

Flags of Morocco

Flags criteria:

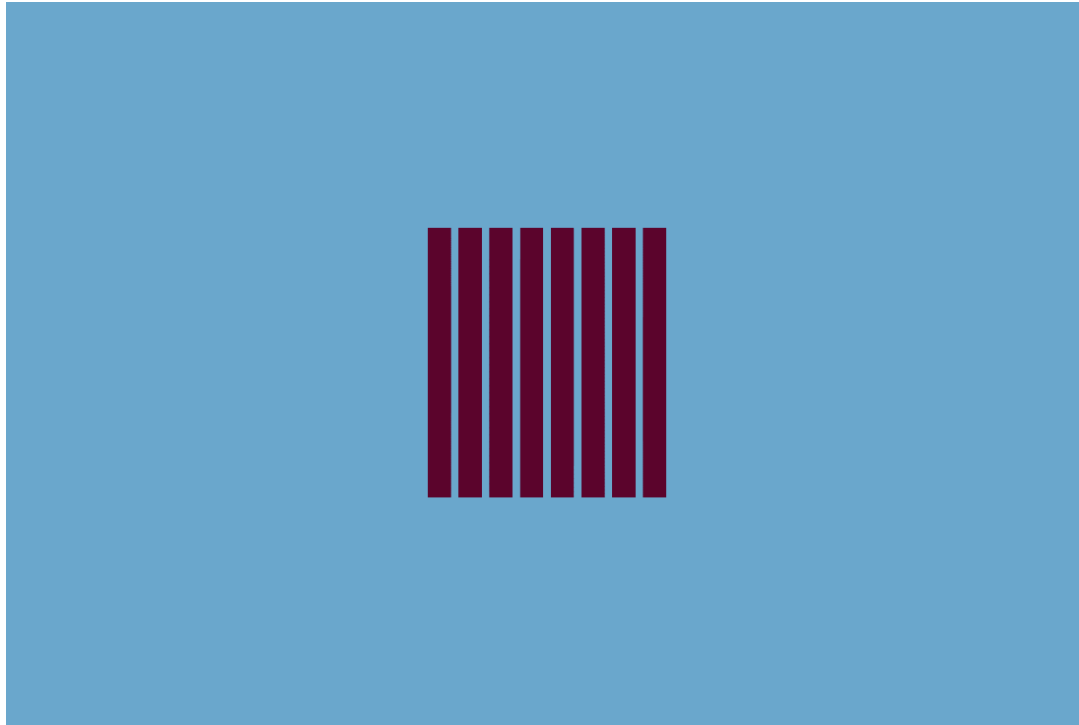

- No plain text featured for these reasons:
 1. Text is unreadable when the flag is small, reversed, in a distance, or waving.
 2. To avoid giving preference to the language the text written in, to retain an essence of neutrality.
- No ethnic/religious symbols featured to maintain neutrality.
- Follows the main Moroccan national flag:
 1. The flag width-to-length ratio is 2:3.
 2. Simplicity over complexity: easy to draw.
 3. Single-colored background.
 4. A device at the center with a distinct color.

Index

- Tanger-Tétouan-Al Hoceïma
- The Oriental
- Fès-Meknès
- Rabat-Salé-Kénitra
- Béni Mellal-Khénifra
- Casablanca-Settat
- Marrakech-Safi
- Drâa-Tafilalet
- Souss-Massa
- Guelmim-Oued Noun
- Laâyoune-Sakia El Hamra
- Dakhla-Oued Ed-Dahab

Tanger-Tétouan-Al Hoceïma

Flag of Tanger-Tétouan-Al Hoceïma

The flag's device is inspired by the traditional striped clothes found exclusively in this region, featuring its eight administrative prefectures.

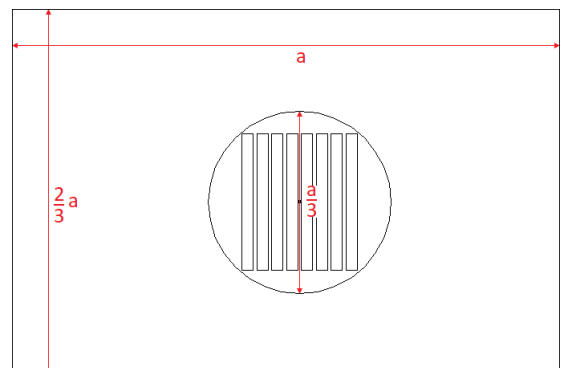

The back-color is inspired by the sky-blue city of Chefchaouen, the most touristic destination in the region, it also refers to the region's marine richness, as it is the only region with two seabords.

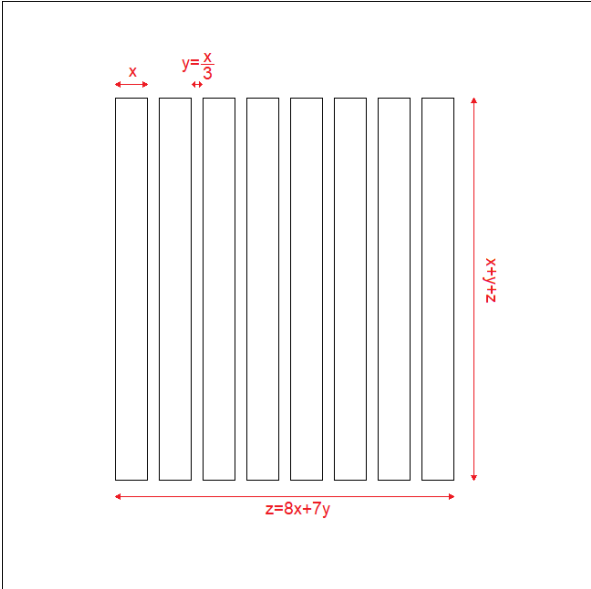

Traditional clothes

Details

- Back-color Hexadecimal code: #6AA7CC
- Device's color Hexadecimal code: #66042D
- The device fits in a circle its diameter is $\frac{1}{3}$ of the flag width.
- AI File

Device's construction details:

Grayscale test:

Waving simulation:

The Oriental

Flag of The Oriental

The background-color represents the region's landscape which is overwhelmingly influenced by forests of cladium mariscus (Helfa) plants.

The device is basically eight curved lines referring to the region's administrative prefectures, shaping a wave that symbolize the region's famous beaches, the blue-colored four lines designate the moisty northern prefectures compared to the drought southern ones presented by outlining.

