How to Play the Piano

1. Select the right key
2. Put it in the piano and open it (not essential, if you can't play)
3. Once the piano is fully open, put your fingers on top of the notes
4. Move your fingers about, making sure they hit the right notes in the correct order*
5. Watch your friends be amazed

 Like a pianist*

Foreword by Elvis Presley

Afterword by Brigadier N.Q.T.F. Sixpence

A Foreword by Elvis Presley

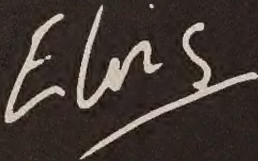

Hi. You know, whenever I'm browsing through a shopping mall, or busy buying groceries at a supermarket, I often find myself humming one of the many happy songs that these Monty Python guys have churned out over the years.

"I'm a lumberjack and I'm okay," I'll find myself crooning as I tip a grocery clerk a new pink Cadillac, or "Isn't it awfully nice to have a penis," I'll sing as I buy some more Listerine.

It's amazing how often I find myself breaking into "Ya Di Bucketty", especially when the holidays come around. How I wish I could have that on my Christmas album. And I'd give anything to have recorded the "Bruces' Philosophers Song", instead of "All Shook Up".

Listen, if you ask me these guys are the greatest, and if only I were alive today I would be covering some of their epoch-making songs. But excuse me now y'all, as I have to go out and visit some more supermarkets, so the folks in America will know I'm still around.

Hope ya enjoy this book as much as me,

Sheet music for the song "Do What John?". The music is written on three staves in 4/4 time. The lyrics are written below the notes.

Chorus:

Do what John? Do what John? Come a-gain do what? Do what John? Do what John? Do what? Do what? Do what? Do where John? Do where John? Wiv what, wiv whom and when? Trif-fic, real-ly trif-fic! Par-don? Come a- gain?

Chords: C, G7, C, F, C, G7, C

HOW TO READ THE MUSIC IN THIS BOOK.

Some of the notes in this book are very old indeed. Mozart is known to have used several of them and Beethoven too was not averse to putting them in his songs.

The Pythons have selected the best of these notes to be in their songbook.

Chords: G, D7, D#dim, Em, B7, Em, B7, Em, D, D7, G, C, G, A7, D, G, C, B7, Em, D7, G, C, D, G.

Lyrics:
 O Lord, please don't burn us, Don't grill or toast your flock. Don't put us on the bar - be - cue, Or simmer us in stock. Don't braise or bake or boil us, Or stir fry us in a wok.

O LORD, please don't burn us,
 Don't grill or toast your flock,
 Don't put us on the barbecue,
 Or simmer us in stock,
 Don't braise or bake or boil us,
 Or stir-fry us in a wok.

2* Oh please don't lightly poach us,
 Or baste us with hot fat,
 Don't fricassee or roast us,
 Or boil us in a vat,
 And please don't stick thy servants, Lord,
 In a Rotissomat.

Immanuel Kant was a real piss ant
Who was very rarely stable,
Heidegger, Heidegger was a boozy beggar
Who could think you under the table,
David Hume could out-consume
Wilhelm Friedrich Hegel,
And Wittgenstein was a beery swine
Who was just as schloshed as Schlegel.
There's nothing Nietzsche couldn't teach ya
'Bout the raising of the wrist,
Socrates, himself, was permanently pissed.

John Stuart Mill, of his own free will,
On half a pint of shandy was particularly ill,
Plato, they say, could stick it away,
Half a crate of whisky every day.
Aristotle, Aristotle was a bugger for the bottle,
Hobbes was fond of his dram,
And René Descartes was a drunken fart,
"I drink, therefore I am."
Yes Socrates, himself, is particularly missed,
A lovely little thinker,
But a bugger when he's pissed.

Hand-drawn musical score for "The Proust Song" by The Prousts. The score is written on two systems of three staves each. The top system features a vocal melody with lyrics "la la la la la la la la", a guitar part with chords Bbm, F7, Db, Ab, and Eb7, and a bass line. The bottom system continues the melody with lyrics "wrote a-bout", "Proust in his first book", and "in his first book". The guitar part includes chords Db, Ab, Bbm7, and Eb7, and a "Gong" effect. The bass line provides a steady accompaniment.

Detailed description: This is a musical score for the song 'Brave Sir Robin'. It is written for a single melodic line in treble clef, with a key signature of one sharp (F#) and a time signature of 6/8. The score is divided into three systems. The first system contains the first line of music, with lyrics 'Brave-ly bold Sir Ro-bin rode forth from Ca-me-let. He was not a-'. The second system contains the second line of music, with lyrics 'fraid to die, brave Sir Ro-bin. He was not at all a-fraid to be'. The third system contains the third line of music, with lyrics 'killed in nas-ty ways. Brave, brave, brave, brave Sir Ro-bin.' The score includes various musical notations such as notes, rests, and bar lines. Above the first system, the chords Em, B7, and Em are indicated. Above the second system, the chords D, G, and G are indicated. Above the third system, the chords D, Asus 4, D, Em, D, G, D, and B7 are indicated.

