes': ca 1860–82.

talk it out

, see TALKER, 2. talk nineteen to the dozen, see DOZEN, TALK...

talk the hind leg off a bird (Apperson), cow, dog, donkey (Baumann), horse (mainly dial.), jackass

, etc.; or talk a bird's (etc.) hind leg off. To wheedle, to charm; to talk excessively, often with implication of successful persuasion: coll: Cobbett, 1808 ('horse's hind leg'); Beckett, 1838, 'By George, you'd talk a dog's hind leg off.'

talk through one's hat

, see HAT, TALK... talk through (the back of) one's neck, see NECK, TALK...

talk to

. To rebuke, scold: coll: 1878, W. S. Gilbert.

talkee-talkee house, the . Parliament: London jocular (–1887).

talker

. A horse that ROARS: stable s.: from ca 1870. Ex TALK, v., 2. 2. From ca 1860, as in Howson & Warner, Harrow School, 1898, ‘Then followed solos from those who could sing, and those who could not—it made no difference. The latter class were called talkers, and every boy was encouraged to stand up and talk it out.’

talking!, now you’re

. Now you’re saying something arresting, important, amusing: coll: from ca 1880.

tall

. (Of talk) grandiloquent, high-flown: coll: 1670, Eachard, ‘Tall words and lofty notions’. 2. (Very) large or big or (of speed) great or (of time) long: U.S. (ca 1840); anglicized ca 1860. “‘Very tall’ scoring’ (in cricket), 1864 (Lewis); ‘Pomes’ Marshall, 1897, ‘Her cheek was fairly “tall”.’ Ex sense 1 or, more prob. (despite contradictoriness of earliest records), ex sense 2.

tall, talk

, see TALK BIG.

tall-men, tallmen

*. Dice so loaded as to turn up 4, 5 or 6: c. of late C.16–early 17. Kyd, 1592. cf. HIGH-MEN.

tall 'un

. A pint of coffee, half a pint being a short 'un: urban lower classes': late C.19–20.

tallow, piss one's

, see PISS ONE'S TALLOW.

tallow-breeched

. With fat behind: C.18– mid-19. cf.:

tallow-gutted

. Pot-bellied: low coll: C.18– mid-19.

tally

, v.t. To reckon (that...): coll: 1860; ob. Ex tally, to count.

tally, live

(rarely on). To live in concubinage: chiefly mining districts (–1864). Ex tally, a corresponding half or part of anything.

tally-ho

, adj. and adv. In concubinage: low: late C.19–20. Ex preceding.

tally-husband or -man

. A man living thus: from 1870s. On:

tally-wife or -woman

. A woman living thus: resp. early 1860s and late 1880s. Like preceding, mostly Northern. See LIVE TALLY.

tallywag; OCC. tarriwag

. The penis: late C.18–20; ob., except in Derbyshire and Cheshire dial. 2. Gen. in pl, the testicles: resp. late C.18–20 and C.17–20 (‘Water-Poet’ Taylor; Grose; Beckett, 1838). ?origin, unless ex tally, the corresponding half, +(to) wag, v.i., an etymology that fits sense 1, since this sense derives ex sense 2.

talosk

. Weather: Shelta: C.18–20.

tam

; tammy. A tam-o'-shanter: from mid-1890s: coll >, by 1900, S.E.

tamarboo

. A hackney coachman: ca 1840–60. Sinks, 1848. Ex a song thus entitled.

tamarinds

. Money: dispensing chemists' (–1909). For semantics, cf. SYRUP.

tamaroo

. Noisy: Anglo-Irish (–1909). cf. Erse tormánać, noisy.

tamasha

. Anything entertaining or exciting; an entertainment, a display: Regular Army: late C.19–20. Ex Hindustani.

tambour

. The drum in a Punch and Judy show: showmen's: mid-C.19–20. See SWATCHEL.

tame cat

. 'A woman's fetch-and-carry'; coll: from ca 1870; ob. Ex S.E. sense.

tame-cheater

*. A cheater at cards: c.: C.19–20; ob.

tame jolly

, see JOLLY, n., 2. tammy, see TAM.

tamtart

*. A girl: c.: 1845, in 'No. 747'. A perversion of JAM-TART (2) or possibly its original.

tan; tan one's hide

. To beat severely; to thrash: resp. s., mid-C.19–20 (H., 1859); and coll, mid-C.17–20. Mrs Henry Wood, 1862, 'The master couldn't tan him for not doing it.' Ex hide, human skin, +tan, to treat it.

tandem

. ‘A two wheeled chaise, buggy, or noddy, drawn by two horses, one before the other’, Grose, 1st ed.: s. >, ca 1820, coll >, ca 1850, S.E. Prob. university wit, ex tandem, at length, so frequent in L. classical authors (esp. Cicero). 2. A pair of carriage horses thus harnessed: 1795, W.Felton: s. >, ca 1820, coll >, ca 1850, S.E. 3. Ex sense 1, influenced by sense 2, as adv.: one behind the other: 1795 (O.E.D.): same evolution of status. 4. As adj., long: Gambridge University: ca 1870–90. Ware, ‘Used in speaking of a tall man’.

Tangier

. ‘A room in Newgate, where debtors were confined, hence called Tangerines’, Grose, 3rd ed.: c. or low s. of ca 1785–1840.

tangle-foot

. Whisky: U.S. (–1860), partly anglicized ca 1900. Ex effect.

tangle-monger

. One ‘who fogs and implies everything’: Society: ca 1870–1905. Ware.

tank

, v. To cane: King Edward’s School, Birmingham: from ca 1870. Ex dial. tank, a blow.

tank, on the

. Engaged in beer-drinking, often with implication ‘heavy drinking’; British Army: since ca 1890.

tankard, tears of the . Liquor-drippings on a waistcoat: coll: ca 1670–1830. Ray, 1678.

tanker

. A steamer fitted for carrying tanks of oil: 1900: coll.

tanky

. The foreman of the hold, ‘which looks like a tank’ (Ware): naval (–1909).

tanned

, ppl adj. Beaten (severely), thrashed: perhaps as early as 1860. Ex TAN.

tanner

. A sixpence: low (–1811) >, ca 1870, gen. s. Dickens, 1844. Etymology problematic: H., 1st ed., suggests Gypsy tawno, young, hence little; in 2nd ed., L. tener. But see the note at SIMON, 1. 2. Whence tannercab, a sixpenny cab (1908), and tannergram, a telegram (when, early in 1896, the minimum cost was reduced from 1s. to 6d.)

tanner and skin

. Money: tanners': ca 1855–1900.

Tannhauser

. Penis: cultured s. of ca 1861–90. Wagner's opera Tannhäuser was enlarged with new Venusberg music in 1860–61.

tanning

. A thrashing: mid-C.19–20. Ex TAN. cf. TANNED.

tanny

. A mid-C.19 variant of TEENY.

tantadlin, tantaublin

, see TANTOBLIN.

tantarum

, see TANTRUM.

Tantivy

. A post-Restoration true-blue Tory or High Churchman: ca 1680–1740, but esp. ca 1681–9. G.Hickes, The Spirit of Popery, 1680–81; B.E., ‘...Or Latitudinarians, a lower sort of Flyers, like Batts, between Church-men and Dissenters’; Swift, 1730. Ex a caricature representing High Church clerics ‘riding tantivy’ to Rome, and partly a satire on the hunting parson and squire.

Tantivy-Boy; t.-b

. Same as preceding: ca 1690–1710.

tantoblin; tantadlin (tart)

. A lump of excrement: s. and dial.: resp. 1654, Gayton: 1785, Grose (t. tart). †by ca 1840. Ex tantablin, etc., a tart or round pasty: extant in dial. In C.17 occ. tantaublin.

tantrems

. ‘Pranks, capers, or frolicking’, H., 1st ed.: coll or s.: ca 1850–1910. Ex TANTRUMS, +the dial. senses of the same + the occ. dial. spelling tantrim. (H. thought tantrem distinct from:)

tantrum

; occ., though in C.20 very ob., tantarum; in H., 1st ed., tantrem. (Gen. in pl) A display of petulance; a fit of anger: coll: 1748, Foote, ‘I am glad here’s a husband coming that will take you down in your tantrums’; Grose, 1st ed.; Reade. Possibly, as H., 2nd ed. (though actually of tantrems), suggests, ex the tarantula (1693, O.E.D.), properly tarantella (not till 1782?), a rapid, whirling Italian dance; but perhaps rather ex the cognate tarantism, that hysterical malady which expresses, or tends to express, itself in dancing frenziedly, for tarantism, recorded ca 1640, might easily be corrupted to tant(a)rums, the singular not appearing before C.19. Less prob. ex trantran, a tantara, for it does not occur in C.18. Much, much less prob. ex: 2. (Frequent in singular.) The penis: 1675, Cotton in The Scoffer Scofft; app. †by 1800. Possibly cognate with North Country tantril (a vagrant, a Gypsy), recorded as early as 1684 (E.D.D.). 3. See TANTREMS.

tanyard, the

. The poor-house: Caithness s., not dial.: ca 1850–80. Pejorative, E.D.D., ‘Very common for some years after the Poor Law Act, 1845. The paupers had the greatest aversion to indoor relief and called the Poorhouse by this name.’

tanyok

. A halfpenny: Shelta: C.18–20.

taoc, toac; tog

(not properly back s.). A coat: back s. (–1859). H., 1st ed., has also toac-tisaw, a waistcoat; F. & H., 1904, adds taoc-ittep, a petticoat. The correct form, taoc, app. appears first in H., 3rd ed., 1864; and H., 1874, notes that “‘Cool the delo taoc” means, “Look at the old coat,” but is really intended to apply to the wearer as well.’

tap

. A tap-house or -room: s. (–1725) >, early in C.19, coll. T.Hughes, 1857. 2. ‘Liquor drawn from a particular tap’: from ca 1620, though not certainly recorded before 1832; fig., however, used in 1623, ‘A Gentleman of the first Tappe’ (cf. of the first water).

tap

, v.i. To spend, pay up, freely: ca 1712–20. Addison; Steele. Semantics, ‘to “turn on the tap” of gifts’. 2. v.t., to broach, in these s. senses: tap a guinea, to change it (Grose, 2nd ed.), †by 1890; tap a house, to burgle it (late C.19–20, ob.); tap a girl, to deflower her—in C.19–20, often tap a JUDY; tap one’s CLARET (1823, ‘Jon Bee’), to make one’s nose bleed, tap by itself occurring in Dickens, 1840, but ob. by 1900; tap the ADMIRAL. 3. To arrest; also tap (one) on the shoulder (implied in Grose, 1st ed., ‘a tap on the shoulder, an arrest’): coll; resp. †by 1890, and ob.

tap, do the

. To win at cards: military: late C.19–20. Prob. ex:

tap, get the

. To obtain the mastery: tailors’: from ca 1870.

tap-lash

. A publican: coll: ca 1648–1750. Ex t.-l., inferior beer.

tap of work, not to do a

. To do no work: Australian coll: since ca 1890. Ex carpentry.

tap on the shoulder

, n., and v., see TAP, v., 3. tap one's claret, see TAP, v., 2.

tap run dry? or tap-water run out

? A showmen's c.p. addressed to a quack doctor unoccupied or idling while his fellows are working: from ca 1880. The implication being that most of his medicine consists of water.

tap the Admiral, he would

. He'd do anything for a drink: naval: late C.19–20. Bowen, 'From the old naval myth that when Lord Nelson's body was being brought home seamen contrived to get at the rum in which it was preserved'. cf. TAP, v., 2. See also ADMIRAL.

tape

*. Strong liquor: c. (–1725) >, ca 1840, (low) s. 2. Occ. gin: from ca 1820; H., 1859, having 'tape, gin,—term with female servants', and Egan's Grose quoting from Randall's Scrap Book. Gen., however, white tape (1725) is gin, as occ. is †Holland tape (1755) and rarely †blue t. (1785, Grose); red tape (1725) is brandy; loosely red, white, blue t., any spirituous liquor. For semantics, cf. RIBBON. 3. Sending messages by TIC-TAC men: turf: ca 1885–1910.

tape-worm

. An official collecting prices of stock for transmission on the tape: Stock Exchange: not before 1884. Punning the parasite. cf. ticker, an account.

taper

, v.t. To give over gradually; v.i., to run short: from late 1850s. Ex:

taper

, adj. (Of supplies, money) decreasing: 1851, Mayhew; ob. Lit., (becoming) slender (cf. slender chance). cf. also the later thin (time, etc.).

taper, run

. (Esp. of money.) To run short: from before 1859; ob.

taper off

, v.i. To leave off gradually; esp. to lessen gradually the amount and/or strength of one's drink: coll: from ca 1870; ob. Ex TAPER, v.

tapis, on the . Possible; rumoured: diplomatic coll (–1828) verging on S.E.

tapper (C.19); shoulder-tapper

(ca 1780–1910). A bailiff; a policeman. Prob. on much earlier shoulder-clapper. Ex TAP, v., 3.

tappy, on the

. Under consideration: mid-C.19–20: low coll. Ex Fr. tapis, carpet, imm., however, ex (up)on the TAPIS.

taps

. The ears: ?mid-C.18–mid-19. Because they tap conversation.

tar

. A sailor: coll: 1676, Wycherley, ‘Dear tar, thy humble servant’; Dibdin in Tom Bowling, 1790; Macaulay, 1849. Abbr. TARPAULIN. cf. TARRY-BREEKS.

tar and maggots

. Rice-pudding with treacle: girls’ schools’: late C.19–20.

tar-brush

. A tarboosh: among wanderers, esp. in India (–1886). Ex Hindustani ex Persian sarposh, lit. head-cover.

tar-brush, a touch of the

, see TOUCH OF THE...

tar out

. To punish, SERVE OUT: coll: ca 1860–1910. cf. S.E. tar on, but perhaps suggested by tar and feather.

tar-tar

. A rare † variant of TA-TA.

taradiddle

, see TARRADIDDLE.

taradiddler

. A fibber: 1880 (O.E.D.): s. >, by 1900, coll; ob. Ex preceding.

tardy

. Late with, at, in doing; e.g. 'I was tardy task,' I was late with my work: Winchester College: mid-C.19–20. Also tarde.

tare an'ouns

! An Anglo-Irish oath: C.19–20. Corruption of tears and wounds (of Christ).

tare and tret

. 'City bon-ton for—a Rowland for an Oliver', Bee, i.e. tit for tat: ca 1820–50. Ex t. and t., 'the two ordinary deductions in calculating the net weight of goods to be sold by retail', O.E.D.

taring

. See TEARING. C.17–early 18.

tarnal

. CONFOUNDED: dial. >, early in C.19, low coll; mostly U.S. Ex eternal.

tarnation

, n., damnation; adj., adv., CONFOUNDED(ly): late C.18–20: rather illiterate coll and mostly U.S. Ex damnation (cf. DARN(ATION)), the adj. and adv. being influenced by TARNAL.

tarpaulin

; occ., though not after ca 1850,

tarpawlin

. A sailor: coll: 1647, Cleveland; Bailey, 1725; Stevenson, 1893; Frank C. Bowen, ‘A practical seaman, particularly applied when appointments went by favour rather than by merit.’ In C.20, only archaic; ob., indeed, by 1870. Tar much used by sailors. cf. TAR and TARRYBREEKS; also JACK TAR.

tarpaulin muster

. A forecaskle collection of money, esp. to buy liquor: nautical coll: late C.19–20. The money is thrown on to a tarpaulin.

tar(r)adiddle

. A lie, esp. a petty one: from ca 1790: s. >, in mid-C.19, coll. On DIDDLE, the tar(r)a-being problematic: cf. tarrywags (at TALLYWAG) and tara!, an exclamation used by Dryden. Hence:

tar(r)adiddle

, v.i. To HOAX, impose on, bewilder, by telling lies: s. >, by late C.19, coll; 1828, The Examiner, ‘His enemies... squibbed...and taradiddled him to death.’ cf. the ob. dial. taradiddled, puzzled, bewildered.

tarriwag

, see TALLYWAG.

tarry-breeks, -jacket, -John

. A sailor: coll jocular nicknames: resp. orig. (1785, Forbes), Scottish; 1822, Scott; 1888, Stevenson (ib.). According to Bowen, ‘a naval ranker officer’ in C.17. cf. TAR; TARPAULIN.

tart

. A girl or woman (but if old, always old tart): from early 1860s. Orig. endearingly and of chaste and unchaste alike; but by 1904 only of fast or immoral women—a tendency noted as early as 1884. H., 3rd ed. (1864), ‘Tart, a term of approval applied by the London lower orders to a young woman for whom some affection is felt’; Morning Post, 25 Jan. 1887; Baumann, 1887, ‘My tart—mein Schätzchen’; in late 1880s, the occ. diminutive tartlet (Barrère & Leland); ‘Pomes’ Marshall, 1896; above all, F. & H.; B. & P. Ex the idea of sweetness in a woman and a JAM-TART (2): cf. sweetness as a term of address.

tartar; T

*. (Properly Tatar. ‘The r was inserted in medieval times to suggest that the Asiatic hordes who occasioned such anxiety to Europe came from hell (Tartarus), and were the locusts of Revelation ix,’ The Century Dict.) A thief, strolling vagabond, sharper: c.: 1598, Shakespeare, ‘Here’s a Bohemian Tartar’; †by 1780. Abbr. TARTARIAN. 2. An adept: from ca 1780; ob. Grose, 1st ed., ‘He’s is quite a tartar at cricket, or billiards.’ Ex next. cf. HOT STUFF.

Tartar, cateh a

*. ‘Said, among the Canting Varlets, when a Rogue attacks one that he thinks a Passenger, but proves to be of [the 59th order of rogues]. who, in his Turn, having overcome the Assailant, robs, plunders, and binds him’, A New Canting Dict., 1725: c.: C.18. Ex TARTAR, 1.

Tartarian

*. A strolling vagrant; a thief; a sharper or swindler: c.: though prob.from 1590s, not recorded before 1608, The Merry Devil of Edmonton; †by 1690. Nares. Ex Tartarian, a native of Central Asia, the home of a warlike race. See also TARTAR.

tartlet

, see TART, 1.

tashi shingomai

. To read the newspaper: Shelta: C.18–20.

tassel

. An undergraduate: university s. of ca 1828–40. Because his cap has a tassel. cf. TUFT.

taste, a

, adv. A little; slightly: coll: 1894, Hall Caine, ‘Nancy will tidy the room a taste.’ (cf. a bit used adverbially.) In Anglo-Irish, it dates from the 1820s.

taste of the creature

, see CREATURE.

taste the sun

. To enjoy the sunlight: Cockney: ca 1877–1900. cf. SEE THE BREEZE.

taster

. ‘A portion of ice-cream served in a [taster or] shallow glass’: coll: from ca 1890. Ware.

tastey; properly tasty

. Appetizing: from ca 1615: S.E. until mid-C.19, then coll. Buckle, ca 1862, ‘A tasy pie’.
2. Hence, pleasant, attractive: from mid-1790s: S.E. until mid-C.19, then coll; ob. except where it merges with senses 1 and 4. 3. Elegant: from ca 1760: S.E. until ca 1870, then coll; rare in C.20. 4. Hence, of the best: late C.19–20: coll verging on s. ‘Pomes’ Marshall, ‘He’s fond of something tasty... me and him was spliced last Monday week.’ 5. (Ex sense 1.) Sexually alluring, SPICY: from 1890s: s. rather than coll; slightly ob. Whiteing, 1899, ‘Nice and tasty, observes my friend .. as he points to a leg that seems to fear nothing on earth ...not even Lord Campbell’s Act.’

tasty-looking

. Appetizing: coll: from mid-1860s. Ex TASTY, 1.

tat

*. See TATS. 2. A rag; esp. an old rag: c.: 1839, Brandon; 1851, Mayhew. Hence, milky tats, white rags or linen. Ex tatter. 3. Abbr. tattoo, a pony (esp. for polo): Anglo-Indian coll (1840). Also tatt.

tat

*, v.i. To gather rags, be a rag-gatherer: c.: 1851, Mayhew. Prob. ex TAT, n., 2. 2. v.t., to thrash, flog: low s. (–1812); †by 1890. Ex dial. tatt, to pat or tap.

tat-box

*. A dice-box: c. (–1859). Ex TATS. cf.:

tat-monger; tatogey

*. A sharper using loaded dice: c.: resp. late C.17–20, ob. (Shadwell, 1688); late C.19–20. Ex TATS; but what is the second element of tatogey? Perhaps bogey, or it may be F. & H.'s mistake.

tat-shop

*. A gambling-den: c. (–1823). See TATS.

tata

, see TA-TA!; TA-TA'S, GO.

tater, 'tatur

. A potato: dial. and low coll: C.19–20. cf. TATIE; TATTO.

tater (etc.), on for a . Fascinated; esp. of a man by a barmaid: lower classes' (–1909). i.e. ready for a tête-à-tête.

tater!, s’elp my

. The earliest form (–1860) of, S’WELP my taters!. A variation is S’ELP MY GREENS! For hidden sense, see STRAIN ONE’S TATERS.

tater-and-point

. A meal of potatoes: low coll: mid-C.19–20. See POINT.

tater-trap

. The mouth: low: 1816, J.H. Lewis, The Art of Writing, 7th ed.; 1856, Mayhew. See TATER.

taters, settle one’s

. On, and equivalent to, settle one’s HASH: low s. (and Shropshire dial.): late C.19–20; ob.

taters, strain one’s

, see STRAIN ONE’S TATERS. taters!, s’welp my, see TATER, S’ELP MY, and SWELP.

tatie, 'tato

. A potato: dial. and low coll: C.19–20. cf. TATER.

taties in the mould

. Cold (adj.): rhyming s.: late C.19–20.

tatler

*, see TATTLER. 'tato, see TATIE.

tatol

. A tutor in Commoners: Winchester College: from ca 1870. It looks like a corrupted-ending blend of 'tutor' and 'Commoners', perhaps punning (a) tattle.

tats, tatts

*. Dice; esp. false dice: c.: 1688, Shadwell; Henley, 1887, 'Rattle the tats, or mark the spot.' Perhaps ex tat, to touch lightly: cf. TAT, v., 2. 2. Teeth: low: late C.19–20.

tats and all

*! Same as BENDER!: c.: ca 1810–50. Ex preceding: cf. SOME HOPES!

tat's-man; tatsman

*. A dicer, esp. if sharpening; c.: 1825, Westmacott. Ex TATS.

tatt

, see TAT, n., 3. tatt-box, -monger, -shop, see TAT-BOX, etc.

tatter

*. A rag-gatherer: c.: from ca 1860. Ex TAT, v., 1. Also tatterer; from the early 1890s.

tatter

*, v.i. To collect rags; be a rag-gatherer: c.: from ca 1860. ?ex TAT, n., 2. 2. As a variant of totter, it is incorrect—and rare. 3. v. t., in tatter a KIP, to wreck a brothel: 1766, Goldsmith; †by 1830.

tatterdemal(l)ion

*. ‘A tatter’d Beggar, sometimes half Naked, with Design to move Charity, having better Cloaths at Home’, A New Canting Dict., 1725: c.: C. 18. Ex lit. S.E. sense.

tatterer

*, see TATTER, n.

tattie

. A potato: dial. and low coll, mostly Scots: C.19–20. cf. TATIE.

tattle

*. An occ. C.18–mid-19 variant of TATTLER.

tattle-basket

. A chatterer: coll: Ned Ward, 1703.

tattle-water

. A synonym of SCANDAL-BROTH, or -water, i.e. tea: ca 1865–1910.

tattler; OCC. tatler

*. ‘An Alarm, or Striking Watch, or (indeed) any’, B.E.: c.: 1688, Shadwell; slightly ob. The origin is explained by B.E.’s definition. Hence, FLASH a tattler, to wear a watch (late C. 18–20), and SPEAK to a tattler (1878) or NIM a t. (–1859), to steal one. 2. A dog that barks: c.: C.19–20.

tatto

. A potato: dial. and low coll, mostly Scots: C.19–20. cf. TATTIE.

tattogey

*. A player operating with loaded dice: c.: C.19. Ex tattogey, a dicecloth.

tatts

*, see TATS. tatty tog, see TOG, n. tatur, see TATER.

Taunton turkey

. A herring: mid-C.19–20.

taut hand

. A first-class working rating who gives no, or very little, trouble: naval: late C.19–20. Ex t.h., a strict disciplinarian.

tavern-bitch bas bit him in the head, the

. He is drunk: C.17. Middleton, 1608. Prob. the first form of:

tavern-fox, hunt a

. To get drunk: coll: 1630, ‘Water Poet’ Taylor; †by 1700. On SWALLOW A TAVERN-TOKEN, but ex TAVERN-BITCH...

taw, I'll be one—or a marble—(up)on your

. A threat (=‘I will pay you out!’) derived ex the game of marbles, taw being the large and gen. superior marble with which one shoots: coll: resp. from late 1780s and early 1800s; †by 1890, except among schoolboys.

tax-collector

. A highwayman: a ca 1860–90 variant of COLLECTOR.

tax-fencer

. A disreputable shopkeeper: low London: 1878; ob. Ex avoidance of taxes.

tax-gatherer

, see GATHER THE TAXES.

taxes, the

. The tax-collector: coll: 1874, W.S.Gilbert.

tayle; *tayle-drawer

*, see TAIL, n., 5; TAIL-DRAWER.

tea

. A spirituous liquor: from ca 1690. Sometimes defined: cold tea, brandy (1693); Scotch tea, whisky (1887). Ex the colour. 2. Urine: 1716, Gay; implied by Grose, 1st ed., in TEA-VOIDER; †by 1860.

tea

, v.t. To supply with, or entertain at, tea: coll. 1812, Sir R.Wilson. 2. Hence, to drink tea, have one's tea: coll: 1823; Dickens, 1839, 'Father don't tea with us.'

tea and toast struggle

. A Wesleyan tea meeting: lower classes' coll (–1909). On TEA-FIGHT.

tea and turn out

. A proletarian c.p. of ca 1870–1905 applied to absence of supper.

tea-boardy

. (Of a picture) inferior: studio s.: from ca 1870; ob. Ex old-fashioned lacquered tea-trays with landscapes on them.

tea-boat

. A cup of tea: nautical: late C.19–20.

tea-bottle

. An old maid: lower-middle classes' (–1909). Ex fondness for tea.

tea-cake or -cakes

. A child's seat or fundament: Yorkshire s. (–1904), not dial.

tea-chop

. A Chinese tea lighter (boat): nautical coll: ca 1860–1900. 2. pl, the Chinese watermen loading the tea clippers: id.: id.

tea-cup and saucer

. A very respectable, middle-class play: theatrical: ca 1865–95. Contrast 'kitchen-sink' drama.

tea-fight

. A tea-party: 1849, Albert Smith: s. >, ca 1880, coll.

tea in China

, see CHINA, NOT FOR ALL THE TEA IN.

tea-kettle groom

. A groom who has to work also in the kitchen, etc.: low (–1887).

tea-kettle purger

. A total abstainer: London lower elasses' (–1909). Punning tee-totaller. cf. TEA-POT.

tea-leaf

*. A thief: c.: from ca 1905 or earlier. cf.:

tea-leafing

*. Thieving; esp. 'the picking up of unconsidered trifles', as Clarence Rook defines it in The Hooligan Nights, 1899: c.: from ca 1890.

tea-man, teaman

*. A prisoner entitled to a pint of tea, instead of gruel, every evening: c.: from ca 1870; ob.

tea-pot

. Same as TEA-KETTLE PURGER: same period and status. 2. A tea-party: universities': ca 1880–1900. 3. A Negro: ca 1830–60.

tea-pot lid(ding)

. To KID (pretend); 'kidding': rhyming s.: late C.19–20.

tea-pot mended, have one's; or get it down the spout

*. To be restored to the privilege of tea: prison c.: from ca 1880; ob. cf. SMASH THE TEA-POT.

tea-pot sneaking

*, n. Theft of tea-pots and plate: c. from ca 1860.

tea-pot soak

*. One who steals tea-pots: c.: from ca 1860. ?error for tea-pot sneak.

tea-shine

. A TEA-FIGHT: coll. 1838, Mrs Carlyle; †by 1890.

tea-spoon

. £5000: commercial: the 1860s and '70s.

tea squall

. A tea party: ca 1810–50. British Columbia Historical Quarterly of April 1937 (p. 120) records it for 28 April 1820. cf. TEA-FIGHT.

tea-voider

. A chamber-pot: ca 1780–1890. See TEA, n., 2.

tea-wag(g)on

. An East Indiaman: nautical coll of ca 1835–90. Because these ships carried tea as a large part of their cargo.

tea with, take

. To associate with: Aus-tralian: 1888, Boldrewood. 2. Hence, esp. to engage with, encounter, in a hostile way: 1896, Kipling, ‘And some share our tucker with tigers,|And some with the gentle Masai (Dear boys!),|Take tea with the giddy Masai.’

teach-guy

. A late, rare form of teach-guy (see TEAICH-GENS).

teach iron to swim

. To perform the impossible: coll verging on familiar S.E.: C.16–20; ob.

teach your grandmother to suck eggs

, see GRANDMOTHER HOW TO...teacher always a teacher, once a, see POLICEMAN ALWAYS...

teaer, teaing

. One who takes tea; the taking of tea, or the corresponding adj.: coll: resp. 1892, 1874, 1852 (Surtees). Ex TEA, v., 2. Often written tea-er, tea-ing, or tea’er, tea’ing.

Teague; in C.17, occ. Teg, in C.18 Teigue

. An Irishman: coll nickname: 1661, Merry Drollery (Teg); Swift, 1733; 1900, Stanley Weyman; extremely ob., and since ca 1870 nearly archaic. An English ‘transcription’ of the Irish name Tadhg, pronounced (approximately) tayg. cf. PADDY; SAWNEY; TAFFY. 2. In Ulster, a Roman Catholic: coll (–1904).

Teagueland; Teaguelander

. Ireland; an Irishman: coll: late C.17–19. TEAGUE.

teaich

. Eight; eightpence: back s.: 1851, Mayhew. cf.:

teaich-gens

. Eight shillings: back s. (–1859). Also teaich-guy (ib.), by perversion of gens, and theg-gens (id.), see GEN. Contrast:

teaich-gir

(pronounced tadger). Right: back s. (–1874). Hence tadging, TIP-TOP, excellent, splendid: late C.19–20; ob.

teaing

, see TEAER.

tear

(pron. teer). Gonorrhoea: naval: late C.19–20.

tear

, v.i. To move violently; rush (about): coll: 1599, Massinger; Dickens, 1843, ‘And now two smaller Cratchits...came tearing in.’ Perhaps ex tearing through obstacles.

tear, shed a

, see SHED A TEAR.

tear and ages

(1841, Lever) or wounds, occ. ’oun’s (1842, Lover). Anglo-Irish coll interjections of astonishment. cf. dial. tear, a passion; ages may=aches.

tear Christ’s body; tear (the name of) God

. To blaspheme: coll >, by 1550, S.E.: C.14–mid-17.

tear one's seat

. To attempt too much: tailors': from ca 1870.

tear-pump, work the

. To weep: late C.19–20; ob. On WATER-WORKS (2) turn on the. See also PUMPS, n.

tear-up

. A stir, a commotion: coll: mid-C. 19–20. 2. Deliberate destruction (often nerve-caused) of clothes and/or furniture: prison c.: from ca 1870.

tearaway

. A would-be rough, esp. in ladies' tearaway, a man specializing in snatching handbags from women: low, verging on c.: late C.19–20.

tearing

. Violent; passionate; roistering; rollicking: coll: 1654, Gayton, 'Some tearing Tragedy full of Fights and Skirmishes'; 1869, J.R.Green, 'I am in such tearing spirits at the prospect of freedom'; ob. Hence, 2, grand; splendid, RIPPING: late C.17–20; rare since mid-C.19.

tears of the tankard

, see TANKARD.

teary

. Tearful: late C.14–20: S.E. until mid-C.19, then coll.

tease; teaze

, very rare in C.20. One given to teasing; one playfully irritating another: coll: 1852, Dickens, ‘What a teaze you are.’ Ex the v.

tease, teaze; OCC. teize

*. To whip, flog: c.: ca 1810–80. Ex:

tease (but gen. teaze or teize), nab or nap the

*. To be flogged; esp. to be whipped privately in gaol: c.: ca 1780–1840. Prob. ex tease, the act of teasing. cf. sense 4 of:

teaser; teazer

, very rare in C.20. Something causing annoyance; a ‘poser’: coll: 1759, Franklin; of a difficult ball in cricket, 1856. 2. Hence, in boxing s. (1812), an opponent hard to beat. 3.

‘An old horse belonging to a breeding-stud—“though devoid of fun himself, he is the cause of it in others”,’ Bee: turf: ca 1820–70. 4. A flogging or whipping: c. or low s.: from ca 1830. EX TEASE, v. cf. TEASING. 5. A sixpence, ca 1835–80. Sinks, 1848. Ex sense 1.

teasing

*. A flogging: c. of ca 1820–80. Ex TEASE, v.; cf. TEASER, sense 4.

teasy

. (Of persons) teasing; (of things) irritating: coll: from ca 1907. Rare. Ex dial.

tease

*, see TEASE, n., v., and phrase, teazer, see TEASER.

teazle

. The female pudend: low: C.19–20; ob. Ex teasel, a plant.

tec;’tec

. A detective: Sessions June 1879; 1899, Whiteing. Occ. teck.

Teddy my godson

. An address to a simpleton: Anglo-Irish coll: from ca 1780; ob.

tee-tee

, see T.T.

teejay

. A new boy: Winchester College: from ca 1870; ob. Abbr. protégé. Also teje, 1st syllable as Eng. tee, 2nd as in Fr. 2. Hence, as v.

teek; tique

. Mathematics; arithmetic: Harrow: from ca 1880; ob. Ex a French master's pronunciation of the relevant syllable.

teeny; teeny-tiny; teeny-weeny

. Tiny: resp., dial. (–1847) >, ca 1860, coll: coll, 1867, ob.; coll, 1894, Baring-Gould. Ex child's pronunciation.

teeth

. See TOOTH for phrases, etc., not hereinunder. 2. (Only in pl.) A ship's guns: nautical: 1806, John Davis, The Post-Captain; slightly ob. ?ex show one's teeth.

teeth, draw

, see DRAW TEETH.

teeth upwards, go to grass with

. To be buried: late C.19–20; ob.

teeth well afloat, have one's or the

. To be tipsy: from ca 1870; ob.

teethward (properly teeth-ward), be clerk to the

. A coll of late C.16–early 17 as in Hollyband's, i.e. Claude Desainliens's, Dictionarie French and English, 1593, 'He is clarke to the teethward, he hath eaten his service book; spoken in mockage by [?of] such as maketh shew of learning and be not learned.'

Teetotal Hotel(, the)

*. A prison: c.: from ca 1880; ob.

teetotically

. Teetotally: non-aristocratic jocular: 1890s. A perversion, silly enough; but with a less foolish glance at theoretically.

teetottler

. A teetotaller: jocular: ca 1885–1900.

Teg, Teigue

, see TEAGUE. teize, see TEASE, n., v., and phrase. teje, see TEEJAY.

tekelite

*. A defaulting debtor: ca 1830–50: c. of the Debtors' Prison in Whitecross Street, London. Ex Count Emeric Thokoly or Tokoly (1657–1705), spelt Tekeli (or -ly) or Teckeli (-ly) in England, where this great patriot, leader of insurrections against the Germanizing Habsburgs, 'was certainly the most talked-about, most praised and most abused Hungarian in 17th Century England.'

tekram

. A market: back s.: from 1860s.

telegraph

, v. To tattle to: Eton: 1825, Spy, ‘I have never telegraphed the big wigs in my life’: Oxford: ca 1815–60.

telescope

. To silence (a person): Australian: ca 1890–1910. ?ex telescoped carriages.

teliman

. A tailor: pidgin: mld-C.19–20.

tell

, v. To say, esp. in such locutions as ‘Tell him good night’ and ‘Tell her goodbye’: Canadian (and U.S.) coll: mid-C.19–20.

tell, hear

. To hear (something) spoken of; absolutely, as in ‘So I’ve heard tell’, so I’ve heard. C.13–20: S.E. until mid-C.19, then coll and dial. Stevenson, 1896, ‘I asked him if he had ever heard tell of... the house of Shaws.’

tell me!, don’t; never tell me

! I can hardly believe it!; don’t be silly!: coll: resp. mid-C.18–20, slightly ob.; and C.17–20, extremely ob. Shakespeare in Othello; Foote (don’t...).

tell one his own

. To tell him frankly of his faults or mistakes: coll: C.16–20; ob. Horman, 1519. cf. give a piece of one’s mind.

tell that to the marines

! see MARINES.

tell you what, I’ll

; in C.19–20, often I tell you what; in mid-C.19–20, occ. tell you what (Baumann). I’ll tell you something; this is how it is: coll. Shakespeare, Tennyson; Violet Hunt, ‘I tell you what, Janet, we must have a man down who doesn’t shoot—to amuse us!’

teller

. A well-delivered blow: boxing s.: 1814, Sporting Magazine; 1834, Ainsworth, ‘Ven luckily for Jem a teller|Vos planted right upon his smeller’. Ob. Lit., something that tells, makes a mark.

telling, that would be or that’s

, see TELLINGS. App. from ca 1830.

tellings, that’s

. A c.p. reply to a question that one should, or does, not wish to answer: from ca 1835; slightly ob. Marryat, 1837, “‘Where is this..., and when?’” “That’s tellings,” replied the man.’ A playful coll or perhaps, orig., a sol. for ‘That’s telling’=that would be tetling, phrases that are themselves—at first, though not now—somewhat trivially coll.

tempest

. A confused or crowded throng or, esp., assembly: Society coll soon > S.E.: ca 1745–80. Smollett, 1746, in a note on drum, says: ‘There are also drummajor, rout, tempest, and hurricane, differing only in degrees of multitude and uproar.’

temple

. From ca 1860 at Winchester College, as in Pascoe, 1881, ‘On the last night of term there is a bonfire in Ball Court, and all the temples or miniature architectutal excavations in “Mead’s” wall are lighted up with candle-ends.’

Temple of Bacchus

. ‘Merry-making after getting a liceat’, Egan’s Grose: Oxford University: ca 1820–50.

temple of the low men

, the female pudend, is a late C.19–20 jocular pun on the literary ‘temple of Hymen’.

temple-pickling

*. The ducking, under a pump, of bailiffs,’ detectives, pickpockets, and other unwelcome persons: London c. or low s.: late C.17–18. Lit., a pickling within the limits of the Temple.

ten A matches

. Non-safety matches: naval: late C.19–20. ‘The only matches allowed in H.M.Ships are “safeties” and in the old days anyone found with any other kind was given “Ten A” (now number eleven) punishment,’ Granville.

ten-bob squat

. A (seat in a) stall: theatrical (–1909).

ten bones

. (One person's) fingers and thumbs, esp. in a coll oath: C.15–19. cf.:

ten commandments

. The ten fingers and thumbs, esp. of a wife: mid-C.15–20; ob. Heywood, ca 1540, 'Thy wives ten commandments may serch thy five wyttes'; Dekker & Webster, 1607; Scott; H., 3rd ed., 'A virago's fingers, or nails. Often heard in a female street disturbance.'

ten-pennyworth

. The punishment designated '10A': naval: C.19.

ten-stroke

. A complete victory: billiard-players' (–1909). Ten being the highest stroke.

ten-to-four gentleman or toff

. A (superior) civil servant: jocular coll (–1887).

ten toes

, see BAYARD OF TEN TOES.

ten (gen. 10) wedding

. A wedding at which (?and after) the wife=1, the husband=0: non-aristocratic (–1909); ob.

tena koe

? How do you do?: coll, North Island of New Zealand: late C.19–20. Ex Maori (lit., ‘that is you’). cf. TAIHOA!

tenant at will

. ‘One whose wife usually fetches him from the alehouse’, Grose, 2nd ed.: ca 1786–1840. Orig., a legal pun. cf.:

tenant for life

. A married man, because he is hers for life: ca 1810–1900.

tenant-in-tail

, see TAIL, MAKE SETTLEMENT IN.

tench

*. A penitentiary: c.: mid-C.19–20; ob. Abbr. ‘TENTIARY. cf. STEEL; STIR. 2. The female pudend: low s.: mid-C.19–20. ?ex sense 1, or a pun on the fish.

tenderfoot

. A greenhorn; any raw, inexperienced person: U.S. coll (recorded ca 1880, but implied in 1861) >, ca 1890, Colonial coll >, ca 1905, S.E. Ex the tender feet characteristic of one unused to hardship.

tenement to let

. A HOUSE TO LET: ca 1790–1850.

tenip

. A pint: back s. (–1859). With e harmoniously intrusive.

tenner

. A £10 note: coll: Sessions, March 1848. cf. FIVER. 2. (A sentence of) ten years’ imprisonment: c. (1866, O.E.D.) >, ca 1890, s.

tennisy

. Addicted to, fond of, lawn tennis: coll: 1890 (O.E.D.).

tenpence, up a tree for

, see TREE.

tenpence to the shilling (only)

. Weak in the head: s. (–1860) >, ca 1900, coll. cf. S.E. tenpenny, cheap, hence inferior.

tent

. An umbrella: Anglo-Irish (–1904).

tent(-)peg

. An egg: late C.19–20: tramps' s.

'tentiary

. A penitentiary: low coll: mid-C. 19–20.

tenting

. ‘This is the word now in use among circus people to describe their mode of doing business in the country,’ All the Year Round, 16 Nov. 1861: coll >, by 1880, S.E.Thomas Frost, Circus Life, 1875, simply defines tent and the synonymous PITCH, v., 2, as ‘to go on tour.’

’tention

. Attention: Canadian (and U.S.) coll: late C.19–20.

tenuc

. The female pudend: back s.: from ca 1860. ‘Eased’ tnuc.

tenure in tail

, see TAIL, MAKE SETTLEMENT IN.

term-trotter

. One who keeps the terms merely for form’s sake: Oxford University: ca 1780–1820. Vicesimus Knox, 1782. cf. TROTTER, 2.

terms (with), on

, often preceded by get. (To get) on an equal footing (with): sporting: 1887, Sir R.Roberts. Ex lit. sense, on friendly terms. 2. Hence, in cricket: (of a side) having made a score comparable with their opponents': 1897.

terra firma

. (A) landed estate: jocular coll: late C.17–early 19.

terri

. Coal: Shelta: C.18–20.

terrible

as a mere intensive is coll; gen.= very large or great; excessive. From ca 1840. Dickens, 1844, 'She's a terrible one to laugh.' cf. AWFUL; FRIGHTFUL; TERRIFIC; TREMENDOUS. cf.:

terribly

. A frequent intensive (=excessively, extremely, very, very greatly): mid-C. 19–20: coll. Trollope, Jowett. Ex terribly, very severely or painfully. cf. AWFULLY.

terrific; terrifically

. Excessive, or very severe or great; extremely, excessively, frighteningly: coll: in 1809, J.W.Croker describes the extent of business as ‘terrific’, and in 1859 Darwin admits that the corrections in his Origin of Species are ‘terrifically heavy’.

terror

. A HOLY TERROR: coll: 1889.

terry

. A heating-iron: Shelta: C.18–20.

testament

. See BIBLE, 2.

tester

. A sixpence: definitely in 1613 (O.E.D.), but prob. earlier by some twenty years: s. >, by 1700, coll; by 1850, ob., by 1890 †, except as an archaism. Farquhar, Swift, Grose (1st ed.), Lamb, H. Ex tester, a debased teston, and teston, orig. worth a shilling but by 1577, at latest, only sixpence.

testugger

. A ‘testamur’ or certificate: Oxford undergraduates’ (–1899). By ‘the Oxford -er’.

testy

*. A c. form of TESTER (sixpence): C.19. See CAT ON TESTY DODGE. This form virtually proves the TESTER origin of TIZZY.

Tetbury portion

. A CUNT and a CLAP: ca 1780–1850. cf. ROCHESTER PORTION; WHITECHAPEL P.; TIPPERARY FORTUNE.

tetra

, additional, fine, ‘splendid’; go beyond the tetra, to beat the record: Felsted School: from ca 1870. Farmer, Public Schools’ Word-Book, 1900. Perversion of extra? or ex Greek tetra, combining-form of tessera, ‘four’ (cf. FOUR-SQUARE)?

teviss

*. A shilling: costers’s. and tramps’ c. (–1859); ob. Perhaps shilling > shill ‘backed’ to llihs > lihess > lehiss > teviss.

texts

. Various passages learnt by heart before breakfast by the Schoolroom forms: Bootham School coll, verging on j.: late C.19–20.

Thames butter

. Very bad butter: London's poorer classes': ca 1870–5. Ex a journalist's attack on a Frenchman who was making 'butter' out of Thames mudworms.

Thames on fire, set the . Earliest in Foote, ca 1770, as set fire to the Thames; in Wolcot, 1788, we find burn the Thames: both these forms were †by 1850. The present form arose ca 1786, being first recorded in Grose, 2nd ed. Gen. in negative: to do nothing wonderful; never to make one's mark: coll >, by 1860 at latest, S.E. A similar phrase has been applied to the Liffey and the Spree, and W. quotes Nigrinus, ca 1580, 'Er hat den Rhein und das meer angezündet,' he has set fire to the Rhine and the sea, The proposed derivation ex temse, a sieve, is unauthenticated; in any case, it is prima facie improbable.

thank the mussies

! Thank the Lord!: lower classes': ca 1870–1914. Ex mercy.

thankee!; OCC. thanky

. Thank you!: illiterate coll verging on sol.: from ca 1820. Dickens, 1848, 'Thankee, my Lady.' Corruption of thank ye! cf.:

thanks

! (I) thank you: coll: late C.16–20. Ex my thanks to you, etc. Likewise many or best thanks, rare before C.19, though Shakespeare has great thanks.

thanks!, no

. You don't catch me!: Society c.p.: ca 1885–1905.

thanks be

! (May) thanks be given to God: coll: late C.19–20. Also in Cornish dial.

thanky

! see THANKEE!

thary

*, v.i. and v.t. To speak (to): tramps' c.; from ca 1845; ob. 'Gipsy' Carew, 1891, 'I grannied some of what you were a-tharyin' to your cousin.' App. ex Romany. cf. ROCKER.

that, at

. (Estimated) at that rate or standard; even so; even so acting; in that respect; also; unexpectedly, or annoyingly, or indubitably; in addition; and, what's more; yet, however; in any case, anyway: U.S. s. (from 1840s), anglicized ca 1885; by 1900, coll. Keighley Goodchild, 1888, 'So we'll drain the flowing bowl,|'Twill not jeopardise the soul,|For it's only tea, and weak at that.' Perhaps ex 'cheap, or dear, at that price'.

that!, come out of

. Clear out!: late C.19–20. Lit., come out from inside or shelter.

that moan's soon made

. That grief is easily consoled: Scots coll (–1885).

that won't pay the old woman her ninepence

. A Bow Street Police Court c.p. (–1909; ob.) in condemnation of an evasive act.

thatch

, see THATCHED, BE WELL.

thatch-gallows

. A worthless fellow: coll: ca 1785–1850.

thatched, be well

. To have a good head of hair: jocular coll verging on s. (–1874). Ex thatch, a head of hair, esp. if thick: itself coll: from ca 1630. cf. Tatcho hairtonic punningly named by G.R.Sims ex the Romany for ‘genuine’. See TACHE...

Thatched Head

. An Irishman: pejorative coll nickname: C.17. Beaumont & Fletcher.

thatched house under the hill, the

. The female pudend: low coll or s.: ca 1770–1850. Used as a title by Stevens in 1772.

that’s a cough-lozenge for him

! He’s punished: a proletarian c.p. of ca 1850–90. Ex an advertisement for cough-lozenges.

that's all was, ca 1830–80, a much-used coll intensive, as, e.g., in ‘When I’m in the army, won’t I hate the French, that’s all.’

‘that’s gone’, as the girl said to the soldier in the park

. A c.p. of ca 1890–1910. Binstead.

that’s right

! Yes!: low coll: late C.19–20. Ex S.E. formula of approval.

that’s up against your shirt

! That’s a point against you!: lower classes’ c.p. of ca 1900–14. Perhaps ex stains on a white shirt.

that’s what I say

. A much overdone conversational tag that verges on being a c.p.: late C.19–20.

that's where you spoil yourself

! A non-aristocratic c.p. directed at a smart person overreaching himself: 1880–81.

theatre

*. A police court: c. (–1857); almost †. Because there the prospective prisoner assumes a part unnatural to him.

Theatre Royal, amen

. A church: low (–1909). Why? Perhaps it was orig. theatrical; touring players perform frequently at Theatres Royal.

theatrical

. (Gen. pl.) An actor or actress: stage coll (–1859). i.e. theatrical person or people.

thedi or theddy; tedhi

. Fire: Shelta: C. 18–20.

theg

. Eight, as in theg GEN, 8s., and theg YANNEPS, 8d. Rhyming s. (–1859). See also TEAICH.

then comes a pig to be killed

! A c.p. expressive of disbelief: lower-middle and lower classes': ca 1900–14. Ware, 'Based upon the lines of Mrs Bond who would call to her poultry—"Come, chicks, come! Come to Mrs Bond and be killed."'

then the band began to play! then the band played

! See BAND PLAYED.

then you woke up

? A c.p. implying disbelief in a tall story: late C.19–20.

there, all

. Shrewd; alert; smart. Not all there: mentally deficient. Coll: 1864, Mrs Gatty. The negative phrase sometimes= dishonest, or criminal, as in Anon., 1877, 'He stayed...doing the grand and sucking the flats till the folks began to smoke him as not all there.' Whence:

there, be

. 'To be on the qui vive; alive; knowing; in one's element', F. & H.: coll (–1890).

there, get

, see GET THERE.

there, have

(a person). To ‘pose’ or ‘stump’ him: coll: late C.19–20.

there, that

. That, as in Richardson, 1742, ‘On leaving...Mrs B.’s...house, because of that there affair’: dial. and illiterate coll. Occ. that ’ere (C.19–20); in U.S., that ’air.

there and back

. A c.p. reply to an impertinent or unwelcome inquiry ‘where are you going (to)?’: late C.19–20.

there first

. A thirst: rhyming s.: late C.19–20.

there is the door the carpenter made!

; usually with there emphasized. You may go: lower-middle class c.p. of ca 1760–90. Sessions, 1767, trial of Rebecca Pearce.

there you ain't

! A proletarian, esp. Cockney, c.p. imputing or declaring failure: ca 1880–1910.

there you are

! A coll variation of the there you go! of surprise, disgust, or approval: app. not before C.20; app. unrecorded before 1907.

there's (h)air

! There's a girl with a lot of hair!: London streets' c.p. of ca 1900–12. But also there's 'air—like wire!, which is self-explanatory.

they say, where they

is indefinite and may refer to one person. It is said: coll verging on S.E.: C.17–20.

they're off, said the monkey

. The race has started; or, applied to something that has come loose: c.p.: late C.19–20. Often enlarged thus:...when he backed into the lawn-mower (with a consequent loss of potency).

thick

*. A synonym of STIFF, n., 1, by which it was prob. suggested: c. of ca 1820–50. 2. A blockhead; a foolish person: coll, mostly schools'; also Anglo-Irish: late C.19–20. T.Hughes, 1857, 'What a thick I was to come!' Ex thick, stupid. 3. Cocoa: (mostly London) street s.: from ca 1870; ob. Ex the consistency of cocoa as usually made. 4. Porter, which is said to be 'a decoction of brewers' aprons': rather proletarian: from ca 1870; ob.

thick

, adj. In close association; familiar; intimate: coll: ca 1756, Bishop Law "“Yes,” said he, “we begin...without my seeking, to be pretty thick”"; Barham; G.Eliot. And see the as THICK AS... phrases. Ex thick, close. 2. Excessive in some unpleasant way; intolerable, unmanageable; unjust: from early 1880s, the O.E.D. recording it in 1884. "“It’s a bit thick”, he said indignantly, “when a man of my position is passed over for a beginner...”," Horace Wyndham, 1907. Per-haps ex S.E. lay it on thick, to exaggerate, to flatter fulsomely. 3. Hence, indelicate; esp. in a bit thick, rather indecent: from ca 1890; slightly ob. 4. Hence (?), noisy and/or bibulous, esp. the latter: from ca 1891. W.Pett Ridge, Minor Dialogues, 1895, "“I was out at a smoker last night.” “Thick?” “Thick isn’t the word.”" 5. See DEAD THICK.

thick

, adv. Densely: coll: late C.19–20. 'The syrup runs thick,' O.E.D.

thick, got 'em

. Very drunk: from ca 1890; slightly ob. 'Pomes' Marshall, 1897, 'I've got 'em thick, he said...And... went upstairs to bed.' The 'em is generic: cf. GOT 'EM.

thick and thin

. Unshakable devotion to a party or a principle: political: 1884, Pall Mall Gazette, 14 Feb., ‘The hidebound partisans of thick and thin’. 2. Hence, gen. hyphenated, as adj. in same sense: 1886, J.Payn: political and journalistic. Both n. and adj. little used after ca 1901.

thick as..., as

. Similes—all coll—elaborating THICK, adj., 1: as glue, C.19–20; as inkle-weavers, Jate C.17–20 (ob.), as in B.E., Cowper, Scott—ex their working so close together; as peas in a shell, late C.18–19—cf. as three in a bed; as thieves, C.19–20, as in Theodore Hook, 1833, ex the confidential and secret manner of thieves conferring; as three in a bed, C.19–20, as in Scott, 1820, but since ca 1870 only in dial.—ex the close packed discomfort. Dial. has many synonyms, e.g. thick as Darby and Joan, Dick and Laddy, Harry and Mary, herrings in a barrel, two dogs’ heads, and (also a C. 19–20 coll) thick as thick: see esp. E.D.D.

thick ear

. (Gen. give one a t.e.) An ear swollen as the result of a blow: low coll: late C.19–20.

thick one; gen. thick ’un

*. A sovereign; a crown piece: both c. (–1859) >, almost imm., (low) s. ‘House Scraps’ Aitken; B. L.Farjeon. Hence, smash a t. u., to change it. 2. (Always thick ’un.) A slice of bread and butter: Cockney: late C.19–20.

thick starch double blue

. A ‘rustling holiday dress for summer’: middle classes’: ca 1905–14. Ware. Ex its over-laundered state.

Thicker

. Thucydides, as a text: Harrow: from ca 1890. See ‘Oxford -er’, p. 11.

thickest part of his thigh...

see HUMDUDGEON.

Thicksides

. Thucydides: Public Schools’ and Oxford: from ca 1840. P.G.Wodehouse, Tales of St Austin’s, 1903, ‘I’m going to read Pickwick. Thicksides doesn’t come within a mile of it.’ cf. THICKER.

thief

. A horse failing to run to form: racing: 1896 (O.E.D.).

thief and a murderer, you have killed a baboon and stole his face,—you are a

. A c.p. of vulgar abuse: ca 1780–1830.

thief in a mill, safe as a

, see SAFE AS.

thieves' cat

. A CAT-O'-NINE-TAILS with knots: nautical (–1867); ob. Because it was used as a punishment for theft.

thieving hooks

. Fingers: low (–1887).

thieving irons

. Scissors: C.19. ?because used for cutting purses.

thilly

. A makeweight: Shelta: C.18–20.

thimble

*. A watch: c. (–1811). 2. Hence thimble twister, a watch thief (–1859), as in H., and t. and SLANG (8), a watch and chain (–1901).

thimble, knight of the

. A tailor: jocular coll: 1812 (O.E.D.). See KNIGHT.

thimble-crib

*. A watchmaker's shop: c.: ca 1810–60. Ex CRIB, n., 3.

thimble-rig

. A sharpening trick with three thimbles and a pea: s. (1825, Hone) >, ca 1850, coll >, before 1890, S.E. 2. Hence, from ca 1830, thimble-rigger, such a sharper. See RIG, n.

thimble-twister

*. See THIMBLE, 2. The vbl n. is thimble-twisting (–1845: 'No. 747', Autobiography of a Gipsy).

thimbled

*. Owning or wearing a watch: c. (–1812). See THIMBLE. 2. Arrested; laid by the heels: c. of ca 1820–40. ?by a pun on THIMBLE=a watch=the watch=the police.

thin

, n.; plural, thin. A thin slice of bread and butter: Cockneys’: ca 1845–1910. Mayhew, I, 1851.

thin as a rasher of wind

, see RASHER OF WIND.

thin-gut

. A very thin person; a starveling: C.17–20: S.E. until C.19, then (low) coll; so ob. as to be virtually †.

thin ’un

. A half sovereign: from ca 1860; almost †. On THICK ONE or ’UN.

thing

. Penis; pudend: when used not euphemistically but carelessly (cf. AFFAIR, 2) or lightly, it is low coll: C.17–20. 2. See GOOD THING; OLD THING; KNOW A ... 3. See THINGS and:

thing, the

. (Always in predicate). That which is suitable, fitting, fashionable; the correct tbing; (of a person) fit, in good form or condition: coll: 1762, Goldsmith, 'It is at once rich, tasty, and quite the thing'; 1775, Mme D'Arblay, 'Mr Bruce was quite the thing; he addressed himself with great gallantry to us all alternately'; 1781, Johnson (of a procedure), 'To use the vulgar phrase, not the thing'; 1864, Meredith (of health), 'You're not quite the thing to-day, sir.' 2. Hence, the requisite, special, or notable point: coll: 1850, Thackeray; M.Arnold, 1873, '[A state church] is in itself...unimportant. The thing is to re-cast religion.' 3. See THINGS, THE.

thing-a-merry

, see THINGUMAJIG. thingamobob, see THINGUMBOB. thingamy, See THINGUMMY. thing'em, See THINGUM. thing'em bob, see THINGUMBOB. thing-o-me(-my), see THINGUMMY.

things

. Personal effects carried with one at a given time; impedimenta: coll: C.17–20; e.g. in 1662, J.Davies, 'We...went to the Custom House to have our things search'd.' Ex things, possessions, goods. 2. Clothes: coll: from ca 1630, as in Sheridan, 1775, 'I suppose you don't mean to detain my apparel—I may have my things, I presume?' 3. Hence, esp. such garments, etc., as, in addition to her indoor dress, a woman dons for going out in: coll: 1833, T.Hook, 'Take off your things—and we will order...tea.' 4. Implements or utensils; equipment: if the kind is specified, then coll: C.18–20, 'The kitchen things' is recorded by O.E.D. at 1738. cf. sense 1. 5. Base coin: c. of mid C.19–20; ob. Ex contemptuous use of things.

things,...and

. And other such things; et cetera: coll: 1596, Shakespeare, ‘Ruffs and cuffs, and fardingales, and things’.

things, no great

. (Predicatively.) Nothing much; mediocre; very ordinary: coll and dial.: 1816, ‘Quiz’, ‘“The Governor”,—He’s no great things..., Sir.’

things, the

*. Base coin: c. (–1839); virtually †.

things (will) happen (even) in the bestregulated families, these (occasionally such)

. An apologetic or an explanatory c.p., applied to a family quarrel or misfortune: domestic: late C.19–20.

thingstable

. ‘Mr Thingstable, Mr Constable, a ludicrous affection of delicacy in avoiding the...first syllable in the title of that officer, which in sound has some similarity to an indecent monosyllable,’ Grose, 1st ed.; †by 1830. (cf. ROOSTER (5) for COCK.)

thingum

; in C.19, occ. thing’em. THINGUMMY: coll: 1681, Flatman, ‘The Thingum in the Old Bailey’: from mid-C.19, only in dial. Thing+um, a meaningless suffix. Prob. earlier than:

thingum thangum

. THINGUMMY: coll: 1680, Otway; †by 1800. Reduplicated THINGUM.

thingumajig (occ. thingermajig, thingum mijib (or -jig), thingymyjig, etc.), often hyphenated thingum-a-jig; thingumary, occ.thingummarie, also thing-a-merry

. A THINGUMMY: coll: -jig, 1876, ‘Lewis Carroll’; -ary (etc.), 1819; the rare thing-a-merry, occurring in 1827, is †by 1890. Elaborations of THINGUM. O.E.D. cf.:

thingumbob; occ. thingamobob, thing'em
bob, thing(-)em(-)bob, thingumbob, thingummybob

. A THINGUMMY: coll: resp. 1751, Smollett—cf. Grose, 1st ed., ‘A vulgar address or nomination to any person whose name is unknown’; 1870; C.19–20; 1778, Miss Burney; 1832, Lytton; mid-C.19–20 and due to a confusion with THINGUMMY. Ex THINGUM+a senseless suffix. 2. In pl: see senses 3, 4, of:

thingummy; often thingam(m)y; rarely thing-o-me or -o'-me or -o-my; fairly often thingummie or -umy

. A thing or, occ., a person one does not wish to, or cannot, specify, or the name of which one has forgotten: coll: resp. 1819; 1803; 1796, thing-o'-me, perhaps a nonce-use, as prob. also is thing-o-me in late 1790s; thing-o-my, rare, is of early C.19; -ummie, from ca 1820; -umy, H., 1864. Thackeray, 1862, ‘What a bloated aristocrat Thingamy has become.’ Ex THINGUM+diminutive y or (ie) or, less prob., ex thing+of me (—mine). cf. THINGUMAJIG; THINGUMBOB. 2. The penis or the pudend: euphemistic coll: C.19–20. 3. In pl, the testicles: thingumbobs in Grose, 1st ed.; thingummies (etc.) not till C.19; thingumajigs not before ca 1880, nor thingumaries before ca 1820. 4. (Also in pl.) Trousers: lower classes’ (–1909).

think

. An act or period of thinking: dial. (from ca 1830) >, ca 1840, coll. Ex v. 2. An opinion: coll: 1835, Lady Granville, ‘My own private think is that he will...’

think!, I don't

. This c.p. (which is rather s. than coll) reverses the ironical statement it follows: 1837, Dickens, “‘Amiably disposed..., I don’t think,” resumed Mr Weller, in a tone of moral reproof.’ In late C.19–20, it often elicits the dovetail, you don’t look as if you do or I didn’t suppose you did.

think!, only; think!, you can’t . Phrases exclamatory and/or intensive of that which follows: 1782, Mme D’Arblay, ‘You can’t think how I’m encumbered...!’; 1864, Mrs Carlyle, ‘Only think! I get...’

think?, what or who do you

. Phrases, esp. if parenthetical, ushering in a surprising statement: coll: 1616, Jonson, “Mongst these..., who do you think there was? Old Banks...’

think about breakfast

, see BREAKFAST, THINK ABOUT.

think and thank

. Thank you!; thanks, gratitude: Yiddish (–1909). Ware, ‘Translated from the first words of the ordinary Hebrew morning prayer’.

think-box

. The head: Australian: ca 1890–1910. The Sydney Bulletin, 18 Jan. 1902.

think small beer of

, see SMALL BEER.

think up

. To invent, or to compose, by taking thought; esp. by racking one's brains, to hit upon, to devise: U.S. coll (1885) anglicized ca 1900. e.g. 'Things look bad; I must think up some stunt.' Possibly, to bring up to the surface of one's mind by hard thinking.

thinker

. An actor playing a THINKING PART: theatrical coll: 1886.

thinking part

. A role in-which one says very little or nothing: theatrical coll: 1898, Daily News, 12 March. Because in such a part, an actor has plenty of time for thought.

thinks he holds it, he

. He's a vain conceited fellow: from ca 1870: a sporting c.p. > gen. ca 1875; ob. Presumably it is the prize.

thinks his shit doesn't stink

, often preceded by the sort of bloke who or he. A c.p. applied to a conceited fellow: non-aristocratic, non-cultured: ca 1870. Often completed by but it does, same as any other bugger's.

thirsty

. Causing thirst: late C.16–20: S.E. until C.19, then coll.

thirteen clean shirts

*. Three months' imprisonment: prison c.: late C.19–20; slightly ob. i.e. at the rate of one shirt a week.

thirteenth juryman

. A judge who, in addressing a jury, shows leaning or prejudice: legal (–1895).

this child. I

; myself: orig. (–1842), U.S., at first esp. among Negroes; partly anglicized, mostly in the Colonies, late in C.19.

this is all right

! Everything is wrong!: non-aristocratic c.p.: of ca 1896–1905.

this is where you want it

, accompanied by a tap on one's own forehead. You need brains: c.p. late C.19–20.

this savvy

. This afternoon: Merseyside school-children's: late C.19–20. A slovening of 'this afternoon'. Perhaps, rather, sol.

thistle-down

. Children apt to wander, esp. on moor or heath: Anglo-Irish coll (–1909). cf. the Devonshire dial. thistleseed, Gypsies.

thistle-whipper

. A hare-hunter: hunting: 1801. Contemptuous.

thoke

. A rest, esp. in or on one's bed; an idling: Winchester (–1891). Prob. ex THOKY, not as at Winchester but as in dial.

thoke

, v. To lie late in bed; to idle: Winchester (–1891). Ex n.

thoke on or upon

. To look forward to: ibid.; id. Elaboration of preceding.

thoker

. A piece of bread soaked in water and toasted or baked in the ashes: Winchester College: mid-C.19–20. Wrench. Ex toasted+soaked.

thokester

. An idler: ibid.; id. Ex THOKE, v.

thoky

. Idle: Winchester College (–1891). Ex dial. thoky, earlier, thokish, sluggish, lazy.

Thomas, John; man Thomas

. The penis: resp. C.19–20; C.17–mid-19, recorded in Grose, 1st ed., but implied in Fletcher’s Monsieur Thomas in 1619. cf. DICK.