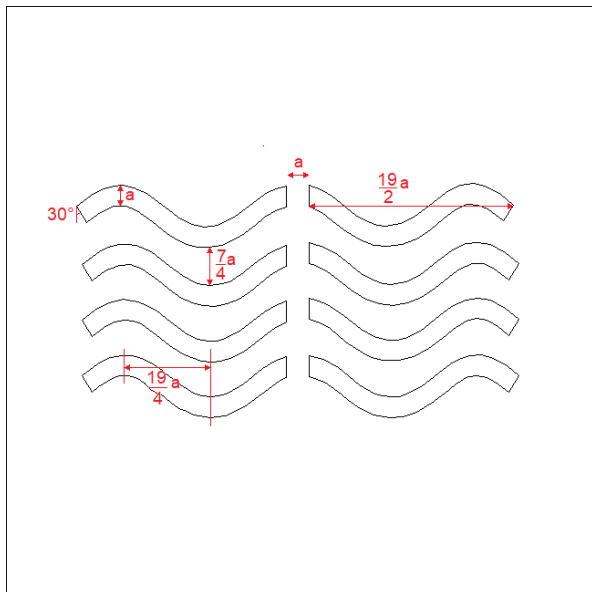

Cladium Mariscus

Details

- Back-color Hexadecimal code: #579720
- Device's color Hexadecimal code: #0B4FA0
- The device fits in a circle its diameter is $\frac{1}{3}$ of the flag width.
- AI File

Device's construction details:

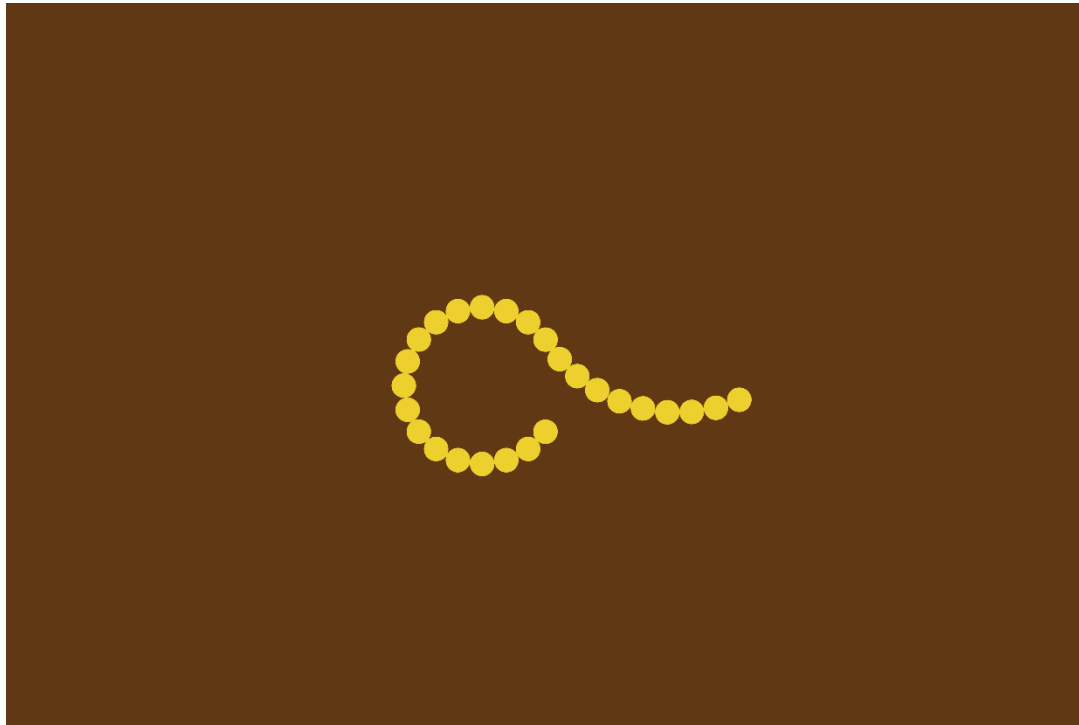

Grayscale test:

Waving simulation:

Fès-Meknès

Flag of Fes-Meknes

The background-color represents the region's status as one of the most important agricultural poles on the national level.

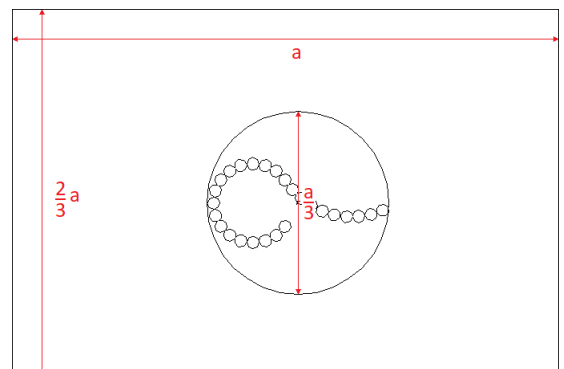

The device, a hook-like stitch often found embroidered on the traditional Balgha, represents the region's precious legacy of traditional handicrafts, the device itself fragmented into 26 pieces which is the number of the region's administrative circles, colored in yellow to represent enlightenment and creativity.

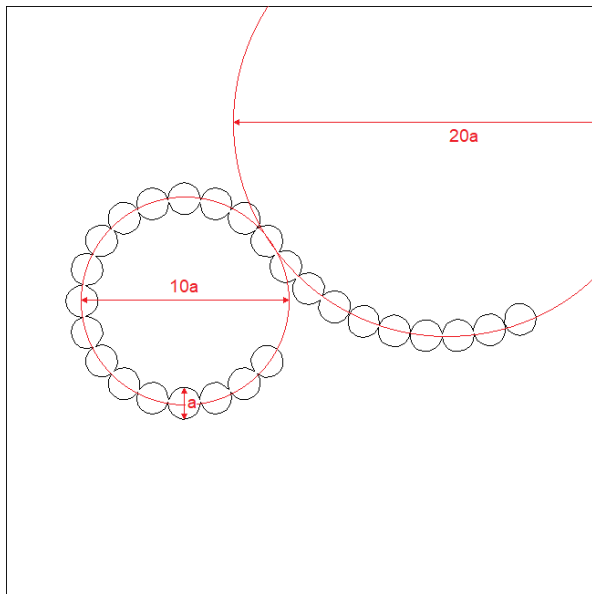

Balgha stitch

Details

- Back-color Hexadecimal code: #603814
- Device's color Hexadecimal code: #EDCF2E
- The device fits in a circle its diameter is $\frac{1}{3}$ of the flag width.
- AI File

Device's construction details:

Grayscale test:

Waving simulation:

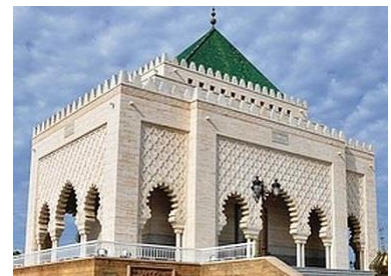

Rabat-Salé-Kénitra

Flag of Rabat-Sale-Kenitra

The background-color, the most visible color of the spectrum, reflects the region's status of containing the country's capital.