Bravely bold Sir Robin rode forth from Camelot
He was not afraid to die, o brave Sir Robin
He was not at all afraid to be killed in nasty ways
Brave, brave, brave, brave Sir Robin

He was not in the least bit scared to be mashed into a pulp
Or to have his eyes gouged out and his elbows broken
To have his kneecaps split and his body burned away
And his limbs all hacked and mangled, brave Sir Robin

His head smashed in and his heart cut out
And his liver removed and his bowels unplugged
And his nostrils raped and his bottom burnt off and his penis...

He is brave Sir Robin, Brave Sir Robin who...
To fight and.....

Brave Sir Robin ran away
Bravely, ran away... away...
When danger reared its ugly head
He bravely turned his tail and fled

Yes, brave Sir Robin turned about
And gallantly he chickened out
Bravely taking to his feet
He beat a very brave retreat
Bravest of the brave, Sir Robin

Knights of the Round Table

The musical score is written on three staves in 4/4 time. The first staff begins with a treble clef and a key signature of one flat (B-flat). The melody starts with a half note B-flat, followed by a quarter note D, a quarter note F, and a quarter note G. The lyrics 'We're Knights of the Round Ta - ble, We dance when e'er we're a - ble, We' are written below the first staff. The second staff continues the melody with a half note A, a quarter note B, a quarter note C, and a quarter note D. The lyrics 'do rou - tines and cho - rus scenes with foot-work im - pec - ca - ble. We' are written below the second staff. The third staff concludes the melody with a half note E, a quarter note F, a quarter note G, and a quarter note A. The lyrics 'dine well here in Ca-me-lot. We eat ham and jam-and spam-a lot.' are written below the third staff. Chord symbols (C, B7, Am, Dm7) are placed above the staves to indicate the harmonic structure.

We're Knights of the Round Ta - ble, We dance when e'er we're a - ble, We do rou - tines and cho - rus scenes with foot-work im - pec - ca - ble. We dine well here in Ca-me-lot. We eat ham and jam-and spam-a lot.

We're Knights of the Round Table,
We dance when e'er we're able,
We do routines and chorus scenes with footwork impeccable.

We dine well here in Camelot,
We eat ham and jam and Spam a lot.

We're Knights of the Round Table,
Our shows are formidable,
But many times, we're given rhymes

The Background to History

(from the hit Broadway musical An Introduction to the Open Field System in Mediaeval England Part IV)

A new series on Radio 3, introduced by Professor Angus Jones of the Open University
Part IV: The Open Field Farming System in Mediaeval England

PROF. JONES: One of the main elements in any study of the mediaeval open-field farming system is the allocation of plough teams for the winter sowing.
Professor Tofts of the University of Manchester puts it like this:

Molto Marlioso

Musical score for "Molto Marlioso" in C major, common time. The melody is simple and pastoral, with lyrics about winter sowing. Chords are indicated above the staff: (F), C, G, F, G, F, C, G, C, G, F, C, F, C, F. The lyrics are: "To plough once in the win-ter sow-ing, and a-gain in Lent, sow-ing with as ma-ny ox-en sow-ing with as ma-ny ox-en as he shall have yoked in the plough." oh yes... oh yes... "as

PROF. JONES: But of course there is considerable evidence of open-field villages as far back as the tenth century. Professor Moorhead:

Poco Glitteroso

Musical score for "Poco Glitteroso" in C major, 4/4 time. The melody is more rhythmic and includes a 12/8 section. Chords are indicated above the staff: G, B \flat , C, E \flat , C, C, C, Am, Dm, G. The lyrics are: There's e-vi-dence There's e-vi-dence (E-vi-dence?) E-vi-dence (E-vi-dence?) There's e-vi-dence (E-vi-dence?) E-vi-dence of set-tle-ments with one long vil-lage street, PROF. JONES: This is not to say of course that the system was as sophisticated as it later came to be. I asked the Professor of Mediaeval Studies at Cambridge why this was.

PROF. HEGERMANN: Well it may not have been a statutory obligation, but I mean, a guy who was a freeman was obliged in the mediaeval system to...

PROF. JONES: To do boonwork?

PROF. HEGERMANN: That's right. There's an example from the village rolls in 1313.

PROF. JONES: And I believe you're going to do it for us.

PROF. HEGERMANN: That's right, yes...

I'm so worried about the fashions today
I don't think they're good for your feet
And I'm so worried about the shoes on TV
That sometimes they want to repeat

I'm so worried about what's happening today, you know
And I'm worried about the baggage retrieval

I'm so worried about modern technology
I'm so worried about all the things that they dump in the sea
I'm so worried about it, worried about it Worried, worried, worried...