Thomond’s cocks, all on one side,—like Lord

. Applied ironically to a group of persons nominally in agreement, actually likely to quarrel: late C.18–early 19. Lord Thomond’s cock-tender shut in one room a number of birds due to fight, the next day, against another ‘team’; result, internecine warfare.

thomyok or tomyok

. A magistrate: Shelta: C.18–20.

thornback

. An old maid: late C.17–early 19. ‘Facetious’ Tom Brown. A pun on maid, the female young of the thornback (ray, skate).

thorough churchman

. ‘A person who goes in at one door of a church, and out at the other without stopping’, Grose, 1st ed.: ca 1780–1850. A pun on †thorough, through.

thorough cough

. A simultaneous cough and crepitation: late C.17–mid-19.

thorough-go-nimble

. Diarrhoea: 1694, Motteux. Ob., except in dial. 2. Hence, inferior beer: ca 1820–60. Scott, 1822 (O.E.D.).

thorough good-natured wench

. ‘One who being asked to sit down, will lie down’, Grose, 1st ed.: ca 1780–1880.

thorough passage

. ‘In at one Ear, and out at t’other’, B.E.: late C.17–mid-19. cf. THOROUGH CHURCHMAN; THOROUGH-GO-NIMBLE.

thou

. A thousand; esp. £1000: coll: 1869 (O.E.D.). Ware dates it from 1860. cf. sov.

though

. (As adv., gen. at end of phrase.) For all that; nevertheless; however, yet: C.19–20: S.E. until mid-C.19, then coll. Browning, 1872; Anstey, 1885, ‘I’ve lost [the note]. She told me what was inside though.’

thought did!, you know what

. A c.p. to ‘I think...’; late C.19–20. If the other asks What?, one adds Ran away with another man’s wife. A softening of the late C.18—mid-19 form recorded in Grose, 2nd ed.: ‘What did thought do? Lay in bed and beshat himself, and thought he was up; reproof to anyone who excuses himself for any breach of positive orders, by pleading that he thought to the contrary.’

thousand a year!, another (ten)

. A drinking pledge: coll: mid-C.19–20; very ob.

thousand pities; or towns and cities

. A woman’s breasts: rhyming s. (on bubs and titties—see BUB, 3; TITTY, 2): late C.19–20.

thousand strokes and a rolling suck(, a)

. A nautical c.p. applied to a leaky ship: from ca 1870. Her pumps require many strokes and suck—an indication that she is dry—only when the ship rolls.

thrash one's jacket or the life out of one

. To thrash; to thrash severely: coll: resp. 1687 (T.Brown), in C.20 almost†; from ca 1870.

thread the needle

. To coït with a woman: C.19–20; ob.

three

. A Rugby three quarter: sporting coll: C.20. (O.E.D. record: 1905). 2. A third-term cadet in: the training-ship Britannia: late C.19–early 20.

three!, the cube of

. An Oxford toast of 1705–6. Thomas Hearne in his Reliquiae, ‘The great health now is..., ...27, ... the number of the protesting lords.’ In reference to a political incident of the day.

three acres and a cow

. A satirical c.p. (1887–ca 89) directed at baseless or excessive optimism. An ironic reference to the slogan coined by Joseph Chamberlain's henchman, Jesse Collings, who proposed that every smallholder should possess them: he became known as Three Acres and a Cow Collings. The slogan may be derived from a popular song of the 1880s.

three and sixpenny thoughtful

. A 'feminine theory novel': Society: ca 1890–8. Ware. Satirical of, e.g., Mrs Craigie and Mrs Humphry Ward.

three bags full (or three bagsful)

. Much: coll: from ca 1890.

three balls

, see UNCLE THREE BALLS.

three Bs

. Brief, bright, brotherly: ecclesiastical (–1909). In reaction against the somnolence of so many services in Victorian days.

three cold Irish

, see FENIAN.

three-cornered

. (Of a horse) awkwardly shaped: coll: 1861, Whyte-Melville.

three-cornered constituency

. A house where one person's 'vote' gives victory to either wife or husband: Society: ca 1870–1914. Ex boroughs in which one voted for two of the three members returned.

three-cornered pinch

. A cocked hat, either a seaman's or resembling one: military: ca 1800–50. John L.Gardner, The Military Sketch-Book, 1827.

three-cornered scraper

. A cocked hat: nautical: from ca 1810; †by 1900. Saturday Evening Post, 16 March 1822.

three-cornered tree

, see THREE-LEGGED MARE.

three-decker

. A pulpit. A pulpit in three tiers: coll nickname; 1874. 2. 'A sea pie or potato pie with three layers of meat and crust or potato': nautical coll: late C.19–20. Bowen. 3. A three-volume novel: book-world coll: ca 1840–1900, then historical.

three decks and no bottom

. An ocean liner: sailing-ship men's c.p.: late C.19–20.

three draws and a spit

. (Occ. hyphenated.) A cigarette: low: late C.19–20; ob.

three-er

. Something counting for three, esp. in cricket: coll: from the early 1890s.

three Fs, the

. FUCK, fun, and a foot-race: low: ca 1882–1914. Punning the three demands of the Irish Land League, Free Sale, Fixity of Tenure, and Fair Rent.

three-figure man

. One whose arrest comports a reward of £100: policemen's: mid-C.19–20. John Lang, The Forger's Wife, 1855.

three ha'porth of Gorde(l)pus

. A street ARAB: London (–1909); ob. Ex Cockney form of God help us!

three is an awkward number

. A c.p. (1885–6) paraphrasing two are company; three, not. Ex Lord Durham's nullity-of-marriage law-suit (1885).

three-legged mare, stool

. The gallows; in C.17–18, esp. that at Tyburn: resp. 1685, T.Brown, and Grose, 1st ed.—†by 1850; and late C.17–mid-19, as in B.E. Also three-cornered tree, 1654, but †by 1800; mare with the three legs, Ainsworth, 1834, and rare; (the) three trees, late C.16–mid-17, as in Breton. Also (the) TRIPLE TREE, (the) TYBURN TREE. 'Formerly consisting of three posts, over which were laid three transverse beams', Grose, 1785. 2. comb one's head with a three-legged (or a joint-) stool. Gen. as threat, I'll comb your head, etc.: coll: late C.16–18, then in dial. Shakespeare (noddle).

three Ls

. Look-out, lead, latitude: nautical coll: C.19.

three-man breeze

. A stiff breeze: sailingships': late C.19–20. A pun on catamaran, from whose crew such a breeze sent several men out on to the weather outrigger.

three more and up goes the donkey

! see DONKEY!, A PENNY...

three ones

. 1 cwt, 1 qr, 1 lb: London warehousemen's: from ca 1870. Also Lord Nelson, cf.: 2. (With capitals) Trafalgar Square: London s.: from ca 1860. The reference is to Nelson's Column, Nelson having one arm, one eye, and one anus.

three-out

. A glass holding the third of a quartern: coll: from ca 1836. Dickens in Sketches by Boz.

three-out brush

. A drinking-glass shaped like an inverted cone and therefore rather like a painter's brush especially when dry: taverns' (–1909).

three-piece bamboo

. A three-masted ship: pidgin and nautical: from ca 1870; slightly ob.

three planks

. A coffin: lower classes' coll (–1909).

three-quarters of a peck

, often abbr. three-quarters and by experts written ‘’. The neck: rhyming s. (–1857).

three-ride business

. ‘The crack way of running over hurdles, in which just three strides are taken mechanically between each hurdle’: athletics: from ca 1870.

three sheets

, short for three SHEETS IN THE WIND: Sessions, Nov. 1857, ‘He said “A man will do anything when he is tight, or three sheets”—he had been drinking.’

three sixty-five

; gen. written ‘365’. Eggs-and-bacon: commercial travellers’: late C.19–20. Because eaten for breakfast every day of the year. On slates in commercial hotels may be seen the legend ‘7 (or 7). 365’, which means ‘Call me at 7 (or 7.30); eggs-and-bacon for breakfast.’

three skips of a louse; not three skips of a louse

. (Of) no value; not at all: coll: 1633, Jonson, ‘I care not, I, sir, not three skips of a louse’; †by 1850. Hence, for three, etc.: very easily, or with very little provocation, as in Murphy, 1769, ‘I’d cudgel him back, breast and belly for three skips of a louse!’; †by 1850. cf. for TUPPENCE.

three slips for a tester(, give)

. (To give) the slip: coll: ca 1625–1700. F.Grove, 1627; Anon., ca 1685, 'How a Lass gave her Love Three Slips for a Tester [part of a ballad title], and married another three weeks before Easter.' Lit., (to give) three counterfeit twopennies for a sixpence.

three Ss!, mind your

. A naval c.p. rule for promotion: late C.19–20. i.e. be sober, silly [simple; not offensively intelligent], and civil.

three steps and overboard

, see FISHERMAN'S WALK.

three-stride business

. The taking of only three strides between hurdles, this being the CRACK style: athletics coll: late C.19–20.

three to one (and sure to lose), play

. (Of a man) to coït: low: late C.18–20, ob. Physiological arithmetic.

three trees

, see THREE-LEGGED MARE.

three (in late C.19–20, often two) turns round the long-boat and a pull at the scuttle characterizes, among sailors (–1867; ob.), the activities of an artful dodger, ‘all jaw, and no good in him’, Smyth. Also Tom Cox’s traverse, ‘up one hatchway and down another’, Smyth; likewise ob. This traverse dates from (not later than) 1806, when John Davis used the phrase. Bowen makes the two turns phrase mean also: ‘Under sail, killing time’.

three-up

. A gambling game played with three coins: only if three heads or three tails fall is the toss operative: coll >, ca 1900, S.E.: 1851, Mayhew.

three vowels

. An I.O.U.: from ca 1820. Scott, 1822. cf. VOWEL.

three-wheeler

. A tricycle: sporting coll (–1887); ob.

threepence, smart as

, see SMART AS THREEPENCE.

threepence more...

see DONKEY!, A PENNY...

threepenny bit or upright

. A coition with a whore, price 3d.: low: mid-C.19–20; late C.18–20. Grose, 2nd ed., applies it to the ‘retailer of love’.

threepenny bits

. The female breasts: rhyming s. (on tits—TIT, 6): late C.19–20.

threepenny masher

. A young man ‘of limited means and more or less superficial gentlemanly externals’: non-aristocratic: ca 1883–90. Ware.

threepenny shot

. A beef-steak pudding, globe-shaped: artisans’ (–1909).

threepenny upright

, see THREEPENNY BIT.

threp, thrip; *threp(p)s, thrups

. Threepence; a threepenny bit: in C.17–18, c., but in C.19–20, (low) s.: resp. late C.19–20; id.; late C.17–mid-19; from late 1850s. B.E., threpps; H., 1st ed., thrups; thrip existed in U.S. as early as 1834 for a coin intermediate between a nickel and a dime. Ex popular pronunciation of threepence; the s arises ex the ‘suffix’ -ence. cf. THRUMBUSKIN.

thrill

. A thriller, whether fiction or non-fiction: ca 1886–1905. Ex its effect. cf.:

thriller

. A sensational play (1889) or, esp., novel (1896): s. cf. AWFUL, DREADFUL, as nn., and SHOCKER.

thrip

, see THREP.

throat, have a

. To have a sore throat: coll: late C.19–20.

throat a mile long and a palate at every inch of it, wish for a

. Applied to a ‘healthy’ thirst: mid-C.19–20; slightly ob. ‘A modern echo of Rabelais’, F. & H.: see Motteux’s Rabelais, V, xlii.

throat (is) cut, one’s belly thinks one’s

. One is extremely hungry: 1540, Palsgrave: a semi-proverbial c.p.; in mid-C.19–20 mostly rural.

throats, cut one another’s

. To compete ruinously: coll: from 1880s. cf. cut-throat.

throttler

. A punch on the throat: pugilistic: ca 1810–60. Boxiana, II, 1818. Ex S.E. throttle, jocular for throat.

through, be

*. To be acquitted: c. of ca 1810–50. Vaux, be through it, through the piece. Ex lit. S.E. sense.

through a side door, have come . To be illegitimate: coll: from ca 1860.

through a woman, go

. To coït with her: low coll: C.19–20.

through-shot

, adj. Spendthrift: coll: late C.19–20; ob. ?ex going through one's money much as a shot goes through paper.

through the piece

, see THROUGH, BE.

throw

, 'He threw me with a stone' = he threw a stone at me. This South African Midlands coll, of late C.19–20, shows Dutch influence; Pettman aligns Ger. Er warf mir ein Loch in den

Kopf, he threw a stone at me and cut my head open. 2. To castrate (an animal): Australian: late C.19–20. Ex its being thrown to the ground for the operation throw a chest

, see CHEST, CHUCK OUT ONE’S.

throw a leg over

. To coit with (the female): low coll: late C.18–20.

throw a levant

. To make off: mid-C.19–20. Ex levant, to abscond.

throw at a dog, not a (this, that, or the other) to

. Gen. preceded by have. No—at all: coll: from ca 1540, for it is implied in Heywood, 1546; 1600, Day, ‘I have not a horse to cast at a dog’; Swift, ca 1706, ‘Here’s miss, has not a word to throw at a dog’; 1884, Stevenson & Henley. Slightly ob.

throw back

. To revert to an ancestral type or character not present in recent generations: coll: 1879. Also fig., as indeed is the earliest recorded example. (The n. has always been considered S.E.)

throw down

. A defeat: 1903. Ex throw down, a fall in wrestling.

throw-down

, v. To be too much for, to FLOOR: 1891, Anon., Harry Fludyer, ‘These blessed exams are getting awfully close now; but I think I shall floor mine, and Dick’s sure to throw his examiners down.’ Also of the exam itself and the papers constituting it. Perhaps ex throwing down a wicket at cricket.

throw it up against, at or to one

. To reproach or upbraid one with: coll (to: low coll): from ca 1870. Ex vomiting, cf. THROW UP, 2.

throw me in the dirt

. A shirt: rhyming s. (–1857); †by 1900. The modern form is DICKY DIRT: much C.20 rhyming s. retains something—actual word or semantic essence—of the discarded form: DAISY RECRUITS and GERMAN FLUTES, both=‘boots’, afford a particularly interesting example.

throw mud at the clock

. To despair much or utterly: lower classes’ (–1909). Ware, ‘Means defy time and die’.

throw off

*. To boast of booties of the past: c. of ca 1810–60. Vaux, who notes also: 2. To talk in a sarcastical strain, so as to convey offensive allusions under the mask of pleasantry, or innocent freedom: c. (–1812) >, by 1860, s. in sense, to be depreciative (at a person).

throw over the bridge

*. (Gen. ppl adj., thrown...) To swindle as in BRIDGE, v.

throw snot about

. To weep: low: 1678, Ray; ob. See SNOT.

throw the feet

*. To hustle; to beg; tramps' c. and lows., orig. (–1900), U.S. Ex a horse throwing his feet, lifting them well.

throw the hammer

. To obtain money under false pretences: low military (–1909). Of erotic origin.

throw up

. (Of the male) to experience the sexual orgasm: low: C.19–20. 2. To vomit: coll: late C.19–20. ‘I wanted to throw up’ whether lit. or fig. used.

throw up a maiden

. To bowl a maiden over: cricketers’: from ca 1880.

throw up one’s accounts

. To vomit: from ca 1760; ob. C.Johnston, 1763. A variant of cast up one’s ACCOUNTS.

throw up the sponge

, see SPONGE, CHUCK UP THE.

throw with

, see THROW.

throwing up buckets

; gen. preceded by simply. Very vexed: exceedingly disappointed: Australian: from ca 1875. On SICK.

thrum

, n., see THRUMBUSKINS.

thrum

, v.t. To thrash (a person): C.17–mid-19. Dekker. The vbl n. (a beating) is recorded in 1823. Ex strumming a musical instrument. 2. To coït with (a woman): C.17–early 19. Florio, 1610; Brydges, 1762.

thrumbuskins, thrummop; thrum(m)s

*. Threepence: c.: thrum(m)s, late C.17–19; the other two forms (Vaux, 1812) are elaborations and rare. B.E. has thrumms, Grose thrums; H. (all edd.) the latter. A corruption of threepence: cf. thrups (at THREP). Dial. has thrum, a commission of 3d. per stone on flax. cf.:

thrummer

*. A threepenny bit: c. or low s. (–1859); ex preceding.

thrum(m)s

*, see THRUMBUSKIN. thruppenny bit, see THREEPENNY BIT. thrups, see THREP.

thruster

. One who, in the field, thrusts himself forward or rides very close to the hounds: hunting s.: from 1885. Ex usual sense. Also thrusting, n. and adj.

thumb

. To drain (a glass) upon a thumbnail (see SUPERNACULUM): coll: ?C.18– mid-19. 2. To possess (a woman): C.18–19. In C.20, only in well-thumbed (girl), ‘a foundered whore’ (F. & H.). Ex thumb, to handle, paw, perhaps influenced by tumble.

thumb, as easy as kiss my . Exceedingly easy: coll: from ca 1890.

thumber

. A sandwich; a slice of bread and meat eaten between finger and thumb: low (mostly London): late C.19–20; ob.

thumby; OCC. thummie, -y

. A little thumb: a pet-name for the thumb: coll: from ca 1810. Tennant, 1811.

thumby

. Soiled by thumb-marks: coll: from late 1890s. 2. Clumsy: coll: 1909. Ex all thumbs.

thump

. An occ. late C.19–20 variant of THUMPER, 2.

thump

, v. To defeat; to lick, thrash (severely): coll: 1594, Shakespeare; 1827, Scott, ‘We have thumped the Turks very well.’ Ex thump, to strike violently. cf. THRUM, v., 1. 2. To coït with (a woman): s. or coll: C.17–20; ob. in C.19–20. Shakespeare in Winter’s Tale, ‘Delicate burthens of dildos and fadings, “jump her and thump her”.’ cf. THRUM, v., 2, KNOCK and proposed etymology of FUCK.

thump,—thatch, thistle, thunder and

. ‘Words to the Irish, like the Shibboleth of the Hebrews’, Grose, 2nd ed.: Anglo-Irish of mid-C.18–mid-19. A cross between an (and esp. an) incantation and a c.p.

thump on the back with a stone, this is better than a

. A c.p. ‘said on giving any one a drink of good liquor on a cold morning’, Grose, 2nd ed.: ca 1786–1850. cf. the mid-C.19–20 it’s better than a poke in the eye with a sharp stick.

thumper

. Anything unusually big: coll: 1660, Tatham punningly of a dragon's tail. cf. WHACKER; WHOPPER, the semantics being that it 'strikes' one. 2. Hence, esp. a notable lie: 1677, W.Hughes; Swift; J.R.Green, 1863.

thumpers

. Dominoes (game): showmen's s.: mid-C.19–20. Ex noise made in falling.

thumping

. Unusually large, heavy, or, of a lie, outrageous: coll: 1576, Fleming, 'He useth great and thumping words'; Grose, 2nd ed., 'A thumping boy'; of a lie, app. not before C.19, though applied to commendation as early as 1671. cf. THUMPER.

thumpkin

*. A hay-filled barn: c.: late C. 19–20. ?etymology. cf. SKIPPER.

thunder!; by thunder!; (what, where, who, etc.) in thunder?; thunder and lightning!;
thunder and turf

! Imprecatively, exclamatorily, intensively used as s. (thunder and turf) or coll (the rest): resp. C.18–20 (Steele); C.19–20; mid-C.19–20; late C.19–20, ob.; and ca 1840–70 (Barham, Lover). cf. the German imprecations and U.S. thunderation!

thunder and lightning

. See preceding. 2. Gin and bitters: C.19–20; ob. Also shrub and whisky: Anglo-Irish: C.19. Ex the effects. 3. Treacle and clotted cream; bread thus spread: s. and dial. (–1880). Miss Braddon; E.D.D. The O.E.D. notes that sense 2 approximates to the dial. sense (brandy-sauce ignited); W.implies that sense 3 arises ex the colours, black (of thunder and treacle), yellow (of lightning and cream).

thunder-box

. A commode: esp. in India: from ca 1870. cf.:

thunder-mug

. A chamber-pot: low: C.18– mid-19. Ex noise therein caused.

Thunderbomb, the

; or H.M.S. Thunderbomb. An imaginary ship of fabulous size: nautical coll: ca 1828, Buckstone in Billy Taylor, ‘Straightway made her first lieutenant|Of the gallant Thunderbomb’.

thundering

. Very forcible or violent: coll: adumbrated in Hall, 1597, ‘Graced with huffcap terms and thundering threats’; 1618, T.Adams, ‘He goes a thundering pace’; 1632, Lithgow, ‘A thundering rage’. Ex the noise made thereby or in that manner. 2. Hence, as an intensive: very large or great; excessive: 1678, Cotton, ‘A thundering meal’; of a lie, app. not before mid-C. 18. 3. Hence, as adv.: from not later than 1743 in Hervey’s Memoirs, ‘A thundering long sermon’; 1852, Dickens, ‘A thundering bad son.’ s. >, by 1900, coll. cf.:

thunderingly

. Excessively: 1885, C. Gibbon, ‘It’s thunderingly annoying,’ but prob. much earlier, for Thornton records it, for U.S., in 1839: s. >, by 1900, coll. Ex lit. S.E. sense, but not very gen. Ex THUNDERING, 2.

thunderstorm, like a dying duck (or pig) in a

, see DYING DUCK...

thusly

. Thus: U.S. (1889) >, by 1893, English: coll; mostly jocular. cf.:

thusness

. The state or condition of being thus: jocular coll: U.S. (1867, Artemus Ward) > anglicized ca 1883. 2. Esp. why this thusness?, a pleonastic ‘why?’: 1888, Fergus Hume, ‘Why all this thusness?’, O.E.D.—which records the simpler form in the same year. Slightly ob.—thank Heaven!

thuzzy-muzzy

. Enthusiasm: London lower classes’: ca 1890–1912. Ex enthusiasm on MUZZY.

tib

. A bit: back s. (–1851). Hence tib fo OCCABOT, a little tobacco. 2. A goose: c.: late C.18–early 19. Abbr.:

tib o(f) the buttery

*. A goose: c.: ca 1620–1830. Broome, 1641, ‘Here’s grunter and bleater with tib of the butt’ry,|And Margery Prater, all dress’d without slutt’ry.’

tib out

, v.i. To break bounds: schools’, mainly Public and esp. Charterhouse: 1840, J.T.Hewlett; 1855, Thackeray. Also tibble: late C.19–20. Etymology obscure: perhaps ex tip (oneself) out, to get out by giving a TIP (9).

Tibb’s Eve (or Evening; properly Tib’s), St

. Never: coll, mainly Anglo-Irish (–1785); long ob., except in dial. cf. BLUE MOON; S.E. Greek kalends; Queen DICK.

tibby

. A cat: late C.18–mid-19. Ex tabby+dial. tib(by)-cat, a female cat. 2. The head: low: from ca 1810; ob. Esp. in phrases signifying ‘to take unawares’, as in Vance, ca 1866, ‘For to get me on the hop, or on my tibby drop,|You must wake up very early in the mornin’.’ ?a corruption of Fr. tête mispronounced.

tibby drop

. Hop: rhyming s.: late C.19–20.

Tib's

, see TIBB's EVE.

tic-tac; tick-tack

. Gen. t.-t. man (1899), occ. t.-t. telegraphy (1905). n. and adj. (characteristic of, concerned with) the system of 'telegraph'-actually, signalling with the arms—used by bookmakers communicating a change in the odds or some significant information to outside bookmakers: sporting. Occ. as v., to signal thus: 1907: likewise coll. Ex the onomatopaeia representing an alternating ticking (as of a clock), perhaps influenced by TAPE, n., 3. Hence, tick-tacker.

ticca

, see TICKER, 3.

tice

. A ball something between a half-volley and a Yorker; cricketers': from ca 1840; ob. i.e. an enticer.

'tice

, v. To entice, decoy; gen. in passive: lower class coll: C.19–20. Mayhew, 1861. Also in dial.

tick

. An objectionable or meanly contemptible person, though rarely of a female: C.17–20: S.E. until mid-C.19 or so; ?‘submerged’ for years; in C.20, s. e.g., ‘That awful little tick!’ Ex the insect parasite. 2. Credit, trust; reputed solvency: coll >, in C.19, s.: 1668, Sedley, ‘I confess my tick is not good, and I never desire to game for more than I have about me’; 1901, Sporting Times, 17 Aug., ‘During my late Oxford days, I got put up to at least twenty different ways of getting tick.’ Ex (up)on tick, esp. TICK, RUN ON. 3. Hence, a score or reckoning, a debit account: coll >, ca 1800, s.: 1681, Prideaux (Dean of Norwich), ‘The Mermaid Tavern [at Oxford] is lately broke, and our Christ Church men bear the blame of it, our ticks, as the noise of the town will have it, amounting to 1500l.’; Thackeray, 1862. 4. A watch: c. of ca 1780–1800. Parker, 1789. cf. TICKER, 2. Ex the sound. 5. A second, moment; properly and etymologically, the time elapsing between two ticks of the clock: coll: adumbrated by Browning in 1879, but not gen. before the late 1890s. Esp. in a tick or in two ticks, and to the tick, with meticulous punctuality.

tick

, v.i. To buy, deal, on credit: coll >, ca 1800, s.: 1648, Winyard. Ex TICK, RUN ON. 2. Hence, to run into debt: 1742, Fielding; ob. 3. v.t., to have (an amount) entered against one: coll >, ca 1800, s.; ob.: 1674, S.Vincent; ca 1703, T.Brown, ‘Pretty nymphs...forced to tick half a sice a-piece for their watering.’ 4. v.i., to grant credit; supply goods, etc., on credit: coll >, ca 1800, s.; in C.20, rare: 1712, Arbuthnot, ‘The money went to the lawyers; counsel won’t tick.’ 5. Hence (v.t.), to grant credit to (a person): 1842, ‘Nimrod’ Apperley, ‘He never refused a tandem, and he ticked me for a terrier at once.’ 6. See TICK UP.

tick, full as a

, see FULL AS A TICK. tick, go (up)on, see TICK, RUN (UP)ON.

Tick, River

. Oxford University, ca 1820–40, as in Egan's Grose (1823): 'Standing debts, which only discharge themselves at the end of three years by leaving the Lake of Credit, and meandering through the haunts of 100 creditors.'

tick, run (up)on

, v.i. To buy on credit; run up a debt or into debt: 1642 (O.E.D.): coll >, ca 1800, s. A variant is go on tick (1672, Wycherley) or go tick (1861, Hughes). Thus (up)on tick, on credit—though, despite the dates, this prob. preceded run on tick, for we find (up)on ticket (on note of hand) a generation or so earlier: ticket being abbr, to tick. See TICK, n., 2.

tick being no go

. No credit given: low (–1857). See TICK, n., 2.

tick-off, work the

. A tick-off is a fortune-teller; gen. in work the tick-off, to practise fortune-telling: grafters': late C.19–20. Philip Allingham, Cheapjack, 1934, 'Dates from the time when grafters working this line sold cards on which were printed various...statements.'

tick-tack

. Sexual intercourse: coll: mid-C.16–20. Weaver, Lusty Juventus, ca 1550. Ex the onomatopoeia. 2. See TIC-TAC.

tick-tack, done in a

. Quickly done: low coll (–1887).

tick up

, v.t. To put to account: late C.19–20. Ex TICK, v., 3. 2. v.i., to run into debt: late C.19–20; ob. Elaboration of TICK, v., 2.

ticker

*. A fraudulent debtor by profession: c. of mid-C.18. Recorded in title of Anon., The Thief-Catcher, 1753. Ex TICK, v., 1 and 2. 2. A watch: c. (1800, The Oracle) >, before 1864, ‘street’, i.e. low, s. >, by 1890, gen. s. Ex the noise: cf. Fr. tocante and TICK, n., 4. Rarely and (I consider) improperly, a clock: the O.E.D. records an instance in 1910. 3. Any person or thing engaged by the job, or on contract: Anglo-Indian coll (–1886). Properly ticca (ex Hindustani). 4. The heart: low (in U.S., c.): late C.19–20. Because it keeps the body’s time.

ticket

. A certificate: nautical s. (late 1890s). Chiefly captain’s or mate’s ticket. Ex ticket, a licence. 2. See TICKET, THE.

ticket

, v. To sentence (someone) to imprisonment: low: from ca 1880. Fergus Hume, Hagar of the Pawn Shop, 1898.

ticket, get one's

, see TICKET, WORK ONE'S.

ticket, have the run of the

. To buy on credit, run up debts: late C.19–20; very ob. An elaboration of TICK, n., 2 and 3.

ticket, the

. The requisite, needed, correct, or fashionable thing to do. Esp. that's the ticket: 1838, Haliburton; 1854, Thackeray, 'Very handsome and...finely dressed—only somehow she's not—she's not the ticket, you see.' (See also CHEESE, THE.) Perhaps ex the winning ticket. 2. Hence, the plan or procedure; the job, on (or in) hand: 1842, Marryat, 'What's the ticket, youngster—are you to go abroad with me?'

ticket?, what's the

. What's the price?: late C.19–20; very ob.

ticket, work one's (occ. the)

. To obtain discharge from the Army by having oneself adjudged physically unfit: from late 1890s: s. >, ca 1910, coll. (The phrase get one's ticket, to be, in the ordinary way, discharged from the service, is military j.) Wyndham, The Queen's Service, 1899, 'It is a comparatively easy matter for a discontented man to work his ticket.'

ticket for soup!, that's the

. You've got it—be off!: c.p. of ca 1859–1910. cf. TICKET, THE, sense 1, which it elaborates. H., 2nd ed., '[From] the card given to beggars for immediate relief at soup kitchens'.

ticket of leave

. A holiday; an outing: lower classes': ca 1870–1900. Ex S.E. sense.

ticket-o(f)-teaver

. A gen. term of abuse: coll: ca 1855–1900. Surtees, Ask Mamma, 1858.

ticketer

*. One who hands out, or checks, cards in a casual ward: tramps' and beggars' c. (–1887).

tickey, tickie; tickey-nap

, see TICKY; TICKY NAP.

ticking

. The taking of goods on credit: mid-C.18–20. See TICK, v., 1, 2.

ticking

, ppl adj. of TICK, v. 1673, Wycherley (sense 1).

tickle

. To puzzle (a person): coll (–1874); ob. Ex dial. cf. TICKLER, 1.

tickle-pitcher

. ‘A Toss-pot, or Pot-companion’, B.E.: coll: late C.17–early 19. 2. ‘A lewd Man or Woman’, A New Canting Dict., 1725: low C.18. A pun on the fig. sense of PITCHER (1).

tickle (one’s) sneezer

. To punch, even to break, his nose: pugilistic: ca 1810–50. Anon., Every Night Book, 1827.

tickle-tail function

. A harlot: s.: Ned Ward, 1703. cf.:

tickle-tail

. A wanton; the penis: ?S.E. or low coll: C.17–20; ob. 2. A schoolmaster; his rod: coll (–1785); ob. cf. TICKLE-TOBY.

tickle-text

. A parson: from ca 1780; very ob.

tickle-Thomas

. The female pudend: low: C.19–20. cf. John THOMAS.

tickle-toby

. A rod or birch: coll: 1830, Bentham. 2. A wanton; the penis: ?C.17–19. cf. TICKLE-PITCHER, 2; TICKLETAIL.

tickle your tail!, I'll

. A jocular coll threat of punishment: late C.19–20. Ex S.E. tickle, ironic for ‘to chastise’.

tickled pink

. Immensely pleased: late C. 19–20. ‘I’ll be tickled pink to accept the offer.’ To the point of blushing with pleasure.

tickler

. A thing (occ. person) hard to understand or deal with; a puzzler or TEASER: dial. (–1825) >, ca 1840, coll; ob. 2. A strong drink: low: late C.19–20. 3. The penis: low: C.19–20. 4. A short poker used to save an ornamental one: domestic: from ca 1870. 5. A whip: proletarian: from ca 1860.

tickrum

*. A licence: c.: ca 1670–1830. A corruption of ticket.

ticks

. Debts, obligations: sporting (–1887); ob. Ex TICK, n., 2.

ticky, tickey, or tickie; OCC. tiki, tikki, tikkie

. A threepenny piece: South African coll: from ca 1850. Etymology obscure: perhaps ex a native attempt at ticket or at threepenny; perhaps—though much less likely—suggested by Romany tikeno, tikno, small, little; prob., however, as Pettman ably shows, ex Portuguese, hence Malayan, pataca (†Fr. patac).

ticky nap

. A game of nap(oleon) with a TICKY stake for each trick: late C.19–20: South African.

tidd

. A children's abbr. (late C.19–20) of TIDDLER, 1.

tiddipol

. 'An overdressed fat young woman in humble life', Halliwell: provincial: C.19. cf.:

tiddivate, tidivate

, see TITIVATE.

tiddle

, v.i. To fidget, potter: S.E. until ca 1830, then dial. and coll: 1748, Richardson: slightly ob. 2. v.t., to advance slowly or by small movements (e.g. a ball, a wheelbarrow); tiddle a girl, to master her very gradually: coll: mid-C.19–20. Perhaps ex dial. tiddle, to tickle, possibly influenced by diddle; much more prob. by a development of sense ex S.E. (in C.19–20, dial. and coll) tiddle, to pamper, to fondle excessively.

tiddle-a-wink

, see TIDDLYWINK. tiddlebat, see TITTLEBAT.

tiddler

. A stickleback: nursery coll: 1885 (O.E.D.). Ex TITTLEBAT, tiddlebat, the popular form. Hence: 2. Any small fish: Australian: late C.19–20.

tiddl(e)y

, see TITLEY. tiddlewinks, tiddleywink, see TIDDLYWINK.

tiddlies, run

. To run over unsafe ice: provincial: mid-C.19–20.

tiddly

, n. See TITLEY. 2. adj., drunk: late C.19–20: low. Ex TITLEY, n. 3. Little: dial. and nursery coll: C.19–20. 4. Hence (?), particularly smart: naval: late C.19–20.

tiddlywink; also tid(d)leywink, tiddle-a-wink

. An unlicensed house (pawnbroker's, beer-shop, brothel, etc.): 1844, J.T. Hewlett. Perhaps ex TITLEY+wink (cf. on the SLY). Also KIDDLYWINK (3, 4). 2. pl only; with variant tiddlewinks: knickknacks of food: 1893, J.A.Barry. Perhaps influenced by TIDDLY, 3. 3. A drink: rhyming s.: 1880, Barrett.

tiddlywink

, v.i. To spend imprudently or with unsanctioned excess: Australian: 1888, Boldrewood, 'He's going too fast... I wonder what old Morgan would say to all this here tiddley-winkin', with steam engine, and wire fences'; ob. Ex the n.; rare except in the form of the vbl n.

tiddlywink

, adj. Slim, puny: from ca 1863; ob. Not because tiddlywinks is considered a feeble, futile game, for it is recorded later, but ex TIDDLYWINK, n., 1. Occ. tillywink.

tiddlywinker

. A cheat; a trifler: resp. 1893, ca 1895. Ultimately ex TIDDLYWINK, n., but imm., though nuance 2 is perhaps influenced by tiddlywinks, ex:

tiddlywinking

, adj. Pottering; trifling: 1869. EX TIDDLYWINK, n., 1.

tiddlywinks

, see TIDDLYWINK, n., 2.

tiddy

. Small, tiny: dial. (–1781) >, by 1860, coll, esp. nursery coll. Perhaps ex a confusion of tiny+little.

tiddy iddy

. A reduplication of TIDDY: 1868, W.S.Gilbert.

tiddyvate, tidivate

, see TITIVATE. tidlywink, see TIDDLYWINK.

tidemark

. The dirty mark so many boys leave when they wash their necks: jocular: late C.19–20.

tidy

. Fairly meritorious or satisfactory; (of a person) decent, nice: coll: 1844, Dickens, ‘For a coastguardsman... rather a tidy question’. Ex †S.E. tidy, excellent, worthy. 2. (In amount, degree) considerable: coll: 1838,. Dickens, ‘At a tidy pace’. Hence, a tidy penny, very fair earnings, etc. cf. sense 1, and the adv.

tidy, v.t., often with up

. To make orderly, clean, etc.: from ca 1820: in serious contexts, familiar S.E.; in trivial, coll. Ex tidy, in good condition, clean. 2. Hence, v.i.: coll: 1853, Dickens, ‘I have tidied over and over again, but it’s useless.’ 3. Also ex sense 1: tidy away or up, to stow away, clear up, for tidiness’ sake: coll: 1867.

tidy

, adv. Pretty well; a good deal; finely, comfortably: dial. and low coll: 1824 (O.E.D.); 1899, Whiteing, “‘Was you knocked about much...?’” “‘Pretty tidy.’”

tie it up

*, see TIE UP, v., 1.

tie one’s hair or wool

. To puzzle (a person): tailors’: from ca 1870.

tie-mate

. A particular friend: naval coll: mid-C.18–early 19.

tie-up

. A knock-out blow, a SETTLER (3); boxing: 1818. Ex lit. sense (cf. cricket j.). 2. Hence, a conclusion: 1829; rather ob. 3. An obstruction, stoppage, closure: from late 1880s: coll.

tie up

*, v. To forswear: c.: mid-C.19–20; ob. e.g. tie up PRIGGING, to live honestly. Ex the parallel s. sense, to desist, to desist from—a sense recorded by O.E.D. for 1760 (Foote). 2. To knock out: boxing: from ca 1810. cf. TIED-UP, 1. 3. To join in marriage: coll: 1894, Astley. 4. To get (a woman) with child: low: C.19–20; ob.

tie up your stocking

! No heel-taps!: Oxford University: late C.19–20; ob.

tie with St Mary's knot

, see ST MARY'S KNOT.

tied-up

. Finished, settled: orig., boxing (–1859). 2. Costive: from ca 1870. 3. See TIE UP, v., 3.

tied with the tongue that cannot be untied with the teeth, a knot

, see KNOT WITH THE TONGUE...

tiers

. Mountains; tiersman, one living in the mountains: Tasmanian: late C.19–20.

tiff

. Liquor, esp. if thin or inferior: from ca 1630; ob. by 1870, †by 1930: coll >, ca 1750, s. Corbet, ca 1635; Fielding; Scott. Perhaps of echoic origin. 2. Hence, a small draught (rarely of other than diluted liquor, esp. punch): coll (–1727) >, ca 1750, s. Bailey; Scott. 3. A slight outburst of temper or ill-humour: coll (–1727). Bailey; Thackeray, 1840, ‘Numerous tiffs and quarrels’; ob. Etymology problematic, but possibly ex (the effects implied by) sense 1; cf., however, echoic huff and sniff. 4. Hence, a slight quarrel, a briefly peevish disagreement: coll: 1754, Richardson. 5. Ex sense 1: a gust of laughter, etc.: coll: 1858, Carlyle. Rare and ob.

tiff

*, v.i., occ. t. (The rare form tift occurs only in sense 3.) To lie (with a woman): c.: late C.17–early 19. cf. the rare or ‘nonce’ tiffity-taffety girls, harlots (late C.16), and the C.15 (?later) tiff, to be idly employed. 2. v.t., to drink, esp. slowly or in sips: ca 1769–1850. Combe, 1811, ‘He tiff’d his punch, and went to rest.’ Ex the n., 2. 3. v.i., to have a tiff, be peevish or pettish: coll (–1727). Bailey; 1777, Sheridan, ‘We tifted a little before going to church, and fairly quarrelled before the bells had done ringing’; slightly ob. Ex the n., 4. 4. To have, eat, lunch: Anglo-Indian coll (1803, Elphinstone) >, ca 1850, S.E. But much the earliest record I have seen is this, dated 23 Sept. 1712, from Bencoleen in Sumatra: ‘At 12 I tiff, that is eat...some good relishing bit, and drink a good draught’: The Letter Books of Joseph Collett, ed. by H.H.Dodwell, 1933. Abbr. of the v. implicit in TIFFING.

tiffed

. Annoyed; angry: coll: mid-C.18–20. Sessions, 31 May 1856. See TIFF, v., 3.

tiffin

. A lunch, esp. if light: Anglo-Indian coll (1800) >, ca 1830, S.E. Ex TIFFING. 2. Hence, in New Zealand: a snack and a drink (gen. tea) at 10.30 or 11 a.m., as a rest from work: late C.19–20: rare coll.

tiffing

. ‘Eating, or drinking out of meal times’, Grose, 1st ed.: ca 1780–1830. Ex TIFF, v., 2. Whence TIFFIN. It occurs in 1784 as triffing.

tiffish

. Apt to take offence; peevish: coll (–1855). Rare. Ex TIFF, n., 3.

tiffity-taffety girls

, see TIFF, v., 1.

tiffy

. An engine-room artificer: nautical: from late 1890s. F.T.Bullen, 1899.

tiffy

, adj. In a TIFF (n., 3): coll: 1810 (O.E.D.). 2. Hence, apt to take offence: coll (–1864). 3. Hence, faddy: from ca 1880; ob.

tift

, see TIFF, v., 3.

tiger

. A smart-liveried boy-groom: 1817 (O.E.D.); Lytton, ‘Vulgo Tiger’; ob. by 1880. Ex livery. 2. Hence, any boy acting as outdoor servant: from ca 1840; id. In Julia Byrne’s Red, White and Blue, 1862, the term is applied to a soldier servant. 3. A vulgarly overdressed person: 1827, Scott; 1849, Thackeray. Ob. by 1860, †by 1890. Ex a tiger’s bright colours. cf. sense 1. 4. Hence, a parasite, rake, SWELL-MOBSMAN: ca 1837–60. 5. Streaky bacon: navvies’: from ca 1890. Ex the streaks. 6. A convict that tears to pieces another convict’s yellowish suit: c.: from late 1890s. Ex the ferocity of the act+the colour of the suit. 7. Tough-crusted bread: schoolboys’: ca 1870–1905. Ex its powers of resistance.

tiger, hot

, see HOT TIGER.

tigerish

. Flashy; loudly dressed: ca 1830–70. Lytton, 1853, ‘Nothing could be more ..., to use a slang word, tigrish, than his whole air.’ Ex TIGER, 3. (The n., tigerism, may perhaps be considered s. or coll: in sense of TIGER, 1, mainly in 1840s; of TIGER, 3 and 4, rarely after 1830s.)

tiger's milk

. Whisky: Army officers': from ca 1890. 2. Gin: 1850 (O.E.D.); †by 1890. 3. Brandy and water: G.R. Gleig, The Subaltern's Log-Book, 1828.

tiggy

. A detective; Cockney: from ca 1890; very ob. E.Pugh, The Spoilers, 1906.

tight

. Hard, severe, difficult: coll: 1764, Foote (O.E.D.); ob. except in tight squeeze (Haliburton, 1855; after U.S. tight spot), place (mentioned in 1856 as an Americanism), and corner (1891). cf. TIGHT FIT. 2. (Of a contest) close, (of a bargain) hard: U.S. coll (ca 1820) anglicized ca 1860. 3. (Of a person) close-fisted: coll (–1828). Mostly U.S. 4. (Of money) hard to come by; (of the money market) with little money circulating: 1846, Daily News, 21 Jan. 'In Paris money is "tight" also, and discounts difficult.' 5. Tipsy: 1843 in U.S.; 1853, Dickens's article in Household Words, 24 Sept.; Kipling. cf. SCREWED, (lit. screwed tight, hence) drunk. 6. Cramped; over-worked; meticulous: artists': from ca 1890. 7. (Of balls) in contact, (pockets) with small openings: billiards (–1909).

tight!, blow me

. See BLOW, v., 3. (Ex blowing up bladders, balloons, etc.)

tight, sit

. To sit close, stay under cover; not to budge: coll: from mid—1890s. 2. cf. the C.18 sense: to apply oneself closely to: 1738 (O.E.D.).

tight-arsed

. (Of women) chaste: low coll: late C.19–20.

tight as a drum

. Extremely drunk: 1908 A.S.M.Hutchinson, Once Aboard the Lugger.

tight boots, sit in

. To be ill at ease with one's host: semi-proverbial coll (–1855).

tight cravat

. The hangman's noose: coll: late C.18–mid-19.

tight cunts and easy boots

! A male toast, current ca 1880–1914.

tight fit, a

. Coll when used of things other than clothes: late C.19–20.

tight junior

, see JUNIOR.

tighten

, v.i. To tight-lace: (not aristocratic) coll: 1896 (O.E.D.); slightly ob.

tight(e)ner

. A hearty meal; occ. a large amount (of liquor): low coll: 1851, Mayhew. Hence, do a or the tightener; the latter in J.E.Ritchie's Night Side of London, 1857.

tightness

. Tipsiness: from some time in 1853–64. See TIGHT, 5.

tigress

. A vulgarly overdressed woman: 1830s. On TIGER, 3.

tigser

, n. ‘A slang juvenile epithet used when a person is in quick motion...“Go it, tigser”’: West Yorkshire s. (–1904), not dial. Prob. ex dial. tig, ‘to run hither and thither when tormented by flies, &c.’.

tike, gen. tyke

; T. A Yorkshireman: coll nickname: C.18–20. E.Ward, 1703 (Matthews). Ex YORKSHIRE TIKE. In Yorkshire, tyke or tike very gen. for a dog.

tike (tyke)-lurking

*. Dog-stealing: c. (–1859). Also BUFFER-LURKING.

tik(k)i, tikkie

, see TICKY.

tilbury

. (A) sixpence: ca 1790–1850. Grose, 3rd ed., ‘From its formerly being the fare for crossing over from Gravesend to Tilbury fort’. cf. TIZZY.

Tilbury Docks

. Socks: rhyming s.: late C.19–20.

tile

. A hat: 1821, D.Haggart, Life. Esp. ca 1850–1900, a dress-hat; extant as tilehat, esp. in Glasgow, where it is also called a tum hat. Ex tile as part of roof; cf. be well THATCHED, and PANTILE.

tile-frisking

*, n. Stealing hats from lobbies and halls; c. of ca 1823–80. cf. TILE.

tile-hat

, see TILE.

tile loose, (have) a

. (To be) slightly crazy: from mid-1840s. Ex tiles loose on roof; cf. SHINGLE SHORT.

tiled

, adj. Hatted: 1792, The Annual Register. cf. TILE. 2. To be tiled is to be snug, comfortable: ca 1815–50. Charles Dibdin, Life in London, 1882. With a tiled roof over one's head. 3. Detained by the police; locked up: fast life: ca 1815–60. Spy, 1825, 'Safely tilled in'.

tilled down

*. Under cover: esp., out of the way, hidden: c.: 1845 in 'No. 747'; app. †by 1900. Lit., under the tiles.

tiler

*. A shoplifter: c. of ca 1650–80. ?ex L. tollere.

tiles, (be or go) on the

. (To be or go) on the loose; esp. a-drinking or on sexual adventure: low (–1857). Ex the procedure of cats.

till

. The female pudend: low: C.19–20. Suggested by MONEY(–BOX).

till-boy

*. An assistant tampering with the cash in his master's till: c. (–1864). Perhaps on:

till-sneak

*. A thief specializing in shoptills: c.: from ca 1860.

till the cows come home

, see COWS COME...

tilladum

. 'A slang word for to "weave" Hence tilladumite...a handloom weaver', E.D.D.: Lancashire: from ca 1860. The former occurs in James Staton, Rays fro' th' Loominary, 1866; the latter in Staton's Bobby Shuttle un his woife Sayroh, 1873.

tiller soup

. That rough treatment with a tiller by (the threat of) which a coxwain encourages his boat's crew: nautical: late C.19–20. cf. BELAYING-PIN SOUP.

till(e)y, easy as

. Very easy: ?C.18–19. Lit., easy as saying:

till(e)y-vally; tully-valy

, etc. Nonsense!: trivial coll of ca 1525–1890. Skelton, Scott. Vaguely onomatopoeic in origin.

tillywink

, see TIDDLYWINK.

tilter

. A sword or rapier: 1688, Shadwell; †by 1840. Ex tilt, to take part in a tourney or jousting.

timber

. Wooden gates, fences, hurdles, etc.: hunting: 1791, ‘G.Gambado’. 2. A wooden leg; hence, any leg: from late C.18. 3. The stocks: from ca 1850. Douglas Jerrold the First. cf. TIMBER-STAIRS. 4. A wicket, the wickets: cricket coll: 1861. cf. TIMBER-YARD. 5. See TIMBERS. 6. See TIMBER-MERCHANT. 7. (Timber.) A variant of LACKERY.

timber, bowl for

, see BOWL FOR TIMBER.

timber, small

. Lucifer matches: (mostly London) street s.: from ca 1859. cf. TIMBER-MERCHANT.

timber, sport

, see SPORT TIMBER.

timber-jumper

. A horse good at leaping gates and fences: hunting: 1847, Thackeray, 'I never put my leg over such a timber-jumper.'

timber-merchant

. A street match-seller: (London) streets' (–1859) now verging on c. Ware, 1909, records timber (gen. pl), a lucifer match, as low s.

timber-stairs

. The pillory: mid-C.18– early (?mid-)C.19. In Herd's collection of songs. cf. TIMBER, 3.

timber-toe

. A wooden leg: from ca 1780; ob. Implied in Grose, 1st ed., where timber-toe is a person with a wooden leg, a sense reappearing in Hood. The variant timber-toes is C.19–20, and, from ca 1870 in the East End of London, it also=a person wearing clogs.

timber-toed

. Having a wooden leg or legs: from ca 1810. See preceding.

timber-toes

, see TIMBER-TOE.

timber-topper

. The same as, and ex, TIMBER-JUMPER: hunting: 1883.

timber-tuned

. With a heavy, wooden touch on a musical instrument; wooden in movement: late C.19–20; ob.

timber-yard

. One's wickets; more precisely, the place where one's wickets stand: cricket: 1853, 'Cuthbert Bede', 'Verdant found that before he could get his hand in, the ball was got into his wicket...and... there was a row in his timber-yard'; virtually †.

timbered up to one's weight, not

. Not in one's style: coll: mid-C.19–20; ob.

timbers

. The wickets: cricketers' coll (–1877). Esp. in shiver one's timbers, to scatter the wickets and stumps. cf. TIMBER, 4; TIMBER-YARD; contrast BOWL FOR TIMBER. 2. Worked wood in gen., e.g. escritaires, cabinets, elaborate tables: artistic: ca 1880–1914.

timbers!, my; dash my t.!: shiver my t.

! Nautical s. exclamations: resp. 1789, Dibdin, 'My timbers! what lingo he'd coil and belay'; mid-C.19–20, rare and hardly nautical; and 1835, Marryat.

time

. In boxing sense; see TIME OF DAY, 5, and TIME, KNOCK OUT OF. 2. (The time spent in) a term of imprisonment: rare except in TIME, DO. 3. Among cabdrivers of ca 1863–1910, the hours are used to denote the amount of a fare. 'To express 9s. 9d. they say "it is a quarter to ten"; if 3s. 6d., half-past three; if 11s. 9d., a quarter to twelve,' H., 3rd ed. 4. See TIMES.

time

for by the time that is coll and rather illiterate; it occurs mostly in Cockney speech: ?mid-C.19–20. C.Rook, The Hooligan Nights, 1899, 'An' time I'd got a 'ansom an' put 'im inside, the job was worked.'

time, do

*. To serve a term in prison: 1865: c. >, by 1890, s. H., 5th ed., 'Sometimes stir-time (imprisonment in the House of Correction) is distinguished from the more extended system of punishment... called "pinnel (penal) time"'; Nat Gould, 1898, 'If it had not been for me you would have been doing time before this.’ Hence timer, a convict, in such combinations as first, second, third tmer, a prisoner serving for a first, etc., stretch: c. (–1887).

time, hot

, see HOT TIME.

time, in no; in less than no time

. Very soon, immediately; (very) quickly: coll: resp. 1829, Glascock: 1875, Jowett—but prob. a decade or even two or three decades earlier.

time, knock out of

. ‘So to punish an opponent that he cannot come up to the call of time’, F. & H.: boxing: from ca 1870; slightly ob.

time, on

. Punctual(ly): coll, orig. (1878) U.S.; anglicized ca 1890.

time, short

. A single act of copulation as opp. to ‘a night of it’: low, coll rather than s.: C.19–20. ?orig. a prostitutes’ term.

time for, have no

. ‘To regard with impatient disfavour’, C.J.Dennis: (?orig. Australian) coll: late C.19–20. i.e. ‘have no time to spare for’. cf. the S.E. have no use for.

time of day

. ‘The time as shown by the clock’ is S.E. but the derivative ‘a point or stage in any course or period’ is coll: 1687, T.Brown; 1699, Collier, ‘The favour of a prince was not...unreputable at that time of day.’ 2. Hence, give one, or pass, the time of day, to greet a person, to exchange greetings: resp. C.17–20, mid-C. 19–20: S.E. until late C.19, then coll and dial.; give one...is ob. as a coll. Whiteing, G.R.Sims. 3. The prevailing state of affairs; the present state of the case: coll: 1667, Poole; slightly ob. Ex sense 1. 4. Hence, WHAT’S WHAT; the right or most fashionable way of doing something; the latest DODGE: from ca 1815. ‘Jon Bee’, 1823, ‘In the island (Wight) every good joke is “the time o’day”’; more clearly in Dickens, 1838, ‘Pop that shawl away in my castor...; that’s the time of day.’ Esp. in fly to the time of day, FLY, alert, ‘knowing’ (1828, Maginn; ob.); put one up to the time of day, to initiate a person (1834, Ainsworth); know the time of day (adumbrated in Bunyan, 1682, but not at all gen. before ca 1895), to know ‘what’s what’—Ouida, 1897, “‘She knows the time o’ day,” said the other’; that’s your time of day!, well done! (1860, H., 2nd ed.). 5. (give one) the time of day, (to administer) a knockout blow: boxing: late C.19–20; slightly ob.

time on, mark

, see MARK...

timer

, see TIME, DO.

times, behind the

. Old-fashioned; having only such knowledge (esp. of method) as is superannuated: mid-C.19–20: coll. cf.:

times go, as

. As things are at present: coll: 1712, Steele.

Timmie

. The gymnasium: certain schools': late C.19–20.

timmynoggy

. A term for almost any time- or labour-saving device: naval: ca 1850–95. Ex dial. timmynoggy, 'a notched square piece of wood; used to support the lower end of the "vargood"' or long spar serving as a bowline, itself ex dial. timmy, the stick or bat used in the game of rounders. cf. GADGET.

timothy

. A brew, or a jorum, of liquor: Scottish: 1855, Strang. Ex the proper name (?of a brewer or a noted publican). 2. The penis, esp. a child's: either dial. or provincial s. (–1847). Halliwell. The personification of penis (DICK, 4; man or John THOMAS) and of pudend (FANNY) would make an interesting but unpublishable essay.

timp

, see TYMP.

tin

. Money, cash; orig. of small silver coins, so apt to wear thinly smooth and thus assume a tinny appearance: prob. from early C.19, but not recorded before 1836, in Smith's The Individual; 'Pomes' Marshall. cf. BRASS.

tin-chapel

, adj. Nonconformist, esp. Methodist, depreciatory coll: late C.19–20.

tin gloves

. A criss-cross of blisters methodically made by a bully on the back of a victim's hand: Winchester: ca 1840–60. Mansfield.

tin-hat

, adj. Drunk: Anglo-Port Said (–1909). Often tin hats (F. & Gibbons).

tin-hatted

. A nautical variant of TIN-HAT, adj.

tin-opener

. A bayonet: dating from the Boer War (1899–1901): military. Ex its chief use.

tin-pot

. An ironclad: naval: from ca 1880; ob. Contrast:

tin-potter

. A malingerer: nautical (–1867); ob. Ex tin-pot, inferior.

tin-tab

. The carpenter's shop: Dulwich College: late C.19–20. cf.:

tin tabernacle

. An iron-built or tinroofed church: 1898, William Le Queux, Scribes and Pharisees, V, 54: s. cf. DOLLYSHOP and similar amenities.

tin tack

. A sack: from ca 1870: rhyming s.

tin tank

. A bank; from ca 1880; rhyming s.

tin-type!, not on your

. Certainly not!: a c.p. of late C.19–20. Ex an old-fashioned type of photograph. Perhaps with a pun on not on your LIFE!, certainly not.

tin-wedding (day)

. The tenth anniversary of a wedding; coll: 1876. Punning golden and silver weddings.

'tina or tina

. Concertina; mostly Cockney; from ca 1870. (Pugh.)

tinge

. A commission allowed to assistants on the sale of outmoded stock: drapers' (–1860). cf. SUSPICION.

tink

. A tinker; a disreputable vagabond: Scots coll: mid-C.19–20. E.D.D. By abbr.

tink-tinky

, see TINKY.

tinkard

*. A begging tinker: c. of ca 1560–1620.

tinker

. To batter: boxing: 1826, Sporting Magazine, ‘Tom completely tinkered his opponent’s upper-crust’; almost †. Ex tinker, v.t., mend tinker-wise.

tinker, swill like a

. To tipple unstintedly: coll: late C.17–early 19.

tinker’s budget or news

. Stale news: coll and dial.: mid-C.19–20.

tinker’s curse (or cuss) or damn

, see CURSE.

tinkler

. A bell: (low) coll: 1838, Dickens, ‘Jerk the tinkler’.

tinkling box

. A piano: South Lancashire s. (–1904), not dial.

tinky

. A South African juvenile coll variant (–1899) of tink-tinky, itself orig. (the 1890s) coll for the bird properly known as ting-ting. Ex its cry, tink, tink, tink.

tinman

. A rich man, esp. a millionaire: sporting; from ca 1880; ob. Ex TIN; cf. TINNY, adj.

tinny; tinney (Bee)

*. A fire: c.: C.19. Hence tinney-hunter (ibid.), a thief working after fires.

tinny

, adj. Rich: 1871, Punch, 14 Oct. Ex TIN.

tinter

, see BARREL TINTER.

Tiny

is an inevitable nickname of very big or tall men: lower classes': late C.19–20.

tiny dodge

*. Begging in the company of neatly dressed children (often borrowed for the purpose) and thus exciting sympathy: c.: from ca 1860.

tip

*. 'The tip...money concerned in any dealings or contract...; synonymous with the dues', Vaux: c. of ca 1810–50. In Boxiana III, 1821, it means 'entrance money'. cf. v., 8, 9. 2. Special information conveyed by an expert, private knowledge, esp. as to investment in the money market and to racing; a hint for an examination: from ca 1840: s. >, by 1900, coll. Quarterly Review, 1886, 'It should be the first duty of consuls to keep the Foreign Office promptly supplied with every commercial tip that can be of use to British trade.' 3. Hence, something 'tipped' to win, to prosper; esp. a horse: 1873, Besant & Rice. 4. Hence, a special device, a WRINKLE (2): from the 1880s: s. 5. Hence, at Felsted School, from late 1880s, a false report; hence, ibid., from early 1890s, a foolish mistake in translating. Felstedian, 3 Feb. 1890, 'Some one ventured to suggest that it was all a beastly tip.' 6. See phrases. 7. A draught of liquor: c. (–1700) soon > s.; †by 1840. Prob. abbr. TIPPLE. 8. Drink in gen.: c. (–1700) soon > s.; †by 1830. Certainly ex TIPPLE.

tip

, v. To render unsteady, esp. to intoxicate, mostly in the passive: C.17–early 18. Camden, 1605. Ex tip, to tilt or incline. 2. (Often tip off.) To drink off: late C.17–20: c. until mid-C.18, then s.; from mid-C.19, only in dial. Ex tipping the glass or bowl in order to drain it. 3. To die: rare except in C.19–20 dial. and in tip off (late C.17–20: c., as in B.E., > s. by 1730; in C.19–20, dial.), tip over the perch (1737, Ozell) or tip the perch (C.19–20, in the same sense). See PERCH. 4. To give; pass: C. 17–20: c. >, by 1730, s. Rowlands, 1610, ‘Tip me that Cheate, Give me that thing.’ Esp. of money. Perhaps ex tip, to touch lightly; the Romany tipper, to give, is a derivative. 5. Hennee, to lend (esp. money): c.: late C.17–20. 6. Hence (of a person in the presence of others), to assume the character of: from ca 1740; ob. For its most frequent use, see TIP THE TRAVELLER. 7. Often almost synonymous with ‘do’ or ‘make’ (cf. FAKE): late C.17–20: c. >, early in C.18 though not in certain phrases, (low) s. See, e.g., TIP A NOD (1), STAVE, YARN; TIP THE GRAMPUS. 8. To earn: C.17–18: c. >, by 1730, (low) s. Rowlands, 1610; Bridges, ca 1770, ‘This job will tip you one pound one.’ Ex tip, to give, and cognate with: 9. To give a ‘tip’ or present of money to—whether to an inferior in recognition of a service or to a child or school-boy or -girl: s. >, early in C.19, coll: 1706–7, Farquhar, ‘Then I, Sir, tips me’—ethic dative—‘the verger with half a crown.’ Ex sense 4. 10. Hence, v.i., in same sense: 1727, Gay, ‘Did he tip handsomely?’: s. >, early in C.19, coll. 11. To indicate by a secret wink: 1749, Fielding, ‘I will tip you the proper person ... as you do not know the town.’ Ex TIP THE WINK. 12. To give private information, a friendly hint, about: from early 1880s: s. Esp. to indicate a horse as a probable winner, a stock as a profitable investment. Ex the n., 2; perhaps cognate with preceding sense of the v. 13. Hence, to supply (a person) with INSIDE information: from ca 1890: s. 14. Hence, v.i., to impart such information: s. (–1904).

tip, miss one’s

. To fall; fail at a jump: showmen’s: from ca 1850. (In late C.19–20 circus s., to miss the word indicating that one is due to do something.) Dickens, 1854. 2. Hence, to fall, fail, in gen.: (–1860). 1869, H.J.Byron, ‘Mr Topham Sawyer missed his own tip as well as his victim’s, and came down a cropper on a convenient doorstep.’ Lit., to fail in one’s expertise: see TIP, n., 2.

tip, sling the

. To give a hint; impart information: proletarian: from ca 1860.

tip, stand the

*, see TIP, TAKE THE.

tip, (gen. the) straight

. Genuine or valuable (INSIDE) information, esp. and orig. as to a horse: s. >, by 1900, coll: from late 1860s, to judge by H., 5th ed. (1874); 1871, Punch, 26 Aug. Because direct from own or trainer; influenced by STRAIGHT, honest. 2. Hence, the horse or the stock so recommended: from ca 1880: s. >, by 1905, coll.

tip, take the

*. c. of C.19–20, as in Vaux, 1812, ‘...To receive a bribe in any shape; and they say of a person who is known to be corruptible, that he will stand the tip.’ Ex tip, a gratuity: a sense that the O.E.D. (rightly, I believe) classifies as S.E.

tip, that’s the

. That’s the right thing: from ca 1860. Ex TIP, n., 1.

tip a copper

*. To SKY a coin: c. or low s.: mid-C.19–20.

tip a (gen. one's) daddle, a (gen. one's) fin, the fives, the gripes in a tangle

*. To shake hands; with to expressed or implied, to shake hands with or extend one's hand to be shaken: c. or low s.: resp. late C.18–20, mainly nautical (–1860), late C.18–20, late C.18–early 20. See DADDLE; the third and fourth occur in Anon., Ireland Sixty Years Ago, 1847; tip the gripes (grips) in a tangle is Anglo-Irish and rare.

tip a mish

*. 'To put on a shirt', F. & H.: c.: C.18–20; ob. The definition is suspect, for the normal sense is to give, lend it.

tip a moral

. To give the straight TIP: racing: late C.19–20. See MORAL, 2 'morar' certainty.

tip a nod (to)

. To recognize (a person): low: mid-C.19–20. 2. The same as TIP THE WINK: 1861, Dickens.

tip a rise

. To befool: low: from ca 1880. See RISE, 2.

tip-a-runner

. The game of tip and run: coll: 1805; ob. Lewis.

tip a settler, a *sock

. To land (a person) a knock-out blow, a heavy blow: low: resp. 1819 (Moore) and late C.17–20 (B.E.: c. > low s.).

tip a stave

. To sing a song: nautical, ?esp. naval, in origin, and it goes back to ca 1790. It occurs in, e.g., W.N.Glascock The Naval Sketch-Book, 1825–6.

tip a yarn

. To relate a story: low: from ca 1870.

tip all nine

. To knock down all the skittles at once: from ca 1780. Perhaps ex tip, to touch; cf. TIP, v., 1.

tip-book

. A literal translation; any other book likely to be especially useful in an examination: schools': 1845 (O.E.D.). See TIP, n., 4.

tip lark, the

. A (racehorse) tipping business: the racing world: late C.19–20.

tip-merry

. Slightly drunk: C.17. Ex TIP, n., last sense.

tip off

. See TIP, v., 2. 2. To die: late C 17–20: c. until ca 1720, then (low) s.; in C.19–20, dial. cf. TIP, v., 3.

tip one's boom off

. To depart hastily: nautical: from ca 1855; slightly ob.

tip one's legs a gallop

*. To make off; decamp hastily: c. (–1823); ob. cf.:

tip one's rags a gallop

. A variant (W.T. Moncrieff, Tom and Jerry, 1821) of TIP THE RAGS...; †by 1870.

tip over the perch

. See TIP, v., 3. (cf. C.19–20 dial. tip over, to swoon.)

Tip Street, be in

. To be, at the time, generous with one's money: low: ca 1815–50. Pierce Egan, Life in London, 1821, 'Jerry is in Tip Street upon this occasion, and the Mollishers are all nutty upon him, putting it about, one to the other, that he is a well-breeched Swell.'

tip the double

. To give the slip: low: 1838, Wright, Morning at Bow Street, 'In plain words he tipped them the double, he was vanished.' cf. TIP THE RAGS...

tip the grampus

. To duck a man (for sleeping on watch): nautical: from ca 1860; ob. Also blow the GRAMPUS. Contrast:

tip the lion

. To press a man's nose against his face and then either, as in Steele, 1712, bore out his eyes with one's fingers, or, as in Grose (1st ed.) and gen., 'at the same time to extend his mouth with the fingers, thereby giving him a sort of lionlike appearance'; †by 1850.

tip the little finger

. To drink: Australian: late C.19–20; ob.

tip the long 'un

. 'To foraminate a woman', F. & H.: late C.19–20; low.

tip the nines

. (Of a sailing-ship carrying too much sail in dirty weather) to be 'driven right under' (Bowen); nautical: late C.19–20; ob.

tip the rags (occ. legs) a gallop or the double

. To decamp: low: resp. C.19–20 and mid-C.19–20. cf. TIP THE DOUBLE,

tip the traveller

. To exaggerate, to romance, as a traveller is apt to do: 1742, Fielding; Smollett; Grose. App. ob. by 1860. Variant of play the traveller. cf. the C.16–18 proverb, a traveller may lie by authority. 2. Hence (variant: put the traveller, C.19: Manchon), with upon, to impose upon; befool: implied in 1762 in Smollett; †in C.20.

tip the velvet

, see VELVET.

tip the (occ. C.18–19, a) wink

. To warn, signal to, with a wink: 1676, Etherege; Dryden; Pope; Grose. s. >, by 1850, coll. cf. TIP A NOD, 2.

tip-top

. The very top; fig., the acme: coll: 1702, S.Parker. Ex top strengthened by tip, extremity, or, as O.E.D. suggests, reduplicated top. 2. Hence, occ. as collective singular, the SWELLS: coll: mid-C.18–mid-19. Thackeray, 1849, ‘We go here to the best houses, the tiptops.’

tip-top

, adj. At the very top; excellent; splendid, TOPPING: coll: before 1721, Vanbrugh, ‘In tip-top spirits’; G.Eliot. Ex the n., 1.

tip-top

, adv. Excellently; splendidly: from ca 1880. Ex preceding.

tip-topper

. A SWELL: 1837, Thackeray; ob. Other forms (tip-topping, etc.) are too little used to qualify as unconventional: they're merely eccentric.

tip-toppedest

, see TIPPEST-TOPPEST.

tip up

. To hand over, FORK OUT, esp. money: low (–1859). 2. To hold out: low and nautical (–1887). Esp. as in Baumann, tip up your fist (or FIN), reach or give (me) your hand!, shake hands! cf. TIP A DADDLE.

tipper

. One who gives a gratuity: 1877 (O.E.D.): coll >, by 1900, S.E. 2. A tipster: mostly racing: from ca 1890. cf. TIP, n., 2.

Tipperary fortune

. Breasts, pudend, and anus: Anglo-Irish (–1785); ob. Grose, 1st ed., ‘Two town lands, stream’s town, and ballinocack, said of Irish women without fortune’. cf. at WIND-MILL; see ROCHESTER, TETBURY, WHITECHAPEL PORTION; also WHITECHAPEL FORTUNE.

Tipperary lawyer

. A cudgel: Anglo-Irish: mid-C.19–20. cf. PLYMOUTH CLOAK.

tippery

. Payment: non-aristocratic: ca 1830–1910. Ex TIP, n., 1 and v., 4.

tippest-toppest

. Absolutely TIP-TOP: jocular (–1887); ob. Baumann (also tip-toppedest).

tippet; hempen t. (Marlowe); St Johnstone’s t. (Scott); Tyburn t

. (Latimer, 1549). A hangman’s rope: mid-C.15–early 19: jocular coll verging on S.E.

tipping

, n. See TIP, v. 2. adj. Excellent, ‘topping’: dial. (–1887) > school s. before 1904. Prob. ex TOPPING on RIPPING.

tipple

. Liquor: late C.16–20: coll >, by 1700, s. Ex the v. Occ. of non-intoxicants: mid-C.19–20. 2. A drinking-bout: ?C. 18–20.

tippling-ken

. A tavern: low: C.18. Ned Ward, A Vade Mecum for Maltworms, 1715.

tipply

. Unsteady: coll: 1906 (O.E.D.). Lit., apt to tipple over.

tippy

. Extremely fashionable; SWELL: 1810, ob. by 1900. cf. the U.S. tippy (occ. tippee), an exquisite of 1804–5. Ex:2. the

tippy

. The height of fashion; the fashionable thing to do: ca 1784–1812. Ex tip, the very top. Either this or the previous sense, the context being neutral, appears in The New Vocal Enchantress (a song book), 1791. 3. Extremely ingenious; very neat, smart, effective: 1863, M.Dods, ‘A tippy little bit of criticism’; ob. Perhaps ex TIP, n., 1. 4. Unsteady: coll: from mid-1880s. Lit., likely to tip over. cf. TIPPLY.

tipster

. One who gives information, orig. in racing (1862) and by 1884 in gen.: coll >, by 1900, S.E. See TIP, n., 2.

tiptop

, see TIP-TOP.

tique

, see TEEK.

tire out, tire to death

. To tire to exhaustion: coll: resp. mid-C.16–20, 1740.

tired, be born

. To dislike work; occ. as ‘an excuse for assumed apathy or genuine disinclination’, F. & H.: from late 1890s. Whiteing, 1899. Occ. be tired.

tired, make

(a person), see YOU MAKE ME TIRED.

tiresome

. Troublesome, annoying, unpleasant: coll: 1798, Charlotte Smith, ‘The tiresome custom you have got of never being ready’.

tirly-whirly

. The female pudend: Scots: late C.18–20; ob. Burns. Reduplicated whirly. Lit., ‘a whirled figure, ornament, or pattern’: cf. lit. senses of tirly.

tirret, tirrit

. A fit of temper, occ. fear; an ‘upset’: coll, orig. illiterate for terror, perhaps influenced by dial. frit, frightened: late C.16–20. Shakespeare.

tish

. A partition; esp. a cubicle: Public Schools', universities': from the late 1880s.

tissey

. An occ. variant of TIZZY; †by 1900.

tit

. A girl or young woman (in mid-C.19–20, often in low s., of a harlot): from end of C.16: S.E. until C.18, then coll until C.19, then s.; from late C.19, low s. and possibly influenced by TITTER. T.Creevey, 1837, '[Lady Tavistock] thinks the Queen a resolute little tit.' Ex tit, a (small) horse: cf. FILLY. 2. The female pudend: low: C.18–20; ob. Abbr. tit-bit, titmouse, in same sense (C.17–18); the former occ.= the penis, as in Urquhart, 1653. 3. A sol. spelling and pronunciation of teat: prob. from C.17 or even earlier. 4. A student at Durham University: Durham townsmen's: late C.19–20. Also 'Varsity tit. Ex tit applied to persons. 5. A horse: c.: 1834, Ainsworth; Charles E. Leach. Earlier in dial. 6. A female breast: Australian low coll: late C.19–20. Ex sense 3. 7. A fellow: s.: Ned Ward (1714) has jolly tit for pleasant fellow, boon companion. cf. sense 4. 8. A fool; cf.:

tit, look a(n absolute)

. To look very foolish, or SLOPPY and stupid: low: late C.19–20. By itself, tit=a foolish, ineffectual man.

tit-bit

, see TIT, 2.

tit-fer (gen. titfer); tit-for-tat

. A hat: the short form being an obvious abbr. (C.20) of the second, which is rhyming s. of late C.19–20.

tit willow

. A pillow: from ca 1870.

titch

. A flogging: Christ's Hospital: mid-C.19–20. ?ex tight breeches by blending, or ex dial. titch, touch. 2. Hence, occ. as a v.

titery

, see TITTERY. titfer, see TIT-FER.

tith

. Tight: coll and dial.: ca 1615–30. Rare except in dramatist Fletcher.

Titire-tu

, see TITYRE-TU.

titivate, tittivate; OCC. tiddivate, tidi-, tiddyvate

. To put finishing or additional touches to (one's toilet, oneself): coll: resp. 1805, 1836, 1824, 1833, 1823. e.g. Dickens in Boz, 'Regular as clockwork—breakfast at nine—dress and tittivate a little', this quotation illustrating and affording the earliest example of the v.i. used as v. reflexive. Perhaps ex tidy with a quasi-Latin ending on cultivate: O.E.D. 'Or fanciful elaboraton of synonymous dial. tiff, Fr. attifer, "to decke, ...adorne" (Cotgrave)': W. Also with †off or up.

titivated, -ating, -ation, -ator

. Obvious derivatives ex TITIVATE: C.19–20. Coll.

title-page

. The face: ca 1830–70. Sinks, 1848. cf. FRONTISPIECE. Hence, 2, a typeface: printers': since ca 1860.

titley

; gen., and in C.20 almost always, tiddly, occ. tiddley. Intoxicating liquor: low (–1859). Prob. ex TIDDLYWINK, a public-house. 2. Hence, a drink: low: from ca 1870.

titley; tiddly

. Drunk: low: app. unrecorded before C.20, though on the tiddl(e)y, intoxicated or in a fair way of becoming intoxicated, appears in Punch in 1895. If thus late, then ex the n., but if earlier than TIDDLYWINK, then perhaps a corruption (?orig, dial.) of tipsy.

titmouse

. See TIT, n., 2. Ex titmouse, fig. =a small thing.

titotular bosh

. Absolute nonsense: orig. and mainly music-halls': 1897–8. Punning teetotal.

tit's back, as fine a fellow as ever crossed a

*. A very fine fellow: either c. or low (–1887). See TIT 1.

titter

*. A girl or young woman: criminals' and tramps' c. (–1812) >, by 1900, low s. Henley, 1887, 'You flymy titters full of flam.' Either ex titter, a giggle, or ex Scots TITTY (1), a sister, or again, ex dial. TITTY (2), a breast: the third possibility is perhaps the likeliest, for titty, sister, is mainly a child's word unless we consider that dial. titty, a girl, has been influenced by titty, a breast.

tittery

. Gin: C.18. Perhaps ex titter, to giggle: Bailey. Occ. titery, tityre.