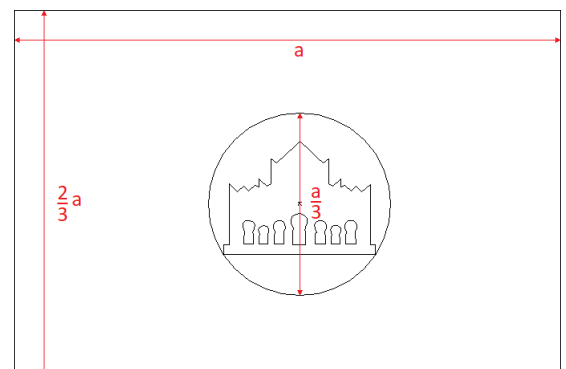

The device, inspired from the front side of the Mohamed V mausoleum, it represents the kingdom's administrative and diplomatic institutions generally concentrated in Rabat, it has seven gates, representing the region's prefectures and provinces, colored in red as a symbol of authority.

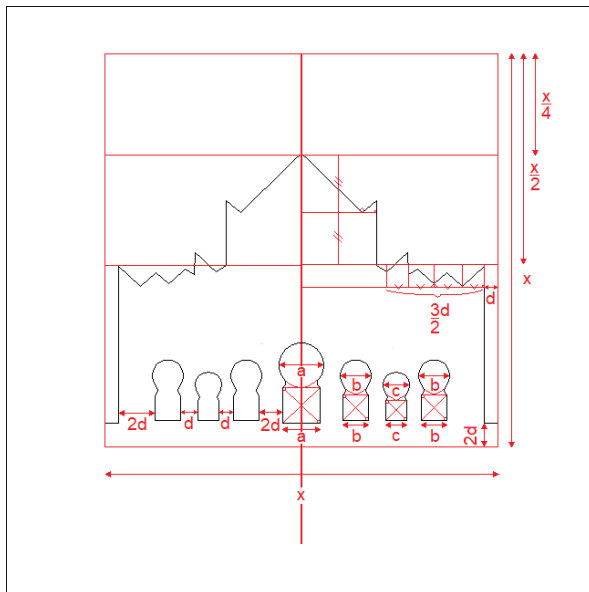

Mohamed V Mausoleum

Details

- Back-color Hexadecimal code: #BECE21
- Device's color Hexadecimal code: #C33319
- The device fits in a circle its diameter is $\frac{1}{3}$ of the flag width.
- AI File

Device's construction details:

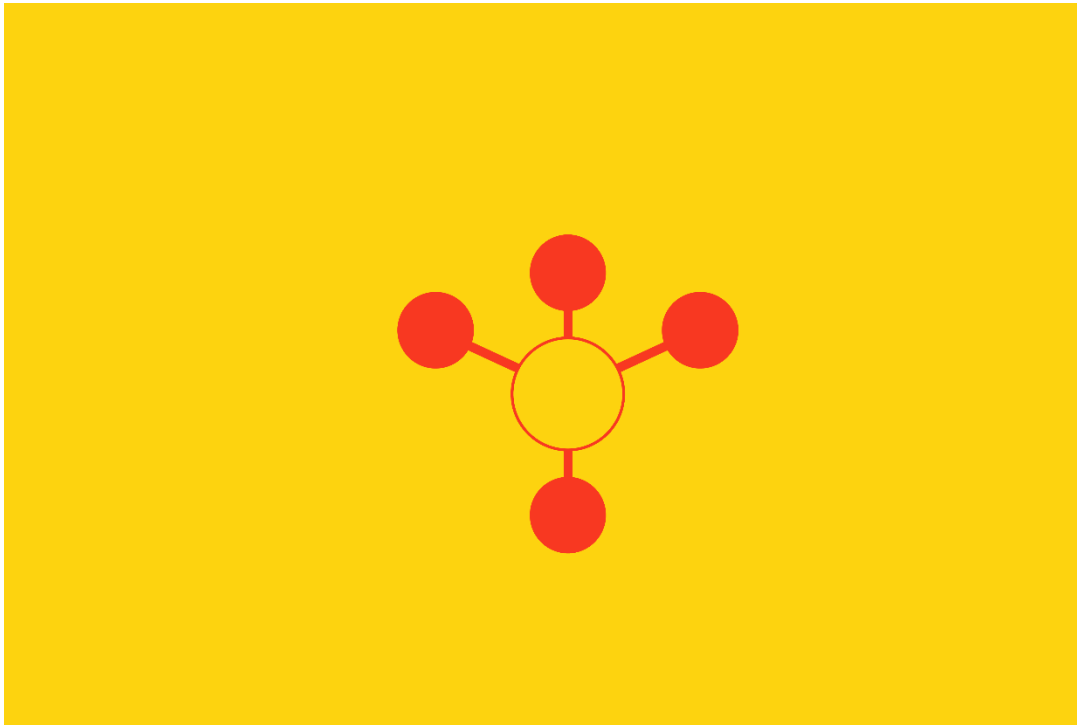

Grayscale test:

Waving simulation:

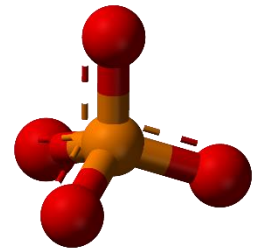

Béni Mellal-Khénifra

Flag of Beni Mellal-Khenifra

The background-color represents the region's legacy of fortresses and monuments having a yellowish color.

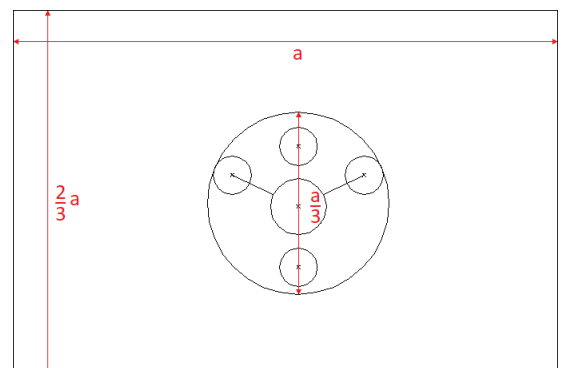

The device is five connected circles representing the region's provinces, which forms a shape like the phosphate molecule as the region holds 33% of the world's phosphate reserves.