I'm so worried about everything that can go wrong
I'm so worried about whether people like this song
I'm so worried about this very next verse
It isn't the best that I've got
And I'm so worried about whether I should go on Or whether I shouldn't just stop

I'm worried about whether I ought to have stopped
And I'm worried because it's the sort of thing I ought to know
And I'm so worried about the baggage retrieval
System they've got at Heathrow

I'm so worried about whether I should have stopped then I'm so worried that I'm driving everyone round the bend
I'm worried about the baggage retrieval
System they've got at Heathrow

All Things Dull & Ugly

*All things dull and ugly
All creatures short and squat
All things rude and nasty
The Lord God made the lot*

*Each little snake that poisons
Each little wasp that stings
He made their brutish venom
He made their horrid wings*

*All things sick and cancerous
All evil great and small
All things foul and dangerous

*Each nasty little hornet
Each beastly little squid
Who made the spikey urchin?
Who made the sharks? He did.*

*All things scabbed and ulcerous
All pox both great and small
Putrid, foul and gangrenous
The Lord God made them all*

Afterword.....

by a prominent health specialist

Many people, after reading a book like this, may well prepare a salad or a timbale des fruits without washing their hands. This can lead to itching, discomfort and bottom problems.

It is imperative after reading explicitly musical material to wash, scrub, scour, or better still, sand-blast your hands before doing anything else. In fact, to be totally safe, we suggest you cut them off and put them somewhere well away from dirt. This does not mean you can make a salad with the stumps. In fact, if you want to avoid serious illness, don't make salad at all, or read books, or better still, be alive. I've been dead for over a year now and can honestly say I've never felt better.

Yours sincerely,

Brigadier N.Q.T.F. Sixpence (Mrs)

Penis Song

not the Noël Coward Song

Good evening, ladies and gentlemen.
Here's a little number I tossed off recently in the Caribbean.

Frightfully witty !

*Isn't it awfully nice to have a penis,
Isn't it frightfully good to have a dong?
It's swell to have a stiffy,
It's divine to own a dick,
From the tiniest little tadger,
To the world's biggest prick.*

*So three cheers for your Willy or John Thomas, Hooray for your one-eyed trouser snake,
Your piece of pork, your wife's best friend,
Your Percy or your cock,
You can wrap it up in ribbons,
You can slip it in your sock,
But don't take it out in public,
Or they will stick you in the dock,
And you won't come back.*

Middleword by E. F. God

When I created the world in those amazingly busy seven days, I remember it as being a tremendously exciting period. There was so much to do that I honestly had hardly any time to notice what I was creating. I know that sounds awful, but I think anyone who's created anything will realise that very often you become so tied up with whatever it is you're creating that you can't see the wood for the trees - and I was creating the wood and the trees!

I mean, some days were great. The first day of course we couldn't see a bloody thing. I mean, I actually had to invent light just so we could see what we were doing! Sounds crazy now, doesn't it! Once I'd got the hang of it and done the basics there were some very exciting moments, though. The firmament, which I did on the second day, was great because, to be quite honest, I had no idea what a firmament really was, I just had to have something to divide the waters from the waters, and it turned out to be just right for that purpose. I also liked the tree yielding fruit. I don't know, it just had a nice ring to it. I suppose, now, with the benefit of hindsight, perhaps I should have just stuck to the tree and forgotten the fruit, but I liked the fruit and I didn't know Adam and Eve would make such a bollocks of it (excuse my French). I've been quite criticised over the years for letting them loose in the Garden of Eden, but I gave them Free Will and they decided that rather than write poetry or sing to each other or invent a board game they'd go and talk to snakes. All right, I accept that there was an inherent risk but honestly, if you could have the choice to do anything you wanted in the loveliest garden ever made, with rivers and trees yielding fruit all over the place, would you seek out the nearest snake and ask how you could best get a rise out of the park-keeper? The next thing is that poor old Muggins is being blamed for everything from the Black Death to setting fire to Windsor Castle. There is no evidence in any of my utterances that I tampered with the wiring in the Long Gallery, just below the little French satinwood side-table where the Queen keeps the telephone directories, and if you can find the phrase "And then God created buboes", then all right, I decimated Europe, personally, in the fourteenth century. (I mean, I created Europe in the first place, why would I want to decimate it?) Sorry to go on but there is a downside to being Creator (my capitals).