Tittery-tu

, see TITYRE-TU.

tittie

, see TITTY. tittivate, see TITIVATE.

tittle

. To whisper; to gossip: late C.14–20: S.E. until late C.18, then coll and dial.; in C.20, mainly dial. Prob. echoic.

tittle-tattle

. Chatter, gossip: coll: C.18–20. Ned Ward, 1703. Ex TITTLE.

tittlebat

. A somewhat illiterate, mainly London, coll form of stickleback: C.19–20. Also tiddlebat, tittleback. (Slovenliness generates many such popular corruptions.) cf. TIDDLER.

tittup; OCC. titup

. As n., eligible only in the tit(t)up, the thing: that's the t., that's the thing; the correct t., the correct thing: low: late C.19–20; ob. Ex tit(t)up, a horse's canter, itself echoic.

tit(t)uppy

. Unsteady, shaky: coll: 1798, Jane Austen. Rarely of persons, and in C. 20 mainly dial. Ex tit(t)up, a horse's canter.

titty; OCC. tittie

. A sister; a girl or young woman: Scots coll (mostly among children as 'sister'): from ca 1720. Ramsay, Burns, Scott. Perhaps ex child's pronunciation of sister. cf. TITTER. 2. A or the breast, esp. the human mother's: nursery coll, and dial.: from ca 1740. (In dial., occ. tetty.) 3. A diminutive of teat (cf. TIT, 3): coll: C.19–20. 4. A kitten, a cat; also in address: nursery coll, and dial.: C.19–20. Clare, 1821. Ex child's pronunciation of kitty.

titty, drop of

. A drink from the breast: nursery: C.19–20. See TITTY, 2.

titty and billy (or -ie and -ie)

. Sister and brother: Scots coll: C.19–20. Ex TITTY, 1. 2. Hence, be titty-billy (or -te), to be intimate: Scots coll (–1825).

titty-oggy or tittie-oggie

. Fellatio: low: late C.19–20.

titup

, see TITTUP.

tityre

, see TITTERY.

Tityre-tu; also Titire-Tu, Tytere (or -ire)tu, Tittery hi, tittyry

. A member of a band of rich and leisured roughs of ca 1620–60: a coll nickname > S.E. The O.E.D. records the name in 1623 (J.Chamberlain); ‘Water-Poet’ Taylor; Herrick. Ex the opening words of Virgil’s First Eclogue.

tius

. A suit (of clothes): back s. (–1909). Ware restricts it to East London.

tiv(v)y

. The female pudend: low: C.19–20; ob. ?ex dial. tiv(e)y, activity.

tizzy; OCC. tizzey, tissey

. A sixpence: resp. 1804, 1809, and (†in C.20) 1829. Moncrieff, 1823, ‘Hand us over three browns out of that ’ere tizzy.’ Prob. a corruption of TESTER, Via TILBURY. See also TESTY, cf. SWIZ for SWINDLE.

tizzy-poole

. A fives ball: Winchester: from ca 1870. Because it used to cost 6d. and be sold by a head porter named Poole. cf. the Harrow tizzy-tick, ‘an order on a tradesman to the extent of 6d. a day’, F. & H.: mid-C.19–20.

to rights

, see RIGHTS, BE TO. toac, see TAOC.

to the nines, *to the ruffian

. To an extreme or superlative degree: for to the nines, see NINES; to the ruffian is c. of ca 1810–50.

toad

. A piece of hot toast put into their beer by college men: Winchester: C.19. Wrench.

toad-in-the-hole

. A sandwich-board: mostly London (–1864). Ex the meat dish so named. 2. Hence, occ., the man carrying it: late C.19–early 20.

toad is of feathers, as full of money as a . Penniless: coll: ca 1785–1900. Prob. suggested by:

toad of a side-pocket, as much need of it as a

, see SIDE-POCKET.

toad on a chopping-block, (s)he sits like a

. (S)he sits badly on a horse: coll (–1785). A picturesque simile as applied to a side-saddle. (In Lincolnshire dial.:...on a shovel.)

toast

. A toper; (old toast) a lively old fellow fond of his liquor: ca 1668–1800, but ob. by 1730. Ex such phrases as ale and toast.

toast, (had) on

. Swindled: from ca 1885. St James's Gazette, 6 Nov. 1886, refers to had on toast as ‘a quaint and pleasing modern phrase’. 2. Hence, on toast= cornered: from early 1890s.

toast your blooming eye-brows

! Go to BLAZES!: lower classes’ c.p. of ca 1895–1915.

toasting-fork, -iron

. A sword: jocular coll: 1596, Shakespeare, and Grose, 1st ed., have t.-iron, which is ob. by 1880; t.-fork dates from ca 1860 and occurs in Tom Brown at Oxford, 1861. cf. CHEESE-TOASTER (and the †S.E. toaster), likewise derived ex its most gen. use.

toasty

. Warmly tinted: artists’: from mid-1890s. Lit., (burnt) brown.

tobacco, make dead men chew

. To keep the names of dead men on the books: naval: late C.18–early 19. John Davis, The Post Captain, 1805.

tobacco chart

. Gen. pl, ‘the...inaccurate charts that could formerly be bought from any ship chandler at a low price’: nautical: ca 1840–90. Bowen. Perhaps as sold at the price of an ounce of tobacco, or because they were tobacco-stained.

tobacco-pipe curls

. Corkscrew curls worn by costers and Gypsies: (esp. London) lower classes’ (–1887); ob. Ex the curve of such a pipe.

tobaccy

. Tobacco: lower classes’ coll: from the 1870s if not earlier. W.S.Gilbert, H.M.S. Pinafore, ‘I’ve snuff and tobaccy and excellent jacky.’

tobby

. A deck boy: nautical: late C.19–20: ?ex TOBY, n., 5: because always at hand.

tober

*. A road: tramps' c. and Romany, the former in 1845 in 'No. 747'. See TOBY, 3.

tober omee (or omey or homee or homey)

. A toll-collector: grafters': late C.19–20.

toby

. The buttocks: from ca 1675. Esp. in TICKLE one's toby, to beat him on the buttocks. Ex the proper name. 2. Hence, the female pudend, as in Cotton, ca 1678. ob. 3. (Always the toby). The highway: c. (–1811). Lex. Bal., Lytton, Ainsworth, Hindley; ob., the gen. C.20 term being DRUM. Also, fig., robbery on the highway: 1812, Vaux. cf. TOBY MAN. Ex Shelta tobar, a road, itself perhaps a 'deliberate perversion of Irish bothar, road', W. Occ. tober. cf. the v. and the phrases. 4. Hence, a pitch: showmen's: from ca 1890. Standard, 29 Jan. 1893, 'We have to be out in the road early...to secure our "Toby".' 5. Toby, the dog in a Punch and Judy show: 1840: coll very soon > S.E.: see SWATCHEL. 'The dog in [The Book of] Tobit... is probably the eponym of "Dog Toby" of "Punch and Judy"' (Sir Paul Harvey). 6. A lady's collar: Society coll: ca 1882–1918. Ex 'the wide frill worn round the neck by Mr Punch's dog' (Ware).

toby

*, v.t. To rob (a person) on the highway; hence, DONE FOR a toby, convicted for highway robbery: c. of ca 1810–50.

toby, high (or main)

*. Highway robbery by a mounted person; that of footpads being the low toby. c. of ca 1810–50. See TOBY, n., 3. 2. Also (high toby only), the highway itself.

toby, high spice; high toby spice

*. The highway viewed as the locality for robbery: c. (–1812). Byron, 1812 (h.t.s.); Hindley, 1876 (h.s.t.). Ex TOBY, n., 3, and SPICE.

toby, ply or ride the

*. To practise highway robbery: c. of ca 1812–70. Ex TOBY, n., 3, and cf. TOBY, HIGH.

toby concern or lay

*. The practice of highway robbery: c.: 1811 (lay); †by 1880. ‘Ducange Anglicus’ and H., 1st ed., have toby consarn.

toby gill; high toby gloak; toby man

*. A highwayman: c.: from ca 1810; †by 1880. Vaux, 1812, has all three. (Romany: tober kov, COVE.) cf.:

toby man, high and low

*. A highwayman and a footpad: c.: ca 1810–80. Ex TOBY, n., 3, and cf. TOBY GILL.

toby spice

, see TOBY, HIGH SPICE, and SPICE.

toco, toko

. Chastisement; from ca 1820; ob. Bee, 1823, ‘If...Blackee gets a whip about his back, why he has caught toco.’ Hence, to give (a person) toco, to thrash him, as in Hughes, 1857, ‘Administer toco to the wretched fags’. Perhaps ex (the dative or ablative of) Gr. τόχος, interest, as the O.E.D. suggests; or ex Hindustani tokna, to censure, via the imperative toco, as Yule & Burnell pertinently remarks; or, as I diffidently propose, ex some Negro or Polynesian word: cf. Maori toko, a rod (Edward Tregear’s Dict., 1891), but see also TOKUS. cf.:

toco for yam, get or nap

. To be punished; among sailors from ca 1860, to get paid out. Bee records this (the get), prob. the orig., form in 1823. On the analogy of a stone for a loaf of bread, and, presumably, at first a treatment meted out to slaves. See TOCO. 2. By 1874, toco for yam had come to mean ‘a Roland for an Oliver’; ob.

Tod

is the ‘inevitable’ nickname of any man surnamed Sloan (after the famous jockey) or Hunter (cf. the surname Todhunter): naval and military: late C.19–20.

tod

, adj. Alone; esp. be on one's tod, to be, or to work, alone: grafters': from ca 1895. Ex a lost Tod Sloan, rhyming s. arising ca 1894: cf. TOD.

toddler

. A walker—one who, on a given occasion, walks: coll: ca 1810–60. Boxiana, III, 1821.
2. See:

toddlers

. Legs: ca 1835–80. Sinks, 1848. cf. preceding entry.

toddy, -ie

. In address to a child of 1–3 years: coll: ?mid-C.19–20. Such a child toddles rather than walks; cf. dial. toddy, little, and familiar S.E. toddles, a toddling child.

toddy-blossom

. A GROG-BLOSSOM: C.19–20; ob. Ex toddy, the beverage.

toddy-stick

. A muddler: low: mid-C.19–20. On STICK (n., 3) used pejoratively.

todge

. To smash (to a pulp): provincial: C.19–20. Ex dial. todge, stodge.

toe

, v.t. To kick: low: from ca 1860: coll.

toe, have or hold by the

. To hold securely: coll: mid-C.16–mid-17. Chronicler Hall and Bishop Hall. cf. short HAIRS.

toe, kiss the Pope's

. Respectfully to set one's lips to the golden cross on the Pope's right sandal: 1768, the Earl Carlisle: s. >, ca 1890, coll.

toe, turn on the

. To turn (a person) off the ladder in hanging: late C.16–early 17. Nashe, 1594.

toe a line

. To form a rank or line: naval coll: mid-C.18–19, and perhaps rather earlier and rather later. W.N.Glascock, The Naval Sketch-Book (I, 237), 1825: 'The brigades of seamen embodied to act with our troops in America, as well as in the north coast of Spain, contrived to “ship a bagnet” [handle a bayonet] on a pinch, and to “toe” (for that was the phrase) “a tolerable line”.’

toe-buster

. An infantryman: cavalrymen’s: ca 1880–1905.

toe-fit-ti(e)

. To tie a string to (a boy’s) toe and haul him out of bed: Public Schools’, esp. Winchester and Felsted: ca 1870–1900. Felstedian, Nov. 1881, “‘To fit-ti”, in reference to verbs of the third conjugation transferred from the similarity of sound to the schoolboy’s toe.’

toe-fug

. A footbath: Tonbridge: since ca 1870. Marples. Removal of smell.

toe-path

. An infantry regiment: cavalrymen’s: ca 1890–1914. Punning tow-path.

toe-rag

. A beggar: provincial s. (–1909). Perhaps ex:

toe-ragger, -rigger

. A term of opprobrium: Australia and New Zealand resp. as in Truth (the Sydney one), 12 Jan. 1896, “‘A toe-ragger’ is Maori.... The nastiest term of contempt was tua rika rika, or slave. The old whalers on the Maoriland coast in their anger called each other toe-riggers, and to-day the word in the form of toe-ragger has spread throughout the whole of the South Seas.’

toes, claw one’s

. To indulge oneself: coll: mid-C.15–early 16.

toes, cool one’s

. To have to wait: coll: ca 1660–1700. Brathwait, 1665. cf. to COOL ONE’S HEELS.

toes, on old

. Aged; in old age: coll: C.15. cf. old bones.

toe’s length, the

. Almost no distance: coll: from ca 1820; ob.

toes of, step or tread on the

. To vex; give umbrage to: coll: mid-C.19–20. Robert Browning, 1868. Ex lit. sense.

toes up

.(Lying) dead: 1851, Mayhew; slightly ob. cf.:

toes up, turn one's

. To die: 1860, Reade, 'Several arbalestiers turned their toes up.'

toey

. A SWELL: New South Wales: late C.19–20; ob. ?corruption of:

toff

. A SWELL; a NOB (sense 4, a well-to-do person): proletarian: from 1850s; slightly ob. ca 1868, there was a music-hall song entitled The Shoreditch Toff, by Arthur Lloyd; Whiteing, 1899. Ex TUFT, via TOFT. 2. Hence, a man of fortitude and courage: late C.19–20; slightly ob. Daily Telegraph, 16 Sept. 1902, 'He held out his wrists to be handcuffed, and exclaimed, "Now 'I'll die like a toff"'. 3. A BRICK, a person behaving handsomely: 1898; slightly ob.

toff bundle-carrier

. A gentleman accompanying a prosperous serio-comic from hall to hall on her evening rounds: theatrical: ca 1870–1900. Ex TOFF, 1.

toff-omee

*. The superlative of TOFF, 1: c. (–1909).

toff-shoving

. Pushing about well-dressed men in a crowd: London roughs': ca 1882–1900.

toffee, not for

. Not at all; by no manner of means; not in any circumstances: uncultured: late C.19–20.

toffer

. A fashionable whore: low: ca 1860–1914. cf.:

tofficky

. Showy; vulgarly dressy: low: ca 1860–1910. EX TOFF, 1.

toffish; toffy

. Stylish; SWELL: resp. from ca 1873, when toffishness occurs in Greenwood's Strange Company; 1901, Jerome K. Jerome; toffy, ob., ex TOFFICKY.

toft

. A variant, prob. the imm. source of TOFF, 1: ca 1850–1910. If not TOFF debased—and the dates seem to preclude this—then TUFT corrupted.

tog

*. A coat: early C.18–20: c. >, ca 1820, low s. Tuft, 1798, 'Long tog, a coat'; Andrewes, 1809, 'Tatty tog, a gaming cloth'; Vaux, 1812, 'Tog, a coat'. Ex TOGE, or, less prob., TOGEMAN(s), a cloak. 2. See TOGE and TOGS. 3. See TAOC.

tog

, v. First as past ppl togged, dressed, 1793, to tog being recorded not before 1812. Vaux, 'To tog is to...put on clothes; to tog a person, ...to supply them with apparel.' Low s., verging on c. Ex TOGE.

tog, long; tog, tatty

, see TOG, n.

tog, upper

. An overcoat: c. of ca 1810–50. cf. TOGGER, 1. Ex TOG, n.

tog-bound

. Having no good clothes: lower classes' (–1909).

tog-fencer

. A tailor: London proletariat: ca 1870–1915.

tog it; t. out; t. up

. v.i., to dress smartly: proletarian: resp. 1844, 1869, 1903. 2. As v.t., tog out occurs in 1820 in the London Magazine (I, 25), 'He was always togged out to the nines,' and tog up in 1894.

tog-maker

. A low-class tailor: proletarian: late C.19–20. Prob. ex TOGS.

tog up

, see TOG IT.

toga play

. An Ancient-Classics drama: theatrical coll (–1909); ob. Ex the ancient Roman male garment.

togamans

*, see TOGEMAN(S).

toge

*. A coat: c.: late C.17–18. Ex TOGEMAN(S) on S.E. toge (=toga).

togeman(s); togman

*. A cloak; a (loose) coat; rarely, a gown: c. of ca 1565–1840, but ob. by 1800 if not indeed by 1750. Harman, 1567, all three forms; togeman, very rare after 1700, togman app. not later than 1700; Grose, 1st ed., togmans, 2nd ed., togemans; Bee, the rare togamans. Ex Roman toga, perhaps in its Fr. form (toge), +the c. suffix -MANS. cf. TOG; TOGE; TOGS.

togey

. A knotted lanyard used disciplinarily or bullyingly: in the training-ship Britannia: late C.19–early 20. Prob. ex TOCO; cf. TOGY and take TOKO.

togged, togged out or up; togged up to the nines

, see resp. TOG, v., and TOG IT.

togger

. Perhaps only in upper togger, an overcoat: low s. of ca 1820–50. Egan, 1823, ‘And with his upper togger gay,| Prepared to toddle swift away.’ Ex TOG, n., 1. 2. A boat in the Torpids: Oxford University: from mid-1890s. Ex Torpid, via ‘the Oxford -er’, on Cambridge SLOGGER. 3. In pl, gen. T., the Torpids, i.e. the races themselves, the competition as a whole: C.20. 4. At Harrow (also Torpid), a boy not yet two years in the School; from ca 1896.

toggery

. Clothes: s. (1812, Vaux) >, ca 1890, coll. Moncrieff, 1823, ‘This toggery will never fit—you must have a new rigout.’ 2. Hence, esp., official or vocational dress: from ca 1825; slightly ob. Marryat, 1837, has long toggery, landmen’s clothes: cf. long TOGS. 3. Hence, (a horse’s) harness: from late 1850s; slightly ob. 4. Hence, loosely, one’s ‘gear’ or belongings: from late 1850s; ob.

toggy

*. A cloak; a coat: c.: ca 1740–1910. Ex TOG, n., 1, on TOGGERY, or perhaps imm. ex †toggy, tuggy, an overcoat for the arctic regions.

togies

, see TOGY. togman, see TOGEMAN(S).

togs

*. Clothes: c. (–1809) >, ca 1825, low s. >, ca 1860, gen. s.; in C.20, usually jocular coll. G.Andrewes’s Dict.; Dickens; Blackmore. Ex TOG, n., 1. 2. In phrases—chiefly these two:

togs, long

. Landsmen’s clothes: nautical s. >, ca 1890, coll: 1830, Marryat, ‘I retained a suit of “long togs”, as we call them.’ Prob. on long clothes. cf. at TOGGERY, 2, and the derivative:

togs, Sunday

. One’s best clothes: London and nautical s. (–1859) >, by 1904, gen. Ex TOGS; cf. TOGS, LONG.

togy

. (Gen. pl.) A knotted rope’s-end carried about hidden by elder boys to beat their fags with: Public Schools’: from ca 1870; ob. Prob. ex TOCO. Also TOGEY.

toheno; OCC. tohereno

. Very nice: late C. 19–20: costers'. Lit., hot one reversed.

toke

*. (Dry) bread: low s. (–1859) verging, orig., on c. Perhaps TUCK (food) or (hard and soft) TACK corrupted. 2. Hence, food in gen.: low s. and c.: from ca 1875. Anon., Five Years' Penal Servitude, 1877, 'What in prison slang is called his toke or chuck.' 3. A loaf of bread, esp. a small loaf of bread served in prison: (mostly prison) c.: late C.19–20, 4. (Prob. ex 1.) A piece, portion; lump: rare and low: from early 1870s; ob.

toke

, v. To idle, LOAF: Leys School: late C.19–20. Ex THOKE, v.

token, Tom-fool's

. Money: late C.17– mid-18. Contrast:

token, the

. Venereal disease, esp. in tip one (gen. male) the token, to infect venereally: low: from ca 1780; very ob. Ex token, a blotch or discoloration indicative of disease, esp. the plague.

toko

, see TOCO.

toko, take

. 'To take four dozen lashes in the old Navy without crying out' (Bowen): ca 1840–90.
Ex TOCO FOR YAM.

tokus

. A rare variant of TOCO. H.D. Miles, Dick Turpin, 1841. This form either shows the influence of or, more probably, comes straight from Yiddish tokus, the backside.

tol

. A sword: c. of late C.17–18. Abbr. Toledo, a sword there made. Hence, RUM tol, a gold- or silver-hilted sword; QUEER tol, a brass- or steel-hilted one, i.e. an ordinary one.
2. A share; a lot (of...): back s. (–1851).

tol-lol

. Intoxicated: Yorkshire and Nottinghamshire: from ca 1890. 2. See:

tol-lol(l); tol-lollish

. Pretty good: resp. from middle 1790s and late 1850s; ob. Mrs A.M.Bennett, 1797; W.S.Gilbert, 'Lord Nelson, too, was pretty well—[That is, tollol-ish!]' By the reduplication of the first syllable of tolerable. 2. As adv., tolerably: from late 1850s.

told, be

. To obtain one's colours in a school team: Tonbridge: late C.19–20.

told out

. Exhausted: coll: 1861, Whyte-Melville, of a horse. Lit., counted out.

tolerable

. In fair health: coll: 1847, C. Brontë, 'We're tolerable, sir, I thank you.' 2. As adv. (=tolerably): from ca 1670: S.E. until late C.18, then coll and dial.

tolerably

. (Predicatively, of health.) Pretty well: coll: 1778, Mme D'Arblay.

tol(l)iban rig

*. ‘A species of cheat carried on by a woman, assuming the character of a deaf and dumb conjurer’, Grose, 2nd ed.: c.: ca 1786–1850. Ex RIG (2), a trick, + TOLOBEN, tol(l)iban, the tongue.

tolly

. A candle: Public Schools’: mid-C. 19–20. (cf. the v.) Ex tallow. Hence, the Tolly, a tapering spire at the back of the Close of Rugby School: Rugby: late C.19–20. Athenaeum, 16 June 1900. 2. A flat instrument (e.g. a ruler) used in caning: Stonyhurst: late C.19–20. ?ex sense 1, or ex L. tollere. Esp. get the tolly. 3. A marble (as used in the game of marbles): children’s: late C.19–20. cf. sense 2. 4. A cup or mug; a tin hip-bath: Marlborough College: since ca 1870.

tolly, gen. tolly up

. To work by candlelight after the extinction of the other lights: Harrow School (–1889). Ex the n., 1.

tolly-shop

. A prefect’s room (where caning is done): Stonyhurst: late C.19–20. Ex TOLLY, n., 2. cf. tolly-ticket, a good-conduct card: ibid.: id. Because it ensured against caning, except for a particularly serious offence.

tolly up

, see TOLLY, v.

toloben

. The tongue: c.: late C.18–20. Hence, toloben rig, fortune-telling. cf. TOLLIBAN RIG. Also occ. spelt tollibon or tullibon. (I am, however, unconvinced about toloben being the tongue: it is vouched-for only by F. & H., and I think that there may be a confusion with Romany tullopen or tullipen, or tulipen, fat, lard, grease, a sense that, if extended to ‘paint’ for the face, might well explain toloben-rig, fortune-telling, and possibly also tolliban-rig as above.)

tom

, v. (Of men) to coït with: North Country: late C.19–20. Ex a tomcat’s sexual activities.

Tom

. The big bell at Christ Church, S.E., but after Tom, after hours, is a Christ Church coll (–1874). 2. Tom, long, see LONG TOM. 3. tom, old. Gin: c. or low s. (–1823); ob. Occ. (–1887), merely tom or Tom. 4. Inevitable nickname of all men named King: naval and military: late C.19–20. Ex Tom King, the famous C.18 highwayman. 5. (Either tom or Tom.) ‘A masculine woman of the town’ (harlot): low London: mid-C.19–20. 6. A woman who does not care for the society of others than those of her own sex: Society: ca 1880–1914.

Tom-a-Styles or -Stiles

. Anybody, esp. in law, with John-a-Nokes as his opponent: ca 1770–1830: coll >, by 1800, S.E. G.A. Stevens, 1772, ‘From John o’ Nokes to Tom o’ Stiles,|What is it all but fooling?’ Occ. John-a-Stiles. See Words!

Tom and funny

. Money: rhyming s. (–1909); ob.

Tom-and-Jerry days

. The Regency (1810–20); also, the reign of George IV: coll: ca 1825–60. Ex Tom and Jerry in Pierce Egan's Life in London, 1821, with a continuation in 1828. The v., Tom-and-Jerry, to behave riotously (1828), is rather S.E. than coll, but Tom-and-Jerry (–1864) or T.-and-J. shop (–1835), a low drinking-shop, is coll. The latter elaborates JERRY-SHOP, a low beerhouse, recorded in 1834. cf.:

Tom-and-Jerry gang

. A noisy, riotous gang of fellows: ca 1810–40. In J.H.Lewis, The Art of Writing, 7th ed., 1816, it is applied to the House of Commons. cf. preceding entry.

Tom and Tib

, see TOM, DICK, AND HARRY.

Tom Astoner

. A dashing or devil-may-care fellow: nautical: from ca 1860; ob. Ex to astonish or perhaps abbr. astonisher; Ned Ward, however, has, in 1706, Tom Estenor, which may pun a surname.

Tom Bray's bilk

*. 'Laying out ace and deuce at cribbage', Vaux, 1812: ca 1810–60: prob. orig. c. > (low) gaming s. ?ex noted sharper.

Tom Brown

*. 'Twelve in hand, in crib', Vaux: ca 1810–60: ?c. > s.

Tom Cony

. A simpleton or very silly fellow: coll: late C.17–early 19.

Tom Cox

. A shirker; one who talks much, does little: naval: mid-C.19–20. cf.:

Tom Cox's traverse

. See THREE TURNS. cf. SOGER, v.

Tom, Dick, and Harry

. The common run of men (and women): coll soon > S.E.: T., D., and H., app. not before ca 1815, but Lindsay, in 1566, has Jack and Tom, Tom and Tib is frequent in C.17, Jack, Tom, Will, and Dick in 1604 (James I loquitur), Tom, Jack and Dick in 'Water-Poet'

Taylor, 1622, Tom and Dick occurs in C.18, Tom, Dick, and Francis in Shakespeare (1596), Dick, Tom, and Jack in 1660 (A.Brome), Jack, Tom, and Harry ca 1693 (T.Brown), and Tom, Jack, and Harry in 1865. cf. TOM TILER.

Tom-doodle; rarely -a-doodle

. A simpleton: popular coll: C.18–20; ob. Ned Ward, 1707, ‘That...Tom-doodle of a son... talks of nothing but his mother.’

Tom Double

. A double-dealer, a shuffler: coll: C.18–mid-19.

Tom Drum’s entertainment

. The (very) rough reception of a guest: coll: ca 1570–1640. Holinshed. Also John (Shakespeare), Jack (‘Water-Poet’ Taylor). Possibly ex an actual person’s name; more prob., a pun on drum.

Tom Essence

. A dandy: s.: Ned Ward, 1703.

Tom farthing (or F.)

. A fool: coll (1689, Shadwell) >, early in C.18, S.E. Pejorative farthing. cf. TOM-DOODLE.

Tom Fool than Tom Fool knows, more know

. A semi-proverbial c.p. of C.18–20; ob. Defoe; F. & H., ‘A sarcastic retort on failing to recognize, or professing to be unacquainted with, a person saluting’.

Tom Long

. A person long a-coming or tiresomely long in telling a tale: coll (? > S.E.): from ca 1630; ob., except in dial., which in C.19–20 it mainly is. W.Foster, 1631, ‘Surely this is Tom Long the carrier, who will never do his errand,’ O.E.D., but this is preceded by ‘Proverbs’ Heywood, 1546, ‘I will send it him by John Long the carrier,’ i.e. at some vague date, and by Cotgrave, 1611, ‘To stay’—in C.18–20, gen. wait—‘for John Long the Carrier; to tarry long for that which comes but slowly’. In his Phraseologia Generalis, 1681, W.Robertson has Tom Long the carrier; in late C.17, B.E. has come by T.L. the c., ‘of what is very late, or long a coming’, and Grose, 1st ed., much the same phrase.

Tom-noddy

. A stupid, a foolish, person: coll (–1828) >, by 1860, S.E.

Tom o’ Bedlam

*. A madman, esp. if discharged from Bedlam and allowed to beg: c. and s.: C.17–early 19. cf. ABR(AH)-AM-COVE.

Tom Owen's stop

. 'The left-hand open, scrawling over the antagonist's face, service with the right', Bee: pugilistic: ca 1820–40. Ex a boxer.

Tom Pat

*. A parson or hedge-priest: c.: late C.17–early 18. Street Robberies Consider'd. A RUM Tom Pat is a clerk in holy orders, i.e. a genuine cleric. App. Pat =PATRICO. 2. A shoe: c.: C.19–20; ob. (In Romany, a foot.)

Tom Pepper

. A liar: nautical s. (–1818) >, by 1890, coll. In sailors' folk-lore, 'Tom Pepper was the seaman who was kicked out of Hell for lying' (Bowen).

Tom Right

. Night: rhyming s. (–1857); ob.

tom-rot

. A variant (–1887) of TOMMYROT.

Tom Sawyer

. A lawyer: rhyming s.: late C.19–20.

Tom Tailor

. A tailor in gen.: coll >, by 1890, S.E.: 1820, Scott.

Tom Tell-Troth (Truth)

. An honest man: coll: resp. C.17 and C.18–20 (ob.). Tom True-Tongue, C.14, is the generator; Tom Truth, mainly C.16 (e.g. Latimer), the imm. generator.

Tom Thacker

. Tobacco: rhyming s. (on BACCA): late C.19–20.

Tom Thumb

. Rum: rhyming s.: late C.19–20.

Tom Tiler or Tyler

. Any ordinary man: coll: ca 1580–1640. Stonyhurst, 1582. cf. TOM, DICK, AND HARRY. 2. Hence, a henpecked husband: id.: early C.17.

tom-tit

. To defecate: rhyming s. (late C. 19–20) on SHIT. Also PONY AND TRAP (same period) on CRAP.

Tom Topper(s) or Tug

. A ferryman; any river hand: low London: from ca 1860; ob. H., 3rd ed. (Topper...From a popular song, entitled “Overboard he vent”), for both; Tug presumably from that vessel, though perhaps imm. ex ‘the small stageplay’, H., 5th ed.

Tom Tripe

. A pipe: rhyming s. (–1859); †by 1900. cf. TOMMY TRIPE.

Tom Tug

. A fool: rhyming s. (–1874) on MUG (4). 2. See TOM TOPPER. 3. A bed-bug: rhyming s. (–1909). Contrast sense 1.

Tom Turdman

. A nightman, a scavenger: low: from ca 1690; ob. E. Ward, 1703.

Tom Turd's field(s) or Tom Turd's hole

. 'A place where the Nightmen lay their Soil', Sessions, 1733 (11th session): low: C.18.

Tom Tyler

, see TOM TILER.

tomahawk

. A policeman's baton: urban, esp. Cockney (–1909).

Tomasso di Rotto

(or without caps). (An 'Italianizing' of) TOMMY-ROT: middle-class youths': ca 1905–14.

tomboy

. Female genitals: C.17. Taylor the Water Poet, 'Playing the tomboy with her tomboy.'

tombstone

. A pawn-ticket: low (–1864). 2. A projecting tooth, esp. if discoloured: from ca 1880.

tombstone-style

. An advertisement (rarely of other matter) so ‘displayed’, i.e. composed, that it resembles a monumental inscription: printers’ coll: from ca 1880.

tomfoolery

. Jewellery: rhyming s.: late C. 19–20.

tomjohn; Tomjohn

. A tonjon: Anglo-Indian (–1886). By Hobson-Jobson.

tommy

, as applied to goods (mainly food) supplied to workmen in lieu of wages, is S.E.; so too, according to the O.E.D., it is as the soldiers’ and, from ca 1860, the lower classes’ word for (orig. brown) bread. The latter I hold to be s. in C.18– early 19, coll in mid-C.19–20, as are SOFT (or, 1811, white) TOMMY, bread as opp. to biscuit, and brown tommy (Lex. Bal., but prob. much earlier); as used by workmen for food or provisions in gen., from ca 1860, it is coll. Perhaps by a pun: BROWN GEORGE suggesting brown Tommy, with alternative Tommy Brown, whence Tommy, whence tommy. But note that in Bedford (and elsewhere, tommy=loaves of bread distributed by charity on St Thomas’s Day (21 December), for hundreds of years: this, which prob. explains the orig. of a puzzling word, I owe to Mr R.A.Parrott of Bedford. 2. A sham shirt-front: Dublin University (–1860); ob. Prob. on equivalent DICKEY (2) ex Gr. τομή, a section. 3. (Gen. in pl.) A tomato: low: from ca 1870. 4. Tommy. ‘Tommy Atkins’, a private British (specifically, non-Colonial) soldier: 1893, Kipling. Tommy Atkins occurs in Sala in 1883; coll >, by 1895, S.E. Ex Thomas Atkins, a specimen name for signature on attestation-forms and in pay-books since early C. 19. See Words! for further details. 5. A frequent term of address to a young boy whose name is unknown to the speaker: coll (–1887). cf. JACK (19) addressed to a man in these circumstances. 6. Penis: rather low: C.19–20. 7. The CURSE: feminine: late C.19–20. By personification.

tommy (or T.)

, v., see TOMMY TRIPE.

tommy or Tommy, hell and

. An elaboration of hell in intensives or asseverations: from ca 1885. The tommy is perhaps ex TOMMY-ROT; the capital T, on ALL MY EYE AND BETTY MARTIN: ?cf. YO, TOMMY!

tommy!, that's the

*. That's right: c. (–1887). Prob. ex TOMMY, 1.

tommy and exes

. Bread (see TOMMY, 1), beer, and tobacco: workmen's (–1909). Here exes=extras.

Tommy Atkins

, see TOMMY, 4.

tommy-axe

. A tomahawk: Australian coll: late C.19–20. Not certainly a corruption (by Hobson-Jobson) of tomahawk; perhaps on tommy as applied to a small tool or instrument, e.g. a spade—with which cf., in military j., tommy bar, ‘a bentwire spanner used to unscrew the bases of Mills bombs’.

Tommy Cornstalk

. An Australian soldier. 1899–1902 (during the Boer War): coll: Baker.

Tommy Dodd

. In tossing coins, either the winner or the loser, by agreement; the mode of tossing: from ca 1863; ob.: rather proletarian. ca 1863 there was a music-hall song, ‘Heads or tails are sure to win, Tommy Dodd, Tommy Dodd.’ Rhyming on odd. 2. God: rhyming s.: late C.19–20. 3. A sodomite: since ca 1870. Rhyming on SOD. Since ca 1890, often abbr. to Tommy. 4. A small glass of beer: New Zealand and Australian: late C.19–20.

Tommy, get out and let your father in

. Gin (the drink): navvies’ rhyming s.: ca 1860–1900. (D.W.Barrett, Navvies, 1880.)

Tommy, make room for your uncle

! A c.p. addressed to the younger man (men) in a group: from ca 1883. Ex a popular song.

Tommy o’ Rann

. Food: rhyming s. (–1859) on SCRAN, 2.

Tommy Pipes

. Nickname for a boatswain-‘because he pipes or whistles all hands’. Naval: ca 1850–1910. Ware.

Tommy Rabbit (or r.)

. A pomegranate: rhyming s. (–1909).

Tommy Roller

. A collar: rhyming s.: since ca 1880. (C.Bent, Criminal Life, 1891.)

Tommy Rollocks

. Testicles: since ca 1870. Often abbr. to rollocks. Rhyming ballocks.

tommy-rot, also tom-rot

. Nonsense; as exclamation, BOSH!: s. >, ca 1900, coll: 1884, George Moore, ‘Bill...said it was all “Tommy rot”.’ Perhaps ex tommy, goods supplied instead of wages; though Manchon’s theory that it is a euphemism (via the Tommies’ former scarlet uniform) for bloody is not ridiculous; cf. tommy in hell and TOMMY. 2. Occ. as v.i., to fool about; v.t., to HUMBUG: rare: late C.19–20.

Tommy tit

. ‘A smart lively little fellow’, Grose, 1st ed.: coll: mid-C.18–19.

Tommy-toes

. (Little) toes: London children’s (–1887).

Tommy Tripe

. To observe, examine, watch: rhyming s. (–1874) on PIPE, v., 4. Occ. abbr. Tommy or tommy, as in ‘Tommy his plates (of meat)’, look at his feet!

Tommy Tucker

. Supper: from ca 1860. Suggested by the nursery rhyme, ‘Little Tommy Tucker sang for his supper.’

tommyrotic

. Nonsensical: literary coll: from mid-1890s; ob. Whence, likewise ex TOMMY-ROT on erotic: tommyrotics, obscenity, esp. foolish obscenity: coll (–1904). For form, cf. HEROHOTIC.

ton

. (Rare in singular.) Much; plenty: coll: from early 1890s. 2. Gen. the ton. The fashion; fashionable Society: from late 1760s: coll (mostly Society) until ca 1840, then S.E.; ca 1815–25, it verged on s. Ex Fr. ton.

ton for ton and man for man

. The fair division of prizes between two ships sailing in company: naval c.p. verging on j.: C.19. Bowen.

ton of bricks, like a

, see BRICK, LIKE A.

tone, t'one; tother, t'other

. (Whether pronouns or adjj.) The one; the other: S.E. until C.18, then coll and dial.; in C.20, t'one as coll is slightly illiterate. Often in juxtaposition, t'one...t'other. N.B., tother day in †S.E.=the next day, occ. the preceding day; as=a few days ago, it arose in C.16 and was S.E. until C.18; then coll and dial.

toney

, see TONY.

tongs

. Forceps: dental and medical: from ca 1870.

tongs, pair of

. A tall thin person: low: from ca 1880; ob. Ex the two thin 'legs'. 2. Whence, in sarcastic address or comment, tongs! 3. touch with a pair of tongs. See TOUCH WITH...

tongue

, v.t. To talk (a person) down: low (–1860); ob. Ex the ob. S.E. sense, to attack with words, to reproach.

tongue, give (a lick with) the rough side of one's

. To scold, abuse: coll: 1820, Scott; ob. cf. dial. give a person the length of one's tongue.

tongue, have a

. To be sarcastic and/or ironic: non-aristocratic coll: from ca 1880. Charles Turley, Godfrey Marten, Schoolboy, 1902, “‘He had a tongue”, as servants say, and could be sarcastic.’ Ex have a sharp tongue.

tongue, lose one's

. To fall very, be long, silent: coll: 1870, Dickens.

tongue, and a little older than my teeth,— as old as my

. A c.p. reply to how old are you?: late C.18–20; ob.

tongue enough for two sets of teeth(, with; to have)

. Applied to an exceedingly talkative person: ca 1786–1870. cf. TONGUEPAD; TONGUE TOO LONG FOR ONE'S TEETH; TONGUED.

tongue in another's purse, put one's

. To silence: ca 1540–1620. 'Proverbs' Heywood.

tongue is well hung, his (etc.). He is fluent, ready, glib of speech: coll: C.18, Swift; Berthelson's Dict., 1754. Apperson. cf. TONGUE-PAD. Perhaps also coll are the C.18 semi-proverbial your tongue is made of very loose leather ('Proverbs' Fuller, 1732) and the semi-proverbial C.16–17 her (your, etc.) tongue runs on pattens ('Proverbs' Heywood; Davies of Hereford), both recorded by Apperson, who notes the analogous his (etc.) tongue runs on wheel (mid-C.15–20; in mid-C.19–20, dial.) enshrined by Swift.

tongue of the trump, the

. The best or most important thing or person: Scots coll: from ca 1870. In a Jew's harp, the tongue is the steel spring by which the sound is made.

tongue-pad

. A talkative person, esp. if smooth and insinuating: late C.17–20: s. until late C.19, then dial. B.E.; Grose, in 1st ed., adds: 'A scold', a sense †by 1850. On FOOT-PAD. cf. the v.
2. A confidence trickster: s.: Ned Ward, 1703.

tongue-pad

. To scold, v.t.; v.i., to chatter: resp. mid-C.17–20. C.19–20; both dial. in C.20. J.Stevens, 1707; Scott, the v.i. in 1825. Whence tongue-padder=tongue-pad, n., and vbl n., t-padding, and see:

tongue-padder

. A lawyer: s.: Ned Ward, 1703. 2. See TONGUE-PAD.

tongue runs nineteen to the dozen, one's

, see DOZEN, TALK...tongue runs on pattens or wheels, one's, see TONGUE IS WELL HUNG.

tongue to, call (a person) everything one can lay one's

. To scold, abuse, violently: coll and dial.: late C.19–20. cf. TONGUE-PAD, n., 1, 2nd nuance.

tongue too long for one's teeth or mouth

. Either have a... or, more gen., as in Reade, 1859, 'Hum! Eve, wasn't your tongue a little too long for your teeth just now?' To be indiscreet or too ready to talk: mid-C.19–20; ob. Prob. ex TONGUE ENOUGH...; cf. the C.17 proverb, the tongue walks where the teeth speed not.

tongued

. Talkative: low (–1860); ob. cf. TONGUE ENOUGH...

tonic

. A halfpenny: ca 1820–50. ?origin: cf., however, TANNER. 2. A drink, esp. if taken as an appetizer: late C.19–20. cf. MEDICINE.

tonight's the night

! A c.p. of late C.19–20; ob.

tonk

. At cricket, to hit a ball into the air: Charterhouse and Durham (schools): late C.19–20. cf. TONKABOUT, the corresponding n. Ex the mainly Midland dial. tank, n., a blow; v., to strike.

tonkabout

. The hitting of catches at cricket-practice: Charterhouse (–1900). A.H.Tod. Ex preceding term.

tony; in C.18, occ. toney

. A fool, a simpleton: mid-C.17–early 19. Gayton, 1654; but it must be a few years earlier, for the rare v., tony, to befool or swindle, is recorded ca 1652. Ex ANT(H)ONY.

tony; loosely, toney

, adj. Stylish, SWELL; high-toned: coll, orig. (–1886), U.S. >, in 1890s, Australian and New Zealand. H. Lawson, 1901. Ex high tone, or possibly ex ob. ton-ish, tonish (itself ex TON, 2, fashion).

too

. Very; extremely: C.14–20: S.E. until early C.19, then coll—esp. as an emotional intensive among non-proletarian women. The O.E.D. has, at 1868, ‘How too delightful your expeditions must have been.’ cf.:

too, only

. As mere intensive: coll: late C.19–20. ?ex preceding.

too all-but

. A London society c.p. of 1881–2. Ware, ‘Resulting out of Punch’s trouvaille “too-too”’.

too many cloths in the wind

. Tipsy: late C.19–20. On three SHEETS IN THE WIND.

too many (gen. too much) for

. Sufficient to overcome or quell; too able or strong, i.e. more than a match, for: coll: much, 1832; 1861, Dickens, ‘Mr Jaggers was altogether too many for the Jury, and they gave in.’ Too many for may be orig. U.S., for it occurs in The Port Folio, 14 Feb. 1801.

too mean to part with (his) shit

. Excessively miserly or close-fisted: low: late C. 19–20.

too much!, this is

. A c.p. retort or comment: from mid-1860s. F. & H. suggests that it echoes Artemus Ward among the Shakers (ca 1862).

too much of a good thing

. Excessive; intolerable: coll: 1809, Sydney Smith, ‘This (to use a very colloquial phrase) is surely too much of a good thing.’ An elaboration of too much, but perhaps prompted by the literal sense, as in Shakespeare’s As You Like It, IV, i, ‘Why then, can one desire too much of a good thing?’ cf. preceding entry.

too much with us

. Excessively boring; an intolerable nuisance: Society c.p.: 1897–9. Ex the Wordsworthian the world is too much with us.

too numerous to mention

. Angrily drunk: London: 1882–ca 90. Prob. uttering curses too, etc.

too short for Richard, too long for Dick

. Yorkshire expression for ‘no bloody good’; said to have reference to Richard III, the Hunchback: coll: C.19–20.

too-too

(see TOO ALL-BUT) was in 1881 a Society c.p. cf. the derivative too utterly too (1883) and too utterly utter (late C.19–20; ob.): also Society c.pp.

too (effing or sanguinarily) true

. A c.p. of emphatic agreement or endorsement or corroboration: late C.19–20.

tool

. The penis: mid-C.16–20: S.E. until C.18, then coll; in C.19–20, s. unless the context definitely renders it archaic S.E. 2. A whip: ca 1820–90. Ex tool, to drive. 3. A small boy employed to creep through windows, etc., to effect entry: c.: ca 1840–1910. 1845 in ‘No. 747’. cf. the v., 4. 4. See TOOLS. 5. A run; to run: Charterhouse: late C.19–20. Ex the v., 3. 6. A brush: studio s.: from ca 1860. 7. A one-inch paint-brush: builders’ and house-painters’: late C.19–20.

tool

, v.t. To drive: 1812, Sporting Magazine; 1849, Lytton, ‘He could tool a coach’; 1899, Whiteing. Ex instrument for effect. 2. Hence, as in Jessop, 1881, ‘The high-stepping mare that tools him along through the village street.’ Rare. 3. (Ex sense 1.) v.i., to drive, to go or travel, esp. along: 1839. 4. Gen. v.i., to pick pockets: c. (–1859); slightly ob. Prob. ex the n., 3. 5. To murder (v.i.): Society: ca 1845–1900. Ex a metaphor by De Quincey. 6. See n., 5.

tool, dull or poor

. An inferior workman: late C.17–20; in late C.19–20, dial. cf. a poor (occ. bad) workman blames his tools. 2. Hence, (poor tool) a shiftless person: C. 18–20; latterly dial.

tool, grind one's

. (Of the male) to coït: low: mid-C.19–20.

tool off

. To depart: 1881, Punch, 17 Dec.; ob. Ex TOOL, v., 3.

tooler

*. A burglar, a pickpocket: c. (–1859). See TOOL, n., 3, and v., 4. 2. Hence, MOLL-tooler, a female thief or pickpocket.

Tooley Street tailor

. A conceitedly bumptious fellow: mostly London: ca 1870–80. H., 5th ed., ‘The “three tailors of Tooley Street” are said to have immortalised themselves by preparing a petition for Parliament—and some say, presenting it—with only their own signatures thereto, which commenced, “We the people of England”.’ How do such yarns arise?

tools

*. The hands: c.: mid-C.19–20; ob. 2. Pistols: possibly c.: id. 3. As=house-breaking implements, merely a specific application of gen. S.E. sense. 4. Knives, forks and spoons: nautical: late C.19–20. Bowen.

tools, fined for the

*. Convicted for possessing a burglar's tools: c. of ca 1820–1910. cf. TOOL, v., 4, and TOBY, v.t. (analogous DONE FOR).

tooth

. See TEETH, and the following compounds and phrases:

tooth, have an aching

. To have a desire, a longing (for); coll: late C.16–20; in C.19–20, mostly dial. Lodge, 1590; North, 1742; 1887, Parish & Shaw, Dict. of Kent Dialect. 2. (have...at a person.) To be angry with: coll: C.18. N.Bailey, 1730.

tooth, have cut one's eye

. To be 'knowing': a (–1860) variant of have CUT ONE'S EYE TEETH.

tooth, high in

. Bombastic: low: from the 1870s; ob.

tooth, old or up in the

. (Esp. of old maids) aged: from ca 1860. H., 2nd ed., ‘Stable term for aged horses which have lost the distinguishing mark in their teeth.’

tooth-carpenter

. A dentist: low: from ca 1880. cf. TONGS.

tooth-drawer, like a

. Thin: coll: mid-C. 17–18. Ray. Prob. ex, not tooth-drawer, a dentist, but †tooth-drawer, his instrument.

tooth-music

. (The sound of) mastication: from ca 1786; ob.

toothache

. A priapism: low: late C.19–20. Orig. IRISH TOOTHACHE. 2. A knife has the toothache if the blade is loose: schoolboys’, mostly Colonial: id.

toothachy

. Having, characteristic of, toothache: coll: 1838, Lady Granville.

toother

. A punch on the mouth: boxing: from ca 1890; slightly ob.

toothpick

. 'A large stick. An ironical expression', Lex. Bal.: London: ca 1810–50. In Sinks, 1848, an Irish watchman's shillelagh. 2. A very narrow fishing-boat with pointed prow: mainly nautical: 1897, Kipling. Ex shape. 3. A sword: military: ca 1790–1913. cf. CHEESE-TOASTER; TOASTING-FORK.

toothpick brigade, crutch and

. Foppish 'men about town': London society: ca 1885–1905. Ex: 2. Hangers-on at stage doors, esp. at the Gaiety: London society: ca 1884–5. 'They affected, as the badge of their tribe, a crutch-handled stick and a toothpick,' F. & H.

toothy-peg

. A tooth: nursery coll: 1828, Hood, 'Turn we to little Miss Kilmansegg, |Cutting her first little toothy-peg.' By itself, toothy, a child's tooth, is less common: lit., a little tooth.

tooting

. Wind-music: s.: Ned Ward, 1703. 2. (T.) See:

Tooting Bec

. Food: a meal, esp. supper, rhyming s. (on PECK): since ca 1880. Often abbr. to Tooting.

tootle

. Twaddle; trashy verbiage: university: 1880s. Ex tootle, an act of tooting on a horn; cf., however, dial. tootle, silly gossip.

tootle-oo!; loosely, toodle-oo

! Good-bye!: from ca 1905, according to Collinson; the O.E.D. (Sup.) records it at 1907. Probably a Cockney corruption of the French equivalent of '(I'll) see you soon': à tout à l'heure.

tootsie, tootsy; tootsie (or -y)-wootsie

. A child's, a woman's small, foot: playful or affectionate coll: resp. 1854, Thackeray; ca 1890. The form tootsicum is a facetious 'literary' elaboration. On foot, but ex toddle.

top

, n. In c., a dying speech: ca 1830–80. (Also known as a croak.) Ex the c. top, to behold (v., 4). 2. In earlier c., a cheating trick whereby one of the dice remained at the top of the box: gaming: ca 1705–50. Talter, No. 68, 1709. Ex:

top

, v.i. To cheat, esp. at cards: c. >, by 1750, low s.: ca 1660–1820. v.t. with on, upon. 2. ?hence, v.i. and v.t. (the latter, gen. top upon), to insult: late C.17–early 19: c. >, by 1750, low s. 3. (Likewise ex sense 1.) To impose or foist (a thing) on: ca 1670–1750. 4. To behead, to hang: c.: C.18–20, in C.20 mostly in the passive. Implied in TOPPING CHEAT, T.COVE, and TOPMAN or TOPSMAN, though not separately recorded before 1811.

top, a little bit off the

. Some of the best: coll: late C.19–20; ob. 2. Slightly crazy: from ca 1897; ob.

top a clout

 (a handkerchief) or other article is to draw a corner or an end to the top of the pocket in readiness for removal at a favourable moment: c. (–1812); slightly ob.

top ballocks

. Female breasts: military: late C.19–20. e.g. ‘a smashing pair of top ballocks’ is a fine bust. cf.:

top buttocks

. Female breasts: low: late C.19–20. cf. preceding entry.

top-diver

. ‘A Lover of Women. An Old Top-diver, one that has Lov’d Old-hat in his time’, B.E.: low: late C.17–early 19. Grose.

top drawing-room

. An attic or garret: London lower classes’ jocular (–1909).

top-dressing

. The hair: jocular coll: from ca 1870. James Brunton Stephens, 1874. An elaboration of top (as in the barber’s ‘You’re getting a little bald on the top, sir’), with a pun on t.-d., a fertilizing manure. 2. ‘An introduction to a report: usually written by an experienced hand and set in larger type’, F. & H.: journalistic: from ca 1870. cf. fig. use of WINDOW-DRESSING.

top-fencer, -seller

*. A seller of last dying speeches: ca 1830–70: resp. c. and (low) s. Ex TOP, n., 3.

top-gob

*. A pot-boy: c. (–1857); ob. Complete back s. is TOP-YOB.

top-hat

. A tall or high hat (esp. as for formal occasions): coll: from ca 1810. Saturday Evening Post, 16 March 1822. Suggested by TOPPER, 2.

top-heavy

. Drunk: coll: from ca 1675; ob. Ray, 1678; B.E.; Bailey, 1736; Grose; Hone, 1825.

top-hole

, adj. Excellent; splendid, TOPPING: 1908, E.V.Lucas, 'A top-hole idea', but adumbrated by Conan Doyle, 1899, as up to the top-hole, though this may be considered a variant. On top-notch.

top-joint

(pron. jint). A pint (of beer): rhyming s. (–1857); ob. cf. TOP-O'-REEB.

top-knot; topknot

. The head: from 1820s. Sessions, April 1822. cf. TOPPIECE.

top lights!, blast your

. Blast your eyes: nautical: from ca 1790; ob.

top-lofty, toplofty; toploftical

. Haughty; HIGH AND MIGHTY; HIGHFALUTIN: coll: resp. mid-C.19–20 and 1823; both slightly ob.

top-o'-reeb

. A pot of beer: back s. (–1859).

top of Rome

. (A) home: rhyming s. (–1857); ob.

top of the morning (to you)!, the

. A cheery greeting: orig. and mainly Anglo-Irish: coll verging on S.E.: 1815, Scott.

top off or up

. To finish off or up; to conclude: coll: both from ca 1835, Newman in 1836 having up, Dana up (printed 1840, known earlier). 2. To put the finishing touch to: coll: from ca 1870. Both senses derive ex top (or top up), to put the top on, to crown.

top (occ. top up) one's fruit, punnet

, etc. To place the best fruit at the top of one's basket, punnet, etc.: garden-produce market: from mid-1880s. cf. TOPPERS, which prob. suggested it.

top-piece

. The head: from 1830s: coll and dial. cf. TOP-KNOT.

top-ropes, sway away on all

. To live extravagantly or riotously: nautical coll of ca 1810–1900. Ex fig. sway (incorrectly swing) on all t.-r., to go to all lengths. Hence, 2. (sway all top-ropes.) To give oneself airs: nautical: late C.19–20; ob.

top-sawyer

. A collar: tailors': from ca 1870; ob. 2. The sense, 'the best man; one in a superior position', may orig. (–1823) have been s. > coll >, by 1860, S.E. Ex the timber trade, where he 'who works the upper handle of a pit-saw' gets a much higher wage than those beneath him.

top-sawyer, play

. To coït: mid-C.19–20; ob. cf. TOPS AND BOTTOMS.

top-seller

, see TOP-FENCER.

top-shuffle

. ‘To shuffle the lower half of a pack over the upper half without disturbing it’, F. & H.: gaming s. (–1904) > j.

top...tail

, see TAIL, TOP...

top the officer

. ‘To arrogate superiority’, Smyth: nautical: 1806, John Davis, The Post-Captain.

top up

, see TOP ONE’S FRUIT and TOP OFF.

top upon

, see TOP, v., 1, 2.

top-yob

. A pot-boy: back s. (–1859); ob.

top your boom

! Go away!: a nautical c.p. addressed to a man, esp. ‘when he has forced his company where he was not invited’: early C.19–20. Bowen.

topman

. A hangman: C.17. (In C.19, TOPSMAN.) cf. TOP, v., 4.

topos

. A variant of PROS, n.: English undergraduates’ (–1884); ob. Ex Gr. τόπος, a place.

topper

. A thing or person excellent or exceptionally good in his or its kind: coll: 1709, The British Apollo, of a bowl of punch compared with other drinks. Slightly ob. Lit., at the top. 2. A top-hat: s. (1820) >, by 1860, coll. ‘Pomes’ Marshall, 1897, ‘A most successful raid | On a swell’s discarded topper.’ 3. A (violent) blow on the head (or ‘top’): 1823, Bee; 1834, Ainsworth; ob. 4. See TOPPERS. 5. A cigar- or cigarette-end; a dottle: mostly London and mostly low (–1874). 6. A tall, thin person: low: from 1890s; ob.

topper

, v. To knock on the head; to kill thus: from late 1860s; slightly ob. E. Farmer, 1869. Ex: 2. To punch: pugilistic: ca 1810–55. cf. TOPPER, n., 3.

topper-hunter

. A scavenger (and seller) of ‘toppers’ (TOPPER, 5).

toppers

. Large, fine fruit (esp. if strawberries) luring one from their display-point at basket- or punnet-top: 1839, Mogridge. Because they are at the top. cf. TOP ONE’S FRUIT.

topping

, n. A hanging: late C.19–20. cf. TOP, v., 4.

topping

, adj. In c., only in TOPPING CHEAT, TOPPING COVE. 2. Excellent in number, quantity, or quality; TIP-TOP: from ca 1820: coll >, ca 1890, s. Galt, 1822; Clough, 1860, ‘Shady in Latin, said Lindsay, but topping in Plays and Aldrich.’ Ex topping, eminent, and adumbrated in Ned Ward, 1703. 3. Hence, as an adv.: mid-C.19–20.

topping(-)cheat

*. A gallows (gen. the t. c.): c.: mid C.17–early 19. Ex CHEAT, chete, a thing; and cf. TOP, v., 4, and:

topping cove or fellow

*. A hangman: resp. c., mid-C.17–mid-19; (low) s., late C. 18–mid-19. The latter puns the lit. sense, a pre-eminent person. cf. TOPPING CHEAT; TOPSMAN.

topping man

, as opp. topping fellow (in lit. sense), is a rich man; prob. the s. of a London social class or convivial set: ca 1788–1800.

toppy

. Tipsy: coll: ca 1880–1915. cf. TOP-HEAVY. 2. Stylish; (too) showy: from ca 1890: coll. Perhaps suggested by TOPPING, 2.

tops and bottoms, play at

. To copulate: mid-C.19–20; ob. Anatomical pun.

topsail, pay one's debts with the

. (Of a sailor) to go to sea having left his debts unpaid: nautical: ca 1785–1850. Grose, 2nd ed., who adds, ‘So soldiers are said to pay off their scores with the drum; that is, by marching away’; same period, but chiefly military.

topsel

. A coll nautical variant (–1887) of topsail.

topside

. Fig., on top; in control: coll: from late 1890s.

topsman

*. A hangman: from early 1820s: c. >, by 1860, low s. Ex TOP, v., 4, on headsman. cf. TOPPING-COVE; TOPMAN.

Topsy

. A term of address to any little girl whose name is unknown to the speaker: non-aristocratic coll: mid-C.19–20.

topsy-boosy

. Drunk: low: from ca 1890; ob. Reduplicated boosy (BOOZY). cf. TOPPY, 1.

tora-loorals

. Feminine bust, esp. if somewhat exposed: theatrical (–1909); ob. Perhaps ex DAIRY via dial. tooral-ooral (merry with drink), itself ex truly rural used as a test for drunkenness.

torche-cul

. Toilet-paper: coll: late C.17– mid-19. Direct ex the Fr. cf. BUM-FODDER, the English equivalent.

tormentor

. (In a theatre) the first wing; a door therein: theatrical s. > coll: mid-C. 19–20, though not recorded before 1886 (O.E.D.). Because often a nuisance. 2. An instrument (cf. TICKLER) devised to annoy at fairs: coll: from ca 1890. 3. A flatterer: low: late C.19–20. Suggested by back-scratcher. 4. See TORMENTORS.

tormentor of catgut

. A fiddler: coll (–1785); very ob. Because the violinstrings are made of catgut. Also CATGUTSCRAPER.

tormentor of sheepskin

. A drummer: from late C.18 to ca 1900. cf. preceding.

tormentors

. Riding-spurs: 1844, C. J. R. Cook. cf. PERSUADER. 2. A cook's big forks: nautical (–1887). (Rather rare in singular.)

torn it!, that's

. That has spoiled it, ruined, everything: s. (orig. low): 1909, 'Ian Hay'. Rare in other parts of the v. cf. the Northern proverbial the swine's run through it, of anything—orig. and esp. a marriage—ruined by bad luck, and TEAR ONE'S SEAT.

torrac

. A carrot: back s. (–1859). Whence the indelicate c.p. retort (–1904), ekat a torrac: cf. have a BANANA!

torrid

. Rather tipsy: ca 1780–1840. See MOPS AND BROOMS. Amorous drunk?

Tory

. One of those who, in 1679–80, opposed the exclusion of James from the English crown: a nickname in use among the Exclusioners; rare after C.17. cf. TANTIVY and see esp. Roger North's Examen, II, v, §9. Ex Tory, a rapparee or outlaw and itself ex an Irish word='a pursuer'. cf. whig. 2. Hence, a Conservative: coll: from ca 1830, when Conservative superseded Tory as the official and formal name for a member of the traditionalist party. (The same holds of Tory used as an adj.)

Tory Rory

. A London nickname given, ca 1780–1845, to 'those who wore their hats fiercely cocked' (Ware).

tosh

. The penis: schoolboys': from 1870s. ?ex tusk; more prob. ex dial. tosh, 'a tusk; a projecting or unseemly tooth'. 2. A hat: modified back s.: ca 1875–1900. The correct tah > ta-h, ta-aitch, tosh. 3. (Also tosh-can or -pan.) A foot-pan, a bath: Public Schools' (–1881). Pascoe, Life in Our Public Schools. Perhaps a perversion of wash; possibly cognate is Romany to, to wash. cf. the v. 4. Nonsense: 1892, Oxford University Magazine, 26 Oct., 'Frightful tosh'. Perhaps BOSH perverted; cf., however, dial. toshy, 'over-dressed; tawdry'. Often as an exclamation. 5. Hence, very easy bowling: cricketers': 1898. 6. Apocket: c.: C.19–20; ob. Ware, 'Prob. a corruption of French poche.'

tosh

, v.t. To splash, throw water over: Public Schools': 1883, J.P.Groves. Ex the n., 3.

tosh-can, -pan

, see TOSH, n., 3.

tosh-pond

. The bathing pond: Royal Military Academy: from 1880s. Ex TOSH,n., 3.

tosh-room

. A bathroom: Sandhurst: from ca 1860. Mockler-Ferryman.

tosh-soap

. Cheese: Public Schools': from ca 1880. Ex TOSH, n., 3.

tosher

*. One who, in the Thames, steals copper from ships' bottoms: c. (–1859). For etymology, cf. TOSH, n., 3. Hence toshing, such theft: c. (–1867). Smyth. 2. A non-collegiate student at a university having residential colleges: undergraduates' (–1889); †by 1919. Ex unattached: see 'Oxford -er', p. 11. cf. BREKKER.

tosheroon

. A variant of TUSHEROON.

toshy

. Rubbishy: 1902, Belloc, ‘Toshy novels.’ Ex TOSH, n., 4.

toss-off

. An act of masturbation: low coll (–1785). Presumably ex:

toss-off

, v.i. and v. reflexive. (Gen. of the male.) To masturbate: low coll: from ca 1780.

toss-up

. An even chance: coll: 1809, Malkin, ‘It is a toss up who fails and who succeeds: the wit of to-day is the blockhead of to-morrow.’ Ex toss-up, the ‘skying’ (see SKY) of a coin.

tossaroon

, see TUSHEROON.

tossed

. Drunk: C.19–20. Ex tossed, disordered, disturbed, but perhaps influenced by Scots tosie, -y, slightly intoxicated, occ. in form tosy-mosy.

tostificated

. Drunk: late C.19–20; ob. Elaboration of dial. tosticated (i.e. corrupt intoxicated.).

tot

. The sum-total of an addition, an addition sum: coll: from 1870s. Perhaps imm. ex TOT-UP, n.; ultimately ex total, less prob. ex L. totum, the whole. cf. long TOTS. 2. A very young or small child: dial. and coll: 1725, Ramsay. cf. Danish tommel-tot, Tom Thumb. Gen. tiny or wee tot, 3. ?hence, a (very) small drinking-vessel, esp. a child's mug or a tin mug: dial. (–1828) >, by 1840, coll. 4. (Perhaps ex sense 2; prob. ex sense 3.) A very small quantity, esp. of liquor: dial. (–1828) >, by 1850, coll, as in Whyte-Melville, 1868, 'He...often found himself pining for...the camp-fires, the fragrant fumes..., and the tot of rum.' 5. A bone; hence, anything worth taking from a dustbin or a refuse heap; but esp. a rag: dust-heap pickers', hence rag-and-bone men's: from early 1870s. Perhaps on tat, a rag,=the suggestion coming from the juxtaposition in rag and bone. Hence tot-picker (–1874) or -raker (–1904) or -hunter (–1909), and totter (–1891), such a scavenger, esp. if illicit, and totting (–1874), such scavenging. 6. See TOTE, n., 2.

tot

, v.t. To add (orig. together) to ascertain the total of: coll: ca 1760, H.Brooke; slightly ob. Ex total or tot as abbr. total (or totum): cf. the n., 1. 2. Hence, tot up, to ascertain (esp. expeditiously) the total of: from mid 1830s. 3. Hence, vbl n. totting-up, totting: coll: resp. ca 1820, 1860. 4. Hence, v.i., to amount; often constructed with to. Coll: 1882, Besant, 'I...wondered how much it would tot up to.' 5. To drink drams: mid C.19–20. Ex the n., 4.

to't

. To it: when not poetical, it is, in mid- C.19–20, coll.

tot-book

. A book containing (long) addition sums to be worked out: coll: late C.19–20. cf. long TOTS. Ex TOT, n., 1.

tot-hunter, -picker or -raker

, see TOT, n., 5.

Tot-hunting

. ‘Scouring the streets in search of pretty girls’: low (–1909). Ware. cf. TOTTIE, 2.

tot-up

. An adding up: coll: 1871. 2. v.: see TOT, v., 2, 4.

tote; OCC. tot

. A hard drinker: ca 1870, a music-hall song entitled Hasn’t Got over It Yet, ‘As well we’d another old chum,|By all of his mates called the Tote,|So named on account of the rum|He constantly put down his throat.’ Perhaps punning tote, total, and TOT, n., 4; perhaps ex: 2. (Occ. tot.) A total abstainer: low coll: prob. from late 1860s, but not irrefutably recorded before 1887. The music-hall song Toper and Tote, ca 1889, has: ‘You’ll always find the sober Tote|With a few pounds at command.’ 3. A totalizator: from ca 1890: Australian coll >, ca 1901, gen. British coll. Kinglake, 1891.

tote

*, v.t. A variant of TOUT, v., 2: c. (–1887).

toter

*. A C.17 variant of TOUTER, a spy: c.: 1633, Jonson.

tother, t’other

, see TONE, which cf.

tother, one with

. Copulation: ?C.18–20; ob. Rather coll than s.

tother from which, tell

. (Gen. in negative.) To distinguish between two persons or things: coll: late C.19–20. A jocular manipulation of tell one from the other.

tother school

. One's former school; any school not a Public School: Winchester coll: mid C.19–20. cf. TOTHERUN. 2. As adj., unbecoming because alien to Winchester: id.: from ca 1860. cf. NON-LICET.

tother-sider

, or as one word. A convict: coll of Victoria, Australia: ca 1860–1905. With reference to Sydney, where stood the earliest penal settlement: also Sydney(-bird or)-sider. The rivalry between Melbourn and Sydney, esp., now takes, and has long taken, the form of an exchange of our 'Arbour! and stinking Yarra! 2. One from the other side of Australia, esp. a Westralian: late C.19–20: Australian coll.

totherun

. A preparatory school; a private school: Charterhouse: late C.19–20. i.e. the other one (one's former school). cf. TOTHER SCHOOL.

tots

. Old clothes: street markets': since ca 1870. Ex TOT, n., 5.

tots, long

. Very long addition sums: coll. late C.19–20. Ex TOT, n., 1.

totter

, see TOT, n., 5.

totter-arse

. A seesaw: provincial: from ca 1870. Ex dial. t.-a., a person walking unsteadily.

Tottie; occ. Totty

. A Hottentot: coll: 1849, E.E.Napier. 2. tottie, rarely totty. A high-class whore: from ca 1880. Ex Dot, Dorothy, or ex tottie, -y, a little child: perhaps influenced by TITTY.

Tottie all-colours

. A brightly dressed young woman (of the streets): low London (–1909).

Tottie one-lung

. ‘An asthmatic, or consumptive young person who, for good or bad, thinks herself somebody’: low urban (–1909). Ware. See TOTTIE, 2.

totties

. Potatoes: Regular Army: late C. 19–20. Perversion of TATIE.

totting

, see TOT, n., 5; TOT, v., 3.

totting, go

. To collect (rags and) bones: low (–1887). See TOT, v.

Totty

, see TOTTIE.

touch

. Anything that will, at a stated price, interest customers at (about) that price: from ca 1710: coll >, in mid-C.19, s. Swift, 1712, ‘I desire you to print in such a form, as in the booksellers’ phrase will make a sixpenny touch’; Sir Erasmus Philipps, in his Diary, 22 Sept. 1720, ‘At night went to the ball at the Angel. A guinea touch’; H., 3rd ed. (1864), ‘Sometimes said of a woman to imply her worthlessness, as, “Only a half-crown touch.”’ Lit., something that will touch, appeal to. 2. At Eton (–1864), a present of money, a ‘tip’. cf. sense 4. 3. A theft, esp. by pocket-picking: low s. bordering on c.: 1888, ‘Rolf Boldrewood’. 4. Hence, the obtaining of money from a person, e.g. by a loan: from ca 1890.

touch

, v. To receive (money), draw (it): mid-C.17–20: S.E. until C.19, then coll; in C. 20, s. cf. Fr. toucher de l'argent. 2. ?hence, to steal: c.: late C.18–20. Holman, 1796, 'I could not go abroad without her, so I touch'd father's cash.' 3. To approach (a person) for money, to get from (a person) the money one asks (for): coll: 1760. C. Johnston, 1760, 'I am quite broke up; his grace has touched me for five hundred.' In late C.19–20, for things other than money. 4. To rob (a person: for, of the article concerned): c.: mid-C.19–20. 5. Hence, in Australian c. or low s. (–1904), to act unfairly towards, to cheat, to swindle. 6. The sense 'to arrest', ca 1780–1850, may, as the O.E.D. has it, be S.E.; or it may, as Grose, 1st ed. implies, be coll or s. 7. To rival, compare with, equal (in ability): coll: 1838, Dickens, 'Wasn't he always top-sawyer among you all? Is there any one of you that could touch him, or come near him?' Ex touch, to reach, get as far as.

touch, rum

. An odd or eccentric fellow: 1804–6. T.Creevey. Perhaps touch here=a 'contact', a person whom one meets or deals with. 2. Hence, a very strange affair: from ca 1807; very ob. cf. queer START.

touch bone and whistle

. 'Any one having broken wind backwards, according to the vulgar law, may be pinched by any of the company till he has touched bone (i.e. his teeth) and whistled,' Grose, 2nd ed. Often in the imperative. From late 1780s to mid-C.19.

touch bun for luck

, see BUN...

touch-crib

*. A brothel: c. or low s.: C.19–20; ob. Ex euphemistic S.E. touch.

touch for

, see TOUCH, v., 3, 4.

touch-hole

. The pudend: low coll: C.17–20; ob. Punning a fire-arm's vent.

touch me

. A shilling: from ca 1880; ob. Abbr. touch me on the nob, a BOB (2), rhyming s. of ca 1870–90. F. & H., 1904, has touch-my-nob, a bastard or composite form.

touch of the tar-brush, a

. A pejorative c.p. applied to 'the naval officer who is primarily an efficient seaman': mid-C.19–20. Ex the constant use of tar on a ship. 2. A trace of 'black' blood is S.E. in C.20, but it was prob. s. at its origin (ca 1850) and coll from ca 1880 until the end of the century. Occ. a dash of the...

touch off (someone) for

. A variant, mostly Colonial, of TOUCH, v., 3; late C. 19–20.

touch pot, touch penny

. A semi-proverbial c.p.=No credit given: from ca 1650, ob. by 1880. Gayton, 1654; Graves, 1772; Scott, 1822. cf. Swift's 'He touch'd the pence when others touch'd the pot,' 1720.

touch-trap

. The penis: low coll: opp. TOUCH-HOLE.

touch up

. To caress intimately in order to inflame (a person to the sexual act): coll: C.18–20. 2. To coït with (a woman): late C.18–mid-19. 3. Reflexively, to masturbate: C.19–20. All senses ex touch up, to stimulate. 4. To borrow money from (someone): Feb. 1787, Sessions; by 1820, virtually superseded by TOUCH, v., 3.

touch with a pair of tongs, not to. (Gen. I, etc., would not.)