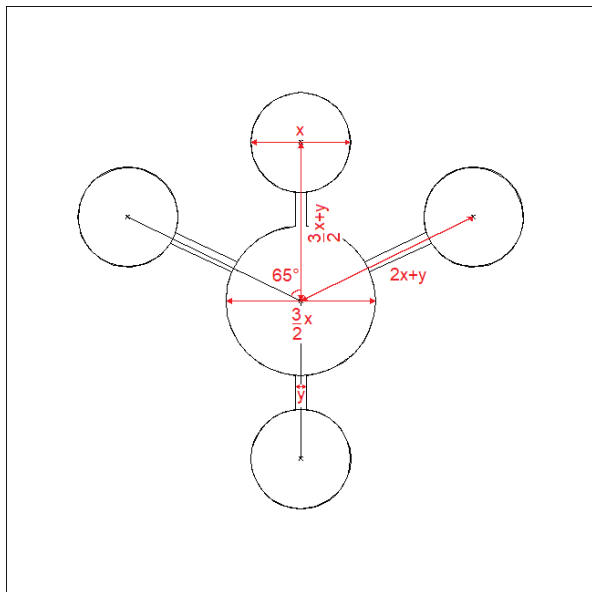

A Phosphate Molecule

Details

- Back-color Hexadecimal code: #FDD30F
- Device's color Hexadecimal code: #F83821
- The device fits in a circle its diameter is $\frac{1}{3}$ of the flag width.
- AI File

Device's construction details:

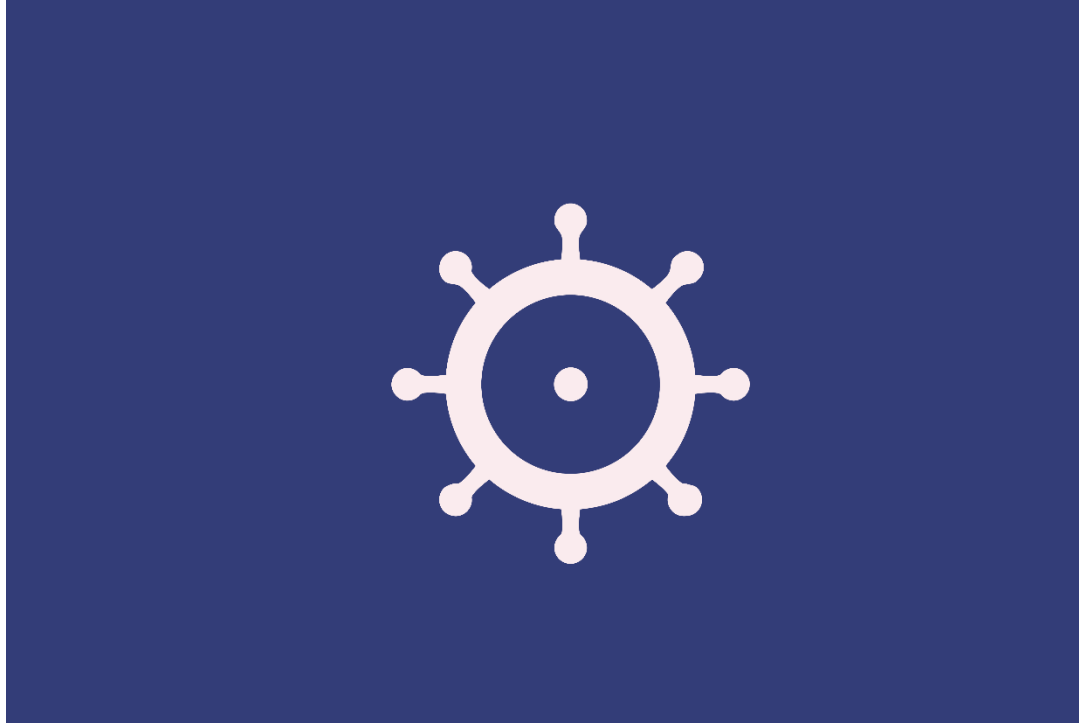

Grayscale test:

Waving simulation:

Casablanca-Settat

Flag of Casablanca-Settat

The background-color represents the region's location on the Atlantic coast, the river of Oum Er-rbia that divide the region into two plains and many reservoirs that provide water for the region.

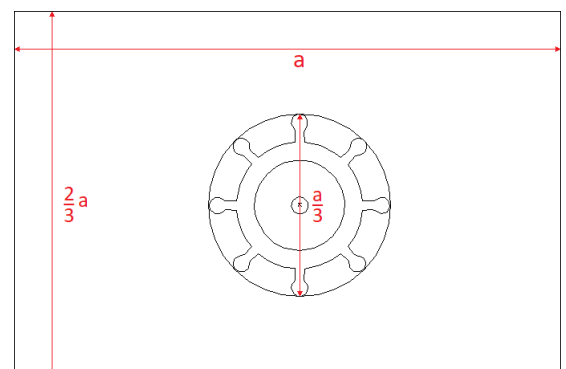

The device is simply a helm representing the region status as the kingdom's industrial, commercial, and financial wheel, it refers also to its possession of one of the largest ports for export and import in North Africa. The wheel's eight rounded peaks plus the circle in the middle represents the region's prefectures and provinces. Its white color inspired from the region's largest city's name: Casablanca (The white house)

Casablanca Port

Details

- Back-color Hexadecimal code: #333D78
- Device's color Hexadecimal code: #FAEBEE
- The device fits in a circle its diameter is $\frac{1}{3}$ of the flag width.
- AI File

Device's construction details:

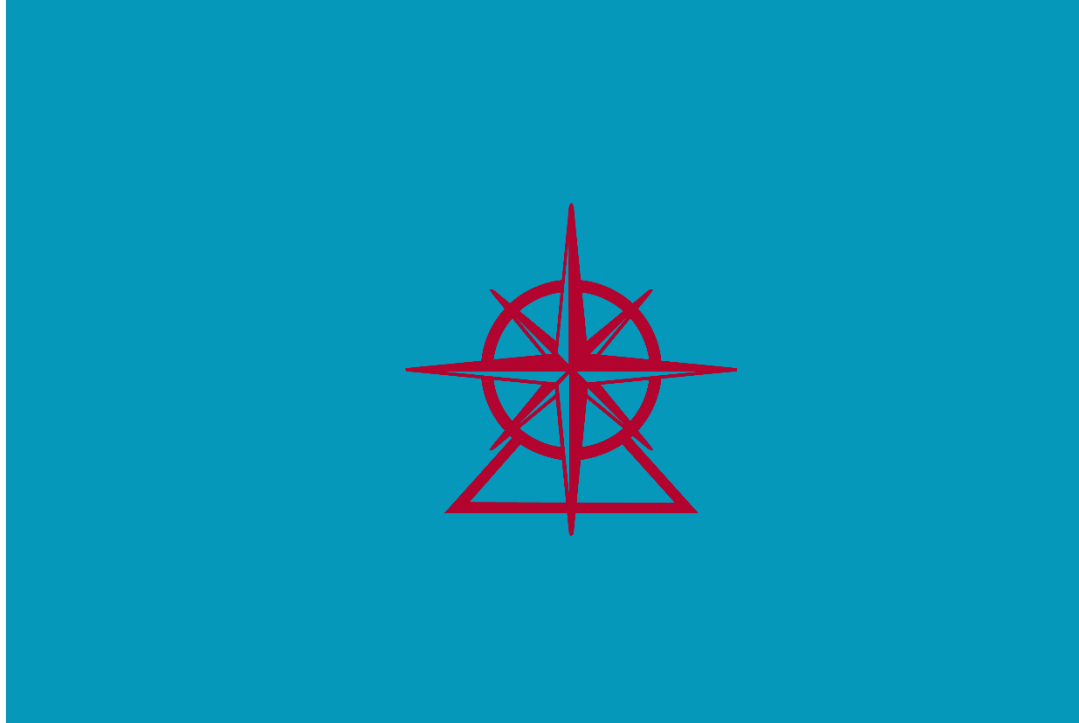

Grayscale test:

Waving simulation:

Marrakesh-Safi

Flag of Marrakesh-Safi

The background-color represents the region's fish wealth, especially in Safi, which considered the fishing capital.