Now various people have written to me and asked why I didn't create music and if I had created it would I have created reggae or funk or ska or something classical. Well, without getting too heavy I have to remind you that I created Man (and, call me a sexist pig, but some days I wish I'd left it there) and left him to come up with whatever he wanted. Well, we all know now that the silly sod chose sin, and that's water under the bridge, but I have to say that there are some things that he thought up which have given me a little quiet pride, and music is one of them. Now, a lot of what I call Brown-nose music, you know, all that "How Great Thou Art, Wonderful God" etc., etc., doesn't do a thing for me, and if I hear another organ I might well reconsider about the buboes. What I like is a song which just goes straight to the heart of things. What could summon up the joy of creation more than "Isn't It Frightfully Nice to Have a Penis"? I mean, thank you, whoever wrote that. Thank you. I was at my lowest ebb when I created the penis. It was, quite frankly, a rush job and I thought it looked a bit daft. So it's jolly good to hear someone thanking me for it. "I've Got Two Legs", there's another. It's all very well producing Organ Sonatas and Oratorios, but no one ever stops to consider that without two legs you can't reach the bloody pedals! (Excuse my French.) It is for all these reasons that I believe the Monty Python songs will live long after Mozart and Beethoven and Crispian St Peters have been forgotten. I can truly say that these songs are recommended by God.

There are Jews in the world,
 There are Buddhists,
 There are Hindus and Mormons and then,
 There are those that follow Mohammed,
 But I've never been one of them...
 I'm a Roman Catholic,
 And have been since before I was born,
 And the one thing they say about Catholics,
 Is they'll take you as soon as you're warm...
 You don't have to be a six-footer,
 You don't have to have a great brain,
 You don't have to have any clothes on You're a Catholic the moment Dad came...
 Because...

Every sperm is sacred,
 Every sperm is great,
 If a sperm is wasted,
 God gets quite irate.

Let the heathen spill theirs,
 On the dusty ground,
 God shall make them pay for Each sperm that can't be found.

Every sperm is wanted,
 Every sperm is good,
 Every sperm is needed
 In your neighbourhood.

Hindu, Taoist, Mormon,
 Spill theirs just anywhere,
 But God loves those who treat their Semen with more care.

Every sperm is sacred,
 Every sperm is great,
 If a sperm is wasted,
 God gets quite irate.

Every sperm is sacred,
 Every sperm is good,
 Every sperm is needed
 In your neighbourhood.

Every sperm is useful,
 Every sperm is fine,
 God needs everybody's,
 Mine!
 And mine!
 And mine!

Let the pagan spill theirs,
 O'er mountain, hill and plain,
 God shall strike them down for Each sperm that's spilt in vain.

Every sperm is sacred,
 Every sperm is good,
 Every sperm is needed
 In your neighbourhood.

Every sperm is sacred,
 Every sperm is great,
 If a sperm is wasted,
 God gets quite irate.

The meaning of

Why are we here, what's life all about? Is God really real, or is there some doubt? Well, tonight we're going to sort it all out, for tonight it's the Meaning of Life. What's the point of all this hoax? Is it the chicken and the egg time, are we just yolks? Or perhaps we're just one of God's little jokes, well, ça c'est the Meaning of Life. Is life just a game where we make up the rules, while we're searching for something to say, or are we just simply spiralling coils of self-replicating DNA? In this life, what is our fate? Is there Heaven and Hell? Do we reincarnate? Is mankind evolving or is it too late? Well, tonight here's the Meaning of Life. For millions this life is a sad vale of tears, sitting round with rien, nothing to say, while the scientists say we're just simply spiralling coils of self-replicating DNA. So just why, why are we here? And just what, what, what, what do we fear? Well ce soir, for a change, it will all be made clear, for this is the Meaning of Life – c'est le sens de la vie – this is the Meaning of Life.

Don't just stand there gasping like you've never seen any blood in your life.

GALAXY SONG

Whenever life gets you down, Mrs Brown, and things seem hard or tough, and people are stupid, obnoxious or daft, and you feel that you've had quite enough...

Just re - mem - ber that you're stan - ding on a pla - net that's e - vol - ving, And re - vo - lving at nine hun - dred miles an hour, That's or - bi - ting at nine - teen miles a se - cond, so it's rec - koned, A sun that is the source of all our power. The sun and you and me and all the stars that we can see, Are mo - ving at a mil - lion miles a day, In an ou - ter spi - ral arm, at for - ty thou - sand miles an hour, Of the Ga - lax - y we call the Mil - ky Way.

Our Galaxy itself contains 100 billion stars
It's 100,000 light years side to side,
It bulges in the middle, 16,000 light years thick
But out by us it's just 3,000 light years wide
We're 30,000 light years from galactic central point,
We go round every 200 million years
And our Galaxy is only one of millions of billions
In this amazing and expanding Universe.

The Universe itself keeps on expanding and expanding
In all of the directions it can whizz
As fast as it can go, at the speed of light you know, 12 million miles a minute, and that's the fastest speed there is.
So remember when you're feeling very small and insecure
How amazingly unlikely is your birth
And pray that there's intelligent life somewhere up in space
Because there's buggers all down here on Earth.