To touch on no account: coll: from 1630s. Clarke, 1639; Fuller, 1732; 1876, Blackmore. cf. ...with a BARGE-POLE.

touched

, (slightly) insane, is, despite gen. opinion, S.E. It abbr. touched in the head, ex S.E. touch, to affect mentally, to taint. 2. (Of vegetables, fruit) beginning to go bad; defective: green-grocers' coll (–1887).

toucher

. A(n instance of) close contact, a tight fit: dial. (–1828) >, by 1840, coll. Thus to a toucher, exactly. Hence, 2, as near or nigh as a toucher, almost, very nearly: 1840, J.T.Hewlett. Slightly ob. Orig. a coaching term, ex touching without disaster.

touching

. Bribery; the obtaining of money esp. by theft or begging: resp. C.18–19 (C. D'Anvers, 1726); late C.19–20 (Arthur Morrison, 1896). Ex TOUCH, v., 2, 3.

touching-up

. A caning: Public Schools': late C.19–20. 2, 3, 4. vbl n. of TOUCH UP.

touchy

. 'Descriptive of a style in which points, broken lines, or touches are employed, as distinguished from firm unbroken line work', F. & H.: artistic s. (ca 1820) >, ca 1850, coll >, ca 1910, S.E. 2. adv., rather: Christ's Hospital: from ca 1840. e.g. touchy a LUX, rather a good thing. Ex touch, a small amount of, a SUSPICION.

tough, make it

. To raise difficulties; take excessive pains: coll: late C.19–20; ob.

tough as a jockey's tail-end—as old Nick— as shoe-leather

. Anglo-Irish phrases (the first, s.; the other two, coll) applied to a person who is a HARD CASE: resp. C.20, late C.19–20, and mid-C.19–20.

tough as an old lanyard knot

. Exceedingly tough (whether meat or seaman): nautical coll: late C.19–20.

tough as tacker

. Exceedingly tough: lower classes' coll (–1909). Ware. Perhaps S.W. dial. tacker, something insuperable.

tough 'un

. A THUMPING lie; execrable pun: low (–1887).

tough yarn

*. ‘A long story’: c. (–1821); †by 1890, by when it meant a ‘tall story’: nautical.

toupee

. The female pubic hair: mid-C.18–20; very ob. By ribald jest on lit. sense. 2. A merkin: mid-C.18–mid-19. Both, occ., lady’s low toupee.

tour; also toure, tower, towre

*. To watch closely; spy on: c. of ca 1565–1650. Harman, 1567. Prob. unconnected with S.E. twire (v.i. only), to peer, peep. Possibly—as Grose (1st ed., at touting) suggests cognate with later c. TOUT, v.i. and t.; more prob. with tower, to fly up, as a hawk does, in order to (have the advantage of and then) swoop down on the prey.

tour of the Grand Dukes, the

. A tour of the fashionable demi-monde of Paris: ca 1870–1914.

tousle

. A whisker worn bushy: proletarian: from ca 1860; ob.

tout

. (Also toute; towte, C.15–16.) The posteriors or rump: C.14–20: S.E. until C. 15, then †; revived by ‘Thousand Nights’ Payne as literary s. 2. A thieves’ lookout man: c.: 1718, C.Hitching (toute, a C.18 variant); ob. Ex the v., 1. 3. Hence, ‘a look out house, or eminence’, Grose, 1st ed.: c. of ca 1780–1850. 4. As a solicitor of custom for tradesmen, etc., and 5, as a racing touter, tout is mid-C.19–20: both may orig. have been s. or coll, but the former was S.E. by 1880, the latter by 1910, at latest. 6. A watching or spying: c. (–1812); ob. Vaux, ‘A strong tout, is strict observation, or eye, upon any proceedings, or persons.’ Esp. in keep tout (–1812) or, occ., keep the tout (1834, Ainsworth), to keep watch, esp. in an illicit activity. Ex sense 3.

tout

*, v.i. To be on the look-out, to watch very carefully: c. of mid C.17–mid-19, and in C.19 only in literary revival. Ex C.15–17 S.E. tout, to peep or peer. cf. TOUR. 2. v.t., to watch, spy on: mid-C.17–20: c. until C.19, then low s. until mid-C.19, then s. with esp. reference to a racing tout’s activities. 3. The racing sense (from ca 1812) may orig. have been s., but is gen. considered as S.E.; the same applies to tout, v.i., to seek busily for trade (from ca 1730).

tout, keep (the) and tout, strong

, see TOUT, n., 6. toute, see TOUT, n.

touter

*. A thieves’ look-out man: c. or low s.: 1844, Dickens; ob. A rare variant of TOUT, n., 2.

touting (or tooting)-ken

*. A tavern, a beer-shop; a tavern-bar: c. (–1676); †by 1850. Ex toot, tout, to drink copiously.

touzery or towzery gang, the

. Mockauction swindlers: London low: from ca 1870; ob. ‘They hire sale-rooms, usually in the suburbs, and advertise their ventures as...“Important Sales of Bankrupts’ Stock”, etc.,’ F. & H. Perhaps ex touse (-ze), horse-play, a ROW, or touse (-ze), to abuse or maltreat.

tow

. (At hare and hounds) a long run-in: Shrewsbury School (–1881). Pascoe. Ex slow motion of towing a ship. 2. Money: low: from ca 1880; ob. Perhaps because, like tow, it ‘burns’ so quickly.

tow

, v., see TOW OUT. tow-line, get in a, see LINE, GET IN A.

tow out

*. To decoy; to distract the attention of (a person) and thus assist a confederate in robbery: c. of ca 1810–50.

tow-row

. A grenadier: military: ca 1780–1860. Ex ‘With a tow-row, row-row, row-row, for the British Grenadiers’. cf. the adj. 2. A noise: dial. > (low) coll: from ca 1870. Reduplicated row, a disturbance. 3. As tow-row! it meant, among London crossing-sweepers of ca 1840–80, ‘Be careful, a policeman is coming!’ Mayhew, Paved With Gold, 1858.

tow-row

, adj. Drunk (?and disorderly): C.18. Steele, 1709. On ROW, disturbance.

tow-street

*. To ‘get (a person) in a line’, i.e. to decoy him: c. (–1821); †by 1890.

towards you, I looks

, see LOOKS TOWARDS.

towel (rare); oaken towel

. (Esp. rub one down with an oaken towel, to cudgel or beat him.) A stick or cudgel: resp. 1756 (Toldervy) and 1739. Ob. Ex the v. 2. lead (rarely leaden) towel. A bullet: 1812, J. & H. Smith, ‘Make Nunky surrender his dibs,|Rub his pate with a pair of lead towels’; ob. by 1900.

towel

, v. To cudgel; to thrash: J.Dunton, 1705. For semantics, note the gen. ridiculed dry-rub etymology of drub.

towel, sky the

, see SKY THE TOWEL.

towelling

. A drubbing or thrashing: 1851, Mayhew, 'I got a towelling, but it did not do me much good.' Ex preceding. cf. TOWEL, n.

tower

*. Clipped money: c. of C.18–early 19. Ex, and gen. in, they have been round the Tower with it, 'that Piece of Money has been Clipt', B.E.: a late C.17–early 19 c.p. of the underworld. App. Tower Hill and, in fact, the whole neighbourhood of the Tower of London were rough, for cf. TOWER-HILL PLAY.

tower, towre

, v., see TOUR.

Tower Hill, preach on

. To be hanged: C. 16. Skelton in Magnificence. Tower Hill was long the place of execution in London. cf. TYBURN phrases.

Tower-Hill play

*. ‘A slap on the Face and a kick on the Breech’, B.E.: c.: late C.17–18. cf. TOWER, n., and:

Tower-Hill vinegar

. The headsman’s block: C.16–17. Ex TOWER HILL, PREACH ON.

Tower-rook

. A guide to the Tower of London: Ned Ward, 1703.

town or Town, as in go to, leave, t. or T.

London: coll: C.18–20. 2. (town.) A halfpenny: rhymings. (–1909) on BROWN; n., 1.

town, in; town, out of

, see IN TOWN; OUT OF TOWN.

town, on the

. Engaged in crime: 1818, The London Guide; 1822, Pierce Egan, The Life of Hayward; †by 1900. 2. Applied to ‘a man of the World. A person supposed to have a general knowledge of men and manners,’ Pierce Egan, Life in London, 1821: coll: ca 1815–60.

town-bull

, a wench, is rather S.E. than coll or s., but perhaps as lawless as a townbull (a notable wench: late C.17–early 19) and roar like a town-bull, (to bellow: late C. 18–mid-19) are coll. cf. Ray, 1678, then the town-bull is a bachelor, i.e. ‘as soon as such an one’, Apperson: a c.p. †by 1850.

town-lout

. A scholar living at home in the town; Rugby School: from ca 1860; ob. cf. TOWNEY.

town red, paint the

, see RED, PAINT...

town shift

*. A sharper; a scoundrel living by his wits: Londoners’ c.: ca 1660–1730. Because he so often changed his lodgings, says Richard Head, Proteus Redivivus, 1675. 2. A sodomite: s.: Ned Ward, 1709.

town-stallion

. A debauchee: s.: Ned Ward, 1703, cf. TOWN-BULL.

town tabby

. ‘A dowager of quality’ (Sinks): ca 1830–80.

town-trap

. A constable: s.: Ned Ward, 1709.

towner

. A s. variant of S.E. townee: from ca 1885.

towney, towny

. Alien to the school: Christ’s Hospital: from ca 1860. Contrast HOUSEY, peculiar to the Hospital. 2. A fellow-townsmen (or woman): in U.S., 1834; in England, 1865. cf. Fr. mon pays(e). 3. A town-bred person, esp. a Londoner: coll: 1828, Peter Cunningham. 4. towny, adj. Townish: coll: 1837. 5. towneys, properly townies. Clothes more suitable to town wear than are the school’s blue garments: Christ’s Hospital: from ca 1860.

towns and cities

, see THOUSAND PITIES. towre, see TOWER. towre, see TOUR. towzery gang, see TOUZERY GANG.

tox

. To intoxicate, gen. in ppl adj., toxed, toxing: 1630s. Heywood.

toxy

. Intoxicated: from ca 1905; very ob. Ex Scottish.

toy

*. A watch: c. (–1877); slightly ob. Horsley, Jottings from Jail, 1877. Hence, toy-getter, -getting, a watch-snatcher (Arthur Morrison, 1896: O.E.D.), watch-stealing; toy and TACKLE, a watch and chain; a red toy is a gold watch, while a white toy is a silver one.

toy-time

. Evening preparation: Winchester: from ca 1860. Ex:

toys

. A bureau, esp. in the form of desk and bookcase combined: Winchester: from ca 1860. Ironically ex toy, a trinket or knick-knack.

tra-la-la

! Good-bye!: c.p.—slightly contemptuous and not too polite—of ca 1830–90. Ware, ‘The phrase took its rise with a comic singer named Henri Clarke, whose speciality was imitating Parisians.’ This being so, Clarke almost certainly knew the Fr. s. sense of tra-la-la (the posterior): cf., therefore, KISS MY—. 2. (Gen. pl.) One of the wealthiest and most extravagant class of dissipated men: mostly proletarian: ca 1889–1900.

trac

. A Cockney variant of TRACK, n. It would seem to be also a c. term for threepence, esp. a threepenny piece: late C.19–20.

traces, kick over the

, see KICK OVER...

track

. (Also trag.) A quart: back s. (–1859). Thus: trauq > traq > trag or trak > track.

track, inside

. The truth: sporting s. > coll: from ca 1880; ob. cf. have the inside running, i.e. an advantage, and inside information, valuable 'tips' (see TIP, n., 2).

track up the danciers

. To go, esp. if quickly, upstairs: c. (–1671); †by 1850. Ex †S.E. track, to go.

trade

. An act of trading; an exchange; in politics, a private arrangement: U.S. s. (1829: Thornton), anglicized ca 1890 as coll. 2. the trade is prostitution: late C.18–19. cf. TRADER.

trade

, v. To exchange, SWAP: U.S. coll anglicized ca 1885.

trade-mark

. A scratch on the face; esp. in draw, leave, or put one's trade-mark on one or one's face or down one's face, to claw the face. Chiefly of women: (low) coll: from early 1870s. Anon. music-hall song, Father, Take A Run!, ca 1875.

trader

. A harlot: ca 1680–1820. Radcliffe, 1682, she-trader, a variant. Also trading dame, as in Cotton, 1678. cf. TRADE, n., 2.

trading dame

, see TRADER.

trading justices

. Such low fellows as, ‘smuggled into the commission of the peace’, live ‘by fomenting disputes, granting warrants and otherwise retailing justice, Grose, 3rd ed.: coll: ca 1785–1840.

trady

. Belonging to, characteristic of, trade: coll: 1899 (O.E.D.).

traffic

. A whore: c. of late C.16–early 17. Greene, 1591 (traffique). Ex the large amount of business she plies.

trag

, see TRACK, n.

tragedy Jack

. A heavy tragedian: pejorative theatrical: from ca 1875; ob.

trail

. A befooling: rare coll: 1847, C. Brontë (see next entry); ob.

trail

, v. To quiz or befool: coll: from ca 1845. C.Brontë, 1847, ‘She was (what is vernacularly termed) trailing Mrs Dent; that is, playing on the ignorance; her trail might be clever, but...decidedly not good-natured’; Coulson Kernahan, 1900, ‘To see the Ishmaelites “trail” a sufferer from “swelled head” is to undergo inoculation against that fell malady.’ Ex trail, to draw (a person) out or on.

trailer

*. One who rides a horse away and sells him afar off: c.: late C.16–early 17. Greene, 1592. 2. A prowling cab-driver: London coll: ca 1870–1905.

traily

. Slovenly; weak, languid: dial. (–1851) >, by 1860, coll.

train

. To consort: coll: from ca 1880; slightly ob. cf. tag about (with) and the C.17 S.E. train, to walk in a notable's retinue. 2. (Also train it.) To travel by train: coll (–1887). Baumann (train it); 1888, Pall Mall Gazette, 2 April.

train-up

, v.i. To hurry: proletarian: mid-C.19–20.

traipse

, see TRAPES.

traitors at table, there are

. A c.p. applied to a loaf of bread turned the wrong side upwards: mid-C.17–19. Ray, 1678, 'Are there traitors at the table that the loaf is turned wrong side upwards?'

tram

. A tramway car: coll (1879). cf.:

tram

. To travel by mining-district tramroad: coll: 1826. 2. Hence, by tram-car: likewise coll: from ca 1880—see the n. Also tram it (1904, E.Nesbit). cf. TRAIN, 2.

tram-fare

. Twopence: London streets': 1882–ca 95.

tramp

. A journey on foot; a long, tiring, or arduous walk or march; a hike: coll: 1786, Burns; 1898, J.Hutchinson, 'Exhausted by a long tramp in hot weather'. Ex tramp to walk, to walk steadily.

tramp

, v. To go on a walking excursion, a hike: coll: mid-C.19–20. Also tramp it. 2. To proceed as a tramp: coll (–1891). 3. To drive out of or into some stated condition by tramping, vigorous walking: coll: 1853, Kane, 'Tramping the cold out of my joints'. 4. To make a voyage by tramp steamer: coll: 1899. 5. Hence, v.t., to run (such a steamer): coll: 1899, likewise in Cutcliffe Hyne.

tramp-major

*. A tramp who, in exchange for his keep at a casual ward, helps the porter: tramps' c.: late C.19–20.

tramping the ties

. Trespassing on the railways: Canadian: late C.19–20. The ties are the sleepers of a railway track.

trampler

*. A lawyer or attorney: c. of ca 1605–50. Perhaps because he tramples on others; prob. ex †trample, to act as an intermediary.

trampolin

. A double spring-board: circus: mid-C.19–20. Ex trampolin, performance on stilts.

tranklements or trollybobs

. Entrails; intestines: proletarian: mid-C.19–20.

tranko

. The elongated barrel which a performer manages with his feet, and keeps up in the air while lying on his back: circusmen's s. verging on j.: mid-C. 19–20. Origin?

trans

. A translation: secondary schools': late C.19–20.

transfer

. To steal: Society: ca 1895–1915. On CONVEY. cf.:

translate the truth

. To lie evasively: Society c.p.: 1899. Ex a phrase used, by a Parisian newspaper, of Delcassé, the French cabinet-minister, in connection with the Muscat incident.

translated

. Intoxicated; very drunk: Society: 1880s. Ware derives it ex Shakespeare's 'Bless thee, Bottom, thou art translated.'

translators

. A pair of re-made boots and shoes: (low) London: mid-C.19–20; ob. Mayhew, 1851. Ex translator, a cobbler, esp. of old shoes.

transmogrify; occ. transmografy, -aphy, - riphy; -migrafy; -mugrify

. To change, alter; esp. to metamorphose utterly or strangely: coll, humorous >, ca 1700, rather low: resp., 1700, but implied in 1661; 1656, 1688, 1671; 1725; 1786. Always v.t. and orig. of persons only. S.Holland, 1656; B.E. (-mogrify); A New Canting Dict., 1725 (-mogrify, -migrafy); Burns (-mugrify); Barham; Mary Howitt, ca 1888. The Dictionary of 1725 asserts that transmigrafy is the correct form: if so, transmigrate prob. supplies, via illiterate corruption, the etymology. 2. The derivatives transmogrification, transmogriſier, are much less frequent: resp., K.W., 1661, ‘To the botchers for transmogriſication’, and 1676.

transnear

*. To come up with (a person): c.: late C.17–early 19. Perhaps on C.17 S.E. transpear, the word prob.=to cross (e.g. a street) in order to approach.

trap

. Trickery, a deceitful trick; fraud. Esp. in understand trap, to be wide-awake or, esp., alert to one’s own interest. (Anon., 1679, Counterfeits, III, i, ‘You’re deceiv’d in old Gomez, he understands trap’; 1821, Scott: Apperson); smell trap, to suspect danger, as of a thief spotting a detective (J.Greenwood, 1869); and be UP TO TRAP (in dial. before 1828—see Apperson; but recorded as coll in 1819 by O.E.D.; H., 1860). Low s.; very ob. except in the third phrase. cf. the TRAP IS DOWN. Ex lit. S.E. influenced by TRAPAN, TREPAN, a trick or stratagem. 2. A sheriff’s officer, policeman (in Australia, ca 1860–90, a mounted one), detective: c. or low s.: 1703, Ned Ward; 1838, Dickens; 1895, Marriott-Watson. Slightly ob., except in South Africa, where it has, since the early 1880s, been esp. used both of an exciseman and of an I.D.B. (Illicit Diamond Buying) detective. Ex trap, to catch, 3. A smallish, sprung carriage; in Britain, esp. a gig, but in Australia and New Zealand a four-wheeled carriage: from ca 1805: coll >, by 1900, S.E. Perhaps ex rattle trap. 4. See TRAPS. 5. The mouth: low: from ca 1780 as POTATO-TRAP (-JAW), the simple form being of mid-C.19–20. 6. (Prob. ex sense 1.) A go-between employed by a pickpocket and a whore working together: c.: C.18. C. Hitching, in The Regulator, 1718, describes the procedure. 7. A guard-room: Army s.: late C.19–20.

trap is down!, the

. The trick, or attempt to ‘do’ me, has failed; it’s no GO!: a c.p. of ca 1870–1910. Ex TRAP, 1, with an allusion to the fallen door of a trap for birds, etc.

trap-stick

. The penis: ca 1670–1900. Cotton; ‘Burlesque’ Bridges. Ex the lit. sense. 2. In pl, the legs; esp. thin legs: ca 1700–1850. Grose, 1st ed., ‘From the sticks with which boys play at trap ball’.

trapan; trepan

* in these senses is rare and not earlier than ca 1680. ‘He that draws in or wheedles a Cull, and Bites’—swindles—‘him’, B.E.: c. of ca 1640–1830. Prob. ex (to) trap, with a c. disguise-suffix (cf. -MANS). 2. Hence, a deceitful or fraudulent trick or stratagem: (orig. low) s.: ca 1660–1830.

trapan, trepan

*, v. To ensnare, beguile, inveigle, swindle: c. or low s. (–1656) >, by 1750, (low) s.; ob. Ex the n., 1.

trapes; occ. trapse; often traipse

. A slovenly or slatternly female: coll and (in late C.19–20, nothing but) dial.: ca 1673, Cotton, ‘I had not car’d|If Pallas here had been preferr’d;|But to bestow it on that Trapes,|It mads me’; the other two forms, C.19–20, though trapse is almost †. Ex the v., 1. 2. (Same origin.) A going or wandering in listless or slovenly fashion; a wearisome or disagreeable tramp: coll and dial.: 1862, Mrs Henry Wood, ‘It’s such a toil and a trapes up them two pair of stairs.’

trapes; traipse

. (In C.18–20, occ. trapse. Dial. has many variants, varying from traaps to trapus and traipass.) To walk untidily, listlessly, aimlessly; gad about: coll: 1593, Bilson implies it in ‘This trapesing to and fro’. 1710–11, 2 March, Swift, ‘I was traipsing to-day with your Mr Sterne,’ ibid. Perhaps cognate with †trape (to walk idly to and fro), which prob. derives ex medieval Dutch trappen, to tread. 2. Hence, to trail, or hang, along or down: coll: from ca 1770; from late C.19, only in dial. 3. (Ex sense 1.) v.t., to tramp over, tread or tramp (e.g. the fields): 1885, Hall Caine.

trapesing, traipsing

. n.: see TRAPES, v., 1. 2. adj., 1760, Foote, trapsing: idem.

trapish

. Slovenly; slatternly: coll: C.18. Rowe, 1705. Ex TRAPES, n., 1.

trapper

. A horse used in a TRAP (3): coll: from early 1880s. cf. vanner, busser, cabber, etc., on the model of ‘hunter’, F. & H.

trappiness

. The n. of TRAPPY: coll: 1885, Field, 26 Dec.

trapping

*. Blackmail: c.: late C.17–mid-18. Anon., A Country Gentleman's Vade Mecum. A special development from trap, to ensnare. cf. TRAPAN, n., 2.

trappy

. Treacherous; trickily difficult; i.e. lit. or fig. containing a trap or traps: coll: 1882, Daily Telegraph, 13 Nov., 'The fences might have been increased in size, however, without being made trappy'; in cricket, of the ball: 1887.

traps

. Personal effects; belongings; baggage: coll: 1813 (O.E.D.). Abbr. trappings. 2. Hence, in Australia, a SWAG (5): from late 1850s.

trapse

, see TRAPES.

trash

. (Contemptuously: cf. dross; FILTHY LUCRE.) Money: ca 1590–1830. Greene, ca 1591; 1809, Malkin. As the O.E.D. remarks, Shakespeare's 'Who steals my purse, steals trash' was prob. an operative factor.

trat

. A pretty girl; an attractive harlot: proletarian: ca 1880–1905. Either a perversion or an anagram of TART.

trav

. Travelling money: Felsted School: late C.19–20.

travel

. To admit of, to bear, transportation: coll: (Dec.) 1852, Beck's Florist, 'Not...good plants for exhibition, as they travel badly', O.E.D. 2. To go, move, fast: coll: 1884, of a dog, 'How he travels.' By 1910 at latest, S.E.

travel in the market

. Applied to the way or extent in or to which a horse is betted on or against: turf: ca 1870–1910.

travel on one's props

. To leave luggage with the railway company as security against the travelling facilities granted, money lacking for the fares and freight, by the company: theatrical: late C.19–20.

travel out of the record

. To wander from the point: coll: from mid-1850s; ob. Dickens in Little Dorrit. cf. off the map.

travel the road

. To take to highway robbery: euphemistic coll: C.18–mid-19. Farquhar, in The Beaux' Stratagem, 1707. cf. sense 1 of:

traveller

. A highwayman: coll: C.18–mid-19. cf. preceding. 2. A tramp: from ca 1760: coll till late C.19, then dial.; ca 1840–80, common among tramps, and often=an itinerant hawker. Goldsmith; Mayhew. 3. Esp. in Australia: 1869, 'Peripatetic Philosopher' Clarke: coll >, by 1900, S.E.; ob. 4. Also traveller at His or Her Majesty's Expense. A convict sent abroad: ca 1830–1910. 5. 'A thief who changes his quarry from town to town', F. & H.: c.: from ca 1830; ob. cf. senses 1, 2. 6. A Gypsy: low: ca 1865, in 'No. 747' 7. A sermon delivered, by the one preacher, on different occasions and in various places: coll: orig. (ca 1890) and mainly ecclesiastical, esp. among theological students.

traveller, tip the

, see TIP THE TRAVELLER.

traveller's tale or talent

. Exaggeration; romancing: ca 1820–50. Ex preceding.

travelling piquet

. A coll name, ca 1785–1840, for ‘a mode of amusing themselves, practised by two persons riding in a carriage, each reckoning towards his game’—app. 100 points—‘the persons or animals that pass by on the side next them, according to the following estimation’, which ranges from ‘a man or woman walking; 1’ to ‘a parson riding a grey horse, with blue furniture; game’. Grose, 3rd ed.

travelling scholarship (or fellowship)

. Rustication: jocular coll, Oxford and Cambridge University: from early 1790s to mid-C.19. Gentleman’s Magazine, 1794, p. 1085, ‘Soho, Jack! almost presented with a travelling scholarship? very nigh being sent to grass, hey?’

traverse

, see THREE TURNS...

traverse the cart

. To delay departure; be loath to depart: pedantic: ca 1845–70. Thackeray. 2. See walk the CART.

traviata

, see COME THE TRAVIATA.

tray, trey

*. Three, whether as number or set: c. >, ca 1910, low s.: from mid-1890s. Ex tray, trey, the 3 at dice or cards. 2. Hence (also tray-, trey-bit), a threepenny piece: low: 1907 in O.E.D.; but prob. several years earlier. 3. tray soddy mits, threepence halfpenny: Parlary and low London: late C.19–20. Here, soddy=It. soldi (see SALTEE) and mits=It. mezzo, a half (see MADZA). 4. See TREE-MOON and TRAY OF MOONS.

tray of moons

. A three-months' prison-sentence: ca 1870–1914. (Barry Pain, The Memoirs of Constance Dix, 1905.)

tray-bit

, see TRAY, 2.

tre-moon

*. An occ. variant of TREEMOON.

treacle

. Thick, inferior port: from ca 1780. Ex thick sediment. 2. Love-making, as in treacle moon, a honeymoon: coll: 1815, Byron; ob. Ex sweetness.

treacle-factory

. A training-ship: naval: late C.19–20. Ex the heavy ‘incidence’ of molasses.

treacle-man

*. A ‘beautiful male decoy... pretended young man of the housemaid and the real forerunner of the burglar’: c.: from ca 1880. Ex TREACLE, 2. 2. Hence, a COMMERCIAL (2) touting sewing-machines, etc., to women: commercial travellers’: late C.19–20. 3. He who makes the smartest sales: drapers’ assistants’ (–1909).

tread, chuck a

. (Of the male) to coït: low: from ca 1860. cf. TREADLE.

treader

. (Gen. pl.) A shoe: low: from ca 1880; ob.

treadle, treddle

. A whore: low: ca 1630– 1890. Ford, 1638; Halliwell. By a pun on the lever so named+tread (copulate with).

treason-monger

. A dynamiter: political: 1885–6.

treasure

. (Of a person) a GEM (3) or ‘jewel’: coll: 1810, Lady Granville. A certain lady calls all her maid-servants, irrespective of quality, ‘treasures’.

treasury, the

. The weekly payment: theatrical (–1874).

treat

. Something very enjoyable or gratifying; the pleasure therefrom or the delight therein: coll: from late C.18. Rarely of a person (1825, Lady Granville). Esp. a fair treat. 2. Anything, anybody, objectionable or a great nuisance: low ironic coll: from 1890s. 3. a treat, adv.: most gratifyingly; very well indeed: low coll: 1899, Daily News, 8 May, ‘This air makes yer liver work a treat.’ All senses ultimately ex treat, entertainment offered by another person.

treat, a

, see preceding, 3.

treble-seam

. A three-seamed leather cricket ball: cricket s. (1897, Globe, 1 July).

treddle

, see TREADLE.

tree

*. Only as in TREEWINS and TREEMOON.

tree

, v. To put in a difficulty; drive to the end of one's resources: orig. (1818: Thornton) U.S., anglicized in the 1850s as a coll >, by 1880, S.E. Henry Kingsley, 1859, 'It's no use...you are treed.' Ex treeing an animal. cf. TREE, UP A.

tree, bark up the wrong

, see BARK...

tree, lame as a

. Extremely lame: lower classes' coll (–1887). Perhaps ex the noisy walking of a man with a wooden leg.

tree, up a

. Cornered; done for; in a serious difficulty; penniless: coll: U.S. (1825), anglicized ca 1840, Thackeray in 1839 having 'Up a tree, as the Americans say.' Ex a hunted animal taking refuge in a tree. Also up the tree and up a tree for tenpence.

tree-moon

*. Three months' imprisonment: c.: mid-C.19–20. 'No. 147' (=year 1845). Also TRAY (or TREY) OF MOONS, often in C.20, abbr. to tray or trey.

Tree of Knowledge

. 'The tree under which books, etc., are piled in the interval between morning school and [lunch],' F. & H.: Charterhouse: from ca 1860; ob. by 1900. Punning the lit. sense.

treer

. 'A boy who avoids organised sports, but plays a private game with one or two friends. [Presumably because played at the trees by the side of the ground]', F. & H.: Durham School: ca 1850–90.

treewins

*. Threepence: c.: late C.17–20; ob. cf. TRESWINS. Ex WIN, n.

trek

. To depart: from ca 1890: coll, orig. and mainly South African. Ex trek, to journey by ox-wagon, hence to migrate—itself ex Dutch.

tremble, (all) in a or all of a; (up)on the tremble

. Trembling, esp. with emotion: coll: resp. 1719, ca 1760 (Henry Brooke); 1800 (Lamb).

tremblers

. Stairs: Anglo-Irish: C.19. ‘A Real Paddy’, Real Life in Ireland, 1822.

trembly

. Tremulous; quivering: coll: 1848, Dickens, ‘So trembly and shaky’.

tremendous

. As a mere hyperbole or intensive (=astounding; immense): coll: 1812, Southey, ‘A tremendous change has been going on.’ cf. AWFUL; TERRIBLE. 2. Extraordinary as regards some quality stated in the context: from ca 1830. George Eliot, 1866, ‘A tremendous fellow at the classics’.

tremendously

. Very greatly, extremely, excessively: coll: mid-C.19–20. Ex TREMENDOUS, 1.

trepan

, see TRAPAN.

treswins

*. Threepence: c. (–1725); ob. cf. TREEWINS.

trey

, see TRAY. treyn(e), treyning-cheat, see TRINE, v., 2.

triangles; gen. the triangles

. Delirium tremens: low (–1864); very ob. A perversion of tremens, prob. on the trembles and perhaps also with an allusion to the percussive musical instrument; H., however, suggests that it is because, during ‘d.ts’, one sees everything ‘out of the square’. cf. JIM-JAM (2).

triantelope; OCC. triantulope

. A tarantula: an Australian coll and popular corruption of that word: 1846, C.P.Hodgson, Reminiscences of Australia. On antelope.

trib

*. A prison: c.: late C.17–early 19. Abbr. tribulation, as remarked by B.E., who implies a more gen. sense in ‘He is in Trib,...he is layd by the Heels, or in a great deal of trouble.’

tribulation

. The condition of being held in pawn; ca 1660–1780. Dryden.

trichi, -y; OCC. tritchie, -y

. A Trichinopoli cigar: 1877, Sir Richard Burton.

trick

*. A watch: c. of late C.18–mid-19. Tufts, 1798. Ex trick, a small, esp. if cheap, toy or ornament, a trinket. 2. A person, esp. a child, who is alert and amusing: Australian and New Zealand coll: late C. 19–20.

trick, do the

. To effect one's purpose, do what is necessary or desirable: coll (–1812) >, by 1870 or so, S.E. 2. Hence (absolutely), to get a woman with child: low coll: from ca 1830.

trick and a half

. 'A master-stroke of roguery', F. & H.: coll: C.19. A development ex a trick worth two of that (not coll but S.E.).

trickar; properly tricker

*. A device for opening a window: c.: late C.16–early 17. Greene, 1592. ?cf. JIGGER, 3.

trickett

. A long drink of beer: New South Wales: ca 1895–1910. Ex Trickett, that champion sculler who knew that 'beer's best for an A1 nation.'

tricks, bag of

, see BAG OF TRICKS.

tricks, been playing

. Pregnant: euphem

istic coll: C.19–20; ob.

trickum legis

. A quirk or quibble in the law: jocular: ca 1790–1850. Lit., a trick of the law, -um pointing the jest at Law Latin.

tricky

. Unexpectedly difficult, needing careful handling or cautious action; catchy, risky: coll: 1887, Saintsbury, ‘One of the tricky things called echo sonnets.’

trier; tryer (try-er)

. A player who perseveres in the attempt to win: cricket s. (1891) >, ca 1905, gen. sporting coll.

trifa

, see TRIPHA. triffing, see TIFFING.

trig

*. A piece of stick or paper left in the front door; if still there the next day, it practically shows that the house is unoccupied. The act is, to trig the JIGGER (door): c. (–1812). Ex trig, brake, a sprag. 2. A hurried walk, a tramp: from ca 1880: dial. and coll. cf. v., 1. 3.

Trigonometry: coll, esp. schools' and universities': from not later than 1908 and prob. from mid-C.19.

trig

, v. Grose, 2nd ed., 'To trig it, to play truant': from late 1780s; slightly ob. Ex (S.E. > dial.) trig, to walk quickly: whence also the n., 2. 2. See the n., 1.

trig-hall

. Open house; Liberty Hall: late C.18–20: dial. and (low) coll, the latter †by 1900. Ex North Country dial. trig, to stuff, to cram, to fill up (esp. the stomach).

trigging, lay a man

. To knock him down: ca 1785–1850. Perhaps ex the v. trig of ninepins; or ex TRIG, v., 1.

trigry-mate; gen. trigrymate

. 'An idle She-Companion', B.E.: late C.17–20: s. >, early in C.19, dial. Ex trig, to walk briskly. 2. Hence, an intimate friend: C. 19–20: coll > dial. Halliwell.

trike

. A tricycle; to ride a tricycle: (low) coll: 1885; 1901, Pall Mall Gazette, 15 May, 'The commercial "trike" is, perhaps, the least supportable of the various tyrannies on wheels which it is the perambulating Londoners' lot to endure.' On BIKE; cf. Fr. and English tri. Hence, triker, the rider of one, and triking, such cycling: coll: from late 1880s.

trilby

. A 'woman's exquisite foot': Society: 1894–ca 96. Ex Du Maurier's Trilby. 2. A trilby hat: coll: 1897, Daily News, 6 Feb. Same source.

Trilbys

. Pig's feet or trotters: West Yorkshire s. (–1905), not dial. 2. Human feet: Australian: late C.19–20. Both ex TRILBY, 1.

trill

. The anus: ?late C.17–mid-19. Halliwell. ?ex crepitation: cf. ARS MUSICA.

trim

*. To cheat; to fleece: C.17–20. Dekker; implied by B.E. in 'Trimming, c. Cheating People of their Money':c. >, by 1720, s. Prob. ex trim, to thrash; cf.:

trim one's jacket

. To thrash a person: coll: 1748, Smollett. An elaboration of S.E. trim, to thrash, with perhaps an allusion to trim, to decorate (a hat) or dress (hair: cf. DRESS (DOWN)).

trim the buff

. (Absolutely.) To deflower, or merely to coït with, a woman: 1772, Bridges, ‘And he...has liberty to take and trim|The buff of that bewitching brim,’ i.e. harlot; ob. Ex BUFF, the human skin; and cf. TRIM ONE’S JACKET.

trim-tram

. In Lord Hervey and His Friends, edited by the Earl of Ilchester and published in 1950, there occurs, in a letter dated 23 Oct. 1731, this passage: ‘There was a most magnificent entertainment, and everything that depended on his servants was in perfection. Whether it was trim tram, I know not, but can give a shrewd guess,’ the sense being either ‘an absurdity’ or ‘absurd’: upper-class: ?ca 1700–70. A reduplication on trim.

trimmer

. A person who, a thing which, trims or thrashes, lit. or fig.: e.g. a stiff letter, article, review, a strict disciplinarian; a redoubtable competitor, fighter, runner (human or animal); a severe fight, blow, run, etc.; an especially well-delivered ball at cricket: coll: 1776, Foote, of a severe leading article; 1804, Nelson, of a letter—as, in 1816, Scott; 1827, Sporting Magazine, of a hound; 1832, P.E an, ‘At last a trimmer Dick sent down.’ cf. the adj. in:

trimming

*, n. See TRIM, v. 2. adj. Excellent, RIPPING; coll: 1778, the Earl of Carlisle, ‘Such trimming gales as would make...a landsman...stare’; 1825, Sporting Magazine, of a run with hounds; slightly ob. cf. preceding entry.

trimmingly

. To a notable extent; excellently: coll: 1789, A.C.Bowers, 'I had the gout trimmingly.'
Ex TRIMMING, 2; cf. TRIMMER.

trimmings

. Masked alcohol: tradesmen's: 1897, Daily Telegraph, 18 Jan.

trincum; gen. trinkum; occ. trinkrum

. A trinket: from mid-1660s: S.E. until C.19, then coll (very ob.) and dial.: resp. C.18–20, C.17–20, late C.19–20. Merely trinket with 'Latin' -um for -et. 2. For reduplicated forms, see TRINKUM-TRANKUM.

Trine

*. Tyburn: c. of mid-C.17–18. Ex sense 2 of:

trine

*. To go: c. of C.17–mid-19. Fletcher, 1622; Scott. A survival from S.E. trine, to go, to march (C.14–16), itself of Scandinavian origin. 2. v.i. and t., to hang: c. of ca 1560–1840, but, like sense 1, ob. as early, prob., as mid-C.18. Also tryne, C.16–17, and treyn(e), C.17. Perhaps, as the O.E.D. observes, ex a shortening of trine to the cheats, to go to the gallows, to be hanged.

tringham tringham, tringum-trangum

, see TRINKUM-TRANKUM.

tringing, treyning, trying

*. An execution by hanging: see TRINE, v., 2.

trinity (or Trinity) kiss

. ‘A triple kiss—generally given by daughters and very young sons, when going to bed, to father and mother’: Society: ca 1870–80. Ware.

trinkerman

. A Thames Estuary fisherman: nautical: mid-C.19–20.

trinkety; incorrectly trinketty

. Of little importance or value: (rare) coll: 1817, Scott.

trinkum

, see TRINCUM.

trinkum-trankum; also tringham trangham, tringum-trangum

. A trinket (C.18–20); a whim or fancy (late C.17–early 19): s. >, early in C.19, mainly dial. B.E., tringumtrangum, ‘a Whim, or Maggot’; 1702, Steele, tringham trangham, as adj.; 1718, Motteux, trinkum-trankum. Reduplicated trinkum (see at TRINCUM).

trip

*. A harlot; a thief’s woman: c.: from mid-1870s; slightly ob. Horsley, Jottings from Jail, 1877. ?ex tripping motion.

trip up

, see CARRY THE STICK.

tripe

. Utter nonsense; very inferior writing, singing, acting, etc. etc.: from ca 1890: coll verging on S.E.Crockett, 1895, ‘A song...worth a shopful of such “tripe”.’ Ex the tripe as typical of inferior food, etc. 2. See TRIPES.

tripe, bag of

. A term of opprobrium for a person: low coll or perhaps rather a vulgarism: C.19–20. Cobbett, 1822. Suggested by TRIPES. cf.:

tripe, blooming six feet of (or six blooming feet of)

. A tall, solid policeman: low urban: from ca 1880; ob.

Tripe, Mr Double

. A (very) fat man: low: ca 1780–1850.

tripes; tripe

. (Very rare, after C.18, in the singular.) The intestines; the paunch containing them: mid-C.15–20: S.E. until mid-C.18, then coll; in mid-C.19–20, low coll. Hood, 1834, ‘I’m as marciful as any on ’em—and ‘I’ll stick my knife in his tripes as says otherwise.’

tripes and trillibubs or trullibubs

. A jeering nickname for a fat man: ca 1780–1880. Lit. the entrails (of an animal). cf. bag of TRIPE and Mr Double TRIPE; see also TRIPES.

tripha or trifa

, ritually unclean (opp. kosher), is Hebrew; it can be considered as s. only when it is loosely applied by Gentiles to things other than food.

triple tree

*. A gallows: c. of ca 1630–1750, then only archaically. Randolph, ca 1634; Brome, 1641; T.Brown, ca 1700. Ex the three parts. cf. THREE-LEGGED MARE.

Tripoly, come from

. To vault, tumble; perform spiritedly: s. (–1847); †by 1890. Ex performances of Moorish dancers.

tripos

*. The intestines; the paunch: c. (–1887). On TRIPES.

tripos pup

. An UNDERGRAD Cantab doing Honours: Cambridge undergraduates' (–1887); ob.

tripper

. An excursionist: coll: 1813, 'Trippers to the seaside for a week'. Also cheap tripper, one who goes on a cheap trip: coll: 1872.

tripper-up

*. One who trips and then robs a person: c.: from mid-1880s. Daily Chronicle, 18 Nov. 1887.

tripping-up

*. The criminal practices in TRIPPER-UP.

trippist

. A TRIPPER: coll: 1792.

Tristram's knot, Sir

. A halter; esp. in tie Sir Tristram's knot, to hang: coll: ?C.17–19.

tritchie, -y; or T.

, see TRICHI. tritrace, see TROLL.

triumph, ride

. To go helter-skelter or full tilt: ca 1760–1850: coll bordering on S.E. Sterne, 1761. Presumably abbr. ride in triumph.

Trojan

. A roisterer, boon companion, a dissolute: C.17–mid-18. Kemp, 1600; adumbrated in Shakespeare, 1588. Ex the fame of Troy. 2. Hence, a good fellow: coll: from ca 1660, though adumbrated in Kemp (as in 1); ob. Butler, 1663, ‘True Trojans’; Scott, 1827, ‘Trusty as a Trojan’, true and trusty being the usual epithets: cf. trusty TROUT. 3. A brave, plucky, or energetic person (rarely of a woman); gen. in like a Trojan, very pluckily or energetically: coll: 1838 (in Fraser’s Magazine; 1841, in book form), Thackeray, ‘He bore... [the amputation]...like a Trojan’: 1855, Dickens, ‘He went on lying like a Trojan about the pony.’ cf. like a TROOPER. 4. A professional gambler: buckish: ca 1805–40. J J.Stockwell, The Greeks, 1817. Prob. ironic ex sense 2.

troll

* occurs in four phrases in Awdelay, 1561, as c. of ca 1550–80: troll and troll by, one who, esteemed by none, esteems nobody—perhaps ex C.14–17 troll, to saunter or ramble; troll hazard of trace, one who follows his master ‘as far as he may see him’—cf. trace=track(s), n.; t. h. of tritrace., ‘he that goeth gaping after his master’, in reference to trey-trace, of obscure origin but connected, allusively, with try-[to-]trace; and troll with, one who, a servant, is not to be known from his master.

trollybobs

, see TRANKLEMENTS.

trollywags

. Trousers: low: from ca 1870; very ob. ?on BAGS.

tromboning, go

. To coït: low: from late 1880s. By anatomical analogy. cf. FLUTE, 2.

troop away, off

, etc. To depart: coll: 1700, T.Brown, 'I thought 'twas time to troop off to an eating-house.'

trooper

*. A half-crown: c.: late C.17– early 19. (?a 'brave' coin, or because it frequently formed part of a trooper's pay.) 2. A prostitute: ca 1830–90. Sinks, 1848.

trooper, like a

. Much; hard; vigorously: coll: 1727, swear like a trooper, the most frequent use; the O.E.D. records eat like a trooper in 1812, lie... in 1854; but in C. 20, anything but swear is ob. cf. TROJAN, 3, and see also SWEAR LIKE A CUTTER.

trooper's horse, you will die the death of a

. A jocular c.p.= 'You will be hanged': ca 1780–1850. Grose, 1st ed., 'That is with your shoes on'.

trork

. A quart: back s. (–1874). Variant of TRACK.

tros; tross

. Sort: back s. (–1851 in form trosseno: Mayhew, I). Thus trosseno, lit. ‘one sort’, is used for a ‘bad sort’ (of day, coin, etc.), as also is DAB TROS, the more precise form of ‘bad sort’.

trossy

. Dirty; slatternly; slovenly: lower classes’: late C.19–20. Perhaps ex preceding. 2. Hence, shoddy, inferior; spurious: late C.19–20.

trot

. A child learning to run: coll: 1854, Thackeray, ‘Ethel romped with the... rosy little trots.’ (cf. TODDLES.) Hence, in late C.19–20, trottie, a toddling child. 2. Hence, a small and/or young animal: coll: from 1890s. 3. A walk; e.g. do a trot: from ca 1875: London lower classes’ coll. 4. A succession of heads thrown at two-up: Australians’ and New Zealanders’: late C. 19–20. i.e. trot=a run. 5. See TROTS. 6. A synonym of TWAT, 1: low: C.18–20.

trot

*. To steal in broad daylight: c.: from ca 1860. 2. To walk with short, quick steps in a small area: coll: 1863, Mrs Cowden Clarke, ‘She...will keep her husband trotting.’ 3. See next entries.

trot, lie as fast as a dog can

. To be a persistent liar: coll: C.19–20; ob.

trot, on the

. Gadding about: Society coll: since ca 1880.

trot it out

! Lit., show it: see next, sense 1. 2. Hence, speak!; confess!: from ca 1890.

trot out

. To bring out (a person, hence an opinion, etc.) for inspection and/or approval; hence, to exhibit: coll: 1838, Lytton; 1888, Christie Murray, ‘They would sit for hours solemnly trotting out for one another’s admiration their commonplaces.’ Ex the leading out of a horse to show his paces. 2. Hence, to spend, as in trot out the pieces: (low) coll: mid-C.19–20. 3. cf. trot out a song, to sing one: from ca 1870. This trot is generic for do and it occurs in such phrases as trot out a speech. Equivalent also is TROT IT OUT!, where the connection with sense 1 is obvious. 4. To walk out with (a woman), lover-wise: 1888, ‘John Strange Winter’. Esp. trot out a JUDY: low s. cf. the analogous trot round. 5. trot out one’s pussy (or feed it), to receive a man sexually: low: mid-C.19–20. See PUSS.

trot round, to

. To escort or conduct round or to a place: from the middle 1890s. ‘Seton Merriman’, 1898, ‘Perhaps you’ll trot us round the works.’ Prob. a development from TROT OUT, 4.

trot the udyju Pope o' Rome

. To sidetrack or dismiss one's wife or other woman: low urban (mostly London): late C.19–20. In transposed s., udyju is JUDY (woman, girl), while POPE OF ROME is rhyming s. for home.

trot-town

. A loafer, an idler: London coll (–1887); ob.

trot up

. To bid against (a person), run up (a price): auctioneers' s. (–1864). cf. S.E. trot, to draw a person out, or on, in conversation in order to make him a butt.

trots

. (Very rare in singular.) Feet: low London (–1909). Ex TROTTERS. 2. (Rare in singular.) Policeman: lower classes': mid-C.19–20; slightly ob. Because so much on the GO (4) or TROT.

trotter

. A tailor's assistant who touts for orders. Oxford and Cambridge (–1860). 2. One who goes, without residence, to Dublin for a degree: Dublin University: from ca 1880. 3. A day-student: Durham University: from ca 1890.

trotter-boxes, gen. -cases

. Boots; shoes: low: mid-C.19–20; 1820, Hood, and Dickens in 1838—boxes is vouched for by F. & H.; both are ob. Also trotting-cases: from late 1850s; ob.

trotters

. The human feet: jocular coll verging on S.E.: late C.17–20. B.E. has shake your trotters!, be gone!; C.19–20 variants are move your trotters!, and, nautical, box your trotters, but the earliest remains gen. cf.:

trotters at B(e)ilby's ball, shake one's

; sometimes with addition of where the sheriff pays the fiddlers. To be put in the stocks: low s. bordering on c.: ca 1780–1840. Grose, 1st ed., 'Perhaps the Bilboa's ball, i.e. the ball of fetters: fetters and stocks were anciently called the bilboes.' At BEILBY'S BALL, however, see another interpretation.

trottie

, see TROTTY. trotting-cases, see TROTTER-BOXES.

trotty; OCC. trottie

. (adj.) Of small and dainty make or build: coll: 1891, 'Lucas Malet'. Ex TROT, n., 1.

trouble

. Imprisonment; arrest. Mostly in (be) in trouble, (be) in gaol: coll in C.16, s. in C.19–20: recorded ca 1560 (in Cavendish's Wolsey), but app. then rare until C. 19. cf. get into trouble, to be fined, arrested, imprisoned, transported: from ca 1820. Prob. euphemistic. 2. As, certainly, is trouble, unmarried pregnancy: coll: 1891, Hardy. 3. Confinement (esp. of unmarried woman): euphemistic coll: mid-C. 19–20.

trouble

. To trouble oneself; to worry: coll: 1880, Justin McCarthy; W.C.Smith, 1884, 'Do not trouble to bring back the boat.' Ex trouble oneself, to take the trouble.

trouble and strife

. A wife: rhyming s.: late C.19–20. cf. the C.16 proverb, he that hath a wife hath strife.

troubled with corns, that horse is

. i.e., foundered: c.p. C.19–20; ob.

troubled with the slows

. (Of swimmer or boat) defeated: aquatics (–1909).

trouncer

. A drink of strong liquor: (low) London: ca 1820–70. Sessions, Feb. 1838.

trouser, trowser

. A Jack of all trades: East London: from ca 1895. Ex the ‘comprehensiveness’ of trousers.

trouser

, v. To put (money) into one’s trouser-pocket, hence to pocket (it): from ca 1890. 2. Hence, to earn: cabmen’s (–1892). Labour Commission Glossary, 1892. cf. put down SOUTH, which trouser, 1, may have suggested.

trout

. Orig. and gen. trusty (ca 1661) or true (1682) trout, a good fellow (cf. TROJAN, 2), a trusted servant or a confidential friend; Shadwell has your humble trout, your humble servant; Ned Ward (1709) applies honest trout to a respectable woman (?who is a ‘good sort’). s. of ca 1660–1830. Contrast (poor and queer) FISH (2). Perhaps suggested by the alliteration of true TROJAN (later, trusty Trojan). 2. See OLD TROUT.

trouting

, n. Catching trout: anglers’ coll: 1898, People, 3 April.

trowser

, see TROUSER, n.

truck

. A hat: nautical (–1864); ob. H., 3rd ed., ‘From the cap on the extremity of a mast’, whence also, at least prob., is TRUCK-GUTTED.

truck

*, v.; frequent as vbl n., trucking. Of obscure meaning; I hazard the guess that it signifies: by legerdemain, to keep buying things with more or less the same coins; or, to steal certain more useful or valuable articles while getting change for the purchase of lesser articles. c. of mid-C.19–20. ‘No. 747’.

truck-gutted

. Pot-bellied: nautical (–1860): slightly ob.

trucking

, see TRUCK, v.

truckle (or trundle-) bed, stumble at the

. To mistake the chambermaid's bed for one's wife's: semi-proverbial coll: ca 1670–1750. Ray, 1678.

trucks

. Trousers: low (–1859); slightly ob. Prob. ex truck, (collective for) small, miscellaneous articles of little value and/or lowly use.

True

. A member of the Whig Party: late C.17 coll nickname.

true as that the candle ate the cat or as (that) the cat crew and the cock rocked the cradle

. i.e. untrue, false: a semi-proverbial coll or c.p.: mid-C.16–18:1666, Torriano, the former; 1732, Fuller, the latter. Apperson, who also quotes that's as true as [that] I am his uncle (Ray, 1670).

true blue

, see BLUE, TRUE.

true for you

! An Anglo-Irish c.p. of assent to another's statement: from early 1830s. Direct ex Irish.

true inwardness

. Reality; quintessence: literary j. verging on s.: from ca 1890; ob.

true till death

. Breath: theatrical rhyming s.: late C.19–20.

truepenny

, n. and adj. An honest fellow; true, genuine: coll: both from ca 1590; in C.19–20, ob., except in the earlier old truepenny (C.16–20), a hearty old fellow, a staunch friend, an honest man: dial. in C. 19–20. Ex a true or genuine coin of that denomination.

truff

, v. To steal: North Country c. (–1864). Ex C.18 (?–mid-19) Scots truff, to obtain deceitfully, pilfer, steal.

truff

*. A purse: c.: C.18. C. Hitching, The Regulator, 1718. Perhaps by a pun on †S.E. truff, a truffle.

trugging-house, -ken, -place

*. A brothel: the first and third are c. or low s. of ca 1590–1620—Greene has both; the second, c. of (?)C.17—only F. & H. records it. Ex trug, a whore, esp. a dirty one. cf.:

trugmoldy

. A harlot: s.: Ned Ward, 1703.

trull

. A harlot: coll: Ned Ward, 1703.

truly, yours

. I; myself: jocular coll bordering on and, in C.20, > S.E.: 1860, Sala; 1866, Wilkie Collins, ‘Yours truly, sir, has an eye for a fine woman and a fine horse.’ Contrast your NIBS.

trump

. A very good fellow, a BRICK: coll: 1819; in Barham as a term of address (my t.), a usage † in C.20. Adumbrated by T. Brydges in 1762, ‘I...Shall make hir know I’m king of trumps.’ Egan’s Grose, ‘One who displays courage on every suit’. 2. A breaking of wind: mid-C.19–20. Ex:

trump

, v. To break wind: low coll: C.18–20; very ob. D’Urfey. Hence the vbl n., trumping, and trumper, the agential n.; the latter is rare.

trump, tongue of the

, see TONGUE OF...

trumpery insanity

. Temporary insanity: a c.p. directed at the frequency of this verdict in cases of suicide: ca 1880–1900.

trumpet-cleaning, gone

. Dead: Regular Army: late C.19–20; ob. Perhaps ex a martial vision of a job in the heavenly orchestra.

trumpeter

as an endearment=dear boy. (Low) coll of ca 1870–1900.

trumpeter, King of Spain's or Spanish

. A braying ass: ca 1780–1850. Ex the pun, Don Key:: donkey. cf.:

trumpeter, for he smells strong,—he would make a good

. A c.p. applied to one with fetid breath, for he smells strong being occ. omitted: ca 1785–1850. Grose, 2nd ed., where the second member is for he has a strong breath. Ex the pun, strong breath:: good lungs. cf. preceding.

trumpeter is dead, his (her, etc.)

. A c.p. applied to a person boasting or to a confirmed braggart: from ca 1725; ob. Franklin, 1729; Grose, 2nd ed., in the orig. form, his...dead, he is therefore forced to sound his own trumpet, which supplies the 'etymology'; but cf. also TRUMPETER, KING OF SPAIN'S.

trumpeters

. Convicts' 'irons which connected the ordinary leg-chains with a brazil riveter round each leg immediately below the knees,' Price Warung, Tales of the Early Days, 1894, in ref. to Norfolk Island ca 1840; app. s. rather than c. They proclaimed the convict's presence if he so much as stirred.

trumpety

. Trumpet-like; blaring: coll: 1822, The Examiner.

trumps, turn up

. To turn out well, prove a success: coll: 1862, W.W.Collins. Ex games of cards. cf. TRUMP, n.

trun

. To run: University of Oxford s. of ca 1760–1810. Short for S.E. trundle.

truncheon

. Stomach: West Yorkshire s. (–1905), not dial. E.D.D., ‘He filled his truncheon.’

trundle

, the ob. coll n. (1869: Lewis) of:

trundle

, v.t. and i. To bowl: cricket coll: 1849; cf. trundler, bowler, 1871, and trundling, n., bowling, 1861. ‘Orig. the ball was trundled along the ground.’ cf. WHEEL ’EM UP, contrast TRUNDLING BOWLER. 2. See LET ’EM TRUNDLE!

trundler

. See preceding. 2. In pl, peas: c.: ca 1670–1830. Presumably because they roll along the ground. cf.:

trundling

, see TRUNDLE, v.

trundling bowler

. One who, bowling fast, makes the ball bound three or four times: cricketers' coll: 1851; †by 1890.

trundling-cheat

*. A wheeled vehicle, esp. cart or coach: 1630, Jonson; †by 1700. Ex trundle, v.i., to roll along, +CHEAT.

trunk

. A nose: late C.17–20. Esp. in phrases (see next two entries).

trunk?, how fares your old

. A c.p. jeer at a big-nosed man: ca 1690–1850. In allusion to an elephant's trunk.

trunk, shove a

. 'To introduce oneself unasked into any place or company', Grose, 1st ed.: low: ca 1780–1890.

trunkmaker-like

. With more noise than work: ca 1780–1840.

trunkmaker's daughter,—all round St Paul's, not forgetting the

. A book-world c.p. applied to unsaleable books: late C. 18–early 19. Globe, 1 July 1890, 'By the trunkmaker was understood...the depository for unsaleable books'; and St Paul's was then famed as a book-selling district.

trust him as far as I could throw him, I would not

. A c.p. applied to an unreliable man: from ca 1870.

trusted alone, he may be

. He is very experienced or shrewd: ca 1820–50. Rather sarcastic, the implication being that he may be so trusted to go anywhere without danger to himself.

trusty

. An overcoat: Anglo-Irish coll: 1804, Maria Edgeworth. i.e. trustworthy garment.

trusty Trojan

, see TROJAN, 2. trusty trout, see TROUT.

try

. An attempt; an effort: coll verging on S.E.: from ca 1830.

try, v.i., with across, after, in

, etc.; also v.t. To search (a place) to find (e.g. game): coll: v.i., 1810, Sporting Magazine, ‘He bid the other defendants try across the Six Acres’; v.t., late C.19–20.

try back

! A c.p. addressed to a person boasting: ca 1820–60.

try it on

. To make an attempt (to outwit, to impose on a person): from ca 1810 both in this s. sense and in c., where it=to live by theft. Vaux. Both as v.i., the more gen., and as v.t. (Thackeray, 1849, 'No jokes...; no trying it on me.' Hence, coves that or who try it on, professional thieves: c.: from ca 1812. 2. See next two entries.

try it on a, gen. the, dog

. To experiment at the risk or expense of another, esp. a subordinate or a wife: from ca 1895: theatrical s. (as in the Daily Telegraph, 4 Feb. 1897) >, ca 1905, gen. coll. Ex MATINEE DOG, though ultimately ex experimenting with meat on a dog or with poisons on animals.

try it on with

. The usual v.t. form of TRY IT ON in s. sense: from ca 1820. Esp. try it on with a woman, to attempt her chastity: 1823, 'Jon Bee', try-on

. An attempt, orig. and gen., to BEST someone; e.g. an extortionate charge, a begging letter: from ca 1820. Ex TRY IT ON. 2. Whence up to the try-on: see UP TO THE CACKLE.

try some horse-muck in your shoes

! Working-men's advice to undersized boys: c.p.: late C.19–20. As manure to make them grow.

tryer

, see TRIER. tryne, see TRINE.

tu quoque

. The female pudend: late C.18– early 19. Possibly suggested by pu(dendum) and TWAT; or a disguising of the latter.

tub

. A pulpit: from ca 1640 (O.E.D. records it in 1643); coll >, ca 1850, S.E.; ob. Whence the coll (verging on s.) terms, tub-drubber (ca 1703, T.Brown; very ob.), -man (ca 1640–70), -pounder (rare; ta 1820–1910), -preacher (1643; very rare in C.19–20), and, the commonest, -thumper (from ca 1660; Grose, 1,785, ‘a Presbyterian parson’); also tubster (coll: ca 1680–1720). Likewise, tub-thumping (app. not before ca 1850), etc. Ex the tub from within which popular, and esp. Nonconformist, clergymen used, in the open air, to preach, but also, and in several instances, independently ex the humorous likening of a pulpit to a tub. 2. A bath; the practice of having a bath, esp. on rising: coll: 1849; 1886, Field, 20 Feb., ‘A good tub and a hearty breakfast prepared us for the work of the day.’ Ex tub, a bath-tub. 3. A seatless carriage on a railway train, an open truck: (low) coll: ca 1840–70. H.S.Brown, Autobiography, 1886. Ex sense 7. 4. ‘A chest in Hall into which DISPARS not taken by the boys were put’, F. & H.: ca 1840–70. Perhaps rather j. than s. or coll, as prob. also are tub-mess and prefect of tub: see Farmer’s Public School Word-Book. 5. A (very) fat person: low coll: from mid-1890s. cf. TUBBY. 6. A cask or keg of spirit, holding about four gallons: smugglers’ s. (–1835) >, by 1860, coll; ob. Ex tub, a varying measure of capacity. 7. A covered carriage of the sort called a chariot: s.: ca 1815–40.

tub

, v.t. To wash, bathe, in a tub: coll: 1610, Jonson. 2. Hence, v.i., to bath in a tub, esp. on rising: coll: 1867. 3. To train (oarsmen) in a ‘tub’, i.e. a fool-proof practice boat: rowing

s., orig. and esp. at the two older universities: 1883; the v.i., to practise rowing in a ‘tub’, dates from 1882. Whence tubbing, vbl n. to both v.t. and v.i. (from 1883) and get tubbed, to be thus coached. 4. (Of a tug) to make (a ship—esp. a big ship) fast to a buoy: nautical coll: late C.19–20.

tub, in the

, see IN THE TUB.

tub-drubber,-man

, see TUB, n., 1.

tub-men

. Landsmen employed during the second, or secret, period of smuggling to receive the contraband from the luggers and carry it inland: ca 1830–80: s. >, by 1860, coll. See TUB, n., 6.

tub-mess

, see TUB, n., 4.

tub-pair

. A practice boat for two oarsmen: (orig. Oxford and Cambridge college) rowing s.: 1870 (O.E.D.). See TUB, v., 3 and 4.

tub-pounder, -preacher, -thumper, -thumping

, see TUB, n., 1.

tubbichon

. A non-cultured corruption of Fr. tire-bouchon, the lone corkscrew ringlet of back hair worn in front of the left shoulder (a fashion introduced by the Empress Eugénie): 1860s. cf. ZARNER.

tubbing

. See TUB, v., 3, 4. 2. Imprisonment: c.: late C.19–20; ob. Why?

tubby

. Fat (person): as adj. (1835), S.E.; as nickname (mid-C.19–20), coll. 2. The latrine-attendant: Christ's Hospital: from ca 1870. Ex one so nicknamed.

tube

. The tunnel in which runs an underground electric train: coll: from ca 1895. 2. Hence (often the Tube), abbr. tube-railway: coll: 1900.

tubs

. A butter-man: low (–1864); ob. Ex butter in tubs.

tubster

, see TUB, n., 1.

tuck

. A hearty meal, esp. (orig. and mainly in schools) of delicacies: 1844, J.T.Hewlett. Also, in C.19, more gen., tuck-out, 1823; occ. in C.19, very often in C.20, tuck-in, 1859, H., 1st ed. (cf. TUCKER.) ?ex tuck, a fold or pleat: tuckout, the earliest form, suggests a meal that removes a tuck or a crease from one's waistcoat or trousers-top; but prob. imm. ex the v., 2 and 3. 2. Hence, food; esp. delicacies (e.g. pastry, jam): orig. and mainly school s.: 1857, Hughes, 'The Slogger looks rather sodden, as if he... ate too much tuck.' 3. Appetite: dial. and provincial s.: from the 1830s. 4. The head: 1888, The London Guide; †by 1900. cf. sense 1 of the v.

tuck

*, v. To hang (a person): c. of late C. 17–19. But gen. tuck up: from mid-1730s: c. rapidly > (low) s. Richardson, 1740, 'The hangman asked the poor creature's pardon, and...then calmly tucked up the criminal.' Ex tuck, to put away in a safe place. 2. To eat, occ. to drink: v.t., 1784, Bage, 'We will...tuck up a bottle or two of claret'; hence, v.i., eat a lot or greedily, 1810; tucking-in, tuck into occurring in 1838 in Dickens. The simple v. is less frequent than the prepositional combinations. Etymology: prob. as in sense 1. 3. Ex 2, v.i. sense: to distend (another or oneself) with food: 1824, 'Comfortably tucked out'; †by 1900. Rare, esp. in simple form. 4. Prob. ex sense 1: to hang (a bell) high in the stock: 1860: bell-makers' and bell-ringers', perhaps coll rather than s. Abbr. tuck high (in the stock). Gen. tuck up.

tuck-'em fair

*. An execution: c. (–1700) >, in mid-C.18, low s. Parker, 1789, ‘We went off at the fall of the leaf at Tuck’em Fair.’ Ex TUCK, v., 1. Also Tuck-up Fair, s.v. TUCK UP, 4.

tuck-hunter

. An assiduous feast-seeker: 1840, A.Bunn. Ex TUCK, n., 1.

tuck-in, tuck in; tuck-out, tuck out

, n.; v. See TUCK, n., 1; v., 2.

tuck-man

. A moneyed partner: commercial: from ca 1880; ob. Ex TUCK, n., 2.

tuck on (a price)

. To charge exorbitantly: non-aristocratic: from ca 1870; slightly ob.

tuck-parcel

. A hamper from home: Charterhouse: ca 1860–1920; ob. by 1904 (F. & H.). See TUCK, n., 2, and cf.:

tuck-shop

. A (mainly school) pastrycook's shop: from mid-1850s. Hughes, 1857, 'Come...down to Sally Harrewell's ...our schoolhouse tuck-shop.' Ex TUCK, n., 2.

tuckup

. See TUCK, v., 1. 2. See TUCK, v., 2. 3. See TUCK, v., 4.

tuck-up fair or T.-up F.

The gallows: c. (–1864); ob. On TUCK-'EM FAIR.

tucked-up

. (Of dog or horse) thin-flanked from hunger or fatigue: from early 1840s: dial. and s. Ex tuck, a pleat. 2. Hence, exhausted: dial. >, by 1890, s. Kipling, 1891. cf. U.S. tuckered out. 3. Cramped, hindered, for lack of space or time: coll: 1887. Ex sense 1.

tucker

. Rations, orig. of gold-diggers: Australian, hence from ca 1860, New Zealand: 1858, Morning Chronicle, 31 Aug., 'Diggers, who have great difficulty in making their tucker at digging'; slightly ob. 2. Hence, by ca 1870, food, as in Garnet Walch, 1874: Australian >, by 1875 or so, New Zealand. 3. Hence, earn (1883) or make one's tucker, to earn either merely or at least enough to pay for one's board and lodging: orig. Australian, then New Zealand. Ex TUCK, n., 2, or v., 2. cf. GRUB; SCOFF.

tucker

, v. To eat one's tucker (see the n.), to eat a meal: Australian: late C.19–20.

tucking-in

, vbl n., see TUCK, v., 2.

tuft

. A titled undergraduate: 1755, in tuft-hunter, one who, at Oxford or Cambridge, toadies to the young noblemen; t.-h. > gen. and S.E. in mid-C.19; tuft is very ob. Ex the tuft or gold tassel worn on their caps by aristocratic students. Whence tuft-hunting: from 1780s; by 1850, S.E.

tug

. A Colleger: Eton (–1881). Pascoe's Life in Our Public Schools, 1881. Ex the toga worn by Collegers to distinguish them from the rest of the school, says F. & H.; perhaps rather ex dial., where tug is to work hard, and (a) tug, arduous labour. 2. An uncouth person; esp. if dirty and/or none too scrupulous: late C.19–20. Perhaps ex the adj. 3. (Tug.) The inevitable nickname of all male Wilsons: naval and military: late C.19–20. Possibly ex adj., 1: at Winchester, Tug Wilson would be in contradistinction to, e.g., Sturt-Wilson. 4. (Gen. pl.) A tug-of-war match: Harrovian coll: late C.19–20.

tug

, adj. Stale, vapid; common, ordinary: Winchester: from ca 1880. The origin is mysterious, unless perchance it is cognate with the dial. terms mentioned in the n., 1. 2. Whence tug-clothes, one's everyday clothes; tug-jaw, dull talk; and tugs, stale news.

tug-mutton

. A whoremonger: C.17. ‘Water-Poet’ Taylor. Ex MUTTON. 2. A glutton: provincial s. (–1847); ob. The rhyming is prob. accidental.