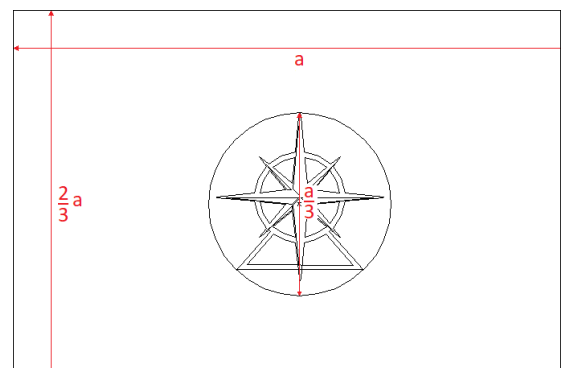

The device is quite composite, the compass-like shape symbolizes the region's ranking as the most visited tourist destinations, its center is at the summit of a triangle refers to Mt Toubkal, the highest point in the Arab world, the compass' eight points indicates the region's prefecture and provinces, also the shining circle represent the hot climate that sometimes exceed 40°C. The device's reddish color inspired by the region's capital epithet "the red city", and from its hot summertime climate.

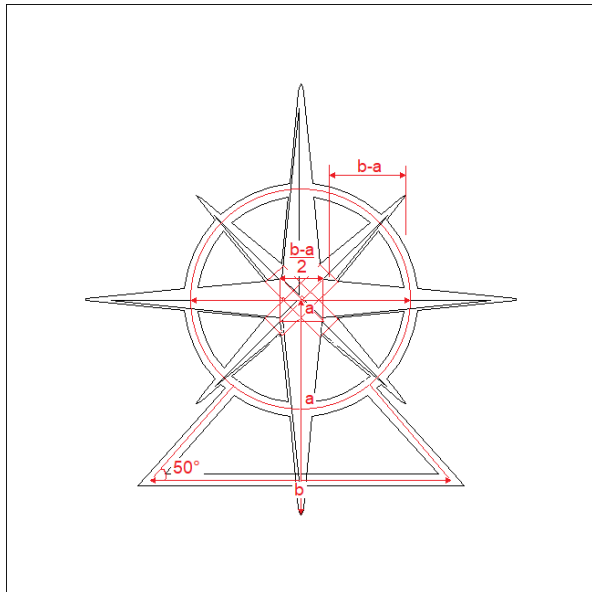

Mt Toubkal Summit

Details

- Back-color Hexadecimal code: #0698BA
- Device's color Hexadecimal code: #B2042E
- The device fits in a circle its diameter is 1/3 of the flag width.
- AI File

Device's construction details:

Grayscale test:

Waving simulation:

Darâa-Tafilalet

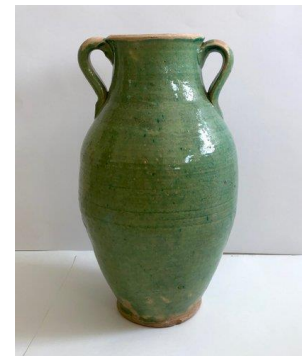

Flag of Darâa-Tafilalet

The background-color is inspired by the paint of the buildings in the region.

The device, a palm tree, represents the desert environment, the oases, and the fruits mainly harvested from this tree in this region, it has five branches that represents the provinces of the region.

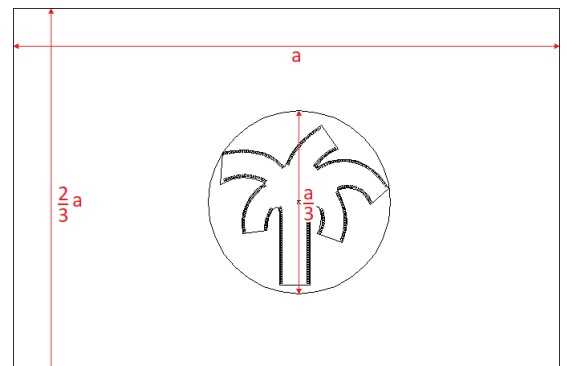

The device also is a pile of film tape, referring to the film-making industry concentrated in Ouarzazate area, widely known as the African Hollywood. It is colored as the region's green glaze pottery from Tamegroute.

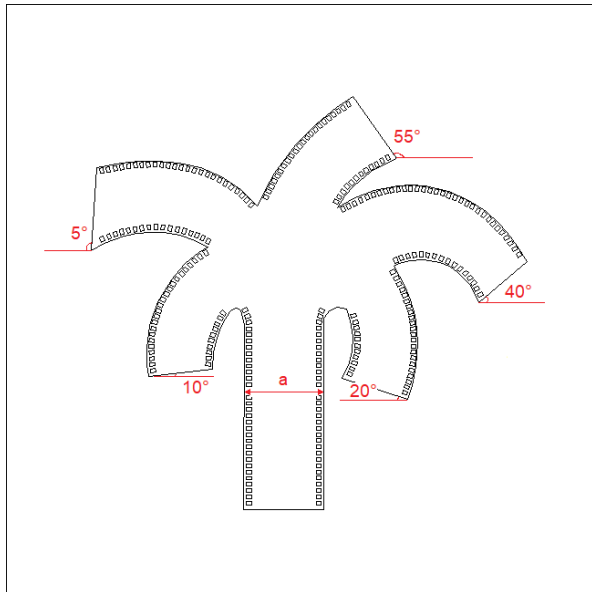

Tamegroute Pottery

Details

- Back-color Hexadecimal code: #D69076
- Device's color Hexadecimal code: #3D5315
- The device fits in a circle its diameter is 1/3 of the flag width.
- AI File

Device's construction details:

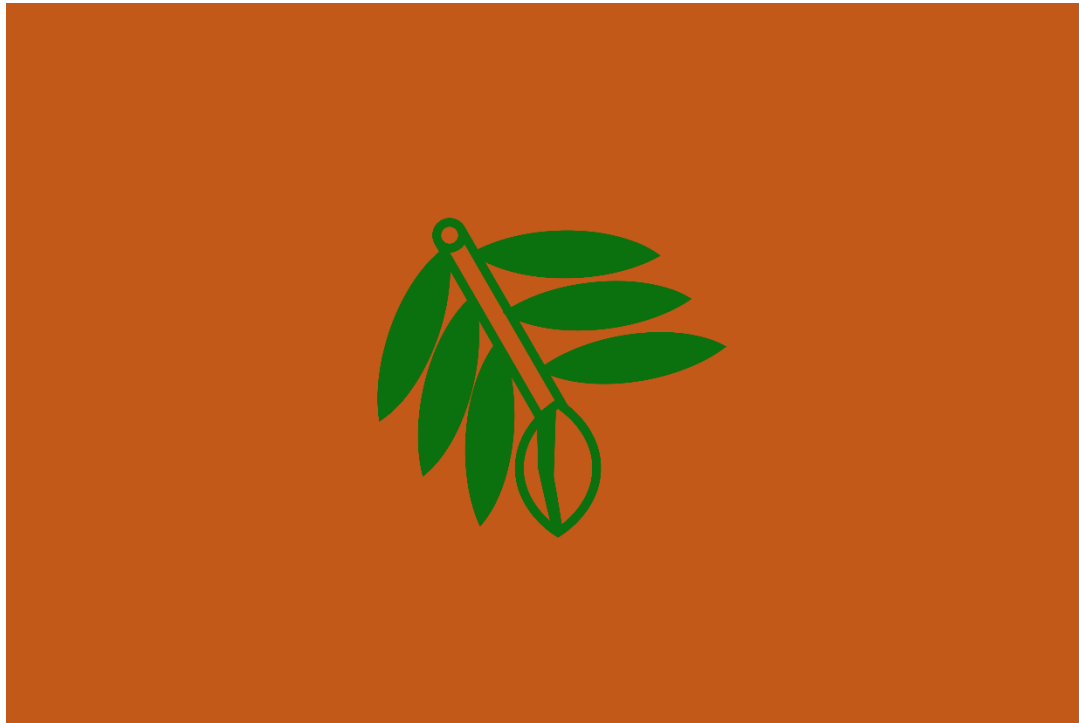

Grayscale test:

Waving simulation:

Souss-Massa

Flag of Souss-Massa

The device, an Argania twig refers the region's possession of most of the Argania plants in the world, it has six leaves as the region's prefectures and provinces, colored in green to indicate the region main economical activity which is agriculture.

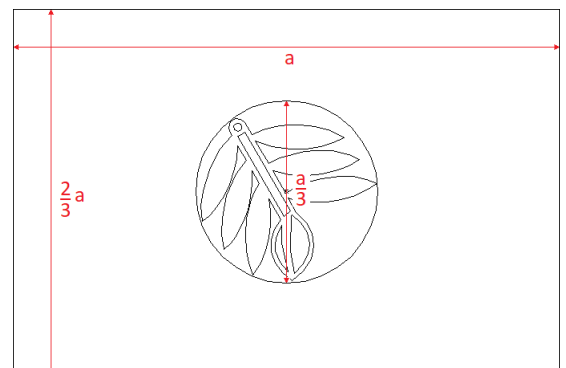

The background-color is inspired by the color of the Argania seed it represents uniqueness and success.

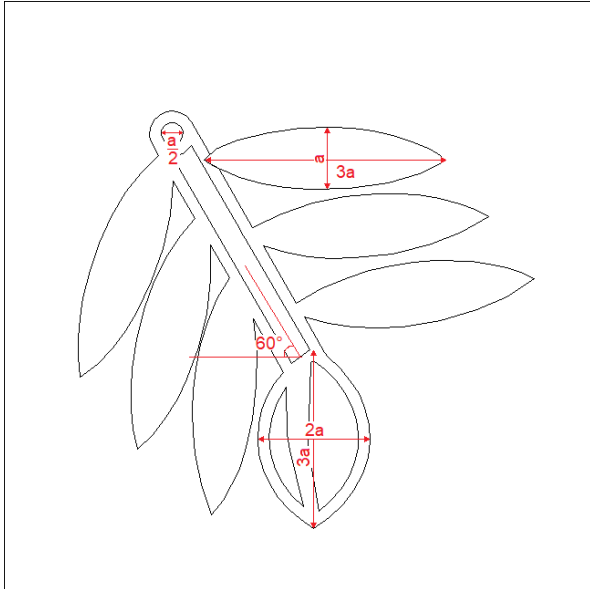

Argania spinosa twig

Details

- Back-color Hexadecimal code: #C25918
- Device's color Hexadecimal code: #0B700E
- The device fits in a circle its diameter is $\frac{1}{3}$ of the flag width.
- AI File

Device's construction details:

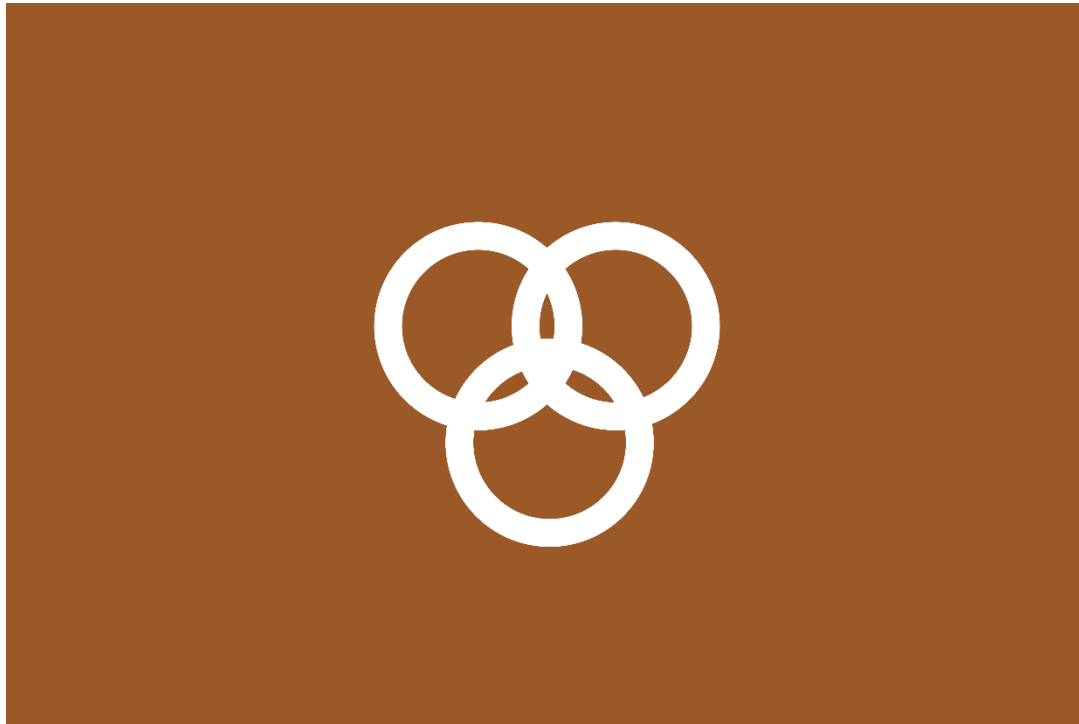

Grayscale test:

Waving simulation:

Guelmim-Oued Noun

Flag of Guelmim-Oued Noun

The background color is inspired by the color of the region's soil, in reference to its archaeological and ethnographic heritage.