Tug-Mutton Tuesday

, see PAY-OFF WEDNESDAY.

tuggy

. A fireplace cloth: chimney-sweeps’: C.19. (G.Elson, The Last of the Climbing Boys, 1900.) cf. TOGGY.

tugger

. A participator in a tug-of-war: 1909: coll. Ex tug, v.i., to pull.

tuggery

. College at Eton; esp. in try for tuggery, to try to pass on to the foundation at Eton as a King’s Scholar: Eton (–1883). Brinsley Richards, Seven Years at Eton, 1883. Ex TUG, n., 1.

tugs

, see TUG, adj., 2 and n., 4.

tui

. Tuition: Winchester: late C.19–20. On REMI.

tulip

. A bishop's mitre, or the figure of one: from late 1870s. Ex the shape. 2. my tulip, my fine fellow, occurs mostly in go it, my tulip!, a London street c.p. of the 1840s–50s. F. & H.: 'An echo of the tulipomania of 1842'. Note, however, that tulip has since C.17 been used of a showy person. e.g. Boxiana, IV, 1824, 'A small number of Swells, Tulips, and Downey-coves'; ibid., 'Togged like a swelled tulip'.

tulip-sauce

. Kissing; a kiss: cheaply jocular (–1904); very ob. Punning two lips.

tulips of the goes

. 'Highest order of fashionables' (Sinks): ca 1835–55.

tullibon

, see TOLOBEN.

tum

(1868, W.S.Gilbert); tum-tum (–1904). Variants of TUMMY: coll, esp. nursery.

tum-hat

, see TILE.

tum-tum

. A dog-cart: Anglo-Indian: from ca 1860; ob. 2. See TUM.

tumbies

. Ablutions: Oxford University: 1853, ‘Cuthbert Bede’; ob. Ex tubbing (TUB, v., 1).

tumble

, n., see TUMBLE, DO A and TAKE A.

tumble

, v.i. To move stumbingly or hastily, rush, roll along: late C.16–20: S.E. until C.19, then coll. e.g. Lever, 1843, ‘Tumble into bed, and go to sleep as fast as you can.’ See also TUMBLE IN (v.) and TUMBLE UP. 2. To understand, perceive, something not obvious, something hidden; v.t. with to: low: from ca 1840. Mayhew, 1851, of long or highfalutin words, ‘We can’t tumble to that barrikin.’ Either, as W. suggests, ex under-stumble, to understand, or perhaps, as the O.E.D. implies, ex tumble on, chance on (a thing). 3. (Always tumble to.) Hence, to assent to, agree with, form a liking for: from early 1860s. Mayhew. Rather rare. 4. (Of values, prices, stocks.) To fall rapidly in value: 1886: commercial s. Ex lit. sense (‘fall to the ground’).

tumble, do a

. (Of a woman) to lie down to a man: low: C.19–20. cf. S.E. tumble, to handle with rough indelicacy.

tumble, take a

. ‘To comprehend suddenly’, C.J.Dennis: Australian: late C.19–20. cf. TUMBLE, v., 2.

tumble-a-bed

. A chambermaid; a harlot: coll (?C.18–) C.19. Ex v. phrase.

tumble along

, see TUMBLE, v., 1.

tumble-down

. Grog: Australian: ca 1815– 70. Peter Cunningham, Two Years, 1827. Proleptic. 2. Hence, alcoholic liquor: Australian: since ca 1870; ob.

tumble down the sink

. A drink; to drink: rhyming s.: late C.19–20.

tumble-in

. An act of copulation; to copulate: low: C.19–20. 2. Also, to go to bed: coll: from ca 1840. Ex tumble into bed: see quotation in TUMBLE, 1.

tumble to

, v.i. To set-to vigorously: coll: mid-C.19–20; slightly ob. See TUMBLE, 1. 2. v.t., to understand: see TUMBLE, 2. 3. See TUMBLE, 3.

tumble to oneself, take a

. To take oneself to task; to realize one's own faults: low (–1891). Ex TUMBLE, 2. 2. To go steady, be cautious: from ca 1905.

tumble to pieces

. To be brought to bed with child and to be safely delivered of it: low: from ca 1870.

tumble up

. To rise in the morning: coll: from ca 1840. Prob. ex: 2. To come up on deck: nautical coll: from late C.18. Ex TUMBLE, 1.

tumbler

*. A decoy for swindlers or cardsharppers: c.: C.17–early 19. Prob. ex tumbler (dog), a lurcher. 2. A cart: c.: ca 1670–1830. Esp. in SHOVE THE TUMBLER. Ex a cart's lumbering motion+ tumbril. 3. One of a class or band of London street ruffians that set women on their heads: C.18: prob. s. > coll >, by 1800, archaic S.E. Steele, 1712. 4. A worthless horse: the turf (–1890). Because it tumbles about; cf. SCREW, n., 5.

tumbling down to grass

, n. and adj. Breaking up, failing, going to the bad: nonaristocratic: 1884–ca 90. Ware, 'From the fact of land going out of cultivation, 1875–85'.

tumlet

. A tumbler (glass): domestic Anglo-Indian 'pidgin' (–1886).

tummy

. Stomach: coll: 1868, W.S. Gilbert. Prob., orig., a children's corruption of stomach. cf. TUM. 2. Hence, tummy-tickling, copulation, and tummyache'. the former s.; the latter, coll.

tun

. A tippler: low: mid-C.19–20; ob. Abbr. LUSHINGTON; but also punning tun, a large cask.

tund; tunder; tunding

. To beat (a boy) with a stick, as punishment (1871); he who does this (1876); such a beating (1872): Winchester School: from ca 1870. Punch, ca 1890, Confession by a Wykehamist, 'I like to be tunded twice a day,|And swished three times a week.' Ex L. tundere, to beat.

tune; gen. tune up

. To beat, thrash: from ca 1780; C.19–20. Both slightly ob. Grose, 2nd ed., 'His father tuned him delightfully: perhaps from fetching a tune out of the person beaten, or...the disagreeable sounds on instruments when tuning.'

tune the (old) cow died of, the

. A grotesque or unpleasant noise: jocular coll: 1836, Marryat. Ex an old ballad. Apperson adduces Fuller's that is the old tune upon the bag-pipe, 1732. 2. Hence, advice or a homily instead of alms: from ca 1880; ob.

tuney; gen. tuny

. Melodious: coll: 1885. Often pejorative.

tunker

. A street preacher: ca 1850–1910. A corruption of Dunker, a German baptist.

tunnel, v.i.; go tunnelling

*. To catch partridges at night: poachers' c.: mid-C.19–20. 'No. 747'.

tunnel-grunters

. Potatoes: low: late C.19–20; ob. ?because so filling.

tup

. A stray tup on the loose, a man questing for a woman: s. (–1890). 2. Venison out of Tup Park, mutton: late C.17–mid-18.

tup

. Arrested; in gaol: low London, esp. in the Woolwich district (–1909). i.e. 'locked up'.

tuppence

. Twopence: C.17–20: S.E. until C.19, then coll. So the adj. tuppenny (with which cf. TWOPENNY).

tuppence, for

. Very easily: coll: late C.19–20.

tuppenny

, see TWOPENNY.

Tupper

. ‘A commonplace honest bore’: Society coll: ca 1842–90. Ware. Ex the Proverbial Philosophy (1838–42; revised and augmented up till 1867) of Martin Tupper (1810–89).

turd

. A lump of excrement: C.11–20: S.E., but in mid-C.18–20 a vulgarism. Cuthbert Shaw, in his vigorous literary satire The Race, 1766, spells it t—d. Ex A.-S. tord, from a Germanic radical: cf. L. tordere.

turd, chuck a

. To evacuate: low: C.19–20. See preceding.

turd, he will never shit a seaman's

. He will never make a good seaman: nautical: from ca 1790; very ob.

turd, not worth a

. Utterly worthless: C.13–20; in C.18–20, a vulgarism.

turd for you!, a

. 'Go to hell and stay there,' F. & H.: low: mid-C.19–20. cf. the low turd in your teeth (Jonson, 1614; anticipated by Harman, 1567), and the late C.16 insult GOOD MAN (4) turd. See TURD.

turds for dinner, there were four

; gen. amplified thus: stir t., hold t., tread t., and must-t. 'To wit, a hog's face, feet, and chitterlings, with mustard', Grose, 3rd ed.: a low late C.18–early 19 rebus-c.p.

turf

. The cricket pitch, the field being long grass: Winchester School: from ca 1860. 2. (Always with a or the.) The cricket field: Felsted School: from 1870s. Felstedian, Nov. 1881, 'There are (or were) six cricket pitches on turf.' 3. Prostitution: low: ca 1870–1905. Ware, 'From loose women being on parade'. Whence turfer, a harlot: low: ca 1875–1910. 4. A kick; to kick: Charterhouse: late C.19–20.

turf

, v. To send (a boy) to bed at bedtime: Derby School: from ca 1880. 2. To chastise: Marlborough School: from ca 1880.

turf, on the

. adj. and adv. applied, from ca 1860, to a harlot: low. Because, as a race-horse the turf, so she walks the streets.

turf it

. To sleep on the ground with a tentlike canvas covering: 1883, James Greenwood, Odd People.

turfer

, see TURF, n., 3.

turkey

. A Royal Marine Light Infantryman: naval: from ca 1870; ob. Ex the scarlet tunic.

turkey-buyer

. A TOFF (1), a banker, an important person: Leadenhall Market: late C.19–20. Ware, ‘Because it requires more than twopence to buy gobblers’.

turkey-cock, turn (or go) as red as a

. To blush violently: coll, mostly provincial and Colonial: from ca 1860.

turkey-merchant

. A driver of turkeys: late C.17–mid-18. A pun on Turkey merchant, one trading with Turkey (and/or the Levant). 2. Hence, a poulterer: mid-C.18–mid-19, though it survived till ca 1880 (see H., 1st–5th edd.). 3. Ex senses 1, 2: a chicken-thief: c.: 1837, Disraeli, in Venetia; ob. 4. A dealer in contraband silk: c. (–1839). cf. origin of sense 1. 5. An ‘extensive financier in scrip—a City plunger’: London-financial: from ca 1875; ob.

turkeys to market, be driving

. To be unable to walk straight: semi-proverbial coll (–1869).

Turkish

. Turkish tobacco: 1898. 2. Turkish delight: 1901, Fergus Hume. Both coll.

turn

. A hanging from the gallows: rare coll: C.17–18. Shakespeare in Measure for Measure, IV, ii, 62; ‘Hudibras’ Butler. Abbr. turn-off. 2. A momentary nervous shock of fear or other emotion: coll: 1846, Dickens, ‘What a hard-hearted monster you must be, John, not to have said so, at once, and saved me such a turn.’ Ex turn, an attack of illness or faintness. 3. An act of copulation: low: C.19–20. (cf. C.17 S.E. turn-up, a whore.) ‘Hence,’ says F. & H., ‘to take a turn (or to turn a woman up)=to copulate [see RIDE]: also to take a turn among the cabbages, up one’s petticoats (or among one’s frilis), in Abraham’s bosom, in Love Lane, Bushey Park, Cock Alley, Cupid’s Alley, Cupid’s corner, Hair Court, on Mount Pleasant, among the parsley, through the stubble, or a turn on one’s back (of women)’; the Cupid phrases may be literary euphemisms; Bushey Park and Mount Pleasant are confined to London.

turn

, v., see below, up to TURNING-TREE.

turn a horse inside out

. To school (a bucking horse) by ‘slinging up one of [his] legs, and lunging him about severely in heavy ground’: Australian coll: ca 1850–80. The Rev. J.D.Mereweather, 1859.

turn down

. To toss off (a drink): coll: from ca 1760; very ob. Henry Brooke. Lit., turn it down one's throat. 2. To reject (an application); curtly say no to (a request, suggestion, invitation); refuse to accept (a suitor for one's hand): U.S. (from ca 1890), anglicized, esp. in the Dominions, ca 1900.

turn-in

. A night's rest: coll: from ca 1830.

turn in

. To go to bed: 1695, Congreve: coll, nautical till mid-C.19, then gen. Theodore Hook, 1837, 'Jack "turned in", as the sailors say.' Ex turning into one's hammock. cf. TURN OUT, v. 2. v.t. To abandon, to desist from doing: C.20. ?ex turn (i.e. hand) in one's resignation, where turn in may represent yet a third sense: coll and dating from late C.19. cf. TURN UP, v., 1.

turn it up

, see TURN UP, v.

turn on

. To put (a person) to do something: coll: from early 1890s.

turn-out

. An interval: theatrical coll: 1851, Mayhew, 'The 'Delphi was better than it is. I've taken 3s. at the first turnout!' 2. A fight with fists: Sessions, Dec. 1816.

turn out

, v.i. To rise from bed: coll: 1805, W.Irving; R.H.Dana, 1840, 'No man can be a sailor...unless he has lived in the fo'castle with them, turned in and out with them.' Prob. suggested by TURN IN, 1. 2. v.t., as in turn out one's hand, to show it, esp. at cards: coll (–1904). Ex turn out, to empty (e.g. one's pockets). 3. To become a bushranger: Australian coll: ca 1830–90.

turn over

. A book to dip into rather than read': journalistic coll: 1885, Saturday Review, 26 Dec.; but Ware dates it from 1880. 2. A transference of votes from one party to another: political: 1895. 3. v., see be TURNED OVER.

turn-round pudding

. Porridge or a 'slop' pudding much stirred: lower classes' coll (–1909). cf. STIRABOUT.

turn the best side to London

, see LONDON, PUT...

turn the tap on

. To be ready with tears: lower class urban: 1883, Daily Telegraph, 8 Feb.

turn-up

. A sudden departure: Jow: from late 1850s; ob. Prob. ex the v., 2. 2. 'An unexpected slice of luck', H., 5th ed.: racing coll: from ca 1870. Ex to turn up lucky, 3. An acquittal: c.: from ca 1820. Ex the v., 3.

turn up

, v.t. To renounce, abandon (person or thing), cease dealing with (a tradesman), 'throw up' (a job): from ca 1620: S.E. until C.19, then s. Holten, 1859, 'I intend turning it up, i.e. leaving my present abode or altering my course of life.' Frequently turn it up!= 'oh!, stop that', 'stop doing that' or 'talking'. 2. Whence, v.i., to quit, to abscond, to run away: low (–1859). H., 1st ed., "Ned has turned up," i.e. run away.' Esp. to throw up one's job. (Gen. in passive.) 3. To acquit, discharge or release (an accused or imprisoned person): low s. or, more prob. (at first, anyway), c.: from ca 1810. Ex S.E. turn up, to turn (esp. a horse) loose. 4. To stop and search; to arrest (a criminal): c.: from ca 1850. (cf. TURNED OVER, 3.) Perhaps ironic ex preceding. 5. To chastise: Marlborough School: from ca 1880. Ex lit. sense, the punishment being on the posteriors. 6. See TURN, n., 3. 7. To hand out a share of stolen goods: c.: mid-C.19–20; ob.

turn up a trump

. To have a piece of monetary luck: coll (–1812).

tum up crabs

, see CRABS, COME OFF. turn up one's toes or one's toes up, see TOES UP, TURN ONE'S.

turn up sweet

. As in to turn up a flat sweet, to leave a PIGEON (4) in good humour after 'plucking' him: c.: from ca 1810.

turned

*. Converted to an honest life: (prison) c.: from ca 1870.

turned off

. Married: Society: ca 1880–1914. 2. See go up a ladder to BED.

turned over, be

*. To be acquitted for lack of evidence: c.: from ca 1820. cf. TURN UP, v., 3. 2. Whence, to be remanded: c.: from ca 1830. 3. 'To be stopped by the police and searched', F. & H.: c.: from ca 1850. Horsley, Jottings from Jail, 1877, 'What catch would it be if you was to turn me over?' cf. TURN UP, v., 4. 4. Be transferred from one ship to another: naval coll: late C.18-mid (?late) 19.

turner out

*. A coiner of base money: c. (–1859). Ex turn out, to produce, to manufacture.

turning-tree

*. A gallows: either c. (F. & H.), s., or even coll: ca 1540–1660. Hall, in his chronicle of Henry VIII, ca 1548, ‘She and her husband...were apprehended, arraigned, and hanged at the foresayd turnyng tree.’ cf. later S.E. turn off, to hang.

turnip

. An old-fashioned, thick, silver watch: W.N.Glascock, Sailors and Saints, 1829 (where, however, it is glossed simply as ‘a watch’). Ex its resemblance to a small turnip.

turnip!, one’s head to a

. A fanciful bet: late C.17–19. Motteux’s Rabelais, V, ii. cf. ALL LOMBARD STREET TO A CHINA ORANGE.

turnip, tickle one’s

. To thrash on the posteriors: late C.16–mid-17. There is a pun on turn-up. cf. give one TURNIPS.

turnip-pate, -pated

. White- or very fairhaired: coll: late C.17–18; late C.18–20; ob. Ex colour.

turnip-tops, cut

*. To steal a watch with its chain and adjuncts: c. (–1887). Ex TURNIP.

turnips, get or (k)nap; give turnips

*. To abandon (a person), heartlessly or unscrupulously; to be thus abandoned: c. (–1812) >, ca 1830, low s.; extremely ob. Vaux (give and nap). Punning turn-up in its lit. sense: cf. TICKLE ONE’S TURNIP. 2. Whence to get turnips, to be jilted: from ca 1830. On Suffolk dial., give, or get, cold turnips, to jilt, be jilted.

turnpike-man

. ‘A parson, because the clergy collect their tolls at our entrance into and exit from the world,’ Grose, 1st ed.: ca 1780–1850.

turnpike-sailor

*. A beggar pretending to be a distressed sailor: tramps’ c.: ca 1835–1900. H., 5th ed., ‘A sarcastic reference to the scene of their chief voyages’. 2. Hence, ‘any lubberly seaman’: nautical: from ca 1890; ob.

turpentine, talk

. To discuss painting: coll: 1891, Kipling; slightly ob. Ex painters' use of oil of turpentine (catachrestically: spirit of turpentine: mid-C.17–20) in mixing colours.

turpin

. A kettle: Yorkshire s. (–1847). ?ex Dick Turpin.

turps

. Turpentine: from ca 1820: coll, workmen's and painters' >, ca 1880, gen. (e.g. photographers' and housewives'). By abbr.; -s, collective.

turtle

. Turtle-soup: restaurant and hotel staffs' coll (–1887).

turtle doves

. (A pair of) gloves: rhyming s. (–1857). Also turtles. P.H.Emerson, in Signor Lippo Lippi, 1893, 'A long-sleeve cadi on his napper, and a pair of turtles on his martins finished him.'

turtle-frolic

. A feast of turtle: coll: 1787. Ob.; never gen.

turtle-soup

. Sheep's-head broth: workmen's (–1909). cf. CITY SHERRY.

tush or tosh

. Money: Cockney: late C.19–20. Ex:

tusheroon

. A crown piece (5s.): low London (–1859). H., 1st ed. Also called a BULL (n., 2) or a cartwheel, ex its size. But H. errs, I believe: he should mean half-a-crown, for tusheroon and its C.20 variant tossaroon (2s. 6d.) are manifest corruptions of Lingua Franca MADZA CAROON.

tuskin

*. 'A country carter or ploughman', Grose, 1st ed.: either c. or provincial s.: ca 1780–1840. Cognate with, possibly ex, dial. tush, the broad part of a ploughshare, and tush, v.t., to drag or trail.

tussle

. To argue (v.i.): coll (–1859) >, somewhere about 1890, S.E. Ex tussle, to struggle.

tussocker

. A SUNDOWNER: New Zealand: from mid-1880s; slightly ob. V. Pyke, 1889, in Wild Will Enderby. Prob. because he loitered in the tussocks, till dusk (perhaps also operative).

Tuttle; Tuttle Nask

*. The bridewell in Tuttle Fields (London): resp. C.19, late C.17–19. See NASK, a prison. ('Closed in 1878', F. & H.)

tuz I

. 'BAGS II', 'FAIN I!': Felsted School: mid-C.19–20. Perhaps ex (to) touse, for cf. dial. tuzel, tuzzle, to tousle.

tuzzy-muzzy; OCC. tuzzi-muzzy

(or as one word). The female pudend: from ca 1710: (low) s. >, early in C.19, dial. Ned Ward, 1711. Ex t.-m., a posy, nosegay, or garland.

twachel, -il, -ylle; twatchel

. The pudend: mid-C.17–early 19. App. a diminutive of TWAT, influenced by twachylle=twitchel, a passage.

twack

. To examine goods and buy nothing. Newfoundland coll: C.19–20. Ex East Anglian dial. twack, ‘to turn quickly; to change one’s mind’.

twaddle

. (s. of ca 1783–5 for) ‘perplexity, confusion, or anything else’, Grose, 2nd ed.; earliest in Grose, 1st ed., in the Preface. Ex twaddle, prosy or gabbling nonsense—itself recorded only in 1782 and prob. ex twattle, idle talk. cf. BORE, n., which it for a while succeeded. 2. ‘A diminutive person’: ?ca 1820–80. F. & H., the sole authority. ?cognate with dial. twaddle, to walk feebly.

twaddle

, v.i. To trifle: coll: ca 1770–1840. ‘I have been twaddling enough to cut several slips from the most sacred laurus’ (Earl of Mornington, letter of 15 Feb. 1791; in the Fortescue Manuscripts). Probably ex the n.

twaddy

is a slang term fashionable in the 1780s: ?‘characterized by twaddle’. In The New Vocal Enchantress, 1791, occurs on p. 32, a ‘Song’ beginning thus:

Hev for huckish words. for nhrases we’ve

a passion,

Immensely great and little once were all
the fashion:

Hum'd, and then humbugg'd, twaddy,
tippy, proz,

All have had their day, but now must yield to quoz.

twait

, see TWAT.

twang

*. To coït with (a woman): c.: C.17–18.

twanger

. Anything very fine or (e.g. a lie) large: dial. and s.: from ca 1870; very ob. as s. For semantics, cf. TWANGING entries.

twang(e)y

. A tailor: North Country: ca 1780–1850. ?a musical pun, or a phonetic relative of STANG(E)Y.

twanging

. Excellent: coll: 1609, Jonson; †by 1700. cf. TWANGER and:

twanging, go off

. To go well: C.17 coll, as is as good as ever twanged, as good as may be: resp. Massinger and Ray. The latter phrase, with complementary the worst that ever twanged, arose, however, ca 1540. cf. go off with a bang of a great success.

twankey

. Gin: from late 1890s: tea-trade. Ex twankey, green tea.

twat; in C.18, occ. twait

. The female pudend: mid-C.17–20: perhaps always a vulgarism; certainly one in C.18–20; very far from being †. R.Fletcher, 1656; Tom Brown, ca 1704; Bailey; Browning, in Pippa Passes, by a hair-raising misapprehension—the literary world’s worst ‘brick’, Origin obscure, but cf. twachylle= twitchel, a passage, and dial. twatch, to mend a gap in a hedge, and see TWACHEL. 2. Also, as in you silly twat!, you fool!, and that twat in pejorative reference: late C.19–20.

twat-rug

. ‘The female pubic hair’, F. & H.: low (–1904).

twat-scourer

. A surgeon; a doctor: low s. (not a vulgarism, this): C.18. Bailey, 1727 (t.-scowerer). See TWAT, 1.

twatchel

, see TWACHEL.

twattle; twattling

, ppl adj. To sound; sounding: a vulgarism: C.17–18. Florio, 1611 (the adj.); Cotton, 1664 (the v.). Ex twattle, to talk idly, to babble. 2. Whence twattling strings, a vulgarism for the sphincter ani: mid-C.17–18. Implied in Cotton (as above).

tweak; tweake

, C.17 only. A whore: C.17–18. Middleton, 1617. Ex tweak, a twitch, or the v. 2. A whoremonger: ?C.18–early 19. Halliwell. 3. An adept at sport: Shrewsbury School: from ca 1885.

tweak

, v. To hit with a missile from a catapult: 1898, Kipling, ‘Corkran... “tweaked” a frisky heifer on the nose.’ Ex:

tweaker; OCC. tweeker

. A catapult: from early 1880s. Ex S.E. (to) tweak.

twee

. Dainty; chic; pleasing: coll: 1905; ob. Ex tweet, affected or childish sweet: coll: late C.19–20.

tweedle

*. ‘A Brummagem ring of good appearance used for fraudulent purposes’, F. & H.: c.: late C.19–20. ?ex tweedledum and tweedledee.

tweedledum sir

. (Gen. pl.) A musical composer made baronet or knight: Society: ca 1860–90. cf. GALLIPOT BARONET.

tweeker

, see TWEAKER.

tween(e)y, tweenie

. A between-maid: coll: from 1880s. For semantics, cf. TWIXTER.

tweer

, see TWIRE. tweet, see TWEE.

twelve

*. A shilling: c. (–1839); ob. cf. TWELVER.

twelve, after

. adv. and advl n. From noon to 2 p.m.: Eton coll (–1861) > j.

twelve, more than

, see SEVEN, BE MORE THAN.

twelve apostles; or T.A

. The last twelve in the Mathematical Tripos: Cambridge University: from ca 1820; ob. 2. Hence, the first twelve students: Stonyhurst: from ca 1880.

twelve godfathers

*. A jury: c. (–1864) > low s.; ob. H., 3rd ed., ‘Because they give a name to the crime...Consequently it is a vulgar taunt to say, “You will be christened by twelve godfathers some day before long.”’

twelve o'clock

! It's time to be moving: artisans' c.p.: ca 1890–1914. Ex noon, break-off time.

twelve-pound actor

. A healthy child born in 'the profession': theatrical (–1909).

twelver

. A shilling: c. >, in C.19, low s.: late C.17–19. Ex the twelve pence.

twenty-in-the-pounder

. One who, on liquidation, pays 20 shillings in the £: non-aristocratic coll (–1909).

twenty-two and twenty-two

. Football: Winchester School coll: ca 1880–1910. This was the variety played with 22 a side.

twibby

. Ingenious: London schools': ca 1875–95. Arbitrary formation: TWIGGEZVOUS?

twibill

*. A street ruffian: c.: C.17. Ex twibill, a two-edged axe, perhaps suggested by the obvious pun, ‘doubly sharp’.

twice-laid

. A hash-up of fish and potatoes: low (–1864); ob. except as nautical s. Bowen defines it as ‘any sea dish that is cooked for the second time’ and derives it ex ‘the old name for rope made of the best yarns of an old rope’.

twicer

. A printer working, or professing to work, at both press and case: printers’ pejorative: from ca 1880. Jacobi, 1888. 2. One who goes to church twice on Sunday: late C.19–20. 3. Something doubly, hence very, forceful or valuable: low: 1857, Mayhew, ‘He expressed his delight...“Here’s a start! a reg’lar twicer!”’; ob.

twicers

. Twins: lower classes’: mid-C.19–20.

twiddle-diddles

. Human testicles: low: from ca 1786; ob. A reduplication of twiddle (v.) with a pun on DIDDLE (v.).

twiddle-poop

. An effeminate-looking fellow: late C.18–mid-19. cf. preceding entry and see POOP.

twig

. Style, fashion, method: low s. (–1806). Esp. in twig, handsome or stylish; cleverly (Vaux, 1812). Often in good or prime twig. Hence out of twig, disguised, esp. in put (oneself or another) out of twig; out of knowledge: low s. (–1812). ?etymology. Perhaps ex y.i. twig, to do anything vigorously. 2. Hence, condition; fettle, spirits: low s.: 1820, Randall's Diary, 'In search of lark, or some delicious gig, The mind delights on, when 'tis in prime twig'; ca 1840–70, very gen. in the boxing world. Both sets of senses were ob. by 1860, †by 1900. 3. The Headmaster: Marlborough: ca 1850–90. Ex twig, the rod or birch.

twig

*, v, To disengage; to sunder: c.: ca 1720–1840. A New Canting Dict., 1725, has twig the DARBIES, to knock off the irons or handcuffs. Prob. cognate with tweak. 2. To watch; inspect: 1764, Foote, 'Now, twig him; now, mind him; mark how he hawls his muscles about'; slightly ob. Possibly suggested by twig, to beat, to reprove, but more prob., as W. suggests, cognate with dial. twick, to pinch (esp. in s. sense, to arrest), to nip (cf. S.E. tweak). 3. Hence, to see, recognize, perceive: 1796, Holman, 'He twigs me. He knows Dicky here.' 4. Hence, to understand: 1815, 'Zeluca' Moore, 'You twig me—eh?' 5. Hence, v.i., to comprehend: 1833, Michael Scott; 1853, Reade, 'If he is an old hand he will twig.' cf. TWIGGEZ-VOUS.

twig, hop the

, see HOP. twig, in and out of, see TWIG, n., 1, 2.

twig, measure a

. To act absurdly: coll: ca 1670–1750.

twig the fore (or the main)

. To look over the fore-mast (or main) to see that all the sails are furled and the yards properly squared: nautical: late C.19–20. Bowen. Ex TWIG, v., 2.

twigger

. An unchaste, even a lascivious person; esp. a whore or near-whore: ca 1590–1720. Marlowe & Nashe in Dido, 1594; Motteux, 1694. Prob. ex twigger, (of a ewe) a prolific breeder, itself ex twig, to act vigorously. 2. Hence, a wench: C.17, and much less gen.

twiggez-vous

? Do you understand?: from ca 1892, when it occurs in a song of Marie Lloyd; virtually †. Kipling, in Stalky & Co., “‘Twiggez-vous?’” “‘Nous twiggons.’” (But nous twiggons, we understand, has not caught on.) Ex TWIG, v., 5, on Fr. comprenez-vous, do you understand. cf. SQUATTEZ-VOUS for form.

twilight

. Toilet: Universities’ and Public Schools’: ca 1840–90.

twine

*. To give false change: c.: late C.19–20. Ex (S.E. > dial.) twine, to twist, wring, with a pun on wring.

twinkler

*. A light: c.: late C.19–20. cf. twinkler, a star.

twinkling

, see BED-POST, IN THE...

twire

. A glance; esp. a leer: 1676, Etherege, ‘Amorous tweers’, tweer only in C.17; 1719, D’Urfey; †by 1750. Ex v.i. twire, to peer, look round cautiously, peer. cf. TOUR.

twirl

*. A skeleton key: c.: from ca 1877. Horsley, Jottings from Jail. Because a burglar twirls it as he uses it.

twirler

*. A sharper with a round-about at a fair: c.: from ca 1870.

twiss

. A chamber-pot: ca 1777–1830: Anglo-Irish. Richard Twiss (1747–1821) published in 1776 his Tour in Ireland in 1775, which, understandably, was very unpopular in Ireland: whereupon there were manufactured some of these utensils with his portrait at the bottom, which bore the rhyme, ‘Let everyone—|On lying Dick Twiss.’ (Earlier in the century, Sacheverell had been similarly execrated.)

twist

. A drink of (gen.) two beverages mixed: late C.17–20; ob. In B.E., tea and coffee; by 1725, also brandy and eggs; by 1785, brandy, beer and eggs (Grose); by 1823, gin-twist, gin and hot water, with sugar and either lemon or orange juice (‘Jon Bee’); in 1857, ‘Ducange Anglicus’ defines twist as brandy and gin; but from ca 1860, by far the commonest is gin-twist. Ex one thing twisted in with another. 2. An appetite, esp. a hearty one: from early 1780s; slightly ob. Ex the v., 1. 3. ‘A stick spirally marked by a creeper having grown round it: also twister’, F. & H.: Winchester School coll: from ca 1860. Perhaps ex a twist of tobacco. 4. The twist is the forcing of the ann up behind the back when a person is being arrested: coll: since ca 1860. (S.R.Crockett, The Stickit Minister, 1893.)

twist

, v.i. and t. To eat; esp. to eat heartily: from ca 1690; ob. Also twist down, v.t., to eat heartily: from ca 1780. Perhaps ex twisting pieces off loaves, cakes, etc. cf. the n., 2. 2. In passive, to be hanged: from ca 1720; very ob. Ex twisting as one swings on the rope.

twist, spin a

. A naval variation of, and suggested by, spin a YARN: from ca 1800 or perhaps 1790. In, e.g., W.N.Glascock, Sketch-Book, I (20 and 112), 1825. In Glascock’s Sailors and Saints (I, 178), 1829, it has the variant tip a twist.

twist one's sleeve-lining

. To change one's opinions or attitude: tailors': late C.19–20.

twister

. A very hearty eater: 1694, Motteux; from mid-C.19, only in dial. Ex TWIST, v., 1. 2. Anything that puzzles or staggers one, a gross exaggeration, a lie: from ca 1870. 3. See TWIST, n., 3. 4. A sound thrashing; a grave anxiety, a TURN (2), as in 'It gave me a twister': low (–1887).

twistical

. Rather twisted; fig., tortuous, devious: coll: 1815, D.Humphreys; ob. except in U.S. Ex twist on, e.g., comical.

twisting

. A scolding; a thrashing: 1833, Marryat; ob.

twitchers

. Tight boots: Lancashire coll (–1904). Ex the dial. sense, 'pincers'.

twitchet(t)y...

. Nervous, fidgety: low coll (–1859). Ex twitchy.

twittoc

*. Two: c. (–1785); †by 1860. By perversion of two.

twixter

. Either a lady-like young man, or a man-like young woman: low London (–1909); slightly ob. cf. TWEEN(E)Y. Ex betwixt and between.

twizzle

, v.i. To spin (rapidly): dial. (–1825) >, ca 1880, coll. Prob. ex dial. twistle, v.t., to twirl.
2. Hence, v.t., to rotate; to shape by twisting: dial. (–1854) >, ca 1885, coll. ‘My friends...began twizzling up cigarettes,’ C.Keene, 1887.

two

. Two pennyworth (of spirits): 1894, G.A.Henty; ob.

two

, adj. Only as in two fools, exceedingly foolish, is it coll. Donne's 'I am two fools, I know,|For loving, and for saying so|In whining poetry' is not an example—for he means that he is two different kinds of fool or a fool on two different counts—but it is relevant, for it supplies the semantic link. (Lit., doubly foolish.)

two and a kick

, see KICK, n., 2.

two-and-from

. A concertina: mostly Army: late C.19–20. Ole Luk-oie, The Green Curve, 1909.

two-acre back or chest

. A massive woman wearing much heavy jewellery: jewellers': late C.19–20.

two-backed beast, the; do the...

Two persons in coitu; to coït: low coll: C.17–18. e.g. in Othello, I, i, 117; Urquhart's Rabelais, 1653.

two brothers alive and one married

(i.e. as good as dead!). A music-halls' c.p. of 1897–8. Ware.

two buckle horses

. Tuberculosis: stables' jocular (–1909); ob.

two ends and the bight of

(a thing). The whole of (something): nautical coll: late C.19–20. cf.:

two ends and the middle of a bad lot

. (Of a person) utterly objectionable: middle classes' (–1909); ob. Perhaps ex preceding.

two-eyed steak

. A (Yarmouth) bloater: low: 1864. cf. GLASGOW MAGISTRATE. The O.E.D. has the rare variant (now †), t.-e. beef-steak.

two-fisted

. Clumsy: coll and dial.: from late 1850s. cf. TWO-HANDED, 2. 2. Expert at fisticuffs: 1829, Glascock: a coll variant of two-handed, ambidextrous.

two-foot rule

. A fool: rhyming s.: (–1859).

two Fs, the

. A fringe (on the forehead) and a follower (or followers) worn by maidservants: middle classes': ca 1880–95.

two-handed

. (Seldom of things.) Big; vigorous; strapping: coll: ca 1685–1910. Lamb, 1830. Prob. ex t.-h., requiring or entailing the use of both hands. 2. Awkward, clumsy: ca 1860–1920. H., 3rd ed., 'A singular reversing of meaning'. Perhaps on TWO-FISTED.

two-handed put

. 'The amorous congress', Grose, 2nd ed.: ca 1780–1840.

two (he)arts in a pond

. Two bullocks' hearts in a two-sectioned dish: lower classes' (–1909).

two inches beyond upright

. A non-aristocratic, non-cultured c.p. applied, ca 1900–14, to a hypocritical liar. Ware, ‘Perversion of description of upright-standing man, who throws his head backwards beyond upright’.

two-legged calf

. A gawky youth; a youthful country bumpkin as a wooer: rural: late C.19–20.

two-legged tree

. The gallows: low: C.19.

two-legged tympany or tympany with two heels

, a baby, is rare except in have a t.-l. t., to be got with child, and be cured of a tympany with two heels, to be brought to child-bed: coll: ca 1579–1850. Tarlton, 1590; Ray. Ex tympany, a tumour.

two nick

. A female baby: printers’: from ca 1870. Anatomical wit. cf. ONE NICK.

two poll one

*. Swindled by two confederates: c. (–1812); †by 1850. Perhaps poll= upon.

two pun ten

, see TWO UPON TEN.

two shoes (or T.-S.); gen. little t.-s

. (Gen. in address to) a little girl: nursery coll: C. 19–20, though I find no earlier record than 1858, George Eliot in Mr Gilfil's Love Story, 'He delighted to tell the young shavers and two-shoes...' Ex the heroine of The History of Little Goody Two-Shoes, 1766.

two slips for a tester

, see THREE SLIPS...

two-sticker

. A two-master: nautical coll: 1884. Ex STICK (9), mast.

two Sundays come together, when

, see SUNDAYS COME...

two-ten

. A shopkeepers' code c.p.: C.19–20. (George Seton, A Budget of Anecdotes, 1886.)
'Keep your two eyes upon his, or her, ten fingers.' cf. TWO UPON TEN.

two thieves beating a rogue

. 'A man beating his hands against his sides to warm himself in cold weather; also called Beating the Booby, and Cuffing Jonas', Grose, 2nd ed.: coll: ca 1780–1850.

two-thirty

. Dirty, grimy: rhyming s.: late C.19–20.

Two-to-One, Mr.

A pawnbroker: low (–1823); †by 1890. cf. next two entries.

two to one against you

. Very much against your getting your pledge back: lower classes' c.p. of ca 1890–1915.
Ex the pawnbrokers' sign: two balls over one. cf.:

two-to-one shop

. A pawnbroker's: ca 1780–1840. Grose, 1st ed., 'Alluding to the [arrangement of the] three blue balls, [in] the sign of that trade, or perhaps from its being two to one that the goods pledged are never redeemed.' cf. preceding two entries.

two-topmaster

. A fishing schooner or coaster with both masts fitted with topmasts. As a rule the main top-mast only is carried (cf. BALD-HEADED); Canadian (and U.S.) nautical coll: late C.19–20.

two turns round the long-boat...

, see THREE TURNS...

two twos, in

. In a moment; immediately: s. (1838, Haliburton) >, ca 1890, coll. Lit., in the time taken to say two twice.

two-up

. A form of gambling: s.: late C.19–20. Ex tossing up two coins or ex the 'heads' and 'tails' of one coin.

two-up school

. A gambling den or group: (low) Australian: late C.19–20.

two upon ten, or two pun ten. Abbr. two eyes upon ten fingers

, this is a trade c.p. dating from early 1860s or late 1850s. H., 3rd ed., ‘When a supposed thief is present, one shopman asks the other if that two pun’ (pound) ten matter was ever settled... If it is not convenient to speak, a piece of paper is handed to the same assistant bearing the to him very significant amount of £2:10:0.’ cf. JOHN AUDLEY. For etymology, see TWO-TEN, and HAS MR SHARP COME IN YET?

two-water rum

. ‘The real “grog”. Two parts water to one rum’ (Granville); naval coll: mid-C.19–20.

two white, two red, and (after you with the blacking-) brush!; hence, after you(, miss,) with the two two’s and the two b’s

! A London streets’ c.p. directed at the excessive use of cosmetics: 1860s. i.e. two dabs of red, two of white, and a brush to make up the eyebrows.

two with you

! A c.p. ‘suggesting a two-penny drink’: taverns’: ca 1885–1914.

twoer

. Anything comprised by, or reckoned as, two: coll: (1) 1889, a hit for two runs at cricket; (2) a florin, as in Clarence Rook, The Hooligan Nights, 1899; (3) a hansom cab (ca 1895–1910); (4) a clay marble with two coloured rings painted on: from ca 1880.

twofer

. A harlot: low: late C.19–20. Ex two.

twoops

. (A) twopenny ale: ca 1752–60. The O.E.D. records it at 1729. Ex two+ p(enny)+-s, the collective suffix as in TURPS.

twopence more

..., see DONKEY! twopenn'orth of rope, see TWOPENNY-ROPE.

twopenny; tuppenny

. The head: low (–1859); ob. Rhyming s.; G.Orwell, 1933, explaining it thus: ‘Head—loaf of bread—twopenny loaf—twopenny.’ cf. LOAF OF BREAD, 2. 2. Hence, tuck in your twopenny (or tuppenny), at leap-frog, is used fig., stop!, or stop that!, as in the song The Lord Mayor’s Coachman, ca 1888. 3. (twopenny). A professional pawnbroker—one who acts as intermediary between pawnbroker and client: low London: ca 1870–1915. ‘The usual fee being twopence’, F. & H.

twopenny burster

. A twopenny loaf of bread: 1821, W.T.Moncrieff, Tom and Jerry.

twopenny damn, not to care a

. To care not at all: coll: ca 1820–90. cf. not to care a HOOT, a tinker's CURSE, etc.

twopenny hop

. A cheap dance: coll: from ca 1850; ob. by 1904.

twopenny-rope

*. 'A [low] lodging-house: one in which the charge is (or was) twopence: sacking stretched on ropes served as a shakedown. To have twopenn'orth of rope =to "doss down" in such a place: Fr. coucher à la corde,' F. & H. (1904): from ca 1820. Dickens, Pickwick, ch. 16. Ob., if not indeed †.

twopenny upright

. A C.19 variant of threepenny upright (see THREEPENNY BIT).

Twopenny Ward

. ca 1600–40, part of one of the London prisons was thus named. Jonson, 1605, Eastward Ho, V, i, ‘He lies in the twopenny ward.’ Perhaps twopenny here, as it certainly did from 1560,= ‘worthless’; or perhaps the initiation-fee was twopence.

twot

, is a variant spelling, but the gen. pron., of TWAT.

twug

. Harrow form of twigged (past ppl passive), caught. Ex TWIG, v., 3.

Twyford, my (his, etc.) name is

. I know (he knows, etc.) nothing of the matter: a semiproverbial c.p. of ca 1690–1830. The true origin of this c.p. is given in the New Statesman & Nation, 20 Feb. 1937: ‘Josiah Twyford, 1640–1729, learned a secret process in the manufacture of a glaze by persistently feigning stupidity and was thus...able to lay the foundation of the famous firm of sanitary potters.’

Tyburn

. The Tyburn phrases are on the borderline between coll and S.E.: the status of all such allusive topographical terms cannot be determined arbitrarily. The following are the chief. Tyburn blossom, a young thief, who will prob. ripen into a gallows-bird (ca 1785–1840: Grose, 2nd ed.); T. check, a halter (ca 1520–80: Skelton); T.collar, ‘the fringe of beard worn under the chin’, H., 2nd ed., 1860 (ca 1860–80. Synonymous with NEWGATE COLLAR or fringe. cf. T. top); T.collop (? : C.16); T. face, a hangdog look (Congreve, 1695); T. fair (jig, show, stretch), a hanging (mid-C.16–early 19); T. tippet, a halter (mid-C.16–mid-19: Latimer; Egan); T. top or fore-top, ‘A wig with the foretop combed over the eyes in a knowing style’, Grose, 2nd ed. (†by 1850), with variant Tyburn-topped wig (1774, Foote); T. Tree, the great Tyburn gallows (1727, Gay; †by 1850). Also preach at T. cross, to be hanged (1576, Gascoigne), with such variants as dance the T. jig (1698, Farquhar) or a T. hornpipe on nothing (late C.18–mid-19)—cf. dance the PADDINGTON FRISK—fetch a T. stretch (Tusser, 1573), dangle in a T. string (1882, J.Walker: ‘literary’), put on a T. piccadill (‘Water-Poet’ Taylor) or wear T. tiffany (1612, Rowlands). Tyburn gallows, the place of execution for Middlesex from late C.12 till 1783, stood where the present Bayswater and Edgware Roads join with Oxford Street; from 1783 until 1903, the death penalty was exacted at Newgate Prison.

tye

, v. See TIE UP. tyke, see TIKE.

tyker or tiker

. A man who takes charge of dogs: from ca 1860.

Tykes, occ. Tikes

. Australian Catholics’ s. name for themselves: late C.19–20.

tyler

, see TILER and ADAM, n., 2.

tymp; OCC. timp

. A tympanist, whether a drummer or a player of the tympan: musical: late C.19–20.

tympany, two-legged or with two heels

, see TWO-LEGGED TYMPANY.

type-lifter or -slinger

. An expert compositor: printers': from ca 1870. 2. Occ., a slovenly workman: printers' (–1904). cf. TYPO.

typhoid

. A case of typhoid, a typhoid-patient: medical coll: 1890 (O.E.D.).

typo

. A compositor: printers': orig. (1816), U.S.; anglicized ca 1860; slightly ob. Mayhew, 1861. Either abbr. typographer or imm. adopted from France. 2. A typographer, esp. if expert: printers' (–1887). 3. adj., typographic: 1891; comparatively rare.

tzing-tzing

. Excellent; 'A1': low: ca 1880–1900. ?ex CHIN-CHIN!

U

U bet

! A written jocularly (Referee, 14 Oct. 1883) for you BET!

U.P.; gen. it's all U.P

. (It is) all UP, finished, remediless: 1823, Bee, "'Tis all up" and "'tis U.P. with him," is said of a poor fellow who may not have a leg to stand upon'; Dickens, 1838, 'It's all U.P. there...if she lasts a couple of hours, I shall be surprised.' The spelt pronunciation of up; perhaps suggested by:

U.P.K. spells (May) goslings

. 'An expression used by boys at play to the losing party', Gentleman's Magazine, 1791 (I, 327). Here, U.P.K. is up pick, 'up with your pin or peg, the mark of the goal', Brand, 1813. At some time before 1854, the phrase had > U.P. spells goslings, indicative of completion or attainment, also of imminent death; from ca 1840, only in dial. Evans, Leicestershire Words, 1881, says: 'Meaning, as I always understood, "it is all up with him, and the goslings will soon feed on his grave."' "

uck

. To remove firmly, to heave, to hoist: naval (lower-deck): late C.19–20. For huck, a variant of dial. hoick, itself perhaps for hoist.

uckeye

. All right, esp. exclamatorily: Regular Army: late C.19–20. F. & Gibbons, ‘A perversion of the Hindustani word uchcha.’ Perhaps also connected with the Scottish ‘och aye!’ and with O.K. (q.v.).

Uds

! Alone or in combination (e.g. Uds niggers!) a trivial coll oath common in late C.16–17. A perversion of ODS.

udyju

, see TROT THE UDYJU POPE O’ ROME.

uff

. A variant of OOF: Sessions, 30 July 1885.

Ugger, the

. The Union: Oxford undergraduates’ (–1899). By ‘the Oxford -er’.

uglies, the

. Delirium tremens: low: from ca 1870; ob. Perhaps on HORRORS.

ugly; Mr Ugly

. As term of address: mid-C.19–20. Ex (an) ugly (person). 2. (ugly.) A bonnet-shade: Society: 1850s.

ugly

, adj. Thick: lower-class coffee-houses': from ca 1860; ob.

ugly, come the

. To threaten: from ca 1860. cf. S.E. ugly customer.

ugly, cut up

, see CUT UP NASTY.

ugly as sin

. Extremely ugly: coll: 1821, Scott: 1891, Stevenson. Apperson, who cites the prob. prototype, ugly as the devil, 1726, Defoe.

ugly customer

. A vigorous boxer, not too scrupulous, but very difficult to knock out: pugilistic coll: since ca 1810. Boxiana, III, 1821.Ex S.E.

ugly man; uglyman

*. He who, in garrotting, actually perpetrates the outrage: c. (–1904). Suggested by the synonymous NASTY MAN.

ugly rush

. Forcing a bill to prevent inquiry: Parliamentary (–1909).

ugmer

, see HUGMER.

Uhlan

. A tramp: tailors': ca 1870–1910. Ex Franco-Prussian War.

ullage(s)

. Dregs in glass or cask: from ca 1870. Lit., the wastage in a cask of liquor. 2. Whence (ullage) a useless thing or incompetent person: naval: late C.19–20.

ulster

, see WOODEN SURTOUT.

ultramarine

. BLUE in its s. senses: ca 1890–1914.

ultray

. Very: coll corruption of ultra: from mid-C.19: Parlary. Mayhew assigns it specifically to Punch and Judy showmen.

ululation

. ‘First night condemnation by all the gallery and the back of the pit’: journalistic: ca 1875–90. Ware.

um, ’um

. Them: C.17–20: S.E. until ca 1720, then coll—increasingly low and increasingly rare—and dial. See WHAT-D’YE-CALL-’EM. 2. The: ‘pidgin’: C.19–20.

umble-cum-stumble

. To understand (thoroughly): lower classes’ (–1909). Ex UNDER COMESTUMBLE.

umbrella

. Very long or thick hair: jocular (–1887); ob. Baumann, ‘He has a regular umbrella.’

umbrella, been measured for a new

. Dressed badly; hence, embarked on a course of doubtful wisdom: c.p.: from ca 1895; ob. Only his umbrella fits.

umpire?, how's that

. What do you say to that?; 'what price—?': coll: from ca 1880; ob. Ex the appeal at cricket.

unattached

. (Of a member of the legislation) whose vote can never be counted on by any party: Parliamentary coll: mid-C. 19–20.

unbeknowns; -nst

, adj. and adv. Unknown; without saying anything: resp., rare, mainly dial., mid-C.19–20; and coll and dial., mid-C.19–20. T.H.Huxley, 1854, 'I hate doing anything of the kind "unbeknownst" to people.' Ex unbeknown on the slightly earlier dial. unknownst.

unbetty

*. To unlock: c. (–1812). Ex BETTY, a picklock.

unboiled lobster

, see LOBSTER, RAW.

unbounded assortment of gratuitous untruths

. Extensive systematic lying: a Parliamentary c.p. of late 1885–mid-86. Ware, ‘From speech (11th Nov., 1885) of Mr Gladstone’s at Edinburgh’.

uncertainty

. A girl baby: printers’: from ca 1870. Opp. CERTAINTY, a boy baby. cf. also the complementary ONE-NICK and TWO-NICK.

uncle; gen. my, his, etc., uncle

. A pawnbroker: 1756, Toldervy; Hood; Dickens. Hence, uncle’s, a pawnbroker’s shop. Prob. ex the legend of rich or present-giving uncles.

uncle, Dutch

, see DUTCH UNCLE.

uncle, he has gone to visit his

. A c.p. applied to ‘one who leaves his wife soon after marriage’, Grose, 1st ed.; †by 1900.

uncle, if my aunt had been a man she’d have been my

. A c.p. addressed derisively to one who makes a ridiculous surmise: ca 1670–1850.

uncle, my

, see UNCLE.

uncle, your. I

; myself: non-aristocratic: late C.19–20; slightly ob. cf. yours TRULY, I, myself.

uncle (or U.) Antony to kill dead mice, helping

. Wasting one’s time; idling: coll C.20. C. Lee, Our Little Town, 1909.

Uncle Dick

. Sick: rhyming s.: late C.19–20.

uncle Ned

. Bed: rhyming s.: late C.19–20.

uncle over, come the

. A variant of ‘come the DUTCH UNCLE’.

Uncle Sam

. The U.S. government or people: ‘usually supposed to date back to the war of 1812’ (F. & H.), this coll nickname has, in C.20, > S.E. Perhaps facetiously ex the letters U.S.

uncle Three Balls

. A lower classes’ variant (–1887) of UNCLE.

uncle’s, mine or my

. See UNCLE. 2. A privy or w.c.: ca 1780–1850, AUNT succeeding. cf. the Fr. chez ma tante (used also in sense 1).

uncommon

. Uncommonly, very much: coll and dial.: from ca 1780.

imder, down

. In the Antipodes: 1889.

under-dubber or -dubsman

*. A warder other than the chief warder: c.: C.19. See DUB-COVE.

under-grounder

. A bowled ball that does not rise: cricket coll: 1873; ob.

under hatches

. Dead and buried: nautical coll: mid-C.19–20.

under one, do all

, To do it all at one GO (n., 8): low (–1887).

under or over

. 'Under the grass', dead, or 'over the grass', alive, but divorced or being divorced: Society, esp. Anglo-American: ca 1860–1914. (Applied to widows in reference to their husbands.)

under-petticoating, go

. To go whoring or copulating: low: ca 1870–1920.

under-pinner

. The legs: coll: from late 1850s; ob. cf. UNDERSTANDINGS.

under sailing orders

. Dying: nautical coll: mid-C.19–20. cf. UNDER HATCHES.

under-shell

*. A waistcoat, as UPPERSHELL is a coat: c.: C.19.

under the arm

, see ARM, UNDER THE.

under the belt

. In the stomach: coll: 1815, Scott.

under the screw, be

*. To be in prison: c. (–1864); ob.

under the sea

. ‘In sail, lying to in a heavy gale and making bad weather of it’: nautical coll: late C.19–20. Bowen.

under the weather

. Tipsy: nautical and Australian: mid-C.19–20. 2. Unwell: Canadian coll: late C.19–20.

undercome(-con- or -cum-)stumble; understumble

. To understand: illiterate or jocularly perverse coll: resp. (low) coll and dial., mid-C.19–20, ex dial. undercumstand; ca 1550, Anon., Misogonus, ‘You unde[r]stumble me well, sir, you have a good wit,’ with stumble substituted for stand. cf. TUMBLE, v., 2; UMBLE-CUMSTUMBLE.

underdone

. (Of complexion) pale or pasty: ca 1890–1915. It partly superseded DOUGHY.

undergrad

. An undergraduate: coll: 1827. 2. Hence, a horse in training for steeplechasing or hunting: the turf: late C.19–20; ob.

understandings

. Boots, shoes: from ca 1820: coll >, by 1874, s.; ob. H., 5th ed., ‘Men who wear exceptionally large or thick boots, are said to possess good understandings.’ 2. Hence, legs; occ., feet: from ca 1800. cf. the pun in Twelfth Night, III, i, 90. 3. See STANDING ROOM.

undertake

, v.i. To be a funeral-undertaker: coll (–1891).

undigested Ananias

. A triumphant liar: ca 1895–1914. Ware quotes the Daily Telegraph, 24 June 1896.

undub

*. To unlock, unfasten: c. of ca 1810–50. See DUB UP.

unearthly hour, time

. A preposterously early hour or time: coll: 1865.

ungrateful man

. A parson: ca 1780–1830. Grose, 1st ed. Because he ‘at least once a week abuses his best benefactor, i.e. the devil’.

ungodly

. Outrageous; (of noise) dreadful: coll: 1887, Stevenson. cf. INFERNAL; UNHOLY.

unguentum aureum

. A bribe; a tip: ca 1780–1840. Lit., golden ointment: it cures surliness, reluctance, tardiness, and negligence.

unhintables

, see UNMENTIONABLES.

unholy

. Awful; outrageous: coll: 1865, Dickens. Whence, prob., UNGODLY.

unicorn

. A carriage (or coach) drawn by three horses, two wheelers abreast and a leader: s. (–1785) >, by 1820, coll >, by 1850, S.E.; ob. Ex the unicorn's single horn compared with the leader out in front. 2. Hence, a horse-team thus arranged: from ca 1860: coll >, almost imm., S.E. 3. Hence, two men and a woman (or vice versa) criminally leagued: c.: from ca 1870; ob.

Union, the

. The workhouse: lower classes' coll (–1887).

Union Jack

. The Union Flag: coll (C.19–20).

United Kingdom of Sans Souci and Six Sous

. 'Riddance of cares, and, ultimately, of sixpences', Egan's Grose: Oxford University: ca 1820–40.

universal staircase

*. The treadmill: c.: ca 1850–1910. Also EVERLASTING STAIRCASE.

unkinned

. Unkind: Society: 1884–early 85. Ex Wilson Barrett’s substitution, in Hamlet, of unkin’d for unkind.

unlocked, to have been sitting in the garden with the gate

. To conceive (esp. a bastard) child: a virtual c.p.: late C.19–20; ob. With a pun on GARDEN. 2. To have caught a cold: ca 1890–1910.

unmentionables

. Trousers: coll: U.S., anglicized, as a coll, by 1829 (Glascok); slightly ob. The chronology of these semieuphemisms (all ob. in C.20) is: INEXPRESSIBLES, prob. 1790 or 1791; INDESCRIBABLES, 1794; unexpressibles and unspeakables (both, 1810; rare); INEFFABLES, 1823; unmentionables, 1830; unexplicables, 1836; unwhisperables, 1837; INNOMINABLES, ca 1840; INDISPENSABLES, 1841; unutterables, 1843; unhintables (–1904). Calverley satirized the group when, in his Carmen Saeculare, he described the garment as crurum non enarrabile tegmen, ‘that leg-covering which cannot be told’ (W.).

unpalled

*. Single-handed: c.: ca 1810–90. Lit., without a PAL. (But only of one who has been deprived of his pals.)

unparliamentary

. Obscene: coll: from ca 1870.

unpaved

. Rough; inflamed with drink: low: ca 1870–1910.

unrag

. To undress: Yorkshire and Gloucestershire s. (–1905), not dial. Ex UNRIG, on rags, clothes.

unrelieved holocaust

. A Society c.p. of 1883 applied to even a minor accident. Ex the phrase used by a writer in The Times to describe the destruction, in 1882 of the Ring Theatre in Vienna and of a circus at Berditscheff in Russia, both accompanied by a heavy loss of life.

unrig

, to undress, is a coll verging on, prob. achieving the status of, S.E.: late C.16–20; in late C.19–20, dial. except where jocular.

unrove his life-line, he (has)

. He is dead, he died: nautical coll (–1883).

uns

, see WE UNS and YOU UNS.

unshingling

, n. Removing a man's hat and running away with it (and keeping it): Australian: ca 1840–90. Marcus Clarke, Stories of Australia in the Early Days, 1897. cf. TILE, 'a hat'.

unslour

*. To unlock, unfasten, unbutton: c.: ca 1810–50. See SLOUR and cf. UNBETTY and UNDUB.

unspit

. To vomit: low (–1887).

unsweetened

. Gin; properly, unsweetened gin: low: from ca 1860; ob.

unthimble; unthimbled

*. To rob of one's watch; thus robbed: c.: ca 1810–80. See THIMBLE.

untwisted

, adj. Ruined, undone: coll: late C.17–early 19.

unutterables; unwhisperables

, see UNMENTIONABLES.

up

, v. To rise abruptly, approach, begin suddenly or boldly (to do something): coll and dial.: Sessions, 1830; Lover, 1831, 'The bishop ups and he tells him that...' Gen. up and—, as in 'You have the... insolence to up and stand for cap'n over me!' 2. See UP WITH. 3. To copulate with (a woman): low: mid-C.19–20. Sessions, 8 April 1874, 'The prisoner said, "I have up'd your old woman many a time, and I will up her again".'

up

, adj. Occurring; amiss: as in 'What's up?', 'What's the matter?', or, when up is emphasized, 'What's wrong?' Mid-C.19–20: coll rather than s. Albert Smith, 1849; Jeaffreson, 1863, 'I'll finish my cigar in the betting room and hear what's up.' Prob. ex up to (as in 'What are you up to now, you young rascal?'). 2. In the Services, up (as in chai—or CHAR—up!)=the tea, etc., is made (or cooked) and ready to be served; or, others than cooks speaking, '(More) tea, etc., is wanted': coll: mid-C.19–20.

up

, adv. At or in school or college; on the school or college roll; in the capacity of pupil or student: coll: from mid-1840s. Gen. implies residence. Prob. abbr. up there. 2. On horseback: riding: 1856, H. Dixon.

up

, preposition. In coition with (a woman): low: late (?mid-)C.19–20.

up-a-daïsa, up-a-daïs(e)y

, see UPS-A-DAISY.

up a tree

, see TREE. A proletarian intensive (mid-C.19–20; ob.) is up a tree for tenpence, penniless.

up against you!, that's

. What do you say to that?: coll: late C.19–20.

up and

—, see UP, v.

up-and-down job

. An engineer's, a trimmer's job in a reciprocating-engined, as opposed to a turbine, steamer: nautical coll: from 1904.

up and down like a fiddler's elbow

. Very restless: mostly lower-middle class: late C.19–20. Contrast the North Country dial. phrase, like a fiddler's elbow, crooked.

up and down like Tower-Bridge

. A Cockney c.p. reply to 'How goes it?', with scabrous innuendo: late C.19–20.

up-and-down place

. 'A shop where a cutter-out is expected to fill in his time sewing', F. & H.: tailors': from ca 1870; ob. Ex up-and-down, fluctuating, changeable.

up-and-downer

. A violent quarrel: lower classes': late C.19–20. Ex changing positions of participants.

up at second school, be

. ‘To go to any one for work at 10 or 11 o’clock’, F. & H.: Harrow School (–1904): coll > j.

up-foot

. (To get or rise) to one’s feet: low coll (–1887). Baumann, ‘[I] up-foot and told him.’

up in

. Well informed on, clever at, practised in: coll: 1838, Dickens: 1885, Anstey, ‘I did think Potter was better up in his work.’

up in one’s hat

. Tipsy: low: ca 1880–1910. cf. SCREWED.

up in the stirrups

. Having plenty of money: low (–1812); ob. Vaux, “‘In swell-street’”—see SWELL STREET. Ex riding.

up jib or the stacks or (the) stick(s)

. To be off; pack up and go: from ca 1860; ob. The first is nautical, the others non-aristocratic. H.Kingsley, 1865, 'I made them up stick and take me home.' cf.:

up killick

. To run away: nautical: late C.19–20. Ex nautical j. up killick, to weigh anchor.

up on oneself, be

. To be conceited: mostly Cockney: late C.19–20.

up one's sleeve, it is (was, etc.) six pots

. He (etc.) is (was, etc.) drunk: mid-C.19–20; ob.

up or down

. Heaven or hell: lower and lower-middle classes' euphemistic coll: mid-C.19–20.

up sticks

, see UP JIB.

up-tails all

, see UPTAILS ALL. up the pole, see POLE, UP THE. up the spout, see SPOUT, UP THE. up the stacks, see UP JIB. up the tree, see TREE, UP A. up the weather, go, see WEATHER, GO UP THE.

up to

. Before, as in Trollope, 1862, ‘She told me so, up to my face’; coll; ob. ?ex looking up to.

up to a thing or two, be

. To ‘know a thing or two’: coll: 1816.

up to blue china, live

. To spend all, or more than, one’s income: ca 1880–1915. Ex blue china as a sign of gentility.

up to Dick, dictionary

, see DICK, UP TO.

up to much, not

. (Rather) incapable; (of things) inferior: (dial., from ca 1860; hence) coll: 1884, Sala, ‘The shoes were not, to use a vulgarism, “up to much”.’

up to slum, snuff

, see SLUM, SNUFF, UP TO.

up to the or one’s cackle, gossip, or try-on

. Alert, shrewd, experienced: low: resp. C. 19, late C.18–mid-19 (G.Parker, 1781), mid-C.19–20 (ob.). See also the nn. and cf. up to SNUFF.

up to the knocker; nines

, see KNOCKER; NINES.

up to trap

. Shrewd; alert: see TRAP, n., 1. It occurs in David Moir’s Mansie Wauch, 1828.

up with

. To raise (esp. one’s arm); to lift or pick up: coll: 1760, Henry Brooke, ‘She ups with her brawny arm.’ cf. UP, v.

uphills

*. Dice so loaded as to turn up high numbers: gaming c. (–1700) > s.; †by 1840. Opp. LOW MEN.

upon

, see CROSS, ON THE; SAY-SO; SIVVY; SQUARE, n., 2; SUIT.

upper-and-downer

. A wrestling-match: lower classes' (–1909). cf. UP-AND-DOWNER.

upper apartment

. The head: ca 1810–50. (J.H.Lewis, The Art of Writing, 7th ed., 1816.)

upper-ben or benjamin

*. A great-coat: c. >, ca 1840, low s.: late C.18–20; ob. App., upper ben is C.19–20. The term BENJY, stated by H., 3rd ed., and by F. & H. to be a synonym, is also applied to a waistcoat. A great-coat was orig. termed a joseph, 'but, because of the preponderance of tailors named Benjamin, altered in deference to them', H., 5th ed. (Vaux, 1812, has also upper TOG.) 2. In pl, trousers: low: ca 1850–80.

upper-box Jackadandy

, see BOX-LOBBY PUPPY.

upper-crust

. The head: boxing: from ca 1810; ob. Ex u.-c., the top crust of a loaf of bread. 2. Hence, a hat: ca 1850–1910. 3. The higher circles of society; the aristocracy: coll: orig. (mid-1830s), U.S.; anglicized ca 1890.

Upper Crust, Mr.

‘He who lords it over others’, Bee: low: ca 1820–40. Whence, perhaps, UPPER-CRUST, 3.

upper garret

. Head, brains: Jan. 1790, Sessions. cf. UPPER STOREY.

upper lip, stiff

, see STIFF UPPER LIP. upper loft, see UPPER STOREY.

upper shell

*. A coat: c.: C.19. cf. UNDERSHELL.

upper sixpenny

. A playing field at the College: Eton: mid-(? early) C.19–20.

upper storey or works

. The head; the brain: resp. 1788, Grose, ob., and from ca 1770, both Smollett and Foote using it in 1771–4. Occ., ca 1859–1910, upper loft. Keats in his letters has the variant upper storeys. All of architectural origin, loft prob. being suggested by BATS IN THE BELFRY: cf. unfurnished in the upper storey (or the garret), empty-headed, a nit-wit—a phrase given by Grose, 2nd ed., as his upper storey is or garrets are unfurnished; wrong in his upper storey, however, indicates lunacy. cf.:

upper storey, gone in the

. Crazy; mad: mid-C.19–20. (T.Watters, at p. 79 of China Review, Sept.–Oct. 1876.)

upper ten, the

. The upper classes; the aristocrats: coll: orig. U.S. and in the form the upper ten thousand (1844); in England the longer form (ob. in C.20) is recorded in 1861, the shorter a year earlier. ‘Usually referred to N.P.Willis’—an American journalist well known in England—‘and orig. applied to the wealthy classes of New York as approximating that number’, F. & H. cf. UPPER CRUST, 3. 2. Hence upper-tendom, the world of the upper classes: orig. (1855) and mainly U.S.: likewise coll. Also, 3, upper-ten set, servants employed by ‘the upper ten’: these servants’ (–1909).

upper works

. See UPPER STOREY. 2. Female breasts: low: from ca 1870.

uppers, (down) on one's

. In (very) reduced, in poor, circumstances; occ., having a run of bad luck: U.S. (–1891) coll, anglicized ca 1900. Orig. on one's uppers; down being, app., unrecorded before 1904. Ex shoes so worn that one walks on the uppers.

uppish

. Having, at the time, plenty of money: ca 1678–1720. The earliest sense of the word, which is otherwise, despite Swift's condemnation of the 'cock-a-hoop' sense, S.E.

uppy

. (Of a stroke) uppish: cricketers' coll: 1851; †by 1900.

upright

, n. A drink of beer strengthened with gin: 1796, Sporting Magazine; ob. 2. The sexual act performed standing, a PERPENDICULAR: late C.18–20. See THREEPENNY BIT.

upright

*, adj. Highest: c. (–1688); †by 1820. Randle Holme. Ex UPRIGHT MAN.

upright, go

. A c.p. (late C.17–early 19) defined by B.E. as ‘Said by Taylers and Shoemakers, to their Servants, when any Money is given to make them Drink and signifies, bring it all out in Drink, tho’ the Donor intended less and expects Change or some return of Money’.

upright man

*. The leader of a band of criminals or beggars: c.: mid-C.16–early 19. Awdelay, 1561; Middleton; B.E., ‘Having sole right to the first night’s Lodging with the Dells’ (s.v.DELL); Grose, 1st ed., ‘The vilest stoutest rogue in the pack is generally chosen to this post.’ Perhaps because he carries a short truncheon.

uproar

. An opera: ca 1760–1830. G.A. Stevens, 1762, has it in the form opperore; Grose, 1st ed., uproar. cf. ROARATORIO, an oratorio.

ups-a-daisy!; upsi- or ups(e)y-daisy!; up-a-daisa, -daisy, -daisey, -dazy

. A cry of encouragement to a child to rise, or as it is being raised, from a fall, or to overcome an obstacle, or when it is being ‘baby-jumped’: C.18–20: S.E. until mid-C.19, then coll. and dial. Resp., mid-C.19–20; id.; and mid-C.19–20, mid-C.18–20, id., and C.18. An elaboration on up, perhaps influenced (via lackadaisy) by lack-a-day!

upsee (occ. upse, upsie, upsey, upzee, but properly upsy) Fre(e)ze, i.e. Friese

; hence upsy Dutch; hence upsy English. After the Frisian, Dutch, English fashion, orig. and esp. of modes of drinking: late C.16–17; perhaps orig. coll, but gen. considered S.E. Ex Dutch op zijn, on his, hence in his (sc. fashion).

upset the apple-cart

, see APPLE-CART. upsidaisy, see UPS-A-DAISY.

upshot

. A riotous escapade, drunken frolic: ca 1810–40.

upsides with (a person), be

. To be even or quits with; to be (more than) a match for: (orig. Scots; from mid-C.19, also English) dial. and coll: from the 1740s. 2. Hence, on a level with: coll: from ca 1880. Variant, be upsides of, to be alongside of: 1894.

upstairs

. A special brand of spirits: London public-house: late C.19–20. Because usually kept on a shelf. The brand, etc., varies with the house. F. & H., ‘A drop of upstairs’.

upstairs, kick

(a person). To thrust (e.g. an unpopular statesman) into a higher office: political coll (–1887).

upstairs out of the world, go

. To be hanged: jocular coll: late C.17–18. Congreve, 1695, ‘By your looks you should go,’ etc.

upsy-daisy

, see UPS-A-DAISY.

uptails (up-tails) all, play at

. To coit: ca 1640–1750: coll rather than s. Herrick. Ex the name of a song and its lively tune.

uptucker

*. A hangman: c. (–1864); ob. Ex TUCK, v., 1.

Urinal of the Planets, the

. Ireland: literary coll: late C.17–mid-19. B.E., ‘Because of its frequent and great Rains, as Heidelberg and Cologne in Germany, have the same Name on the same Account’.

urjee

. A (humble) petition: AngloIndian coll (–1886). Corruption of urz(ee).

use at

* (a place). To frequent: c.: from mid-1870s. Horsley, Jottings from Jail, 1877, ‘I got in company with some of the wildest people in London. They used to use at a pub. in Shoreditch.’ Ex dial. use about, round.

use for, have no

. To consider superfluous or tedious or objectionable: coll: orig. (1887), U.S.; anglicized ca 1900. cf. have no TIME FOR.

use up

, see towards end of:

used up

. Killed: military: mid-C.18–mid-19. Grose, 1st ed., ‘Originating from a message sent by the late General [John] Guise, on the expedition’—ca 1740—‘at Carthage, when he desired the commander-in-chief, to order him some more grenadiers, for those he had were all used up’; actually, of the 1,200 attacking the castle of St Lazar, a half were, within a couple of hours, killed or wounded. 2. Hence, broken-hearted; utterly exhausted (1840); bankrupt: mid-C.19–20: the second nuance being coll bordering on S.E.; the other two, s.; all three nuances are ob. Calverley, 1871, ‘But what is coffee but a noxious berry|Born to keep used-up Londoners awake?’ The O.E.D. records use up, to tire out, as a coll at 1850: app. ex used up, utterly exhausted.

useless as tits on a bull (or a whore)

. Completely useless: Canadian low: late C.19–20.

usher

*! Yes!: c.: from 1870s; ob. Horsley, Jottings from Jail, 1877. Prob. ex Yiddish user (it is so), as F. & H. proposes; possibly suggested by yessir!, s.v. YES’M.

usher of the hall, the

. The odd kitchenman: Society: ca 1880–1910.

using the wee riddle

. (vbl n.) Pilfering: Clydeside nautical: late C.19–20. Bowen, who gives an anecdotal explanation.

usual, as per

. As usual: coll: 1874, W.S. Gilbert. Occ., later, per usual. Ex, and orig. jocular on, the commercial use of per, perhaps influenced by Fr. comme par ordinaire.

usual—his, her, my, our, their, your

. His (etc.) usual state of health: coll: from mid-1880s. Annie S.Swan, 1887, ‘Aunt Susan is in her usual.’

util

. Only in util actor, that actor who can take almost any part: theatrical (–1909).

utility

. (Gen. pl.) A minor part for a beginner: theatrical: from ca 1870; ob.

utter

in affected use is S.E. except when it occurs in such a phrase as s. the BLOOMING utter, the utmost (Henley, 1887); even utterly utter, which the O.E.D. records at 1882, is S.E., but quite too utterly utter (F. & H., 1904) is coll.

V

V, make

. To make horns (the first and second fingers being derisively forked out) as an implication of cuckoldry: coll: early C.17. Chapman.

V.C.

Plucky: London: ca 1881–90. i.e. deserving the Victoria Cross.

V.R.

Ve (i.e. we) are: a London, esp. Cockney, c.p. at the time of Queen Victoria's Diamond Jubilee (June 1897). Punning V.R., Victoria Regina. cf. Jubileeeve it. 2. In evasive reference to the prison van, which, in the reign of Victoria, bore these initials on each side: lower classes': ca 1850–1901. Ware. Also vagabonds removed: ibid.: id.

vac

. A vacation: university and, though less, school coll: C.18–20. Often with capital initial. White, West End, 1900, 'Fork out...I'll pay you back in the Vac.'

vag

, n. A vagabond: since ca 1690. Ned Ward, The Wooden World Dissected, 1707 (p. 2), 'It's the New-Bridewell of the Nation, where all the incorrigible Vaiges are sent, to wear out Ropes.' (Admittedly the quotation constitutes a probability, not a certainty.)

vag

, v. To charge (someone) under the Vagrancy Act: Canadian (late C.19–20) and Australian (C.20). Adopted from U.S.

vag, on the

. 'Under the provisions of the Vagrancy Act', C.J.Dennis: Australian and to some extent, English (and U.S.): late C.19–20. cf. VAG, v.

vagabonds removed

, see V.R., 2.

vain, take one's name in

. To mention a person's name: coll: C.18–20. Swift, 'Who's that takes my name in vain?'

vakeel

. A barrister: Anglo-Indian coll: mid-C.19–20. Properly a representative. Ex Urdu vakil, Arabic wakil.

vainglorious man

, see PISS MORE...

vally

. A valet: illiterate coll: C.18 (?earlier)–20. cf. Scots vallie.

valve

. The female pudend: low: C.19–20. Perhaps by confusion with vulva.

vamos, vamoss, vamoos, vamoose, vamoosh, vamoose, vamous, varmoose

. To depart, decamp, disappear: U.S. coll (ca 1840), anglicized as s.r 1844, Selby, in London by Night, ‘Vamoose—scarper—fly!’ The forms vamoss, vamous and varmoose are rare, while vamoosh or vamosh is illiterate and vampose or vampoose is incorrect—but rare after the 1850s. Ex Sp. vamos, let us go.

vamp

*. A robbery: c.: mid-C.19–20; ob. Perhaps ex the v., 1. 2. See VAMPS.

vamp

, v. To pawn: late C.17–19; c. >, by 1780, low s. Ex vamp, to renovate.

vamper

*. A thief; esp. one of a gang frequenting public-houses and picking quarrels ‘with the wearers of rings and watches, in hopes of getting up a fight, and so enabling their “pals” to steal the articles’, H., 3rd ed., 1864. cf. VAMP, n., 1. 2. (Gen. in pl.) A stocking: c.: late C.17– early 19. ‘Perhaps an error for vampeis or vampeys’, O.E.D. cf. VAMPS.

vamping

, n. and adj. of VAMP, v., 2.

vampire

. The ghost in Punch and Judy: showmen’s: mid-C.19–20. See SWATCHEL. cf. VAMPO. 2. A person insufferably boring or wearisome: from ca 1860; very ob. Ex lit. sense. (Occ. vampyre.)

vampo

. The clown (see VAMPIRE, 1): id.: id.: ?ex Lingua Franca. See SWATCHEL.

vampo(o)se

, see VAMOS.

vamps

. Refooted stockings: London (–1859). Ex lit. S.E. sense.

Van, Madam

, see MADAM VAN.

van John

. A s. corruption of vingt-et-un: orig. and mainly university: 1853, ‘Cuthbert Bede’, “‘Van John’ was the favourite game”; ob.

Van Neck, Miss or Mrs

. ‘A large-breasted woman’, Grose, 2nd ed.: low: late C.18–early 19. Because she is well to the fore.

vandemonianism

. Rowdyism: Australian coll: ca 1860–90. Ex Vandemonian, an inhabitant of Van Diemen's Land (Tasmania), esp. as applied to a convict resident there in early C.19; suggested partly by demon and pandemonium.

vandook

. A corruption of BUNDOOK: Regular Army: late C.19–20.

Vanity Fair

. A chair: rhyming s.: since ca 1870.

vantage

. Profitable work: printers' coll: late C.17–18. cf. FAT, n., 3.

vardi or -ie

, see VARDY.

var-do

*. A waggon; var-do-gill, a waggoner: c. (–1812); †by 1900. Ex Romany var-do (or wardo), a cart. (Sampson's ver-do.) 2. Hence, a caravan: grafters': from ca 1880.

vardo

, v.t. To see, look at, observe: Parlary and low London (–1859). H., 1st ed., ‘Vardo the cassey [gen. CASA (2), carsey, case], look at the house’; H., 5th ed. (1874), ‘This is by low Cockneys gen. pronounced vardy.’ cf. DEKKO; perhaps ex Romany varter, v.t., to watch; note, too, that since in Romany v and w are nearly always interchangeable, there may be a connection with ward (esp. in watch and ward).

vardy

, n. A verdict; an opinion: C.18–20 coll and (in C.20, nothing but) dial. Swift has vardi, an occ. C.18 form—and vardie occurs in C.18–20. Ex †verdict, verdict.

vardy

, v. To swear upon oath: showmen’s: since ca 1860. P.H.Emerson, Signor Lippo, 1893. 2. See VARDO, v.

varjus

. Verjuice: Cockney (–1823); ob. cf. SARVICE.

varment, varmint

. ‘A sporting amateur with the knowledge or skill of a professional’: mainly sporting: ca 1811–40. Byron, 1823, ‘A thorough varmint, and a real swell,|Full flash, all fancy.’ Perhaps ex dial. varment, a fox. 2. Hence, spruce, natty, dashing: ca 1811–80; extant in dial., though ob. even there. 3. Hence, varment (more gen. varmint) man, a SWELL: Oxford and Cambridge University: ca 1823–40. Anon., Alma Mater, 1827. 4. Vermin: low (–1823); ob.

varment, varmint

, adj. See n., 2 and 3. 2. Knowing, cunning; clever: dial. (–1829) soon > s.; in C.20, only dial. Trelawny, 1831. Ex varment, a fox.

varmentish; varmentey

. The adj. and n. of VARMENT, n., 1 and esp. 3: ca 1811–30. Sporting Magazine, 1819, ‘Nothing under four horses would look “varmentish”.’

varmint-man

. See VARMENT, n., 3. 2. One who writes themes for idle undergraduates: university: ca 1840–1900. Perhaps ex sense 1.

varnish

. Bad champagne: Society: ca 1860–1905.

varnisher

*. A coiner of counterfeit sovereigns: c. (–1864); ob. Because this finishing touch often gave an effect of varnish.

varsal; 'varsal

. Universal, whole: mostly in in the varsal world: illiterate coll (1696, Farquhar) >, in C.19, dial. 2. Hence, single: ca 1760–1820, then dial.; rare and ob. Scott. 3. Hence, adv.: extremely: 1814, 'A varsal rich woman': rare coll and dial.; ob. cf. VERSAL.

varsity, V.; 'varsity, 'V

. Orig. university coll, now gen. coll for university: from ca 1845. 2. As adj.: 1863 (O.E.D. Sup.); 1864, Tennyson. Whether as n. or adj., the term, in its wider sense, has not always been approved at the two older English universities. ca 1640–1700, Versity: likewise coll. 3. varsity tit, see TIT, 4.

vaseline

. Butter: Royal Military Academy: late C.19–20. cf. GREASE, n., 5.

vast of, a

. A great amount (e.g. of trouble) or number: dial. (1794: E.D.D.) > also, by 1900, proletarian coll.

vastly

. Very: coll: C.18–early 19.

vatch

. (To) have: back s., esp. butchers': late C.19–20.

vaulting-school

. A coll or s. (?orig. c.) variation of v.-house, a brothel: ca 1605–1830. H.Parrot, 1606. 2. Hence, 'an Academy where Vaulting, and other Manly Exercises are Taught', B.E.: c. or s.: late C.17–early 19.

veal will be cheap, calves fall

. A jeering c.p. addressed to a spindle-legged person from ca 1670; ob. Ray, 1678. cf. MUTTON DRESSED AS LAMB.

veg

. Vegetable(s): eating-houses' coll: mid-C.19–20. e.g. 'Meat and two veg'. Ex abbr.

vegetable breakfast

. A hanging: low jocular: late C.19–early 20. The meal consists of an artichoke (punning HEARTY CHOKE) and 'caper sauce'.

velvet

*. The tongue; 'especially the tongue of a MAGSMAN', H., 5th ed.: in gen., late C.17–20, c. >, by 1800, low s.; in particular sense, from ca 1870, low s. Ex its texture. See VELVET, TIP THE.

velvet, on

. In an easy or advantageous position: 1769, Burke: S.E. rapidly > sporting coll, Grose, 1st ed., having 'to be upon velvet, to have the best of a bet or match'; esp. as=sure to win. Hence the next two entries.

velvet, play on

. To gamble with winnings: gaming s.: from ca 1880. Ex VELVET, ON; perhaps influenced by:

velvet, stand on

. 'Men who have succeeded in their speculations, especially on the turf, are said to stand on velvet,' H. 5th ed., 1874.

velvet, tip the

*. 'To Tongue a Woman', B.E.: late C.17–20: c. >, by 1800, low s. See VELVET and TIP, v., 4, 6. 2. To scold: low: ca 1820–50.

velvet!, to the little gentleman in

. This C.18 Anglo-Irish Tory and Roman Catholic toast verges on the coll, the little...velvet being that 'mole which threw up the mound causing Crop (King William [III]'s horse) to stumble'.

venerable monosyllable

. The female pudend: ca 1785–1840. See MONOSYLLABLE.

vengeance

, see WHIP-BELLY.

ventilator

. A play, player, or management that empties a theatre: theatrical (–1904). F. & H. Neat wit on the lit. sense.

venture-girl

. A poor young lady seeking a husband in India: Anglo-Indian: ca 1830–70.

venture it as Johnson did his wife, and she did well,—I'll

. A semi-proverbial c.p. implying that it sometimes pays to take a risk: ca 1670–1800. Ray, 1678; Fuller, 1732.

verb-grinder

. A (pedantic) schoolmaster: coll: 1809, Malkin; ob. On GERUND-GRINDER.

verge

*. A gold watch: c.: late C.19–20. Ex a verge (watch).

verites

; V. At Charterhouse, a boarding-house: mid-C.19–20; ob. ‘A corruption of Oliverites, after Dr Oliver Walford, 1838–55’, F. & H.

vermilion

. To besmear with blood: sporting: 1817 (O.E.D.); virtually †.

verneuk; verneuker; verneukerie

. To swindle, cheat, deceive; one who does this; such behaviour: South African coll: resp. 1871, 1905, 1901. Direct ex Cape Dutch.

versal, ’versal. Universal

, whole; gen. with world: illiterate coll: late C.16–19. Shakespeare; Sheridan. 2. Hence, single: id.: 1709, Mrs Manley, ‘No versal thing’. cf. VARSAL.

verse

, v., see:

versing law

. Swindling with counterfeit gold: c. of ca 1590–1620. Greene. Ex: verse, v.i. and v.t., to practise fraud or impostion (on); id. ibid. cf.: verser*. A member of a band of swindlers: c.: ca 1550–1620. ?ex verse, to overthrow, upset.

Versity

, see VARSITY.

vert; 'vert

. A pervert or convert to another religion (esp. Roman Catholicism): coll: 1864, Union Review, May. W., however, thinks that it may have originated, ca 1846, with Dean Stanley. 2. Occ. as v.i.: coll: 1888.

vertical

. A plant living on the side of a perpendicular rock-face: gardening s. (–1902).

vertical care-grinder

*. A treadmill: c. (–1859); almost †. Known also as the EVERLASTING or UNIVERSAL STAIRCASE.

very famillionaire

. Characteristic of the patronage shown by rich men: Society: 1870s. Ex familiar+millionaire.

very froncey

. Very pronounced; vulgar: Society: ca 1870–1905. Ex très français, very French.

very well

. An intensification of WELL, adj.

vessel

. The nose: sporting: ca 1813–30. Sporting Magazine, LXI (1813), ‘There, d-n your eyes, I’ve tapped your vessel.’ cf. tap one’s CLARET.

vest, lose one's

. To get angry: low: ca 1890–1910. A mere elaboration of get one's SHIRT OUT; cf. SHIRTY.

vestal

. 'Ironical for an incontinent person,' The London Guide, 1818: app. ca 1810–50. Short for vestal virgin.

vet

. A veterinary surgeon: coll: 1864, H. Marryat. Whence:

vet

, v. To cause (an animal) to be examined by a vet: coll: from ca 1890. 2. Hence, to examine, occ. to treat, (a person) medically: coll: 1898, Mrs Croker.

vex

. (So much the) worse, as in vex for you: Christ's Hospital: from ca 1860. Perhaps ex L. pejus (pronounced—one may presume—peddjus), but more prob. simply an abbr. of vexing or vexation.

vic

! CAVE!: Felsted School: from ca 1870. Hence, keep vic, to watch against official intrusion. Perhaps from L. vicinus, near, or even L. vigil or the imperative of vigilare, to watch.

Vicar of Bray

. A tray; a ‘trey’ (the number 3): theatrical rhyming s.: late C. 19–20.

vicar of St Fools, the . (Implying) a fool: a semi-proverbial coll: mid-C.16–17. Heywood, 1562; Nashe, 1589; Howell, 1659, and Ray, 1670, omit the Saint (Apperson). Sc. Church; by punning ‘topography’.

vice (or Vice), the

. The Vice-Chancellor, -President, etc.: coll (–1887).

Vice-Chancellor’s court

. ‘Creditor’s last shift’, Egan’s Grose: Oxford University: ca 1820–50.

Vice-Chuggins, the

. The Vice-Chancellor: Oxford undergraduates': late C.19–20.

victim

. A person very much in love: Society: ca 1885–1914.

Victoria Monk

. Semen: late C.19–20. Rhyming on SPUNK, 2. Ex a character famous in pornographic fiction. Strictly, that character was MARIA MONK and this, the original and still the commoner rhyming-s. form, became confused, in the popular mind, by the fame of Victoria Monks (with an -s), a very well-known music-hall singer, perhaps best remembered for her rendering of 'Won't you come home, Bill Bailey?'

victualler; victualling-house

. A pander; a house of accommodation: late C.16–17: resp., Shakespeare, 2 Henry IV, II, iv; and Webster, A Cure for a Cuckold. Because a tavern-keeper's trade often cloaked intrigue and bawdry.

victualling department or office

. The stomach: boxing > gen. s.: resp. 1878 (O.E.D.) and 1751, Smollett; both are ob. By a pun on that Government office which victuals the Navy. cf. BREAD-BASKET; DUMPING-DEPOT.

view the land

*. To examine in advance the scene of a crime: c. (–1887).

viewy

, Designed, or likely, to catch the eye; attractive: 1851, Mayhew; ob.

vile, ville, vyle

*. A city, a town: c.: in combination from 1560s; by itself, app. not before C.19. ROME VILLE, -vyle, Rum-, London: mid-C.16–20; deuce-a-vile, DEUSEAVILLE; DAISYVILLE, the country: mid-C.17–20. By itself, ‘No. 747’ (valid for 1845); H., 1st ed., 1859, ‘Pronounced phial, or vial.’ Ex Fr. ville.

village blacksmith

. A performer or actor not quite a failure, his engagements never lasting longer than a week: music-halls’ and theatrical (–1909); ob. Ex Longfellow’s poem, ‘Week in, week out, from morn till night...’

village butler

*. A petty thief; esp. an old thief ‘that would rather steal a dishclout than discontinue the practice of thieving’, Potter, 1795: c. of ca 1790–1850.

villain as ever scuttled a ship, I'm as mild a

. A c.p. applied to oneself in jocular reproach: coll (–1904). Prob. on S.E. I'm a bit of a villain myself, but— ville

, see VILE.

vim

. Force; energy: U.S. (adv., 1850, †; n., early 1870s), anglicized ca 1890: coll >, ca 1910, S.E. Either echoic or ex L. vis (accusative vim), energy, strength.

vincent

*. A dupe in a betting game: c.: ca 1590–1830; though prob. pb. in C.18–19. Etymology obscure: ?ironic ex L. vincens, (being) victorious. Whence:

vincent's (or V.) law

*. The art and practice of cheating at a betting game, esp. bowls or cards: c.: same period and history as preceding. Here, law=LAY (n., 2)=line of criminal activity.

vinegar

*. A cloak: c.: late C.17–early 19. Perhaps because it is worn in sharp weather. cf. the semantics presumably operative in: 2. ‘The person, who with a whip in his hand, and a hat held before his eyes’—cf. the man who, in a public conveyance, pretends to sleep while women are strap-hanging—‘keeps the ring clear at boxing matches and cudgel playings’, Grose, 1st ed.: sporting: ca 1720–1840.

vintage

. Year of birth: U.S. (–1883) >, by 1890, English. Ex vintage(-year) of wines.

violently

. Showily, ‘loudly’ (e.g. dressed): coll: 1782, Mme D’Arblay; ob.

violet; garden-violet

. An onion; gen. in pl as=spring onions eaten as a salad. 2. pl, sage-and-onion stuffing. Both, proletarian-ironic: from ca 1870; slightly ob.

vir-gin

, see MAN-TRAP.

virgins' bus, the

. The last bus running from Piccadilly Corner westward: lower classes': ca 1870–1900. Its chief patronesses were prostitutes.

virtue

. 'Smoking, drinking, whoring. When a man confesses to abstention from tobacco and intoxicating liquors he is perversely said to have no virtues,' F. & H.: non-aristocratic: ca 1880–1915.

virtue rewarded

. A c.p. in reference to occupants of prison-vans (bearing V.R. on their sides): lower classes': ca 1870–1901. cf. V.R., 2.

vish

. Angry; cross: Christ's Hospital: from ca 1890. Abbr. vicious in this sense. It superseded PASSY (abbr. passionate).

visitation

. An over-long visit or protracted social call: coll: 1819. Ex the length of ecclesiastical visitations.

vitty

. Fitty, i.e. fitting, suitable; neat: late C.16–20: S.E. until C.18, then s. (†by 1900) and dial.

viva

. A viva-voce examination: university coll: from ca 1890. Whence:

viva

, v.t. and, rarely, v.i. To subject, be subjected to, a ‘viva’: id.: 1893. Ex preceding.

voetsak

! (To a dog) go away!: South African coll (–1877). Prob. ex Dutch voort seg ek!, away, I say! Sometimes footsack!

voil

*. A rare form (Egan’s Grose, 1823) of VILE, n.

voker

, v.t. To speak: tramps’ c. and low s. (–1859); ob. This is a debased form of ROCKER, cf. L. vocare.

vote

. To propose, suggest: coll: 1814, Scott. (O.E.D.) Only with that...

vote for the alderman

, see ALDERMAN, VOTE FOR THE.

vouch

. An assertion or formal statement: C.17–20: S.E. until C.19, then coll; ob.

voucher

*. One of those who ‘put off False Money for Sham-coyners’, B.E.: c. of ca 1670–1720. Head. (He ‘vouches for’ the counterfeit.)

voucher, force the

. To elicit money from the betting public and then abscond: sporting (–1874).

voulez-vous squattez-vous

? Will you sit down?: theatre GODS’: from ca 1820. ‘Started by Grimaldi’, says Ware. cf. TWIGGEZ-VOUS.

vowel

. To pay (a winner; indeed, any creditor) with an I.O.U.: C.18–19. Steele, ‘I am vowelled by the Count, and cursedly out of humour.’ Ex either spoken formula, or written statement of, ‘I.O.U.’

vowel-mauler

. An indistinct speaker: not upper classes’: ca 1880–1910.

voyage, Hobbe’s

. An act of coition: late C.17–18. Vanbrugh, 1697, ‘Matrimony’s the spot... So now I am in for Hobbe’s voyage; a great leap in the dark.’ Ex some lost topical allusion, unless it be a jeer at HOB, a country bumpkin.

voyage of discovery

*. Going out stealing: c. (–1857).

vrow-case

*, A brothel: c.: (prob.) late C. 17–mid-19. F. & H., who app. deduce it, justifiably (I think), from B.E.’s case-fro, ‘a Whore that Plies in a Bawdy-house’. Ex Dutch vrouw, a woman,+CASA (2), case, a house, shop, etc.

W

w

. A w.c.: late C.19–20, non-aristocratic coll; ?orig. euphemistic. Always the w.

W.F.'s.

Wild cattle: Tasmania: ca 1840–80. Fenton, Bush Life in Tasmania Fifty Years Ago, 1891, 'The brand on Mr William Field's wild cattle'.

w.h. or W.H.

A whore: euphemistic coll (–1887); ob.

W.H.B., the

. The 'Wandering Hand Brigade', those who are apt to take liberties with women: late C.19–20.

W.M.P.

We accept the invitation: naval coll verging on j.: late C.19–20. i.e., with much pleasure.

W.P.; w.p

. Abbr. (–1860) of WARMINGPAN, 3; ob.

wabblers

. See FOOT-WABBLER and WOBBLER. wack. A mainly dial. form of WHACK.

wad

. A gunner: naval: mid-C.19–20. Ware, ‘A survival from the days of muzzle-loading cannon’. 2. Straw: proletarian: C.19.

waddle; orig. and gen. waddle out; often extended to waddle out lame duck or w.o. of the Alley

. To become a defaulter on the Exchange: Stock Exchange: 1771, Garrick, ‘The gaming fools are doves, the knaves are rooks, Change-Alley bankrupts waddle out lame ducks!’; 1860, Peacock (waddle off, rare); †by 1900. See LAME DUCK.

waddy

. A walking-stick: Australian coll (–1898). Ex lit. Aboriginal sense, a club.

wade

. A ford: coll: C.19–20. Ex wade, an act of wading.

wadge, wodge

. A lumpy mass or bulgy bundle: dial. (–1860) >, ca 1880, coll. Ex wad on wedge. 2. Hence, late C.19–20, adj. wodgy.

wadmarel

(C.19: nautical), wadmus (C. 18). Corruptions of wadmal (a woollen cloth).

wads

. A gunner: naval, esp. as a nickname: from ca 1890. Ex the use he makes thereof.

waffle

. Nonsense; gossip(ing); incessant or copious talk: printers' (–1888). Jacobi. Ex dial. waffle, a small dog's yelp or yap. cf. WAFFLES and:

waffle

, v. To talk incessantly; printers': from ca 1890. Ex waffle, to yelp. 2. To talk nonsense: from ca 1890: Durham School >, by 1910 or so, gen. Perhaps ex sense 1; cf., however, the n. 3. See WOFFLE.

waffles

. A loafer; a sauntering idler: low (–1904); ob. cf. WAFFLE.

wag

, n. See WAG, HOP THE.

wag

, v. To play truant; often wag it: mid-C.19–20. Dickens, 1848. Ex: 2. wag, to go, to depart: late C.16–20: S.E. until C. 19, then coll. 3. v.t., gen. in negative. To stir (e.g. a limb): late C.16–20: S.E. until mid-C.19, then coll. F.Harrison, 'I... declined to ask him...to wag a finger to get me there.' cf.: 4. v.i., to move one's limbs: C.13–20: S.E. until mid-C.19, then coll; ob. Whyte-Melville, 1860.

wag, hop the; play the wag; play the Charley-wag

. To play truant: 1861, Mayhew, the first two; 1876, Hindley, the third, which is very ob. Ex WAG, v.—perhaps with a pun on lit. sense of play the wag, to be amusingly mischievous, to indulge constantly in jokes.

wag one's bottom

. To be a harlot: mostly Cockney: late C.19–20.

wag-tail

. A harlot: s.: Ned Ward, 1703.

wagabone

, n. and adj. Vagabond: C.19. G.R.Sims, 'His wagabone ways'.

Wagga blanket

. A rough bed-covering, used by tramps and made from sack or bag: Australian: late C.19–20. Derisive of the N.S.W. town of Wagga-Wagga, small and genuinely rural.

wagger

. A truant: schools': from ca 1870. (E.Pugh, A Street in Suburbia, 1895.) cf. hop the WAG.

wagger-pagger-bagger

. A waste-paper-basket: Oxford University: from ca 1905. See 'the Oxford -er', p. 11.

waggernery

! O(h) agony!: lower Society: 1880s. The pun is specifically on Wagner, much ridiculed in that decade.

waggle

. To overcome: low (–1904); ob. except in U.S.

waggley; gen. waggly

. Unsteady; having frequent irregular curves: coll: 1894, E. Banks, ‘Even in [the path’s] most waggly parts’. Lit., waggling.

waggon

. In the old guardships, the place where the supernumeraries slung their hammocks: nautical: ?ca 1840–90.

waggon-hunter

*. A brothel-keeper’s tout visiting the inns at which the stage-coaches stopped: c.: 1760–1840.

waggon-lay

*.' Waiting in the street to rob waggons going out or coming into town, both commonly happening in the dark', Grose, 3rd ed.: c.: late C.18–mid-19.

wagon

, see WAGGON.

wahinë

. A woman: New Zealand coll: late C.19–20. Direct ex Maori. cf. LUBRA.

waipiro

. Intoxicating liquor: id.: id. Straight from Maori.

waistcoat

. See WESKET. 2. fetid waistcoat. 'A waistcoat of a flaunting and vulgar pattern', F. & H.: ca 1859. So LOUD that it 'stinks to heaven'.

waistcoat piece

. 'Breast and neck of mutton—from its resemblance to...half the front of a waistcoat not made up': tailors' (–1909). Ware.

wait

. To postpone (a meal) for an expected person: coll: 1838, Dickens, ‘It’s a trying thing waiting supper for lovers.’ cf. WAIT ABOUT. 2. To wait at; only in wait table, to wait at table: servants’ coll (–1887).

wait about or around

, v.i. To HANG ABOUT: coll: resp. 1879, Miss Braddon: 1895, orig. and mostly U.S.

wait till the clouds roll by

! A c.p. inductive of optimism: 1884. Ware, ‘From an American ballad’.

wait till (or until) you get it?,—will you have it now or

. A c.p., addressed to someone either impatient or in a hurry: C.19–20. (Dickens, The Pickwick Papers, 1836–7, ch. 10.)

waler

; orig. W. A (cavalry) horse imported from New South Wales into India: 1849 (O.E.D.): Anglo-Indian coll >, ca 1905, S.E. An advertisement in the Madras Mail, 25 June 1873: ‘For sale. A brown waler gelding’. 2. Hence, a horse imported into India from any part of Australia: from early 1880s.

walk

. To depart of necessity; to die: mid-C.19–20: resp. coll and s. Trollope, 1858 (latter sense). Ex walk, to go away. 2. v.t. To win easily: Public Schools' coll: from ca 1895. (P.G.Wodehouse, A Prefect's Uncle, 1903.) Abbr. walk off with.

walk

, n. A postman's route or BEAT: Canadian coll: late C.19–20.

walk, the ghost doesn't

, see GHOST WALKS.

walk around, gen. round

. To beat easily: coll, U.S. (Haliburton, 1853) anglicized ca 1890. cf. the synonymous run RINGS ROUND.

walk down one's throat

. To scold, abuse: late C.19–20. Ex jump...

walk into

. To attack vigorously: coll: 1794, Lord Hood. 2. Hence, to scold or reprove strongly: coll: from 1850s. 3. To eat, drink, much or heartily of: 1837, Dickens; id., 1840, 'Little Jacob, walking ...into a homemade plum cake, at a most surprising pace.' 4. To 'make a hole in' one's money: 1859, Henry Kingsley. 5. See:

walk into one's affections

. To win a person's love or affection effortlessly and immediately: coll: 1858 (O.E.D.). 2. Jocularly for WALK INTO, 1 and 2:1859, H., 1st ed.; also for WALK INTO, 3 (Baumann, 1887). 3. Hence ironically, to get into a person's debt: from ca 1860; ob.

walk it

. To walk (as opp. to riding): coll: 1668, Pepys.

walk, knave, walk

! A coll c.p. taught to parrots: mid-C.16–17. 'Proverbs' Heywood, 1546; Lyly; 'Hudibras' Butler; Roxburgh, Ballads, ca 1685.

walk one's chalks

, see CHALKS, WALK ONE'S.

walk out with the bat

. To achieve victory: Society: ca 1880–1900. Ex a cricketer ‘carrying’ his bat.

walk round

. To prepare oneself to attack or be attacked: lower classes’ (–1909). Ex dogs’ circling. 2. See WALK AROUND.

walk Spanish

, see CHALKS, WALK ONE’S.

walk the barber

*. To lead a girl astray: c. (–1851). (Anatomical.)

walk the chalk

. To walk|along a chalk line as a test of sobriety: military (–1823) >, by 1850, gen. See also able to walk a CHALK. 2. Hence, by 1845 at latest, to keep oneself up to the moral mark.

walk the hospitals

. To study medicine: medical coll: from ca 1870.

walk the pegs

. In cheating at cribbage, to move one's own pegs forward or one's opponent's back: 1803, low s. >, ca 1870, s. >, ca 1900, coll. Lit., to make walk.

walk the plank

. An early variant of WALK THE CHALK. Naval: since ca 1810 or earlier. It occurs in W.N.Glascock, Sailors and Saints, 1829.

walk up (against) the wall

, see WALL, CRAWL...

walk up Ladder Lane and down Hemp Street

. To be hanged at the yard-arm: nautical: C.19. cf. HEMPEN...

walked out, the lamp (has)

. The lamp has gone out, went out: jocular (–1887); ob.

Walker

! orig. and properly Hook(e)y Walker! ‘Signifying that the story is not true, or that the thing will not occur’, Lex. Bal., 1811; Walker is recorded by Vaux in the following year. 2. Hence, be off!: late C.19–20. 3. As n., in, e.g., ‘That is all (Hooky) Walker’: late C.19–20. Ex sense 1, which derives perhaps ex ‘some hook-nosed person named Walker’, O.E.D.

walker

. A postman: ca 1860–1910. Ex an old song entitled Walker the Twopenny Postman. 2. See WALKERS. 3. See preceding entry. 4. A coll abbr. of shopwalker: (–)1864.

Walker, my (or his, etc.) name’s

. I’m (he’s, etc.) off: late C.19–20. Ex WALKER!, 2.

walkers

. The feet: C.19. Pierce Egan, 1832. ?ex †walkers, legs.

walking cornet

. An ensign of foot: military (–1785); †by 1890.

walking distiller

, see DISTILLER.

walking-go

. A walking-contest: coll: C. 19–20; very ob.

walking mort

*. A tramp's woman: c.: early C.19. On STROLLING MORT.

walking poulterer

*. One who hawks from door to door the fowls he steals: c. of ca 1785–1840.

walking stationer

. 'A hawker of pamphlets, &c.', Grose, 2nd ed., 1788: (?orig. c. >) low s.; ob. by 1870, †by 1900.

walkist

. A walker: sporting (esp. athletics) coll (–1887); ob.

wall, crawl or walk up the

; in Lex. Bal., 1811, also as walk up against the wall. ‘To be scored up at a public house’, Grose, 1st ed.: public-house (–1785); †by 1850. Ex the mounting bill written up, in chalk, on the wall.

wall, near the

. Ill: Oxford University: ca 1820–50. Spy, 1825. Ex Dr Wall, a celebrated surgeon.

wall and it will not bite you!, look on the

. A jeering c.p. addressed to one whose tongue has felt the bite of mustard: ca 1850–1910.

wall as anyone, see as far into a brick

, see MILLSTONE.

wall-eyed

. Inferior, careless (work); irregular (action): from the 1840s; ob. by 1890. Halliwell, 1847. Ex wall-eyed, squinting.

wall fruit

. ‘Kissing against a wall’ (Sinks): ca 1830–80.

wallabies; W

. Australians: coll: from ca 1908. Mostly in sporting circles and esp. of teams of Australians.

wallaby, on the

. On tramp: Australian s. >, ca 1910, coll: 1869, Marcus Clarke. Abbr. on the wallaby-track. In the bush, often the only perceptible track.

wallah

, in Anglo-Indian (hence in Army) compounds—e.g. COMPETITION WALLAH—is simply a chap, a fellow: late C.18–20. Only in certain (mostly, jocular) compounds (e.g. AMEN-WALLAH) is it eligible. Ex Hindustani -wala, connected with.

walled

. (Of a picture) accepted by the Royal Academy: artists': 1882; ob.

wallflower

. A second-hand coat, exposed for sale: low London: 1804; ob. For semantics, cf. next sense. 2. Orig. and gen., a lady keeping her seat by the wall because of her inability to attract partners: coll: 1820, Praed, 'The maiden wall-flowers of the room|Admire the freshness of his bloom.' 3. Hence, any person going to a ball but not dancing, whatever the reason: coll: from 1890s. Free Lance, 22 Nov. 1902, 'And male wall-flowers sitting out at dances|Will reckon up their matrimonial chances.'

wallop; OCC. wallup

. A clumsily ponderous, noisily brusque or violent movement of the body; a lurching: coll and dial.: 1820, Scott. Ex the v., 1. 2. A resounding, esp. if severe, blow: coll (–1823).

wallop, OCC. wallup

, v.i. To move with noisy and ponderous clumsiness; to lurch, flounder, or plunge: dial. (early C.18) >, ca 1815, coll (Scott, 1820: cf. n., 1). Ex wallop, to gallop; the word is echoic. 2. v.i., to dangle, to flap or flop about: recorded by O.E.D. in 1822, but prob. in fairly gen. coll use as early as 1780: see WALLOP IN A TETHER. 3. v.t., to belabour, thrash: dial. (–1825) >, in 1830s, coll. 4. Hence, fig., to get the better of: coll: from ca 1860. Meredith, 1865.

wallop, go (down)

. To fall noisily and heavily: coll and dial.: mid-C.19–20.

wallop (or wallup) in a tether or tow

. To be hanged: Scots coll: from ca 1780; slightly ob. Burns, 1785: cf. WALLOP, v., 2.

walloper

. One who belabours or drubs; that with which he does it—e.g. stick or cudgel: coll: from ca 1820. Ex WALLOP, v., 3. 2. A dancer: itinerant entertainers': late C.19–20. Perhaps influenced by It. galoppo, a lively dance, and galoppare, to gallop, and galoppatore, a galloper.

walloping

, n. and adj., to WALLOP, v.: coll. cf. WALLOPER. 2. Also as adv., though it may be merely a reinforcing adj., as in Hyne, 1903, ‘I came upon a walloping great stone.’

wallup

, see WALLOP, n. and v.

wally (pron. wolly); shock-a-lolly

. Cockney tenns (quite distinct one from the other) for cucumber pickled in brine, the second term being rare: from ca 1880.

Wallyford

. ‘The usual run on a wet whole school-day’ (about 3 ¹/₂ miles): Loretto coll: late C.19–20.

walnut, shoulder

. To enlist as a soldier: coll: 1838, D.Jerrold; †by 1900. cf. BROWN BESS.

walnut-shell

. A very light carriage: 1810 (O.E.D.): ob. cf. cockle-shell (boat).

Walter Joyce

. Voice: rhyming s.: since ca 1880. (G.R.Sims used it in a Dagonet Ballad published in the Referee of 7 Nov. 1887.)

Waltham's calf, as wise as

. Very foolish: coll: ca 1520–1830. Skelton. Perhaps suggested by the wise men of Gotham, who 'dragged the pond because the moon had fallen into it' (Charles Kingsley).

waltz; esp. waltz hither and thither, (a)round or about

. To move in light or sprightly or nimble fashion; to buzz round or fuss about: from ca 1870: resp. coll and s.

waltz, do a (or the)

. To slide or skid: Cockney: late C.19–20.

walzing Matilda

. Carrying one's swag: Australian: from ca 1890. A jocularly.

wamble; C.18–20, womble

. A rolling, or a feeling of uneasiness or nausea, in the stomach: C.17–20: S.E. until mid-C.18, then coll and dial. As coll, ob. except in the wombles, a sensation of nausea. Ex wamble, to feel nausea. 2. Hence, milk fever: coll and dial.: C.18–20; ob. 3. A rolling or staggering movement or gait, esp. in (up)on the wamble, staggering, wobbly or wobbling: coll (ob.) and dial.: from ca 1820. Ex wamble, v.i. to roll about as one walks.

wamble- (or, C.18, womble-)cropped or -stomached

. Sick at the stomach: resp. mid-C.16–20, but in C.19–20 only U.S. and until mid-C.18, S.E.; C.16–?, so prob. not late enough to be eligible. See WAMBLE, 1; cf.:

wamblety- (or womblety-)cropped

. Suffering, in the stomach, the ill effects of a debauch: late C.17–early 19. A variant of preceding.

wames thegither, nail twa

. To coit: Scots: C.17(?)–20. Lit., wame, belly.

wan-horse chaise

. A one-horsed chaise: a Hyde Park Corner joke, ca 1820–30. Bee, 1823.

wander

. To lead astray; fig., to confuse, bewilder: coll: from mid-1890s.

wander

! Go away!: ca 1880–1905. Ware, who classifies it as street s.

wangle

, v.t. To arrange to suit oneself; contrive or obtain with sly cunning, insidiously or illicitly; to manipulate, to FAKE: printers' s. (–1888). Possibly ex dial. wangle, to shake; perhaps ex waggle.

wank

, see WHANK.

wanker

. A bloater: Felsted School: 1892, Felstedian, Oct.; ibid., June 1897, 'He sniffs, 'eugh, wankers again.' Ex STINKER, 4 (via stwanker).

want an apron

. To be out of work: workmen's (–1909); ob. Ware, 'The apron off'.

want doing, it will; it wants or wanted doing

. It will, does, or did need doing: mid-C.16–20: S.E. until late C.19, then coll. ‘Seton Merriman’, 1898, ‘Roden is a scoundrel...and wants thumping.’

want in; want out

. To wish to enter; to wish to go out: from ca 1840: coll of Scotland, Northern Ireland, and U.S.

want to know all the ins and outs of a duck’s bum

. To be extremely inquisitive; esp. of one desirous of arriving at the underlying explanation: low: late C.19–20.

want to piss like a dressmaker

. A Cockney figure of speech for urgent need, perhaps originating in sweated-labour days: late C. 19–20.

wanted

. A wanted person (whether advertised for in the Situations Vacant, or sought by the police): coll: 1793, W. Roberts, ‘I design to publish a list of Wanted, solely for the use of your Paper.’ In the police sense, the adj. app. arises ca 1810, the comparatively rare n., 1903.

wap

*. To copulate (gen. v.i.): c.: C.17– early 19. Ex wap (down), to throw (down) violently: cf. KNOCK, to coït with (a woman). Whence, wappened, deflowered, wanton. cf. WAP-APACE. 2. See WHOP, v.

wap-apace, mort

*. A woman experienced in copulation: c.: late C.17–early 19. See WAP and cf. the c.p. if she won't wap for a win, let her trine for a make, 'If she won't Lie with a Man for a Penny, let her Hang for a Half-penny,' B.E.: same period.

wap-John

. A gentleman's coachman: sporting: ca 1825–50.

wapper

, see WHOPPER. wapping, see WHOPPING.

wapping-dell, -mort

*. A whore: c.: C.17–18.

war-caperer

. A privateer: naval coll: (?) C.18–early 19.

war-cry

. A mixture of stout and mild ale: taverns': 1882–ca 86. Ware derives it from the War Cry, the periodical of the Salvation Army, which 'spoke stoutly and ever [?] used mild terms'.

war-hat or -pot

. A spiked helmet: military (–1904); ob. by 1915.

war-paint

. One's best or official clothes, with jewels, decorations, etc.: coll: 1859, H. Kingsley, 'Old Lady E—in her war-paint and feathers'. Ex lit. sense. 2. Hence, make-up: theatrical: late C.19–20.

warbler

. A singer who, for pay, liquor, or other benefit, goes to, and sings at meetings: low: from ca 1820; ob.

ware skins, quoth Grubber, when he flung the louse into the fire

. A semi-proverbial c.p. of ca 1670–1770. Ray, 1678; Fuller, 1732 (Grub for Grubber, shins for skins).

warehouse

. A fashionable pawn shop: Society (–1904); ob. Whence:

warehouse

, v. To pawn (an article): Society (–1904); ob. cf. n. Perhaps ex: to put in prison: 1881, Punch, 12 Feb. cf. JUG, v.

warm

. An act of warming, a becoming warm: mid-C.18–20: S.E. until mid-C.19, then coll. Esp. in get or have a warm, give a warm.

warm

, v. To thrash: s. (–1811) and dial. (–1824) >, by 1850, coll. Also warm one's jacket: cf. DUST ONE'S JACKET. 2. Hence, to berate, call over the COALS: coll: from ca 1870. cf. the semi-c.p. I'll warm yer, a vague Cockney threat.

warm

, adj. Rich: from ca 1570: S.E. until late C.18, then coll. Ex warm, comfortably established or settled. 2. Of an account or bill: exorbitant. Coll: from ca 1890; ob.

warm as they make them

. Sexually loose: coll (–1909). cf.:

warm bit

. Such a woman: low: 1880; slightly ob. cf.:

warm corner

. ‘A nook where birds are found in plenty’, Ware, who by birds means harlots: sporting and Society (–1909). Punning S.E. sense.

warm flannel

. Mixed spirits served hot: public-house (–1823); †by 1900. cf. HOT FLANNEL.

warm member or ’un

. A whore; a whoremonger: low: mid-C.19–20; ob. Ex warm, amorous, prone to sexual desire and practice. 2. (Only w. m.) A very energetic, pushful person: ca 1895, Keep it

Dark (a music-hall song), ‘Dr Kenealy, that popular bloke,[That extremely warm member, the member for Stoke.’

warm-sided

. (A ship, a fort) mounting heavy batteries: naval coll (–1904). Because such a ship can supply a warm reception.

warm sun, out of God’s blessing into the

, see OUT OF...

warm the wax of one’s ear

. To box a person’s ear: low: ca 1860–1915. An elaboration of warm one’s jacket (see WARM, v.).

warm with

, adj. and n. (Spirits) warmed with bot water and sweetened with sugar: coll: 1840, T.A.Trollope, the n.; 1836, Dickens, the adj. Contrast COLD WITHOUT.

warming-pan

. A female bed-fellow: from the Restoration; ob. Esp. a Scotch warming-pan. 2. A large, old-fashioned watch, properly of gold (a silver one being a frying-pan): late C.17–20; very ob. Ex size: cf. TURNIP. 3. A locum tenens, esp. among the clergy: from mid-1840s; slightly ob. The abbr. W.P. is rare for any person other than ‘a clergyman holding a living under a bond of resignation’, F. & H.: clerical (–1864). Now only historical, the practice having been made illegal.

warming the bell

. Having one’s relief turned out early: nautical: late C.19–20. Bowen. (The bell that sounds the hours.)

warp

*. The criminal confederate who watches: c.: late C.16–early 17. Greene. ?watch corrupted.

warrab

. A barrow: back s. (–1859).

warrant you, I or I’ll

. I’ll be bound: coll: late C.18–20.

warren

*. A brothel; a boarding-school: c. > low s.: late C.17–early 19. Jocular. cf. CUNNY-WARREN. 2. ‘He that is Security for Goods taken up, on Credit, by Extravagant young Gentlemen', B.E.: c.: C.17–18. Dekker. By sense-perversion—or perhaps merely, as the O.E.D. holds, by misapprehension, of warren, a variant of warrant.

warrigal

. A worthless man: Australian bush-slang (–1898). Ex Aboriginal for 'wild' (orig. 'a dog'). 2. Hence the adj., wild: Australian: late C.19–20.

wars, have been in the

. To show signs of injury, marks of ill or hard usage: coll: 1850, Scoresby. Ex a veteran soldier's scars. .

wart

. A youthful subaltern: 1894, 'J.S. Winter': s.

Warwicks

. (At cards) sixes: Regular Army: late C.19–20. The Warwickshire Regiment used to be the 6th Foot.

wash

. An act of 'washing': printers' (–1841). cf. v., 2. 2. A fictitious sale of securities (by simple transference, therefore to the brokers' profit): Stock Exchange (–1891). cf. v., 3. 3.

School tea or coffee: Durham School (–1904). Because of its weakness. 4. Nonsense; drivelling sentiment: from ca 1905. Perhaps orig. Harrovian.

wash, v. To bear testing or investigation; prove to be genuine: coll: 1849, C.Brontë, ‘That willn’t wash, Miss.’ ‘As good fabrics and fast dyes stand the operation of washing’, F. & H. 2. To punish, to RAG (a fellow workman for falsehood or misconduct) by banging type-cases on his desk, or (among tailors) by swearing and cursing loudly: printers’ s. (–1841) >, by 1900, gen. craftsmen’s. Savage’s Dict. of Printing. Presumably ex the notion of purification. 3. To do or practise ‘wash’ as in n., 2: Stock Exchange: as v.t., app. unrecorded before 1895, but as v.i. implied in the vbl n. as in: 1870, Medbery, Men and Mysteries of Wall Street, ‘Brokers had become fearful of forced quotations. Washing had become a constant trick before the panic, and bids were now closely scrutinised.’ Perhaps ex one hand washes the other; perhaps ex take in one another’s washing.

wash, it’ll all come out in the

. It will be discovered eventually; hence, never mind—it doesn’t matter!: c.p. from ca 1902.

wash and brush-up tuppence

. A c.p. uttered by the host when one was about to wash one’s hands in a friend’s house: ca 1885–1915.

wash-boards

. White facings on the early uniforms: naval: early C.19–early 20.

wash one's face in an ale-clout

. To take a glass of ale: coll: ca 1540–90. ‘Proverbs’ Heywood. Ex putting one’s face far into the jug, etc.

wash one's or the head without soap

. To scold a person: coll: ca 1580–1620. Barnaby Rich, 1581.

wash one's ivories or neck

. To drink: low: 1823, Moncrieff (ivories); neck (–1904). On the †wash one's brain, head, etc., to drink wine; ‘ivories’ being teeth. cf. sluice one's ivories (Punch, 1882) and SLUICE ONE’S BOLT.

wash-out

. A failure (thing or person); a disappointment or ‘sell’; a cancellation: used in the Boer War (J.Milne, The Epistles of Atkins, 1902). Perhaps ex w.-o., a gap or hole caused by violent erosion, but much more prob. ex: 2. In shooting, a shot right off the target: military: app. from ca 1850, if not earlier. Ex painting out of shots on the old iron targets by the application of paint or, gen., some kind of wash.

wash-pot

. A hat: universities’: ca 1880–1910. Ex the shape.

washer-dona

. A washerwoman: low London: from ca 1860; ob.

washical

. What do you call it?: illiterate: ca 1550–1600. Still, Gammer Gurton's Needle. Perhaps ex what shall I call it?

washing

, n. Ex WASH, v., 2, 3: resp. 1825, 1870 (both earlier than v.).

washman

*. A beggar with sham sores: c. of ca 1550–80. Awdelay, 1561. Prob. because the sores will wash out.

wasp

. A venereally diseased harlot: ca 1785–1850. Grose, 2nd ed., ‘...Who like a wasp carries a sting in her tail.’

waste, cut to

. To apportion (time) wastefully: sporting: 1863; very ob. Ex tailoring sense, 'to cut (cloth) in a wasteful manner'.

waste, house of

. 'A tavern or alehouse where idle people waste both their time and money', Grose, 1st ed.: literary coll: ca 1780–1850. cf.:

waste-butt

. A publican: coll (–1823); †by 1890. 2. An eating-house: jocular c. of ca 1880–1915.

waste of ready

. Esp. gambling: Oxford University: ca 1820–50. i.e. READY, cash.

Wat; OCC. wat

. A hare: late C.15–20: coll till C.19, then dial. A familiar use of the proper name: cf. NEDDY for a donkey.

watch, his (her, my, etc.)

*. Himself, etc.: c.: ca 1530–1690. Copland, ca 1530; Harman; Dekker. cf. his NIBS; WATCH AND SEALS; and perhaps DIAL (face), for semantics.

watch, Paddy's

, see PADDYWACK.

watch and seals

. A sheep's head and pluck: low (–1860); ob. But earlier as watch, chain and seals: 1811, Lex. Bal.

watch-dropper

. One who uses a cheap watch in a version of the ring-dropping game: Australian: late C.19–20.

watch my smoke

! Just you watch me!; you won't see me for dust!: a nautical coll that is virtually a c.p.: late C.19–20. Ex the smoke of a departing steamer.

watch on—stop on

. Watch-and-watch or a double turn of duty (eight hours instead of four): naval coll: late C.19–20.

watch out

, v.i. To be on one's guard; to look out: U.S. coll (1880s), anglicized ca 1905.

watcher

. A person set to watch a dresslodger (q.v.): low: from 1860s. Greenwood, The Seven Curses of London, 1869. 2. One spying for bribery: electioneering coll (–1909).

watchie or -y.

A watchman: coll: ca 1810–40.

watchmaker

*. Gen. pl. 'The idle and disolute, who live in Calmet's-buildings, Oxford-street': c. (–1839); †by 1880. cf.:

watchmaker (in a crowd)

*. A thief who specializes in stealing watches: c.: mid-C. 19–20. Prob. ex preceding entry.

water

. Boating, aquatics: Westminster School coll (–1881). Pascoe, Our Public Schools. 2. Additional nominal capital created by ‘watering’ (see the v., 2): U.S. coll (1883) anglicized ca 1885; by 1900, S.E. St James’s Gazette, 14 June 1888.

water

, v. To entertain freely, to ‘treat’: ca 1740–60. Water costing nothing. 2. To increase (the nominal capital of a company) by the creation of shares that, though they rank for interest, carry no corresponding capital: U.S. coll (1870) anglicized ca 1880; by 1900, S.E. Occ. water up (1899). i.e. weaken by dilution.

water, between wind and

, see SHOOT BETWEEN WIND AND WATER. Water, hot, see HOT WATER.

water, make a hole in the

. To drown oneself suicidally: 1853, Dickens.

water, over the

, see OVER THE WATER.

water, the malt's above the

. He is drunk: semi-proverbial c.p.: ca 1670–1770. cf. the proverbial and equivalent the malt is above wheat with him (mid-C.16–early 19).

water-barrel

, see WATER-BUTT.

water bewitched

. Very thin beer: coll (–1678); ob. Ray. (Unholy influence at work.) 2. Hence, weak tea: coll: C.18–20. Swift; Grose; Dana. 3. Occ. of both (1699, T.Brown); †by 1800. 4. Occ. of punch (1785), occ. of coffee: dial. (–1825) and (as for broth) coll. In all four senses, occ. water damaged: C.19–20 coll; ob.

water-bobby

. A water-policeman: lower classes' (–1887).

water bonse

. A cry-baby: Cockney: late C.19–20; ob. J.W.Horsley, I Remember, 1912.

water-bottle

. A total abstainer: lower class urban (–1909). Ware. cf. WATER-WAGGON.

water-box, -course, -gap, -gate

. The female pudend: low: C.19–20. cf. WATER-ENGINE; WATER WORKS.

water-bruise(, gen. rare old)

. A tough (and old, hard-working) shore-man: nautical (–1909).

water-butt, OCC. -barrel

. The stomach: lower classes’: late C.19–20.

water-can, Jupiter Pluvius has got out (or put, or turned, on) his

. A coll c.p. for ‘It is raining’; applied mostly to a heavy shower. From ca 1870; ob.

water-colours, wife in

, see WIFE IN... water-course, see WATER-BOX.

water-dog

. A Norfolk dumpling: from ca 1860; ob.

water-dona

. A washerwoman: low urban, esp. London (–1909). Also WASHER-DONA.

water-engine

. ‘The urinary organs male or female’, F. & H.: low: late C.19–20.

water-funk

. A person shy of water: schools’: 1899, Kipling; now coll.

water-gap, -gate

, see WATER-BOX.

water in one's shoes

. A source of discomfort or annoyance: C.18 coll. North, ca 1740, ‘They caressed his lordship... and talked about a time to dine with him; all which (as they say) was “water in his shoes”.’ Abbr. as welcome as water in one's shoes, very unwelcome: mid-C.17–20: coll till late C.19, then dial. only. cf. S.E. welcome as snow, in harvest and contrast welcome as the eighteen trumpeters, very welcome indeed: coll: ca 1610–40.

water-mill

. The female pudend: low (–1811).

water of life

. Gin: from early 1820s; ob. App. on Fr. eau-de-vie (brandy).

water one's nag

, see NAG, WATER ONE'S.

water one's plants

. To weep: jocular coll: ca 1540–1880; in C.19, dial. only. Udall; Lyly; Swift. On S.E. water one's eyes, to weep.

water-pad

*. A thief operating on the water, esp. on the Thames: c.: late C.17– early 19.

water-scriger

. ‘A doctor who prescribes from inspecting the water of his patients’, Grose, 3rd ed.: late C.18–early 19. A scriger is presumably scrier (or scryer) one who (de)scries. cf. †S.E. water-caster.

water-sneak, the

*. ‘Robbing ships...on a...river or canal, ...generally in the night’: c. of ca 1810–90. Vaux. 2. Hence, water-sneaksman, such a thief: c. (–1823); †by 1900.

water the dragon

, see DRAGON. water up, see WATER, v., 2.

water-waggon, on the

. Teetotal for the time being: U.S. (–1904), anglicized by 1908.

Waterings, the 'Spital stands too nigh St Thomas à . Copious weeping sometimes produces an illness: proverbial c.p.: late C. 16–17. This place, near a brook used for watering horses, stood near London, and on the Canterbury road, and, as it was the Surrey execution-ground until the C.17, the name is often employed allusively in C.16–mid-17, as in Jonson, 1630, 'He may perhaps take a degree at Tyburn..., come to read a lecture|Upon Aquinas at St Thomas à Waterings,|And so go forth a laureat in hemp circle.'

waterloo (or W.)

. A halfpenny: London: ca 1830–75. Ex the former toll (a halfpenny) paid to cross Waterloo Bridge.

Waterloo day

. Pay-day: military: from ca 1870; ob. cf. BALACLAVA DAY.

waterman; (not in 2) watersman

. A blue silk handkerchief: c. or low (–1839); very ob. Because worn (light or dark) by friends of Cambridge and Oxford at the time of the boat-race. 2. An artist in water-colours: 1888: s.

waters

. Paintings in water-colour: coll: 1909, Daily Chronicle, 4 June.

waters, watch one's

. 'To keep a strict watch on any one's actions', Grose, 3rd ed.: coll: late C.18–early 19.
Ex urinospec-tion.

water's man, watersman

, see WATERMAN, 1.

water's wet, the

. A jocular c.p., addressed to someone trying the temperature of the water with his toes:
late C.19–20.

waterworks

. The urinary organs: low: mid-C.19–20; ob.

waterworks, turn on the

. To weep: coll: mid-C.19–20. Ex jocular S.E. waterworks, tears. cf.:

watery-headed

. 'Apt to shed tears', Grose, 1st ed.: ca 1780–1890.

waun(d)s

! An illiterate form of WOUNDS!: C.17–18.

wave a flag of defiance

. To be drunk: low: ca 1870–1915.

wavy in the syls

. Imperfect in one's lines: theatrical (–1904); ob. Lit., unsteady in one's syllables.

wavy rule, make

. To be rolling-drunk: printers': from ca 1880. Ex the rule or line that waves thus:

wax

, n. A rage; esp. be in a wax: 1854, 'Cuthbert Bede', 'I used to rush out in a fearful state of wax.' ?ex wax: (s.v. WAXINESS), or, as W. suggests, 'evolved ex archaic to wax wroth'.

wax

*, v. To have one's eye on; to spy out: c.: from ca 1890. Clarence Rook, The Hooligan Nights, 1899, CRACKSMAN loquitur: 'There's a 'ouse I've 'ad waxed for about a week.'

wax, close as

. Extremely mean or secretive: 1772, Cumberland: coll >, by 1850, S.E. Because impermeable to water and perhaps because sticky.

wax, lad or man of

, see LAD O'WAX.

wax, my cock of

. A shoemakers' term of address (–1823); ob.

wax, nose of; gen. have a

, to be very impressionable: London (–1823); †by 1900.

wax (something) up

. To mess up: low Cockney: 1899, C.Rook, The Hooligan Nights, “‘Didn’t I never tell you”, he said, “how we waxed things up for that butcher...?’”

waxed, be (well)

. To be (well-)known: tailors’: from ca 1870. ‘So-and-so has been well waxed, i.e. We know all about him,’ F. & H.

waxiness; waxy

. Angriness, proneness to rage; angry: resp. (–)1904 and 1853, Dickens. Although waxy is recorded earlier than wax, the latter may have arisen the earlier; yet, semantically, the transition from lit. waxy to fig. waxy is not difficult: cf. STICKY, adj. 2. waxy is also a nickname for a cobbler: 1851, Mayhew. Ex his frequent use of wax. 3. Short for:

waxy-homey

. An actor who blacks up with burnt cork; a ‘nigger-minstrel’: theatrical: from ca 1880. The (cf. OMEE) homey=a man. 2. Any minstrel: partly Parlary: late C.19–20. Perhaps because he uses wax on the instrument he plays.

’way

. Away: coll (U.S., 1866) anglicized late in C.19. Esp. in ’way back.

way, be up her

. To be in coitu with a woman: low: late C.19–20. Always in an innuendo: punning neighbourhood.

way, in a

. In a state of vexation, anxiety, distress: dial. and coll: mid-C.19–20.

way, in a kind or sort of . A modifying tag: coll: mid-C.19–20.

way, in the (e.g. fish)

. Engaged in (e.g. the fish-trade): lower classes' coll: late C.19–20; slightly ob. 'He's in the grocery way.' Now, way is gen. replaced by line.

way, pretty Fanny's

, see PRETTY FANNY'S WAY.

way, that; gen. a little, or rather, that way

. 'Approximating to that condition': coll: mid-C.17–20. Dickens, 1837, "I'm afraid you're wet." "Yes, I am a little that way." cf.:

way, the other; gen. all, quite, very much the other way

. Diverging from a stated condition: coll: mid-C.19–20. Trollope, 1858, ‘They are patterns of excellence. I am all the other way.’ cf. WAY, THAT.

way down, all the

, see ALL...

way for, be out of the

*. To be in hiding from police wishing to arrest one for (such and such an offence): c. (–1812); ob.

way of (being, doing, etc.), by

. In the habit of, giving oneself out as, having a reputation for, or making an attempt (esp. if persistent or habitual) at (being or doing something): coll: 1824, Miss Ferrier, ‘The Colonel was by way of introducing him into the fashionable circles’; 1891, Saturday Review, 18 July, concerning by way of being, ‘...And this with an implied disclaimer of precise knowledge or warranty on the speaker’s part’.

way of all flesh(, gone the)

. Dead: lower and lower middle classes’ coll (–1909). Contrast with the S.E. sense as in ‘Erewhon’ Butler’s novel.

way of life, the

. Prostitution: low London: 1818, The London Guide.

ways about it (or that), no two

. (There can be) no doubt of it: U.S. coll (1818: Thornton) anglicized ca 1840; by 1880, S.E.

ways for Sunday, look both or nine or two

, see LOOK NINE...

we uns

. We: low coll: late C.19–20. Orig. U.S.; cf. YOU UNS.

weak

. Tea: coffee-stalls' and low coffee-houses': from ca 1860.

weak brother, sister

. An unreliable person: religious s.: mid-C.19–20.

weak in the arm(, it's)

. A public-house c.p. (–1909; ob.) applied to a ‘half-pint drawn in a pint pot’. Ware.

weanie, -y, see weenie

.

weapon

. Penis; esp. among workmen: late C.19–20. It has the best of precedents: see my Shakespeare's Bawdy.

wear a head

. To be intelligent; to possess much sense: ca 1815–60. Boxiana, III, 1821.

wear a revolver-pocket

. To carry a revolver: low: ca 1880–1914.

wear-arse

. A one-horse chaise: ca 1785–1830. Ex jolting.

wear it

*. To be under ‘the stigma of having turned a nose’, Egan’s Groser: c. of ca 1820–50. Ex:

wear it upon

*. To inform against, try to best (a person): c.: ca 1810–50. It is the nose: for semantics, cf. NOSE, a spy.

wear the bands

. To be hungry: low s.: ca 1810–40.

wear the broad arrow

*. To be a convict: c. (–1909).

wear the head large

. To have a headache from alcoholic excess: lower-middle class (–1909).

wear the leek

. To be Welsh: lower and lower-middle classes’ (–1909); coll rather than s.

weary

. Drunk: proletarian: ca 1870–1920. cf. dial. weary, sickly, feeble. (Curiously enough, the Old High Ger. wuorag, drunk, is cognate with A.-S. werig.)

weasel, be bit by a barn

. To be drunk: ca 1670–1700.

weather, go up the; go down the wind

. To prosper; to fare ill, be unfortunate: coll: resp. early C.17 and C.17–20; in mid-C.19–20, dial. only. Breton, both; Pepys; Berthelson, 1754; Scott, 1827. Also, go down the weather, to become bankrupt: C.17.

weather-breeder

. A fine, bright day: nautical (–1887).

weather-peeper

. (One's) best eye; a good look-out: nautical (–1909).

weather-scupper

. ‘It is an old joke at sea’, writes Clark Russell, in 1883, ‘to advise a greenhorn to get a handspike and hold it down hard in the weather-scuppers to steady the ship’s wild motions.’ Coll; slightly ob.

weaver’s bullock

. A sprat: East-Londoners’ (–1880); ob. cf. TWO-EYED STEAK.

weaving

*. ‘A notorious card-sharpping trick, done by keeping certain cards on the knee, or between the knee and the underside of the table, and using them when required by changing them for the cards held in the hand’, H., 3rd ed.: 1803 (O.E.D.); prob. c. > gaming s.

weaving leather aprons

. An evasive c.p. reply to an inquiry as to what one has been doing lately: low (–1864). H., 3rd ed., ‘See newspaper reports of the trial for the gold robberies on the South-Western Railway.’ Similarly, to an inquiry as to one’s vocation, I’m a doll’s-eye weaver: low (–1874). Equivalent c.p. replies are making a trundle for a goose’s eye or a whim-wham to bridle a goose: low (–1864).

web-foot. (pl. web-feet.)

A dweller in the Fens: coll nickname: from ca 1760; very ob.

wedding

. The ‘emptying a necessary house’: London (—1785); †by 1850.

wedding, you have been to an Irish

. A c.p. addressed to one who has a black eye: ca 1785–1850. Grose, 2nd ed., ‘...Where black eyes are given instead of favours’.

wedge

*. Silver, whether money or plate, but mostly the latter; hence, occ., money in general: c. (–1725). Grose, 2nd ed., ‘Wedge. Silver plate, because melted by the receivers of stolen goods into wedges’. 2. the wedge, the last student in the classical tripos list: Cambridge University (–1852): coll > j. Also the wooden wedge. On †WOODEN SPOON, the last man in the mathematical tripos, †T.H. Wedgwood, who, last in the classical tripos in 1824, was to be a famous etymologist. 3. A Jew: backs. (–1859). Lit., wej.

wedge, flash the

*. To FENCE the SWAG (3), to deposit stolen goods with a receiver: c.: mid-C.19–20. See WEDGE, 1.

wedge-feeder

*. A silver spoon: c. (–1812). See WEDGE, 1. cf.:

wedge-hunter

*. A thief specializing in silver plate and watches: c.: mid-C.19–20. See WEDGE, 1.

wedge-lobb

*. A silver snuff-box: c. (–1812). See WEDGE, 1. cf.:

wedge-yack

*. A silver watch: c.: mid-C. 19–20; slightly ob. Ex WEDGE, 1.

wedges

*. Cards cut narrower at one end than at the other, for the purpose of cheating: card-sharpers' c.: from ca 1880. (J.N.Maskelyne, Sharps and Flats, 1894.)

wee-jee; wejee

. A chimney-pot: ca 1864–90. Etymology obscure; the word may be a perversion of WHEEZE, a GAG (n., 3, 4), though this origin fits only sense 3, which is perhaps the earliest. 2. Hence, a (chimney-pot) hat: late C.19–early 20: lower classes', as are senses 1 and 3. 3. Anything extremely good of its kind; esp. a clever invention: from ca 1860; ob. 4. Hence, a hand pump: N.E. Coast colliers': late C.19–20.

Wee-Wee

, see WI-WI.

wee-wee

. A urination; esp. do a wee-wee: nursery coll: late C.19–20. Perhaps ex water on PEE.

weed

. A cigar, a cheroot: coll: 1847, Albert Smith. Ex weed, tobacco. 2. A hatband: low (–1864); †by 1920. Perhaps ex the vague resemblance of its shape to that of a large cigar. 3. A leggy, ill-compacted, and otherwise inferior horse: 1845; Lever, 1859. Perhaps ex WEEDY, 1. 4. Hence, a thin, delicate, weak and soon-tiring person: 1869, A.L.Smith.

weed

*, v. To pilfer or steal part of, or a small amount from : c. (–1811); slightly ob. Hence, weed a LOB, steal small sums from a till; weed a SWAG (3), to abstract part of the spoils unknown to one's pals and before the division of that spoil. Ex weed, to remove the weeds from. Cf.:

weeding dues are concerned

*. An underworld c.p. (ca 1810–80) used when a process of 'weeding' (see WEED, v.) has been applied.

weedy

. (Of horses, dogs) lank, leggy, loose-limbed, weak and spiritless: coll: 1800, Sporting Magazine; 1854, Surtees, 'He rode a weedy chestnut.' Lit., like a weed. 2. Hence (of persons), lanky and anaemic; weakly: coll: 1852, Surtees.

week, inside of a

. From Monday to Saturday: coll: C.19–20.

week, knock into the middle of next

. To knock out (lit. or fig.) completely: pugilistic s. (1821, Moncrieff) >, by 1900, gen. coll.

week, parson's

, see PARSON'S WEEK.

week, when two Sundays come in a; also (in) the week of four Fridays

. Never: coll: C.19–20; mid-C.18–early 19. H.Brooke, 1760. cf. SUNDAYS COME TOGETHER...

week than a fortnight, rather keep you (for) a

. A c.p. formula directed at a hearty eater: since ca 1870.

week-ender

. A week-end mistress: from 1880s: coll. Ex lit. sense. 2. A week-end holiday: likewise low coll: from ca 1895. Oxford -er.

weekly-accompts

. The small square white patches on the front, to right and left, of a middy's collar: ca 1805–70.

week's (or month's) end, an attack of the . Lack of funds, according as one is paid one's wages or salary every week or every month: jocular coll: ca 1890–1915.

weenie, weeny; weany (rare) and weny

(C. 18 dial. only). Tiny: dial. (–1790) >, by 1830, coll. Ex wee on TEENY. 2. (Rarely other than weenie!) A telegraph clerks' warning that an inspector is coming: late C.19–20. ?ex warning.

weep and wall

. A begging tale: rhyming s., often shortened to weep: from ca 1870.

weep Irish

. To shed crocodile tears; feign sorrow: coll: late C.16–mid-18. Fuller, 1650; Mrs Centlivre. Ex the copious lamentations of the Irish at a keening.

weeper

. (Gen. pl.) A long and flowing sidewhisker, such as was ‘sported’ by ‘Lord Dundreary’ in the play Our American Cousin: coll: from ca 1860; ob. Ex Dundreary weepers (1859), later PICCADILLY WEEPERS. E.A. Sothorn played the leading part; in 1858, the piece was hardly a success; in 1859–60, it was the rage. 2. (Gen. pl.) An eye: late C.19–20. cf. PEEPER.

Weeping Cross (or weeping cross), return (home) or, more gen., come home by

. To fail badly; be grievously disappointed: from early 1560s; ob. Bullein (1564), Gosson, Lyly, playwright Heywood, Grose, Spurgeon, William Morris (1884). Ex a place-name employed allusively.

weeping willow

. A pillow: rhyming s.: mid-C.19–20.

weeze

, see WHEEZE, n. weezy, see WHEEZY.

weigh

, see WEIGHT, LET HIM...

weigh, under

. Under way: erroneous: from ca 1780. Ex weigh anchor.

weigh forty

, see WEIGHT, LET HIM...

weigh in

. To start; in imperative, go ahead!: sporting: late C.19–20. (P.G. Wodehouse, The Pothunters, 1902.) cf.:

weigh in with

. To produce (something additional), introduce (something extra or unexpected): coll: 1885, Daily News, Nov., ‘The journal “weighs in” with a prismatic Christmas number.’ Ex a jockey weighing in, being weighed after a race.

weigh out

*. To give in full (one's share): c.: late C.19–20. Ware cites the People, 6 Jan. 1895, and derives the term from 'the distribution of stolen plate melted down to avoid identification'.

weigh up

. To appraise: coll: 1894 (O.E.D.). cf. weigh, to consider.

weighing the thumb

, n. Cheating in weight by sticking down the scale with the thumb: low (–1896). Ware.

weight, let him alone till he weighs his

. A police c.p. to the effect that a criminal is not yet worth arresting, for his offences are so small that no reward attaches to them, whereas a capital crime will produce a big reward: ca 1810–40. Vaux, who notes that weigh forty (of a criminal) is to carry a £40 reward for capture.

welch, welcher, welching

. For these three terms see WELSH. welcome, and, see AND WELCOME. welcome as water in one's shoes; w. as the eighteen trumpeters, see WATER IN...

well

, v. To pocket: low (–1860); virtually †. H., 5th ed., ‘Any one of fair income and miserly habits is said to “well it”.’ Lit., to put as into a well: cf. put down South. But imm. ex: 2. c. well, to put (money) in the bank: 1845, in ‘No. 747’. Ex: 3. well=WELL, PUT IN THE: c.: from ca 1810; slightly ob. (In late C.19–20, low s.)

well

, adj. Satisfactory, very good, capital: Society coll: ca 1860–1900.

well, put (one) in the garden or the

*. To defraud (an accomplice) of part of the booty forming his share: c. (–1812); ob. cf. WELL, v. A variant is put (one) in a hole. A person down a well is at a disadvantage. 2. Hence, to inconvenience or get the better of: mid-C.19–20; ob. (except... hole).

well-breeched

. Rich: s.: ca 1810–60.

well down in the pickle

. (Of a ship) heavily loaded: sailing ships’ coll: late C. 19–20. The pickle is ‘the briny’.

well firmed

. ‘Perfect in the “business” and words’: theatrical: from ca 1870.

well fucked and far from home

, see BARNEY’S BULL.

well-hung

. (Of a man) large of genitals: low (–1823); ob.

well in

. An Australian variant of well off, well to do: 1891, ‘Rolf Boldrewood’: coll.

well put-on

. (Of a male person) well turned-out; well-dressed: lower-class Glasgow coll: from ca 1890.

well-sinking

. Making money: Anglo-Indian: late C.18–20; ob. Ex excavating for treasure.

well to live, be

. To be rather drunk: coll: ca 1610–1700; then dial. Ray, 1678. Ex well to live (in the world), prosperous.

well under

. Drunk: Australian: from ca 1916. Prob. an abbr. of well under water.