The device refers to the region's role as a crossroads between North and South, creating an environment of ethnic and cultural mixing between its three elements, Berber, Arab and African.

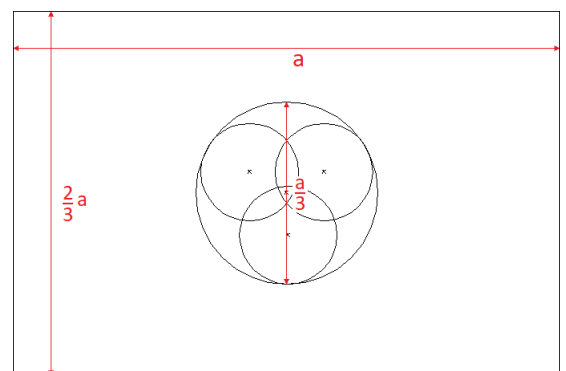

It is colored in white as a symbol of peace.

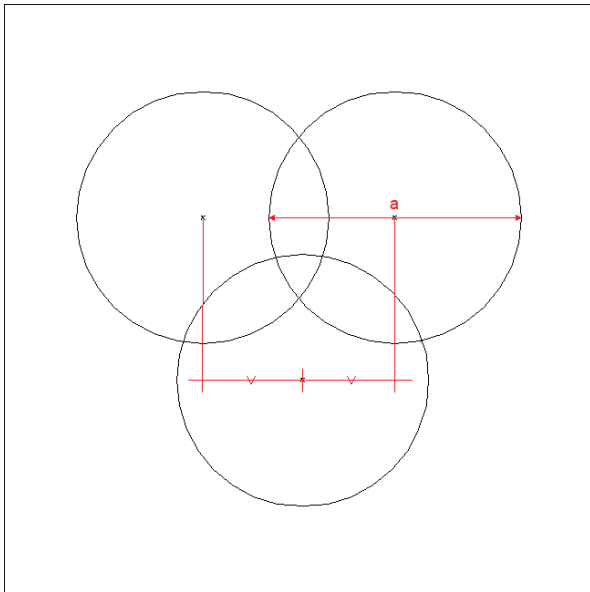

Rock engravings

Details

- Back-color Hexadecimal code: #9B5927
- Device's color Hexadecimal code: #FFFFFF
- The device fits in a circle its diameter is $\frac{1}{3}$ of the flag width.
- AI File

Device's construction details:

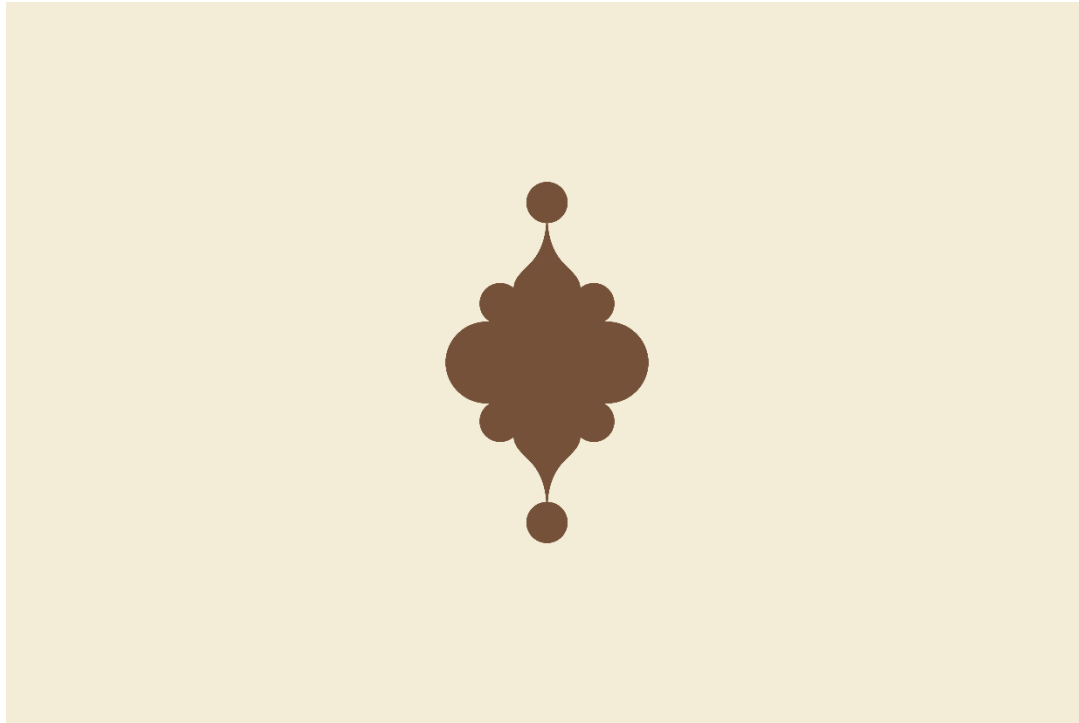

Grayscale test:

Waving simulation:

Laâyoune-Sakia El Hamra

Flag of Laâyoune-Sakia El Hamra

The flag is inspired by the traditional local attire, generally found in both regions in the Sahara, although this one has a unique white cloth.

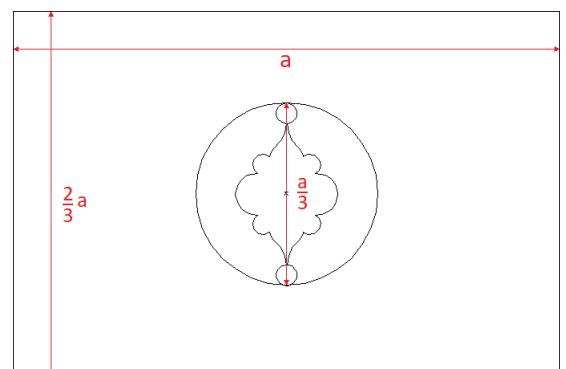

The device, a selected shape among others that are found embroidered in this attire, because of its esthetic proprieties. It does have six circles that represents the provinces of Sahara, that this region holds from them four.