‘well, well,’ quoth she, ‘many wells, many buckets.’

A proverb-c.p. of C.16 (Heywood, 1546).

welly

. Almost: C.17–20: coll till C.18, then dial. Ex well nigh.

welsh, welsher, welshing

; in C.19, often -ch-. To swindle (one) out of the money one has laid as a bet (orig. and properly at a race-course); he who does this; the doing; racing s. >, ca 1880, coll >, ca 1900, S.E.: resp. 1857, 1860, 1857. Perhaps ex the old nursery-rhyme, Taffy was a Welshman, Taffy was a thief: W.; my Words!

Welsh bait

. A foodless, drinkless rest given a horse at the top of a hill: coll: C. 17–20; very ob. T.Powell, 1603. Ex bait, food. For pejorative Welsh, see Words! at ‘Offensive Nationality’.

Welsh Camp

. The late C.17–early 18 nickname for a field between Lamb’s Conduit and Gray’s Inn Lane, where, late in C.17, ‘the Mob got together in great numbers, doing great mischief,’ B.E.

Welsh comb

. The thumb and four fingers: coll or s.: ca 1785–1840. Contrast JEW’S HARP.

Welsh cricket

. A louse: late C.16–early 17. Greene. 2. A tailor: ?C.17. Prob. via PRICK-LOUSE (a tailor).

Welsh ejectment

. By unroofing the tenant’s house: ca 1810–50.

Welsh fiddle

. The itch: late C.17–early 19. Also SCOTCH FIDDLE. cf. the synonymous dial. Welshman’s hug.

Welsh goat

. A Welshman: nickname: mid-C.18–mid-19. Lord Hailes, 1770.

Welsh mile, long and narrow,—like a

. Either thus or as like...mile, applied to anything so shaped: coll: ca 1785–1850. Ex Welsh mile, a mile unconscionably long: cf. the equally S.E. Welsh acre.

Welsh parsley

. Hemp; a halter: coll or s.: ca 1620–50. Fletcher.

Welsh rabbit

. This dish, incorrectly spelt W. rarebit (Grose, 1785), is recorded by that eccentric poet John Byron in 1725: orig. coll, it had, by 1820, > S.E. Even in C.18 (see Grose) the Welsh were reputed to be fervid cheese-fanciers. For semantics, cf. BOMBAY DUCK.

Welshman's hose, turn (something) like a; make a W. h. of; make like a W. h

. To suit the meaning of (a word, etc.) to one's purpose: coll: ca 1520–1600. Skelton.

welsher

, see WELSH.

Welshie, -hy

, Nickname for a Welsh person: coll: C.19–20. Ex adj.

welt

*. Only in B.E.'s 'rum-boozing-Welts, bunches of Grapes': late C.17–18 c. The phrase, lit.,=excellent drinking bunches (or, perhaps, grape-bunches). 2. A blow: coll: late C.19–20. Ex the S.E. welt, to flog.

welter

. Anything unusually big or heavy of its kind: dial. (–1865) >, by ca 1890, coll. Kipling, 1899, 'He gave us eight cuts apiece—welters—for takin' unheard-of liberties with a new master.' Ex welt, to thrash.

wench

, from Old English wencel, a child, is facetious and university-witted where once it was serious but used only in addressing an inferior (as in Shakespeare's The Tempest, 'Well demanded, wench') and where, orig., it means simply a girl: the facetious usage is coll, whereas the other two are S.E. A similar degradation of words is seen in damsel and the French maîtresse, amie, and fille.

were you born in a barn

? A c.p., addressed to one who leaves a door open: mostly in Britain and in Canada, yet hardly rare in Australia and New Zealand: mid-C.19–20, and probably much earlier.

wesket, weskit

. A waistcoat: coll bordering on sol.: C.19 (?earlier)–20.

west, go

, see GO WEST.

west-central or West Central

. A watercloset: London (–1860); ob. Ex W.C., the London district, and w.-c., a water-closet.

Westminster Abbey

(often merely Westminster). Shabby: rhyming s.: from ca 1880.

Westminster brougham

, see WHITECHAPEL BROUGHAM.

Westminster wedding

. ‘A Whore and a Rogue Married together’, B.E.: low London: late C.17–early 19. Prob. ex the late C.16–early 19 proverb, Who goes to Westminster for a wife, to Paul’s for a man, or to Smithfield for a horse, may meet with a whore, a knave and a jade (Apperson).

Westo

. A Devon or Cornish ship or seaman: nautical coll: late C.19–20. Ex West Country.

Westphalia

. The backside: trade (–1890); ob. Ex Westphalia hams.

westward for smelts

, see SMELTS.

wet; OCC. whet

(Ned Ward). Liquor: late C.17–20. Ex HEAVY WET, or next sense. 2. A drink: coll: 1703, Steele; 1879, Brunlees Patterson, Life in the Ranks, ‘Many are the...devices...to obtain a wet or reviver, first thing in the morning’. 3. A dull, stupid, futile or incompetent person: from late C.19–20: Public Schools’. See the adj., 7.

wet

, v.t. See WET THE OTHER EYE and WHISTLE. 2. v.i., drink a glass of liquor: coll: ca 1780–1910.

wet

, adj. Showing the influence, or characteristic, of drink; connected with liquor: coll: 1592, Nashe; 1805, wet bargain; 1848 Thackeray, ‘A wet night’, a frequent phrase. O.E.D.; F. & H., where also wet goods, liquor, and WET HAND or wet ’un, a toper—both of late C.19–20. 2. Hence, having drunk liquor; somewhat intoxicated: coll: 1704, Prior; 1834, Coleridge, ‘Some men are like musical glasses;—to produce their finest tones, you must keep them wet.’ Perhaps ex: 3. Prone to drink too much: coll: from 1690s. cf. the n., 2. 4. (Of a Quaker) not very strict: 1700, T.Brown. Hence, of other denominations: likewise coll: from ca 1830; ob. Perhaps suggested by Grose’s (2nd ed.) wet parson, a parson given to liquor; indeed, this sense links with sense 3, for B.E. has ‘Wet-Quaker, a Drunkard of that Sect’. See WET QUAKER. 5. ‘Of women when secreting letch-water’: low coll: mid-C.18 (?earlier)–20. ‘Burlesque Homer’ Bridges, addressing cheap or inferior harlots, ‘Or else in midnight cellars ply|For twopence wet and twopence dry’. cf. WET BOTTOM. 6. See WET ’UN. 7. SOFT silly, dull, stupid, DUD: late C.19–20: Public Schools’. Perhaps ex sense 2; perhaps ex WET GOOSE. (Rarely of things, occ. of occasions.)

wet, heavy

, see HEAVY WET.

wet, twopenny

. A drink costing twopence: C.19–early 20. See WET, n., 2.

wet all her self, to have

. Of a Grand Banks fishing schooner ‘when she has filled up with fish, used all the salt... brought out, and turns for home’: fishermen’s coll: late C.19–20. Bowen.

wet arse and no fish, a

. A fruitless quest or errand: coll: late C.19–20.

wet as a shag

, see SHAG, WET AS A.

wet bob

, see BOB.

wet bottom, get a; do a wet ’un; do, have or perform a bottom-wetter

. (Of women) to have sexual intercourse: low coll, s., s.: C.19–20. cf.:

wet dream

. An amorous dream accompanied by sexual emission: coll: C.19–20—and prob. from at least a century earlier. 2. Hence, a dull, stupid person: Public Schools’: late C.19–20.

wet goose

. A poor simple fellow: rural: mid-C.19–20. cf. WET, adj., 6.

wet hand

. A drunkard: coll (–1904). See WET, adj., 1.

wet ha’porth

. A person entirely insignificant or physically weedy: North Country: late C.19–20.

wet one

. A loose breaking of wind: proletarian: late C.19–20.

wet one’s commission

. Celebrate one’s promotion alcoholically. Naval coll: from ca 1700. Shadwell, The Fair Quaker of Deal, 1710.

wet one's mouth, weasand, or, gen., whistle

, see WHISTLE, n.

wet Quaker

. 'A man who pretends to be religious, and is a dram drinker on the sly', H., 2nd ed.: ca 1860–1910. Ex WET, adj., 3, 4.

wet the baby's head

. To celebrate a child's birth: since ca 1870.

wet the (or one's) neck

. To be a drunkard: low: ca 1820–50. 2. To take a drink of liquor: Boxiana IV, 1824.

wet the other (1745) or t'other (1840) eye

. To take one glass of liquor after another: s. >, by 1850, coll; ob.

wet-thee-through

. Gin: low: ca 1820–60.

wet trance, in a

. Bemused; abstracted: low: late C.19–20. Ex WET DREAM.

wet triangle, the

. The North Sea: political coll: from ca 1905; ob.

wet 'un

. See WET, adj., 1, and WET BOTTOM. 2. A diseased beast: slaughterers' (–1864). cf. WET, adj., 6, and WET GOOSE. 2. (Gen. pl.) A tear (lacrima): low: from ca 1870; ob.

Wetherall (or -ell) in command, General

. A military c.p. applied to inclement weather's preventing a parade: from ca 1880; extremely ob.

wetter

. A wetting, soaking, by rain: coll: 1884.

Wewi

, see WI-WI.

whack; in C.19, occ. wack

. A heavy, smart, resounding blow: from 1730s: dial. >, ca 1830, coll. Barham, Mayhew. Prob. echoic. 2. Hence, its sound: coll: mid-C. 19–20. Thackeray. 3. A (full) share: c. (–1785) >, by 1800, s. >, by 1880, coll. Grose, 1st ed. Esp. in take (1830), get or have one's whack, and in go whacks (–1874). ?ex the sound of the physical division of booty. 4. Hence, fig.: mid-C. 19–20. Walch, 1890, 'My word! he did more than his whack.' 5. See WHACKUP, n. 6. See WHACK AT. 7. A pickpocket: Anglo-Irish c.: C.19.

whack

, v. To strike with sharp, resounding vigour: coll and dial.: 1721, Ramsay. Also as v.i., esp. in whack away (mid-C.19–20), as in the Daily Telegraph, 21 Feb. 1886, 'The Flannigans and the Murphys paid no heed to him, but whacked away at each other with increasing vigour.' Prob. echoic; cf. the n., 1. 2. Hence, to defeat in a contest or rivalry: coll: from 1870s. 3. To bring, get, place, put, etc., esp. in a vigorous or violent manner: from C.17 'teens: dial. >, in late C.19, coll, as in Kipling, 1897, 'They whacked up a match.' Prob. ex sense 1. 4. To share or divide: c. (–1812) >, by 1860, s. >, by 1910, coll Vaux, who spells it wack; J.Greenwood, 1888, A Converted Burglar, 'The sound, old-fashioned principle of "sharing the danger and whacking the swag".' Also whack up. Ex the n., 3. 5. See WHACK IT UP.

whack

! An interjection politely='You lie!': printers': from ca 1870. Ex WHACKER.

whack

, adv. With a 'whack' (n., 1): coll: 1812, H. and J. Smith. cf.:

whack at, have or take a

. To attempt; to attack: coll: U.S (1891) >, before 1904, anglicized. Perhaps ex tree-felling.

whack it up

, v.i. To coït: low: mid-C.19–20; ?ob. cf. WHACK, v., 1, 3, 4.

whack-up

. A division of accounts: coll: 1885. Elaborating WHACK, n., 3.

whack up

, v. See WHACK v., 3 and 4: coll: from ca 1880. 2. See WHACK IT UP.

whacked; whacked to the wide

(sc. world). Utterly exhausted: late C.19–20. Ex WHACK, v., 1.

whacker

. Anything unusually large; esp. a THUMPING lie (cf. WHOPPER): coll and dial. (–1825). Sporting Times, in 1828, describes certain fences as whackers, as T. Hughes does caught fish in 1861. Ex WHACK, v., 1.

whacking

. A thrashing: coll (–1859). Ex WHACK, v., 1. 2. Hence, a defeat in a contest: coll: late C.19–20. 3. A division or sharing: from ca 1850: (low) s. >, by 1900, coll. Ex WHACK, v., 4.

whacking

, adj. Unusually big, large, fine, or strong: coll: 1806, Davis, The Post-Captain. Often whacking great, occ. w. big. Ex WHACK, v., 1; cf. WHACKER.

whacks, go

, see WHACK, n., 3.

whacky

. A person acting ridiculously or fooling about: tailors': from the 1880s. Ex Yorkshire dial. whacky, a dolt.

whale

. A codfish: Cheltenham College: late C.19–20. Because a large fish. 2. A sardine: Royal Military Academy: from ca 1870. Because so small. 3. (Always in pl.) Anchovies on toast: rather proletarian: from ca 1880. cf. sense 2.

whale, go ahead like a

. To forge ahead; act, speak, write vigorously: coll: from 1890s. Ex the majesty of a whale's movements.

whale, old

, see OLD WHALE.

whale!, very like a

. A c.p. applied to an improbability, esp. a preposterous assertion: from 1850s; ob. H., 1st ed.; in 2nd ed., very like a whale in a tea-cup. Ex Polonius's phrase when, in III, ii, 392–8, he is doing his best to approve Hamlet's similes.

whale on..., a

. Greatly liking, having a great capacity for, expert at: coll: 1893, Justin McCarthy, 'He was not...a whale on geography'; rather ob. Ex the whale's large size. Also, occ., whale at and for.

whaler

. A SUNDOWNER: Australian coll: ca 1890–1910. Sydney Morning Herald, 8 Aug. 1893, 'The nomad, the whaler, it is who will find the new order hostile to his vested interest of doing nothing.' (He didn't.) Ex his cruising about. He who travels up and down the banks of the Murrumbidgee River is a Murrumbidgee whaler, which some authorities consider to be the ironic original.

whales

, see WHALE, 3.

whang

. A ‘whanging’ sound or blow: dial. (–1824) and, from ca 1860, coll. Ex:

whang

, v.t. To strike heavily and resoundingly: coll: C.19–20. Ex dial. (C.17–20). Echoic. 2. v.i. (of, e.g., a drum), to sound (as) under a blow: coll: 1875, Kinglake.

Whanger; Cod-Whanger

. (Also in lower case.) A Newfoundland fish-curer: nautical: from ca 1810 or earlier. Precisely why?

whank; loosely wank

. v.i., to masturbate: low: late C.19–20. Also whank off.

whanker (loosely wanker)

. A masturbator: low: late C.19–20. Ex WHANK.

whap, whapper

, see WHOP; WHOPPER.

wharf-rat

. A thief prowling about wharves: mid-C.19–20. Perhaps orig. U.S.

what! (more precisely what?!); occ. eh what

! A questioning interjection or expletive, gen. at the end of a phrase or sentence: coll: 1785, Mme D'Arblay, '[George III] said, "What? what?"—meaning... "it is not possible. Do you think it is ?—what?"'; not very gen. before mid-C.19. 2. Abbr. WHAT CHEER: Cockney: from ca 1880.

what, but

. But that; that...not: coll: from ca 1560. Googe, 1563 (see quotation at WHAT'S WHAT); Arthur Murphy, 1753, 'There hardly arose an Incident, but what our Fellow-Traveller would repeat twenty or thirty Verses in a Breath.' Almost always with actual or implied negative; in late C.19–20, mostly not but what. 2. Except what; which (occ. who)...not: as in Charlotte Smith's 'Not one of these insinuations but what gathered something from malevolence', 1796.

what!, I('ll) tell you

, as prefacing a proposal, is coll: mid-C.19–20. 'I'll tell you what, we'll row down,' 1872. Ex the same phrase as=let me tell you!

what?, or

, used as a final, yet wholly indefinite, alternative in a disjunctive question: mid-C.19–20; mostly, and in conversation nearly always, coll. Edward FitzGerald, in a letter, 1842, ‘Have you supposed me dead or what?’

what a life

! A c.p. expressive of disgust: late C.19–20.

what a tail our cat’s got

! A lower classes’ c.p. directed at a girl (or woman) flaunt-ing in a new dress, the rear skirt of which she swings haughtily: mid-C.19–20; ob.

what about a (small) spot?; what is it?; what’ll you have

? see HOW WILL YOU HAVE IT?

what all, ...and I don’t know

. And various others unknown or unmentioned; in addition, all sorts of things: coll: mid-C. 19–20. Dickens, 1859, ‘There’s...and... and I dunno what all.’ cf. WHO ALL.

what-call; what-call-ye-him

. A variant (resp. early C.17, late C.15–early 17) of the em part of WHAT-D'YE-CALL-'EM (etc.).

what cheer

! A coll greeting: C.18–20: lower classes'. James Isham, Observations and Notes, 1743.

what cheese

. An occ. variant (ca 1890–1910) of HARD CHEESE.

what did Gladstone say in (e.g.) 1885

? A political hecklers' c.p. of late C.19–20. For the most part, merely obstructive.

what do you think

? 'What is your general opinion of things?': a middle-class c.p. introduced in 1882 by a comic singer. 2. See THINK, WHAT DO YOU?

what do you want? -I am on it

. A military c.p. reproach to a constant grumbler: late C.19–20.

what-d'ye-call-'em (occ. um), her, him, it

; less frequently what-do-you-call-'em, etc. A phrase connoting some thing or person forgotten, considered trivial or not to be named, or unknown by name: coll: C.17–20. Shakespeare, As You Like It, 'Good even, good Master What-ye-call't; how do you, sir'—a late C.16–17 variant; Ned Ward; Smollett; Dibdin; Dickens; etc., etc. The Shakespearian form has an alternative in -you- and a mid-C.19–20 variant: what-you-may-call-it (Dickens, 1848). cf. Cotton's satirical 'Where once your what shal's cal'ums—rot um! It makes me mad I have forgot um.'

what (e.g., do you do that) for?; what for

(by itself)? Why: coll: mid-C.19–20.

what for, give one

. To punish or hurt severely: from ca 1870. Du Maurier, 1894, 'Svengali got "what for".' Ex what for?, why: 'to respond to [one's] remonstrant what for? by further assault', W. 2. Hence, to reprimand, reprove severely: from 1890s.

what ho

! As greeting or expletive, it is (orig. low) coll: mid-C.19–20. Ballantyne, 1864, 'What ho! Coleman...have you actually acquired the art of sleeping on a donkey?'; 1898, 'Pomes' Marshall, 'Where 'e let me in for drinks all round, and as I'd but a bob, I thought, "What ho! 'ow am I a-going on?"' (cf. the semi-coll WHAT CHEER!) Orig., a S.E. formula to attract a person's attention.

what ho! she bumps

. A satirical c.p. applied to ‘any display of vigour—especially feminine’: London (1899). Ware derives it from ‘a boating adventure.... A popular song made this term more popular.’

what is there in it for me

? What do I get out of it?: c.p.: late C.19–20.

what next, and next

? A c.p. contemptuous of audacious assertion: ca 1820–1905.

what-o(h)

. A variant of WHAT HO!

what Paddy gave the drum

. A sound thrashing: orig. (ca 1845), Irish military >, ca 1900, gen.; ob.

what price...

? see PRICE, WHAT.

what say

? What do you think?; what do you say to the idea, plan, what not?: Cockney c.p.: from ca 1880. W.Pett Ridge, Minor Diahgues, 1895; Edwin Pugh, Harry the Cockney, 1912.

what the Connaught men shot at

. Nothing: Anglo-Irish (–1883).

what the fucking hell

! A very common lower-class expletive: mid-C.19–20.

what will you liq

? What will you drink: middle-class c.p. of ca 1905–15. Ware. Ex liquor; punning LICK.

what-ye-call-it; what-you-may-call-it

, see WHAT-D’YE-CALL-’EM.

what you can’t carry you must drag

! A nautical c.p. applied to clipper ships canying too much canvas: late C.19–20; ob.

whatcher

! A nautical variation of (S.E.) WHAT CHEER!

what's-his-name, -her-, -its-, -your-; whatse-name

. Resp. for a man (or boy; loosely, thing), woman (or girl), thing, person addressed, or ambiguously for any of the first three of these, with name unknown, forgotten, to-be-avoided, or hardly worth mentioning: coll: resp. late C.17–20 (Dryden), C.19–20 (Scott), from 1830s (Dickens), mid-C.18–20 (Foote), and mid-C.19–20 (Reade); app. Manyat, in 1829, is the first to apply what's-his-name to a thing; what's-their-names (G.A.Stevens) is rare. cf. WHAT-D'YE-CALL-'EM.

what's-o'clock, know

, see O'CLOCK.

what's-o-names

. An exceedingly illiterate form (–1887) of WHAT'S-HIS-NAME.

what's the dynamite?; what's the lyddite?

What's the ROW?: Society: resp. 1890–9 and 1899–1900. The former ex dynamiters' activities in the 1880s, the latter ex the Boer War.

what's the mat

? What's the matter?: Public Schools': from ca 1880; ob.

what's the odds

? What difference does it make?: coll: late C.19–20.

what's the time

? A juvenile c.p., dating from the 1880s and directed, from cover, at a man whose feet are wide-spread as he walks. The posture is variously described as ten to two (o'clock), (a) quarter to three and (a) quarter to one.

what's this blown in

? Whom have we here?: contemptuous c.p. from ca 1905.

what's what

; orig. and gen. preceded by know, tell w. w. belonging to C.17–20, understand w. w. to C.18–20, and guess, show and perceive w. w. to C.19–20. 'To have [etc.] knowledge, taste, judgment, or experience; to be wide-awake..., equal to any emergency, FLY' F. & H.: coll: C.15–20. e.g. Barnaby Googe, 1563, 'Our wits be not so base,|But what we know as well as you|What's what in every case.' See also O'CLOCK and TIME OF DAY.

what's yer fighting weight; ...Gladstone weight

? I'm your man if you want to fight!: Cockney: ca 1883–1914; 1885–6 (ex politics).

what's-yer-name

. An illiterate form (–1887) of WHAT'S-HIS-NAME. cf. WHAT'S-O-NAMES.

what's your poll today

? How much have you earned today?: printers': from ca 1870. Ware, 'From numbers on a statement of wages'.

what's yours

? see HOW WILL YOU HAVE IT?

whatsename, whatsiname; OCC. whatsername

. Slurred WHAT'S-HIS-NAME (etc.).

whatsomever

. Whatever, whatsoever (adj.): C.15–20: S.E. until C.19, then dial. and increasingly illiterate coll.

whatty; OCC. whaty

. A ‘what-did-you-say’: low: late C.18–mid-19. Ware derives it from an anecdote about George III, whose English was not perfect.

wheadle; wheedle

. As a wheedler, prob. S.E. from the beginning, but as a sharper it is prob. c.: ca 1670–1830, but ob. by 1720. Wycherley, 1673; B.E. Whence, cut a wheadle (wheedle), ‘to Decoy, by Fawning and Insinuation’, B.E.: c. of ca 1690–1830. Ex:

wheadle, whed(d)le (C.17), wheedle

, v. In its usual senses, it may, orig., have been s., ex Ger. wedeln. Blount records it in 1661. 2. WHIDDLE in its c. sense, of which it is a variant: c. of ca 1700–20.

wheedle the tire off a cart- (or cart’s) wheel, can or be able to

. To be extremely persuasive: non-aristocratic coll (–1887).

wheel

- . A 5-shilling piece: C.19. Extant in New Zealand, however, for the sum of five shillings.
2. A dollar: late C.18–early 19. Tufts. Both, however, mainly as CARTWHEEL.

wheel

- , v. To bicycle: coll: 1884. cf. WHEELER. 2. (Of the police) to convey (a DRUNK, 2) in a cab to the police station: low (–1909).

wheel, grease the

- . To coit: low: mid-C.19–20; ob.

wheel, keep a cart on the

- . To keep an affair alive: semi-proverbial coll (–1887); ob. In Yorkshire dial. it is keep cart on wheels.

wheel-band in the nick

- . ‘Regular Drinking over the left Thumb’, B.E.: drinking: late C.17–early 19. Contrast and cf. SUPERNACULUM.

wheel 'em up

. To bowl: cricket coll: late C.19–20. cf. TRUNDLE.

wheel-man or -woman

; or as one word. A cyclist: coll: 1874 (-man); ob. Also, for the former, KNIGHT OF THE wheel; very ob. coll. cf. WHEELER.

wheel-of-life

*. The treadmill: prison c.: ca 1870–1910. cf. EVERLASTING STAIRCASE.

wheelbarrow

. A bullock waggon laden with supplies for convicts working in the bush or country: Australian: ca 1820–70.

wheelbarrow, as drunk as a

. Exceedingly drunk: coll: ca 1670–1750. Cotton, 1675, where he gives the occ. variant...as a drum (not, as F. & H. has it, as...the drum of a w.) wheelbarrow, go to heaven in a

. To go to hell: coll: ca 1615–90. T.Adams, 1618. ‘In the painted glass at Fairford, Gloucestershire, the devil is represented as wheeling off a scolding wife in a barrow,’ F. & H.

wheelbarrows

is a coll synonym of TRAVELLING PIQUET: mid-C.19–20.

wheeled

, adj. or ppl. Conveyed in a cab: lower classes’: late C.19–early 20.

wheeler

. A cyclist: coll (–1887).

wheeling

, n., see WHEEL, v. wheelman, see WHEEL-MAN.

wheels, grease the

. To advance money for a particular purpose: coll. 1809, Malkin. Thus ensuring easier running.

wheeze

. A theatrical GAG (4), esp. if frequently repeated: circus and theatrical s.: from early 1860s. Ex the act of wheezing; perhaps because clowns often affect a wheezy enunciation. In Lancashire dial., as early as 1873 is the sense, ‘an amusing saying; a humorous anecdote’. 2. Hence, a catch phrase, esp. if often repeated; an ‘antiquated fabrication’ (W.): 1890, Spectator, 17 May. 3. Hence, a frequently employed trick or DODGE: from ca 1895. Like sense 2, s.

wheeze

*, v. To give information, to peach: c. (–1904). cf. n.

wheeze, crack a

. ‘To originate (or adapt) a smart saying at a “psychological” moment’, F. & H.: from ca 1895; rather ob. See WHEEZE, n., 2.

wheezer

. A phonograph: music-halls’: 1897–8.

whelk

. The female pudend: proletarian Cockney: from ca 1860. Anatomical. Whence the innuendo-c.p., comically threatening, I’ll have your whelk: 1870s. 2. A sluggish fellow: Cockney: late C.19–20. cf. Fr. mollusque.

whelp

. To be delivered of a child: low coll: late C.19–20; ob. cf. PUP (v.), which is far from being ob.

when

. Lo!; see now!; then, mark you!: coll (–1887). Baumann, ‘When up comes a chap with a basket on his shoulder’.

when!, say

. Orig. a c.p. with ‘dovetail’ Bob! (or bob!). Modern Society, 6 June 1889, “‘Say when,’ said Bonko...commencing to pour out the spirit into my glass. ‘Bob!’ replied I.”

when Adam was an oakum-boy in Chatham Dockyard

. Indefinitely long ago: ca 1860–1900.

when hens make holy-water

. Never: coll c.p.: C.17. See the quotation at NEVERMASS.

where are you (a-)going to (- can't yer)?

! Stop pushing!: low London: from ca 1880.

where did you get that hat

? see HAT?, WHERE DID YOU GET THAT.

where did you get the Rossa

? i.e. the borrowed plumes: 1885 only. Ex a New York police trial.

where Maggie wore the beads

, see MAGGIE...

where the chicken got the axe

, see CHICKEN...

where the monkey shoves (occ. puts) its nuts!, you can shove (occ. put) it or them

. A c.p. retort to one who refuses to give a share or hand over something; low: late C.19–20. cf. STICK IT, 2, and:

where the sergeant put the pudding!, put it

. ‘You know what you can do with it’: low c.p.: late C.19–20.

whereas, follow a

. To become a bankrupt: commercial and legal: late C.18–mid-19. Grose, 2nd ed., where also the synonymous march in the rear of a whereas.

where’s the war

? A c.p. directed at a street wrangle: London streets’: 1900–1901. Ex scattered fighting in Boer War.

wherewith; wherewithal

. The NECESSARY (2), esp. money: resp. rare coll and dial.; coll, as first in Malkin, 1809, ‘How the devil does she mean that I should get the wherewithal?... Does she take me for ...treasurer to a charity?’

wherret

. A blow: s.: 1703, Ned Ward.

wherry-go-nimble

. Diarrhoea: lower class (–1904). If wherry is not a corruption of JERRY (-GO-NIMBLE), it is probably a Cockneyism for ‘very’.

whet

, see WET, n. whet one’s whistle, see WHISTLE, n.

Whetstone(s) Park deer or mutton

. A ‘Whetstone whore’: London fast life: ca 1670–1700. Ex Whetstones Park, ‘a Lane betwixt Holborn and Lincolns-Inn-fields, fam’d for a Nest of Wenches, now depark’d’, B.E.: the district was notorious at least as early as 1668. See esp. Grose, P.

whetting-corn(e)

. The female pudend: ?C. 17–mid-19. Lit., grindstone.

whew, the

. Sir H.Maxwell, in Notes and Queries, 10 Dec. 1901, says that in C.15 the influenza was app. known as ‘the Whew’ just as, in C.20, it is known as ‘the Flue’. (Mainly Scots) coll and gen. spelt Quhew.

whiblin

. This C.17 word (unrecorded later than 1652) is explained by F. & H. as a eunuch and, in c., a sword; by the O.E.D. as perhaps THINGUMBOB. Perhaps ex whibble+quiblin.

whid; whidd(e)

*. A word: c. (–1567); slightly ob. See phrases. Either ex A.-S. cwide, speech, as the O.E.D. suggests, or a perversion of word. 2. In pl, speech: c.: contemporaneous with 1. See phrases. 3. In singular, speech: c. (–1823) >, by 1860, low. Bee, ““Hold your whid,” is to stow magging’. 4. ‘A word too much’, H., 3rd ed.: mid-C.19–20; ob.: s.; closely linked with dial. whid, a lie, an exaggerated story. 5. Hence, in c. verging on low s., talk, PATTER, jocular speech, jest: likewise only in pl. Hindley, 1876, The Life of a Cheap Jack, ‘The whids we used to crack over them.’ 6. A broken-winded horse: horse-copers’c.: mid-C.19–20. ‘No. 747’. i.e. a ROARER.

whid

*, v.i. To talk cant: Scots c. (–1823). Ex n., 1, 2.

whid, crack a

*, see CRACK A WHID.

whid, cut the

* (Ainsworth); cut whids. To talk, speak: c.: resp. C.19 (rare) and mid-C.16–20. Mostly implied, as to cut whids, in cut bene WHIDS and c. queer w.

whidd, whidde

, see WHID, n. and v.

whiddle

*; in C.18, occ. wheadle (wheedle), q.v. at v., 2, and whidel, whidle, and widdle; see also whittle. v.i. and v.t. To tell; to peach, to impeach: from the Restoration; ob. The O.E.D. records it at 1661; not gen., I think, before the 1680s or 90s. Perhaps ex WHID, n., 1, 2. 2. Hence, to enter into a parley, esp. if nefarious: c. (–1725). 3. Hence, to ‘hesitate with many words’, H., 1st ed.: mid-C.19–20; ob. Either c. or low s.: cf. WHID, n., 3. 4. See OLIVER.

whiddle beef

*. To cry ‘thief!’: c.: late C. 17–mid-19. cf. cry BEEF.

whiddler

*. An informer to the police; a blabber of the gang’s secrets: c.: late C.17–20; ob. Ex WHIDDLE, v., 1.

whids, cut

*. See WHID, CUT THE. Mostly in cut bene (or bien) whids, to speak fairly, kindly or courteously, and cut queer whids, to speak roughly or discourteously, or to use blasphemous or obscene language: c.: resp. (?only) C.19 and rare (1821, Scott; 1861, Reade, ‘Thou cuttest whids’); and, both BENE and QUEER, mid-C.16–mid-19. See WHID, n., 1 and 2.

whiff

, v.i. To smell unpleasantly: 1899, Kipling. Ex corresponding n.

whiffing

, vbl n. Catching a mackerel with hooked line and a bright object: nautical: C.19. Perhaps ex whiff, a flat-fish, etc.

whifflegig

. Trifling: coll: 1830, H.Lee, ‘Whiffle-gig word-snappers’. Presumably ex (mainly dial.) whiffle, to talk idly. cf. WHIFFMAGIC.

whiffler

. One who examines candidates for degrees: Oxford and Cambridge: ca 1785–1830. Ex the official sense.

whiffles

. ‘A relaxation of the scrotum’, Grose, 1st ed.: ca 1780–1850.

whiffmagig

. A trifler; a shifty or contemptible fellow: 1871, Meredith; ob. A variant of whiffler in these senses. cf. WHIFFLEGIG.

Whig

. An irresolute person; a turncoat: middle classes': 1860–9. Ex the Whigs' temporizing at that period.

Whigland

. Scotland: ca 1680–1830. Because the 'home' of Whigs. Whence Whiglander (gen. pl), a Scotsman: same period.

while

, quite a. A considerable time: coll: C.20. Elinor Glyn, 1905.

whiles

, when not deliberately archaic and 'literary', is, in late C.19–20, considered a somewhat illiterate coll for while.

whim; whim-wham

. The female pudend: C.18; C.18–20, ob. Lit., fanciful object.

whiners

*. Prayers, esp. in CHOP the whiners, to pray: c.: C.18–20; ob. A New Canting Dict., 1725; 1830, Bulwer Lytton. Ex whine, v.: lit., therefore, words that whine. 2. Whence, speech, GAB, esp. in CHOP whiners, to talk: low: mid-C.19–20; ob. Punch, 31 Jan. 1857.

whinn

. An occ. C.19 spelling of WIN, n., 1.

whiny

. Given to whining: New Zealand coll: late C.19–20.

whip

. Money subscribed by a mess for additional wine: naval and military coll (–1864). Ex whip, now whip-round (1874), an appeal for money. 2. A compositor quick at his work: printing (–1890). cf. whip, a coachman.

whip

, v. To drink quickly; gen. whip off; occ. in late C.17–18, whip up. C.17–20; slightly ob. Deloney. 2. Gen. whip through. To pierce with a sword, esp. in whip through the lungs: late C.17–mid-19. 3. To SWINDLE (v.t.): c.: late C.19–20; ob. cf. military FLOG (3) and whip off.

whip, drink or lick on the

. To receive a thrashing: coll: C.15–16. Resp. Gascoigne and The Towneley Mysteries.

whip, old; gen. the old whip

. One's ship; nautical (–1887). Perhaps rhyming.

whip-ar-se

. A schoolmaster: coll: C.17. Cotgrave. cf. BUM-BRUSHER.

whip-belly; w.-b. vengeance

. Thin weak liquor, esp. SWIPES: C.19–20; C.18–19. Swift; Grose, 2nd ed., with variant pinchgut vengeance; Halliwell (whip-belly).

whip-cat

. Drunken: s. or coll: late C.16– early 17. See WHIP THE CAT, 1. 2. n., a tailor, as in WHIP THE CAT, 4:1851, Mayhew.

whip-handle

. An insignificant little man: Scots: C.17. Urquhart.

whip-her-jenny

, see WHIPPERGINNIE.

whip-jack

*. A beggar pretending to be a distressed, esp. a shipwrecked, sailor: c.: ca 1550–1880. Ponet, ca 1550. The semantics are not very clear. cf. TURNPIKE-SAILOR.

whip off

. See WHIP, v., 1. B.E. give whip off, to steal, as c.: but surely it is no worse than familiar S.E. cf. WHIP, v., 3.

whip-round

, see WHIP, n., 1.

whip-the-cat

. An itinerant tailor: mid-C. 19–20: Scots s. >, by 1900, coll. Ex sense 4 of:

whip the cat

. To get intoxicated: ca 1580–1820. Implied by Stonyhurst in 1582; Cotgrave, 1611; ‘Water-Poet’ Taylor, 1630; Gentleman’s Magazine, 1807. Synonymous with jerk, shoot, the CAT. 2. To play a practical joke: late C.17–early 19. 3. To be extremely mean: dial. (–1825) >, ca 1860, s.; ob. 4. To work as an itinerant tailor (hence, carpenter, etc.), by the day, at private houses: dial. (–1825) >, by 1840, s. or, rather, coll. 5. To vomit: low: mid-C.19–20. cf. 1. 6. To idle on Monday: workmen’s (–1897). cf. keep ST MONDAY. Ex: 7. To idle at any time: workmen’s (–1823); ob.

whip the devil or the old gentleman round the post

. To achieve illicitly or surreptitiously what can be accomplished honourably or openly: coll: late C.18–20; ob.

whip through; whip up

, see WHIP, v., 2 and 1 resp.

whipper-in

. The horse that, at any moment of the race, is running last: racing s. (from ca 1890). Ex hunting. F. & H., 1904, gives whipping-boy in the same sense.

whipperginnie, or whip her Ginny or whipher-ginny

. Term of abuse for a woman: late C.16–early 17. One who merits ‘whip her, Jinny!’

whipping-boy

, see WHIPPER-IN.

whippy

. In the game of hide-and-seek, the starting-out point: Australian, esp. children’s: late C.19–20. Origin?

hipster

*. ‘A sly, cunning fellow’ (B. & L.): c.: C.19–early 20. A deviation ex †S.E. hipster, a mischievous fellow.

whirligigs; whirlygigs

. Testicles: late C. 17–early 19. Ex lit. sense.

whishler

. A ring-master: circus: mid-C.19–20. ?ex whish! (a warning).

whisk

. A whipper-snapper; (often of a servant) ‘a little inconsiderable impertinent Fellow’, B.E.: ca 1625–1830. Perhaps ex whisk, a hair-like appendage.

whisker; in C.17–18, occ. wisker

. Something excessive, great, very large; esp. a notable lie: 1668, Wilkins. In mid-C.19–20, mainly dial. Ex whisk, to move briskly.

whisker, the mother of that was a

. A c.p. retort on an improbable story: ca 1850–1900. cf. the dam of that was a whisker, the mainly dial. synonym, applied, however, esp. to a big lie: see DAM OF...

whisker-bed

. The face: 1853, ‘Cuthbert Bede’, ‘His ivories rattled, his nozzle barked, his whisker-bed napped heavily.’

whisker-splitter; in C.18, occ. wisker-

. A, man given to sexual intrigue: ca 1785–1840. cf. the more gen. BEARD-SPLITTER.

whiskerando; OCC. -os

. A man heavily whiskered: jocular coll: from ca 1805; ob. Thackeray, ‘The...whiskerando of a warrior’. Ex Whiskerandos, a character in Sheridan’s comedy, The Critic, 1779. Hence whiskerandoed, (heavily) whiskered: 1838, Southey.

whiskers

. A WHISKERANDO; often loosely of any man, as in the jocular greeting, ‘Hallo, Whiskers!’: mid-C.19–20.

whiskery

. (Heavily) whiskered: coll: from ca 1860. Ex WHISKERS.

whiskey-

, see WHISKY-.

whiskin

. A pander: ca 1630–50. Brome, 1632. cf. PIMP-WHISK(IN).

whisking

. (Of persons) briskly moving; lively; smart: coll: from ca 1610; ob. by 1860. Middleton & Dekker, 1611, 'What are your whisking gallants to our husbands'; Carlyle, 1824. Ex whisk, to move briskly. 2. Great, very big; excessive: s. (–1673) >, by 1750, coll >, by 1830, dial. cf. WHISKER.

whisky bottle

. A Scotch drunkard: Scots (–1909). Ex the typically Scottish drink.

whisky-frisky

. Flighty; lightly lively: rare coll: 1782, Miss Burney. cf. WHISKING, 1.

whisky jack; C.19–20, also whiskey jack; C.18, whiskijack

; all three may be hyphenated. 'A popular name for the common grey jay of Canada': Canadian coll verging on S.E.: from ca 1770. Also whisk(e)y john, or, as for whisky jack, with capitals. The earlier is whisky john, a corruption of Red Indian wiskatjan. (In all the two-word forms, the second element may be capitalised.)

whisky-stall

. (Gen. pl.) A stall-seat at, or near, the end of a row, enabling the occupant to go out for a drink without inconvenience to himself or his neighbours: journalistic: 1883–ca 1914.

whisper

. A tip given in secret; esp. ‘give the whisper, ...to give a quick tip to any one’, H., 5th ed., where also the whisper at the post, an owner’s final instructions to his jockey: racing: from early 1870s.

whisper

, v.t. To borrow money from (a person); esp. borrow small sums: from ca 1870; ob. Ex the whisper with which such loans are usually begged.

whisper, angel’s; gen. the a. w

. The call to defaulters’ drill or extra fatigue duty; military: from 1890s. Wyndham, The Queen’s Service, 1899.

whisper, (in a) pig’s

, see PIG’S WHISPER.

whisperer

. A petty borrower: from ca 1870; ob. Ex WHISPER, v.

whispering syl-slinger

. A prompter (syl= syllable): theatrical: late C.19–20; ob. cf. WAVY IN THE SYLS.

whister-clister, -snefet, -snivet

. A cuff on the ear or the side of the head: resp. late C.18–mid-19, then dial.; C.16 (Udall); C. 16 (Palsgrave). Perhaps a reduplication of whister, that which ‘whists’ or puts to silence; even so, -clister may pun clyster, an enema, while -snefet, -snivet may be cognate with the vv. snite, snivel. Perhaps orig. dial., as the Palsgrave locus indicates; certainly dial. are the variants whister-poop (C.17–20), whistersniff (C.19–20), and whister-twister—which last (C.18–19) is certainly a punning reduplication.

whisticaster

. A variant of the preceding: The Night Watch (II, 338), 1828.

whistle

. The mouth or the throat: jocular coll: by itself, C.17–20. Ex wet (incorrectly whet: C.17–20) one’s whistle, to take a drink: late C.14–20, likewise jocular coll, Chaucer, in The Reeve’s Tale, ‘So was hir joly whistle wel y-wet’; Walton; Burns; Marryat (whet). 2. A flute: late C.19–20. 3. Penis, esp. a child’s: domestic: late C.19–20.

whistle and flute

. A suit (of clothes): rhyming s.: late C.19–20.

whistle and ride

. To work and talk: tailors' (–1890). Presumably ex a rider's whistling as he journeys.

whistle-belly vengeance

. Inferior liquor, esp. bad beer: 1861, Hughes, 'Regular whistle-belly vengeance, and no mistake'. cf. WHIP-BELLY (vengeance), which prob. suggested whistle-b. v.

whistle-drunk

. Exceedingly drunk: mid-C. 18. Fielding's whistled-d. is prob. a misprint.

whistle for

. To expect, seek, try to get, in vain; to fail to obtain, go without; have a very slight chance of obtaining: coll: 1760, C. Johnston, "'Do you not desire to be free?" "Aye!...but I may whistle for that wind long enough, before it will blow," which indicates the origin, for sailors have for centuries whistled hopefully when becalmed. 2. Hence, shall I whistle for it?, a c.p. that is 'a jocular offer of aid to one long in commencing to urinate', F. & H.: late C.19–20; ob.

whistle in the cage

, see SING OUT.

whistle off

. To go off, to depart, lightly or, esp., suddenly: coll: from the 1680s (Shadwell); ob. by 1860.

whistle psalms to the taffrail

.(Gen. as vbl n.) To give good advice unwanted and unheeded: jocular nautical: coll: late C.19–20.

whistlecup

. A drinking-cup fitted with a whistle, the last toper capable of using it receiving it as a prize: public-house coll: from ca 1880. Also, a cup that, on becoming empty, warns the tapster: id.: id.

whistled drunk

, see WHISTLE-DRUNK.

whistler

*. A bad farthing: c. of ca 1810–50. Ex the false ring it gives. 2. A ROARER or broken-winded horse: from early 1820s: coll >, by 1890, S.E. 3. An unlicensed vendor of spirits: 1821, Moncrieff; Dickens, 1837; very ob. Ex WHISTLINGSHOP. 4. A chance labourer at the docks: East Londoners': from ca 1880. Ware quotes the Referee of 29 March 1885. Ex whistling for work.

Whistler

, adj. 'Misty, dreamy, milky, softly opalescent [in] atmosphere—from ...pictures painted by [this] artist... Came to be applied to ethics, aesthetics, and even conversation, where the doctrines enunciated were foggy' (Ware): Society coll: 1880s.

whistling

, adj. to WHISTLING-SHOP.

whistling-billy (or Billy)

. A locomotive: (children's) coll: from ca 1870; ob. cf. PUFFING-BILLY.

whistling-breeches

. Corduroy trousers: unaristocratic: late C.19–20; ob. Ex the swishing sound that they are apt to make as one moves.

whistling psalms...

see WHISTLE PSALMS...

whistling-shop

. A room in the King's Bench Prison where spirits were sold secretly and illicitly: c. of ca 1785–1840. The signal indicative of 'open shop' was a whistle. 2. Hence, an unlicensed dramshop: (low) s.: 1821, Moncrieff; Dickens, who, in 1837, also has 'whistling gentleman' (see WHISTLER, 3). Very ob.

whit(t), the

. A prison: c.: ca 1670–1840. Anon., A Warening for Housekeepers, 1676, 'O then they rub us to the whitt'. Ex Whit(t) a nickname for Newgate Prison, perhaps suggested by the git of Newgate as generally pronounced. 2. (Whit) Whitsuntide: coll: late C.19–20.

white

*, n., only in large (or half-bull) white, a half-crown, and small white, a shilling: counterfeiters' c. (–1823). 2. See WHITES. 3. A white waistcoat: coll: from ca 1860. Sessions, Sept. 1871.

white

, adj. Honourable; fair dealing: U.S. s. (–1877), anglicized ca 1885. Ex the self-imputed characteristics of a white man. cf. WHITE MAN. 2. Hence as adv.: U.S. s. (–1900) anglicized ca 1905. e.g. act white, use (a person) white.

white-apron

. A harlot: coll: ca 1590–1760. Satirist Hall; Pope. Ex dress.

white-ash breeze

. The breeze caused by rowing: boating (–1904); slightly ob. F. & H., ‘Oars are gen. made of white ash.’ Imm. ex white ash, an oar: coll: mid-C.19–20.

white bottle

. A bottle of medicine coloured white: coll among female surgery-habituées: late C.19–20.

white boy

. A C.17 term of endearmentreference: coll: cf. WHITE-HEADED BOY.

White Brahmins

. Excessively exclusive persons: among Europeans in India: from ca 1880; ob. Ex an extremely exclusive religious sect. Ware. 2. Also, among the educated Indians, the English: coll: from ca 1880; ob.

white broth, spit

, see SPIT SIXPENCES.

white choker

. A white tie: lower-class: from ca 1860; slightly ob. 2. Hence, a parson: id.: from ca 1890; ob.

white eye

. Strong, inferior whisky: military (–1874); ob. Orig. U.S.; so named because ‘its potency is believed to turn the eyes round in the sockets, leaving the whites only visible’, H.

white face

. Gin (the liquor): Australian: ca 1820–80. J.W., Perils, Pastimes and Pleasures, 1849.

white feather, show the

, see FEATHER, SHOW THE WHITE.

white friar

. A speck of white (froth, scum) floating on a (dark-coloured) liquid: from 1720s: coll >, in C.19, dial. Swift, 1729.

white Geordie

. A shilling: Ayrshire: 1897, Ochiltree.

white-haired boy

is an Australian and New Zealand variant of the next entry: late C.19–20.

white-headed boy; usually my, her (etc.) w.- h. b

. Favourite; darling: 1820: coll; orig. Irish >, by 1890, fairly gen. Melmoth; Hall Caine. Ex the very fair hair of babies and young children. cf. SNOWY (2) and †S.E. white (i.e. favourite) boy and son.

white horse

. (Indicative of) cowardice: Anglo-Irish coll: C.18–20; ob. Ware, 'From the tradition that James II fled from the battle of the Boyne on a white horse'.

white-horsed in, be

. To obtain a job through influence: tailors' (–1890). Perhaps ex buying a 'boss' drinks at an inn, (a) white horse being a frequent sign, hence name, of an inn.

white jenny

. A foreign-made silver watch: s.: from the 1880s.

white lace

, see WHITE RIBBON.

white lapel

. A lieutenant: naval: ?ca 1860–1910. Ex a feature of his uniform.

white lot

*. A silver watch and chain: c.: from ca 1860. Ex white, for centuries an epithet applied to silver. cf. WHITE WOOL.

white magic

. Very beautiful fair women: Society: ca 1875–1905. Ex lit. S.E. sense. 2. The Roman Catholic ritual: Protestants' coll (–1909).

white man

. An honourable man: U.S. s. (1865), anglicized ca 1887. Nat Gould, 1898, 'There goes a "white man" if ever there was one... That beard [is] the only black thing about him.' See WHITE, adj.; cf. SAHIB.

white man's hansom woman

. A coloured mistress: West Indian: mid-C.19–20; ob. Clearly, there is a pun on hansom cab and handsome.

White Moor

. Gen. pl. A Genoese: coll nickname: C.17. Ex a very uncomplimentary proverb recorded by Howell in 1642: too rough on the Moors.

white nigger

. A term of contempt, for a white man: Sierra Leone Negroes' coll: from ca 1880. Ware quotes the Daily News of 20 June 1883. cf. the American Negroes' poor white trash.

white poodle

. A rough woolly cloth: tailors': ca 1850–80. Ex poodle's coat.

white port

. Some kind of strong liquor, prob. gin (cf. WHITE RIBBON...): ca 1750–90. Toldervy, 1756. See the quotation at SLUG, n., 1.

white prop

*. A diamond scarf-pin: c. (–1859). cf. WHITE LOT.

white rabbits! or simply rabbits

! A South of England greeting on the first day of every month: late (?mid- or even earlier) C.19–20. ‘Good luck!’

white ribbon, satin, tape, wine, wool; also w. lace

. Gin: low: resp. C.19–20; C.19–20; from ca 1720 (A New Canting Dict., 1725); 1820 (Randall’s Diary); from ca 1780 (Grose, 1st ed.); mid-C.19–20—occ. merely lace or its synonym DRIZ. H., 1st ed., describes w. satin and w. tape as women’s terms, as, also, was lace. All are ob.; in fact, white wine and w. wool did not survive beyond C.19; white satin may well endure, however, because of the trade name, White Satin Gin. See also at RIBBON (4) and TAPE.

white sergeant

. A ‘breeches-wearing’ wife, esp. and orig. as in the earliest record: Grose, 1st ed., ‘A man fetched from the tavern...by his wife, is said to be arrested by the white sergeant.’ †by 1890 or soon after. Ex the martial bearing of this hardly less formidable ‘woman in white’.

white sheep

*. A c. term dating from ca 1880. Clarence Rook, The Hooligan Nights, 1899, ‘The young man who walks out with [the servant], and takes a sympathetic interest in her employer’s affairs, rarely takes a hand in the actual [burglary]. He is known as a “black cap” or a “white sheep” and is usually looked upon as useful in his way, but a bit too soft for the hard grind of the business.’

white soup

*. Silver plate melted down to avoid identification: c. (–1887).

white-stockings day

. The days on which sailors’ women-folk presented their halfpay notes to the owners: N.E. Coast: late C.19.

white stuff

*. Articles in silver: c.: late C. 19–20. cf. RED STUFF.

white swelling, have a

. To be big with child: late C.18–mid-19. Ex the medical white swelling, a watery tumour. cf. TYMPANY.

white tape, wine, or wool

. Gin. See WHITE RIBBON.

white 'un (or un)

*. A silver watch: c. (–1874).

white wine

, see WHITE RIBBON.

white wool

*. Silver: c.: late C.17–mid-18. cf. WHITE LOT. 2. See WHITE RIBBON.

Whitechapel; w

. An upper-cut: pugilistic (–1860); ob. 2. That procedure in tossing coins in which two out of three wins: London (–1864); ob. 3. The murder of a woman: (East) London: ca 1888–90. Ex numerous woman-murders in Whitechapel in 1888. 4. A lead from a single card: card-playing coll (–1899); slightly ob. Ex WHITECHAPEL PLAY.

Whitechapel beau

. One who, as Grose (1st ed.) so neatly phrases it, ‘dresses with a needle and thread, and undresses with a knife’: ca 1780–1840. cf. the entries at WESTMINSTER, and WHITECHAPEL ONER.

Whitechapel breed

, n. and adj. (A person) ‘fat, ragged, and saucy’, Grose, 1st ed.: low: ca 1780–1850.

Whitechapel brougham; also Westminster b

. A costermonger’s donkey-barrow: low London (–1860); ob. Occ. Chapel cart. On S.E. Whitechapel cart.

Whitechapel fortune

. ‘A clean gown and a pair of pattens’: low London: 1845 in ‘Gypsy’ Carew, 1891 (i.e. ‘No. 747’). A euphemization of WHITECHAPEL PORTION.

Whitechapel oner

. ‘A leader of light and youth in the Aldgate district—chiefly in the high coster interests’; East London (–1909). Ware. cf. WHITECHAPEL BEAU.

Whitechapel play

, n. and adj. Irregular or unskilful play, orig. and gen. at cards: coll: 1755, The Connoisseur. 2. Hence, in billiards (whence, in any game), unsportsmanlike methods: mid-C.19–20.

Whitechapel portion

. ‘Two torn Smocks, and what Nature gave’: low (mostly London): late C.17–mid-19. cf. ROCHESTER or TETBURY PORTION, and TIPPERARY or WHITECHAPEL FORTUNE.

Whitechapel province

. ‘A club or brotherhood under the government of a praetor’, Grose, 3rd ed. London club life: late C.18– early 19. Punning Roman provincial government: in C.18 (e.g. in D’Urfey 1719), praetor was occ. used of a mayor.

Whitechapel shave

. ‘Whitening judiciously applied to the jaws with the palm of the hand’, Dickens, 1863, in The Uncommercial Traveller; ob. cf. WHITECHAPEL BEAU.

whitechokery

. The upper classes: lower classes’: ca 1870–1900. Ex the white CHOKER.

Whitehall, he's been to

. He looks very cheerful: military c.p. of ca 1860–1905. Ex extension of leave obtained at Whitehall.

whiter

. A white waistcoat: Harrow School. (–1904). Ex white by ‘Oxford -er’.

whites

*. Silver money: c. (–1887). Ex WHITE, n.

whitewash

. ‘A glass of sherry as a finale, after drinking port and claret’, H., 3rd ed.: from ca 1860; ob. Ex colour—and use. cf.:

whitewasher

. A glass of white wine (e.g. sherry) taken at the end of a dinner: 1881, J.Grant. Ex WHITEWASH, n.

whither-go-ye

. A wife: ca 1670–1830. Ray, 1678, has how doth your whither-go-you?, i.e. your wife. Ex this question so frequently asked by wives.

whither or no, Tom Collins

, ‘is a phrase among sailors, signifying, whether you will or not’ (W.N.Glascock, Sailors and Saints, 1829, at II, 7). A variant—perhaps rather the original—is Tom Collins, whether or no, occurring in Alfred Burton, Johnny Newcome, 1818.

whitt

, see WHIT.

whittle

*. To give information, to PEACH (v., 3); to confess at the gallows: from 1720s: c. >, by 1850, low s.; ob. Swift, 1727. A variant of WHIDDLE.

whiz, whizz

. ‘Buz, or noise, interruption of tongues’: (low) London: ca 1820–90.

whiz!, hold your

. Be quiet!; SHUT UP!: low (–1887); ob. Ex sibilant whispering.

who all, and I don’t know

. And other persons unnamed: coll: from ca 1840; rare. cf. WHAT ALL. The who all may be owing to the influence of some such phrase as and I don’t know who else at all or...what others, at all, or to a confusion of both these phrases.

who are yer (you)?—who are you

? An offensive inquiry and its truculent answer: c.pp. of London streets: from 1883.

who did yer (you) say

? A c.p. ‘levelled-at a person of evident, or self-asserting importance, and uttered by one friend to another’: London streets’: 1890s.

who pawned her sister’s ship

? A Clare Market (London) c.p. of ca 1897–9, directed offensively at a woman. Ware proposes shift corrupted.

who shot the dog

? A c.p. directed ill-naturedly at volunteers: London streets': 1860s.

who took it out of you

? A c.p. connoting a dejected or washed-out look in the addressee: low London (–1909).

who wouldn't...

see SEA?, WHO...

whoa-Ball; incorrectly whow-ball

. A milkmaid: late C.17–early 19. Prob.= whoa!+Ball, a common name for a cow, as Grose suggests. cf. WHOBALL'S CHILDREN.

whoa, bust me

! A low London exclamation of ca 1850–1910.

whoa, carry me out

! see CARRY ME OUT.

whoa, Emma

! An urban lower classes' c.p. directed at a woman 'of marked appearance or behaviour in the streets': ca 1880–1900. Ware, who gives it an anecdotal origin. 'Quotations' Benham has the form whoa, Emma! mind the paint. 2. Whence, a non-aristocratic warning to a person of either sex, to be careful: from ca 1900; ob.

whoa, Jameson

! A c.p. constituting 'an admiring warning against plucky rashness': non-aristocratic, non-cultured: 1896–7. Ex the Jameson Raid.

Whoball's children, he is none of John

. 'You cannot easily make him a fool,' Terence in English, 1598: a semi-proverbial c.p. of C.17. See WHOA-BALL.

whole boiling, shoot

, see the nn.

whole-footed

. (Of persons) unreserved, free and easy: from 1730s: s. >, ca 1760, coll >, ca 1820, dial. North, ca 1734. Ex whole-footed, 'treading with the whole foot on the ground, not lightly or on tip-toe', O.E.D.

whole hog, go the

, see GO THE WHOLE HOG.

whole pile, go the

. To put all one's money on a solitary chance: gamesters', anglicized ca 1885 ex U.S.

wholeskin brigade

. A military unit that has not yet been in action: Boer War military.

whooper-up

. A noisy, inferior singer: music-halls' and theatrical (–1909); ob. Ware.

whop; whap, C.19–20; whapp

, C.15. A bump, heavy blow, resounding impact: coll: C.15–20. H.G.Wells, 1905, '... Explained the cyclist... "I came rather a whop".' cf.:

whop

, v., C.18–20; whap, C.16, 19–20; occ. wap, wop, C.19–20. To strike heavily, thrash, belabour: coll: mid-C.16–20. Dickens, 1837, "'Ain't nobody to be whopped for takin' this here liberty, sir?" said Mr Weller.' Ex whop (spelt whapp), to cast violently, take or put suddenly. 2. Hence, to defeat (utterly); to surpass, excel greatly: coll: from the 1830s. Thackeray, ‘Where [his boys] might whop the French boys and learn all the modern languages.’

whop-straw; Johnny Whop-Straw

. A clod-hopper, a rustic: (low) coll ex dial.: C.19–20. Clare, 1821.

whopper; whapper; wopper; wapper

. Something, some animal or person, unusually large in its kind: coll: from ca 1780. Grose, 1st ed. (whapper); Marryat, 1829 (whopper); Surtees, 1854 (wopper); Walker, 1901, “‘Blime, she’s a whopper!’ says Billy.” Ex WHOP, v. 2. Hence, a THUMPING lie: (low) coll: 1791, Nairne. 3. A person who ‘whops’: (low) coll: late C.19–20.

whopping

. A severe beating, thrashing, defeat: (low) coll: C.19–20. Ex WHOP, v.

whopping

, adj., C.19–20; whapping, C.18–20; wapping, C.17–20; wopping, mid-C.19– 20. Unusually large or great: coll. 2. Rarely, ‘terribly’ false (tales, etc.), ‘terribly fine’ (persons): id.; same period. Ex WHOP, v. cf. WHOPPER.

whore

is, in mid-C.19–20, considered a vulgarity; harlot is considered preferable, but in C.20, archaic. 2. Hence, a term of opprobrium even for a man: coll: late C.19–20. Gen. pronounced hoor or hoo'-er.

whore-pipe

. The penis: low (–1791); †by 1890.

whore's bird than a canary bird, he sings more like a

. He has a strong, manly voice: c.p.: late C.18–early 19. A whore's bird is a debauchee.

whore's curse

. 'A piece of gold coin value five shillings and threepence, frequently given to women of the town by such as professed always to give gold, and who before the introduction of those pieces, always gave half a guinea', Grose, 1st ed.: (mostly London) coll: mid-C.18.

whore's get

. An indivisible phrase used mostly as a pejorative term of address: nautical (–1885); ob. Ex GET, n., 2, on whore's son.

who's robbing this coach

? Mind your own business!: Australian c.p.: since ca 1880. In humorous allusion to bushranging. Hence, 'Let me get on with the job!': a jocular Australian c.p., dating since ca 1890.

who's smoking cabbage leaves

? A c.p. to a person smoking a cigar, esp. if rank: mostly Londoners': late C.19–20. cf. CABBAGE, 4.

whow-ball

, see WHOA-BALL.

whoy-oi

! A 'cry used by coster-class upon sight of a gaily dressed girl passing near them. Also the cry of welcome amongst London costermongers' Ware, 1909. Whence HOY!

whuff

, n. and v. A or to roar or bellow (e.g. like, or like that of, a rhinoceros): coll (–1887).

Whyms

. Members of the Y.M.C.A.: clubmen's: ca 1882–1905. By telescoping of these initials.

Wi(-)Wi; OCC. Wee(-)Wee, or Wewi

; etymologizingly, Oui-Oui. Also, the singular form is often used as a pl. A Frenchman: New Zealand and hence, to some extent, Australia: 1842, R.G.Jameson; 1859, A.S.Thomson, 'The Wewis, as the French are now called'; 1881, Anon., Percy Pomo (Weewees). Ex the Frenchman's fondness for oui! oui! (and non! non!); cf. DEE-DONK.

wibble

. Bad liquor; any thin, weak beverage: (?mainly provincial) s. or coll (–1785); ob., except in the provinces.

wibble-wobble

. Unsteadily: coll (–1847). Halliwell. A 'reduplication of wobble (with vowel-variation symbolizing alternation of movement: cf. zigzag)', O.E.D. 2. Whence as v., to move unsteadily; to totter, oscillate, vibrate: from ca 1870 and likewise coll. Whence:

wibbly-wobbly

. Unsteady: coll and dial.: from mid-1870s. Ex preceding.

wibling's witch, or W.W.

The four of clubs: C.18–19. Grose, 1st ed., 'From one James Wibling, who in the reign of King James I, grew rich by private gaming, and who was commonly observed to have that card, and never to lose a game but when he had it not'.

wicher-cully

*, etc., see WITCHER.

wicked

. Very bad, HORRID, BEASTLY: coll: C.17–20. T.Taylor, 1639, 'It is too well known what a wicked number of followers he hath had'; Horace Walpole, 'They talk wicked French.' 2. Hence, expensive: not upper class: late C.19–20.

wickedly

. Very badly; horridly: coll: C. 18–20. Sterne. Ex preceding.

wicket

*. A casement: c., or perhaps merely catachrestic: mid-C.17–early 19.

wicket-keep

. A wicket-keeper: coll verging on S.E.: 1867. Abbr. wicket-keeper.

widda, widder, widdy

. A widow: dial. and low coll: C.19–20. 2. Hence, the widdy. The gallows: Scots: ?C.19. cf. WIDOW, 3: ?pun on widdy, a halter.

widdle

, see WHIDDLE. widdy, see WIDDA.

wide

. Immoral; lax: mid-C.16–20: S.E. until late C.19, then coll. 2. Alert, well-informed, shrewd: 1877, Horstey, Jottings from Jail. Abbr. WIDE-AWAKE. It verges on c.

wide, go

. To spend money freely: military: ca 1860–1905. i.e. to spread oneself.

wide at or of the bow-hand

(i.e. the left). Wide of the mark: coll: late C.16–mid-17. Shakespeare, Dekker, Webster. Ex archery.

wide-awake

. Sharp-witted; alert: s. (1833) >, ca 1860, coll. Dickens.

wido

*, n. A hooligan: Glasgow c. and low s.: late C.19–20. Prob. ex the adj.:

wido

, adj. Wide-awake, alert: low (–1859); virtually †. cf. WIDE, 2.

widow

. As title to the name: mid-C.16–20: S.E. until C.19, then mainly dial. and uncultured coll. 2. ‘Fire expiring’s call’d a widow,’ The British Apollo, 1710: C.18–20; ob. cf. S.E. widow’s fire. 3. (Always the widow.) The gallows: ?C.18–mid-19. Ex Fr. la veuve. 4. An additional hand dealt in certain card-games: late C.19–20: s. 5. A single word in the top line of a page: printers’: late C.19–20. Printers think it unsightly. 6. (the widow, the W.) Champagne: 1899, Guy Boothby, ‘A good luncheon and a glass of the Widow to wash it down’. Ware, however, states that it dates from forty years earlier. Ex Veuve Clicquot.

widow, grass

, see GRASS WIDOW.

widow bewitched

. A woman separated from her husband: coll (1725) >, in mid-C. 19, mainly dial. Bailey; Mrs Gaskell. cf. GRASS WIDOW, 2.

widow's mite

. A light: rhyming s.: late C. 19–20.

wife

*. A leg-shackle: (mostly prison) c.: from ca 1810. Ex clinging. 2. A pimp's favourite harlot-mistress: white-slavers' c.: late C.19–20. 3. The passive member of a homosexual partnership: homosexuals': late C.19–20.

wife, all the world and his

. Everybody: jocular coll: C.18–20. Swift. cf. the Fr. tout le monde et son père.

wife as a dog of a side-pocket, as much need of a

, see SIDE-POCKET.

wife cries five loaves a penny, one's

. She is in travail: a semi-proverbial c.p. of ca 1670–1758. Ray, 1678. i.e. she cries out, pain-racked.

wife in water-colours

. A mistress or concubine: ca 1780–1840. Easily fading colours: bonds quickly dissolved.
2. Hence, in C.19, a morganatic wife.

wife out of Westminster

. A wife of dubious morality: London coll: C.18–20; very ob., Ware in 1909 remarking: 'Sometimes still heard in the East of London'. Ex the proverb cited at WESTMINSTER WEDDING.

wifey, wifie, rarely wif(e)y

. Endearment for a wife: coll: from ca 1820. Properly, little wife, but gen. used regardless of size.

wiffle-woffles, the

. A stomach-ache; sorrow; melancholy, the dumps: mainly proletarian (–1859); ob. cf. COLLY-WOBBLES (sense), WIBBLE-WOBBLE (form).

wiffflow gadget

. The same as HOOK-MEDINGHY: nautical: late C.19–20. See also GADGET.

wig

. A severe scolding or reprimand: 1804, Sir J.Malcolm: s. >, by 1890, coll; slightly ob. cf. WIGGING, much more gen. in C.20. Perhaps ex a BIG WIG'S rebuke. 2. Abbr. BIG WIG, a dignitary: coll (rare after ca 1870): 1828 (O.E.D.). 3. A penny: Ayrshire s. (–1905), not dial. Perhaps because it was the usual price of a wig, a bun or a tea-cake.

wig

, v. To scold; rebuke, reprimand, reprove severely: s. (1828, G.R.Gleig) >, ca 1860, coll. Ex the n., 1, or WIGGING. cf. Fr. laver la tête. 2. To move off, go away: North Country c. (–1864). Whence? 3. (v.i.) To post a scout on the route of flight in a pigeon race with a hen pigeon, to attract the opponent's bird and retard his progress: pigeon-fanciers': from ca 1860.

wig!, dash my; my wig

! see WIGS.

wig-block

. The head: pugilistic s.: from ca 1840.

wig-faker

. A hairdresser: low London: late C.18–19.

wig-wag

, v., n. and adv. To wag lightly; such wagging: coll: late C.16–20. Reduplicated wag.

wigannowns

. A man wearing a large wig: ca 1785–1830.

wigga-wagga

. A flexible walking-cane: ca 1895–1912. Ex WIGGLE-WAGGLE.

wigging

. A scolding; a severe rebuke, reproof, reprimand: s. (1813) >, by 1850, coll. Barham, ‘If you wish to ‘scape wigging, a dumb wife’s handy.’ Ex WIG, n., 1.

Wiggins, Mr.

‘Any mannerist of small brains and showy feather.’ Bee: London (–1823); †by 1900.

wiggle

, v. To waggle, wriggle: C.13–20: S.E. till C.19, then coll. 2. Hence, the n.: coll: late C.19–20. 3. The same applies to simple derivatives.

wiggle-waggle

, adj. (1778); hence v. and n., both from ca 1820. Vacillating; to move (v.i. and t.) in a wiggling, waggling way: coll.

wig(s)!, dash my; wig(s)!, my

. Mild imprecations: coll: resp. 1797 (1812); 1891 (1871). Morris, 1891, 'I am writing a short narrative poem. My wig! but it is garrulous.' Perhaps ex dashing one's wig down in anger.

wigsby

. A man wearing a wig: jocular coll: (–1785). Grose, 1st ed., has also Mr Wigsby; wigster occurs ca 1820. All three were ob. by 1880. cf. rudesby, a rude person, and WIGANNOWNS.

wild

*. A village: tramps' c. (–1839). Brandon; H., 2nd ed. cf. S.E. vill, c. VILE. 2. the Wild. The extreme Evangelical party in the Church of Scotland: nickname: from late 1820s.

wild-cat

. A rash projector, risky investor (1812); a risky or unsound business-undertaking (1839): U.S. coll, anglicized ca 1880; slightly ob. 2. Hence, adj., risky, unsound (business or business enterprise); hence, reckless or rash: coll, orig. (1838) U.S., anglicized ca 1880. Ex the American wild-cat; it ‘dates from U.S. period of “frenzied finance” (1836)’, W.

wild-catter, -catting

. A person engaging in, an instance or the practice of, WILDCAT business: coll: U.S. (1883), anglicized ca 1900.

wild dell

*. A DELL begotten and born under a hedge: c.: ?C.17–early 19.

wild-dog

, v.i. To hunt dingoes: Australian coll: late C.19–20. Often shortened to dog.

wild-fire

. Some strong liquor; perhaps brandy: ca 1750–80. See quotation at SLUG, n., 1.

wild goose

. A recruit for the Irish Brigade in French service: military: mid-C.17–18. M.O’Conor, Military History of the Irish Nation, 1845. Ex wild-goose chase.

wild mare, ride the

, see RIDE THE WILD MARE.

wild rogue

*. A born or thorough-paced thief: c.: late C.17–early 19.

wild squirt

. Diarrhoea: low coll (–1785); ob.

wild train

. A train not on the time-table, hence ‘not entitled to the track’ as is a regular train: railwaymen’s (–1904).

wilderness

. A windlass: nautical (not very gen.): late C.19–20.

wilds, the

. Esp. in give (someone) the wilds, to make angry, to depress: Australian: from ca 1860. ‘Tom Collins’, Such Is Life, 1903.

wilful murder

. The card-game known as ‘blind hookey’: from ca 1860; ob.

Wilhelm II much

. A bit too much of the Kaiser!: Society: 1898. Ex his many activities.

will you shoot

? Will you pay for a small drink of spirits?: Australian taverns’ (–1909); ob.

William

, an acceptance, occurs esp. in meet sweet William, to meet a bill on its presentation: commercial (–1864). Punning bill.

Willie, Willie!, o(h)

. A c.p. of ‘satiric reproach addressed to a taradiddler rather than a flat liar’: non-aristocratic: 1898–ca 1914. Ware. cf.:

Willie, Willie—wicked, wicked

! This c.p. of ca 1900–14 constitutes a ‘satiric street reproach addressed to a middle-aged woman talking to a youth’. Ware derives it ex a droll law-suit.

willin’, willing

. (Of persons) ‘strenuous, hearty,’ C.J.Dennis: Australian coll verging on S.E.: late C.19–20.

willock-eater

. (Gen. pl.) An Eastbourne fishing-boat: nautical: late C.19–20. A willock is a guillemot, a not very edible bird.

willow

. ‘Poor, and of no Reputation’, B.E.: late C.17–early 19. Lit., willowy.

Willy Arnot

. Good whisky: Shetland Islands s. (1897), not dial. Perhaps ex a well-known landlord.

willy-willy

. A whirlwind: Australian: late C.19–20. Thus: whirlwind > whirl > wil > willie (or -y) > willy-willy. Often shortened to willy. cf.:

willywaws

. Squalls in the Straits of Magellan; but also light, variable winds elsewhere: nautical: late C.19–20. Perhaps ex whirly-whirly.

wilt

. To run away, to BUNK: London: from ca 1880: ob. Ex wilt, (of flowers) to fade, to grow limp.

wimmeny-pimmeny

. Dainty, elegant: lower classes' coll (–1887); slightly ob. Echoic.

win, wing, winn, whin(n)

*, but gen. the first or the third. A penny: c. (–1567): resp. C.17–20, late C.19–20 (mostly in Ireland and hence U.S.), C.17–20, C.19–20. Harman, Dekker, B.E., Grose, Vaux (Winchesten †by 1900), 'Jon Bee' (who defines as a half-penny), H., Flynt (wing). Perhaps abbr. Winchester. 2. (win, and for senses 3, 4.) A victory: (sports and games) coll: from ca 1860. 3. A gain; gen. pl, (mostly monetary) gains: coll: from ca 1890. Perhaps abbr. winning(s).

win

*, v. To steal: c.: from late C.17. cf. (to) MAKE, and, in Fr. c., the exactly synonymous gagner. The n. winnings may, as='plunder, goods, or money acquired by theft' (Grose, 2nd ed.), be c.: C.18–20.

win the button

. To be the best: tailors': from ca 1860. Here, button=medal.

Winchester

*, see WIN, n., 1.

wind

. The stomach: boxing: 1823. Dickens, 1853. A blow thereon 'takes away the breath by checking the action of the diaphragm'. 2. A strong liquor, prob. rum or gin: ca 1715–50. Anon., The Quaker's Opera, 1728. See the quotation at BUNTER'S TEA. Because it catches the breath.

wind, by the

. Short of money: nautical: late C.19–20.

wind, carry the

. To be mettlesome, or high-spirited: sporting (–1904); ob. F. & H., ‘Properly of horses tossing the nose as high as the ears.’

wind, go down the

, see WEATHER, GO UP THE. wind, in the, see IN THE WIND. wind, lagged for one’s, see WINDER, NAP A. wind, slip one’s, see SLIP ONE’S BREATH. wind, thin as a rasher of, see RASHER OF WIND. wind, three sheets in the, see THREE SHEETS...wind and water, shoot between, see SHOOT BETWEEN.

wind-bag

. A wind-jammer: nautical: late C.19–20.

wind-bagger

. A deep-sea sailor: nautical: since ca 1880. Bart Kennedy, London in Shadow, 1902.

wind do twirl

(or hyphenated). A girl: rhymings. (–1859).

wind enough to last a Dutchman a week

. More wind than enough: (orig. nautical) coll: from the 1830s; ob. cf. DUTCH.

wind-jammer

. A sailing vessel: U.S. s. (1899) anglicized almost imm.; The Athenaeum, 8 Feb. 1902. 2. A player on a wind instrument: theatrical: from the 1870s. Perhaps influenced by U.S. windjammer, a talkative person.

wind-mill

. The fundament: low (–1811); ob. Lex. Bal., ‘She has no fortune but her mills,’ a low c.p.: i.e. ‘wind-mill’ and WATER-MILL.

wind one’s cotton

. To cause trouble: proletarian (–1860); ob.

wind-pudding

. Air: low: from 1890s. Whence live on w.p., go hungry.

wind-stopper

*. A garrotter: c.: late C.19–20. cf. UGLY MAN.

wind-sucker

. A horse with the harness: stablemen’s: from ca 1865.

wind up

, v. To render (a race-horse) fit to run: racing: from ca 1870.

wind up

, adj. Pinned up; hence, taut: rhyming s.: from ca 1870.

wind up the clock

. To coït with a woman: educated; from ca 1760; ob. Perhaps ex a mildly pornographic passage in Tristram Shandy.

wind'ard of, get to

. To get the better of (a person): nautical, esp. naval, coll: late C. 19–20. i.e. windward. 2. Also, to get on the right side of someone: naval: since ca 1900.

winded-settled

*. Transported for life: c. (–1859); ob. Ex pugilism.

winder

. A knock-out blow (lit. or fig.), something that astounds one, an effort that takes one's breath away: coll: 1825, Westmacott. cf. next entry. 2. A window: sol. and dial.: C.19–20—and prob. centuries earlier.

winder, nap a

*. To be transported for life: c. of ca 1810–60. Vaux, who has also be lagged for one's wind. 2. To be hanged: c. (–1859). See WINDER. 3. In boxing, to receive a blow that deprives one of breath: mid-C.19–20. 4. Hence, to receive a shock: a severe set-back: low: from ca 1860.

winding-post, nap the

*. To be transported: c. of ca 1820–60. cf. preceding.

windjammer

, see WIND-JAMMER. windmill, see WIND-MILL.

windmill J.P.

An ill-educated J.P.: New South Wales: ca 1850–80. Because presumed to indicate his name with a cross: on maps, X=a wind-mill.

windmills in the head

. Empty projects: coll: late C.17–19. Ex the windmill-tilting of Don Quixote.

window

. A monocle: lower classes': from ca 1860; slightly ob.

window, goldsmith's

. A rich working in which the gold shows freely: gold-mining s. (orig. and mainly Australian). Boldrewood, 1891.

window-blind

. A sanitary towel: low (–1904).

window-dressing

. Manipulation of figures and accounts to show fictitious or exaggerated value: commercial coll. Ex lit. sense.

window-fishing

*. Entry through a window into a house: c.: late C.19–20.

window-peeper

. An assessor and/or collector of the window-tax: coll: ca 1780–1860. This tax was removed in 1851.

windsel

. A nautical variant of windsail: coll (–1887).

windward passage, one who navigates or uses the

. A sodomite: low (–1785); ob.

windy

. Conceited, over-proud: C.17–20; S.E. until mid-C.19, then Scots coll.

windy wallets

. ‘A noisy prater, vain boaster, romancing yarnster’, F. & H.: C.19–20; ob. Ex dial.

wine

. To drink wine, orig. and mainly at an undergraduates' wine-party: coll: 1829, C.Wordsworth. 2. Hence, to treat (a person) to wine: coll: from early 1860s. 3. Whence dine and wine, the entertainments being separate or combined: coll: 1867.

wine-bag

. A toper specializing in wine: (low) coll: late C.19–20. cf.:

winey

. Drunk; properly, drunk with wine: low (–1859).

wing

*. A quid of tobacco: prison c.: 1882, J.Greenwood, Gaol Birds. 2. See WIN, n., 1. 3. (Gen. pl.) An arm: nautical: ca 1820–1910.

wing

, v.t. 'To undertake (a part) at short notice and study it in the "wings"', F. & H.: 1885, Stage, 31 Aug.

wing, hit under the

. Topsy: 1844, Albert Smith; ob. Lit., disabled as a bird shot there. cf.:

wing'd

. Topsy: ca 1840–90.

wingers

. Long, flowing whiskers: military: ca 1900.

wingy

. A man 'minus' a wing (arm): navvies' s.: D.W.Barrett, Navvies, 1881.

Winifred!, O(h)

. A c.p. expressive of disbelief: lower and lower-middle classes': 1890s. Ware, 'From St Winifred's Well, in Wales' and its reputedly marvellous cures.

wink

, n., see WINKS. wink, tip the, see TIP, v.

wink in one's eye, have a

. To feel sleepy: Australian coll of ca 1850–1910.

wink the other eye

. Flippantly to ignore a speech, warning, etc.: coll: late C.19–20.

winkers

. The eyes: from early 1730s: S.E. until C.19, then coll; by mid-C.19, s. cf. the dial. winkers, eye-lashes. 2. (Also, occ., flanges.) Long, wavy or flowing whiskers: ca 1865–80. Ex a horse's blinkers.

winkin(g), like

. Very quickly or suddenly: coll: 1827, Hood, 'Both my legs began to bend like winkin'.' Lit., in the time it takes one to wink. 2. Hence, vigorously; 'like one o'clock' (s.v. LIKE A...): coll: 1861, Dickens, 'Nod away at him, if you please, like winking.' cf. like WINKY.

winkle

, n. Penis: children's; (young) schoolboys': late C.19–20.

winks

. Periwinkles: streets' (mostly London): mid-C.19–20.

winks, forty

, see FORTY.

winky, like

. A variant of like WINKING (above): 1830, Lytton; 1902, Begbie.

winn

, see WIN, n., 1. winnings, see WIN, v. wins, see WIN, n., 2.

winter-campaign

. Riot(ing); a drunken ROW: 1884–5. Ex dynamiters' winter activities.

winter-cricket

. A tailor: ca 1785–1890.

winter-hedge

. A clothes-horse: proletarian (–1904); ob. Ex drying clothes, which in summer would be spread on hedges.

winter-palace

*. A prison: c. (–1887); slightly ob. A shelter for necessitous criminals.

winter's day, short and dirty,—he is like a

. A late C.18–mid-19 c.p. cf. the dial. winter Friday, a cold, wretched-looking person.

wipe

. An act of drinking: coll: late C.16– early 17. Rowlands. cf. SWIPE, v. 2. A handkerchief: low: 1789, George Parker; Henry Kingsley. cf. earlier WIPER. 3. A blow, hit, punch: low: from ca 1875.

wipe

, v. To strike; to attack, with blows or taunts: C.16–20: S.E. until C.19, then s. and dial. cf. SWIPE, v.

wipe (a person) down

. To flatter; to pacify: low (–1860).

wipe (a person's) eye

. In shooting, to kill a bird that another has missed: sporting: from ca 1820. cf. sporting sense of next entry. 2. Hence, to get the better of: from late 1850s. 3. A variant of WIPE THE OTHER EYE. 4. To give him a black eye: 1874, R.H.Belcher, 'Cheeky! it's Sunday, or else I'd wipe your eye for you.'

wipe (a person's) nose

. To cheat, defraud, swindle: C.15–mid-18. 2. The same as WIPE a person's EYE, 1: sporting: from ca 1840. Surtees.

wipe-drawer

*. A C.19 variant of WIPER-DRAWER.

wipe-hauling

*. The filching of handkerchiefs from owners' pockets: c.: 1845 in 'No. 747'; ob. Ex WIPE, n., 2.

wipe round

. To hit on: Cockney: 1895, E. Pugh, A Street in Suburbia, 'Garn! I'll woipe yer rarned the marth, talk ter me...'

wipe the other eye

. To take another drink: from ca 1860. H., 3rd ed., in form wipe one's eye, to take, or to give, another drink: a public-house, esp. an old toper's, term.

wipe up

. To steal: military: from ca 1908.

wipe your chin

! A c.p. addressed to a from ca 1905. (To prevent the 'bulsh', the person suspected of lying: Australian: nonsense, getting into the beer he is probably drinking.)

wiper

*. A handkerchief: 1626, Jonson. In C.19–20, WIPE (n., 2). 2. A weapon; ?an assailant: C.17–20; ob. Conan Doyle. 3. A severe blow or reply (or taunt): s. > coll: from mid-1840s; slightly ob. cf. S.E. wipe, a blow, a sarcasm.

wiper-drawer

*. A handkerchief-stealer: c.: late C.17–18. See WIPER, 1.

wire

. A telegram: coll: 1876. Ex by wire, recorded in 1859. cf. the v. 2. An expert pickpocket: c.: 1845, in ‘No. 747’; 1851, Mayhew. Ex the wire used in removing handkerchiefs from pockets. cf. WIRER.

wire

, v.i. and t. To telegraph: coll: 1859, Edinburgh Review, April, ‘Striving to debase the language by introducing the verb “to wire”.’ cf. n., 1, 2. Hence, to telegraph to (a person, a firm): coll: 1876 (O.E.D.). 3. v.i. and t., to pick pockets (of persons): c.: 1845, in ‘No. 747’. Ex the n., 2. 4. See phrasal vv. ensuing.

wire, pull one’s

, see PULL ONE’S WIRE.

wire away

(1888) is rare for WIRE IN.

wire-draw

*. ‘A Fetch or Trick to wheedle in Bubbles’: c.: late C.17–mid-18. B.E. Ex the corresponding v., which is S.E.

wire in (—1864), rarely wire away

. To set to with a will. H., 5th ed., ‘In its original form, “wire-in, and get your name up”, it was very popular among London professional athletes,’ but, at the very beginning, it derives perhaps ex wiring off one’s claim or one’s future farm. Whence WIRE INTO. cf.:

wire in and get your name up

! Have a shot at it!: 1862–ca 1914. Ware, ‘Originally very erotic’.

wire into

(a meal, etc.). To set about eagerly, vigorously: 1887, Baumann. Ex WIRE IN.

wire-worm

. A man who collects prices to WIRE to country clients: Stock Exchange: from ca 1890.

wirer

*. A pickpocket using a wire (see WIRE, n., 2): c. (–1857); ob.

wires, on

. Jumpy: nervous: coll: late C. 19–20. Prompted by S.E. highly strung.

wise as Waltham's calf

, see WALTHAM'S CALF.

wish I may die

! An asseverative tag: Cockney: mid-C.19–20.

wisker

, see WHISKER. wisker-splitter, see WHISKER-SPLITTER.

wisty(-)castor or wistycastor (or -er)

. A blow; a punch: pugilistic: ca 1815–40. Boxiana, III, 1821, 'This round was all fighting, and the wisty-castors flew about till both went down.'

Wit

*, see WHIT.

wit as three folks, he has as much

. Orig. and often self-explanatorily he has... folks, two fools and a madman: c.p. of late C.18–mid-19. cf. the C.17–18 proverb he hath some wit but a fool hath the guidance of it.

witch-cove

*. A wizard: c.: C.18–19.

witcher; OCC. wicher

*. Silver: c.: mid-C. 17–early 19. Coles, 1676. Hence, witcher- bubbler, a silver bowl; w.-cully, a silversmith; and w.-tilter, a silver-hilted sword. Perhaps a corruption of silver influenced by white.

with

, see THROW. with and without, see WARM WITH: COLD WITHOUT.

without any

. Without liquor (for a stated period); lower classes' coll: from ca 1890.

Witt, the

*, see WHIT. Wiwi, see WI-WI.

wizzer or wizzy

. Urination: Scottish children's: late C.19–20. Echoic.

wobble like a drunken tailor with two left legs

. (Of a ship) to steer an erratic course: nautical c.p.: late C.19–20.

wobble-shop

. A shop where liquor is sold unlicensed: c. or low (–1857); ob. cf. WHISTLER, 3, and WHISTLINGSHP.

wobbler or wabblor

. (See FOOT-WOBBLER.) Rare in simple form: military (–1874). 2. ‘A boiled leg of mutton, alluding to the noise made in dressing it’, Bee: ca 1820–50. 3. A horse that, in trotting, swerves from side to side: racing (–1897). 4. A pedestrian; a long-distance walker: sporting (–1909). cf. sense 1. 5. An egg: low Cockney: from ca 1880. Clarence Rook, The Hooligan Nights, 1899.

wodge, wodgy

, see WADGE.

woe betide you (him, etc.)

. You’ll be getting into trouble: coll: mid-C.19–20. Ex †S.E. sense.

woffle

. To eat; drink: low (–1823) † by 1890. Perhaps cognate with Northamptonshire dial. waffle, to masticate and swallow with difficulty. 2. v.i. and t., ‘To mask, evade, manipulate a note or even [a] difficult passage’; music-halls’ and musicians’ (–1909). Ware. Ex waffle, to yelp: cf. WAFFLE, v., 1.

wog (or W.)

. An Indian: an Arab: late C. 19–20. Probably ex golliwog.

wolf, see a

. (Of a woman) to be seduced: coll: C.19–20; ob. Ex the fig. sense, to lose one’s voice.

wolf in the breast

*. An imposition consisting of complaints, by beggar women, of a gnawing pain in the breast: c.: mid-C.18– early 19. cf. medical lupus and:

wolf in the stomach, have a

. To be famished: coll: late C.18–20; ob. cf. STOMACH-WORM. Ex the old proverb, a growing youth has a wolf in his belly.

Wolfland

. Ireland: coll nickname: late C. 17–early 18.

wollop

, see WALLOP.

wolly

. (Gen. pl.) An olive: East Londoners' (–1909). EX the street cry, Oh! olives!

woman

. In tossing, the Britannia side of the penny: from ca 1780.

woman and her husband

, a. A c.p. applied to 'a married couple, where the woman is bigger than her husband', Grose, 2nd ed.: late C.18–mid-19.

woman of all work

. 'A female servant, who refuses none of her master's commands', Grose, 2nd ed.: ca 1785–1840.

woman of the world

. A married woman: coll: ca 1580–1640. Shakespeare, As You Like It and All's Well.

woman-who-did or -diddery

. A popular novel with sexual interest: book-world, resp. coll and s.: very late C.19–20; virtually †. Ex Grant Allen's The Woman Who Did, 1895.

womble, womblety

, see WAMBLE, WAMBLETY.

wonder!, I

. I doubt it, can't believe it, think it may be so: coll: 1858, Punch, 'What next, I wonder!'

wonder!, I shouldn't

. I should not be surprised (if, etc.): coll: 1836, Dickens, "'Do you think you could manage...?'" "Shouldn't wonder," responded boots.'

wonder!, the

. Coll abbr. of in the name of wonder: 1862 (O.E.D.).

won't have it, I (or he, etc.)

. I don't believe it; or, I won't admit it: coll: mid-C. 19–20.

won't run to it

! see RUN TO IT!, WON'T.

won't you come home, Bill Bailey

? A c.p. of the first decade. C.20. Ex the popular song.

wood

. Money: London drinking s. (–1823); †by 1890. Ex liquor from the wood. 2. wood, the. The pulpit: 1854. Thackeray. Implicit in:

wood, look over the

. To preach: late C.18– mid-19. Sc. of the pulpit.

wood, look through the

. To stand in the pillory: id.

wood-and-water Joey

. A parasite hanging about hotels: Australian: ca 1880–1910.

wood merchant

. A seller of lucifer matches: London streets': ca 1875–1912.

wood-spoiler

. A ship's carpenter: naval (–1909).

woodcock

. A tailor presenting a long bill: from ca 1780; ob. cf. SNIPE, 2.

Woodcock's Cross, go crossless home by

. To repent and be hanged. Without crossless, the phrase app.=to repent. (cf. WEEPING CROSS.) Coll: C.17.

woodcock's head

. A tobacco-pipe: coll: 1599, Jonson; †by 1700. Early pipes were often made in the likeness of a woodcock's head.

wooden casement; w. cravat

. A pillory: jocularr.ca 1670–1720. Contrast hempen cravat, the gallows, the noose.

wooden doublet

, see WOODEN SURTOUT.

wooden fit

. A swoon: proletarian: late C.19–20.

wooden gods

. The pieces on a draughtsboard: London: ca 1820–1910.

wooden habeas

. A coffin: ca 1780–1850. Grose, 1st ed., ‘A man who dies in prison, is said to go out with a wooden habeas.’ cf. WOODEN SURTOUT, contrast WOODEN CASEMENT, and see esp. Grose, P.; cf. also dial. get a wooden suit, to be buried.

wooden hill

. The stairs: lower-middle and upper working classes’: mid-C.19–20. cf. BEDFORDSHIRE.

wooden horse

. A gallows: mid-C.16–17: s. soon > coll. D’Urfey. Whence, prob.:

wooden-legged mare

. The gallows: ?C.18– mid-19. cf. THREE-LEGGED MARE.

wooden overcoat

. A coffin: a variant (mostly mid-C.19) of WOODEN SURTOUT.

wooden ruff

*. Same as WOODEN CASEMENT: c.: late C.17–early 19.

wooden spoon

. The person last on the Mathematical Tripos list: Cambridge University coll: C.19–20. Ex the spoon formerly presented to him. Gradus ad Cantabrigiam, 1803. 2. The Parliamentary usage mentioned in H., 3rd ed., is derivative: he whose name appears the least frequently in the division-lists. From ca 1860; ob. 3. A fool: Society: ca 1850–90. Ex sense 1.

wooden surtout

. A coffin: from ca 1780. H. 3rd ed., ‘Generally spoken of as a wooden surtout with nails for buttons’; ob. cf. WOODEN DOUBLET, W. HABEAS, W. OVERCOAT, or w. ulster, the earliest being w. doublet (1761), likewise the first to disappear; the latest is w. ulster (Ware, 1909).

wooden wedge

. ‘The last name in the classical honours list at Cambridge’, H., 2nd ed.: Cambridge University coll (–1860). See WEDGE, 2. cf. WOODEN SPOON.

woodman

. A carpenter: coll and dial.: late C.19–20. cf. CHIPS.

woodpecker

*. ‘A Bystander that bets’, B.E.: c.: C.17–early 19. Dekker, 1608, shows that he is an accomplice betting to encourage novices or fools.

wool

*. Courage, pluck: c. (–1860) >, ca 1870, pugilistic s.; slightly ob. H., 2nd ed., ‘You are not half-wooled, term of reproach from one thief to another.’ Prob. ex jocular S.E. wool, hair: see WOOLTOPPED UN.

wool

, v.t. To pull a person's hair: U.S., anglicized in late 1860s. 2. To BEST (a person): low (–1890). Ex pull (the) wool over the eyes of.

wool, more squeak than

. More noise than substance; much talk with little result; semi-proverbial coll: from ca 1730. On great (or much) cry and little wool (proverbial S.E.). See CRY AND...

wool-bird

*. A sheep: orig. (–1785), c. >, early in C.19, low s. H., 2nd ed., ‘wing of a woolbird, a shoulder of lamb’. Also woolly-bird, c.: ca 1810–50.

wool-grower

. The head: pugilistic: ca 1840–90.

wool-hole

*. A workhouse: tramps' c. (–1859); ob. H., 1st ed.; also in ‘printing’ Savage, 1841, where, further, one learns that the term was orig. printers' s. ex a lit. and technical sense.

wool on!, keep your

. Don't get angry!: 1890. cf. WOOLLY, adj. Ex keep your hair on.

wool on the back

. Money, wealth: commercial: 1909.

wool-topped un

. A plucky fellow: boxing: ca. 1870–1900. H., 5th ed., where a reg'lar woolled un, a very plucky fellow. See WOOL, n.

woolbird

, see WOOL-BIRD. woolled, see WOOL, n.

woolly

. A blanket: coll: from early 1860s; ob.

woolly

, adj. In a bad temper: from early 1860s; ob. Perhaps the 'originator' of keep your wool on.

woolly bear

. Any large, hairy caterpillar, but esp. the larva of the tiger-moth: coll, mainly children's: 1863, Wood; much earlier in dial. as woolly boy. Ex resemblance to the children's plaything.

woolly bird

, see WOOL-BIRD.

woolly crown

. 'A soft-headed fellow,' Grose, 1st ed.: ca 1690–1850.

woolly-headed boy

. A favourite: tailors': from ca 1860. cf. WHITE-HEADED BOY.

Woolwich and Greenwich

. Spinach: (mostly greengrocers') rhyming s.: late C. 19–20.

wooney or woony

. Mother; darling: nursery and young children's: (?) mid-C. 19–20. Prob. a two-year-old's attempt at mother.

wooston

. Very, as in ‘A wooston jolly fellow’: Christ’s Hospital: late C.19–20. Ex whoreson.

wop, wopper

, see WHOP, WHOPPER.

word!, my

. Indicative of surprise or admiration:. coll: 1857, Locker.

word, the

. ‘The right word for the right thing’: hence, the thing to be done: coll. Shakespeare, Congreve, W.S.Gilbert.

word-grubber

. A verbal critic; one who uses ‘jaw-breakers’ in ordinary conversation: late C.18–mid-19. cf. WORD-PECKER.

word of mouth, drink by

. ‘i.e. out of the bowl or bottle instead of a glass’, Grose, 2nd ed.: drinkers’: late C.18–mid-19. Extant in dial.

word-pecker

. A punster: ca 1690–1840. Punning woodpecker.

words

. A wordy dispute or quarrel: coll: late C.19–20.

work

. (Esp. of a vendor or beggar) to go through or about (a place) in the course, and for the purposes, of one's business or affairs: 1834, Colonel Hawker, of a hound; 1851, Mayhew, of an itinerant vendor; 1859, H.Kingsley, of a parson. 2. To obtain or achieve, to get rid of, illicitly, deviously, or cunningly: 1839, Brandon, Dict. of Flash. Esp. 'Can you work it?' 'I think I can work it for you.' 3. Hence (of an itinerant vendor) to hawk: 1851, Mayhew. 4. To steal: c.: mid-C.18–20. Ex sense 2.

work-bench

*. A bedstead: c.: ca 1820–50.

work back

*. To recover (stolen property): c.: mid-C.19–20. 'No. 747'.

work cut out, have (all) one's

. To have enough, or all one can manage, to do: coll: 1879, H.C.Powell. Ex cut out work for (a person), which may, orig., have been a tailoring phrase.

work for a dead horse

, see DEAD HORSE.

work off

. To kill; esp. to hang: 1840, Dickens: slightly ob. Lit., to dispose of. 2. As work oneself off, to masturbate: low coll: perhaps since C.16; certainly old.

work one's fists

. To be skilful in boxing: pugilistic (–1874); ob.

work the bulls

*. To get rid of false crownpieces: c.: ca 1839–1910.

work the oracle

. To achieve (esp. if illicitly or deviously) one's end in a skilful or cunning manner: orig. (–1859), low s. See WORK, 2.

work the pea

. ‘To swindle one’s employer by skilfully appropriating small sums off the takings at the bar of a public-house, alluding to a conjuror’s trick’: barmen’s: from ca 1860. B. & L.

work the rattle

*. (Gen. as vbl n. or as ppl adj.) To operate, as a professional thief, on the trains: c.: from ca 1890.

work things

. To achieve something, not necessarily though usually dishonest or, at best, dubious: coll: late C.19–20. cf. WORK, 2, and WORK THE ORACLE.

work up

.(Of men) to effect carnal union with: low coll: late C.19–20. Variant: work oneself up.

worker

. A draught bullock: Australian coll: since ca 1870.

workman

*. A professional gambler: gamblers’ c.: ca 1800–50. J.J.Stockwell, The Greeks, 1817.

works, the

*. A convict establishment: prisoners' c.: from ca 1870.

workus

. A workhouse: sol.: C.19–20. Usually the workus, generic. 2. A Methodist chapel: Anglicans': ca 1840–1914.

world

. Knowledge of the fine world: Society: ca 1790–1820. John Trusler, Life, 1793, 'That...is a proof of your want of world.—No man of Ton ever goes to the Theatre, for the amusements of that Theatre.' Ex S.E. the world, fashionable society.

world and his wife, all the

, see WIFE, ALL THE WORLD AND HIS.

world to a China orange, (all) the

. An occ. variant (–1887) of ALL LOMBARD STREET TO A CHINA ORANGE.

worm

. 'The latest slang term for a policeman', H., 1864; extremely ob.

worm

, v.i. and t., esp. in worming, ‘removing the beard of an oyster or muscle [sic]’, H., 1st ed.: mostly lower-class London (–1859). Ex crustacean—or oyster’s beard—likened to a worm.

worm-crusher

. A foot-soldier: military: from 1890s; ob. cf. MUD-CRUSHER.

worm-eater

. A skilful workman drilling minute holes in bogus-antique furniture to simulate worm-holes: cabinet-makers’: from the 1880s.

worms

. A line cut in the turf as a goalline at football: Winchester College: from ca 1880. Wrench. Ex the worms so discovered.

Worms, be gone to the Diet of

, see DIET OF...

worms, have one for the

. To take a drink of liquor: since ca 1880. Ex jocular pretext of medicinal use. Compare Spanish matar el gusano—to kill the worm—applied to the first drink of the day, particularly if spirituous.

worrab

. A barrow: back s.: from the 1860s.

worries the dog

, see DOG, HE WORRIES THE.

worriment

. Worry: lower classes' coll: late C.19–20.

worrit; OCC. -et

. Anxiety, mental distress, or a cause of these: (low) coll: 1838, Dickens. Ex next. 2. A person worrying himself or others: id.: 1848, Dickens.

worrit

, v.t. To worry, distress, pester: (low) coll: 1818, Lamb. A corruption of worry, perhaps on dial. wherrit, to tease. 2. Hence v.i., to worry, to display uneasiness or impatience: id.: 1854, Wilkie Collins.

worriting

, n. (1857) and adj. (1845) of WORRIT, v.

worse end

, see STAFF, THE WORSE END OF THE.

worth..., not

, see BEAN; CURSE; DAM; FIG; TURD, etc.

worth a plum, be

. To be rich: coll: ca 1710–1800. G.Parker. Ex PLUM, £100,000.

worth it

. (Predicatively.) Worth while: coll: late C.19–20.

wotthere(o)

. A proletarian slurring (from ca 1880; ob.) of WHAT CHEER!

wounds (e.g. by Christ's wounds!)

occurs in oaths of mid-C.14–mid-18, and as a self-contained interjection (abbr. God's wounds!) of C.17–early 19; occ. in C.19, wouns!

WOW-WOW

. A children's variant of BOW-WOW, a dog: coll (–1887).

wow-wow!; bow-wow

! A Slade School c.p. of the late 1890s, as in R.Blaker, Here Lies a Most Beautiful Lady, 1935, “‘Wow—wow—wow—” she gurgled; for “bow-wow” or “wow-wow” was currency in her circle at that time, to denote quiet contempt of an adversary's bombast.’

wowser

. A person very puritanical in morals; a spoil-sport; one who neither swears, drinks (in especial), nor smokes: from ca 1895: Australian s. Perhaps ex wow, a bark of disapproval, +euphonic s +agential er; cf. the Yorkshire wowsy, ‘an exclamation, esp. of surprise’.

wrap-rascal

. A red cloak: C.18–early 19. 1738, London Evening Post. An extension of S.E. w.-r. (a loose overcoat or a surtout), perhaps influenced by roquelaire.

wrapped-up

, esp. in all nicely wrapped up, in seemly language, and not even wrapped-up, crudely expressed: coll: late C.19–20. EX talk PACK-THREAD.

wrapper

. An overcoat, a top coat: fast life: ca 1810–45. P.Egan, Finish, 1828. cf. WRAP-RASCAL.

wrapt up in the tail of his mother's smock, he was

. A c.p. applied to 'any one remarkable for his success with the ladies', Grose, 1st ed.: ca 1780–1850. (Female fondling of male children increases their latent sexuality: it didn't need Freud to tell us this: this has been folk-lore for centuries.) Ex be wrapped in his mother's smock, to be born lucky.

wrapt up in warm flannel

. 'Drunk with spirituous liquors,' Grose, 1st ed.: ca 1780–1830. ?cf. the 'drapery' terms for gin (see WHITE RIBBON).

wrecking

. The ruining, by ‘shady’ solicitors, of limited companies: financial coll: 1880–4.

wren

. A harlot frequenting Curragh Camp: military: 1869, J.Greenwood, who adds, ‘They do not live in houses or even huts, but build for themselves “nests” in the bush.’

wrest; wrestler

*. A picklock (the thieves’ tool): c.: late C.16–early 17. Greene, 1592. Ex S.E. wrest, v.

wriggle navels

. To coït: C.18–20; ob. Prob. later than and suggested by WRIGGLING-POLE.

wriggle off

. To depart: Londoners’: ca 1860–90.

wriggling-pole

. The penis: (late C.17 or early) C.18–20; very ob. D’Urfey.

Wright, Mr.

* A warder 'going between' a prisoner and his friends: prison c.: C.19–20; ob. Punning wright, an artificer, and right, adj. cf. RIGHT, MR.

wring oneself

*. To change one's clothes: c.: from ca 1860; ob. Ex wring (out) one's clothes.

wrinkle

*. A lie, a fib: c. (–1812); ob. 2. A cunning or adroit trick, device, expedient; a smart DODGE: orig. and often put (a person) up to a wrinkle (or two), as in Lady Granville, 1817: s. >, by 1860, coll. cf. the C.15–17 wrinkle, a tortuous action, a cunning device, a trick; the link is perhaps supplied by sense 1, or by such a repartee as occurs in Swift's Polite Conversation, I, or, most prob., by WRINKLE MORE... 3. Hence, a helpful or valuable hint or piece of information: sporting s. (1818) >, by 1870, coll.

wrinkle

*, v. To tell a lie: c. (–1812); ob. Prob. ex the n., 1.

wrinkle-bellied

. (Gen. of a harlot) having had many children: low coll: late C.18–20. Grose, 3rd ed., 'Child-bearing leaves wrinkles.' cf.:

wrinkle more in one's arse, have one (or a)

. To get one piece of knowledge more than one had, 'every fresh piece of knowledge being supposed by the vulgar naturalists to add a wrinkle to that part', Grose, 2nd ed.: low: ca 1786–1880. Here, perhaps, is the origin of WRINKLE, n., 2 and 3, previously considered so problematic. cf. preceding entry.

wrinkler

*. A person prone to telling lies: c. (–1812); ob. Ex WRINKLE, v.

wrist-watch

. Contemptible: naval: ca 1900–13. Considered effeminate. 2. High-class; aristocratic: military: ca 1905–20. e.g. 'He talks pukka wrist-watch'; 'Oh, he's pukka wrist-watch, he is!'

writ-pusher

. A lawyer's clerk: legal (–1909). cf. PROCESS-PUSHER.

write a poor hand

, see SORE FIST. write home about, see NOTHING TO...

write one's name across another's face

. To strike him in the face: sporting: ca 1885–1912. cf.:

write one's name on (a joint)

. 'To have the first cut at anything; leaving sensible traces of one's presence on it', H., 2nd ed.: from late 1850s.

written, not enough

. Insufficiently revised for style: authors' coll: from ca 1870; ob.

wrokin

. A Dutch woman: ?C.17–19. Perhaps Dutch vrouw corrupted.

wrong end of the stick, the

, see STICK, THE WRONG END...

wrong in the upper storey

. Crazy: mid-C. 19–20. cf. wrong in the head, itself coll (and dial.): from ca 1880—perhaps rather earlier.

wrong side, get up (occ. out of bed) on the or the

. To rise peevish or bad-tempered: coll: C.19–20. To do this, lit., is supposed to be unfortunate. Scott, 1824.

wrong side of the hedge, be or fall on the

. To fall from a coach: coll: ca 1800–80.

wrong side of the hedge when the brains were given away, (he) was on the

. He is brainless, or stupid, or at the least very dull: c.p.: ca 1810–80. In late C.19–20, the form is on the wrong side of the door when (the) brains were handed out.

wrong un (or 'un)

. A 'pulled' (s.v. PULL A HORSE'S...) horse: racing s. (1889, Sporting Times, 29 June). 2. Hence, a welsher (s.v. WELSH, v.) or a whore, a base coin or a spurious note, etc.: from ca 1890: s. 3. (Perhaps suggested by 1.) A horse that has raced at a meeting unrecognized by the Jockey Club: racing s. (–1895). 4. The wrong sort of ball to hit: cricketers's. (1897).

wroth of reses

. A wreath of roses: theatrical: ca 1882–1914. Ware, 'Said of a male singer who vocalises too sentimentally.' A Spoonerism.

wroughter

*. In the three-card trick, he who plays the cards, the trickster being a BROAD-PITCHER: c.: from (?late) 1860s. B.Hemying, 1870, in his Out of the Ring, includes these terms in 'The Welshers' Vocabulary'. ? because wrought-on: cf. wrought-up, excited.

wrux

. A rotter: a HUMBUG: Public Schools': from ca 1875. Perhaps ex dial. (w)rox, n. and v., (to) decay, rot.

wry mouth and a pissen (C. 19 pissed) pair of breeches, a

*. A hanging: ca 1780–1850: either c. or low s. cf.:

wry-neck day

*. A day on which a hangng occurs or is scheduled to occur: c.: ca 1786–1860. Prob. suggested by preceding.

Ws, between the two

. Between wind and water: ca 1830–70. Sinks, 1848.

wuffler

. A guinea-piece; a sovereign: late C.19–20; ob.

wushup, your

(etc.). Your worship: C.19–20; orig. and gen. sol., but it may also be jocular s. Also your washup.

wusser

. A canal boat: barges': from the 1880s. ?water perverted.

wylo

! Be off: Anglo-Chinese (–1864).

wyn

*, see WIN, n., 1.

X

X or x

. ‘The sign of cheater, or Cross [q.v.]’, Bee, 1823. cf. X DIVISION.

X or letter X, take

(a person). To secure (a violent prisoner), thus: ‘Two constables firmly grasp the collar with one hand, the captive’s arm being drawn down and the hand forced backwards over the holding arms; in this position the prisoner’s arm is more easily broken than extricated,’ F. & H.: c. and police s.: from early 1860s.

X division

*. Thieves, swindlers; criminals in gen.: c. (–1887). Ex X.

X-legs

. Knock knees: coll verging on S.E.: mid-C.19–20. Ex shape when knocking.

X.Y.Z.

A hack of all work: literary: ca 1887–1905. Ex an advertiser in The Times using this pseudonym and offering to do any sort of literary work at unprofessionally low prices.

Xmas

. Christmas: low coll when uttered as Exmas, coll when (from ca 1750) written; earlier X(s)tmas was not pronounced. The X=Christ (cf. scholarly abbr. Xianity), or rather the Ch thereof—Gr. χ (khi).

Xs

; more gen. as pronounced—exes. Expenses: 1894, Louise J.Miln. Perhaps orig. theatrical, as the earliest quotation suggests.

Y

yabber

. Talk (1874); to talk (1885), v.i. esp. if unintelligibly: Australian ‘pidgin’. Ex Aboriginal.

yabbie

. A fresh-water crayfish: Australian coll: late C.19–20. Ex Aboriginal.

yack; rarely yac

*. A watch: c.: app. late C.18–very early 19 (Vaux, 1812, declaring it †) and revived ca 1835, for we find it in Brandon, 1839, and Mayhew, 1851, ‘At last he was bowled out in the very act of nailing [stealing] a yack.’ Perhaps a perversion, by a modified back s., of watch: cf. the process in YADNAB. Sampson, however, more convincingly derives it ex

Welsh Gypsy yak^oengeri, a clock, lit. ‘a thing of the eyes’ (yak^o, an eye). (See also at CHRISTEN (2) and CHURCH.)

yacka, -er

, see YAKKER.

yackum

. Human excrement: low: late C. 19–20.

yad

. A day; yads, days: back s. (–1859).

yadnab

. Brandy: slightly modified back s. (–1859). The impossible yd- has > yad-.

yaffle

*, v.i. To eat: from ca 1786: c. >, ca 1820, low s. (†by 1850) and dial. Esp. as vbl n., yaffling. Perhaps cognate with dial. yaffle, to yelp, to mumble. v.t., to snatch, take illicitly, pilfer: low: late C.19–20. Perhaps a perversion of SNAFFLE.

yah

! A proletarian cry of defiance: coll: C.17–20. Possibly implied in Swift's Yahoos.

yah-for-yes folk

. Germans and Dutchmen: nautical coll: late C.19–20. Ex Ger. ja, yes.

yakker; occ. yacka, yacker, yakka

. (Correctly yakka.) To work; work at: Australian ‘pidgin’: late C.19–20. Ex Aboriginal.

yam

. Food: nautical (–1890). Presumably ex:

yam

, v.i. and t. To eat; orig., to eat heartily: low and nautical: from ca 1720. William Hickey (1749–1809), in his Memoirs, ‘Saying in the true Creolian language and style, “No! me can no yam more”’. H., 3rd ed., ‘This word is used by the lowest class all over the world.’ It is a native West African word (Senegalese nyami, to eat): W., after that extraordinary scholar, James Platt. The radical exists also in Malayan.

yam-stock (or Y.-S.)

. An inhabitant of St Helena: nickname: 1833, Theodore Hook.

yan

. To go: Australian ‘pidgin’ (–1870). Ex Aboriginal. cf. YAKKA.

Yank

. YANKEE (n. and adj.): coll: 1778 in orig. U.S. sense C.19–20 for ‘(an) American’; the adj. Yank (of the U.S.), app. not before the 1830s, as in Hurrell Froude. Abbr.:

Yankee; OCC. Yank(e)y

. Orig. (early 1780s) among the English, this nickname for any inhabitant of the United States (other and earlier senses being U.S.) was coll. The theories as to its etymology are numerous (see, e.g., O.E.D. and W.’s Romance of Words); the two most convincing—and the latter (blessed by both W. and the O.E.D.) seems the better—are that Yankee derives ex U.S. Indian Yangees for English, and that it derives ex Jankee, Dutch for ‘little John’ (Jan), this Jankee being a pejorative nickname for a New England man, esp. for a New England sailor.

Yankee heaven; Yankee paradise

. Paris: coll: resp. ca 1850–80; from 1880. cf. (?ex) the saying, ‘All good Americans go to Paris when they die.’

Yankee main tack, lay (a person) along like a

. (Gen. as a threat.) To knock a man down: naval: late C.19–early 20. A Yankee main tack is a direct line.

Yankee particular

. A glass of spirits: Australian: ca 1820–80.

yap

. A countryman: low s. verging on c.: and mostly U.S.: from 1890s. Perhaps ex dial. yap, a half-wit.

yap

, v. To pay: back s. (–1859). H., 1st ed., where it occurs in the form yap-poo, to pay up; in H., 5th ed., it is yap-pu. cf. YAPPY. 2. To prate, talk volubly: coll: late C.19–20. Ex yap, to speak snappishly. 3. To retort angrily: Newfoundland coll: late C.19–20.

yappy

. Foolishly generous; foolish, soft: from ca 1870. Ex YAP, v., 1. Or it may rather derive ex Yorkshire yap, a foolish person.

yapster

. A dog: low (–1798); ob. Tufts. cf. S.E. yapper.

yaram

, see YARRUM.

yard-arm, clear one's

. To prove oneself innocent; to shelve responsibility as a precaution against anticipated trouble: nautical: late C.19–20.

yard of clay

. A long clay pipe, a CHURCH-WARDEN: from ca 1840: coll >, by 1880, S.E. Punch, 1842.

yard of pump-water

. A tall, thin person: low: late C.19–20. 2. See PURSER'S GRIN.

yard of satin

. A glass of gin: 1828, W.T. Moncrieff; ob. See SATIN.

yard of tin

. A horn: jocular coaching and sporting coll: mid-C.19–20; ob. Reginald Herbert, When Diamonds Were Trumps, 1908.

yard of tripe

. A pipe: rhyming: 1851, Mayhew, I; ob.

yardnarb

. Brandy: from ca 1880. The back s. ydnarb > yardnarb for the sake of euphony. See also YADNAB.

yark

. To cane: Durham School: mid-C. 19–20. A dial. form of yerk.

yarker

. Ear: Cockney: late (?mid-)C. 19–20. Atkinson. i.e. harker, that with which one hearkens.

Yarmouth bee

, see YARMOUTH CAPON.

Yarmouth bloater (or B.)

. A native of Yarmouth: coll: 1850, Dickens. Ex lit. sense, Yarmouth being famous for its herrings. cf.:

Yarmouth capon

. A herring: jocular s. > coll: from ca 1660; ob, J.G.Nall, Great Yarmouth, 1886, 'In England a herring is popularly known as a Yarmouth capon.' Also, ca 1780–1850, a NORFOLK CAPON. cf. also GLASGOW MAGISTRATE. Occ. Yarmouth bee: mid-C.19–20; ob.

Yarmouth mittens

. Bruised hands: nautical: from ca 1860; ob. Ex hardships of herring-fishing.

yarn, orig. (–1812) and often in spin a yarn

(nautical s. >, ca 1860, gen. coll), to tell a—gen. long—story, hence from early 1830s to 'romance'. A story, gen. long, and often connoting the marvellous, indeed the incredible: nautical s. >, ca 1860, gen. coll. Reade. Ex the long process of yarnspinning in the making of ropes and the tales with which sailors often accompany that task. Occ. a sailor's yarn. 2. Hence, a mere tale: coll: 1897, Hall Caine, 'Without motive a story is not a novel, but only a yarn.' cf. the journalistic sense of a good yarn, a story that is not necessarily true—indeed, better not.

yarn

, v. To tell a story: nautical s. (–1812) >, by 1860, gen. coll. 1884, Clark Russell, 'Yarning and smoking and taking sailors' pleasure'. Ex preceding. Hence yarning, n. and adj.: from 1840s, and prob. earlier. 2. A C.19 Cockney pronunciation of earn. (But yearn is more gen.)

yarn a hammock

. To make it fast with a slippery hitch so that the occupant will fall to the deck: naval: late C.19–20.

yarn-chopper, -slinger

. A prosy talker; a fictional journalist: from ca 1880; ob.

yarn-spinner, -spinning

. A story-teller; story-telling: coll: ca 1865. Ex YARN, n.

yarning

, n. and adj., see YARN, v.

yarraman

. A horse: Australian (–1875). Ex Aborigine.

yarrum (C.17–20); yaram, rare C.17 spelling; yarum

*, frequent C.16–18 spelling. Milk; esp. POPLAR(S) of yar(r)um, milkporridge: c.: from 1560s. One of the small group of c. words in -um (or -am)—cf. PAN(N)AM or -UM—yarrum is of problematic origin; but I suspect that it is a corruption of yellow (illiterately yellow)—N.B. the colour of beatings—with -um substituted for -ow: cf. Italian waiters' chirroff for chill off and, possibly, Welsh Gypsy yaro, an egg (Sampson).

yaw-sighted

. Squinting; nautical coll: 1751, Smollett. Ex yaw, a deviation from one's direct course, esp. if from unskilful steering.

Yaw-Yaw

. A Dutchman: nautical (–1883). Clark Russell. Lit., yes, yes! 2. (yaw-yaw.) See HAW-HAW, of which it is an occ. variant.

yawner

. A very wide brook: hunting: since ca 1830. (Rolf Boldrewood, My Run Home, 1897, at p. 360.)

yawn(e)y

. A dolt: rare (–1904); ob. i.e. the adj. made n., on SAWNEY. (Much earlier in dial.)

ye gods and little fishes

! A lower and lower-middle class c.p. indicative of contempt: ca 1884–1912. It then > a gen. derisive or jocular exclamation. Ware, ‘Mocking the theatrical appeal to the gods’.

Yea-and-Nay man

. A Quaker: coll verging on S.E.: late C.17–early 19. Ex Quakers’ preference for plain answers. 2. Hence, ‘a simple fellow, who can only answer yes and no’, Grose, 1st ed.: ca 1780–1850. Contrast dial. yea-nay, irresolute. 3. Hence, a very poor, ‘dumb’ conversationalist: mid-C.19–20; ob.

year’d, ’tis

. A semi-proverbial coll applied to ‘a desperate debt’, Ray: ca 1670–1750.

-yearer

. A pupil in his first, second, etc. year: Public School coll: late C.19–20.

yearn

, see YARN, v., 2.

Yeddan; Yeddican

. Variants (ca 1880–1910) of YID.

yeh

. Yes: Cockney: since when? i.e. yes? clipped form. 2. You: Cockney: C.19–20.

yeknod

, see YERKNOD.

yell

. Beer: 1848. Sinks, ‘A pint of yell’; †by 1900. Short for its yellow colour.

yell-play

. ‘A farcical piece...where the laughter is required to be unceasing’: theatrical coll (–1909). Ware.

yelling

. The rolling of a ship: nautical coll: C.19. Ex the resultant noise.

yellow

. A variant of YELLOW-HAMMER, 2: from ca 1870; ob. 2. See YELLOWS. 3. A punishment at Greenwich College: ca 1820–60. Sessions, 1831, where also be yellowed, to undergo punishment there.

yellow

, v. To make a YELLOW ADMIRAL of: nautical coll: 1747; ob. 2. Hence, to retire (an officer): nautical coll: 1820, Lady Granville.

yellow

, adj. A New Canting Dict., 1725, asserts that yellow, jealous, was orig. a c. term: this is prob. correct.

yellow, baby's

. (Mainly infantine) excrement: nursery coll: C.19–20.

yellow admiral

. An officer too long ashore to be employed again at sea: naval: C.18–20.

Yellow Belly, or y.b.

A native of the fens, orig. and esp. the Fens in Lincolnshire; ‘also known in Romney Marshes, Kent’ (E.D.D.): from the 1790s. Grose, Provincial Glossary, 1790; id. Vulgar Tongue, 2nd ed., 1788. Ex the frogs, which are yellow-bellied, or perhaps, as Grose holds, ‘an allusion to the eels caught there’. 2. A half-caste: nautical (–1867). Esp. a Eurasian: Anglo-Indian: from ca 1860. 3. A knife-grinder: Yorkshire s. (–1905), not dial. Perhaps ex the yellowish leather apron.

yellow boy

. A guinea or, in C.19–20, a sovereign: from the Restoration: c. >, in C.18, s. Wilson, The Cheats, 1662; Grose; Dickens. Ex its colour: cf. Welsh Gypsy melano, yellow, hence a sovereign.

Yellow Cat, the

. The Golden Lion, ‘a noted brothel in the Strand, so named by the ladies who frequented it’, Grose, 1st ed.: low: ca 1750–80.

yellow fancy

. A yellow silk handkerchief, white-spotted: pugilistic: from the 1830s.

yellow fever

. Gold-fever: Australian jocular coll: 1861, M’Combie, Australian Sketches. 2. Drunkenness: Greenwich Hospital (–1867); ob. Sailors there punished for drunkenness used to wear a parti-coloured coat, in which yellow predominated.

yellow gloak

*. A jealous man, esp. a jealous husband: c. of ca 1810–70. cf. YELLOW HOSE; see GLOAK.

yellow-hammer

. A gold coin: ca 1625–50. Middleton, Shirley. (cf. YELLOW BOY.) Ex the colour of the bird and the metal. 2. A charity boy in yellow breeches: C.19–20; slightly ob.

yellow hose or stockings, he wears

. He is jealous: coll: C.17–18. Dekker; Bailey.

yellow fack (or J.)

. Yellow fever: nautical: 1834, W.N.Glascock, Naval Sketch-Book. Ex the yellow jack or flag displayed at naval hospitals, and from vessels in quarantine to indicate a contagious disease.

yellow-jacket

. A wasp: Canadian coll: mid-C.19–20.

yellow-man

. A yellow silk handkerchief (cf. YELLOW FANCY); pugilistic and sporting: ca 1820–80. Sporting Magazine, 1821.

yellow mould

. A sovereign: tailors': from ca 1860; slightly ob.

yellow plaster

. Alabaster: provincial coll: from ca 1870. ?suggested by rhyme.

yellow silk

, n. Milk: rhyming s.: late C. 19–20.

yellow-stock

. A charity boy: London: C.19–20.

yellow stuff

*. Gold: c.: mid-C.19–20.

yellows (or Y.)

. Pupils at the Blue Coat School: London (–1887). Ex YELLOW-STOCKING.

yelper

. A town-crier: low: from early 1720s. 2. A wild beast: low: from ca 1820. 3. A whining fellow: coll: ca 1830–90. Sinks, 1848. 4. The Red-Necked Avocet: Australian: late C.19–20. Ex its distinctive call or note.

yelper, get the

. To be discharged from employment; proletarian: ca 1870–1910.

yen(n)ep

. A penny: back s. (–1859). Whence, e.g. yenep-a-time, a penny a time (a term in betting); yenep-flatch, 1 $\frac{1}{2}$ d.

yen(n)ork

. A crown (-piece): back s. (–1859); ob. Also YNORK.

yeoman of the mouth

. An officer attached to His (Her) Majesty's pantry: jocular nickname: late C.17–early 19.

yep

! Yes!: 1897, Kipling: low coll ex dial. and U.S.

yerknod; properly yeknod; loosely, jirknod

. A donkey: back s. (–1859).

yes—but in the right place

. A FAST girl's c.p. rejoinder to 'You're cracked' or 'You must be cracked': late C.19–20.

yes, she gave me

, see OUT?, DOES YOUR MOTHER...

yes'm; yessir

! An illiterate 'collision' of yes, ma'am! and yes, sir! C.19–20.

yeute

. No; not: Punch and Judy showmen's: mid-C.19–20.

Yid; loosely Yit (ob.)

. A Jew; orig. (–1874) and properly, a Jew speaking Yiddish. Also Yiddisher, recorded by Barrère & Leland, 1890: coll. Yiddish+ agential -er.

Yiddisher; Yit

, see YID.

yiesk

. (A) fish: Shelta: C.18–20.

yiū

. A street: Punch and Judy showmen's: mid-C.19–20. ?ex Fr. rue.

ynork

. Mostly in FLATCH ynork, a halfcrown: back s.: 1851, Mayhew, I. cf. YEN(N)ORK.

yo, Tommy

! ‘Exclamation of condemnation by the small actor [i.e. in minor theatres]. Amongst the lower classes it is a declaration of admiration addressed to the softer sex by the sterner,’ Ware, 1909. Perhaps this Tommy is related to that in hell and TOMMY.

yob

. A boy: back s. (–1859). 2. Hence, a youth: from ca 1890. ‘Pomes’ Marshall, ca 1897, ‘And you bet that each gal, not to mention each yob,|Didn’t care how much ooftish it cost ’em per nob.’

yob-gab

. Boys’ talk or ‘ziph’ (see p. 12): costers’ s., and c.: mid-C.19–20.

yock

. A fool; a simpleton: grafters’ s., and c.: mid-C.19–20. 2. A man: Shelta: C.18–20.

yokuff

. A large box, a chest: c. (–1812) >, ca 1850, low. Prob. a perversion of coffer.

yolly

. A post-chaise: ca 1840–1900 at Winchester College. Ex yellow, a colour frequent in these vehicles: cf. †yollow, yellow.

yonker

, see YOUNKER.

yinnie

. A pebble, small stone: Australian: late C.19–20. Aboriginal?

york

. ‘A look, or observation’, Vaux: c. or low: ca 1810–80. Ex:

york

*, v. To stare impertinently at: c. (–1812); †by 1880. Perhaps ex YORKSHIRE BITE, 1. 2. v.i. and t., to look (at), to examine: low: ca 1810–50.

York Street is concerned; there is Y.S. concerned

*. Someone is looking (hard): c. or low: ca.1810–60. cf. YORK, n. and v.

Yorkshire

. Orig. implied boorishness, but the connotation of cunning, (business) sharpness, or trickery appears as early as 1650. Variations of the latter senses occur in certain of the ensuing phrases, all of which have, from coll, >, by late C.19, S.E. (See also NORTH, 1.)

Yorkshire

, n. Sharp practice; cajolery: mid-C.19–20: coll (> S.E.) and dial. 2. Yorkshire pudding: coll: late C.19–20. Esp. in ‘roast and Yorkshire’.

Yorkshire

, v.t. To cheat, to take a person in, to prove too wide-awake for him: from ca 1870. Ex come (or put) Yorkshire on (or over) a person. F. & H.

Yorkshire bite

. A very ‘cute piece of overreaching: 1795. 2. Hence, a particularly sharp and/or overreaching person: 1801. See BITE, n., 6 and YORKSHIRE.

Yorkshire carrier, confident as a

. Cocksure: C.18–20; ob. Ward, 1706. See YORKSHIRE.

Yorkshire compliment

. ‘A gift useless to the giver and not wanted by the receiver’, F. & H.: mid-C.19–20; ob. See YORKSHIRE. Also, mainly dial., a NORTHCOUNTRY COMPLIMENT.

Yorkshire estate

. Money in prospect, a ‘castle in Spain’; esp. in when I come into my Yorkshire estates, when I have the means: mid-C.19–20; ob. See YORKSHIRE and cf. last entry.

Yorkshire hog

. A fat wether: 1772, Bridges, ‘A pastry-cook|That made good pigeon-pie of rook,|Cut venison from Yorkshire hogs|And made rare muttonpies of dogs’; Grose, 1st ed.; extremely ob. cf. COTSWOLD LION and see YORKSHIRE.

Yorkshire on (upon), put, C.18–20; come Yorkshire on (C.19–20), more gen. c. Y. over, app. first recorded in Grose, 1785. To cheat, dupe, overreach, be too wide-awake for (a person). The antidote is to be Yorkshire too, which phrase, however, is rare outside of dial., though Wolcot has it in 1796. See YORKSHIRE and cf. YORKSHIRE, v.

Yorkshire reckoning

. A reckoning, an entertainment, in which each person pays his share: mid-C.19–20. cf. dial. go Yorkshire, to do this. See YORKSHIRE.

Yorkshire tike or, gen., tyke

. A Yorkshireman: coll nickname: mid-C.17–20. Howell, 1659. Northern tike (rare) occurs in Deloney ca 1600. See TIKE for improving status of this term.

Yorkshire too, be; Yorkshire upon...

, see YORKSHIRE ON...

Yorkshire way-bit

. A distance greater than a mile: coll: ca 1630–1830. Cleveland, 1640. In the earliest record, Y. wea-bit.

Yorky

. A Yorkshireman (or -woman): coll: C.19–20. Boxiana II, 1818.

you and me

. A flea, also tea: rhyming s.: from ca 1880.

you are another!; you're another

! You also are a liar, thief, rogue, fool, or what you will: a c.p. retort (coll, not s.): C.16 (?earlier)–20. Udall; Fielding; Dickens, ““Sir,” said Mr Tupman, “you’re a fellow.” “Sir,” said Mr Pickwick, “you’re another””; Sir W.Harcourt, 1888, ‘Little urchins in the street have a conclusive argument. They say “You’re another”.’ A variant, late C.19–20 (?ob.), is so’s your father! In mid-C.19–20, the orig. phrase is almost meaningless, though slightly contemptuous.

you bet

, see BET!, YOU.

you can’t think

. You cannot imagine it; to an incredible degree: non-aristocratic, non-cultured c.p.: from ca 1890. W.Pett Ridge, Minor Dialogues, 1895, ‘She took up such a ’igh and mighty attitude, you can’t think.’ This you can’t think, coming at the end of a phrase or sentence, derives naturally ex that you can’t think! (s.v. THINK!, ONLY) which precedes a sentence.

you don’t look at the mantel-piece when (or while) you’re poking the fire

. A c.p. (verging on the proverbial) in reference to sexual intercourse: late C.19–20.

you fasten on

! Go on!; proceed: nonaristocratic: from ca 1870; ob.

you know

. This stop-gap, almost meaningless phrase ranks as coll and dates from at least as early as C.18.

you know what (? or !)

An introductory c.p., a mere announcer of a phrase or of a statement: mid-C.19–20; perhaps going back to late C.17.

you know what thought did

! see THOUGHT DID!

you'll be a long time dead

! see DEAD, YOU'LL BE A LONG TIME.

you'll get yourself disliked

. A satirical, proletarian c.p. addressed to anyone behaving objectionably: from ca 1878; now virtually S.E.

you'll wake up one of these mornings and find yourself dead

. An Anglo-Irish c.p. of late C.19–20.

you make me tired

! You bore me to tears: a c.p. introduced from U.S.A. in 1898 by the Duchess of Marlborough, 'a then leader of fashion' (Ware).

you may have broke your mother's heart(but) you (bloody well) won't break mine

! A military c.p., orig. and mostly drill- sergeants': from ca 1870, or earlier (?during the Napoleonic wars). cf. YOU SHAPE...

you must

. A crust: rhyming s.: late C.19–20.

you never did

. You never did hear the like of it; you've never heard anything so funny: Cockney coll: from ca 1870. A. Neil Lyons, Matilda's Mabel, 1903, 'My dearest Tilda. Such a go you never did! Mr Appleby proposed to me this afternoon!'

you never know

! You never know what may come of it: c.p.: late C.19–20.

you pays your money and you takes your choice

! You may choose what you like: c.p.: late C.19–20. Ex showmen's patter.

you shape like a whore at a christening

! A lower classes' and military (esp. drill-sergeants') c.p. to a clumsy person: from the 1890s, if not indeed considerably earlier.

you should pay for them

. A jocular c.p. addressed to one wearing squeaky boots or shoes: late C.19–20.

you talk like a halfpenny book

. You talk foolishly: a Liverpool c.p.: late C.19–20.

you (or you'd) want to know all the insandouts of a nag's arse

! You're very inquisitive: Cockney: late C.19–20.

you'd only spend it

. A c.p. reply to someone saying that he'd like to have a lot of money: late C.19–20.

you'd soon find it if there was hair round—or all around—it

! A drill sergeants' c.p. to very new recruits learning their rifle drill and forbidden to look what they're doing: C.20, or prob. since ca 1870.

youlie

, see YOWLIE.

you uns

. You: low: late C.19–20. Ex U.S. cf. rarer WE UNS.

young

. (Of inanimates) small, diminutive, not full-sized: mid-C.16–20: S.E. until, after virtually lapsing in C.17–early 19, it >, ca 1850, coll and jocular, as in Hornaday's 'Such a weapon is really a young cannon,' 1885.

young bear

. A young midshipman very recently come to his first ship: Naval: ca 1810–60. The Night Watch (II, 71), 1828; Dublin University Magazine, Sept. 1834, p. 243.

young fellow (or feller) me lad

. A semijocular term of address: coll: mid-C.19–20.

young gentleman, or man, lady or woman are coll when addressed in reproof or warning to persons of almost any age: from ca 1860. The first is also ironic coll for or to a midshipman from ca 1810.

young hopeful

, see HOPEFUL.

young lady

. A fiancée: low coll when not jocular: 1896, George Bernard Shaw. cf. YOUNG MAN and YOUNG WOMAN. 2. See YOUNG GENTLEMAN.

young man

. A sweetheart or lover; a fiancé: coll (in C.19, always low; in C.20, often jocular): 1851, Mayhew, ‘Treated to an ice by her young man—they seemed as if they were keeping company.’ cf. YOUNG WOMAN. 2. See YOUNG GENTLEMAN.

young one or un (or ’un)

. A child; a youth (rarely a girl): low coll: C.19–20; Lex. Bal., 1811, ‘A familiar expression of contempt for another’s ignorance, as “ah! I see you’re a young one”’; this nuance is ob. As a young person, young one (or ’un) may not precede the 1830s; the O.E.D. cites Egan at 1838. Opp. an old un, an old man, a father. 2. A truss of hay (as opposed to a rick): farmers’: from ca 1830.

young shaver

, see SHAVER.

Young Soldier

, see SOLDIER, n., 5.

young thing

. A youth 17–21 years old: masculine women's coll (–1909).

young 'un

, see YOUNG ONE.

young woman

. A sweetheart; a fiancée: coll: 1858 (O.E.D.). On YOUNG MAN. 2. See YOUNG GENTLEMAN.

youngster

. A child, esp. a boy; a young person (gen. male) not of age: coll: 1732, Berkeley. By natural extension of orig. sense.

yunker, earlier yonker

, may always be S.E., though H., 2nd ed., 'yunker, in street language, a lad or a boy', causes one to doubt it.

your humble condumble

. Your humble servant; I (myself): C.18. Scott, in letter of 30 Dec. 1808, 'Every assistance, that can be afforded by your humble condumble, as Swift says.' By rhyming reduplication. Recorded as early as Swift's Polite Conversation, 1738.

your nabs; your nibs; *your watch

*, see NABS; NIBS; WATCH, n.

your nose is bleeding

. Your trouser-fly is undone: c.p.: from ca 1885; slightly ob.

you're a big lad for your age

. A jocular c.p., addressed to an apprentice or other youthful worker: esp. in factories: late C. 19–20.

you're another

! see YOU ARE ANOTHER!

you're off the grass

! You haven't a chance: cricketers': ca 1900–14. i.e. outside the field.

you're so sharp you'll be cutting yourself

! A late C.19–20 c.p., addressed to a 'smart' person.

yourn

, see OURN.

yours and ours

. Flowers: rhyming s.: late C.19–20.

yours to a cinder

. A non-aristocratic c.p. ending to a letter: late C.19–20. Prob. orig. in the (coal-)mining centres.

yours truly

, see TRULY, YOURS.

you've fixed it up nicely for me

! No, you don't!; do you think I'm green?!: proletarian c.p.: ca 1880–1910.

you've got eyes in your head, haven't you

? A disparaging c.p.: late C.19–20.

yowlie or -y

. A member of the watch; a policeman: Edinburgh s.: C.19–20; ob. Jamieson, 'A low term' that prob. derives ex 'their youling or calling the bours'. Occ. youlie.

yoxter

*. 'A convict returned from transportation before his time', H., 3rd ed.: c. of ca 1860–90. Origin?

y'see

. You see: coll (–1887).

yum

. Yes: slovenly coll: mid-C.19–20.

yum-yum

. Excellent; first rate: orig. (–1904) and mostly low. Ex yum-yum!, an exclamation of animal satisfaction (with, e.g., exquisite or delicious food). cf. YAM.

yus(s)

. Yes: Cockney: C.19–20.

Z

'Z

. The 'S of oaths: see 'S. cf. ZOOKS and 'ZOUNDS!

zack

. Sixpence: New Zealand and Australian: since ca 1890. Perhaps a perversion of six; but cf. Dutch zaakje, 'small affair'.

zactly

. Exactly: low coll (–1887).

zad; mere zad

. A bandy-legged and/or crooked-backed person: ca 1720–1840. A New Canting Dict., 1725. cf. crooked as the letter ZED. 2. Occ. of a thing: same period.

zanth

. A chrysanthemum: market-gardners' coll: late C.19–20.

zarnder

. The same as a TUBBICHON: London lower classes': ca 1863–70. Owing to its adoption by Princess (later Queen) Alexandra.

zarp; gen. Zarp

. A policeman: the Transvaal: 1897, Cape Argus, weekly ed., 8 Dec.; ob. An anagram ex Zuid Afrikaansche Republick Politie, the South African Republic Police. Pettman.

zat

? How's that?: cricketers' coll: late C.19–20.

'Zbloud; 'Zdeath

, see 'SBLOOD, 'SDEATH.

zeb

. Best: back s. (–1859). Modified tseb.

zed, crooked as the letter

. Very crooked: coll (–1785) > ca 1840, dial. See also ZAD.

zed (gen. zedding) about

. To zigzag, to diverge: Society: ca 1883–1900. Perhaps punning gad(d)ing about.

Zedland

. The South-Western counties of England: s. or perhaps coll: from 1780s; very ob. There, dialectally, s is pronounced as z.

ziff

*. A young thief: c. (–1864). ?thief perverted.

zigzig

, n. and v. Copulation; to copulate: Services’: late C.19–20. A word known and used throughout the Near and Middle East, and in the Mediterranean. Ultimately, probably echoic. cf. JIG—A—JIG.

zip

, n. An echoic word indicative of the noise made by (say) a bullet or a mosquito in its passage through the air: coll: 1875, Fogg.

zip

, v.i. To make a zip sound: coll: from ca 1880.

Zlead(s), Zlid; 'Zlife

. Minced oaths: coll: C.17–18. i.e. God's lids, life.

znees; zneesy

. Frost; frosty or frozen: ca 1780–1840, but perhaps covering a period as great as C.18–mid-19. Perhaps as S.W. England coll; app. it is not dial. Perhaps ex sneeze, sneezy, which are, however, unrecorded in these senses. cf.:

znuz

, a variant of ZNEES.

zoo

. Zoological gardens (London, or elsewhere). Macauley, ca 1847, ‘We treated the Clifton Zoo much too contemptuously.’ The zoo has been telescoped to one syllable.

zooks

. Sweets: schoolchildren’s, esp. in West Country: late C.19–20. Ex dial. form of SUCKS=suckers, sweets.

Zooks!; Zookers!; Zoodikers! (rare); 'Zoonters

! Oaths and asseverations: coll: C.17–mid-19. See ODS.

zouch

. A churl; an unmannerly fellow: C.18. Street Robberies Consider’d, 1728. Perhaps ex ouch, the exclamation.

zouch

, see SYCHER.

'Zounds

! An oath or asseveration: late C.16–20: coll until C.19, then archaic S.E. except when dial. Euphemistic abbr. by God's wounds. cf. ZOOKS!

Text copyright © Eric Partridge. This abridgement copyright © Penguin

Books Ltd., 1972