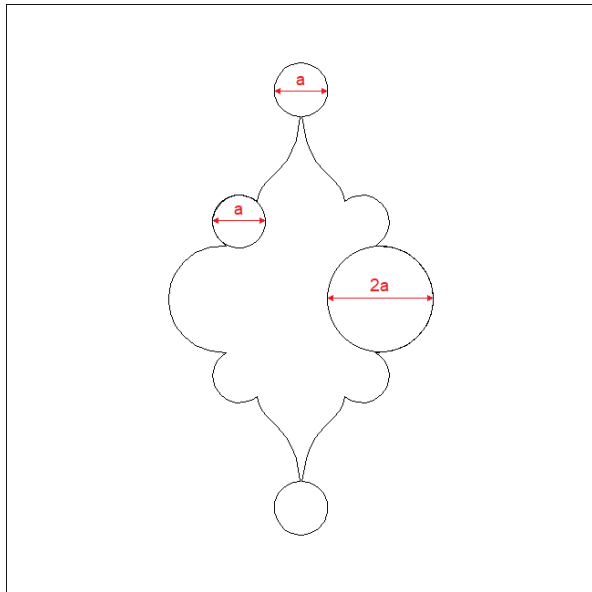

Traditional clothes

Details

- Back-color Hexadecimal code: #F3EDD7
- Device's color Hexadecimal code: #755139
- The device fits in a circle its diameter is $\frac{1}{3}$ of the flag width.
- AI File

Device's construction details:

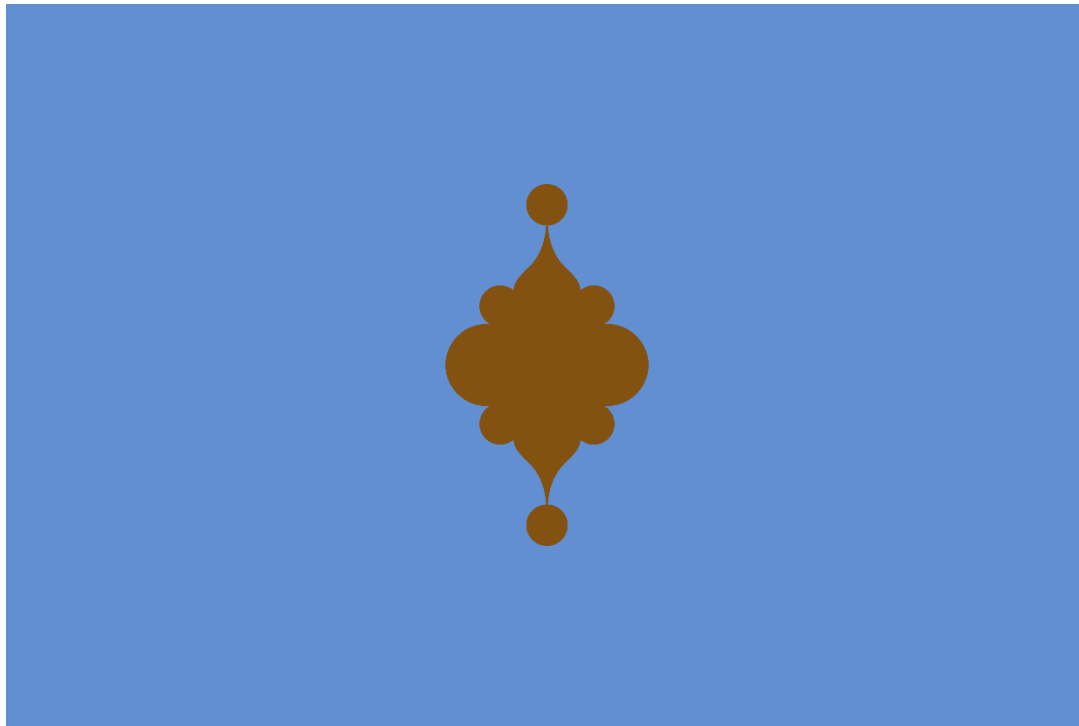

Grayscale test:

Waving simulation:

Dakhla-Oued Ed-Dahab

Flag of Dakhla-Oued Ed-Dahab

The flag is inspired by the traditional local attire, generally found in both regions in the Sahara, although this one has a unique blue cloth.

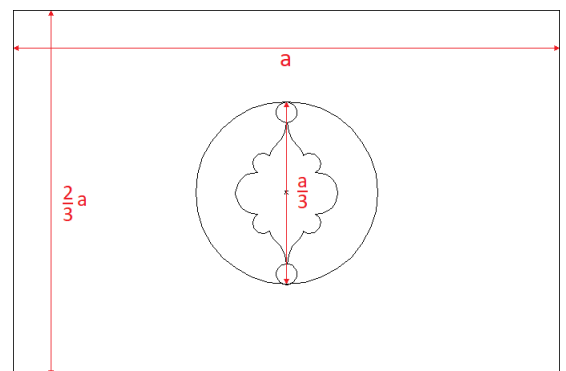

The device, a selected shape among others that are found embroidered in this attire, because of its esthetic proprieties. It does have six circles that represents the provinces of Sahara, that this region holds from them two.

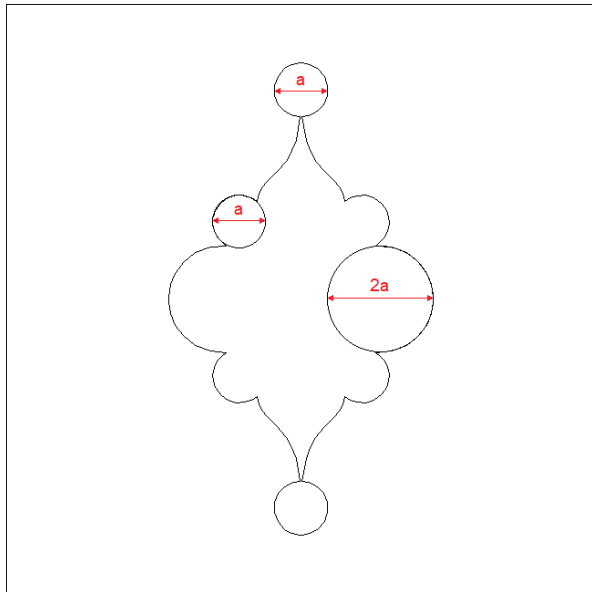

Traditional clothes

Details

- Back-color Hexadecimal code: #618FD1
- Device's color Hexadecimal code: #845210
- The device fits in a circle its diameter is $\frac{1}{3}$ of the flag width.
- AI File

Device's construction details:

Grayscale test:

Waving simulation:

